23 NOT TO GO TO THE JURY.)

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I was just saying his,
25 for instance, he says Eugene Crockett, Jr., "Do not 26 know all the facts on the death penalty." That was 27 what he said. I am not denying that when he got,
28 when he was asked a question out here, that he 29 expressed some reservations, very carefully, but he

1           did express some reservations. Then when he got on
2           the stand-- well, no, he never got on the stand.
3           What he did, what he did was he ultimately said he
4           came to grips with it. He said that if it was the 5           responsibility of a citizen to consider it, I will
6           consider it. And I think that's all we can ask of
7           him.

8           BY THE COURT: I think though that the reasons
9           that he gave are legitimate reasons on a peremptory
10          challenge, and therefore, I will sustain what is 11          now S-5 to Mr. Crockett.

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is now S-5?

13          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. Okay, 27 and 32 and 14          33 are tendered to you. I assume you take 27?

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will take 27.

16          BY THE COURT: How about 32?

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: 32, I would challenge, would 18          be D, would be a challenge. That is D-4, I
19          believe.

20          BY THE COURT: Okay, how about 33?

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: You know I just challenged
22          32?

23          BY THE COURT: Right. I just struck him off.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry. I thought
25          you -- 33 would also be a challenge.

26          BY THE COURT: Okay.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: As D-5.

28          BY THE COURT: I think I need two more.

29          BY MR. EVANS: 34 is already tendered.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, he has tendered 34. And
2 what about 35? You have got to have two more.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: He hasn't taken that one yet
4 though.

5                   BY THE COURT: Well, he doesn't have to until 6 you tender twelve.

7                   BY MR. EVANS: Well, I tendered three, and he 8 has only gone through two of them.

9                   BY THE COURT: You tendered--

10                  BY MR. EVANS: I tendered 32, 33 and 34.

11                  BY THE COURT: Okay. We'll do it that way.
12 What do you say to 34?

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: What do I say to 34? I would 14 challenge 34.

15                  BY THE COURT: Hold on. Let's see how many I
16 do need now. I have got ten. I need two more.

17                  BY MR. EVANS: Tender 35. Tender 36.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is it on me, Judge?

19                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would challenge both of 21 those individuals.

22                  BY THE COURT: All right, that is D-7 and 23 D-8. How about 37 and 38?

24                  BY MR. EVANS: Tender both of them.

25                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I am at D-8; is that
26 correct, Judge?

27                  BY THE COURT: You have used eight.

28                  BY MR. EVANS: --I tender 37 and strike number
29 38, Your Honor.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay. S-6; is that right?

2                   BY MR. HORAN: Hold on just a minute, Judge.

3                   (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

4                   BY THE COURT: Where are we?

5                   BY MR. EVANS: Right now we have tendered 37,
6 and we are trying to decide on 38. We will tender
7 38 also.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay, 37 and 38 are tendered.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, and we have--
10 our challenges have been used up to D-8; is that
11 correct?

12                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Those two we have to decide.
14 We want to look at the questionnaire of 37 one more
15 time.

16                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would accept both of those 18 jurors.

19                  BY THE COURT: Okay. That is twelve then.
20 Okay, I think we need two alternates. Let's see.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: How many strikes do you have
22 for alternates? When you are choosing alternates,
23 how many strikes do you have?

24                  BY THE COURT: Well, that's what I'm going to 25 look up. You are going to get one per alternate, I
26 think.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: How many alternates are you
28 choosing?

29                  BY THE COURT: Huh?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: How many alternates are you
2 going to choose?

3 BY THE COURT: I'm going to get two.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Are you ready?

6 BY THE COURT: Well, let me get to that.

7 (Pause while the Court is looking at the Rule
8 book.)

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, you get two peremptories.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you, Judge.

11 BY MR. EVANS: That is two per alternate or 12 one per alternate?

13 BY THE COURT: "The peremptory challenges
14 shall equal the number of alternate jurors the 15 Court has ordered to be selected."

16 BY MR. EVANS: So it will be a total of two 17 however--

18 BY THE COURT: --It will be a total of two,
19 however you want to do them.

20 BY MR. EVANS: All right, Your Honor, the 21 State will use S-A1 on juror number 39, who is a
22 white male, so I assume I don't have to give 23 reason even though he was tried and found not 24 guilty. And the State will tender 41 as the first
25 alternate.

26 BY THE COURT: Is 40 gone?

27 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, for cause.

28 BY THE COURT: What do you say to Mr. Kreeger
29 as the first alternate?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is Ms. Kreeger.

2 BY THE COURT: I'm sorry; it is.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would-- now how does this 4 work?

5 BY THE COURT: Well, you get two. You get two
6 challenges. You can--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --use them any way I want.

8 BY THE COURT: Any way you want. But he only
9 has to tender one alternate at a time.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I see. All right, we would 11 accept Ms. Kreeger.

12 BY THE COURT: All right. She is the first
13 alternate then. All right, tender me one more.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Tender 42 as the second
15 alternate.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: To me, Judge? I would
17 challenge 42.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, that will be DA-1.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Tender number 44.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would challenge 44.

21 BY THE COURT: That would be DA-2.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Tender 45.

23 BY THE COURT: That puts 45 on. All right,
24 gentlemen. Let me go over these names with you.
25 Number 3, Mr. Moleta; number 6, Ms. Ladner; number
26 9, Ms. O'Neal; number 13, Ms. Young; number 16,
27 Ms.-- Mr. Dobson; number 20, Ms. Ballman; number
28 21, Ms. Partridge; number 25, Ms. Pell; number 26,
29 Ms. Lee; number 27, Mr. Cole; number 37, Ms. Hall;

1                   number 38 - is that right?

2                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3                   BY THE COURT: 38 is Mr. Thurston. And
4                   number 41, Ms. Kreeger, is the first alternate.
5                   Number 45, Ms. Anderson, is the second alternate.
6                   That agree with y'all's list?

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. It does.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to call the 9                   jury back in, and we will get these seated, and 10                  then I will dismiss the others. Let me get the 11                  Clerk in here because I think she wanted to see the 12                  jurors that were dismissed.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach just-- well,
14                  we don't have to approach. Let me just ask you a 15                  question, Judge. Now these jurors are going to 16                  have to go home and get their clothes, aren't they?

17                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, we are going to deal with 18                  that just as soon as I get them in here.

19                  (Deputy Clerk enters the courtroom and confers
20                  with the Court.)

21                  BY THE COURT: All right, you may bring the
22                  jury in.

23                  (JURY PANEL ENTERS THE COURTROOM.)

24                  BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to call out the 25                  names of you who have been chosen to sit on this 26                  jury and ask you to come up and be seated in the 27                  jury box. There are twelve jurors and two 28                  alternates. Number 3, Mr. Moleta; number 6, Ms.
29                  Ladner; number 9, Ms. O'Neal; number 13, Ms. Young;

1           number 16, Mr. Dobson; number 20, Ms. Ballman;
2           number 21, Ms. Partridge; number 25, Ms. Pell;
3           number 26, Ms. Lee; number 27, Mr. Cole; number 37,
4           Ms. Hall; number 38, Mr. Thurston. Mr. Thurston,
5           okay. The first alternate is Ms. Kreeger, and the 6           second alternate is Ms. Anderson, Ms. Phyllis
7           Anderson. Where is Ms. Anderson? Here she is.

8                     (Jurors come forward and are seated in the 9           jury box.)

10           BY THE COURT: I always have to say this. I
11           lost one one time in Attala County, so I want to 12           make sure I'm not losing one again. Mr. Moleta?

13                     BY MR. JOSEPH MOLETA: Here.

14           BY THE COURT: Ms. Ladner?

15                     BY MS. BETTY LADNER: Here.

16           BY THE COURT: Ms. O'Neal?

17                     BY MS. REBECCA O'NEAL: Here.

18           BY THE COURT: Ms. Young?

19                     BY MS. CAROL YOUNG: Here.

20           BY THE COURT: Mr. Dobson?

21                     BY MR. DAVID DOBSON: Here.

22           BY THE COURT: Ms. Ballman?

23                     BY MS. CINDY BALLMAN: Here.

24           BY THE COURT: Ms. Partridge?

25                     BY MS. SUSAN PARTRIDGE: Here.

26           BY THE COURT: Ms. Pell?

27                     BY MS. EMMA PELL: Here.

28           BY THE COURT: Ms. Lee?

29                     BY MS. STEPHANIE LEE: Here.

1                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Cole?

2                   BY MR. TYRON COLE: Here.

3                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Hall?

4                   BY MS. GWYNNE HALL: Here.

5                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Thurston?

6                   BY MR. DANIEL THURSTON: Here.

7                   BY THE COURT: And Ms. Kreeger?

8                   BY MS. CHARLENE KREEGER: Here.

9                   BY THE COURT: And Ms. Anderson?

10                  BY MS. PHYLLIS ANDERSON: Here.

11                  BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we now
12 have a jury in this case, so that completes your 13 service here today and for this week. You are 14 through. I very much appreciate you being here and 15 participating in this. It is necessary for a 16 number of citizens as you can see to participate in 17 this so that we are able to get a jury. It has 18 been my pleasure to serve with you, but with that,
19 I will bid you adieu. Wait just a minute. Wait just 20 one minute. Ms. Parker wants to say something.

21                  (Pause while the Court confers with the 22 Circuit Clerk, Ms. Parker.)

23                  BY THE COURT: Well, sorry about that. If 24 y'all will wait just a second.

25                  (Pause while the Deputy Clerk left the 26 courtroom to see if the jurors were needed down the 27 hall.)

28                  BY THE COURT: Do you want to go ahead and 29 swear them?

1 BY MS. GAYLE PARKER, CIRCUIT CLERK: Yeah.

2 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, there is
3 a special oath that you have to take as jurors in 4 this case, and I ask you if you would stand, the 5 Clerk will swear you.

6 BY THE CLERK: Please raise your right hands.
7 Do you and each of you solemnly swear or affirm
8 that you will well and truly try the issue between 9 the State of Mississippi and Curtis Giovanni
10 Flowers and a true verdict render according to the 11 evidence and the law so help you God?

12 BY ALL JURORS: I do.

13 BY THE COURT: All right, and I would ask the 14 bailiffs to come around, and they need to take an 15 oath too. Mr. Bridges is going to be a bailiff in 16 this case, but he is not going to tend to the 17 jury. He is going to tend to me.

18 BY THE CIRCUIT CLERK: Do you and each of you
19 solemnly swear or affirm that you will perform the 20 duties of bailiff and to attend to such jury and 21 perform such duties as the Court may direct to the 22 best of your skill and understanding and ability,
23 so help you God.

24 BY FOUR BAILIFFS: I do.

25 BY THE COURT: I am waiting for some-- I have
26 got to have some information from Judge Walker's
27 Court. As soon as I do, I will-- y'all may be 28 seated; I'm sorry.

29 (Pause while waiting on deputy clerk to

1 return.)

2 BY THE COURT: Let me ask you some questions
3 while we are waiting. How many of you brought your 4 luggage?

5 (Most of the jurors raised their hands.)

6 BY THE COURT: Look a there. I told y'all
7 they would do that. Okay. Let's see, Ms. Pell,
8 you did not, and who else? Okay, Mr. Cole. And 9 Ms.?

10 BY JUROR MS. BETTY LADNER: Ladner.

11 BY THE COURT: Ladner, right. And also Ms.
12 Kreeger; is that right? Okay, can somebody bring 13 it to you, or do you need somebody to take you to 14 get it?

15 BY JUROR MS. LADNER: My husband can bring 16 mine.

17 BY THE COURT: How about you, Ms. Pell?

18 BY JUROR MS. PELL: I can have somebody bring 19 it to me.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay, whatever. I will do
21 either way.

22 BY JUROR MS. PELL: I can have someone bring
23 it.

24 BY JUROR MS. KREEGER: I can call my husband.

25 BY THE COURT: Since y'all have been sworn--
26 oh, I'm sorry, Mr. Cole.

27 BY JUROR MR. COLE: I need to go.

28 BY THE COURT: Can somebody bring it to you?

29 BY JUROR MR. COLE: No.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, I will have one of the 2 bailiffs then go with you to your house and get
3 your luggage and bring it back up here. Okay. I
4 tell you what I'm going to do. I'm going to let 5 y'all go to the jury room under the care of the 6 bailiffs, and they will see that you have access to 7 a phone to make that call that you need to make to 8 get your stuff delivered. Mr. Cole, we will make 9 some arrangements for somebody to go with you to 10 get your luggage.

11                   (The Court confers with the Bailiff briefly.)

12                   BY THE COURT: Yes. I'm going to allow you to 13 make a phone call under the direction of the 14 bailiff to your home to tell them that you are,
15 have been selected on this jury. Of course, as you
16 know from my instructions earlier in the case, the 17 only thing you can really tell them is you can tell
18 them that or tell them any needs that you might 19 have to be sent up here. You cannot discuss this 20 case at all with them, but you can-- yes, ma'am?

22                   BY A FEMALE JUROR: Approximately the time?

23                   BY THE COURT: That you will be here?

24                   BY A JUROR: Yes.

25                   BY THE COURT: Well, if it was up to me, we 26 would probably be through tomorrow. But the 27 lawyers dictate that somewhat and the order of 28 proof, and I think we will be here certainly into 29 Saturday.

1                   BY ANOTHER FEMALE JUROR: Okay. Is there some
2                   kind of a phone number that we can give them in 3                   case of emergency?

4                   BY THE COURT: Yes, there sure will be, and we
5                   will get that number, or the bailiffs will supply
6                   you with that number, and you can all make a phone
7                   call. In that phone call you can give that
8                   information or anything like that. If you need
9                   anything any time during this trial, you get hold
10                  of the bailiffs, and you tell them what you need,
11                  and they will get in touch with me, and we will see 12                  that you get taken care of. You will be staying at 13                  the Holiday Inn. Any other questions? Okay.
14                  Y'all can go to the jury room and start that 15                  process.

16                  (JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.)

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Now the better news -
18                  they don't need you, so you are free to go. Thank
19                  y'all.

20                  (THE REST OF THE JURY PANEL LEAVES THE
21                  COURTROOM.)

22                  BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all up here.

23                  (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WITH THE JURY OUT AS
24                  FOLLOWS:)

25                  BY THE COURT: It is now 4 o'clock. Mr. Cole
26                  has to go get his luggage. The others have to make 27                  all those phone calls and all like that. Is there 28                  any point in us trying to start this thing this
29                  afternoon?

1 BY MR. EVANS: It is up to the Court, whatever
2 the Court.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't think so.

4 BY MR. HORAN: As long as we go to midnight
5 tomorrow night.

6 BY THE COURT: We will go to 5:00 tomorrow.
7 After that, we will go whatever y'all want to.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You are granting our motion
9 for - what is that motion we always file? You
10 granted it?

11 BY THE COURT: Right, 5:00 tomorrow.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Tomorrow.

13 BY THE COURT: But I am willing to do what 14 y'all want to but--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think, you know, from 16 my point of view this case requires a decent
17 opening statement, so I would think--

18 BY THE COURT: I don't think we can get Mr.
19 Cole's luggage here before 4:30. I think we would 20 be starting the case at 4:30. I don't want to do
21 that. I think that is pushing it too hard. But 22 here is what I would like to do. The jury has got 23 nowhere to go. Let's get started at 8:30 in the 24 morning. All right?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

26 BY MR. HORAN: Could we today-- we have
27 pre-marked the photographs. I asked Harvey to go
28 through the photographs, pick out the ones they 29 were going to have objections to, and I don't know

1           that you are going to have any objection to any of 2           them. It is 59 of them. I don't know if you are 3           or not.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We probably will.

5           BY MR. HORAN: It may be that we could do that
6           today.

7           BY THE COURT: Well, I tell you what we're
8           going to do. You can do that motion in limine.

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, this is what I would 10          ask, Judge. Harvey is going to be doing it. If we 11          can do this, why don't we do that 8:30? It will be 12          over by 9:00. See, you are putting pressure on--

13          BY THE COURT: --Raise your right hand. I'm 14          going to put you under oath.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I wouldn't put my right
16          hand on the, what is this, the law.

17          BY THE COURT: You know that don't count.

18          (Laughter.)

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

20          BY THE COURT: Okay, I will do that at 8:30.
21          But I really, we have got to get started at 9:00.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are going to do that.
23          Plus you are putting pressure on me. 9 o'clock, I
24          was here at 9:00, you realize that.

25          BY THE COURT: Yeah, I know. You cut it
26          close, but according to Judge Walker's clocks and I
27          will go by it.

28          BY MR. EVANS: What are we talking about as 29          far as opening statements? How long do you want us

1 to go on them?

2 BY THE COURT: Well, both-- you understand I
3 don't, me and you have done it. I'm going to give
4 you ample time to argue the case at the end of it.
5 Opening statements, I'm going to tell this jury
6 that they are not evidence whatsoever, and you
7 should just really tell them what you expect to 8 prove. At the end I will give you whatever time
9 you require to argue it after you have got the 10 evidence in.

11 BY MR. EVANS: 10 or 15 minutes?

12 BY THE COURT: Fifteen okay with you?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

14 BY THE COURT: How about twenty?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Why don't you give half an 16 hour, and I may not take it all. I mean really,
17 seriously. Believe me, I'm not going to argue the 18 case. I want to give my statement of what the case
19 is, but there is a lot of explaining here of what 20 we expect to show up. So I say give me 30; I
21 probably won't use it all.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. I will do that.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Just be more stuff for me to go
24 into.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that is fine.

26 BY MR. HORAN: Harvey, do you want to go--
27 have you picked out the photographs you are going 28 to object to?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have any--

1           BY THE COURT: --Let me go over this with
2           y'all. Y'all know a week from Sunday is Easter,
3           don't you? We have all got to be home.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, you have got to be home?

5           BY THE COURT: Right.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me--

7           BY THE COURT: --Harvey, you have got a plane
8           to catch, don't you?

9           BY MR. FREELON: Yeah, I do. Friday after 10          next.

11          BY THE COURT: I am being facetious, but I am
12          saying let's try to, let's move it along.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't want to be here
14          Easter. I don't mind being here but not in this 15          capacity.

16          BY THE COURT: Right.

17                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

1 (COURT WAS CONVENED AT 8:30 A.M. ON WEDNESDAY,
2 MARCH 24, 1999, WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE
3 DEFENDANT PRESENT IN THE COURTROOM BUT WITH THE JURY OUT.
4 PROCEEDINGS ON MOTIONS IN LIMINE WERE AS FOLLOWS:)

5 BY THE COURT: Y'all ready?

6 BY MR. FREELON: Yes, sir. First of all,
7 Judge, I think I'm going to be a little shorter
8 than Doug and Chokwe usually be, so you don't have
9 to worry about that with me, okay.

10 BY THE COURT: I'm going to let you do all the 11 questioning then.

12 BY MR. FREELON: No. Look, we are bringing on 13 this morning a couple of Motions in Limine that we 14 want to raise with the Court. We think that the 15 prosecutor is probably already aware of some of the 16 Motions in Limine. Basically, what we are going to 17 be doing is raising some of the issues that was 18 raised on appeal from the last trial. Now I know
19 you have plenty of work to do. You haven't had an 20 opportunity to probably read that 150 page brief,
21 but it is basically some of those same issues that 22 we feel like not only is it necessary, but it is 23 also an obligation that we raise those same issues
24 that was raised on appeal.

25 The first issue that we want to try to raise
26 to exclude, want to file a Motion to Exclude 27 Evidence regarding any evidence relating to the 28 death of Bertha Tardy, Carmen Rigby, or Robert
29 Golden. Now we noted this Court has already said

1           that some evidence is going to have to come in. As
2           a matter of fact, during the voir dire, we talked
3           about four murders or four deaths, and, Judge, we
4           probably understand that it is almost impossible
5           not to mention that four deaths occurred.

6           But what we are concerned with is the 7           testimony from a lot of the other witnesses, such 8           as Melissa Schoene. I think she is the person who 9           took most of the pictures, and she is going to, she 10          is going to introduce a lot of the evidence as far
11          as some of those pictures that she took and some of 12          the evidence, for instance, some of the pictures of 13          Bertha Tardy. Okay, well, we are saying in this 14          matter a picture of Bertha Tardy or a picture, any 15          pictures that has to do with Robert Golden or any 16          picture that has to do with Carmen Rigby, well, 17          those pictures does not add any relevancy to 18          whether or not Mr. Flowers committed the crime.

19          And as you know, in Stringer the Court asks
20          the question: Is the evidence necessary to 21          establish the guilt of the Defendant in the murder
22          of the victim? So that's what we are raising the 23          issue today, Your Honor, because we want the State
24          to stick to the issue of the death of the person in 25          question which is BoBo Stewart. We do understand
26          that some certain crime scenes photos has to be
27          shown, Your Honor.

28          But to give you another example, some of the 29          projectiles recovered near Robert Golden. Well, a

1 projectile that was recovered near Robert Golden
2 has no relevancy to this matter here, Your Honor.
3 We understand that a lot of projectiles were
4 recovered, but we are only talking about one murder
5 in this specific trial, so I think this Court
6 should be concerned only with those projectiles or
7 most of those projectiles that was recovered
8 somewhere near BoBo Stewart. The projectiles and 9 the casings that was recovered near Bertha Tardy,
10 who was nowhere near where BoBo Stewart was at,
11 Your Honor, we say that those are not, those 12 pictures and those projectiles and those casings
13 are not relevant in this matter. But especially 14 those pictures are not relevant in this matter.

15 Also, Sam Jones' testimony. Sam Jones
16 testified on many occasions about the different
17 bodies, how he found the different bodies. Well,
18 Your Honor, once again, we are only concerned with,
19 I think it is BoBo Stewart. We are only concerned
20 with Stewart in this matter. We are only concerned
21 with what condition Stewart was in, not the 22 condition of Bertha Tardy, not the condition Robert 23 Golden was in. So I think Sam Jones went off into 24 extensive testimony about where he found them at.
25 If we look back at the last transcript at the last
26 trial, that type of evidence almost had any
27 relevancy to whether or not Curtis Flowers
28 committed this murder, no relevancy whatsoever.

29 Another person who testified Steven Hayne, Dr.

1 Hayne testified and, of course, several pictures
2 was introduced. Now we did speak on yesterday for
3 the Court's sake. Some of those pictures will not
4 be introduced. We have been told some of those 5 pictures that were introduced last time would not
6 be introduced. We did speak briefly with the State
7 on yesterday. So some of those problems may be 8 alleviated this time around. But, of course, we 9 are raising those objections and asking that those 10 pictures that has nothing to do or anything that 11 has nothing to do with Stewart not be introduced
12 into evidence.

13 So evidence as far as testimony from Sam
14 Jones, testimony from Melissa Schoene, and 15 testimony from Dr. Hayne, any of their testimony
16 that concerns the other three victims, Your Honor,
17 we are asking that that be excluded from this trial
18 because specifically, we are dealing with the death
19 of Mr. Stewart. He is the victim in this matter,
20 and I am quite sure the Court well knows that,
21 "Testimony in criminal trials should be contained
22 to charge for which accused is trial"-- "Testimony
23 in criminal trials should be confined to the charge
24 for which the accused is on trial, and the 25 prosecution should not be allowed to aid the proof
26 against accused by showing he committed other
27 offenses."

28 And I think, Your Honor, by bringing those 29 other three other offenses in, of course, that's

1           what we would be allowing the State and the
2           prosecution to do here today. So that is the first
3           Motion in Limine. I guess I will let the State
4           respond to that.

5           BY THE COURT: All right.

6           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would like for 7           the Court, if the Court would, address whether or
8           not -- I believe, to refresh my memory, that we did
9           address this pretrial, did we not? The relevant
10          403, 404 issue? Did you make a record on that in 11          pretrial motions filed in this particular case? I
12          believe you did.

13          BY THE COURT: I don't know.

14          BY MR. HORAN: I think we did that in Tupelo.
15          But nonetheless--

16          BY THE COURT: As to what? As to whether or 17          not the other killings are going to be admissible?

18          BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. As to whether or not 19          you did a--

20          BY THE COURT: --Well, I have already ruled on 21          voir dire. I ruled in voir dire that you are going
22          to be able to get into it, and both parties
23          discussed it in voir dire. So the fact that other 24          people were killed is going to get in.

25          BY MR. HORAN: I guess my main concern is 26          whether or not the Court on the record has 27          previously balanced, applied the balancing test
28          under 403 and 404.

29          BY THE COURT: Well, if I have not, let me

1 rule now that I find that based-- the evidence that
2 would show that there are other killings is, has 3 more probative value than prejudicial effect, and 4 therefore it is admissible at least to some 5 extent.

6 BY MR. HORAN: Limited, yes, sir. And let
7 me-- I want to go ahead and since the Court has
8 made that finding, to go into what the State
9 anticipates we would introduce. We would
10 anticipate that we would not introduce any autopsy
11 photographs of the other three victims. We did not 12 do that at the last trial.

13 BY THE COURT: That is my memory.

14 BY MR. HORAN: We do anticipate that we would 15 use the diagram on Mr. Golden, the diagram on Mr.
16 Stewart, probably not the diagram on Bertha Tardy,
17 but would use the diagram on Carmen Rigby, and I am
18 making reference to-- the Court is well aware of 19 the diagram that Dr. Hayne uses in his autopsy
20 which is an official document that he uses.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

22 BY THE COURT: --Well, are you talking about--
23 is that the diagram of the store?

24 BY MR. HORAN: Of their bodies, no, sir. The 25 diagrams of the entry wounds of those particular
26 bodies, and I will go into the reason that is more 27 relevant this time than it was at the last trial is 28 because we anticipate having an expert that would 29 testify that one of the projectiles or two of the

1           projectiles that were not identified as being a
2           positive match to the projectile retrieved from the
3           post at Doyle Simpson's residence matched. They 4           matched each other as well as the one in the 5           mattress that was recovered a day or two day
6           after. That is why that makes that more relevant
7           this time than it did, it would have been at the 8           last trial.

9           Your Honor, I think as you well know and we
10          have stated this position before, that Mr. Jones,
11          Sam Jones' testimony regarding what he found at the 12          scene is certainly relevant and probative. There
13          is absolutely no way that the State can present a 14          complete picture to this jury without explaining 15          why certain other employees in a furniture store
16          weren't there at 9:30 in the morning to either be 17          witnesses or whatever, or what happened to them as 18          well as generally what was found at the scene.

19          I think the Carr and Simon cases both address
20          that, and the Court is well aware of those two 21          cases as well as Neal v. State. It is whether or 22          not, the test is whether or not the State can
23          present its case in a rational, coherent fashion.
24          It's not whether or not it's prejudicial. It is 25          whether or not the crime scene has to be explained
26          to this jury that knows absolutely nothing about 27          this matter. There is absolutely no way that the 28          State could present its case in a rational manner
29          without presenting Mr. Jones', what Mr. Jones saw

1 as well as what Melissa Schoene, what her-- she is
2 a crime scene expert, what she found, what she
3 recovered, and all the projectiles which as the
4 Court well knows, at the last trial were identified
5 as coming from the same gun, same type of gun, and
6 now an expert will testify that certain projectiles
7 matched each other as well as one recovered from a
8 distant location.

9 And that's all I have on this Motion.

10 BY MR. FREELON: Give a response?

11 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, just one other
13 thing.

14 BY THE COURT: I have got a question for 15 y'all.

16 BY MR. HORAN: All right.

17 BY THE COURT: What is that outside the 18 door? Is that a TV camera?

19 BY MR. EVANS: That is probably bringing their 20 slide screen in and waiting until we get through.

21 BY THE COURT: Oh, Okay. Well, you know me; I
22 can't see that far. I don't want the TV folks out
23 there filming through the door.

24 BY MR. EVANS: I think that is our office
25 bringing the slides in.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Were you through?

27 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. I will respond if
28 necessary.

29 BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, I understand that

1           the test becomes is it more probative than
2           prejudicial, but the shots of Robert Golden is not
3           probative at all, Your Honor. It has no probative
4           value other than to show a picture of Robert
5           Golden. This is not Robert Golden's trial. There
6           will be-- if the State decides to bring that in the 7           future, we will deal with that or Mr. Flowers. We 8           will have to deal with that in the future, but at 9           this point in time Mr. Golden is not on trial. So
10          the picture of Mr. Golden lying in some blood has 11          absolutely no probative value.

12                 So if there was some probative value that
13          outweighed the prejudicial value, Your Honor, maybe
14          we, you know, we could say it may be okay, but as 15          it stands right now, Your Honor, there is no
16          probative value as far as to the guilt or innocence
17          especially. It doesn't make it more probable or 18          less probable at all that because you show a
19          picture of another victim laying in some blood that 20          Mr. Flowers committed this crime. So we are saying
21          that that has no probative value even before you
22          even get to that balancing test, Your Honor. So
23          that is the reason that we are asking that the 24          picture of Robert Golden be completely stricken
25          from this matter because there is no probative
26          value in trying to determine whether this gentleman
27          here committed those murders, Your Honor.

28                 BY THE COURT: Okay. They are entitled to 29          show the entire, to present the jury with the

1           entire picture. They are entitled to see what goes
2           on at the scene. The position of those bodies in
3           relation to each other is a relevant factor that
4           the jury should be able to consider one way or
5           another. Now what I will not allow - of course,
6           there is a lot of cumulative evidence in regard to
7           that. I mean once the State establishes the crime
8           scene and all like that, there is no point in going 9           back into it over and over and over again unless 10          the State can establish some reason for that.

11           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, and also like I
12          said, it would raise certain question marks as to,
13          after Mr. Jones testifies about his relationship
14          with Mr. Golden. It leaves a gap as to where Mr.
15          Golden--

16           BY THE COURT: --Well, I'm going to overrule
17          the Motion in Limine, and as any motion in limine,
18          y'all have a right to object again. If there is 19          any different grounds for it, then I will look at 20          it then.

21           BY MR. FREELON: Hold on, Your Honor. I
22          picked up the wrong transcript. The next motion
23          that we would like to raise -- Your Honor, in the 24          last trial there was some evidence that Mr. Flowers
25          had, by the State that Mr. Flowers had committed
26          another crime allegedly when he was, I guess 15, 16
27          years old. Of course, Mr. Flowers raised it in his 28          appeal. And I think on the appeal, I think the DA
29          may have spoke, have assumed-- I think Ms. Flowers,

1           Lola Flowers may have been testifying in that
2           matter, and somehow or another, I'm going to assume
3           that the State felt as though Ms. Flowers may have 4           opened the door to allow them to discuss an 5           incident that happened back in high school where 6           there was an accident-- well, whether it was an
7           accidental shooting, I don't know too much about
8           the incident.

9           But I do know during that time the State
10          brought out to the jury, which basically became 11          substantive evidence, that Mr. Flowers had fired a
12          gun back in high school when he was 15 or 16 years
13          old and shot someone, Your Honor. So we are asking
14          that that be completely excluded. I don't have to 15          tell this Court that prior bad acts or those type
16          of crimes of other crimes is completely excluded.
17          And I don't think the DA should be able to get
18          through the back door what they cannot get through 19          the front door, Your Honor. So we are asking that 20          they refrain from making any statements at all
21          dealing with Mr. Flowers' potential or possible
22          engagement that he had in high school.

23          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I can address that
24          one real quick and real simple. We did not 25          introduce anything in our case in chief about prior
26          bad acts, and we do not intend to at this point.
27          In that particular case, what he is referring to 28          came out in the sentencing only in rebuttal after 29          one of his witnesses testified. That is the only

1 way it would be used this time.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. So I would sustain that
3 Motion in Limine to that effect because I don't 4 think it would be proper for him to produce it to 5 begin with, and I did not recall it being that way
6 at the first trial--

7 BY MR. EVANS: Well, it wasn't exactly--

8 BY THE COURT: --But anyhow, that Motion in 9 Limine is sustained.

10 BY MR. FREELON: It was in the sentencing
11 phase.

12 BY THE COURT: Now it is only sustained to
13 this--

14 BY MR. FREELON: I understand.

15 BY THE COURT: If the door gets opened, he can 16 walk through.

17 BY MR. FREELON: How, but Your Honor--

18 BY THE COURT: --That kind of puts it back on
19 you.

20 BY MR. FREELON: But how easy is the door to 21 open, and that is our question?

22 BY THE COURT: You need--

23 BY MR. FREELON: --I mean--

24 BY THE COURT: I understand that, but you need
25 to discuss that with your witnesses beforehand.
26 I'm not going to allow him to get into it, but if 27 you get into it, he is entitled to rebut it.

28 BY MR. FREELON: Okay. The next Motion in 29 Limine that we would like to bring to the Court's

1 attention was also raised on the appeal. In the
2 last case I think Connie Moore testified as to some
3 matters. Your Honor, we would ask that the State
4 not be allowed to go off into any matter concerning
5 statements that-- to put it in perspective, Connie
6 Moore testified about the shoes. Of course, Your
7 Honor, you know that the shoes is very important
8 evidence in this matter. And I think some question
9 was raised as to Connie Moore as to whether or not
10 Patricia Hollman was with her when she purchased
11 those shoes. Of course, Ms. Moore at that point in 12 time said no, Your Honor. At that point in time
13 the colloquy, whatever it was, it continued to 14 pursue as far as well, are you lying.

15 I think the statement went something like
16 this: "Do you remember buying these shoes? Yes,
17 sir. You bought them in Greenwood, didn't you?
18 Yes, sir. Patricia Hollman was with you when you
19 bought them, wasn't she? No, sir. You don't 20 remember that? No, sir." And it continued on.

21 Your Honor, what we are saying is that if he
22 wants to get that type of evidence in, Your Honor,
23 the proper way to get that type of evidence in is 24 to place Patricia Hollman on the stand to testify
25 and to say that she was with her. There was no
26 evidence whatsoever presented to the fact that
27 Patricia Hollman with was with her in Greenwood
28 when she purchased the shoes. At that point in 29 time, Your Honor, once again this became evidence,

1 or it was a way to discredit Connie Moore's
2 credibility without actually bringing someone else
3 up here and place them on the stand to discredit
4 their credibility.

5 So we are saying that that basically was an
6 alleged prior inconsistent statement that had 7 absolutely no proof. There was no, no one came in 8 here to say that that was a prior inconsistent
9 statement. Once she said no, Your Honor, we think 10 any type of further examination of that should have 11 ceased at that point in time, or other evidence
12 should have been presented other than Connie Moore
13 such as Patricia Hollman to make that 14 determination.

15 And one other thing as far as what Connie
16 Moore also testified to with the District Attorney
17 also got off into cross-examination on Connie Moore
18 about her son. I think the District Attorney may 19 have said something to Connie Moore about, you
20 know, are you lying here today about your son. Let 21 me, I would like to put in the record exactly what 22 was said. I think what was said is, "Do you think 23 it is right to try to get your son to lie for 24 people? No, sir."

25 Of course, at that point in time the attorneys
26 did object, and the DA went on. "Did you tell your 27 son Lemarcus Moore that you wanted him to go to 28 Curtis' lawyer, Mr. Gilmore, and lie for Curtis?"
29 Once again she said, "No, sir." But he continued

1 on.

2 Your Honor, I think the proper way to get that
3 evidence in once again is to bring the son into
4 this Court. Once she denied that, Your Honor--

5 BY THE COURT: --Was she on cross-
6 examination?

7 BY MR. FREELON: Yeah, she was on cross-
8 examination. But once she denied it, there was no,
9 there is no evidence that that statement was ever
10 said. Okay, now Mr. Moore came in-- I mean her son
11 came in here and testified that it was, that is a
12 different story--well, someone else testified that 13 it was said. So that evidence came in basically 14 once again as evidence without any, without any 15 proof at all out there that this statement was ever
16 said, Your Honor. And we don't think that that is 17 definitely proper cross-examination.

18 BY MR. EVANS: If the Court would like for us
19 to argue it, I don't see any need in even arguing
20 it, but I will be real brief.

21 BY THE COURT: That is up to you.

22 BY MR. EVANS: This is cross-examination, and 23 plus, this is a new trial. We don't know what any 24 witness is going to say that we may need to 25 cross-examine them on in this particular trial. So
26 there is no way of ruling on it. But I think it is 27 kind of interesting that their theory is if the 28 witness says no, we can't ask them any more
29 questions. This is simply cross-examination.

1           BY THE COURT: And it appears to me to be that
2           that's what it is, and I couldn't rule on this in
3           any manner, whether it was or not. I would have to 4           hear the testimony. You will just have to make
5           that objection when the time comes as to that. But
6           you get wide latitude in this state on cross-
7           examination, and I didn't see anything in what was 8           cited to me as being improper.

9           BY MR. FREELON: Well, I guess we will see
10          today or this week how much latitude we get on 11          cross-examination.

12          BY THE COURT: Well, I am sure we will.

13          BY MR. FREELON: The next Motion in Limine
14          that we would like to raise is the Motion to 15          Exclude-- of course, I think we raised this with 16          you once before. Motion to Exclude Roxanne
17          Ballard's representation about the ledger sheet as 18          far as putting it into evidence, Your Honor. Of 19          course, that is purely hearsay, of course, unless 20          there is some type of hearsay exceptions that would 21          allow a ledger sheet to come in. And of course,
22          qualified custodians of record and the custodian of 23          that record, of course, we know was one of the 24          victims in that matter or another qualified
25          witness. And we do not think from looking at the 26          last transcript in the last trial that proper
27          predicate was laid, Your Honor, at all to determine
28          if Roxanne Ballard had enough knowledge and had 29          enough experience to be able to come into this

1 court and testify was that the proper, not only,
2 not just a routine, but was that the proper
3 practice, routine practice in that business for 4 Tardy Furniture as far as that ledger sheet is
5 concerned.

6 And not only did Roxanne Ballard testify as to
7 the ledger sheet, it was clearly hearsay when Jack
8 Matthews came in and testified as to what he 9 thought what was within that ledger sheet because 10 his knowledge of the ledger sheet actually came 11 from Roxanne Ballard. Now I know you do not become 12 an expert by going after an incident has happened
13 and talking to someone else and then who has, you
14 talk to another person who was in that business,
15 and so Jack Matthews was able to become a custodian
16 of the record simply by talking to Roxanne Ballard
17 which is not only now double hearsay, it is almost 18 triple hearsay because it came from the ledger
19 sheet to Roxanne Ballard and now double hearsay;
20 now it came back to Jack Matthews. He was able to 21 testify as to how much money he thought was within 22 that ledger sheet.

23 We think this is very important because it
24 goes directly to whether there was a robbery or 25 not, and it is one of the primary focus of this 26 trial. And without proper predicate being laid, we 27 still say that it is hearsay. But without 28 predicate being laid as to Roxanne Ballard and 29 definitely Jack Matthews has no-- he cannot testify

1 to that at all because it wasn't something that he
2 has any kind of experience with that ledger sheet
3 with that business whatsoever. And we are asking
4 the Court in this trial to exclude both of those 5 testimonies.

6 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, as to Mr. Matthews'
7 testimony, he did not, we did not qualify him as an 8 expert. We only put him on the stand to represent 9 to the jury at the last trial what his 10 investigation revealed as to whether or not he was 11 working a murder or a capital murder, and that's 12 basically what he did. The representations to him
13 through someone qualified to make those
14 representations to him regarding what was missing
15 was done, and that was part of his report, part of 16 his investigation. It wasn't really necessarily
17 offered for the truth of the matter asserted. It
18 was offered to prove whether or not he had 19 investigated and gained some knowledge about 20 whether or not money had been missing.

21 As to Ms. Ballard, we have already addressed
22 that twice in motion hearings, once down here and I
23 believe once in Tupelo. We anticipate that
24 Roxanne Ballard would be qualified and the Court
25 ruled that she was qualified to testify regarding 26 the routine and habit of that particular business,
27 being a family member and having worked there. And 28 we anticipate we will lay the proper predicate
29 again.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, and that, both times--
2                   excuse me, Mr. Freelon. Go ahead. If you are
3                   through.

4                   BY MR. HORAN: I am through.

5                   (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

6                   BY MR. HORAN: Like I said, Judge, one thing,
7                   Mr. Matthews only testified as to what his 8                   investigation revealed, not whether or not that was 9                   actually that amount of money missing. Ms. Ballard
10                  would be the only one that could do that.

11                  BY MR. FREELON: As far as the testimony down
12                  here, Your Honor, you did not make any ruling. I
13                  think--

14                  BY THE COURT: --No, I haven't--

15                  BY MR. FREELON: --you reserved it on that,
16                  and I think that was the first time that issue was 17                  actually addressed. As far as in the first hearing
18                  is concerned, the first trial on this matter, I
19                  don't know if that even became an objection during 20                  the first trial. I don't even think that issue was 21                  raised at that point in time.

22                  But regarding Jack Matthews, he can testify--
23                  what he testified to not as part of his 24                  investigation, but he testified as to what he, how 25                  much money he thought was on that ledger sheet.
26                  Your Honor, yes, he can testify that a ledger sheet
27                  was found, Your Honor. But he cannot testify as to 28                  how much money was missing within that ledger
29                  sheet. That is not proper testimony for an

1 investigator as far as how much money, he is
2 figuring out how much money was missing on that
3 ledger sheet. He can testify that he may have 4 found a ledger sheet and the chain of custody of
5 that ledger sheet, Your Honor. But testifying
6 specifically as to what is in the ledger sheet that
7 he had no prior knowledge, he had no personal
8 knowledge of this ledger sheet before these deaths
9 occurred, Your Honor, that is -- he can point
10 blank, that is totally to be excluded as far as 11 what he thinks, how much money he thinks what was 12 in the ledger sheet.

13 As a matter of fact, he thought something was 14 different in there than what Ms. Tardy-- not Ms.
15 Tardy, but the other, Ms. Ballard thought was in 16 there. So he came up with a different amount. So
17 his testimony should be totally stricken. As far
18 as Ms. Ballard is concerned, proper predicate was 19 not laid, and we warn this Court that her testimony
20 should be excluded, of course, unless proper
21 predicates can be laid within this Court.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to reserve my 23 ruling still on both of them. You will have to 24 raise those objections at that time.

25 BY MR. FREELON: I understand. I have just 26 got a couple more--

27 BY THE COURT: --Well, let me finish. I
28 remember most of what Ms. Ballard testified to. I
29 don't remember what Mr. Matthews testified to much

1 at that time.

2 BY MR. HORAN: I think he testified he
3 retrieved the ledger sheet.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, if he did that, I don't
5 have any problem with that. As far as establishing 6 the armed robbery through Jack Matthews, I don't 7 think you can do that.

8 BY MR. HORAN: We don't necessarily have a
9 problem with that, Judge, other than him
10 testifying, you know, that he had representations
11 made to him that money was missing out of the--

12 BY MR. FREELON: --I can tell you exactly what
13 was said if you would like, but I think--

14 BY MR. EVANS: --This is a different trial
15 completely.

16 BY THE COURT: Yeah, and I'm going to wait
17 until I hear the testimony, and then I will rule
18 then.

19 BY MR. FREELON: I understand. Okay, the 20 next, I am moving right on down. Your Honor, we 21 ask that any testimony as to Patricia Hollman-- in
22 the last trial I think Patricia Hollman testified
23 to the matter that she overheard Mr. Flowers and 24 Connie Moore having an argument outside their 25 house, and I think some words were used to the 26 effect of-- excuse my language, but "Fuck them.
27 Fuck everybody down there. Just fuck everybody.
28 Just fuck everybody down there."

29 And I think the State was allowed to ask her

1           what exactly did she, what she thought was meant by
2           that. And I think Patricia Hollman testified that
3           she was talking about the Tardy Furniture murders
4           down, you know, "He is mad and angry at the people
5           down at where he used to work at." Your Honor, we 6           completely object to any kind of testimony to that
7           effect because Patricia Hollman never testified
8           that Curtis was actually, used the word "talking 9           about at work," never used the word "Tardy," never 10          used any of that. So she does not have the 11          expertise. Her lay opinion cannot just say, well,
12          I think that they were talking about the furniture
13          store down in that-- I think they were talking
14          about his job at the furniture store. He was 15          upset. She specifically answered the question.
16          "Did you hear him say anything about work?" And 17          she responded, "No."

18                 But she was allowed to give her opinion as far
19          as what she thought they were talking about, Your 20          Honor, and until some evidence is put on that
21          linked him or that conversation to the furniture
22          store, Your Honor, her opinion as to what it could 23          have been, Your Honor, should not be allowed in 24          this matter. And we ask that the Court not allow 25          her to testify as to what she thought he was 26          speaking to on that matter.

27                 BY MR. HORAN: Judge, Ms. Hollman's testimony
28          regarding that particular facet was based on her
29          knowledge of the Defendant's situation and the

1 relationship that he had and where he had been
2 working. It is a lay opinion. She was qualified
3 being the next door neighbor knowing about the 4 situation that he was in. She certainly was 5 qualified, and they can cross her on that. But
6 that is certainly a lay opinion that was properly
7 presented before this jury-- before that last jury
8 and will be properly presented before this jury
9 based on her knowledge. We have to lay the 10 predicate, and we did that last time for her to 11 give a lay opinion, and that's what we anticipate
12 we will do.

13 BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, first of 14 all, her knowledge is that Mr. Flowers wasn't
15 working at Tardy Furniture during that time. I
16 think that came out in the court. So she had, she 17 did not even have knowledge obviously that he was 18 no longer employed at the point in time of July the 19 16th. So obviously, she did not have the type of 20 knowledge to even make a determination that he was,
21 that they were talking about that, Your Honor. So
22 we are asking that that evidence which is extremely 23 critical in this matter, in this capital murder
24 trial, that it be completely stricken without any 25 prior other knowledge that Mr. Flowers was talking
26 about the store. I mean there is a million other
27 things that Mr. Flowers could have been talking 28 about, and to come up with the explanation that he,
29 that he and Connie was talking about arguing about

1 the store, while they - I don't know - throwing
2 chili dogs or whatever she said, I think, Your
3 Honor, is complete -- that is reaching. And we
4 don't think that overreaching should be allowed in
5 a case such as this, Your Honor. So we are asking
6 that.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, of course, I don't know
8 what she is going to testify to this time, and I
9 can't rule on these things. It is just like the 10 jury has got to have-- they are entitled to see the 11 whole picture. I am entitled to see what the whole
12 testimony is, and it has all got to be judged in 13 that context. And I can't take these things,
14 isolated things out of context and rule. You are 15 entitled to make those objections when they come
16 up, and I can rule then. But I have got no way to 17 sustain a motion in limine on this type stuff.

18 BY MR. FREELON: Well, Your Honor, the Court
19 has notice of what may very well be testified to,
20 so we--

21 BY THE COURT: Right, and you have got a right
22 to object to it--

23 BY MR. FREELON: --right--

24 BY THE COURT: --and as you know, the Supreme
25 Court doesn't like motions in limine to begin
26 with. I have no problem with you objecting to it,
27 but you're asking me to make rulings on speculation
28 as to what these folks will testify to in a
29 separate trial. And it has been two years-- well,

1 a year and a half since I have tried the thing. I
2 have got to see the stuff in context for me to be
3 able to judge whether or not I think it is 4 admissible.

5 BY MR. FREELON: Okay.

6 BY THE COURT: And I am willing to make those 7 judgments, but all of this is going to be hard for 8 me to do now.

9 BY MR. FREELON: Okay. Well, I just, just two 10 -- I will try to be as brief as possible with the 11 motions. One other motion, Motion to Exclude 12 anyone with the exception of Doyle Simpson from 13 talking about the murder weapon being stolen in 14 this matter. During the last trial it was brought 15 up on several occasions by different individuals
16 about a murder weapon being stolen. However, no
17 evidence was introduced as far as a police report
18 was made, or no one testified as to Doyle Simpson
19 telling them personally that someone had stole my 20 gun, Your Honor. Most of the information that came
21 about the gun being testified started from Fuzzy's
22 Chicken and went across town, and everybody else
23 got it that the gun was stolen.

24 Now we understand that Doyle Simpson can come
25 in here and testify as far as his gun being stolen,
26 but to have different witnesses getting on the 27 stand and testifying well, I was called to the 28 scene because someone told me a gun was stolen,
29 Your Honor, but there is no record at all with the

1 Winona Police Department. There is no record at 2 the dispatcher. No dispatcher reported a gun being
3 stolen. No one came in and reported a call was
4 given to them that a gun had been stolen
5 somewhere. We are asking the proper predicates be 6 laid before Jack Matthews or John Johnson can 7 testify as to why they are saying a gun had been
8 stolen.

9 And then lastly, and I understand as far as,
10 you know, we have to deal with that at that point
11 in time, but I am saying to this Court that, that 12 Doyle Simpson is the person as far as testifying as 13 far as whether the gun was stolen. And in the last
14 trial on several occasions that became-- it wasn't 15 that Doyle Simpson said the gun was stolen. It was 16 Fuzzy told someone else that the gun was stolen
17 which got back to, you know, another police
18 officer. So we are asking that, that any
19 references to the gun being stolen other than Doyle
20 Simpson actually testifying to that matter be 21 stricken as well.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I really don't know
23 exactly what he is objecting to. Doyle Simpson did
24 testify that his gun was stolen last time. I think
25 Bill Thornburg testified that the Sheriff's 26 Department received a report at the time they were 27 working this murder that a gun was stolen in 28 another part of town. They went and investigated
29 it. They talked to Doyle Simpson. Doyle Simpson

1 explained to them that his gun was stolen, and
2 Doyle testified to those facts. I think they are
3 clearly entitled to show that they received a
4 call. The fact that they received a call and what
5 that call was is not hearsay. That is the fact to 6 show that they followed up on it.

7 Doyle Simpson is going to testify that his
8 gun was stolen, and again, I'm not sure what order
9 we are going to put witnesses on or anything else.
10 But the fact that Doyle's gun was stolen is a
11 relevant fact of this case especially since we can 12 prove that that is the murder weapon in this case.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, just a brief
14 rejoinder. Judge, this is a popular misnomer that 15 we find, you know, usually advanced by prosecutors
16 in a number of cases. Why a police officer
17 responds to a scene is not relevant to a jury's
18 determination of guilt in a trial. It is only the 19 evidence at the scene, the evidence they come up
20 with and all of that which they can present
21 firsthand, or somebody else comes in and presents
22 firsthand that is relevant. So the fact that a
23 police officer got a report any kind of way,
24 whether it was official or unofficial, and it said,
25 the report said come to the scene because a gun has 26 been stolen; that is irrelevant.

27 What can be said is they can say well, the 28 police officer got a report and responding to a
29 report, I went to the scene. What was the content

1 of that report is not relevant for a jury to decide
2 because the jury is not making a determination that
3 a Judge might be making. If a motion was raised
4 suggesting that the procedures that the police
5 officers used were illegal, like if it was an 6 illegal search, illegal arrest or that they were in 7 a position they had no right to be or that it was 8 prosecutorial misconduct or police misconduct, all
9 of those kinds of things make the reason why the 10 police officer comes to the scene relevant. But to 11 let police officers say that they heard a report
12 that a gun was stolen and so came to the scene is 13 nothing but a way to circumvent the rules against 14 hearsay. It allows them to sneak in the back door
15 and to get in something that they can't get in 16 otherwise.

17 There is no exception in the book to that.
18 That is clearly offered for the truth of the matter
19 stated therein and because, and the reason it is is 20 because in front of a jury the question of why they
21 came is generally, and I won't say ever, but 90
22 percent of the time it is irrelevant. Now I can 23 think of some examples where it may become 24 relevant, but this is not one of them. They
25 brought this out on direct of these officers. Now
26 maybe if you are in a situation where the defense
27 has gotten up and tried to say something about the 28 investigation, claimed that they came there for an
29 illegitimate reason or that they were coming there

1 to violate the laws or if they were doing something
2 which they shouldn't have been done, that may open
3 the door to the prosecutor then to say why they
4 came there.

5 If the defense asked them, "Why did you come
6 there?" that might open the door for them to say
7 why they came there. That would open the door for 8 any witness to say, but the rules are no different
9 for police officers than they are for any other
10 individuals.

11 So this is not, this is not a legitimate
12 reason for them to be allowed to bring that in, the 13 content of what the radio report said or the reason
14 that they came. The fact that they came certainly 15 is relevant. The fact that they may have received
16 the report, whatever it was without stating what it
17 was, and then came, you know, that could be said,
18 but not what it said.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. That Motion is 20 overruled. What have we got next?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have looked and we can't 22 see any -- there is, we make a Motion in Limine to 23 exclude any references in the trial through
24 witnesses to what Ms. Tardy said on any given
25 occasion unless it can be qualified as a hearsay
26 exception. From the best of our knowledge Ms.
27 Tardy made no dying declarations, so that would not 28 be entitled to come into the exception to the 29 hearsay rule. She made no any other kinds of

1 things which were relevant, but throughout the
2 trial we saw completed references in the 3 prosecution's statement and in some instances, we
4 think in a witness's statement that Ms. Tardy said
5 that some batteries were damaged, and she fired Mr.
6 Flowers as a result of that. That is clearly
7 hearsay. There is nobody that can testify about 8 that other than Ms. Tardy, and unfortunately, she 9 is no longer with us. So I would object to any of 10 that.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again we don't know
12 exactly what we are going to put on, but in 13 relationship to the batteries that he is talking
14 about, the way that came out was in the Defendant's
15 own statement. It was comments that he made about 16 what Ms. Tardy had done. So, you know, there may 17 be things that come out in other ways. Clearly
18 things that he told her that are in his statement
19 are going to be relevant.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, I sustain it to the 21 point, to the point that the rules of evidence
22 would preclude it.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: If the rules of evidence allow 25 it, I'm going to let it in.

26 BY MR. FREELON: That's it, Your Honor.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. Why don't first let's
28 get the witnesses that y'all have here in here and 29 get them sworn.

1 BY MR. FREELON: I doubt very seriously we
2 have got too many witnesses. You are talking
3 about--

4 BY MR. HORAN: --Judge, I have got one other
5 matter that I need to, they can do. I have had a
6 couple of witnesses call down here that we had
7 subpoenaed, and we told them either we didn't need
8 them or we would call them when we needed them.
9 Some of them have received subpoenas from the 10 Defense, and one of them said be here this morning
11 or in the morning. I can't see, they have had no
12 contact from Counsel for the Defendant, and I asked
13 two witnesses whether or not they had been provided
14 expenses to get down here and they said no. Well,
15 I asked one witness that. I don't, I'm just-- they 16 want me to, my victim's witness coordinator to 17 contact them this morning. They are having to take 18 off work. I can't see where they would be needed
19 before Friday.

20 Is there any way that y'all -- is that okay
21 with y'all?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If you can tell us who they 23 are, we will call them ourselves.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Sherry Bailey was one. I can't 25 remember the other one. I did have Ms. Bailey from 26 the bank called me. I had to call her back. She 27 called another witness and--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I don't mind you
29 telling her, you know, to be in court Friday. I

1 don't have a problem.

2 BY MR. FREELON: Who is the other person?

3 BY MR. HORAN: I can't remember. It was
4 another phone. I can't remember who it was.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If he can remember at some
6 point, Judge, and tell us, we will make sure the 7 person is called.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Now she is expecting to be paid
10 before she comes.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, that is another issue--

12 BY MR. HORAN: --and I think the rules provide 13 for that--

14 BY THE COURT: --There are rules and 15 regulations concerning that.

16 BY MR. HORAN: Right. And I just wanted to 17 let them know that she represented to me that.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay. Do you y'all have any
19 witnesses?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Margie is gone after
21 them.

22 BY THE COURT: I don't care whether they
23 screen the witnesses. They can bring the witnesses
24 on in. I will swear them and get them on out of
25 here.

26 (NOTE: Everyone coming into the courtroom was 27 being screened with a metal detector.)

28 BY THE COURT: All the witnesses in this case
29 come up here in front of me. Just anywhere right

1 in here. Okay, each of you raise your right hand.
2 Do each of you solemnly swear the testimony you are
3 about to give in this case will be the truth, the 4 whole truth, and nothing but the truth so help you
5 God?

6 BY A GROUP OF WITNESSES: I do.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to invoke the 8 rule. These witnesses will be placed in the 9 State's witness room, and I don't know where that
10 is.

11 BY THE BAILIFF: The supervisors' room.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay, that will be fine.
13 That's where y'all need to go. The rule being 14 invoked, Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Freelon, y'all make 15 sure your witnesses don't get in the courtroom.
16 Okay?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

18 BY THE COURT: You can bring the jury in.

19 BY MR. EVANS: There are a couple of others
20 that are here. We will make sure they are sworn 21 before they testify.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay, make sure they don't come
23 in the courtroom too.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

25 (THE JURY ENTERED THE COURTROOM ON MARCH 24, 26 1999, AT APPROXIMATELY 9:21 A M.)

27 BY THE COURT: Good morning.

28 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

29 BY THE COURT: Well, we are ready to get

1           started, and the first thing we do in a case is
2           that the lawyers have a right to make an opening
3           statement to you. Now I want you to understand
4           that what they are going to tell you is not
5           evidence in this case. You can't make your
6           decision based on what they say. You have to make
7           your decision based on the evidence that comes from
8           this witness stand and the physical evidence that I
9           allow you to consider when you go to deliberate.
10          And then you must apply my instructions on the law
11          to that evidence as you see it. So what they are 12          saying is not evidence. It's not to be considered
13          by you as evidence. What it is going to be though
14          is kind of an outline of what they expect to prove 15          in this case. And it will give you some idea of 16          where this case is going and where we will be 17          traveling during the next several days.

18                 Mr. Evans.

19                 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

20         OPENING STATEMENT BY MR. EVANS:

21                 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

22                 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

23         BY MR. EVANS:

24                 I'm going to try to be fairly brief, but it is a
25                 lot of details that are going to be brought out in this case,
26                 and what I want to do is go ahead and lay out as many of them
27                 as I can for you so you will know what to be looking for.

28                 As the Judge told you yesterday, I am Doug Evans,
29                 the District Attorney for Fifth Circuit Court District. We

1 prosecute all the felony cases in that district just like
2 Cono does down here in this district. This particular case,
3 of course, is brought to you on a change of venue. Now as 4 the Judge told you, and I think it is very important that we
5 emphasize this. Anything I tell you or the attorneys for the 6 other side tell you are not law. All we are doing is 7 attempting to tell you what our version of the case is, and 8 you shouldn't take anything that I say or the opposing 9 attorney says as evidence because it is not.

10 The evidence that you will make your decision of 11 guilt or innocence is going to come from this witness stand
12 right here. All we are doing is attempting to lay out for 13 you what you need to look for, the things to try to see in 14 the case. It's sort of like of a road map just to try to 15 make it a little bit clearer as you go through because as you
16 put on numerous witnesses -- we may have twenty or 17 twenty-five, thirty witnesses. We don't know exactly at this 18 point, and when you put one witness on without you having 19 heard what other witnesses say, sometimes it is not clear
20 unless you understand from the road map why that witness is 21 testifying to certain facts.

22 Now in any case it is always necessary for the 23 attorneys at different times to make objections. Now all an 24 objection is is stating that that attorney, whether it's me
25 or the attorney on the other side, does not agree that the 26 evidence is either proper or that this is the proper time for 27 it to be brought out. You know, for an example, one of us
28 may object that something is hearsay. Then the Court has to 29 rule. The Court can rule that we can either go forward with

1 that evidence or that we should stop at that point. That is
2 nothing for y'all to concern yourselves with. It is just a
3 mere technicality that the Court does. But again, anything
4 that comes from this witness stand is evidence, and y'all
5 should consider that.

6 We will try to point out to you what we expect the 7 witnesses to say. But again, none of that is important until 8 they actually say it for you. You will be the ones to make
9 the decision as to what the witnesses have said and how much
10 credibility you can give to those witnesses. You will be 11 able to use your good common sense. That is what a jury is 12 here for. You decide from your personal knowledge what is 13 believable and what is not believable. You can observe the 14 witnesses. You can look at who is involved. You can tell
15 sometimes from which particular witness is testifying. You
16 can look at them and say well, has that witness got anything
17 to gain. For example, if it's a family member of the 18 Defendant, they don't want him to go to jail. If it's a
19 police officer--

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge. Excuse me.

21 Objection. This is opening statement, not
22 argument.

23 BY THE COURT: Well, he is not arguing any 24 facts of the case.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26 This is what I'm talking about. There will be
27 objections all through the trial. A police officer may 28 testify; a crime lab expert may testify; a pathologist may 29 testify. You will look at that, and you determine have these

1 people got anything to gain or lose, or are they just telling
2 the facts as they see them.

3 Now I normally don't even like to bring this up,
4 but because opposing counsel brought it up in voir dire, I
5 want to make a comment about it. Race has no bearing in the 6 criminal system. The race of the Defendant doesn't make any 7 difference. The race of the victim doesn't make any 8 difference. Y'all are here for one purpose. You are here to 9 determine if a crime was committed and if this is the person
10 that committed it. His race or the victim's race has no
11 bearing and shouldn't even enter into any of our minds in 12 this courtroom. That has absolutely nothing to do with why
13 any of us are here.

14 Now I'm not sure if the Court told y'all this, but 15 I want to cover it real quick with you. Y'all probably 16 noticed during voir dire like when y'all were in the hall,
17 attorneys didn't stop and talk with you. The reason for that 18 is the Court will not let us talk with the jurors. We can
19 talk to you on voir dire. We can talk to you in opening
20 statements. We can talk to you in closing arguments like we 21 are doing, but that is the only time that we can actually 22 talk to the jury. So if we pass y'all in the hall or 23 different places and we don't speak, it is just because we 24 are not supposed to. We can't carry on a conversation with 25 y'all. It is basically just for the appearance. We wouldn't 26 want anybody to think that we were trying to say anything to 27 y'all that we shouldn't say. I wanted y'all to know that if 28 we don't speak to you, it is not out of rudeness. It is 29 because the Court won't let us do it, and that is proper.

1           I want to start off by telling you a little bit
2 about what this case is. This is a crime that occurred at
3 Tardy Furniture which is a furniture store located in Winona,
4 Mississippi. For any of y'all that don't know exactly where
5 Winona is, it's approximately 80 miles north of Jackson on 6 55.

7           Now Tardy Furniture Store that has been operated up
8 there for many years; Tom Tardy was the owner of the store
9 originally. And Tom Tardy was still living but was not 10 really able to run the store at this time. His wife, Bertha
11 Tardy, was the actual one that ran the store. Along with 12 her, Carmen Rigby was the bookkeeper that worked at the 13 store. Now at the particular time that this crime occurred
14 there were two other employees in the store. Derrick "BoBo"
15 Smith-- Stewart, I'm sorry, is the case that we are here on 16 today. He was a young male. He was a high school student.
17 He was a baseball star there in the community, and this was a
18 summer job for him. This wasn't even a full time job. We 19 will show you that this was his second day to even work for
20 Tardy Furniture.

21           A lot of the things that you see in here are going
22 to be real coincidental like that. If it had been a day or 23 two earlier, he wouldn't have even been at the store. Robert
24 Golden was the other person in the store. It was even more
25 coincidental for him because he had just been hired that 26 day. This was his first day at work. He had been hired by 27 Sam Jones, who had been an employee of the store for forty or 28 fifty years. He showed up that morning for the first time,
29 and it was the last time he would be there. This is kind of

1       how the set up started at the store.

2               Now we are going to show you that Curtis Flowers,
3       the Defendant, had worked at Tardy Furniture for a short
4       period of time. We are going to show you that he had been
5       terminated from employment, that there had been an incident
6       where he had been hauling some batteries for the store, that 7       he had dropped them off of a vehicle, and it caused damage to 8       them. Money had been held out of his paycheck to cover the 9       damage that he did to the batteries, and I also--

10              BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge. Excuse me.

11              BY MR. EVANS: --in addition to that money
12       being held out of his paycheck--

13              BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can we approach for a
14       minute, please?

15              BY THE COURT: Okay.

16              BY MR. EVANS: Excuse me a minute.

17              (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
18       THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

19              BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have got an objection to 20       this. This is what we just went into. They said
21       that they had not raised this issue before. There
22       is no way for them to prove that any money was held
23       out of his paycheck other than through him, if he 24       testifies. They are not going to put him on the 25       stand. How could they say what he is going to say?

26              BY THE COURT: Well, this is opening
27       statement. You are entitled to say what you expect
28       to prove. If you can't do it, you pay the 29       consequences. That's what opening statements are

1                   about. That's the reason I don't like them.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you.

3                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

5                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 BY MR. EVANS:

7                   Again, I apologize, but let me continue where I
8 was. We will show you that money had been held out of his 9 paycheck and that that was the last day that he worked. We 10 will show you that it was only a matter of a few days later
11 when the murders occurred at Tardy Furniture. We are going 12 to show you through Roxanne Ballard, who was the daughter of 13 Mr. Tardy, she was a lifelong employee off and on at the 14 store. She knew and understood the business records of the 15 store. We will show you through her how much money was in 16 the store at the time that this occurred. We will show you
17 that that money was missing after these people were killed.

18                  Now step by step we will go through and try to 19 explain to you exactly what happened at the store. We will
20 bring in the Police Chief, Johnny Hargrove. He will testify
21 that he received a call advising him to come to the store.
22 Sam Jones, the older employee that had worked there 40 or 50
23 years, was coming in that morning. He was the one that had 24 hired Robert Golden. Sam was coming in to show these two 25 boys how to haul furniture. They had never hauled any 26 before, and he was going to help them. He walks in the 27 store, and he finds bodies laying everywhere. He is going to 28 describe to you what that scene looked like when he walked in 29 the store. He is going to describe to you how three of the

1 people in the store were already dead, and BoBo Stewart was
2 still alive and breathing. He is going to explain how he ran
3 and called the police.

4 Johnny Hargrove, the Police Chief, is going to 5 testify how he came in the scene, and when he came in the 6 scene, what they found, the bloody mess in the store with the 7 bodies laying everywhere. He is going to explain how BoBo
8 Stewart was still alive and that they called for an ambulance
9 to try to save him.

10 He is also going to explain to you that in the 11 blood around the body of BoBo Stewart there were several 12 tennis shoe tracks, and he preserved those tracks so that 13 pictures of them could be made for a later comparison. We 14 will show you how Melissa Schoene, a state Crime Lab expert,
15 was called in to preserve the different physical evidence.
16 She will describe to you what she saw at the store, what 17 physical evidence she obtained, and what she did with that
18 evidence.

19 For example, on the tennis shoe track, we will show
20 you from a Crime Lab expert that he was able to take that
21 track and determine that that track was made by a Fila Grant
22 size ten and a half tennis shoe. We will show you through
23 witnesses that that is the type of shoe that this Defendant
24 wore at the time. We will also show you that the box was 25 recovered from his house, a Fila Grant size ten and a half.
26 We will also show you that money was found, approximately the 27 amount that was taken at the store in the house that he was 28 living in.

29 From there we will go on further. We will show you

1 that at approximately the same time or an hour or two before
2 this murder, a gun was stolen in another part of town. That
3 gun was stolen from Doyle Simpson, who happens to be the 4 uncle of this Defendant. We will show you the trail that 5 this Defendant took from his house to Angelica which is the 6 factory that this gun was at. The gun was located in Doyle's
7 car parked at Angelica. When Doyle got back in his car, he 8 noticed the glove compartment had been broken open, and the 9 gun was missing.

10 Katherine Snow, an employee there at Angelica, will 11 be able to tell you, I saw this Defendant leaning against the 12 car. I'm not going to try you give you exact, somewhere
13 around 7:30 that morning. Shortly before that, we have got 14 another witness that can point out that he was leaving his 15 house walking in that general direction. Then we have 16 another witness that will be able to tell you what he saw.
17 That is James Edward Kennedy. He will be able to tell you
18 that he saw him walking down Angelica Drive cutting through
19 from Highway 51 toward Angelica's. So we have got him
20 leaving his house; we have got him going to Angelica; we have 21 got him standing by the car the gun was stolen out of.

22 Then from there, a couple of blocks toward town we
23 have got another witness, Edward McChristian, on Academy
24 Street that sees him walking in the direction of Tardy
25 Furniture. A couple of blocks further up we have got another
26 witness, Mary Frances Fleming that sees him still walking in 27 the direction of Tardy Furniture. Right in front of the 28 store we have got Charles Collins that sees him and another
29 man standing right in front of Tardy Furniture at

1 approximately the time of the murders. A few minutes later
2 we have got Clemmie Fleming, who has known him all of her
3 life, that sees this Defendant running from Tardy Furniture
4 headed back in the direction of his house.

5 We will show you that on the day this occurred the 6 officers, the investigators that were involved picked this
7 Defendant up for questioning. We will show you at the time
8 they picked him up they checked his shoe size. The shoes he 9 had on at that time were not Filas, but the shoes he had on 10 were size ten and a half.

11 We will show you that they took a gunshot residue
12 test to see if he had fired a weapon that morning, and the 13 gunshot residue test came back positive after Joe Andrews
14 from the State Crime Lab tested it showing that gunpowder
15 residue was recovered on the back of the right hand, which is 16 consistent with having a fired a gun with a person's right
17 hand that morning.

18 We will further show you that Doyle Simpson, the 19 one that had the gun stolen that is this Defendant's uncle,
20 when he reported it, after he reported it, the officers
21 questioned him and said, Have you ever target practiced this 22 gun? Can you take us to where you fired it? And he showed 23 them a post behind his mother's house that he had shot the 24 gun into. The gun was a .380 automatic. The officers
25 recovered projectiles from that post that he had fired his 26 gun, so there they knew they had the bullets that matched
27 that gun.

28 The State Crime Lab and also an expert out of the 29 State of Michigan compared the bullets that we know were

1 fired out of Doyle's gun with the projectiles in the store
2 and matched four of those projectiles. So we know that Doyle
3 Simpson's gun, the gun in the car that this Defendant was 4 standing by at 7:30 in the morning is the murder weapon. We
5 will show all of these things to you through our trial.

6 We will also show you through Dr. Hayne, who is a
7 state pathologist, that the cause of death for Derrick "BoBo"
8 Stewart was because he was shot right in the front of the 9 head, and that bullet went straight through his brain. We 10 will show you through the testimony of this expert that the 11 cause of death was that the bullet caused brain death.

12 Thank you, Your Honor.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

14 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15 OPENING STATEMENT BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

17 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 I rise at this time to share with you a brief view
20 of what our expectations of what the evidence will really 21 show in this case. And I right off the top would indicate
22 that we fully expect that this evidence will disclose a 23 tragedy that occurred on the 16th of July of 1996. There is 24 no way that we dispute that police officers responded to a
25 scene and that a host of officers and other people involved
26 in law enforcement and prosecution at some point examined the 27 scene, found blood, found people who were dead, found people
28 who had died and found other things at the scene. There is 29 no dispute about that.

1           So we are not going to waste a lot of time arguing
2 about whether this body was there or whether this person bled
3 or whether it was a tragedy. We are not going to talk in our
4 case about whether BoBo Stewart was a baseball player and a
5 star. Because quite frankly, we feel that regardless of who 6 he is, he had a right to live, and we have no complaint about 7 any of the personal lives or personal things that people at 8 that store were doing. So we are not going to get involved
9 with that.

10           There is-- a case that is generally set up in two 11 different, in a two part system. The Judge will tell you or 12 perhaps has told you that that system goes like this. First 13 of all, the prosecution has an opportunity to present its 14 case, and when it presents its case, then the second part of 15 it is the defense has an opportunity to present a case if it
16 chooses to. But always keep in mind that the defense has no
17 obligations to present anything because the defense is not,
18 has no burden. It is a very important distinction here.

19           And in this case things will be a little bit
20 different. Our case will begin-- we are not having a case to 21 prove to you anything because we are not in a position to. I
22 wasn't there. Mr. Freelon wasn't there. Mr. Flowers wasn't
23 there. But our case will begin when the prosecution's first 24 witness takes the stand, and each and every witness that the 25 prosecution puts up on the stand or at least the sum total of 26 the witnesses that it puts up on the stand, we will ask them
27 questions, and before the last witness for the prosecution
28 leaves the stand, the prosecution's case will self-destruct.

29           You will have gross, wide, gaping doubts about the

1 issues which the prosecution attempts to prove and will be
2 very responsive to our request at the end of the trial to 3 bring back a not guilty verdict because you will be left with 4 serious, serious doubts in your mind.

5 What we expect will happen in this case is that we
6 will ask expert after expert as they get on the stand,
7 through your expertise, sir or ma'am, can you tell us if
8 Curtis Flowers committed this crime, and they will say
9 absolutely not. But we will ask them questions because they
10 answer things and frame information which is important.

11 You will find out, for instance, that there are 12 experts who took physical evidence from the scene. They came 13 to the scene for purposes of taking fingerprints. You will
14 find out if they found fingerprints. If they found prints--
15 you don't always find prints, and I think the expert will 16 explain that to you. But they found prints. They found
17 what we call readable prints, prints which can be used,
18 prints of value. Not a single print was the print of Curtis
19 Flowers.

20 You will find out as long as I am crossing this
21 threshold, that they took clothing from Flowers at a certain 22 point. This is not at the scene because he wasn't at the 23 scene, but from his home, and I think you will find out that,
24 you may very well find out that he voluntarily gave them
25 clothes, gave them anything they wanted, did whatever they 26 asked him to do. Not a single piece of clothing had one
27 hair, one fabric strip, one ounce of blood, one scintilla
28 blood, whether visible or invisible. The lab took it and 29 analyzed it. None of it showed anything that showed that

1 Curtis Flowers was in that store on the 16th of July of 1996
2 or at any time near that date.

3 By the way, you will not find out that Curtis
4 Flowers' employment at that store ended immediately before
5 the 16th. You will find out that Curtis Flowers worked the 6 last day at Tardy's store on the 3rd. You will find out from 7 the evidence not what the prosecution tells you. I think
8 that the credible evidence will show you that he left the 9 store, that in fact, after he left the store, calls actually 10 came to his home from Mrs. Tardy. And after receiving those 11 calls, the person who received those calls went to Mr.
12 Flowers and told Mr. Flowers. So if you want to focus on 13 what is in Mr. Flowers' mind, you will find out that they 14 told Mr. Flowers that Ms. Tardy wanted him back at work. You
15 will find out that at no time can they show you at any time
16 when Curtis Flowers expressed a mean word toward Ms. Flowers
17 or toward Ms.-- excuse me-- Ms. Tardy or toward the store.
18 You will find out that Curtis Flowers had worked prior to 19 coming to Ms. Tardy's store, and he worked some time after 20 coming to Ms. Tardy's store.

21 You will find out that Mr. Flowers had been a
22 working person. You will find out from the evidence, and 23 this will come up in the evidence is that prior to the date
24 of this incident, that at no time, at no time had Mr. Flowers
25 ever been convicted of taking anything from anybody or 26 convicted of the crime of murder, or you will find out that 27 prior to that date, in fact, that Mr. Flowers had never had 28 any convictions at all.

29 Now let me say this: That the other important

1 thing to understand from what the evidence will say, and we
2 will ask people. I'm going to ask every single person who
3 gets on the stand who there is any reason to ask, and 4 sometimes you will be able to figure it out without the 5 question being asked. Did you see Mr. Flowers with a gun?
6 No. Did you see Mr. Flowers break into anybody's car and 7 take a gun? The answer will be no. Did you see Mr. Flowers
8 go into Tardy's store and shoot anybody? The answer will be
9 no. Did you see Mr. Flowers with a gun, with the gun-- I
10 think that they will be able to tell you in this case what
11 kind of gun was actually used, was a .308 [sic] which is a 12 little pistol. Did you see Mr. Flowers with a .308 pistol on 13 the 16th of July, and the answer will be no.

14 And we have to be careful when we listen to the 15 evidence, and we will be careful. So we will ask the experts
16 who come in here and who say that they looked at it. What
17 they will tell you is they looked at a test. You have a test
18 kit like you have in various other cases on other kinds of 19 evidence. They come and what they do is sometimes they test
20 people to see if they have had any contact, and the idea is 21 to try to find out if a gun could have been fired. And so
22 they will make a test.

23 Now the expert doesn't make the test. That is a
24 very important distinction. The test is done by the police
25 officers at the police station. So the expert doesn't really 26 know personally whether the test was done right, whether, who 27 did it, how experienced they were or what they did. In this
28 particular case which you will find out is that Mr. Flowers
29 totally cooperated with the police, came to the station.

1 They say they did a test on his hand. They say they did a
2 test on the hand, and did they find out that he fired a gun?
3 Absolutely not.

4 What you will find out from the expert is that the 5 kit they gave him, and it came and it is important to 6 understand that he came into contact with several police
7 officers before he had any test. It is important to 8 understand he came into contact with several other people
9 before he had the test. It is important to understand that 10 he was at the police station for a while before he had the 11 test because what the expert will tell you is that yes, I
12 found something which is smaller than a inch. It's like
13 1/25,000th of an inch. It's what we call-- he will explain
14 what it is, but certain elements that comes from when a gun,
15 when a gun has been fired. But what he will tell you about 16 that is that that little tiny, the smallest particle that he
17 could possibly find to say that someone had come in contact
18 with either a person, a place or a gun, because he will tell
19 you that you can get that, this small, small particle if you
20 are in a place where people have been who have left things or 21 left residue from a gun being fired, if you touch a gun that 22 has been fired, or if you touch somebody who has fired a
23 gun.

24 You will find nobody that can tell you that the 25 residue comes from the gun which killed the people in the 26 Tardy case. You will find out that although there were 27 several people who allegedly were, you know, who allegedly 28 was involved either around this gun that they believe was 29 used, that none of those other people were ever tested to see

1 if they had any residue on their hand. For instance, Doyle
2 Simpson, the owner of the gun, was never tested.

3 You will find out that the person who was his
4 brother and the police officers will tell you and we will, if
5 necessary, call the witness himself Emmitt Simpson who Doyle
6 had accused him first. He was Doyle's brother. Doyle
7 accused him of stealing his gun that day and that you will
8 find out that Emmitt Simpson's hands were never tested to see
9 if he had fired a gun.

10 Moreover, from the testimony of the expert, he will 11 have to tell you there may have been hundreds of people, if 12 not thousands of people, walking around Winona in and out on 13 that day or days close to that who actually had the same
14 particle or similar particles on their hand. A shotgun will 15 leave the particle. A rifle will leave the particle. Any 16 other kind of pistol will leave the particle, and it will
17 leave the particle, the expert will tell you, not only if you
18 shoot a gun, but it will leave a particle if you touch a gun,
19 if a you touch a place where a gun is stored, if you touch
20 something that somebody has put their hands on. Police
21 officers shoot guns all the time at the range, and if you
22 touch a table, you could pick up the particle. They will 23 tell you that the particles can be picked up in many 24 different ways. And nobody will ever tie any particle to the 25 gun that was allegedly used. It will never happen in this
26 case. There will never be a time when any expert, anybody
27 else will tell you that the little tiny microscopic particle
28 that the expert says is on, in the kit, that it came from the 29 gun that was used in this case.

1           You will find out, of course, that like anybody and
2 everybody, Mr. Flowers has friends who have guns and fire
3 guns and who come into contact with him all the time. I
4 think you will find out that he came into contact with 5 somebody like that the day, the very day that this incident
6 occurred.

7           We will also see that there is no evidence at the 8 scene that puts Mr. Flowers there. Why do we say that? Now
9 the scene is inside the store. The scene is not on the 10 street. You will find out it's a public street. Mr. Flowers
11 walks the public street. Everybody walks the public street.
12 But the scene is in the store. Nobody puts Mr. Flowers in 13 the store. You also find out that nothing puts Mr. Flowers--
14 well, you will find out that there is no print of Mr. Flowers
15 in the store.

16           There is a print which the expert will tell you
17 could have come from a size ten and a half shoe, could have 18 come from a size 11 shoe, could have come from any two 19 hundred to four hundred to five hundred thousand shoes and 20 even more. There is an infinite number of shoes which could 21 have left the print. He will not be able to tell you that 22 this print came from any shoe which Mr. Flowers had at any 23 time. What he will be able to tell you is that the shoe
24 which was taken from Mr. Flowers' home and tested did not
25 meet the print, did not match the print. It did not match.
26 It was a Nike shoe, and it did not match. So that is what 27 this evidence will really say.

28           You will also find out that there are people, the 29 prosecution will bring many different people in here who will

1     testify presumably - he has promised you to - as to Mr.
2     Flowers' whereabouts on the day, and this is what the
3     prosecution says. Mr. Flowers has walked downtown on many
4     different days. You should keep in mind, and we will point
5     out that this day was no different than any other day until 6     after the deaths of the Tardy people occurred. So nobody saw
7     Mr. Flowers inside that store doing anything to the Tardy
8     people.

9             But we will ask questions and I will ask you to pay
10    very close attention to the questions and to the witnesses.
11    There may be a witness produced by the prosecution by the 12    name of Patricia Hollman. The prosecution says that they 13    will have somebody testify that they saw Mr. Tardy leaving
14    his home. Certainly -- not Mr. Tardy, I'm sorry, Mr. Flowers
15    leaving his home. Certainly Mr. Flowers left his home. He 16    left his home probably every day.

17            You will find out that Ms. Hollman can tell you no
18    way whatsoever where he was going or where he wound up at.
19    You will find out very interestingly though if she does
20    testify, pay close attention to her testimony. She will say
21    that she saw him leaving the home with pants on, black silk
22    like wind suit pants and that he had, he was also wearing a
23    T-shirt, a white T-shirt. Now what you will find out is that 24    she claims that he left around 7:30, that it could have been 25    between-- at one point she said between 7:00 and 7:30, but 26    she believes it was at 7:30. And that now-- excuse me. She 27    said that he was at his house. She saw him going in his 28    house around about 7:30. It could have been anywhere between 29    7:00 and 7:30.

1           You will find out that the young lady who got a
2       brief glimpse at somebody who was supposed to be, according 3       to her testimony, in the parking lot at this place where
4       Doyle Simpson works and who she claims was next to his car.
5       What you will find out is that at the very most or around the 6       very same time that Ms. Hollman says that Mr. Flowers is at 7       his home leaving his home, she is supposed to be seeing this
8       person in the parking lot which is a distance from Mr.
9       Flowers' home, at least a mile, I believe, or perhaps more.

10           So putting their testimonies together, you can
11       figure it out for yourself. You find out she got a brief
12       glimpse. You will find out that she never, she actually had 13       seen Mr. Flowers before. She had seen Mr. Flowers singing.
14       He sang in the gospel group, and she had seen him before.
15       You will find out on the day of the incident when she saw
16       this man or said she saw this man, she did not, she did not 17       say that the person was Mr. Flowers. She didn't say the 18       person was Mr. Flowers for I believe almost a month. And you
19       will find out that she says that she knew Mr. Flowers even 20       before the incident or had seen him because of singing in a
21       gospel group.

22           One other important thing that we will point out to 23       you is that because the community was anxious to solve this 24       crime and solve this incident, they did something which was 25       lawful, but it also may have had some consequences. They
26       offered a reward. So they came up first of all with 8,000, I
27       think, and then 15,000 and then 30,000. Most of these 28       witnesses that the prosecution will put on the stand, you
29       will see, were very conscious of the reward. In fact, the

1 reward was publicized very widely through posters you will
2 see, and the witnesses will tell you they knew about it.

3 And in fact, in one case one witness will admit,
4 this same witness I am talking about, Katherine Snow, I think
5 her name, who said she saw somebody in the parking lot, that 6 she saw a picture of the funeral for one of the deceased, who
7 happened to be black by the way. She saw the pictures of one
8 of the deceased in the newspaper of the Winona newspaper, and 9 at the same time that she saw the picture of the deceased's
10 funeral in the Winona newspaper, in that same paper you will 11 see, or a copy of the paper, right next to it is a big thing
12 about reward offer and they talk about the reward.

13 On the back of the paper the day that Mr. Flowers
14 was arrested, the day that he was arrested or at the time
15 that he was arrested they have a newspaper which on the front
16 of it they have Mr. Flowers getting arrested. On the back
17 they have got a big advisement about the reward is still 18 good. And you will see repeatedly that witnesses pop up late
19 in the ball game. Witnesses get taped statements which don't 20 come until late in the ball game, and even though no witness
21 sees him in the store and sees him do anything in the store,
22 there is witnesses who now they will put on the stand who 23 claim that they can tell even though they had no reason to 24 know that anything was going to happen that day, that that 25 was something so special that they remember that they saw him
26 that day when many of these witnesses are in a position to 27 see him any day when he walks to the store or downtown or to 28 the bank or anywhere else. And it would certainly be 29 difficult for them to determine whether one date was

1 different than the other. No reason to tell.

2 But we will ask these witnesses questions, and I
3 don't want to go into too much detail now, but you will see
4 that there is conflicts. They don't even have him wearing
5 the same clothes. One witness has him leaving a home with a
6 black silk wind suit pants and supposed to have a white
7 T-shirt on, and the witnesses who are supposed to see him
8 just a little while later, according to the prosecution's
9 theory of the case, got him wearing - let me see; what is the 10 guy got him wearing? - or saw him a short while before. One
11 guy has got him bearing a black sweater. I don't know why
12 somebody would wear a black sweater in July, but they have
13 got him wearing a black sweater and white pants. One witness
14 has got him wearing black pants, and another witness has got 15 him with white pants and then got a black sweater on.

16 And then according to Doyle Simpson, he talks to 17 the lady who is supposed to have seen him in the parking lot 18 next to the car not doing anything to the car according to 19 her, okay, not breaking in, not doing a thing to the car.
20 And by the way, Doyle Simpson will tell you he don't know,
21 according to him, - you will find out too that he is not 22 always a truthful person because he lied about his gun. He
23 claimed that the gun, you will find out that this Doyle
24 Simpson is not believable, that he lied about where he got 25 the gun from in the first place. He got the gun from a guy
26 named Ike who he may very well-- they may tell you some 27 things about Ike. Maybe they won't. I don't want to put 28 them out if we don't get them into evidence.

29 But he lied and said he got it from his uncle, and

1 some of the members of the family caught him trying to call
2 the uncle and getting that uncle to vouch for him, but the 3 uncle refused to vouch for him. You will find out that this
4 is the same Doyle Simpson who apparently accused his brother
5 of trying to take the gun according to his brother.

6 But anyway, we will compare where these witnesses
7 say they saw him and what he was supposed to have on at the 8 time because they are all different. None of them are the 9 same. All of them have got him wearing something different
10 right around the same time that they are supposed to be
11 seen. One of them has got him wearing a silk, a black silk
12 like, and you know, most of those things aren't silk, but you
13 know how they are slick like, pants and you know like, kind
14 of like a jogging suit or a wind suit they call it, a wind
15 suit. Another person has got him wearing dressy looking 16 clothes - a white button down shirt and a windbreaker.

17 Doyle Simpson says the woman told him that the 18 person she saw in the parking lot had shorts on and a cap.
19 The woman comes in and says, I don't know what he had on, but 20 I know he didn't have a cap on.

21 And then they will bring a witness who will say
22 that he saw two people in front of-- and we are going to go
23 into this witness. We are going to go into this witness.
24 Remember the rule of order and all that kind of stuff, but we 25 are going to go into this witness. This witness is going to 26 say that he saw two people in front of Tardy's that day, and 27 maybe he did. But then the question becomes really does it
28 have any relevancy because first of all, when you trace the 29 time, this is one of the few witnesses we can pinpoint a time

1 on because we will be able to look at a receipt from the
2 store where he was in the Wal-Mart store about 9:43. The
3 incident is supposed to have happened in this case somewhere
4 around 10:00.

5 In fact, Mr. Sam Jones may speak of, and we want to 6 talk to Sam because Sam is going to tell you some things. He 7 is the one that went in there and discovered the bodies. He
8 will tell you he discovered the bodies, he says before 10
9 o'clock. Okay, that's what he says. Now this guy is at 10 Wal-Mart at 9:43, and you may not have been to Winona before, 11 but we will walk you through it, and then he goes from 12 Wal-Mart in the opposite direction first, all the way in the 13 opposite direction to some place called Don Mitchell's. I
14 may be saying the name wrong, but we will get it straight.
15 And then he goes all the way from Don Mitchell's back to his
16 house, and then his wife tells him, you have been downtown,
17 man, a couple of times, and you still haven't done what you
18 are supposed to do. Where is the cleaning? Right, okay.

19 So then he goes back over to Tardy's, and there is 20 no way that he could have gotten there before 10 o'clock
21 since he left Wal-Mart at 9:43. Then he says he sees two men
22 standing outside, standing not outside Tardy's, but really in 23 front of the alley next to Tardy's or the store which is 24 across from that alley from Tardy's which is called Coast to 25 Coast. So they are really not out in front of Tardy's. And 26 he says he sees two men, just takes a brief glimpse. That is 27 all he ever took was a brief glimpse and saw one of them's
28 face briefly, like zoom. And then these people leave walking
29 away from their car, which is not in front of Tardy's to

1 start off with, going north which is away from Tardy's. And
2 this is after, this has got to be after 10 o'clock.

3 And so one would wonder what are they doing? They
4 are walking away from their car. If people have been killed
5 if they had anything to do with it-- you know what I'm 6 saying? Walking, not running. And he says the two men are
7 arguing with each other, and he says even though he got a
8 brief glimpse of these men, he can tell that one of them was 9 Curtis Flowers. Now that is not quite that clear because he
10 is really kind of-- you will see. Most of the time he says,
11 "I believe it was." "It looked like him." "I think it
12 was." And most of the time he says that, but every now and 13 then they will push him to the point that he says, "That was 14 the man that was in front of Tardy's," from this brief
15 glimpse of a person who he had never seen before in his 16 life.

17 But whoever the person was, you will see from the 18 evidence they weren't going toward Tardy's. They were going
19 away from Tardy's, and they had a car and they were with 20 somebody else. And they were walking away from their car and 21 away from Tardy's at a time when the murders had to have 22 happened already.

23 And then finally, you will have an interesting
24 little witness who owed Tardy's some money for furniture
25 whose testimony will have to be judged, who says that she saw 26 Curtis Flowers, you know, sometime later and all that kind of 27 stuff. She saw Curtis Flowers running in a direction--
28 nobody ever says they saw him in the store or at the store
29 but running in the direction which would have been away from

1 the store, you know, not at a point next to the store but a
2 good little distance from the store but just running.

3 Now if I'm not mistaken, that is the one that I'm
4 unsure of, but we will see what the evidence says. I think
5 she says he has a hat on. The other guy didn't see no hat on 6 these people. In fact, he is describing what the guy who is 7 just supposed to have seen the two men who had a car. So if
8 you had a car and you are Curtis Flowers, I don't know why
9 you would be running anywhere on foot.

10 And then if they put that witness on, we are going
11 to have to bring some other witnesses in here because a
12 couple of witnesses will straight out tell you that she told
13 them that she was saying that for the money. She is saying
14 that for the money. That's what she told a couple of her
15 friends, and they will tell you. For the money; either for 16 the reward or for at least the benefit of Tardy not making
17 her pay her furniture back, and you will see from the 18 evidence at least at the last time we interviewed her, she 19 hadn't paid the money back to Tardy.

20 So we welcome these witnesses, and we will talk to 21 them when they take the stand. Her name is Clemmie Fleming.
22 There is another woman named Jeanette Fleming. And we don't 23 know what is going to happen when they come in here. We just 24 tell you what has happened in the past. She comes in. Now
25 she is supposed to see Curtis -- she doesn't say she saw him
26 in the store or at the store, but she is walking, and their 27 theory is he is walking toward the store. She says that he--
28 she is the one that says he is dressy, and then he says to 29 her, "Hey, good looking. What is going on?"

1           Now here is a man in their theory that is supposed
2 to be so bad that he fired-- he is so enraged. Now he is
3 just, he is enraged like two weeks after he has been fired.
4 And he is so enraged he is going to kill four people or one
5 person or two people or however many people, and he stops and 6 tells somebody, "Hey, good looking. What is happening?" And 7 she said, "Oh, everything is fine," and he goes on.

8           And then she tell us that she went on and went to 9 her friend's house. There are a couple of problems with 10 that. First of all, we have the man where she left off her
11 car that said she walked in the opposite direction of the 12 direction she claims she walked in when she would have met
13 Curtis. She walked in a different direction. I don't know.
14 I mean, you know, we don't, you know, we do -- the man at the 15 store will tell you or at least he will tell you that he told 16 us that she walked in the opposite direction. And she is 17 related to Clemmie Fleming, the other woman who the witnesses
18 will tell you she said she was doing it for the money. She 19 is Clemmie's aunt.

20           Clemmie's own sister will tell you that to the best
21 of her knowledge, Clemmie was at her house that day, said
22 nothing about seeing Curtis Flowers, and actually went to the 23 scene of the incident after it happened with her, and still
24 said nothing about seeing Curtis Flowers.

25           The man who Clemmie said drove her to the scene, if 26 they call him, we will get him to tell you is that Clemmie is 27 not telling the truth because when he was driving her, he 28 first of all, never went in front of Tardy's. And secondly,
29 they did see-- he saw a young person running, but she wasn't

1 in the car when he saw him, and the person was not Curtis,
2 and he will tell you that the police came to him trying to
3 get an identification on Curtis Flowers, and they didn't show
4 him a lineup like they are supposed to see if you can pick
5 somebody out. But they show him one picture and said, Was 6 that the man that you saw running, and he said no.

7 And he will tell you that Clemmie worked on him and
8 the police worked on him, and then later on he was prepared
9 to back her up and perhaps did back her up at least once
10 about her being in the car when he saw the man, but he never 11 backed her up on saying it was Curtis. But then if he is 12 called, he will tell you that he is coming clean now, and in 13 fact, that is not what happened, that she was not in the car
14 at the time that, that he saw the person, first of all, and 15 secondly, they never went in front of Tardy's to start of.
16 He has always stated that, that they never went in front of 17 Tardy's.

18 So what the evidence will show in this case is that
19 Mr. Flowers is charged with a crime which they have no
20 witnesses to say that they saw him commit; that they have no
21 prints of any kind that could positively put him in the 22 store. And in fact, the footprint that they claim they have 23 is a print that could have come from any of a thousand
24 people, at least a thousand, and from any, and from a number
25 of different shoes. We are going to work with this expert
26 when he gets on the stand here, but on his own personal 27 knowledge, this expert doesn't know how many shoes could have 28 made that print. And he definitely will tell you he is not
29 saying that any shoe that Curtis Flowers ever wore made this

1 print. He will definitely tell you that.

2 So the case will proceed, and the evidence will
3 speak for itself which makes it unnecessary for me to
4 continue to speak for the evidence. At the end of the trial
5 we will come to you and we will ask you to return a not
6 guilty verdict. And we believe consistent with your own good
7 judgment and your good conscience and your honest efforts to 8 return a good verdict, that you will have no problem in 9 meeting our request.

10 There will be certain police officers who will 11 testify that I am sure we may take issue with. We will never 12 take issue with the fact that they are trying to, you know,
13 that they don't believe that the people should have been 14 murdered. We are never going to take issue with that. We 15 are never going to take issue to the fact that most of them
16 are trying to do their job.

17 But what we will take issue with is that I think 18 that in some cases you may see that they shade their 19 testimony and that they perhaps didn't do everything that 20 they should have did, at least about taking those tests.
21 Because if they didn't take a test of Emmitt Simpson's hands,
22 didn't take a test of Doyle Simpson's hands, and then they 23 come in here with one tiny particle which cannot be said to 24 have been fired from that same gun, those are the questions
25 that we will raise. And we will rest with the evidence quite 26 happily, and we certainly expect that this jury will not
27 allow any other considerations to get in its way.

28 Thank you.

29 BY THE COURT: Who will you have first?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Melissa Schoene.

2 MELISSA SCHOENE,

3 a white female called to testify as a witness by the State of
4 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
5 follows, to-wit:

6 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
7 please.

8 BY THE WITNESS: My name is Melissa Schoene.
9 My last name is spelled S C H O E N E.

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

11 Q. Good morning, Ms. Schoene.

12 A. Good morning.

13 Q. Ms. Schoene, would you please state for the ladies
14 and gentlemen of the jury how you are employed?

15 A. Yes, sir. I am employed by the Mississippi Crime
16 Laboratory in Jackson.

17 Q. How long have you been employed there?

18 A. I have been with the Mississippi Crime Laboratory
19 for approximately five years.

20 Q. Would you give us a little of your educational 21 background, please?

22 A. Yes, sir. I earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in 23 criminal justice from the University of Alabama and a
24 Master's Degree of Science also from the University of 25 Alabama in the field of organic chemistry.

26 Q. All right, on Tuesday July the 16th of 1996, what
27 were your job duties?

28 A. I was assigned to the crime scene response unit,
29 and it was my responsibility to respond to requests from law

1 enforcement agencies when assistance was needed with the
2 documentation and collection of evidence from violent crime
3 scenes.

4 Q. All right, before your employment with the Crime
5 Lab, did you have any related type work experience?

6 A. Yes, sir. Prior to my employment with the 7 Mississippi Crime Laboratory, I was employed by the Alabama
8 Department of Forensic Sciences on a part time basis for 9 approximately two years, and I was employed by the Northport
10 Police Department on a part time basis for approximately two 11 years.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, if it is of any worth,
13 I don't have an objection to Ms. Schoene's - and I
14 hope I am pronouncing it--

15 BY THE WITNESS: --Yes, sir.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: - qualifications as an
17 expert. I don't have an objection.

18 BY THE COURT: Do you accept that
19 stipulation?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. We accept her as an 21 expert in the field of crime scene investigation
22 and evidence collection.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Those are the fields that I
24 have no objection to her testifying.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court accepts her as 26 an expert in that field. She will be allowed to 27 testify.

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. Ms. Schoene, I want to direct your attention

1 specifically to July the 16th, 1996, and ask you if you had
2 an occasion to be called to Winona, Mississippi, on that
3 date?

4 A. Yes, sir. I was. I was advised by the Director of 5 the Crime Laboratory, Director James, that Winona Police
6 Department and the Mississippi Highway Patrol investigators
7 have requested our assistance at a furniture store in Winona,
8 Mississippi, where there was believed to be a multiple 9 homicide.

10 Q. All right, and what did you do in response to that 11 request?

12 A. Well, she-- I left the Crime Laboratory at 13 approximately 11:55 that morning, and I brought with me
14 another forensic scientist. Her name is Jodi Creel. We left
15 the Crime Laboratory and arrived at Tardy Furniture Store in 16 Winona at approximately 1:10 or 1:15 that afternoon.

17 Q. When you arrived at Tardy Furniture Store, what did
18 you observe?

19 A. When I arrived at the furniture store, typically 20 the first thing that we do when we are assisting a law
21 enforcement agency with the collection of evidence at a crime
22 scene is to obtain a history of the crime and of the 23 circumstances that surround the case up until the time that
24 they have decided to request our assistance and we arrive. I
25 obtained a brief history of what had happened and what 26 investigators had done and what, who had been inside of the 27 crime scene, and then I surveyed the crime scene. And what 28 that means is I walk through the area and observe what is 29 lying around, look at different things, observe how many

1 victims are there and that type thing. After surveying the
2 scene, then I proceed to documenting and collecting
3 evidence.

4 Q. Okay, did you also take photographs at the scene?

5 A. Yes, sir. That is part of the documentation
6 procedures that we use.

7 Q. Okay. In addition to taking photographs, did you
8 actually recover some physical evidence at the scene?

9 A. Yes, sir. I took photographs and recovered
10 physical evidence.

11 Q. Ms. Schoene, I will hand you Exhibits S-1 through 12 S-3 and S-1A through S-3A and ask you, if you would, to look 13 at those.

14 A. (Witness complies.) I am finished.

15 Q. Can you identify what those are?

16 A. Yes, sir. The slides are slides that I took at the 17 crime scene. The photographs are representations of what is 18 in the slide. They are not exactly the same. The 19 photographs appear to be cropped meaning that there might be 20 a little bit more area in the slide, but then these slides
21 were made into photographs, and they do match, State's 22 Exhibit S-1, S-2 and S-3.

23 Q. In S-1, S-2 and S-3, do those pictures truly and 24 accurately depict what you saw when you arrived at the store
25 on the outside of the store?

26 A. Yes, sir, they do. These are photographs of the 27 exterior of the furniture store.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer these six
29 exhibits into evidence.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I see those briefly,
2 Judge?

3 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Make sure we coordinate it.
5 I don't need to see the slides, just the picture.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Well, I have got them
7 together.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I really don't have
9 any objections. At a later time I will just, I
10 will take the opportunity to coordinate what is 11 being entered in these exhibits with what we have
12 here.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let them be marked as 14 exhibits and admitted.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And that is S-1 through?

16 BY THE COURT: There were six. That's S-1, 2,
17 3 and 1A, 2A and 3A; is that right?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

19 (PHOTOGRAPHS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S 20 EXHIBITS S-1, S-2, AND S-3 FOR IDENTIFICATION AND 21 THE CORRESPONDING SLIDES MARKED AS S-1A, S-2A, AND 22 S-3A FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW ALL ADMITTED IN
23 EVIDENCE.)

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in an attempt to 25 try to save some time, I have two other stacks of 26 photographs I would like to show Defense Counsel
27 that we intend to introduce at this point.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, for the record if it's

1                   okay--

2                   BY MR. EVANS:  --I haven't offered them yet.
3                   I am just showing them to you.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Oh, okay.

5                   BY THE COURT:  Let her identify them.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, that is fine.

7                   BY MR. EVANS:  This stack, Your Honor, for the 8                   record is Exhibits 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26,
9                   27, 29, 30, 31, and 38.  They are already marked
10                  for identification.

11                  BY THE COURT:  Okay, you want to get her to 12                  identify them.

13                  BY MR. EVANS:  Well, I thought I would do the 14                  same thing with this other stack next so that--

15                  BY THE COURT:  --Okay.

16                  BY MR. EVANS:  I am trying to figure out a way
17                  of making it go a little faster.

18                  BY THE COURT:  That is fine.

19                  (More photographs shown to Mr. Lumumba.  Pause
20                  while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr. Freelon.)

21                  BY MR. EVANS:  Okay, Your Honor, this stack of 22                  photographs are Exhibits 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14,
23                  15, 16, 17, and 18.

24                  BY MR. EVANS:

25                  Q.    Ms. Schoene, I will show you first Exhibits 8
26                  through 18 and slides 8A through 18A and ask you if you would 27                  compare them for me, please.

28                  A.    Would it be easier for me to put them back, put 29                  them together, or would you like a stack of slides and a

1 stack of--

2 Q. Either way.

3 A. Do them like this?

4 Q. Whichever will be easier for you.

5 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibits.) Should I
6 say them as I go? Would that make it easier?

7 BY THE COURT: Why don't you just-- well,
8 whatever.

9 BY THE WITNESS:

10 A. Because I can say "S" Exhibit S-8 does agree with 11 slide 8A.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. State's Exhibit S-9 does agree with S-9A.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. State's Exhibit S-10 does agree with S-10A.

16 State's Exhibit S-11 does agree with S-11A. State's Exhibit
17 S-12 does agree with S-12A. State's Exhibit S-13 does agree
18 with S-13A. State's Exhibit S-14 does agree with S-14A.
19 State's Exhibit S-15 does agree with S-15A. State's Exhibit
20 S-16 does agree with S-16A. State's Exhibit S-17 does agree
21 with S-17A. And State's Exhibit S-18 does agree with S-18A.

22 Q. All right, Ms. Schoene, Exhibits S-8 through S-18
23 along with the corresponding slides, do they also truly and 24 accurately depict the scene as you saw it that morning?

25 A. Yes, sir. They do.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer these
27 exhibits into evidence.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Your Honor, these are which 29 ones? 8 through what now? I'm sorry.

1 BY MR. EVANS: 8 through 18 and the
2 corresponding slides.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 8 through 18. Can I see them
4 one more time? We don't need the slides. We have
5 an objection to S-18 for the reasons stated already 6 as it relates to--

7 BY THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And prejudicial.

9 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have an objection to
11 S-17. We have no objection to S-16. We have no
12 objection to S-15. We have no objection to S-14.
13 We have no objection to S-13. And we have no
14 objection to S-12. S-11, we have no objection to.
15 S-10, we have no objection to. S-9, we have no
16 objection to. And S-8, we have no objection to.
17 Essentially, we have objected to every picture that 18 had a body in it.

19 BY THE COURT: 17 and 18, was that it?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

21 BY THE COURT: Could I see them?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

23 (Photographs handed to the Court.)

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. The objection is
25 overruled. Let them be admitted.

26 (PHOTOGRAPHS AND CORRESPONDING SLIDES
27 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-8 AND S-8A
28 THROUGH S-18 AND S-18A FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW
29 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

1 BY MR. EVANS:

2 Q. Your Honor, next Ms. Schoene, I want to hand you
3 this group of pictures which again is Exhibits 19, 20, 21,
4 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30, 31 and 38, and ask you to 5 compare them with the corresponding slides?

6 A. (Pause while witness complies.) State's Exhibit
7 S-19 does correspond to S-19A. State's Exhibit S-20 does
8 correspond to S-20A. State's Exhibit S-21 does correspond to
9 S-21A. State's Exhibit S-22 does correspond to S-22A.
10 State's Exhibit S-23 does correspond to S-23A. State's
11 Exhibit S-24 does correspond to slide S-24A. State's Exhibit
12 S-25 does correspond to S-25A. State's Exhibit S-26 does
13 correspond to S-26A. State's Exhibit S-27 does correspond to
14 S-27A. State's Exhibit S-29 does correspond to S-29A.
15 State's Exhibit S-30 does correspond to S-30A. State's
16 Exhibit S-31 does correspond to S-31A. State's Exhibit S-38
17 does correspond to slide S-38A. That is all.

18 Q. Do all of these photographs and slides that you
19 have just identified also show the crime scene as you found
20 it that morning?

21 A. Yes, sir. They do.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer Exhibits 19
23 through 27 with corresponding slides, Exhibit 29
24 and 30, 31, and 38 along with the corresponding 25 slides into evidence.

26 (Mr. Lumumba looks at photographs.)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, by the way, any
28 objection we have to the pictures, also we object
29 to the corresponding slides.

1                   BY THE COURT: I understood that.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We would object to
3                   S-19. We object to S-20, S-22, S-23, S-24, S-25,
4                   S-26, S-27. We have no objection to S-2-- we have
5                   no objection to S-29. No objection to S-30. We do
6                   object to S-31. And we have no objection to S-38.

7                   (Photographs were shown to the Court.)

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay, the objection is
9                   overruled. Let them be marked.

10                  (PHOTOGRAPHS AND CORRESPONDING SLIDES
11                  PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-19 AND 12                  S-19A THROUGH S-27 AND S-27A FOR IDENTIFICATION AND 13                  STATE'S EXHIBITS S-29 AND S-29A THROUGH S-31 AND 14                  S-31A FOR IDENTIFICATION AND STATE'S EXHIBIT S-38
15                  AND S-38A FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW RECEIVED IN
16                  EVIDENCE.)

17                  BY MR. EVANS:

18                  Q. All right, Ms. Schoene, before we actually get into 19                  looking at the pictures, did you also have an occasion during 20                  your crime scene investigation to do any sketching of the 21                  scene?

22                  A. Yes, sir. I did.

23                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have these 24                  two items marked for identification?

25                  BY THE COURT: Yes.

26                  ("POLISHED" SKETCH OF STORE OFFICE AREA BY MS.
27                  SCHOENE WAS MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-72 FOR 28                  IDENTIFICATION. SKETCH OF STORE AREA WAS MARKED AS 29                  STATE'S EXHIBIT S-73 FOR IDENTIFICATION, AND

1 OVERLAY OF STORE OFFICE AREA WAS MARKED AS STATE'S
2 EXHIBIT S-74 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

3 BY THE COURT: While she is doing that, y'all
4 give me the numbers that have been admitted. I
5 have not marked my list.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Exhibits 1 through 3, 8
7 through--

8 BY THE COURT: --Wait. Okay, 8 through what?

9 BY MR. EVANS: 8 through 27.

10 BY THE COURT: 8 through 27.

11 BY MR. EVANS: 29, 30, and 31.

12 BY THE COURT: 29 through 31.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Right, and 38.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All those you say have been
15 admitted?

16 BY MR. EVANS: Right. Just those so far.

17 BY MR. EVANS:

18 Q. Ms. Schoene, first I will show you -- well, let me
19 show opposing counsel what the exhibits are.

20 (Exhibits S-72, S-73, and S-74 for 21 identification were shown to Defense Counsel.)

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. Ms. Schoene, I will hand you Exhibits S-72, S-73
24 and S-74 and ask you to examine them if you would.

25 A. (Pause) Okay, would you like me to say what they 26 are?

27 Q. Yes, please.

28 A. State's Exhibit 73 is a rough sketch that was drawn
29 at the crime scene. It represents the northern, a northern

1 portion of the Tardy Furniture Store where three victims were
2 located. And this is, State's Exhibit 73 is what I did at
3 the scene. State's Exhibit 72 is a more polished sketch. It
4 contains the same information that is contained in State's
5 Exhibit 73, but it is just polished up a bit. It is made a
6 little bit more for presentation. State's Exhibit 72,
7 however, is still not to scale. This is still, it's a rough
8 sketch in the sense that it is not a to scale drawing. So if
9 you are to see State's Exhibit 72, it is not exactly as it
10 appeared. The pictures represent what it looked like much
11 more accurately than this sketch. Finally, State's Exhibit
12 74 is a transparency that looked, contains a reduced
13 photocopy of the polished sketch of the furniture store,
14 and all of these represent the same area in the furniture
15 store.

16 Q. And were these diagrams prepared by you to help you
17 in recalling what you saw at the scene?

18 A. These were actually prepared by Jodi Creel, which 19 is the person that assisted me at the crime scene.

20 Q. And do they truly and accurately depict what you
21 saw at the crime scene?

22 A. Yes, they do.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer these three
24 exhibits into evidence.

25 BY THE WITNESS: With the exception of not
26 being to scale.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Our objection is merely to 28 the inclusion of persons in it which are connected
29 in our view to other cases, the objection we made--

1                   BY THE COURT: --yes, sir, okay. That
2                   objection is overruled, and I will allow them to be
3                   admitted.

4                   ("POLISHED" SKETCH OF STORE OFFICE AREA BY
5                   SCHOENE PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-72
6                   FOR IDENTIFICATION, SKETCH OF STORE AREA PREVIOUSLY
7                   MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-73 FOR IDENTIFICATION,
8                   AND OVERLAY OF STORE OFFICE AREA PREVIOUSLY MARKED
9                   AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-74 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW
10                  RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

11                  BY THE COURT: Now my list is a little 12                  different as to the way it's described.

13                  BY THE COURT REPORTER: I will change it.

14                  BY THE COURT: Okay. What are the numbers of 15                  the ones I have just admitted?

16                  BY MR. EVANS: 73. That is rough sketch of 17                  the area if you would like to mark it.

18                  BY THE COURT: Let me see it.

19                  BY MR. EVANS: 74 is kind of a cleaned up
20                  sketch, a little neater-- I'm sorry, 72.

21                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

22                  BY MR. EVANS: And 74 is the overlay.

23                  BY THE COURT: All right.

24                  BY MR. EVANS:

25                  Q. Ms. Schoene, in addition to photographing other
26                  parts, I want to hand you-- well, these haven't been marked 27                  yet either.

28                  BY MR. EVANS: I would like to have these four 29                  photographs marked for identification.

1                   (FOUR PHOTOGRAPHS OF SHOE TRACKS WERE MARKED
2                   AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-93 THROUGH S-96 FOR
3                   IDENTIFICATION.)

4 BY MR. EVANS:

5           Q.    Ms. Schoene, I will hand you Exhibits 93, 94, 95
6           and 96, and ask you to examine these if you would, please.

7           A.   (Pause) Yes, sir. I recognize Exhibits 93, 94, 95
8           and 96.

9           Q.    Can you tell us what those exhibits are?

10          A.   Yes, sir. These are enlargements of black and 11          white photographs that I made of the crime scene of some 12          partial footwear impressions that were at the top of a ramp, 13          and this ramp joined the northern half of the store with the 14          southern half of the store. These were in close proximity to 15          two of the bodies that were at the crime scene.

16          Q.    What was the significance of those photographs?

17          A.   Well, I photographed these because they appeared to 18          have been made in blood, and they were made, they were in 19          close proximity, as I said, to some of the physical evidence
20          that I collected as well as victims' bodies. As far as 21          significance, I'm not quite sure what you mean other than it
22          was evidence, and my job there was to collect and document
23          evidence. And I consider this to be evidence, so I
24          documented it.

25          Q.    And these four exhibits, do they truly and 26          accurately depict the shoe wear impression in the blood that 27          you made copies of that day by photographs?

28          A.   Yes, sir. They do.

29                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer these four

1 exhibits into evidence.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection to the
3 exhibits, Your Honor.

4 BY THE COURT: Let them be marked. That is
5 93, 94, 95, and 96?

6 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

7 (PHOTOGRAPHS OF SHOE PRINTS PREVIOUSLY MARKED
8 AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-93, S-94, S-95 AND S-96 FOR 9 IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

10 BY MR. EVANS:

11 Q. All right, Ms. Schoene, now that we have gotten 12 that out of the way, if you would, describe first before we 13 show the overlay generally what you saw in the store when you
14 went in.

15 A. As I said previously, the furniture store was 16 divided roughly into two halves, and I entered on the top
17 half which would be the northern half. I walked into the 18 store, and about midway, close to the back of the store there
19 was some crime scene tape, and on the other side of the crime
20 scene tape I observed three victims on the floor. And they
21 are all lying in pools of blood and a fourth pool of blood
22 that was there. There were some casings that were around
23 that area as well as these partial footwear impressions that 24 we just had admitted. And after searching around on the 25 floor for some other physical evidence, I also found some 26 projectiles and other pieces of metal fragments.

27 Q. All right, as part of your crime scene
28 investigation, is it necessary to talk with the first
29 officers on the scene to determine also what they observed?

1           A.    Yes, most definitely. That's the way that we, when
2 we come to assist an agency with documenting and collecting
3 physical evidence, that's how we find out what they know so
4 far, so we will know where, how to begin collecting our 5 evidence for the most part and what they know and what they
6 might need to find out and that type thing. But yes, sir, we 7 do obtain a general history of the aspects concerning the 8 crime up until we, up until the time that we arrived.

9           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I set up a
10 screen so I can show the overlay first?

11           BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

12           BY MR. EVANS: I'm not sure how far this one
13 needs to be away.

14           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I do this, Judge? Can I
15 sit here?

16           BY THE COURT: Sure. As long as, just don't 17 block the jurors' view. Can you see from that 18 chair right there?

19           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

20           BY THE COURT: Okay.

21           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have the 22 witness step down?

23           BY THE COURT: Yes.

24           (Witness steps down to side of sketch
25 projected on the screen on opposite side of the 26 courtroom from the jury box.)

27 BY MR. EVANS:

28           Q.    Ms. Schoene, I have Exhibit 74 that I am showing on 29 the screen. If you would, I would like you to take this

1 pointer, and if you will -- is it working?

2 A. Barely.

3 Q. Let me see.

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. You may have to push the button kind of hard.

6 A. I am pushing pretty darn hard, okay.

7 Q. All right, if you would describe first to the 8 ladies and gentlemen of the jury, what that diagram shows.

9 A. This is a diagram, as I mentioned earlier, of the 10 northwest room of the Tardy Furniture Store in Winona. The 11 front of the store is this direction; the back of the store
12 is this direction. There is a counter that you see here that
13 was about in the middle of the store. Around this counter
14 was a victim in a pool of blood, another victim in a pool of 15 blood, a pool of blood, and another victim in a pool of 16 blood. This victim was closer to the back of the store
17 whereas these two victims and pools of blood were in the,
18 closer concentrated around the counter area. Also around
19 this area as you see, there is a great deal of furniture -
20 chairs, beds, cushions, sofas, that type thing. And it
21 looked like a furniture store on the inside. This is the 22 slope that I mentioned, this down slope, and the footwear,
23 partial footwear impressions that we briefly talked about are 24 located right here. They are labeled A, B, and C. A is 25 labeled closest to the front of the store, and C is closest
26 to the this pool of blood.

27 Q. All right, other than that, I notice that there are 28 other numbers on your diagram. What do they signify?

29 A. Okay, well, each--

1 Q. --the numbers 1, 2, 3.

2 A. Right. There are some-- the numbers themselves
3 represent evidence that I collected and their location or 4 again, their approximate location as you see them on this
5 rough sketch or polished sketch. But again, please bear in 6 mind that this is not to scale, and I think that the 7 photographs will help you interpret more correctly what it
8 looked like to me when I was there. These things, as I
9 mentioned, these are the partial footwear impressions. 1A is 10 a cartridge, a live round that I collected from this 11 location, and for those of you not familiar with firearms or 12 projectiles, a cartridge or a live round is a casing with a
13 projectile inside of it. Okay, so this is a cartridge which 14 is a casing with a projectile, an unfired round or live round
15 was collected here. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 represent the locations
16 of casings that I collected, and a casing is the empty part
17 of the cartridge for the most part. It is after the bullet
18 has been fired, and it's what is left behind. It's a 19 casing.

20 Okay, next I collected two projectiles and two 21 fragments, two metal fragments. The projectiles are labeled
22 1B and 2B, and the fragments are labeled 1C and 2C. And a
23 fragment is just a very small piece of metal, and a
24 projectile is something that you would probably-- it
25 resembles a bullet. It's a deformed bullet. It doesn't have 26 to be, but in this case it was.

27 Q. All right, now of the bodies that are shown on 28 there, where was Ms. Tardy located, Ms. Bertha Tardy?

29 A. Ms. Tardy was victim number three, and she was here

1 in the back of the store.

2 Q. Okay, how about Robert Golden?

3 A. Mr. Robert Golden was lying here in front of the 4 counter with his back up against the counter, right here.

5 Q. Carmen Rigby?

6 A. Ms. Carmen Rigby was located here. She was victim
7 number two.

8 Q. And--

9 A. --She was fairly close proximity to this slope and 10 to this pool of blood.

11 Q. Were you able to determine from your investigation
12 of the scene where Derrick Stewart was located?

13 A. I was able to determine from my examination of the 14 scene that another victim was here in this area where this 15 blood was located. There was a large pool of blood here and 16 also a baseball cap.

17 Q. All of the physical exhibits that you have 18 described as far as the live rounds, the hulls that you
19 found, and the projectiles and fragments of projectiles that 20 you recovered, did you document all of those and recover
21 them?

22 A. Yes, sir. Everything that you see on this sketch I
23 collected and submitted to the Crime Laboratory for 24 examination.

25 Q. All right. If you would, go ahead and have a seat
26 for a minute, please.

27 Q. All right, Ms. Schoene, the actual physical 28 exhibits that you recovered, I would like to hand you these 29 exhibits and ask you to look at them if you would. Take them

1 one at a time, call out the number of the exhibit and what
2 that exhibit is, and let me see if I can get them in order
3 here. (Pause.) All right, Exhibit 75, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81,
4 82, 83, 84 and 85. If you would, starting with the first
5 exhibit, tell us what those exhibits are?

6 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibits.) Would you
7 like me to give this in the order of the State's Exhibit, the 8 order that you have them lined up?

9 Q. Whichever would be easier to you. It really
10 doesn't matter if it's in that order or not.

11 A. Okay. State's Exhibit 77 is a white pill box
12 labeled projectile collected from-- it's difficult to read
13 the box. There is a lot of tape placed over them.
14 Projectile collected from area northeast of Robert Golden,
15 and it's projectile 1B if you recall from the sketch. 1B.
16 This contains the projectile that was labeled on the sketch
17 as 1B. That is Mississippi Crime Laboratory exhibit number 18 31.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. State's Exhibit 78 is Mississippi Crime Laboratory
21 case number, exhibit number 32, and it is a white pill box
22 labeled projectile collected from underneath love seat next
23 to south side of counter, projectile 2B. So if you recall
24 from the sketch, projectile 2B that was labeled in the sketch
25 is what is contained within this box.

26 State's Exhibit 79 is Mississippi Crime Laboratory
27 case number, exhibit number 33. It is a fragment collected
28 from the area near the head of Carmen Rigby, and it's labeled
29 as fragment 1C.

1 State's Exhibit 80 is Mississippi Crime Laboratory
2 case number, exhibit number 25. It is a casing collected
3 from near Robert Golden, and it is casing number 1.

4 State's Exhibit number 81 is Mississippi Crime
5 Laboratory exhibit number 26. It is casing collected from 6 near Robert Golden. This is casing number 2.

7 State's Exhibit number 82 is Crime Laboratory
8 exhibit number 27. It is casing collected from near Carmen
9 Rigby which was the victim lying in front of the counter.
10 This is casing number 3.

11 State's Exhibit number 83 is Crime Laboratory
12 exhibit number 28. It is casing collected from area between 13 Carmen Rigby and Bertha Tardy. This box contains casing
14 number 4.

15 State's Exhibit number 84 is Crime Laboratory
16 exhibit number 29, and it is a casing collected from near
17 Bertha Tardy which is the victim that is closest to the back
18 of the store. This is casing number 5.

19 And State's Exhibit number 85 is Crime Laboratory
20 exhibit number 30, and it is the cartridge collected from 21 near Carmen Rigby.

22 Q. And what exhibit was number was that as far as your 23 exhibit in the diagram?

24 A. The cartridge. The final State's Exhibit number 85
25 is the cartridge that is collected near Carmen Rigby, and I
26 believe that was 1A in the sketch.

27 Q. Do all of these projectiles and cases and the 28 cartridge, are they in the same condition now as they were in 29 at the time that you recovered them?

1           A.    The boxes are the same, and the boxes are in the 2 same condition, yes, sir.

3           Q.    These boxes were what you sealed them in when you
4 sent them to the State Crime Lab; is that correct?

5           A.    Yes, sir. I labeled these boxes and put the date
6 on them and initialed them myself and sealed them. Yes, sir.

7           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I would offer
8 Exhibits 77 through 85 into evidence.

9           (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: The only objection were the 11 ones raised before the trial.

12          BY THE COURT: All right. That objection is 13 overruled. Let them be marked. While she is 14 marking that, can I see y'all up here just a
15 second.

16          BY THE COURT REPORTER: Do you want it on the
17 record?

18          BY THE COURT: No, this is administrative
19 stuff.

20          (BENCH CONFERENCE OFF THE RECORD.)

21          (NINE WHITE PILL BOXES CONTAINING PROJECTILES
22 THAT WERE PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS
23 S-77 THROUGH S-85 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW
24 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

25          BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we are
26 going to take a break right now for about 15
27 minutes. We have been going a pretty long time
28 this morning. I'm going to feed you in different
29 places while you are here. Sometimes you are going

1 to go to restaurants. Sometimes we will eat here.
2 If it will move things along a little bit better,
3 some days we may each eat here at lunch. This is 4 going to be one of those days we eat here at 5 lunch. The bailiffs are going to have-- they have
6 got menus for you. We need about an hour lead time
7 for the food to get prepared and bring here, so I'm
8 going to give you a break for about 15 minutes.
9 Now you can go to the jury room, tell them what you
10 want, and they will get it ordered. Then when it
11 gets here probably about 12:30, we will take a 12 break at that time for the lunch break. Okay, take 13 about 15 minutes.

14 BY THE BAILIFF: Remain seated, please.

15 (JURY LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. Everybody can have a
17 break.

18 (FOLLOWING THE MORNING RECESS ON MARCH 24,
19 1999, THE TRIAL CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE
20 COURT AND ALL COUNSEL PRESENT AND WITH MS. MELISSA
21 SCHOENE STILL ON THE STAND:)

22 BY THE COURT: You may bring the jury back.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What situation are we--

24 BY THE COURT: The jury is coming back.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have an issue we need to 26 talk to you about whenever.

27 BY THE COURT: Huh?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have an issue that we need
29 to talk about at the first opportunity.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay. How about when we break
2 for lunch? Will that be all right?

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is something--

4                   (JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.)

5                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
6 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: The lab person who said she
8 had to go out of town, Haller.

9                   BY MR. EVANS: Betty Haller?

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. She is here. She is 11 real short. I think all she did was the DNA
12 analysis of the scraping of the--

13                  BY MR. HORAN: --If y'all want to introduce 14 the report, you can introduce the report. We are 15 not going to put her on.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. I was going to put 17 her on out of order. That's what you told me
18 because she is supposed to be leaving. Do you know
19 what I'm saying?

20                  BY MR. HORAN: Why don't you just introduce 21 the report.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will look at that.

23                  BY THE COURT: Okay. All right.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will look at that. If that 25 is satisfactory.

26                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

27                  BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

28                  BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

29                  BY MR. EVANS: May I have the witness step

1 down again?

2 BY THE COURT: Sure.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Well, we are waiting on one
4 person, Your Honor.

5 BY THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. We need the
6 Defendant.

7 BY MR. EVANS: You can have a seat up there
8 for just a second.

9 (Defendant enters the courtroom.)

10 BY THE COURT: All right.

11 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q. Ms. Haller [sic], first can you see the diagram on 13 the screen up there from where you are, or do you need to 14 step down?

15 A. I can see it fine.

16 Q. All right, I want to hand you again Exhibits 93,
17 94, 95, and 96, the shoe impressions that you took 18 photographs of?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. I'm going to try to get to where I am out of the 21 way of the jury. Can you point out on that diagram with your 22 pointer where those shoe impressions that were recovered in 23 blood were found?

24 A. Would you like for me to present to the jury the 25 pictures and then show them the location?

26 Q. Yes, if you don't mind. If you would like to, you
27 can step down to do that.

28 A. Okay.

29 (Witness steps down closer to screen.)

1           A.    As I mentioned earlier, this area right here just
2 above where this slope is there was three partial footwear
3 impressions that appeared to be in blood, and I photographed
4 these. I labeled these partial impressions A, B and C. And 5 what I have here are the black and white enlargements of the 6 photographs that I took of the impressions in this area.

7           Q.    And Ms. Haller [sic], just to simplify it, what you
8 are talking about is where somebody walked in some blood and 9 left their track; is that right?

10          A.    Yes, sir. That's what it appears.

11          Q.    Okay, if you would continue?

12          A.    This is an enlargement of a black and white
13 photograph that is labeled "A." As you can see with the 14 north direction, and if you look at the sketch here, there is 15 the northern direction. So "A" corresponds to this "A" in 16 this direction. Okay, this is the impression that was the 17 lightest of the three, and when I say lightest, I mean it was 18 the least heavy. There was a progression somewhat of the-- a
19 thick impression, a little bit less, and then a thinner
20 impression of the substance that was making the impression.
21 There was less of it on "A," and this is "A." And this is 22 State's Exhibit, is that 93?

23          Q.    Right.

24          A.    State's Exhibit 93. Okay, State's Exhibit 94 and 25 95 are enlargements of black and white photographs that I
26 made of impression "B." This is impression "B." And these 27 are, it's the same impression there, and again you see the 28 northern direction so they were like this. It's the same
29 impression, but there is two different photographs of it. I

1 took several photographs of each impression using black and
2 white film with an oblique light source that I altered
3 slightly for each photograph. And this is a technique that
4 we use to enhance footwear impressions so the footwear
5 examiner apparently liked these two photographs and felt that 6 he needed two of them. So he chose two of them and had these
7 two enlarged, so these two represent "B."

8 BY MR. EVANS: All right. Your Honor, may I
9 pass those two to the jury as she proceeds?

10 BY THE COURT: They have been admitted,
11 haven't they?

12 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. You can pass them.

14 (State's Exhibits S-94 and S-95 were passed to 15 the jury.)

16 BY THE WITNESS:

17 A. This is the final black and white enlargement.
18 This is, as you can see, it's labeled "C" in the northern
19 direction, so it's situated like this, and it is represented
20 here. And as I mentioned earlier, this is the heaviest of 21 the impressions, and you will see this if you're allowed to 22 pass it around. This does look a little bit thicker than 23 both of the B or the A. And this is State's Exhibit 96, and 24 it does accurately represent the partial footwear impression
25 that I depicted in this sketch labeled "C."

26 Q. And very briefly, now that you have introduced the 27 projectiles, the fragments, the hulls, and the live round
28 that you recovered, without actually taking each one and 29 doing it, would you point out on the diagram with your

1 pointer where those items were recovered and what was
2 recovered from which area?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Do you need your notes to do it?

5 A. No, sir. I don't believe so. I may refer to 6 them. Okay, I have just discussed the partial footwear
7 impressions, A, B and C. And as you can see, they are 8 located here, about at the top of the slope very near victim
9 number two, Bertha Tardy. 1A in the sketch represents the 10 live round or the cartridge that I collected, and the single 11 numbers 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 back here near the back, again those 12 represent the casings. And if you remember, the casing is 13 the empty, it's what is left after a bullet is fired. It's 14 just a hull. It's a shell. That is a casing. So those 1, 15 2, 3, 4 and 5 are casings.

16 Q. Ms. Schoene, let me stop you right there for a
17 minute. On the casings that you found, what caliber were 18 those casings?

19 A. The head stamp on the casing read .380.

20 Q. And were all of these casings the same caliber?

21 A. Yes, sir. They were all .380's.

22 Q. All right. Go ahead and proceed with your diagram
23 if you would.

24 A. Okay, the next two types of evidence that I
25 collected were projectiles and then fragments which is pieces
26 of projectiles or pieces of metal. The projectiles are 27 labeled 1B, 1B and 2B. Right here are the two projectiles or 28 the bullets, okay, that have come out of a casing. And 29 finally, the other bits of evidence that I collected are

1 fragments, and it would be 1C and 2C, and they are located
2 here underneath this love seat and here in this pool of
3 blood.

4 Q. And the hulls to start with, who at the Crime Lab
5 did you submit those to for any comparisons?

6 A. Those casings were examined by Steve Byrd, our
7 firearms examiner at the Crime Laboratory.

8 Q. And did he also receive the projectiles and the 9 fragments of projectiles that you recovered?

10 A. Yes, sir; he did.

11 Q. Okay. If you would, I would like for you to try to 12 stand where you are. We may need to get you to move, but I
13 want to show some slides and get you to explain what they 14 show.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we have the 16 bailiff cut the lights? I think it is just one up
17 in this part will probably be enough.

18 BY THE COURT: Yeah, that will work.

19 (Part of the lights were turned off in the 20 courtroom, and the slide projector was turned on.)

21 BY MR. EVANS:

22 Q. Ms. Schoene, I show you Exhibit S-1 first and ask
23 you if you can identify what this exhibit is?

24 A. Yes, sir. This is the photograph of the parking
25 lot outside of Tardy Furniture Store.

26 Q. And have you got your pointer with you?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. If you would, point out where the, approximately
29 where the front door of Tardy Furniture is located?

1           A.    This area.

2           Q.    All right.

3           A.    This is again the exterior, the outside of Tardy
4 Furniture Store. This is just taken at a slightly different
5 angle. Again this is Tardy Furniture Store right here.

6           Q.    And for the record that is Exhibit S-2. I will
7 next show you Exhibit S-3.

8           A.    Okay, again this is the outside of Tardy Furniture
9 Store just simply taken from another angle. I am standing
10 farther away and taking a shot at the front of the store.

11          Q.    And is this the same front door that you have 12 described in Exhibit S-1?

13          A.    Yes, sir. This one is.

14          Q.    The next exhibit I will show you will be Exhibit
15 S-8. I am getting to it. I have got them in order.

16          A.    Okay, this is a photograph that I took of one of 17 the back doors of Tardy Furniture Store with the piece of 18 wood bolted in place. That's how it appeared upon my 19 arrival.

20          Q.    All right, and while we are at this slide, would
21 you explain to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury why it
22 was necessary for you to look at all of the doors and 23 document what condition they were in?

24          A.    It's general scene documentation. I photograph the 25 entries and exit ways, and this was just one of the 26 photographs of the two back doors. And this shows that it
27 was in the closed and locked position.

28          Q.    All right, the next photograph is Exhibit S-9. Can 29 you tell us what this photograph shows?

1 (Slide Exhibit S-9A was shown on the screen.)

2 A. Yes, sir. I am taking this picture standing near
3 the back of the furniture store looking out toward the front,
4 and we have talked about this counter here. This is where
5 the body of Robert Golden and Carmen Rigby are just on the 6 other side of this, as is the third or the fourth pool of 7 blood, and the baseball cap is just to the other side of this
8 counter. And that is, this is an excellent overall
9 representation of what was in the store, all the furniture,
10 the fabric, the cushions and that type thing that is-- you
11 just see a lot of furniture. That is what the store looked 12 like.

13 Q. All right, and the lighter area in the center, is 14 that the front window of the store?

15 A. This area here is the front.

16 Q. Okay, the next Exhibit is S-10. Can you tell us
17 what this exhibit is?

18 A. Yes, sir. This is another angle of that counter.
19 What I have done is move from the back of the store up
20 towards the counter, and I am taking a picture of this to 21 document the counter, the contents and what it looked like 22 when I arrived. We have a purse here in the middle. We have 23 a money drawer here, a chair, another chair, just and filing
24 cabinets and papers. And again, this is the same counter.
25 You may be able to see this area right here. This is the 26 walkway that goes into that second half of the store, okay,
27 where the ramp up is where the footwear impressions were 28 located. That's a good reference for you to see with 29 reference to the proximity of the counter and that breeze-

1 way right there or walkway.

2 Q. The next exhibit is S-11.

3 A. Okay, this is a close-up photograph of the purse
4 that I had just pointed out in the previous slide. This
5 purse contained identification for Carmen Rigby, and it was 6 found at-- this is the way it appeared upon our arrival in 7 the middle, kind of behind the counter on the floor.

8 Q. Did you find or recover any money in that purse?

9 A. Yes, sir. There was $10.00 in that purse as well
10 as credit cards and some keys.

11 Q. And what was the condition of the purse? Was it in 12 the middle of the floor opened like that when you first saw
13 it?

14 A. Yes, sir; it was.

15 Q. The next exhibit is S-12.

16 A. Okay. I would like-- this is the money drawer that 17 is behind the counter, okay, and again the bodies of two of 18 the victims are just on the other side of this as is the pool
19 of blood is on the other side of this counter. I would like
20 to point out now though while y'all are looking at this
21 picture. This is not the way it appeared upon my arrival.
22 This photograph shows the money drawer open. Okay, and this
23 was taken to document what was in the money drawer, but upon
24 my arrival, this is not the way it looked. So I don't want
25 to mislead anyone into thinking that. But this was taken to 26 document what was inside of the money drawer.

27 Q. Okay, now I notice while we are on this photograph,
28 I noticed a dark substance on top of the counter top. Can 29 you describe what that is?

1           A.    Yes, sir. That is fingerprint powder. Right, I
2           dusted the areas around the victims and the counter area with
3           fingerprint powder to, in an attempt to raise any latent
4           prints that may be there. And so that is what you see is the 5           residue from the latent print powder.

6           Q.    All right, and before I get into anything in that,
7           I will ask you just from your observation of the crime scene,
8           what were your expectations as to being able to recover any
9           prints?

10          A.    I am always, I always like to be optimistic about 11          the opportunity to recover prints. However, in a scene such 12          as this where the vast amount of the objects inside of the 13          store are furniture, it is not easy to leave a fingerprint or 14          a finger impression on a cloth substance. Typically, we do
15          leave fingerprints. All of us leave fingerprints on 16          non-porous surfaces like glass and plastic, shiny polished
17          surfaces. And we leave this residue because there is 18          moisture that we are always secreting from our fingers and 19          also small amounts of oil. So I am sure sometimes you all
20          have noticed when you pick up a glass, you see your own
21          fingerprints.

22                Well, we look for, we call those latent prints;
23          latent just meaning hidden because you can't see them. You
24          don't just walk up and see fingerprints on maybe this rail or 25          something like that. So we have to try to enhance those 26          latent prints and try to make the prints appear. The way we 27          do that is to use black powder in a fiberglass brush and dust
28          all of the areas that are capable of retaining fingerprints.
29          Okay, and this counter was an okay surface for latent

1 prints. But as I said, unfortunately, a lot of the cloth in
2 the store and the cloth in the pillows and such as that, it's
3 not very good media for receiving and recovering latent
4 prints.

5 Q. All right, when you were dusting, were you able to 6 find any prints of any type while you were dusting?

7 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir, I did recover I believe five
8 cards of, five different cards of latent prints. And what
9 that means is we will dust, and if we do bring up ridge
10 detail, little ridges that you see on your fingers, what we 11 do then; okay, we visualize it so we take a piece of tape and 12 put the tape over the finger impression or what could be a
13 finger impression, lift it and put it on a white card. And 14 because we dust with black powder, we put it on a white
15 card. That enables fingerprint experts to look at those and 16 make comparisons between latent prints that we lift at crime
17 scenes and known inked cards of suspects.

18 Q. All right, do fingerprints, like if I touch this 19 counter, can that fingerprint possibly be there for a long
20 period of time?

21 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir. There is no, there is several
22 different conditions that determine how long a fingerprint
23 will stay around. If it's on a good surface and it is kept
24 out of environmental conditions and it is not purposely wiped
25 away, it can last several years.

26 Q. All right, and in a public business like this, do
27 you expect to find numerous prints from all types of people?

28 A. I would expect so. However, given the fact that 29 the majority of these rooms were filled with furniture and

1 unfortunately, wood is not an excellent source, and there is
2 a lot of wood in there too, it's just not the optimum room to 3 collect latent prints from.

4 Q. All right, and how about the condition of the 5 safe? Was it the type of surface that you would normally
6 expect to find prints on?

7 A. It is possible. I don't believe that you all have 8 seen the safe, but the safe that he is referring to is in 9 the back office, which I did dust for latent prints. It is 10 not a good surface to recover latent prints from, but I did
11 make the effort and tried to recover prints from that 12 surface.

13 Q. Okay. Do you know of any prints of the Defendant
14 that were found inside the store?

15 A. I have no firsthand knowledge of comparisons that 16 were done after I collected the evidence from the crime
17 scene.

18 Q. All right. The next exhibit that I will show you
19 is Exhibit 13 and ask you what this is?

20 A. Again, this is the money drawer that you had seen
21 in the earlier picture, and this is just from a slightly
22 different angle.

23 Q. And would you describe what that slide actually 24 shows as far as the different slots and what is present and 25 what is not present?

26 A. Yes, sir. This is located approximately in the 27 middle of that counter that you had seen. It's in the middle 28 of the store. In the front here is four bins for change, and 29 there was a lot of change present. Also, there is a key ring

1 here. There was, there were no money bills inside of this
2 cash box. As you can see, the money, the bill channels are 3 empty.

4 Q. All right. And is that the condition that that 5 drawer was in as far as the contents when you arrived at the
6 scene?

7 A. Yes, sir. That is what-- the contents are the 8 same. However, bear in mind this is not the condition. It
9 was not open like this.

10 Q. Okay. The next photograph is Exhibit 14.

11 A. Okay, this is a photograph of some of the contents
12 of the counter. We are still on the counter where the money
13 box is, and this is an empty money bag.

14 Q. Okay, and there was nothing in that money bag; is
15 that correct?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. The next exhibit is S-15?

18 A. Okay, this is the safe that Mr. Evans referred to 19 earlier. This is in the back office. This is, if you recall
20 from the sketch where Bertha Tardy's body was found, this is 21 further back than that. This is the very back of the store.
22 There was office space, and this is Bertha Tardy's office.
23 And this is the safe that was in the back corner of her
24 office. This is as it appeared when I arrived at the crime
25 scene. The safe door was shut, was closed, but it wasn't
26 locked.

27 Q. Exhibit 16?

28 A. Okay, this is that same safe but I have, I have 29 opened the door and photographed the inside just for

1 photographic documentation of what it appeared, what the
2 inside looked like when I was there.

3 Q. Did you have an occasion to look through that safe
4 to determine if there was any money left in it?

5 A. Yes, sir. I did go through the safe.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Your Honor, objection, Judge.
7 That assumes that there was money in it at some 8 point in time. In other words, the question was 9 did he -- that is an objectionable question.

10 BY THE COURT: Rephrase your question.

11 BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q. Was there any money in the safe?

13 A. No, sir. There was no money in the safe.

14 Q. Thank you. Exhibit 17, can you tell us what this 15 shows?

16 A. Yes, sir. This is a photograph from a different
17 angle of the store. This is near the door that we walk in.
18 This back here is the door to Bertha Tardy's office.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. And over here is the counter that I keep referring 21 to which is where it seems that most of the activity occurred 22 here. And this is the body of Bertha Tardy. And this is the 23 shoe of Carmen Rigby that is off of her foot. And this area
24 right here is where the fourth pool of blood was located.

25 Q. Okay, can you-- I know you can't see it in that 26 photograph, but from that photograph can you tell us where 27 the safe was located?

28 A. Yes, sir. The safe was in Bertha Tardy's office
29 which again is through this back door right here, and if you

1 walk into the office and turn left, it's in that corner.

2 Q. Exhibit 18?

3 A. Okay, this is a photograph of Bertha Tardy.

4 Q. Exhibit 19?

5 A. This is another photograph of Bertha Tardy. She is 6 lying, she is the victim who was farthest back in the store,
7 and again, here is her office door.

8 Q. All right. Was there an exit door from behind that
9 office?

10 A. Not that I recall.

11 Q. Exhibit 20?

12 A. Okay, again this is victim Bertha Tardy from a
13 slightly different angle.

14 Q. Okay, did you observe any other physical evidence
15 around her such as her glasses?

16 A. Yes, sir. Her glasses were found underneath the 17 mattress, and there was a casing very near her also.

18 Q. All right, can you point out with your pointer
19 approximately the area that her glasses were found?

20 A. It's somewhat difficult with this photograph, but I
21 believe that they were under this mattress.

22 Q. All right, and where your pointer, approximately 23 where your pointer is, do you see the post to the left?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Did you observe anything about that post?

26 A. Yes, sir. There was some sort of defect to the 27 post.

28 Q. And by defect, did it appear to be some type of 29 hole in the surface of the post there?

1           A.    A hole in the surface of the paint and part of the 2 brick was chipped away; yes, sir.

3           Q.    Exhibit 21. Is this a close-up that shows the 4 glasses?

5           A.    Yes, sir. This is a better photograph showing the
6 glasses. This is the glasses that were, that I collected--
7 well, that were from Mrs. Tardy, and here you can see the 8 casing that was collected. I believe it is labeled 5 in the 9 sketch. I don't recall, but there was a circle near Bertha
10 Tardy's body, and this is the casing.

11          Q.    And by casing, again to make sure we understand,
12 you are talking about the hull that would have been ejected
13 after a bullet was fired?

14          A.    That is exactly right. The bullet comes out of the 15 barrel, and the casing stays behind. It can be ejected, or 16 it can stay in the cylinder.

17          Q.    Exhibit 22?

18          A.    Okay, this is a close-up photograph of Bertha
19 Tardy.

20          Q.    Okay. Were you able to determine where any wounds
21 were on Bertha Tardy?

22          A.    Yes, sir. She had some defects to her head.

23          Q.    And can you remember what part of the head that
24 was?

25          A.    If I may refer to my notes?

26          Q.    Okay.

27          A.    (Pause) Yes, sir. My documentation for Bertha
28 Tardy is that she was lying face down, head toward the west,
29 face facing north in a pool of blood around her head and

1 shoulders. Her right arm is extended outward and bent at the
2 elbow downward. Her left arm is underneath her body. There
3 was a defect over her left eye, a defect behind her right
4 ear.

5 Q. Okay. The next photograph is Exhibit 23.

6 A. Okay, this photograph has a lot of information in
7 it. This is the slope that I have referred to several times
8 with the partial footwear impressions in this area. This is 9 the foot of victim Carmen Rigby, and this is the pool of 10 blood with the baseball cap. And several of the casings were 11 collected from this area.

12 Q. All right. And the pool of blood with the baseball
13 cap, is that where the fourth victim had been before he was 14 removed?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. That would have been BoBo Stewart as far as your 17 information; is that correct?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. I think it is,
19 that would have to be hearsay.

20 BY THE COURT: That is overruled.

21 BY MR. EVANS:

22 Q. Okay. And the shoe that you have pointed out, who 23 did that belong to?

24 A. That shoe belonged to Carmen Rigby.

25 Q. Okay, I notice a foot and a shoe, and that is 26 Carmen Rigby's other foot and shoe in that picture. Is that
27 correct?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. All right. Can you see on there where the live

1 round was recovered?

2 A. Yes, sir. I can because I know where it is, but I
3 believe it would be difficult for the jury to see. The live
4 round was very close to this sandal, that live round. The 5 cartridge that has the bullet and the casing together was 6 right in this area.

7 Q. Okay, and the area where the shoe impressions were
8 taken, who pointed those areas out to you?

9 A. The Chief of the Winona Police Department upon my 10 arrival, Johnny Hargrove.

11 Q. Okay. And do you know at the point that that was 12 turned over to you, who was securing that area?

13 A. Johnny Hargrove was there when I arrived. I was 14 called to, for-- the request came in for our assistance from 15 the Winona Police Department and the Mississippi Highway
16 Safety Patrol, their Criminal Investigation Bureau,
17 Investigator Jack Matthews.

18 Q. The next exhibit is 24.

19 A. Okay, this is a photograph--

20 Q. --Wait just a minute. I think it passed one.

21 (Pause while Counsel tried to find the right
22 slide.)

23 Q. Okay, I will come back to it in just a minute. I
24 don't know where that slide is. 24. Exhibit 25, can you
25 tell us what this is?

26 A. This is Exhibit 25?

27 Q. Right.

28 A. Okay, this is a photograph of victim Carmen Rigby.

29 Q. All right.

1           A.    There are some keys here that were very close to
2 her hand, and there was a casing collected very near this
3 area also.

4           Q.    Okay, and I noticed two separate pools of blood; is
5 that correct?

6           A.    Yes, sir.  There is a pool of blood underneath her,
7 and there is a pool of blood coming from the fourth, the 8 fourth area where there was blood but there was no victim.

9           Q.    Okay, so the pool of blood in the front of that did
10 not come from her.  It came from where the fourth victim had 11 been removed; is that correct?

12          A.    I believe so; yes, sir.

13          Q.    (Changes projector to the next slide.)

14          A.    Okay, this is--

15          Q.    This is Exhibit 26.

16          A.    Okay.  To orient you, this is the counter that I
17 keep referring to.  This is victim Robert Golden.  This is 18 the arm of Bertha-- excuse me, of Carmen Rigby.  And just 19 beyond, just beyond Robert Golden is where the fourth pool of 20 blood was located, and again, just beyond that is where the 21 partial impressions are, and there is the downward slope.

22          Q.    Okay.

23          A.    And the front of the store is this way, and the 24 back of the store is this way where Bertha Tardy's body was 25 found and the office and the safe.

26          Q.    Exhibit number 27.

27          A.    Okay, this is a photograph of victim Robert Golden
28 lying up against the counter.

29          Q.    Okay, was there any other evidence recovered around

1 his body?

2 A. Yes, sir. There was a projectile collected from
3 over here, and I believe two casings collected from this 4 area.

5 Q. Okay, this is-- okay, this is going to be Exhibit
6 24. It was just out of order. Can you tell us what this
7 photograph shows?

8 A. Yes, sir. This is a good representation of what 9 was in the store. There is furniture here. Also, the 10 counter, victim Robert Golden, victim Carmen Rigby, and the 11 fourth pool of blood here with the baseball cap and what--
12 I'm actually standing on the ramp that I keep referring to,
13 so looking up and then the area where the partial footwear
14 impressions A, B and C were located are right here.

15 Q. Okay. The blood in that photograph by the cap of 16 the fourth victim, would you describe how that blood is up
17 next to the body of Carmen Rigby? What did you observe?

18 A. Carmen Rigby, there is that trail of blood is 19 seeping into Carmen Rigby's knee area. There is a trail that 20 leads somewhat to her knee. It is just a large pool of 21 blood, somewhat nondescript. It's just a very large pool of 22 blood.

23 Q. All right, the blood that is running toward her
24 knee, could you tell if that blood was under her or if it
25 just ran up to her knee?

26 A. It appeared that it ran up to her knee.

27 Q. Okay, it didn't appear that she was laying in a
28 pool of blood that was already there; is that correct?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Exhibit number 29, can you tell us what this is?

2 A. Yes, sir. Exhibit number 29 is a photograph, and
3 there is actually, the next picture, I believe, is a better
4 photograph. But this is a distant shot of, if you see this
5 light spot here in the middle, that is a projectile that I
6 recovered, 1B. This is near the body of Robert Golden. This
7 was off to the side a little bit. The next picture, I
8 believe, will show a close-up of that, that might make some 9 sense to you.

10 Q. All right. Is that the end of the couch or chair
11 that we are looking at?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. I want to back back up to Exhibit 24. Well, I'm 14 going the wrong way. Can you see that couch in this
15 photograph?

16 A. (Witness points with pointer.) Not very clearly.

17 Q. Okay. The next photograph is Exhibit 30. What 18 does this exhibit show?

19 A. Yes, sir. This is the close-up of the photograph
20 that you have just seen. This is the projectile that I
21 recovered from very near the body of Robert Golden.

22 Q. This is Exhibit 31. What does it show?

23 A. Okay. Again, this is the ramp that I have 24 mentioned. I am standing at the bottom of the ramp taking 25 the photograph up toward the counter and the area where the 26 two victims and the pool of blood are. This is just to show
27 an overall, show the ceiling is very high. It's not a drop
28 ceiling. There is-- just to give you an overall idea of what 29 the store looked like, what was around it, what kind of

1 objects were there and its objects inside as they relate to
2 the victims.

3 Q. All right, and this ramp goes down into the part of 4 the store that is down on this side; is that correct?

5 A. Yes, sir. As I said earlier, the furniture store
6 is divided into two halves, and this ramp separates the two.

7 Q. All right, can you point out with your pointer on 8 that photograph the area that the shoe impressions were 9 recovered?

10 A. Yes, sir. The partial shoe impressions that I
11 photographed are in this area.

12 Q. Okay, and as far as which direction they appear to 13 be going as far as light-- dark to light, which direction do
14 they appear to be going in?

15 A. The darkest or the heaviest impression was closest
16 to the back of the store. So it tapered off as it moved 17 toward the door. So the darkest was closest to this pool of 18 blood, and the lightest would be closest to the front of the
19 store.

20 Q. And were the impressions from where you recovered
21 consistent with someone having stepped in the blood of 22 Derrick Stewart?

23 A. They were consistent with someone having stepped in 24 that pool of blood; yes, sir.

25 Q. The next exhibit is 38. Let me get to it. This is 26 not real clear in this light. Would you cut the other light
27 off for just a second. (NOTE: Another light in the courtroom 28 was cut off.) Can you describe what Exhibit 38 is?

29 A. Yes, sir. This is the photograph of the wall near

1 the body of Bertha Tardy, and this is the defect that I
2 described earlier.

3 Q. Okay, this is the same defect that was in the wall
4 beside her, basically beside where her glasses were
5 recovered. Is that correct?

6 A. Yes, sir. And the casing was in that general area
7 also.

8 Q. Okay. You can cut the light back on. Okay, thank 9 you. If you would, take your seat again for a minute.

10 BY MR. EVANS: One second, Your Honor.

11 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

12 BY MR. EVANS:

13 Q. All right, Ms. Schoene, at the scene I know that 14 you had recovered this shoe impressions that you have 15 described several times in the photographs and also in the 16 diagram. Did you take any effort to try to determine if 17 those shoe impressions could have been made by anyone there
18 at the scene?

19 A. Yes, sir. I did.

20 Q. And what did you do?

21 A. I, they were pointed out to me upon my arrival, and
22 my first question was well, since there were EMT's, emergency
23 medical personnel here, I would like to see the shoes of the 24 emergency medical personnel. I did request that they come
25 back to the scene. I looked at their shoes. They were not
26 consistent with those partial impressions nor were anybody's
27 shoes that were at the scene.

28 Q. Okay. And the hole in the wall that you have 29 described and shown the jury in the diagrams, is that hole

1 consistent with having been struck by a bullet?

2 A. It could be; yes, sir.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry; I didn't get that
4 question.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Was the hole consistent with
6 having been struck by a bullet?

7 BY MR. EVANS:

8 Q. Okay, as far as the crime scene itself, I know you
9 have made a pretty thorough investigation of the scene as far
10 as what could be recovered there, what type of effort and how 11 far at that point did you go in actually trying to find
12 projectiles that may have passed through different
13 individuals or things like that?

14 A. At a scene such as this where there was multiple 15 victims with potentially multiple gunshot wounds, it is 16 unknown to us at the crime scene, those of us who are 17 collecting evidence, how many projectiles may still be inside
18 of a victim. So it is our practice to, when we respond to 19 requests for assistance such as this, we go and we collect
20 the fragile evidence, the evidence that is there. And then
21 we talk with the investigators after we finish, and we talk
22 through and we explain. This is what I collected; this is 23 where I collected it. This is where it came from. You may 24 want to think about this. You may want to look for this.

25 I recommended to the investigators prior to our
26 leaving Winona furniture store that they secure the store
27 until they can get the autopsy results back from each of the 28 victims to determine if there still may be some projectiles
29 left in the store.

1           Q.   And were you asked not necessarily to do a crime
2 scene investigation, but to do any investigation of a
3 particular car?

4           A.   Yes, sir.  Investigator Wayne Miller with the 5 Mississippi Highway Patrol Criminal Investigations Bureau
6 asked me to please, when I finished up with the furniture
7 store, to dust-- there was a brown vehicle that was located
8 at the Winona Police Department-- to dust a specific area for 9 latent prints.  And I did do that prior to going back to 10 Jackson.

11          Q.   What area of the car were you asked to dust for 12 latent prints?

13          A.   I was asked to dust for latent prints around the 14 glove box area and also on the passenger side window.

15          Q.   Okay, as far as the area of the car that you saw,
16 what were your expectations of being able to recover any
17 prints off of those surfaces?

18          A.   Typically even, typically if we have a request such 19 as that that is very specific and there are more surfaces
20 that look like they would allow prints to be lifted, we would 21 probably go ahead and take more impressions.  That car was an
22 older model vehicle.  It had rained that day.  The exterior
23 of the car was still wet.  The interior of the car had cloth
24 seats and if you-- or cloth upholstery covers, and if you
25 recall me explaining earlier, the likelihood of getting
26 latent prints off of cloth is not good.  You are much more
27 likely to leave latent prints on hard non-porous surfaces
28 than cloth.  So the cloth was not a viable option for 29 recovering latent prints.

1           Also, the dashboard on this car was damaged from
2 the sun. It was cracked and very dusty. So as you can
3 imagine, a dusty surface is not a very good surface to 4 recover latent prints from either.

5           Q. I would like to show you Exhibits 42 and 43 along
6 with the corresponding slides and ask you to examine those if 7 you would.

8           A. (Pause while witness complies.) Yes, sir. State's 9 Exhibit 42 does agree with the slide S-42A. And State's 10 Exhibit S-43 does agree with slide S-43A.

11          Q. And what do those photographs and slides show?

12          A. These photographs and slides show the car that I
13 processed that afternoon, that evening actually.

14                 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer these
15 exhibits into evidence.

16                 BY THE COURT: Any objection?

17                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, no, sir. If they are the 18 ones I think they are. Can I look at them real
19 quick?

20                 BY MR. EVANS: Sure.

21                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is the number?

22                 BY MR. EVANS: 42 and 43.

23                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no objection.

24                 BY THE COURT: Let them be marked and
25 admitted.

26                         (PHOTOGRAPHS AND CORRESPONDING SLIDES
27 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-42, S-42A,
28 S-43, AND S-43A FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW ALL
29 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have this two
2 page document marked for identification?

3 BY THE COURT: Okay.

4 (KEY AND MEASUREMENTS FOR SKETCH BY MS.
5 SCHOENE WAS MARKED COLLECTIVELY AS STATE'S EXHIBIT
6 S-97 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

7 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if I may show
8 Defense Counsel which exhibit this is.

9 (Pause while Exhibit S-97 for identification
10 shown to Defense Counsel.)

11 BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q. Ms. Schoene, I will hand you Exhibit 97 for 13 identification and ask you if you can examine that exhibit?

14 A. Yes, sir. I recognize this exhibit.

15 Q. What is that exhibit?

16 A. State's Exhibit 97 is a photocopy of what I have 17 prepared, and the title of it is "Key and Measurements for 18 Sketch of Northwest Room of Tardy Furniture Company" in 19 Winona, Mississippi. It lists our Crime Laboratory case
20 number, and it is a list of measurements that I took at the 21 crime scene that go along with the sketch that you have 22 seen. It lists each item that I collected as well as a
23 documentation of the location of the victims.

24 Q. Do those measurements truly and accurately show
25 where those different items that you have recovered,
26 specifically, I think the projectiles, the casings?

27 A. Yes, sir. These accurately represent the 28 measurements that I took.

29 Q. Okay, and those go along with the diagram that has

1 already been introduced into evidence?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer Exhibit 97
4 into evidence.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no objection.

6 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

7 (KEY FOR SKETCH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S 8 EXHIBIT S-97 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN
9 EVIDENCE.)

10 BY MR. EVANS:

11 Q. All right, Ms. Schoene, is there anything else that 12 I have not brought out that you did in your investigation
13 that the jury would need to know about?

14 A. (Pause while the witness consults her notes.)
15 Other than the idea or the fact that I go to these crime
16 scenes and I collect evidence and package them and bring them
17 back to the Crime Laboratory where they are submitted to 18 other examiners who examine them. I don't collect the 19 evidence and then turn around and examine it. I want to make 20 that clear. Other than that, no, sir.

21 Q. And all of this evidence you did turn over so that
22 it could be tested and compared by other experts at the State
23 Crime Lab; is that correct?

24 A. Yes, sir. I submitted all of the items that I
25 collected for evidence in this case on July the 16th, 1996,
26 at 8:15 PM.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I tender the
28 witness.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

2           CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3           Q.     Good afternoon, Ms. Schoene.

4           A.     Thank you. Schoene, yes, sir.

5           Q.     Ms. Schoene. Ms. Schoene, I have just a few
6 questions to ask you. I think that you have just, as I have 7 followed you, you have just explained to the ladies and 8 gentlemen of the jury what your function really is; is that
9 correct, in terms of gathering evidence at the crime scene?

10          A.     Yes, sir, for-- yes, what I did for this case, that 11 is exactly right.

12          Q.     Okay, and then I notice as you started out, you
13 said that you had been notified to come to the scene of what 14 was believed to be a homicide; is that correct?

15          A.     I believe-- that's the way it is written in my 16 notes; yes, sir.

17          Q.     I think that is how you testified that you were 18 notified. And in ways, and I notice that one of the things
19 you do as a professional, as an expert is you do not, you
20 make it very clear what you can say and what you cannot say.
21 Is that correct?

22          A.     Yes, sir. I try to.

23          Q.     Okay. And so for instance, so what you were 24 telling us is that you didn't know whether it was a homicide
25 scene or not until you got there, and then basically all you
26 could do when you got there was collect evidence to tell you
27 as much as you knew, as much that evidence would shed light
28 on. Is that correct?

29          A.     Well, typically when we respond to requests for

1 assistance from smaller agencies in Mississippi, they don't
2 know a whole lot of information off the front end. When we
3 go out to these agencies and teach classes about evidence and
4 crime scenes, we say if you happen upon a crime scene that 5 may look too large for you or may, you don't want to even 6 start it, give us a call, and we will send out some forensic
7 scientists to collect the evidence. So typically, we don't
8 know a whole lot on the front end about the circumstances
9 that surround the crime. We get the basics - three,
10 possibly four victims and please come help collect evidence.
11 And if we can, we do.

12 Q. And that's what happened in this case?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay, and maybe this is just a bit too simple, but
15 what I am saying is that basically you obviously are not a 16 person who was present at the time that anything happened at 17 this store; is that correct?

18 A. No, sir. I was not present when anything happened
19 at the store.

20 Q. And so basically, what you are trying to do is get 21 information that will tell people as much as possible; is 22 that correct? In other words, information once examined by 23 the appropriate people will be evidence that will speak to 24 the question perhaps who was in the store. That is one of 25 the things you might want to know; is that correct?

26 A. Yes, sir. I collect evidence and submit it to the 27 Crime Laboratory, and the other forensic scientists analyze 28 it and issue reports back to the investigators who are 29 investigating the scene, and hopefully, those reports do

1 assist them in figuring some things out.

2 Q. Okay. Now one of the things that-- and so in your,
3 it's not your responsibility, for instance, to read the 4 prints. It's your responsibility to collect the prints. Is
5 that correct?

6 A. That's exactly right.

7 Q. And so you couldn't tell us who the prints actually
8 belonged to, but you can tell us that you actually collected
9 some prints; right?

10 A. That's right. I cannot say whose prints they were 11 that I lifted, but I can tell you that I did lift prints.

12 Q. And I think you sent them or you forwarded them on 13 to the Crime Lab to have somebody else read them to tell us
14 whose they were if possible; is that correct?

15 A. Yes, sir. I submitted them to the lab, and then a 16 fingerprint examiner then requests the evidence from the 17 vault and will compare these prints that I lifted from the 18 crime scene to known inked prints once they have a suspect.

19 Q. Now one of the places that you got prints from, one
20 of the places that actually took prints and the place you got 21 prints from was right there on the counter that we saw in the 22 store, the counter that had that drawer that came out; is
23 that correct?

24 A. Yes, sir. I dusted that entire area around all the 25 victims. All the surfaces that were appropriate to dust for 26 latent prints I did dust for latent prints, and that counter
27 was near three of the victims. So yes, sir; that is one of 28 the areas that I dusted.

29 Q. Okay, so you dusted near the victims, and was the

1 thinking that perhaps someone who was, had some
2 responsibility for the victims may have come in that
3 proximity? Was that the thinking?

4 A. Well, we typically dust high likelihood areas in an
5 effort to be both practical and do whatever work we possibly 6 can. We dust the high likelihood areas, and those are the 7 areas that entrance ways and exit ways and that type thing
8 that have been held secure that the suspect or suspects could
9 have touched. And so yes, sir, the area, the counter right
10 around where three of the bodies were located was in my 11 opinion a high likelihood area. And also, there was the cash 12 drawer and the safe in the back of the store, and those were 13 the areas that we dusted.

14 Q. So would the answer to my question be yes?

15 A. What was your question?

16 Q. My question was you dusted there because you felt 17 that someone who may have had some responsibility or been 18 present may have come in that area; is that correct?

19 A. Yes, plus the reason that I just gave.

20 Q. Okay, very good. Secondly, would it be safe to say
21 that the cash register was right there; is that correct?

22 A. There was not actually a cash register. There was 23 a cash drawer. If y'all remember the photograph that was 24 pulled out, there was a cash drawer there.

25 Q. That was right there near that counter or actually
26 inside that counter, pulled out from the counter?

27 A. Yes, sir. It was about in the middle of the 28 counter on the front part.

29 Q. Now irrespective, in other words, regardless of

1 whatever kind of problems you have in getting prints from
2 furniture that is soft and things of that nature that is made
3 of cloth, you did get prints off this counter. Is that
4 correct?

5 A. Yes, sir. I did lift latent prints off of that 6 counter.

7 Q. And I'm not mistaken, do you have with you the 8 print cards, by the way?

9 A. No, sir. I do not. I do have an evidence
10 submission form, however, that says that I collected five 11 latent lift cards, and as I explained earlier, those are the 12 cards-- now I may put more than one print. Remember, I dust
13 to try to visualize, and I use tape and then I lift them up
14 and put them on a piece of paper. If I can fit three or four 15 pieces of tape on a piece of paper, then I will. But in 16 total here, I submitted five cards. But I don't know how 17 many prints that was.

18 Q. Okay, so it could have been a multiple number of 19 prints on--

20 A. --I would say there was at least five.

21 Q. Okay, at least five prints. It could have been 22 more?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And do you know whether or not the prints of Mr.
25 Flowers were sent to the gentleman who was going to examine
26 the prints for the analysis and comparison? In other words,
27 to see if those prints matched his?

28 A. Is your question do I know if known inked prints
29 from Curtis Flowers were submitted?

1 Q. Yes, ma'am.

2 A. I did not receive them, and I did not take them
3 that day. So I would assume that they were. However, I
4 don't have firsthand knowledge of that.

5 Q. And whoever took those would be able to tell us
6 whether or not his prints matched up; is that correct?

7 A. No. The person who took their, who took a
8 suspect's prints, those are not the people who are going to 9 do the comparisons either.

10 Q. Let me correct myself. Thank you very much. If 11 whoever made the comparisons could tell us whether or not the 12 prints that were taken by yourself and sent to them matched
13 Mr. Flowers; is that correct?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay. And the reason you take prints is what we 16 call, there is-- you take prints not only to include people,
17 but prints can also exclude people as being the person that 18 touched that surface and left that print; is that correct?

19 A. Not necessarily.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. Because it's possible to touch a surface and not
22 leave, not leave a fingerprint.

23 Q. All right, listen to my question very carefully.
24 Comparison of the print will tell us whether the person who
25 left the print, if the person left the print that, in fact,
26 you lifted, if the print is of value. Is that correct?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. So if the print is of value in those prints that 29 you sent, would you make that determination of whether they

1 are of value, or would the gentleman who examined them make
2 that determination?

3 A. It would be the male or the female that examines
4 them. We have male and female examiners, and I don't know
5 who worked this case. But yes, they would-- I actually lift
6 what I see as ridge detail, and then the fingerprints
7 experts, the fingerprint examiners will determine whether or 8 not those prints are valuable.

9 Q. Do you know a gentleman by the name of Michael E.
10 McSparrin?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Does he work at the lab?

13 A. He did at one time. He is no longer with us.

14 Q. Do you know whether he examined the prints or not?

15 A. I would assume -- is that report signed by him?

16 Q. I have a Mississippi Crime Lab report here I am
17 showing you here.

18 A. He is a latent print examiner, and this is a latent
19 print report, so I would imagine that if this is a real
20 document, that he did indeed examine the impressions that I
21 submitted.

22 Q. Okay. And so we are not talking about a situation
23 here as to these prints that are listed here and which you
24 have--

25 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, can we have that
26 marked for identification purposes, please?

27 BY THE COURT: You can do that.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no problem.

29 (FINGERPRINT REPORT BY MICHAEL McSPARRIN WAS

1 MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-1 FOR
2 IDENTIFICATION.)

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4 Q. Showing you D-1 here or D-1 for identification
5 purposes, that is the report you just looked at; is that
6 correct?

7 A. Yes, sir. D-1 is the report that I just looked
8 at. It's a Mississippi Crime Laboratory latent print
9 analysis report that is dated August 23rd, 1996, signed my 10 Mike McSparrin.

11 Q. Okay. And when we talk about prints of value which 12 have been lifted, we are not talking about whether a person
13 has touched something and not left a print. What we are 14 saying is that, in fact, those are prints that somebody did,
15 in fact, leave. Is that correct?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Those did come from human hands; is that correct?

18 A. That would have to be made by a latent print
19 examiner, but it looked like it to me.

20 Q. Okay. So the question with them, assuming they 21 did, the print examiner concluded they came from human hands,
22 the determination to be made then is what human hands laid
23 those prints. Is that correct? The comparison helps you
24 identify that? You can look at a comparison and you can
25 determine-- well, if you look at a comparison for a
26 particular person-- say let's assume that the Defendant's
27 print was sent to them. That comparison would tell us, it
28 would either include or exclude the Defendant as the person
29 leaving those particular prints. Is that correct?

1 A. That's exactly right.

2 Q. Now in the-- so you had five print cards. You may
3 have had multiple prints on a card; is that correct?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay, now you also said that you took prints out of 6 a vehicle, an automobile which was shown to you, a couple of
7 pictures were shown to you, and I think identified as a
8 State's exhibit?

9 A. Yes, sir. I did dust for latent prints from a
10 brown vehicle.

11 Q. Did you also come up with prints which, in fact, I
12 noticed you came up with prints from that vehicle also which 13 could be, which you also transmitted to Mr.-- or to the Crime
14 Lab. Is that correct?

15 A. Yes, sir. My paperwork shows that I recovered one
16 latent lift card containing lift from an older model brown
17 Pontiac Phoenix LJ, which is the same photograph that I
18 identified in the pictures.

19 Q. And one of the places that you examined when you
20 looked at that card, you looked for prints around the window,
21 and you also looked for prints around the glove box. Is that
22 correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And you did come up with how many cards?

25 A. I submitted one card that I collected. One card
26 from that car.

27 Q. And you don't know how many prints were on that 28 card?

29 A. No, sir.

1 Q. So despite whatever difficulties one might have in
2 finding prints in an older model car, you found some; is that
3 right?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And despite whatever difficulties one might have in
6 finding prints on some furniture somewhere in the store, you
7 found five cards, five different cards you put prints on from 8 the counter of that store; is that correct?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And that was the counter which had the drawer that 11 pulls out--

12 A. The money box, yes, sir, and the counter that is 13 very near the victims.

14 Q. Do you remember what condition the glove
15 compartment was in that you examined?

16 A. I believe it was open.

17 Q. Did anybody ask you to examine it to see if that 18 glove box had actually ever been broken into or anything of 19 that nature?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Okay, so no one asked you to do that?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. So you don't have any recollection of any signs
24 that it had been broken into, do you?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. Do you have any records with you presently that 27 would tell us whether or not you actually took any lifts or 28 lifted any prints from the actual glove compartment?

29 A. (Pause while witness looks through records.) No,

1 sir. If I had access to the cards though, I do label the
2 cards. Again, I know that I did collect one card from that
3 vehicle. I'm not sure how many lifts.

4 Q. Okay. Thank you.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I consult with the
6 District Attorney just a second?

7 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Evans
8 confer.)

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. You don't know whether or not the print cards were 11 ever sent back from the Crime Lab, do you?

12 A. Sent back?

13 Q. From the Crime Lab to the local authorities?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Okay, now let me-- so it would be safe to say that,
16 well, we understand the limitations of your function, but 17 just so it is very clear to the ladies and gentlemen of the 18 jury. There is nothing that you can tell us that would say
19 that Mr. Flowers was actually in that store that day; is that
20 correct?

21 A. Well again, that is not my function as far as--

22 Q. --I didn't ask you what your function was yet, and 23 I don't mind your explaining but--

24 A. --okay--

25 Q. --I would just like you to answer that question.

26 A. Would you ask the question again, please.

27 Q. Is there anything that you can say that would tell
28 us that Mr. Flowers was in that store that day?

29 A. I can't make that determination.

1 Q. Do you know who opened the cash register, and you
2 have indicated that the cash drawer was not opened when you
3 arrived. Do you know who opened it? Did you open it?

4 A. Either I did or one of the other investigators to 5 document the contents.

6 Q. And as far as the-- you talked about various 7 different impressions that you carefully took pictures of.
8 You don't, of course, know who was in the, who was in the 9 facility prior to the time that you arrived actually of your 10 own personal knowledge, do you?

11 A. My personal knowledge, no.

12 Q. The lift that you obtained from the store-- I mean,
13 I'm sorry-- from the car, not from the store; do you remember
14 that you did get a lift that came either from the glove box
15 or from the window? Would that be a safe statement, or do
16 you recall?

17 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

18 Q. You don't remember which one; is that correct?

19 A. I believe it was from the window, but I'm not, I'm 20 not sure. I would need to look at the card to be for sure.

21 Q. Right, and that was inside the car; is that
22 correct?

23 A. Again yeah, it should have been inside the car, but 24 to be a hundred percent sure, I would need to look at the 25 card that information was recorded on.

26 Q. Okay. And whatever was on that card was accurate
27 at the time that you composed that card; is that correct?

28 A. What was on the card was accurate when I wrote it?

29 Q. Right.

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And that particular card would have been given to
3 whatever fingerprint expert made the further comparisons and 4 examinations to try to match the prints to the person; is
5 that correct?

6 A. I don't know that it would be given to the same
7 examiner, but it would be given to an examiner to examine;
8 yes, sir.

9 Q. And at some point the examiner would have been the 10 one who actually made the comparisons?

11 A. In order for them to make a comparison, it would be 12 necessary for them to see the card; yes, sir.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, thank you very 14 much. I don't think I have any further questions.
15 Judge, bear with me just one moment, please. We 16 don't have anything else of this particular
17 witness.

18 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

19 Q. Ms. Schoene, I just have a few follow-up
20 questions. To start with, as far as the car, do you have any 21 way of knowing from your personal knowledge whether or not 22 that passenger window was up or down at the time the gun was 23 taken out of the glove box?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. She has no way of 25 knowing that a glove [sic] was taken out of the 26 glove box. I object to that question. It assumes
27 some facts which are not in evidence.

28 BY THE COURT: What was your question?

29 BY MR. EVANS: Whether she knew whether the

1 window was up or not when the gun was taken out.
2 He has already asked her about printing it, about
3 the gun being taken out of the glove box. I just 4 wanted to know if she knows whether the window was 5 up or down.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, nobody in this trial
7 has testified that a glove--a gun was taken out of
8 a glove box. And if somebody says that, then I
9 think I have a right to cross-examine them.

10 BY THE COURT: I sustain that objection. That 11 assumes facts that aren't in evidence.

12 BY MR. EVANS:

13 Q. The reason-- let me try to simplify it then. At 14 the time you were asked to print the card, did you know
15 whether or not the window, passenger window was up or down at 16 any time that they wanted to know about prints from, for 17 whatever reason?

18 A. What I can tell you is that my notes reflect that 19 the windows when I arrived were rolled up.

20 Q. Okay, and you don't know when they were rolled up;
21 is that correct?

22 A. No, sir; I don't know. I have, "Vehicle is sitting 23 outside under a tree. Windows are rolled up. It has been 24 raining."

25 Q. All right. From your observation of that vehicle
26 if the window was down, what would have had to have been 27 touched to recover something that may have been in the glove
28 box?

29 A. Nothing.

1           Q.    And you have been asked about prints.  I want to
2 compare a crime scene with this courtroom.  We all know that
3 there are a lot of people in this courtroom today; is that
4 correct?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    And we know that probably in the past there have
7 been many people here on many trials; is that right?

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Excuse me.  This is his 9 witness.  I would object to leading.  I don't have 10 any problem with his question, but I object to 11 leading.

12                   BY THE COURT:  Okay, don't lead.

13                   BY MR. EVANS:  Your Honor, I haven't even 14 gotten to my question yet.  I don't, I can't be 15 leading.  I haven't even asked her a question.

16                   BY THE COURT:  Okay, well, I am just telling
17 you don't lead, okay?

18                   BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir.  All right.

19 BY MR. EVANS:

20           Q.    Assuming that you were to find some prints on this 21 table right here.

22           A.    Okay.

23           Q.    Would you have any way of knowing when those prints
24 were left there?

25           A.    If I could determine the last time that desk was 26 cleaned, I could tell you those prints were left after the 27 desk was cleaned.  But other than that, no.

28           Q.    All right.  And other than prints that you could 29 actually find, would you have any way of knowing what anybody

1 that is in this room now may have touched in this room?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. In this particular crime scene that you were 4 asked to investigate, do you know whether the killer in this
5 case had to touch any of these objects that you dusted for 6 prints or not?

7 A. Do I know whether or not he had to have touched
8 them?

9 Q. Right.

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. You were asked by opposing counsel if you
12 determined or could determine who committed the crime. Would 13 it be a fair statement to say that your investigation helps
14 officers to determine who commits crimes?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that is still
16 leading, Judge. I object to it.

17 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

18 BY THE WITNESS:

19 A. Does my investigation help investigators solve the 20 crime? Was that the--

21 Q. Correct.

22 A. Sometimes it does, yes. Sometimes it excludes
23 people. Sometimes it includes people.

24 Q. All right, and in this particular case you have 25 already testified that you recovered physical evidence and 26 submitted it to the State Crime Lab; is that correct?

27 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

28 Q. And you were asked about persons at the crime
29 scene. During part, as part of your investigation, did you

1 have an occasion to document who all was at the crime scene?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And do you have that?

4 A. Yes, sir. I have a list of 23 people who were
5 there while I was there.

6 Q. And that has been furnished; is that correct?

7 A. Has been furnished to the District Attorney's
8 Office, yes, sir.

9 Q. Do you have that list with you?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Would you tell us who all was at the crime scene?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that is beyond the 13 scope of the cross-examination. In other words, it
14 is like new direct examination, so I object for 15 that reason.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he attempted to--

17 BY THE COURT: --Well, let him finish.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Well, I thought he was through.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is my objection. I do
20 have something to say depending upon what the Judge
21 rules.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, you raised the element or 23 the issue on cross-examination as to the viability
24 of prints, whether they were there or not there,
25 and he is entitled to go into to show who was
26 there.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. He is talking about
28 impressions now, Judge, but that's, but anyway, I
29 will accept the Court's ruling. But what I do want

1 to do is if we can make some clarification as to
2 who, between what people she is reading were
3 actually there when she arrived or what people had
4 left the scene and came back. I think that was her
5 testimony. Some people actually left and came
6 back.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, she can testify that way
8 to the best of her ability if she knows that.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point I am
10 only trying to clear up what he tried to attack her 11 on, and that is that she did document who was at 12 the scene.

13 BY THE COURT: And she can only testify to 14 that as to what she knows, and that is what my 15 ruling is.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I would object to the 18 comment that I was trying to attack her at all. I
19 think I am the one that waived her
20 qualifications--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --May I proceed, Your Honor?

22 BY THE COURT: Let's move on.

23 BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. Did you document who was at the scene?

25 A. Yes, sir. I did.

26 Q. And who did you recover the scene from?

27 A. I was, the Chief of Winona Police Department,
28 Johnny Hargrove.

29 Q. And was the scene secure when you arrived?

1 A. Yes, sir. It was.

2 Q. And who secured the scene after you arrived?

3 A. Well, it was secured upon my arrival. You mean who
4 protected, who provided--

5 Q. --Right. Did you see to it that the scene was 6 secure after you arrived?

7 A. When you say secured, do you mean to keep -- I
8 don't quite understand what you mean. The scene was secure
9 upon my arrival, and it stayed secure while I was there.

10 Q. Okay.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further of this
12 witness, Your Honor. And I think she has to teach 13 a class tonight, so we would ask that she be 14 finally released.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have no objection to 16 that, and we have a comment on one-- well, we can--
17 I don't know when you want to -- can I entertain a
18 quick thing on another witness right quick with you
19 at the bench?

20 BY THE COURT: Yeah, this is what I'm going to 21 do. The jury's lunch will be here in ten minutes.
22 So I'm going to take a break for lunch right now,
23 and we can entertain it then. Is that okay?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, can we just approach in 25 a minute? It might only take--

26 BY THE COURT: --I am going to let you
27 approach, but I'm going to let the jury go. Is 28 that okay?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, what I was trying to do

1 is get a witness in real quick.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay, why don't y'all come up
3 here, and let's see what you are talking about
4 because you lost me. She is excused. You are free
5 to go.

6 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you.

7 WITNESS EXCUSED.

8 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
9 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Debbie Haller. The only
11 thing that she did was take the scrapings
12 underneath one of the deceased fingers, and that 13 was Mr.--

14 BY MR. HORAN: --Golden.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Golden. Right, that's what
16 she did. She analyzed them and said that the DNA
17 there did not match the Defendant's. So that's the 18 only thing I'm going to ask her. She was the 19 person that you said we could take out of order,
20 and I do want to put her on.

21 BY THE COURT: What about if they are willing 22 to stipulate to it, will you accept that
23 stipulation?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do want to put her on,
25 Judge, but if you want to do it after lunch, fine.
26 But she is the one, remember, that is supposed to 27 be getting out of here, I think tomorrow. I think
28 tomorrow is her-- what is today? Wednesday? This 29 is Wednesday. Tomorrow she is trying to leave.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Why don't we do it after
2 lunch. That will give us a chance to look at it.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is fine.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, we will do it. I'm going
5 to take an hour, okay?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

7 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

8 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we are
9 going to take an hour for lunch. Your food ought 10 to be here in about 10 minutes if it's not
11 already. It's here?

12 BY THE BAILIFF: It's not here yet.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. It will be here in about 14 ten minutes, but y'all can go to the jury room, and 15 the bailiffs will take care of you.

16 JURY LEFT THE COURTROOM.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I have one other
18 matter that I would like to bring to the Court's
19 attention. During the break a few moments ago, I
20 inquired of counsel for the Defendant, Mr. Lumumba,
21 as to whether or not he had any other recordings of 22 witnesses, and he said that he did. And he says he 23 is not going to provide them to the State. And we 24 have crossed this hurdle once before. I would like
25 to bring to the Court's attention to the case of 26 Glaskox v. State, 659 So.2d 591 as well as the 27 discovery rule that requires them to provide
28 reciprocal discovery. Mr. Lumumba represents to me
29 that this is impeachment proof; is that right, Mr.

1 Lumumba?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will say what I--

3 BY MR. HORAN: I mean I don't want to
4 misrepresent to the Court what he told me. He told
5 me this was impeachment proof. The rule
6 specifically states what they have to provide, and 7 in Subsection G, 9.04 states that "Materials"-- at 8 the very bottom of that particular-- it's a long
9 paragraph. The Court can read it himself.
10 "...determinations such as to whether" or not 11 "matters requested in discovery are relevant to 12 the case, exculpatory, possible instruments of 13 impeachment, and the like, may be made only by the 14 party requesting or to receive the discovery."

15 BY THE COURT: Where are you reading that?

16 BY MR. HORAN: G. 9.04.

17 BY THE COURT: I have got that. What part of 18 G?

19 BY MR. HORAN: The very last, the last
20 paragraph, Your Honor. You can read the whole
21 paragraph. I just read the relevant. And I will 22 present to the Court the case of Glaskox v. State.

23 (Pause while the Court reads.)

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, the rule says very
25 clearly as far as I am concerned, there had is no
26 ambiguity in this, and I have never, this is the 27 first time I have heard this raised. But here we 28 have Subsection C. We have-- now keep in mind, I
29 want you to understand what we are talking about

1           here. They have been furnished every recording we
2           have. In fact, they have-- and there are some
3           recordings they have that we haven't received.
4           Recently, I think, that they had a recording of a
5           Mr. Maurice Hawkins which we haven't received, but 6           they have been furnished the recordings that we
7           have and with transcripts of them if we made
8           transcripts. And I think we made transcripts of 9           all of them; I'm not sure. But what they don't
10          have, where it exists, they do not have transcripts
11          or recordings which we made of their witnesses who 12          we don't intend to call which is information which 13          is being used solely for impeachment. In fact, it
14          won't be used at all if the witnesses testify
15          consistently to what they told us.

16                 Now what it says in C, that is Rule of 17          discovery C: "If the defendant requests discovery"
18          -- now also, I think it should be understood is 19          that the requirement for us is different
20          requirements for them. I think if you read up 21          higher, they have to disclose everything which the 22          Rules provides.

23                 For us it says, "If the defendant requests
24          discovery under this rule, the defendant shall,
25          subject to constitutional limitations," - so that 26          is the first difference - "promptly disclose to 27          the prosecutor and permit the prosecutor to 28          inspect, copy, test, and photograph the following
29          information and material which corresponds to that

1           which the defendant sought and which is in the
2           possession, custody, or control of the defendant
3           or" his "attorney, or the existence of which is 4           known, or by the exercise of due diligence may
5           become known, to the defendant or the defendant's
6           counsel."

7           And then it goes on to state what the 8           following is talking about. And what it says is 9           "Names and addresses of all witnesses in chief
10          which the defendant may offer at trial, together
11          with a copy of the contents of any statement,
12          written, recorded or otherwise preserved of each
13          such witness; and the substance of any oral
14          statement made by any such witness."

15          Now we are not required to give them, Judge,
16          the way I see it -- it is just like I don't think,
17          and, of course, he had a different-- they are not
18          required to give us what they got for rebuttal. I
19          have been told that a million times. They don't 20          have to give us what they have got for rebuttal,
21          right, because they don't know what we are going to 22          have in the case in chief. Now the same thing is 23          true for us. This Rule only requires-- in fact,
24          even more so for us, this Rule only requires us to 25          give them statements that we have for witnesses in 26          chief, and we have done that. We have given them
27          everything. Anything else that we have is 28          something that will only be used to impeach
29          witnesses in chief in their case, not our case, if

1           they don't testify consistently to what they have
2           told us. So I don't see why they would really be
3           entitled to that. Now we will do whatever the 4           Court orders, but I think that rule is pretty
5           clear.

6           And that "G" is only when legitimate disputes
7           arise. This Rule is so clear; there is no
8           legitimate dispute here, and certainly, you know,
9           so that is my position.

10          BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, we have to give 11          rebuttal; we have to give everything. We are not 12          limited to our--

13          BY THE COURT: --but it is different between 14          the State and the--

15          BY MR. HORAN: --It is, Your Honor. It is 16          different only in the sense that once they ask for 17          discovery, and they asked for 9.04 discovery on all
18          matters, that they have to give all matters. The 19          second thing I want to bring to the Court's 20          attention is that under 2. of "C," it says, "Any 21          physical evidence...which the defendant may offer
22          into evidence." They have a tape. If she denies 23          it, they are going to have to play the tape. That 24          is physical evidence. They have got to provide
25          that tape. Otherwise, it has not been discovered.

26          BY THE COURT: No, that isn't what the Rule
27          says.

28          BY MR. HORAN: What is it?

29          BY THE COURT: The Rule says it's witnesses in

1 chief, and you are making apples out of oranges
2 saying the tape is physical evidence. The tape is
3 the statement; that's what it is, and that is what
4 they have to furnish is the evidence of witnesses
5 in chief. They do not have to furnish anything
6 other than that.

7 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, the whole argument
8 is not whether or not they have something in their 9 possession that is impeachment or not. The 10 question turns on whether or not they have-- and 11 "C" says once you request these things, and the 12 Court well knows we have had discovery requests
13 that take out certain parts of 9.04. It clearly
14 says if you ask for it, you have got to give it.
15 Request the following information which corresponds 16 to that which the defendant requested. It does not 17 limit it to those three things.

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, it does. It lists them 1, 19 2, 3.

20 BY MR. HORAN: No, sir.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, it does. That is the 22 Court's ruling anyhow.

23 BY MR. HORAN: All right.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So we are coming back at what
25 time, Judge?

26 BY THE COURT: Well, an hour.

27 BY MR. HORAN: If you would read the Glaskox
28 case. I understand that it may give you some--

29 BY THE COURT: --Well, does that case say in

1                   there that it is entitled to impeachment?

2                   BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

3                   BY THE COURT: To impeachment? All right,
4 well, where is it?

5                   BY MR. HORAN: It's right there in front of
6 you.

7                   BY THE COURT: All right, I will read it.

8                   (WHEREUPON THE COURT LEFT THE COURTROOM. THE 9 COURT THEN RETURNED BRIEFLY WITH ONLY MR. HORAN AND 10 MR. FREELON PRESENT AND OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE 11 JURY FOR THE FOLLOWING:)

12                   BY MR. HORAN: There is a case of Ivy v. State
13 which is certainly a lot more on point than the 14 Glaskox v. State case I cited to you. It's cited
15 at 641 So.2d 15. It does state in there that under 16 one, 9.04 (C) (1) that it may not be discoverable,
17 but it does address whether or not a written
18 statement is physical evidence and whether or not 19 it's discoverable.

20                   BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, can we ask that 21 we be, I be allowed to get a copy of that?

22                   BY THE COURT: You can, but how about y'all
23 letting me read the law a little bit, and then I
24 will let y'all have some of it to respond. Is that
25 okay?

26                   BY MR. FREELON: I can't respond if I don't 27 know what is in it.

28                   BY THE COURT: I know; I am going to give it
29 to you. I am going to go read this first, and then

1 I will give it back to you. I am going to give you
2 plenty of time to respond.

3 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON MARCH 24, 1999,
4 THE COURT AGAIN CONVENED IN THE COURTROOM AT 2:03
5 P.M. OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY WITH ONLY MR.
6 LUMUMBA PRESENT AT FIRST FOR THE FOLLOWING:)

7 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, do you want to see
8 this case?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you, Judge.

10 (The Court handed a case to Mr. Lumumba. UPON
11 THE OTHER COUNSEL WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MR. EVANS
12 ENTERING THE COURTROOM AND WITH THE DEFENDANT
13 PRESENT, THE MOTION HEARING PROCEEDED:)

14 BY THE COURT: You ready to hear this matter?

15 BY MR. HORAN: I don't have any other-- I
16 don't have any other argument.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a brief rejoinder,
18 Judge. I think--

19 (Pause while the Court pounded the gavel to 20 get order in the courtroom.)

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: One thing the case obviously 22 ruled on behalf of the defendant that he didn't 23 have to give the discovery, and I think that is the 24 critical thing. The second thing is that I think
25 what they are saying in the Rule that if the, at 26 the time they say consistent with 613, it could 27 possibly be, it may have to be introduced as an 28 exhibit. But I think that under 613 of the Rule,
29 if the Judge reads 613, what that says is once you,

1           once you ask a witness if he made the statement and
2           they deny it, then if the defense or the opposing
3           counsel asks to see the statement, they have to be 4           given the statement.

5           BY THE COURT: Right. I think that is a
6           different question though. That is another
7           question as to admissibility. The question right
8           now is whether it's discoverable. Contrary to what 9           I said while ago, the Supreme Court has held that 10          is physical evidence. Well, they held a written
11          statement was. There can't be any difference
12          between that and a taped statement. So it is 13          discoverable, and they will have, you will have to 14          produce it for them. Now when- huh?

15          BY MR. HORAN: Are we ready?

16          BY THE COURT: You ready for what?

17          BY MR. HORAN: To proceed.

18          BY THE COURT: Okay. But I mean what about 19          when are we going to produce the stuff?

20          BY MR. HORAN: I assume that is the only one
21          they have got.

22          BY THE COURT: See, I am in the dark as to 23          what they have got.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I have got a couple of 25          statements. That's all, but go ahead.

26          BY MR. HORAN: I assume we can have them by 5
27          o'clock today will be fine.

28          BY MR. FREELON: Can we be allowed to at least 29          look at some law? I mean what law has been

1 presented to this Court has been the law--

2 BY THE COURT: --I tell you what; I will give
3 you -- yeah. But they are not, but they are not
4 going to be-- I'm not going to allow them to be
5 used until such time as -- I mean I have held that
6 they are discoverable based on Ivy v. State. So I
7 am saying that they cannot be used. Now if you
8 produce me some law contrary to that that says that 9 they can be used, yeah, I am going to listen to
10 it.

11 BY MR. FREELON: I say that because this is a
12 1994 ruling.

13 BY THE COURT: And I have read it, but I did
14 not shepardize it, so I don't -- but based on that 15 law, it is discoverable, and I require that it be 16 discovered to them at 5 o'clock. Okay, providing 17 you don't--

18 BY MR. FREELON: I can't get any law by 5
19 o'clock. By 6 o'clock or-- we are going to shut
20 down at 5:00; right?

21 BY THE COURT: Yeah, we are going to shut down
22 at 5:00.

23 BY MR. FREELON: I mean today you said you are 24 leaving at 5:00 for sure?

25 BY MR. HORAN: Three hours. I stayed through 26 lunch and found it.

27 BY THE COURT: Well.

28 BY MR. FREELON: Well, are you going to allow 29 me to use yours?

1 BY MR. HORAN: Judge, all I, I just--

2 BY THE COURT: --You are going to, they are
3 going to have to furnish it unless he finds law to 4 the contrary of what you just said. They are going
5 to have to furnish to you sufficiently in time for 6 you to be able to examine it before I'm going to 7 allow it to be admitted. How is that ruling?

8 BY MR. HORAN: That is fine.

9 (Mr. Evans enters the courtroom.)

10 BY THE COURT: Okay. I will give you--

11 BY MR. FREELON: We will try to do it during 12 the break and have it by 5:00.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay.

14 (Off the record briefly.)

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, could I have another--

16 BY THE COURT: --Let me get the jury worked 17 out first.

18 (Pause while the Court confers with the 19 Bailiff.)

20 BY THE COURT: I am trying to work out where 21 they are going to eat tonight.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I see. Can I just have 23 one more word because I think the point that I was 24 trying to state to the Court is if you look to the 25 paragraphs in question here on the second to the 26 last page, it says that, "If the statement is 27 discoverable, it must be viewed as physical 28 evidence which may be offered in evidence. Because 29 the statement was in writing, it could be

1           considered physical evidence." It says it could be
2           considered physical evidence, didn't say it would
3           be. Then it says, "It would be offered in 4           evidence, however, only if" - only - "if the 5           witness testifies differently and then pursuant to 6           provisions of MRE 613."

7           What my contention is, is what this is doing
8           is making the discovery rule here contingent upon 9           the rule which is normally just used as a rule for 10          admission into evidence. And I think that what 11          they are saying is that if you read 613, it does 12          have a discovery provision within it too. And the 13          discovery provision there is that once the witness
14          testifies that they didn't make that statement,
15          then before the statement is actually used to 16          impeach, then the other side has to give it to the 17          counsel on the other, on the opposing side. In 18          other words, the counsel offering the statement has 19          to give it to the counsel opposing it prior to the 20          time it is used to impeach, which is right before
21          the witness is impeached. So you understand what
22          I'm saying?

23          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. But I don't think
24          that is what the Rule says. That case says it is 25          physical evidence. Now that is-- they have 26          determined that it's physical evidence. And Rule
27          9.04 (C) (2) requires you to produce physical
28          evidence.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, how about--

1                   BY THE COURT: --It's discoverable under that
2 Rule. It may or may not be admissible under 613.
3 I have got to get to that in order to get to that
4 point. They get to see it. Whether y'all use it
5 is another story. And if y'all find that Ivy is 6 not the law, I will listen to that.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay, are we ready to proceed?

9                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point it is 10 my understanding that they want to put Debbie
11 Haller on out of order.

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

13                  BY MR. EVANS: It is my understanding that the 14 only thing she can testify to is that the 15 fingernail scrapings that came from Derrick 16 Stewart's fingernails were his own blood. We will 17 stipulate to that.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would like to put her on 19 anyway, Judge, especially since she has come all
20 the way down here. This testimony won't take more
21 than 5 minutes, 10 minutes.

22                  BY MR. EVANS: It's not relevant anyway
23 because it's not anything that helps us or helps
24 them. It just shows that he was laying in blood
25 and got his own blood on him.

26                  BY THE COURT: Well, I would allow her to 27 testify on the defense side of the case, and if she 28 was not an expert who was under these other
29 stipulations and all like that, I would not allow

1           it to go out of order. But if she is going to
2           testify, she has got to testify now. This is not a
3           procedure I like, but I think we are stuck with 4           it. So I'm going to let her testify.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We would call Debbie
6           Haller.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay, let me call the jury
8           first. I am ready.

9           BY MR. HORAN: Will you explain that to the 10          jury, please, sir?

11          BY THE COURT: Yeah, I sure will.

12          (JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM AT 2:15 P.M. ON 13          3/24/99. ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT ARE
14          PRESENT:)

15          BY THE COURT: What is this lady's name
16          again?

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Debbie Haller.

18          BY THE COURT: Heller?

19          BY MR. EVANS: Haller, H A L L E R.

20          BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, the 21          normal procedure is that the State put on its case
22          first and then the Defense put on their witnesses.
23          That is the procedure I follow almost all the time
24          since you have a natural progression of the case.
25          However, this lady is an expert witness, and she 26          has other obligation during the week where she has 27          other trials that she has to be to, be at, so the 28          Defense has requested that I allow him to put her
29          on now so she can go meet those other obligations.

1 So I'm going to put her on out of order. She is
2 not a part of the State's case. She is a part of 3 the Defense case. Y'all understand that?

4 (Jurors nod their heads.)

5 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, we stipulate as to 6 her qualifications as an expert in her field.

7 BY THE COURT: Do you accept that
8 stipulation?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Certainly. Certainly.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, which field is that?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She is an expert in the field
12 of--

13 BY MR. EVANS: Serology.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Serology, right.

15 BY MR. HORAN: She has other expertise, but I
16 think that is what is relevant here today.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Debbie Haller.

18 DEBORAH KAY HALLER,

19 a white female called to testify out of order as a witness by 20 the Defendant, having first been duly sworn, testified as
21 follows, to-wit:

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Ready? Good afternoon,
23 ladies and gentlemen.

24 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Haller. Ms. Haller, could you
26 say, please, for the ladies and gentlemen of the jury what 27 your name is?

28 A. My name is Deborah Kay Haller. My last name is 29 spelled H A L L E R.

1 Q. And Ms. Haller, where is it that you are employed?

2 A. I am the employed with the Mississippi Crime
3 Laboratory in Jackson.

4 Q. Now your qualifications have actually been 5 stipulated to, but can you tell the ladies and gentlemen of 6 the jury what it is that you do there, and just explain to 7 them a little bit about what that is that you do?

8 A. I work in the bioscience section of the Crime
9 Laboratory which is the section that analyzes items of 10 physical evidence for the presence or absence of body fluids
11 such as blood. I then take these samples and perform PCR DNA
12 analysis on them in order to try and determine who the 13 possible donor of the sample is. So I take a questioned
14 sample, which is a sample recovered from either an individual
15 believed to be involved or the crime scene or some piece of 16 evidence, and compare it to a known reference sample which
17 are usually liquid blood samples submitted on the individuals
18 believed to be involved in order to determine if the two DNA
19 profiles are either consistent or not consistent. If the DNA
20 profile of a questioned sample is found not to be consistent 21 with a known sample, then that means that person is not the 22 donor of the questioned body fluid. If the two DNA profiles
23 are found to be the same, then that means the donor of the 24 known sample can be a possible donor of the questioned
25 sample.

26 Q. Let's see if we can break down just a couple of 27 things. When we talk about a donor, what do we mean by that 28 term to the lay people?

29 A. The questioned samples, like I said earlier, are

1 usually samples recovered from the crime scene or from an
2 item of evidence at the crime scene. And that is-- we were
3 trying to determine who the donor of that sample is, and I do
4 this by comparing to known reference samples. And these are
5 usually, like I said, liquid blood samples that are taken
6 actually from the bodies of an individual.

7 Q. Okay, now let's say this case, for instance; did
8 you do some work in the case which involved the Tardy
9 Furniture Store incident?

10 A. Yes, sir; I did.

11 Q. Okay, that file had a number on it in your, in the 12 laboratory; is that correct?

13 A. Yes. Our crime laboratory case number is 14 J96-3536-01C.

15 Q. When did you get involved with the investigation in 16 this case or the crime lab work in this case?

17 A. I began my analysis on July 1st, 1997.

18 Q. Now what I would like to ask you, first of all, is 19 when you say you talked about a questioned sample. In this 20 case did you have a questioned sample, and tell us what it
21 was.

22 A. In this case I was requested to examine some 23 fingernail scrapings having been collected from Derrick
24 Stewart. And this would be a questioned sample because we 25 are trying to determine who the donor of the DNA is under the 26 fingernails of this individual.

27 Q. You say fingernail scrapings. What is that?

28 A. This is where someone actually takes some sort of 29 stick or something and actually scrapes from under the

1     fingernails removing any debris or matter that is under the
2     fingernails and deposits them on to a piece of white paper
3     and then seals it up and secures it so that it is not lost.
4     And this is the sample that I examined, the questioned
5     sample.

6             Q.     Now did you do it for anyone other than Mr.
7     Stewart?

8             A.     No.   That is the only questioned sample that I had 9     was the fingernail samples from him.

10            Q.     Was other serology and DNA work done in this case
11     that you are aware of?

12            A.     Yes.

13            Q.     Okay, but you just did this thing on Mr. Stewart;
14     is that correct?

15            A.     Yes, that is correct.   That is the only questioned
16     sample that I examined.

17            Q.     Okay.   Having taken the scrapings of the debris
18     underneath his nails, did you make a comparison on them to 19     determine where they came from?

20            A.     Yes, I did.

21            Q.     Okay, and tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
22     what you were able to determine.

23            A.     Okay, I developed a DNA profile on the matter
24     collected from under the fingernails of Derrick Stewart and 25     determined that it was consistent with the DNA profile
26     obtained from the known reference sample labeled Derrick
27     Stewart.   In other words, what was under his nails is 28     consistent with having come from him.

29            Q.     To the best of your knowledge, was anything under

1 his nails that was consistent as having come from Mr.
2 Flowers?

3 A. No. There was no DNA from any other person other
4 than Mr. Stewart under his nails.

5 Q. Okay. Then I would like to ask you this finally.
6 In this case did you also assist by forwarding some evidence
7 to a person in New Orleans, an expert in New Orleans, to have 8 them do some DNA analysis?

9 A. Yes. I believe either I did it or someone in my 10 section did.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I would like to get
12 this marked for identification purposes, please.

13 (LETTER DATED 9/3/96 FROM MS. HALLER TO ANNE
14 MONTGOMERY AT GENTEST WAS MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
15 EXHIBIT D-2 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

16 (Exhibit D-2 for identification was shown to 17 Mr. Evans.)

18 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
19 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

20 BY MR. EVANS: At this point we would object
21 to anything other than what this witness has tested
22 herself or that she personally is familiar with.
23 This is just a letter where some exhibits were sent 24 out of state, and we don't have anybody to testify
25 for them.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now--

27 BY THE COURT: Let me read it first.

28 (Pause while the Court reads.)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, it's really not that

1 complicated. I have to be able to put her on, and
2 she will be gone. I just have to put her on to say
3 that she sent this stuff. We have the expert from
4 New Orleans coming in here to testify what she did
5 with the stuff.

6 BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any problem with
7 that.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But I do need to have her--

10 BY THE COURT: --well, I think--

11 BY MR. EVANS: --but I just want this
12 introduced. I don't have any problem with him
13 asking her about it.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, she said that, I don't 15 see why--

16 BY THE COURT: --Why would that not be
17 admissible if this lady sent it? It's just a chain
18 of evidence thing.

19 BY MR. HORAN: It is my understanding he was 20 going to try to get her to testify about what
21 happened in New Orleans.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

23 BY MR. EVANS: That's what I thought.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I wasn't.

25 BY MR. HORAN: He has already asked her did
26 y'all send some stuff to New Orleans.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not saying--

28 BY THE COURT: --What is the harm in this?

29 BY MR. HORAN: He can just introduce the

1 report. He doesn't have to have his witness up
2 here. I thought he was introducing a report. That
3 is not the report.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not trying to--

5 BY THE COURT: --This is a chain of custody
6 document.

7 BY MR. EVANS: That is not the objection. The 8 objection is I don't want her trying to introduce
9 their testimony from New Orleans with this witness.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not going to do that.

11 BY THE COURT: No, no. That document doesn't 12 do that.

13 BY MR. EVANS: No, that was what the objection
14 was.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, if it gets to 16 that, then we will deal with that.

17 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

18 BY THE COURT: Has she identified that?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Not yet.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. I am showing you what is now marked D-2 for 22 identification purposes and ask if you, do you know what that
23 is?

24 A. Yes. I can recognize D-2 for identification where 25 it bears my signature, and it appears to be a photocopy of a
26 letter that I wrote.

27 Q. Okay, and does it, the letter, does it address some 28 exhibits that you forwarded somewhere?

29 A. Yes, it does.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I would ask that it be
2 admitted into evidence, please.

3 BY THE COURT: Any objection?

4 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, let it be marked.

6 (LETTER OF 9/3/96 FROM HALLER TO GENTEST
7 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-2 FOR
8 IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. Okay, could you tell me, please, why you sent some 11 exhibits to New Orleans. I'm not asking you the results of 12 any kind of examination or anything. I would just like to 13 know why you sent some things to New Orleans.

14 A. At the time that this request was made which was--
15 this letter is dated September 3rd, 1996. At that time we 16 had not established our DNA laboratory in the Mississippi
17 Crime Laboratory. We opened our laboratory up in April of 18 '97, and that is when we actually began receiving cases for 19 work. Previous to that, we were going through the 20 developmental studies needed to establish a DNA laboratory.
21 So therefore, when we had a request for DNA analysis on 22 cases prior to April of '97, we would forward those at the 23 request of the submitting agency to the laboratory of their 24 choice, which in this case was a private laboratory in New 25 Orleans.

26 Q. And this DNA testing, is that similar to the same
27 kind of testing you just told us about that you performed?

28 A. Yes, it is.

29 Q. Now. Has it always got to do with fingernail

1 scrapings?

2 A. No. Like I stated earlier, we test any kind of 3 questioned sample which would be any kind of evidence removed
4 from or a stain removed from any kind of evidence. It could
5 be stains from clothing, blood stains collected at crime
6 scenes. Evidence can be any tangible item that might have 7 some bearing on a case.

8 Q. Okay, and referring again to the exhibit which we 9 just introduced which is D-2, I believe, what does that
10 indicate - if you need it to refresh your memory - that you
11 sent to New Orleans? And if there is anything else
12 specifically you want to say about why that was sent, let us
13 know.

14 A. According to Defendant's Exhibit D-2, there were 15 nine items that were sent, and these were cuttings of 16 possible stains, blood stains collected from a navy, a pair
17 of navy shorts. There were actually two cuttings from a pair
18 of navy shorts, two cuttings from a shirt, four cuttings from 19 a pair of white dress shorts, and then one cutting from a
20 pair of white casual shorts. These were all exhibits that 21 were submitted to the Crime Laboratory under this case number
22 that I stated earlier, J96-3536-01C.

23 Q. Okay, is there any indication as to where those 24 were taken from? In other words, those exhibits, where did
25 they come from? Where were they recovered at?

26 A. Yes, and I am reading from this letter. These
27 cuttings are from the suspect's clothes which were collected
28 sometime after the murder. The clothes had been washed in 29 Luminol which is a screening technique that we use to screen

1 evidence that had been washed for the possible presence of
2 blood, or Phenolphthalein which is another screening test
3 that we use, and these are two tests that if the results are 4 positive, means a sample might be blood and should be
5 collected for further testing. But we performed no
6 additional tests on these stains because of their small size,
7 and we preserved them for any kind of DNA work which we were
8 requested to send to the private laboratory.

9 Q. Okay, and so when they say, in other words, are 10 those cuttings from Mr. Flowers' clothes?

11 A. These are cuttings taken from clothes that were 12 identified to us as belonging to the Defendant.

13 Q. Okay, that is Mr. Flowers?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Thank you, can I see that again, please.
16 And this was September 3rd, 1996?

17 A. Yes, it was.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any further
19 questions at this time.

20 BY THE COURT: Does the State have any
21 questions of this witness?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, briefly, Your Honor.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just one other.

24 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Did you say yet what laboratory you actually sent
26 this to? If you didn't--

27 A. I believe I did, but we sent them to a laboratory
28 that is known as Reliagene Technologies, and that is R E L I -
29 A G E N E, and they are located in New Orleans.

1 Q. Was the letter addressed to any particular person
2 at that laboratory?

3 A. The letter was addressed to Anne Montgomery, who is
4 an associate director of the laboratory, and she is in charge
5 of the forensic part of the laboratory.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you. I have no further
7 questions.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have this
9 document marked for identification?

10 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

11 (GENTEST REPORT DATED 12/23/96 WAS MARKED AS 12 STATE'S EXHIBIT S-98 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

13 (Exhibit S-98 for identification shown to 14 Counsel opposite.)

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

16 Q. Okay, Ms. Haller, I will hand you Exhibit 98 and 17 ask you to examine this and tell us if you can identify what 18 that is?

19 A. State's Exhibit 98 for identification is a
20 laboratory report from GenTest Laboratories which is what
21 Reliagene used to be known as, and I don't remember exactly
22 when they changed their name. But they were previously known
23 as GenTest. They are now known as Reliagene. And this is a
24 laboratory report from them dated December 23rd, 1996. And 25 it has the Crime Laboratory case number J96-3536-01C which is 26 the Crime Laboratory case number that was assigned to this
27 case. It is two pages of their report.

28 Q. All right, does that report basically, the test
29 that was done on the clothing that Mr. Lumumba was asking you

1 about?

2 A. Yes. This is the report where they are giving
3 their results on the items that I mentioned earlier, the
4 cuttings from the clothing. And also, in addition, they did
5 some work on the known reference samples from the individuals
6 believed to be involved.

7 Q. All right, now what item of the Defendant's
8 clothing was blood found on?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry; I didn't hear that
10 question?

11 BY MR. EVANS: What item of the Defendant's
12 clothing was blood found on.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection to that question.
14 I don't think this report says any item of the 15 Defendant's clothing--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --She testified to that on 17 direct.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach?

19 BY MR. EVANS: That they determined that there
20 was blood is why they sent it on to GenTest.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach?

22 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute though.

23 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
24 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

25 BY THE COURT: But now y'all are trying to get 26 her to testify from somebody else's report which is 27 what you objected to while ago.

28 BY MR. EVANS: All I asked her about is what 29 item of clothing the blood was found on--

1                   BY THE COURT: --but you asked her, and that
2                   is not in evidence. That report is not in
3                   evidence.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: It's not from the report. I
5                   just introduced that for identification. I haven't 6                   offered this report.

7                   BY THE COURT: Well, if it's not from the 8                   report, she can testify to it. I thought she was 9                   testifying from the report.

10                  BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Your Honor, this is the 12                  report from New Orleans.

13                  BY MR. EVANS: See, she found the blood and 14                  then she sent it on to New Orleans.

15                  BY THE COURT: She can testify to anything
16                  that she did if she has knowledge. Okay.

17                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

18                  BY THE COURT: I misunderstood.

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I misunderstood too. I
20                  have no objection to anything that this witness
21                  did. My only objection is her testifying from 22                  something somebody else did.

23                  BY MR. EVANS:

24                  Q. All right, do I need to repeat the question?

25                  A. (Witness nods her head.)

26                  Q. What item of clothing did you examine that had, of 27                  the Defendant's clothing that had blood on it?

28                  A. First off, I didn't perform the examinations. That 29                  was done by another analyst in our laboratory and--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would have to object.

2 BY THE WITNESS: If I could--

3 BY MR. EVANS: --Well, he has gone into
4 everything that was done on this in the Jackson
5 lab.

6 BY THE COURT: She can only testify as to what
7 her personal knowledge is. If she has got personal
8 knowledge, she can testify to it. If she doesn't,
9 she can't.

10 BY MR. EVANS:

11 Q. Do you have personal knowledge? Did you observe
12 the tests that were down there?

13 A. Gosh, I don't remember if I observed it or not, but 14 the reason that I was involved in sending the samples to the 15 private laboratory is because this analyst was on maternity
16 leave, and as the supervisor of the section, I picked up the 17 request as it came in instead of making it wait until she got 18 back from maternity leave.

19 Q. All right. Well, let me ask you this, and this may 20 simplify it. I am trying to basically go back over what you
21 said. Correct me if I am wrong. Is it the policy that y'all
22 do testing to determine if there is blood on a subject or 23 object before you would send it to GenTest for DNA?

24 A. Yes, that is policy.

25 Q. So that is the policy?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. So according to your policy, you would have had to 28 determine there was blood there before you would have sent it
29 on for DNA testing?

1           A.    We would have examined the item of evidence to
2           determine if there were any possible blood stains, and if any 3           blood stains or possible blood stains were collected from 4           those items and we were requested to, we would then send 5           those to the private laboratory.

6           Q.    But whether there was blood on there or not, you
7           have no personal knowledge of when these clothes were 8           obtained or where they were obtained from, do you?

9           A.    No, sir.  Other than I believe it is reflected on 10          our evidence submission form.

11          Q.    Do you have that with you?

12          A.    No, sir.  I don't have the complete file with me.
13          I don't have a copy of that evidence submission form.

14          Q.    Okay, but it would be on the one that the officer
15          submitted to the Crime Lab; is that correct?

16          A.    Yes.

17          Q.    Now on the fingernail scrapings, you have testified
18          that the blood that was found under the fingernail scrapings
19          of Derrick Stewart was his own blood; is that correct?

20          A.    Yes, sir.  That genetic profile was determined to 21          be consistent with Mr. Stewart.

22                   (Pause while Mr. Evans turns on the slide
23                   projector and finds a slide.  The overhead lights
24                   in the front of the courtroom were cut off.)

25          Q.    Ms. Haller, as an expert, I would like for you to 26          take into consideration that there has been testified that 27          this pool of blood where the cap is was where the fourth
28          victim would have been laying in the store.  Assuming that 29          this was, since it was the fourth victim where the body of

1 Derrick Stewart was laying, is there anything inconsistent
2 with finding his own blood under his fingernails if he was
3 laying in a pool of his own blood?

4 A. No, sir.

5 (Pause while projector is cut off and State's 6 Counsel confer briefly.)

7 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we would go ahead
8 and submit the report into evidence.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, we will be bringing in 10 the expert to testify to the report, Judge, so I
11 would object to putting it in before she gets here
12 so she can explain it.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further of this
15 witness.

16 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Just a short question, Ms. Haller, and then we are 18 going to let you go. Basically, you examine whatever you
19 find to determine what its origin if you can; is that right?
20 When I say whatever you find, whatever appears to have 21 relevance as far as the serological examinations that you are 22 doing; is that correct?

23 A. I guess that kind of sums it up in a nutshell. We 24 are submitted items of evidence, requested to examine them.
25 Any blood stains that are collected from them are then
26 further tested if it's deemed necessary.

27 Q. Okay. Now also I understand that what you do with 28 the clothing that was submitted; what you submitted is what 29 possibly could have been blood stains; is that correct?

1           A.    That's correct, and I was trying to make that
2 statement earlier. These samples that were collected from
3 the clothing which I forwarded to the private laboratory--

4           BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor, I-- excuse me,
5 Ms. Haller. I hate to even object because I wanted
6 all this in, but if I'm not going to be able to go
7 into it, it's not proper for him to go into
8 something that she didn't test herself. If he is 9 going to be entitled to do it, I would like to be 10 able to go back into it with her.

11           BY THE COURT:  She has got no personal
12 knowledge. She can't testify to it.

13           BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I think what he asked her,
14 and I am just following up on, is the policy about 15 possible blood stains.

16           BY THE COURT:  You can ask her about the 17 policy.

18           BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20           Q.    You were about to explain. Go ahead.

21           A.    We send-- now let me back up and just kind of 22 clarify some things here. The first thing that we do on an 23 item of evidence is examine it for the presence or absence of 24 possible blood stains, reddish colored stains. If an item
25 of clothing has been washed, we then have to use another
26 screening technique to help us locate any possible blood
27 stains because the reddish color is going to have been washed
28 out. So in either instance if we collect a sample from an
29 item of clothing and we are requested to send it off for DNA

1 testing, we will do so, and that is what we were doing in,
2 prior to April of '97 for DNA testing.

3 Q. So according to the policy, you may send things
4 which you think are possibly blood stains which possibly
5 might not be blood stains; is that correct?

6 A. That's correct, and the reason that we stop our 7 examinations at that point is because if an item has been 8 washed and we are having to use this screening technique to 9 help us even locate the sample, there is not going to be 10 enough sample for us to test further to determine if it's 11 human blood. We would be consuming the sample. So we 12 preserve the sample for the DNA test.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

14 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: As far as I am concerned,
16 Judge, yes.

17 BY MR. HORAN: As far as the State is
18 concerned.

19 BY THE COURT: You are free to go, ma'am.

20 WITNESS EXCUSED.

21 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

22 BY MR. HORAN: The State calls Chief Johnny
23 Hargrove.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, let me see Mr. Freelon
25 and Mr. Horan up here. The rest of you can come if 26 you like, but they are the two that is going to be 27 interested.

28 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
29 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

1                   BY THE COURT: Judge Walker's law clerk did
2                   that for me.

3                   (Hands Counsel a note.)

4                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

5                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, they have got our 6                   witnesses downstairs.

7                   BY THE COURT: I gathered that's what the deal
8                   was.

9                   BY MR. HORAN: I'm going to get them to put 10                  some out in the hallway so it won't take so long if 11                  that is all right with the Court. We can get them
12                  somewhere up the stairs.

13                  BY THE COURT: You might check with them.
14                  There is one of these courtrooms open now. Number
15                  two, I believe is open. Check about that. I tell
16                  you what; check about, see if we can use-- I don't 17                  know; there may be a Judge in that courtroom, but 18                  at least as far as this afternoon. Well, I tell 19                  you what; let's just wait until Ron gets back. He 20                  will know.

21                  (The Bailiff returned and conferred with the 22                  Court out of the hearing of the Court Reporter.)

23                  JOHNNY HARGROVE,

24                  a black male called to testify as a witness by the State of
25                  Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
26                  follows, to-wit:

27                  BY THE COURT: Chief, have you been served-- I
28                  mean sworn?

29                  BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

1                   BY THE COURT: State your name for the
2                   record.

3                   BY THE WITNESS: Johnny Hargrove.

4                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

5                   Q. Mr. Hargrove, you are Chief of Police for the City
6                   of Winona, Mississippi; is that right?

7                   A. Yes, sir.

8                   Q. How long have you been Chief of Police?

9                   A. Five years.

10                  Q. I want you to do something for me. If you were 11                  going up Highway 55 and you got to the Winona exit, would you
12                  tell this jury how you would get from the 55 exit, the Winona
13                  exit to the Tardy Furniture Store. How would you proceed, 14                  the quickest way to get there?

15                  A. The quickest way to get there? You would turn off
16                  on 55, make a right, get on to 82, go about a quarter of a
17                  mile, take another right on Middleton Road; go another
18                  quarter of a mile to 51, take a right; go down about a 19                  quarter to the red light. There would be Summit and 51, take 20                  a left. Go down about another quarter of a mile, and then 21                  you take another right, and Tardy's would be down there on 22                  the right.

23                  Q. It is generally in the downtown area of Winona; is
24                  that right?

25                  A. Yes, sir.

26                  Q. And it's on Main Street; is that right?

27                  A. Yes, sir.

28                  Q. On or Front Street, whatever?

29                  A. Front Street.

1           Q.    Front Street. I want to show you a picture that
2           has been marked for identification purposes as State's
3           Exhibit-- well, it has been introduced in evidence as State's
4           Exhibit number 1. Is that the front of the Tardy Furniture
5           Store building?

6           A.    Yes, sir.

7           Q.    Okay. And on July the 16th of 1996, did you
8           respond to a call to go to the Tardy Furniture Store?

9           A.    Yes, I did.

10          Q.    In Winona?

11          A.    Yes, I did.

12          Q.    Do you remember approximately what time you
13          actually arrived at the Tardy Furniture Store?

14          A.    About 10:21.

15          Q.    10:21?

16          A.    In the morning.

17          Q.    And how long after you received that call-- how
18          long did it take you to get there? Do you remember where you
19          were when you received the call?

20          A.    Coming off of Greensboro.

21          Q.    Okay, and how far would that be from Tardy
22          Furniture?

23          A.    Not far. It's right up from the police department.

24          Q.    Okay, and the police department is how far from
25          Tardy Furniture?

26          A.    About--

27          Q.    Quarter of a mile maybe? At the most?

28          A.    Somewhere in there, about.

29          Q.    Okay, it took you a minute or so to get to Tardy

1 Furniture?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. After you arrived there at Tardy Furniture Store,
4 would you tell the jury and the Court what you did?

5 A. I drove up in front of the store. I got out of the 6 vehicle, went to the front door, opened the front door and 7 went inside.

8 Q. What happened then?

9 A. About from here to that door back there I seen Ms.
10 Tardy laying in the floor.

11 Q. Okay, that is approximately 45 feet maybe?

12 A. Somewhere in there.

13 Q. Had you been in Tardy Furniture before?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. On numerous occasions, other occasions?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. Would you describe, you say you saw Ms. Tardy.

18 What was her condition at that time?

19 A. She was laying on her stomach face down.

20 Q. After you saw Ms. Tardy, would you tell the Court
21 and this jury what you did?

22 A. After I seen her laying down back there, I
23 proceeded further.

24 Q. Okay, would you tell the Court and the jury what 25 you saw after you proceeded on into the store?

26 A. Okay, after I proceeded further, when I got close
27 to her, I glanced to my right, and I seen the other three
28 people.

29 Q. Okay, would you tell the Court and the jury who you

1 saw?

2 A. I seen Stewart.

3 Q. Is that Derrick "BoBo" Stewart?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Did you know him at that time?

6 A. No, I did not.

7 Q. Did you come to know him as Derrick "BoBo" Stewart?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Would you describe his condition?

10 A. He was laying with his face in a puddle of blood
11 gasping for breath.

12 Q. After you saw Mr. Stewart, did you notice anyone
13 else in the store?

14 A. Yeah, I seen Robert Golden and Ms. Rigby.

15 Q. That would be Carmen Rigby?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. And did you know Robert Golden prior to this day?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. How long had you known Robert Golden?

20 A. Been knowing him a long time. When my brother come
21 home, he used to come over to my mother's house and eat.

22 Q. Would you describe, if you can, Chief, the 23 condition of Mr. Golden at the time you saw him. Did he 24 appear to be dead or alive?

25 A. He appeared to be dead.

26 Q. Would you describe the condition of Carmen Rigby at 27 the time that you saw her?

28 A. She appeared to be dead too.

29 Q. So the only individual in the store that seemed to

1 be alive or appeared to be alive at that time was Derrick
2 "BoBo" Stewart; is that correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. What did you do at that time, Chief Hargrove?

5 A. After I seen those, those three laying over there,
6 I unsnapped my weapon and backed back out of the store.

7 Q. Okay, did you pull your weapon out?

8 A. (Witness nods his head) And started backing back
9 out of the store.

10 Q. And you backed out of the store. Did you notice
11 anything unusual about the area surrounding where Mr. BoBo
12 Stewart was?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Did you see any footprints?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading, Judge. Objection.

16 BY THE WITNESS:

17 A. I didn't see the footprint until--

18 BY THE COURT: Well, it is asked and answered.

19 BY MR. HORAN:

20 Q. Okay, all right. I may, I need to do a sequence of 21 time. You backed out of the store; is that right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. What did you do once you, after you backed out of 24 the store?

25 A. Went back to my patrol vehicle.

26 Q. Okay, where were you parked in relationship to the 27 front of Tardy's store?

28 A. I went in front of the store.

29 Q. Did you see anyone leave or enter the store--

1 A. No, I did not.

2 Q. --after you backed out?

3 A. No, I did not.

4 Q. Did you make sure that that did not happen?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Basically at that point in time, did you secure
7 that scene?

8 A. What I did, I picked up my mike, and I called for 9 backup, and I called for MedStat, and finally I called Doug's
10 office and the investigator from Greenwood.

11 Q. You say Doug Evans. The DA's office?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And did certain individuals as a result of your 14 request, did they show up there at Tardy Furniture?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Did you secure the scene until those individuals
17 showed up?

18 A. I started securing the scene after MedStat arrived
19 and they got Stewart, and that's when I seen the footprint.

20 Q. Okay, MedStat arrived. How many minutes after you
21 went outside did MedStat show up? That is the ambulance
22 service, I assume?

23 A. Ambulance service.

24 Q. Do you remember what ambulance?

25 A. MedStat.

26 Q. Okay, what I mean is who was in charge of the 27 EMT's, emergency technicians?

28 A. Barry Eskridge in charge of it.

29 Q. Okay, and you know Mr. Eskridge?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And you proceeded back into the store with him?

3 A. I went back in. I went back in with the other two 4 EMT's.

5 Q. Did you notice anything about the area around Mr.
6 Stewart's body at that time?

7 A. Yeah, that's when I seen the footprint.

8 Q. Did you take--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I want to make--

10 BY MR. HORAN: --I'm sorry.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --an objection to what seems
12 to be continuing leading questions. I mean, Did
13 you notice anything around the area.

14 BY MR. HORAN: That is not suggesting an
15 answer.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it is suggesting
17 something was around that area. I mean what did he 18 notice in the store is the appropriate question.
19 That is my objection.

20 BY THE COURT: The objection is overruled. Go
21 ahead.

22 BY MR. HORAN:

23 Q. You were describing that you noticed footprints
24 there around Mr. Stewart's body?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Did you take any steps to make sure that they were 27 preserved or the integrity of those footprints were not
28 disturbed in any way?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. What did you do?

2 A. I was watching them until they got his body on the
3 gurney, and then they moved out, and all of us went out at
4 the same time.

5 Q. So you made sure that they were not disturbed in
6 any way?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Did you see Sam Jones there that morning?

9 A. Sam wasn't in the store. No, he was out there up
10 by Coast to Coast.

11 Q. Okay, he was at Coast to Coast. Where is Coast to 12 Coast located in reference to Tardy Furniture?

13 A. It's just right up the, it's about a building in 14 between them. When I was roping the crime scene off, I seen
15 him.

16 Q. Did you talk to Mr. Jones that morning?

17 A. When I was roping the crime scene off, I looked 18 down there at his feet, his shoes there.

19 Q. You had information that Mr. Jones had been in the 20 store then?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Did the shoes or the boots that he had on, did they 23 match the print that you saw in the blood?

24 A. He had some shoes on. They, I believe they are the 25 same shoes he has got on now. They appear to be what he has 26 got on now.

27 Q. Did they appear to be the same as you saw in the 28 bloody footprint?

29 A. No.

1 Q. And the Tardy Furniture Store is located in Winona,
2 Mississippi; is that right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 BY MR. HORAN: I tender.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you, Judge. May I
6 proceed?

7 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Good afternoon.

10 A. How ya doing.

11 Q. Chief Hargrove?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now at this time you are the Chief of the Winona
14 Police Department?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay, just a couple of questions, Mr. Hargrove,
17 Chief Hargrove. First of all, as to your familiarity with,
18 you said you knew Mr. Golden, did you?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. You know a lot of people there in town; would that 21 be correct to say?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. In fact, you are also friends with the Curtis
24 Flowers family; is that correct?

25 A. Yes, sir, with his father.

26 Q. Okay, and you have been friends for quite some 27 time; is that correct?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Okay, now actually you didn't see-- did you see Mr.

1 Flowers there that day at all?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Okay, so you never saw him at all?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. And, okay, now so you really don't have any 6 personal knowledge of what happened or how it happened or who
7 did it; is that correct?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay. And that remains the truth regardless of the 10 fact that Golden was a good friend of yours and regardless of 11 the fact that Mr. Archie Flowers was a good friend of yours;
12 is that correct?

13 A. Golden is a personal friend of my brother.

14 Q. Right. Of your brother's?

15 A. And Flowers, Archie is my friend.

16 Q. And Flowers is your friend?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay, but none of those two things changes the fact
19 and none of the blood on the floor or anything changes the 20 fact you really don't know what happened in there; is that
21 true?

22 A. No, sir. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. Did you see, I
24 think you answered this question already. You didn't see Sam
25 in the store?

26 A. No, sir. I did not.

27 Q. So you don't know when Sam came in of your personal
28 knowledge, do you?

29 A. I don't know when--he -- I don't know when he went

1 in and when he came back out. He was out there on the
2 walkway by Coast to Coast when I got there--

3 Q. --All right, and you--

4 A. --when I was roping it off.

5 Q. I'm sorry. I didn't mean to cut you off. Go
6 ahead.

7 A. He was out there on the walkway by Coast to Coast
8 when I was roping off the crime scene.

9 Q. Okay, and did you see a Mr. Collins in the area?
10 Do you know a gentleman, they call him-- I think his name is 11 Charles Collins, but they call him Porky Collins. Did you
12 see him at all?

13 A. No, sir. I did not.

14 Q. Okay. If you said, I don't think I caught it.
15 Were you the first officer at the scene?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, and do you know what time you actually were 18 notified to come?

19 A. It was about 10:21 when I was notified.

20 Q. Okay, but you don't know what actually time the 21 bodies were discovered yourself personally?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Okay, and is it your understanding that-- well, I
24 don't want to ask you any hearsay. But let me ask you this.
25 You didn't notice the print until after the ambulance
26 personnel left. Would that be a correct statement?

27 A. I noticed it when we went back in, and they were 28 over there with Stewart's body.

29 Q. I'm sorry?

1           A.    When they were getting Stewart, putting him on the
2 cot, I noticed it then.

3           Q.    Okay. This has been obviously a long time ago in
4 1996; is that correct?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    Okay, and you had in a hearing that was held in the 7 case some time, and I think you did have an opportunity to 8 testify once; is that correct?

9           A.    Yes.

10          Q.    Okay, I just want you to see to refresh your 11 recollection if you could look at what appears to be your 12 testimony. And I'm referring to page 275, 275 of the 13 transcript, and I'm going to ask you to take a look here at-- 14 and I'm looking, showing you page 275, and I am asking to 15 direct your attention here, but of course--

16          A.    Where about?

17          Q.    Right here where it says, "Now." Do you see where 18 I'm saying? Okay, but you can read anything else you want
19 to; okay?

20          A.    Uh-hum. Yes, sir.

21          Q.    Okay. All right. And let me just see if this, if 22 this is what you were asked at the hearing and this is what 23 you said. "Now the track, did you notice it when you first
24 went in there, or did you notice it after the ambulance
25 personnel left?" And here it says your answer was, "After 26 they left." Is that what this says?

27          A.    That wasn't the process. When they were putting 28 him on the gurney, when they were fixing to move him, that's 29 when I seen it, the footprint.

1 Q. Okay, but at this time in this hearing you said you
2 noticed it after they left. Is that what you said?

3 A. It was when we went back in when I noticed it, when 4 all three of us went back in.

5 Q. Okay, I'm not arguing with that. I just wanted to 6 see what was said here at the hearing. Is that what was 7 said? After they left. That was your answer?

8 A. My answer is when all three of us went back in, I
9 noticed the footprint when they were putting him on the cot
10 fixing to get ready to leave.

11 Q. Okay, could you do me a favor, please, Chief. I
12 want you, could you start here at line 12 and read to us and 13 the ladies and gentlemen of the jury everything from line 12
14 down to line 20. Line 12 to line 20. Could you please do
15 that for me?

16 A. "Now the track, did you notice it when you went in 17 there, or did you notice it after the ambulance personnel
18 left?"

19 "After they left."

20 "After they left?"

21 "Yes, sir."

22 "And did you notice the track or shoe print, in 23 other words?"

24 "Yes, sir."

25 Q. So at least there, and I'm not-- you were there; I
26 wasn't. So I'm not trying to put words in your mouth, but I
27 am just saying at that particular hearing your recollection
28 at that time or at least what you testified was that you
29 noticed it after they left. Isn't that what it says?

1           A.    That's what it says, yes, sir.

2           Q.    Okay. Chief Hargrove, you lived in the Winona
3 community around this time and subsequent to this time; is
4 that right?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    Okay. It would be safe to say that you are-- would
7 it not be your-- you do check, you know, you do, are involved
8 in arrests and prosecutions and things of that nature. Is
9 that correct?

10          A.    Yes, sir.

11          Q.    Okay, would it be safe to say that on 7-16-96,
12 first of all, I think you have already said you didn't see
13 Mr. Flowers that day, did you?

14          A.    No, sir.

15          Q.    Okay, and on that day would it be safe to say that 16 he had never been convicted--

17                   BY MR. HORAN:  --Objection, Your Honor.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Can I finish?

19                   BY THE COURT:  Wait a minute.  Come up here.

20                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
21 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

22                   BY THE COURT:  What are you getting ready to 23 ask?

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I am just going to ask him if 25 he had ever been convicted of other crimes?

26                   BY MR. HORAN:  Your Honor, he knows that is 27 improper.

28                   BY THE COURT:  You can't ask that question.

29                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Immediately after the Tardy Store incident, there
3 were a number of signs up offering rewards; is that correct?

4 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object to that
5 line of questioning until he can prove that it's
6 relevant in any way.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I certainly intend to 8 connect it up, but I think it is already relevant
9 because if that was something that was being done,
10 then I think it is something that doesn't help
11 but--

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, we don't need to 13 argue in front of the jury.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We can do it-- I would like
15 to argue if the Court has -- I am just asking him a
16 question if it was done. I am just asking if there
17 were some posters. Certainly, it is harmless.
18 Certainly it is more probative than prejudicial.

19 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, it has got to be 20 proven to be relevant. At this point in time--

21 BY THE COURT: --Ladies and gentlemen, I need
22 to hear this outside y'all's presence. I'm going
23 to ask you to go to the jury room for just a
24 minute.

25 (JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.)

26 BY THE COURT: State the nature of your 27 objection, Mr. Horan.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object on the 29 grounds of relevancy at this point in time with

1           this particular witness. If he is trying to
2           impeach Mr. Hargrove because Mr. Hargrove may have
3           wanted some of the reward money, it would be
4           relevant. But at this point in time with this
5           particular witness, it has not been proven to be 6           relevant to anything.

7           BY THE COURT: Well, why does it have any
8           probative value, the fact that it was done? I mean
9           it may be developed by other witnesses. I mean I--

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, well, here is the 11          reason it has probative value, the fact that it was 12          done. First of all, I think--

13          BY THE COURT: --Well, I wasn't arguing with 14          you right now. I was arguing with him.

15          BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, at the last trial,
16          the last time we tried this matter the Court stated
17          to counsel, previous counsel for the Defendant that 18          if they at some point in time could prove it was 19          relevant, they could get into that matter through a
20          witness that showed bias or interest or something
21          like that. But until that has been proven, it's 22          not relevant. It's just to inflame, it is just 23          prejudicial to the State. It has absolutely no
24          relevant value at all other than--

25          BY THE COURT: --How is it prejudicial to the 26          State in any way?

27          BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, if they put that in 28          and they can't prove that any witness had knowledge
29          of the reward, then that is before the jury with

1 absolutely no probative value. With this
2 particular witness, it has no probative value.

3 BY THE COURT: That objection is overruled.
4 I'm going to let that go in. You can bring them
5 back.

6 BY THE BAILIFF: It will be just a minute,
7 Judge.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let me see y'all.

9 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WHILE THE JURY WAS 10 STILL OUT AS FOLLOWS:)

11 BY THE COURT: I don't know who, who to lay
12 blame. I don't know who did this, but somebody 13 made arrangements for the witnesses to stay at the 14 Holiday Inn where the jury is.

15 BY MR. HORAN: Not the State.

16 BY MR. EVANS: The Sheriff's Department.

17 BY THE COURT: It says Montgomery County. I'm 18 going to bet you it was Chuck.

19 BY MR. HORAN: Right.

20 BY THE COURT: Yeah, okay. I really don't 21 want that done, and she can make arrangements for 22 them to stay somewhere else, so I'm going--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --That is fine with us.

24 BY MR. FREELON: At this late date? At this 25 late date it is going to be difficult, but if it
26 has got to be done.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I agree.

28 BY THE COURT: Ms. Ladner says she can do it.
29 I believe she can. And if not, I will take extreme

1 precautions to make sure that they don't co-mingle,
2 but I would rather just move them.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would too and, Judge,
4 could you let us know if it can't be done?

5 BY THE COURT: Sure. I am going to let you
6 know what we do one way or another.

7 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We waiting for the jury?

9 BY THE COURT: Yeah. They are kind of hinting
10 that they might want just a minute.

11 JURY RETURNS TO THE COURTROOM.

12 BY THE COURT: We will take a full break here
13 shortly, but I wanted to proceed on for just a
14 little bit.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

16 BY THE COURT: Yes.

17 CONTINUING CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. Yes, Chief Hargrove, my question to you before we 19 recessed was were you aware of a reward being offered after 20 this incident occurred?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And was it a fact that it was publicly
23 posted in the newspaper as well as on poles and things of 24 that nature?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with a, with the newspaper
27 called the Winona Times?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Okay.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm having this marked just
2 for identification.

3 (COPY FROM WINONA TIMES DATED JULY 25, 1996,
4 AND COPY FROM WINONA TIMES DATED JANUARY 16, 1997,
5 WERE MARKED RESPECTIVELY AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBITS
6 D-3 AND D-4 FOR IDENTIFICATION. COPY OF REWARD
7 POSTER WAS MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-5 FOR 8 IDENTIFICATION, AND ENLARGED COPY OF ARTICLE
9 ENTITLED "SIX MONTHS TODAY" WAS MARKED AS
10 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-6 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

11 (Exhibits D-3 through D-6 were shown to 12 Counsel opposite.)

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Okay, Chief Hargrove, I am showing you what is 15 marked as Defendant's Exhibit for identification purposes
16 number 5. Do you recognize that?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay, and what is that if you could tell me?

19 A. It's a poster of a thirty thousand dollar reward.

20 Q. Okay, and that was an offer for reward money for 21 any kind of information leading to the arrest and conviction
22 of a person in this case; is that right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay. And that was circulated widely in the 25 community?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Would it be safe to say that at one time the reward
28 money was like 8 or 15, and then it went up to 30 at some
29 point?

1 A. I can't recall.

2 Q. You can't recall?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. But you do know that the reward money was 5 offered very early on in the process?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Almost immediately?

8 A. Almost after, yes.

9 Q. Okay. Now I would also have--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, if we may to 11 speed things up, we would agree to introduce all of 12 these exhibits into evidence.

13 BY THE COURT: Any objection to that?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have one thing,
15 Judge. As far as the posters, reward posters,
16 yeah, certainly. I think that they should be 17 introduced, and I would accept that. As far as we 18 have articles here which will probably have to be
19 redacted because they are newspaper articles, but I
20 have no problems with them coming in for purposes
21 of showing the headlines and the picture which is 22 in the paper.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is the one that 24 is introducing the articles. If we are going to 25 see part of them, I want to introduce the whole
26 article so the jury can see everything.

27 BY THE COURT: Right, but he hasn't asked that 28 they be introduced. He just asked that they be
29 marked for identification, and all the Chief can do

1 at this point in time is to identify them as to
2 what they are. He cannot testify from him. At 3 such time as he intends to offer them, then we will
4 go back to that objection.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. Let me show you also here what we have is a
7 Thursday, January 16. Do you know what that is? Exhibit D-4
8 for identification purposes, do you know what that is?

9 A. It is saying a Winona man is arrested in Texas--

10 BY THE COURT: --You have to speak up, Chief.
11 One, I can't hear you and she can't either.

12 BY THE WITNESS:

13 A. Okay, it is saying Winona native arrested in Texas
14 for Tardy's murders.

15 Q. Okay, what I was actually asking, do you know-- is 16 that a paper? Is that a copy of the newspaper?

17 A. It has got Winona Times at the top.

18 BY THE COURT: Let me explain this to the 19 witness. He is going to ask you to identify, and 20 you just tell what it is. Don't read from it.

21 BY THE WITNESS:

22 A. It's a newspaper.

23 Q. And would that newspaper be the Winona Times?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And would that-- and that is D-4; is that correct?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. And then we have another newspaper here. Was this 28 also a copy of a newspaper of the Winona Times?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And this is D-3; is that correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay, it's for identification purposes for the 4 record. And would it appear that Exhibits D-4 and D-6 given
5 the date on them are from the same newspaper?

6 A. January 16th.

7 Q. And that is also on D-6 for identification; is that
8 correct?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this time, Judge, I have,
11 I am moving for the admission of D-6, and I am
12 moving for the admission of D-5.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we would ask that 14 they all be introduced since he has asked about all
15 of them. We would ask that every one of them be 16 introduced so the jury can see all of them.

17 BY THE COURT: Well.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, the question, I think,
19 on the floor right now is whether he has any
20 objection.

21 BY THE COURT: I am going to let in those two 22 that you have asked to be introduced. I will take 23 a look at the others. I haven't even seen them.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Can I have a second to see
25 which ones are introduced and which ones aren't
26 yet?

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. And all that needs to be
28 handed to the Court Reporter.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry.

(COPY OF REWARD POSTER PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-5 FOR IDENTIFICATION AND ENLARGED COPY OF ARTICLE ENTITLED "SIX MONTHS
TODAY" PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-6
FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW BOTH RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

BY MR. LUMUMBA:

Q. Chief Hargrove, finally, have you, do you know
Charles Collins or Porky Collins?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Okay. Were you ever present during any time that he was being shown any kind of a picture photographic lineup or anything of that nature?

A. No, sir. I don't recall.

Q. Were you ever present at any time that he was being shown any kind of live lineup or anything?

A. No, sir.

Q. Were you present on the, were you ever present when he was being interviewed on any particular day by the police?

A. No.

Q. And that would include the 16th itself. You were not present when he was being interviewed at that time, were
you?

A. No, sir.

BY THE COURT: Anything further?

BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me one second, Judge.

(Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
of this witness, Judge.

1     REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

2           Q.    Chief Hargrove, your testimony here is that you
3 noticed footprints in the store at the point in time when you
4 went back in the store with the EMT's; is that right?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    Did you take any steps to see whether or not they
7 may have, in fact, made those prints?

8           A.    I looked at their foot. They had on some boots.

9           Q.    Was it consistent or not consistent with the 10 footprint that you saw in the blood?

11          A.    It was not consistent.

12          Q.    And as far as the introduction, the exhibits, with 13 the reward, that was not a reward posted by the Winona Police
14 Department, was it?

15          A.    No, sir.

16          Q.    Or any other-- to your knowledge, any other law
17 enforcement agency; is that right?

18          A.    No, sir. It wasn't.

19          Q.    And you don't have of your own personal knowledge
20 who may have known about any of the reward or anything like
21 that?

22          A.    No, I do not.

23                   (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

24          Q.    You weren't wearing any shoes that were consistent
25 with the track made in the blood, were you?

26          A.    No, sir.

27                   BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

28                   BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused, or do
29 y'all want him to return to the witness room?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

2 BY MR. HORAN: He is excused as far as the
3 State is concerned.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is correct too, Judge.
5 We have no further questions for--

6 BY THE COURT: Chief, you are finally
7 excused. You may go or you may stay in the 8 courtroom if you would like.

9 WITNESS EXCUSED.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, who will you have next?

11 BY MR. HORAN: Sam Jones.

12 BY THE COURT: Mr. Jones, have you been sworn 13 today?

14 BY MR. JONES: Yes.

15 BY THE COURT: All right, have a seat up
16 there, please, sir.

17 BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

18 BY THE COURT: Yes.

19 SAM JONES,

20 a black male called to testify as a witness by the State of
21 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
22 follows, to-wit:

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

24 Q. Please state your name for the record, if you
25 would.

26 A. Name and address?

27 Q. No, just your name right now, Mr. Jones.

28 A. Sam Jones, Jr.

29 Q. Sam Jones, Jr.?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Mr. Jones, where do you live?

3 A. Winona, Mississippi.

4 Q. What is your address in Winona, Mr. Jones?

5 A. 302 Harper Street.

6 Q. Were you living there on July the 16th of 1996?

7 A. Yes, sir. I was.

8 Q. Okay. I want to direct your attention to that 9 particular date if I could, Mr. Jones. Do you remember going
10 to Tardy Furniture that day?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. For what purpose did you go to Tardy Furniture?

13 A. I went down there to show them how to load a truck
14 and was going with them on a delivery and show them how to 15 unload it.

16 Q. Had you worked at Tardy Furniture in the past prior
17 to July the 16th, 1996?

18 A. Yes, I have worked there.

19 Q. How long did you work there, Mr. Jones?

20 A. I worked there 50 years up until I retired in 65,
21 when I become 65 years of age.

22 Q. Yes, sir. And do you remember about what year that
23 was that you retired from Tardy Furniture?

24 A. Close as I can remember, let's see. (Witness takes 25 out note pad.) I partially retired in 1992.

26 Q. Okay, did you stay in contact with the Tardys after 27 that date?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. And did you go to their store on occasions?

1 A. On Thursday?

2 Q. No, on different occasions did you--

3 A. --on different occasions. See I worked part time
4 for them. I take care of repairs for them after I retired.
5 I partially retired, and then I take care of repairs for
6 them.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Who summonsed you down to the store on July the 10 16th of 1996?

11 A. Ms. Tardy.

12 Q. Okay, you talked with her on the phone?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay, did you know Robert Golden at that time?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did you know that Mr. Golden had started work at 17 the Tardy Furniture Store?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge.

19 A. Had started to work--

20 BY THE COURT: --Just a minute, Mr. Jones.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The questions are leading.

22 BY THE COURT: That is a leading question.

23 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase the question.

24 BY MR. HORAN:

25 Q. For what purpose did you go to Tardy Furniture
26 Store that morning?

27 A. To show them-- see, she had some young fellows
28 there, and she wanted me to train them how to load a truck
29 and then go with them and show them how to unload it, help

1       them get it in the house.

2           Q.     Okay, did you know one of the young fellows that
3       she had hired?

4           A.     Oh, yes, sir. I knew him.

5           Q.     Who was that?

6           A.     Robert Golden.

7           Q.     How did you know that Ms. Tardy had hired Mr.
8       Golden?

9           A.     Well, she told me that night. She called me that 10       night too. See, she called me the night before that morning,
11       before the 16th. She called me that night, and he had come
12       by. I think he had hoed for her some, but he come by my 13       house at night and was asking me to help him get the job.

14          Q.     Did you do that?

15          A.     Yes, I helped him.

16          Q.     So you helped him get the job at Tardy Furniture?

17          A.     Yes.

18          Q.     And he was to start the next morning?

19          A.     He was going to start the next morning.

20          Q.     And you received another call from Ms. Tardy that 21       next, on the 16th?

22          A.     That's right. The next morning.

23          Q.     As a result of that call, did you go to Tardy
24       Furniture?

25          A.     Oh, yes. I went down there.

26          Q.     Could you tell the Court and the jury what happened
27       once you arrived at the Tardy Furniture Store in your own
28       words, please, sir.

29          A.     After I arrived at the store?

1 Q. Yes, sir.

2 A. I got out of my truck, and I locked it and went
3 in. I walked back about halfway of the store, and I heard
4 this noise, somebody trying to get their breath or something,
5 struggling with their breath. And so I looked all around at 6 first to see, to see what it was. I didn't see nobody, but
7 then I walked a little further, and I thought, I said, "Well,
8 I don't see nobody." See, I was looking up over the 9 furniture there. I thought they would be standing up, you
10 see. But I walked a little further, and then I could see
11 it. I could see BoBo's head was sticking about that far out
12 in the aisle. See, he was on the floor there.

13 Q. Mr. Jones, I want to hand you a copy of a
14 photograph. Tell me whether or not you can identify it.

15 (Shows photographs to Mr. Lumumba.)

16 BY MR. HORAN: Do you have an objection?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have an objection to 18 that photograph. Is that in evidence?

19 BY MR. HORAN: I have not introduced it yet.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no objection to
21 it.

22 BY THE COURT: All right, do you want to go
23 ahead and admit it?

24 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir, please.

25 (PHOTOGRAPH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S
26 EXHIBIT S-44 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN
27 EVIDENCE.)

28 BY MR. HORAN:

29 Q. I hand you State's Exhibit number 44. Can you tell

1 me whether or not you have ever seen that individual before
2 in that photograph?

3 A. That's him.

4 Q. That is who?

5 A. BoBo.

6 Q. BoBo Stewart?

7 A. (Witness nods his head.)

8 Q. Is that the young man that you saw laying in the 9 floor of Tardy Furniture Store that morning?

10 A. That's the one was laying in the floor.

11 Q. Would you describe his condition for the benefit of 12 the jury and the Court, please, sir. What was his condition
13 at that time?

14 A. His condition was pretty bad. It wasn't clear like
15 that picture.

16 Q. I understand.

17 A. I can look at that picture and tell it's him, but 18 it wasn't clear like that picture because every time his
19 heart would beat see, blood would run over, was coming out
20 over his eyes. His eyes was open. Blood run over his eyes,
21 and that's what I noticed when I bent over him. His eyes, he 22 never would bat his eyes.

23 Q. Did you--

24 A. --but I could tell, that's the picture there.
25 That's him.

26 Q. Did you see the individual in the store that came
27 to your residence the night before about the job? Did you
28 see him in the store?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1           Q.    And who was that individual? Was that Robert
2 Golden?

3           A.    That was Robert Golden.

4           Q.    I want to hand you a photograph that has been
5 marked and introduced into evidence as State's Exhibit number
6 26. Is that a photograph of the condition that you saw Mr.
7 Golden at the time you entered the store?

8           A.    No, sir. It wasn't.

9           Q.    What is different about it?

10          A.    What is different about it, he was, when I saw him,
11 he was sitting, leaning up against the counter like this.
12 This hand, his left hand was on the floor. His right hand
13 was across here.

14          Q.    Okay, was he sitting up, or was he on the floor?

15          A.    He was sitting up back against the counter, and he 16 had his right hand was laying up here, and his left hand was 17 on the floor.

18          Q.    Okay.

19          A.    Flat on the floor there.

20          Q.    Okay, is that Mr. Golden though? Do you remember
21 seeing him? I know you may not be able to see his face, but 22 does that appear to be Mr. Golden?

23          A.    It seems to be, but I can't see his face.

24          Q.    I will show you another exhibit. State's Exhibit
25 number 27.

26          A.    That's him there.

27          Q.    Okay. Mr. Jones, did it appear that Mr. Golden was 28 alive or dead at the time that you saw him. Could you tell
29 whether or not he was alive or dead? Mr. Golden.

1           A.    Repeat the question again.

2           Q.    Did it appear to you that Mr. Golden was alive or 3 dead at the time that you saw him?

4           A.    He was, he appeared to be dead.   Yes.

5           Q.    Okay.   And you testified a few moments ago that you
6 saw Bertha Tardy.   Where did you see her in the store?

7           A.    Well, after I looked at Mr. Golden, I turned around
8 again and looked at BoBo.   And just as I raised up to go get
9 help for him because I figured the rest of them was dead-- I
10 hadn't seen Ms. Tardy.   But I raised up to go get help for 11 him, and when I raised up, well, I just, I was turning 12 around, and I glanced out in the aisle, and I saw her laying
13 up in the aisle there.

14          Q.    Ms. Tardy, Bertha Tardy?

15          A.    Yes.

16          Q.    When did you first notice-- did you know Carmen
17 Rigby before that day?

18          A.    Carmen Rigby?

19          Q.    Did you know her?

20          A.    Yes, sir.

21          Q.    Did you see her in the store?

22          A.    Yes.   I saw her the same time I saw Robert and 23 BoBo.   See, I was standing right in, in the middle of all
24 three of them.

25          Q.    Uh-hum.   Okay, after you saw all these individuals
26 and you saw Mr. Stewart on the floor there, what did you do
27 then?

28          A.    After I saw all three of them?

29          Q.    All four of them.   Did you leave the store?

1 A. I left the store then to see--

2 Q. --Where did you go when you left the store?

3 A. Up to the Coast to Coast.

4 Q. Okay, did you go anywhere else after you left the
5 store other than up to the Coast to Coast store?

6 A. That's all. I went up there and come right out.

7 Q. What did you do when you got to Coast to Coast?

8 A. I told the lady in there to call the police and 9 tell them to call the police department and tell them to send 10 the police over there and an ambulance quick as possible.

11 Q. Okay. Did she do that?

12 A. Yes. She did that.

13 Q. So once you left Tardy Furniture, you went
14 immediately up to Coast to Coast?

15 A. I went immediately up there.

16 Q. How far would that be from the front door of Tardy
17 Furniture to the Coast to Coast building?

18 A. It's three stores up, three doors up.

19 Q. Three doors up?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So it wasn't very far at all?

22 A. It's not far. It is three doors up. It's the 23 third door.

24 Q. Okay. And did you stay in Coast to Coast until 25 Chief Hargrove arrived?

26 A. No, sir. I went back down as far as the old
27 Liberty Cash building. I waited until he come down.

28 Q. Okay, did you go back in the store with the Chief
29 at that time, Chief Hargrove?

1 A. Yes, sir. I went back in with him.

2 Q. What, if anything, did you notice on the floor at 3 that particular time that you had not noticed earlier?

4 A. Anything I noticed? Well, it was blood on the 5 floor, and it was a track in that blood when I come out, when
6 we got back down there that I didn't see when we was there.

7 Q. Yes, sir. Did Chief Hargrove, did he check your
8 shoes to make sure that you didn't make those tracks?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, the questions are 10 still very leading.

11 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase. I will 12 rephrase.

13 BY MR. HORAN:

14 Q. Did you make the tracks in that blood?

15 A. Who, me?

16 Q. Uh-hum.

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. You weren't wearing tennis shoes that day?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. What kind of shoes were you wearing that day?

21 A. I was wearing, oh, a pair of shoes like this.

22 (Witness indicating.)

23 Q. Same type of shoes?

24 A. Same type of shoes I got on now, but the treads on 25 them are different from what was in that blood.

26 Q. Yes, sir. Did you eventually leave that store
27 after you and Chief Hargrove went inside?

28 A. Say did--

29 Q. Did you leave the store eventually?

1           A.    That evening.  I stayed there all day just about
2   it.

3           Q.    If you can for me, Mr. Jones, will you tell me how 4   long it took you to, from the time that you noticed the
5   bodies to leave the store and make that phone call at Coast
6   to Coast.  How much time elapsed between the time that you
7   actually left the store the first time and made the phone
8   call?  How long did it take you to get up there and have them
9   make that phone call?  How many minutes?

10          A.    Well--

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Objection.  If he asks him
12                   how much time, let him answer the question.  Don't 13                   suggest an amount of time.

14                   BY MR. HORAN:  Okay, I will rephrase.  I know
15                   it didn't take an hour.

16   BY MR. HORAN:

17          Q.    How long did it take you to leave the store and go
18   to Coast to Coast and have the lady up there make the phone
19   call?

20          A.    It didn't take me over, over, not over two minutes,
21   two or three minutes.  Not over three minutes at the longest.

22          Q.    Yes, sir.

23                   BY MR. HORAN:  No further questions.

24   CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25          Q.    I just have a few.  Good afternoon, Mr. Jones.

26          A.    Good afternoon.

27          Q.    And we have met before, haven't we, Mr. Jones?

28          A.    Sir?

29          Q.    We have met before, haven't we?

1           A.    Yeah.

2           Q.    Okay, and you know that I am representing Mr.
3 Curtis Flowers in this case; right?

4           A.    Yes.

5           Q.    And Mr. Jones, would it be safe to say that
6 actually you are a friend of Mr. Flowers' family too; is that
7 correct?

8           A.    Huh?

9           Q.    I'm sorry; I will keep my voice up.  You are a
10 friend of Mr. Flowers' family?

11          A.    Yes.

12          Q.    He has lived in the community a long time; is that
13 correct?

14          A.    Yes.

15          Q.    And you have known him a long time?

16          A.    Uh-huh.

17          Q.    Did you see him when you went into-- did you ever
18 see him inside of Tardy's store when you went in there that
19 day?

20          A.    No, sir.

21          Q.    Okay.  Did you see him anywhere around there that
22 day?

23          A.    No, sir.

24          Q.    Did you see him when you were on your way to 25 Tardy's store that day?

26          A.    No, sir.  I didn't.

27          Q.    Now let me ask you this, Mr. Jones.  So you didn't 28 see him in any way close to and in connection to these bodies
29 which tragically where people had died.  You didn't see him

1 anywhere around that, did you?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. I'm sorry?

4 A. No, sir. I didn't see him.

5 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. You, if I
6 understand correctly, you arrived at Tardy's store, I think
7 that you have estimated before around about 9:30 or somewhere
8 close to that?

9 A. Somewhere close to that time. I couldn't give you
10 the exact time, but it was somewhere close to around there.

11 Q. Okay, around about 9:30?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. Okay, now and then you went in, and you discovered,
14 you discovered the people who had died. Is that correct, or 15 the people in the case of one, Mr. Stewart, he was still 16 alive?

17 A. Yes, sir. He was still alive.

18 Q. Okay, but then you discovered these folks; right?

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. And you had to look down on the floor in order to 21 see them; is that correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And when you went in there, would it be safe to say
24 that you didn't see any tracks at that time?

25 A. Yeah.

26 Q. Okay, you didn't-- the first time you went in 27 there, you didn't see any tracks; is that right?

28 A. No. Uh-uh.

29 Q. Okay. You have to say yes or no.

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay, thank you. Then you left out; is that right?

3 A. That's right.

4 Q. Now and let me just pause here one minute to ask
5 you these couple of questions. Right behind Tardy's there is
6 a place called-- well, actually there is a Coast to Coast
7 behind Tardy's; isn't that correct?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. And is that kind of like a garage or something?

10 A. Yeah, it's a tire shop. It's a shop. They work on 11 lawn mowers and tires back there.

12 Q. Okay, and that was open that day, was it not?

13 A. Yes, that's right.

14 Q. Because I think on the way to Tardy's, you actually 15 stopped there, and you talked to somebody for a few minutes;
16 is that right?

17 A. Yeah, that's right.

18 Q. Okay. And so you know it was open, and there were 19 people working in and out of there; is that right?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. And that is behind Tardy's; is that correct?

22 A. It's right behind Tardy's old store now.

23 Q. Right, behind Tardy's old store; right?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. So anybody that runs in back of Tardy's and runs,
26 you know, is going to run past there; is that right?

27 A. Beg your pardon?

28 Q. Anybody that runs behind Tardy's down that alley
29 and behind Tardy's, they have got to run past there; is that

1 correct?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. Okay. Now the other thing is the, and you didn't
4 see anybody running?

5 A. Uh-uh.

6 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. Now the Coast to 7 Coast where you made the telephone call, that is actually
8 down the street from Tardy's; is that correct?

9 A. Up the street.

10 Q. Up the street, I'm sorry; excuse me. Like that 11 means, okay.

12 A. North of Tardy's.

13 Q. Okay, it's north of Tardy's. That's right, okay.
14 And then, and that is like across the alley; is that 15 correct? That is across the little street that--

16 A. --It's across the alley.

17 Q. Okay, and so what we are doing, just so the ladies
18 and gentlemen won't be confused, that street out there is 19 called Front Street which Tardy's is on?

20 A. Yeah, that's right.

21 Q. And then on Front Street what you have is you have 22 got Tardy's. I'm going to start with Tardy's. You have got 23 Tardy's right there at the corner of Front and Carrollton; is
24 that correct?

25 A. That's right.

26 Q. Okay, and then, and then at some point if you move
27 away from Tardy's, is that a vacant building there?

28 A. It's a vacant building there. It's the old Liberty
29 Cash.

1 Q. Okay, now we are going north.

2 A. Going north.

3 Q. That is a vacant building. Then if you move from 4 there, and then right next to there is an alley? Is that 5 what it is?

6 A. No, it's another building.

7 Q. Another building. Is that vacant too?

8 A. Yeah, it's vacant.

9 Q. Okay. So those are two vacant buildings, and then
10 do you get to the alley?

11 A. To the alley.

12 Q. Yeah.

13 A. And then across the alley is Coast to Coast.

14 Q. Okay. So you get to the alley, and across there is 15 Coast to Coast?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Now that Coast to Coast, that is not the tire
18 place, is it? The place that you are talking about on the 19 same, that fronts on Front row. What is that? What are they 20 doing there?

21 A. In the one where I went?

22 Q. Where you made the call at; right.

23 A. Well, that is the main store. That is the office
24 and main store.

25 Q. Okay.

26 A. Yeah, up there and that is the shop in the rear
27 back there.

28 Q. Okay. So in the rear is where they do the tires;
29 right?

1 A. Huh?

2 Q. In the rear is where they do the tires?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. Okay, and that is in the back?

5 A. That's in the back; that's right.

6 Q. And that's the place where you know there was some
7 people there because you stopped there?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Okay, and then the place up front on Front Street,
10 up the street from Tardy's, that is what is like an office or 11 something; is that right?

12 A. What? The next door?

13 Q. Yeah, where you made the phone call.

14 A. Oh, that is the office. That is the main store.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Yeah, that's the main store there.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. And the office.

19 Q. Okay, now when you arrived there -- so let me just 20 ask you this question. Once you went up to Coast to Coast,
21 when you first went up to Coast to Coast, you didn't see
22 anybody out front there, did you?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Did you see-- do you know a gentleman by the name
25 of Porky Collins or Charles Collins? Do you know him?

26 A. Porky Collins.

27 Q. Right. Do you know him?

28 A. I imagine I would know him. I can't place him
29 offhand.

1 Q. All right.

2 A. But I have heard the name.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. Did you see anybody riding past out front at 6 the time that you went out there?

7 A. No, I didn't.

8 Q. Did you see any kind of truck or car parked out
9 front?

10 A. Seemed like there was one car parked down there in 11 front of Tardy's. It was parked down near the fire plug down
12 there. One car parked out there.

13 Q. Near a fire plug?

14 A. Near that fire plug.

15 Q. Is that in front of Tardy's, south--

16 A. --It was right in front of the lower window, just 17 below the door.

18 Q. Okay, so that is not north of Tardy's. That is 19 right in front of the window?

20 A. That is right in front of it.

21 Q. Okay. And which side of the street was that on?
22 Was that on the same--

23 A. --on the same side of Tardy's.

24 Q. Okay, did you see any cars parked on the opposite
25 side of the street from where Tardy's was?

26 A. No, it wasn't nothing. The only thing over there
27 was my truck.

28 Q. Your truck was parked there?

29 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Oh, okay. And there were no, there were no-- did
2 you see any trees out there or anything like that?

3 A. Any trees?

4 Q. Were you parked near the trees?

5 A. Uh-uh.

6 Q. Okay. But in any event the only thing on the 7 opposite side of Tardy's was your truck?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Okay, and didn't--

10 A. --seemed like.

11 Q. I'm sorry?

12 A. My truck was in the center aisle, in the center of 13 the street.

14 Q. Didn't anybody park near your truck as far as you
15 know?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay, and you didn't see anybody arguing out there
18 near your truck or anything like that?

19 A. No, I didn't.

20 Q. Now okay, now you don't know, do you, once you went
21 down to Coast to Coast, you stayed in there and made a phone
22 call or asked the lady to make a--

23 A. --I asked the lady to make it.

24 Q. Okay, and you stayed in there for a while; is that
25 correct?

26 A. Just a second or two until she made the call.

27 Q. All right.

28 A. In fact, I was on my way out when I told her to 29 make the call.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. I was on my way back out, and when she got, after
3 she made the call, well, I turned around there because she
4 told me, she asked me what happened down there. And I told
5 her it was three people dead and one just hanging on. And
6 she said, said, "Well, I am scared to stay up here." And I
7 said, "Well, no." I said, "Now you stay here because if
8 you, don't you come down there because you will be scareder
9 down there than you is up here." So I said, "You just stay
10 right here, and I am going down there and I will be back."
11 See, we all good friends along there. I told her to just 12 stay, for her to stay in there.

13 Q. Okay. Mr. Jones, just a couple of other
14 questions. So you don't actually know if anybody actually 15 went into Tardy's, any customer or anybody else went into
16 Tardy's while you were up at Coast to Coast, do you?

17 A. No, I don't.

18 Q. Okay. Now but in any event, once you came back out
19 of Tardy's, you didn't go into Tardy's again until the Chief
20 got there; is that right?

21 A. That's right.

22 Q. So then what you did is you went into Tardy's with 23 the Chief, and that's when you saw some tracks; is that
24 right?

25 A. Say when I went in with?

26 Q. With the Chief.

27 A. Oh, yeah. That's when I saw what now?

28 Q. Tracks.

29 A. Truck?

1           Q.    Tracks, I'm sorry. You have got to excuse me. Let
2 me get a little closer and talk to you. Tracks. Is that
3 when--

4           A.    --Oh, that's when I saw the track, yeah, after we 5 got back in there.

6           Q.    Okay.

7           A.    Yeah.

8           Q.    I have got to learn how to talk, Mr. Jones. Can't 9 nobody understand me. Okay, but in any event; okay, Mr.
10 Jones, the only other thing I wanted to ask you, so you
11 really don't know when those tracks were left there, do you,
12 Mr. Jones?

13          A.    When they was left there?

14          Q.    Right. You don't know when they got there?

15          A.    No, I don't know when they got there, but I know
16 that they wasn't there when I left.

17          Q.    Oh, okay.

18          A.    Yeah. I know that. I don't know when they were 19 put there.

20          Q.    Oh, okay.

21          A.    But I do know that they wasn't there when I left.

22          Q.    Okay, and you don't know whether or not somebody
23 walked in and walked right back out after you left, do you?

24          A.    I don't think he would have had time. Well, he
25 wouldn't have had time to go in there and come back out
26 unless he just looked in the door before, you know, before I
27 got back because I didn't go that far all the way down in the
28 store.

29          Q.    Did you go all the way to Coast to Coast?

1 A. I went all the way to Coast to Coast.

2 Q. Okay, and did you go into Coast to Coast?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. And Coast to Coast, let me see; you said that that 5 is down at one empty store, two empty stores, an alley and
6 then Coast to Coast; is that right?

7 A. Yeah, that's right.

8 Q. And then you went in there and asked the lady to 9 make a call?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. And you and the lady had a conversation about 12 whether she should stay there or leave the place?

13 A. Yeah, but that didn't take too long, you see.

14 Q. Okay. Okay. Now let me ask you this, Mr. Jones.
15 Did Doyle Simpson ever work at Hardy's-- Tardy's; I'm sorry?

16 A. Say did he ever work there?

17 Q. Yeah.

18 A. Yeah, he worked there.

19 Q. Was he working there when you retired?

20 A. I don't know whether he was working right-- he was 21 probably connected with it because he just worked extra,
22 yeah.

23 Q. Okay, and this is my -- I have just two other
24 questions for you, and that's it. Now when we, when I met
25 you, did I ask you to take a ride with me somewhere to see
26 how long it took to get from first of all, from Wal-Mart to 27 go down to - what is that place called? - Don Mitchell's or 28 something like that?

29 A. Yes.

1 Q. And then we went down from Wal-Mart to Don
2 Mitchell's. We came back from Don Mitchell's to a place on
3 Bell Street where somebody was supposed to live; is that
4 right? Do you remember that?

5 A. Yeah. On, I forgot who it was now, but I remember.

6 Q. Okay, and then did we go from there to, back to
7 Tardy's or go over to Tardy's from there?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay, and that took at least 15 minutes, didn't it?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Even driving kind of fast; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And that is even if you didn't stop and go
14 into any place; isn't that right?

15 A. Huh?

16 Q. It took 15 minutes even if you didn't get out of 17 your car and go in anywhere; isn't that right?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. We didn't go in nothing. We just rode up there and 20 rode back; right?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. Okay. And the other thing that I would ask you,
23 the final thing, was Mr. Tardy normally at the store every
24 morning?

25 A. Yeah, most times.

26 Q. Okay. Did you see him there that morning?

27 A. Uh-uh.

28 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

29 Q. I just want to-- this has been a long time ago that

1 this happened; is that right, Mr. Jones?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Okay, I just, and you did testify at an earlier
4 hearing; is that correct? You testified at an earlier
5 hearing a while ago?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. Okay, I'm just going to show you page 307 of your
8 testimony, and I just have one question to, you know, ask
9 you. When you were asked to estimate, to tell them how long
10 it took you to get from inside the store to Coast to Coast,
11 when you were asked that question back here, and this was 12 back in, I think 1987 when you were asked this question.
13 Were you -- this has your name up here. Is that you, Sam
14 Jones?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. Okay, do you recall that you were asked this, and
17 it's not much difference but I would just like to go into it
18 if I could. It says, "All right, sir. How long do you think 19 it took you when you left the store to get up to Coast to 20 Coast approximately?" And your answer was, "It didn't take 21 me over-- well, after I got out, headed-- well, it didn't
22 take me over five or six minutes." Question: "Five or six
23 minutes?" Answer: "Yes." Is that basically what you said
24 then?

25 A. Now it has been a lot of water went under the 26 bridge since then. And I tell you, at the time that question
27 was asked I had a lot of time to think.

28 Q. Okay.

29 A. And get everything together.

1 Q. All right.

2 A. Yeah. Now if you had of seen what I seen down
3 there, I am telling you, it was something down there that
4 morning. And most people would have said anything.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. But I was giving as close as I could.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Right, and that is okay. I am just--

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. Okay, right. Right, okay.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
13 questions.

14 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

15 Q. Mr. Jones, were you in a hurry to get help there
16 that day when you left that--

17 A. --Yes, I was in a hurry to get help to him.

18 Q. You didn't go up there and ask them at Coast to 19 Coast for a cup of coffee or anything like that, did you?

20 A. No, I didn't. I just, I went up there and asked
21 her to call the police department and tell them to send the 22 police over here and an ambulance quick as possible, and I
23 turned around. Of course, now what I was talking, when I
24 stopped to tell her don't, for her not to come down there, I
25 turned around, but I was steady backing up.

26 Q. Yes, sir.

27 A. Going out the door.

28 Q. Can you, can you see the front of Tardy Furniture
29 from the front door of Coast to Coast?

1 A. Can you see it?

2 Q. Yes, sir.

3 A. You can see it. Yeah, you can see it.

4 Q. Okay, you went straight back down to Tardy?

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. And I assume after you-- you went down there and 7 waited for Chief Hargrove? You waited for the police to 8 arrive?

9 A. Yeah, that's right. I waited in front of the old
10 Liberty Cash building.

11 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

12 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

14 BY MR. HORAN: He is as far as the State is
15 concerned.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And he is released from our 17 subpoena also.

18 BY THE COURT: Mr. Jones, you are free to go.
19 They may have you a place to stay now, but you can
20 go home whenever you get ready.

21 BY THE WITNESS: All right. Thank you, Your
22 Honor.

23 WITNESS EXCUSED.

24 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I know
25 y'all are ready now, so we are going to take a
26 break. Let me see y'all up here just a second. I
27 have got some information for you.

20                  BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
21 please.

22                  BY THE WITNESS: Charles Collins.

23                  BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

24                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

25                  Q.    Would you state your name.

26                  A.    Charles Collins.

27                  Q.    Mr. Collins, where do you live?

28                  A.    502 Bell Street, Winona.

29                  Q.    And how long have you lived in Winona?

1 A. All but four years all my life.

2 Q. Mr. Collins, I want to direct your attention back
3 to July the 16th of 1996, the day that the murders occurred
4 at Tardy Furniture. Do you remember that day?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. Can you tell us starting with that morning what you
7 were doing and if you had an occasion to see any of the 8 victims?

9 A. I got up that morning. I had to go to the bank,
10 and my wife had a list of stuff, one of these honey-do lists
11 you have fixed out for you, you know. And I had to bring my 12 car to a mechanic's shop and put it in there. And I went to 13 town. I had to go to the bank, and when I passed the bank, I
14 looked at the clock on the car, and it either had 9:58 or 15 9:59 on it, and the bank doesn't open until 9 o'clock. So I
16 went to the post office. I had to get a--

17 Q. --Is that 9:58 or 8:58?

18 A. I mean 8:58. It was either 8:58 or 8:59.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. And I went to the post office, and I got a postal
21 money order, and I filled it out, and I mailed it. As I
22 started out the post office, there is a little breezeway in 23 between the front door and the inside of the post office.
24 Carmen Rigby come in one side of it, and I came in the other
25 side and we spoke.

26 Q. All right, let me stop you there a minute. From 27 where Tardy Furniture is located on Front Street, how far is 28 it to this bank that you saw Carmen Rigby at?

29 A. I didn't see her at the bank. I said I passed the

1 bank.

2 Q. Okay, you passed the bank.

3 A. I had to go in the bank that morning on some
4 business, and the bank wasn't open, so I went to the post
5 office first.

6 Q. Okay, it's the post office that you went to?

7 A. I went to the post office first.

8 Q. How far is that from Tardy Furniture? Just 9 approximately; are we talking about a block, two blocks?

10 A. About three blocks.

11 Q. Okay. What was Ms. Rigby doing when you saw her?

12 A. When I saw her, she had some, looked like mail or 13 something she may have picked up at the post office in her
14 hand. Her purse was over her shoulder, and some keys were on 15 her ring finger.

16 Q. You must have been fairly close to her.

17 A. I was as close as from here to there to her. We 18 just met right there going out the same door.

19 Q. All right, what happened next after you met her
20 there?

21 A. She spoke to me and I spoke to her.

22 Q. Okay, what did you do next?

23 A. Then we walked out the door together, and we talked 24 going down the steps at the post office. And when we got to 25 the street, there were several cars coming. We waited. We 26 was talking all this time. We walked up almost where my car
27 was, and I didn't know it was her car that was parked there
28 in front of mine, but we were parked-- I was parked right
29 behind her in front of the First Baptist Church. We stood

1 there and talked for several minutes, and we was talking
2 about our children, just casual conversation. And she turned
3 to the left to go get in her car. I turned to the right to
4 get in mine, and I got in my car, and I was parked directly
5 behind her. And while she was talking to me, she had still
6 had them keys on her finger. And she got in the car and I
7 just thought to myself, that car was awful clean. It
8 was--and mine was filthy, and she looked over and she looked
9 up in the mirror, and she done her hair like this right
10 here. She put the keys in the car-- the reason I know she 11 did, the back-up lights came on on the car, and I said well,
12 I will just pull in behind her. And I pulled out behind
13 her.

14 And I was going to pay my gas bill, but I passed
15 the street. So I said well, I have got, had to go to the 16 cleaners, so I said well, I will make my turn to your right
17 on Front Street or Main Street or ever what that is, which 18 goes by Tardy Furniture Company.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. And I had to stop and wait on a car. It was a car
21 coming down the street, and when I got in front of Tardy
22 Furniture Company, I just sort of glanced over, and she waved
23 at me. I went down to the cleaners, and there was a bunch of 24 cars parked there.

25 Q. All right, let me stop you right there for a
26 minute. I want to show you State's Exhibit 4 and ask you to 27 look at this photograph if you would.

28 A. (Pause.) All right.

29 Q. In that photograph can you see the cleaners that

1 you were headed to at that time?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may the witness
4 step down in front of the jury?

5 BY THE COURT: Yes.

6 BY MR. EVANS:

7 Q. If you would, step down here. I want to get you to 8 point out -- you can hold the photograph. Just hold it in 9 front of you where the whole jury can see it and point out
10 where the cleaners is located.

11 A. It's located right here. (Witness points for Mr.
12 Lumumba.) Right there.

13 Q. All right. Thank you.

14 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

15 Q. And as you were driving by going toward the 16 cleaners, where was Carmen Rigby going at that time?

17 A. She was fixing to go in the door. She, like I
18 said, she had her purse over her shoulder. She had a, looked 19 like might have been mail she had gotten from the post
20 office. I don't know that's what it was, but that's what it
21 looked like to me.

22 Q. And which door was she going in?

23 A. The front door.

24 Q. Of Tardy Furniture?

25 A. Of Tardy Furniture Company.

26 Q. Approximately what time was that?

27 A. It probably took me five minutes inside the post
28 office or maybe a little longer, ten minutes at the most from 29 the time that-- well, the time we talked. It may have been a

1 little over ten minutes because by the time I filled out the
2 money order and mailed it, walked out and we talked, and by
3 the time I got there, it may have been a little over ten
4 minutes.

5 Q. Okay, sir. Ten or fifteen minutes?

6 A. Ten or fifteen minutes. Fifteen minutes at the 7 most.

8 Q. And once you saw Ms. Rigby going in the front door
9 of Tardy Furniture, where did you go then?

10 A. I went down to the cleaners. There was several, a 11 bunch of cars parked there, and I am handicapped, and at 12 times I can't walk very far. So what I had to get to the 13 cleaners wasn't something rushing. It wasn't something
14 pressing. I could have done it the day before. I could have 15 done it the day after. It wasn't nothing real pressing, so I
16 went back, turned right back up. I went back up, I guess it
17 is Summit Street, the street the post office is on, and went
18 and paid my gas bill.

19 Q. Okay. After you paid your gas bill, where did you
20 go then?

21 A. I started back down; I come back down by Barksdale
22 Garner's service station, and when I got where Summit Street
23 is, my wife called me on the car phone and told me that I had 24 got the wrong spark plugs for--

25 Q. Okay, now the service station that you are talking
26 about, is that on the end of Front Street?

27 A. It's on the opposite end of the street from where 28 the cleaners is at.

29 Q. Okay. Approximately how far in distance?

1           A.    It's two blocks. It's two streets. It's two
2 blocks.

3           Q.    Okay. When you found out that you had picked up
4 the wrong spark plugs, what did you do?

5           A.    I went and I had some-- when I had to go to the 6 bank, I had some papers that I, two sets of papers that I was
7 supposed to have brought with me. And I had picked up, and I
8 was supposed to have picked up the money for the stuff at the 9 cleaners. My wife told me where it was all at, and I had 10 forgotten to pick up one of the envelopes from the, for the 11 bank. And I don't know if I went by the house then or if I
12 went to Don Mitchell's. But I went to Don Mitchell's and got 13 the spark plugs that I had gotten, brought them back to 14 Wal-Mart and got the right spark plugs. I went back to Don
15 Mitchell's and brought those spark plugs back down there.

16          Q.    All right, do you know what time you were at 17 Wal-Mart picking up the spark plugs?

18          A.    Well, I give a receipt to, I believe it was to 19 y'all that morning.

20          Q.    Yes, sir.

21          A.    Showing what time that I picked up those spark
22 plugs.

23          Q.    Do you remember what time that was?

24          A.    I'm going to say it was around, probably around
25 9:30, 9:40, something like that. I really don't know.

26          Q.    Okay. Give me just a second.

27                   BY MR. EVANS: May I have this marked for
28 identification, Your Honor?

29                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 (RECEIPT FROM WAL-MART WAS MARKED AS STATE'S
2 EXHIBIT S-99 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

3 (Exhibit S-99 for identification was shown to
4 Mr. Lumumba.)

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q. Mr. Collins, I show you Exhibit S-99 and ask you to 7 look at the time on the bottom of that receipt and tell us
8 exactly what time you checked out at Wal-Mart?

9 A. 9:43.30.

10 Q. Okay, and is that a copy of the receipt that you
11 furnished?

12 A. That's the copy of the receipt right there.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer this
14 exhibit into evidence.

15 BY THE COURT: Any objection?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir. I have no objection
17 to that receipt.

18 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

19 (WAL-MART RECEIPT PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S 20 EXHIBIT S-99 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN
21 EVIDENCE.)

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. All right. After you left Wal-Mart at 9:43, where 24 did you go next?

25 A. To Don Mitchell's.

26 Q. Okay, and where is it located?

27 A. About two and a half-- two, two and a half, to 28 three miles south of Winona.

29 Q. Okay, and how long did you stay there

1 approximately?

2 A. I walked up and handed him the spark plugs, told
3 him I would see him later, and I got in my car and left.
4 Just long enough to hand him the spark plugs and get back out
5 in the highway and left.

6 Q. Once you did that, where did you go?

7 A. I went back by my house-- I believe that's when I
8 went back by my house and picked up the thing for the bank
9 and the money for the clothes at the cleaners.

10 Q. Is your house between Don Mitchell's and Tardy
11 Furniture?

12 A. It's about halfway between Don Mitchell's and Tardy
13 Furniture Company.

14 Q. All right. After you left your house at that time,
15 where did you go?

16 A. I went, was going to the cleaners first. And 17 that's when I passed the cleaners, and that's when I noticed
18 these two men standing there beside a car. One was standing
19 in front of the car, and one was standing beside the car.

20 Q. And this was when you were down close to Tardy
21 Furniture?

22 A. It was just before you get to Tardy Furniture
23 Company on the opposite side of the street.

24 Q. Okay. What brought your attention to these two men
25 that were in front of Tardy Furniture?

26 A. They were making these hand gestures. I thought
27 they were arguing. In fact, I thought they was fixing to 28 fight.

29 Q. Okay. And which direction were you traveling when

1 you saw these two people?

2 A. South.

3 Q. How close to them did you come?

4 A. Within as close as from here to that rail right
5 there.

6 Q. Okay, this rail right here?

7 A. That rail right there, or closer.

8 Q. This one?

9 A. It was a car length. I was in the street. It was 10 a car length there and they was, the car was parked right
11 there. It was within that close or closer.

12 Q. Okay.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, estimating for the 14 record the area he identified out here is about, I
15 would say 30 feet.

16 BY THE WITNESS:

17 A. Well, it was the distance--

18 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute, Mr. Collins.
19 Would you agree with that, that it's about 30 feet?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Well, I would like to question
21 my own witness and let him do the cross if he would 22 like--

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No. No, I'm not trying to 24 do that, Judge, but when a witness says a distance,
25 I think it is appropriate for the record to 26 indicate for the record--

27 BY THE COURT: --The Court will take judicial 28 knowledge that it looks like it's about 30 feet.

29 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

1 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q. If I can remember where I was, Mr. Collins, I will
4 try to start back over. As you saw these two people standing
5 out there, were these males or females?

6 A. Both of them were males.

7 Q. Were they black or white?

8 A. They were black.

9 Q. Did you see either one of them's face?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. And when you saw the face, what were you doing?

12 A. I was looking.

13 Q. All right, and again, to make sure I understand,
14 what caught your attention for you to be looking at the face
15 of the person that you saw?

16 A. One man was standing in front of the car with both 17 hands on the hood of the car. The other man was standing at 18 the passenger side of the car, and he, they was doing their 19 hands. The man on the front of the truck--car raised his 20 hands up. They was doing his hands like that right there,
21 and the other one made a move. And I thought, well I, you
22 know, I really got, I guess you can say I was being nosy if 23 you want to. I was going to try to-- I thought they was 24 fixing to fight.

25 Q. All right. And did you have an occasion to do
26 anything else to even get a better look at--

27 A. --Yes, I did. I made the block and come back
28 around to see what was going on. I wanted to see what was 29 going to happen.

1 Q. All right, so the jury will understand, in front of
2 Tardy Furniture, in front of this whole row of buildings
3 there is kind of an island out there that vehicles can park
4 in; is that correct?

5 A. That's right.

6 Q. And do I understand that you made that circle and 7 came back around and looked at them again?

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. Okay, when you last saw these people that you were 10 looking at, what were they doing, or where were they headed?

11 A. They were headed across the street in the direction
12 of Tardy Furniture Company. Well, they were up just a little 13 bit north of where Tardy Furniture Company was, just a little 14 bit, and they were headed toward the street, across the 15 street toward Tardy Furniture Company.

16 Q. Mr. Collins, do you see the person that you looked 17 in the face and saw in front of Tardy Furniture going toward 18 Tardy Furniture in this courtroom?

19 A. I will always believe it's that man right there.

20 BY MR. EVANS: May the record reflect that he 21 has pointed to and identified the Defendant in this 22 cause, Curtis Flowers?

23 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that.

24 BY MR. EVANS:

25 Q. As close as you can pin it down because we know
26 that you were at Wal-Mart at 9:43, what time do you think it
27 was that you saw this man in front of Tardy Furniture walking
28 toward the direction of the store?

29 A. Probably-- let's see; I went to Don Mitchell's,

1 probably took about five minutes. Fifteen to twenty minutes
2 at the most.

3 Q. So as close as we can estimate, we are talking
4 about somewhere around a little bit before 10:00 to a few
5 minutes after 10:00?

6 A. That's correct.

7 BY MR. EVANS: One moment, Your Honor.

8 (State's Counsel confer.)

9 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: One second, please, Your
11 Honor.

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Collins.

14 A. Good afternoon.

15 Q. Mr. Collins, would it be safe to say, just a brief
16 inquiry about something before we get into what your 17 testimony is. It would be safe to say that actually you have 18 a, you take medication sometimes because-- is that correct?

19 A. I take, yeah, I take medication sometime. I am
20 taking it today.

21 Q. Okay, and your medication you take, is it
22 medication that you take because you have a poor memory?

23 A. I wouldn't hardly think so. I don't think the 24 doctors think so either.

25 Q. Okay, is it true that you do have memory problems?

26 A. I wouldn't hardly think so.

27 Q. Okay. Would it be true that you have a lot of 28 problems remembering things?

29 A. I wouldn't hardly think so.

1 Q. Now it's true though that you did testify at 2 another hearing in this case some time ago; is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Okay, and at that time there was a person there
5 taking down dictation or just like this person is now; is
6 that right? A court reporter?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Okay, and they were, as you were talking, they were 9 typing; is that right?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Now I'm going to show you a transcript of that 12 hearing, and now I notice that sometimes you have your 13 glasses on, and sometimes you have your glasses off; is that
14 right?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Do you have glasses which are prescription glasses?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Do they help you see?

19 A. This close they do.

20 Q. Okay, do you wear those glasses when you are out
21 driving your car?

22 A. No, I do not.

23 Q. So you didn't have the glasses on that day; is that
24 correct?

25 A. No, but I had them with me.

26 Q. But you didn't have them on when you were looking
27 at Tardy's store?

28 A. I didn't need them to see Tardy's store.

29 Q. And you don't have them on when you were looking at

1 the persons that you said were two men? You didn't have them
2 on then?

3 A. I didn't need them to see them.

4 Q. Okay, but the question is did you have them on?

5 A. No, I did not.

6 Q. Okay, let me ask you, it says, this is a person
7 called Charles Collins here--

8 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, I hate to object
9 during this, but could you give us the page you are
10 on?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, we are on page 438.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. And the name of the person here is Charles Collins;
15 is that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Okay, now I'm going to ask you to take a look here
18 down at line 14 and then at lines, all the way from 14 to 17,
19 and then when you get finished with reading those two lines
20 to yourself, then let me know. Then if you want to read
21 anything else there, you can also just to make sure it's in 22 context, but then after you do that, let me know.

23 BY MR. HORAN: What line are you on, Mr.
24 Lumumba?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am sorry; I will repeat
26 it. Page 438 and we are talking about line 14
27 through line 17.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

29 BY THE WITNESS:

1 A. (Pause while witness reads.)

2 Q. Okay, now what my question is at this point when 3 you are at that hearing, and this hearing is some time in 4 October of 1997?

5 A. Uh-hum.

6 Q. Were you asked this question, and did you give this
7 answer? "You have problems with your memory, don't you, Mr.
8 Collins?" Question. Answer. "I take a lot of medication,
9 sir, and I have trouble remembering a lot of things; yes,
10 sir." Was that the answer you gave at that time?

11 A. Yes, it was. Because at that time I had had a lot
12 of problems and I had had a lot of tests run, and at that 13 time I was having lot of, you know, at that time I was 14 having, you know, a little problem. Not just say, not 15 remember things that happened, but it's a lot of things that 16 if you take a lot of medication like that, you would 17 understand.

18 Q. Okay, I understand. And in fact, let me just think
19 about it for a minute. First of all, early that morning you
20 had taken some spark plugs down to Mr. Mitchell; right?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. And it turned out that they were the wrong spark
23 plugs?

24 A. Yeah, and you want me to tell you why?

25 Q. If you--

26 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, we would like for 27 him to be allowed to finish his answer.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, wait a minute. He asked
29 me a question.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. If you would like to, Mr. Collins, it's not up to 3 me whether you can explain your answer. You can explain your
4 answer any time if you want after you answer the question.

5 A. All right, I went to-- you know, they got a
6 computer at Wal-Mart. And you get help and they key this
7 thing in, and they tell, you tell them what kind of car you
8 got, and they tell you what kind of parts you need?

9 Q. Uh-hum.

10 A. The fellow keyed it in. He told me what kind of 11 part I needed, so I took it down there. And the memory there
12 was at the computer at Wal-Mart. I mean it wasn't mine.

13 Q. I see. So in any event, that's why you had the 14 wrong spark plugs?

15 A. That's why I had the wrong spark plugs.

16 Q. Now you left the house-- after you took those spark
17 plugs, then at some point you left the house again going
18 downtown to make a few runs; is that correct?

19 A. After I took, I took my car down there about 8
20 o'clock that morning and left it because the man didn't open
21 until 8:30, and I had business I had to take care of. That's 22 the reason the spark plugs was left down there. That's the 23 reason I didn't know they were the right ones--wrong ones.
24 If had of been there, he could have told me. I could have 25 went and swapped them right then, but he wasn't there. He 26 wasn't open.

27 Q. Okay. And when you went downtown the first time,
28 it would be safe to say you forgot to stop at the bank; is
29 that right?

1           A.    No, I did not forget to stop at the bank. I just
2 told you; the bank wasn't open.

3           Q.    Okay, but you forgot to stop at the bank before you
4 came back home; is that correct?

5           A.    No, I did not.

6           Q.    So it's not true that you went down there the first
7 time and forgot to stop at the bank; is that right?

8           A.    That's correct. I did not forget to stop at the 9 bank. It wasn't open the first time, and then I got a
10 telephone call saying I had the wrong spark plugs, so I went
11 and changed spark plugs.

12          Q.    Would it be safe to say you had forgotten some 13 papers that morning for the bank?

14          A.    I had several different things. We were in the 15 process of buying some real estate. I had several different
16 things that I had to get, and I forgot--

17          Q.    --Excuse me--

18          A.    --one set of them, yes.

19          Q.    Excuse me, and I don't have any problem with your 20 explaining the answer. Can you answer the question yes or 21 no, whatever, then explain so we will make sure we get an 22 answer. So the question is, is what you are telling me is 23 that you did forget some papers for the bank; right?

24          A.    I forgot part of them, yes.

25          Q.    Okay. And it would say that at another-- okay, it
26 would also be safe to say that the first time you went 27 downtown, you forgot the money to get the clothes out of the 28 cleaners; isn't that correct?

29          A.    That's correct.

1 Q. So you forgot to get the money to get the clothes
2 out of the cleaners. You forgot some papers you say for the
3 bank. Are those two things correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And as of this time, you are indicating that it's 6 not true that you forgot to go to the bank; is that right?

7 A. Do what now?

8 Q. You say that you didn't forget to go to the bank;
9 is that right?

10 A. No, I didn't forget to go to the bank.

11 Q. Okay, well, at one point when you were actually--
12 you were supposed to be paying a gas bill too; is that right?

13 A. I did pay a gas bill. I wasn't supposed to; I did
14 pay it.

15 Q. Okay. But you were going to pay that gas bill when 16 you-- remember you said you went down there and went to the 17 post office?

18 A. Yeah, I remember what I said.

19 Q. And you had, you are in there with Ms. Rigby; is
20 that correct?

21 A. Uh-huh.

22 Q. And then when she left, you were leaving too; is
23 that correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And it was your intentions to stop at the place to 26 pay the gas bill and turn in there and pay the gas bill at 27 that time; is that right?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. And you drove right past the place and forgot to

1 stop there; correct?

2 A. That is nothing unusual. The way that street is
3 right there you could easily miss it.

4 Q. Okay, but--

5 A. --and it was some cars coming and I would have had
6 to stop and waited for them to pass, so I decided to go
7 straight on down to the cleaners.

8 Q. Okay, but-- and I understand that, Mr. Collins, but 9 I am just trying to establish a few things here. Did you
10 forget to turn in there and pay your gas bill?

11 A. No, I did not.

12 Q. I thought you just said that you did forget it;
13 that is easy to do. Did you forget it?

14 A. I said it would be easy to forget the way that road
15 is there, but it was some cars coming and I had to wait for 16 them to pass, and I said well, I might as well go on to the 17 cleaners.

18 Q. All right, so. (Pause) Now let me understand
19 that. You did pass the street where you were supposed to pay
20 the gas bill; right?

21 A. Sure did.

22 Q. Okay. And why did you pass the street? I'm
23 sorry.

24 A. I just told you. There was some cars coming. I
25 would have had to have stopped and waited for those cars to 26 pass to turn in. So I said why stop there; I can go on to 27 the cleaners. I wasn't in any hurry that day.

28 Q. Okay, so let me, well, let me see. Okay, but this 29 is a day and, that you at some point had forgot the money to

1 get the clothes out of the cleaners; is that correct?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. As the transcript says, okay. And this was a day
4 where at one point you passed the, for whatever reason, you
5 did pass, and we will get back to that again when we find it
6 in the transcript. But at whatever point, you did pass the 7 gas company or the place you were going to take the gas
8 bill?

9 A. I just told you I did.

10 Q. Okay, and you forgot some papers you were supposed
11 to be using at the bank; is that correct?

12 A. I told you I did.

13 Q. Okay. And in fact, you went downtown two different
14 times, and you never did get the clothes out of the cleaners;
15 isn't that correct?

16 A. No, I did not.

17 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. And at least 18 according to what it said at your transcript at the time that
19 you testified, you do take medication, and you do have memory
20 problems; is that correct? That's what it says here. Is
21 that right?

22 A. I think my memory is very well.

23 Q. Okay, but it says here that you have problems
24 remembering things?

25 A. I just told you at that time that statement right
26 there was making, I was having lots of problems.

27 Q. Okay, well--

28 A. --It wasn't during the time all this happened, but 29 at that time right there that that statement was made, I was

1 having lots of problems. You can check with the doctor.

2 Q. Okay, but here you didn't tell them, Well, I was
3 just having problems right now?

4 A. They didn't ask me.

5 Q. Okay, you didn't tell them I'm just having problems
6 right now, but I wasn't having problems back then. You
7 didn't say that?

8 A. They didn't ask me. I am answering the questions
9 just like you are asking me.

10 Q. Okay, but at that time it was on 7/16/96 when you
11 forgot to bring the papers for the bank; right? That's when 12 you forgot to do that?

13 A. That is nothing unusual for me. I get up every 14 morning. I don't have--

15 Q. --Well, excuse me. Excuse me, sir. Is that the 16 date that that happened on?

17 A. You are correct.

18 Q. Okay, and that's the date that it says here that 19 you forgot to bring the money for the cleaners; right?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Now the other thing, let's trace your steps a
22 little bit here. You, from what I hear you saying is that 23 you had an opportunity to go downtown, and actually you went
24 downtown the first time, and that's when you saw Ms. Rigby;
25 is that correct?

26 A. Saw her at the post office.

27 Q. Okay, and after you saw Ms. Rigby, you circled
28 around past the place where you were supposed to pay the gas
29 bill; is that correct?

1 A. No, I did not.

2 Q. Well, you didn't pay the gas bill?

3 A. I didn't circle around it though.

4 Q. But you didn't pay it?

5 A. I didn't pay it.

6 Q. Okay, and then you didn't go to the cleaners
7 either?

8 A. I didn't, and I told you why.

9 Q. Okay. And that was because, you didn't go to the 10 cleaners because it was too many cars out there?

11 A. That's exactly right.

12 Q. Okay, but then you came back down again to downtown
13 the second time, and you still didn't go to the cleaners?

14 A. That's when I saw the activity. That's when I
15 drove back up the street there to see what was going on.

16 Q. Okay. And now when you went downtown the second
17 time, that was after you went to Wal-Mart; is that right?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And after you went to Wal-Mart, you-- well, we know
20 that it was about 9:43 according to your receipt when you got 21 that receipt in Wal-Mart; is that correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Now when you get the receipt, you are at the 24 counter; is that correct?

25 A. That's correct.

26 Q. You are not outside in your car. You get the 27 receipt at the counter; right?

28 A. Why, sure.

29 Q. Okay, and then once you get the receipt, what you

1 did is you had to walk out and get to your car; is that
2 correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And I think you said that you have some kind of 5 disability; is that correct?

6 A. Well, they have got a handicapped parking place
7 right there outside the door, and that's where I was parked.

8 Q. And that's where you were parked, but you still 9 have a disability; right?

10 A. That's right.

11 Q. So you had to walk out there and get in the spot
12 where the handicapped parking space was; right?

13 A. Why, sure.

14 Q. Okay, you had to go out the door; right?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. And then you had to drive down to Don Mitchell's;
17 is that correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And Don Mitchell's was like, you say about two 20 miles in the opposite direction from where Tardy's is. Is
21 that correct?

22 A. It's pretty close - two, two and a half, three
23 miles. It is pretty close. I don't know exactly how far it
24 is.

25 Q. And then when you go to Don Mitchell's, it's like,
26 Don Mitchell's is a place that you come up to it, and then
27 there is a fence or a gate there; is that right?

28 A. That's right.

29 Q. And you have to turn up and go into there, drive in

1 there before you can get to the office. It's a few feet in 2 there; isn't that correct?

3 A. It's 30 or 40 feet, 50 feet, something like that, I
4 imagine. I don't know.

5 Q. Then once you drive in there, you get out and you
6 go in and give the man the spark plugs?

7 A. No, I did not.

8 Q. Okay, you gave it to them from the car?

9 A. He was standing right there. I opened my door,
10 stood out and handed them to him, got back in my car, and 11 drove off.

12 Q. Okay, so you got out of the car, and then you got 13 back in your car?

14 A. That's right.

15 Q. So then you had to get your car together and drive
16 out of there. You weren't in a hurry; right?

17 A. No, I wasn't in any hurry. I didn't have nothing
18 pressing; I mean, you know.

19 Q. So you wasn't driving particularly fast?

20 A. No, I don't drive fast anyway.

21 Q. And we know you started this journey at 9:43;
22 right?

23 A. Well, that's what the receipt says.

24 Q. Okay, then you came all the way back down, and what
25 you did is you-- after you came from Don Mitchell's, you went
26 by your house; isn't that right?

27 A. That's exactly right.

28 Q. Okay, and you were actually prepared to go in your 29 house, and then your wife said, "Where is the clothes?"

1 Right?

2 A. No. When I came back out of the house is when she
3 asked me that.

4 Q. Oh, okay. You were in the house, and then when you
5 came back out of the house, your wife said, "Where is the 6 clothes?"

7 A. Yeah, she was working in her business. She has got 8 a business there.

9 Q. Okay, she has got a business right next to the 10 house?

11 A. Right there, yes.

12 Q. So then you had to get back into your car and then
13 go down to Tardy's; right?

14 A. I didn't go to Tardy's then. That's when I was 15 going to the cleaners.

16 Q. Okay, you were going to the cleaners, okay. And 17 what you did is, so after going to, coming out of Wal-Mart at 18 9:43, getting in your car - and I'm just trying to make sure
19 I got it right - in the handicapped spot, driving down to Don
20 Mitchell's, getting out of your car, handing the spark plugs
21 to Don Mitchell, got back in your car, going to your house.
22 Now you started this journey at 9:43; right?

23 A. Uh-hum.

24 Q. Then what you did is you are there at your house,
25 go in your house, come out of your house. Your wife sees
26 you. "Where is the cleaning"; right?

27 A. That's right. That's right, basically right.

28 Q. And then you get back in your car and you go to
29 Tardy's; is that correct?

1 A. No, I went to the cleaners.

2 Q. You went to the cleaners; I'm sorry. I'm sorry.
3 You went to the cleaners. Now that is-- but in order to go
4 to the cleaners, actually you could have went to the cleaners
5 without passing Tardy's; isn't that correct?

6 A. Oh, I could have went to the cleaners going by a
7 whole lot of other places, but that's the particular route I
8 took.

9 Q. Okay, but just, and I understand that and that is 10 fine. You can let the jury know that too, but it is true
11 that you could have went to the cleaners without going by
12 Tardy's; isn't that correct?

13 A. Yeah, but I went the fastest way.

14 Q. Well, let me ask you this. You actually went and 15 turned down Summit Street; isn't that correct?

16 A. That's exactly correct.

17 Q. And Summit Street, in order to get on Summit
18 Street, get to Summit Street you took your, you drove all the 19 way down Church Street, did you?

20 A. I drove straight up 51 Highway from my house to 21 Summit Street, took a right on Summit Street down to Main
22 Street, and that was the closest way.

23 Q. Okay, well, let me see if I can follow you on 24 that. I'm going to show you-- I'm going to first of all have 25 marked a little exhibit that the State shared with me and ask
26 you to look at it.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Is that our copy? Is that the 28 one we furnished?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Is that the map we furnished
2 you?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: A copy of it.

4 (MAP OF STREETS OF WINONA WAS MARKED AS
5 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-7 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Now Mr. Collins, let me ask you this. You are
8 saying you didn't drive on Church Street; is that right?

9 A. I did when I left Tardy's that time, I went down
10 Church Street that time.

11 Q. No, let me, let's get it straight now. I'm talking
12 about the time that you were coming back the second time to 13 go to the cleaners. You were going to the cleaners; is that 14 right? You were going to the cleaners. Once your wife told 15 you, "Where is the cleaning?" and you were supposed to be 16 going to the cleaners, that is what was going on; right?

17 A. That's right.

18 Q. And you told us that you just went all the way down
19 51 which is Applegate. 51 is Applegate; isn't that true?

20 A. I think that's right.

21 Q. Okay, you went all the way down Applegate, and you
22 turned down Applegate, from Applegate on to Summit Street; is
23 that right?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. And then you went down Summit until you got to 26 Front Street. Is that what you did?

27 A. That's exactly right.

28 Q. And you turned on Front Street, and that's the only
29 way that you were driving past Tardy's going to the cleaners;

1 isn't that correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Okay, and you have indicated to me that was the 4 fastest way; right?

5 A. To me it is, yes.

6 Q. Okay, you didn't say anything about Church Street;
7 is that right?

8 A. Not at that time I didn't.

9 Q. Okay, well, now let me ask you this. I want to 10 introduce you to page 58. You just testified at a hearing
11 not too very long ago; is that right?

12 A. That's right.

13 Q. And at this particular hearing please read for me
14 here from, on page 58, questions 1 on down past line, well,
15 actually I'm really wanting you to start at line 1 and go
16 down past line 16 where you see these lines that we have 17 drawn there. When you get finished reading that to yourself,
18 let me know.

19 A. (Pause while witness reads.)

20 Q. Okay, now were you asked these questions, and that 21 hearing didn't take place too long ago; right?

22 A. I know when it took place.

23 Q. Okay, and were you asked these questions on page 24 58, and you gave these answers, didn't you? "And you went to 25 Don Mitchell's once-- well, actually twice before you went to 26 Wal-Mart's and once after you went to Wal-Mart." Answer:
27 "That's correct." That was the question that was answered;
28 is that correct?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. "Right, okay." Question. "And you had gone by
2 your house to get the money that you had forgotten?" Answer:
3 "That's correct." "You went back downtown, and at the time
4 and you got back downtown, what street did you turn on?"
5 Answer: "Went down Summit Street and turned south on Main
6 Street." Question: "Is Summit Street the street that the 7 bank is on?" Answer: "That's right." "Did you go to the 8 bank at that time?" Answer: "No, I did not because when I
9 came to town, I came up Church Street and turned down Summit
10 Street." Is that what you said?

11 A. That's what it says there, but that is the third
12 time I went up there when I come down Church Street.

13 Q. But you are supposed to be going to the cleaners at 14 this time; right?

15 A. The third time I went I come down Church Street.
16 That's when-- the third time I went to the cleaners.

17 Q. Oh, you were going to the cleaners a third time?

18 A. Yeah, that's when I found out something had 19 happened at Tardy's, and I decided I would go on up there to 20 the cleaners to see what was going on. That's when I come
21 down Church, down Church Street.

22 Q. In any event, you just told us that you went all
23 the way down Applegate or 51, but there it says Church
24 Street; is that right?

25 A. That's what it says there, but the third time is 26 when I went down Church Street.

27 Q. I see. Okay, but now also you told me that you
28 never forgot to go to the bank, that you only forgot to take
29 some papers to the bank; isn't that right?

1 A. That's right.

2 Q. Can you look at this statement. Now this is, I'm
3 showing you what is-- I guess I need to mark this for
4 identification purposes.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Which one are we talking
6 about?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, this is a statement
8 given on March the 10th, 1997, taken by District
9 Attorney's Office.

10 BY MR. EVANS: All right. We offer the whole
11 exhibit into evidence, Your Honor.

12 (State's and Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

13 (STATEMENT OF PORKY COLLINS WAS MARKED AS 14 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-8 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. Okay. I'm showing you what is marked as
17 Defendant's Exhibit D-8 for identification purposes, and I
18 would like for you to -- do you see the person's name at the 19 top of that?

20 A. Uh-hum.

21 Q. And that is Porky Collins; is that correct?

22 A. That's right.

23 Q. Okay, and it says the statement is taken on March--
24 "Today's date is March 10, 1997." That's what it says;
25 right?

26 A. That's right.

27 Q. And it has a place where it says "Johnson" and then
28 it has "Collins"; is that right?

29 A. Uh-hum.

1 Q. You know Mr. Johnson is the investigator; right?

2 A. You are talking about John Johnson?

3 Q. Yeah.

4 A. Yeah, I know him.

5 Q. And you are Mr. Collins; is that right?

6 A. That's right.

7 Q. Okay, why don't you go down here and you can look
8 at line, at the line that I am pointing to, and for the 9 record this is a line about 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 lines from 10 the bottom, Judge. And it is right here, and it says here--
11 could you read that line to yourself, please.

12 A. (Pause) Oh, yeah. You want me to explain that to
13 you?

14 Q. Well, let me read it first. Let's see what it
15 says. It says here, "I was going to stop at the bank, but I
16 did not. I forgot it." Is that what it says?

17 A. That's what it says.

18 Q. Now as long as we are in this statement, let's get 19 one other thing straight. Now you told the ladies and 20 gentlemen of the jury that you actually got a call from your 21 wife?

22 A. That's the reason I--

23 Q. --that told you that you had to go by, that said
24 you had to go by Don Mitchell's; is that correct?

25 A. No, that is not correct. That's the reason I
26 turned down Church Street. I got a call from my wife as I
27 turned up toward the bank right there, and Church Street was 28 the nearest way to go to Wal-Mart. I turned down Church
29 Street, and I went down Church Street to Wal-Mart.

1 Q. That is after your wife called you?

2 A. That's exactly right.

3 Q. Okay, well, just read on a little bit more there to 4 yourself, Mr. Collins, and you see, and read on a little bit
5 further down there and read to the next two lines, and then I
6 have a question to ask you.

7 A. (Pause while witness reads.)

8 Q. When you are finished, please let me know.

9 A. All right.

10 Q. Here it doesn't say that you got a phone call from 11 your wife. What it says, "When I got in, my wife told me
12 that Don Mitchell had called and said I had the wrong spark
13 plugs to go in the car." Isn't that what it says?

14 A. That's what it says.

15 Q. And so what they are saying there is that when you
16 got in and they were talking about getting into your house;
17 isn't that right?

18 A. That's right, but my wife had already called me.
19 When I come back by the house, she mentioned about me having 20 the wrong spark plugs.

21 Q. Before you told us that your wife called you to 22 tell you you had the wrong spark plugs. Now--

23 A. --That's what I just told you.

24 Q. Now you are telling us that what happened is that 25 you got into your house, and then your wife told you?

26 A. No, my wife called me, and she didn't know that I
27 had went and picked up the spark plugs and brought them down
28 to Don Mitchell's. And when I went back by the house to pick 29 that stuff up, she told me, said Don Mitchell called and

1 said, talking about the spark plugs. That's what, that is
2 what this is all about right here.

3 Q. All right, well, so what happened despite the fact
4 that at one point you said you got a call from your wife;
5 what happened is you got in-- you went all the way back to
6 the house, and then she told you you had to get the spark
7 plugs?

8 A. I got a call from my wife on my car phone telling
9 me that I had the wrong spark plugs. I went to the Wal-Mart
10 and swapped the spark plugs and brought them to Don 11 Mitchell's. When I come back, my wife stuck her head out of 12 the shop door as I was getting those papers, and she said,
13 "Don Mitchell called about those spark plugs. Did you do
14 anything about it?" I told her yeah, I had already taken
15 care of that, and I was on my way to the bank then.

16 Q. Okay, well, see read what it says. Okay, let's
17 read what it says here, okay?

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. It says, "I went on back to the house." And that's 20 after you had been downtown the first time and didn't pay,
21 didn't pay, didn't get the stuff out of the cleaners and
22 didn't go by the bank; isn't that right?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Okay, then it says, "I was going to stop at the 25 bank, but I did not. I forgot it." That's what it says;
26 right?

27 A. When I got the telephone call, I forgot about it.
28 I turned down Church Street and went to Wal-Mart.

29 Q. It doesn't say anything about a telephone there,

1 does it?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is trying to
3 explain his answer.

4 BY THE WITNESS:

5 A. I am trying to explain it to you, but that's--

6 Q. --Okay, why don't we keep reading. Let's see if
7 that's when you went to Wal-Mart. "I turned down Church
8 Street when I paid my gas bill." Excuse me; excuse me. "I
9 turned down Church Street, when I paid my gas bill, I turned 10 down Church there and went on to the house. When I got in,
11 my wife told me that Don Mitchell had called and said I had 12 the wrong spark plugs to go in the car." Isn't that what it
13 says?

14 A. That's what it says.

15 Q. "So I run down there and got those spark plugs and 16 to Wal-Mart and picked up a few spark plugs and run them down
17 there." That's what it says there; right?

18 A. I wasn't reading. (Pause while witness reads.)
19 That's what it says here.

20 Q. So what it is saying here in this statement is that
21 you got in; your wife told you you forgot the spark plugs,
22 and then you ran down to Wal-Mart. You got the spark plugs,
23 and then you ran them down to Don Mitchell; right?

24 A. I had already done that when--

25 Q. --Well, that is not what it says here, is it?

26 A. Well, that's what I had already done.

27 Q. And this is your statement. Actually this is your 28 taped statement, right? What you said yourself?

29 A. That's what it says here.

1 Q. Okay. Then it says, "I stopped by my house. My
2 wife asked me, 'Did you get the dry cleaners?' And I said,
3 'No, I did not.' I said, 'I will go right now.'" And 4 that's when you were on your journey to downtown; is that
5 correct? Back again downtown. You were going back--

6 A. --Yes, sir, the second time, yeah. After I went
7 and got the spark plugs, that's where I went, back downtown.

8 Q. Okay, now we are going to get to this map in a
9 minute. Let's just cover one other thing and get it out of 10 the way. Okay, look, now let me ask you this. You are 11 telling the ladies and gentlemen of this jury that first of 12 all, you went downtown and you first of all, for whatever
13 reason, went on Summit Street; is that correct?

14 A. That's the street you have got to go on to where I
15 was going.

16 Q. Okay. But well, actually you can go down
17 Applegate-- excuse me. You can go from your house. You can 18 reach the cleaners without ever touching Summit Street; isn't
19 that true?

20 A. No, I cannot.

21 Q. Can't you--

22 A. --Oh, Summit Street, yeah.

23 Q. Yeah. You don't have to go down Summit Street;
24 right? Because your house is, let me see. Your house is 25 from where Front Street is, you live on a street called Bell
26 Street; is that correct?

27 A. That's correct.

28 Q. Bell Street runs into Applegate; isn't that
29 correct?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Or let's say 51 because that's what everybody calls
3 it, 51; right? Is that correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. 51 runs north and south; isn't that correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And from where the cleaners is to your house, is 8 that north or south? Is your house north or south of the 9 cleaners?

10 A. My house is south of the cleaners.

11 Q. Your house is south of the cleaners; that's 12 correct; right? And what you have to do in order to get to 13 the cleaners the way you went, you had to go down Applegate,
14 turn on Summit which is actually, which is actually north of 15 Tardy's and north of the cleaners; isn't that correct? You
16 have to-- strike that. You first of all had to come from 17 Bell up Applegate going, you were, in fact, traveling-- your 18 house is north of the cleaners?

19 A. It's south of the cleaners.

20 Q. South. Okay, you were traveling north. You had to 21 go north; is that correct? Is that right?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. And then what you had to do is go all the way from 24 the southerly direction that you were coming from north all
25 the way to what you call Summit Street. Is that correct?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. And Summit Street is north of the cleaners; isn't
28 that correct?

29 A. It's north of cleaners.

1 Q. So what you had to do is go from your house which
2 is south to a street which was north, turn on that street
3 that was north, and then go back south in order to get to the
4 cleaners. Isn't that correct?

5 A. If I went that way, it is.

6 Q. And that's the way you say you went; right?

7 A. That's the way I went.

8 Q. And if you didn't go that way, then you wouldn't
9 have seen two men. Isn't that correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Because actually if you would have went down Church
12 Street, you could have gone down Church Street; isn't that
13 correct?

14 A. I could have, yes.

15 Q. Okay, and what you could have done at a certain
16 point is actually turned on a street which is called
17 Carrollton off of Church Street. Isn't that correct?

18 A. I don't even know where Carrollton Street is in 19 Winona.

20 Q. Carrollton is the street that runs right alongside
21 the cleaners. You went to the cleaners--

22 A. --Well, I could have turned down through there,
23 yeah.

24 Q. And you never would have had to even reach Summit
25 Street. You would have never had to go that far north; isn't
26 that correct?

27 A. I would have had to have connected to Summit
28 Street-- I mean to the Main--oh, no. That is Summit Street.
29 No, that is Main Street. Yeah, that's right. You are right.

1 Q. That's right. Well, let me see if I am right. Let
2 me see if I am right here. I am showing you a map which is
3 now marked as Defendant's Exhibit for identification
4 purposes. On this map this is Applegate which is 51; isn't
5 that correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. Your house is somewhere off to the left of the map;
8 isn't that correct?

9 A. My house is right here on this map.

10 Q. Okay. Which is off to the left; right?

11 A. That's right.

12 Q. And what you had to do in order to go down
13 Applegate, what you had to do is go down Applegate here;
14 right? All the way to what we see here is Summit Street;
15 isn't that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And what you're doing is you are going all the way
18 north here, and you are turning down Summit; right?

19 A. Uh-hum.

20 Q. And then you have got to go all the way down Summit
21 here until you get to Front Street; right?

22 A. That's right.

23 Q. Then you have got to turn right again going back
24 south; right?

25 A. That's right.

26 Q. And then you get to the cleaners?

27 A. Right.

28 Q. Once you pass Tardy's; right?

29 A. That's right.

1           Q.    But if you don't go that way, what you can do is
2 you can go down this street here. What is this street here?
3 It has got a street called 407; is that correct?

4           A.    Yeah, that is a highway.

5           Q.    Okay. And you also have Church Street here; isn't
6 that correct?

7           A.    That's right.

8           Q.    You can hit Church Street from your house, can't
9 you?

10          A.    Oh, I could have hit any of these streets down
11 through here and went up through there.

12          Q.    And Church Street goes down here, and it hits
13 Carrollton; isn't that correct? It hits Carrollton south of 14 the cleaners; right?

15          A.    That's right.

16          Q.    And then what you can do is turn on Carrollton, and 17 you would just be right there at the cleaners; right?

18          A.    I could have, yeah.

19          Q.    In fact, the third time you went downtown that's 20 how you went; right?

21          A.    The third time I went downtown I went up Church
22 Street, that's right, because that was after all this had 23 happened. And I turned down Carrollton Avenue and didn't get 24 to go to the cleaners then because they had the streets
25 blocked off.

26          Q.    I understand. But the third time you went 27 precisely the way that I said that you could have went the 28 time that you claim you passed Tardy's; right?

29          A.    I could have.

1 Q. And you would never have passed Tardy's; right?

2 A. Right. But I wasn't in any hurry.

3 Q. And on 51, they have lights?

4 A. Yeah, and on Church Street they have cars parked on 5 both sides of the road, the four way stop and all this
6 stuff. You have to wait for people to cross the highway. It
7 takes you a whole lot longer too.

8 Q. Okay but anyway, now your testimony is that for 9 whatever reason, you went all the way to Summit, went down
10 turned on Summit because you weren't going, you didn't stop
11 anywhere on Summit, did you? The second time you went down?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. The second time you went down to the, you went
14 down--

15 A. --yeah, because they have got a stop sign there,
16 and I stopped at that stop sign.

17 Q. What I mean is did you stop and get out of your 18 car?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. So you turned on that street which was, now we know
21 is Front Street. That's the street that runs in front of 22 Tardy's; is that correct?

23 A. It's Front Street or Main Street, ever what it is,
24 ever what that street is.

25 Q. When you turned on the street that runs in front of 26 Tardy's, you are telling us that you were driving past; is
27 that correct?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. And you saw two men is what you told me?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And you saw these two men. They were two black
3 men; is that correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And they were at an old brown car; is that correct?

6 A. They were-- I have trouble with browns and greens,
7 but it was a brown, beige, tan or ever what it is, it was
8 real dirty, real filthy.

9 Q. And that's what you have indicated before; is that
10 correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Now this is after you have, this is at the end of 13 your journey coming from Wal-Mart which you had to go all the 14 way down to Don Mitchell all the way back to your house and 15 all that kind of stuff; right?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And then you are coming down that street, and you
18 see two men and you say they were walking across the street.
19 Is that correct?

20 A. No, I did not.

21 Q. Okay, where were they walking?

22 A. They were standing in front of-- one was standing
23 in front of the car, and one was standing beside the car.

24 Q. And I think you told these ladies and gentlemen of 25 the jury that they were fixing to fight. You thought they 26 were fixing to fight?

27 A. I did not. I told these, they acted, I said they 28 act like they was fixing to fight. They act like they were 29 arguing.

1 Q. So they--

2 A. --That's what brought my attention. If they hadn't
3 have done that, I probably never would have seen them.

4 Q. Well, actually what you said initially back when
5 you wrote your statement and you testified in other hearings
6 is that one of the men made a gesture with his hands. Isn't
7 that what you said?

8 A. Made a gesture with both hands.

9 Q. Well, but nobody hit anybody; right?

10 A. That's what I said.

11 Q. Okay, there were no blows passed; is that right?

12 A. If there was, it was passed while I made that 13 circle where I couldn't see.

14 Q. There was nothing fantastic happened; isn't that
15 correct?

16 A. (No response.)

17 Q. There was nothing fantastic that happened; is that
18 correct?

19 A. No, because I had to go around and make the block
20 to come back up before I could see them again.

21 Q. But you only saw the face of one man; right?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And you only got a glimpse, a very brief glimpse of 24 that face; right?

25 A. I looked at him just like I am looking at you, and 26 that was it.

27 Q. You got a brief glimpse; is that right?

28 A. That's right.

29 Q. Because you said in your statement that you only

1 got a brief glimpse; is that right?

2 A. That's what I just told you.

3 Q. And were you driving at the time; right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And you only got-- and that is the only time that
6 you ever saw that man's face; isn't that right?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And you didn't see that man's face. The prosecutor
9 said you went down and circled and came back. You did,
10 according to you, you did go down and circle and come back?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. But you didn't see that man's face when you came 13 back, did you?

14 A. No, I did not.

15 Q. So the only time in life because you had never seen
16 that man's face prior to that time; isn't that correct?

17 A. Well, I don't know. I live in Winona there. I
18 could have. If I told you I hadn't, I may be lying to you.
19 If I told you I had, I may be lying to you.

20 Q. As far as you know--

21 A. As far as I know. You know, I just seen him just 22 that, just like I told you.

23 Q. As far as you know, you just got a brief glimpse?

24 A. I did not know him. Let's put it this way.

25 Q. As far as you know, you didn't know the man's face;
26 is that right?

27 A. I did not know the man. No, I did not.

28 Q. So what you did, as far as you know, that was the 29 first time in life, as far as you know, the first time in

1 life you have seen the person; right?

2 A. Yes, that was.

3 Q. Was a brief glimpse; right?

4 A. That's right.

5 Q. And now we sit here, I mean how many years later?

6 What is this? This is '96; is that right? And you are
7 identifying a person that you saw back in '96 with a brief
8 glimpse that you had never seen before in your life; is that
9 correct?

10 A. I picked out a picture out of a lineup just a short
11 time after that.

12 Q. Well, actually you picked out a picture out of a
13 lineup about a month after that; isn't that correct?

14 A. Well, I don't know exactly when it was, but it was 15 shortly after that.

16 Q. A month after that; right?

17 A. I don't know. I couldn't tell you that.

18 Q. Okay, could it have been a month?

19 A. It could have been a month; it could have been a
20 week. I don't know.

21 Q. Okay, but well, let's see what your statement says
22 because I think your statement actually tells us when you saw
23 that.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Which statement are we
25 referring to?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The statement taken on March 27 10th, 1997, which is now marked as D-4 for
28 identification purposes.

29 (NOTE: The exhibit referred to is actually

1 D-8 for identification.)

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. It says, "Porky, I think on August 24, 1996, Wayne
4 Miller with the Highway Patrol and myself showed you a
5 picture line-up, showed you" actually two line-ups. Is that
6 what it says?

7 A. That's right.

8 Q. So that is a month after the incident; right?

9 A. Just like I told you, I didn't tell you that. I
10 didn't know.

11 Q. So you were identifying a person in a picture
12 lineup a month after this had occurred?

13 A. I described the man.

14 Q. No, well--

15 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may the witness
16 finish his answer?

17 BY THE COURT: He has got to answer the 18 question first, and he is not, he is being -- he is 19 not answering the question. He can explain it all 20 he wants to--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --Thank you, Your Honor--

22 BY THE COURT: --but he has got to answer the 23 question first.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 BY THE COURT: You understand that, Mr.
26 Collins?

27 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1 Q. Okay, you did not make any kind of identification,
2 were never even asked to make an identification until a whole
3 month after this incident; isn't that correct, according to 4 this paper?

5 A. I guess. If that's what it says.

6 Q. And you were trying to tell me that you described
7 the man on the day of the incident. That is what you were 8 going to tell me?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And your description of the man on the day of the 11 incident, actually you didn't describe the man. You
12 described two men; is that correct?

13 A. No, I did not.

14 Q. The only description you gave, and you gave it to 15 the officers, is that it was two black males with medium
16 complexions. That's all you said; right?

17 A. I told, what I told them about the complexion was I
18 said the one I seen's face had a complexion of Chief Johnny
19 Hargrove. I said his complexion was like Chief Johnny
20 Hargrove. Now if that is medium complexion, I don't know.

21 Q. What date is that?

22 A. 7/16.

23 Q. And what is that name up there?

24 A. Porky Collins.

25 Q. What does it say here?

26 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

27 BY THE WITNESS:

28 A. --two black males. That is not my writing--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --I object. He is going by

1                   what somebody else's notes are. This witness has 2                   clearly testified what he told the officers on that
3                   day.

4                   BY THE WITNESS: What they, you know, what
5                   they wrote down, you know.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I withdraw that question.

7                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9                   Q. Were the officers taking notes?

10                  A. They were all sitting at the table there.

11                  Q. Well, Mr. Collins, please. Just answer my question
12                  and then you can talk about anything. Were the officers
13                  taking notes?

14                  A. I assume they were.

15                  Q. Okay. And you don't know why an officer would just 16                  put down two black males with medium complexion if you gave 17                  them a complete description, do you? Do you know why?

18                  A. No.

19                  Q. Now in any event, when you were trying to 20                  identify-- you were trying to identify a man a month later 21                  who you had only seen with a brief glance on one day while 22                  you were riding past; is that correct?

23                  A. That's correct.

24                  Q. You didn't have any reason to believe that anybody
25                  had been hurt in any kind of way; right?

26                  A. When?

27                  Q. On the 16th when you saw these two black men?

28                  A. No, I did not.

29                  Q. And in fact, you had no reason to believe-- what

1 you said is they made a gesture, and they were arguing and
2 you thought they might fight; right?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. You only saw the man from the back of the head when
5 you came back; right?

6 A. As I came back, yes.

7 Q. And you didn't see the man doing anything except 8 walking away from the car when you came back; isn't that
9 right?

10 A. They was going across the street.

11 Q. Didn't have any guns in their hands, either one of 12 them?

13 A. I didn't see them. I couldn't see their hands
14 because of the way the car was.

15 Q. Well, you saw their hands when they made the 16 gesture; right?

17 A. I seen one of them's hands when he made the gesture
18 and seen the other one as he was up against the car.

19 Q. The one's hands that you saw that made the gesture
20 was the one who you saw his face with a brief glance; isn't
21 that correct? The one who made the gesture is the same one
22 that you took the brief glance at his face; isn't that
23 right?

24 A. The one on the hood was the one that was making the 25 gesture with his hands.

26 Q. And that's the one who you saw his face?

27 A. That's the one I saw his back.

28 Q. Okay, you never saw that person's face; right?

29 A. No, I did not.

1 Q. Well, you didn't see any kind of weapons or 2 anything on either one of them that would have drew your
3 attention; is that correct?

4 A. No, I did not.

5 Q. Now actually the two people you saw, according to 6 you, you actually saw them headed in the direction of Coast
7 to Coast; is that right?

8 A. No, it was not. They was headed sort of at an 9 angle toward Tardy Furniture. It was up around almost at the 10 Keystone Alley, I believe is what they call it there, but 11 they were headed across the street there.

12 Q. Mr. Collins, is it not true that you have testified
13 on many occasions that actually the men, first of all, were 14 not actually parked. The car was not actually parked
15 directly in front of Tardy's, was it?

16 A. No, it was not.

17 Q. It was actually parked north of Tardy's?

18 A. It was a little bit more, yeah. It was up about 19 where that alley, a little bit, right about where that alley
20 is there, yeah.

21 Q. And your previous testimony, was it not, that when
22 the men turned and walked away from you, they were walking
23 north. They were turning and going north; isn't that
24 correct?

25 A. They were turning going across the street.

26 Q. North across the street?

27 A. No. If you go across the street there, I think you
28 are going to be going west.

29 Q. Northwest; right?

1           A.    I think if you are going straight across that
2 street, you are going to be going west.

3           Q.    Okay, well, let's go back to the transcript. Well,
4 before we get to the actual direction.

5                       (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

6           Q.    I am showing you again what is now marked for
7 Defendant's Exhibit number 4 [sic] for identification
8 purposes. I ask you to please read toward the top of the 9 page and read the-- you can read anything else you would
10 like, but I am pointing to the line where it says, it starts
11 talking about the men and the fact that you saw them for a
12 split second. And then go down to the place where it talks
13 about which direction they turned in, which direction the man
14 turned in. Could you go over that by yourself, and then when 15 you get finished, please let me know. Top of the page on 16 page two of the statement.

17          A.    All right.

18          Q.    Ready?

19          A.    Uh-hum.

20          Q.    Okay. You indicated here, didn't you, "I happened
21 to see these two black men. One of them was standing in 22 front of the middle of the hood" and "he had both hands on 23 the hood. The other was standing at the door of the car with 24 one hand on top of the car and one hand on the door of the 25 car. He made a gesture with his hand. If it had not been 26 for that, I probably would not have noticed it." Is that
27 correct?

28          A.    That's correct.

29          Q.    Putting it in context, we know where we are at.

1           A.    That's right.

2           Q.    "I just for a split second, I got a glimpse."
3 Split second is what it says here; right?

4           A.    Uh-hum.

5           Q.    "I got a look at him. I went on down. Instead of 6 stopping at the cleaners, I turned and went back up the 7 street. I guess I was being nosy...to see what was going
8 on. They were acting like they were sort of arguing a little
9 bit. I got back up almost even with the car. I could see
10 them but I could not tell that much about them because there
11 were cars parked there and the trees were right there by the 12 car." That's what you said; right?

13          A.    That's correct.

14          Q.    So when you came back around and you couldn't tell
15 anything about them anyway; isn't that right?

16          A.    All I could see was the back part of them, yes.

17          Q.    And the one in the front of the car made a turn to 18 the north?

19          A.    That's correct.

20          Q.    The north would be toward Coast to Coast; right?

21          A.    North would be up that street-- he had to turn
22 north and then he turned west going across the street.

23          Q.    And he was already a bit north of Tardy; right?

24          A.    Just a little bit, yes.

25          Q.    So if he went north and he was already north of 26 Tardy's, he couldn't have been going toward Tardy's, could
27 he?

28          A.    Well, the two cars that was parked right side by 29 side right there would--

1 Q. --Excuse me. Answer my question. If I am north of
2 something and I go further north, I can't be going toward the
3 thing that I was north of already; isn't that right?

4 A. Well, there was no other parking places down there.

5 BY THE COURT: Mr. Collins, you have got to
6 answer the questions. You are not being responsive
7 to what he is asking you.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. If I am north of Tardy's, Mr. Collins, and then I
10 walk further north of Mr. Tardy, of Tardy's, I can't be 11 walking toward Tardy's, can I?

12 A. Yeah, he turned north there just--

13 Q. Mr. Collins, answer my question. Here it says he 14 was-- you already told us he was north of Tardy's; right?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. And here it says he then walked north of Tardy's
17 again; right? It says he walked north of where he was.
18 That's what it says. He turned and walked north. Isn't that
19 what it says?

20 A. He headed north, yeah.

21 Q. "I never seen his face, and all I seen was more or 22 less from the back of him, every time I seen him." Is that
23 right?

24 A. That's right.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, may we approach for a
26 minute, please?

27 BY THE COURT: Sure.

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't know; I am going to
2 have to go through the whole thing on
3 identification, and I'm going to ask to break.

4 BY THE COURT: Are you willing to finish with
5 him in the morning?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, good. I'm going to do
8 that.

9 BY MR. FREELON: Y'all realize you are not to 10 speak to Porky now?

11 BY THE COURT: Oh, I'm going to advise them.
12 I know that.

13 BY MR. HORAN: We can't do that?

14 BY THE COURT: (Court laughs.) I will make
15 that announcement. We will do that. Okay, before 16 we break from here, I have got something I want to 17 tell y'all.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

19 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

20 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I have
21 been advised that the examination of this witness
22 will take considerably longer. So we are going to 23 break in the middle of it at this time, and we are 24 going to break for the night. Now let me tell you
25 the good news for y'all is it will be Outback
26 tonight.

27 I'm going to give you these instructions that 28 I have given you before, and I will give them to 29 you every day at this time at least. You are not

1 to discuss this matter amongst yourselves at all.
2 You have not heard all the testimony in this case.
3 You must not form any opinions based on what you
4 have heard, and you can't do that until such time
5 as I submit this case to you at the end. You are 6 not to discuss it with anybody else or allow 7 anybody else to discuss it with you, nobody in your 8 presence, and you are not to pay any attention to 9 any media, not to read any newspapers.

10 Any further instructions from either party?

11 BY MR. HORAN: Nothing from the State.

12 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, you got any more
13 instructions other than that?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen,
16 I'm going to turn you over to the Bailiffs, and I
17 will see you in the morning, and we will start at 18 9:00 in the morning.

19 JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

20 BY THE COURT: Mr. Collins, you will need to 21 be back on the stand by 9:00 in the morning. You
22 are not to discuss your testimony with anybody at 23 all. Do you understand that?

24 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: You are not to allow anybody to 26 discuss it with you or in your presence. Do you
27 understand that?

28 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay. I will see you in the

1 morning at 9 o'clock.

2 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WITH THE JURY OUT AS
3 FOLLOWS:)

4 BY THE COURT: Look, come up here. You
5 haven't gotten me any more law, have you?

6 BY MR. FREELON: No, not with this lead time.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, here is what I want
8 done. I either want law to the contrary of Ivy or 9 you have got to produce them at 8 o'clock in the 10 morning. Okay?

11 BY MR. FREELON: Okay. 8 o'clock in the
12 morning?

13 BY MR. HORAN: He has produced the
14 transcript--

15 BY MR. FREELON: --Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa.

16 BY MR. HORAN: I have got the transcript.
17 Wait a minute now, Judge. He has got the 18 transcript here in writing, so I think if they have 19 got it, they can give that to me now.

20 BY MR. EVANS: We have got it now. It has
21 been furnished. We sure ain't giving it back.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay, you aren't telling me
23 nothing. I will see y'all in the morning.

1 (TRIAL WAS RESUMED ON THURSDAY, MARCH 25,
2 1999, IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE
3 DEFENDANT PRESENT AS FOLLOWS:)

4 BY THE COURT: Bring the jury in, and Mr.
5 Collins needs to come back to the stand.

6 (JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed?

8 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: (To the jury) Good morning.

10 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

11 (CONTINUATION OF TESTIMONY OF CHARLES "PORKY"
12 COLLINS.)

13 CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Good morning, Mr. Collins.

15 A. Good morning.

16 Q. Just to put this quickly in context, Mr. Collins,
17 and then to, of course, move on, you took two trips, I keep 18 saying downtown, but it is really like uptown or in town; is
19 that right?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. Okay, and this is, and on these first two trips in 22 town you had four purposes as I understand it from your 23 testimony to this point. You were supposed to be, from what 24 you have told this jury, you were supposed to be going to the 25 bank, and you were going to be going to the post office. You
26 had to pay a gas bill, and you had to go to Hunger's Dry
27 Cleaners; is that right?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. And with two of the trips to town and between these

1 two trips to town, for whatever reason, you never got your
2 clothes from the cleaners; is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And the first time you went down, as I understand
5 it, you didn't go to the cleaners because it was too many
6 cars there; is that right?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. However, you did leave town and still didn't have 9 the clothes; is that correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And the second time at some point you had to go
12 back. You had to go back for money; is that right, because 13 you didn't have money for the cleaning?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. And you were going to the bank, and you forgot to 16 go there; is that correct, or at least that's what it said in 17 your statement that we read; is that right?

18 A. Well, I didn't forget to go by. I had, I left some 19 papers at home.

20 Q. But in your statement that we read, it said that 21 you forgot to go there; is that right? The one we saw 22 yesterday?

23 A. I (Pause.)

24 Q. We don't want to spend too much time on it because 25 we have been through it, but let me just show it to you
26 here. (Exhibit D-8 for identification shown to witness.)

27 "I was going to stop at the bank, but I did not. I forgot
28 it." Is that right?

29 A. Well, that's what it has on here.

1 Q. Okay. Now and then actually you went downtown
2 twice and never went to the bank; is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And in fact, the second time or at least the second
5 time you had forgotten some papers; is that correct?

6 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I tried yesterday
7 not to object. We have gone over this same thing
8 at least 300 times and I object. I believe it is 9 pretty well covered.

10 BY THE COURT: We have covered this matter
11 pretty thoroughly. Let's move on to something
12 else.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we will move on.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Okay, now would it be safe to say that, just to--
16 yesterday we didn't have a map, and I just want to see the 17 route you took. Now let's, I'm going to share with you--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to ask that this be 19 marked. Actually I'm going to ask this be marked
20 here. I will show it to the District Attorney
21 first.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we have already
23 used a map once yesterday to show his route.
24 Again, I object because we are going over the same
25 thing over and over.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I'm going to ask the 27 witness to draw the route he took so we can
28 preserve that for the jury.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to allow you

1 to do that, but then I want us to move on to other
2 parts of the testimony. Let it be marked. Have 3 you got any objection to be it being marked as
4 evidence?

5 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. He marked one
6 yesterday that we agreed to.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The one I marked yesterday
8 has other markings on it, Judge.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I don't want-- I want--

11 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to admit it.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you.

13 BY THE COURT: And then you can hand it to
14 him.

15 (Mr. Lumumba confers with State's Counsel out
16 of the hearing of the Court Reporter.)

17 (ANOTHER MAP OF WINONA SHOWING LARGER AREA WAS 18 MARKED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AS DEFENDANT'S
19 EXHIBIT D-9.)

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. I'm showing you, I'm showing you D-9. Okay, do you
22 see on there, on D-9 do you see 51 which is right here on the 23 map; is that correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And you know you live on Bell Street; is that
26 correct?

27 A. Right there. That's correct.

28 Q. Bell Street. Do you see where the "C" is?

29 A. That's right.

1 Q. And your name is Collins, your last name?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. Now Mr. Collins, if I understand it correctly, the 4 route that you took the second time you went downtown to 5 reach, to pass in front of Tardy's is a route which started
6 where you live, went up here on Applegate, 51, proceeded down
7 to Summit Street, and then-- in other words, came from the 8 south, went north, passed the spot where-- well, you went up
9 north to Summit, turned right on Summit, and then had to come
10 all the way down to the street here which is called Main or 11 Front. Is that correct?

12 A. It's one or the other. I can't remember which 13 street it is called. It's, I think it's Front Street.

14 Q. Front Street, okay. So when you said Main Street,
15 what you would have been talking about is Front Street?

16 A. Is this Front Street.

17 Q. And then what you did you turned right on that, and 18 you passed by Tardy's according to what you told us, and you
19 were headed towards the cleaners; right?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. And the cleaners was right here on the corner of 22 the street called Carrollton and Front Street; is that
23 correct?

24 A. It's that last street. I think that is the name of 25 that street. I'm not real sure.

26 Q. Okay, but in any event so this would be pretty much
27 the route you took where it is marked here. Is that correct?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Okay. And you would have had to go from north to 1 south to pass Tardy's; right?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Now there is another route which is certainly a lot
4 shorter, and this is where you live on Bell--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, again I'm going
6 to have to object. There is no sense in just 7 repeatedly going over the same things.

8 BY THE COURT: I'm going to let him mark that 9 shorter route on this map. He did not do that 10 yesterday. When it is marked though, I want to 11 move on.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. And it would be safe to say -- so what we are going
14 to do is we are going to write up here, "Route taken by Mr.
15 Collins." And we are going to draw an arrow to that; okay?
16 Is that all right?

17 A. (No audible response.)

18 Q. Route 51 is the route you took; is that correct?

19 A. I started here and went up.

20 Q. Okay, we will draw the arrow here too; okay?

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. And then you wound up down here someplace; right?
23 So we have the route, draw the arrow here too; okay?

24 A. All right.

25 Q. Okay. Now the shorter route, here is Bell Street;
26 correct?

27 A. That's right.

28 Q. You could have driven up to 51, turned right and 29 gone right here to this street which is called Simpson

1 Street, Simpson Drive; is that correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And you could turn right on Simpson Drive and
4 really go right to Church Street; isn't that right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. And then from Church Street all you have got to do
7 is drive straight on into town; isn't that correct? And hit
8 Carrollton right here before you even get north. You hit
9 Carrollton right here on the south side of Tardy's; is that
10 correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And then you could turn right and go right here to 13 the cleaners which is right there south of Tardy's. Is that
14 correct?

15 A. That's correct, but my main objective was going to 16 the bank first.

17 Q. Oh, okay. You were going to go to the bank first.
18 Is that what it was?

19 A. That's right.

20 Q. But in any event, this is a short route, okay. You
21 agree with that; right? (Mr. Lumumba is writing on Exhibit
22 D-9.)

23 A. I don't know. I couldn't tell you.

24 Q. Okay, could we call it other route? Do you want to 25 say other route?

26 A. I couldn't tell you whether it was shorter or not.

27 Q. We will just put "Other route"?

28 A. It could be. I don't know.

29 Q. And this is Exhibit number 9. We are going to move

1 on here. And we will pass this to the jury at a different
2 point in time so we don't delay things.

3 Okay, now let me ask you this. And so when you
4 were taking this route, now you said you were going to the 5 bank, but actually you never got to the bank; is that
6 correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. So now the thing that, because you went this route,
9 you were going past Tardy's and you saw two men, I think is--

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And the, you saw a car and you have previously
12 testified that the car was brown. Is that previously what 13 you said, that the car was brown? Isn't that correct?

14 A. Brown, beige, or tan. I told you I have color,
15 difficulties with brown.

16 Q. You have problems, kind of color blind? Is that--

17 A. With browns and greens.

18 Q. And the car was dirty and dusty?

19 A. It was real dirty and dusty; yes, sir.

20 Q. And these two men, we had a little discussion
21 yesterday about what direction they were in. But you have 22 had an opportunity to-- well, first of all, let's go. You
23 have previously stated in your first statement that the man
24 at the door is the one that made the hand gesture. Didn't 25 you tell us that in that statement? The statement to the 26 police, didn't you tell them that the man at the door was the 27 one that made the hand gesture?

28 A. He made a hand gesture back to the one on the front
29 of the car. The one on the front of the car was the one that

1 was making the hand gestures when I first noticed it.

2 Q. Oh, okay. So I understand that both of them were
3 making hand gestures; right?

4 A. Right. The one that was at the door made a gesture
5 back at him, and that's when I went on down the street. I
6 just barely got a glimpse of that.

7 Q. You just barely got a glimpse of that, and that was
8 when you saw somebody's face; is that correct?

9 A. That's correct. No, I had seen the face before the 10 man at the door made the hand gesture.

11 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you, but you weren't paying 12 any attention. What made you notice was that somebody was 13 making a hand gesture; right?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay, so other than the fact that they made the 16 gesture, you wouldn't even have paid any attention to it;
17 right?

18 A. I probably never would have seen them; yes, sir.

19 Q. So it was just like anybody else you are passing
20 downtown.

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. No particular reason to look at them?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. And in fact, you said that these cars, the car was 25 all the way on the other side of the street near the railroad
26 tracks. When I say near the railroad tracks, one part of the 27 street you can park which is closest to the railroad tracks;
28 is that correct?

29 A. This car was parked in the middle of the street

1 on-- you park on both sides of the street.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. And it was parked on the other side of the-- where 4 you park next to the furniture store there, it was parked on 5 the other side of the street, facing the cars that parks on,
6 they were together.

7 Q. Okay, they were, were they facing-- was the car
8 facing the side with the railroad tracks?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. Okay. Because the railroad tracks is the side of 11 the street which is the furthest away from Tardy's; isn't
12 that correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And they were on the other side facing the side--
15 when I say other side, we are talking about the other side
16 from Tardy's. They were on the other side facing the side
17 with the railroad track. Is that a true statement?

18 A. Would you ask that again.

19 Q. Maybe, this is perhaps a point of confusion here.
20 There is this thing in the middle of the street; right?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. What we might called an island or something like
23 that?

24 A. Yeah, and it has got some trees planted on it.

25 Q. Let's call it an island for lack of a better word,
26 okay. So they were on the opposite side of the island than 27 Tardy's; would that be a true statement?

28 A. That's true.

29 Q. So in other words, between where that car was and

1 where Tardy's was, there is an island, and then that was
2 where the car was; is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Parked up against the island where the trees is?

5 A. Well, it wasn't right in front of a tree, but it
6 was right beside a tree there, you know.

7 Q. I understand. And we have already established that
8 this was-- okay, well, we are going to establish in a
9 minute. And so in any event, you were on the side of the 10 street closest to Tardy's; is that correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Okay. And but for this gesture, you would not have
13 looked. Now as far as the, this glimpse that you took-- now
14 let me just see. So when you took the glimpse, you saw two 15 men making-- now this was a split second glimpse. Is that
16 correct?

17 A. That's true.

18 Q. That's the way you described it. A split second
19 glimpse; is that right?

20 A. Yeah, just like me looking at you and turning away.

21 Q. Turning away. And in that split second glimpse you
22 saw a car; right?

23 A. I saw several cars.

24 Q. But you saw that car?

25 A. That car, yeah.

26 Q. You saw two men?

27 A. Correct.

28 Q. You saw hand gestures?

29 A. Correct.

1 Q. And you saw-- so during all this time that you were
2 looking, you actually weren't just focused on one thing. You
3 saw a car, two men standing in two different spots; is that
4 correct?

5 A. I really wasn't paying any attention to the car. I
6 just seen the car. What I was paying attention to was the 7 two men making the gestures. That's, you know, that's what
8 got my attention.

9 Q. You paid enough attention to the car to describe it
10 as a brown or beige car, a Pontiac or a Chevrolet. Didn't
11 you describe it that way?

12 A. I told them when I got behind the car--

13 Q. --Excuse me. Excuse me. Just answer my question;
14 then you can explain.

15 A. No, I did not at that time.

16 Q. Okay, you never said it was a Pontiac or a
17 Chevrolet?

18 A. Not at that time.

19 Q. Okay. Did you tell them that it was a brown car,
20 that it was dirty and dusty?

21 A. Not at that time, no.

22 Q. Did you later on tell them it was dirty and dusty?

23 A. I did.

24 Q. Did you later on tell them it was a Pontiac or a
25 Chevrolet?

26 A. I told them that it was a brown car with the 27 taillights going all the way across the back. It looked like 28 a Buick, Pontiac or something, you know, looked like that.

29 Q. Buick, Pontiac, Chevrolet or something; right?

1 General Motors car; right?

2 A. Right. With the taillights all the way across the
3 back.

4 Q. Okay, and so you saw the car, whenever you
5 described it, doesn't make any difference. You saw it
6 sufficiently to say what group of cars you felt it in because
7 Buicks, Pontiacs, and Chevys, they all tend to look a little 8 bit alike, don't they?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Okay. And you had it enough to give it a color
11 although you feel that you can't really say for sure because 12 you are kind of color blind on browns; right?

13 A. Browns and greens.

14 Q. On browns and greens?

15 A. Uh-hum.

16 Q. Okay. But then you also gave that, and you talked
17 about a taillight going all the way across; right?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. So for whatever the focus, you are only talking
20 about a split second glance anyway; right?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. So during this split second glance, you are trying
23 to look at-- you saw a man's face for actually what wounds
24 up-- you saw the face. You were looking at the car too;
25 right, at the same time? Same time?

26 A. No.

27 Q. Okay. Well, the whole view that you saw, what you
28 have just told us, it occurred in a split second glance;
29 isn't that correct?

1           A.    That's true.

2           Q.    Okay, so during that split second glimpse, you saw
3 a car was one of the things. I'm not asking you how long you
4 looked at it, but you saw it and you saw it enough to 5 describe it the way you described it. Isn't that correct?

6           A.    Well, I got behind it. That's when I described the 7 car.

8           Q.    Okay, you saw two men; right?

9           A.    That's correct.

10          Q.    You saw two men making gestures with their hands?

11          A.    That's correct.

12          Q.    Wasn't making gestures with their face; they made
13 gestures with their hands.

14          A.    That's correct.

15          Q.    So you had to watch their hands in order to see the 16 gestures; right?

17          A.    That's correct.

18          Q.    And then during that same split second glimpse is 19 the split second glimpse that you saw all these other things
20 that part of your attention for part of the split second
21 glimpse you saw a man's face; is that right?

22          A.    That's correct.

23          Q.    Now based on that split second glimpse, some month
24 later and actually I think we established by looking at your 25 statement that it was about August the 24th of 1996. Is that
26 correct? That's what the statement said.

27          A.    I can't remember the date.

28          Q.    But whatever, but we did see the date in the 29 statement yesterday?

1 A. That is correct.

2 Q. Whatever that said was correct?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. Assuming it was August the 24th, 1996, that is
5 actually more than a month after July the 16th; is that
6 correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And just to also make this very clear, nothing
9 happened eventful with these men. In other words, you didn't
10 see a fight; right?

11 A. No, I did not.

12 Q. Okay, and then you circled back around, but I think 13 you have already told me in a previous hearing that when the 14 men walked away, they did absolutely nothing that would draw
15 anybody's attention. Is that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And we had a little trouble with this the other
18 day, but when the men walked away - and I was looking for 19 this yesterday and I couldn't find it, and let me share it
20 with you right now. Is after you gave your taped statement,
21 actually Mr. Johnson began to ask you questions; right? He 22 asked you questions?

23 A. Several of them asked me questions. I don't really
24 remember whether it was him or not.

25 Q. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. Now I'm going to read what this 26 says, and you stop me if I read it wrong. In fact, this is 27 an exhibit, I believe, or it's not an exhibit, but it is 28 marked for identification purposes. So I guess the 29 appropriate thing is to let you look at this one which is

1 Exhibit for identification D-8 for the record, Judge.

2 A. Is this on that day?

3 Q. Yeah.

4 A. That particular day?

5 Q. Yeah. Looking right here, okay. It says,
6 "Johnson: You said that when you last saw these people they
7 turned toward the store. Did you see them walk to the 8 store?" "Collins: The only thing I done was I seen them
9 turn. They turned. The one in front of the car turned to 10 the north headed across the street and the other one closed
11 the door and headed that way. I went on up and made my 12 turn. Where they went from there, I have no idea. I really
13 didn't pay that much attention to it." So in there what you
14 said is they went to the north. Is that correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Okay. Now this is also something we weren't able 17 to locate quickly yesterday. But in your testimony at this 18 previous hearing on page 436.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Which date are we talking
20 about?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 436 at the hearing which
22 occurred in '97.

23 Q. And this is on Charles Collins at the top here;
24 right? That's what it says here; right?

25 A. Uh-hum.

26 Q. Okay, "And which direction was he traveling the 27 last time you saw him?" "I made the block around by Hunger's
28 Dry Cleaners, and I come back up. And when I come back up,
29 they had started" - they - "had started across the street

1 sort of like in front of Coast to Coast there, which is up
2 from the Tardy's Furniture Company. That's the last time I
3 saw them." That's what you said; right?

4 A. That's right.

5 Q. And we already know that Coast to Coast is north of 6 Tardy's; right?

7 A. Just a little bit north, yes.

8 Q. And this says they started up the street and, in 9 fact, the other thing we just read they started north;
10 right? It just said they did north; is that correct? The 11 first statement we just read?

12 A. I guess you can say, yeah, that is north.

13 Q. Yeah, well, north-- they were across the street
14 north of Tardy's, and they started north; right?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Okay. And just to make sure that we have no
17 confusion about the fact they were actually walking away from 18 Tardy's, you have actually said that before, haven't you,
19 that they were actually walking away from Tardy's? You said
20 that; right?

21 A. They weren't walking directly toward Tardy's, no.

22 Q. Well, they were walking away from Tardy's as a
23 matter of fact, weren't they?

24 A. Well, they had to go between two cars.

25 Q. We are turning to a hearing which occurred just in 26 January of 1999. This is your name up here, Charles, and in 27 parenthesis they have Porky Collins; is that correct?

28 A. Right.

29 Q. Answer: "They were headed across the street."

1 Question: "Right, and walking actually toward the side of
2 the street where Tardy's was; right?" Answer: "That's
3 correct." "But actually walking away from Tardy's; right?"
4 Answer: "That's correct." "And also walking away from the 5 car; is that correct?" Answer: "That's correct." Is that 6 what you said?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. So when you were called upon in August over a month
9 later to identify somebody, you were being asked to identify
10 somebody and you-- strike that. You had made it very clear
11 to the police officers that you had only got a split second 12 or part of a split second glimpse at one person's face; is
13 that correct?

14 A. I said I got a glimpse.

15 Q. At one person's face?

16 A. At one person.

17 Q. Not two?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And so you never saw the other person's face;
20 right?

21 A. No, all I seen was his back.

22 Q. So when they were showing you a lineup, obviously,
23 they couldn't expect you to be trying to identify the person
24 that you had never seen; right?

25 A. That's correct.

26 Q. So what happened on this date over a month, what is 27 it, a month and ten days later when you are asked to make
28 this identification, you are shown pictures; is that correct?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And when you are shown these pictures, first of
2 all, you are shown a set of pictures, and in that first set
3 of pictures that you saw -- by the way, were these pictures
4 black or white or were they colored?

5 A. I honestly could not tell you. I really don't
6 remember.

7 Q. Well, back in '97 your memory would have probably
8 been a little fresher; is that correct?

9 A. Probably, but I really don't, I really don't 10 remember whether they were black or white.

11 Q. Charles Collins, page 445, the 1997 hearing.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we approach the 13 bench?

14 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
15 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, to start with, this 17 is getting ridiculous on repetitive. He cannot 18 impeach someone that says I can't remember. If he 19 asks him and he says he didn't say something, then 20 he can impeach him. But he cannot impeach him with 21 a prior statement where he says, "I can't 22 remember." The rules are very clear on that.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that used to be the 24 rule, but if I understand correctly, Judge, they 25 have relaxed the rules on that in order to do away
26 with so much formality.

27 BY THE COURT: Let me ask you this.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I can show it to him to 29 refresh his recollection.

1                   BY THE COURT: Why don't you just show him the
2 picture and ask him if that's what he has seen, and
3 let's don't go into the testimony stuff.

4                   BY MR. EVANS: That's right. And we are going
5 to keep on, and he is going to bring out--

6                   BY THE COURT: --Well, he does that at his
7 peril. I have already made--

8                   BY MR. EVANS: --I know, Your Honor. I just,
9 and I think I know that we are going to be safe as 10 far as the record, but it just worries me that 11 there is an attempt to try to bring something out
12 that may be a problem.

13                   BY THE COURT: Well, I don't think that an
14 attempt has been made, but I think there is a
15 danger there. The other-- but the identification
16 by this man is an important part of this case. So
17 he is entitled to go into it.

18                   BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any--

19                   BY THE COURT: --but there is a different --
20 my suggestion, Mr. Lumumba, is rather than go
21 through all that transcript with him, just hand him
22 that and see if that is the one he saw. If he says
23 it is not, then you have got a way to come back.

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me ask you, let me
25 say this. Here is the problem I have. If he says
26 it is, then I have got a problem with it because I
27 don't believe it is the one he saw. Now let me
28 finish. Let me finish.

29                   BY THE COURT: You are entitled. Okay.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But the reason I don't
2 believe it is is because, and this is why they are
3 up here objecting. He stated very clearly at his
4 first trial that he did not see anything but black
5 and white pictures. The pictures that they are now
6 claiming they showed him are color pictures.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Which has his name of where he 8 I.D.'d; they are. They are.

9 BY THE COURT: One of them is black and white.

10 BY MR. EVANS: And he tried to confuse him
11 before.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is no black and white
13 version of these pictures.

14 BY MR. HORAN: No, no. He said another set of 15 pictures that he saw. He saw the black and white
16 pictures.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But the black and white
18 pictures don't have his signature on it.

19 BY MR. HORAN: I understand that. It was 20 asked at the prior trial. He saw two sets. He 21 just, he says I looked at some that were black and 22 white.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He says, All I saw were black
24 and white pictures. That's what he says here.

25 BY MR. HORAN: Well, they are. You know--

26 BY THE COURT: --Here is what you have got to 27 do. Here is what my ruling is. You are going to 28 have to go into it with the pictures, show him what 29 that is, then if it is contrary to what maybe he

1                   has testified before, you are entitled to impeach
2                   him there.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is fair.

4	END BENCH CONFERENCE
---	----------------------

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. First of all, Mr. Collins, the first set of 7 pictures that they showed you were pictures where you pointed 8 to two of the men in the picture photo and say that resembles
9 the person but the hairline is different; isn't that right?
10 You pointed to one and three in the photos and said that 11 resembles the person, but the hairline is different. Isn't
12 that correct?

13           A. I think the words I said was that the complexion
14   is, you know, is similar.

15	Q. Okay.
----	----------

16 A. But the hairline is different, yes.

17 Q. Then you pointed to a person and then you said that 18 that looks like the person or that, let me see. I don't want
19 to get your words--

20 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, again I object.
21 I would like for him to point out which one of the 22 lineups he is talking about since we are talking
23 about two.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, then--

25 BY THE COURT: --No. He is in charge of his 26 cross-examination. He can ask this question.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, but the witness has 28 got to know which to answer to.

29 BY THE COURT: Well, then he can say he

1 doesn't know.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. I'm talking about the first picture show-up they
4 showed you on that day, the first one they showed you which
5 had six people in it, okay. That's what I'm talking about.
6 That's the one I am talking about. That's the one I want you
7 to focus on, okay. And what you said at that time -- now you
8 see if, now you correct me if this is not what you said when 9 you looked at that first photo. One and three resembles but 10 the hairline was further back. Then you pointed to six, and 11 do you know a person by the name of Doyle Simpson?

12 A. I didn't at that time.

13 Q. You pointed to Doyle Simpson's -- you know him now;
14 right?

15 A. I know him now, yeah.

16 Q. You pointed to his picture next; isn't that
17 correct?

18 A. I have no idea.

19 Q. And you said the hairline is like this. May have 20 appear, you said the person may have appeared a little
21 darker. That's what you said; right?

22 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, can we identify--

23 BY THE WITNESS:

24 A. --I really don't, I really don't know about that.
25 I really don't know--

26 BY MR. HORAN: --I am having a problem--
27 excuse me. I hate to interrupt you, but what 28 exhibit are you making reference to?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am making reference to some

1 notes which are not exhibits, Judge, but I'm not--

2 BY MR. HORAN: --no, I mean--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --But I'm not making-- no, I
4 am asking the question. It doesn't make-- I'm not
5 using this as an exhibit right now because this is
6 made by someone else who claims to have been there
7 and have taken notes.

8 BY MR. EVANS: If it was made by someone else,
9 we object. We need to go by what this witness says
10 of his memory.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, you can't read from the 12 notes then. If they are taken by somebody else,
13 you have got to ask questions.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Okay, here is my question. Did you in that 16 particular first lineup indicate in pointing to Doyle Simpson
17 that even though the picture appeared to be, that it could 18 have been a little lighter than the person, but that looked 19 like the person that you saw. Did you say that?

20 A. I cannot say, I cannot, I can't answer that. I
21 don't know.

22 Q. Didn't you, in fact, say that the shape of the face
23 was the same face; isn't that correct?

24 A. I could not tell you. I don't remember that.

25 Q. And then after saying, then didn't you say that you
26 weren't quite sure. Didn't you say that? That you had 27 pointed to Simpson, but you said you weren't quite sure?
28 Didn't you say that?

29 A. I don't know. I cannot remember saying that.

1 Q. But you know that they never asked you after you
2 pointed to that man, they never asked you at that time, "Do
3 you know Doyle Simpson?" They never said that, did they?

4 A. I don't even remember anybody mentioning Doyle
5 Simpson to me.

6 Q. After that, they gave you a second lineup; is that
7 correct?

8 A. I was shown two lineups now.

9 Q. So they gave you a second lineup; is that right?

10 A. I think that's correct.

11 Q. Okay. I am showing you now what I'm going to ask
12 to be marked as a proposed exhibit.

13 BY MR. EVANS: We agree that it can be
14 introduced into evidence, Your Honor.

15 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know-- I never 16 heard of one offered as a proposed exhibit. It is 17 either for identification or--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I am offering it for
19 identification purposes.

20 (The Court Reporter confers with the Court 21 briefly.)

22 BY THE COURT: It is marked for
23 identification?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, it is already marked?

25 BY MR. EVANS: It has been marked for
26 identification.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

28 BY THE COURT: Well, the Court Reporter says
29 it has already been marked as an exhibit.

1 BY MR. EVANS: It is one of the State's
2 exhibits, Your Honor.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, you have got no objection
4 to that being admitted?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay, it is admitted as an
7 exhibit if I have not already ruled on that.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't think you have ruled
9 on that, Judge.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I do now.

11 (PHOTO LINEUP SHOWN TO PORKY COLLINS WAS 12 ADMITTED INTO EVIDENCE AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-91.)

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. After we go through this, I'm going to come back
15 and show you what I believe to be a xeroxed copy of the first
16 lineup you saw, okay? But right now focus on that second
17 lineup; is that correct? Do you understand what I'm saying?

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. Is that okay?

20 A. Uh-hum.

21 Q. Okay. And I'm going to show you this, what is now
22 marked as Exhibit number 91, Exhibit number 91 and ask you if 23 you can identify this?

24 A. I remember these pictures. I don't know if these 25 are the same pictures or not, but I remember these pictures.

26 Q. Now are those pictures there in black and white or 27 are they colored?

28 A. They are colored.

29 Q. And were the pictures you saw color like those

1 pictures, or were they black and white?

2 A. I have seen pictures just like this. Now I can't
3 remember whether those were colored or black and white
4 pictures I saw the first time. I, I can't remember.

5 Q. Okay. Well, visiting again here your testimony at 6 that hearing on page 449. You said at that time, didn't you,
7 "I believe the pictures I seen was black and white."

8 Question: "All right, so you don't know if that's the same
9 one or not?" because they were showing you these pictures
10 then at that hearing, weren't they?

11 A. I don't know if these were the same pictures or 12 not, but they was pictures like this.

13 Q. Okay, we can find out. But then after you said all 14 right or after they said, "All right, so we don't know if 15 that's the same ones or not?" And then you said, "This is 16 not the same ones. The pictures I seen were black and 17 white." Isn't that what you said there?

18 A. I believe I was shown some black and white
19 pictures. I'm not, I think, I want to, and I think I made
20 the remark that I couldn't, I couldn't tell much about them
21 because they were black and white.

22 Q. I see. So you didn't, you would have only signed
23 the pictures that you were shown. You wouldn't have signed
24 some other kind of pictures, would you?

25 A. I wouldn't hardly think so. I don't know. I don't 26 remember signing any pictures but one. One, I believe that's 27 the only one I signed. I remember signing one or maybe two;
28 I don't know.

29 Q. All right. Now in any event, those pictures there,

1 are those the ones you saw?

2 A. I don't know if these are the pictures, but I saw
3 some pictures like this.

4 Q. Now it would be safe to say that based on the head
5 shot of the person in number 4, his head looks totally bigger
6 than anybody else in these photographs. Isn't that correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. It stands out; isn't that correct?

9 A. It's bigger.

10 Q. And none of these are even approach that; isn't
11 that correct?

12 A. Not according to the size, no.

13 Q. And when you first saw those photographs, what you
14 said actually is you pointed to number 4, the place, the 15 person that we just looked at whose head stands out; isn't
16 that correct?

17 A. That's the one that I pointed to, but that is not
18 the reason I pointed to it.

19 Q. Okay, well, that is not what I'm asking you. But 20 that is okay though because you can always explain your 21 answer, so excuse me for even saying that. But in any event,
22 number 4 you now know is my client Mr.--

23 A. I do now.

24 Q. Okay. And you pointed to that one and you say
25 based-- and here again, you are looking at pictures -- you
26 have already looked at one set of pictures; is that correct,
27 at the time you are looking at this?

28 A. I really. I looked at two sets of pictures. Now I
29 don't remember that now.

1 Q. But the other set of pictures you have already said
2 that somebody in there looks like the person; isn't that
3 correct?

4 A. I said the complexion looked like.

5 Q. Okay. And you said the person looked like the 6 person, same round face and everything. Didn't you say that?

7 A. I don't remember saying that.

8 Q. Okay, well, we will see. But then at this point
9 you said to number 4, I think that is him. That is the first 10 words out of your mouth; right?

11 A. It may have been.

12 Q. Not that it was him, but you think it's him; right?

13 A. It may have been.

14 Q. And then you go on to say, "He was about my 15 height." Is that correct?

16 A. I think so.

17 Q. "The complexion is about right," is what you said;
18 right, at that time? You said, "The complexion is about 19 right"; is that correct?

20 A. I think so.

21 Q. Okay. Now keep that in mind that you said at that
22 time the complexion is about right. "I believe that's him."
23 "It looked like him," is what you said; right?

24 A. I believe that's correct.

25 Q. Now unlike the other photos, then to somebody who
26 is showing you these pictures say, Do you know Curtis
27 Flowers? You remember being asked that question; right?

28 A. Yes, I was.

29 Q. And only after you are asked Curtis Flowers do you

1 make the statement, "I know that is the person I saw outside
2 of Tardy's"; isn't that correct?

3 A. When they asked me if I knew Curtis Flowers, I told
4 them I did not know Curtis Flowers. I didn't never even,
5 didn't know he even existed in this world.

6 Q. Did you say at that point for the only time that I
7 know that is the person outside of Tardy's?

8 A. Would you rephrase that?

9 Q. Did you indicate after you were asked that question
10 that I know that's the person I saw out front of Tardy's?

11 A. I never called him by name.

12 Q. Well, not by name but the picture. That you know
13 that is the person you saw outside of Tardy's?

14 A. That is the picture I picked out right there.

15 Q. Did you indicate only after you heard his name that 16 you know that is the person that you saw outside of Tardy's?
17 That is my question. If you remember; if you don't know,
18 it's okay.

19 A. I don't even remember if they had asked me if I
20 knew Curtis Flowers at that time. I really don't know.

21 Q. Very good. Now let me ask you this. So basically
22 during the course of this showing of these two different
23 spreads you actually pointed, you literally pointed to two 24 different pictures. You actually pointed to four, but to two 25 of them you were saying they were a little bit different.
26 You remember saying that the people were a little bit
27 different; one and three were a little bit different because 28 the hairlines were receding; right? You remember that;
29 right? If you do, if you don't--

1           A.    --I don't remember saying that.

2           Q.    Okay. But you remember pointing to a person you
3 now know as Doyle -- you say you don't remember whether it
4 was Doyle's picture, but you remember pointing to a picture
5 saying that that looked like the person?

6           A.    I believe I said that it was the complexion looked 7 like him.

8           Q.    So you pointed to two different people because you
9 had pointed to a second person; is that correct, when you
10 pointed to Mr. Flowers; is that right?

11          A.    I think that is correct with the same answer.

12          Q.    But you were only looking for one person; right?

13          A.    That's right.

14          Q.    There was no lawyer there for Mr. Flowers at the 15 time; right?

16          A.    Not that I, not that I know of.

17          Q.    There was no record made of what was actually said
18 to you or what was actually shown to you, no recorded
19 record. In other words, they were not recording that at the 20 time that it was being done; isn't that correct?

21          A.    You know, I couldn't really tell you. I really
22 couldn't. I really don't know.

23          Q.    Okay. I believe you previously told us, Mr.
24 Collins, remember that hearing we just had back in January.
25 I think you told us at that time-- well, let me ask you this
26 first. The day, we had a hearing in January about this same
27 issue, about identification, about you pointing to photos
28 and stuff. You remember that. It was January right down
29 here--

1 A. --that's right--

2 Q. --I believe, in Gulfport?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And at that particular time I asked you at that
5 time, I said, Mr. Collins, look. As Mr. Johnson-- now you
6 know Mr. John Johnson. He is the investigator for 7 prosecutor's office; right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. And I was trying to see if he had talked to you
10 about the pictures, talked to you about your identification,
11 or suggested anything about it. You remember that; right?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And I asked you at that hearing, I said, well, Mr.
14 Collins, did Mr. Johnson come by your house to discuss, you
15 know, the pictures with you? Did he come by your house and 16 discuss the pictures with you or the identification you made.
17 And you remember saying that you didn't remember or not that
18 you knew of, had Johnson been to your home or anywhere else
19 to discuss the pictures with you since the time that you were 20 originally shown them way back in '96. You remember saying
21 that; right?

22 A. I don't remember you asking me that question, that
23 particular question.

24 Q. Well, let us turn to that evidentiary hearing
25 transcript on page 80. From line 23, John -- that's his 26 first name; right? Is that Mr. Johnson's first name?

27 A. That's right.

28 Q. "John has never come by to discuss the photos with 29 you?" Answer: "Not that I know of." Is that what you said?

1 A. That's exactly right. And you said to my address.

2 Q. Oh, so what you are saying is he came by to discuss
3 them with you, but he didn't come to your home? Is that what 4 it was?

5 A. No. He showed me the back of what I assume was 6 some pictures where I initialed them. I never seen the 7 pictures.

8 Q. Okay, well, he just showed you the back of a
9 picture and didn't even show you the front?

10 A. He pulled it out of the envelope and said, "I just 11 want you to know these are the pictures that you looked at 12 because there is"-- and he says, "Are these your initials?"
13 And I said yes.

14 Q. Well, it was initials-- now this, this is 15 interesting because I want you to tell the ladies and 16 gentlemen of the jury that what you are telling them is that 17 he actually came out here and showed you some initials
18 without even showing you what the initials were on? Is that 19 what you are saying?

20 A. Oh, I could have looked at them, but I didn't.

21 Q. Did he show them to you? Did he show--

22 A. --he showed--

23 Q. --put them out there so you could see the pictures?

24 A. Yes, he did.

25 Q. And not only did he put them out there so you can 26 see the pictures; he did this at your home the day before the 27 hearing that I'm talking about; right? He came out to your 28 home the day before that?

29 A. That's correct. That's correct.

1 Q. And yet in the hearing that we were in, you
2 actually told me, and you were under oath at that time,
3 weren't you?

4 A. That's exactly right.

5 Q. And a person was taking notes just like this
6 person; right?

7 A. That's right.

8 Q. You are supposed to be telling the truth just like
9 you are supposed to be telling the truth now; right?

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object--

11 BY THE WITNESS:

12 A. --In my opinion I hold you the truth.

13 BY MR. EVANS: --There is no indication he is 14 not.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. But what you said was at that time, asked the 17 question, "John has never come by to discuss the photos with 18 you?" And you said, "Not that I know of"; right?

19 A. That's what I said.

20 Q. That's the day after he came to your house, showed 21 you the back of the pictures, and then the front of the 22 pictures?

23 A. I did not look at the front of the pictures, never 24 seen the front of the pictures.

25 Q. Was John the one that showed you the pictures on 26 August the 24th, '96?

27 A. I believe it was Wayne Miller of the Highway Patrol
28 and John Johnson, and it may have been somebody else in
29 there.

1 Q. John Johnson, the same guy; right?

2 A. Right, and Wayne Miller, I think of the Highway
3 Patrol. He was the one, he is the one that showed me the
4 pictures.

5 Q. By the way, Mr. Collins, once you finish seeing
6 these two men, you went back home; is that correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And when you went back home, you changed your 9 shoes; right?

10 A. I changed clothes; that's right.

11 Q. No, you change your shoes too?

12 A. I changed my clothes too and I changed my shoes
13 too.

14 Q. Well, when you were asked to give a statement to 15 the police, you didn't tell them you changed your clothes,
16 but you did tell them you changed your shoes; right?

17 A. I believe I told them I was sitting there putting 18 my socks on when I heard it on the scanner.

19 Q. Exhibit for identification D-8. "When I went home, 20 I was in there getting some stuff."

21 A. That's right.

22 Q. "I had changed shoes."

23 A. That's right.

24 Q. And then you go into, "I was sitting there putting 25 my shoes on...." Is that correct?

26 A. That's right.

27 Q. You don't say anything about any other clothes
28 there?

29 A. Well, I had already done that.

1 Q. But you don't, you don't tell them about it; right?

2 A. Well, I didn't think that was important. I had a
3 man that was going to do some work for me that day, and he
4 was sitting there with me.

5 Q. But anyway, when you changed these shoes, that was
6 right back after you had come from the Tardy area?

7 A. No, it was not. That was before I went to the 8 Tardy.

9 Q. Now that was right after you had seen these two 10 men; right?

11 A. That was right after I saw those two men.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. Then I went back-- when I heard that on the 14 scanner, I went back up to the cleaners. I was going to go
15 by up there to see what was going on. That was when I was 16 changing clothes and shoes.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to ask this be 18 marked for identification purposes.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, the jury needs to take a
20 break right quick. So you can go ahead and do
21 that, and we will take about-- let's try to make it
22 as short as we can, 5 or 10 minute break, okay.

23 (FOLLOWING THE MORNING RECESS ON THURSDAY,
24 MARCH 25, 1999, THE TRIAL RESUMED IN OPEN COURT
25 WITH ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT AND THE JURY
26 PRESENT AND WITH CHARLES "PORKY" COLLINS STILL ON 27 THE WITNESS STAND:)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have, I am requesting that
29 the exhibit that I just presented to the Court

1 Reporter be marked for identification.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay.

3 (A COLOR PHOTO LINEUP WAS MARKED AS
4 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-10 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. For identification, Mr. Collins, this has been
7 marked as D-10 for identification. And I am showing you-- it
8 appears to be a group of pictures, and I ask you if you
9 recognize having been shown those before?

10 A. I was shown some pictures, but I honestly couldn't 11 tell you if this was them or not.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. It could have been, but I could not, you know--

14 Q. And you have also told me as to the exhibit which 15 is now S-91, you really can't tell me for sure whether these 16 were the pictures you were shown or not, these exact
17 pictures; right?

18 A. I was shown pictures like this, but I couldn't tell
19 you if them are the exact pictures, no.

20 Q. All right. Okay. I'm going to show you another
21 exhibit. This is State's Exhibit number 1, and it purports
22 to be a picture of the outside of Tardy's. I'm going to ask
23 you if you can identify in that exhibit that is State's 1,
24 can you see in that State's 1 where the cleaners is that you
25 were going to?

26 A. It's right there. (Pointing.)

27 Q. Okay, that is like on the other side of Tardy's;
28 right?

29 A. It's right straight across the little street there.

1 Q. The street there. That's the next thing I'm going
2 to do.

3 (Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Evans confer out of the
4 hearing of the Court Reporter.)

5 (TWO PHOTOGRAPHS WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
6 EXHIBITS D-11 AND D-12 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. Mr. Collins, I'm just trying to be able to see if 9 we can see in the pictures a couple of things you talked
10 about. This S-4, would that be the cleaners right there?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Okay, that is the cleaners. You see a little bit
13 of Tardy's, and then you see the cleaners there; right?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. And there is a street in between there; right?

16 A. Yeah, that runs east and west.

17 Q. Well, now I am showing you what is D-11. Is that 18 the street that runs? If you know?

19 A. Yeah, that is the street that runs down east and 20 west.

21 Q. So D-11 is the cleaners, and that shows the street
22 that we saw on the map there. Carrollton, I think they 23 called it on the map; is that correct?

24 A. I think so.

25 Q. Okay, that runs right along between Tardy's and the 26 cleaners; right?

27 A. Yeah, I think.

28 Q. On this picture, on this picture am I pointing to 29 the place where the cleaners is?

1           A.    Yeah, that's the front door to the cleaners right
2 there.

3           Q.    Okay, the street right next to it is the street
4 that runs between it and Tardy's; is that correct?

5           A.    Well, sort of. It's on a, you know, offset there a
6 little bit. But it is pretty well much so, yeah.

7           Q.    Okay, well, I'm going to just go over to the jury
8 like here so they can see this.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would offer this into 10 evidence, D-11.

11                   BY MR. EVANS: No objection.

12                   BY THE WITNESS: Do you want this one too?

13                   BY THE COURT: All right, let it be marked.

14                   (PHOTOGRAPH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
15 EXHIBIT D-11 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN
16 EVIDENCE.)

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am also offering S-4 into 18 evidence which has been marked for identification.

19                   BY THE COURT: No objection?

20                   BY MR. HORAN: No.

21                   BY MR. EVANS: None.

22                   BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

23                   (PHOTOGRAPH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S
24 EXHIBIT S-4 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN
25 EVIDENCE.)

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27           Q.    Finally, you talked about a-- I called it an 28 island, you know, but a little center piece in the street
29 that cars park along; is that right? Is that it or do you

1 know?

2 A. This is it. This is going up to, I don't know if
3 that is-- yeah, there is the depot. Yeah, this is it right
4 here.

5 Q. So the railroad tracks should be on the right side
6 of that?

7 A. The railroad tracks is going to be on the right
8 hand side, and Tardy's is going to be on the left-hand side
9 right here.

10 Q. So you would have been on the side of the street
11 closest to Tardy's; is that correct?

12 A. Yeah. Right.

13 Q. Right in that?

14 A. Right in that vicinity there.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I don't know if you
16 have seen D-12 for identification.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Yeah. I have no problem with
18 that.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I move its admission into 20 evidence also.

21 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

22 (PHOTOGRAPH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
23 EXHIBIT D-12 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN
24 EVIDENCE.)

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, can I ask the witness
26 to step down just for a second?

27 BY THE COURT: Yes.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Please step down if you can and approach the

1 jurors.

2 A. (Witness complies.)

3 Q. The first exhibit we have now that has been
4 admitted into evidence is D-9. Do you see that D-9 right
5 down there?

6 A. (Witness nods his head.)

7 Q. Okay, now this is the map, and it is going to be 8 kind of hard to do. We are going to pass it to the jury, but 9 before we do, we will try to point some things out. What we 10 have written up here in the corner, what I have written at 11 your direction is route taken by Mr. Collins. And then we 12 pointed to at least three different spots on that route; is
13 that correct?

14 A. Yes, sir. Yeah, that's correct.

15 Q. And that is the route which essentially points us
16 to 51, the route you took from Bell Street all the way where 17 you went down Summit Street and then turned and you went down
18 what you call Main but which is actually Front Street?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay, let's just show this to the jury. Route, and 21 I'm going to pass it, but I am just showing it. "Route taken 22 by Mr. Collins" is written up here at the top. Then what we 23 have is arrows pointing to Bell Street where it starts going
24 up just right above there to Applegate or 51; is that right,
25 Mr. Collins?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. And it goes all the way down here to Summit
28 Street. I think there is another arrow pointing, and it
29 turns right. You see it going here and wind up on Front

1 Street, okay? Okay, then at the bottom here, Mr. Collins,
2 what we have is something called, in bad handwriting it says,
3 "Other route"; is that right?

4 A. That's what you have got, yes.

5 Q. Okay, and then you have arrows pointing to that
6 other route; is that correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And we have Bell Street here again, and we 9 indicated that you could go up Bell Street and turn on 10 something called Simpson Drive; right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Which it looks to be like one block down from Bell
13 Street. Is that about right?

14 A. That's one block out.

15 Q. Okay, and then you can go straight down that 16 Simpson Drive and hit Church Street; right?

17 A. That's Old Highway 51, yes.

18 Q. That drives you right down to in town. That takes 19 you right into town to that street that we have discovered is 20 Carrollton?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. And Carrollton takes you right to the cleaners;
23 right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Without even passing Tardy; right?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. Without going north of Tardy's; right?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Okay. I will pass this to the jurors. Could you

1 stay, stay there just for a second. We are going to get rid
2 of all these right now. Now this is, this is a picture we
3 have already decided, you can see a little tip of Tardy's,
4 but more importantly, to the left of where you have got a
5 Tardy's sign, you can see that cleaners; right?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. You see that cleaners. It looks like a white
8 building on this picture; right?

9 A. That's correct.

10 (Mr. Lumumba holds photograph in front of the 11 jury and then passes it to the jury.)

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to pass that too.

13 Q. Now that is what-- I have been saying this and 14 that, but let me just state the exhibit number. Exhibit
15 number of this one is S-4, and the exhibit number on the 16 first one was D-9. Then we are going to look at D-11. What 17 we have in D-11, we see the white building again; is that
18 right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And that's the cleaners. Then we see that street
21 called Carrollton; am I correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. So and we don't see Tardy's in this picture?

24 A. There's Tardy's right there.

25 Q. Well, you see a little tip of it, like the back of
26 it?

27 A. The side of it.

28 Q. The side of it, the side, okay. The street is 29 right between. What that shows really is the street that

1 runs between Tardy's and the cleaners; right? And that's the
2 street you did not take at the time you passed Tardy's and
3 saw the split second glance; right?

4 A. That's correct. I did not go down that street.

5 Q. Okay. And finally, that is the street you would 6 have taken if you would have taken the other route that we
7 put on the map; is that correct?

8 A. If I had taken the other route.

9 Q. Now this here is the little area where-- what is 10 this like a pole in the middle of the street; is that right?

11 A. I guess, they have changed it somewhat now, and I
12 can't remember, but I believe it was just a pole there. I
13 don't remember whether it was a light on it or not, but it
14 was several of these up through there with trees planted, you
15 know.

16 Q. And you can see some trees in the background?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. Anyway, what this shows is kind of like what I call
19 an island. Some people might call it the center piece or 20 whatever; is that right?

21 A. Whatever, divider.

22 Q. Divider; that is probably what you should call it.

23 (Photograph held in front of the jury.)

24 Q. We will pass that down. That is D-12. Okay.

25 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

26 Q. Now S-91. (Pause) Well, I'm going to also-- you
27 have already identified S-91. You said-- well, you didn't 28 identify it. You said you can't say for sure if these are 29 the pictures you saw?

1           A.    No, I cannot. I saw some pictures like that, but I
2 couldn't swear that those are the pictures.

3           Q.    We will leave that alone. Okay. Now Mr. Collins,
4 finally, at the first hearing when I asked questions, (Pause
5 while Counsel shows the transcript to the witness.) On many 6 different occasions you have been asked questions and what
7 you have responded-- and listen to my question carefully.
8 You haven't responded that that was the man out there. What
9 you have said is that looks like him. Sometimes you said, "I
10 think that's him." That's true, isn't it?

11          A.    (Pause) At some time or another I may have said
12 something like that. I really couldn't tell you.

13          Q.    This is on page 443 of this hearing that happened
14 in 1997. And the question was, "All right, sir. But I wrote
15 down, I believe, what you said today, 'looks...like him.'
16 Wasn't that what you testified to, Mr. Collins?" Answer:
17 "That's exactly right." That's what was said there; is that
18 correct?

19          A.    That's correct.

20          Q.    Okay. Earlier on in the transcript (Pause).
21 Earlier in this transcript way back in '97, you were asked
22 the question, "Were you able to positively identify one of 23 the two individuals that you saw there?" Answer: "I picked 24 out a photograph that I believe was one of them." That's 25 what you said; right?

26          A.    That's correct.

27          Q.    Question: "I want you to look around in the 28 courtroom and see if you see one of those two individuals
29 that you saw standing in front of Tardy Furniture." Is that

1 correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Now you were in a courtroom at this time, and you
4 pretty much know that the lawyers sit at a table; is that
5 right?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And right next to them, as far as the defense
8 lawyers are concerned, the defendant sits there; right?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Then you said, "The man I seen didn't have glasses
11 on that day." Is that what you said?

12 A. That's correct. He did not have glasses on that
13 day.

14 Q. "All right. Other than the glasses, do you see the 15 person in the courtroom today?" Your answer was, "I see a
16 man I think is him." Is that what you said?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Then they said, "Would you point to him and 19 identify him, please?" Then you pointed to Mr. Flowers; is
20 that correct--

21 A. --That's correct--

22 Q. --in this courtroom. Okay. Then if you look at 23 here, it says here, "The Defendant removed his glasses."
24 That's what it says; right?

25 A. He did.

26 Q. Okay. Then you went on to say, "That looks a lot 27 like him." That's all you said; right?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. "What was the person doing that you" saw? You

1 said, "He was standing beside a car." That is not what I am
2 really trying to get to. That is not relevant. But your
3 response even then is, "That that looks a lot like him." Is
4 that correct?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. You have seen people that look like other people
7 before?

8 A. Well, certainly.

9 Q. Seen people that look a lot like other people in 10 your view. Sometimes somebody looks like somebody to you,
11 but don't look like them at all to other people; is that
12 right?

13 A. That could very well be possible.

14 Q. For instance, you picked out two people. One you
15 said looked like the person. You actually picked out two 16 people on the day, two different people that you said looked 17 like the person on that day; is that correct?

18 A. I don't think that's what I said.

19 Q. Oh, okay. Well, we will get to that. Now I'm not 20 talking about at the hearing, but when you did the 21 photographic--

22 A. --That's when I'm talking about.

23 Q. Okay, good. And then at other points you have 24 continued to say, you know, things like when you even talked
25 about it today when the District Attorney asked you, you
26 didn't say, "Well, that's the man." What you said, "I will 27 always believe that's the man." That's what you said; right?

28 A. (No response.)

29 Q. That's what you said that yesterday when he asked

1 you that?

2 A. I believe I said, "I believe that is the man and I
3 will always believe it." I believe that's what I said.

4 Q. Of course, you have been looking at him in court.
5 This person that you saw that day in that split second
6 glance, you had never seen him before in your life; is that
7 right?

8 A. As far as I know, that's correct.

9 Q. Now you have been looking at Mr. Flowers. He has 10 been sitting over there at that table. You have seen him
11 several different times; right?

12 A. Yeah, but as far as just sitting here looking at 13 him, no, I haven't been sitting here looking at him.

14 Q. Well, he has been there for you to look at; right?

15 A. Well, that is-- you are correct.

16 Q. Right here, for instance, you asked him, "But you
17 can't sit there under oath and swear that this is the man you
18 saw up there on Front Street that morning?" Answer. All I
19 can say--excuse me. "All I can tell you," and this is on page
20 444, by the way. "All I can tell you is he looks like him."

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. So that is true?

23 A. That's correct. That's what I said that day.

24 Q. That was in '97 or so?

25 A. That's right, in Tupelo.

26 Q. Just recently here in a hearing we had here in 1999
27 you were asked by myself, were you, "At no time did you say
28 you were certain that he was the man; right?" And your 29 answer was here again under oath just a month or so ago--

1 well, this is March-- actually a couple of months ago. "I
2 told them I believed that was him." That's what you said;
3 right?

4 A. I guess that's what, I think that's what-- yeah,
5 that's what I told you.

6 Q. "At any time did you say you were certain that that
7 was him?" "All I ever told them was I believed that was 8 him." Question: "Well, actually you didn't say, 'I believe
9 it was him.' You said, 'I think'?" "Well, maybe I said, 'I
10 think it's him.'" That's?

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. Now--

13 BY THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I'm going to have 14 to use the rest room.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can you hold for one
16 question? I will be finished with one question.

17 BY THE COURT: All right, let him ask you one
18 more question.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. If you can. I don't want to hold you.

21 A. Well, let's try.

22 Q. Okay, I don't want to hold you. The one question I
23 was going to ask is this. Now when you gave a description
24 of-- do you remember you gave a description of Ms. Rigby and 25 what she had on that day, Carmen Rigby?

26 A. Yes, I do.

27 Q. You were very detailed. You pointed out that she 28 had pink and pink; is that right?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And you talked about, I think you talked about her
2 fluffing her hair. And you remembered all that; is that
3 correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. You remembered a whole lot of things about actually
6 her jingling keys and all that kind of stuff?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. I see. And then on the other hand, you never did
9 say what these men had on; is that correct?

10 A. I couldn't see what they had on.

11 Q. And you never said, never described one of them's
12 eyes or face or anything like that?

13 A. Well, I couldn't have seen their eyes from where I
14 was at.

15 Q. You didn't see that?

16 A. No.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. All right, I have no
18 further questions.

19 BY THE COURT: Do you have any redirect?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Collins, I'm going
22 to let you go to the rest room. We will just stay
23 here until he gets back.

24 BY THE WITNESS: Out this way or?

25 BY THE COURT: You go with the bailiff. He is 26 going to show you.

27 (WHILE THE WITNESS WAS OUT OF THE COURTROOM,
28 THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT
29 OF THE HEARING OF THE JURY:)

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm objecting to-- I
2 understand that they have a right to put the
3 statement in the context and use other parts of the 4 statement to do that. I have no problem with that,
5 about them using the statement, his statement, Mr.
6 Collins' statement. I have no problems with them
7 using anything to put it in context which is 8 relevant to it. My objection would be if they 9 attempt to use something which is on a wholly
10 unrelated question. For instance, he in this
11 statement at several points, they are talking about 12 going to Fuzzy's and finding out that a guy had 13 reported a gun that was stolen and running back and 14 forth to the police talking about the stolen gun.

15 BY THE COURT: That wouldn't be proper
16 redirect anyhow.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. So that is the only
18 thing that I have a problem with. But anything
19 else that they want-- I just wanted to say in 20 advance so I didn't have to jump up.

21 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know what all we are 22 going to go into, but he brought the statement up;
23 we didn't.

24 BY THE COURT: Right, but he didn't bring up
25 the part of the statement about going into Fuzzy's,
26 and it is what he testified to, not what the 27 statement, because the statement is not in 28 evidence, is it?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

1 BY MR. HORAN: It is marked.

2 BY THE COURT: Yeah, so it would only be as to
3 what he has actually testified to that you can go
4 into.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Or something related toward to 6 what he has testified to.

7 BY THE COURT: Don't go into changing his
8 shoes, okay? (Laughter.)

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right now. That change
10 of shoes might be important later on.

11 BY THE COURT: It may be.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, there is one thing
13 while we are up here, and you may want to do this 14 out of the presence the jury. You may want to get 15 him to come up here, but I think, I want to be 16 safe. I'm going to ask him about some prior 17 hearings, and I want to make sure that he knows not 18 to mention the other trial.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't have any
20 problem with that. If you want to, if you want to 21 have him come to the bench and just tell him.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Because I don't want him to 23 accidentally say something.

24 BY THE COURT: I don't want to do that in this
25 courtroom.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. We are willing to go
27 back--

28 BY MR. HORAN: --Maybe, Judge, it would be
29 easier maybe if the Court went out and told him,

1 and we, you could represent to us what you told him
2 and we may or may not need to be present.

3 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection to going
5 with them and them telling him. Would that be a
6 problem?

7 BY MR. HORAN: Just us?

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let's do it that way.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Where did he go? In the back?

10 BY THE COURT: He went that way.

11 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

12 BY THE COURT: We will be back, unfortunately 13 for y'all.

14 (THE COURT AND ALL COUNSEL LEFT THE COURTROOM
15 BRIEFLY, AND UPON THEIR RETURN MR. CHARLES "PORKY"
16 COLLINS RESUMED THE WITNESS STAND FOR THE 17 FOLLOWING:)

18 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Evans.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q. Mr. Collins, I will try to be short. There are a
22 few things I want to go back over with you. You have been 23 asked repeatedly and repeatedly about different things that
24 you have said. Without going into all of it, you have gone
25 through this numerous times; is that correct?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. You told the officers on March the 10th what 28 happened; is that right?

29 A. (No audible response.)

1 Q. That is one time that you talked to them. This is
2 the statement I believe Mr. Lumumba introduced?

3 A. March the 10th of?

4 Q. Of '97.

5 A. This is?

6 Q. This date up here.

7 A. (Pause while the witness reads.)

8 Q. That is just one of the times that you have talked
9 about this; is that correct?

10 A. That's when I talked to Mr. Lumumba?

11 Q. No, no.

12 A. Oh.

13 Q. To Mr. Johnson. This is the statement Mr. Lumumba
14 was showing you while ago.

15 A. I'm not sure about that date, but I am sure it may 16 be right. I'm not sure about that date. I couldn't tell you
17 about that date.

18 Q. All right. You also talked to officers on the day
19 the crime was committed; is that correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. And you have told what happened at other times; is
22 that right?

23 A. Yeah, I talked to-- that morning, the third time
24 that I went up there, that's when I came up Church Street,
25 and when I turned on Carrollton Street that he is talking
26 about, that's when James Taylor Williams, the Highway
27 Patrolman was standing out--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection, Judge. That
29 is--

1 BY MR. EVANS: To what?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think we are getting into
3 an area which was not covered on cross-
4 examination. We are talking about other people and
5 maybe what other people said. Maybe my objection
6 is a little too quick.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, if it is hearsay, of 8 course, he can't testify to it.

9 BY MR. EVANS: I think he was just stating
10 when the first time was he talked to the officers.

11 BY THE COURT: Yeah, okay.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no problem with 13 that as long as we don't--

14 BY THE COURT: --He can't testify as to what 15 was said. You can explain that to him.

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. All right, you can continue.

18 A. Can I answer?

19 Q. Yes, sir.

20 A. That's when I had heard on the scanner. I was on 21 my way back to the cleaners that time.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is--

23 A. And that's when James Taylor Williams, the Highway
24 Patrolman, was standing at the edge of Carrollton Avenue and 25 the back of Tardy Furniture Company. I had my window rolled 26 down, and his wife works at P & F, and he flagged me down and 27 told me to go--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection, Judge.

29 BY MR. EVANS:

1 Q. You can't, the Judge won't let you go into what
2 somebody else told you.

3 A. Oh, okay.

4 Q. But you told them what you knew at that point; is
5 that correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And you have been asked numerous times in different
8 court hearings if this was the man that you saw in front of 9 Tardy Furniture; is that right?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. I want to direct your attention to page 76 of the 12 same proceeding that Mr. Lumumba has asked you about several 13 times, the one dated Wednesday, January 6, 1999, and I will
14 ask you to read, if you would, starting with this answer
15 right here on page 76, line 3. Read through line 7, if you
16 would, out loud.

17 A. "I told them, I said, 'I think that's him. I
18 believe that's him.' I said, 'I am sure that's him.' That's 19 the words I said." So you are-- "So you said you were sure
20 that was him?" "I said, 'I am sure that's him.'"

21 Q. Thank you. All of these statements that you have 22 given, you went through the same steps of what you were 23 doing, who you saw and what you did that day; is that
24 correct?

25 A. That's correct, to the best of my knowledge.

26 Q. You explained how you had to go pay your gas bill,
27 and you were on the way to Hunger's Dry Cleaners; is that
28 right?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. You explained how you had taken the car to have the
2 spark plugs in it; is that right?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. You explained--

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I think that is kind
6 of leading. I don't have--

7 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I will be glad to 8 just let him read his whole statement. I am trying 9 to make it shorter.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no objection.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, no objection. Go ahead.

12 BY MR. EVANS:

13 Q. You explained how you, when you went by the bank,
14 you looked at your watch, and it wasn't quite time for the 15 bank to open. It was 8:59; is that right?

16 A. It was either 8:58 or 8:59. It was one or the 17 other.

18 Q. And that is consistent with what you have testified
19 to this jury; is that right?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. You stopped at the post office to get a money
22 order; is that right?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. That's the same thing you have told this jury?

25 A. Yeah, and I give y'all a copy of the money order
26 showing where I purchased the money order.

27 Q. Yes, sir. "When I went to the post office, it was 28 around 9 o'clock or a few minutes after 9:00"?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And you told this jury that same thing?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. You filled out your money order and you mailed it?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. That is consistent with what you have told this
6 jury?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. You started out the door, the breeze way; you met
9 Carmen Rigby?

10 A. She come in one side and I come in the other.
11 That's correct.

12 Q. You described in here what she was wearing. You
13 described to the officers, and you described in the other
14 testimony how she was twirling the keys, how she was fluffing
15 her hair up in the car. You described every detail to the 16 officers and prior hearings and two prior hearings--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection; excuse me.
18 Judge, at this point it is leading.

19 BY THE COURT: That is leading.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, and I will be glad to 21 do it-- I am just trying to make it shorter. If
22 the Court--

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well--

24 BY THE COURT: I can't change the rules of 25 evidence. If he objects to it, it is leading.

26 BY MR. EVANS: All right. Yes, sir. Thank
27 you.

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. Did you describe to the officers what kind of

1 rules tell me to do.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: See the way-- well, that is
3 all right.

4 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I withdraw that objection as
6 to the area that Counsel says he is trying to go
7 into.

8 BY THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, Mr.
9 Evans.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you.

11 BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q. Basically what you said in your original statement
13 and other statements is when you went down to cleaners, there
14 was a lot of cars there. So you passed by and didn't stop at 15 that point; is that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And that's the same thing you told this jury?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. You even described in all of your prior statements
20 what kind of clothing Carmen Rigby was wearing, didn't you?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. Now let me stop and I will come back to this.

23 (Pause while Mr. Evans gets an exhibit.)

24 Q. I want to hand you Exhibit D-6 and ask you to look
25 at this. I want you to point out, and we will just do it by 26 number considering the first one as the left one. Which 27 number on that is Carmen Rigby, the person that you saw that
28 morning?

29 A. The second one here.

1 Q. The second one?

2 A. This one right here.

3 (Exhibit held in front of the jury.)

4 Q. And you are describing the second person on this
5 photo spread; is that correct?

6 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I pass this to
7 the jury while I continue?

8 BY THE COURT: It has been admitted, I think,
9 so it is okay.

10 BY MR. EVANS: It might be easier for them to 11 see.

12 (Exhibit D-6 was passed to the jury.)

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q. Mr. Collins, I want to direct your attention to 15 page 55, line 2, and again for the record, I'm talking about 16 the same transcript from January 6 of '99. I want you to 17 read line 2 starting with the word "and."

18 A. "And my wife called me and told me I had got the 19 wrong plugs."

20 Q. Okay. That is far enough. Is that the same thing
21 you had said earlier today or yesterday?

22 A. That's exactly what I said.

23 Q. And when she called you, were you in your car?

24 A. I was in my car.

25 Q. Now I don't want to take up the time to go through 26 all of this. Have you told the officers the same thing that 27 you have told this jury?

28 A. Everything I have told here today I have told them.

29 Q. You have been asked about your glasses. Do you

1 uses your glasses for reading or for seeing far off?

2 A. I use my glasses for reading and to see up like
3 this. Off out there I can see anything. You know, I have no
4 problem seeing arm's length away.

5 Q. Do you have any problem seeing my face from this
6 distance?

7 A. No, I do not.

8 Q. Approximately 25 or 30 feet?

9 A. No, I do not.

10 Q. Now you have been asked quite a few times about the 11 direction that you traveled. I want you to explain to the 12 jury what the main streets of traffic are in the town of 13 Winona?

14 A. The way I went-- my first purpose was to go to the 15 bank. That is the easiest way to go is up 51 or Applegate or 16 ever what you want, down Summit Street to town.

17 Q. Is Summit Street a main drag through town?

18 A. Pretty much so. I mean it is pretty much, you can
19 pretty much get to either place you want to go. But the way
20 he is talking about you have got to go down through there
21 where they have got a factory, and they have always got big
22 trucks backing in there. They have always got the road
23 blocked. You go up to 407 there, and they have always got a
24 lot of traffic. You go up to Church Street. There is cars
25 parked on both sides of the street. You have to stop and you
26 have to wait to get through there. It's a whole lot faster
27 to go the way I went than it is to go up the way he is 28 describing.

29 Q. Thank you. And in this photo lineup where you

1 identified the Defendant, I want you to look at the back of 2 his picture and see if you put your initials on that?

3 A. That is my initials.

4 Q. And did you put your initials on it at the time
5 that you looked at that and identified the Defendant?

6 A. I sure did.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I pass this to 8 the jury so that they may see that?

9 BY THE COURT: That has been admitted. You
10 may do so.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, it has been admitted,
12 but it has not been admitted as the lineup that he 13 saw. He said he doesn't know for sure those are 14 the pictures he saw.

15 BY THE COURT: Well, it has been admitted as 16 evidence though so they can look at it. They get 17 to judge.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no problem with
19 that.

20 (Photo lineup, Exhibit S-91, was passed to 21 the jury.)

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. The lineup that you saw is the one you put your 24 initials on; is that correct?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading question, Judge. I
26 object--

27 BY THE WITNESS:

28 A. --is the one I just--

29 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to allow it.

1 BY THE WITNESS:

2 A. The one I just saw is the one I put my initials on.
3 The one he showed me I never seen my initials. I couldn't
4 have told you if that was the lineup or not.

5 Q. Mr. Collins, do you have any reason here in this
6 court to lie on this man over here?

7 A. I never knew that man until this come up.

8 Q. And you have been--

9 A. --I have no reason to lie on any man in this
10 courtroom.

11 Q. Yes, sir. You have been asked several times to 12 describe how the folks that you saw were traveling. Would it
13 be a fair statement that from where they were going, they 14 were going across the street--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, I object--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --to the side--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object to that, Judge.
18 That is leading.

19 BY THE COURT: That is leading.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Let me go back
21 through these. (Pause while looking at a
22 transcript.)

23 BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. I tell you what; let me just do this. I think this
25 will be simpler and quicker. Let's say that that wall behind
26 you is the row of buildings that Tardy Furniture is on, and 27 we will say that Tardy Furniture is from the door down to 28 that wall. This is the island out here where the cars are 29 parked. In relationship to Tardy Furniture, approximately

1 where was the car that you saw? We will say that this is
2 Tardy Furniture to here. This is Liberty, the old Liberty
3 building from here. This is the alley right here, and this
4 is Coast to Coast right here.

5 A. It was going to be parked a little bit south of 6 where the alley is there. It was headed in just a little bit
7 south of where the alley is.

8 Q. Okay, I will stand, is this approximately the right
9 area then?

10 A. Well, and then the alley was like right here.
11 (Indicating.)

12 Q. Okay, and the alley would be on this side?

13 A. Right. I think it is Keystone Alley. I went by 14 and looked. I think they call it Keystone Alley.

15 Q. And considering this, tell me which direction you
16 saw the people walking. Tell me which direction to walk from
17 here.

18 A. There was a vehicle in front of the car that they 19 were standing at.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. Almost in front of it there.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. And I do remember a blue Camaro car being parked
24 right there.

25 Q. All right.

26 A. And I recognized that car. And they walked north
27 in front of the car that was parked there. Then they turned 28 and went across the street.

29 Q. Okay, you saw them heading across the street?

1           A.    Right.  I guess you call it west.

2           Q.    Yes, sir.  Mr. Collins, who if anyone ever tried to 3 get you to pick out a certain person out of any of these
4 lineups?  Did anybody--

5           A.    --didn't anybody try to get me to pick out any
6 pictures.  I was shown some pictures and asked to take a look
7 at the pictures.  I myself picked these pictures out.  Two of 8 them I picked out because of complexion.  I said these
9 complexions, which I compared them to Mr. Johnny Hargrove's
10 that morning when I told you he had a complexion of Mr.
11 Johnny Hargrove, the Chief of Police of Winona.  Then I
12 picked out-- and I told them then.  He had a receding hair-
13 line.  I described him, and I picked him out of that lineup
14 myself.  No one told me anything.

15          Q.    I want to direct your attention to the statement
16 that you gave on March 10th to John Johnson, and I want you
17 to read your response to that last question?

18          A.    The man I picked out of the lineup there was the 19 man I seen there in front of Tardy Furniture Company.

20          Q.    Yes, sir.

21                   BY MR. EVANS:  Nothing further, Your Honor.

22                   BY THE COURT:  Okay.  Is Mr. Collins finally
23 excused?

24                   BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Yes, sir.

26                   BY THE COURT:  Mr. Collins, you are free to 27 leave.

28                   BY THE WITNESS:  I can go home?

29                   BY THE COURT:  Yes, sir.  You can go home.

1 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

2 WITNESS EXCUSED.

3 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

4 BY MR. HORAN: Barry Eskridge.

5 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here, Mr.
6 Eskridge.

7 BARRY ESKRIDGE,

8 a white male called to testify by the State of Mississippi,
9 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

10 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record.

11 BY THE WITNESS: Barry Eskridge.

12 BY THE COURT: You need to turn around and 13 face them.

14 BY THE WITNESS: Barry Eskridge.

15 BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

16 BY THE COURT: Yes.

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

18 Q. Mr. Eskridge, how are you employed?

19 A. I am employed by MedStat Ambulance Service.

20 Q. And where do you live?

21 A. Winona, Mississippi.

22 Q. Okay, and is that a-- MedStat, do y'all work for 23 any hospital in the Winona area?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Are y'all independent contractors?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay. I want to direct your attention to the early 28 morning hours of July the 16th of 1996. Did you have an 29 occasion to be called to the Tardy Furniture Store in Winona?

1           A.    Yes, sir; we did.

2           Q.    And you were previously familiar with the Tardy
3 Furniture Store?

4           A.    Yes, sir.

5           Q.    Once you arrived at Tardy Furniture, do you
6 remember who was present?

7           A.    Yes, sir.  I do.

8           Q.    Who was present?

9           A.    Chief Johnny Hargrove, two of my employees, James
10 Owens and Bruce Story as well as the elderly gentleman that 11 worked for Tardy's.  I know his first name is Sam.

12          Q.    Sam Jones, Jr.?

13          A.    Yes, sir.

14          Q.    Were they outside Tardy Furniture?

15          A.    As I arrived, Sam was standing in the doorway.
16 Chief Hargrove was inside as well as the paramedic, James
17 Owens.  Bruce Story, who is the ambulance driver, was coming
18 out the door to retrieve the stretcher from the ambulance to 19 go back in, and I met him at the door.

20          Q.    But you did not accompany them to the scene.  You
21 were--

22          A.    --I followed them; yes, sir.

23          Q.    Okay.  Would you tell the Court and this jury what 24 you did after that?

25          A.    I entered the scene once-- I met Bruce at the 26 door.  He told me what was going on, and I went, as a
27 paramedic, I went in to assist the paramedic.  He, when I
28 approached the counter where the victims were, he informed me
29 of what was going on, that we had a victim that was still

1     alive which was--

2           Q.    --Let me ask you something, Mr. Eskridge. During
3     the course of your training and your education as a
4     technician, do you do anything-- have you been taught to do
5     anything differently in a situation where apparently a crime
6     has been committed than in maybe just someone who has passed
7     away in a residence?

8           A.    Yes, sir. We are trained in our training, and I
9     have received additional training in the course of my career
10    in preserving crime scenes. One of the things that we do try
11    to do-- of course, not to compromise the care of the patient
12    though. When we are on a crime scene, we do try to make 13    every effort that we can to preserve any evidence or make 14    sure that we don't disturb anything that would assist the 15    police in investigating the crime after we leave. So we do
16    make an effort--

17          Q.    --So your primary concern is for the patient, but 18    your secondary concern is to protect the integrity of the 19    crime scene?

20          A.    Yes, sir.

21          Q.    Okay. In that regard what did you do?

22          A.    When we approached Mr. Stewart, who was the victim
23    that I was assisting him with, as we were kneeling down to 24    attend to him, I noticed that there were a couple of unspent
25    bullets a couple of feet from him as well as a footprint that 26    appeared to be made in blood.

27          Q.    Okay. Did you during the course of attending to 28    Mr. Stewart, did you make sure, did you take steps to make
29    sure that those footprints were not -- I understand you said

1 your primary concern is with the patient, but did you take
2 some steps to make sure that they were not--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge.

4 BY MR. HORAN: --compromised in any way?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is leading.

6 BY MR. HORAN: I'm not leading him, Your
7 Honor.

8 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

9 BY THE WITNESS:

10 A. Yes, sir. When the-- the paramedic was the primary
11 attendant, and I had knelt down beside him to assist him, and 12 as I did it, I noticed the footprints. The Chief of Police
13 was sitting beside me, and at that point I noticed, I
14 identified to the Chief as well as the attendants that there
15 is some unspent casings there as well as footprints, and be 16 sure not to go near them. I wasn't aware if they had seen
17 them yet, and I just made that statement. And after I made
18 it, no one went near it.

19 Q. Okay. Would you tell the Court and the jury the 20 condition of Mr. Stewart once you, once you were presented to 21 him and at the scene there?

22 A. He was lying face down. He had received a gunshot
23 wound that we immediately identified to the head. He, there
24 was a large pool of blood surrounding his upper torso and his
25 head, and he was face down in the blood. He was unconscious,
26 but he was breathing. The immediate thing that we did, of 27 course, when we began attending to him is to open his airway
28 and get his face out of the blood so he could continue to 29 breathe, but he was unresponsive basically.

1 Q. Did you put him on the stretcher at that time?

2 A. Yes, sir. We cleared his airway and, of course,
3 did a brief assessment to see if there are any other injuries
4 other than the head wound, and then we rolled him over on to 5 the stretcher, and they left the scene at that point.

6 Q. Did you know BoBo, Derrick "BoBo" Stewart prior to
7 that day?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. I want to show you a photograph. You may or may 10 not be able to identify this particular picture, but if you
11 can, does that appear to be Derrick Stewart?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 BY MR. HORAN: I would like to have this
14 published to the jury at this time.

15 BY THE COURT: Has it been admitted?

16 BY MR. HORAN: It has, Your Honor.

17 BY THE COURT: Let it be passed to the jury
18 then.

19 (Exhibit S-44 was passed to the jury.)

20 BY MR. HORAN:

21 Q. Now I notice on that photograph there is some 22 stitching on the head. That was not the condition of Mr.
23 Stewart at the time that you saw him, was it?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Okay. But the stitching on the photograph, is that
26 the area that you observed the gunshot wound--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, the questions are
28 still very leading. I object.

29 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

1 BY THE WITNESS:

2 A. Yes, sir; it is.

3 Q. Something that appeared to be a gunshot wound?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Would you tell the Court and the jury what was done
6 with Mr. Stewart after you left the Tardy Furniture Store?

7 A. When, when they packaged him on the stretcher, I
8 assisted them to the ambulance. I did not accompany them to 9 the hospital, and they left at that point to the hospital. I
10 stayed on the scene with the Chief of Police to check the 11 other victims for one, to make sure that there was nothing
12 that we could do but--

13 Q. Did you, in fact, do that?

14 A. Yes, sir. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And did you during the course of your, your job
16 there, did you see an individual that you may have known then
17 but you certainly know now as Bertha Tardy?

18 A. Yes, sir; I did.

19 Q. And what was her condition?

20 A. She was deceased.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach for a minute,
22 Judge?

23 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

24 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
25 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is a side question. I'm 27 objecting to the repeated introduction of gory
28 facts about people being dead and seeing people
29 dead on the scene. None of this stuff is

1           disputed. They have been over it at least five
2           different times with different witnesses. At this
3           point it is clearly more prejudicial than
4           probative. Not only have they mentioned Bertha
5           Tardy-- I mean mentioned Stewart, where he took 6           them afterward is certainly of no relevance which
7           they have gotten past that part of my objection.
8           But now they are talking about dead bodies again.
9           These dead bodies have nothing to do at this 10          point. They have already shown where he was 11          located at this crime scene, so I am objecting to 12          the complete, the complete repetition of this gory
13          details.

14                BY MR. HORAN: It's the first time I have
15                asked.

16                BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not talking about with
17                this witness.

18                BY THE COURT: No, he is talking about, it's 19                cumulative is what he is saying.

20                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

21                BY MR. HORAN: I will open it real quick and 22                move on. I'm not going to show him any photographs
23                or anything like that. I don't see why-- the 24                medical technician confirming that they are 25                deceased, why is that prejudicial?

26                BY THE COURT: Well, because it is cumulative
27                and it keeps bringing it up before the jury.

28                BY MR. HORAN: We haven't had anybody to 29                testify that they were dead.

1                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, you have.

2                   BY MR. HORAN: Not anybody that is qualified
3 to do that.

4                   BY THE COURT: He is stipulating they are 5 dead.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: Can we tell the jury that he is 7 stipulating to it because the jury is entitled to 8 know it?

9                   BY THE COURT: That the people are dead?

10                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

11                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, I will tell them.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: That is fine.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will stipulate the people
14 were dead. I mean, you know, if you are not going 15 to call Dr. Hayne. But if you are not, I will 16 stipulate to it.

17                  BY MR. HORAN: Hayne is next.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

19                  BY MR. EVANS: Hayne is the next witness.

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: They have got Hayne coming up
21 next. Why has he got to say that?

22                  BY MR. HORAN: Okay, I will move on. It's
23 not--

24                  BY THE COURT: --Let's do move on. Come on;
25 we have got a long way to go.

26                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

27                  BY MR. HORAN: I withdraw the question, Your
28 Honor.

29                  BY MR. HORAN:

1 Q. But you did attend to other persons on the scene?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Mr. Stewart at some point in time after that, he
4 also passed away; is that right?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. Did you take any steps to make sure that 7 anybody in the, around the crime scene that was present when 8 you got there did not make those shoe print impressions that 9 were on the floor in the blood?

10 A. I'm not quite sure I understand.

11 Q. When you got there, did you check the shoes of 12 anybody?

13 A. My personnel, yes, sir; I did.

14 Q. Your personnel?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And did that match anything?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. That was consistent with the shoe print impression
19 that you saw in the blood?

20 A. No, sir.

21 BY MR. HORAN: I tender the witness, Your
22 Honor.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a couple.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. How many personnel did you have, Mr.-- first of 26 all, good morning, Mr. Eskridge. Morning to you. How many 27 personnel did you have there?

28 A. Two.

29 Q. Okay, and then it was yourself. Does that make

1 three?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And so those are the only two that you checked any 4 of?

5 A. Yes.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No further questions.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, is he finally excused?

8 BY MR. HORAN: He is finally excused as far as
9 the State is concerned.

10 BY THE COURT: Mr. Eskridge, you are free to 11 go.

12 WITNESS EXCUSED.

13 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I'm going 14 to give y'all a break just a second. I have got to 15 get you some food ordered, and y'all have got to 16 fill out the menu. So I will take long enough to 17 do that.

18 (FOLLOWING THE SECOND MORNING RECESS ON MARCH
19 25, 1999, THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE
20 IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT
21 PRESENT BUT WITH THE JURY STILL OUT:)

22 BY MR. HORAN: As the Court knows, Mr. Balish,
23 David Balish was an independent expert that the 24 Court appointed. He did match the projectile that
25 came out of the head of one of the victims, and I
26 think it is necessary that I have Dr. Hayne testify
27 that he retrieved that even though it is not going
28 to be BoBo Stewart. It is going to be Carmen
29 Rigby, and also that Dr. Hayne retrieved a

1 projectile out of the head of Mr. Golden. I don't
2 see-- I have got to do that in order for Mr.-- and
3 I know they are going to object, but I think you
4 have already addressed that.

5 BY THE COURT: I assume you do object?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. You know, our 7 objection continues on the, our argument is it's 8 more prejudicial than probative plus evidence of 9 other crimes.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm going to allow it,
11 but I want to restrict his testimony to the fact
12 that he did it, you know, without any, going into 13 anything else about it.

14 BY MR. HORAN: Right. And also, Your Honor,
15 as the Court knows because of the prior trial, that 16 the projectile was recovered from a mattress in the 17 area of Bertha Tardy, and I will have to go into 18 that to a certain extent, that it was a through and 19 through wound to her.

20 BY THE COURT: I realize you will have to get 21 testimony as to the trajectory of the wound, how 22 the wound goes and all like that.

23 BY MR. HORAN: Right.

24 BY THE COURT: Limit it to the fact of 25 retrieving what bullets that he retrieved and to 26 the bullet path.

27 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. I don't intend to go
28 any further than that.

29 BY THE COURT: There may be some other stuff

1                   that is relevant to that, but that's where--

2                   BY MR. HORAN: --No autopsy photographs will
3 be shown of the other victims.

4                   BY THE COURT: Right. Okay. Dr. Hayne, you
5 can take the stand.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: He has not been sworn yet, Your
7 Honor.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay, I am ready. Raise your
9 right hand.

10                   (Witness sworn by the Court.)

11                   JURY ENTERS COURTROOM.

12                   DR. STEVEN HAYNE,

13 a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of
14 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
15 follows, to-wit:

16                   BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
17 please.

18                   BY THE WITNESS: Steven Timothy Hayne, Your
19 Honor.

20                   BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

21                   BY THE COURT: You may.

22                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

23                   BY MR. HORAN: I tender Mr. Hayne as an expert
24 in the field of forensic pathology.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. Actually I don't 26 have any objection. I know Dr. Hayne, have seen
27 him a lot of times. I don't have any objection to 28 him as an expert.

29                   BY THE COURT: The Court accepts him as an

1 expert in the field of forensic pathology.

2 BY MR. HORAN:

3 Q. Dr. Hayne, you are a medical doctor; is that
4 correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. What is your field of specialty? You have been
7 tendered and accepted as an expert in pathology.

8 A. I am a pathologist, and I work in anatomic
9 pathology, clinical pathology, as well as forensic pathology,
10 sir.

11 Q. You are here today concerning the area of forensic
12 pathology; is that right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Would you explain to the jury what forensic
15 pathology is?

16 A. Forensic pathology is a subspecialty of the general
17 field of pathology. It is one of the some twenty
18 subspecialties in the general field or the subspecialties of 19 pathology. And in that field there are many tasks to be
20 performed. I think generally agreed to, the two most
21 important tasks are the determination of the cause of death
22 and the manner of death of an individual.

23 The manner of death is a classification scheme used
24 in this state as well as all jurisdictions nationally and
25 internationally that I'm familiar with. And they would
26 include the choices of suicide, accident, homicide, natural,
27 pending, and in some cases and rarely undetermined when one
28 cannot come to a final conclusion. The cause of death of an
29 individual is the medical reason that person died, whether it

1 expert in the field of forensic pathology.

2 BY MR. HORAN:

3 Q. Dr. Hayne, you are a medical doctor; is that
4 correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. What is your field of specialty? You have been
7 tendered and accepted as an expert in pathology.

8 A. I am a pathologist, and I work in anatomic
9 pathology, clinical pathology, as well as forensic pathology,
10 sir.

11 Q. You are here today concerning the area of forensic
12 pathology; is that right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Would you explain to the jury what forensic
15 pathology is?

16 A. Forensic pathology is a subspecialty of the general
17 field of pathology. It is one of the some twenty
18 subspecialties in the general field or the subspecialties of 19 pathology. And in that field there are many tasks to be
20 performed. I think generally agreed to, the two most
21 important tasks are the determination of the cause of death
22 and the manner of death of an individual.

23 The manner of death is a classification scheme used
24 in this state as well as all jurisdictions nationally and
25 internationally that I'm familiar with. And they would
26 include the choices of suicide, accident, homicide, natural,
27 pending, and in some cases and rarely undetermined when one
28 cannot come to a final conclusion. The cause of death of an
29 individual is the medical reason that person died, whether it

1 be from a stab wound or cancer or heart attack or literally
2 thousands, if not tens of thousands of possibilities. It
3 usually requires an autopsy or postmortem examination in 4 which the basic questions of cause and manner of death are 5 addressed as well as other questions that have to be
6 addressed.

7 Furthermore, there are other areas within forensic
8 pathology that one is also working, but the two primary tasks
9 of a forensic pathologist is the determination of the cause
10 of death and the manner of death of an individual that has 11 come under, at least the death of that individual under legal
12 statute. And in this state it is the Coroners Reorganization
13 Act of 1986 which gives the power to the county coroner
14 medical examiner investigator to investigate deaths of 15 public concern including violent deaths, and the county
16 coroner medical examiner investigator may then contact the 17 forensic pathologist and request a postmortem examination or 18 autopsy to address the cause of death, manner of death, as 19 well as the myriad of other questions that have to be 20 addressed.

21 Q. Okay, you mentioned the term "autopsy." What is an 22 autopsy?

23 A. There are essentially two types of autopsies.
24 There is a medical autopsy performed usually at the request
25 of the legal next of kin to determine the medical reason that 26 person died, the cause of death. Then there is a medical 27 legal autopsy or forensic autopsy which addresses cause and 28 manner of death as well as collection of evidence,
29 documentation of injury, if present, as well as other factors

1 that are not necessarily associated with a regular or
2 hospital type autopsy.

3 Q. Okay, I want to direct your attention to the month
4 of July of 1996. Did you have an occasion to do an autopsy
5 on an individual by the name of Derrick "BoBo" Stewart?

6 A. Yes, sir. Identified to me as Derrick Stewart by 7 the county coroner medical examiner investigator of 8 Montgomery County.

9 Q. And once Mr. Stewart's body was presented to you,
10 did it appear that he had received some medical intervention
11 prior to the time that you saw him?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Would you explain that to the jury?

14 A. The medical intervention had occurred after the 15 infliction of injury, specifically a gunshot wound to the 16 back of the head, and that the injury sites, the entrance
17 wound to the back of the head as well as the exit gunshot
18 wound located near the right eyebrow had been sutured, had 19 been sewn together by medical personnel. There was also a
20 series of small puncture sites located on the extremities,
21 the right and left arms for the placement of intravenous
22 catheters and the administration of fluids and medications.

23 Q. I want to hand you a photograph that has been 24 introduced in evidence as State's Exhibit number 44. Did you
25 take that photograph or?

26 A. I did, sir.

27 Q. Okay, and is that Derrick Stewart?

28 A. It is, sir.

29 Q. And I assume pursuant to the Reorganization Act of

1 1986, it was a request of you to do that autopsy; is that
2 right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And what steps did you take in that endeavor?

5 A. Well, there were several steps that I took during 6 the course of the autopsy as well as even after the autopsy.
7 Most importantly, I discussed the case with the coroner, Mr.
8 Oliver. And Mr. Oliver also attended the autopsy.

9 Q. That is Carl Oliver?

10 A. Carl Oliver, who is the county coroner medical 11 examiner investigator of Montgomery County and who is the 12 elected coroner and had jurisdiction over the remains and had 13 requested autopsy. That was followed then by a series of 14 steps including an external and internal examination.

15 Q. Okay. And would you tell the jury as a result of 16 your external and internal examination what you found?

17 A. The significant findings precipitating death
18 included the presence of a gunshot wound located to the back
19 of the head at the site of the entrance gunshot wound at a 20 point 3 inches below the top of the head, one inch to the 21 left of the midline. On the facial side of the head, there
22 was a sutured exit gunshot wound located in the area of the 23 right eyebrow, located at a point 5 inches below the top of 24 the head and approximately 1 1/2 inches to the right of the 25 midline of the face. On the--

26 Q. --Are you-- I'm sorry.

27 A. On the internal examination, there was significant
28 injuries to the brain. There were, there was a perforating
29 gunshot wound to the brain. There was also hemorrhage--

1 BY MR. FREELON: --Can we object? Can we
2 approach?

3 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

4 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
5 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

6 BY MR. FREELON: Is this not what we asked
7 that we not go into?

8 BY THE COURT: No, Hayne can go into it. The 9 other, I wouldn't let the other witness go into it,
10 but he is entitled to put the pathologist on to go
11 into this.

12 END BENCH CONFERENCE

13 BY MR. HORAN:

14 Q. You may continue, Dr. Hayne, if you can recall
15 where you were.

16 A. There was hemorrhage or bleeding around the surface
17 of the brain, approximately one third of a cup of blood. And 18 there was also a wound tract through the brain measuring
19 approximately the diameter of a nickel with extensive
20 injuries to the brain about that wound tract. Furthermore,
21 there was bleeding over the surface of the brain to include
22 the cerebral hemispheres and the cerebella hemispheres, the 23 four large structures of the brain. There was significant 24 brain swelling also to the brain itself with collection of 25 fluid into the brain, and then there were changes, what are 26 called respirative brain or hypoxicencephalopathy, changes
27 that occur after the brain has died. The neurons, the nerve
28 cells start degenerating. You could see an unusual swelling
29 pattern to the brain. It was also obvious on the dissection

1 of the brain itself. There were also extensive fractures to
2 the skull essentially in line with the wound tract itself
3 coursing through the brain.

4 Q. Okay, you described a gunshot wound to the head.
5 Did you note any other injuries to the body?

6 A. No, sir.

7 BY MR. HORAN: I would like to have the 8 witness step down if I could.

9 BY THE COURT: All right. You may do so.

10 BY MR. HORAN:

11 Q. Dr. Hayne, would you describe on my head where you
12 noticed the entrance, what you have described as the entrance
13 wound, and tell the jury how you came to the conclusion that 14 that was, in fact, an entrance gunshot wound?

15 A. Can you turn to the side.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. The entrance gunshot wound was located
18 approximately here. (NOTE: Witness is standing in front of 19 the jury box pointing on Mr. Horan's head.) It measured,
20 after the sutures were removed, approximately one half inch
21 in diameter. And the determination that it was an entrance
22 gunshot wound was not made by looking at the skin surface but 23 by looking at the bone tissue. And the bone tissue was 24 internally beveled, that the entrance wound on the outside of 25 the skull was smaller than the entrance gunshot wound on the 26 inner surface of the skull, which is very similar to when a
27 rock hits a windshield. It produces a similar type of injury
28 pattern that the smaller hole is on the outside, and the 29 larger hole is on the inside. That would give proof positive

1 that the entrance gunshot wound was the gunshot wound to the
2 back of the head and was not the gunshot wound that was found
3 over the right eyebrow.

4 Q. Right over the right eyebrow that is in the
5 photograph?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay. You can return back to your seat. Thank
8 you?

9 A. (Witness returns to witness stand.)

10 Q. Were you able to make a determination as to whether 11 or not this was a close contact or distant wound?

12 A. The only determination I could conclude was it was 13 a non-contact gunshot wound. It could be either a near 14 contact or a distant gunshot wound, and the reason I could 15 only go that far is that there had been medical 16 intervention. The hair had been shaved and the superficial
17 outer layer of the skin had also been disrupted, and the 18 wound itself had been sutured. But I could conclude that the 19 muzzle of the weapon was not placed directly against the skin
20 surface when the weapon was fired.

21 Q. Medical intervention prohibited you is what you are 22 saying from making any determination as to whether or not,
23 other than the fact that it was not a contact wound?

24 A. That is correct, sir.

25 Q. Dr. Hayne, did you come to a conclusion based on 26 your experience, your training and your expertise and your 27 experience as to what the cause and manner of death of 28 Derrick "BoBo" Stewart was?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. What was that conclusion?

2 A. Stewart died from a gunshot wound to the back of
3 the head, either near contact or distant and perforating,
4 that the bullet entered and left the head of Mr. Stewart.
5 And the manner of death I ruled as homicide, sir.

6 Q. And the wound that you saw to Mr., that you
7 observed in Mr. Stewart's head, would that be consistent with 8 a small caliber weapon, a .380, .32, something in that line?

9 A. It would be consistent with, which I would consider
10 a .380 a large caliber weapon--

11 Q. --well, larger than, I'm sorry; large caliber, I
12 mean.

13 A. A .32 would be an intermediate caliber.

14 Q. Would it be consistent with a .380 caliber?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Did you have an occasion to actually go to Tardy
17 Furniture Store on July the 16th, 1996?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. If you would--

20 BY THE COURT: --Just a minute, Mr. Horan.
21 Could I do one thing. Mr. Moleta.

22 BY JUROR MR. JOSEPH MOLETA: Yes, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: Could you make another
24 selection? They are out of meat balls.

25 BY MR. MOLETA: You are kidding; right?

26 (Laughter.)

27 BY THE COURT: I'm not picking on you. I just 28 wanted to get you something to eat.

29 BY MR. MOLETA: This is embarrassing.

1 (Laughter.)

2 BY THE COURT: Well, it's not your fault.
3 They are the ones that are out.

4 (Bailiff hands paper to the juror, Mr. Moleta,
5 and he makes another selection.)

6 BY THE COURT: Thank you, sir. I apologize
7 for singling you out. All right, Mr. Horan.

8 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. HORAN:

10 Q. Dr. Hayne, you said you went to the scene of Tardy
11 Furniture Store?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Did you observe the bodies of an individual by the 14 name of Bertha Tardy there at the store?

15 A. Not the body. I arrived after the decedents had 16 been removed. In fact, it was several days later, I believe.

17 Q. You went to-- I'm sorry. You went to the area
18 where her body was recovered?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Now you did, in fact, do an autopsy on the body of 21 Bertha Tardy, did you not?

22 A. I did, sir.

23 Q. Did you do a diagram or any notes? As part of your 24 report, do you do a diagram of what your findings are?

25 A. I did, sir.

26 Q. Do you have that with you today?

27 A. I do, sir.

28 Q. Do you also have the diagram in your autopsies of 29 Carmen Rigby and Robert Golden with you?

1           A.    I have the autopsy reports as well as the diagram
2           on Robert Golden and also the diagram on Carmen Rigby, sir.

3           Q.    Okay, would you take those diagrams out of the 4           reports you have there, please, sir?

5           A.    Separate them, sir?

6           Q.    Yes, sir. Please.

7           Q.    While you are doing that, I will ask you a couple
8           of questions. Are those fair and accurate copies of the 9           diagrams that you did on the original autopsy report?

10          A.    Yes, sir.

11                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would move for 12                   the introduction. I will have them marked. I
13                   would like to have the diagrams introduced into 14                   evidence at this time.

15                   BY THE COURT: Any objection?

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I see them, please.

17                   (Defense Counsel looks at diagrams.)

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: None other than the ones
19                   before trial.

20                   BY THE COURT: Let them be marked and
21                   admitted.

22                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, for the record each
23                   one of these exhibits would contain more than one
24                   page, and each one contains four pages.

25                   BY THE COURT: We will make them cumulative.
26                   You don't want each individual page an individual
27                   exhibit, do you?

28                   BY MR. HORAN: No. Just for the record, I
29                   wanted to make sure we have all the pages.

1 (DIAGRAMS FROM AUTOPSY REPORTS ON ROBERT
2 GOLDEN, BERTHA TARDY, AND CARMEN RIGBY WERE MARKED
3 AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-100,
4 S-101, AND S-102 RESPECTIVELY.)

5 BY MR. HORAN:

6 Q. Dr. Hayne, I hand you what has been introduced in
7 evidence as State's Exhibit 101. Is that the diagram you
8 just previously testified about in reference to the autopsy
9 of Bertha Tardy?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And I will try to shorten it some. Did you observe
12 any gunshot wound to her head?

13 A. I did, sir.

14 Q. Would you tell the jury about this particular
15 gunshot wound?

16 A. It was a gunshot wound to the right side of the 17 head, coursing across the head, exiting near the left eye,
18 going through and through the head producing extensive
19 injuries to the brain leading to death as well as fractures
20 or breaking of the bone at the base of the skull, that part
21 of the skull on which the brain sits.

22 Q. Okay, it may be easier just to do it with your 23 head. Would you describe on your head for the jury where 24 this gunshot wound was?

25 A. Yes, sir. The entrance gunshot wound was located
26 slightly above the right ear and exited near the left eye,
27 sir.

28 Q. Okay, and again, was it, were you able to make a 29 determination as to whether or not it was a contact wound or

1 distant or close?

2 A. This was a distant gunshot wound, sir, in that the
3 muzzle of the weapon was no closer than approximately a foot
4 and a half to two feet when the gun was fired.

5 Q. And again, would that be consistent with the wound
6 that you found? Would that be consistent with a .380 caliber
7 pistol?

8 A. It would be consistent with that.

9 Q. Also, State's Exhibit 100 is the autopsy of Robert
10 Golden. Is that the diagram that you testified about 11 earlier?

12 A. Yes, it is the diagram that I identified; yes, sir.

13 Q. That you identified earlier?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Would you describe the gunshot wound that you found
16 on the body of Mr. Golden?

17 A. There was a through and through gunshot wound
18 entering near the left ear and on the left side of the head,
19 exiting on the right side of the head slightly behind the 20 right ear. There was one unusual characteristic about this 21 gunshot wound in that there was tatooing, deposits of 22 unburned powder on the skin surface about the entrance
23 gunshot wound which would make this a near contact gunshot
24 wound in that the muzzle of the weapon was approximately a 25 foot to maybe even 15 inches away from Mr. Golden's head when 26 the handgun was fired.

27 Q. Did you notice any other wounds about him, about
28 his body?

29 A. May I look at my notes, sir?

1 Q. Sure.

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Where was that gunshot wound located, Dr. Hayne?

4 A. The gunshot wound on Mr. Golden, sir?

5 Q. Right. Yes, sir.

6 A. It was, it entered on the front part of the left
7 ear, exited behind and slightly above the right ear, sir.

8 Q. Describe the second wound that you--

9 A. There were multiple other wounds on the body
10 including abrasions or scrapings of the skin located on the 11 left side of the face. There was also a large bruise located 12 on the front of the right arm near the right shoulder, and 13 located within that bruise was an area of skin scraping
14 measuring approximately an inch and a half. There was also a
15 bruise on the inner surface of the right arm that measured
16 approximately one inch, and there was also a bruise located
17 near the elbow that measured approximately an inch and a
18 half.

19 Q. Now the wound that you described on Mr. Golden's
20 head, the gunshot wound. Was it consistent also with a .380
21 caliber pistol?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And finally, I show you State's Exhibit 102. Is 24 that the diagram of the autopsy of, that you performed on
25 Carmen Rigby?

26 A. These are the diagrams of that autopsy; yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay, would you describe the gunshot wound, if any,
28 that you found on the body of Carmen Rigby, please, sir?

29 A. The entrance gunshot wound was located over the

1 back of the head, slightly to the right of the midline at a
2 point 3 inches below the top of the head and approximately 1
3 inch to the right of the midline of the back of the head.

4 Q. Okay, was it distant?

5 A. It was a distant gunshot wound, sir.

6 Q. And it was lethal?

7 A. It produced death; yes, sir.

8 Q. I hand you State's Exhibit number 88 and 87 for 9 identification purposes, and tell me whether or not you have 10 ever seen those items before?

11 A. (Pause while witness examines.) Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay, what are those items? If you could explain
13 to the jury what they are, please, sir?

14 A. These are on Mr.-- well, the first item, State's 87
15 shows fragments of the bullet recovered from Mr. Golden.
16 State's 88 shows fragments of the bullet recovered from
17 Carmen Rigby.

18 Q. Where did you recover the projectile in 88 from 19 Carmen Rigby? Was that actually out of her skull, out of her
20 head?

21 A. That's correct, sir.

22 Q. And also from Mr. Golden, was it recovered?

23 A. Parts of the bullet, yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay, the condition of the one recovered from Mr.
25 Golden's head, do you recall whether or not what type of 26 condition it was in?

27 A. Markedly deformed.

28 Q. And what about the one out of Ms. Rigby's head?

29 A. Markedly deformed fragments.

6           A.    No, sir.  I do not believe that he would have any 7   voluntary movement after receiving such a gunshot wound.

10           A.    I would not expect any significant movement
11    though-- (Pause while looks at notes).  No, I would not 12    expect any movement.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have anything other
16 than what we raised already, Judge.

19 (EVIDENCE BAGS CONTAINING PROJECTILES IN TUBES
20 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-87 AND S-88
21 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW BOTH RECEIVED IN
22 EVIDENCE.)

24 Q. Dr. Hayne, for the jury's benefit, these two tubes
25 are materially in the same condition today as they were when 26 you placed them into the evidence bag; is that correct?

29 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you. I tender the

1 witness, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you.

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

4 Q. Good morning, Dr. Hayne.

5 BY MR. HORAN: One other thing if it is all
6 right. I need to introduce the diagram of Mr.
7 Stewart's autopsy.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay.

9 (DIAGRAM FROM DERRICK STEWART'S AUTOPSY WAS 10 MARKED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AS STATE'S EXHIBIT
11 S-103.)

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Good morning barely, Dr. Hayne.

14 A. Good morning, Counsel.

15 Q. Dr. Hayne, I just have a few questions actually.
16 One is when you do these autopsies, do you preserve clothing
17 and valuables which the person might have on them so that 18 they can be sent for any further examination by the Crime
19 Lab?

20 A. Of course, it depends upon the case. If there is 21 clothing and we suspect or have any reason to believe that 22 clothing could be used for analysis, then we routinely submit
23 that clothing to the Mississippi State Crime Lab.

24 Q. Would that also be true with valuables and things
25 of that nature that a person might have on them, you know,
26 like watches, jewelry, whatever?

27 A. No, sir. The State Crime Lab will not accept 28 those.

29 Q. They won't accept them. Okay. Well, as to Bertha

1 Tardy, did she have clothing that was taken from her?

2 A. Bertha Tardy?

3 Q. Uh-hum?

4 A. (Pause while witness looks at records.)

5 Q. Or wait, you know; I'm sorry. Do you have, does he
6 have all of those? Do you have all the autopsies up there?

7 A. Yes, sir. The autopsy reports, I do, sir.

8 Q. Okay, good. I am looking on the first page of your 9 report, postmortem exam.

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And there was clothing that was taken off her body?

12 A. Yes, sir. There were two shoes, panties, slip,
13 pantyhose, bra, skirt, and shirt as well as jewelry.

14 Q. Okay, and jewelry. Do you know whether any of this
15 was forwarded to the Crime Lab for further examination?

16 A. To my knowledge, it was. It so indicates on 17 heading number 8, trace evidence, that the clothing was 18 submitted to the Mississippi State Crime Lab under chain of 19 custody.

20 Q. Okay. I don't know if you are a trace evidence
21 expert, but I mean is it your understanding the reason why
22 you send those things there because they may, they may be 23 able to make examinations of the blood and the DNA test and 24 all that kind of stuff in order to compare with other
25 people?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay, and to see if any of their blood might have 28 wound up on any potential person; is that correct?

29 A. That's correct, sir.

1           Q.    Now as far as Derrick Stewart is concerned,
2 actually he had been to the hospital; is that correct?

3           A.    That's correct, sir.

4           Q.    And he had been injured and sent to the hospital.
5 So you really don't have anything here for him except a
6 hospital gown?

7           A.    Yeah, the only clothing he had on was a hospital
8 gown. We did not turn that in since we felt it would be of 9 no value.

10          Q.    Okay, as far as Robert Golden is concerned, would 11 it be safe to say there was, there was on him clothing, you
12 know, several items of clothing?

13          A.    Yes, there were. There was a green shirt, a red
14 hat, two brown shoes, two white socks, blue pants, brown
15 belt, white briefs as well as jewelry, a wallet, and money,
16 sir.

17          Q.    Okay, jewelry, a gold colored watch and wallet with 18 some money?

19          A.    Yes, sir.

20          Q.    Were any of those items turned in to be examined?

21          A.    The clothing, sir. In fact, all of the clothing
22 was submitted to the State Crime Lab under chain of custody.
23 The other items were returned to the funeral home for the 24 family, sir.

25          Q.    And the final person was Ms. Rigby?

26          A.    Yes, sir.

27          Q.    Were there items of clothing and any other things
28 taken from her?

29          A.    Yes, sir. It included red pants, red shirt, two

1 sandals, bra, panties, and a panty girdle. The jewelry to
2 include 3 rings, two earrings and a watch were not removed
3 and were returned on the decedent upon completion of the 4 autopsy. The clothing as indicated in section number 8,
5 trace evidence, was transferred to the Mississippi State
6 Crime Lab under chain of custody.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you. I have no further
8 questions.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Nothing further and request
10 that Dr. Hayne be finally excused.

11 BY THE COURT: All right, Dr. Hayne, you are
12 free to leave.

13 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

14 WITNESS EXCUSED.

15 BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all just a second.

16 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
17 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

18 BY THE COURT: You don't need to take this,
19 but you can if you want to. I don't care. Who is 20 your next witness?

21 BY MR. HORAN: I don't know. We were just 22 discussing it. It's going to be a long one, I am
23 sure.

24 BY THE COURT: Is it? He said that their meal
25 will be here from 12:15 to, between 12:15 and 26 12:30. So there is no point in us starting a long
27 witness now, do y'all think?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

29 BY THE COURT: What about we recess and then I

1           will give y'all-- we will just take an hour and 15
2           minutes, be back about 1:15. Is that okay?

3           BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Make it 1:30 and I will
5           actually eat.

6           BY THE COURT: I will bring you something.
7           (Laughter.)

8                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

9           BY THE COURT: They tell me y'all's food will
10          be here in about 15 minutes. Then they also tell
11          me that the next witness will be long, so we are 12          going to take the lunch break now. And they will 13          get you some food here just shortly, and we are 14          going to break until 1:15. We will start back with 15          some testimony at that time.

16                       (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON MARCH 25, 1999,
17          THE TRIAL RESUMED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT, ALL
18          COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

20          FOLLOWS:)

21          BY THE COURT: I told this to Mr. Freelon
22          before I went to lunch, but now I have got a little
23          further information. The bailiffs have indicated
24          to me that some, that the defense witnesses have
25          been coming in the courtroom from their witness
26          room. Then I have also found out or have, I have 27          information that some of the folks who are 28          spectators are going out of the courtroom and into 29          the defense witness room. Now I can't, I can't

1           have that, and I need for y'all to explain that to
2           your witnesses and to the spectators so I don't get
3           into that problem when something comes up.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Now you said there is
5           witnesses coming into the--

6           BY THE COURT: They said it was working both
7           ways. This is the only information I have, so what
8           I'm trying to do is get y'all to address it.
9           Whether it happened or not--

10          BY MR. FREELON: --Yes, sir. We addressed it
11          when you told us. We were meeting outside.

12          BY THE COURT: All right, did you talk to the 13          spectators about not going in there and talking to 14          the--

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Right.

16          BY MR. FREELON: Everybody was standing 17          outside. We made it clear that they cannot go into 18          the witness room.

19          BY THE COURT: Okay, and the witnesses in the 20          witness room can't come in here.

21          BY MR. FREELON: Can't come in here; correct.

22          BY THE COURT: All right.

23          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, and I'm not, I'm 24          going to try to say this in a way, I'm not trying 25          to accuse anybody of anything, but just for the 26          record, there have been some defense folks that we
27          thought might be witnesses. They may not be. I
28          just wanted to make it clear that no witnesses can
29          be in the courtroom or they can't testify.

1           BY THE COURT: Well, and that's the reason I
2 am bringing all this up is I do not think we are to
3 the point where we have got that as a problem, but
4 I don't want it to be one. That's all I am trying
5 to keep it from being a problem.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I ask one question while
7 we are up here? Who do we have coming up next? I
8 have a motion in limine depending upon who it is.

9           BY MR. EVANS: Probably Katherine Snow.

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Katherine Snow? Okay, that 11 is not the person I have got the motion on.

12          BY THE COURT: Okay.

13          BY MR. EVANS: If it is something we can tend 14 to now or--

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, we may be able to.
16 Yeah, we can raise it now. If Patricia Hollman
17 testifies, then I would move to exclude from her
18 testimony any mention of alleged argument taking
19 place between her and, between Curtis and his wife,
20 the reason being is that when I looked at the 21 transcript last time and then I talked to her too,
22 she has no way of relating that argument to 23 anything that had anything to do with Tardy's. And 24 the argument didn't occur--

25          BY THE COURT: --Well, why don't I do a 403
26 hearing at that time? And if you will raise that 27 objection, I will do it outside the presence of the 28 jury.

29                           END BENCH CONFERENCE.

1 BY THE COURT: Y'all ready to proceed?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: We need Katherine Snow.

4 JURY COMES IN THE COURTROOM.

5 KATHERINE SNOW,

6 a black female called to testify as a witness by the State of
7 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
8 follows, to-wit:

9 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
10 please.

11 BY THE WITNESS: Katherine Snow.

12 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

13 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. Ms. Snow, where do you live?

16 A. Out there in Vaiden, Mississippi.

17 Q. And where are you employed?

18 A. Angelica.

19 Q. Do you remember the day of the murders at Tardy
20 Furniture there in Winona?

21 A. I do.

22 Q. Where were you working at that time?

23 A. Angelica.

24 Q. What hours were you working?

25 A. 7:00 to 3:30.

26 Q. And that is 7:00 AM to 3:30 PM?

27 A. Uh-huh.

28 Q. On that particular day of the murders, July 16th,
29 what time did you go to work that morning?

1 A. 7 o'clock.

2 Q. Okay. Do you know a person by the name of Doyle
3 Simpson?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. Do you know the type of car that he drives or was 6 driving at that time?

7 A. Yeah, I do.

8 Q. Did you have an occasion to see Doyle Simpson or 9 his car that morning?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. Explain to the ladies and gentlemen when you saw
12 it?

13 A. When I saw it?

14 Q. Right.

15 A. That morning when I walked out the door. I walked
16 out the door between 7:15 and 7:30. I asked my supervisor
17 could I go out and move my car because it was parked halfway
18 out in the highway where the main traffic come down through 19 at Angelica's because the trucks, they come through there and 20 my car back end was in the way. I was running late that 21 morning, so I had to park there in order to get in the plant
22 in time to clock in at 7:00. So I asked if I could go out
23 and move it. I went out the door. I seen Curtis Flowers
24 laying on the front end of Doyle Simpson's car. And I spoke;
25 he spoke. I went up and moved my car. I come back down and 26 went in the plant.

27 Q. So you had left your car parked in a bad place, and 28 about 7:15 to 7:30 you went out to move it?

29 A. Yes, I did.

1           Q.    You say you saw Curtis Flowers leaning up against
2   Doyle Simpson's car?

3           A.    Yes, I did.

4           Q.    Now do you see the person that you know as Curtis
5   Flowers in the courtroom?

6           A.    Yes, I do.

7           Q.    Would you point to him and identify him, please?

8           A.    (Witness points.)

9                   BY MR. EVANS:  May the record reflect that she 10           has identified the Defendant in this case?

11                   BY THE COURT:  Let the record reflect that.

12           BY MR. EVANS:

13           Q.    Had you known Curtis Flowers before that day?

14           A.    Yes, I had.

15           Q.    Okay, now that particular day, how close were you
16   to Curtis Flowers?

17           A.    Well, from where the car parked right in the first
18   parking spot on the front row, right there and until enough
19   for me to just walk out of the plant, go up the main, that 20   main street where they travel.  So it was pretty close.

21           Q.    Close enough to talk to him and have a
22   conversation?

23           A.    Yeah, I could have.  I just spoke.

24           Q.    You spoke to him.  Did he speak back to you?

25           A.    Yes, he did.

26           Q.    Any doubt in your mind that this is the person you
27   saw leaning against Doyle Simpson's car?

28           A.    No doubt.

29           Q.    Describe to us how he was leaning up against

1 Doyle's car?

2 A. He was leaning up like this, just laying up against
3 there.

4 Q. Which side of the car?

5 A. On the driver's side, front end.

6 Q. He was just leaning up on--

7 A. --Just leaning up against it.

8 Q. When was the first time that you told anybody about
9 him leaning up against the car?

10 A. The first time I told anybody? When they were 11 searching Doyle Simpson's car.

12 Q. And who did you tell first?

13 A. When I first seen it, it was Frances Meeks. She 14 was standing down there at Dot McChristian, and I said, "Uh.
15 I seen a guy laying up against Doyle Simpson's car this
16 morning."

17 Q. Okay, at that point did you know the person's name?

18 A. I couldn't place his name with the face, and I kept 19 on, and before that day was over, I had placed the name with 20 the face.

21 Q. Before the day was over, you had remembered what 22 his name was?

23 A. Uh-hum.

24 Q. Did the police show you a lineup?

25 A. Yes, they did.

26 Q. Did you pick Curtis out of that lineup?

27 A. Yes, I did.

28 Q. Did you pick him out of the lineup because anybody
29 suggested that you pick him out--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, the questions are
2 leading. I don't have-- they are leading.

3 BY THE COURT: You need to rephrase.

4 BY MR. EVANS: I haven't finished the question
5 yet.

6 BY THE COURT: No, but even if you hadn't, it
7 began as a leading question. You will have to 8 rephrase it. You can probably ask it, but you
9 can't ask it in that form.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Well, can I state for the Court
11 what I was going to ask so that-- what I was going
12 to ask is did you pick him out of the lineup
13 because anyone suggested or because of your 14 personal knowledge of him.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. I will allow that. Go
16 ahead.

17 BY THE WITNESS:

18 A. My personal knowledge of it.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Okay. Tender the witness--
20 wait one second, Your Honor.

21 (Pause while State's Counsel confer.)

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we proceed, Judge?

23 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Snow.

26 A. Good afternoon.

27 Q. Ms. Snow, you, as you have indicated, you worked
28 on, at the Angelica plant; is that correct?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And working at the Angelica plant, you knew Mr.
2 Simpson; is that also correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Had known him for quite some time; is that right?

5 A. That's true.

6 Q. Now you go in to work say about 7 o'clock, do you
7 not?

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. Okay, and you came out of work shortly after you
10 got in. I think that's what you have told us in previous 11 reports?

12 A. That's true.

13 Q. And when you come out of work-- well, first of all,
14 let me ask you this. This person who you say is leaning up
15 against the car of Doyle Simpson. Was he doing anything?

16 A. No, he wasn't.

17 Q. Did he have any gun in his hand?

18 A. No, he didn't.

19 Q. Did you see him go in the car?

20 A. No, I didn't.

21 Q. Did you see him take anything out of the car?

22 A. No, I didn't.

23 Q. You see him do anything improper?

24 A. No, I didn't.

25 Q. Anything illegal?

26 A. No, I didn't.

27 Q. So you had no reason to be paying particular 28 attention to him either really?

29 A. No, I didn't.

1 Q. All right. So, but in any event, so you really
2 only saw him for a brief period of time?

3 A. True.

4 Q. Quickly saw him and then went back in; is that
5 right?

6 A. Well, I know him.

7 Q. Okay. Well, I'm going to get to that in a minute.
8 I am certainly going to get to that in a minute. But you
9 only saw him briefly and went back inside; right?

10 A. True.

11 Q. In fact, I think that you have said at some point
12 is that actually you saw him when you came out, but when you
13 went in, you didn't see him again?

14 A. That's true.

15 Q. Okay, and actually you didn't stay out there a long
16 time, did you?

17 A. No, I didn't.

18 Q. Okay, you just came out, went straight to your car,
19 moved your car, and went back in; right?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. And the person you only saw for such a brief time
22 that when you passed him, you saw him, but when you went
23 back, he wasn't there; right?

24 A. True.

25 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this here. You didn't go
26 back in the plant and tell Curtis-- you didn't go back in the 27 plant and tell Doyle that that was Curtis Flowers, did you?

28 A. No, I didn't.

29 Q. You didn't tell Doyle anything?

1 A. No, I didn't.

2 Q. You had no reason to be concerned?

3 A. No, I didn't.

4 Q. The person didn't seem to be anybody who was posing
5 a threat to anybody; right?

6 A. No.

7 Q. As far as you know, he wasn't?

8 A. True.

9 Q. You have no reason to believe that that person did
10 anything; is that right?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. But anyway, whoever the person was, you at some 13 point talked to the police; is that right?

14 A. True.

15 Q. Now you said that by the end of the day you had 16 remembered-- now the truth of the matter is what you have 17 seen, you have seen this man because he sings. He is a
18 gospel singer?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you have seen him sing in church before. Is
21 that correct?

22 A. True.

23 Q. Okay, and by the way, you have been in a situation
24 before where you have seen somebody you thought was somebody,
25 and it turned out to be somebody else. That has happened to 26 you before, hasn't it?

27 A. Yeah.

28 Q. And it has happened to a lot of people; right?

29 A. True.

1 Q. Okay. Now but in any event, when you came to talk
2 to the police, did you talk to the police that day?

3 A. They came in there, uh, that evening and they
4 called me to the office. 3:25.

5 Q. Okay, but you talked to somebody. Earlier you said
6 you saw somebody searching Mr. Simpson's car?

7 A. That was the police out front, yes.

8 Q. Oh, that was the police. Okay, good. You didn't
9 tell them that "I saw Curtis Flowers"; right?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay, and then you said that it came to you. You
12 were thinking in your mind and somehow in your head it came
13 to your mind that, at some point that it was Curtis Flowers,
14 and you said that it came to your mind that night; is that
15 right?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. Okay. Well, when the police talked to you that 18 day, you didn't tell them it was Curtis Flowers, did you?

19 A. No, I didn't.

20 Q. And did the police talk to you a day or so after
21 that; right?

22 A. I can't remember the exact date.

23 Q. Well, you didn't tell them then it was Curtis
24 Flowers?

25 A. No, I didn't.

26 Q. In fact, you went all the way to-- and you talked
27 to the police two or three times; isn't that correct?

28 A. True.

29 Q. Before they actually showed you pictures; right?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. And you didn't tell them it was Curtis Flowers any
3 of those times?

4 A. Uh-uh.

5 Q. In fact, that's why they were showing you
6 pictures. They were trying to figure out who it was; right?

7 A. True.

8 Q. So when you saw the pictures, you still didn't say
9 it was Curtis Flowers?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Now why didn't you just -- well, excuse me. So
12 here is the police showing you all these pictures, and at no
13 point are you saying it's Curtis Flowers; is that right?

14 A. I didn't, no.

15 Q. Okay. Well, in fact, we have talked before; isn't
16 that correct?

17 A. True.

18 Q. Okay. And you have also had an opportunity to talk
19 to Mr. Freelon; is that correct?

20 A. True.

21 Q. And actually I think what you told him is that you
22 actually told the police that it was Curtis Flowers the 23 second time you saw the police. Didn't you tell him that?

24 A. I remember, I can't exactly remember that
25 conversation.

26 Q. Okay. Well, okay, let's see. We will come back to 27 that in a minute. But in any event, you may have told him
28 that; is that right?

29 A. I can't exactly remember that conversation.

1           Q.    Okay. Do you recall telling me or him that it
2 could have been that you told the police because we were
3 trying to figure out, you know, when this came to your mind
4 it was Curtis Flowers, when you told the police. Do you
5 remember telling somebody that it was the second time you saw
6 the police that you told them it was Curtis Flowers? You
7 don't remember saying that?

8           A.    I can't remember that conversation.

9           Q.    Okay. All right. Well, now the other thing that I
10 would like to ask you. (Pause.) Okay, well, do you remember
11 at this time, and I'm just going to ask you this if you
12 remember at this time. Do you remember at this time that you
13 never told, you never said anything about that person you saw
14 being Curtis Flowers until the time in the lineup if you even 15 said it then. I don't know if you even said it then, but do
16 you recall at this time that prior to the lineup, you never 17 said anything about it being Curtis Flowers? Do you recall
18 that?

19          A.    Yeah, I recall that.

20          Q.    You do recall that?

21          A.    Uh-huh.

22          Q.    Okay, well, let me see what you did say. I think
23 on the 10th of September, and let me see. That would be on 24 page -- okay.

25                   (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

26          Q.    We are going to go on into another area and come 27 back to that. And I'm just asking these questions because,
28 you know. As far as Mr. Simpson is concerned, you saw Mr.
29 Simpson a few days later; is that correct?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. Okay, in other words, I think that he was, after
3 this incident happened, he was away from the job. Did you
4 see him again that day?

5 A. He was bringing, he was bringing food in.

6 Q. Okay, you saw him then. You didn't tell him
7 anything about Curtis Flowers then; is that correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay, but you did at some point talk to him, and 10 you told him, y'all had a conversation about somebody being 11 at his car; right?

12 A. True.

13 Q. And that was like 3 or 4 days later; right?

14 A. Now exactly how many days I can't remember.

15 Q. Well, it's true that he was away from the job for a
16 little while, and then he came back; is that right?

17 A. True.

18 Q. Okay. And at that particular time when you were 19 having a talk with him-- let me ask you this. Did you tell
20 him that the person that you saw had white shorts on or had 21 shorts on, white or any other color?

22 A. No, I didn't.

23 Q. Okay, did you tell him that the person you saw had 24 a cap on?

25 A. No, I didn't.

26 Q. Okay. Did you tell him that the person you saw,
27 let's see. Cap -- did you tell him what kind of shirt the 28 person had on?

29 A. No, I didn't.

1 Q. Did you tell him anything about the shoes the
2 person had on?

3 A. No, I didn't.

4 Q. And that's the only conversation you had with him.
5 So you wouldn't have told him that at any other time; is that
6 right?

7 A. No.

8 Q. At least according to what you are telling us; is
9 that right?

10 A. It's the truth.

11 Q. Okay, well, I'm not questioning whether it-- if he 12 says something different, that is wrong; right?

13 A. True.

14 Q. Okay. Now and in fact, when you made a statement
15 to the police, you told them, you really didn't give them
16 much of a description. You didn't really give them a very,
17 you didn't give them any description of the clothing at all,
18 did you?

19 A. I didn't give any.

20 Q. Okay. But you did say, in fact, the person did not 21 have a cap on. That's what you told them?

22 A. That's what I said.

23 Q. And the other thing is that you have had an 24 opportunity to, Ms. Snow, you have had an opportunity to hear
25 about this case on TV and in the news and things of that 26 nature; right?

27 A. True.

28 Q. One of the things that you can recall reading is 29 a-- and so you also knew about the reward that was offered in

1 the case; is that correct?

2 A. Yeah, true.

3 Q. And you have seen that actually in the newspapers
4 and elsewhere; is that right?

5 A. True.

6 Q. Now just to-- in fact, the reward is pretty common
7 knowledge, wasn't it?

8 A. It was.

9 Q. Okay, I want to just share this with you here
10 please. I'm looking--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I guess I should get it
12 marked -- from the interview on September 10th,
13 19--

14 BY MR. HORAN: What page?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Page 8.

16 (Document shown to State's Counsel.)

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. I'm something going to show you a document to 19 refresh your memory and then, or have it marked first.

20 BY THE COURT: For identification.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For identification.

22 (TRANSCRIPT OF INTERVIEW WITH KATHERINE SNOW
23 WAS MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-13 FOR
24 IDENTIFICATION.)

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. I'm going to show you here what is D-13 for 27 identification purposes, and it says interview with Katherine
28 Snow. Do you recall that you were interviewed and Mr.
29 Freelon asked you some questions?

1           A.    True.

2           Q.    I'm going to ask you to look at page 8 here and see
3 if you can recall, and I just want to refresh your
4 recollection. And you see, okay, you see where these are
5 things that are underlined, okay, or highlighted, I think
6 they call it. Can you read this to yourself, and you can
7 read anything you want, but I am just pointing you to this
8 area. And once you get finished reading that, then I'm going
9 to see if your recollection is refreshed as to when you may 10 have told Mr. Freelon or if you told Mr. Freelon when was the 11 first time you told them it was Curtis Flowers.

12          A.    (Pause while witness reads.) I am finished.

13          Q.    So and here again, so when you talked to Mr.
14 Freelon, do you remember if you ever told him when it was 15 that the first time you said to the police that you thought
16 this man was Curtis Flowers?

17          A.    I remember him screwing my words up.

18          Q.    Oh, okay. This is on tape. Would you like to hear
19 it?

20          A.    No, I don't have to hear it.

21          Q.    But let me-- he screwed your words up?

22          A.    I remember having to stop him and tell him I
23 remember what I seen that day.

24          Q.    Okay, well, okay, I'm not asking you about that. I
25 am just asking you-- actually we are not talking about, this
26 doesn't even say anything about that day. This is talking
27 about when you told the police that you thought it was Curtis
28 Flowers. Isn't that what this is talking about?

29          A.    Yes.

1 Q. Well, that is what the question is.

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. Do you recall telling him at any point now that you
4 told the police the second time you saw them that it was
5 Curtis Flowers?

6 A. I remember the time of telling him but--

7 Q. --Well, first of all, answer my question, and then
8 you can explain.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. Do you recall telling him that the second time you
11 saw the police you said that you thought it was Curtis
12 Flowers?

13 A. I remember telling him that I seen, that I told the 14 police of Curtis Flowers. Do you want me to finish?

15 Q. What I'm-- did you tell him that you told the 16 police it was Curtis Flowers? Did you tell him that?

17 A. Uh-hum.

18 Q. And when did you say that you told them that?

19 A. The day of that meeting that he talked to me. I
20 don't remember the date or time that I told him that.

21 Q. Well, did, in fact, your taped statement say--
22 well, I'm still not quite clear on what you are saying. Are 23 you telling me that you did, you recall telling Mr. Freelon
24 that it was the second time that you said it was Curtis
25 Flowers? Does this refresh your memory as to that?

26 A. I remember telling him I had been there numerous of 27 times. I didn't know the exact one.

28 Q. Okay, okay. But do you recall telling him it was--
29 you don't remember saying the second time. It was you don't

1 know the exact time; right?

2 A. The day Mr. Freelon come down there I remember
3 conversating with him.

4 Q. Well, look. I am trying to focus on the question.
5 Now we might not be that far apart here. I'm just trying to 6 say is that you recall telling him that on one occasion when
7 you saw the police, and you told them it was Curtis Flowers?

8 A. Yes, I remember that.

9 Q. But you don't remember saying it was the second
10 time?

11 A. No, I don't.

12 Q. Okay, fine. You are not saying you didn't say it;
13 you just don't remember that?

14 A. True.

15 Q. But in any event, you know that when you talked to 16 the police, you have talked to the police on the day that the 17 incident occurred; right?

18 A. True.

19 Q. And you talked to the police-- when you say the 20 first time, actually you talked -- we were talking about the 21 first time and Mr. Freelon was talking about the first time
22 you actually went to the police station; right? Because you
23 told us that you had gone to the police station a couple of 24 times; right?

25 A. True.

26 Q. Okay. You didn't tell them the first time you went 27 to the police station; right? You know that; right?

28 A. I don't remember the exact dates that I went to the 29 police station.

1           Q.   Well, forget about the dates. Whenever you went,
2 you never said on the first day you went to the police
3 station that it was Mr. Flowers?

4           A.   No.

5           Q.   And the first day that you went to the police
6 station was after the incident that you had seen-- well,
7 after the person you had seen in the parking lot; right?

8           A.   True.

9           Q.   And it was also after the first night, wasn't it?

10          A.   It was after, after the incident that I went to the 11 police station.

12          Q.   Okay. But then after that first night, you didn't 13 go right to the police station?

14          A.   No.

15          Q.   In fact, you didn't tell the police station until 16 seeing them several times, if at all, that you thought it was 17 Curtis Flowers. Isn't that true?

18          A.   True.

19          Q.   Okay. And it would be safe to say too, wouldn't 20 it, Ms. Snow, that there was a lot of talk in the community
21 about this incident and things of that nature and actually at 22 the place where you work? Isn't that correct?

23          A.   True.

24          Q.   There was a lot of things going around about-- and 25 I'm not asking you to say what they were because that would 26 be inappropriate, but there was a lot of discussion about 27 what the police were doing and what they weren't doing about 28 it and all that kind of stuff; right?

29          A.   True.

1 Q. And who they were talking to and who they weren't
2 talking to. Is that true?

3 A. True.

4 Q. And they were raising names that they were 5 supposed to have been investigating and all that kind of 6 stuff; right?

7 A. They were saying a lot.

8 Q. Okay. And that was all happening at the place;
9 right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. All that rumors was going around; right?

12 A. They were saying a bunch.

13 Q. Pardon?

14 A. They were saying much, plenty.

15 Q. A lot of rumors?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. By the way, let me just ask you. This person that 18 you saw, the person you saw, and you had to have seen him in 19 between 7:00 and 7:30; is that correct?

20 A. True.

21 Q. That person didn't have on a white T-shirt and 22 black pants as far as you can remember, did they?

23 A. I wasn't paying attention to his clothing.

24 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

25 Q. Okay, the other thing is that-- somebody just 26 reminded me of this. At the time you saw the car, was the 27 windows down or up?

28 A. It was down.

29 Q. Okay. And-- okay.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No further questions.

2 BY THE COURT: Redirect?

3 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

5 Q. Ms. Snow, first I will ask you, has the reward got 6 anything to do with you telling who you saw by that car?

7 A. No, it don't.

8 Q. Do you know who you saw by that car?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. Is it this Defendant sitting over here?

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 Q. Now you were shown a photo lineup; is that right?

13 A. True.

14 Q. Before you were shown this photo lineup, other than 15 the name, did you know who you had seen?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. You just couldn't place the name with him?

18 A. I had a problem placing the name with the face.

19 Q. Now I believe you even told Mr. Freelon when he 20 asked you in his statement that you said and if you would, on 21 page 8 of that statement, read the part that I have 22 highlighted right here if you can read it. It has been 23 highlighted twice.

24 A. "I was trying to put the name with the face, and I
25 hadn't heard nothing of Curtis Flowers that they had arrested
26 him or nothing, but I knew I had seen him."

27 Q. So all you were doing was trying to put the name
28 with the face that you knew?

29 A. Yeah.

1           Q.    And when-- let me on page 6 when Mr. Freelon asked
2   you what kind of description you gave Doyle of who was
3   leaning up against his car.  If you would, read what
4   description you gave Doyle.

5           A.    "He was muscular, and his head was shaved and he
6   was dark skinned."

7           Q.    I will hand you Exhibit 92 for identification and
8   ask you if this is the photo lineup that the police
9   department showed you or the law enforcement officers?

10          A.    True.

11                   BY MR. EVANS:  I offer this into evidence,
12   Your Honor.

13                   BY THE COURT:  Any objection?

14                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  No, sir.  I have no objection
15   to that.

16                   BY THE COURT:  Let it be marked and admitted.

17                   (PHOTO LINEUP SHOWN TO KATHERINE SNOW
18   PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-92 FOR
19   IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE.)

20   BY MR. EVANS:

21           Q.    Ms. Snow, I will ask you to look at the back of 22   this photograph and ask you if this is the photograph that 23   you identified and if that is your name on the photograph?

24           A.    It is.

25                   BY MR. EVANS:  May I pass this to the jury,
26   Your Honor?

27                   BY THE COURT:  It has been admitted.  You may
28   do so.

29                   (Exhibit S-92 passed to the jury.)

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that's all we have
2 of this witness.

3 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

4 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: You are free to go, Ms. Snow.

7 WITNESS EXCUSED.

8 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

9 BY MR. HORAN: Bill Thornburg.

10 BY THE COURT: He hasn't been sworn, has he?

11 BY MR. EVANS: He was here but I'm not sure if 12 he was upstairs when they were being sworn.

13 (The witness enters the courtroom.)

14 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn yet?

15 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

16 BILL THORNBURG,

17 a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of
18 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
19 follows, to-wit:

20 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
21 please.

22 BY THE WITNESS: Bill Thornburg.

23 BY MR. HORAN: I would like for Mr. Evans to 24 get back before I proceed if that is all right.

25 BY THE COURT: Sure. He just went to get some 26 water.

27 (Mr. Evans returns to the courtroom.)

28 BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

29 BY THE COURT: Yes.

1     DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

2             Q.     Please state your name for the record, if you
3     would.

4             A.     Bill Thornburg.

5             Q.     Mr. Thornburg, how are you employed at the present
6     time?

7             A.     I'm employed with the Montgomery County Sheriff's
8     Department.

9             Q.     I want to direct your attention back to the date of 10    July 16th, 1996. Were you so employed at that time?

11            A.     Yes, sir.

12            Q.     And you were, are you Chief Deputy there?

13            A.     I was at that time, yes.

14            Q.     Did you have an occasion to go to Tardy Furniture
15    Store there in Winona?

16            A.     Yes, sir. I did.

17            Q.     And you received a call to go to Tardy?

18            A.     Yes, sir.

19            Q.     Were you on duty that day?

20            A.     Yes, sir.

21            Q.     When you arrived at Tardy Furniture Store, would 22    you tell the Court and the jury who was there?

23            A.     Well, it was a bunch of people outside, and I
24    remember Chief Hargrove being inside and another officer or 25    two that works for the police department.

26            Q.     And at some point in time after you arrived at 27    Tardy Furniture Store, did you receive a call to go to 28    Angelica?

29            A.     Yes, sir; I did.

1 Q. Okay, as you leave Tardy Furniture Store, how do
2 you go to Angelica, or how did you go that particular day?

3 A. I turned right right at Tardy's store there and 4 went down and hit Church Street and went all the way down
5 Church Street to Angelica.

6 Q. For what purpose did you go to Angelica?

7 A. I received a call that a vehicle had been broken
8 into there at Angelica.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection, excuse me. I
10 have no objection to him saying he received a call
11 and what he did when he got there, Judge. What I
12 have objection to is hearsay.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay, I think this is 14 admissible. Overruled.

15 BY MR. HORAN:

16 Q. Go ahead.

17 A. I went all the way down Church Street to Angelica.

18 Q. For what purpose?

19 A. To investigate, see what car had been broken into.

20 Q. And did you talk to anybody once you got there at 21 Angelica?

22 A. We went inside and was talking to the manager, and 23 we wanted to know where Doyle Simpson was. And they said he 24 had gone.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, it's not--

27 BY MR. HORAN: --I will go--

28 BY THE COURT: --It's not admitted for--

29 BY MR. HORAN: Right. It's not offered for

1 the truth of the matter.

2 BY THE COURT: It would be technically
3 hearsay, but it's not for the truth of the matter.

4 BY MR. HORAN: That's right.

5 BY MR. HORAN:

6 Q. At some point in time did you come in contact with
7 Mr. Simpson?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. And did you talk with him? Don't go into the 10 conversation, but did you talk with Mr. Simpson?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Did he give you information with reference to his 13 automobile?

14 A. Yes, sir. It was parked outside, and he said it
15 had been broken into--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection--

17 BY THE WITNESS: --a gun stolen.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

19 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

20 BY MR. HORAN:

21 Q. Don't go into that, but you did talk with Mr.
22 Simpson?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Did he give you information about what type of 25 weapon was missing out of his vehicle?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. What did you do then?

28 A. We went back to the furniture store.

29 Q. Did the automobile, Mr. Simpson's automobile, was

1 it impounded, taken into custody at that time?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, the questions are--

3 BY THE WITNESS: --not by me, no, sir--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --also leading.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, whether or not an
6 automobile is impounded, that is not suggesting an
7 answer, first of all. I will rephrase but--

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, actually I--

9 BY MR. HORAN: --I don't see how in the world
10 he would object to that--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. I will even 12 withdraw the objection on that one if we can get a
13 promise that he will stop doing it because just 14 about every question is leading. I'm not trying to 15 be critical.

16 BY MR. HORAN: I am not leading. I'm not
17 suggesting an answer. I will rephrase.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, yeah.

19 BY MR. HORAN:

20 Q. At some point in time was the vehicle processed?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Did you have an occasion, Mr. Thornburg, to proceed
23 to an area in the county for the purpose of retrieving any 24 physical evidence?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Okay, on hold on just a minute. Court will indulge
27 me. (Pause while Counsel looks at exhibits.) Okay, you were 28 stating that you went to Mr. Simpson's residence?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And who went with you?

2 A. I believe it was Chief of Police, Bob Tatum.

3 Q. Okay, and was that on or about the first day of 4 August of '96. Was that about the time? Do you remember?

5 A. It was earlier than that.

6 Q. Okay, do you remember what day that was?

7 A. Not really. I think it was a day or two
8 afterwards.

9 Q. Okay. And did you do anything once y'all got there
10 at Mr. Simpson's?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay, what did y'all do?

13 A. I had a metal detector and was looking for some 14 .380 hulls and projectiles.

15 Q. Why were you looking for .380 projectiles?

16 A. The gun that was stolen was a .380. The gun that 17 the murders was .380.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me say this. My 19 objection to this, first of all, this officer does 20 not know that any guns were stolen. See, that is 21 the problem of hearsay. I don't have him having 22 any--

23 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, that is not
24 offered--

25 BY THE COURT: --Wait. Wait. Let him
26 finish.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is there is no
28 foundation, improper foundation for the officer to 29 testify in that way. If he-- I mean I don't have

1           any problem talking about why he went there in
2           terms of he was looking for some projectiles and
3           then presumably other witnesses will explain this.
4           But he can't testify to what somebody else told him
5           one way or the other.

6           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, he is explaining 7           his actions--

8           BY THE COURT: --Well, he can testify as to 9           what the basis of his investigation was. Whether 10          or not that actually happened may or may not be 11          true. But he is entitled to say why he went to 12          investigate and why he was looking for, and if that 13          was from hearsay, that is just admissible.

14          BY MR. HORAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 BY MR. HORAN:

16          Q. I assume that from what you were testifying, that 17          you did, you gained some knowledge about the crime scene
18          investigation; right, Mr. Thornburg?

19          A. Yes, sir.

20          Q. What information did you have regarding what type
21          of weapon was used at Tardy Furniture Store?

22          A. .380.

23          Q. And as a result of your investigation involving Mr.
24          Simpson's car, what type of information, what was the 25          information that you had of the type of weapon stolen from 26          Mr.--

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, I just have a
28          continuing objection.

29          BY THE COURT: All right.

1 BY THE WITNESS:

2 A. .380.

3 Q. Okay. I want to hand you State's Exhibit number 89
4 marked for identification purposes. Can you tell the jury
5 what that is, what it appears to be?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. What is that?

8 A. It's a .380 projectile that I retrieved from a
9 cedar post in Doyle Simpson's mother's back yard.

10 Q. Okay, and why were you attempting-- well, I will 11 rephrase the question. Did you have information that there
12 may be some projectiles in that post?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 BY MR. HORAN: I move for introduction of this
15 at this time.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The projectile?

17 BY MR. HORAN: Right.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No objection.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, let it be marked and
20 entered.

21 (THE WHITE ENVELOPE CONTAINING A PROJECTILE
22 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT NUMBER S-89
23 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

24 BY MR. HORAN:

25 Q. You actually dug it out of the post?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. And you put it in that bag, and it's in materially
28 the same condition today, that bag is, the envelope, that it
29 was on the day that you removed or placed it in there?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay. Did you have an occasion to go to the 3 residence of Connie Moore at any time?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Do you remember about what date that was?

6 A. I believe that was in August.

7 Q. And for what purpose?

8 A. We went there and was really looking for a gun.
9 And they signed a permission to search, and we went in and 10 searched. We didn't find a gun.

11 Q. Did you find anything else at that time?

12 A. Found a Fila shoe box.

13 Q. Where did you find that in that residence?

14 A. It was in a dresser drawer in the back bedroom.

15 Q. Did you have any information as to whether or not 16 the Defendant, that was the Defendant's bedroom?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection, Judge. It has got 18 to be hearsay.

19 BY MR. HORAN: Why they searched that area,
20 Your Honor. They wouldn't search it for any other
21 reason.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hold it; hold it. It has got 23 to be hearsay. I mean, you know, if they--

24 BY MR. HORAN: --I would like to explain why
25 he was searching in a particular area, Your Honor.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, may we approach?

27 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
28 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

29 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase it. I was just

1 asking whether or not that was, that he had
2 information that was Mr. Flowers' residence, and I
3 will rephrase it.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is clearly offered for
5 the truth of the matter asserted therein. If, you
6 know, the fact that he found the box in a room is
7 fine. Let the person who says it is Curtis' room
8 come in here and say it. Don't let him say it.

9 BY THE COURT: He said he is going to rephrase
10 it, and just ask him if that was, if they searched
11 it because they thought that was Curtis'
12 residence. Do you have any objection to that?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What?

14 BY THE COURT: Wait, wait a minute, Kevin.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me just say this.
16 See, I don't understand why they feel that they
17 have the right through a police officer who knows
18 nothing other than what people tell him to get this 19 kind of information in. It's not relevant to the 20 jury why he searched it. If we did file a motion
21 to suppress, it has been denied. I can't even 22 remember if we did, but it has been denied. That 23 would be relevant to you to know that, you know, to 24 know that it was published, not to the jury. The 25 only thing relevant to the jury, it's relevant to 26 the jury whether it was his room, yes.

27 BY THE COURT: I'm going to let him testify to 28 this, that he can testify to the search, where he 29 found the stuff. He can describe the areas where

1 he searched, and he can describe any differences he
2 may have seen between the rooms, whatever like
3 that. As to whether he actually stayed there, I
4 think the person that knows that ought to be the 5 one to testify to that.

6 BY MR. HORAN: While I am asking, did they
7 have any information that that may or may not be
8 his residence. You have to explain to the jury why
9 they searched that particular house. It's not his 10 name.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no--

12 BY THE COURT: --well, I think--

13 BY MR. EVANS: --Any witness could testify who 14 lived at a certain residence, and that wouldn't be 15 hearsay. If I testify where you live, that 16 wouldn't be hearsay even though you--

17 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to allow him to 18 testify as to he had information that's where he 19 lived. As far as the rest of it inside the house,
20 I think it ought to be--

21 BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

22 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

23 BY THE COURT: That objection is sustained and 24 in part and overruled in part.

25 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase the question,
26 Your Honor.

27 BY MR. HORAN:

28 Q. Do you have information that--

29 BY THE COURT: --Mr. Horan. I have been

1 informed that the jurors need a break. We will
2 take just a few minutes.

3 (FOLLOWING AN AFTERNOON RECESS ON MARCH 25,
4 1999, THE TRIAL CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE
5 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND THE JURY ALL
6 PRESENT AS FOLLOWS:)

7 BY THE COURT: You may continue, Mr. Horan.

8 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

10 Q. Mr. Thornburg, I believe you were talking about the 11 search of Connie Moore's residence?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. How many times did you search that particular 14 residence?

15 A. Twice.

16 Q. Okay, the first time did you recover this tennis
17 shoe box?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Okay, did you have any reason?

20 A. At that time I didn't have any reason.

21 Q. Okay, the second time you went back did you recover
22 this tennis shoe box?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay, would you tell the Court and the jury where 25 in the residence you recovered the tennis shoe box. If you
26 went in the house, describe how you went to the area, you
27 would go to the area--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, Judge, can he just 29 testify now because--

1 BY MR. HORAN: Describe how he got to the 2 tennis shoe box.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, yeah, describe how he
4 got to it. I have no objection to that question.
5 How he got it, I have no problem describing how he
6 got it.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think you will see what I'm
9 talking about.

10 BY MR. HORAN:

11 Q. Okay, walking in the door of that residence, tell
12 the jury how you would get to the location where you found
13 the tennis shoe box.

14 A. When you walk in the front door, it's a living
15 room, and there is a hallway to the left. All the way to the 16 end of the hallway on the right side, the back bedroom.

17 Q. Okay, to your personal knowledge do you know whose 18 bedroom that was?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh.

20 BY THE COURT: He can answer that if he knows.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He can answer that one,
22 personal knowledge; right.

23 BY THE WITNESS:

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Whose was that?

26 A. It was Connie's.

27 Q. All right, anyone else's to your personal
28 knowledge?

29 A. Sir?

1 Q. Anyone else's to your personal knowledge?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, his personal knowledge
3 is not what somebody else told him, Judge. That's 4 what I object to.

5 BY MR. HORAN: He observed the contents of the 6 room, Your Honor.

7 BY THE COURT: But he has been asked his
8 personal knowledge. You are entitled to 9 cross-examine him about that, but that question is 10 proper.

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. You can answer.

13 A. And Curtis'.

14 Q. Curtis Flowers, the Defendant?

15 A. (Witness nods his head.)

16 Q. All right, you and Jack Matthews investigated with 17 the Highway Patrol. Y'all went back out to Doyle Simpson's
18 residence after you recovered this particular projectile, did 19 you not?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. I want to hand you State's Exhibit 76, and does 22 that appear to be the package that Mr. Matthews placed the 23 projectile-- did y'all find another projectile?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Out of the same post?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Does that appear to be the package?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 BY MR HORAN: I move for introduction.

1 BY THE COURT: Any objection to that?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

4 (BROWN ENVELOPE CONTAINING SPENT PROJECTILE
5 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-76 FOR
6 IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

7 BY MR. HORAN:

8 Q. Mr. Thornburg, I think I covered this with another
9 witness but I will ask you anyway. Is Tardy Furniture
10 located in Montgomery County?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. State of Mississippi?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. When you left Tardy Furniture, how long did it take 15 you to get to Angelica on the morning of the murders?

16 A. Probably 3, 4 minutes. You know, I don't remember
17 the exact time or how the traffic was.

18 Q. Okay, how long were you there before you came in 19 contact with Mr. Simpson?

20 A. Probably 20 minutes.

21 BY MR. HORAN: Okay. No further questions.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed?

23 BY MR. EVANS: Give me a second.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

25 (Pause while State's Counsel confer.)

26 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

27 Q. Okay. This tennis shoe box, is it materially in 28 the same condition today as it was when-- I know there is 29 some writing on here and stuff, but the box in general, is it

1 materially in the same condition today as it was when you
2 recovered it from that residence?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay, do you know what address that is over there
5 where Mr. Flowers and Ms. Moore?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Do you know what street it's on?

8 A. McNutt, I believe.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, I move for the 10 introduction of this particular exhibit.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection to that
12 box.

13 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

14 (EMPTY FILA TENNIS SHOE BOX PREVIOUSLY MARKED
15 AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-61 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW
16 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

17 BY MR HORAN: I tender.

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 Q. Good afternoon.

20 A. How you do, sir.

21 Q. Officer Thornburg. Is it--

22 BY MR. FREELON: Chokwe.

23 (Defense Counsel confer briefly. One of their 24 witnesses had entered the courtroom. Witness
25 left.)

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. Good afternoon. Now is it officer, sergeant?

28 A. No, just deputy.

29 Q. Deputy, okay, Deputy Thornburg. Deputy Thornburg,

1 point out-- I would like to ask you these questions. A), you
2 didn't live at that house, did you, that house on McNutt
3 where you went to where Connie was? You didn't live there,
4 did you?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Okay, so you, you have never seen anybody sleep in 7 that bedroom, have you?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay, so the only information you had is what 10 somebody else told you; isn't that correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Is that right?

13 A. (Witness nods his head.) I have never seen anybody
14 sleep in there.

15 Q. Right, so you are just basing it on what, you know,
16 what have people told you about what was what; is that 17 correct? And you don't know how accurate it is or inaccurate
18 it is; isn't that true?

19 A. I have never seen them sleep back there.

20 Q. You didn't see any of Mr. Flowers' identification
21 in the room or anything like that, did you?

22 A. I don't remember seeing any. I wasn't looking for
23 identification.

24 Q. Okay, I see. But in any event, whatever though,
25 actually, the way you got that box, you didn't go back in the 26 room and see that box, did you? You didn't go back in that 27 room and take that box, did you?

28 A. No, sir. I did not.

29 Q. Connie walked back into the room and gave you the

1 box, didn't she?

2 A. We told her we came back after the shoe box, and
3 she came, went back to the bedroom and got it and brought it
4 out there.

5 Q. And she had consented to the search. According to 6 what you are saying, she had consented to the search anyway;
7 right?

8 A. She consented to it.

9 Q. Right. She just went back and got you the box and 10 gave it to you; right?

11 A. That's right.

12 Q. Okay. Now while you were there, did you see any of 13 her children?

14 A. I don't remember seeing any. I might have.

15 Q. Are you aware of the fact that she has two male 16 child's?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay. And you don't suspect they are the only 19 ones, that she was the only one in the City of Winona that 20 had a Fila shoe box, do you?

21 A. I wouldn't know.

22 Q. Fila is a pretty popular tennis shoe, isn't it?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. You see them advertised on TV all the time, don't
25 you?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. One of the big, like Nike, Fila and Reebok and 28 stuff like that; right?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay. So in any event Connie gave you the box;
2 right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Did you submit this box, by the way, for
5 fingerprints?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay, and you, of course, are not a fingerprint
8 expert, so you couldn't tell me of your own personal
9 knowledge what the results were; right?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. But in any event, let's go on to something else for 12 a minute. You don't know how long-- the box, since you guys
13 had the box, you didn't rough it up or anything, did you?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Okay, the box seems like it's kind of torn a little 16 bit?

17 A. It is basically the same way it was when we got it.

18 Q. Yeah, but I mean you don't suppose they sell them
19 like this, do you? It looks like it is coming apart a little 20 bit, doesn't it?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. Okay, so it looks like it has been around a while;
23 right?

24 A. It has.

25 Q. So you don't know how long it has been around?

26 A. I do not.

27 Q. You don't know how long it has been there, and you
28 don't know who the box belongs to of your own personal
29 knowledge, do you?

1           A.    Not personally, no, sir.

2           Q.    Okay.  And in fact, you don't even know -- I am
3           sure you have a household, and you have a family and stuff
4           like that?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    And your family sometimes they get things from 7           other families, either borrow it or gifts or things of that
8           nature?

9           A.    Well, not really.

10          Q.    Oh, that doesn't happen?  Okay.  Do you have 11          sometimes where perhaps your wife might send something to 12          some other lady--

13                   BY MR. HORAN:  --Your Honor, he can argue this 14                   in closing arguments.  It's not relevant to ask
15                   this witness this type of question.  What he does 16                   or what his wife does or his aunt does doesn't make 17                   any difference, Your Honor.

18                   BY THE COURT:  I will give you some latitude
19                   on it, but I want you to get to point.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, all right.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22          Q.    The point is that frequently people might actually 23          have boxes which one thing comes in, and they might put 24          something else in it and send it somewhere else.  Isn't that
25          true?

26          A.    It's possible.  I don't--

27          Q.    I mean in other words, boxes frequently are in 28          homes where they don't even originate at; isn't that right?

29          A.    I don't know.

1 Q. That never happened at your house?

2 A. Not to my knowledge.

3 Q. Okay, all right. Okay, but in any event, let me
4 ask you this. You also have no personal knowledge of 5 whether or not anybody's car was actually ever broken into,
6 do you?

7 A. All I got is he said his car had been broken into.

8 Q. That's what he said; right? Is that what he said?

9 A. Yes, sir. And he--

10 Q. --Were you also there when he said that he had 11 gotten the gun from an uncle? Simpson?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. He didn't tell you that?

14 A. No-- yeah, he did. He did, when I asked him--

15 Q. --And it turned out that he was lying--

16 BY MR. HORAN: --Objection, Your Honor. He
17 can't go do into this.

18 BY THE COURT: Well, you can't.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me rephrase it.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. Basically you were relying on what he said; right?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. So if you rely on a person, then you would like to 24 know how reliable he is; right?

25 A. Well, I would like to know if he is telling the 26 truth.

27 Q. Right, and you judge a person if he is telling the 28 truth based upon whether he tells the truth at other times
29 also; right?

1           A.    Yeah, a lot of times you do.

2           Q.    Okay, and in this case you had a man here who you
3 caught in a lie about where he got the gun from in the first
4 place?

5                   BY MR. HORAN:   Your Honor, did I not object to
6 this?

7                   BY THE COURT:   You haven't laid that
8 predicate.   You may be able to ask that, but you
9 can't ask it that way.

10                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12           Q.    Is it a fact that at some point in time you
13 inquired, you had a conversation with Doyle Simpson, the same
14 person who told you about the gun?   You had a conversation
15 with him; is that correct?

16           A.    Yes, sir.

17           Q.    And did he tell you about the gun that-- did he
18 tell you about a gun, a .380?

19           A.    Yes, sir.

20                   BY MR. HORAN:   Your Honor, I object to this.
21 The reason I object is because Doyle Simpson is
22 going to testify.   If Doyle Simpson denies making a
23 statement, he can put Mr. Thornburg on to impeach
24 him.

25                   BY THE COURT:   Let me see y'all up here.

26                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
27 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

28                   BY MR. HORAN:   Simpson has not testified yet,
29 Your Honor, and has not admitted or denied making

1           the statement. He can't go into it. This is
2           highly improper.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: See, Judge--

4           BY THE COURT: --Well, why can't he testify
5           that he, when he asked him about the gun, that he
6           found out, that he found out his statement was not
7           true about the gun?

8           BY MR. HORAN: It's not at that point in time
9           though, Your Honor, when you report--

10          BY MR. EVANS: --It has got to be used for 11          impeachment of Doyle Simpson.

12          BY MR. HORAN: This is some time after that.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: See, Judge, see, my problem
14          is they are using Doyle Simpson's word to decide to 15          justify as giving some reliability to the police
16          officers' reasons for acting. That's why you talk
17          about why a police--

18          BY MR. HORAN: --It doesn't.

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, please. See, the 20          thing is you can't have it both ways. You can't 21          allow him to testify what information he was 22          operating on, and when it turns out that the person
23          with whom he was relying upon also gave unreliable
24          information about the same thing.

25          BY THE COURT: No, but that is not the law
26          because he can rely on a lie to investigate. That 27          is the lie-- I mean that is the truth. I mean that 28          is the Supreme Court, the United States Supreme 29          Court has said it doesn't have to be true, and if

1           they in good faith rely on it, that's all they have
2           got to do. So let's move on. I'm going to sustain
3           the objection. Although-- come back. You know,
4           you are entitled to recall him after Simpson
5           testifies if you want to.

6                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

7                                       END BENCH CONFERENCE

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9           Q.   Without saying what is said, is it true that Mr.
10           Simpson said something to you about where the gun originated
11           at?

12           A.   Yes, sir.

13           Q.   And is it also true that you did further 14           investigation of that?

15           A.   Yes.

16           Q.   Don't answer this, and I'm going to ask it and see 17           if it's appropriate. Did it also turn out that the 18           information based upon your further investigation turned out 19           to be untrue?

20           A.   Yes, sir.

21                       BY MR. HORAN: I'm not going to object, Your
22           Honor.

23                       BY THE COURT: Okay.

24                       BY MR. EVANS: The only thing, Your Honor,
25           since we have not been allowed to go into the stuff
26           on hearsay, we would like to be able to go back now
27           and ask Mr. Thornburg all these questions.

28                       BY THE COURT: Let me field them as y'all
29           raise them, okay.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, fine.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. I think you said
4 that when you arrived at Angelica, Mr. Simpson wasn't there;
5 is that correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Now Mr. Simpson-- you don't know who-- Mr. Simpson
8 didn't call you; right?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. Okay, and you don't know who called the police.
11 You don't even know whether he called the police, do you?

12 A. No, sir. I don't know who called.

13 Q. Okay. But when you arrived at the plant, you
14 talked to someone else; is that correct?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. At some point he came; is that right?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Before he came, and you can correct me if I am
19 wrong because I am not sure of this, but I know at some point
20 Emmitt Simpson showed up too; right?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Did he show up before Mr. Doyle Simpson?

23 A. Before; yes, sir.

24 Q. In fact, when you saw Emmitt Simpson, he was 25 running; right?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Sweating; right? Sweating like he was--

28 A. Yeah, in July. It was hot.

29 Q. Sweating and running and excited; right?

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF MISSISSIPPI

PAGES NUMBERED 1801 - 1950

VOLUME 23 of 30

EXHIBIT _____

ELECTRONIC DISK _____

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 A. Well, he might have been excited. I don't--

2 Q. Could you see that he was excited? He was running
3 around out there and excited. He told you something that he
4 had been accused of; isn't that correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And you stopped him when you saw him running. Did
7 you go after him or somebody went after him?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay. And did he tell you he had been accused of 10 something by Doyle?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Did he tell you that Doyle had accused him of 13 breaking in the car and taking the gun?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Now this car that Doyle drove, was this an older
16 model brown car, kind of dirty and dusty?

17 A. Yes, sir; it was.

18 Q. And then Mr. Simpson came; is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And you interviewed him about, about his car; is
21 that correct?

22 A. Yes, sir, went out and looked at it.

23 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. He didn't come to 24 the police station and give you this report. You came to 25 him; is that right?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba gets a photograph and 28 then shows it Counsel opposite.)

29 BY MR. EVANS: We have got the same

1                    photographs introduced already. They are up there
2                    on her desk.

3                    (Mr. Lumumba gets some photographic exhibits.)

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5                    Q. I'm showing you Exhibits 43 and 42.

6                    A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibits.)

7                    Q. What are those if you know?

8                    A. I can't tell about this one, but this car looks
9 like Doyle Simpson's.

10                   Q. Okay, so that's the car that you saw that day when 11 you saw Doyle Simpson's car?

12                   A. It looks like it, yes.

13                   Q. And for the record that is the one with the side
14 view; is that correct?

15                   A. Yes, sir.

16                   Q. And that is a brown car; is that correct?

17                   A. Right.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: And that is S-43 that the 19 witness can identify, Judge, and it's S-42 which 20 has a back view where you don't really know for 21 sure; is that correct?

22                   BY THE WITNESS: Right.

23                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think we have 24 already introduced these into evidence through
25 Melissa Schoene.

26                   BY THE COURT: Well, he just--

27                   BY MR. EVANS: --Look at the back and see if 28 they are already in evidence.

29                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: They appear to be in

1 evidence. They have marked out--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --Yeah, they are already in
3 evidence.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. Was that car seized also, if you know?

7 A. At that time it was not. I don't know. It may 8 have been at a later date. I don't know. I couldn't really
9 say.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no-- just one second,
11 Judge, to make sure.

12 Q. Was the car kind of brown and tan, kind of two 13 tone?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. You didn't see Curtis Flowers with Doyle Simpson at 16 all; right?

17 A. No, sir. I did not.

18 Q. You didn't see Curtis Flowers anywhere in the area,
19 did you?

20 A. No, sir. I did not.

21 Q. But what you did see is you saw Doyle eventually;
22 is that correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And you saw Emmitt Simpson running across the lot?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Expressing his concerns; is that correct?

27 A. I saw him running around the building.

28 Q. And then he said to you what you told me he said to 29 you when you talked to him; is that right?

1 A. Right.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no further
3 questions of this witness.

4 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

5 Q. Mr. Thornburg, when you received the call, was the 6 District Attorney there at the store? Do you remember that?
7 Do you remember seeing him there?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Were there other officers there?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay. And I assume that someone had to come and 12 get you?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have to object to 14 what he assumed.

15 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase the question.

16 BY MR. HORAN:

17 Q. How did you come to know that there was a call for 18 you to go to Angelica's?

19 A. The dispatcher at the jail was calling for me, and 20 somebody came inside and told me I needed to call the jail.

21 Q. Do you remember who all was in there with you at
22 that time?

23 A. I remember Chief Hargrove, and there was several 24 standing outside. I don't remember who.

25 Q. So that information regarding what had happened at 26 the Tardy Furniture Store had been transmitted over at least 27 your radio?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. That you are aware of?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. All right. Tell us what happened when you got down
3 to Angelica. What did you do, and who did you talk with 4 first?

5 A. We went inside and was talking to the plant
6 manager.

7 Q. Okay, what information did the plant manager give?

8 A. And we asked for Doyle.

9 Q. Okay. And they said he is done clocked out and 10 gone.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge. Hearsay;
12 objection.

13 BY THE COURT: Right, but there again it's not 14 to prove the truth of the matter asserted. It's 15 just a preliminary matter.

16 BY MR. HORAN:

17 Q. And you did talk to Emmitt Simpson, did you not?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. And apparently there was some knowledge, Emmitt
20 Simpson had some knowledge that you were wanting to know
21 about; right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And what did you ask Mr. Simpson, Emmitt Simpson?

24 A. When we got around to the back, he was already at 25 the back dock back there on the back side. And he told us
26 that his brother had accused him of breaking in his van-- I
27 mean his car and stealing his gun.

28 Q. Okay, and did he say where he saw his brother? Was 29 he talking about Doyle?

1           A.    Right.  No, sir.  He didn't mention where he had
2    seen him.

3           Q.    Now the information that you got about the post
4    that contained the two projectiles, being Exhibit 76 and I
5    believe it's 89, these two projectiles.  Who gave you this
6    information?

7           A.    If I remember correctly, I asked Doyle had he ever
8    shot his pistol.

9           Q.    So Doyle Simpson took you to his house and showed
10   you?

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Objection; leading.  It is 12                   hearsay too.

13                   BY THE COURT:  Yes, sir.  That's leading.

14   BY MR. HORAN:

15           Q.    Mr. Simpson, did he accompany you to his residence?

16           A.    Yes, sir.

17           Q.    When y'all recovered those?

18           A.    Yes, sir.

19           Q.    Did he indicate to you the post that he fired into?

20           A.    Yes, sir.

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Objection.

22                   BY MR. HORAN:  No further questions of this
23                   witness.

24                   BY THE COURT:  That last one was not leading.
25                   That was overruled.  Okay, is he finally excused?

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Yes-- well, no.  I will ask
27                   him to remain on call.

28                   BY THE COURT:  Okay.  You will need to stay,
29                   Mr. Thornburg.  Who do you have next?

1 WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Doyle Simpson.

3 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn, Mr.
4 Simpson.

5 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

7 DOYLE SIMPSON,

8 a black male called to testify as a witness by the State of
9 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
10 follows, to-wit:

11 BY THE COURT: Have a seat right there,
12 please, sir.

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q. State your full name, please.

15 A. Doyle Simpson.

16 Q. Mr. Simpson, where do you live?

17 A. 121 Poorhouse Road.

18 Q. And is that in Winona, Mississippi?

19 A. That's in Winona.

20 Q. All right, Mr. Simpson. I want to direct your 21 attention back to the day that the killings occurred at Tardy
22 Furniture in Winona, Mississippi. Do you remember that day?

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. Were you working that day?

25 A. Yes, I was.

26 Q. Where were you working?

27 A. Angelica.

28 Q. At that time what type of vehicle did you have?

29 A. Pontiac Phoenix.

1 Q. All right, I want to show you two photographs. One
2 is the side of a car, and one is the back of a car and ask
3 you if this is the car that you had at that time?

4 A. That's it. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay.

6 BY THE COURT: You don't have to lean up into
7 it, Mr. Simpson. I don't think you can get-- don't 8 get too far away from it, but I think it'll pick
9 you up.

10 (Mr. Evans passed photographs S-42 and S-43 to 11 the jury.)

12 BY MR. EVANS:

13 Q. Did you have that car with you at work that day?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. Approximately what time did you go to work that
16 day?

17 A. About 6:15.

18 Q. Did you have any type of weapon in your vehicle
19 that day?

20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. What type of weapon was it?

22 A. I had a pistol.

23 Q. What type pistol, what caliber?

24 A. .380.

25 Q. Was that pistol an automatic or a revolver?

26 A. Automatic.

27 Q. All right, would you describe what the pistol
28 looked like and how the pistol worked?

29 A. It was black.

1 Q. Okay. Show us with your hands approximately what
2 size that pistol was?

3 A. (Witness indicates.)

4 Q. Okay, you are showing approximately--

5 A. --That is how long it was.

6 Q. --7 or 8 inches long?

7 A. Yeah, something like that. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Did this pistol have a revolver that bullets went 9 in, or did it have a clip--

10 A. --clip--

11 Q. --that went in the bottom of it?

12 A. It had a clip.

13 Q. Okay, did that pistol have bullets in it?

14 A. Yes, it did.

15 Q. Where was that pistol located in your car?

16 A. In my glove compartment.

17 Q. All right, when, if any time, did you notice that 18 something was wrong with your glove compartment?

19 A. When I got ready to go get lunch.

20 Q. All right. Now explain to the ladies and 21 gentlemen of the jury how this works. You went to work at 22 what time?

23 A. 6:15.

24 Q. All right, did you go to pick up your lunch or your 25 lunch and other people's lunches?

26 A. Other people's lunch.

27 Q. How many people's lunches were you picking up?

28 A. Well, I can't recall.

29 Q. Just best you can remember?

1 A. About eight or nine.

2 Q. Okay, and what time were you getting ready to go
3 pick their lunches up?

4 A. When I got off.

5 Q. What time was that?

6 A. I left, I get off at 10:30. It was about something
7 to 11:00 when I left.

8 Q. Something to 11:00?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. All right, from the time that you went to work that 11 morning at what time?

12 A. About 6:15.

13 Q. All right, from the time that you went to work at 14 6:15 until something before 11:00, and it may be hard to 15 pinpoint exactly, but can you give us an idea? Are we 16 talking about a quarter to 11:00, 20 minutes until 11:00,
17 ten--

18 A. --between, about, about a quarter till.

19 Q. Approximately 10:45?

20 A. Yeah, something like that.

21 Q. All right. Between 6:15 and 10:45 on the day of 22 the murders, did you go back to your car for anything?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. About what time?

25 A. I went back about 9:15 to get my breakfast out.

26 Q. Okay, was your glove box broken into at 9:15?

27 A. I didn't notice it.

28 Q. So you didn't look at it at that time?

29 A. No, sir.

1           Q.    You didn't get in your vehicle and drive or
2 anything at that time?

3           A.    No, sir.

4           Q.    Where was your lunch located?

5           A.    On the, sitting on the front seat.

6           Q.    So you just opened your vehicle and got your lunch
7 out?

8           A.    Yes, sir.

9           Q.    Was your vehicle unlocked?

10          A.    Yes, sir.

11          Q.    Okay. You went back out there at 10:45. You
12 checked out of work at that time; is that correct?

13          A.    No, no, I went back before then.

14          Q.    Okay.

15          A.    I went back and let the windows down.

16          Q.    What time did you go let your windows down?

17          A.    Right before I got ready to leave at 10:30.

18          Q.    About 10:30 you went outside to let your--

19          A.    --no, about 10:20, 25, something like that.

20          Q.    Okay. Hard to say exactly?

21          A.    Yes, sir.

22          Q.    When you did that, did you have any cause to look
23 at your glove compartment when you let your window down?

24          A.    No, sir.

25          Q.    All right, when you got in your vehicle after you
26 checked out and were going to get your lunch, what did you
27 notice about your glove compartment?

28          A.    When I got ready to close, when I closed the door,
29 it came open.

1 Q. Okay. Was that unusual?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Okay, was there a pistol in it at that time?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Your pistol was gone?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And this was the .380 automatic that you have 8 described?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Do you remember who the first person was that 11 morning that you told your gun was stolen?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Who was that?

14 A. That's my brother.

15 Q. And what is your brother's name?

16 A. Emmitt.

17 Q. What did you say to Emmitt about your gun being
18 stolen?

19 A. I asked Emmitt did he see anybody around my car.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. And they had two more peoples in there, and I asked
22 them too.

23 Q. Okay, about what time was this?

24 A. That was right before. That was right before I
25 went, that was right before I got ready to go pick up the 26 lunch.

27 Q. So somewhere around 10:45 you were already asking
28 different people at work if any of them saw who got your gun
29 or--

1 A. --yeah, anybody around my car; right.

2 Q. Where did you go from there?

3 A. I went to the chicken place.

4 Q. Now is that the place that was known as Fuzzy's
5 Fried Chicken?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Where is that located in relationship to Angelica
8 where you were working? How far from Angelica's?

9 A. Oh, about, about a quarter of a mile, I guess,
10 something like that.

11 Q. Just right up the highway--

12 A. --around the corner--

13 Q. --and down the highway?

14 A. Yes, sir. Around the corner, yes, sir.

15 Q. Did you mention to anyone in there that your gun
16 was stolen?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Who did you tell in there?

19 A. I told Clarence May, Dot Flowers.

20 Q. Okay, so you had told several people at that point
21 already that your gun was stolen?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Do you know Curtis Flowers?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. How do you know him?

26 A. We, we-- he my nephew.

27 Q. He is your nephew?

28 A. Right.

29 Q. Did he know that you had a .380 automatic?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Objection.  Objection.  There
3                   is no foundation.

4                   BY THE COURT:  Well, he can testify to his own
5                   personal knowledge that he knows.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Can we approach?

7                   BY THE COURT:  Uh-hum.

8                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
9                   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

10                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Whether-- I think that I
11                   didn't make this objection before, but I'm making
12                   it now.  What I am challenging is the foundation.
13                   I mean how does he know?  I mean that's the
14                   question--

15                   BY THE COURT:  Well, of course, he doesn't
16                   have to ask him.  All he has got to do is ask him
17                   if he knows.  He could have seen-- he could, it
18                   could have happened with Curtis being there with 19                   him, seen-- there is all kind of ways.  And you can 20                   cross-examine him on that, but he can ask that 21                   question that way.  So the objection is overruled.

22                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

23           BY MR. EVANS:

24                   Q.    All right, let me start back over on this line.
25                   Did Curtis Flowers know that you had a .380 automatic?

26                   A.    Yes, sir.

27                   Q.    Approximately what time that day did you first tell
28                   law enforcement officers that your gun was stolen?

29                   A.    I didn't tell them.

1 Q. All right, do you remember talking to Bill
2 Thornburg?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. What I am getting at is do you remember talking to 5 Bill Thornburg at Angelica's?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Do you remember telling him about your gun being
8 stolen?

9 A. Yes, sir--

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection, Judge. The 11 questions are leading.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I am just trying to 13 make him understand at what point I'm talking
14 about. I think he--

15 BY THE COURT: --I think those are preliminary
16 questions, but don't lead him, okay?

17 BY MR. EVANS: Okay, yes, sir.

18 BY MR. EVANS:

19 Q. What did you tell Officer Bill Thornburg about your 20 gun?

21 A. That I had a .380 and it had been missing.
22 Somebody had broke in the car.

23 Q. All right. Did you explain to Officer Thornburg
24 where the gun was?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Did you explain to him about the glove box--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me, the questions
28 are leading. I object--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --All right, I will rephrase

1 the question.

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q. As far as the inside of your car where the gun was
4 contained, what did you tell Officer Thornburg?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. It assumes he
6 told him anything. Why can't he just ask him what
7 he told Officer Thornburg if that's what he wants
8 to do. I object to the leading question.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, that objection is 10 overruled as to that question.

11 BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q. You may answer the question if you remember what I
13 asked. Do you want me to rephrase-- do you want me to ask
14 you again?

15 A. What did I tell Mr. Thornburg?

16 Q. About the inside of your car.

17 A. I said somebody had broke in my pocket and stole my 18 gun.

19 Q. Okay. Where did you first tell the officers that 20 you got this gun from?

21 A. From my brother.

22 Q. Was that true?

23 A. No, sir. I lied.

24 Q. Why did you lie to the officers about where you had 25 gotten the gun from?

26 A. Because, because I, I, I lied because when 27 Katherine, when Katherine Snow had told me about somebody was 28 at my car that morning, the next day, and I told them, and 29 she said that it looked kind of like Curtis, and that's why I

1       lied.

2           Q.    She told you it looked kind of like Curtis?

3           A.    Yes, sir.

4           Q.    Did she give you a physical description of the
5       person?

6           A.    Yes, sir; she sho' did.

7           Q.    The physical description that she gave you of the 8       person that she saw by your car, did that make you think of 9       anybody in particular?

10          A.    Yes, sir.

11          Q.    Who was that?

12          A.    Curtis.

13          Q.    So before you ever told the officers where your gun
14       came from--

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Leading question.

16                   Objection.

17                   BY THE COURT:  No, he is restating testimony.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, that is objectionable
19       too.

20                   BY THE COURT:  No, I think he can do that.  He 21       can frame his question that way.

22       BY MR. EVANS:

23           Q.    If I can remember where I am now.  Before you ever
24       told the officers the lie about where your gun came from, who 25       did you suspect had taken the gun out of your glove
26       compartment?

27           A.    I really, I didn't know.

28           Q.    Who did you suspect was the one that was standing
29       up beside your car?

1 A. Me?

2 Q. Yeah.

3 A. She said it was Curtis.

4 Q. Okay, were you ever asked anything by the officers
5 in relationship-- well, let me rephrase that. What, if 6 anything, did you ever do to help the officers recover any 7 projectiles that you had fired out of that gun before?

8 A. I took them out to my house.

9 Q. All right, and what did you do when you carried the 10 officers out to your house?

11 A. They asked me have I been shooting the gun. I told 12 them yes.

13 Q. All right, is this behind your mother's house?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. What did you show the officers when you got to your 16 mother's house?

17 A. I showed them where we, where I was shooting at.

18 Q. All right, what had you been using as a target to 19 shoot at there?

20 A. At a big post out there.

21 Q. Can you describe the post for the ladies and
22 gentlemen of the jury?

23 A. It's a big cross tie where we used to hang our hogs
24 on. We shoots in that. We shoots down behind the house.

25 Q. And who had shot that .380 automatic that was taken
26 out of your car into the post that you carried the officers
27 to?

28 A. Me and my brother and them.

29 Q. Okay. Were you present when Officer Thornburg and

1 some other officers dug two projectiles out of that post?

2 A. Yes, sir; I was.

3 Q. And was that the same post that you had shot that
4 gun into?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 BY MR. EVANS: May I have the Court's
7 indulgence for just one second.

8 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

9 BY MR. EVANS:

10 Q. Mr. Simpson, do you see Curtis Flowers, the person
11 you have described as your nephew, in this courtroom today?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Would you point to him and identify him, please?

14 A. Right there.

15 BY MR. EVANS: May the record reflect that he
16 has identified the Defendant in this cause.

17 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that.

18 BY MR. EVANS:

19 Q. As of the date of the murders at Tardy Furniture,
20 do you know where Curtis was living?

21 A. With his mom.

22 Q. And do you know--

23 A. --No, no, no, no. With his girlfriend.

24 Q. Who was his girlfriend?

25 A. Connie May.

26 Q. Connie Moore?

27 A. Connie Moore.

28 Q. And that's where he was living?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness. Wait one--
2 just a second.

3 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

4 BY MR. EVANS:

5 Q. All right, just to try to pin down all the times,
6 Mr. Simpson, do you know about what time after you went to
7 Fuzzy's Fried Chicken and picked up the lunches, you got back
8 to Angelica with the lunches?

9 A. I went to two places that day.

10 Q. All right, where all did you go?

11 A. I went to Fuzzy's, and then I went to City Cafe.

12 Q. Did you go to both of those places picking up
13 lunches?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Where is City Cafe?

16 A. That's up on Applegate, 51.

17 Q. Okay, Applegate and 51 are the same thing?

18 A. On Applegate.

19 Q. Approximately how long did it take you-- if I
20 understand right, you have testified that you left around
21 10:45 to go get the lunches. Approximately how long did it
22 take you to go to Fuzzy's and the City Cafe and get back?

23 A. It was about something to 12:00, I think.

24 Q. Something to 12:00?

25 A. I think I remember. Something to 12:00.

26 Q. And I'm not trying to be exact, but as close as you
27 can pin it down, about how much to 12:00?

28 A. About, right before lunch, about a quarter till,
29 something like that. Between 11:30 and 12:00.

1 Q. Okay. Thank you.

2 BY MR. EVANS: That's all, Your Honor.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

4 BY THE COURT: Yes.

5 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Simpson. How are you doing?

7 A. All right.

8 Q. Mr. Simpson, now if I heard you correctly, you said
9 that you talked to Ms. Snow the next day?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And she told you-- is that what you told us?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. So if she said that she didn't talk to you for 14 several days because you weren't there the next day, then she 15 wouldn't be telling the truth; right?

16 A. She talked to me the next day.

17 Q. Okay. Now also I think you said that she told you
18 that Curtis was out there. She said Curtis?

19 A. Well, she said she didn't know his name.

20 Q. Oh, okay. She didn't say Curtis but she said she 21 didn't know his name?

22 A. She said, you know, the next day.

23 Q. Pardon?

24 A. She said she know, she said, she described him, and
25 it looked like Curtis.

26 Q. Oh, okay. She described him and you thought it
27 looked like Curtis; right?

28 A. Right.

29 Q. Okay, well, let's see how she described him. Did

1 she describe him by saying he had short pants on and a white
2 cap?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Oh, okay. And that he was built short?

5 A. No, but he is medium size.

6 Q. Okay. And had short pants on?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. And a white T-shirt and a cap?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And just to look at your testimony back a while ago
11 on page 666, right here you said that he said he was built
12 short. Is that what that says?

13 A. I said she said that?

14 Q. Yeah, isn't that what you said?

15 A. I said he was built. He was built.

16 Q. Okay--

17 A. --whether short or medium or whatever.

18 Q. Well, let me see what you said. You said, you were 19 asked the question. "How do you know she was talking about 20 Curtis?" The answer you gave is, "Because she said he 21 was,"-- listen to this. Read this, okay, because this is 22 what this says. "And how did you know she was talking about
23 Curtis?" "Because she said he was short pants on and had a
24 white cap and he was built short."

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Now that's what you say here back at this last
27 hearing; right?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Okay, and Ms. Snow seemed to me to be kind of short

1 herself; isn't that right?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. So I don't-- she wouldn't be calling a man that is 4 5 foot 10 short, would she?

5 A. Well, you know, I can't, I couldn't really tell
6 you.

7 Q. But anyway, she told you about these pants he had
8 on and this cap he had on; right?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Okay. And that is how you know it was him?

11 A. No, I didn't say -- well, that's how I describe
12 him.

13 Q. All right. Now you, you said that you lied about 14 where the gun came from; right?

15 A. I did.

16 Q. Okay. And the gun came from a guy named Ike
17 Williams; right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Ike Williams is not Curtis Flowers; right?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. So if you would have said the gun come from Ike
22 Williams, there is no way that the fact that the gun come
23 from Ike Williams is going to hurt Curtis Flowers, is it?
24 Curtis didn't give you the gun, did he?

25 A. No, sir. He sho' didn't.

26 Q. Ike is your friend; right?

27 A. Right.

28 Q. He is not Curtis' friend, is he?

29 A. He Curtis' friend too.

1           Q.    Well, that is not Curtis.  Ike is not Curtis;
2   right?

3           A.    No.

4           Q.    So Ike knew you had the gun too; right?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    Okay, and several of your people that you knew knew
7   you had the gun; is that right?

8           A.    Yes, sir.

9           Q.    And in fact, people break in people's cars; they 10   don't sometimes know what they got, do they?

11          A.    No, sir.

12          Q.    In fact, what you said at the last hearing is that
13   you didn't even have the gun in the car at first.  You had it
14   in your mother's house; right?

15          A.    No.  I did not.  I said I had it--

16          Q.    You said that you put the gun in the vehicle the 17   night before at your mother's house?

18          A.    Right.  Right.

19          Q.    That's what you said?

20          A.    Right.

21          Q.    So it was in your mother's house?

22          A.    It was in my mother's house, and I put it in the 23   car that night before, that night.

24          Q.    I see.  So the gun had been in your mother's house;
25   right?

26          A.    Yes.

27          Q.    And you put it in the car the night before; right?

28          A.    To go get it cleaned.

29          Q.    I see; okay, whatever.  And so you didn't look in

1 the glove compartment, at least according to what you told
2 the police?

3 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay, you didn't even look in the glove compartment
5 between about 9:15 the night before until the day that you
6 now say that you discovered your gun stolen; isn't that
7 right?

8 A. I knew it was in there.

9 Q. That is not my question. Didn't you say at the 10 last hearing that you did not even look in the glove
11 compartment prior, between the time you put the thing in the 12 glove compartment at your mother's house and between the time
13 that you say you were going out there to get the lunch the 14 next day; isn't that right?

15 A. No. I didn't look in it.

16 Q. And the car was open; right?

17 A. Oh, yes. It was open.

18 Q. So you didn't see Curtis break into the car, did
19 you?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. And Mrs., and Ms. Snow didn't tell you Curtis
22 Flowers broke in your car. She didn't say Curtis' name, say
23 he broke in your car. She didn't say that, did she?

24 A. She described him.

25 Q. Do you hear my question?

26 A. No, sir. She didn't say it; no, sir.

27 Q. No. And you say she described him; right?

28 A. Right.

29 Q. You say she described him by saying he had a white

1 cap on?

2 A. White cap.

3 Q. And she described him, she described him by saying
4 he had white shorts on?

5 A. No.

6 Q. That, isn't that what you just said?

7 A. He had a white cap, white T-shirt and blue shorts.

8 Q. Okay. So he had short pants on; right?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. And she said that he had a T-shirt and a cap on; is
11 that right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Now if she just said to us a little while ago that 14 she never told you that, would she be lying?

15 BY MR. HORAN: Objection, Your Honor.

16 BY THE COURT: You can't pit one against the 17 other.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 Q. Now what you do know is that the police were asking
20 you questions; right?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And they were asking you questions, you questions
23 about Tardy's; isn't that right? They were asking you
24 questions about the gun and about the incident; isn't that
25 correct?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. And so you were being asked questions by the 28 police; right?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And you lied to the police. You know that too;
2 right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And you were saying that you told-- you wanted to 5 tell the jury that you didn't say that Ike had given you the 6 gun, and that was what I heard you say. You didn't want to 7 say that Ike had given you the gun because you knew it was 8 Curtis that was by your car; right?

9 A. No, I didn't say that.

10 Q. Oh, you didn't? Well, just let me ask you this
11 question. Actually Curtis' lawyer came to you and asked you
12 if he could discuss the case with you to find out what you
13 knew; is that right? This gentleman over here, Mr. Freelon.

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And you know, from no other reason because of your
16 experience in looking at TV and everything that lawyers
17 investigate cases for their clients; right?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. And the way that they can work is that they talk to 20 people and ask the people what happened so they can get the 21 real information; right?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. What
23 lawyers do has nothing to do with this. If he 24 wants to ask him questions, he can, but what 25 lawyers do on cases is not a proper question for
26 this witness.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is preliminary, Judge.

28 BY THE COURT: And I think I know where you
29 are going, but let's get to it.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. You know that; right?

4 A. Repeat that.

5 Q. You know that lawyers investigate cases in order to 6 help their clients; right?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. And you knew that this lawyer was representing
9 Curtis; right?

10 A. Yes, sir, after he told me.

11 Q. And the lawyer asked you if you would talk to him
12 and tell him what you knew, and you said no; right?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. You are the guy that was trying to help Curtis;
15 right?

16 A. Help Curtis?

17 Q. You don't ever lock your car, do you?

18 A. No, sir. I lock my pocket.

19 Q. Now let me see if I understand this correctly. On 20 that particular day you went out the first time around about,
21 well, I don't know whether you went out the first time, but 22 anyway you say you went out one time about 9:00 or 9:15; is
23 that right?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And you didn't see a glove compartment at that time
26 busted into; is that right?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. Now the second time you went out, if I understand
29 you correctly, was around about 10:20; right?

1           A.    10:20-25.   Right.

2           Q.    And if I understand, and you didn't see a glove
3 compartment busted in?

4           A.    No.   No, sir.

5           Q.    And in fact, if I'm not mistaken, you testified
6 before-- and both of those times you opened the door and 7 closed the door; right, because one time you had to get your
8 breakfast out; right?

9           A.    Right.

10          Q.    And you have got to close the door; right?

11          A.    Well, I just closed the door.

12          Q.    Right.

13          A.    Went on back in the plant.

14          Q.    All right.   Now the other thing that I think that 15 you shared with us is that, or shared before, is that the 16 reason that you say you went out at 10:20 or 10:25 is to roll
17 your windows down; right?

18          A.    Let the windows down, power windows.

19          Q.    Okay, you have power so you were letting them down?

20          A.    Yes, sir.

21          Q.    Which means that your windows were up before;
22 right?

23          A.    Yes.

24          Q.    So they would have been up between, between the
25 time--

26          A.    --time I got to work--

27          Q.    --you got there and the time you let them down?

28          A.    Yes, sir.

29          Q.    So they would have been up between 7:00 and 7:30?

1           A.    Oh, yes, sir.

2           Q.    So if anybody was out there in the parking lot
3 looking at your car and looking at somebody leaning on your 4 car at 7:00 or 7:30, your windows on your car would have been
5 up; is that right?

6           A.    Right.

7           Q.    After the police talked to you the first day, they 8 talked to you at least two or three times after that; isn't
9 that correct?

10          A.    Yes, sir.

11          Q.    Well, one thing they never did on the day that they 12 first talked to you, they never gave you any kind of test to 13 determine whether you had shot a gun that day, did they, or 14 to determine whether you had actually-- strike that. To 15 determine whether you had come in contact with a gun or 16 anything like that; is that correct?

17          A.    That's right.

18          Q.    I'm sorry?

19          A.    Yes, sir.

20          Q.    Or whether you had come in contact with anybody
21 else that had come in contact with a gun; right?

22          A.    Right.

23          Q.    Or whether you picked up any kind of particles off
24 of a furniture anywhere else that might have come from a gun;
25 right?

26          A.    Right.

27          Q.    Now one thing you know that a lot of people in 28 your, a lot of people that you know hunt; is that correct?

29          A.    Yes, sir.

1           Q.    A lot of people in Curtis' family, they hunt;
2 right?

3           A.    Yes, sir.

4           Q.    They have rifles and shotguns, and they hunt all
5 the time, don't they?

6           A.    Yes, sir. I guess.

7           Q.    All right, sometimes they do a little shooting of 8 guns when it ain't hunting season; right?

9           A.    Oh, yes, sir.

10                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to other
11 people unless he ties in some relevancy. It
12 doesn't matter if the whole world hunts unless he 13 can tie it to this particular case.

14                   BY THE COURT: Well, he is on cross-
15 examination. Go ahead.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17           Q.    And Curtis associates with those people all the 18 time; right?

19           A.    Yeah, that is his family.

20           Q.    Yeah, he goes into their houses; right?

21           A.    Family, right.

22           Q.    Handles their, handles things in their house;
23 right?

24           A.    I guess so. Yes, sir.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge, one second,
26 please.

27                   (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

28           Q.    Now Mr. Simpson, they keep records at your job when 29 you work and when you don't work; right?

1           A.    Yeah, they supposed to.  Yes, sir.

2           Q.    Okay, and wouldn't it be true that after you
3 clocked out on 7/16, that is July 16, 1996, the day that we
4 have been talking about; you understand that?

5           A.    Yeah, the first day of the murder?

6           Q.    Yeah, the day the people died in Tardy's?

7           A.    Oh, okay.

8           Q.    Wouldn't it be true that after that day, you did
9 not work for at least four days in a row?

10          A.    I got suspended.

11          Q.    So you weren't even there for the next four days?

12          A.    I came the day-- I came to work that morning, and 13 so they sent, they sent me back home that morning.  I came to 14 work that morning.

15          Q.    I see, but you didn't work from 7/17 to 7/20?

16          A.    Yeah, because they let me work that morning, and
17 they sent me back home because I started work.  I get there
18 before the supervisor do.

19                   (Mr. Lumumba shows document to Counsel
20 opposite, and they confer out of the hearing of the Court
21 Reporter until the following:)

22                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Do you have any problem with 23 this?

24                   BY MR. EVANS:  Yeah, that is not a time card.
25 He can testify when he worked.

26                   (Counsel confer further out of the hearing of 27 the Court Reporter.)

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  May we have this marked,
29 please.

1 (SHEET SHOWING DATES WORKED BY DOYLE SIMPSON
2 WAS MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-14 FOR
3 IDENTIFICATION.)

4 BY MR. EVANS: We don't object to that one.

5 (NOTE: Referring to another document that
6 will be marked later.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. I am showing you Exhibit D-14. It's for 9 identification purposes. They do keep a record down there of 10 what days you work and what days you don't work; right?

11 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, we object to this 12 particular unless he can identify that as an 13 official document. That is just something typed on 14 a paper.

15 BY THE COURT: I understand that, but that is 16 just what he asked him, if he could identify it.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You, well--

18 BY THE COURT: If he can identify it, he can 19 identify it.

20 BY MR. HORAN: That's right.

21 BY THE COURT: Do you understand the question,
22 Mr. Simpson?

23 BY THE WITNESS: What's that? Will you repeat
24 it?

25 BY THE COURT: I believe you better ask him
26 again, Mr. Lumumba.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. You recognize that as being a record of the days
29 you worked down there at your job; is that right?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And it indicates there when you worked and when you
3 didn't work; right?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And it indicates there that you worked on which 6 dates?

7 A. 15 and 16th.

8 Q. And does it say anything in there about you working
9 after the 16th?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. What does it say?

12 A. I was, I was-- they dismissed me for having--

13 Q. Well, at least for four days; right?

14 A. Yeah, they dismissed me.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I move the admission of this 16 document here.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Which document is it?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am moving the admission of 19 D-14, the one he just testified from.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I would like to 21 voir dire him on this one if I may.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay.

23 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. Mr. Simpson.

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. This document, this piece of paper that you have 27 been handed, does it explain the fact that you came in to 28 work on the 17th--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Just--

1           Q.    --and worked for a while before you were asked to 2 go home?

3           A.    Yes, sir.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Objection, Judge.

5                   BY MR. EVANS:  On what basis?

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  The objection is that he is 7 supposed to be voir dired on the document, whether
8 he knows what the document is, whether it's a
9 legitimate document, not what the document says.
10 That is not what he is supposed to be voir dired
11 on.  It's just on the admissibility of the 12 document.

13                   BY THE COURT:  It is; that is true.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15           Q.    Mr. Simpson, is that any kind of official document
16 from Angelica, or is that some--

17           A.    --I don't know where it from--

18           Q.    --things typed on a piece of paper?

19           A.    That is something on a piece of paper.

20                   BY MR. EVANS:  I object to this document
21 because it does not show the records at that time.

22                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  What I-- that definitely does
23 show the records at the time, but secondly, what I
24 would say here, Judge, is I am objecting to the 25 question was leading, trying to tell the witness
26 what to say.  If Angelica comes in here, they will
27 tell you that that is a record that they gave to us
28 as to when he worked and when he didn't work.

29                   BY THE COURT:  Well, they can do that, and

1           then it might be admissible. Until that time it's
2           not, obviously on its face, it's not a business
3           record, and it is nothing for me to know that it's
4           an official record of when he worked. You can ask
5           him questions about it, and he can testify to it.
6           But as far as this document is concerned, it's not
7           admissible in the state of the evidence now. So
8           that objection is sustained at this point.

9                       (COPY OF TIME SHEET ON DOYLE SIMPSON WAS 10           MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-15 FOR
11           IDENTIFICATION.)

12   CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13           Q.   D-15 for identification purposes. You recognize
14           that?

15           A.   (Pause while witness looks at document.) What is 16           this?

17           Q.   Do you keep a time card?

18           A.   No, sir. I sure don't.

19           Q.   You don't have a time card at Angelica?

20           A.   No, I do not.

21           Q.   You don't punch in and punch out?

22           A.   Yeah, I punch in and punch out, but not no time
23           card.

24           Q.   What do you punch in and punch out on?

25           A.   I punch out with a sheet.

26           Q.   Does that look like the sheet that you punch in and 27           punch out on?

28           A.   No, sir. My name, my name do not be on it.

29           Q.   So you punch out on a sheet that has somebody

1 else's name on it then?

2 A. No, sir. I just punch-- when I punch it in, I just
3 take it to the office.

4 Q. Right. So by the way, you have already told me
5 that you were suspended for four days; is that correct?

6 A. It was three days, three or four days. I kept a
7 card.

8 Q. Right after this incident?

9 A. Yeah, right after.

10 Q. Let me ask you this.

11 BY THE COURT: Let me ask him one thing too.
12 I may have misunderstood, but didn't y'all agree to 13 the admission of this document?

14 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

15 BY THE COURT: Well, let's--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, it's admitted.

17 BY MR. HORAN: I don't think he has any 18 knowledge of that document, Your Honor, but it's--

19 BY THE COURT: --Y'all have got no objection
20 to it being admitted?

21 BY MR. EVANS: We have no objection to it even 22 though he doesn't, probably doesn't even know what
23 it is. We don't object to it.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. Then let it be marked
25 and entered.

26 (COPY OF TIME SHEET ON DOYLE SIMPSON
27 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-15 FOR
28 IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE.)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1 Q. By the way, you didn't clock out when you left out
2 at 9:15, did you? When you left out of--

3 A. --Oh, no, uh-uh. I didn't clock. I just walked to 4 the car, walked to my car in the parking lot.

5 Q. But in any event you didn't clock out?

6 A. (Witness shakes his head.)

7 Q. And you didn't clock out when you left at about 10
8 something, did you?

9 A. No. I clocked out when the time, you know, at 10 10:30.

11 Q. What you do is you clock in when you come--

12 A. --I don't clock out no more until I get ready to 13 leave.

14 Q. Okay, and you leave normally at 10:30; is that
15 right?

16 A. 10:30, right.

17 Q. That is normally when you leave. And that is the 18 only two times that you really clock out; right?

19 A. In the morning and when I leave.

20 Q. That is not only true of you; that is true of 21 everybody else what works there; is that right, is that they 22 don't--

23 A. --No, no, not everybody.

24 Q. I'm not talking about the time that you worked.
25 Listen to my question. The fact that they don't clock out,
26 doesn't anybody ever clock out for breakfast or lunch, do
27 they?

28 A. Not for breaks, at break time.

29 Q. Okay, they don't break-- they don't clock out?

1           A.    They don't clock out for breaks.

2                       (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

3                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I have no further questions
4                       of this witness, Judge.

5   REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

6           Q.    Mr. Simpson, did you consider yourself trying to 7           help the officers or trying to conceal evidence from them?

8           A.    Trying to help them.

9           Q.    Did anybody make you take the officers to where you
10           had test fired that gun, where you had target practiced with
11           it?

12          A.    No, sir.

13          Q.    Nobody tried to force you to do that?

14          A.    I did it on my own.

15          Q.    And the officers would have never been able to 16           compare the bullets that were known to be fired from your gun 17           to the store if it hadn't been for your help, would they?

18                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Objection.  First of all, it
19           is leading, and second of all, it asks the witness
20           to respond to a question--

21                       BY MR. EVANS:  --I will rephrase.

22                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --that could possibly be--

23                       BY THE COURT:  --It is leading.

24                       BY MR. EVANS:  I will rephrase the question.

25   BY MR. EVANS:

26          Q.    Would the officers have had any way of finding the 27           bullets that you had test fired or shot from your gun if you
28           had not carried them to it?

29                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Objection.  How does he know

1                   that?

2                   BY THE COURT: Well, he is entitled to give
3                   that opinion. That is a lay opinion.

4 BY THE WITNESS:

5           A. They wouldn't have knowed it.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: No further questions, Your
7                   Honor.

8                   BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

9                   BY MR. EVANS: One second.

10                   (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

11                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, as far as the State.

12                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't need him. Yes, sir,
13                   Judge.

14                   BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Simpson, you are free
15                   to go.

16                                   WITNESS EXCUSED.

17                   BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

18                   BY MR. EVANS: Give us a second, Your Honor.

19                   BY MR. HORAN: We need to see if some experts
20                   are here, Judge. Is that okay?

21                   BY MR. EVANS: We are trying to figure out--
22                   we have got a couple of experts that may be--

23                   BY THE COURT: -- Okay, well, I know the jury
24                   will appreciate that. How about 10 minutes?

25                   (FOLLOWING THE SECOND AFTERNOON RECESS ON 26                   MARCH 25, 1999, THE TRIAL CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT
27                   WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT
28                   PRESENT:)

29                   BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm ready for the jury.

1 Who do you have next, Mr. Horan?

2 BY MR. HORAN: Hold on just a minute, Judge.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Clemmie Fleming, Judge.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay.

5 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

6 BY THE COURT: Who did you say?

7 BY MR. EVANS: Clemmie Fleming. I believe
8 they have already gone after her.

9 BY THE COURT: Ms. Fleming, have you been
10 sworn?

11 BY THE WITNESS: No.

12 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
13 hand.

14 CLEMMIE FLEMING,

15 a black female called to testify as a witness by the State of
16 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
17 follows, to-wit:

18 BY THE COURT: Have a seat, there.

19 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed?

20 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

22 Q. Ms. Fleming, where do you live?

23 A. In Winona.

24 Q. And have you lived in Winona most of your life?

25 A. All my life.

26 BY THE COURT: You need to speak up, Ms.
27 Fleming.

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. Ms. Fleming, I want to direct your attention

1 specifically to the day of the murders at Tardy Furniture in
2 Winona. Do you remember that day?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Now the Court Reporter has got to take down
5 everything, so be sure and speak out so she can hear you;
6 okay?

7 A. (Witness nods her head.)

8 Q. All right, Ms. Fleming, did you have an occasion to 9 go down by Tardy Furniture on the day of the killings?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Approximately what time did you go down in front of 12 Tardy Furniture?

13 A. Around 10 o'clock.

14 Q. Were you by yourself or with someone?

15 A. With Roy Harris.

16 Q. All right, Roy Harris was driving you?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Why did you go down to Tardy Furniture?

19 A. Because I owed on a bill.

20 Q. Okay, pull the mike just a little bit closer to 21 you. You are soft spoken, and it doesn't pick up real good.
22 Did you actually go in Tardy Furniture?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Why did you not go in Tardy Furniture?

25 A. I didn't feel like it.

26 Q. Okay, would you explain your condition at that time
27 to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury so they will know why
28 you didn't feel like it?

29 A. I was pregnant.

1           Q.    Okay.  When y'all went down in front of Tardy
2 Furniture, which direction were you going?

3           A.    We went down toward Carrollton-- we was going, we
4 went down towards Carrollton Avenue.

5           Q.    Okay, were you in front of Tardy Furniture or 6 beside, behind or where?

7           A.    We went down on the side of Tardy's.

8           Q.    Okay.  When you were leaving Tardy Furniture, did
9 you see anyone?

10          A.    Curtis Flowers.

11          Q.    You saw Curtis Flowers?

12          A.    Uh-hum.

13          Q.    Do you know Curtis Flowers?

14          A.    Yes.

15          Q.    Do you see him in the courtroom?

16          A.    Right there.

17                   BY MR. EVANS:  May the record reflect that she
18 has identified the Defendant, Curtis Flowers?

19                   BY THE COURT:  Let the record reflect that.

20 BY MR. EVANS:

21          Q.    As of the day of the murders at Tardy Furniture,
22 how long had you known Curtis Flowers?

23          A.    Every since I was old enough to know.

24          Q.    Every since you was old enough to know?

25          A.    (Witness nods her head.)

26          Q.    What was Curtis Flowers doing when you left Tardy
27 Furniture with Roy Harris?

28          A.    Running.

29          Q.    Running?  How was he running?

1           A.    Like somebody was after him.

2           Q.    And where was this Defendant running like somebody
3 was after him?

4           A.    I don't know where he was running.

5           Q.    Now I'm not asking you where he was running to.
6 Where did you see him running?

7           A.    On Carrollton Avenue.

8           Q.    In relationship to Tardy Furniture, where was he 9 when you saw him running?

10          A.    92 feet away from the building.

11          Q.    How many feet?

12          A.    92 feet away from the building.

13          Q.    Have you gone back with someone that measured it?

14          A.    Yes, sir.

15          Q.    And you pointed out where you saw him when you
16 first saw him running?

17          A.    Yes, sir.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, these are all leading 19 questions. I object.

20                   BY THE COURT: It's leading, but I'm going to 21 allow it. Go ahead.

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23          Q.    When you saw the Defendant Curtis Flowers running,
24 was he running toward or away from Tardy Furniture?

25          A.    He was running away from it.

26          Q.    He was running away from Tardy Furniture?

27          A.    Yes, sir.

28          Q.    And this was about what time?

29          A.    10 o'clock.

1 BY MR. EVANS: One moment, Your Honor.

2 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

3 BY MR. EVANS:

4 Q. Ms. Fleming, I show you Exhibit D-11 and ask you to 5 look at this photograph. Can you tell what that photograph
6 shows?

7 A. A car in the road.

8 Q. No, I'm talking about the whole photograph, the 9 buildings and all.

10 A. The dry cleaning.

11 Q. Okay, is that Hunger's Dry Cleaners that is next to 12 Tardy Furniture?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. All right. Is that the same street in that 15 photograph that you saw the Defendant running down?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection, Judge--

17 BY THE WITNESS:

18 A. --Yes, sir.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --The questions are leading.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay, that is leading now.

21 BY MR. EVANS:

22 Q. Do you see the street on that photograph that you
23 saw the Defendant running down?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Would you step down and point out to the ladies and 26 gentlemen of the jury approximately where you saw the 27 Defendant running on that photograph.

28 BY MR. EVANS: May the witness step down, Your
29 Honor?

1                   BY THE COURT: Yes.

2           BY MR. EVANS:

3           Q.    If you would, I would like for you to hold the 4           picture up, and as you show the jury, walk down so that 5           everybody can see. Point to the approximate place on that 6           photograph that you saw him running.

7           A.    Right here. (Witness points while standing in 8           front of the jury.)

9           Q.    Okay, give me just a second. You can just stand
10          there for just a second. I would like for you to take this 11          marker and put an "X" in the approximate place that you saw 12          the Defendant Curtis Flowers running.

13          A.    (Witness marks on photograph.)

14          Q.    Okay. You may take your seat.

15                   (Photographs shown to Defense Counsel.
16          Exhibit D-11 was passed to the jury.)

17          A.    (Witness resumes witness stand.)

18          Q.    Ms. Fleming, after the saw the Defendant Curtis
19          Flowers running away from Tardy's, which direction did you
20          and Roy Harris go?

21          A.    We went up to, um, up Church Street and down Powell
22          Street.

23          Q.    Okay, and did you, did you see the Defendant at any 24          other time after that?

25          A.    Like we was at Jeff's store, and he was like fixing
26          to coming across the street.

27          Q.    All right, would you describe to the ladies and 28          gentlemen of the jury where Jeff's store is?

29          A.    On 51.

1 Q. Okay, on 51? And how long a period of time after
2 you saw him running from the store, did you see him up there
3 about Jeff's store?

4 A. It was pretty quick. I don't know.

5 Q. As close as you can estimate. It doesn't have to 6 be exact.

7 A. Like 5 minutes.

8 Q. Okay. When he was running, how was he running?
9 And by that what I mean was it a slow run? Was it a jog?
10 Was it running wide open? How was he running?

11 A. He was running wide open.

12 BY MR. EVANS: No further questions.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

14 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Fleming.

17 A. Good afternoon.

18 Q. Ms. Fleming, I believe isn't it true that you--
19 well, first of all, let me ask you this. Do you know a
20 person by the name of Stacey Wright?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. And actually Stacey Wright is a friend of yours,
23 isn't she?

24 A. Yes, not real close friend, but yeah.

25 Q. And didn't you tell Stacey Wright that you had just 26 told that story to the police about Curtis because you
27 thought that you either might get some reward money or that 28 you might get, they might not make you pay for your
29 furniture?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay, I see. But now you do owe, you did owe
3 Tardy's some furniture money, didn't you?

4 A. My brother supposed to have been paying it off.

5 Q. Well, now let me, let's take this one step at a
6 time. You owe for the furniture, for the--

7 A. --uh-huh, and my co-signer was going to pay it off.

8 Q. But you owed the money; right?

9 A. Uh-hum.

10 Q. And you haven't paid it?

11 A. Uh-uh.

12 Q. And in fact, have you paid them yet?

13 A. Uh-uh. My brother supposed to have been paying. I
14 don't know if he paid.

15 Q. My question is have you paid it yet?

16 A. Uh-uh.

17 Q. Now if I understand what you have just told this 18 jury correctly, at the time you did live near a guy by the 19 name of Roy Harris; is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And also he has a girlfriend that he lives with by 22 the name of Bingham; is that right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. What is her first name?

25 A. Belinda.

26 Q. Belinda Bingham; is that correct?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And if I understand correctly, that they live like 29 outside of town; right?

1           A.    They do now.

2           Q.    Well, they lived outside-- okay, and so it was a
3 good little ways that you had to drive to get to Tardy's; is
4 that right?

5           A.    Yeah.

6           Q.    And the people that called you either that day or 7 the day before, and they had told you-- in fact, it may have
8 been that day. They called you and told you you had to get 9 down there and pay on that furniture or they--

10           BY MR. HORAN:  --Your Honor, that is 11 objectionable.

12           BY THE WITNESS:  --It was--

13           BY MR. HORAN:  --that is hearsay--

14           BY THE COURT:  --Wait, wait.

15           BY MR. HORAN:  Objection.  It is hearsay.

16           BY MR. LUMUMBA:  It is not offered for the 17 truth of the matter asserted therein, Judge.  It is 18 offered to show her motivation of activities.

19           BY MR. EVANS:  The fact that she owed a bill?

20           BY THE COURT:  Well, I mean the hearsay for 21 that, that would have to come from the witness
22 stand.  What he is objecting to is what you said;
23 is that right?

24           BY MR. HORAN:  That's right.

25           BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir.

26           BY THE COURT:  Okay.  Sustained.

27           BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, well, this is 28 cross-examination.  I can lead her.

29           BY THE COURT:  You can lead her; absolutely.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Well, let me ask you this. You went down to the 3 store; is that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Somebody had called you; isn't that right?

6 A. Called me?

7 Q. About your bill.

8 A. They called me the day before.

9 Q. About your bill?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Said that you had to pay it?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Said that if you didn't pay it, they were going to 14 take the furniture?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And so what you are telling us is that you had, and 17 you had somebody take you all the way to the store from this 18 house where you lived?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Which was at a good distance from the store; right?

21 A. It ain't that far.

22 Q. And you had them drive you all the way to the 23 store; right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And I think what you told me or Mr. Freelon before
26 you actually paid them to take you to the store?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. You paid them to take you to the store, and 29 according to you, you pull up in front of the store?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you don't get out to go in to pay a bill that
3 they told you that you have got to pay or they are going to 4 take your furniture?

5 A. Yes, because I rode with his girlfriend all the 6 time, and she was going to take me anyway.

7 Q. They had told you you had to pay that bill or they
8 were going to take your furniture; right?

9 A. Uh-hum.

10 Q. And you go all the way up to the store. You don't 11 go in to pay it; right? Is that right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Is that what you want to tell the jury?

14 A. I was going to pay it, yeah.

15 Q. But you didn't. You are right in front of the 16 store, and you don't get out and go pay it--

17 A. --no--

18 Q. --because you are not feeling good; right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you don't send him in to pay it?

21 A. Uh-uh.

22 Q. And so after getting right in front of the store,
23 you ride away. Is that what you are telling me?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Now by the way, you knew about the reward; right?

26 A. I didn't know right-- I didn't, I don't never 27 believe stuff like that.

28 Q. But you had heard about it?

29 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Okay, I see. In any event, you owed Tardy money.
2 You didn't pay them that day, and to this date you haven't
3 paid them?

4 A. Uh-uh.

5 Q. I'm sorry?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you have a friend by the name of Latarsha?

8 A. Tasha who?

9 Q. Pardon?

10 A. Tarsha Blissett?

11 Q. Yeah.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. The name is Bliss; right?

14 A. Blissett.

15 Q. Blissett, right. Do you have a friend by the name
16 of Tarsha Blissett; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you told her, did you not, that you were doing
19 this so you wouldn't have to pay any money back to Tardy?

20 A. No.

21 Q. She is still your friend, isn't she?

22 A. She don't come around that much.

23 Q. And so you were riding with Roy Harris; isn't that
24 correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. And that's what you want, you are telling the 27 ladies and gentlemen of the jury?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Roy Harris is kind of a, he is a black man, and he

1 is older than you; is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And in fact, he has a hard time hearing; is that
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You left, according to your story as I understand
7 it, about going into the store and all, you leave and go
8 somewhere else; is that right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Now wouldn't it be more truthful to say that 11 actually you never did go to the store, or what you did is 12 you went over to your sister's house immediately? I mean he 13 drove you to your sister's house; right?

14 A. I went over there.

15 Q. But you didn't go to the store, did you? You
16 didn't even go in front of the store, did you?

17 A. Yes, I went to the store.

18 Q. So Roy would know because he was driving the car;
19 right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And then what happened is that you went to your 22 sister's house; right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And I think that what you have told us before is 25 that after going to your sister's house, you stayed there for 26 a little while. Then Roy came and got you and took you back
27 home; is that right?

28 A. Uh-hum.

29 Q. I'm sorry?

1 A. He came and got me.

2 Q. And you went back home?

3 A. Uh-hum.

4 Q. And the only thing you did was stay at your
5 sister's house for however much time and then went back home
6 which, was it across the street from where Roy and Ms.
7 Bingham live?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. And that's where you went?

10 A. Uh-hum.

11 Q. And your sister is Mary Wilson-- Mary Williams?

12 A. Mary Fleming.

13 Q. I'm sorry. Excuse me; you are right. Mary
14 Fleming; is that correct?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And so how did you find out about the Tardy's?

17 A. I was at home sleep, and when I woke up, his 18 girlfriend was telling me about it.

19 Q. Okay. So now isn't it a fact that what actually
20 happened is that when he took you over to your sister's
21 house, then what happened is that your sister or somebody
22 else indicated to you that something had happened at Tardy,
23 and you guys all went together around the corner--

24 A. --no--

25 Q. --and saw the police out there?

26 A. No. I went over to her house. I came to her
27 house.

28 Q. Okay, I see. But your sister didn't take you
29 around the corner, or you didn't go around the corner with

1       them to see what had happened at Tardy's?

2           A.    No.

3           Q.    And your sister is Mary Fleming?

4           A.    Yes.

5           Q.    And you say that Ms. Bingham told you about it? Is 6       that what you are saying?

7           A.    Uh-hum. She woke me up and told me.

8           Q.    And that would be Mr. Harris' girlfriend?

9           A.    Yes.

10                       (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

11       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12           Q.    Now let me see; now you said this was around 10
13       o'clock; is that right?

14           A.    Yes.

15           Q.    Okay, and you saw Curtis running?

16           A.    Uh-hum.

17           Q.    You didn't see him in a brown car?

18           A.    I ain't see him in no brown car.

19           Q.    You didn't see him getting in a car?

20           A.    No.

21           Q.    Or going to a car?

22           A.    No.

23           Q.    You saw him out there running?

24           A.    (Witness nods her head.)

25           Q.    Okay, and of course, you don't know what kind of 26       clothes he had on or anything like that?

27           A.    No.

28           Q.    You saw him twice, but you don't know how he was 29       dressed?

1 A. No. I just know his face when I see him.

2 Q. I'm sorry?

3 A. I know his face when I see him.

4 Q. I see. You still haven't paid that bill at
5 Tardy's?

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any further
8 questions right now.

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

10 Q. Ms. Fleming, you talked to the officers and told
11 them who you saw running from the store; is that correct?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Who did you tell the officers you saw running from 14 the store?

15 A. I told John--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, objection. That is 17 not, that is improper redirect. I didn't raise 18 anything about her talking to officers on 19 cross-examination.

20 BY MR. EVANS: He is trying to impeach her
21 identification.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not, I am trying to--
23 there is no question I am impeaching her, but--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --He is not impeaching; he is 25 trying.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; excuse me.
27 Well, time will tell.

28 BY THE COURT: Well--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --But let me say this. Can

1 we--

2 BY THE COURT: Somebody besides y'all will
3 decide that.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach?

5 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
6 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

7 BY MR. HORAN: He has tried to show interest
8 and bias by asking about this reward money--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Then ask her about the reward
10 money. I have got a problem with, you know, like 11 leaving stuff for redirect which they should have 12 asked in direct.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, I would have a problem
14 with that too. I am trying to decide whether you
15 opened it up.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I didn't say anything
17 about officers--

18 BY THE COURT: What was your question?

19 BY MR. EVANS: The question was did you tell
20 the officers--

21 BY THE COURT: --But I mean I just didn't hear
22 you.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Did you tell the officers who 24 you saw running from the store, or who did you tell
25 the officers you saw running from the store.

26 BY MR. HORAN: He has attacked her on who was 27 present, what she saw, things like that.

28 BY MR. EVANS: See, he has tried and even 29 though he hasn't put any witnesses on, he has

1           attacked her on telling other people that she
2           didn't see this. So we are entitled to go back and
3           rehabilitate--

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, Judge, let me say,
5           this is how it goes. Let me see if I can say.
6           They are entitled to put on prior-- first of all,
7           statements which are consistent are generally not
8           admitted if they are prior statements because they
9           are self serving. They are entitled to put on a
10          prior consistent under certain circumstances, and I
11          have got it right here in the rule book. One of 12          those circumstances is where we have impeached her,
13          and then they are trying to rehabilitate her if the 14          statement comes to the time prior to the time that 15          the motive to lie would have occurred and then to--

16          BY THE COURT: --I don't know that he has 17          asked any questions to impeach her.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Not yet. Not yet.

19          BY MR. HORAN: Judge, he has asked her if she 20          lied about it and made a false statement for the 21          purpose of gaining money.

22          BY THE COURT: Well, maybe I missed that
23          question.

24          BY MR. EVANS: He definitely asked that two
25          times--

26          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; excuse me.

27          BY THE COURT: Excuse me, Mr. Horan.

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, Judge.

29          BY MR. HORAN: I wasn't talking about that.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If she denied it. I have not
2 impeached her. She denied that. The thing that
3 would impeach her, if somebody gets on the stand
4 and said she made such a statement --

5 BY MR. EVANS: Uh-uh.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me; excuse me. At the 7 time that somebody gets on the stand and says she 8 made such a statement, then they are entitled to 9 come back and rehabilitate her. She doesn't need
10 rehabilitating yet. She has denied that she ever
11 made any statement. Can we--

12 BY THE COURT: That's right.

13 BY MR. HORAN: Look at 613, Judge.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay.

15 BY MR. HORAN: That is not correct.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay.

17 (Pause while the Court reads.)

18 BY MR. HORAN: I'm through. Read the rule.

19 BY THE COURT: I did. I read A. What you
20 want me to read, A or B?

21 BY MR. HORAN: That is not the right rule.

22 BY THE COURT: I had that feeling.

23 BY MR. HORAN: It's 803, I think. 801, I'm 24 sorry. 801 (d), (d) (1).

25 BY THE COURT: (Pause while the Court reads.)
26 Okay, but the question is not whether it's hearsay.

27 BY MR. HORAN: That's right. It's not 28 hearsay. It's--

29 BY THE COURT: --No, it's whether it's proper

1 redirect.

2 BY MR. EVANS: The only issue there is it's
3 something they covered. They covered why she told
4 that, and if they are attacking her saying that it
5 didn't happen, we should be able to go in and 6 verify that she has told other people it did. See,
7 he is trying to say she told other people it
8 didn't. So we are entitled to show that she told
9 other people it did.

10 BY MR. HORAN: That's exactly right.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The state of the record is 12 that she said that she never told anybody
13 anything. That is the testimony. My question--

14 BY THE COURT: --Why wouldn't it be proper
15 rebuttal but not proper redirect? That's my
16 question.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Well, it would be proper either
18 way.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, at this time there is no
21 evidence that she did that though. That's what I'm 22 saying. At some point, at some time if they put 23 somebody on who says, oh, yeah, she said that, you
24 can come back and put her on in rebuttal. But if 25 she denies the statement, if she denies she even--
26 I know what you are saying. They are inferring
27 that, but I think he is right. In the state of the 28 record she has denied it and until somebody, until 29 somebody says that she lied about it, she has

1           denied it. You have got nothing to prove.

2           BY MR. EVANS: Whichever way the Court rules.
3           My only argument was that, you know, he had simply
4           opened the door to us, and it is not even opening
5           the door because for redirect, we can cover
6           anything that they have mentioned on cross.

7           BY THE COURT: And if she had-- yeah, but--

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I didn't mention anything
9           about police statements.

10          BY THE COURT: It didn't. It is just not
11          proper redirect, but it is subject to rebuttal.

12          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Thank you.

13                        END BENCH CONFERENCE.

14          BY THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

15   CONTINUED REDIRECT BY MR. EVANS:

16          Q. You were asked by opposing Counsel about going to 17          the store to pay a bill?

18          A. Yes, sir.

19          Q. And is that why you went to the store the morning
20          of the murders?

21          A. Yes, sir.

22          Q. And again, to make sure I understand and the jury
23          understands, why did you not stop and go in the store once
24          you got in front of Tardy Furniture?

25          A. Because I didn't feel like it.

26          Q. How far along were you in your pregnancy?

27          A. 5 months.

28          Q. 5 months?

29          A. (Witness nods her head.)

1 Q. Opposing Counsel has asked you if you told a couple
2 of different people that you didn't actually see this. Has
3 anyone approached you and asked you to lie?

4 A. My sister.

5 Q. And what is your sister's name?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection, Judge.

7 BY THE WITNESS:

8 A. Mary Fleming.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me; excuse me. Excuse
10 me; excuse me. Objection. First, what is he
11 talking about?

12 BY THE COURT: Okay, let me see y'all back up
13 here.

14 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
15 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, now if he would have 17 asked if the people who-- see, I mentioned two 18 people who she had told that to.

19 BY MR. HORAN: Three.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, just two. The two people
21 that I mentioned were Latarsha Blissett and Stacey
22 Wright. I'm going to call them. Mary Fleming was 23 not mentioned as a person who she had told anything
24 to. Mary Fleming is--

25 BY THE COURT: --Mary Fleming was mentioned as 26 to what?

27 BY MR. EVANS: Uh-hum.

28 BY THE COURT: As to what though?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: As her sister.

1                   BY THE COURT: I understand that.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, she went over to her
3 sister's house, and I asked her if she went to her
4 sister's house and if her sister took her around
5 the corner to see the thing, and she said no, that
6 her sister didn't take her around the corner. I
7 didn't ask her about any statement she made to her
8 sister or any conversation.

9                   BY THE COURT: I don't remember that either.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: There was no conversation
11 to--

12                  BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, he has asked
13 about any statements that were made, and he is 14 accusing her of lying. So at this point I think we 15 are entitled to ask if we have asked her to lie or 16 anyone--

17                  BY THE COURT: --But he hasn't accused her of 18 lying yet unless I missed something.

19                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

20                  BY THE COURT: Where? What statement that he 21 has made?

22                  BY MR. EVANS: When he asked her two or three 23 different times if she told different people that 24 she made this up. That is accusing her of lying
25 for the money. Now we are entitled clearly to go
26 back in and ask her if anybody has asked her to 27 lie.

28                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: He is trying to-- I'm sorry.

29                  BY MR. HORAN: --including someone that he has

1 mentioned.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, first of all, let me
3 tell you if there was-- and this is bizarre for
4 like I say, but let me just say this. Let me say
5 this. First of all, they are trying to impeach
6 Mary Williams-- Mary Fleming, I'm sorry, before
7 Mary Fleming even--

8 BY MR. EVANS: --No.

9 BY THE COURT: No, no, no. I don't think that 10 is true.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, okay, but here is the 12 other situation. I can't accuse her of lying.
13 First of all, I didn't. I just asked her a
14 question.

15 BY MR. EVANS: You could have--

16 BY THE COURT: --Did you ask her if she was 17 lying?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I asked her if she told the 19 people that she made the story up. I did, and she 20 said no.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. That let's it in.
22 That's my opinion.

23 BY MR. FREELON: But not Mary Fleming.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For the two people that I
25 asked--

26 BY THE COURT: --I think once you get into it,
27 you have opened it up for the whole thing.

28 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

29 BY THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q. Who asked you to lie about seeing Curtis running?

4 A. Before I came up here? While ago downstairs?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge. Excuse me.
6 My objection is also to hearsay. There is clearly
7 an objection to that. No exception to that,
8 hearsay.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Wait until the Court rules.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, he is not asking her to 11 testify as to what was said.

12 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he is asking her to 14 testify if somebody told her to lie, and somebody--
15 that contention itself is that somebody told her
16 something, which is telling her something is a
17 statement which is hearsay.

18 BY THE COURT: It is admissible. I overrule
19 the objection.

20 BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q. Again, who asked you to lie about seeing Curtis
22 running from Tardy's?

23 A. My sister told me to get up there and say--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection.

25 BY MR. EVANS: --All right--

26 BY THE COURT: --Sustained.

27 BY MR. EVANS:

28 Q. The Judge says you can't say what she told you at
29 this point.

1           A.    Oh.  My sister.

2           Q.    Okay, and what is your sister's name?

3           A.    Mary Fleming.

4           Q.    Is this the same Mary Fleming that he has asked you
5 about a few minutes ago?

6           A.    Yes, sir.

7           Q.    Is what you told the ladies and gentlemen of the 8 jury about who you saw running from Tardy Furniture the 9 truth?

10          A.    Yes, sir.

11                   BY MR. EVANS:  That's all we have of this
12 witness, Your Honor.

13                   BY THE COURT:  Okay, I assume she is not
14 finally excused?

15                   BY MR. EVANS:  No, sir, because what we had 16 talked about.

17                   BY THE COURT:  Yes, sir.  You will need to 18 stay.  You can go back to the witness room.

19                               WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

20                   BY THE COURT:  Who will you have next?

21                   BY MR. HORAN:  James Edward Kennedy.  Judge,
22 can either one of the attorneys step outside?

23                   BY THE COURT:  For the purposes y'all did
24 before?  Yeah.  Okay.

25                               (Mr. Freelon and Mr. Horan left the courtroom
26 briefly, and upon their return, proceedings
27 continued:)

28                   BY THE COURT:  Have you been sworn?

29                               BY THE WITNESS:  No.

1                   BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

2                   JAMES EDWARD KENNEDY,

3                   a black male called to testify as a witness by the State of
4                   Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
5                   follows, to-wit:

6                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat.

7                   BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

8                   BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

9                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

10                  Q.     Please state your name for the record if you
11                  would.

12                  A.     James Edward Kennedy.

13                  Q.     Mr. Kennedy, if you would, please sit up, and that 14                  microphone does amplify your voice. Speak into it, but 15                  please don't get too close to it, okay?

16                  A.     All right.

17                  Q.     Do you go by BoJack also?

18                  A.     Yeah.

19                  Q.     Do you know Curtis Flowers?

20                  A.     Yes, sir.

21                  Q.     On July the 16th of 1996, did you know Curtis
22                  Flowers?

23                  A.     Yes, sir.

24                  Q.     You know him pretty well then? You know him when
25                  you saw him?

26                  A.     Oh, yes.

27                  Q.     Do you see Curtis Flowers in the courtroom here
28                  today?

29                  A.     Yes, sir.

1 Q. Would you point to him, please?

2 A. (Witness points.)

3 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, may I have the
4 record reflect that he has identified the
5 Defendant?

6 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that.

7 BY MR. HORAN:

8 Q. Did you see Curtis Flowers on the morning of July
9 the 16th, 1996?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Would you describe the circumstances in which you
12 saw Mr. Flowers?

13 A. Well, I was standing on my porch getting ready to 14 take my sister to work.

15 Q. What time do you usually take your sister to work?

16 A. 7:15.

17 Q. All right, go ahead.

18 A. And he came through. We spoke briefly. And that's 19 the last time I seed him.

20 Q. Okay, you say at your residence on Applegate. Do
21 you live there now?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. What number is that on Applegate?

24 A. 635 South Applegate.

25 Q. Okay, in relationship to --I want to see if you
26 can-- you may or may not be able to do this, Mr. Kennedy.
27 But was there an intersection there where your residence is 28 or road that goes by your house?

29 A. A road goes by my house.

1 Q. What is the name of that?

2 A. Angelica Drive.

3 Q. All right, Angelica Drive. Does that go down to 4 the Angelica manufacturing plant?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. I hand you what has been marked as State's Exhibit
7 D-9, I believe. I think I will hand you D-7, and I will
8 point out to you on here. Do you see Applegate Street on 9 there? That is also known as 51 Highway, is it not?

10 A. That's right.

11 Q. Do you see Angelica Drive on there right here?

12 A. Right there.

13 Q. Okay, where would your residence be? If you would,
14 put an "X" on there on that exhibit where in relationship to 15 Applegate Street and Angelica, where your residence would be?

16 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibit.)

17 Q. Here is Angelica here. Here is Applegate. That's 18 the intersection right there.

19 A. This is the intersection.

20 Q. Yes, sir. That is kind of--

21 A. I will be to the left of that.

22 Q. Is it at the intersection of Applegate and
23 Angelica?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. Okay, would it be in here then?

26 A. Yeah, be in there.

27 Q. All right, I'm going to put your initials right
28 here. (Mr. Horan writes on Exhibit D-7.) All right. Was Mr.
29 Flowers-- you say you saw him. Was he in an automobile?

1 A. He was walking.

2 Q. He was walking. Was he walking towards Angelica or
3 away from Angelica?

4 A. Towards it.

5 Q. Was he on Applegate, or was he on Angelica?

6 A. Angelica.

7 Q. Did you ever see him again?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Would you describe whether or not he was walking--
10 how was he walking?

11 A. Kind of fast.

12 Q. And how long have you known the Defendant Curtis
13 Flowers? Prior to that date, how long had you known him?

14 A. I can't really say.

15 Q. Knew him a good while?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. You were from Winona, from the Winona area?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. Now when you saw Mr. Flowers, would you describe 20 for the benefit of the jury how far you were from him when 21 you saw him?

22 A. Uh.

23 Q. Be more than, how many feet approximately?

24 A. Well, I can't exactly say how many feet.

25 Q. Close enough to him to know who it was?

26 A. That's right.

27 BY MR. HORAN: I tender the witness.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

29 BY THE COURT: Yes.

1     CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2             Q.     Good afternoon, Mr. Kennedy.

3             A.     How you doing?

4             Q.     I'm doing good. Mr. Kennedy, you took your sister
5 to work the day that you saw the individual you say you saw;
6 is that right?

7             A.     Yes, sir.

8             Q.     Okay, and you take your sister to work on a number
9 of days, don't you?

10            A.     Not every day.

11            Q.     But you take her to work more than-- you do take 12 her to work. You have taken her to work on other days;
13 right?

14            A.     Are you saying have I took?

15            Q.     Yeah, have you taken her to work on other days?

16            A.     Other days, yeah.

17            Q.     Yeah, in fact, your sister-- and she works at the 18 same time every day; right?

19            A.     Huh?

20            Q.     She goes to work at the same time every day?

21            A.     Not every day.

22            Q.     Well, every day that she works, she works at-- she 23 is supposed to be there about 7:30 in the morning; isn't that
24 correct?

25            A.     That's right.

26            Q.     And every time you take her she is supposed to be
27 there about 7:30 in the morning; right?

28            A.     I don't quite understand what you mean.

29            Q.     Well, let me ask you this. Is your sister's hours

1 at work at 7:30 been the same or was it different on the-- on
2 the day that you saw her or the day that you saw the person
3 that we are talking about now, was your sister's hours
4 different on that day than they were on any other day in
5 terms of when she had to be at work?

6 A. What are you saying now? Explain to me what you
7 are saying.

8 Q. Let me ask you this. What day of the week was
9 that?

10 A. Well.

11 Q. What day of the week was that that we are talking
12 about, that counsel has asked you about? What day of the 13 week was it?

14 A. I really don't remember what day, but I know what
15 time.

16 Q. Do you know what-- okay. Do you know what date it
17 was?

18 A. Let me see. What exactly are you trying to get me
19 to say?

20 Q. No, I am just asking you a simple question. Do you
21 know-- I'm not trying--and what am I doing? I'm just--

22 A. --What are you trying to get me to say?

23 Q. I am just trying to get you to say what date it
24 was. Do you know what date it was?

25 A. I believe it was on the 17th.

26 Q. The 17th? Okay. All right. Well, now let me ask
27 you this. I guess what I'm trying to find out, was the day
28 you said you saw Mr. Flowers, that was when you saw the 29 person you saw, he was just walking down the street; right?

1           A.    Walking down Angelica's?

2           Q.    He was walking down-- he was walking past your
3 house down the street; is that right?

4           A.    That's right.

5           Q.    Okay. So just, and when he was walking down the 6 street, it's not unusual for people to walk down that street,
7 is it?

8           A.    I guess that's a public street.

9           Q.    Okay. And if it's a public street, people walk on 10 the street on other days. They walk on the street all the 11 time, don't they?

12          A.    Well, I don't be out there all the time, so I
13 couldn't answer that.

14          Q.    Okay, but you are out there-- that wasn't the first
15 day you were out there, was it?

16          A.    I don't, I wouldn't think so.

17          Q.    How often have you taken, how often did you take 18 your sister to work during the course of a week?

19          A.    Most of the time if my niece didn't take her, I
20 took her.

21          Q.    Okay, so you took her a lot. Would that be a safe
22 statement?

23          A.    Right.

24          Q.    And she had to be at work at the same time every 25 day at 7:30 that she worked; is that correct?

26          A.    What are you trying to get me to say? She was late
27 or something?

28          Q.    No, no. Don't be so suspicious. Just answer the
29 questions.

1                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, right. You just answer--
2                   he is going to ask the questions, and you just
3                   answer them, and you can explain it any way you
4                   want to. But just answer them the way he asks
5                   them.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7                   Q.    The question is doesn't she have to be at work at 8                   7:30 every time she goes to work?

9                   A.    Well, she is supposed to be there, yeah.

10                  Q.    Okay. And so any time that you are taking her to 11                  work, you have got to take her at the same time. Isn't that
12                  correct?

13                  A.    Not necessarily.

14                  Q.    Sometimes she is late. Is that what you want to 15                  say?

16                  A.    That's right.

17                  Q.    Okay. But in any event, this was not the first 18                  time that you waited outside to take your sister to work.
19                  You take your sister to work on a lot of different days;
20                  isn't that right?

21                  A.    That's right.

22                  Q.    Okay. And you don't really remember what day of 23                  the week it was, do you?

24                  A.    Not exact.

25                  Q.    And it wasn't, that day was no different than any 26                  other day for you; isn't that right? That morning was no
27                  different than any other morning, was it?

28                  A.    I don't quite understand where you coming from.

29                  Q.    Was it anything special about that morning?

1 A. What particular morning?

2 Q. The morning that you say you saw somebody walking
3 past your house, and you pointed to Mr. Flowers and said it
4 was him. Was anything special about it?

5 A. I don't quite understand what you saying.

6 Q. Was there anything, did anything happen that 7 morning that was different?

8 A. (No response.)

9 Q. Do you understand what I'm saying?

10 A. (No response.)

11 Q. Was it your birthday?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Was it Easter?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Was it Christmas?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. Did you see a car accident out front around that 18 time or anything like that?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. So do you understand; it was nothing different. It
21 was just an ordinary day; isn't that right?

22 A. I guess it was.

23 Q. And all the other days that you take your sister to 24 work are ordinary days; isn't that right usually? Right?

25 A. I reckon.

26 Q. And you never gave, you never talked to the police
27 and said anything about this day that you think was the day
28 that you saw Mr. Flowers until around about September the 29 17th, 1996. Isn't that right?

1 A. Is that what you got in your hand?

2 Q. Would you like to see your statement to see if
3 that's the right date?

4 A. September the what now?

5 Q. The 17th, 1996.

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And September the 17th, '96, is over two months, I
8 mean after the time you claim to have seen Mr. Flowers; isn't
9 that correct?

10 A. That's right.

11 Q. And many days happened, so that was over like two 12 months, over 60 days later. Your sister worked many mornings
13 at that time; right? Is that right?

14 A. What are you trying to say now?

15 Q. Well, let me ask you this. Was your sister working
16 before-- your sister was working before you saw Mr. Flowers,
17 and your sister was working after you claim you saw Mr.
18 Flowers. I mean she was working. How long has your sister
19 been working at the place where she works?

20 A. She been working there a while.

21 Q. How long?

22 A. I don't know exactly, but--

23 Q. --How long has she been working-- what is the name
24 of the place she works?

25 A. Still a Pair.

26 Q. And how long had she been working there as of 27 1996? How many years she been working there?

28 A. I really don't know.

29 Q. Has she been working there for a long time before

1 then?

2 A. She been working there a pretty good while.

3 Q. Okay, and she been, well, she is still working
4 there; right?

5 A. That's right.

6 Q. And she was still working there up until September
7 the 17th of '96; isn't that right?

8 A. She is still working there.

9 Q. Okay, and the thing that she does, she goes to work
10 when she has got to be there every day; is that right? Well,
11 most of the time; right?

12 A. Every day.

13 Q. And you take her if your niece doesn't take her;
14 right?

15 A. Sometimes.

16 Q. And you take her and so it was nothing special
17 about you taking your sister to work; right?

18 A. Not really.

19 Q. There was nothing special for you to remember about 20 that morning; isn't that right?

21 A. What are you trying to say now?

22 Q. Well, it wasn't even special enough for you to 23 remember the date that it was because you don't even know the 24 date that it was; right?

25 A. (No response.)

26 Q. If you can answer that yes or no-- I'm sorry;
27 excuse me. You don't know the day that it was. You don't 28 know what day of the week that it was?

29 A. I need to know what are you trying to say.

1                   BY THE COURT: Well, that is a pretty simple
2                   question. Now you need to answer the question like
3                   he asks you.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5           Q.    Do you know the day that it was?

6           A.    The day that I took her to work?

7           Q.    Yeah. What day of the week was it?

8           A.    I don't know what day of the week it was.

9           Q.    Could it have been Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday,
10           Thursday, or Friday? She works on all those days; is that
11           correct?

12          A.    That's right.

13          Q.    Okay, it could have been any one of them. Now you
14           say that you think it was the 17th; is that right?

15          A.    That's what I said.

16          Q.    Okay, but it could have been-- it could have
17           actually been another day; isn't that right? You don't know 18           it was the 17th. It could have been the 19th, or it could 19           have been the 12th or the 13th or the 14th; isn't that
20           right?

21          A.    This was the 17th.

22          Q.    Oh, it was the 17th. Okay. Okay, now let me ask
23           you this. This day that you saw Mr. Flowers-- by the way,
24           you are a friend of Doyle Simpson; isn't that right?

25          A.    Friend of him? Excuse me?

26          Q.    Do you know Doyle Simpson?

27          A.    I know him.

28          Q.    Okay, and you guys drink together sometimes?

29          A.    Not me, no.

1 Q. Okay. There was-- I came and talked to you
2 before. We talked; right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay, and actually what happened is we came and
5 tried to talk, and you told me to come back at another time,
6 and you would talk to me when you got ready. That's what you
7 told me; right?

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. Okay, so when I came back, I think you shared with 10 me that you were familiar with the fact that there was a
11 reward being offered. You knew this; is that right?

12 A. I remember telling you that I saw it in the store.

13 Q. Okay, that it was posted; right?

14 A. That's right.

15 Q. Okay, now let me ask you also. Let me ask you this 16 here. And if I'm not mistaken, you described for me and 17 actually, you had actually already described for the police
18 what kind of clothes you say that Mr. Flowers was wearing on 19 whatever day it was that you saw him. Isn't that correct?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. Okay, and you said he had white pants on; is that
22 right?

23 A. That's right.

24 Q. Long white pants; isn't that right?

25 A. That's right.

26 Q. And you said he had a black sweater on; right?

27 A. Gray and black.

28 Q. Okay, gray and black sweater; is that right?

29 A. That's right.

1 Q. Anyway, that is a lot different than a white
2 T-shirt; right?

3 A. (No response.)

4 Q. He had a gray and black sweater; that's what he had
5 on; right?

6 A. That's right.

7 Q. Okay. And you didn't see him with a cap on either,
8 did you?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. And he had long white pants on; right?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And you said he was headed down to Angelica;
13 right? He was headed, walking down Angelica Road; is that
14 right?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. Now by the way, you can walk down Angelica Road and 17 go a number of different places, can't you?

18 A. (No response.)

19 Q. You can go to Church Street for number one, can't 20 you? Doesn't Angelica hit Church?

21 A. I don't know.

22 Q. You don't know?

23 A. I don't know.

24 Q. Don't you live there?

25 A. I don't travel that way that much.

26 Q. Did he just do some map with you? Let me see. Let 27 me get this.

28 BY MR. HORAN: It's Exhibit 7, I believe.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is it Exhibit 7?

1 BY MR. HORAN: Yeah.

2 BY MR. EVANS: That's it.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4 Q. You just put a mark on here, didn't you?

5 A. No, he did.

6 Q. Oh, okay. Where did he put it at?

7 A. (Pause.) Right there.

8 Q. Okay. And that is Angelica; right?

9 A. That's right.

10 Q. Now on this map, now let me see. This is 11 Angelica. Now you see this map here. First of all, you said
12 right here?

13 A. I said right there.

14 Q. Okay, good, good. Okay. I don't know if the jury
15 had a chance to see it. But is it where I have got my finger
16 at?

17 A. Right there.

18 Q. Okay, I got it in the right spot?

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. Okay. I don't know if they can see it either but.
21 (Holds Exhibit D-7 in front of the jury.) And that is right
22 there at the top of Angelica Drive near, and I can't see
23 Angelica Drive. I have got my finger on it, but the spot is 24 right here at Angelica and what they call 51; is that
25 correct?

26 A. That's right.

27 Q. Okay, I'm going to move my finger so they can see
28 the name of the street, Angelica Drive. We are going to pass
29 it around. Angelica Drive, Applegate. And Applegate is 51;

1 is that correct?

2 A. 51 and Applegate run together.

3 Q. Have you ever noticed that right below your street
4 where you are, where you have said your house is there is a
5 big street called Church Street? You ever noticed that?

6 A. Have I ever noticed it?

7 Q. Yeah.

8 A. (Witness shakes his head.)

9 Q. Let me pass this down.

10 (Exhibit D-7 passed to the jury.)

11 Q. So since you don't go down there, you don't know
12 where a person could be going when they go down that way; is
13 that right?

14 A. (No response.)

15 Q. I mean, you know, if a person walks down there, you
16 really don't know where they are going, do you? Isn't that a
17 true statement?

18 A. I don't know where he went, no.

19 Q. Now you-- and I'm not, I'm not trying to be funny
20 or anything, but let me just ask you this. When you talked
21 to the police, you weren't just trying to tell them what you
22 thought they wanted to hear, were you?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Okay, good. Because actually, when you told the 25 police that the first thing you said actually is that the man
26 had on a black sweater. By the way, this is in July too,
27 isn't it? This was in July; right?

28 A. (Witness makes expression but no audible response.)

29 Q. I'm sorry; maybe I am assuming. This 17th, it was

1 the 17th of what? What month was it?

2 A. Oh. What month of what now?

3 BY MR. HORAN: I think he is confused, Mr.
4 Lumumba.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. When you saw Mr. Flowers, what month was it?

7 A. I don't know the month.

8 Q. You don't remember the month?

9 A. (Witness shakes his head.)

10 Q. Okay, all right. But whenever you saw him, it was 11 hot outside, wasn't it?

12 A. Not that hot.

13 Q. Well, just let me ask you this. Do you remember a
14 conversation between you and the police officer where you
15 told the police officer that the man had a black sweater on,
16 and then the police officer asked you again was it gray and 17 black, and then you said yes, it was gray and black. And 18 then didn't he ask you did it have some writing on it, and 19 didn't you tell him that it was a T-shirt, and then didn't
20 you come in after that and say, well, yeah, it was a T-- it
21 really had some black writing on it, you know, black. In 22 other words, you changed it into a T-shirt with black writing
23 on it. Or excuse me; you changed it into a gray jersey with 24 some little black ink on it. Do you remember moving from a 25 black sweater to a gray jersey with a little black ink on 26 it? Do you remember that happening?

27 A. No.

28 Q. So you know that the man had a black and gray
29 sweater on and long white pants; right?

1 A. Gray and black.

2 Q. Gray and black sweater and long white pants; right?

3 A. That's right.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge, one
5 moment.

6 (Defense Counsel confer.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any further
8 questions.

9 BY MR. HORAN: May I have this marked for 10 identification, please.

11 (STATEMENT OF JAMES EDWARD KENNEDY WAS MARKED
12 AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-104 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

13 (Exhibit S-104 for identification shown to 14 Defense Counsel.)

15 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

16 Q. Mr. Kennedy, I hand you what has been marked for 17 identification as State's Exhibit number 104. Do you
18 remember the conversation you had with John Johnson and the 19 other police officer, Johnny Hargrove, that Counsel for the 20 Defendant made reference to that Mr. Johnson gave, taped a
21 statement that you gave them?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. On September 17th. If you will, this is a
24 transcript of it. Mr. Johnson's question was: "Mr. Kennedy,
25 I want to direct your attention back to July the 16th, 199"--

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me, Judge.

27 Objection. Objection. What?

28 BY MR. HORAN: It's the rule of completeness,
29 Your Honor.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. There is no basis
2 for him to be reading that to the witness.

3 BY MR. HORAN: Ask him does he recall making
4 that statement. He has gone into part of the 5 statements. I am entitled to go into--

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I haven't gone into any of
7 the statement. I just asked him if he remembered
8 saying certain things to the officers. I didn't
9 use that statement.

10 BY MR. HORAN: I want to see if he remembers
11 saying other things to--

12 BY THE COURT: --Right. He can ask that
13 question.

14 BY MR. HORAN:

15 Q. Do you remember Mr. Johnson--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can we approach?

17 BY THE COURT: Sure.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is he is leading 19 the witness and trying to feed the witness a date.
20 That's exactly what he is doing.

21 BY THE COURT: I understand. I sustain it on 22 that basis. On the other basis, I don't.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that is my objection.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, I will just let him read
25 it, Your Honor.

26 BY THE COURT: Whatever. You can't lead him.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, now not only can't he 28 lead him, I don't think he can feed the witness a
29 date.

1 BY MR. HORAN: It's the statement he gave,
2 Your Honor. He went into the statement--

3 BY THE COURT: Well, I think he can do that.
4 It's on the statement, isn't it?

5 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. He can do that.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Since I didn't use that
8 statement, I am objecting because of improper
9 redirect. I didn't show him that statement, didn't
10 use that statement.

11 BY THE COURT: No, but you asked him about
12 other statements, so he is entitled--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, I would--

14 BY MR. HORAN: --He asked him about this 15 statement also.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I request the opportunity
18 for recross then, Judge, since I didn't have a
19 chance to go into that statement?

20 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, he went into it.
21 He had every opportunity--

22 BY THE COURT: --You had a chance to do it and 23 did do it.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you, Judge. No
25 problem.

26 BY MR. HORAN:

27 Q. Mr. Kennedy, I ask every witness this, and I don't 28 want-- can you read?

29 A. A little bit.

1 Q. Okay, can you read Mr. Johnson's statement-- you
2 remember him asking you a number of questions, do you?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let him read it. Let's see
4 if he can read.

5 BY THE COURT: I assume that is not Mr.
6 Johnson's statement.

7 BY MR. HORAN: No, it's his statement.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay.

9 BY MR. HORAN:

10 Q. Read that right there for me, please, if you can.

11 A. "Mr. Kennedy, I asked you what to" --

12 Q. Direct?

13 A. "Direct you."

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, he can't read it for the 15 witness now, Judge.

16 BY THE COURT: If he can't read it, he can't 17 read it. You stand over there. That will help.

18 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, all right.

19 BY MR. HORAN:

20 Q. I'm sorry, Mr. Kennedy.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Maybe that is how the officer
22 got the statement.

23 BY MR. HORAN:

24 Q. Do you remember-- I will ask him like this. Do you
25 remember--

26 BY MR. EVANS: --I object to that, Your 27 Honor. That is improper.

28 BY MR. HORAN:

29 Q. Do you remember Mr. Johnson asking you about the

1 murders at Tardy Furniture?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. What day that was?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And whether or not you saw this man sitting over
6 here on that day?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. Leading
9 question.

10 BY MR. HORAN:

11 Q. Do you remember him asking you that?

12 BY THE COURT: That is not leading. Go
13 ahead.

14 BY MR. HORAN:

15 Q. Do you remember him asking you whether or not you
16 saw Curtis Flowers on the day that the people were killed at 17 the Tardy Furniture Store? Do you remember Mr. Johnson 18 asking you that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did you tell him you did?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. All right, and you also told him, did you
23 not, that you saw him wearing tennis shoes, did you not?

24 A. Tennis shoes.

25 Q. Tennis shoes. Didn't you tell Mr. Johnson that you
26 saw him wearing tennis shoes but didn't know what kind of 27 tennis shoes they were? Do you remember telling Mr. Johnson
28 that?

29 A. (Pause.) Oh, yes.

1 Q. Okay. Now this statement that you gave Mr. Johnson
2 was on September the 17th of 1996; is that right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And your recollection at that time would be a lot
5 better than it is now?

6 A. That's right.

7 Q. Okay. You remember testifying under oath at a
8 prior hearing regarding this matter. Do you remember that,
9 Mr. Kennedy?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And did you also testify on that particular date
12 that it was July the 16th, 1996--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. Excuse me,
14 Judge. Can you show me-- that is improper. First 15 of all, can we approach on this?

16 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

17 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
18 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Isn't prior testimony a self-
20 serving statement?

21 BY MR. HORAN: Refreshing his recollection.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: First of all, he isn't 23 refreshing him; he is leading him is what he is 24 doing.

25 BY THE COURT: Right, and under 611 with this 26 witness, he absolutely can lead him. You will 27 acknowledge that, I know.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

29 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to let him

1           testify.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: But here is-- hold it. The
3 problem I have got is see, I didn't use any of this
4 stuff. I didn't use this transcript. I don't
5 believe I did. I didn't use this transcript.

6           BY THE COURT: Y'all have used every
7 transcript known to man in this case.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: But I didn't use this one.

9           BY THE COURT: Well, I know.

10          BY MR. EVANS: Asked him if he didn't.

11          BY THE COURT: That is the exception to the 12 rule.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that's why I would like
14 to ask him a couple of other questions since we are 15 getting into this.

16          BY THE COURT: Well, you had the opportunity
17 to do that on cross-examination. Y'all don't want
18 to beat a dead horse anyhow.

19                               END BENCH CONFERENCE

20 BY MR. HORAN:

21          Q. Mr. Kennedy, my question is you remember testifying
22 under oath earlier that it was July the 16th, 1996?

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. That is a leading
24 question. He can ask him--

25          BY MR. HORAN: --You have already ruled--

26          BY THE COURT: --and I have already ruled. He 27 can ask a leading question.

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: He can ask a leading
29 question?

1                   BY THE COURT: Uh-huh. Under 611, he can do
2 it in this context.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Which page are we
4 talking about?

5                   BY MR. HORAN: I will identify.

6                   BY THE COURT: I don't, y'all have me at a
7 disadvantage.

8                   BY MR. HORAN: 468.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry; what page?

10                  BY MR. HORAN: 468 of the transcript.

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12                  Q. You were asked the question: "On July the 16th, 13 1996, between 7:00 and 7:30 in the morning, did you see
14 Curtis Flowers?" And your response was, "Yes, sir."

15                  A. That's right.

16                  Q. It's your testimony here today that you saw the 17 Defendant Curtis Flowers on the date that the four people
18 were killed at the Tardy Furniture Store walking in front of 19 you down Angelica?

20                  A. Yes, sir.

21                  Q. The day the four people were killed--

22                               BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection, Judge. All this 23 leading. I mean is he going to testify?

24                               BY THE COURT: Well, no, I'm not going to 25 allow him to testify. I have already ruled-- well,
26 he is through. I won't get into that. I have 27 already ruled.

28 BY MR. HORAN:

29                  Q. Do you see the person--

1                   BY THE COURT: --I'm sorry; I thought you were
2                   through.

3                   BY MR. HORAN: One more question.

4                   BY MR. HORAN:

5                   Q.    Is the person you saw that you knew as Curtis
6                   Flowers in the courtroom today that you saw walking in front
7                   of your house on the day the people were killed at Tardy
8                   Furniture? Is he in the courtroom?

9                   A.    Yes.

10                  Q.    Would you point to him, please?

11                  A.    (Witness points.)

12                  BY MR. HORAN: Thank you. No further
13                  questions.

14                  BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

15                  BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

16                  BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

18                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you are free to go. Let 19                  me see y'all up here just a second.

20                               WITNESS EXCUSED.

21                  BY THE COURT: You don't have to take this,
22                  Linda. This is time management.

23                               (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
24                               THE JURY WAS TAKEN AT FIRST WITHOUT THE REPORTER
25                               PRESENT BUT WAS TRANSCRIBED FROM THE TAPE UNTIL THE 26                               REPORTER JOINED COUNSEL AT THE BENCH:)

27                  BY THE COURT: Who do y'all have next?

28                  BY MR. EVANS: We were thinking about Roxanne
29                  Ballard next.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, now they have made
2                   reservations for the jury to eat at a place that is 3                   going to take them about twenty minutes to get
4                   there. So therefore, we have got to stop at 5:30.
5                   I am willing to start this--

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: -- I think we have got to have 7                   a hearing.

8                   BY THE COURT: Huh?

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think we have to have a
10                  hearing. We request a hearing to establish her
11                  foundation of her knowledge.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: We have laid that predicate,
13                  Your Honor. We don't need a hearing--

14                  BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute now.

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Our objection is that Roxanne
16                  Ballard's testimony is absolutely and exclusively
17                  hearsay.

18                  BY THE COURT: Okay, that's not-- let's deal
19                  with what I brought up first and then we will get 20                  to the other. What I am saying is I am going to 21                  quit at 5:30 if she is in mid-sentence because the 22                  jury has got to get to this place by 6 o'clock.

23                  BY MR. HORAN: I don't see any reason we--

24                  BY THE COURT: Huh?

25                  BY MR. HORAN: I don't see any reason why if I
26                  lay my predicate, there is no reason to argue.

27                  BY THE COURT: Well, I just want y'all to 28                  understand where I am. Okay, now you can go on the
29                  record.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me say one other thing.
2 Are we on the record now?

3 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are on the record, okay.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Let me just say one thing, and
6 I will finish up. We have had this twice before
7 the Court. The Court has ruled twice. If the DA's
8 office doesn't lay the predicate, you are going to 9 sustain the motion they have in limine.

10 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to have a hearing
11 outside the presence of the jury until such time as 12 she gets to the point of making that testimony as 13 to what she is going to make. Now you make that 14 objection then. I will determine then whether it
15 has to be done outside the presence of the jury.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I want to say this.
17 And I'm not trying to be critical but, and I don't
18 know; I have never heard so many leading questions
19 in my life.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let me tell you where 21 I'm coming from. I understand, and I have 22 sustained most of your objections to those. In 23 relation to this witness, here is what 611 says.
24 It says ordinarily-- it says, "Leading questions
25 should not be used on the direct examination of a
26 witness except as may be necessary to develop his 27 testimony." And with this witness, it was 28 necessary to get him to testify to anything. You
29 know that; you had that much problem.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, yeah--

2 BY THE COURT: --I'm not going to let them
3 testify, but they can ask some leading questions.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I understand what you
5 are saying, and I understand 611. What I'm saying,
6 I can understand leading him to the point where you
7 put him in the context where he can then testify.
8 But see, what I, but they led him to state the 9 critical issue. See, the issue was what day is 10 it? This man has no idea what day we are talking
11 about, and for them to put the words in his mouth
12 is improper. See, what I was-- this is, this is 13 the way I think it would have been appropriate.
14 Let me just say I think it would have been 15 appropriate to lead him to the questions to know we 16 are talking about, you know, did you testify. I
17 don't have any problem with that. And then to lead
18 him all the way up to the point where you ask him,
19 Do you know what date it is? I mean, you know, I
20 mean if he doesn't know, Judge, it ain't a question
21 of leading in order to help--

22 BY THE COURT: --But you covered that on
23 cross-examination.

24 BY MR. HORAN: That's right.

25 BY THE COURT: I mean you got it in issue, you
26 know.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

28 BY THE COURT: I wouldn't necessarily, I won't
29 say I argue with you, but we are past that point.

1                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

2                   BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

3                   BY MR. HORAN: Roxanne Ballard.

4                                   ROXANNE BALLARD,

5 a white female called to testify as a witness by the State of
6 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
7 follows, to-wit:

8                   BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn?

9                   BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

10                  BY THE COURT: Okay, state your name for the
11 record.

12                  BY THE WITNESS: Roxanne Miller Ballard.

13                  BY THE COURT: It'll, if you talk loud enough, 14 you don't have to lean too close to it, and it will 15 pick you up.

16                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

17                  Q. Ms. Ballard, what relationship, if any, are you to 18 Tom Tardy?

19                  A. Tom Tardy.

20                  Q. I mean what relationship, if any, were you to 21 Bertha Tardy?

22                  A. She is my mother.

23                  Q. And the Tardy Furniture Store there in Winona, are 24 you familiar with the operating procedures in that particular
25 store?

26                  A. Yes, I am. I am very familiar with them.

27                  Q. Did you ever work in the store?

28                  A. Yes, I did, off and on my whole life and full time
29 for certain portions.

1           Q.    I want to direct your attention to July the 16th,
2   1996. Did you have an occasion to be summonsed to the store
3   that particular day? Did you go down to the store that day?

4           A.    No.

5           Q.    Did you go the next day?

6           A.    Not that I know of.

7           Q.    Did you ever go down there for the purpose of 8   determining whether or not some business records could be
9   located?

10          A.    Yes.

11          Q.    And do you remember who did that, who requested
12   that you do that?

13          A.    The investigators.

14          Q.    Okay, would that be Jack Matthews?

15          A.    Yes.

16          Q.    And in that regard, would you tell the Court and 17   the jury what you did? What were you looking for in the 18   store? What documents were you looking for?

19          A.    Several different things, the check-up sheets and 20   things like that. Different records they asked me for.

21          Q.    Did you, were you able to locate any ledger sheets
22   or anything--

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we stop leading the 24                   witness, please?

25   BY MR. HORAN:

26          Q.    Were you able to locate any documents that they
27   requested?

28          A.    Everything they requested I located.

29          Q.    I want to hand you -- this is marked for

1 identification?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3 BY MR. HORAN:

4 Q. State's Exhibit number 65, and tell me whether or
5 not you can identify that particular document. And don't 6 testify as to what it is right now. Can you identify the 7 document?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay, all right. Now tell me what that document
10 is?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. I would like to 12 voir dire her.

13 BY MR. HORAN: I would be glad to let him do
14 that.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I would like to voir
16 dire her on that, yes.

17 BY THE WITNESS:

18 A. Like to what?

19 BY THE COURT: He is going to ask you some
20 questions.

21 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Ballard.

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. Can I see that document for just a second, please.

25 A. (Witness hands document to Mr. Lumumba.)

26 Q. Okay, thank you, Ms. Ballard. Ms. Ballard, just a 27 few questions. Number one is prior to the 16th of July of 28 1996, had you actually ever seen that particular document at 29 any time before in your life?

1           A.   Any time you went to Tardy Furniture Company you
2 saw this kind of document, not the same one that was there on
3 July the 16th.

4           Q.   That's what my question was. You never saw that
5 document; right?

6           A.   Not this one.

7           Q.   Okay. When--

8           A.   --It wouldn't have existed prior to that day.

9           Q.   When was the last time that you worked at Tardy
10 Furniture Store, the last day that you worked prior to the 11 16th?

12          A.   Prior to July 16th, 1996?

13          Q.   Yes, ma'am.

14          A.   June 15th, 1996.

15          Q.   Okay, and were you working there-- so you had been 16 gone for, let me see, about a month; is that correct?

17          A.   I hadn't been gone for a month. I had walked in 18 and out of that store all the time.

19          Q.   Were you working there--

20          A.   --Not employed there, no. I was not.

21          Q.   Okay, and did you during that month do any of the 22 bookkeeping?

23          A.   During which month?

24          Q.   During the month of July or the end of June after 25 you no longer were working there?

26          A.   I wrote receipts. I'm not sure if I actually did
27 the books for the month. I'm not positive about that. I
28 would have to go back and look at the records.

29          Q.   Okay, now you didn't, you didn't, during that month

1 you were not the keeper of the records. You didn't keep the
2 records like, for instance, those kind of records, did you?

3 A. I didn't keep them, no.

4 Q. You were not the custodian of the records?

5 A. No.

6 Q. And you didn't create the record. You didn't
7 create that document?

8 A. This document on July 15th, no. I did not create
9 that document.

10 Q. And you weren't present when that document was
11 created?

12 A. No. If I had, I would be dead.

13 Q. That document was created on-- you don't know what
14 date that document--

15 A. --It was created on July 16th, 1996.

16 Q. Can I see it, please? Do you know of your own
17 personal knowledge what day that document was created?

18 A. It was created on July 16th--

19 Q. --The question is do you know-- were you there
20 when--

21 A. --That is the day the check-up sheet is always 22 done, the day after--

23 Q. --Excuse me a minute. Excuse me.

24 BY MR. HORAN: She has a right to explain her
25 answer, Your Honor.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She has to answer my
27 question.

28 BY THE COURT: She has got to answer yes or no
29 first.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. The question is were you present when this document
3 was created?

4 A. No, I was not present when that document was
5 created.

6 Q. Okay. And it would also be safe to say that there
7 is no July 16th date anywhere on this document. Isn't that
8 true?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Yes, that is true?

11 A. Yes, that is true. You can't do a check-up sheet--

12 Q. --Excuse me--

13 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, she is allowed,
14 should be allowed to finish her answer.

15 BY THE COURT: She can explain.

16 BY THE WITNESS: May I explain that?

17 BY THE COURT: Yes.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She can only do it if you are 19 saying that now she has established--

20 BY MR. HORAN: --I'm not through examining
21 her.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge, if she has 23 established that she is the custodian of the 24 document or someone, keeper of the records, or 25 somebody that can testify as to whether that is an
26 official business record. I don't have a problem
27 with her-- well, you see that ruling hasn't been 28 made.

29 BY THE COURT: Right, and we are not to that

1 point. You asked her the question. She is
2 entitled to explain her answer, and that may be
3 helpful to the Court on making that determination.
4 You may explain your answer.

5 BY THE WITNESS: Do I get to say what I was
6 going to say?

7 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

8 BY THE WITNESS: Is that the bottom line
9 here?

10 BY MR. HORAN: Yes. Explain.

11 BY THE WITNESS:

12 A. The check-up sheet that is dated, whether it was 13 the 15th or the--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. She has 15 answered my question; right?

16 BY THE COURT: All right.

17 BY THE WITNESS: I forgot what the question
18 was now.

19 BY THE COURT: Well, let's let her finish.
20 You go ahead and answer, Ms. Ballard. That is my 21 ruling now. You can answer.

22 BY THE WITNESS: Answer? I'm--

23 BY THE COURT: You can finish your answer.
24 Whatever you were going to say, you can go ahead
25 and say.

26 BY THE WITNESS:

27 A. No, it does not say the 16th on it because the 28 check-up sheet is always done the morning after the date for 29 which those deposits are being made. So if it was receipts

1 for the 15th, they are deposited on the 16th, and the
2 check-up sheet is done first thing on the 16th.

3 Q. Thank you. What you are saying, you are basing
4 that upon what was being done when you were in the store; is
5 that correct?

6 A. What was done from 1941 on.

7 Q. Okay, when you were in the store?

8 A. Yes.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you.

10 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

11 Q. Ms. Ballard, would you give the jury the benefit
12 of your personal knowledge or your personal knowledge as to 13 the practice at Tardy Furniture regarding that particular
14 sheet?

15 A. Like?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, may we approach?

17 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

18 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
19 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

20 BY MR. HORAN: I am asking her about her
21 personal knowledge.

22 BY THE COURT: I don't know what the objection
23 is yet.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is she has, she 25 has already said she has no personal knowledge of 26 that particular sheet.

27 BY THE COURT: She don't have to have that of
28 that particular sheet.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that is the question he

1           asked her. If he wants to ask her a question of
2           what is her personal knowledge of check-up sheets,
3           then--

4           BY MR. HORAN: --I will rephrase.

5           BY THE COURT: Well, I think he is trying to
6           do that--

7           BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase.

8           BY THE COURT: --in relation to that check-up
9           sheet--

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, well, then why don't 11          you rule on my objection, Judge, because I really
12          think-- I have read the transcript, and I think
13          that is a serious problem at the last trial; I
14          really do.

15          BY MR. HORAN: I haven't even finished my
16          examination.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me; excuse me. I'm 18          going to make sure I have all my objections in.

19          BY THE COURT: Oh, yeah. I want you to.

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that is critical.

21          BY THE COURT: I understood. I overrule that 22          objection at this time.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, good. Okay. And it's 24          a continuing objection.

25          BY THE COURT: Okay.

26                        END BENCH CONFERENCE.

27                        (NOTE: Witness started crying during the 28                        bench conference.)

29                        CONTINUING DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

1 Q. Ms. Ballard, what is that sheet that you have
2 before you?

3 A. (Pause.) I'm sorry.

4 Q. I understand that you don't, you didn't prepare
5 that, that particular sheet?

6 A. No.

7 Q. But you are familiar with what that sheet is 8 though. Is that--

9 A. Yes. Yes.

10 Q. What is that sheet?

11 A. It's a daily check-up sheet.

12 Q. What is the purpose as far as Tardy Furniture
13 Store, what is the purpose of that particular document?

14 A. There are several purposes. The first section at 15 the top-- nobody can see this. How do they know what I'm
16 talking about?

17 Q. Just talk about it, and we will go from there.

18 A. Okay. The first section at the top is where you
19 list the sales for the previous day.

20 Q. Is that the same type of document that was in the 21 store, kept in the store on a daily basis when you worked in
22 Tardy Furniture Store?

23 A. Yes. Yes. It didn't change--

24 Q. --And was that the same type of document--

25 A. They did the same thing day in and day out. They 26 were in a serious rut that they had been in all my life.
27 They always did the same thing the same way. The first 28 section records the sales for the day. That is listed at the 29 top, and it shows the cash sales, the amount received on

1 accounts, and any other collections for the prior day, and
2 then the deposit for the day. Then the section below is used
3 to reconcile the balance of the drawer. And then the back is 4 used to record any sales for the day, new sales.

5 Q. Do you recognize anybody's handwriting on that
6 particular document?

7 A. Yes. Carmen Rigby's.

8 Q. Have you seen her handwriting on similar documents
9 to that in the past?

10 A. For 20 years.

11 Q. For 20 years you have seen her make out those 12 ledger sheets?

13 A. (Witness nods her head.)

14 Q. Was she the custodian of those records?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Are you familiar with that particular document?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you know what the purpose of that document is?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Are you familiar with the fact of whether or not
21 that document was kept in that store on a daily basis?

22 A. Yes, but not only that, there is probably from 1941
23 on that is probably still in the attic somewhere.

24 Q. And in fact, you have on your person right now
25 other documents, ledger sheets that are similar to that; is
26 that right?

27 A. Not on my person. They are in the other room.

28 Q. I mean but you--

29 A. --I brought them.

1           Q.   Now I want you to look at the very bottom of that
2 document, and there is a number down there 300. What does
3 that indicate?

4           A.   That's the normal balance of the cash drawer.
5 Normal balance is an accounting term. It's not--

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Excuse me, Judge. I don't
7 want to interrupt any more, but have you ruled?

8                   BY THE COURT:  No, I have not ruled. Are you
9 going to admit it?

10                   BY MR. HORAN:  It's not offered.

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, but now what I'm
12 saying--

13                   BY THE COURT:  --She can't testify to it until 14 you offer it.

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.

16                   BY MR. HORAN:  Okay, I move for introduction
17 of it.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, and, of course, we 19 would respectfully, respectfully object just on 20 legal grounds because we think it is inadmissible.
21 And I also, I hate to ask to do this, but there is 22 something I have to do that I think we need to 23 approach the bench on.

24                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
25 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I have got to ask for a
27 mistrial. You know, we-- I mean right or wrong,
28 but to me first of all, I think that we raised this 29 issue before. The prosecution certainly should

1           have known that that was an inadmissible document.
2           She is no longer the keeper of the records. I have
3           never seen a situation where somebody who used to
4           keep the records comes in and authenticates a
5           business record. I have never seen that happen.
6           They have to be the keeper of the records,
7           custodian of the records at the time. And then
8           what has happened, this has put us in a position
9           where a woman is on the stand, and I can understand
10          it. I would probably be doing the same thing,
11          crying and really to me, you know, creating a very 12          bad situation for us in front of this jury. And 13          so, you know, based upon-- and, you know, that is 14          the ultimate expression of emotionalism, and I
15          think that the error is in the prosecution bringing 16          this back in here in the first place, bringing her
17          here to justify the document. I mean, you know--

18                BY THE COURT: Of course, if I granted a
19          mistrial every time somebody cried, I would be out
20          of court all the time.

21                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I know; I know, but 22          what I'm saying is this could have been avoided if 23          they wouldn't have done that.

24                BY THE COURT: Well, I think they feel this is 25          necessary to prove an essential element of their
26          case, so they have got-- you know, I'm not speaking
27          for them. That would be my assumption. I assume 28          that is your assumption too.

29                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Okay, well, let me

1 say this. My first motion is to decide right now
2 whether she is going to be admitted to testify. I
3 don't want to keep having to jump up. I am telling
4 whoever has got to read this record that is the 5 only reason I'm not going to object any more.

6 BY THE COURT: First, how do you state that
7 it's admissible?

8 BY MR. HORAN: It's admissible as a common,
9 routine habit and practice that they did in the 10 store. She says she has been familiar with it for 11 twenty years. She does not have to be the 12 custodian of the records. She is familiar with the 13 handwriting. That is a regularly kept business
14 document. It is just part of it. It is whether or 15 not they keep that particular document, routine--
16 habit, routine and practice that they do. And she 17 has testified basically that's what they do.

18 BY THE COURT: And she has testified that she 19 is familiar with it, and under 406 I'm going to 20 allow it to come in.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, the second thing
22 I'm doing I'm just making a Motion for a Mistrial
23 on the grounds stated already.

24 BY THE COURT: That Motion is overruled.

25 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

26 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, may I have the 27 exhibit marked.

28 (DAILY LEDGER SHEET PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS
29 STATE'S EXHIBIT S-65 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW

1 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

2 BY MR. HORAN:

3 Q. Ms. Ballard, I want to switch gears for just a
4 second. You said that that furniture store had been open,
5 operating since the 40's; is that right?

6 A. 1941.

7 Q. Did you actually work in that store for a period of
8 time?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And do you have any background in accounting
11 whatsoever?

12 A. I have a Master's in Accounting from Ole Miss.

13 Q. And while you were working in the store, did you
14 become familiar with these particular documents?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And other documents in the store?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What time did they open the store every morning?

19 A. 9 o'clock.

20 Q. 9 o'clock. And were they open every day of the 21 week other than Sunday?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. What time did they close on Wednesday? Some
24 witnesses in Winona I know close--

25 A. --close at 12 noon on Wednesday.

26 Q. Are y'all still operating that store now?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. I want to hand you State's Exhibit 65, and you can
29 remain seated, and if you would, is there any indication

1 after you look at that document, can you-- is there any
2 indication on there what amount of money should have been in
3 the cash drawer?

4 BY THE COURT: Excuse me. Did you offer it?

5 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: Has it been marked?

7 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: All right.

9 BY MR. HORAN:

10 Q. What amount of money should have been in the cash
11 drawer when they opened up on July the 16th, 1996?

12 A. It should have been $300.00, but it was $400.00.

13 Q. Does that document tell you that there was more
14 than $300.00 in that cash drawer?

15 A. Yes. It is $400.00.

16 Q. How do you know that?

17 A. Because of the way they list the contents of the 18 drawer on the right hand side.

19 Q. Okay, and what tells you when they-- if you would,
20 turn toward the jury and explain every part of that
21 particular document, and I don't think you want to get up.

22 A. There is not a board or anything that I--

23 Q. I will just--

24 A. --can write on.

25 Q. Why don't you, if you want to stand, you can.

26 A. I don't think I can stand up.

27 Q. I will hold it for you. If you would, do you see
28 Ms. Rigby's signature?

29 A. It's right here.

1 Q. Okay, it says "Carmen."

2 A. Uh-hum.

3 Q. And you stated earlier that the date is 7/15.

4 Okay, what is this space out here for?

5 A. Right here?

6 Q. Right.

7 A. It's where they listed the cash, the contents of 8 the drawer, the currency at first and then the coins in order
9 the way it goes through the drawer.

10 Q. And would you start at the top of that listing and 11 tell us what each one of those things--

12 A. Represent?

13 Q. Represent; that's right.

14 A. The top number says minus 100. And the reason it
15 says minus 100 is because money was in the cash drawer that 16 did not belong normally in the cash drawer. In accounting
17 there is a thing called normal balance, and a normal balance
18 is the balance that is supposed to be in an account or a fund
19 or a drawer, whatever you are referring to. The normal
20 balance for the cash drawer is $300.00. But because the late
21 charges that were always kept in a separate little box that 22 is kind of, you know, a little flimsy cardboard box. And the 23 late charges are always kept there, and a list is kept of 24 every late charge that is paid. Then when it builds up to be 25 an amount of money they didn't think they wanted out of the 26 drawer, they would stick the money in the drawer. And on 27 that particular date Carmen had obviously put the hundred
28 dollars from the late charge box into the drawer, and there
29 was a slip of paper that you would put in there to say late

1 charges or whatever inappropriate cash was in the drawer so
2 that you could know when you were reconciling the drawer what
3 to subtract.

4 Q. And the next number 260; what does that identify or 5 represent?

6 A. That represents the currency that was in one slot
7 of the drawer. It could have been tens, twenties, or 8 something larger if it were there.

9 Q. And the next one, 95?

10 A. That is fives, and then 34 is ones. Then 3.75,
11 that is quarters. And then dimes, then nickels and then
12 pennies, 35 pennies.

13 Q. Now I notice on here that there is $300.00 at the 14 very bottom of that, of this document.

15 A. Right.

16 Q. This ledger sheet. And I notice that it appears to 17 have been changed in some way. What does that represent?

18 A. Well, this sheet wasn't changed.

19 Q. Right. I know the sheet wasn't changed, but the 20 form was changed.

21 A. The form was changed, gosh, I don't know, probably 22 ten or fifteen years ago - I don't know - off the top of my
23 head. A long time ago the cash drawer used to only have a
24 $200.00 normal balance, but you know, things--

25 Q. Inflation?

26 A. Yeah. Times change. And so they had to increase 27 it to $300.00. It was so long ago, I don't remember when.

28 Q. But you are familiar with the fact that they did
29 make that change?

1           A.    Right.  And they just kept the same form and used,
2           the original was altered, and then the original was turned in
3           to the printers, and then the printers reproduced it with 300
4           instead of 200.

5           Q.    And you have identified this writing as Ms. Rigby's
6           writing?

7           A.    Yes.

8                       BY MR. HORAN:  I would like to publish this to 9           the jury.

10                BY THE COURT:  It has been admitted.  You can
11           do it.

12                       (State's Exhibit S-65 was passed to the jury.)

13           BY MR. HORAN:

14           Q.    Ms. Ballard, you testified about the cash drawer.
15           Where is that located in the store?  Where would that money
16           have been kept in that store?

17           A.    There is just a wooden drawer that is part of the 18           office structure.

19           Q.    Okay, I want to show you what has been marked for 20           identification and also been admitted into evidence as 21           State's Exhibit number 13.  Is that the drawer you are making 22           reference to?

23           A.    Correct.

24           Q.    Do you see anything in that drawer that would, any 25           document or anything that would be the documentation with 26           reference to the extra one hundred dollars?

27           A.    You can't tell it real well from this picture, but 28           that is a Serta logo that is in this left hand pocket right
29           here.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. And that is the little piece of paper that Carmen
3 had written "Late charges $100.00" on, and the bills are all
4 missing.

5 Q. Okay, normally--

6 A. --the currency.

7 Q. The normal routine habit and practice would be that
8 bills would have been in that drawer?

9 A. Uh-hum. That is the key to the back door. That's 10 the key. That's the extra little key.

11 Q. Now that money drawer, what did they do with it at 12 the close of every day? What was the routine practice?

13 A. That metal piece that is inside there that is 14 actually where the money fits just lifts up out of the 15 drawer, and they would put it and the accounts receivable
16 ledger and the receipt book and the deposit bag in the safe
17 at night and then lock the safe.

18 Q. Okay, and in the morning what would they do after 19 they opened up? What would be the routine habit and 20 practice?

21 A. Mama would-- well, assuming Mama opened up which
22 she did most of the time unless she was out of town-- Mama
23 would unlock the front door and go in and turn the first
24 lights on that are on that side of building and then go back
25 to the back and open the safe and take out those same things
26 I just named, and take them back up to the office and put the 27 cash drawer back inside.

28 Q. And after she opened the safe, what was their habit
29 and practice regarding the safe? Did they keep it closed or

1 keep it locked during the day?

2 A. Not, no--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge. Well, I have no
4 objection to that question.

5 BY MR. HORAN:

6 Q. Okay, you can answer.

7 A. No, they did not keep it closed during the day, not
8 locked.

9 BY MR. HORAN: If the Court will indulge me
10 just a minute.

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. I hand you what has been marked for identification
13 purposes as State's Exhibit number 63.

14 (Exhibit S-63 shown to Counsel opposite.)

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach on this?

16 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

17 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
18 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now why is this relevant?
20 What is it going to be connected to?

21 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, it was found at the 22 store. The proof is going to be it was found in 23 the office, in the back of the office. She can
24 identify that as being her mother's handwriting.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What does this prove--

26 BY MR. HORAN: --It's proof as to the 27 relationship between the Defendant.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Plus it is going to tie in
29 later with part of his statement.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Plus it is going to tie in
3 later with part of his statement.

4 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I think it has some
5 relevance. I can see that. If it was found at the 6 store, I see the relevance to it.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well. Objection.

8 BY THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

9 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

10 BY MR. HORAN: May I approach, Your Honor?

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. I hand you what has been marked for identification
13 purposes as State's Exhibit number 63. Can you identify the 14 handwriting on that exhibit?

15 A. Yes. It's my mother's.

16 Q. Did you ever see this check in the store after July
17 the 16th, 1996?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. Where did you see it?

20 A. On my mother's desk right by the phone in the very
21 back.

22 Q. Is that in the back office?

23 A. Back office.

24 Q. Next to the telephone?

25 A. Right, with the time card lying right there
26 together.

27 Q. Is this check, is it materially in the same
28 condition today as it was?

29 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Do you remember what day you went in the store?

2 A. I don't have any idea.

3 Q. A few days after?

4 A. I'm sorry; I don't know what day. It was--

5 Q. That's fine.

6 BY MR. HORAN: I move for introduction of this
7 document.

8 BY THE COURT: Same objection?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

11 (ORIGINAL CHECK DATED 7/5/96 TO CURTIS FLOWERS
12 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-63 FOR
13 IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

14 BY MR. HORAN:

15 Q. What was-- I ask you if you can identify a couple
16 of pictures on the outside of the store. If you could, Ms.
17 Ballard, you may or may not be able to do this, but if you
18 can, do you see the Coast to Coast building in that
19 photograph?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which exhibit?

21 BY MR. HORAN: I'm sorry.

22 BY THE WITNESS:

23 A. Yes, it's right there. Huh?

24 BY MR. HORAN: That is D-12.

25 A. It's right here.

26 Q. Okay, how far in your best estimate, how far is the 27 Coast to Coast front door from the front door--

28 A. --Don't ask me. I can't, I don't do distance very 29 well. I'm not sure.

1 Q. Right up the street?

2 A. Yeah, it's just, I mean it's on the other end-- I
3 mean on this end of the other block. It's not far at all.

4 Q. Half a block away?

5 A. Right. Well, a block and a half or half a block.

6 BY MR. HORAN: I tender.

7 BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all just a second.

8 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING
9 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

10 BY THE COURT: In light of what I said, how 11 about, do you want to do the cross in the morning?

12 BY MR. HORAN: Judge, we are trying to get her
13 off the stand.

14 BY THE COURT: I have got, I have already
15 made-- you should have put her on earlier. I have 16 got some arrangements made for the jury.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, if we have anything to 18 ask her at all, it won't take more than five
19 minutes.

20 BY MR. EVANS: That's what I figured. They 21 are going to be able to finish her before 5:30.

22 BY THE COURT: You can finish her before then?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yeah.

24 BY THE COURT: Oh, in that case, be my guest.

25 END BENCH CONFERENCE

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no--

27 BY MR. HORAN: --Let me ask one question I
28 meant to ask. Can I, Judge, just one question?

29 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

1 Q. On that date on July the 16th, 1994, [sic] who were
2 the employees at Tardy Furniture?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry, 6.

4 BY MR. HORAN:

5 Q. I mean '96. I'm sorry. It has been a long day,
6 Judge. July the 16th, 1996, who were the employees at Tardy
7 Furniture?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If she has personal--

9 BY THE COURT: --If she knows.

10 BY MR. HORAN:

11 Q. Did you have personal knowledge of that?

12 A. Yes.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Firsthand knowledge.

14 BY THE WITNESS:

15 A. Yes, because I saw their time cards. I mean they 16 are in evidence or somewhere.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, no. If it is based on 18 time cards, we need the time cards.

19 BY THE COURT: That would be hearsay.

20 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, nothing further.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no questions of this
22 witness.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Ballard -- is she 24 finally excused?

25 BY MR. HORAN: She is.

26 BY THE COURT: Ms. Ballard, you are free to
27 go.

28 WITNESS EXCUSED.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay. I have got y'all in

1 another restaurant tonight, and they have got
2 reservations for you. So we are going to quit now
3 so y'all can get there. We will start back in the 4 morning at 9 o'clock. Now y'all remember all the 5 instructions I have given you every night, don't 6 you? You can't, still can't talk about it amongst
7 yourselves. You can't form any opinions and can't
8 let anybody else talk to you or let any news media
9 of any kind be in contact with you.

10 See y'all in the morning.

2 AT 9:00 A.M. WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL WITH THE EXCEPTION
3 OF MR. FREELON, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT IN OPEN COURT:)

4 BY THE COURT: Y'all ready?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: One second.

6 BY THE COURT: Who will you have first?

7 BY MR. EVANS: Patricia Hollman.

8 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn in?

9 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand. (Witness
11 sworn by the Court.) Have a seat right there, please.

12 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

13 BY THE COURT: Good morning.

14 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

15 PATRICIA ANN HOLLMAN,

16 a black female called to testify as a witness by the State of
17 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
18 follows, to-wit:

19 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
20 please, ma'am.

21 BY THE WITNESS: My name is Patricia Ann
22 Hollman.

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. Ms. Hollman, how are you doing this morning?

25 A. All right.

26 Q. Ms. Hollman, I want to direct your attention back
27 to July the 16th of 1996. Do you remember the day that the 28 people were killed at Tardy Furniture there in Winona?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1           Q.    To start with, do you know a person by the name of
2   Curtis Flowers?

3           A.    Yes, sir.

4           Q.    How long have you known Curtis Flowers?

5           A.    For a while.  Every since-- I have been knowing him
6   for a long time, but I been knowing him real good every since
7   I moved to 700B McNutt Drive.

8           Q.    Was that close to where he was living?

9           A.    Yes, it was.

10          Q.    Who was he living with?

11          A.    Connie Moore.

12          Q.    Can you describe for the ladies and gentlemen of 13   the jury how close you actually lived to where him and Connie
14   Moore lived?

15          A.    Yes.  Next door, about ten to within twenty feets
16   mostly.  It might, the exact maybe ten feet.  We walking
17   distance.

18          Q.    So y'all's houses were almost touching they were so
19   close?

20          A.    Yes, sir.

21          Q.    I want to direct your attention back to the day
22   that the murders occurred and ask you if you saw Curtis
23   Flowers that morning?

24          A.    Yes, sir.

25          Q.    Now the first time you saw him that morning
26   approximately what time was it?

27          A.    The first time I seen him that morning was when I
28   was on my morning walk, and he was just sitting on the 29   porch.  I don't know if it was a cigarette or something, but

1 I guess it was a cigarette and uh, when I was walking that
2 morning.

3 Q. Okay. Did you see him later that morning?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. About what time was that?

6 A. It was about, no later than 7:30. It could have
7 been earlier than 7:30. The time was-- I wasn't paying no
8 attention to the time then. But back then I was on my daily
9 duty, and by that time I always sweep my porch off between 10 the 7 o'clock range, my back porch there in conjunction to 11 their living room right there.

12 Q. All right, what was he doing at that time?

13 A. He was coming across the hill going in the house.

14 Q. Okay, so he had been somewhere at that point and 15 was coming back?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. What was the next time you saw him that morning?

18 A. A little before dinner.

19 Q. Okay. At the time you saw him around 7:00 or 7:30,
20 what was he wearing?

21 A. He was wearing some black nylon pants, a white
22 shirt with some writing on it and some Grant Hill tennis
23 shoes.

24 Q. You say Grant Hill. How do you know what type of 25 tennis shoes he was wearing?

26 A. Because they was just, they hadn't been out too
27 long, and they was popular and my boys wanted some. And at 28 that particular time they the one told me that they wanted
29 some of the Filas that he had on. He done worn them before,

1 so that's how I know that they was Grant Hill Fila tennis
2 shoes.

3 Q. Who had worn them before?

4 A. Curtis.

5 Q. How long had you been seeing Curtis Flowers wearing
6 these Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes?

7 A. Well, I don't know exact.

8 Q. Just for a while; is that right?

9 A. Uh-hum. Well, I have seen them before.

10 Q. Okay.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have this--
12 well, it is already marked for identification.

13 BY THE COURT: I think it is in evidence.
14 It's not?

15 BY MR. EVANS: This one is not. The other
16 one.

17 BY THE COURT: Oh, okay.

18 BY MR. EVANS:

19 Q. I will hand you Exhibit 90 for identification and 20 ask you to examine this exhibit if you would, please,
21 ma'am.

22 A. (Witness complies.) These right here are the Grant
23 Hills II, but they are Grant Hill Fila tennis shoes.

24 Q. Okay, so that is the type, not these shoes, but the 25 type shoes that you saw the Defendant wearing on the morning
26 of the murders?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer these into 29 evidence at this time. Not that they are the shoes

1 he was wearing, but they are the same type of shoes
2 that he was wearing.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. May I see it, please?
4 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba examines the exhibit.) I
5 have no objection to that if that's her testimony.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let them be marked. Do
7 you want the box marked?

8 BY MR. EVANS: It would probably be easier
9 just to keep them in the box, Your Honor.

10 BY THE COURT: We will mark that as a
11 collective exhibit.

12 (FILA SHOE BOX CONTAINING TENNIS SHOES
13 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-90 FOR
14 IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

15 BY MR. EVANS: May I pass these to the jury
16 while I continue, Your Honor?

17 BY THE COURT: They have been admitted. You
18 can.

19 (Exhibit S-90 was passed to the jury.)

20 BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q. Ms. Hollman, back in July of '96 what was your
22 address?

23 A. 700 B McNutt Drive, Winona, Mississippi.

24 Q. McNutt Drive?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. And do you know what the address that Connie Moore
27 and Curtis Flowers were living at?

28 A. 702 A McNutt Drive, Winona, Mississippi.

29 Q. 702 A?

1 A. Uh-hum.

2 Q. What was your connection or relationship with the 3 Defendant and Connie Moore at that time?

4 A. Just friends.

5 Q. Did you know them and their children?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you have any special relationship with one of 8 Connie Moore's children?

9 A. Yes, the baby.

10 Q. And what was that special relationship?

11 A. Well, her godmother.

12 Q. You were the godmother of one of Connie Moore's
13 children?

14 A. Uh-hum.

15 Q. How many times did you see the Defendant leave his 16 house that morning?

17 A. How many times I see him leave?

18 Q. Right.

19 A. Twice.

20 Q. And give me those times as best you can.

21 A. The first time, the first time that I saw him left,
22 let me see. The first time was when, when he was coming in 23 over the hill.

24 Q. Okay.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh, I'm sorry.

26 BY MR. EVANS:

27 Q. You may continue.

28 A. And the second time was when he was leaving,
29 exiting the house.

1 Q. And about what time was he exiting the house?

2 A. Well, I don't know the exact time. I just know
3 when he came back-- when he was, when he came in, he didn't
4 stay that long; he left. He didn't stay, he didn't even stay
5 20 minutes.

6 Q. All right, can you give me a general idea of what
7 time it was that he left then?

8 A. No, I cannot.

9 Q. Which direction did he leave in?

10 A. Going over the hill, and that will be south.

11 Q. Headed south. All right, from where his house was 12 located at that time, which side of Highway 51 was his house
13 on?

14 A. On the left.

15 Q. Okay, would that be the west side?

16 A. Uh-hum.

17 Q. Okay, I need you to answer out loud so that that 18 mike will--

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. --pick it up. And from his house, where was the--
21 are you familiar with the factory there in Winona by the name
22 of Angelica?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. From his house, which direction was Angelica?

25 A. North, northeast.

26 Q. North?

27 A. From which way? The short cut or the highway? I
28 don't understand the question.

29 Q. From where his house was.

1 A. Uh-hum.

2 Q. Was his-- what town direction was that located?

3 A. (No response.)

4 Q. Do you know which, for sure which direction was 5 north and south?

6 A. (No response.)

7 Q. Just describe to me how you would get from his 8 house to Angelica?

9 A. Oh, okay.

10 Q. That might be the easiest.

11 A. Well, it's two different ways you can go.

12 Q. All right, tell me both of them.

13 A. Okay, the first way you can go out, get on Cemetery
14 Lane, go to Cemetery Lane and take a right, get on Powell
15 Street, get down to the end of Powell Street and take another
16 right. And when you get to 407 exit, you can take a left or 17 you can keep straight.

18 Q. All right. Are you familiar with where the 19 intersection is there at Highway 51 that cuts through to 20 Angelica's?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. I believe it's called Angelica Drive or Donnager
23 Drive?

24 A. Yes. Uh-hum.

25 Q. Approximately how long would it take to walk from 26 his house to that intersection?

27 A. I don't know.

28 Q. Okay. Did you see him come back to his house after 29 the second time he left?

1 A. No, I did not.

2 Q. Later that day?

3 A. No, I did not.

4 Q. Okay. And these Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes that 5 he wore, was there anything unusual about them, the way he
6 wore the laces or anything else?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Describe to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
9 that.

10 A. It's two ways you can lace up tennis shoes, and 11 it's the top way like just going from the top. And it's 12 another way you can lace them up like going in from the 13 sides, sort of be like a checkered thing, and the string
14 will hang off from the top when you get up to the top of the 15 shoe.

16 Q. Which way did he wear his Fila Grant Hills?

17 A. With the string hanging to the side.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness, Your
19 Honor. Give me just a second.

20 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

21 BY MR. EVANS: That's all.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Good morning, ladies and
23 gentlemen of the jury.

24 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

25 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Good morning, Ms. Hollman. How are you doing?

27 A. Good morning.

28 Q. Okay, doing good. Ms. Hollman, I just have a few
29 questions to ask you really. You ever see Mr. Curtis Flowers

1 with any kind of gun or anything like that that day?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Did you ever see him with any kind of blood on him
4 or anything like that that day?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Let me ask you a couple of things here. Just one
7 thing they asked you about in some Grant Hill Filas, and I
8 just have a couple of simple questions.

9 (Mr. Freelon enters the courtroom.)

10 Q. You had indicated that at the time that your 11 children had wanted to get some of these because these were 12 new shoes; the things had just come out?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Just come out, okay. And that was at the time that 15 you saw Curtis with Filas also; is that correct?

16 A. Uh-hum.

17 Q. When your children would talk about them and they 18 were new shoes that had just come out; is that right?

19 A. Uh-hum.

20 BY THE COURT: You have to answer out, Ms.

21 Hollman.

22 BY THE WITNESS:

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay, now let's see if I can find something right
25 here. (Pause while Counsel looking at shoes.) Well, it
26 seems like the only thing I can find is on these boxes. But 27 look on this box here-- is this an exhibit already, I
28 believe? It is State Exhibit number 90, okay. This box here
29 says M Grant Hill Olympic; right?

1 A. Uh-hum.

2 Q. That's what it says; right?

3 A. Uh-hum.

4 Q. Okay, you have to say yes or no.

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. And that is the box that Counsel showed you
7 that had these shoes in it. They look kind of new actually,
8 don't they?

9 A. Yes. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Okay. Okay, then is this the-- see if I am right.
11 This box here is S-61. That's what that is right there; see?

12 A. Uh-hum.

13 Q. S-61, and this box seems to have some little powder
14 or something on it? Do you see that?

15 A. Uh-hum.

16 Q. I'm sorry; you have got to say yes or no.

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. So she can pick it up. That box here says Grant
19 Hill II MID; right?

20 A. Uh-hum. Yes, sir.

21 Q. So they have two different things on the box;
22 right?

23 A. Uh-hum.

24 Q. Now the other thing is as far as the pants that you
25 said you saw Mr. Flowers with on that day, you said these 26 were some black pants. Actually what you, I think you
27 described them before as kind of like black silk, what they 28 call warm up pants or jogging pants?

29 A. Wind suit, wind suit pants.

1 Q. That's right. That's what you said. Wind suit
2 pants, right. So these weren't dress pants, were they?

3 A. Uh-uh.

4 Q. Huh?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. And secondly, certainly they weren't long white
7 pants?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. And the other thing is that you didn't see him in a
10 black, black and gray sweater?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. You didn't see that. What you said you saw him in 13 was a T-shirt; is that correct?

14 A. That's right. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay, and the other thing that I would like to ask
16 you about is that-- I don't know; are you pretty decent at 17 looking at maps? Sometimes?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Okay. Now I see on this map, which is Exhibit D-7,
20 up here is the place called-- well, let me see. I'm looking 21 for McNutt. Here is McNutt right here. Is that correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And then we look for?

24 A. Cemetery.

25 Q. Okay, look for the Cemetery. Okay, now. Okay, now
26 let me ask you this. When you saw Mr., Mr. Flowers from 27 this, where it says McNutt, show which me which direction he 28 was going on this map.

29 A. He was going.

1           Q.    Move your finger in that direction, and I'm going
2 to tell the ladies and gentlemen what you are doing.

3           A.    (No response.)

4           Q.    When he left your sight where, which direction did
5 he leave in?

6           A.    I can't show you on this one because Dennis Street
7 is going that way. Cemetery Lane is in front, is in front of 8 the house. It's not-- it's when you go out to the road, and 9 then you make a -- I can't show you on this one.

10          Q.    Well, let me just ask, be a little simpler with 11 it. You are aware of the fact that Mr. Flowers has relatives
12 that live on Dennis Street; is that correct?

13          A.    Yeah, Dennis.

14          Q.    Yeah. He has relatives also-- where does his 15 mother live at? Do you remember? What street does she live
16 on?

17          A.    I think it's--

18          Q.    --Is she on Cade Street or somewhere around there?
19 Are you sure now?

20          A.    Harper and Cade, I'm not familiar with all the way
21 up in there that much. It's in that area.

22          Q.    Okay, but he has relatives that live in that area;
23 is that correct?

24          A.    Uh-hum.

25          Q.    Based upon the direction-- you really don't know
26 where he was going, do you?

27          A.    That's right; I don't.

28          Q.    Okay, and based upon the direction that you saw him
29 walking, he could have been going to one of those relative's

1 house; isn't that true?

2 A. True.

3 Q. Okay, that was in the same general direction; is
4 that correct?

5 A. True.

6 Q. And actually, he has quite a few relatives that
7 live up there in this vicinity. Isn't that true?

8 A. True.

9 Q. Okay. Okay, now the other thing is that, if I'm 10 not mistaken, Ms. Hollman, there was a time when you
11 testified which was...

12 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer, and then 13 Mr. Freelon leaves the courtroom.)

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Okay, and I'm going to show you a transcript of a
16 hearing that you testified in earlier, and I'm going to ask
17 you to look at it with me on page 555 and 5-- make sure I
18 have got that right. Excuse me, 565 and 566. Here is 565,
19 and you notice that at the top your name is there, Patricia
20 Hollman; is that correct?

21 A. Uh-hum.

22 Q. Would that be yes?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And would you also notice that, okay, on 25 these particular pages you said that, "Okay, had no reason"
26 -- well, let me just ask you this question. Okay, they 27 asked you a question. They said, "Okay, had no reason to 28 keep up with the time at that point?" And that was when you
29 were describing about 15 minutes to 5:00 or 10 minutes to

1 5:00; is that correct?

2 A. Uh-hum. That's right.

3 Q. So that was really when you were describing what he
4 had done or when you had seen him much later in the day; is
5 that correct?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Well, 15-- oh, okay.

8 A. That was in the morning.

9 Q. Okay. But then, and that was supposed to be when 10 he was out smoking a cigarette; is that correct?

11 A. That's right. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay. But then you go on and say that-- and you
13 said you walked about that time of day; is that correct?

14 A. That's right. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay, and Ms--

16 A. --time of the morning, not day.

17 Q. Time of the morning. Now Ms. Gholston lives right
18 across the street from you; right?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. Is that true?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. "Okay, had no reason to keep up with the time at 23 that point?" And the answer is "No." And that was your 24 answer; is that correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. And it says, "What happened after you saw Mr.
27 Flowers?" "Well, I went on in the house, and it was about,
28 like I say, I said in my statement it was about 7:30." Okay?
29 Is that true?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2           Q.    Okay, "But it could have been earlier. It could
3 have been a lots earlier. I seen him again when he came in 4 the house. He went through the back door." Okay, is that
5 true?

6           A.    Yes, sir.

7           Q.    Okay, so your estimate was that it was 7:30. But 8 you indicated it could have been earlier; is that true?

9           A.    Yes, sir.

10          Q.    But you say you sweep your porch generally around
11 about 7:00 or so; is that correct?

12          A.    In that area, yes, sir.

13          Q.    And then I think we have had a chance to talk about
14 this--

15          A.    --Yes, sir.

16          Q.    And you have told me that the tops, as far as your 17 belief, it couldn't have been any earlier than 7 o'clock.
18 Isn't that true?

19          A.    Repeat that again.

20          Q.    It had to be somewhere between 7 o'clock and 7:30.
21 Isn't that true?

22          A.    That's right.

23          Q.    Okay, that's what you told us?

24          A.    Yes, sir.

25          Q.    Okay, so somewhere between 7 o'clock and 7:30, and 26 you saw him with a black, according to your testimony, you
27 saw him with these black silk pants on; is that correct?

28          A.    Yes, sir.

29          Q.    Or what you call a windbreaker, wind suit; right?

1           A.    Wind suit pants, not the whole wind suit.

2           Q.    Okay, and you didn't see him with any long white
3 pants on?

4           A.    No, sir.

5           Q.    And you certainly didn't see him with any black
6 sweater on; is that correct?

7           A.    No, sir.

8           Q.    And you saw him walking in the direction where a
9 whole lot of his family lives; right?

10          A.    Yes, sir.

11          Q.    Okay. Now the other thing if I'm not mistaken,
12 what you did before you saw him walking anywhere is you saw
13 him going to his house; isn't that correct?

14          A.    Repeat that.

15          Q.    Okay, Counsel asked you if you had seen him leave
16 the house on two different occasions. Actually what you
17 indicated in your testimony is you saw him coming in the 18 house on one occasion; right?

19          A.    Right.

20          Q.    Okay, and what you have indicated in your 21 testimony, that that was somewhere between 7:00 and 7:30; is
22 that right?

23          A.    That's right.

24          Q.    Okay, and then you, then what happened is that
25 after staying in the house, after being in there between 7:00
26 and 7:30, actually he was in the house. When you saw him go
27 in the house, he was in there from 20 to 30 minutes, wasn't
28 he?

29          A.    No, that is not what I said.

1           Q.    Okay. Okay. But in your... (Pause.) Okay, but
2   you made the statement I think while ago to the police -- do
3   you remember-- well, do you remember ever saying to, do you
4   remember ever telling anybody including myself that you think
5   he was in there at least 20 minutes or 30 minutes, 20 to 30
6   minutes? It could have been as long as 30; it could have 7   been as little as 20?

8           A.    No. No, sir.

9           Q.    Okay. (Pause.) Okay, I will come back to that. We 10   need to take a look at another statement that you had there.
11   But in any event, you saw him coming in there. We have got 12   it down to-- you saw him go in there, and he stayed in the 13   house, and he came out dressed the same way he was when you
14   saw him go in; is that right?

15          A.    Uh-hum. Yes, sir.

16          Q.    Okay. And you have already told us that, what kind
17   of clothes he had on; is that correct?

18          A.    Yes, sir.

19          Q.    Okay. And the other thing is that you have 20   indicated to us on a prior occasion that actually, if I'm not 21   mistaken, I think what you actually said that the reason that
22   you recall these Fila shoes, and just like you said today,
23   you said at that time that your children had brought them to 24   your attention. But you said that you actually had purchased
25   some Grant Hill shoes for your kids. Isn't that what you
26   said?

27          A.    Yes, I purchased some for them after I seen them.
28   That's what I said.

29          Q.    Okay, so you are saying that you did purchase some

1 Grant Hill shoes for your children?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Well, now, Ms. Hollman, your children at 4 that time, your oldest child was only about 8 years old;
5 isn't that correct?

6 A. Was how old?

7 Q. About 8 years old in 1996; isn't that correct?

8 A. (No response.)

9 Q. And this was actually in the summer of 1996.

10 A. (No response.)

11 Q. How old was he at the time if you recall?

12 A. 9.

13 Q. About 9 years old?

14 A. About 9.

15 Q. Okay, so now the Grant Hill shoes, they cost about 16 a hundred dollars, don't they?

17 A. Yes, in that range.

18 Q. Okay, and let's see. And you at that time were,
19 you know, like many of us, you know, you are on disability at 20 that time; right?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. That is
22 not relevant to this case.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think it could be.

24 BY THE COURT: I'm going to allow him to go
25 into it.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. Okay, and I'm not trying to pry or anything, but I
28 just wanted to know. You wasn't rich; right?

29 A. No, I was not but-- oh, I can't go into it?

1 Q. Okay. But in any event, I noticed when you came in
2 today and--

3 BY MR. EVANS: --May we approach because I
4 think he is getting into something that she may
5 need to answer?

6 BY THE COURT: Okay.

7 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
8 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

9 BY MR. EVANS: There is apparently something
10 that either us or him one has told--

11 BY THE COURT REPORTER: --I can't hear you.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Apparently it was something
13 that either I or Mr. Lumumba one has told her not
14 to go into because in response to that, she said
15 there was something I can't answer. And if it's 16 something that he has opened the door to, I would 17 like to let her go ahead and go into it. I would 18 like out of the presence of the jury to ask her--
19 well.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think that he would
21 have to do that on his own time. Now if he wants
22 to have a--

23 BY THE COURT: --Y'all, I know that I'm a lot
24 of things, but clairvoyant ain't one of them.

25 BY MR. HORAN: I have one other thing, Your
26 Honor. I know this is not regarding this witness,
27 but it's highly improper; the Rules specifically
28 state counsel for, the attorneys cannot address the 29 jury, and Mr. Lumumba addressed the jury--

1                   BY THE COURT: --Oh, God. Let's get on with
2                   this case.

3                   BY MR. HORAN: I am objecting to him doing
4                   that.

5                   BY THE COURT: Well, you can object to it. I
6                   note your objection. Let's move on.

7                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

8                   CONTINUING CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9                   Q. Okay, I'm sorry to hold you up here, but I did find 10                  what I was looking for. I'm referring to your testimony on 11                  page 587, and it says here Patricia Hallmon, redirect. It
12                  says that, "And also when he asked you about how long he 13                  stayed in there...." And let's put that in context because I 14                  don't want to take that out of context. He said that he--
15                  wait; here is the page right here. The page before it is 16                  actually over here. Okay. "Ms. Hollman, do you remember
17                  when Mr. Johnson asked you about the time frame? You said
18                  you were walking that morning. Do you remember"
19                  saying, "making a statement, it was about 7:30 AM when I seen 20                  him running to the house? Do you remember that?" And your 21                  answer was, "Uh-hum, yes." Is that correct?

22                  A. Yes.

23                  Q. Okay, and you were asked, "When he asked you about 24                  how long he stayed in there, you said it was about 20
25                  minutes?" And the answer you did again, you said yes. Is
26                  that correct?

27                  A. Yes.

28                  Q. Or "Uh-hum," which means yes; right?

29                  A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. So in '87 your memory was a little closer to
2 that time than it is now; is that correct?

3 A. Not in '87.

4 Q. Okay, well, I'm sorry, not in '87. I'm sorry. You
5 got me on that one. But in '97; is that correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay, but anyway, so at least according to that
8 time you testified, you said it was about 20 minutes. Is
9 that correct?

10 A. Yes. It was just, it wasn't an exact specific
11 time.

12 Q. Yeah, I know; you were never exact, but it wasn't 13 like he just went in and split right out; right?

14 A. Yes, it--

15 Q. --And we are talking about the time in between 7:00
16 and 7:30. That's the time we are talking about; right?

17 A. (No response.)

18 Q. I mean we have already, we have already ascertained
19 that there wasn't any, from our previous conversation here
20 that it wouldn't have been any earlier than 7:00 and any 21 later than 7:30; is that right?

22 A. That's right.

23 Q. Okay. And now the other thing is this. Let me
24 check with something right quick.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, may we approach one
26 second?

27 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
28 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Court doesn't have copies

1 of these transcripts, do you?

2 BY THE COURT: No, sir.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I am missing a page of 4 this transcript. Okay. All right. Okay.

5 END BENCH CONFERENCE

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Now Ms. Hollman, now you testified that you were 8 someone's godmother; is that correct?

9 A. Uh-hum.

10 Q. Okay. Well, isn't it true that you actually aren't
11 even familiar with Connie's real children's names, that you
12 just know their nicknames?

13 A. No, I know their names.

14 Q. Oh, you do. Okay. Well, in 1997, I'm going to see
15 if you were asked that question and if you gave this answer.
16 Question on page 583, Patricia Hollman. "Does she have one
17 child named Marcus Moore?" Answer: "I don't really know his 18 name. I just know his nickname. But I know-- yes, she have 19 a child named Lamarcus. I know most of their nicknames. I'm 20 not familiar with their real names, but I know them when I
21 see them." Isn't that what you said?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay. Now you also, would you recall the first
24 time you ever really had a discussion with the police about
25 this case would have been sometime in August of 1996? Do you
26 recall that that is the case?

27 A. Yes, in August.

28 Q. Yeah, and would August the 7th, I mean I don't
29 expect you to know the exact date, but August the 7th sound

1 about right?

2 A. Somewhere in that category. I'm not for sure.

3 Q. Okay. Now and I'm just asking you because I want
4 to know. You were aware, of course, that there was a reward
5 being offered for this case; is that correct?

6 A. No, I was not.

7 Q. Well, let me ask you this. You do have a brother;
8 is that correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And his name is Odell Hollman; is that correct?

11 A. Jr.

12 Q. Okay, Odell Hollman, Jr.; right?

13 A. (Witness nods her head.)

14 Q. And your brother, you have a brother, and your 15 brother Mr. Hollman, Jr., did he ever discuss with you around
16 about that time the possibility of getting some reward money
17 in this case?

18 A. No, he did not.

19 Q. Did he ever ask you that since you were right next
20 door to Curtis, that perhaps you could get involved and help
21 get some--

22 A. --No, he did not.

23 Q. Did he ever write you or contact you later on when 24 he was away because he got in some trouble, and he had to go
25 away; is that correct?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. Okay. Did he ever write you and ask you if there
28 was some way that you could get some money together to help
29 get him out of there?

1           A.    No, he did not.

2           Q.    Did he ever ask you to get involved with the reward
3 in order to do that?

4           A.    No, he did not.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach one more
6 time? I think I'm about finished here.

7                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

8                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
9 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: If necessary, I would like
11 for the jury to leave so we can argue this if it
12 needs to be argued. I am making a Motion in Limine
13 to preclude him from now going into, you know, any 14 kind of discussion about what she testified at the 15 last time was an argument between Mr., Mr.-- my 16 client and his wife, okay, and (unintelligible).
17 Now I have information in my notes and statements
18 she gave me that says that it was just an 19 argument. She had no way to relate it to anything
20 about Tardy's, okay.

21                  BY THE COURT: Well, I don't see how it would 22 be proper redirect at this time.

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that's what I thought--

24                  BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I'm sorry; I
25 thought you were through.

26                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's the only reason I
27 raised it because I don't want to pass on my chance
28 to go into it if it's going to be allowed, but I
29 don't want it to be allowed.

1 BY MR. EVANS: We don't intend to go into that
2 at this point. Your Honor, there is one matter
3 that I need to bring to the Court's attention. I
4 think under the rules I have to. Because of this
5 line of questioning that he has raised, it is going
6 to be necessary for me to ask this witness
7 questions. It is going to bring out that her
8 brother Odell Hollman was in Parchman with Curtis
9 Flowers. I am going to ask her what her brother
10 asked her to do, what her brother did say to her,
11 and just let her explain it. I'm not sure and I'm
12 going to ask her, but I think because of the rules,
13 I have got to go over it and let the Court know
14 what we anticipate doing before we do it.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, first of all, it is 16 extremely prejudicial to point out unless he has,
17 there is--

18 BY THE COURT: --Well, I think you have kind
19 of pointed it out yourself.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, no, what I'm saying
21 about that is that her brother was never in the 22 same unit at Parchman prison or in contact with 23 Hollman, and I think that if you are going to do
24 that, I would ask you for a chance to prove that.
25 There is no way that they had any contact.
26 Prisoners are not even allowed to write each other
27 at the jail. There is no way.

28 BY THE COURT: In light of her answers to that
29 where she said that it did not occur at all--

1 BY MR. EVANS: Just the answers that he asked
2 for.

3 BY THE COURT: Huh?

4 BY MR. EVANS: Just the answers that he asked
5 for. She did have conversations with her brother,
6 but the answers that he asked for were not what
7 they talked about.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, any answers that her
9 brother gave have to be hearsay, and the only time
10 they become admissible if she has to impeach her
11 brother. Now we are not talking about her
12 statements. We are talking about her brother's
13 statements.

14 BY THE COURT: Right. That would be hearsay.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, anything is hearsay
16 unless her brother has to be impeached. He doesn't 17 have to be impeached, and the way I asked the 18 questions were very careful. In no way did I imply
19 that she was guilty of it. But I could not, not
20 ask--I mean, you know, but I have to actually lay a
21 predicate in case we call her brother. If we call
22 her brother, they are free to impeach him of 23 whatever they have, you know, including her.

24 BY THE COURT: I really think that's the 25 proper time to do that. I mean in light of her
26 testimony, I mean I don't think you are precluded
27 from doing it, but I think it probably may be-- you
28 have got her for rebuttal, and you have got-- if he 29 testifies, you have got a right to cross-examine.

1           At this time she has not testified anything but in
2           the negative. I mean she has denied it all. Until
3           you get to some other point, I don't think you are
4           at that stage. I think you have got--

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6           (Mr. Evans and Mr. Horan confer out of the
7           hearing of the Court Reporter.)

8           BY THE COURT: Wait a minute now. What are 9           you talking about some relationship?

10          BY MR. EVANS: The fact that her brother was 11          in Parchman with Curtis and knew him and they had 12          conversation.

13          BY THE COURT: Well, unless she was over there
14          in the cell, she can't know that anyhow.

15          BY MR. EVANS: No, it would all be hearsay,
16          but it would all be hearsay because of what they
17          brought up. But I understand the Court's--

18          BY THE COURT: Okay.

19          BY MR. EVANS: I understand the Court's
20          ruling, and we will follow it.

21          BY THE COURT: Okay, move on.

22                               END BENCH CONFERENCE

23          CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24           Q.    Okay, Ms. Hollman, so if I understand it, basically
25           what you are offering today is that Mr.-- you did see, you
26           think you saw Mr. Flowers that day; is that correct?

27           A.    Repeat your question, please.

28           Q.    You indicated you saw Mr. Flowers that day; is that
29           correct?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And actually since you live next door, you probably
3 saw Mr. Flowers just about every day; is that right?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay, so in that respect, seeing Mr. Flowers was 6 nothing unusual. Isn't that true?

7 A. That's right.

8 Q. Okay. Okay, and you have indicated that he did
9 have these black silk pants on, or I keep saying silk.

10 A. Wind suit.

11 Q. Wind suit. They might look a little silky, but 12 they are really not silk; right? Is that true?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay, and you have indicated that he had on a white
15 T-shirt; is that correct?

16 A. Yes, sir, with writing on the front.

17 Q. And you didn't see any black or gray sweater or 18 anything like that?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. And you certainly didn't see him in a jacket which 21 we might call like a white or gray windbreaker?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. And you didn't see him in any dressy looking jeans?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. And you didn't see him with a dressy looking white
26 shirt which is button up the front?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. And you didn't see him in anybody's car at that 29 time; is that correct?

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT #: 97-372

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. And you didn't see him with any type of weapon;
3 right?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Okay, or is that all true?

6 A. Yes, sir. It's true.

7 Q. And this box here, one of them says it's a Grant
8 Hill Olympic, and the other one says it's a Grant Hill II; is
9 that correct?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I have no further
12 questions at this time. Thank you very much.

13 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q. Ms. Hollman.

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Is that the same kind of shoes that Curtis Flowers
17 had on the day of the killings at Tardy Furniture?

18 A. Yes, sir. It's two kind of Filas. One have blue
19 up in here, but it's still the Grant Hill. My kids had the 20 one with the blue. They didn't want it exactly like his. My 21 children had the blue like, other kind of leather like stuff
22 in between there because they were children's shoes, and they
23 are not going to be exactly like the adults.

24 Q. And this is an adult shoe?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. And the shoes that he had on were Fila name brand--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me--

28 BY MR. EVANS: --Grant Hill--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, Judge--

1 BY MR. EVANS:

2 Q. --model; is that correct?

3 BY THE COURT: Wait, wait. Let him--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can we stop leading the
5 witness? I think this is--

6 BY THE COURT: Okay, can't lead her now.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I would appreciate it.

8 BY MR. EVANS:

9 Q. I will just ask you since I can't ask the question
10 like that, what type shoes did he have on?

11 A. Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes.

12 Q. Thank you. Now you have been asked by opposing 13 Counsel about different things from a prior transcript. I
14 want to ask you a few questions from it.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we get page references,
16 please?

17 BY MR. EVANS: Okay, just a second.

18 BY MR. EVANS:

19 Q. On page 563, line 26 through 29, did you tell us
20 what children were living with Connie Moore--

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. --and Curtis Flowers?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. What names did you give?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection, Judge. I don't
26 see.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Look at line 29.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I don't any problem with 29 the-- oh, going into the names--

1 BY THE WITNESS: --Lemarcus and Brittany
2 Moore.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I don't have any
4 problem with going into the names.

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q. Since y'all were talking at the same time, would
7 you repeat your answer, please?

8 A. "Lemarcus Moore and Brittany Moore."

9 Q. And as opposing Counsel brought out on page 586,
10 line 29, what was Curtis doing when you saw him coming back
11 to the house?

12 A. He was running.

13 Q. Pointing out on 566, line 19, what was his 14 condition at that time?

15 A. "He was in a rage."

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection to that. Objection
17 to that. What is he talking about?

18 BY MR. EVANS: On what basis?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach, Judge?

20 BY THE COURT: Sure.

21 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
22 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is no way-- I didn't 24 even use that provision of the transcript. Now if 25 he is going to-- see, that's the kind of stuff I am
26 talking about. If he is going to-- he can't just,
27 you know, ambush me. If he wants to talk about a
28 rage, he should have raised it on direct, so I can
29 cross-examine her on it. All I did is ask her

1           about the man coming in. He had asked about what
2           time he had left. I cross-examined on that, and he
3           can't come back and talk about he came in in a
4           rage. That is an intentional ambush, and I don't
5           think that is allowed.

6           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I did not even go
7           into the transcripts. He brought the transcripts
8           up. He went into it. He specifically asked her
9           about parts of it, and I am just going further into 10          different parts of the transcripts.

11          BY THE COURT: Well, the transcripts are not 12          relevant to this. It is a question of what was 13          raised on cross-examination that you are entitled
14          to go into on redirect. And there was nothing on 15          cross-examination that I heard about his demeanor
16          one way or another. It was all about him coming
17          and going and whether he--

18          BY MR. HORAN: --and the times.

19          BY THE COURT: And the times. But as to his 20          demeanor, there was nothing raised about that, and 21          you didn't go into it on direct. It's just not 22          proper redirect.

23          BY MR. HORAN: He asked her to describe Mr.
24          Flowers at that time.

25          BY MR. EVANS: Uh-huh.

26          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I didn't.

27          BY THE COURT: I'm not going to allow it. It
28          is just not there.

29                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hold it just a minute.

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q. All right, Ms. Hollman, I want to direct your
4 attention to a statement that you gave on August the 7th of 5 '96, and ask you in that statement what time did you tell
6 the officers that you saw the Defendant running back to his
7 house?

8 A. About 7:30.

9 Q. Okay.

10 BY MR. EVANS: That's all we have of this
11 witness, Your Honor.

12 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused, or do
13 you want her to stay in the witness room?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we are probably going
15 to have to hold her.

16 BY THE COURT: You want to keep her. Okay,
17 that is fine. You need to return to the witness
18 room, Ms. Hollman.

19 WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

20 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Mary Jeanette Fleming.

22 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn?

23 BY THE WITNESS: No.

24 BY THE COURT: Stand up, please, ma'am. Raise
25 your right hand.

26 MARY JEANETTE FLEMING,
27 a black female called to testify as a witness by the State of
28 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
29 follows, to-wit:

1                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat right there.

2                   BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor? Did
3                   you ask the witness to state her name? I was 4                   looking at this.

5                   BY THE COURT: I did not. State your--

6                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

7                   Q. --If you would, state your name.

8                   A. Mary Jeanette Fleming.

9                   Q. Mary Jeanette Fleming?

10                  A. Uh-hum.

11                  Q. Ms. Fleming, before I even start, is there another 12                  person that you know by the name of Mary Fleming?

13                  A. Uh-hum.

14                  Q. And what is her relationship?

15                  A. She is my niece.

16                         BY THE COURT: Ms. Fleming, if you will, if 17                         you will turn where you are facing him. That way
18                         that microphone will pick you up better. Okay?

19                         BY THE WITNESS: Like this?

20                         BY THE COURT: Yes.

21                   BY THE WITNESS:

22                   A. Okay. She is my niece.

23                   Q. Okay, Ms. Fleming, I want to direct your attention
24                   back to the day that the murders occurred at Tardy Furniture
25                   in Winona. Do you remember that day?

26                   A. Yes, sir.

27                   Q. What were you doing that morning?

28                   A. Well, I had called to Weed Brother to get an 29                   estimate on a windshield because it had got broken out that

1 Saturday at a club. So I called down there and asked them,
2 you know, how much would it be. And they told me they had to
3 order it. So I told them I was going to bring my car down
4 there to drop it off. So I left home about at 10 till 9:00
5 and took it down there. And so I just dropped it off and
6 left it. So, you know, I got out of the store walking back
7 home. So when I was walking back home, that's when I met
8 Curtis Flowers, you know.

9 Q. All right, let me stop you just a minute and try to 10 take this step by step. Where is Weed Brothers?

11 A. It's behind Tardy's.

12 Q. Is it in that alley behind Tardy Furniture?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And what time did you drop your car off at Weed
15 Brothers to the best of your memory?

16 A. Well, I left home at 10 minutes to 9:00.

17 Q. About how long would it have taken you to get to 18 Weed Brothers?

19 A. It shouldn't have took but about, I guess probably 20 not 5 minutes.

21 Q. Okay, and how long did you stay in there talking to 22 them about your car?

23 A. I didn't talk to them. I dropped it off. I told
24 here was-- they was standing there waiting for me, some guy,
25 and I told him here was my car. So I got out and left it,
26 and I started walking back home.

27 Q. All right, and explain to the ladies and gentlemen
28 of the jury the path that you took to walk back home?

29 A. I got, I left Carrollton Avenue, got on Church

1 Street. Then I got on Campbell Street.

2 Q. Okay, do you live fairly close to Weed Brothers?

3 A. Well, not far. I was living on 702 Freedman behind
4 Piggly Wiggly.

5 Q. All right. As you were walking home leaving from 6 behind Tardy Furniture, you said you saw Curtis Flowers?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. How long had you known Curtis Flowers?

9 A. I known him for quite a while.

10 Q. Where did you meet Curtis Flowers?

11 A. Where did I meet him?

12 Q. On that day?

13 A. Oh. Walking on Campbell Street.

14 Q. How far from Tardy Furniture was he when you saw
15 him?

16 A. It wasn't very far.

17 Q. Are we talking about down the same block or the 18 second block?

19 A. The same. The same block.

20 Q. Same block Tardy Furniture is on?

21 A. Well, no. It's not the same block. This was on 22 Campbell Street where I met him.

23 Q. Okay. So it would be a couple of blocks from
24 there?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. Was he walking toward or away from Tardy Furniture?

27 A. Toward.

28 Q. Did y'all have any conversation?

29 A. No, he spoke to me and I spoke. I kept going and

1 he kept going.

2 Q. What did he say to you?

3 A. He spoke and said, "Hi, good looking." And so I
4 said, "Hi." He went on, so I went on. But I made a stop at 5 a friend's house.

6 Q. Any question who you saw and who spoke to you that
7 morning?

8 A. No. No question.

9 Q. Would you point to the person that you saw walking
10 in that direction that morning?

11 A. (Witness points.)

12 BY MR. EVANS: May the record reflect that she
13 has identified the Defendant in this cause?

14 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that 15 fact.

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. Ms. Fleming, did you point out to any officers
18 where you saw him walk in that direction that morning?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what street did you say you saw him on?

21 A. Campbell Street.

22 Q. I want to hand you Exhibit 7 for identification and 23 ask you if you can identify on this map--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can I approach, Judge, so I
25 can see?

26 BY MR. EVANS: This map.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I just want to see
28 where she points to.

29 BY MR. EVANS:

1 Q. Can you see a street on there -- let me point out
2 to you what has been described. This is First Street. This
3 is Carrollton Avenue. This is Church, and this is Campbell
4 Street.

5 A. Where is Campbell at?

6 Q. Turn it this way, and you can see the name Campbell
7 Street right there.

8 A. Oh, okay. Which way-- where is-- this is
9 Carrollton Avenue; right? Okay, I got off--

10 Q. --All right, this is Carrollton right here. This 11 is Church. And this is Campbell.

12 A. (Pause) This is Campbell right here.

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. Is that the street that you saw him on?

16 A. Yes, uh-huh.

17 Q. All right, do you see the area in here that has the 18 9 marked on it?

19 A. Right there?

20 Q. Right. Is that the street that you saw him on--

21 A. Yes, Campbell.

22 Q. --Campbell, right in there? Is that about the part
23 of the street that you saw him on?

24 A. Yeah, but it-- yes. It was back farther.

25 Q. Back farther which way? Toward town?

26 A. Toward 51 like.

27 Q. Okay.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer this
29 exhibit into evidence.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Isn't it in evidence
2 already?

3 BY MR. EVANS: For identification at this
4 point.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6 BY THE COURT: No objection?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

9 (MAP OF STREETS OF WINONA PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS 10 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-7 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW
11 ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE AT THE REQUEST OF THE STATE.)

12 (Pause while State's Counsel confer.)

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q. All right, I believe in a prior transcript trying 15 to describe it, you said that where you saw him was close to 16 the intersection of Church Street and Campbell Street; is
17 that correct?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh--

19 BY THE WITNESS:

20 A. Well--

21 BY MR. EVANS: Wait just a second. There may 22 be an objection.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, that is okay.

24 BY THE WITNESS:

25 A. It was on Campbell, but it was closer to town. It
26 was in front of Glenn Banks, almost to Glendale Likwa's
27 (phonetically) house where I met him at.

28 Q. Almost at what?

29 A. He was on Campbell Street. It wasn't very far from

1 town where he was approaching.

2 Q. Okay, and town, is that the area that you are
3 talking about down where Tardy Furniture street is and the 4 cleaners and?

5 A. (Witness nods her head.)

6 Q. The railroad track and all of that?

7 A. (Witness nods her head.)

8 Q. All right, you can't just nod your head. You have 9 got to--

10 A. --Yes.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --That is true, Judge, and he 12 also can't ask her leading questions.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay, don't lead her now.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object to that.

15 BY MR. EVANS: I tender the witness at this
16 point.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

19 (Mr. Freelon enters the courtroom.)

20 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. Good morning, Ms. Fleming. How are you doing?

22 A. Good morning. All right.

23 Q. Okay, Ms. Fleming, when he pointed to the spot that
24 the "9" is on the map which is now Exhibit D-7, what you
25 indicated is that the time, whenever it was that you saw Mr.
26 Curtis Flowers, that he was closer to 51 than that spot. Is
27 that true?

28 A. He wasn't closer to 51. He was between Campbell--
29 he had made it -- he was almost fixing to enter to Church

1 Street when I seen him.

2 Q. But let me see if we have got this number 9 here,
3 okay? Do you see this number 9 on this map right here?
4 That's what he pointed to, and he asked you if that was the
5 spot you seen him at; is that right?

6 A. Yeah. Yeah.

7 Q. And you said he was closer to 51 than that; isn't
8 that what you just told--

9 A. --But this is Campbell Street right here. He was,
10 you know, he was coming to Campbell Street, was on Campbell
11 Street when I seen him.

12 Q. Yeah, but listen to my question carefully. You
13 indicated that he was closer to 51. I'm not saying he was on 14 51, but he was on Campbell at a spot closer to 51 than this 15 "9" is?

16 A. No.

17 Q. That's not what you said?

18 A. I said it, but he wasn't closer to 51.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. I didn't understand that thing there.

21 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this by the way. This 22 downtown we are talking about, it has a post office in it; is
23 that correct?

24 A. Yes, it has got a post office.

25 Q. And it has got a bank in it; is that right?

26 A. What?

27 Q. Town. Does it have a bank in it?

28 A. (Witness nods her head.)

29 Q. I'm sorry?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You have to say yes or no.

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And it has a lot of things in it other than, and
5 people go into town all the time; is that correct?

6 A. Yes, that's correct.

7 Q. Every day; right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And I think that you have previously testified that 10 the time that you were supposed to be there you were dropping
11 off your car; is that correct?

12 A. Yes, I was.

13 Q. And so other people were doing business downtown
14 too; is that right?

15 A. I imagine so, yes.

16 Q. And so it is certainly nothing strange about going
17 in town; is that--

18 A. --I didn't say it was.

19 Q. Okay, and I'm not trying to say you did, but I am
20 just asking you the question. Is that okay?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay, so there is nothing strange about that;
23 right?

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. Don't, let's not be defensive; okay?

26 A. I'm not.

27 Q. Okay. Now the other thing is that the, in fact,
28 you probably saw a lot of other people too other than Mr.
29 Curtis on whatever day you saw him. Is that true?

1 Q. Okay, what you have previously described as a-- you
2 described it before as kind of like a gray jacket?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. With purple on the shoulders?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. But he had on a white button up shirt when you saw
7 him?

8 A. Yes, he did.

9 Q. This was like a dress shirt; right?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And I think you have previously told folks that he 12 had these dressy looking pants on, probably jeans, neat
13 jeans; is that correct?

14 A. Well, yes, he had black jeans, that shirt I said
15 and a jacket.

16 Q. Black jeans. But you didn't see him with no white
17 long pants on?

18 A. No, I didn't.

19 Q. And you didn't see him with no what we call black 20 windbreaker pants on?

21 A. No.

22 Q. You didn't see him with that? Okay, and you didn't
23 see him with a white T-shirt on, did you?

24 A. No.

25 Q. What you saw him with on was a dressy looking white
26 shirt that had buttons up the front?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Okay, and you described him as looking dressy;
29 right?

1 Q. That is not unusual; is that right? It's not
2 unusual that people wouldn't pay attention to people's shoes;
3 right?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Okay. Now in fact, it might be unusual if people
6 are paying attention to people's shoes; isn't that right?
7 Just somebody walking down the street?

8 A. Yeah, right.

9 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. Now just a couple
10 of things I want to check on. You are claiming that the day
11 that you went down there, I think you have indicated that it
12 was around-- you previously testified that you made a call to 13 Weed Brothers around about 10 minutes to 9:00; is that
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And that was the first time you had ever called
17 Weed Brothers about your car?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Your car had a broken window in it; right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you needed to take your car down to be 22 repaired?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So that was the first time you called was about 10
25 minutes to 9:00?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. So if you actually called at 10 minutes to 9:00,
28 then, of course, Weed Brothers didn't know about your problem
29 until 10 minutes to 9:00?

1           A.    That's right.

2           Q.    Okay, now the other thing is this--

3           A.    --It wasn't about 10 till 9:00.  It was 10 to 9:00
4 when I left home.

5           Q.    Okay.  Well, you called a few minutes before that;
6 right?

7           A.    Yes.

8           Q.    Okay, so maybe 15 minutes to 9:00?

9           A.    Yes.

10          Q.    Okay.  Now the other thing is this.  And this is 11 probably not a major thing.  It's just, you know, but just 12 page 689.  This is your name, Mary Jeanette Fleming?

13          A.    Uh-hum.

14          Q.    And this is at a previous hearing.  "Do you
15 remember about what time, approximately the time that you
16 left your residence?"  And at that time you said, "10 minutes
17 to 9:00."  Is that correct?

18          A.    Yes.

19          Q.    Okay.  So but in any event, today you think it may 20 have been 15 minutes to 9:00; correct?

21          A.    Sir?

22          Q.    Today it may have been 15 minutes to 9:00 you
23 said--

24          A.    --I was looking at the clock when I was talking on 25 the phone.

26          Q.    Okay.  Okay.  Well, you are right.  You called 27 about 15 to 9:00, and you left about 10 minutes to 9:00?

28          A.    Yes.

29          Q.    Okay, very good.  But in any event, you know you

1 don't leave at 8:00; is that correct?

2 A. I didn't leave at 8:00.

3 Q. And you know you didn't call at 8:00?

4 A. No, I didn't.

5 Q. Now the other thing is you have indicated here-- by 6 the way, Clemmie Fleming is your niece; right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. You are related to her?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Now the other thing is you indicated that 11 when you came out of Weed Brothers -- now Weed Brothers is 12 right there behind -- Weed Brothers, by the way, is right
13 there behind Tardy; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that's where you left your car?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Now and there was somebody working in there
18 at Weed Brothers?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now in order for you to see on that day Curtis
21 where you saw him at, when you left Weed Brothers, I think
22 what you have previously said in prior testimony is that what
23 you did is you would have come out of Weed Brothers and then
24 gone up--

25 A. --I didn't go in Weed Brothers.

26 Q. Okay, well, you were out there in the front of--

27 A. Oh, yeah.

28 Q. In the lot; is that correct?

29 A. Yes.

1 Q. But you left the lot at a certain point; right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you went to Carrollton; right?

4 A. Uh-hum.

5 Q. And then you are saying that you turned. You
6 turned and went directly to Carrollton; is that right?

7 A. Oh, I got off-- when I parked my car, I think Weed
8 Brothers is on Carrollton. I left Carrollton Avenue. I got 9 on Church Street. Then I entered Campbell Street.

10 Q. Okay, well, look, I just want to get it straight.
11 Let me see. This is Carrollton right here on the map, and 12 then we are going to show the ladies and gentlemen of the 13 jury. I think it has already been testified that this is 14 Carrollton; right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And this here is where Tardy's is supposed to be
17 right here; okay. Do you think you would recognize Tardy's
18 if you saw it in a picture?

19 A. In what picture? This one?

20 Q. Well, no, in another picture. But let me see. Let 21 me see if we can do it without doing that. Let me see.
22 Carrollton is right there next to Weed Brothers; is that
23 right?

24 A. Uh-hum.

25 Q. And you said that you-- so you would have walked
26 straight to Carrollton and then walked up to wherever else
27 you were going?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. Okay. So you wouldn't have walked the other way,

1 away from Carrolllton?

2 A. No, I was going home.

3 Q. But there was a man there when you left; right?

4 The man that deals with the cars?

5 A. Yeah, a guy there. He was standing on the outside,
6 and I had, I just told him I come to drop my car because I
7 already told him I was on my way to drop it off.

8 Q. Okay, so he saw you?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And if you would not have gone that way down
11 Carrolllton, if you would have went the other way, then it's 12 your testimony that on whatever day, that you never would 13 have seen Mr. Flowers; is that correct?

14 A. Well, I reckon if I had went another way, I guess I
15 wouldn't have. I didn't ask to see him.

16 Q. You never saw Mr. Flowers at Tardy Furniture?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You never saw him coming in; right?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Never saw him going out?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Never saw him anywhere in the vicinity of the 23 building actually?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Were you kind of, that day were you kind of 26 sweating a little bit that day yourself?

27 A. No, I wasn't sweating.

28 Q. (Mr. Lumumba hands transcript to the witness.)

29 This is your name again, Mary Jeanette Fleming; is that

1 correct?

2 A. Uh-hum.

3 Q. And page 696; right? "Were you hot by the time you
4 got that far?" Answer: "Well, yeah." Question: "Sweating?"

5 Answer: "Sort of." Is that correct?

6 A. No. I wasn't sweating. Why would I be sweating?

7 Q. Just let me-- is that what it says here?

8 A. Yeah, that's what that says.

9 Q. And weren't you, aren't you Mary Jeanette Fleming?

10 A. Yes, I am.

11 Q. And doesn't it say the answer was by Mary Jeanette
12 Fleming was "Sort of"?

13 A. Sort of what?

14 Q. "Were you hot by the time you got that far?"

15 Answer: "Well, yeah." Question: "Sweating?" Answer: "Sort
16 of." Is that what it says here?

17 A. That's what that says.

18 Q. And this is your name?

19 A. Yes.

20 (Mr. Freelon leaves the courtroom.)

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
22 questions for Ms. Fleming.

23 BY THE COURT: Any redirect?

24 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Real briefly.

25 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

26 Q. Ms. Fleming, you have stated that when you got to 27 Weed Brothers, you just left your car and left; is that
28 right?

29 A. Yes.

1 Q. Why was it not necessary for you to go in?

2 A. Because I had told them. I told them I was going
3 to drop it off. I didn't-- what I was going to go in for?

4 Q. All right, they already knew why you were bringing
5 the car--

6 A. --Yeah, they knew.

7 Q. Had you talked to them before that day about the 8 car?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. When had you talked to them?

11 A. I called them that morning.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh.

13 BY THE WITNESS:

14 A. Not-- I hadn't, I hadn't never talked to them
15 before about it. I called them that morning and asked them
16 how much would a windshield be.

17 Q. All right. And when you left because it is kind of 18 confusing the way it is bounced back and forth. From where 19 you parked your car, what I would like for you to do is tell
20 the ladies and gentlemen of the jury how you walked when you
21 left Weed Brothers.

22 A. When I parked my car, I left from Weed Brothers.
23 Well, I left Weed Brothers-- it's in a little cut like I left
24 out of there. I got on Carrollton Avenue, and then I got on 25 Church--

26 Q. --All right, let me stop you just a minute. Is 27 Carrollton Avenue the same street that runs between Tardy
28 Furniture and Hunger Cleaners?

29 A. Yes. That's the street I got on.

1           Q.    All right, when you came out to Carrollton Avenue,
2 did you turn right or did you turn left?

3           A.    (No response.)

4           Q.    When you came out of that alley on to Carrollton
5 Avenue?

6           A.    I turned right because I was going home.

7           Q.    All right. And left would have been right there at 8 Tardy Furniture; is that correct?

9           A.    Yes.

10          Q.    Okay, you turned right, and you walked down that
11 street; is that correct?

12          A.    Yes.

13          Q.    Can you give us an idea of how far it is down that 14 street until you come into an intersection?

15          A.    Down what street? Campbell?

16          Q.    Carrollton.

17          A.    It's not very far.

18          Q.    Just a short distance?

19          A.    Yes.

20          Q.    What street do you come to?

21          A.    I came to Campbell after I got on Church.

22          Q.    Carrollton Avenue just runs right straight into
23 Campbell; is that right?

24          A.    Yes.

25          Q.    Which direction did you turn on Campbell?

26          A.    I turned right around the corner.

27          Q.    All right, which intersection are we talking
28 about? I don't want to lose you.

29          A.    Sir?

1 Q. Which intersection are we talking about? You came
2 out of Weed Brothers. You turned right on Campbell?

3 A. Uh-hum.

4 Q. You go down to Carrollton Avenue?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. From Carrollton Avenue, which street did you go to?

7 A. Church Street.

8 Q. Church Street, and you turned on Church Street.

9 A. I, when I, I turned on Campbell when I got to 10 Church Street because I was on my way back home, but I made a 11 stop.

12 Q. Okay, and that's the direction you were headed?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And was your house in that direction?

15 A. Yes. It was behind Piggly Wiggly.

16 Q. Okay, you have been asked about seeing the 17 Defendant. Is there any question in your mind that this is 18 the person that you saw and that spoke to you that morning?

19 A. Ain't no doubt about it. It was him.

20 Q. And we are talking about the same morning that the 21 murders occurred--

22 A. --the same morning--

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I would ask that we stop
24 leading the witness. I object.

25 BY THE WITNESS: It was the same morning.

26 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. The objection
27 is sustained.

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. What morning are we talking about that you saw him?

1           A.    July the 16th.

2           Q.    Okay.  At any time that day did you find out--
3 well, when did you find out about the murders?

4           A.    I found out about it that morning.

5           Q.    About--

6           A.    --the same morning.

7           Q.    About what time?

8           A.    It was probably about something like 10:30.

9                   BY MR. EVANS:  No further questions, Your
10 Honor.

11                   BY THE COURT:  Is she finally excused?

12                   BY MR. EVANS:  Not at this point.  We may be 13 able to.

14                   BY THE COURT:  Okay, Ms. Fleming, you need to 15 go back to the witness room.

16                               WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

17                   BY THE COURT:  Why don't we take a break for 18 about 10 minutes or so.  Let me see y'all up here
19 at the bench just a second.  This is not on the
20 record.

21                               (FOLLOWING THE MORNING RECESS ON MARCH 26,
22 1999, PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE
23 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, THE JURY AND THE DEFENDANT ALL
24 PRESENT:)

25                               (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
26 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

27                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Mr. Freelon has just told 28 me-- Counsel informed me that they were going to 29 put Ken Pickens on the stand.  He works at the Weed

1 Brothers where the lady dropped off her car.

2 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: They didn't list him as a
4 witness, so we are objecting to him.

5 BY MR. HORAN: That is fine. They listed him
6 as a potential witness, Your Honor. Until this 7 testimony came up, we didn't know that we were 8 going, it was going to be necessary to put him on.
9 They are trying to impeach--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --And at this point we still 11 don't know. We may need him for rebuttal.

12 BY MR. HORAN: We are going to put him on in 13 chief, Your Honor.

14 BY THE COURT: Huh?

15 BY MR. HORAN: We are going to put him on in 16 chief.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We object to that, Judge.
18 They didn't list him--

19 BY THE COURT: --Okay, well, you know what the 20 Box procedure is, boys.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22 BY THE COURT: So y'all can go through that
23 and tell me where you want to be on it.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Well, are they asking for a
25 continuance until, for anything? He is not-- they 26 are not surprised. I will admit that he was not
27 listed as a potential witness.

28 BY THE COURT: The first option is they have 29 to be able to talk to him which I assume they have

1 done.

2 BY MR. HORAN: Right. They have got a taped
3 statement.

4 BY THE COURT: The second thing is they have
5 to the decide whether or not they want a
6 continuance or whether they want to go ahead. If
7 they want a continuance, then y'all have to decide
8 whether y'all want to call him.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. We want to call him.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Also, we haven't gotten
11 anything from them. We haven't gotten anything
12 from them, what they intend for him to testify to.
13 They haven't said.

14 BY THE COURT: Well, of course, y'all all know
15 what the Box procedure is when we get into this 16 situation.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, we will discuss that.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is he supposed to be the next
19 person?

20 BY MR. HORAN: No.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, okay. Well, before they 22 put him on.

23 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

24 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

25 BY MR. HORAN: Steve Byrd. He has not been
26 sworn, Your Honor.

27 (Mr. Freelon leaves the courtroom. Witness 28 enters courtroom.)

STEVE BYRD,

a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

BY THE COURT: Have a seat, and state your name for the record.

BY THE WITNESS: My name is Steve Byrd.

BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

Q. Mr. Byrd, how are you employed?

A. I am employed as a forensic scientist specializing in firearms evidence examinations.

Q. Have you received any particular training that qualifies you for that particular job?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What training have you received and education in that regard?

A. For the first year I was employed at the laboratory I underwent an apprenticeship type training. In other words, I worked one on one with firearms examiners that were employed at that time. I have attended the Smith and Wesson and Rivers Armors School, the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia, and several other training seminars that have been specifically for firearms examiners.

Q. And do you have any, what the law people refer to as on-the-job training?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What would that be?

1           A.    Since my employment at the laboratory, I have been
2 employed full time doing firearms examinations.

3           Q.    And do exhibits come into your possession or come
4 to you for the purpose of determining whether or not items or
5 these particular exhibits were fired from weapons?

6           A.    Yes, sir.

7           Q.    And these exhibits, they usually come from law
8 enforcement agency; is that right?

9           A.    Yes, sir.

10          Q.    Agencies throughout the state?

11          A.    Yes, sir.

12          Q.    You stated a few amounts moments ago that you are a
13 firearms examiner. Have you ever been qualified as an expert
14 in the courts of the State of Mississippi as an expert in the 15 field of firearms examination, Mr. Byrd?

16          A.    Yes, sir. I have.

17          Q.    Approximately how many times?

18          A.    I would say approximately 200 occasions.

19                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I tender him as an
20 expert in the field of firearms examination.

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objections to Mr.
22 Byrd's qualifications, Judge.

23                   BY THE COURT: The Court accepts him as an
24 expert in that field.

25                   BY MR. HORAN: Thank you, Your Honor. If the 26 Court will indulge me just a minute.

27 BY MR. HORAN:

28          Q.    Mr. Byrd, I want to hand you some exhibits, and if
29 you would, please inspect them. Tell me whether or not you

1 can make a determination as to whether or not they, that you
2 have ever seen them before. State's Exhibit 76-- strike
3 that. State's Exhibit 76 has been introduced into evidence.
4 State's Exhibit number 89, would you look at those, please,
5 sir.

6 A. (Pause) Yes, sir. I have.

7 Q. Can you identify those?

8 A. Yes, sir; I can.

9 Q. How can you identify those?

10 A. The containers have the State Crime Laboratory case
11 number, exhibit number, and my initials on them.

12 Q. If you would, would you identify the State Crime
13 Lab exhibit number on both of those particular exhibits?

14 A. The item marked State's Exhibit 76 has the Crime
15 Laboratory case number J96353601C, Exhibit 66 on it. The 16 item marked State's Exhibit 89 has the Crime Laboratory, same
17 case number, J96353601C with the Exhibit 61 on it.

18 Q. What number is that?

19 A. State's Exhibit 89.

20 Q. Right. I hand you also four other exhibits. If 21 you would, identify these four exhibits, please, sir, if you
22 can.

23 A. By the State's exhibit or the laboratory?

24 Q. By the State's exhibit. I mean-- excuse me, by the 25 lab exhibit number first.

26 A. Okay, the lab exhibit number on this item, which it
27 bears the same Crime Laboratory case number is Exhibit 67,
28 and the State's Exhibit is 75.

29 Q. All right.

1           A.    State's Exhibit 78 bears the Crime Laboratory case
2           number Exhibit 32.  State's Exhibit 79 bears the Crime
3           Laboratory case number Exhibit 33.  And State's Exhibit 77
4           bears the Crime Laboratory case number 31.

5           Q.    What exhibit number, Crime Lab exhibit number 32,
6           what State's Exhibit number is it?  If you would, repeat that
7           for me.  Is that 78?

8           A.    That's correct.

9           Q.    I want to hand you State's Exhibit 87 and State's 10          Exhibit 88, and tell me whether or not you have ever seen
11          those two items before?

12          A.    Yes, sir.

13          Q.    And what are they?

14          A.    They are plastic bags which contain plastic vials
15          with the identifying marks on them and with the fragments and 16          projectiles that I examined.

17          Q.    Did you receive those from Dr. Steven Hayne?

18          A.    They were submitted from his office; yes, sir.

19          Q.    Would you identify the lab exhibit number on those 20          two packages or the contents of those two packages.

21          A.    State's Exhibit 88 bears the Crime Laboratory case
22          number 353601C as I described earlier, and it is Exhibit 23
23          at the laboratory.  And State's Exhibit 87 is Crime
24          Laboratory Exhibit number 8.

25          Q.    That is 87?

26          A.    That's correct.

27          Q.    Okay, and State's Exhibit-- I mean, excuse me, lab
28          exhibit number 33, what State exhibit is it?

29          A.    It will be 79.

1           Q.    I want you to pick up Exhibit number 89, if you
2 would, 75 and 76. Did you do me an analysis on those three
3 particular exhibits?

4           A.    Yes, sir. I did.

5           Q.    Would you explain to the Court and the jury what
6 you did.

7           A.    In the course of examining any type proponent that 8 has been discharged in a firearm or it could have been 9 discharged in a firearm, the first thing would be done would 10 be to examine visually. Microscopic comparisons of these 11 items can be made to known standards at the laboratory.
12 These are made to determine or classify a projectile, and 13 that's what was done in the case of these projectiles. When 14 a firearm is manufactured, its class characteristics are 15 determined by the manufacturer.

16                   The most common class characteristics associated 17 with a firearm that has rifling in the barrel would be the 18 caliber, the number of lands and grooves, the direction that 19 they twist down the bore. These lands and grooves that I am
20 referring to are normally referred to as rifling. They are 21 normally impressed into a projectile, and these projectiles
22 were examined visually and microscopically to examine these 23 characteristics.

24           Q.    And as a result of those examinations, did you come
25 to a conclusion as to those three exhibits?

26           A.    Yes, sir.

27           Q.    What was your conclusion?

28           A.    To start with, the examination to determine the 29 class characteristics; these projectiles are .380 caliber

1 with six lands and grooves with a right hand twist. To go a
2 step further, all the characteristics that I just described
3 are called class characteristics and are common to a group of 4 guns. To say anything further about the origin of these 5 projectiles or possible common origin of them, you have to
6 have individual characteristics. Now these are microscopic
7 characteristics that are viewed under the microscope. And in 8 the case of these three projectiles they had sufficient 9 individual characteristics to say that they were all, in 10 fact, discharged in the same firearm.

11 Q. So Exhibits 89, 75 and 76 were propelled out of the 12 same weapon basically?

13 A. That's correct.

14 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would like to 15 have these published to the jury if I could.

16 BY THE COURT: They are admitted?

17 BY MR. HORAN: They have been admitted.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, you can do that.

19 BY MR. HORAN: No, sir. 75 has not.

20 BY THE COURT: Do you move for its admission?

21 BY MR. HORAN: I'm going to have to tie it in 22 with another witness, Your Honor.

23 (Exhibit S-75 was not passed to the jury.

24 Exhibits S-89 and S-76 were passed to the jury.)

25 BY MR. HORAN:

26 Q. Mr. Byrd, did you do any additional examinations
27 with reference to State's Exhibits 77 and 78 in relationship
28 to the three exhibits that you have just testified to?

29 A. Yes, sir. I did.

1 Q. And what did you do in that regard?

2 A. I made the same visual and microscopic comparisons
3 of the three projectiles that we spoke of earlier to these 4 projectiles.

5 Q. Did you come to a conclusion as to whether or not 6 these projectiles contained the same class characteristics as
7 Exhibits, I believe 89, 75 and 76?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. And what was your conclusion on that?

10 A. These two projectiles do bear the same class
11 characteristics as those three projectiles.

12 Q. State's Exhibit 87-- excuse me; strike that. 88,
13 did you make a comparison to that particular exhibit and the 14 three previously testified to Exhibits 75, 76 and 89?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And were you able to come to a conclusion as to 17 that particular exhibit?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. What was that conclusion?

20 A. It bears similarities to the class characteristics
21 on the three previously mentioned projectiles.

22 Q. Now Mr. Byrd, I will ask you this. Do you consider
23 yourself a relatively conservative firearms examiner?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Do you err on the side of caution?

26 A. Yes, sir. I consider myself to be a conservative
27 firearms examiner.

28 Q. I want to hand you State's Exhibits 80 through I
29 believe 85. Can you tell me basically if you will look at

1 those, and tell me first of all whether or not you can
2 identify those. Can you do that for me, sir? Can you
3 identify those packages?

4 A. Yes, sir. I can.

5 Q. Okay. Did you come to a conclusion -- what is 6 inside those particular boxes?

7 A. Each of these boxes contain a Crime Laboratory case
8 number, exhibit number as they were described when they came 9 to the Laboratory, and my initials. Each of these boxes when 10 submitted contained a fired cartridge casing or the brass
11 portion of the cartridge.

12 Q. What caliber?

13 A. They would be .380 auto caliber.

14 Q. Mr. Byrd, would you explain to the jury what you
15 mean by .380 caliber? What is that?

16 A. The most common .380 automatic caliber firearm is 17 a semi-automatic handgun or a pistol. It fires a cartridge
18 or a projectile that has-- excuse me, a cartridge that 19 travels somewhere in the approximately 900 to 1,000 feet per
20 second.

21 Q. Okay, and your opinions that you have given here
22 today, are they based on a reasonable scientific certainty?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 BY MR. HORAN: I would like to have these
25 exhibits published to the jury also, Your Honor.

26 BY THE COURT: If they have been admitted, you
27 can do it.

28 BY MR. HORAN: I'm going to make sure.

29 (Exhibits passed to the jury.)

1 BY MR. HORAN:

2 Q. So your testimony here today, Mr. Byrd, is that you
3 matched two projectiles-- three projectiles having been fired
4 out of the same weapon. Those would have been Exhibits 75,
5 76 and 89?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And you found similar class characteristics on two 8 other projectiles. That would be 77 and 78?

9 A. Well, those projectiles also had similarities and 10 individual characteristics, individual characteristics, but 11 yes, sir; they did bear the same class characteristics also.

12 Q. On top of class characteristics, they had 13 individual characteristics that were similar to the other
14 three which you testified to matched each other?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. How do you go about doing these examinations, Mr.
17 Byrd?

18 A. These examinations are performed under a comparison
19 microscope. Basically a comparison microscope is two 20 microscopes in one. You have two fields of view, and those 21 two fields of view are combined overhead by what is called a
22 comparison bridge. What it does is it actually overlays them
23 so you can look at two objects side by side, and that's how I
24 perform these analyses.

25 BY MR. HORAN: Court will indulge me just a
26 moment.

27 BY MR. HORAN:

28 Q. Mr. Byrd, what was the requested examination as to 29 the three exhibits that you matched? Why were they

1 submitted to your lab? What did the evidence submission
2 form-- was it for the purpose to determine whether or not
3 they, in fact, matched?

4 A. Yes, sir. I was to compare the three projectiles
5 to each other.

6 Q. And the other projectiles that were submitted to
7 you?

8 A. That's correct.

9 BY MR. HORAN: I tender.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would like to go
13 ahead and introduce this into evidence on the 14 condition that I will tie it in later, but I will 15 not publish it to the jury until that evidence is 16 presented.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I don't think I'm 18 going to have an objection when the time comes, but
19 if they are not going to publish, I don't know why
20 it has to be introduced right now.

21 BY MR. HORAN: I will wait. If he has any
22 objection at all, I will wait.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay.

25 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Good morning, Mr. Byrd.

27 A. Morning.

28 Q. I just have a couple of questions, Mr. Byrd.

29 Basically, you are trying to determine if a particular gun

1 shot a projectile which is what we commonly call a bullet,
2 some of us; is that correct?

3 A. The primary duties at the laboratory are to examine
4 projectiles and determine whether or not they were discharged
5 to a submitted firearm or in this case if projectiles are 6 compared, could they have come from a common origin; yes,
7 sir.

8 Q. So there is nothing that you actually have done
9 that would in any way be able to assist this jury or tell
10 this jury that Mr. Flowers fired anything that you examined.
11 That wouldn't be anything you would be able to give to us or 12 would not give to us, would you?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Okay. Now and actually, you can't say who did. Is 15 that not true?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this though. When you
18 guys go and try-- do sometimes if you know the name of the 19 person who owns a weapon; you follow me to this point? You
20 know the name. Can you check and match the name, the serial
21 number or something like that and find out -- in some states
22 don't they have registration laws where when they, this 23 firearm has to be kept for a couple of days before they give 24 the firearm to the person buying the firearm? What I'm 25 talking about, pistols now. Do you understand what I'm 26 saying? Pistols. And they are test fired so that ballistic 27 evidence is on file with that weapon. Does that occur in 28 some states?

29 A. Some states may require that you register the

1 firearm to actually possess it and carry it. I'm not sure
2 that they actually-- in some cities they may require you to
3 discharge that firearm to have known test standards, but not
4 in this state.

5 Q. Okay, I'm sorry; I said that wrong. Do they 6 sometimes when they have a situation where the police or some
7 other authority has to hold the gun for a couple of days;
8 they discharge it, the police or the other authorities, the 9 sheriff's department, and keep on file some kind of 10 ballistics on the weapon?

11 A. They can do that; yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay. So that means that if you knew the right
13 name of the person who, if that is the situation, if you
14 actually know the right name of the person who possessed the 15 weapon, whose weapon it was, that might be able to lead you
16 to some identification information as to ballistics of the 17 weapon if that gun comes from a state where that practice is 18 fluent; is that right?

19 A. If there were test fires that were discharged in a
20 firearm and they would be obtainable, you could make those 21 comparisons. But if I understand you correctly, it would 22 have to, the gun would have to originate where that would be 23 a request or a law of that state, whether you would have to 24 register the firearm and supply those discharged components
25 to a laboratory or somebody to retain those standards.

26 Q. Right. They would have, they would be on file, and 27 they could check if they got the right name of who owns the 28 gun, check and maybe find out what the ballistics are. And 29 that is only in that scenario which we just pointed out; is

1       that correct?

2             A.    Yes, sir.

3             Q.    Okay.  So in that way maybe ballistics could lead
4       you to some kind of identification at least of-- I mean,
5       excuse me.  In that way it leads, at least there would be 6       some relationship between the ballistics and who owned the 7       gun; isn't that correct?

8             A.    Yes, sir.  If they actually had to register the 9       firearm and submit it long enough for it to be discharged,
10      the person that would be retaining or obtaining those 11      discharged components, the cartridge casings and the 12      projectiles, would keep those test projectiles, and it would 13      be associated with the firearm that was submitted there with 14      that serial number.  And if that firearm and that serial
15      number was traced back to the individual that had possession 16      of the firearm or registered, yes, you could associate it in 17      that manner.

18            Q.    Okay, but even in one of those states if somebody
19      misled you about the name of the person they got the gun
20      from, that might throw a monkey wrench into that 21      identification procedure; right?

22            A.    Well, maybe the name itself, but the firearm and 23      the serial number that is associated with that firearm would 24      be, you couldn't do that; no, sir.

25            Q.    If the serial number is still on the firearm;
26      correct?

27            A.    Yes, sir.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.  Thank you.  I have no
29      further questions.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

Q. The projectiles that you testified about, State's Exhibits 89 and 75 and 76, are they consistent with having been fired from a .380 automatic caliber? Did you testify to that?

BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me; excuse me. I didn't ask any questions on that. That is beyond the scope of cross-examination. May we approach?

BY MR. HORAN: That's the only reason I asked the question about the caliber of a weapon.

(CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

BY MR. LUMUMBA: I didn't ask a single question about that.

BY MR. HORAN: Okay, I will withdraw. It's not that big a deal. I thought he went into it. I will withdraw.

BY THE COURT: I thought you had asked it on direct.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: I thought he did too.

END BENCH CONFERENCE.

BY MR. HORAN: I think I did cover it on direct, but I'm not sure. No further questions.

BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

BY THE COURT: Mr. Byrd, you are free to go.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

BY MR. EVANS: Edward McChristian.

1 (Witness enters courtroom.)

2 BY THE COURT: Mr. McChristian, have you been
3 sworn?

4 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

5 (NOTE: Mr. Freelon and Mr. Horan are not
6 present.)

7 EDWARD McCHRISTIAN,

8 a black male called to testify as a witness by the State of
9 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
10 follows, to-wit:

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q. State your name for the record, please.

13 A. Edward McChristian.

14 Q. Mr. McChristian, where do you live?

15 A. 603 Academy.

16 Q. And where is that located? In what town?

17 A. Winona, Mississippi.

18 Q. All right, in relationship-- first let me ask you;
19 do you know where Tardy Furniture is located?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. In relationship to Tardy Furniture about how far
22 away is your house?

23 A. Not even a mile. I don't really know.

24 Q. Can you give me an idea in blocks?

25 A. Well, maybe about four long blocks.

26 Q. Okay, I want to direct your attention back to the 27 day of the murders at Tardy Furniture. Do you remember that
28 day?

29 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. Do you remember seeing anybody walk by your house
2 early that morning?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. Before I get into that, what were you doing there
5 at your house that morning? Was anyone with you?

6 A. Yeah, I had two friends sitting on the porch with
7 me.

8 Q. And who were they?

9 A. Clarence Forrest and Bernard Seal.

10 Q. Okay, and while y'all were sitting on your porch,
11 who, if anyone, did you see walk by your house?

12 A. Curtis Flowers.

13 Q. How long had you known Curtis Flowers at that time?

14 A. Well, I had known him, but I just hadn't ever
15 associated with him.

16 Q. Okay, which direction was he going when you saw
17 him?

18 A. He was coming up Academy Street coming south, going
19 north.

20 Q. Okay, would he be going toward or away from Tardy
21 Furniture?

22 A. Well, yeah, he could go that way, yeah.

23 Q. Toward?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. All right, would he be going toward or coming away
26 from the direction of where the factory known as Angelica is 27 located?

28 A. He was coming from that way.

29 Q. Coming from the direction of Angelica's?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. And about what time did you see him?

3 A. Between 7:30 and 8 o'clock.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry; I didn't hear
5 that.

6 BY THE COURT: He said between 7:30 and 8
7 o'clock.

8 BY MR. EVANS:

9 Q. Do you see the person that walked by your house
10 from the direction of Angelica about 7:30 or 8 o'clock on the 11 morning of the murders?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Would you point to him and identify him, please?

14 A. That's right there he is.

15 BY MR. EVANS: May the record reflect he has 16 identified the Defendant in this case, Curtis
17 Flowers?

18 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness.

20 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. Mr. McChristian, good after-- no, good morning
22 still.

23 A. Good morning.

24 Q. Good morning. Mr. McChristian, you are not in 25 any-- Counsel asked you questions about things that happened
26 on what you believe to be the day of the, the day of the 27 deaths at Tardy Furniture. You do remember that occasion in 28 terms of that was something that was fairly well publicized
29 in the area for a while. Is that correct?

1           A.    Yeah.

2           Q.    About the deaths; is that correct?

3           A.    Right.

4           Q.    Okay. And but in any event, you are not in any way
5 saying that you saw Mr. Flowers at any time doing anything
6 that made it look like he had been involved in any murders;
7 right?

8           A.    No, he didn't look like it to me.

9           Q.    Okay. And in fact, you sit on that porch a lot of 10 times, don't you?

11          A.    Right.

12          Q.    Okay, and in fact, you sit on that porch quite 13 frequently in the morning, don't you?

14          A.    Right.

15          Q.    And would you say that your friends, you and your 16 friends sit out there most mornings, do you?

17          A.    Well, not now, but yeah.

18          Q.    But you did back then at that time?

19          A.    Yeah. Right.

20          Q.    And that was the summer; nice days out and things
21 of that nature?

22          A.    Right.

23          Q.    Is that correct?

24          A.    Right.

25          Q.    Okay, now the other thing is that the first time
26 you actually talked to anybody about this case from the 27 police department, you didn't talk to anybody on the 16th or 28 on the day that this incident occurred, did you?

29          A.    No, I didn't talk to them the same day.

1           Q.    Okay, and it would have been quite a while before
2 you talked to them.  Would it be safe to say?  When did you
3 talk to them?  About how long was it after the incident if 4 you can recall?

5           A.    I can't quite recall.

6           Q.    It would have been months?

7           A.    I don't really know when they come and got me.  I
8 don't know.

9           Q.    Okay.  But anyway, time had passed; is that
10 correct?

11          A.    Yeah.

12          Q.    Okay.  And the other thing I wanted to point out to 13 you.  Let me just take a real quick look here at this Exhibit
14 which is D-7.

15                   (Mr. Horan enters the courtroom.)

16          Q.    You live on Academy Street; is that correct?

17          A.    Right.

18          Q.    Okay, can you locate on D-7-- I'm pointing to what 19 seems to be Academy Street.  If you possibly can, can you
20 locate for me, because I don't really know, about where you
21 probably would live?

22          A.    (Witness points on Exhibit D-7.)

23          Q.    Okay, somewhere and I think that you have pointed 24 right here on Academy not too far from Houston; is that
25 correct?

26          A.    Right.  Right there.

27          Q.    Okay.  Well, when a person is on your street, they
28 are really going east and west, aren't they?  Well, let me
29 see; that north and south.  They are going north and south;

1 right?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Is that correct?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Okay. You have got to speak up just a little bit.

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Okay. So they are going north and south. Actually
8 Tardy's is quite a bit-- what would that be? That would be,
9 let's see; north and south. Tardy's is actually east. That 10 is quite a bit east of Academy Street; right?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. So you don't know whether anybody is going--

13 A. --oh, no. I don't know.

14 Q. I mean people could be going any number of places--

15 A. --That's right--

16 Q. --on that street?

17 A. That's right.

18 Q. And actually, what do you call it? That place that 19 he mentioned - Angelica. You don't, also don't know that a
20 person-- you didn't have any reason to believe when you saw 21 Mr. Flowers, whenever you saw him, that he was coming from 22 Angelica? You don't have any reason to believe that, do
23 you?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Okay. And wouldn't it be safe to say that 26 actually, a person coming, walking on your street at some 27 point could turn and go right up Powell and go to over here
28 across the street, and you have got McNutt. Is that 29 correct? McNutt is up here, I think.

1 A. That's in the project.

2 Q. Yeah, in the project, McNutt; is that correct?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. And also you have got Cade over here; is that
5 correct?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Okay, so you have got any number of streets?

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. Okay, and you have got stores all up and down 51;
10 is that correct?

11 A. That's right.

12 Q. Okay. So it's not unusual to see somebody walking
13 down your street?

14 A. Oh, no, not my street.

15 Q. Okay, and it was nothing, it was nothing unusual
16 about any time that you saw Mr. Flowers walking down the 17 street; is that correct?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did the date that you think you saw him, he wasn't 20 running or anything like that?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Didn't seem to be upset or excited about anything?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Certainly didn't have a gun that you saw?

25 A. I couldn't tell no way.

26 Q. You didn't see anything in his hands?

27 A. No.

28 Q. Pardon?

29 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. Nobody was with him?

2 A. Nobody was with him.

3 Q. Not in a brown car?

4 A. I didn't see no car.

5 (Mr. Lumumba confers with his client.)

6 Q. Yeah, you know where that Angelica plant is at?

7 Are you familiar with where the Angelica plant is at?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Okay, Angelica, that plant is also east of your
10 house; isn't that true?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. Okay. And you never saw Mr. Flowers walking east
13 from your house at all, did you?

14 A. No, I didn't see him walking east.

15 Q. So you don't have any reason to believe that he
16 ever, and you never saw him coming from the east either, did
17 you?

18 A. No, I just seen him coming from south.

19 Q. Okay, and I'm sorry to be asking you these 20 questions, but I guess my point is you never saw him coming
21 actually from the direction of the Angelica plant since that 22 is actually east of you; is that correct?

23 A. (Witness nods his head.)

24 Q. Is that true?

25 A. I just seen him on Academy coming there.

26 Q. And you never saw him going to Tardy's because that 27 is actually east of you also; isn't that correct?

28 A. I ain't seen none of that.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Thank you.

1     REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

2             Q.    I will show you on the map, Exhibit 7; this is the
3 street right here that is marked as Academy Street; is that
4 correct?

5             A.    Right.

6             Q.    If you would, step down for just a second over here
7 in front of the jury. You may have to do this twice so that 8 the jury can see. But this is Academy Street right here that 9 you lived on; is that correct?

10            A.    Right.

11            Q.    And this is where Angelica is right here; is that 12 correct, the end of Angelica Drive?

13            A.    Right.

14            Q.    So it's actually south of your house to Angelica;
15 is that correct?

16            A.    Yes, sir.

17            Q.    Okay, and you saw him coming from Angelica walking
18 down Academy Street--

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Objection.

20            BY THE WITNESS:

21            A.    --I didn't see him coming from -- I seen him on 22 Academy.

23            Q.    Well, I'm not saying you saw him at Angelica, but 24 he was coming from that general direction walking--

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Judge, I object. That is 26 not what the man testified to.

27                   BY MR. EVANS:  That is exactly what he 28 testified to.

29                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  He testified he saw him on

1 Academy. Angelica is way east of--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --No, sir. It is not east, and
3 the map clearly shows it's south.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, wait a minute.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Angelica Street, Angelica's
6 plant--

7 BY MR. EVANS: --Angelica's plant is south.
8 That is Angelica's plant right there.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let the witness testify. I'm
10 sorry.

11 BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q. Okay. Was he coming from or going toward the 13 direction that Angelica is? Was he going this way, or was he 14 going this way?

15 A. He was going this way. (Witness pointing on Exhibit
16 D-7.)

17 Q. Okay. Let's step down to where the rest of the 18 jury can see. You pointed out that this is Academy Street
19 that you lived on; is that correct?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. Angelica is over here on this side; is that right?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. And he was headed this direction which would be in 24 the general direction away from Angelica when you saw him
25 walking?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. Thank you.

28 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

29 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

1 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: You are free to go, sir.

4 WITNESS EXCUSED.

5 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

6 BY MR. HORAN: Can we approach for a minute?

7 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

8 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
9 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

10 BY MR. EVANS: Judge, I think Kevin said
11 something about-- well, I will wait until they get 12 up here.

13 BY MR. HORAN: Judge, I have got a motion in 14 limine that may take a little time, and I want to 15 address the matter regarding Mr. Pickens, the 16 witness that we anticipate we will call as a
17 witness. I would like to do that right now and ask
18 them--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --Our next witness is going to 20 be fairly lengthy if we don't put him on.

21 BY THE COURT: All right, there is a motion in 22 limine?

23 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. I have a motion in 24 limine that is going to take some time for us to go
25 through that. I need a ruling prior to my
26 examination.

27 BY THE COURT: Huh?

28 BY MR. HORAN: I need a ruling on it prior to 29 my examination of the witness.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

2                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

3                   BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, they have 4 got some matters I have to take up outside of 5 y'all's presence. They have made arrangements for 6 you to have lunch. I think they want you there at 7 12:00 anyhow, so you may get there a little bit
8 early. But we are going to take the lunch break
9 now. We will start back at 1 o'clock. Everybody
10 else just stay seated because the court is still in 11 session.

12                               (JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM FOR LUNCH AT 11:30
13 A.M.)

14                   BY THE COURT: Everybody that is going to get 15 out has got to leave right now. Everybody that is 16 going to stay has got to sit down. I have got 17 other business to tend to right now. Okay, Mr.
18 Horan.

19                   BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. As this Court wells
20 knows, the State anticipates calling Mr. Ken
21 Pickens, maybe as the next witness. We don't know
22 at this time. Mr. Pickens was an employee at Weed
23 Brothers at the time that the witness, Mary
24 Jeanette Fleming, dropped the automobile off that
25 she has testified about in order to put a
26 windshield in it.

27                               For the benefit of the record and the Court's 28 consideration, Mr. Pickens was discovered to the 29 State as a potential witness by the Defendant in

1           September of 1998. We were also provided a copy of
2           a taped telephone conversation with Mr. Pickens. I
3           can't remember which attorney interviewed Mr.
4           Pickens on the phone, whether it was Mr. Freelon or
5           Mr. Lumumba, sometime after that, I believe.

6           But nonetheless, the Court is well aware that
7           you have to make a Box determination.

8           BY THE COURT: Where did that tape come from?

9           BY MR. HORAN: Mr. Lumumba.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay.

11          BY MR. HORAN: He can correct me if I am
12          wrong, but either he or Mr. Freelon or someone in 13          their office interviewed Mr. Pickens six and a half
14          months ago. When you look at a Box of whether or 15          not the Court would allow it, it would turn first
16          on whether or not there is any surprise, and was it
17          intentional on the part of the State to hold this 18          particular witness back in order to gain some 19          tactical advantage against the Defendant. I don't
20          believe Mr. Lumumba will represent to the Court
21          that he is surprised by what Mr. Pickens will 22          testify to or that Mr. Pickens would be a potential
23          witness in this case in general. It is certainly 24          not a witness that they did not know about.

25          If the Court is inclined to grant a
26          continuance, there are numerous cases that the 27          reason, that say the reason you grant the 28          continuance is to give the defendant an opportunity
29          to interview the witness or examine the new

1 evidence, and at that point in time determine
2 whether or not the Court, determine whether or not,
3 you know, it's going to be admissible or not, if
4 they need anything in addition to rebut the proof
5 that the State intends to put on.

6 In this particular case they are not surprised
7 in any way. They have known about Mr. Pickens. It
8 became relevant, more relevant to the State at the 9 time of the cross-examination of Mary Jeanette
10 Fleming and the things that Mr. Lumumba questioned
11 her about. To be quite honest with you, Judge, the 12 State has not taken a statement from Mr. Pickens,
13 have not interviewed him today, but anticipate we 14 would call him. I haven't talked to-- I have not 15 talked to him today. I think Mr. Johnson in my 16 office briefly spoke with him about his knowledge
17 of the case. And that's all I have on that 18 particular.

19 BY THE COURT: When did you get the
20 statement?

21 BY MR. HORAN: Get the statement from Counsel
22 for the Defendant? I have got that statement, Your
23 Honor.

24 BY THE COURT: I don't want the statement. I
25 want to know when you got it.

26 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. I mean what I'm 27 saying, I got the discovery, the notice of 28 discovery on him.

29 BY THE COURT: When did you get the

1 statement?

2 BY MR. HORAN: September the--

3 (Pause while shows a document to Mr. Lumumba.)

4 BY MR. HORAN: Did y'all send that with that?

5 BY THE COURT: The point I'm making, you
6 didn't get it this week?

7 BY MR. HORAN: September the 7th.

8 BY THE COURT: You didn't get it this week?

9 BY MR. HORAN: Oh, no.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right. Okay, Mr.
11 Lumumba.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. Yeah, I believe that
13 it's-- I can't recall the exact day. That document
14 has September the 7th on it. They would have had 15 it then or before then, okay, because sometimes we 16 send them stuff and then later on send out the 17 notice of compliance with reciprocal discovery.
18 Judge, I would object. You know, we-- they having 19 had it for that long, certainly they have had 20 plenty of time to amend their witness list and to 21 put down who they want.

22 (Mr. Freelon enters the courtroom.)

23 Now here is the other thing. We have not 24 received at this time any statement from them of 25 what they intend Mr. Pickens to testify to, and 26 until we do that, they haven't complied even to 27 this point with the discovery rules. They have to 28 give us a statement. We don't need the name and 29 the address obviously, but we are entitled to a

1 statement of what they expect to draw from this
2 witness.

3 Now I would point out to the Court; the fact
4 that we know who the witness is and the fact that
5 we have talked to him does not excuse that. There
6 are cases where a whole Box debates erupt around
7 where a person is called in as a witness and then
8 someone else goes into an absolutely different area
9 than what was provided in the discovery, and the 10 courts have ruled that that causes the same kind of 11 Box problems as if you didn't know who the witness
12 was at all. A clear example that I can recall is 13 when an expert witness comes in and testifies to 14 one matter that he is noticed for, and then another
15 matter they come up and put up. I think it's the 16 same thing with any witness really, and the rule
17 does require that.

18 So I would, I don't even want to respond--
19 first of all, I think they are trying to get a 20 tactical advantage because they are aware that we 21 intend to call Mr. Pickens, and, of course, if they 22 call him, they can do direct and then redirect.
23 They have two shots at him, and we are limited to 24 one. So I think they are, but I don't know if 25 there is any law to deal with that. But I do know
26 this is that we are entitled to a statement of what
27 they anticipated getting out of Mr. Pickens before
28 we even make a decision as to whether we need a
29 continuance or whether we want to object or what.

1 We don't have a statement from them of what they
2 intend to get out of Mr. Pickens and of what their
3 testimony, what is the area of their inquiry and
4 what it will be limited to.

5 So I do object because I think that they had
6 plenty of time to let us know. But number two, I
7 am also asking that if the Court does not reject
8 their attempt to bring him right now, then what I
9 would like for them to do is to give me a statement
10 on what they intend to get out of him.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, how long--

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --One second.

13 BY THE COURT: You have known-- excuse me.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Mr. Freelon wants to say
15 something.

16 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

17 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor.

18 BY THE COURT: Just a minute.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Basically, I'm sorry, Judge.
20 What was your inquiry?

21 BY THE COURT: My question is y'all have known
22 about this witness since at least September; is
23 that right?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yeah.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay, and you have had those 26 statements, I guess, since that time.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: At least.

28 BY THE COURT: So you are not surprised by 29 those, that information at this time.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not surprised by what we
2 knew about it; right.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask the State
4 then. Do you anticipate that he is going to 5 testify to things other than what is in those
6 statements that you have been furnished?

7 BY MR. HORAN: Judge, to be quite honest with
8 the Court, I need to listen to the tape again.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, here is what I'm
10 going to do then. You go, over the lunch hour -
11 y'all are going to get to eat again - you need to 12 listen, you need to listen to the tape. If he is 13 going to testify to things other than what is in 14 the tape, then you must tell him what they are, and 15 I will cross that bridge when I find out if there
16 is. If he is going to testify to the same things
17 that they furnished you, that are in the things
18 that have been furnished to you, then I'm going to 19 allow him to testify.

20 BY MR. HORAN: Also, Your Honor--

21 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to allow him to 22 testify on those things anyhow. It's a question as 23 to whether any new material as to what--

24 BY MR. HORAN: --Yes, sir, and that would 25 include any documentations that they discovered to 26 us that they were aware of?

27 BY THE COURT: Right. Yeah.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have already supplied them

1 with an exhibit. In fact, I'm not sure they didn't
2 give it to us.

3 BY MR. HORAN: That's correct.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, whatever everybody has
5 had I'm going to let him testify to. If you
6 haven't got it, then we are going to cross that
7 bridge. Okay? Now did y'all have another matter?

8 (State's Counsel confer.)

9 BY THE COURT: No, don't wait. Let's get it
10 out of the way so we can do witnesses.

11 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. As the Court is well
12 aware, that the Court appointed an independent
13 firearms examiner by the name of David Balash. I
14 interviewed Mr. Balash last night regarding the 15 substance of his report, and I'm really not that 16 concerned about other things that aren't in the 17 report other than the fact that I anticipate and he
18 tells me that they interviewed him with reference
19 to gunshot residue. And I asked him was he an 20 expert in the field of gunshot residue kits, as to 21 things like that, and he said he was not. He said
22 they extensively interviewed him regarding those 23 matters.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, he is an expert, and he 25 can give his opinion in the field that he is an 26 expert in. Other than that, he is not entitled to 27 give an opinion. Now I don't know how y'all are 28 going to qualify him. You may qualify him as an 29 expert, and if you do, fine. But he can't give his

1           opinions unless he is qualified.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Judge, one other thing
3           on that. I am glad that he raised that. I am
4           raising it right now. It's a real short motion, a
5           Motion to Exclude his testimony. And the basis
6           that I raise this Motion to Exclude his testimony
7           is if the Court recalls, we sought Mr. Balash as an 8           expert and we applied to the Court for funds to get
9           him as an expert. He was appointed as an expert
10          and I thought for the defense. The Court later
11          told me he was appointed for the Court.

12          The problem that we have, Judge, is this. The 13          discovery rules clearly say that we are only
14          required to give them things if our constitutional
15          rights are not infringed upon. In other words,
16          anything which constitutionally the Defendant has a
17          right to hang upon and not to disclose, then it
18          shouldn't be disclosed. In this case, for 19          instance, Mr. Balash has come in with a report
20          which we would argue actually made, that the 21          prosecution tends to use to incriminate the 22          Defendant in the death of Mr. Stewart and others.
23          You know, I think that they had evidence at the 24          prior trial really which only focused in upon one
25          individual, and I think that was Ms. Tardy. I
26          can't, I think that was Ms. Tardy. But this expert
27          has come in and says things that the expert who 28          just testified didn't say, okay, about the other
29          bullets and the matching.

1 Under the rules of discovery, we are not
2 required to give that up if we discover that, and
3 the Court ordered Mr. Balash to give him and the,
4 give him and the prosecutor the evidence of his
5 report, and he sent it to them pursuant to the 6 Court's order. So therefore, I think that is a
7 violation of the discovery rule and a violation of 8 our right not to be involved in incriminating
9 ourselves or hiring people who do.

10 So for that reason, I think that Mr. Balash--
11 and for reasons I presented in the past about, you
12 know, that the Defendant was indigent with respect
13 to being able to afford him and shouldn't be put in 14 a position where we are at any more of a
15 disadvantage than anybody else, I think his 16 testimony should be precluded.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Of course, y'all didn't 18 hire him. He is Court appointed. He was appointed
19 at your request, and the Court allowed you to make 20 the selection. Other than that, he is appointed
21 pursuant to Rule 706, and 706 clearly provides
22 that both sides are entitled to his findings. So
23 that Motion is overruled. Anything else before
24 lunch?

25 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, I will see y'all at 27 1:00.

28 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON FRIDAY, MARCH
29 26, 1999, THE TRIAL CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH

1 THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL EXCEPT MR. FREELON, THE
2 DEFENDANT AND THE JURY ALL PRESENT:)

3 (BEFORE THE PROCEEDINGS STARTED BACK, AN
4 INVOICE FROM WEED BROTHERS DATED 7/16/96 WAS MARKED
5 AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-105 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

6 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

7 BY MR. HORAN: David Balash.

8 BY THE COURT: Mr. Balash, if you would raise
9 your right hand.

10 DAVID BALASH,

11 a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of
12 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
13 follows, to-wit:

14 BY THE COURT: Have a seat right there,
15 please, sir.

16 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record.

18 BY THE WITNESS: David E. Balash.

19 (Mr. Evans leaves the courtroom.)

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

21 Q. Mr. Balash, where do you live?

22 A. Canton, Michigan.

23 Q. And what do you do in Canton, Michigan?

24 A. Currently I am self-employed as an independent
25 firearms examiner, forensic science consultant.

26 Q. What qualifies you to be a firearms examiner, Mr.
27 Balash?

28 A. The main qualifications that I possess as a
29 firearms examiner stem from my 25 and a half years of work

1 with the Michigan State Police, twenty and a half of those
2 years assigned to the forensic science division working in
3 the firearms identification, tool mark, bombs, and explosives
4 unit.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, at this time Mr.
6 Balash, as the Court well knows, is a court
7 appointed expert, and I would tender him as an
8 expert in the field of firearms examination.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection to Mr.
10 Balash's qualifications, Judge.

11 BY THE COURT: I accept him as an expert in 12 that field.

13 BY MR. HORAN:

14 Q. Mr. Balash, did certain exhibits come into your 15 possession, I believe here in Mississippi, in order that you
16 could conduct some examinations on them within your 17 expertise?

18 A. Yes, sir. They did.

19 Q. I want to hand you -- okay, and after you conducted 20 these examinations, did you compile a report?

21 A. Yes, sir. I did.

22 Q. And does that report reflect what your findings
23 were and what your conclusions were?

24 A. Yes, sir; it does.

25 BY MR. HORAN: Just a minute. Court will
26 indulge me just one minute.

27 Q. I want to hand you State's Exhibit number 89, I
28 believe it is, if I can find it. Can you tell me whether or 29 not this particular exhibit was one of the items that you

1 examined?

2 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibit.) May I
3 refer to my report, sir?

4 Q. Sure. (Pause) Okay, excuse me. I believe it is
5 number 88 is the one I want to ask you about first.

6 BY MR. HORAN: If the Court will indulge me
7 just a minute, Judge. The reports correspond
8 different numbers. I need to check that.

9 Q. I believe State's Exhibit number 88, did you
10 examine that particular exhibit. It's on your list right
11 here, S-88.

12 A. Yes, sir. I did.

13 Q. And that is identified as a fragment that was 14 recovered from the victim of Carmen Rigby, is it not, on that 15 tubing on the inside? You have got it on your report --
16 identified right there, Carmen Rigby.

17 A. Yes, sir. It does.

18 Q. And did you also examine State's Exhibit number 75
19 at this time?

20 A. Yes, sir. I did as well.

21 Q. And I will hand you State's Exhibit number 87,
22 State's Exhibit number 81, 82, 83, and 84.

23 (Mr. Evans enters the courtroom.)

24 Q. I will have you testify, if you would, whether or 25 not you did, in fact, examine those particular exhibits?

26 A. (Pause while witness examines exhibits.) With a
27 slight explanation, I can identify these, sir.

28 Q. Yes, sir. Okay, and what would that explanation
29 be?

1           A.    The explanation is that on the report that I
2           generated they were carried under different numbers, and
3           those numbers that I carried them under appear either to be 4           concealed by the current numbers that I can't see. With that
5           as a given that the numbers correspond now to the numbers
6           that have been altered or put into my report, then I do say
7           that I have seen all of these items of evidence, sir.

8           Q.    Thank you, sir. I hand you now 75-- I mean, excuse
9           me, 76. I'm sorry. And State's Exhibit number, I believe
10          this is-- yes, sir, 89. Again, with that same, I understand 11          that those have different numbers on them now than they did 12          when you examined them, but assuming that to be a fact, and 13          you have noted that your report has been modified to reflect 14          that, did you, in fact, also examine those two exhibits?

15          A.    Yes, sir. I did and these two exhibits also 16          display the number that I wrote on the outside of the 17          envelopes and my initials.

18          Q.    Okay. All right. Now the exhibit identified that 19          is in your possession now is State's Exhibit number 75. Did 20          you do a comparison of that particular exhibit to the 21          projectile in 76 and 89 as well as other exhibits there in 22          your possession?

23          A.    Yes, sir. I did.

24          Q.    Okay, for what purpose? What was the purpose of 25          your examination, Mr. Balash?

26          A.    The purpose of my examination was to compare the 27          various fragments and portions of bullets, fired bullets, and 28          ascertain if I could, whether they all had a common origin or 29          were they fired from the same weapon as well as the fired

1 cartridge cases that were received.

2 Q. I hand you State's Exhibits number 78 and 77 as
3 well as State's Exhibits number 79 and 85. Does your report
4 reflect that you did likewise an examination on these
5 particular exhibits?

6 A. With the same proviso, yes, sir.

7 Q. Yes, sir, with the same proviso you have testified
8 to about earlier. I understand that. I want you to draw
9 your attention, if you would, please, sir, to the Exhibit
10 number 75. What does that box contain?

11 A. State's Exhibit S-75 is a white pill box, and 12 according to my information would contain one fired bullet.
13 And I also noted on my report that this was recovered at the 14 mattress at the Tardy Furniture is where the information that 15 I have as to where this bullet came from.

16 Q. Okay.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would object, but I
18 will ask the Court to hold that objection pending
19 whether or not it is connected later on and 20 admitted; okay?

21 BY MR. HORAN: Thank you.

22 BY MR. HORAN:

23 Q. Now State's Exhibit number 76, what does that 24 particular box contain?

25 A. State's Exhibit 76 is a manila coin envelope, and 26 it indicates one spent projectile. And according to my 27 report, it contains one fired bullet.

28 Q. And does your report contain information where that 29 was obtained from?

1 A. Yes, sir. It does.

2 Q. What does it say on your--

3 A. --It says Doyle's house.

4 Q. Okay, and State's Exhibit number 89, likewise would
5 you give the description of the evidence in that particular
6 box and anything, any report that identifies where that was 7 retrieved from?

8 A. State's Exhibit 89 is a white envelope, and 9 according to my report, it contains one fired bullet.

10 Q. Do you have on your report where it came from?

11 A. Yes, sir. I do.

12 Q. Where would that be?

13 A. I have got indicated Doyle's house.

14 Q. I want to draw your attention to State's Exhibit
15 number S-88. Did you look at that particular exhibit?

16 A. I have.

17 Q. Okay, and does it indicate on your report the 18 description of that particular evidence and where it was 19 obtained from?

20 A. According to my report, it's a fired bullet
21 fragment, and it came from the victim, Carmen Rigby.

22 Q. State's Exhibit number 80-- excuse me; strike that,
23 77 through State's Exhibit number 85, would you describe or 24 explain to the jury what your report reflects that the 25 description of that particular evidence is and where it was 26 obtained?

27 A. 77 through 85, sir?

28 Q. 77-- strike that. 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84
29 and 85, yes, sir.

1           A.    Okay, State's Exhibit 77, according to my report,
2           indicates one fired bullet, Tardy Furniture Store. All of 3           these next items are listed on my report as coming from the 4           Tardy Furniture Store. S-78 is a fired bullet. S-79 is a
5           fired bullet fragment. S-80 is a .380 auto caliber CCI
6           Industries fired cartridge case. S-81 is a .380 auto
7           caliber Remington Peters fired cartridge case. S-82 is
8           a .380 auto caliber CCI fired cartridge case. S-83 a .380
9           auto caliber CCI fired cartridge case. S-84 is a .380 auto
10          Winchester fired cartridge case. And S-85 a .380 auto CCI
11          cartridge.

12          Q.    With relationship to the projectile or the bullet
13          that you testified about that came from the mattress at Tardy
14          Furniture Store, in relationship to the bullet from 15          S-80--strike that, 76 that came from Doyle's house in your 16          report, and S-89, the projectile that came from Doyle's house
17          in your report, as well as the Exhibit number S-88 that has 18          been identified as coming from the head of Carmen Rigby;
19          based on your training, your experience and the tests that 20          you ran on those items, did you come to a conclusion as to 21          whether or not those particular items were fired from the 22          same weapon?

23          A.    Yes, sir. I did.

24          Q.    What is the basis of that particular conclusion or 25          opinion?

26          A.    The basis of the opinion is to take the individual
27          fired bullets, and by utilizing a comparison microscope, 28          compare the, first of all, you would compare the land and 29          groove impressions. The land and groove impressions would

1 have to agree before the next step. The next step is to
2 compare the fine microscopic markings that are contained
3 within the land and groove impressions, and those can be
4 unique to each firearm. Therefore, if I can find enough
5 marks to positively state that it was or was not fired in a
6 weapon, that is a statement that I will go ahead and make.

7 Q. Okay, did you come to that conclusion as to-- and I
8 will add one more exhibit. Exhibit number S-78, I believe.
9 Did you come to a conclusion based on your experience that 10 those, those particular exhibits were all fired from the same
11 weapon?

12 A. I did. I came to the conclusion that all of those 13 fired bullets had passed down the same barrel.

14 Q. Now did you know Steve Byrd prior to getting 15 involved in this particular case?

16 A. No, sir. I did not.

17 Q. Now are you familiar with Mr. Byrd's findings as to 18 his examination of these particular exhibits?

19 A. That is correct. I read his reports prior to my 20 examinations.

21 Q. Was Mr. Byrd's report either right or wrong?
22 Anything wrong with his particular report?

23 A. Wrong, no, sir; there is not.

24 Q. What type of projectiles-- strike that. Would 25 projectiles that you examined, would they be consistent with 26 having been fired from a .380 semi-automatic revolver-- I
27 mean pistol?

28 A. Yes, sir. They would.

29 Q. As to State's Exhibits S-80, S-81, S-82, S-83, and

1 S-84 that has been identified as the cartridges in the
2 description of evidence, I believe; is that correct?

3 A. Those are all identified as fired .380 auto caliber
4 fired cartridge cases.

5 Q. Cases, I'm sorry. I'm sorry. Are they consistent
6 with having been fired out of the same weapon?

7 A. I have identified them as having been fired in the
8 same weapon.

9 Q. In the same weapon?

10 A. That is correct, sir.

11 Q. What is the basis of your opinion, Mr. Balash, that 12 the projectiles that you have identified as coming out of the 13 mattress and of the head of Carmen Rigby and from Tardy
14 Furniture Store and the two that came from Doyle's house,
15 what is the basis? How did you come to that conclusion?
16 What tests did you run in order to come to that particular
17 conclusion?

18 A. The tests that I ran essentially was looking at the 19 fired bullets and bullet fragments under a comparison
20 microscope. And my process in this particular case was take 21 the first bullet, which was the one out of the mattress that 22 was submitted to me, and establish that as my test or a known
23 standard. Then I compared the first of the two bullets that
24 were recovered and listed as those coming from Doyle's house,
25 and I identified both of those bullets against the one
26 recovered from the mattress which meant in my opinion, all of 27 those bullets came from the same firearm. I then looked at 28 all the other fragments and partial fragments and again,
29 utilizing now one of those bullets as my test, I compared it

1 to the other fragments. And in the case where the bullet
2 fragment which is indicated as item S-88 from the victim
3 Carmen Rigby, I used at least two and probably all three of 4 the other bullets to form an opinion that that had also been
5 fired from the same weapon that those three had been fired
6 from. And this was all done by utilizing the comparison
7 microscope.

8 Q. And how long have you been conducting these type of 9 examinations, Mr. Balash?

10 A. It has been about 27 and a half years, sir.

11 Q. Now Mr. Balash, you were, basically got involved in 12 this case as a result of the entrance of a court order; is 13 that right, court appointed basically?

14 A. That was not my understanding. I was contacted by 15 an attorney and asked if I would look at the case, sir.

16 Q. But as far as your compensation and things like
17 that, it is pursuant to a court order; is that correct?

18 A. It is my understanding that is correct, sir.

19 Q. Are you charging substantially less on this case
20 than what you usually charge?

21 A. Yes, sir. I am.

22 Q. What is your normal rate requested?

23 A. My normal rates of compensation, sir?

24 Q. Yes, sir.

25 A. I normally charge $225.00 an hour for court time
26 testimony or deposition testimony. I charge $150.00 an hour
27 to examine or review case material, and I charge $100.00 an 28 hour just to travel to and from whatever location I am at.
29 If it's a flight involved, then I would charge a fee of about

1 two hours at court time plus whatever the airline tickets
2 would run.

3 Q. And what was your requested rate of compensation on 4 this particular case?

5 A. My requested rate?

6 Q. Right.

7 A. I had indicated when contacted initially that
8 understanding it was a court appointed case, that I would 9 appear for a total compensation of $500.00 per day plus
10 whatever expenses I had incurred, actual expenses, which 11 would be, it was my understanding it was $30.00 or $32.00 for 12 meals per day from the State of Mississippi and whatever they 13 would pay for the plane fare and parking fees, etc.

14 Q. If you would, hand me those exhibits back, please,
15 Mr. Balash. I want to-- we have identified the exhibits, and 16 I want to draw your attention to State's Exhibit number 75.
17 It is identified as coming from a mattress at Tardy Furniture
18 Store. Do you remember actually doing a, visually examining 19 that particular exhibit? Do you remember?

20 A. Yes, sir. I do.

21 Q. Would you tell the jury and the Court whether or 22 not upon your visual examination and maybe even your 23 microscopic examination of that particular exhibit, whether 24 or not there were indications on that particular projectile
25 that would be consistent with that projectile having been 26 manipulated as a result of striking something or ricocheting
27 off of something?

28 A. According to my report as I have listed it in the 29 case, I listed it as evidence, under evidence received, one

1 white pill box containing S-75 in this case, and I described
2 it as one .380 auto caliber full metal jacketed fired
3 bullet. And after that, I had the notation, "This bullet
4 displays ricochet damage to its base."

5 Q. And that likewise is based on your experience and 6 training over the past 25 years of examining projectiles and 7 bullets; is that correct?

8 A. That is correct, sir.

9 Q. Thank you. I want to show you State's Exhibit
10 number S-38. It's a photograph. Would you look at that 11 photograph, please.

12 A. (Witness looks at photograph.)

13 Q. Have you had the chance to look at it?

14 A. Yes, sir. I have.

15 Q. You note in the upper right hand, on the right
16 side, not the upper, on the right side of the photograph it
17 appears to be a mattress. I want you to assume a couple of 18 things, please, sir, as being facts; okay?

19 A. Certainly.

20 Q. Okay, if you could assume that there was a
21 projectile recovered from that particular mattress in close
22 proximity to the post that contained that marking and that
23 particular exhibit was, in fact, State's Exhibit number 75
24 that you identified as coming from a mattress in Tardy
25 Furniture Store. Would that marking or that disfigurement of 26 that post be consistent with a bullet, the findings that you
27 have testified to about the evidence of ricocheting, would 28 that be consistent with the markings that you see on that 29 particular post?

1           A.    The markings that I see on People's proposed
2           exhibit or Exhibit S-38 is a photograph that I have seen
3           prior, and I have examined it under an amount of 4           magnification. There is a mark in the center area of the 5           photograph which appears to be a white painted brick or a
6           light colored painted red brick, and there was damage to the 7           center of that brick. It could have been caused by a fired
8           bullet; yes, sir.

9           Q.    It could be consistent with that?

10          A.    It could be. I don't know if I would use the term
11          consistent with, but it could have come from that source.

12          Q.    Could have resulted from that?

13          A.    That is correct, sir.

14          Q.    Thank you.

15                       (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

16                   BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Your Honor?

18                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

19          CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20          Q.    Good afternoon, Mr. Balash?

21          A.    Good afternoon, Mr. Lumumba.

22          Q.    And just a few questions. First of all, and I
23          think this is probably quite clear. There is nothing in your 24          examination that would in any way indicate that Mr. Flowers
25          had anything to do with this. Isn't that true?

26          A.    No, I have no personal knowledge of where the items
27          came from nor who was involved with it. That is correct,
28          sir.

29          Q.    Okay, and the-- what I want to ask you a couple of

1 questions about. In your expertise, I know you are not-- you
2 don't analyze trace evidence, do you?

3 A. That is correct. I do not analyze it.

4 Q. Okay, and in terms of analyzing it and breaking it
5 down, that is not your field?

6 A. That is correct, sir.

7 Q. Okay, but in the field that you are involved in,
8 does your expertise encompass knowledge with respect to the 9 deposits of gunshot residue and things of that nature?

10 A. Yes, they do.

11 Q. Okay, kind of to the best of your ability, tell me
12 how your expertise, what in that area your expertise does 13 cover. What can you tell me about it? Tell the ladies and 14 gentlemen?

15 A. There is a great number of things in firearms
16 discharge residue that comes into play for a firearms
17 examiner. The most normal course of action is when an 18 individual has been shot in close range, the clothing is 19 examined to find bullet holes of entry versus bullet holes of 20 exit. If there is gunpowder sitting, deposited on the 21 clothing, then the firearms examiner, if he has the weapon
22 and the type of ammunition, would be able to formulate an 23 opinion as to the distance that the muzzle was from the 24 victim or the garment at the point in time that the muzzle
25 discharged. The other items that you would look at as the 26 comparison to the chemical tested you would take to determine
27 whether they were nitrates or nitrites or gunpowder on 28 particular garments and/or skin.

29 I have also looked at many autopsies for

1     indications of contact or near contact or close range
2     shooting, measured those and made comparisons, and also
3     collected samples for neutron activation analysis or atomic
4     absorption to determine whether or not the chemicals
5     contained within the priming compound of center fired
6     cartridges, which are barium and antimony, are present which 7     would be indicative process that an individual has had
8     possession of or fired a gun.

9           Q.     Okay, and in the last thing you said about it would 10    be indicative that that individual had fired a gun or had 11    possession of a gun; is that true?

12          A.     Right. To the best of my knowledge, there is no
13    test at the current time that absolutely establishes that an 14    individual has fired a gun. The test that I am referring to 15    is now normally being conducted by utilizing a scanning
16    electron microscope, and they are looking for specific
17    articles in the gunpowder residue, which is the barium,
18    antimony combination formed when the gun discharges under 19    pressure and heat. And when they find that, they can say
20    that that is unique to firing of a weapon.

21                 But you can get those from a number of different
22    ways. It doesn't mean you have to be the one firing a 23    weapon. It means you can be near a weapon when it was 24    fired. It depends on where you find it obviously. It could
25    mean you could have handled a weapon that had been fired. It
26    could have been transferred to you from a contaminated
27    surface of some sort, or you could have fired a weapon to get
28    that deposited on your hands. Those are the ways I interpret
29    that.

1 Q. Could, in fact, when a weapon is fired and it's not
2 clean, is gunshot residue usually left on the weapon itself?

3 A. Most always; yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay, and for instance, if-- and when you talk
5 about gunshot residue, there is no test that you are aware of 6 that can tell you whether this residue was caused by a pistol
7 as opposed to a rifle, is it?

8 A. The residue itself, sir?

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. No. It's the forming-- in the compositions where 11 the test that utilizes the scanning electron microscope, it's 12 the composition of the primer itself. So it doesn't really
13 have anything to do with the gunpowder that is contained
14 within it. It's the primer compositions, and the amount of 15 primer compositions are normally very consistent even in 16 pistol and rifle primers.

17 Q. So and basically, so if I followed your testimony
18 correctly, a person could have a speck of residue either from 19 having come in contact with a weapon; is that correct?

20 A. That is correct, sir.

21 Q. They could have it from having come in contact with 22 something else that had residue on it that came from a
23 weapon; is that correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And you might have a surface, some kind of object
26 possibly could collect some residue; is that correct?

27 A. That is correct, sir.

28 Q. A person can shake hands with an individual, and 29 that might transfer some residue; is that correct?

1           A.    If the person that was shaking hands, one of them
2           had gunpowder residue on their hand, that would be correct,
3           sir.

4           Q.    Right. And you could even actually be in the
5           atmosphere where residue has been-- you know, frequently
6           people go do target practice or go hunting or things of that 7           nature, and a number of them are together. You can actually
8           collect residue from being present when somebody is firing a
9           gun; is that correct?

10          A.    Absolutely.

11          Q.    Now so it literally would be impossible to say how 12          many people at any given point in time at any given place
13          might be walking around with residue on their hands?

14          A.    I wouldn't have a way to answer that, sir; I'm 15          sorry.

16          Q.    Let me finally ask you this. Now we are going to 17          strike that, but you-- how is the weather in Michigan?

18          A.    It's getting better, sir.

19          Q.    Getting better, okay, and we know each other from 20          long back; right?

21          A.    I know you, you have remembered me from somewhere,
22          and I didn't recall you initially. That is correct, but
23          apparently you did work in the Detroit area is where you
24          understood me to be working. That is correct, sir.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no further
26                   questions at this time.

27                   BY THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

28           REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

29          Q.    I want to ask you something, Mr. Balash. Counsel

1 for the Defendant made reference to atmosphere, gunshot
2 residue being in the atmosphere. Does it just float around
3 like dust?

4 A. You would have to define what atmosphere you are
5 speaking of, sir.

6 Q. Well, like in this room right now, if I stood right
7 here and say I could contain the-- just right now in the last
8 four hours or five hours, and you took some of this air and 9 went and analyzed it, would gunshot residue be necessarily in 10 that particular air right there?

11 A. I would hope it would not be, sir.

12 Q. Is it possible for that to happen?

13 A. Unless there has been a gun discharged in this 14 building within, you know, several hours to have it still 15 suspended in the atmosphere, I don't see how it could be in 16 the air.

17 Q. Okay. Now I want you to assume a couple of things
18 for me if you would. Assume for the basis, for the purpose
19 of your testimony that someone did, in fact, fire a weapon.
20 If you would, please assume that.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. What factors - and I want to clear this up - what 23 factors can affect whether or not a gunshot residue kit would 24 produce positive results on the hand of that individual?

25 A. Well, the most critical item to begin with is that
26 the gun being fired have the components antimony and barium
27 in the primer composition. A number of .22's, for example,
28 do not have that. So therefore, that test would not work on 29 some .22 caliber cartridges. Now center fire rifle or pistol

1 cartridges, one when you look at the base and it has a little
2 silver or brass dot in the middle of it, that's the one that
3 has a center fire is what they are referred to. Those all
4 have barium and antimony compositions in those priming
5 mixtures.

6           Now once you fire one of those type of weapons, if
7 you have a pistol, and every handgun is a pistol except that 8 revolvers are somewhat different because of the fact that
9 they have a moving cylinder. So everything that is not a
10 revolver is a pistol. So you can have a single shot. You
11 can have a derringer; you can have a semi-automatic. All of 12 these are pistols. Each of those pistols have closed
13 chambers. In other words, when you put a cartridge in that 14 weapon and get ready to fire it, there is very little exposed 15 area back towards the shooter. Most of the majority of the 16 energy is going to be out of the muzzle depending on the 17 muzzle length of firearm. When the gas cloud comes out, it
18 will be very difficult to get a great deal of that backwards
19 on the shooter.

20           In a revolver there are three different areas where
21 gunpowder gases escape at. A great number of them escape
22 from the muzzle, but because of the fact that it's a cylinder
23 and rotates, there is an open space there. And these 24 cartridges are under tremendous pressure. When you see them,
25 they vent sideways from the gun. And so revolvers
26 historically have always deposited greater, more substantial
27 gunpowder residue on the hands of the shooter or the people
28 in and around them than do either single shot, derringer, or 29 semi-automatic pistols because those are all contained

1 areas.

2 Now in those, the derringer and the single shot,
3 there is no moving parts. In the semi-automatic pistol,
4 however, on each pull of the trigger and the cartridge case
5 that is in the chamber is fired, the bullet exits. The 6 majority of the gas exits the muzzle of the firearm. The 7 action is actuated by the pressure, and it moves the slide
8 back and extracts and ejects the fired cartridge case. At 9 that point it opens up the chamber area, and the residual
10 gases now can be in this area in and around. So a revolver
11 will deposit the most by far on a percentage basis.
12 Semi-automatics the next, and less for the derringers and 13 single shots.

14 Q. Okay. Would it be unusual based on your apparent
15 knowledge regarding gunshot residue kits, for an examination
16 or a kit to have been drawn off of someone who had fired a
17 weapon and there not be any gunshot residue kit on the palm
18 of the hand considering the fact that the type of weapon used
19 in this particular instance was, in fact, a semi-automatic
20 pistol?

21 A. I don't think I followed the first part of your 22 question; I apologize.

23 Q. Okay, assuming that, would it be unusual
24 considering the fact that we have a semi-automatic pistol
25 involved in this particular instance. That's what your 26 expert findings were; is that right?

27 A. It's, a .380 auto is almost consistent entirely
28 with a semi-automatic pistol; that is correct, sir.

29 Q. And based on your testimony a few moments ago, you

1 would expect under normal circumstances that the gunshot
2 residue, if found, would be on the back of the hand?

3 A. The back of the web. If it's available to be
4 found; that is correct, sir.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Nothing further.

6 BY THE COURT: You say you are through?

7 BY MR. HORAN: I am through.

8 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

9 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. I do need to talk to 10 Mr. Balash. I don't believe he is leaving right
11 now, but I need to talk with him before he leaves
12 about his arrangements. He is excused as a
13 witness.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Balash.
15 You can step down.

16 BY THE WITNESS: Excuse me, Your Honor. I
17 thought Mr. Lumumba was going to say something.
18 I'm sorry, Your Honor.

19 BY THE COURT: He may see you later too.

20 WITNESS WAS EXCUSED BUT WAS LATER RECALLED BY THE
21 DEFENDANT.

22 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

23 BY MR. EVANS: Joe Andrews.

24 (Mr. Horan left the courtroom. Witness 25 enters.)

26 BY THE COURT: You have not been sworn, have
27 you?

28 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

29 BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

1                                   JOE EDWARD ANDREWS, JR.,
2     a white male, called to testify as a witness by the State of
3     Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
4     follows, to-wit:

5                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Andrews, have a seat right
6                   there.

7                   BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed?

8                   BY THE COURT: Yes.

9     DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

10           Q.     State your name for the record, please.

11           A.     Joe Edward Andrews, Jr.

12           Q.     Mr. Andrews, how are you employed?

13           A.     I am employed at the Mississippi Crime Laboratory
14           in Jackson.

15           Q.     And in what capacity are you employed at the Crime
16           Lab?

17           A.     I am employed in the microanalysis section,
18           microanalysis being the section that is responsible for the 19           analysis of what is commonly called trace evidence. In our 20           laboratory that includes the analysis of such things as 21           hairs, textile fibers, paints, glass, gunshot residue, and 22           footwear and tire track impressions.

23           Q.     And what type of training and experience do you
24           have that allows you to perform these duties?

25           A.     I have a Bachelor of Science degree from the 26           University of Mississippi in forensic science. I have also 27           received training at the Mississippi Crime Laboratory in all
28           aspects of microanalysis. I have attended numerous seminars
29           put on by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on the

1 examinations of various types of trace evidence, and I have
2 attended numerous seminars around the country that dealt with
3 those specific topics.

4 Q. Have you had the occasion to testify and be
5 accepted in the courts in the State of Mississippi as an
6 expert in the field of my microanalysis?

7 A. Yes, sir. I have.

8 Q. Approximately how many times?

9 A. Approximately 250.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I would offer him
11 as an expert in the field of microanalysis.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection to his 13 expertise, and I would--

14 BY THE COURT: The Court will accept him--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, can we approach for a
16 minute?

17 BY THE COURT: Sure. First let me make, show
18 clear on the record. The Court is going to accept
19 him as an expert in that field. All right.

20 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
21 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm going to make an
23 objection now to his testimony concerning anything
24 concerning the foot impression. That objection is 25 based upon the fact that that basic analysis that
26 he did is based upon hearsay. Now this is what I'm 27 saying. If we notice the exhibit, what they did is 28 they purchased, the police purchased some shoes
29 from the store. But those shoes were not the same

1 model of Grant Hill shoes. One is called Grant
2 Hill Olympic, and I think that they purchased Grant
3 Hill Olympic. The box that was in Mr. or in 4 Connie's house was Grant Hill II. Now one or the 5 other; I can't remember. What he did is he
6 compared the Olympic, and based upon what I believe
7 to be hearsay information, he concluded that the 8 Olympic has the same out sole pattern, in other
9 words, the same bottom, all right, as the Grant
10 Hill II. But he doesn't know that of his personal
11 knowledge. He only--

12 BY THE COURT: --But he is an expert. He 13 doesn't have to know of his own personal
14 knowledge. They are entitled to use hearsay to 15 form their opinion, and you are entitled to make 16 that point with him when you cross-examine him, but 17 I think it is a question of fact for the jury to 18 determine.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I just wanted to make 20 that objection.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay.

22 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

23 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

24 BY THE COURT: Yes.

25 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

26 Q. Mr. Andrews, in this particular case were you
27 called upon by investigators to make different comparisons?

28 A. Yes, sir. I was.

29 Q. Did one of those comparisons have something to do

1 with some bloody shoe tracks that were presented to you?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. I want to-- let's see. I want to hand you Exhibits
4 93, 94, 95 and 96, and I will ask you to look at those if you
5 would.

6 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibits.)

7 Q. Have you had a chance to look at them?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Have you seen those exhibits before?

10 A. Yes, sir; I have. I can recognize them. Each one
11 of the photographs bears the Mississippi Crime Laboratory
12 case number, the exhibit number, and my initials on the 13 corner of the photograph.

14 Q. And were you produced copies of those photographs
15 and asked to make any type of determination?

16 A. Yes, sir. I was.

17 Q. What were you asked to determine?

18 A. Initially I was asked to examine the photographs to 19 determine if there was indeed a footwear impression present
20 in the photograph. You can look at each one of the 21 photographs and see that there is a design characteristic
22 visible in the photograph, and that design characteristic was 23 consistent with what you see in normal footwear impressions.

24 Q. After you determined that this was a footwear
25 impression, what next did you do?

26 A. Initially at the time that the photographs were 27 submitted to the laboratory, there was a pair of shoes that 28 were submitted from a suspect in the case, and I was asked to 29 compare these impressions against the out sole design on that

1 pair of shoes.

2 Q. All right, and that pair of shoes, I believe you
3 were informed, was a pair of shoes that the Defendant had on 4 at the time that he was questioned; is that correct?

5 A. Yes, sir. That was the way they were submitted to 6 the laboratory.

7 Q. What size shoes were those?

8 A. That was a pair of Nike Flight tennis-- athletic 9 shoes, and they were size ten and a half.

10 Q. Okay. After you determined that that was not the 11 correct shoes, what steps did you make to try to determine
12 what type of shoe left this impression?

13 A. During the course of the examination, our 14 laboratory does not have a shoe print out sole file. There
15 are such files that exist, but our particular laboratory
16 doesn't have that file at this time. But the design that you
17 can see in the photographs was looked at, and we went to 18 several different athletic stores and basically saw a design
19 that was very similar to this design on a pair of shoes at an 20 athletic store.

21 Q. And what type of shoe was that?

22 A. That was a pair of Fila athletic shoes.

23 Q. All right, next before I actually get into this, I
24 want to show you Exhibit 61 and ask you if you have had an 25 occasion to see this box before?

26 A. Yes, sir. I have.

27 Q. And under what condition was that box submitted to
28 you?

29 A. It was submitted to the Crime Laboratory for the

1 examination for latent prints, but it was-- I examined it for
2 information present on the end of the box that would indicate
3 what style and size of shoe was originally packaged in the 4 box.

5 (NOTE: Mr. Horan enters courtroom.)

6 Q. And what size, style and size shoe was originally
7 packaged in that box?

8 A. According to the information on the end of the box,
9 the shoes that were originally packaged in this box were a
10 pair of Fila Grant Hill II MID shoes, size ten and a half.

11 Q. Okay. Based upon your being furnished this box
12 and having that information, did you make any request of 13 anyone?

14 A. In speaking to the Highway Patrol investigators
15 that were working on this case, in particular H. W. Miller,
16 we-- I conveyed the information to him that the pair of shoes
17 that were originally in this box were a pair of Grant Hill
18 Fila tennis shoes and that he might want to try to purchase a
19 pair of shoes of like size to be compared to the impressions
20 from the scene to see if the impressions from the scene were 21 consistent in design with that particular type of shoe.

22 Q. And did Investigator Miller do that?

23 A. Yes, sir. He did.

24 Q. I will next hand you State's Exhibit number 90 and 25 ask you to compare this box of shoes if you would?

26 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibit.)

27 Q. Have you had a chance to?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Have you seen that box of shoes before?

1           A.    Yes, sir.  I have.

2           Q.    And under what condition did you see that box of
3 shoes?

4           A.    This was a pair of shoes submitted to the 5 laboratory by H. W. Miller for comparison against the 6 photographs that I originally looked at.

7           Q.    All right, to try to make it clear, this is a new 8 pair of shoes that were bought for the purpose of you just 9 looking at and comparing the type sole pattern; is that
10 correct?

11          A.    Yes, sir, because it is my understanding the 12 original shoes that could have been recovered or an original
13 pair of shoes have never been recovered.  In our conversation
14 with Investigator Miller, we discussed that if I had a pair
15 of shoes of similar style, of the same style and make, then I
16 could compare the impressions against that pair of shoes to 17 see if that impression was consistent with a pair of shoes
18 that style and that size.  And that's the examinations I
19 conducted with this pair of shoes.

20          Q.    As an expert in the field of footwear impressions,
21 do you find it necessary from time to time to rely on 22 manufacturers to give you information about different shoes
23 and shoe soles?

24          A.    Yes, sir.  Because there are so many different
25 styles of shoes available, one of the forensic examiners best
26 sources of information is the manufacturer, and they can
27 provide you information regarding how many different styles
28 of shoes will have the same out sole design and what 29 quantities of shoes were produced in that particular style

1 and size.

2 Q. All right, the shoes, look and see; I think that
3 box is Exhibit 90?

4 A. Yes, sir. It is marked on the top of the box as
5 State's Exhibit 90.

6 Q. All right, give me the exhibit number off of the 7 box that was submitted.

8 A. It's State's Exhibit 61.

9 Q. Okay, thank you. The shoes in Exhibit 90 are what
10 make, model-- make, style and size?

11 A. The shoes in State's Exhibit 90 are a size ten and 12 a half, and they are stock number 1-B136 C-150.

13 Q. And what particular style are they?

14 A. They are a Grant Hill Olympic, I believe.

15 Q. All right, and Exhibit 61?

16 A. Exhibit 61 is listed as a Grant Hill II MID, size
17 ten and a half, and they are style number 1-B136-150.

18 Q. And your information from the manufacturer about 19 those two different styles, do they, in fact, carry the same
20 out sole pattern?

21 A. According to the manufacturer's information that I
22 got directly from a representative from Fila, all of the 23 Grant Hill II designs have the exact same out sole pattern.

24 Q. So the new shoes that you have in front of you
25 would have the exact same pattern as the type of shoes that
26 originally came in the box, Exhibit 61?

27 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

28 Q. Based upon having these shoes to compare, did you
29 make any tests?

1           A.    Yes, sir. I did. I took test impressions from the
2           soles of the new shoes in State's Exhibit 90 and used those 3           test impressions to compare against the photographs of the 4           impressions in State's Exhibits 93, 94, 95 and 96 to 5           determine whether or not they were consistent in size, shape,
6           and out sole design.

7           Q.    And what was your determination?

8           A.    The shoes in State's Exhibit 90, the out sole 9           design on, especially on the heel area of the right shoe is 10          consistent in size, shape, and out sole design with the 11          impressions that are present in the photographs in State's 12          Exhibits 93, 94, 95 and 96.

13          Q.    All right, do one or two of those photographs more
14          clearly show the impression than the others?

15          A.    Yes, sir. Two of the photographs, two of the 16          photographs are of the same-- are copies, are photographs of 17          the same impression.

18          Q.    All right, would you take one of the best
19          photographs and the right shoe and step down in front of the 20          jury, please.

21          A.    I will take State's Exhibit 95.

22          Q.    Okay. And you are taking the right shoe out of
23          Exhibit 90?

24          A.    Yes, sir. That's correct.

25          Q.    If you would, you may have to show in different
26          sections to make sure the whole jury sees. Would you point
27          out to the jury where you, what part of that shoe or the shoe
28          just like that you determined left this bloody shoe
29          impression?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Objection.  I don't think
3                   that the gentleman has ever determined that that
4                   shoe or a shoe like that left the impression.  I
5                   think what he said is that they were consistent.  I
6                   think that is a lot different than saying that that
7                   shoe left the impression.  He can correct his own
8                   testimony, but I think that is a misstatement of 9                   his testimony.

10                  BY THE COURT:  I don't think he has testified
11                  exactly that way, but he can testify as to what he 12                  did.

13                  BY MR. EVANS:  May he proceed, Your Honor?

14                  BY THE COURT:  Yes, sir.

15       BY THE WITNESS:

16           A.    If you will, first of all, look at the impression
17           itself in State's Exhibit 95, you will see the most 18           outstanding thing is this part of the impression that looks 19           like an "A."  As you look at the heel area on the shoe on 20           State's Exhibit 90, you will see that there is also a design
21           that looks pretty much like an "A."  As I stated earlier, I
22           took test impressions from this shoe and produced a clear
23           overlay that I could actually lay on top of the impression,
24           but one of the things you have got to remember when you look 25           at the impression and you look at the shoe like this, they 26           are reversed.  The shoe actually makes the impression in this 27           manner, but I compared the overlaid impression against the 28           photograph and determined that all of the characteristics,
29           when you line the "A" characteristic up, all of the Chevron

1 designs, the up and down marks from the bottom of the shoe,
2 all lined up with this impression.

3           You will also notice that there is a ribbed area
4 that goes from the fore foot part of the shoe down to the
5 heel, and that shape of that ribbed area actually has a hump
6 on one side of it that is consistent with the hump that is 7 produced in the side of the impression in the photograph.

8           You will also notice, and it is very hard to see,
9 but you can actually see the edge of a mark at the top of the 10 hump that is consistent in size and shape with the edge of 11 the "F" in the Fila.

12           Q.   Now if you would, step down so that you can kind
13 of-- you don't have to go back through all of it, but point
14 out to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury at this end what 15 you determined. Would it help if I held this?

16           A.   I will have one more hand. You can see the "A,"
17 and you see the little squiggle mark. You see the "A" and 18 the kind of a two on the top of it? Then the size and the 19 shape of the Chevron patterns, the "V" patterns, all lined up
20 exactly with a shoe this size.

21           Q.   All right. Thank you. You may take your seat
22 again.

23           A.   (Witness resumes witness stand.)

24           Q.   All right, that would show you that the shoe
25 impression, bloody shoe impression was consistent with that
26 style and size shoe; is that correct?

27           A.   Yes, sir. That's correct.

28           Q.   And as far as the actual size shoe, what all helps
29 you determine what size shoe left that impression?

1           A.    The size of the shoe, different, different sizes of 2 shoes are slightly different in length and width, and
3 therefore, there will be differences in the size of the 4 design characteristic from the bottom of the shoe. Usually
5 as the shoe increases in size, either the edges of the design
6 will actually be larger, or they will move the design
7 further, the elements of the design further apart to take up
8 the space. Most shoe manufacturers, their shoes in half
9 sizes vary 3/16ths of an inch from one size to the next. So
10 you can never look at an impression and say absolutely it is 11 one specific size, but normally you can narrow it down within 12 one size range for a particular impression.

13           Q.    Okay, and would it be your expert opinion based 14 upon your experience, your training and your comparison in 15 this case that the bloody shoe impressions that you examined
16 that were recovered from Tardy Furniture would be consistent
17 with having been made by the type of shoe that was originally 18 purchased in Exhibit 61, the right heel of that shoe?

19           A.    A shoe such as the right shoe in State's Exhibit 90
20 could not be excluded as having produced the impressions in 21 State's Exhibit 93, 94, 95 and 96.

22           Q.    All right, sir. And based upon your experience and 23 your training, are you familiar with any other type of shoe
24 that would have that exact same pattern and out sole?

25           A.    According to Fila, this is the only brand and make 26 of shoe that they make that has this out sole. I'm not
27 familiar with any others, but it's possible that another shoe
28 exists, but I have never seen another one with this same
29 design.

1 Q. In your experience you are not familiar with
2 another one?

3 A. That would not be routine; no, sir.

4 Q. Other than comparing the bloody shoe tracks, were
5 you also asked to conduct any other tests?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And what was that test?

8 A. I was asked to examine a sample of, a gunshot
9 residue sample for the presence of gunshot residue.

10 Q. I will hand you Exhibit 86. Let me move these out
11 of your way. I will ask you to examine that exhibit and see
12 if you can identify it?

13 A. Yes, sir. I can. It's a standard gunshot residue
14 evidence collection kit marked with the name Curtis G.
15 Flowers. I can recognize it by the Crime Laboratory case
16 number, exhibit number, and it bears my initials on the green
17 seal.

18 Q. Can you explain to the ladies and gentlemen of the 19 jury what that is?

20 A. Yes, sir. If I can open it?

21 Q. You can.

22 A. Inside the kit are four sample vials. To explain
23 very briefly what the gunshot residue test is; any time a
24 person is involved in the discharge of a firearm, there are 25 particles produced during that discharge that can be 26 deposited on the hands or the clothing of the person in close
27 proximity to the weapon. We do gunshot residue tests mainly 28 on hand samples collected from individuals who are believed
29 to have been involved in such a situation. And the samples

1 consist of a small aluminum stub that is coated with an
2 adhesive tape, and we actually, the samples are actually
3 collected by gently patting that adhesive tape on to the 4 surface of the hand that you are sampling.

5 Those samples are then submitted to the Crime
6 Laboratory, and we examine them using a technique called
7 scanning electron microscopy with energy dispersive x-ray
8 analysis. Basically, what it is is we put them in a
9 scanning electron microscope which allows us to look for 10 microscopic size particles. Then if we can find those 11 particles, the x-ray analyzer allows us to conduct an x-ray
12 analysis of those particles and determine their elemental
13 composition.

14 Gunshot residue has been found to have a very 15 unique elemental composition composed mainly of the elements
16 lead, barium, and antimony. So if you can find particles on 17 the sample stubs that have the correct particle morphology,
18 which is size and shape, and have the correct elemental
19 composition, that allows you to positively identify those 20 particles as gunshot residue.

21 Q. Now I notice there are four different vials there.
22 Is there a reason for that?

23 A. Yes, sir. A standard, the standard gunshot residue
24 kit used by the Mississippi Crime Laboratory utilizes four 25 samples: Those samples being samples from the back of the 26 right hand, the palm of the right hand, the back of the left 27 hand, and the palm of the left hand. So each one of those is 28 a separate sample, so a kit normally has four samples.

29 Q. So from that kit you would know what part of a hand

1 the powder was recovered from if there was powder there; is
2 that correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Or gunshot residue?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Did you have an occasion in this particular-- well,
7 first, what information do you have with that kit of who that 8 gunshot residue kit was recovered from?

9 A. There is an information sheet also included in the 10 kit which bears information supplied by the officer
11 collecting the kit as to the individual it was collected from 12 and the time and the circumstances of that collection.

13 Q. What officer collected that?

14 A. This particular kit was collected by Jack Matthews.

15 Q. Who was it collected from?

16 A. From Curtis G. Flowers.

17 Q. Does it tell what time the kit was collected?

18 A. According to the information on the bottom of the 19 sheet, on 7-16 of '96 at 14:00, which would be 2:00 PM.

20 Q. All right, before we get into it, that brings up
21 another question I want to go into. I want you to assume at 22 this point that we are talking about someone possibly 23 shooting a gun at a time period from say 10 o'clock in the 24 morning to approximately 10:20 in the morning. I further 25 want you to assume that the test kit, as the card shows, was 26 taken at 2:00 PM. Would that make any difference in the 27 normal recovery of evidence?

28 A. Yes, sir. It would.

29 Q. Would you explain that to the ladies and gentlemen

1 of the jury?

2 A. As I stated earlier, gunshot residue is deposited
3 as small microscopic particles upon the hands of the person
4 discharging a weapon. Because this residue is particulate in 5 nature, it can be easily removed. Any type of normal
6 activity can remove those particles from your hands.
7 Different, several different studies have been conducted
8 using hand samples from people who have discharged weapons,
9 and it is normally considered that you, if you are going to 10 collect such samples as these, that you need to normally try 11 to collect them within four hours of the time of the 12 shooting. The cut-off is usually considered somewhere
13 between four and six hours. After that period of time, it is 14 very unlikely that you will find those particles because they 15 can be lost.

16 Q. Okay, and we are talking about from the scenario
17 that I gave you, approximately four hours to four hours and 18 20 minutes; is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Okay. What type of test did you, in fact, conduct
21 on these vials?

22 A. As I stated earlier, these were subjected to
23 scanning electron microscopy with energy dispersive x-ray
24 analysis.

25 Q. I know that sounds kind of confusing. But once you
26 conducted your test, what did you find?

27 A. The four samples were examined, and on the sample
28 submitted as being from the back of the right hand, I
29 recovered or identified one particle which could be

1 identified as gunshot residue.

2 Q. And you say that particle is gunshot residue?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Can you exclude that particle from being anything
5 else except gunshot residue?

6 A. Because of the particle morphology and its 7 elemental composition, that particle is considered unique to 8 gunshot residue.

9 Q. So because of that reason, you know for a fact that 10 it was, in fact, gunshot residue. Is that correct?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Again, if you don't mind, I hate to keep getting 13 you back and forth, but if you would, step down in front of 14 the jury for a moment.

15 A. (Witness complies.)

16 Q. I want you to describe to the ladies and gentlemen
17 of the jury the parts of the hand that each sample is 18 supposed to come from?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would object to that, the 20 parts of the hand the sample supposedly come from.
21 I think what is important is where it does come
22 from.

23 BY THE COURT: Well, he is talking about in 24 the routine of normal-- routine procedure is what 25 he is talking about, I assume.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Very good.

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. You may proceed.

1           A.    Each gunshot residue kit comes with an instruction
2 sheet for officers who have never taken one before. Those
3 instruction sheets show diagrams of the areas of the hands
4 for these samples. When we talk about a sample from the back
5 of the right hand, we are talking about the area from the 6 index finger to the thumb and mainly in the web area between 7 that on the outside of the hand. When we talk-- and the same
8 thing will go for the back of the left hand. We are talking
9 about the area on the back of the thumb, the web area between 10 the thumb and the first finger and the back of the first
11 finger. If you think about it, if you are talking about 12 gunshot residue, those would be the areas if you held a gun
13 in a normal fashion that would be exposed to residue being 14 emitted from a gun.

15               When we talk about palm samples, we are normally 16 talking about the palmar surface and the inside surfaces of 17 the fingers.

18           Q.    Okay. Have a seat again if you don't mind.

19           A.    (Witness resumes witness stand.)

20           Q.    All right, Mr. Andrews, you did not conduct the 21 actual testing of the projectiles and things like that; is
22 that correct?

23           A.    No, sir. I did not.

24           Q.    So for the benefit of your testimony, I would like
25 for you to assume that the weapon that was involved in this 26 case was a .380 semi-automatic pistol. With that type of 27 pistol, if it was being held in the hand and fired, what part
28 of the hand would you most likely be able to recover gunshot
29 residue from?

1           A.    If you hold it in a normal fashion, you would
2 normally expect residue being deposited from the weapon to be
3 deposited on the back of the hand in that area between the 4 thumb and the first finger.

5           Q.    All right, and is that the test kit that showed the 6 gunshot residue?

7           A.    Yes, sir; it is.

8           Q.    On the back of the right hand?

9           A.    Yes, sir.

10                   BY MR. EVANS:  Tender the witness.

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  May we proceed, Judge?

12                   BY THE COURT:  Yes, sir.

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Thank you very much.

14           CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15           Q.    Good afternoon, Mr. Andrews.

16           A.    Good afternoon.

17           Q.    Trip from Jackson all right up here?

18           A.    Yes, sir.

19           Q.    I just have a few questions.  Based on your tests,
20 first of all, you don't, you didn't take any kind of residue
21 off of Mr. Curtis Flowers' hand yourself, did you?

22           A.    No, sir.  I just examined the samples that were
23 submitted.

24           Q.    So you don't know whether or not the officers who 25 were supposed to take it, of course, did it right or whether 26 it was contaminated or anything like that?

27           A.    No, sir.

28           Q.    Okay.  Well, let's assume that they did it right
29 first, okay, which is something we don't really know at least

1 at this point; is that correct?

2 A. I don't know, sir.

3 (NOTE: Mr. Freelon enters the courtroom.)

4 Q. Okay, but assuming that they did it right, I think
5 that what your tests showed that there was like a microscopic
6 particle which was in your tests found. Is that correct?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay, that microscopic particle that was found, if
9 I understand it correctly, does not prove that Curtis Flowers
10 actually fired a gun. Isn't that true?

11 A. No, sir. Normally the presence of residue,
12 forensically you can draw one of three conclusions or three 13 possible conclusions. Either that person has been in the 14 environment of-- well, he has been in the environment of a
15 recently discharged weapon. He either had that weapon in his 16 hand when it was discharged, or his hand was in close 17 proximity to a weapon when it was discharged, or he has 18 handled an object that has residue on it to get that residue
19 on his hands.

20 Q. Or he came into something that transferred residue
21 to his hand?

22 A. Well, that would be the third possibility is to 23 have handled something that has residue on it.

24 Q. And residue depending upon-- when you shoot a gun
25 and you don't clean it, residue stays on it. Isn't that
26 true?

27 A. A lot of residue is deposited on the weapon itself
28 during the discharge.

29 Q. Right. And if you pick up a gun which has residue

1 on it because it hasn't been cleaned, then you can get gun
2 residue on your hand. Is that true?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And the residue we are talking about, you cannot
5 say that any residue that you found in relationship to this
6 case was actually fired, came from a pistol, can you?

7 A. No, sir. All I can tell you it came from a
8 discharged weapon.

9 Q. Okay, so the weapon could have been a shotgun?

10 A. Any weapon that uses modern primer technology, that 11 residue could have come from any of those weapons.

12 Q. And perhaps for the ladies and gentlemen who might 13 be unfamiliar with guns; maybe most are, but some might be 14 unfamiliar with guns; there is literally hundreds and 15 hundreds of pistols. Isn't that true?

16 A. Different sizes, calibers, makes; yes, sir.

17 Q. And there is literally hundreds if not thousands of 18 rifles; isn't that true?

19 A. I don't know about the thousands, but there are a
20 lot of them out there. Yes, sir.

21 Q. So you cannot tell us whether out of those 22 thousands or hundreds of rifles which are out there whether 23 this residue came from one of those or another one of those.
24 You can't say that?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. And you cannot say whether or not of those hundreds
27 of pistols which are made, and we are just talking about
28 different types; is that correct?

29 A. Types, calibers, makes, and models; yes, sir.

1 Q. Out of all that, you couldn't say whether residue
2 came from any one of those; is that true?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. And you can't say that the residue which did come
5 from whatever gun-- well, strike that for a moment. Not only
6 is it true that there is hundreds of different types, but any 7 individual type, for instance, a .380; there is obviously
8 thousands and thousands of .380's which are made themselves.
9 Isn't that true?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay, and there are thousands of .32's or .38's and 12 various different types. Isn't that true?

13 A. There are numerous types. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And numerous types of rifles and numerous types of 15 shotguns. Isn't that true?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, when we get through going through all the 18 multiple kinds and the hundreds of types of guns which 19 actually are made, and then we go through all the guns which 20 are in each one of those individual types, I think that what 21 you just told me before you still can't even say that 22 actually any residue that you found -- and it was just a very 23 small piece of residue; is that correct?

24 A. It was one single particle.

25 Q. Yes. It's the smallest amount that you can find 26 and conclude that it came from a gunshot residue; is that
27 true?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Okay, in other words, if it would have been any

1 less, you couldn't even say whether it came from gunshot
2 residue; is that true?

3 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

4 Q. Okay, and so you can't say after we go through all
5 the hundreds and thousands and things of that nature, you
6 still can't say that the person that it came from, assuming 7 that it came from the person they said it came from, that
8 that particular person actually fired a gun. You can't say
9 that?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. Okay, all you can say is that either that person
12 came into, like you said, and I think you said it very well.
13 You said that that person was in an environment where it may 14 have been fired; true?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay, that person could have gotten it transferred 17 from somewhere else; true?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Okay, and in fact, I think you will agree with me
20 that if a gun is not cleaned, gunshot residue can actually
21 stay on that gun for a period of time. Is that true?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay, in fact, it can stay on there for a long
24 period of time if they just put it away somewhere and don't
25 clean it. Is that true?

26 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

27 Q. And then when somebody goes and moves it or touches
28 it or toys with it or whatever they do, they can pick up
29 gunshot residue. Is that true?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2           Q.    Actually you can get gunshot residue from shaking
3 somebody's hand; isn't that true?

4           A.    That is possible. Yes, sir.

5           Q.    Okay. And you can get gunshot residue from being 6 in a place where somebody who had gunshot residue on their 7 hand has recently sat or deposited residue on some kind of 8 object, table or things of that nature; is that correct?

9           A.    If you touch that area where that residue is and 10 pick it up on your hands, yes, sir.

11          Q.    I would imagine if somebody has, who shoots a gun
12 or has a gun or that recently touched a gun that has residue
13 on it, because if they touch a gun that has residue on it,
14 even if the gun has not been recently fired, they may pick up
15 residue. Is that true?

16          A.    If the gun has residue on it; yes, sir.

17          Q.    And so if you are in a police station where people
18 have a bunch of guns generally speaking; right?

19          A.    Most policemen carry weapons.

20          Q.    And they have, and they touch their guns, they may 21 very well have residue on their hands. Isn't that true?

22          A.    Yes, sir.

23          Q.    If you shake their hands, that might get residue on 24 your hands; right?

25          A.    That is a possibility.

26          Q.    If you use a pencil that they use or a pen that 27 they use, that might have residue on it. That might transfer
28 residue to your hands?

29          A.    If there is residue on the pencil, you could get it

1 on your hands.

2 Q. And it very easily, this microscopic piece of
3 particle that you found could very easily fit on a pencil;
4 right?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. In fact, it probably could be fit on a
7 pencil maybe multiple times; right?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Maybe ten, fifteen, a hundred times?

10 A. If you are talking about the size of the particles,
11 this is a microscopic particle.

12 Q. All right. Like 1/25,000 of an inch or something
13 like that?

14 A. I believe the particle in this particular case was 15 approximately 2 microns in size, which there are 25,400
16 microns in an inch. So you are talking about an extremely 17 small particle.

18 Q. Right, and I'm not trying -- of course, you only,
19 you just participated in the investigation to the extent that 20 you examined the things that were brought to you. Isn't that 21 true, Mr. Andrews?

22 A. Yes, sir; that's correct.

23 Q. Okay, and so this question may not totally have 24 significance to you, but let me ask you this. Actually, you
25 don't know how many other persons say like in Winona or who 26 have been to Winona on any particular day like the 16th of 27 July may have had gunshot residue on their hands? Obviously,
28 you don't know that?

29 A. The only way to know that would be to test them.

1 Q. Okay, but that's right; you have got to test them;
2 right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Did they ask you to test the hand of Doyle Simpson?

5 A. The only sample I examined in this case was this
6 sample from Curtis Flowers.

7 Q. Okay, so you got no sample from Emmitt Simpson?

8 A. I got no other samples submitted in this case.

9 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. As far as, as far
10 as-- and so the question I began with is the question I end
11 with as far as residue is concerned. We certainly cannot 12 look at this test that you did to say that with any degree of 13 certainty Curtis Flowers-- well, first of all, you can't say
14 because you weren't there that anything actually came off of 15 Curtis Flowers' hands. And I'm not trying to put any 16 question on any police officer. But you personally cannot 17 vouch for the fact that anything came off his hands, can you?

18 A. All I can tell you is there is a particle on that 19 sample. I can't personally tell you where that sample came 20 from.

21 Q. And certainly we can't say that even if it was 22 there, that he fired a gun that day; right?

23 A. As I told you earlier, the three conclusions that 24 you can draw is this person either fired a weapon, was in 25 close proximity to a weapon, or he handled something that had 26 residue on it.

27 Q. And certainly even if he had fired a weapon, there
28 is no way we can say that he ever fired a weapon inside of 29 Tardy's store?

1           A.    Not based on this test, no, sir.

2           Q.    Okay.  Now let me ask you this.  Let's deal with
3 the question of the shoe print.  Now I notice that at a
4 certain point the District Attorney asked you a question, and
5 you answered that question with I think perhaps a slight
6 correction.  I think he asked you could you say, could you
7 tell him from your examination - and I'm not trying to use
8 his exact words - that this shoe made the impression or a
9 shoe like this.  He certainly didn't say this shoe, but that 10 a shoe like this made the impression that you examined, and 11 what you did if I'm not mistaken is corrected him and said
12 that what you could tell him is that a shoe like this could 13 not be excluded from making this impression.  Is that what
14 you said?

15          A.    Yes, sir.  That's correct.

16          Q.    And what that means is that you are not saying that 17 a shoe like that made that impression.  You are saying that 18 you cannot say that a shoe like this did not make that 19 impression; right?

20          A.    By stating that the shoe cannot be excluded as a
21 source or a shoe of this size and make could not be excluded
22 as a source, I am stating that that shoe, the out sole design
23 of that shoe is consistent with that impression in physical 24 size, shape and design.

25          Q.    Yes.

26          A.    Because of the possibility that there could be
27 another make of shoe out there that has that same out sole
28 design, I cannot positively say it would be a shoe of that 29 make and design.

1 Q. And that's what I was going to get to. In other
2 words, there actually could be other shoes out there not even
3 made by Fila of that same design. Isn't that true?

4 A. It would be unusual, but I can't rule out the 5 possibility.

6 Q. Okay, let me ask you this. We had a brief
7 discussion earlier today; isn't that true?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. And we talked about there is a lot of-- quite 10 frequently you have copycat designs; isn't that true?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. In fact, and sometimes in other countries which 13 sell shoes all over the world as a discount rate they copy
14 designs which are already out there, and they sell them.
15 Isn't that true?

16 A. I'm not really aware of how big a problem it is for 17 Fila, but to give you an example, Nike, a lot of the out
18 soles or a lot of the shoes that Nike sells are produced
19 overseas. And one of the problems that Nike recognized
20 several years ago is that sometimes at the manufacturer where 21 the soles are being produced, soles that maybe are excluded
22 because of quality control from being a Nike shoe, wind up
23 being sold out the back door to some small shoe manufacturer,
24 and they will use those out sole designs on their brand of 25 shoe. It is relatively uncommon, but it does happen.

26 Q. And it happens with popular shoes?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And Nike was a popular shoe?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And Fila is a popular shoe?

2 A. It is becoming very popular; yes, sir.

3 Q. And Reebok and some others ones are popular shoes?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. So basically, and 6 basically you have no files where you just go to and
7 determine what shoes exist and what out soles designs exist.
8 You don't have a file like that?

9 A. No, sir. There, and as far as I know, there is one
10 shoe file that contains every known shoe design in the world,
11 but there are shoe files that contain a significant number,
12 but we do not have one of those.

13 Q. Well, let's just-- so first of all, one of the 14 reasons you made a statement like you did to the District
15 Attorney is because as you have just shared with the ladies
16 and gentlemen of the jury very clearly, you cannot exclude 17 the possibility that there could be a similar design. Is 18 that correct or a same design?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. On another shoe?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. On another make of shoe; right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay. Now secondly, let's just talk about Fila
25 shoes. You have no idea how many people may be in Winona or 26 have been in Winona or come from someplace else and went
27 through Winona who wear Fila shoes?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. And in fact, what you did do, just like you checked

1 with Fila on some other things, you checked with Fila to find
2 out how many shoes they made over a period of time that
3 actually have these designs on the bottom. Is that correct?

4 A. Yes, sir. I did.

5 Q. And you also were good enough to talk to me and to 6 share that with me. Isn't that true?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay, and wouldn't it be safe to say that the 9 information that you received, first of all, in your
10 expertise I think that I listened to you carefully; you
11 cannot even say that the impression was made by a size ten
12 and a half shoe, can you?

13 A. Not exactly, no, sir.

14 Q. Right. In fact, it is just as likely that it could 15 have been made by a-- and this is partly based upon
16 information you got from Fila if I'm not mistaken, and you
17 correct me if I am wrong, that it could have just as likely 18 been made by a size 10 or a size 11 shoe. Isn't that true?

19 A. According to the information from Fila, each shoe 20 size varies 3/16ths of an inch per half size, and their 21 quality control is good within 3/16ths of an inch. So
22 therefore, the information Fila sent me, they sent me
23 information for a ten, a ten and a half, and an eleven.
24 Those would be considered the limits of sizes that could have 25 produced an impression that size.

26 Q. So each one of those sizes would have been 27 consistent with the impression you saw?

28 A. They couldn't have been ruled out; no, sir.

29 Q. Right. And they wouldn't, and if you had another

1 size like a size eleven, that couldn't be-- that is as
2 consistent as the size ten and a half with that impression?

3 A. I wouldn't know for sure unless I actually had that
4 size eleven to look at, but it would not be impossible for a
5 size eleven to be that same size.

6 Q. Okay, and the same thing with size ten. To the 7 best of your knowledge at this time, no one gave you these 8 sizes, but to the best of your knowledge and certainly based 9 on the information from Fila, you could not rule out that 10 that would be just as consistent with the impression as the 11 size ten and a half. Isn't that true?

12 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

13 Q. Okay, so you really don't know what size shoe
14 precisely made the impression. Isn't that true?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. Now let me ask you this. You actually found out
17 from Fila that there were two hundred and-- during the period
18 that you checked for, there were 221,393 shoes of that make 19 and model which were made size ten. Is that correct? And 20 shipped, I guess they say shipped out?

21 A. They say shipped; yes, sir.

22 Q. And that was over 200,000 shoes that were shipped
23 of size ten of that make and model?

24 A. There was 221,393 for size ten.

25 Q. Okay.

26 A. That is pairs.

27 Q. Pairs, right. So there is more shoes if you
28 multiply-- well, so that means if you multiply them, then
29 there were twice that many shoes, but that many pairs;

1 right?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And it is also safe to say that as far as ten and a
4 half, there was 221,189 ten and a half's which were shipped
5 out; is that correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And there were 200,199 eleven's that were shipped
8 out; is that right?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And if you put all of those together, you have over 11 600,000 shoes which were made during the period of time that 12 you checked for which included a time possible for these 13 shoes to have been purchased. Is that correct?

14 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. In fact, one of the things you found out
16 from Fila, that this shoe was produced in 1995. Isn't that
17 true?

18 A. The introductory date for which shoe? The shoe I
19 actually examined?

20 Q. Right.

21 A. The introductory date for that shoe was - that's 22 the B136 C-150 - was 6-15 of '96.

23 Q. 6-15 of '96?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. How about the other one?

26 A. The other, the one for the empty shoe box?

27 Q. Right.

28 A. That is the B136-150. Its introduction date is 29 listed as November the 15th of '95.

1 Q. It's a '95 shoe; right?

2 A. Yes, sir. That's its introduction date.

3 Q. Okay. So it would have been new in '95. That's 4 when it would have been new, in 1995?

5 A. Yes, sir. That's the earliest that you could have
6 bought that shoe would have been November of '95.

7 Q. Okay. And so actually it would have been many
8 months old as of July of 1996; right?

9 A. It could have been depending on how long it sat on 10 the store shelf.

11 Q. I see. Now let me ask you this here. I notice
12 that you also say this box was submitted for fingerprints; is
13 that correct?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And you don't know what the results of those 16 fingerprints analysis were of your personal self, do you?

17 A. No, sir. I didn't conduct that exam.

18 Q. Okay, and of course, the reason that you do that is 19 to see if you can determine who touched the box; right?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. And of course, you
22 have no way of knowing of your own knowledge who, whether 23 that box, where it came from originally; right?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Or how long it was where it was before the police
26 picked it up; right?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. Or whether it came from somebody else before it got 29 to where the police picked it up. You don't know any of

1 that?

2 A. No, sir. I don't.

3 Q. Okay, but in any event, I think that -- now this is 4 the inquiry I have because I forgot to ask you about this
5 earlier. Do we know for certain that the impressions that 6 you found in, that is found in the pictures which were 7 presumably taken from the store, do we know for certain that
8 each one of these impressions came from the exact same shoe?

9 A. From the exact same shoe?

10 Q. Can we say that?

11 A. No, sir. There is not sufficient detail in the 12 impressions to look for individual characteristics to say
13 that all three of those impressions were the same exact
14 shoe. But they are all consistent in size, shape, and 15 design.

16 Q. Which would mean that they could have come from 17 the same shoe, or they might not have come from the same
18 shoe?

19 A. If you are asking me is it possible that three 20 different shoes could have made those three impressions, yes,
21 sir; that is possible.

22 Q. Now or it could have been the same shoe?

23 A. Or it could have been the same shoe. There is no--

24 Q. --We really don't know.

25 A. Without looking for individual characteristics that
26 would identify all those as being made by one shoe, I can't 27 say.

28 Q. Right, and in fact, when shoes are worn, when shoes
29 are worn-- strike that. Okay, I noticed in reading over your

1 summary of your testimony last time, you have indicated that
2 some of the detail in the impression was covered up by the
3 substance that the impression was in. Did that happen?

4 A. Yes, sir. If you look at those impressions of--
5 they were submitted to the laboratory as being bloody
6 impressions. You can tell that whatever the material is that
7 the impression is in, in some places there was an excessive
8 amount of that material that basically blotted out some of 9 the detail.

10 Q. Okay, now the only pair of shoes that-- you did
11 have a pair of shoes, and you don't know how many pair of 12 shoes are actually at the home of where-- you don't really
13 know how many pair of shoes was at the home of the Defendant,
14 do you?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. Okay, you have no way of knowing. But for whatever
17 reason, they only brought you one pair of shoes. Is that
18 true?

19 A. There was one pair of shoes submitted as being from
20 Curtis Flowers.

21 Q. Okay, and that pair of shoes, that did not match
22 the impression. Is that true?

23 A. Yes, sir. That's correct. That was a pair of Nike
24 Flight athletic shoes, and they had a completely different
25 sole design.

26 Q. And so that would be in a case where you can say
27 that that shoe was actually excluded from being the shoe that 28 would have made that impression?

29 A. Yes, sir. That shoe could not have made those

1 impressions.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Bear with me one
3 minute, please, Mr. Andrews.

4 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

5 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr.
6 Freelon and with the Defendant.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you, Mr. Andrews. I
8 have no other questions.

9 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you.

10 (Mr. Freelon leaves the courtroom.)

11 BY THE COURT: Redirect?

12 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, briefly.

13 (Mr. Horan leaves the courtroom.)

14 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. Mr. Andrews, first I will go back into the shoes
16 real quickly. Of course, you don't know where this shoe box
17 came from that was submitted to you other than what you were 18 told; is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

20 Q. Assuming for the benefit of your testimony that 21 this shoe box came from the house that the Defendant was 22 living in, the type of shoes that originally came in this 23 shoe box, would this shoe, the right shoe that originally
24 came in this shoe box make the same type of impression, show
25 the same type of marks that were left in the bloody
26 impressions?

27 A. Yes, sir. It would.

28 Q. Now as to the gunshot residue, you have testified
29 that there are three possible ways of getting gunshot

1 residue. One is by actually firing the gun?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. One is by being in close proximity to someone
4 firing a gun which means if you fired a gun and I was 5 standing next to you, I might possibly get some on me. Is
6 that correct?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. And the other is by touching something that had 9 gunshot residue on it?

10 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

11 Q. And if I picked up an object that had gunshot
12 residue on it - (NOTE: Mr. Evans picks up a cup.) -
13 whatever it be like that, what part of the hand would you 14 most likely expect to find the gunshot residue on from 15 picking something up?

16 A. If you handled something or if you picked something
17 up that has residue on it, you would normally expect that 18 residue to be transferred to the palms of the hand.

19 Q. And which part of the hand would you more likely 20 than not find gunshot residue on from a person that had fired
21 a gun?

22 A. Normally the best area to find evidence that the 23 person has discharged a weapon would be to look for residue
24 on the backs of the hands. That would be more consistent
25 with residue deposited during the discharge of the weapon.

26 Q. And is that the test kit that you found it on is 27 the back of the right hand?

28 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

29 Q. And you have been asked about the size. All

1 particles of gunshot residue are very small; is that correct?

2 A. Yes, sir. Gunshot residue primer particles such as
3 these can range in size from less than a micron in diameter
4 to up to 50 microns in diameter.

5 Q. All right, and regardless of the size, the amount
6 that you tested was a sufficient size for you to know without 7 any doubt--

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge--

9 BY MR. EVANS: --that this was gunshot
10 residue--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Wait a minute.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. I don't have any 14 problem with the testimony, but I would ask for the 15 witness to be able to testify himself instead of 16 being led.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is an expert
18 witness. I am just asking for his opinion on a
19 certain set of facts.

20 BY THE COURT: Are you asking a hypothetical?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. State your 23 hypothetical.

24 BY MR. EVANS:

25 Q. Assuming that a person fired a .380 semi-automatic
26 pistol, what-- with the right hand, what part of that hand
27 would you more likely than not expect to find gunshot
28 residue?

29 A. On the sample from the back of the right hand.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further from this
2 witness, Your Honor.

3 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

4 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: You are free to go, Mr.
6 Andrews.

7 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you.

8 BY THE COURT: Break time.

9 (DURING THE AFTERNOON RECESS ON MARCH 26,
10 1999, MR. EVANS AND MR. LUMUMBA CONFERRED WITH THE 11 COURT, BUT MR. LUMUMBA STATED THAT IT DID NOT NEED
12 TO BE ON THE RECORD. FOLLOWING THE RECESS, THE 13 TRIAL CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT, ALL
14 COUNSEL WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MR. FREELON, AND THE 15 DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

16 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm ready for the jury.
17 And we will need Mr. Balash again.

18 (JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.)

19 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I have 20 got a similar situation that we had at the first of 21 the trial. If you remember, we took an expert out
22 of order because the expert had to be somewhere
23 else. The Defense wants to recall Mr. Balash back
24 to the stand and -- you can have a seat right
25 there.

26 BY THE WITNESS, MR. BALASH: Thank you, Your
27 Honor.

28 BY THE COURT: And I'm going to, because of a
29 conflict with his schedule, I'm going to allow him

1 to testify out of order at this time.

2 BY MR. HORAN: Is this going to be direct
3 examination?

4 BY THE COURT: Yes. He is called as a Defense
5 witness.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed?

7 BY THE COURT: Yes.

8 DAVID BALASH,
9 a white male recalled to testify but this time as a witness
10 for the Defendant, called out of order, having been 11 previously sworn, testified here as follows, to-wit:

12 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Good afternoon again, Mr. Balash.

14 A. Good afternoon, sir.

15 Q. I just have really a couple of questions for you.
16 We have had a presentation by both yourself and another
17 witness which helped us to understand about gunshot residue.
18 You understand what I'm saying?

19 A. Yes, I do, sir.

20 Q. Okay, and I just really want to just quickly go
21 through this. If I was to come up to you and you had gunshot
22 residue which you had collected on your fingers or on your 23 hand and we were to shake hands like this, where would the 24 gunshot-- could the gunshot residue be transferred to my
25 hand?

26 A. Certainly.

27 Q. And what part of my hand could the gunshot residue
28 be transferred to from this kind of exchange?

29 A. In that kind a lot of it would be in the web area,

1 depending, of course, on where the gunshot residue was on my
2 hand; a lot of it in the palm and finger area of the hand as
3 well.

4 Q. Okay. And so a lot of it could be, and if you only
5 had a little bit on your hand, I might only get a little bit
6 on my hand; is that correct?

7 A. Certainly.

8 Q. If I was to be at a police station and pick up a
9 pen which had gunshot residue on it and to write with that 10 pen, could I collect gunshot residue in the web of my hand?

11 A. You could.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Those are my two questions.
13 Thank you very much.

14 BY THE WITNESS: You're welcome, sir.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

16 Q. Mr. Balash, those assumptions are based on other
17 assumptions; right, that someone actually handled or had 18 gunshot residue on their hand?

19 A. That was the assumption I was operating under; yes,
20 sir.

21 Q. And there are possibilities, as you have testified
22 to and Mr. Andrews likewise testified to, that you can handle
23 something; I could handle a gun. If I handled a gun that had 24 gunshot residue on it, it would be on my palm; right?

25 A. It should be, yes.

26 Q. And these tests are presumptive in nature. It's 27 not conclusive that someone fired a weapon, is it?

28 A. That is absolutely true. They are presumptive in 29 nature.

1           Q.    If I were standing outside, let's say outside my
2   residence and I was arguing with my wife, and I told her, I
3   said, you know, you don't love me; I'm going to kill myself
4   or something like that, and I shot myself in the head; okay?
5   Really what you are testifying to is that unless you had
6   other factors to determine whether or not I actually fired
7   that weapon, there is no test that will give you a conclusive
8   determination as to whether or not I fired that weapon.
9   Other evidence has to be present; right?

10          A.    That is correct, sir.

11          Q.    Okay.  It's a consideration of other factors to 12   make that determination.  That's for the jury to decide?

13          A.    To the best of my knowledge there is no test
14   currently that will establish beyond doubt that you have 15   fired a weapon period.  There is no test available.

16          Q.    And the scenario I have described to you, yourself
17   you have done a lot of gunshot residue kits, have you not?

18          A.    I have and investigated a great number of shootings
19   as well.

20          Q.    And if you were standing next to me outside my 21   residence when I did that and you were able to collect that 22   gunshot residue kit from me when I fired that weapon; you saw
23   me, and that would be more conclusive, would it not, that I
24   fired that particular weapon?  Wouldn't it?

25          A.    Well, I hope the eye witness testimony would.

26          Q.    Would help--

27          A.    --The test may come back positive or negative.

28          Q.    Right.

29          A.    It is not assured one way or the other.

1 Q. What happens to gunshot residue if someone would
2 wash the palm of their hands? Would it be necessarily--

3 A. --You would almost normally, it would almost 4 absolutely be removed. And again, it would be the amount of 5 vigor. If you washed your hands even remotely well, it would
6 be removed entirely.

7 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a couple of questions.

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. As far as the handling of a gun, I meant to ask you
11 that. The gentleman did raise the question. Let me ask you
12 this. If I was to pick up a gun, it really depends on how I
13 picked it up where the gunshot residue would be. Is that
14 true?

15 A. It depends if there is gunshot residue on the gun
16 to begin with.

17 Q. Right. But if I pick up a gun which does have 18 gunshot residue on it, which hasn't been cleaned or whatever,
19 and I pick it up and hold it -- say this is the barrel this 20 way, and I hold it in this fashion, and I don't have anything
21 long enough to really demonstrate what I'm doing. But if 22 you hold it like this by the handle, you could very well
23 still get gunshot residue on the back of your hands. Is that
24 true?

25 A. It would probably have to come into contact. The 26 back of your hand would have to come into contact with that--

27 Q. --right--

28 A. --portion of the weapon that had the residue on it.

29 Q. And there are ways to hold a gun or hold a gun

1 where that could very well happen; isn't that true?

2 A. Well, depending on how you hold it, sometimes the
3 back of your palm or the web comes right up to the slight
4 action on a semi-automatic pistol, for example, and you
5 actually come in direct contact with the gun with the back of 6 your hand.

7 Q. And the final question is this. If the test is 8 done correctly, when you test the back of someone's hand, can 9 you really say where on the back of the hand in this area the 10 residue comes from?

11 A. It depends on the type of test, sir.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I didn't go into
13 that on cross-examination.

14 BY THE COURT: I don't believe you did.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Okay. I have no
16 further questions. Thank you.

17 BY THE COURT: He is finally excused now,
18 isn't he?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Yes, sir. He is 20 excused.

21 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 BY THE COURT: Thank you.

23 WITNESS EXCUSED.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach one second?

25 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
26 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I had a small
28 question. McSparrin, the fingerprint expert I
29 have, he really was the State's person but, you

1 know, he is no longer working for the state. Now
2 here is the problem. You know, I didn't know he
3 was outside, but he cannot testify, and the only
4 thing that I want. He is the one that actually
5 examined all the prints, and the only thing he is 6 going to say is that he found no prints that
7 matched. I don't necessarily have to call him
8 right now, but I would like to call him before we 9 leave here tonight. The reason why, he cannot be
10 here tomorrow. I talked to him. He can't be here
11 tomorrow, but I don't know who-- and I don't know
12 what the Court intends to do.

13 BY THE COURT: We are going tomorrow. I mean
14 if you asking me if we are going to be here, we 15 are.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, no, I'm not saying we are 17 not going tomorrow. What I'm saying he can't be 18 here tomorrow. He has got somewhere else he has 19 got to be. So I just wanted-- I mean I don't need
20 to call him right this minute. If they want to 21 proceed with their case and call him right before
22 we leave, I don't care if he is the last witness or 23 how we would do it. I don't know if they have any 24 people they feel that is going to be long.

25 BY THE COURT: Well, why don't we get to where 26 we are getting ready to quit and let me look at 27 that then.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if he wants to put 29 his case on first, we would have been glad to let

1 him--

2 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute; wait a
3 minute. Can he be here Monday?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He can be here Monday, yeah.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, I am confident we are
6 going to be here Monday too.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, as long as he-- and can
8 I go out and make sure?

9 BY THE COURT: You can-- come here. If you
10 can assure me we will be through tomorrow, I will 11 let you put him on today. (Court laughs.) I am
12 talking to you.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, me? Well, I can't assure 14 you of that.

15 BY THE COURT: I know you can't.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I just run out there and 17 tell him that right quick?

18 BY THE COURT: Yeah, that will be fine.

19 (Mr. Lumumba left the courtroom.)

20 BY THE COURT: Who are y'all going to want?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Jack Matthews.

22 (Both Defense Counsel as well as the witness
23 enter the courtroom.)

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this witness still 25 needs to be sworn.

26 BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand, please,
27 sir.

28 JACK MATTHEWS,

29 a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of

1 Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
2 follows, to-wit:

3 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

4 Q. Have a seat. State your name for the record,
5 please.

6 A. Jack Matthews.

7 Q. Mr. Matthews, how are you employed?

8 A. I'm an investigator with the Mississippi Highway
9 Patrol.

10 Q. And how long have you worked for the Mississippi
11 Highway Patrol?

12 A. About 25 years.

13 Q. I want to direct your attention back to around the 14 16th day of July of 1996, and ask you if you had an occasion
15 to be called to Winona, Mississippi, that day?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. Now in your capacity as an investigator for the 18 Highway Patrol, are there certain counties that you are 19 primarily responsible for?

20 A. I work out of the Greenwood District, and it
21 consists of ten counties.

22 Q. And is Montgomery County one of those counties?

23 A. Yes, it is.

24 Q. And for the record, Winona is located in Montgomery
25 County; is that correct?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Approximately what size town is Winona?

28 A. It's about 7,000 people population wise.

29 Q. All right. For what reason were you called to

1 Winona that day?

2 A. We had received a call from the Winona Police
3 Department requesting assistance at Tardy Furniture Company
4 there on Front Street. They had called and advised that they
5 had some, they had found some bodies at that location and 6 requested assistance.

7 Q. Did you, in fact, go to Tardy Furniture that day?

8 A. Yes, sir. I did.

9 Q. What did you find when you arrived?

10 A. When I arrived, I was met by Chief Johnny Hargrove
11 out front, and we went into the furniture store. When we 12 went in, I noticed there had been an area in the store that 13 was roped off with police barricade tape. There were three 14 bodies inside the store. There was blood all over the 15 floor. It appeared to have been, the victims appeared to 16 have been killed by gunfire.

17 Q. All right, what at that point was done in an 18 attempt to get someone from the Crime Lab there?

19 A. I was notified by Chief Hargrove that the Crime Lab
20 had already been called and that they were on their way.

21 Q. Were you present during part of the time that
22 Melissa Schoene did her crime scene investigation?

23 A. Yes, I was.

24 Q. And did you see her obtaining the different
25 evidence that she has submitted here before the court?

26 A. Yes, sir. I did.

27 Q. At the time that this evidence was recovered, was 28 it known how many bullets were actually involved in the
29 store?

1           A.    There was not, it was not a definite number. Of 2           course, sometimes we don't know that until the autopsies are
3           complete. But at that time we thought that we knew
4           approximately the number of bullets that had been fired
5           because we found some casings there at the scene.

6           Q.    All right, I want to direct your attention
7           specifically to Bertha Tardy and where she was shot. At the 8           time at the scene did y'all know whether that was a through 9           and through wound or whether the bullet was still in her or
10          not?

11          A.    We didn't know for sure.

12          Q.    Okay, over in the area that she was, did you find
13          anything that appeared to be where a bullet had struck?

14          A.    We noticed on the wall there was a nicked place on 15          the wall. There was a concrete wall there that had been 16          painted, and there was a nick in the wall. And we noticed
17          that, and it looked to be freshly nicked.

18          Q.    Okay, I'm going to skip ahead at this point and 19          come back to try to keep this in some kind of order. I want
20          to hand you certain photographs. I will go through the 21          numbers with you. These aren't in order, but they are 22          Exhibits 37, 39, 40, 41, 35, 36, and the corresponding
23          slides. Would you examine these, please. Also 6 and 7.

24          A.    (Photographs and slides handed to witness; pause
25          while witness examines exhibits.)

26          Q.    Investigator Matthews, do those pictures truly and 27          accurately depict what you saw at the scene or what you saw 28          later at the scene when you returned to the scene?

29          A.    Yes, sir.

1           Q.    Now the ones when you returned to the scene-- first
2   let me go into what the purpose of that was.  Why did y'all
3   go back to the crime scene?

4           A.    After we reviewed the autopsy reports, we knew that
5   the projectile that passed through Ms. Tardy's head was 6   probably still in the store there somewhere.  And after we
7   talked about it, we were reminded of this place on the wall
8   that the, the freshly nicked place there on the wall, and we 9   went back to see if we could locate that projectile.

10          Q.    Were you able to locate that projectile?

11          A.    Yes, we were.

12          Q.    And how did you locate it?

13          A.    We found it in a mattress where it appeared to have 14   ricocheted off of that wall and buried into the mattress.

15          Q.    Were you present when that mattress was cut open
16   and the projectile recovered from it?

17          A.    Yes, sir.  I was.

18                   BY MR. EVANS:  Your Honor, I offer these
19   photographs into evidence at this time.

20                   BY THE COURT:  Any objection?

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Can I see them right quick?

22                   (Pause while Mr. Lumumba looks at exhibits.)

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  None other than the ones we 24   raised before trial in terms of.

25                   BY THE COURT:  Okay, let them be marked and 26   entered.

27                   (PHOTOGRAPHS AND THE CORRESPONDING SLIDES
28   PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-6, S-7, 29   S-35, S-36, S-37, S-39, S-40, AND S-41 FOR

1 IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW ALL ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE.)

2 (Mr. Evans placed the newly introduced slide
3 exhibits in the projector.)

4 BY THE COURT: How about the lights?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach for one
6 second?

7 BY MR. EVANS: Before I go forward with this?

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

9 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
10 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would enter an additional 12 objection at this point continuing to show these 13 bodies. This is not only prejudicial for the 14 reasons stated already, but it is also cumulative.
15 We are still showing bodies, still going through
16 this in a totally uncontested area. I don't know
17 what happened in the last trial, but we are not
18 contesting that the bullet went through her head
19 and scraped off the pole and all that kind of 20 stuff.

21 BY THE COURT: Nobody showed me the pictures.
22 I guess I didn't ask, but they are admitted. They 23 are into evidence now so--

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the only ones that 25 we-- of course, they are in evidence, but the only 26 ones that we just introduced either show the 27 outside of the store or show the mattress where the 28 bullet was recovered.

29 BY THE COURT: Is that what you're getting

1 ready to show up here?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, no, they have got one
4 with her laying on the, laying in the store. That
5 is not one you are going to show?

6 BY MR. EVANS: Yeah, I'm going to show it, but 7 that is not one of the ones we have just
8 introduced. That one has been introduced.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, well, what I am saying
10 is to continue to show it to the jury, I think it
11 is cumulative.

12 BY THE COURT: Is it the one of Ms. Tardy?

13 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. It is going to be
15 relevant for the purpose of showing where that 16 bullet was recovered. That is going to be the 17 necessity of that, so I'm allowing it for that 18 reason.

19 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

20 (Mr. Evans got slides ready to show.)

21 BY THE COURT: I can't see it good. Is it
22 showing up all right, or do you need--

23 BY MR. EVANS: If you would, cut the other
24 light off so they can see better. Let me step over
25 to the side too, Your Honor, because I believe I am
26 blocking part of the jurors.

27 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

28 Q. Mr. Matthews, can you see this photograph?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Can you tell us what it shows?

2 A. Okay, that is a nick in that brick wall there. It
3 appears, appeared to be on the 16th, appeared to be fresh.
4 And it is near the area where we found the body of Bertha
5 Tardy.

6 Q. Okay, I noticed a, what looks like a yard stick
7 right here. What is it in that picture for?

8 A. It just indicates where that, what we are 9 photographing.

10 Q. Now the dot here, is this the nick that appeared to 11 be where a bullet had struck the wall?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And I notice an ink pen in the mattress here. What 14 does that indicate?

15 A. That indicates where the hole we found where the 16 bullet entered.

17 Q. And did someone in your presence cut that plastic
18 and the mattress open in an attempt to find the bullet?

19 A. Yes, sir. We did.

20 (Changes the slide.)

21 Q. What does this photograph show?

22 A. That's a picture of us cutting the mattress and 23 retrieving the projectile that we found there.

24 Q. Is this the projectile that was recovered?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 (Changes slide.)

27 Q. And is this a close-up of the projectile that was 28 recovered?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1           Q.    This is the same projectile that was sent to the 2 State Crime Lab?

3           A.    Yes, sir. It was.

4           Q.    All right, let me find a slide?

5                   (Goes back through slides.)

6           Q.    Okay, this is the slide I'm looking for. This
7 slide has been identified as this being the body of Ms.
8 Bertha Tardy; is that correct?

9           A.    That's correct.

10          Q.    And do you see the post that that bullet was 11 recovered from in that slide?

12          A.    Yes, sir. It's that second post, the middle post.

13          Q.    This post right here?

14          A.    Yes, sir.

15                   BY MR. EVANS: If you would, cut the lights on 16 for us, please, sir.

17                   (The projector was turned off and the lights 18 back on.)

19 BY MR. EVANS:

20          Q.    Mr. Matthews, back at the scene, did you have an 21 occasion yourself to see and pick up certain items that were
22 in the store?

23          A.    Yes, sir. I did.

24          Q.    I want to hand you Exhibit 62 and ask you if you
25 can tell us what this is. First, can you identify it?

26          A.    That was a card that I found on Ms. Tardy's desk in 27 her office.

28          Q.    Is that card in the same condition now as it was in 29 at the time you recovered it?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2                   BY MR. EVANS:  I offer this exhibit into
3                   evidence, Your Honor.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Can I see it please, Judge?

5                   BY THE COURT:  Sure.  Then let me see it.

6                   BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir.

7                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
8                   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  My objection is that it's not 10                   authenticated as anything that has any relevance to 11                   this case.  We don't know what that is.  It is like 12                   picking up anything from any customer that might 13                   have been in the store or any employee that might 14                   have been in the store.  I don't think that just 15                   because their names might be mentioned in a public 16                   store or a store which employs people, that that 17                   means that they are admissible.  I have a problem
18                   with that.  At this point there is no-- the 19                   foundation for relevancy has not been laid, and 20                   actually the authentication has not been laid.  All
21                   it is is an item found in the store.  Anything
22                   found in the store is not relevant.  It has got to 23                   have some way of proving a crime or proving a
24                   connection to the crime.  The fact that it was in 25                   the store when he worked there; we all know that.
26                   There is no dispute on that.  It's not proof of a
27                   crime.

28                   BY THE COURT:  What would it tend to prove?

29                   BY MR. EVANS:  It would tend to prove that he

1                   worked at the store. It would tend to prove the
2                   hours that he worked, and there it would be nothing
3                   different from that--

4                   BY THE COURT: --I think you are entitled to 5                   show that he worked at the store, and there has not
6                   been much proof on that at this point in time.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, but that--

8                   BY THE COURT: --It may not--

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --we don't even know who did
10                  this.

11                  BY MR. EVANS: It doesn't matter.

12                  BY THE COURT: But here is the deal. It was 13                  found at the store. They have established that.
14                  All right, what the value of it, the weight and 15                  worth of it is for the jury to decide, not me.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: But it has to be 17                  authenticated.

18                  BY THE COURT: It is relevant because it has 19                  his name on it, and it apparently has some times on 20                  there, so it has some relevance. It's not
21                  prejudicial. I mean because to be honest with you,
22                  it is really not even bringing up something that 23                  y'all dispute in the long run. Y'all don't dispute
24                  he worked there.

25                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, we don't dispute that.

26                  BY THE COURT: The fact is y'all don't even 27                  dispute he worked there on those days.

28                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, there is no
29                  authentication of this document as being done by

1           anybody that would have had any power to write this
2           up in the store.

3           BY THE COURT: Well, the authenticity of-- not
4           the authenticity. The accuracy of what is on that 5           card may be disputed, but the fact that it was
6           there with his name on it with hours, with obvious
7           times of the day on there during a period he would
8           have worked would have some relevance, and I don't 9           see enough prejudicial effect to outweigh the 10          probative value. And therefore, I'm going to, I'm 11          going to allow it for whatever it is worth.

12                           END BENCH CONFERENCE.

13           BY MR. EVANS: May I have this item marked
14           into evidence, Your Honor?

15           BY THE COURT: Yes.

16                           (TIME CARD PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S 17           EXHIBIT S-62 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW ADMITTED IN
18           EVIDENCE.)

19   BY MR. EVANS:

20           Q.   What does that card purport to show, Mr. Matthews?

21           A.   Okay. It has the name of Curtis Flowers written on 22           the top of it, and it appears to be days that he worked at
23           Tardy Furniture.

24           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object to that, Judge.

25           BY THE COURT: Sustained. You can't testify
26           to that.

27           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, it is in evidence.
28           Can he not testify what is on it?

29           BY THE COURT: Yeah, but that is not on it.

1 BY MR. EVANS:

2 Q. Okay, read what is on the card.

3 A. Well, it has the date of Saturday, the 6/29 of 4 '96. It appears to be the time, 9:00 to 12:00; 1:00 to 5 5:20. Monday off. Tuesday, 9:00 to 11:30; 12:30 to 5:30.
6 Wednesday, 9:00 to 12:05. And then on the other side of the 7 card is "paid $30.00 on 6/29." Then it has some more figures
8 with the sum total of 17.55 or 17 and 11/12ths hours.

9 Q. Just lay it in front of you, if you would, for 10 now. Mr. Matthews, at this point-- well, first let me do
11 this. I will hand you Exhibit 75 and ask you if you can 12 identify this exhibit?

13 A. This was a projectile that we recovered from the 14 mattress at Tardy Furniture Company.

15 Q. The same projectile that you have described and 16 that the ladies and gentlemen of the jury saw in the slides?

17 A. Yes, sir. That's correct.

18 BY MR. EVANS: I offer Exhibit 75 into
19 evidence, Your Honor.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no objection to
21 Exhibit 75.

22 BY THE COURT: All right, sir. Let it be
23 marked and admitted.

24 (SMALL WHITE BOX CONTAINING PROJECTILE FROM
25 MATTRESS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-75
26 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE.)

27 BY MR. EVANS:

28 Q. Mr. Matthews, on the date of the murders, did you
29 have an occasion to talk to a person by the name of Curtis

1 Flowers?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. Where did you talk to him?

4 A. I talked to him at the Winona Police Department.

5 Q. And approximately what time of day did you first
6 see him?

7 A. About 1:30.

8 Q. All right.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we had already--

10 BY THE COURT: This is your motion.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen,
13 this is a matter I have to hear outside y'all's
14 presence. You will need to go to the jury room.

15 JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

16 BY THE COURT: State your objection for the 17 record, Mr. Lumumba, if you will.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, my problem was that we 19 have raised a Motion to Suppress statements that 20 they allegedly took from the Defendant, and we
21 were, the Court indicated that we would have a
22 hearing. So that is what I would like to have is 23 a, an admissibility hearing.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, and you filed a written
25 Motion to Suppress, and that written Motion to 26 Suppress based on the illegality of the arrest; is 27 that correct, or if there was an arrest, that it
28 was illegal?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Right.

1 BY THE COURT: Did I misstate that?

2 BY MR. EVANS: I can't even remember what the
3 grounds of the Motion were.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It was the arrest for sure.

5 BY THE COURT: Well, isn't there a debate as 6 to whether there was an arrest when this took
7 place?

8 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Right.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, that's what I am saying.
11 If there was an arrest, you say it was illegal.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

13 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

14 BY THE COURT: Yes.

15 JACK MATTHEWS,

16 a white male previously called to testify as a witness by the 17 State and having been previously sworn, now testified on 18 behalf of the State on Defendant's Motion to Suppress with 19 the JURY OUT as follows, to-wit:

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS ON MOTION TO SUPPRESS: JURY
21 OUT.

22 Q. Mr. Matthews, at the time that you talked to Curtis
23 Flowers, was he under arrest?

24 A. No, sir. He was not.

25 Q. Was he free to leave?

26 A. Yes, sir; he was.

27 Q. Did he, in fact, leave after you interviewed him?

28 A. Yes, he did.

29 Q. Now at the time that you talked to him, did you, in

1 fact, advise him of what is commonly called his Miranda
2 rights?

3 A. Yes, sir. He was brought to the Winona Police
4 Department at our request. He came voluntarily, but because
5 he was at the police department, we told him that we were 6 going to read him his rights and that we wanted to talk to 7 him about his employment at Tardy Furniture Company.

8 Q. I will hand you Exhibit 67 and ask you if you can
9 identify this, please.

10 A. That is his warning and his waiver of rights that 11 we gave to him on the 16th of July. This waiver was signed
12 at 1:30.

13 Q. At the time he was asked to come to the police
14 department, was he even considered a suspect?

15 A. We knew that, we had had information that he had 16 been employed at Tardy Furniture Company and had been 17 recently let go, and we wanted to talk to him about that.

18 Q. But he was not under arrest and was not even 19 officially considered a suspect at that time; is that
20 correct?

21 A. No, sir, not at that time.

22 Q. The rights form that is in front of you, is that 23 the same rights form that you used to advise the Defendant of 24 his rights?

25 A. Yes, it is.

26 Q. And who was present when you advised him of those
27 rights?

28 A. I was present and John Johnson.

29 Q. Is that form in the same condition now as it was in

1 at the time you advised him and as y'all-- other than the
2 fact that it now has y'all's signatures to it?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 BY MR. EVANS: I offer this form into
5 evidence, Your Honor.

6 BY THE COURT: Any objection to that?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked into
9 evidence.

10 (WARNING AND WAIVER OF RIGHTS SIGNED ON
11 7/16/96 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-67
12 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q. Mr. Matthews, did you, in fact, advise the 15 Defendant of the rights that are contained on that form?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. Did he appear to understand those rights?

18 A. Yes, he did.

19 Q. Did you use any pressure or any type of coercion to 20 get him to talk to you?

21 A. No, sir. I did not.

22 Q. Did you make any force or use any threat of force
23 to get him to cooperate with you?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Did it appear to you that he understood that he was 26 free to go and that he had a right to talk to you if he would
27 like to, but he didn't have to talk to you?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Once he had signed that form stating that he wished

1 to waive his rights and talk to you, did he, in fact, talk to
2 you?

3 A. Yes, he did.

4 Q. Did he, in fact, make a verbal statement to you
5 that day?

6 A. Yes, he did.

7 Q. And did he on another day come up there on his own
8 and make another statement?

9 A. Yes, sir; he did.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness.

11 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA: JURY OUT.

12 Q. Mr. Matthews, my understanding is that Mr. Curtis
13 Flowers was taken into the, or that he was, you saw him-- did
14 you go to his home, or did you see him somewhere else that 15 day on the 16th?

16 A. The first time I saw Mr. Flowers was at the Winona
17 Police Department.

18 Q. Okay. So he was at the police department; is that
19 correct?

20 A. I was already there when he came.

21 Q. Okay, and did some officers come with him?

22 A. I believe that's correct.

23 Q. In fact, the highway patrolman by the name of 24 Dennis Woods and Officer Townsend were with him. Is that
25 true?

26 A. I know Mr. Woods was with him. I don't know about 27 the other officer.

28 Q. So you don't know what Mr. Woods and Mr. Townsend
29 told him prior to him coming, do you?

1 A. (No audible response.)

2 Q. Do you know what Mr. Woods and Mr. Townsend told
3 him?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. But they are the ones that escorted him to the
6 police department?

7 A. Yes, sir. I know what he told me but-- I mean I
8 know what Officer Woods told me but.

9 Q. All right, but you don't know what he told Mr.--

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. Mr. Flowers; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. So you really
14 don't know what he was told that caused him to leave his home
15 with them; is that true?

16 A. (No response.)

17 Q. You don't know what he was told to cause him to 18 leave his home with them?

19 A. I know that they asked him to come up to the police
20 department.

21 Q. Well, you don't--

22 A. --I know that part.

23 Q. You weren't there, so you don't know.

24 A. Well, that is true.

25 Q. Okay. So but you do know that they came in, and he 26 didn't come in by himself. He came in with two officers;
27 isn't that true?

28 A. I know they drove him up there; yes, sir.

29 Q. And now as far as the facts that you had under your

1 disposal at this time, this was on July the 16th, 1996. Is
2 that true?

3 A. That's true.

4 Q. At that time you had not gathered any kind of
5 physical evidence which in any way pointed to Mr. Flowers,
6 had you?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. It would be safe to say that you didn't have any 9 witnesses who were saying that Mr. Flowers was involved;
10 isn't that true?

11 A. Not at that time, no, sir.

12 Q. And in fact, that never changed. You never did get
13 a witness that said that they saw Mr. Flowers in the store
14 doing anything on that day, did you?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Now in fact, you never did get a witness that said
17 that they saw Mr. Flowers--

18 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
19 relevant to this motion.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think it is.

21 BY THE COURT: State your question again.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Maybe a word of explanation
23 might help him. Me and the counsel were talking,
24 and we thought that maybe we would deal with -- I
25 think they may tend to-- they may want to introduce 26 more than just one statement, and maybe if we can
27 cover all the statements--

28 BY THE COURT: Yeah, if we are into more than 29 one statement, I want to cover them all with this

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 motion at one time.

2 BY MR. EVANS: That is still-- that is fine,
3 Your Honor. That's what I thought we were doing.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, that is why my
5 question is the way it is.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay, I did not understand your
7 question. Restate it.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. My question is at this time, first of all which 10 would have been the 16th, you didn't actually have any
11 witness who said that they actually saw Mr., Mr. Flowers
12 doing anything wrong anywhere, either in Tardy's or anywhere
13 else, did you?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. And you never did come up with a witness that 16 actually said that they saw Mr. Flowers doing anything wrong
17 in Tardy's or anywhere else, did you?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Now and you never came up with any physical
20 evidence that, like fingerprints or anything which positively
21 placed him in the store. Isn't that true?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Now let me ask you this. At the time that you--
24 you didn't even have a shoe box at the time that you sat down
25 with him on the 16th; is that correct?

26 A. I didn't understand that question.

27 Q. On the 16th of July, you didn't even have a shoe
28 box; is that correct? You hadn't taken any shoe boxes from 29 his home, had you?

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. Okay, and you hadn't taken any, any other kind of 3 evidence from his home at that point?

4 A. The first time I saw Mr. Flowers that day was at 5 the Winona Police Department. I never did go to his home.

6 Q. Okay. When I said you, I'm talking about as far as 7 to your knowledge, the police hadn't taken anything to his 8 home at least -- no police agency had taken anything from his
9 home which they had brought to your attention?

10 A. On the 16th I wasn't aware that anybody had been to 11 his home.

12 Q. Well, you knew somebody went to his home to talk to 13 him to bring him up there; isn't that correct?

14 A. I don't think they located him at his home.

15 Q. Okay. Okay, now let me ask you this. So you
16 pretty much told us what you had or basically what you didn't 17 have on the 16th. Now by the way, did you do anything to 18 record electronically the advice of rights on the 16th?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. Did you do anything to record anything he told you
21 on that date?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. At the time that he was there, was he the only 24 person that was there, or were there other people who were 25 being taken in as suspects?

26 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. He said
27 he was not taken in as a suspect, and that is an 28 improper statement.

29 BY THE COURT: Well, the jury is not here. Go

1 ahead.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4 Q. Were there other people there?

5 A. There were-- Mr. Johnson was there, and I was 6 there, and Mr. Flowers was there. There were some other
7 people in the police department there.

8 Q. Was Mr. Doyle Simpson there?

9 A. I don't know that he was there at that time.

10 Q. Did he get there before Mr. Flowers left?

11 A. We talked to him some time, and I'm not sure as to 12 the sequence of when he got there as compared to when we 13 talked to Mr. Flowers.

14 Q. At that moment in time he didn't say anything to 15 you which suggested that Mr. Flowers had done anything
16 illegal; isn't that right?

17 A. Who are you referring to?

18 Q. Doyle Simpson.

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. And they could have been there at the same time is 21 what you are telling me; is that correct?

22 A. It's a possibility they could have been in the 23 building; yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay, now that was the first date. Now when is the 25 second date that you-- did you do anything to record what
26 your conversation or your interview or interrogation with Mr.
27 Flowers included? Did you do anything to record that on the 28 16th?

29 A. On the 16th?

1 Q. Yeah.

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did you do-- you didn't write it down or anything?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Now on the next day that you were present that he
6 actually was interviewed or interrogated, what day was that?

7 A. The next time I talked to Mr. Flowers was on July
8 the 18th.

9 Q. And were you the only one that was talking to him?

10 A. No, sir. Myself and DA Investigator, John Johnson,
11 and the MHP Investigator, H. W. Miller.

12 Q. About what time was that?

13 A. I don't remember the exact time.

14 Q. And do you know at that moment in time on the 18th,
15 would it be safe to say that you didn't have any other
16 physical evidence that you didn't have, that you hadn't --
17 you didn't have any more physical evidence than you did on 18 the 16th. Isn't that true?

19 A. We had done some investigating, and we had talked
20 to some people, and we wanted to talk to Curtis again, and at 21 that time we recorded his statement.

22 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. First of all, I
23 don't think that, and I'm not complaining but I would just 24 like to get it. That is interesting to know also, but had 25 you any other physical evidence other than what you had on-- 26 you already stated you didn't have any physical evidence that 27 implicated him on the 16th. You have already said that;
28 right?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Did you have any physical evidence that implicated
2 him on the 18th? That was my question.

3 A. No, sir. We didn't have any physical evidence.

4 Q. Now how did he get to the station on the 18th?

5 A. I'm not sure.

6 Q. You didn't bring him?

7 A. I didn't bring him myself; no, sir.

8 Q. And was he advised of any rights on the 18th?

9 A. Yes, sir. We advised him of his rights.

10 Q. And you have that in writing?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And let me ask you this. On the 16th when he was 13 advised of his rights, did he sign that?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay, can I see it, please?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Now you said that on the 16th that he was supposed
18 to be free to leave. That's what you said; right? You just 19 testified to that?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this.

22 A. He did leave when we got through talking.

23 Q. He left when you got finished talking; right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Which does not necessarily mean that he would have 26 been free to leave before you talked; right?

27 A. He was free to leave at any time.

28 Q. But the fact that he left when you got finished
29 talking and a person leaves when you get finished talking

1 does not mean that you haven't told them that they have to
2 stay until you talk, does it?

3 A. I never told him that.

4 Q. Well, do you understand my question?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Well, leaving at the end of the conversation does
7 not prove that he was free to leave at the beginning of the 8 conversation, does it? In and of itself?

9 A. I don't follow that.

10 Q. Okay. You didn't record what you were telling him,
11 did you? Did you record anything that you said to him that
12 day?

13 A. When?

14 Q. On the 16th. That's the day we have just been
15 talking about.

16 A. No, sir. I told, I answered that while ago. I
17 didn't, we didn't tape record anything, and we didn't record
18 anything. I didn't.

19 Q. When he walked in the door, you didn't say, "You
20 are free to leave," did you?

21 A. No, sir. I didn't say that.

22 Q. And you don't know of your own knowledge what the 23 other officers had told him. So you didn't tell him he was 24 free to leave; isn't that correct?

25 A. I know no officer in the room that was there said
26 anything, made that statement.

27 Q. But you were in-- no officer who was in the room
28 made the statement, "You are free to leave." That's true;
29 right?

1 A. We told him, we read him his rights, and it says in
2 here that, you know.

3 Q. In the rights?

4 A. That he could, that the rights form, that he could
5 stop talking at any time.

6 Q. The rights form doesn't say, You are free to leave,
7 does it?

8 A. No, sir. It doesn't say that, but it says you can
9 stop talking at any time.

10 Q. And in fact, the rights forms are usually read to 11 people who are suspects; right?

12 A. Well, we made it clear that he was there
13 voluntarily, that we wanted to talk to him and what we wanted
14 to talk to him about.

15 Q. All right, did you tell him he was free to leave?
16 That's what I'm trying to get to, this voluntarily stuff?

17 A. We told him that he was, that we would like to talk
18 to him. We would like to talk to him about his employment at 19 Tardy Furniture, and if he would agree to talk with us, and 20 he voluntarily agreed to talk with us.

21 Q. Right. And that is all he voluntarily agreed to 22 do, right, is to talk to you; right?

23 A. He talked to us; yes, sir.

24 Q. Right. And so you tell people who are there and 25 locked up and who can't leave, you read them the same rights
26 form, don't you?

27 A. That's correct.

28 Q. And it says the same thing about they can
29 voluntarily stop talking to you?

1 A. At any time they want.

2 Q. So it's nothing in the rights form that tells him
3 he is free to leave and not under arrest? That is nothing in 4 there that says that; right?

5 A. We told him in the beginning he was not under 6 arrest.

7 Q. Okay. Oh, you said that, did you?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay, who said that?

10 A. I said it.

11 Q. You said, "You are not under arrest"?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay. And you said, but you didn't say you were
14 free to leave?

15 A. I don't remember that I said that.

16 Q. Well, when he came into the door, how did you
17 confront him? Did you say anything to him or approach him or 18 greet him in any way?

19 A. I introduced myself to him.

20 Q. Did anybody else there introduce themselves?

21 A. Mr. Johnson.

22 Q. Okay, how many of them-- there was three. I think
23 you have already said it was three of them; is that right?

24 A. I know Mr. Johnson and I were there on the 16th.

25 Q. Okay. But you didn't greet him in any kind of way
26 other than just say hello?

27 A. I just, I introduced myself to him. I told him
28 who I was, and I told him why, you know, that I wanted to 29 talk with him, and I asked him if he would agree to talk with

1 us.

2 Q. Now normally when you-- did you make him at home to
3 the extent that you shook his hand?

4 A. No, sir. I did not shake his hand.

5 Q. And Mr. Johnson didn't shake his hand?

6 A. Not that I know of.

7 Q. Okay, so you didn't greet him? You didn't make him
8 feel that welcome, did you?

9 A. Well, no.

10 Q. Okay, and would it be safe to say that the others
11 didn't, or you didn't see that either?

12 A. I didn't see anybody shake hands with him; no, sir.

13 Q. Okay, and you don't know whether or not the other
14 people let him know that they weren't arresting him, Mr.
15 Townsend and Mr. Woods. You don't know that they shook--

16 A. --I don't know; no, sir.

17 Q. That wouldn't be unusual to shake a person's hand
18 that you are getting ready to interview, would it?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
20 relevant to what we are here on.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, you have established that
22 point. Let's move on.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Now let me ask you this. So in any event, you were 26 in the police station?

27 A. Sir?

28 Q. You were in the police station?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 us.

2 Q. Now normally when you-- did you make him at home to
3 the extent that you shook his hand?

4 A. No, sir. I did not shake his hand.

5 Q. And Mr. Johnson didn't shake his hand?

6 A. Not that I know of.

7 Q. Okay, so you didn't greet him? You didn't make him
8 feel that welcome, did you?

9 A. Well, no.

10 Q. Okay, and would it be safe to say that the others
11 didn't, or you didn't see that either?

12 A. I didn't see anybody shake hands with him; no, sir.

13 Q. Okay, and you don't know whether or not the other
14 people let him know that they weren't arresting him. Mr.
15 Townsend and Mr. Woods, you don't know that they shook--

16 A. --I don't know, sir.

17 Q. That wouldn't be unusual to shake a person's hand
18 that you are getting ready to interview--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
20 relevant to what we are here on.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, you have established that
22 point. Let's move on.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Now let me ask you this. So in any event, you were 26 in the police station?

27 A. Sir?

28 Q. You were in the police station?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. What room were you in in the police station?

2 A. They have a room there that DA investigators
3 occupy, and that's the room we were in.

4 Q. About how big is that room?

5 A. Probably, maybe 15 by 15, I would say.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. Approximately.

8 Q. And he didn't have anybody in there with him other
9 than, that was not a police officer?

10 A. There was Mr. Johnson, myself and Mr. Flowers.

11 Q. On the 18th -- did you talk to him on the 17th
12 also?

13 A. No, sir. I didn't talk to him.

14 Q. Were you advised as to whether or not he had been 15 talked to on the 17th?

16 A. No, sir. I don't know that he had been talked to.

17 Q. On the 17th where did you interview him at?

18 A. I didn't interview him on the 17th.

19 Q. On the 18th where did you interview him at?

20 A. In the same place.

21 Q. Same room?

22 A. Same room.

23 Q. Same people?

24 A. Same people. Officer Miller was there that day
25 also.

26 Q. You interviewed him again on the 23rd; is that
27 correct?

28 A. No, sir. I didn't interview him on the 23rd.

29 Q. Okay. Did anybody interview him on the 23rd in

1 your presence?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. On the 23rd-- do you recognize this document here?
4 It has your name on it?

5 A. (Pause while witness looks at document.) This is on
6 the 16th.

7 Q. I am just asking you do you recognize the document?
8 It has your name on it.

9 A. It's the first time I have seen it.

10 Q. Okay, so you don't, you also don't recognize then 11 this page here which says July 23rd at 12:12 hours at the 12 Winona Police Department? The Defendant was given his 13 Miranda warnings which were signed at 12:15, and he further 14 signed the rights form at 12:15. The waiver was witnessed by 15 Jack Matthews. Are you Jack Matthews?

16 A. I am Jack Matthews.

17 Q. So you don't know anything about being on the 23rd,
18 witnessing that?

19 A. I don't know what this document is. It's the first
20 time I have seen it.

21 Q. Okay, so if there is a waiver form signed on the 22 23rd, you don't know anything about it; is that right?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. And you didn't see him on the 23rd to the best of 25 your knowledge?

26 A. I might have, but I don't remember if I did.

27 BY MR. HORAN: Mr. Lumumba, can I see the
28 document?

29 (Document handed to State's Counsel.

1 Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. On the 16th, do you recall who supplied the
4 instrument in which he signed the rights waiver form with? A
5 pen or a pencil or whatever it was. Was it a pen or pencil,
6 or do you know?

7 A. It appears to be a pen. I'm not, I don't know who 8 supplied it.

9 Q. You do have pens at the station for that purpose?

10 A. I am sure they do.

11 Q. So how long did you spend with him on the 16th
12 before you, before he left that building?

13 A. We were there probably somewhere in the 14 neighborhood of thirty minutes.

15 Q. How much time was he in that room on the 18th?

16 A. Probably about the same amount of time, maybe a
17 little bit longer.

18 Q. Was he taken anywhere else by you or by anybody
19 else on the 18th other than the police station?

20 A. Seems like on the 18th we gave him a ride back to 21 his house.

22 Q. There was a guy by the name of Robert who conducted
23 some kind-- Jennings who conducted some kind of exam on the 24 18th; is that correct?

25 A. Yes, possibly so, yeah.

26 Q. Pardon?

27 A. I think so; yes, sir.

28 Q. Did you take him to that Robert, or did Robert come
29 to him?

1 A. He was there at the police department.

2 Q. And who is he?

3 A. He is an investigator with the DA's office.

4 Q. Did you talk to Mr.-- did you talk to Mr. Flowers
5 on any other days other than the days that we have talked
6 about to this extent, to this point?

7 A. I talked to him on the 16th and on the 18th.

8 Q. Any other days?

9 A. Possibly I did, but I don't recall.

10 Q. And on neither one of those days are you the one
11 that actually escorted him or carried him into the station;
12 is that true? On neither of those days did you actually 13 bring him to the station?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. And on neither of those days do you have any 16 personal knowledge as to whether or not the person who 17 brought him to the station, you don't know what they said of 18 your personal knowledge?

19 A. I was not there with them; no, sir.

20 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

21 Q. Okay, a final question at this time, when he came 22 in on the 16th, did you have any gloves on?

23 A. On the 16th?

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that hasn't got 25 anything to do with what this motion is about.

26 BY THE COURT: No, it's not. You can get into 27 that later. I know where you are going with it.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Did you have any, did you have a weapon?

1 BY MR. EVANS: That also has nothing--

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, that does have
3 something to do with it because it has something to 4 do with whether--

5 BY THE COURT: --That could be. I will allow
6 that.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. Did you have a weapon?

9 A. Was I wearing a weapon?

10 Q. Yes. Did you have a weapon in your possession on 11 the 16th?

12 A. No, I did not.

13 Q. Okay, where was it at?

14 A. In my vehicle.

15 Q. And had you at any point in time had that weapon in 16 his presence?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. How long had it been in your vehicle?

19 A. Years.

20 Q. I'm talking about that day. You don't ever carry a
21 weapon on your person?

22 A. Sometimes. I didn't that day.

23 Q. Okay. And do you know whether Mr. Johnson had a
24 weapon?

25 A. I don't know.

26 Q. And do you know whether Mr. Miller had a weapon?

27 A. I don't know either.

28 Q. He was there though; right, at some point in time?

29 A. He was there on the 16th, but I don't think he was

1 at the interview that we conducted that day with Mr.
2 Flowers. I think he was in the area or may have been in the
3 police department.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
5 questions of this officer at this time.

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS: JURY OUT.

7 Q. Mr. Matthews, you did, in fact, advise the 8 Defendant before you started that he was not under arrest; is
9 that correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And in fact, he did leave at the end of that 12 interview?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. He came back to the police department several times
15 on his own, did he not?

16 A. Yes, he did.

17 Q. And in those times, sometimes y'all talked to him--
18 and Your Honor, for the record I want to make sure the record
19 is clear that the jury is not present. One of those times he 20 came in--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Can we get a
22 question instead of leading questions, please?

23 BY THE COURT: The jury is not in here. I
24 want to hear what is going on. Go ahead.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

26 BY MR. EVANS:

27 Q. One of those times he even voluntarily came up
28 there on his own and submitted to a polygraph test, did he 29 not?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And these occasions he knew and none of these
3 occasions he was under arrest; is that right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And on all these occasions he was free to go after 6 that was over?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And it was approximately a year later before he was
9 arrested?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point...

12 (Pause while State's Counsel confer.)

13 Q. Just to make sure that the record is clear and that 14 the Judge knows what is going on, the 23rd-- wait, let me get 15 this other document too so you can look at it.

16 BY MR. EVANS: May I have this item marked for 17 identification, Your Honor?

18 BY THE COURT: Yes.

19 (CONSENT FOR POLYGRAPH TEST WAS MARKED AS 20 STATE'S EXHIBIT S-106 FOR IDENTIFICATION. NOTE:
21 JURY IS STILL OUT.)

22 (Exhibit S-106 shown to Mr. Lumumba.)

23 BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. I show you Exhibit 106 and Exhibit 66. And I will
25 just ask you if the 23rd is, in fact, the day he voluntarily
26 came in and took the polygraph test?

27 A. Yes, sir. I was under the mistake that he had 28 taken it on the 18th, but it was the 23rd.

29 Q. And the 18th was the day that he came back in on

1 his own, and you took the taped statement; is that correct?

2 A. That's correct. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And actually in neither the initial interview that
4 you just interviewed him or the statement did he incriminate
5 himself, did he?

6 A. No, sir. He did not.

7 BY MR. EVANS: That's all, Your Honor.

8 TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE STATE ON MOTION WAS 9 CONCLUDED, BUT WITNESS REMAINED ON THE STAND.

10 BY THE COURT: Do you have any other witnesses
11 on this point?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, I am asking him.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Not at this point. We would 15 like for him to proceed at this point, and we 16 will--

17 BY THE COURT: Well, I hold that the State has 18 established a prima facie case to this point. Do
19 you have any witnesses on this?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I have one at this 21 time. Let me ask you; these two officers who the 22 officer claims transported him to the station, they 23 are not here right now, are they?

24 BY MR. EVANS: No.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Yeah, we do have a
26 witness on this point, but I also want to submit an
27 exhibit. Do you have the-- I know it's an exhibit
28 in evidence here already, I believe. It's the test
29 - what do you call it? - residue test done.

1                   BY THE COURT: It is there. I remember him
2                   having it on the--

3                   BY MR. EVANS: --Gunshot residue?

4                   BY THE COURT: Yeah.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, where is that?

6                   BY MR. EVANS: It's right here.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, is this it? I believe
8                   there is a document that comes with this that is 9                   signed by the Defendant. Do we have that?

10                  BY MR. HORAN: It may be inside.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: May be inside?

12                  (Pause while Mr. Lumumba examines Exhibit
13                  S-86.)

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would recall Mr.
15                  Matthews in my case to start off with on this issue
16                  and just ask him a couple of questions.

17                  BY THE COURT: Yeah, but we are on the 18                  statement now. We are not on the--

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, this is just the 20                  statement. This is the statement. And it's 21                  definitely, this has to do with the statement of 22                  whether he was-- can I ask the questions?

23                  BY THE COURT: Sure.

24                                 JACK MATTHEWS,

25                  a white male again called to testify, this time on behalf of 26                  the Defendant on his Motion to Suppress, having been 27                  previously sworn, testified further with the JURY OUT as
28                  follows, to-wit:

29                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1 Q. You indicated that Mr., Mr. Flowers was not a
2 suspect on that day; is that correct?

3 A. No, he was not on that day.

4 Q. Okay. Now let me see. I'm going to show you a
5 document which is actually marked. I don't think we have to 6 have it remarked. It is part of Exhibit S-86, and ask you
7 what date that was?

8 A. That is on the 16th.

9 Q. Who is that signed by?

10 A. That is signed by me.

11 Q. Okay, and I want to refer you to this line here in 12 this document, and what that is is an official document about 13 the gunshot residue test, but it was taken on that same day?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. And you indicated he left and he wasn't a 16 suspect; right?

17 A. (No response.)

18 Q. I am asking you what you indicated before. You
19 just told me he wasn't a suspect?

20 A. Yes, sir. He was not a suspect.

21 Q. Right here it says, "Suspect was at his residence 22 prior to questioning. Activities unknown." Isn't that what 23 it says?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And the suspect you were talking about, isn't that
26 the same as Curtis Flowers?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And then right up here it says, "Suspect is living"
29 or I guess this is supposed to be living or dead, but you

1 checked "living"; is that correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. "Suspect is right handed." Is that correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Now the thing where it says suspect up here, it
6 also says "Suspect's full name." And whose name did you put
7 in there?

8 A. Curtis Flowers. This is the only form that comes 9 with this evidence kit, and this is the only thing that we 10 have to go by to--

11 Q. --Okay, well, you know more, you know how to use
12 more words than "suspect." You could say Flowers. You know
13 how to write "Flowers" as opposed to "suspect" yourself;
14 right? You know how to do that?

15 A. I just filled in the blanks on the form; yes, sir.

16 Q. Well, yes, but you wrote the word "suspect," didn't
17 you?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. There is nothing about the form that requires you
20 to write the word "suspect" here, does it?

21 A. Well, it asks for suspect information. So.

22 Q. But if he wasn't a suspect, you certainly could
23 have just said Flowers; is that right?

24 A. I guess I could have.

25 Q. Did you?

26 A. No, sir. I believe I wrote "suspect," didn't I?

27 Q. Okay. And if he was not a suspect, there is 28 nothing also that required you to use this form; isn't that
29 correct?

1           A.    Well, I had to use that form.  It's the only form
2 we have for gunshot residue.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Is this in evidence?

4                   BY MR. HORAN:  Look at the tag.

5                   BY THE COURT:  I don't think it is.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  For purposes--

7                   BY THE COURT:  --The fact is I know it's not.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  For purposes of this hearing,
9 I would move for its evidence admission, just for 10 purposes of this hearing.

11                   BY MR. EVANS:  No objection.

12                   BY THE COURT:  Okay.

13                   BY MR. EVANS:  We can go ahead, if you don't 14 have any objection, we can go ahead and just mark
15 the whole thing into evidence anyway.

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, I do have--

17                   BY THE COURT:  --He is going to have another
18 objection to that.

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I will have an objection to 20 that, okay.  Okay, so I have--

21                   BY THE COURT:  --Wait a minute.  Let's mark it
22 as evidence for this hearing.  Did you do that?

23                   BY THE COURT REPORTER:  Put another sticker on
24 it?

25                   BY THE COURT:  It needs a sticker showing it
26 has been marked as an exhibit to this hearing as an 27 exhibit on the Motion to Suppress.

28                   BY THE COURT REPORTER:  Give it a new number?

29                   BY THE COURT:  Well, your sticker should read

1           that it is a D-1 on the Motion to Suppress would be
2           my idea how it ought to be.

3           BY MR. EVANS: It might be a little simpler,
4           Your Honor, if she would just put this sticker on 5           the form he is talking about instead of the 6           package. That way we won't have a different
7           sticker on the package.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: That would be okay. It
9           doesn't really matter to me, Judge. I don't have 10          any problem.

11          (GUNSHOT RESIDUE TEST WHICH WAS ALSO MARKED
12          AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-86 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS 13          REMARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-1 IN EVIDENCE TO 14          THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS. HOWEVER, AS WILL BE SHOWN
15          DURING THE NEXT DAY OF TRIAL, THE DEFENDANT'S
16          EXHIBIT STICKER WAS REMOVED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE 17          JURY SEEING THE PACKAGE AND SHOULD BE REPLACED UPON
18          APPEAL.)

19          BY THE COURT: Well, it is marked. Now let's
20          go on. Any more questions for him?

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no other questions of
22          this witness.

23          BY THE COURT: Do y'all have any questions of 24          him at this time?

25          BY MR. EVANS: No.

26          BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Matthews you
27          will have to go back to the witness room right now.

28                       WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would call Mr. Flowers.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Flowers, I can't
2                   remember; were you sworn at the first of this
3                   trial?

4                   BY THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

5                   BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand.
6                   (Defendant was sworn by the Court.)

7                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there. Can I
8                   see y'all at the bench first. This is on an 9                   administrative matter. It has nothing to do with 10                  this. I don't need this on the record.

11                  (Off the record.)

12                  BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Lumumba you may
13                  proceed.

14                               CURTIS GIOVANNI FLOWERS,
15                  a black male called to testify as a witness in his own behalf
16                  on Defendant's Motion to Suppress, having first been duly 17                  sworn, testified with the JURY OUT as follows, to-wit:

18                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA: JURY OUT.

19                  Q. Mr. Flowers, I just want to ask you a few questions
20                  here. I want to call your attention to July the 16th, 1996.
21                  At some point in time did you see any police officers that
22                  day?

23                  A. Yes, I did.

24                  Q. And where were they at?

25                  A. At my home.

26                  Q. And tell me who they were?

27                  A. Highway Patrolman Dennis Woods and Officer Townsend
28                  with the Winona Police Department.

29                  Q. With the Winona Police Department?

1 A. Yes, they were.

2 Q. And you were at home when you saw them?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And could you tell me if they -- what happened?

5 A. Well, they pulled up in the Highway Patrolman's
6 car, and they come up and knocked on the door, and I let them
7 in, and we spoke and shook hands. And Dennis Woods, Officer,
8 State Highway Patrolman Dennis Woods told me that I needed to 9 come with them.

10 Q. He said you needed to come with them?

11 A. Yes, he did.

12 Q. Did he give you any options or tell you you didn't 13 have to come?

14 A. No, he didn't.

15 Q. And so did you interpret that as, that you had to 16 go?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you go?

19 A. Yes, I went.

20 Q. Did you ever arrive at the police station?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. And at any point in time did anybody at the police
23 station tell you that you didn't have to stay or you could
24 leave?

25 BY MR. HORAN: Objection, Your Honor. He is 26 leading his witness.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no problem with
28 that.

29 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

1 come by the house in K-9 truck, and he told me that I needed
2 to come down to the station. They wanted to talk with me. I
3 told him I was baby sitting, and he told me that I had to 4 bring the kids with me, but I needed to come down.

5 Q. Did you go?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. And on that time on the 18th, did anyone at the 8 station say anything one way or the other as to whether you
9 had to remain?

10 A. No, they didn't.

11 Q. Okay. And did you have an opinion as to whether 12 you had to be there?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What was your opinion?

15 A. That I had to be there.

16 Q. Okay. On the 23rd, did you ever go to the police
17 station or anywhere else?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And where was that?

20 A. At the Winona Police Department.

21 Q. Okay, and at any time on the 23rd-- how did you get 22 there on the 23rd?

23 A. Uh.

24 Q. You had already been there twice; right?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. At least. Did you go more than twice or just 27 twice?

28 A. I was, I was dropped off down there on the 23rd by 29 Troy Yates.

1 Q. Okay, and why did you come?

2 A. They wanted to talk to me and give another
3 statement, and then they took me to Carrollton to do a
4 fingerprinting.

5 Q. Okay. And how did you get to Carrollton? What
6 kind of transportation?

7 A. Mr. Matthews and Mr. Miller.

8 Q. Okay. What was your feeling as to whether or not 9 it was in your discretion to refuse to come down there for 10 the fingerprinting?

11 A. Well, I was told I had to come.

12 Q. And on the 23rd, was there at any time when someone 13 was asking you questions about whether you went to, had been
14 by Anguilla-- what do you call it? Anguilla?

15 A. Angelica.

16 Q. Yeah, Angelica factory.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And who was asking you those questions?

19 A. Mr. John Johnson and Mr. Matthews.

20 Q. Okay, and at that particular time on the 23rd, did
21 either one of them indicate to you that you didn't have to be
22 there or you were free to leave?

23 A. No, they did not.

24 Q. Were you in the police station or somewhere else?

25 A. In the police station.

26 Q. Then when you went to Carrollton, were you also in 27 a law enforcement facility?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions

1 on that issue.

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN: JURY OUT.

3 Q. Mr. Flowers, you admit here today that when the two
4 officers arrived, that they did not read you your rights, and
5 they did not arrest you at that time, did they?

6 A. Well, they did not read me my rights.

7 Q. They didn't tell you that you were charged with 8 murder or anything like that--

9 A. They just told me that I had to come with them.

10 Q. They asked you to come down there, did they not?

11 A. They didn't ask me. They told me I had to come
12 with them.

13 Q. And when you got down there, you say you greeted 14 some people there?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And Mr. Matthews and Mr. Johnson are two of those 17 individuals that--

18 A. --That's correct.

19 Q. And they told you you were not under arrest. At 20 that time you were not served with a warrant, were you?

21 A. No, they just told me they wanted to talk with me.

22 Q. And after they talked to you, they let you go?
23 They told you you could leave?

24 A. Yes, they did.

25 Q. Did they inquire as to whether or not you needed a
26 ride or not?

27 A. No, they didn't. I walked back home.

28 Q. Okay, well, you didn't ask--

29 A. --I asked for a ride. But he told me they had to

1 go somewhere else, that I had to walk.

2 Q. And on the 18th -- you went home and two days later
3 they called your residence or got up with you; right?

4 A. On the 18th?

5 Q. On the 18th.

6 A. No, they did not.

7 Q. How did they get up with you?

8 A. Jerry Yates. Officer Yates came by.

9 Q. Jerry Yates, was he an officer at that time?

10 A. Yeah, he was in the K-9 field for that time.

11 Q. And yeah, that's right. Jerry Yates, and that is 12 Troy Yates' brother; right?

13 A. That's right.

14 Q. And your daddy at that time worked for Troy Yates?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. You knew Jerry Yates; right?

17 A. I knew Jerry, yeah; Troy too.

18 Q. And it would be safe to say that Jerry would know
19 your whereabouts at that particular time. If he got up with 20 Troy and said--

21 A. --no, he wouldn't--

22 Q. --you know where Curtis is, don't you?

23 A. They don't know my whereabouts. They just know me.

24 Q. But Jerry, it would be safe to say that Jerry would 25 have some information about you that some of the other
26 officers may not have because of--

27 A. --well, Jerry--

28 Q. Please let me finish, and then we will go from
29 there?

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. Jerry is Troy's brother. Troy employed your
3 daddy. I mean it is quite possible that they contacted
4 Jerry Yates because they felt like - that is not uncommon -
5 that Mr. Yates may have more information where you were on 6 that particular date?

7 A. No.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. I don't think he
9 could read anybody else's mind.

10 BY MR. HORAN: I said safe to say, and this is
11 cross-examination.

12 BY THE COURT: I will allow it.

13 BY THE WITNESS:

14 A. Repeat the question.

15 Q. I mean it's not, it wouldn't be unusual for, if I
16 was trying to get up with you, that I would find someone that 17 may know your whereabouts on that particular day; right?

18 A. Well, yes, if they knew my whereabouts, but Jerry
19 didn't know my whereabouts. Neither did Troy.

20 Q. Okay. But on the 18th, they told you that you
21 would have to bring your children with you?

22 A. That's correct. That's what Mr. Yates told me.

23 Q. And you did that?

24 A. And he said, "I will watch them." Yes, I brought 25 my stepson with me.

26 Q. And you didn't think that you were under arrest at 27 that time, did you?

28 A. I didn't know what was going on. All he was doing,
29 he just told me they needed me down at the station.

1 Q. And they let you go on that particular day, did
2 they not?

3 A. Yes, they did.

4 Q. And on the 23rd, they let you go?

5 A. Yes, they did.

6 Q. And you were not arrested until what day? What day
7 were you actually picked up and served a warrant?

8 A. January the 13th of '97.

9 Q. And these two officers, they greeted you there at 10 your residence. That's your testimony?

11 A. Which two officers?

12 Q. The two officers the first day.

13 A. Yes, they did.

14 Q. Who were they?

15 A. Officers Woods and Officer Townsend.

16 Q. And they did not handcuff you?

17 A. No, they didn't.

18 Q. You did not get handcuffed on the 18th?

19 A. No, I didn't.

20 Q. And you did not get handcuffed on the 23rd?

21 A. No, I did not.

22 Q. The officers did not threaten you in any way on the 23 16th, did they?

24 A. No, they did not.

25 Q. And you are not telling this Court that that was 26 not a voluntary statement that you made. I mean you signed
27 that waiver?

28 A. Yes, I did.

29 Q. You read that waiver?

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. You understood that waiver?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. You were not coerced at that time. It's your
5 testimony that you weren't coerced into making the statement?

6 A. No, I was not.

7 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have none.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, you may return to your 10 seat.

11 DEFENDANT RETURNS TO COUNSEL TABLE.

12 BY THE COURT: Have you got any further
13 witnesses on this Motion?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir. I just have a brief
15 argument. The only one who would know what
16 happened when he was confronted by police officers
17 on the 16th for the first time has testified that 18 he was told that he needed to come to the station
19 by a person who is a law enforcement officer who
20 then proceeded to take him to the station.
21 Actually, he said it was two of them. He said that 22 he had no-- his view was that he had to come.

23 Miranda does not require that you be formally 24 put under arrest. It requires that you be in 25 police custody, and many cases have held that a
26 formal arrest is certainly not necessary in order
27 to bring about the rights that you have not to be 28 subjected to an illegal arrest. I think that he 29 was arrested even though-- if you are not free to

1           leave, you are arrested, and he was not free to
2           leave. He was told that he had to-- in one
3           instance he was even told that he had to bring the 4           children with him. So in neither situation was he 5           free to leave or given the impression that he was
6           free to leave.

7           As to what was said at the police station, one
8           officer has just testified, Mr. Matthews - who
9           can't remember that he was there on the 23rd
10          although we have just seen evidence that he was 11          present on the 23rd, so his memory apparently is 12          failing him a little bit on this issue - has 13          testified that he was told that. However, the 14          Defendant has clearly said he was not.

15          It is the State's burden whenever we challenge
16          a constitutionality of any particular arrest or 17          evidence or any other kind of procedures to prove,
18          it is their burden to show this Court that the 19          challenged evidence was taken legally. I think 20          they have failed this burden given the evidence in
21          question.

22          And then a final thing I would say is I wanted
23          the Court to keep in mind Brown v. Illinois which I
24          have a book here that cites, but Brown v. Illinois
25          says that the giving of Miranda rights, even if 26          they are voluntarily given and the statement is 27          voluntarily taken, does not vindicate or does not
28          alleviate the illegality of the arrest. Brown v.
29          Illinois is a very, is a case that made a pretty

1 clear pronouncement on the old fruit of the
2 poisonous tree doctrine which has been generated
3 long ago, I think in Wong Sun and all those other
4 cases that you read about in law school. But Brown
5 v. Illinois is a case of vintage sometime in the 6 60's or the 70's - I can't remember-- no, actually
7 -- no, I was practicing law when it came out. So
8 it had to be in the, like in the 70's or the 80's.
9 And Brown v. Illinois clearly states, and it's a
10 case where a person was given Miranda rights, no
11 question that he was given them, that he gave a
12 statement. And because the arrest was illegal, -
13 they didn't have enough information to arrest him
14 on at the time - they ruled that the, in the Brown
15 v. Illinois case, that the case, that the statement
16 had to be suppressed.

17 And one final thing I would point out. What 18 officers used to do a lot of times is they would 19 arrest you for an investigation of murder or 20 investigation of this and investigation of that.
21 And what they have-- and there was a ruling that 22 arresting somebody for the investigation of 23 something was totally illegal. And so what-- but 24 the same thing is accomplished if you take somebody
25 into custody, tell them they have to go or need to 26 go and that you are going, and you don't give them
27 a right or tell them that they have a right to 28 leave. The same thing is accomplished, so at that 29 point whether they arrest him for investigation or

1 not officially, it's still the same effect. And no
2 case has ever ruled that they have to officially
3 arrest you.

4 In fact, I'm not even sure; I think the 5 Miranda case is to the contrary. I don't even
6 think the person was arrested in the Miranda case
7 officially. If it was arrested officially in the 8 Miranda case, I know that there are several other
9 cases in the Miranda progeny where people were not 10 arrested. They were just detained.

11 BY THE COURT: Right. "Arrest" is not a magic 12 word. I understand that.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, to start with, in 14 this particular case the evidence is clear from 15 Jack Matthews that this Defendant was not under 16 arrest. He was not in custody. As a matter of 17 fact, the officers said that he specifically told
18 him that he was free to leave at any time he wanted
19 to. He was not under arrest.

20 Now the law is clear in this state that when a 21 person is not in custody, his rights do not have to 22 be advised to him at all. Of course, we are not 23 even on rights because he has freely and 24 voluntarily admitted in open court under oath that 25 he freely and voluntarily waived all of his 26 rights. He freely and voluntarily made these 27 statements. So to start with, he is not under 28 custody. He is not under arrest. He is free to 29 leave at any time. He is told he is not under

1           arrest. He was only there for a short period of
2           time, and all we had was a situation where officers
3           were trying to gather information from anybody
4           around town that they could that morning that had
5           any information that might point them in the right
6           direction. He happened to be one of the people
7           they talked to. He was not under arrest.

8           Even assuming, which he was not, but even 9           assuming the other things, the statements that he
10          gave are non-incriminating. Conner itself says
11          that if a statement is non-incriminating, none of 12          these apply anyway. But the main issue and the one
13          that I think is the one here before the Court today
14          is he was not under arrest.

15          He was not in custody. He was free to leave.
16          I think that is clearly proven by several facts.
17          One, the officer told him that; the other he was 18          only there for a few minutes. He left and he came 19          back several times on his own and talked to them at 20          different times and left after those times.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, my other rejoinder is 22          I also want to remind the Court that although the 23          officer says that he was free to leave and that he 24          wasn't suspect, the form that he signed says he was 25          a suspect. And there is no magic requirement to 26          use that form, and whenever I use a form which is 27          inapplicable to what I am doing, I just scratch out
28          the term that is inapplicable for the record and 29          put down what is applicable. And what would have

1           been applicable at that time is Curtis Flowers did
2           this; Curtis Flowers did that.

3           I have often seen polygraph tests where they
4           don't put the term in suspect. What they do is 5           they put in the term reflecting what the person's
6           name is or examinee or something of that nature.

7           But in any event, so I think that that is 8           where we have contrary evidence. So as to the 9           16th, I think it is a very powerful indication that
10          he was not free to go. And I don't know of any law
11          that says -- if they are using, if they are using
12          the statements against him in this trial, that is a
13          pretty good indication that they are 14          incriminating. Now they may not have been
15          statements of what we have termed quote, unquote
16          confessions, but any statement is privileged and is 17          not-- and the Fifth Amendment doesn't just protect
18          things that where you are consciously incriminating
19          yourself. The Fifth Amendment protects all
20          statements because the Fifth Amendment, as you well
21          know, the police can use statements in a variety of 22          ways in order to create the impression of guilt.
23          And for that reason it is pretty comprehensive in 24          that regard. I don't know of any law which has 25          said that that has been compromised.

26          BY THE COURT: All right, in the Court's 27          opinion this is not really a close call. The 28          Defendant has taken the stand and admitted that his 29          statement was, statements were freely and

1 voluntarily given. Even if the arrest were
2 illegal, Brown holds that that does not necessarily
3 automatically vitiate the confession. It goes into
4 the officer's misconduct. It has to take the test
5 of whether he was given his rights, and you go into 6 a lot of tests. Just the fact that an arrest is 7 illegal or a custodial thing, being taken into
8 custody was illegal, an illegal detention does not
9 in and of itself throw it out. There are other
10 factors that have to be considered.

11 I hold that one, he was not in custody. They 12 asked him or maybe told him to come to the police
13 station and picked him up, took him there. He was 14 only there 30 minutes. They let him leave after he 15 talked. He did not make an incriminating statement
16 on that day according to the testimony that is 17 before this Court. He was read his rights. Two 18 days later he was read his rights again. He also 19 made another statement. I don't recall there being 20 any testimony as to how long that statement took,
21 but anyhow apparently it was not incriminating.
22 And he himself testified that nobody told him he
23 could not leave, and apparently when it was over,
24 he left. And he apparently did that a third time
25 on the 23rd when he took a polygraph test. And 26 after that was over and I assume after the results
27 were read, he was once again released. And then he
28 was not arrested until, I believe the testimony -
29 y'all correct me if I am wrong - about 18 months

1 later. It was a substantial time after that.

2 So I hold he was not in custody. But I also
3 hold that if, in fact, he was in custody and if it
4 was illegal, the statement was still freely and
5 voluntarily given, and there is no law enforcement
6 misconduct that would invalidate the confession.
7 So the Motion to Suppress is overruled.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Before the jury comes back in,
9 Your Honor, I know you had ruled that you were 10 going to take another expert out of order.

11 BY THE COURT: No, I didn't.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, okay.

13 BY THE COURT: We are going to do it Monday.

14 BY MR. HORAN: Is he available Monday?

15 BY THE COURT: Yes. That's what he has told
16 me.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Okay.

18 BY THE COURT: Let's take a break.

19 (FOLLOWING A RECESS ON MARCH 26, 1999, THE 20 COURT AGAIN CONVENED IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL 21 COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND THE JURY PRESENT FOR 22 THE FOLLOWING:)

23 BY THE COURT: We have kind of reached one of 24 those points where we can stay a while or we can 25 quit for the day, and we would be a while if we 26 stayed. So I'm going to quit for the day, and we 27 will start back in the morning at 9 o'clock.

28 Now I give y'all the same instructions. I
29 know you are getting tired of hearing me say this,

1 but I'm going to do it every day. You still cannot
2 discuss this matter amongst yourselves nor with
3 anybody else nor let anybody discuss it with you or
4 in your presence. You must not, you cannot, as I
5 told you, you cannot read any newspapers. My
6 understanding is, and y'all tell me if I am wrong;
7 y'all can't get the local news, can you?

8 BY THE JURORS: No.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. I am confident this
10 won't be on national news. But if it is, y'all
11 don't look at it. Do not pay any attention to any 12 media coverage at all, and that is all based on the 13 fact you have to decide this case on what we are 14 doing in here.

15 Any further instructions from either side?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I have none, Judge.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Nothing from the State.

18 BY MR. EVANS: No.

19 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I will
20 see y'all in the morning at 9 o'clock.

21 JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

22 BY THE COURT: Let me make this statement
23 about what the situation is tomorrow. You might 24 tell whoever else is out in the hall, the only way
25 you are going to be able to get in here in the 26 morning is to come through this back door on the 27 west side of the courthouse. That will be the only 28 door that is open because we are going to be the 29 only ones here.

1 BY THE BAILIFF: Right in the middle of the
2 building on the west side.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, Court will be
4 adjourned until tomorrow.

2 IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT
3 PRESENT:)

4 (INTERVIEW WITH CURTIS FLOWERS BY JACK
5 MATTHEWS ON 7/18/96 WAS MARKED AS STATE'S S-107 FOR 6 IDENTIFICATION PRIOR TO THE START OF THE 7 PROCEEDINGS ON THIS DATE.)

8 BY THE COURT: Y'all ready to proceed?

9 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: Bring the jury in, and Mr.
11 Matthews needs to come to the stand.

12 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

13 BY THE COURT: Good morning.

14 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Evans, you may
16 proceed.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 JACK MATTHEWS,

19 having begun his testimony on the day previous and having 20 been previously sworn, testified further with the jury
21 present as follows:

22 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. All right, Mr. Matthews, I think where we were when
24 we stopped off with you yesterday, I was asking you if you
25 had an occasion to talk with the Defendant on the day of the 26 murders. Is that correct?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And did you have an occasion to talk with him that
29 day?

1           A.    Yes, sir.  I did.

2           Q.    If you would, tell us basically what he told you
3   that day?

4           A.    He told us that he had previously worked at Tardy
5   Furniture Company, that he had been employed there on June
6   the 29th of 1996, that he worked that Saturday, the 29th.  He
7   also worked that Monday which would have been the 1st; that 8   he worked on the 2nd, and he worked on the 3rd.  The day of 9   the 3rd Ms. Tardy had sent him to the Coast to Coast store
10   which is located down the street from Tardy Furniture Company
11   to pick up some batteries.  And he went down there and picked 12   those batteries up, and when he loaded them on the truck, as 13   he was driving away, he stacked the batteries up on top of 14   one another.  And as he was driving away, they fell off the 15   truck, and three of them broke.  He also stated that that day
16   that she told him--

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Excuse me, Judge--

18   BY THE WITNESS:

19           A.    --if the store could not make the batteries right--

20                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Wait until the objection.

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  May I approach?

22                   BY THE COURT:  Uh-hum.

23                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
24   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I have an objection to 26   anything Ms. Tardy told him.  The Defendant's
27   statement is admissible as a statement by the 28   Defendant or a statement by a party at interest.
29   Ms. Tardy's statement is also hearsay.  It is

1           hearsay in hearsay, what they call double hearsay,
2           and there is no exception for her statement, so her
3           statements can't come in.

4           BY THE COURT: Well, only to this extent
5           though. He is saying what he said, and he said she 6           said, so he can testify to that.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: But that is hearsay in 8           hearsay, Judge.

9           BY THE COURT: But it is his statement. I
10          would agree with you if it wasn't his statement.

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, okay, I don't guess we 12          are allowed to argue about it, but it's a classic
13          hearsay within hearsay. You have got to have an 14          exception to both hearsays. You can testify to 15          what he said, but you can't testify to what he said
16          that somebody else said unless that what somebody
17          else said is an exception to the hearsay rule.

18          BY THE COURT: I don't think that is the law,
19          so I'm going to allow it in.

20          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Thank you, Judge.

21                                END BENCH CONFERENCE.

22          BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

23          BY THE COURT: Yes.

24          BY MR. EVANS:

25                Q. All right, Mr. Matthews, continue with what you
26                were saying.

27                A. And as he was pulling off from the store, the 28                batteries fell off and broke, and he was instructed that if 29                he didn't, if the store would not make the batteries right,

1 then because he did not strap the batteries down on the
2 truck, that he would be responsible for them. And he stated
3 that they closed on Wednesday afternoon that day, which that
4 was July the 3rd, the 4th being that Thursday, July the 4th,
5 a holiday, did not work that day. And as he was leaving work
6 that day, his employer, Ms. Tardy, asked him if he needed any 7 money for the 4th, over the holiday, and he said yes that he
8 did. She gave him $30.00.

9 Q. All right. Go ahead.

10 A. And that on the-- he supposed to show up for work
11 on the 5th, which would have been Friday. He didn't show up
12 that day, and he was supposed to show up on the 6th, and he
13 didn't come back to work on that day either. And sometime
14 that next week, that Monday or Tuesday, that he had called 15 the store to ask if he still had a job. And he was 16 instructed that they couldn't use him any more, and he asked
17 if he had any money coming. And Mrs. Tardy told him that she 18 had told him about the batteries, that if the store would not 19 make them good, then he would be responsible for it, and what 20 he had coming in his check for the days that he worked was 21 eaten up by the batteries.

22 Q. All right, what else did he tell you about that 23 event, if anything?

24 A. He told us that, that he had-- the day that the,
25 the 16th. We asked him about his whereabouts on that day,
26 about where he was that morning. And he told us that he had 27 gone, he had gotten up that morning. He had gone to his 28 sister's house, which I believe is on Dennis Street, and that
29 he had also gone to Kelly's Stop and Go which is a

1 convenience store located there on the edge of 51 Highway.

2 Q. All right, let me stop you there. In the first
3 statement he gave you on the 16th, what time did he tell you
4 that he got up?

5 A. He said he got up sometime after 7 o'clock.

6 Q. And do you remember what time he told you that he
7 went to his sister's house?

8 A. He said it was sometime around 9 or 10 o'clock that
9 morning.

10 Q. And do you remember what time he told you that he
11 went to Troy's store?

12 A. Sometime around 11:00.

13 Q. Okay. Let me hand you some notes.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I -- well, may 15 I have this marked for identification only?

16 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

17 (NOTES FROM INTERVIEW OF 7/16/96 WAS MARKED AS 18 STATE'S EXHIBIT S-108 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

19 BY THE COURT: You have seen this?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. EVANS:

22 Q. I am showing you Exhibit 108 and ask you to refer
23 to that if you would.

24 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibit.)

25 Q. Have you had a chance to look over the notes?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. And what is that document?

28 A. These are some notes that were made by John Johnson
29 at our interview on July the 16th, 1996.

1 Q. Were you present when they were made?

2 A. Yes, sir. I was.

3 Q. Does that document help you reflect the exact times
4 that the Defendant told you in that statement?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. What time did the Defendant tell you that he got up
7 that morning in the first interview?

8 A. He said he got up at 6:30 A M.

9 Q. What time does he tell you that he went to his 10 sister's house?

11 A. 9:15 to 9:30.

12 Q. And what time did he tell you he went to Troy's
13 store?

14 A. At 10:30.

15 Q. All right, that interview was on the 16th, the same
16 day of the murders; is that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Also on that day-- well, first let me just hand you
19 Exhibit 86 for identification and ask you if you can identify 20 what this is?

21 A. This is a gunshot residue evidence collection kit.

22 Q. Have you seen that gunshot residue kit before?

23 A. Yes, sir; I have.

24 Q. And where did you see it and under what conditions?

25 A. This is the gunshot residue kit that I used to take
26 a sample from Curtis Flowers on July the 16th of 1996.

27 Q. Does it appear to be in the same or substantially 28 the same condition now as it was in when you used it to 29 conduct that test?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2                   BY MR. EVANS:  I offer this exhibit into
3                   evidence, Your Honor.

4                   BY THE COURT:  Same or any objection?

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  None other than the general
6                   objections we raised as to the suppression hearings
7                   prior to trial, Your Honor.

8                   BY THE COURT:  Let it be admitted.

9                   (GUNSHOT RESIDUE KIT PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS
10                  STATE'S EXHIBIT S-86 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW
11                  RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.  THE DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-1 12                  STICKER WAS REMOVED FROM THE EXHIBIT PRIOR TO THE 13                  START OF PROCEEDINGS ON THIS DATE WITH THE 14                  AGREEMENT OF ALL COUNSEL.)

15                  BY THE COURT:  (To Mr. Evans at the bench) Did
16                  y'all work out the stamps?

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Could we approach just for a
18                  minute?

19                  (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
20                  THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

21                  BY THE COURT:  My question to him was have we 22                  worked out the exhibit labels?

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Yeah, I think so.

24                  BY THE COURT:  Let me see it.

25                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:  We need to put that on the 26                  record.  She took it off.

27                  BY THE COURT:  All right, let the record
28                  reflect that yesterday at the suppression hearing
29                  there was a label placed on this exhibit that said

1 Motion to Suppress. At the Court's direction and
2 by agreement of the parties that label has been
3 taken off. If there is an appeal in this case, it
4 will be marked to show that that was an exhibit in 5 the Motion to Suppress, and for the record this is
6 S-86.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Let me also say that
8 we have a motion to-- our motion includes the 9 motion to suppress all evidence seized in this case
10 under the fruit of the poisonous tree doctrine.
11 That was what I was saying, and our understanding
12 that in denying that the arrest was illegal, the 13 Court has essentially well denied that there was an 14 arrest, you know, in denying that motion. The 15 Court has essentially overruled.

16 BY THE COURT: That too, right. Okay.

17 END BENCH CONFERENCE

18 BY MR. EVANS:

19 Q. Mr. Matthews, I will hand you back Exhibit 86, and 20 again I will ask you to explain to the ladies and gentlemen
21 of the jury what that is?

22 A. This is a gunshot residue kit that is used to 23 collect gunshot residue from the hands of people that we
24 think maybe are, or may or may not have fired a weapon.

25 Q. Okay. And that particular kit was used on the 26 Defendant Curtis Flowers?

27 A. Yes, sir. It was.

28 Q. Before you conducted that kit, what, if anything,
29 did you do to protect the integrity of the kit?

1           A.    I washed my hands. After I washed my hands, I used
2 rubber gloves to take the sample from Mr. Flowers.

3           Q.    All right. Before you took that sample, did you
4 have any physical contact with Mr. Flowers?

5           A.    No, I did not.

6           Q.    You did not shake hands with him?

7           A.    No, sir.

8           Q.    When you washed your hands and you put the rubber
9 gloves on, what was the next step that you took?

10          A.    Inside the packet are some vials. And each vial
11 contains a sample kit to take the samples, and you take from 12 the back right hand. You use that one; you place it back in 13 the cannister. You use the back, the next one for the palm.
14 Then you do the left hand back and then the right palm-- I
15 mean the left palm.

16          Q.    In those four vials are they marked? Do they tell
17 you which one to use for what area of the hand?

18          A.    Yes, sir. They do.

19          Q.    If you would, pull out the one for the right back
20 of the hand, please.

21          A.    (Witness pulls out vial and hands it to Counsel.)

22                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have the
23 witness step down?

24                   BY THE COURT: Yes.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26          Q.    If you would, step down over here in front of the 27 jury. I don't want you to open it, but if you would, take my 28 right hand and just show the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
29 basically acting like it was opened, how you conducted that

1 test on the right back of Curtis Flowers' hand that day?

2 A. This brown plastic part comes out of this plastic
3 cannister. And you take the subject's hand in this area, and 4 you take the end of this and you swab all in this area and on
5 the back of the hand. An individual firing a handgun that is 6 right handed, a good bit of the muzzle blast is excreted back
7 into this area of your hand, and you do, you come down and
8 try to do all of the back area, all the way back over to here
9 paying particular attention to this area right in here,
10 inside the palm and the forefinger.

11 Q. Okay. Thank you.

12 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

13 Q. Did you have an occasion that day to find out
14 during your interview whether the Defendant was right or left
15 handed?

16 A. I asked him, and he indicated that he was right
17 handed.

18 Q. After you conducted the gunshot residue test, what 19 did you do with these ampules?

20 A. I placed them back into this envelope, and I sealed
21 it.

22 Q. And did you deliver it anywhere to be tested?

23 A. Yes, sir. I delivered it to the Mississippi Crime
24 Lab in Jackson.

25 Q. Did you have an occasion on that same day to 26 examine the shoe wear that the Defendant had on at that 27 particular time of the day?

28 A. Yes, I did.

29 Q. What size shoe did he have on?

1 A. He had on a ten and a half.

2 Q. And do you remember what type of shoes he had on at
3 that time?

4 A. I believe they were Nikes, Nike brand.

5 Q. Were you present at the Defendant's house when
6 Exhibit 61 was recovered or when it was found there?

7 A. No, sir. I was not.

8 Q. Did you at any time go to the Defendant's house?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. What date was that?

11 A. I believe that was on July the 20th.

12 Q. Okay. Was anything recovered at his house on that
13 day?

14 A. Yes, sir. We recovered some clothing, some shoes.

15 Q. What type of shoes were recovered then?

16 A. I believe they were also Nikes.

17 Q. At that particular time did y'all have any way or 18 what, if any, way did y'all have of knowing what type of shoe
19 had actually left the bloody shoe impression that the 20 photograph showed?

21 A. We had looked at the photograph of the impression
22 made in the blood of the shoe and had talked with some 23 individuals at some shoe stores to see if we could determine 24 what type shoe made that impression, and from everything we
25 gathered, it appeared to be a Fila Grant Hill tennis shoe.

26 Q. Did you later have an occasion on July the 18th to 27 talk with the Defendant again?

28 A. Yes, we did.

29 Q. Basically, what did he tell you on that day?

1           A.    He told us pretty well basically what he had told
2           us on the 16th. There were some discrepancies in the time
3           that he said he got up that morning and the time that he had 4           gone to his sister's house and the time that he had gone to 5           Kelly's Stop and Go convenience store.

6           Q.    All right. Do you remember those times, or do you
7           need to look at the interview for those times?

8           A.    I probably need to look at the interview.

9           Q.    All right. Before we get into that, before I hand
10          this to you, what, if anything, did he tell you about being 11          terminated from the store?

12          A.    He said that in his conversation with Ms. Tardy
13          back on the week after he left the employee, that he had 14          called her back, and she had indicated that she could not use
15          him any more because he was not reliable. He didn't show up
16          for work and that he was being let go.

17          Q.    All right. And let's see.

18                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I believe we have 19          one of these that is already marked.

20          Q.    I will hand you Exhibit 107, and I will ask you to 21          kind of follow along in that exhibit while I ask the 22          questions. On page 4 of that exhibit. (Pause.) I will ask
23          you to read through the first half of that page first, if you
24          would.

25          A.    This is myself talking, Matthews.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would object. I
27          would think that especially when it comes to a
28          Defendant's statement, that if any of it should be
29          read, he should read all of it.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have no problem
2 with that, but I don't think the Defendant is going
3 to want it all read.

4 BY THE COURT: That is Mr. Lumumba's call.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would certainly object to 6 that. We can approach the bench and discuss--

7 BY MR. EVANS: --It doesn't matter. I will be
8 glad to offer it all.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, we can discuss it.

10 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
11 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

12 (Mr. Lumumba scans through exhibit.)

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not aware of anything I
14 have a problem with. If Counsel wants to highlight
15 what he is talking about, if there is something in 16 here which is--

17 BY THE COURT: I can't be much help because I
18 don't think I have ever seen it.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, to try to speed
20 things up, I have no problem with it. I really 21 don't think that it is incriminating, but out of 22 fairness to the court system and for worrying about
23 appeal, there are questions in there that ask him
24 questions about a burglary that had occurred at 25 that store also. Out of precaution, I throw that
26 out before the Court.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, what I would do,
28 Judge, is that I, you know, I'm not-- well, I would 29 like the whole statement in because at this point

1 the statement has been made before the jury, and
2 let me state for the record why I don't have a
3 problem with the statement. I think Counsel needs
4 to be just a little more careful with his
5 statements before the jury, and I'm not trying to 6 be cynical or anything.

7 BY THE COURT: I understand. Both of y'all
8 need to not comment on the other's tactics.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but I have no problem
10 with this coming in.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, let me-- I want to 12 make sure--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I mean, you know, what I'm 14 saying is that if any of it comes in, I want all of 15 it to come in.

16 BY THE COURT: Let me make this statement. I
17 don't know what is in there. The District Attorney 18 has just said there is some questioning about other
19 crimes or bad acts.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, well, he says--

21 BY THE COURT: --Do you waive any objection to
22 that?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, at this point I do
24 understanding that the Court has made a ruling
25 which allows it in. Do you see what I'm saying?

26 BY THE COURT: Well, I haven't made a ruling
27 that allows that part in.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

29 BY MR. FREELON: We can redact that part out.

1 BY MR. EVANS: He said he wants the whole
2 statement in.

3 BY MR. FREELON: About other furniture, about
4 other break-ins?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, yeah, we can redact
6 that part.

7 BY THE COURT: I gather in that there he does
8 not admit that?

9 BY MR. EVANS: Uh-uh.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He doesn't admit to it.

11 BY MR. EVANS: I just throw that out out of 12 caution.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I am not objecting to 14 that either at this point.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right.

16 END BENCH CONFERENCE

17 BY MR. EVANS:

18 Q. Have you still got the copy that I handed you of 19 the statement on the 18th, Mr. Matthews?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer this entire
22 exhibit into evidence.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no objections other 24 than the ones we raised earlier. At this point we
25 have no objection.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay, sustained-- I mean it is 27 allowed. Let it be marked.

28 (INTERVIEW WITH CURTIS FLOWERS ON JULY 18,
29 1996, PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-107

1 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q. Mr. Matthews, you got plenty of water?

4 A. I hope so.

5 Q. I want to hand you back Exhibit 107, and I will ask
6 you if you would, to read that statement to the jury. If you
7 would, just signify-- you don't have to say Matthews asking
8 and Flowers answering. Just say "Question" and "Answer" and 9 what each comment was.

10 BY THE COURT: Let me for clarification, the 11 only two people involved in this statement are him
12 and the Defendant; is that right? As far as 13 speakers?

14 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

15 BY MR. EVANS: There may possibly be some 16 questions I think from Wayne Miller, another
17 investigator.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, you might better clarify
19 that as you go through.

20 BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q. Okay, when you run into something that is not your 22 question, just tell the jury who asked that question.

23 A. Okay. This is an interview with Curtis Flowers.
24 The date is July the 16th [sic], 1996. The place this
25 interview is taking place is at the Winona Police
26 Department. The interview is being conducted by Master
27 Sergeant Jack Matthews. Also present is Lieutenant H. W.
28 Miller. This was just for the testing purposes of the tape
29 recorder. "Testing one, two, three, test," and this is

1 myself talking. Today's date is 18 July, 1976 [sic]. The
2 time is 1502"--

3 Q. --Mr. Matthews, I hate to interrupt you, but look
4 at the year.

5 A. 1996, excuse me. "At the Winona Police Department
6 in Winona, Mississippi. Interviewing Curtis Flowers." I
7 spell his name out. "Curtis' date of birth is 5-29-70.
8 Conducting this interview will be Master Sergeant Jack
9 Matthews, Investigator with the Mississippi Highway Patrol.
10 Also present is H. W. Miller, Investigator with the 11 Mississippi Highway Patrol. Today's date, ah, is 18 July."

12 Question: "Curtis, ah, just a few minutes ago we 13 read a statement of your rights, and you understand what your 14 rights are and you signed a waiver. Is that correct?

15 Answer: Yes, sir.

16 Question: Okay. And you agreed to talk with us
17 today about your employment at" Tardy Furniture Company--
18 correction, "Tardy's Furniture Store?

19 Answer: Yes, sir.

20 Question: And, ah, some details about that?

21 Answer: Yes, sir.

22 Question: Okay. I need to talk back with you on 23 ah, 16, July the 16th. And you indicated that around July
24 the 1st, that you were employed at Tardy's Furniture Store?

25 Answer: The 29th.

26 Question: And you worked there a few days."

27 That was a question also.

28 Question: "Okay. The 29th of" July [sic]?

29 Answer: "Mhm.

1 Question: Okay.

2 Answer: That Saturday.

3 Question: All right. That was on a Saturday.

4 Answer: Mhmm.

5 Question: Okay. That was the first day that you
6 worked; right?

7 Answer: Yes, sir.

8 Question: All right. Tell us a little about, ah,
9 about the time you started to work with them and why you left
10 and some of the things that we talked about the day before.

11 Answer: Well, Saturday was my first day. I worked
12 Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday we get off at 12 noon.
13 Work half a day on Wednesday. That was the 3rd. Supposed to 14 come back the fifth and the sixth. I didn't show up.

15 Question: You told us about an incident that
16 happened, I believe on the third concerning some batteries
17 that you were supposed to pick up. Tell us about that.

18 Answer: Yeah. She told me to load up two used
19 mattresses that we had picked up from a lady on 51 and take 20 them to ah, behind the tractor place right here on 51 and 21 put 'em in the warehouse. She told me when I got done loaded
22 them, pull around to the Coast to Coast. He had six 23 batteries that her husband was gonna get for a tractor or
24 somethin, tractor batteries. Anyway, I pulled around there
25 and loaded them up. I pulled off. Three of them fell off.
26 So when I got back around there, I told her what happened.
27 She called around there. He told her to bring 'em back so he 28 could see if he could get some kind of a deal on them. And 29 ah, evidently he couldn't or somethin. She told me ah, well,

1 she said you're responsible for the batteries. You should
2 have tied them down. And if they can't do anything, you have
3 to pay for them out of your check. That was it, and she sent 4 me ah, on up there to put her mattresses in the warehouse and
5 sent me to Carrollton to take her mattresses.

6 Question: What did you, did you pick up some more
7 batteries and take them around?

8 Answer: No. She just told me, the ones I dropped,
9 I picked them up and put them back on the truck. When I got 10 back around there, they took them off.

11 Question: All right. This was the third? July 12 the 3rd?

13 Answer: I guess.

14 Question: Okay. And ah, July the 4th was a
15 holiday, and y'all didn't open that day?"

16 The answer was inaudible.

17 Question: "And you suppose to go that Friday?

18 Answer: That Friday.

19 Question: Was July the 5th?

20 Answer: Yes, sir.

21 Question: And, and.

22 Answer: I didn't go.

23 Question: You didn't go? Did you call in?

24 Answer: I called in Friday.

25 Question: I didn't call Saturday."

26 Answer: [sic] "You was supposed to work that 27 Friday.

28 Answer: And Saturday.

29 Question: And Saturday?

1 Answer: Mhmm.

2 Question: The sixth? All right. When did you
3 find out that they had terminated you?

4 Answer: Uh, Tuesday. Tuesday that next week.

5 Question: You didn't go to work Monday either?"

6 If he responded, there was a silent response.

7 Question: "Did you even call in?"

8 Answer: Uhmm. And then that Tuesday, I got up, I
9 was gonna go. When I got to my mama's house, I called. And 10 I asked her. Did Mike come back to work. She said, "No." I
11 asked her did I still have a job. She said, no. I said, did
12 I get a one day ah, pay check. She told me uh, my check was 13 pretty much covered up for them batteries. That was it.

14 Question: I understand that ah, before you got off
15 on the 3rd, that she loaned you some money. Thirty dollars.

16 Question: Thirty dollars?

17 Answer: Mhmm.

18 Question: Did you have to pay that thirty dollars
19 back?

20 Answer: She told my check, she told my check was 21 used up and that was it. She told me I could pay the thirty
22 dollars back out of my check when she gave it to me. When I
23 called her, she said well, my check was used up.

24 Question: Have you been back" in "the store since
25 that time?

26 Answer: No, sir.

27 Question: Have you been working anywhere since
28 that time?

29 Answer: Nothin more than mowing yards and working

1 on cars and stuff like that.

2 Answer: [sic] Do you own a car?"

3 Excuse me. Question: "Do you own a car?"

4 Answer: Yes, sir. A Nissan pickup.

5 Question: You were telling me something ah, the 6 other day about that car. It had some kind of mechanical
7 problems.

8 Answer: Yeah, I need a head for it.

9 Question: A heater?

10 Answer: A head.

11 Question: A head? So it's not running at this
12 time?

13 Answer: No, sir. I'm in my sister's car now.

14 Answer: [sic] When...d..wen...ah...how long is
15 it?

16 Answer: Mmmm...it's been about two and a half
17 months now.

18 Question: So you hadn't had a vehicle for two and 19 a half months?

20 Answer: M-mumm.

21 Question: When did you find out that ah, Mrs.
22 Tardy and ah, her employees about the incident that happened
23 down there Tuesday?

24 Answer: When I got down here.

25 Question: Yeah?

26 Answer: Mhmmm.

27 Question: In other words sometime around uh...

28 Answer: After ah, twelve or somethin.

29 Question: Yeah, sometime between twelve and one?

1 And we talked to you about 1:30?

2 Answer: Mhmm.

3 Question: That's the first you knew about it?

4 Answer: Yeah.... I stopped back by the store on"
5 my "way home, and then my daddy told me."

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge. "Yeah.
7 And I stopped back by the store." In other words,
8 he inadvertently forgot to put the "and" in that
9 sentence.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may he be allowed 11 to continue? If he wants to cross him on it, he 12 fully can.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. He needs to be careful
14 about reading it like it is though.

15 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

16 BY THE COURT: Did you reread that, Mr.
17 Matthews.

18 BY THE WITNESS: Okay.

19 A. Answer: "Yeah. And I stopped...by the store on"
20 my "way home and then my daddy told me.

21 Question: What did you, what, what were the 22 activities on that Tuesday?

23 Answer: Tuesday?

24 Question: This past Tuesday?

25 Answer: Tuesday. Baby sittin.

26 Answer: [sic] Just give me a run down as to what
27 you did that day.

28 Answer: I baby sittin my girlfriend's kids. I
29 left the house twice. I went over to my sister's house, who

1 stayed right there on the next street and I went to Jeff's
2 store.

3 Question: Where?

4 Answer: Jeff's store, right down 51. Down to 5 Troy's.

6 Answer: [sic] All right ah, what time did you get
7 up that morning?

8 Answer: Oooh...somewhere between, probably 9:30,
9 somethin till 10:00."

10 Answer: [sic] "Okay. And you baby sittid your 11 girlfriend's children?

12 Answer: Inaudible.

13 Question: Inaudible.

14 Answer: She got two right now, I'm staying with 15 her."

16 Answer: [sic] "How old are they?

17 Answer: Oooh...one of them two and the other one,
18 I thank eleven.

19 Question: Boy or girl.

20 Answer: Boy. Boy eleven and the girl is two.

21 Question: Two. Okay. ...What time did you get up
22 that morning?

23 Answer: About 9:30 or somethin till 10:00.

24 Question: You were there at the house with the 25 children?

26 Answer: Mhmm.

27 Question: Until about 9:30 or a quarter till ten.

28 Answer: Naw, I got up at 9:30 or somethin till
29 ten.

1                   Question: Were the kids there at the house when
2 you got up?

3                   Mhmm. Yeah."

4                   Answer-- excuse me. Question: "Okay. Where was 5 your girlfriend?

6                   Answer: At work. Richardson Brothers.

7                   Question: What time did she go to work?

8                   Answer: Seven.

9                   Question: Did you, you didn't get up before she 10 left?

11                   Answer: No.

12                   Question. She just got up and...

13                   Answer: I always just tell her bye and keeps
14 staying there in the bed."

15                   A. Now you want me to indicate the questions that 16 Officer Miller asked her.

17                   Q. Right. Questions any other officer asked.

18                   A. This is a question by Officer Miller. "During that 19 period of time, did you talk to anyone on the telephone?

20                   Answer: No, sir.

21                   Miller: Did you have a telephone?

22                   Answer: No, sir.

23                   Miller's Question: That's not one at your 24 girlfriend's house?

25                   Answer: Inaudible.

26                   Question: At what time did you go to your 27 sister's?

28                   Answer: About eleven. Twelve something.
29 Inaudible.

1                   Question: And you indicated that you went to ah,
2 the store.

3                   Answer: Yeah, that was like...

4                   Question: What was the name of that store?

5                   Answer: Kelly's Stop and Go.

6                   Question: Kelly's Stop and Go. That's on US 51?

7                   Answer: Uh-huh. South.

8                   Question: What time did you go to the store?

9                   Answer: Mmmm...it was about...I imagine about
10 12:30, 12:45, something in there.

11                   Question: After you went to your sister's?

12                   Answer: Yeah, I went and got a...went and got a 13 six pack and ah, bag of chips, pack of cigarettes and that's
14 it.

15                   Question: Is that right before" you-- correction.
16 Let me repeat that question. "Is that right before they,
17 they picked you up to come down here?

18                   Answer: Yeah, I was drinking then. Yeah. I had 19 just opened a beer when Kenneth knocked on the door.

20                   Miller's Question: Where did you get the money to 21 buy the beer - Inaudible?

22                   Answer: Oh, I get unemployment.

23                   Miller: You get unemployment, when do you get your 24 check?

25                   Answer: It comes in on Wednesday, this was 26 Tuesday. Yeah. I still had money from the week before
27 that.

28                   Miller: What was your unemployment check?"

29                   Answer: That was it. "One nineteen.

1 Miller: One nineteen?

2 Answer: Mhmm.

3 Miller: Was that your first unemployment check?

4 Answer: That was my third one. Last week was ah,
5 that...this week was the only week I didn't get an
6 unemployment check.

7 Miller: Cause you working.

8 Answer: Mhmm.

9 Question: Okay. You got up around 9:30 that
10 morning?

11 Answer: Mhmm.

12 Question: All right. And you stayed there at your 13 girlfriend's apartment. Where does she live, and what's the 14 address?

15 Answer: 7028 McNutt Drive.

16 Question: Did you, you didn't go anywhere until 17 you went, your sister's house was the first place that you 18 went?

19 Answer: First place I went.

20 Question: Okay, so you stayed there at the house
21 from the time you got up at 9:30?

22 Answer: I couldn't-- inaudible.

23 Question: Until about" that "time that you went to 24 your sister's?

25 Answer: It was about noon, about dinner, right in
26 there."

27 Answer-- excuse me. Question: "Okay. And you
28 stayed over there for how long?

29 Answer: About fifteen minutes.

1           Question: Where does she live in relationship to
2 your apartment that you and your girlfriend stay?

3           Answer: My girlfriend stay on McNutt Drive and she
4 stay on Dennis Street, which is next street over" --
5 correction; "which is the next street over.

6           Question: How, how far is that?

7           Answer: Well, walking around the street it about a
8 mile path go straight up between two apartment houses to our
9 house.

10          Question: How long does it take you to get
11 there?

12          Answer: About five minutes.

13          Miller's Question: Where was the two year old when 14 you were over at your sister's house?

15          Answer: Up at their" grandma--"at their grandmama.

16          Question: Huh?

17          Answer: Up to their grandmama.

18          Miller's Question: Did you take them over there?

19          Answer: Humm?

20          Answer: No, sir." We just sit them over the, we 21 just-- correction. (NOTE: Witness takes a drink of water.)

22          Question [sic]: "No, sir. We always just send 23 them over the hill. Cause her grandmama stay behind her.
24 You just go over the hill to the street and all you do is 25 cross. So you know."

26          Miller's Question: And you keep-- "And you were 27 keeping the children?

28          Answer: Yes, sir.

29          But when you went to your sister's house, who kept

1 the children?

2 Answer: Their grandmother."

3 Miller's Question: Did you come over to the 4 house? Correction-- "Did she come over to the house?

5 Answer: No, I sent them over there.

6 Miller's Question: You sent them over to the 7 grandmother's house?

8 Answer: Mhmm. Sure did, cause" I just "left my 9 sister's house to come back by the house, cut through behind
10 the house and went to Jeff's.

11 Question: You were at Jeff's at some time around
12 what time?

13 Answer: About 12:45, inaudible.

14 Question: You bought a six pack of beer?

15 Answer: Six pack of beer, ah, pack of cigarettes,
16 and two bags of chip.

17 Question: And that was on Tuesday?

18 Answer: Mhmm.

19 Question: The same day as when you came here to 20 talk with us. Where did you go when you left the store?

21 Answer: To" my "house.

22 Question: Back to the apartment?

23 Answer: Mhmm.

24 Question: Okay. Was anybody there when you got
25 back there?

26 Answer: Nope. When I come across the school
27 campus, up the street, like...inaudible...standing in the 28 yard. I walked to the edge of the hill and told them good
29 morning, and we all went to the house together.

1                   Question: You didn't go anywhere that morning
2 except to your sister's, and what is your sister's name?

3                   Answer: Priscilla.

4                   Question: Priscilla? And she lives on what
5 street?

6                   Answer: Dennis Street.

7                   Question: Dennis street? Took you about five
8 minutes from your apartment to her house?

9                   Answer: About five minutes. Mhmmm.

10                  Question: You stayed there what?

11                  Answer: About fifteen" or "twenty minutes."

12                  Correction-- "About fifteen, twenty minutes.

13                  Question: You left there going to?

14                  Answer: Kelly's Stop and Go.

15                  Question: Kelly's Stop and Go, and you didn't go
16 by your apartment?

17                  Answer: Yeah, I cut across, I had to go through 18 there. I gotta go the path. The path go behind the house.

19                  Question: Well," you didn't go to "your apartment
20 or did you just...?

21                  Answer: No, I didn't go in" it. "Mhmmm.

22                  Question: And on to the store?

23                  Answer: On to the store.

24                  Question: And you got your beer, cigarettes and 25 potato chips?

26                  Answer: Come back.

27                  And came back, inaudible.

28                  Answer: And" you "got the kids from top of the 29 hill and went back to the house."

1                   Answer [sic]: "Okay. So you stopped at" your
2 "grandmothers and got them?

3                   Answer: No, sir. From where their grandmama stay
4 and I stay, my girlfriend stay, you can see all across
5 there. When I come across the school campus, got on Pile
6 Street and crossed over the hill, they could see me. We met
7 up at the top of the hill and come to the house.

8                   Question: So if anybody sa...says they saw you" at 9 "any other place but your apartment or your sister's house
10 or Kelly Store...

11                  Answer: Kelly Store.

12                  Question: ...or walking in between those places,
13 then that wouldn't be the truth?

14                  Answer: Walking between" Kelly's--"between Kelly,
15 my" sister "and my sister's house.

16                  Question: Right. If they saw you any other place
17 other than those places?"

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge. I'm sure
19 he didn't mean to do it, but that line was "Walking
20 between Kelly, my house and my sister's house."

21                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you might rephrase that.
22 But now this is an exhibit. The jury is going to 23 get the whole thing too.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I understand, but I figured
25 he didn't mean--

26                  BY THE COURT: Right.

27 BY MR. EVANS:

28 Q. You can continue, Mr. Matthews.

29 A. Where is that now? Do you want me to reread that?

1                   BY THE COURT: Reread the one, reread that
2                   one.

3           BY MR. EVANS:

4           Q.     Start back with the line, "Or walking in between" -
5           let's see. "Walking between Kelly, my house and my sister's
6           house."

7           A.     The question or the answer? Okay, the question.
8           All right.

9                   Question: (Flowers talking.) "Walking between 10           Kelly, my house and my sister's house."

11                   Answer [sic]: "Right. If they saw you any other 12           place other than those places?

13                   Answer: Oh yeah, oh yeah, he a lie.

14                   Question: That'd be a lie?

15                   Answer: Mhmmm.

16                   Question: Okay.

17                   Answer: Sure would.

18                   Question: Can you think back, is there any other
19           place you went or anybody you talked to during that time?"

20                   Answer: Someone clears their throat. "Didn't go
21           nowhere else.

22                   Question: Who was at your sister's house when you
23           got there?

24                   Answer: LaToya Hardy. That's my cousin.

25                   Question: She's your cousin.

26                   Answer: She's staying with my sister.

27                   Question: You, you said your, your girlfriend
28           didn't have a telephone?

29                   Answer: No, she don't."

1 Answer [sic]: "Does her mother have a phone?

2 Answer: Yes, she has a phone.

3 Question: Okay. You didn't use it?

4 Answer: Uhmmm. She don't even like me.

5 Question: How long...what are your girlfriend's
6 hours?

7 Answer: Uh, they were suppose to work 7:00 to 8 3:30. Sometime they work 7:00 to 5:30.

9 Question: So she was at work. Does she come home
10 for lunch?

11 Answer: No.

12 Question: She, when she goes to work at 7:00,
13 she's usually there till 3:30 or 5:30?

14 Answer: Or 5:30.

15 Question: You didn't see her until later that
16 afternoon?

17 Answer: When she got there, Mrs. Vanhorn was 18 pulling up.

19 Question: That's who you caught a ride from here
20 with Mrs. Vanhorn?

21 Answer: Uh-huh." Correction. "Uh-huh. I walked
22 home.

23 Question: Oh. From here?

24 Answer: Uh-huh.

25 Question: Do you have any more questions?

26 Miller:" Asking the question. "Yeah. When you
27 went to work that day, who hired you?

28 Answer: Ah, Mr. Tardy.

29 Miller's Question: Mr. Tardy.

1 Answer: Mhmm.

2 Miller's Question: Who referred you to that job?

3 Answer: Ah, Mike, Mike Martin.

4 Miller: Mike?

5 Answer: Mhmm.

6 Miller's Question: And Mike's the one that quite?

7 Answer: Yeah. Going to truck driver school."

8 Can I take a little break right here just for a

9 minute?

10 BY MR. EVANS: May he, Your Honor?

11 (Pause while State's Counsel confer.)

12 BY THE COURT: Are you ready, Mr. Matthews?

13 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

14 A. Miller's question: "Did she hire you the same day
15 that you went to work?

16 Answer: No. I went down on that Friday evening
17 and she told me that I could come back Saturday morning.

18 Miller: Saturday morning?

19 Answer: Mhmm.

20 Miller: Did you and Mrs. Tardy have any
21 problems?

22 Answer: No.

23 Miller: I mean we know about the batteries,
24 inaudible.

25 Answer: No, sir. Other than that we didn't have 26 no problems. We didn't argue about that, you know. She
27 talked to me and she told me. I understood, cause I should'a
28 tied them down, you know.

29 Miller: How much was your check that you had

1 coming?"

2 Question-- correction. Answer: "I don't know.

3 She was paying me five dollars an hour.

4 Miller: How many hours did you have?

5 Answer: Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

6 Miller: You never actually drew a paycheck?

7 Answer: No, sir. I didn't get that check,

8 cause...

9 Miller: How many hours did you work on,
10 inaudible.

11 Answer: ...told me...

12 Question from Miller: Work on seven?

13 Answer: Uh, seven, from nine to five.

14 Miller: What did you do on Monday?

15 Answer: Monday?"

16 Correction. Question: Monday? Excuse me just a
17 minute. That was the answer was Monday.

18 Question: "That would have been the first.

19 Answer: M-m-mum. I think I came in that day. If 20 I came in, I worked seven hours.

21 Miller: And then Tuesday?

22 Answer: Tuesday, I worked seven.

23 Miller: You got off at noon time, inaudible.

24 Answer: Inaudible, Wednesday.

25 Question, Miller's Question: We're talking about
26 26 hours?

27 Answer: Yeah, somethin like that. I" didn't
28 "know.

29 Miller: So your check you had coming was running a

1       hundred dollars, or a little over?

2               Answer: Yes, sir. Somewhere in there about.

3               Miller: Inaudible. Uh, okay, and who fired you,
4       you said?

5               Answer: She didn't fire me. She just told me she 6       couldn't use me no more.

7               Miller: Just couldn't use you any more? But she
8       told you that your check had been used up?

9               Answer: Yeah.

10              Question: Did that surprise you when she told you
11      that?

12              Answer: No, sir. Cause she told me that same day
13      the, the same day the battery was dropped that ah, if they 14      didn't give her some kind of deal on it, whoever handled the 15      battery was responsible. That was it.

16              Miller: All right, ah, well did you have"
17      something "to say to her about that?

18              Answer: No, sir. She sent me to Carrollton."

19              Miller: Apparently he started to say something.

20              The Answer: "Inaudible. She said she was gone to 21      leave the store early, said if ah, if she" didn't "dare when 22      we got back to come over to her house and just bring the 23      key. But when we got back, she was right there in front of 24      the store. Her and her husband. Just coming out getting in 25      the car." There is somebody talking in the background during
26      that.

27              Miller: "All right. What day was it that you ah,
28      dropped the battery?

29              Answer: Wednesday.

1 Miller: It was Wednesday morning?

2 Answer: Mhmm.

3 Miller: What day was it you borrowed the thirty
4 dollars?

5 Answer: Wednesday before we left.

6 Miller: Which did you do first, borrow the money
7 or ah, drop the batteries?

8 Answer: Dropped the batteries.

9 Miller: First?

10 Answer: Mhmm.

11 Miller: And then she" just. "She still loaned you
12 thirty dollars?

13 Answer: When we got ready to go home. She said
14 have a happy fourth. She said, Curtis, you had the 15 trouble...inaudible pay first. She said, well, do you need
16 to borrow anything? I said, 'Yes, ma'am. I could use
17 thirty dollars.' And she gave me thirty dollars.

18 Miller: So there really was no big problem with 19 you and Mrs. Tardy?

20 Answer: No, sir. We didn't exchange no words.

21 Question: How did you get along with ah, Mrs.
22 Rigby?

23 Answer: Mrs. Rigby?

24 Question: The other lady, inaudible.

25 Answer: The secretary? Oh, me and her cleaned up
26 together.

27 Miller: All right." So "the fourth you took off
28 because it was a holiday?

29 Answer: Mhmm.

1 Miller: Who all did you see on the fourth? Who
2 were some of your buddies that you ran around with?

3 Answer: Oo-o-h...on the fourth? We had a big get
4 together at my house, my mother's house.

5 Miller: Name some of the people that was there.

6 Answer: Oh, Johnny Campbell, Roscoe Campbell, my
7 mother, my father. You need some more?

8 Miller: Yeah. I mean how many people are you
9 talking about?

10 Answer: Inaudible, the family.

11 Question, Miller's Question: The whole family,
12 large.

13 Question, Miller: Who outside the family?

14 Answer: Mmmmmm. I can't think of anybody outside
15 the family.

16 Miller: Well, what did you do on Saturday, I mean
17 Friday? You didn't go to work, so what did you do on 18 Friday?

19 Answer: Sat at the house.

20 Miller: By yourself?

21 Answer: Uhmm. My girlfriend, she was off too.

22 Miller: Did you argue with anybody, go any
23 place?

24 Answer: No.

25 Miller: What did you do on Saturday?

26 Answer: Back over to my mama's house. We sat
27 around and dranked out there on the picnic tables and stuff.

28 Miller: Some of the same people that was there?

29 Answer: My uncle, Johnny Calhoun, Roscoe, Roger

1 Campbell, uh, that's about it.

2 Miller: And then Sunday, you....

3 Answer: Nothin.

4 Miller: You didn't do anything too much? Did you
5 tell a lot of people the problems that you had had down here
6 about dropping the batteries and....

7 Answer: Mmmm, my ah, my girlfriend. Well, my
8 uncle and them, they saw it. Cause we was between the alley
9 over there at the alley over there at the Coast to Coast.
10 The front store."

11 Miller's question was inaudible.

12 The Answer: "Robert Campbell.

13 Miller: Robert?

14 Answer: He came to work on the weekends. Anyway,
15 ah, they was over there at the fish market over there. And 16 they was coming out of the parking lot when I was coming up
17 the alley.

18 Miller: And they saw the batteries spill?

19 Answer: Mhmmm.

20 Miller: But you didn't uh, did you have a lot to 21 say about the fact that ah, that they owed you some money?

22 Answer: No, sir." I don't know what that other
23 expression is.

24 Miller: "After you ah, was terminated?

25 Answer: No, sir. I ask was I suppose to be able 26 to receive a check and she told me remember we talked about
27 the battery? And I said, 'Yes, ma'am.' And she said, well
28 your check was used up. That was it.

29 Question: Did you know ah, about the store had

1       been broken into?"

2               Question [sic]: "Uh, Mr. Tardy told me about it.
3       Told me how they came in and everything. He said that ah,
4       come through the air shaft or something.

5               Question: Where did you see Mr. Tardy?

6               Answer: At the store when I was working."

7               Question: Was that "when... Inaudible?"

8               Answer: "I don't know. He just telling me about a
9       break in they had awhile back. That was the day I started.

10              Miller: That was the same day you started that he 11       was telling you about a break in?

12              Answer: Yeah. He was telling me about a break
13       in.

14              Miller: But didn't they have one while you were 15       working down there?"

16              Answer: I didn't know. She didn't bring it
17       up. "Cause you know, I never did go back to work. When I
18       called up there, she told me she couldn't use me no more. I
19       ask her did I have any paycheck coming and she told me
20       remember we talked about the battery. She said it was used
21       up. I said, okay. She said, sorry things didn't work out.
22       I told her okay. That was it.

23              Miller: And that was what day?

24              Answer: Uh, that Tuesday.

25              Miller: What Tuesday?

26              Answer: Uh, mmmm...I think it was the ninth, tenth,
27       I don't know.

28              Miller: After the first Tuesday after the fourth?

29              Flowers. Answer: Mhmm. Yeah.

1                   Miller: So you didn't go to work that Monday
2 either?

3                   Answer? Mmum. No, sir.

4                   Miller: You didn't call her?

5                   Answer: I called her Saturday, I called her Friday
6 and I called her Monday. And I didn't go in Tuesday, but
7 about eleven something Tuesday I called her. And I asked
8 her, did Mike come to work and she said naw. I asked her did
9 I still have a job and she said, well she couldn't use me
10 cause I missed too many days. I asked her did I have a 11 paycheck coming and she said, you remember we talked about 12 the battery, you used it up.

13                  Miller: So that was on Tuesday?

14                  Answer: Mhmm.

15                  Miller: When did you call?

16                  Answer: About eleven something.

17                  Miller: You called her?

18                  Answer: Mhmm.

19                  Question: Have you had a lot" of people say -- 20 correction; let me start over. "Have you had a lot to say to 21 different people about what happened...?"

22                  Answer: "No, sir. Nobody but Mike. I told
23 Mike... to deliver the mattress. She called Mike to help
24 me. Me and Mike was going to Carrollton. I just told Mike
25 that man, she sent me around to Coast to Coast. And I got 26 some batteries and dropped them. She said either if Jimmy
27 don't give me some kind of a deal, I had to pay for them.
28 And he said no, you didn't man. You know to tie them down.
29 I said yeah, I knew it. I said I told em. Yeah, and that

1 was it.

2 Miller: What about ah, what kind of fellow is 3 Mike?

4 Answer: He a good guy.

5 Miller: Good guy?

6 Answer: Mhmm.

7 Question: Okay. If it would be all right with you
8 uh, we want when we leave here, we'll carry you back to your 9 girlfriend's house or either" anywhere "you want to go.

10 Answer: I got the car.

11 Question: Okay. Well," before we do that -- 12 correction, let me start again. "Okay. Well, well, maybe
13 before we do that then, we want you to show us where you live
14 and where your sister lives.

15 Miller: We will bring you back.

16 Question: And we'll bring you back. Show us what 17 you did, the places you, that you went. Cause neither one of 18 us are from Winona and we, we're not familiar with you know,
19 exactly where you're talking about."

20 Answer: Uh-huh. Uh-huh. "All right."

21 "This concludes the interview with Curtis
22 Flowers. The time is 1525."

23 BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. All right. And after that interview, did he, in 25 fact, take you and show you where he and his sister both
26 lived?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. Did you also have an occasion to talk with other
29 witnesses and take statements from them?

1 A. Yes, sir. We did.

2 Q. Did you also have an occasion or did you or did you
3 not have an occasion to have those witnesses show you
4 different locations around town?

5 A. Yes, sir. We did.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have this
7 exhibit marked for identification.

8 (OVERLAY OF STREETS OF WINONA WAS MARKED AS 9 STATE'S EXHIBIT S-70 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

10 BY MR. EVANS:

11 Q. Mr. Matthews, I will hand you Exhibit 70 and ask
12 you if you can identify what this exhibit is?

13           A.    This is a map of some of the area of Winona, the 14   City of Winona.

15 Q. And does that particular map show all the areas
16 that the Defendant took you to and other witnesses showed
17 you?

18 A. Yes, sir. It appears to.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer this
20 exhibit into evidence.

21 BY THE COURT: Any objection?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Could I just see it for a
25 minute though?

26 (OVERLAY OF STREETS OF WINONA PREVIOUSLY
27 MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-70 FOR IDENTIFICATION
28 WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

29 (Exhibit S-70 shown to Defense Counsel.)

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have the
2 witness step down?

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. You want the lights
4 off?

5 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

6 (Exhibit S-70 was placed on the overhead
7 projector.)

8 BY MR. EVANS:

9 Q. Mr. Matthews, I hand you this pointer. If you
10 will, step to the side so that the jury can see. Would you
11 point out where Highway 51 is on that diagram?

12 A. This is Highway 51. It runs north and south
13 through Winona.

14 Q. All right. So point the direction that, the way
15 that is turned right now, which direction north is?

16 A. (Witness points.)

17 Q. You are pointing to the right hand side for the 18 record; is that correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Would you point out on that diagram where the 21 Defendant told you that he lived?

22 A. Right there at McNutt Street.

23 Q. All right, if you would, speak a little louder
24 because your back is turned to the jury.

25 A. Right there on McNutt. (Witness pointing.)

26 Q. All right, which side, east or west of Highway 51
27 is that located?

28 A. That's on the west side of 51.

29 Q. Would you point out where he told you the two

1 places that he told you he went on the 16th were.

2 A. He went to Dennis Street. And he also went to
3 Kelly's One Stop which is right there in this little place.

4 Q. And which side are both of those located on as far
5 as 51?

6 A. They are located on the west side.

7 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with a place where James
8 Kennedy stated that he saw the Defendant that day?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Would you point out where he said that he showed 11 you that he saw him?

12 A. Right down in this area.

13 Q. And what is the name of that street?

14 A. I can't read that.

15 Q. Is it Donnager or Angelica Drive?

16 A. It's called Angelica Drive is what I have referred 17 to, but on the map it is Donnager.

18 Q. All right, and what side of Highway 51 is that 19 located on?

20 A. That's on the east side of 51.

21 Q. Would you point out for the ladies and gentlemen of 22 the jury on that diagram where Angelica is located?

23 A. It's going to be right in here.

24 Q. All right, now you need to speak a little bit
25 louder.

26 A. Will be right in here.

27 BY THE COURT: You need to speak up, Mr.

28 Matthews, because I can't hear you.

29 BY THE WITNESS:

1           A.    It's right in this area right here.

2                   BY THE COURT:   There you go.

3   BY MR. EVANS:

4           Q.    Would you point out where you were shown that
5   Katherine Snow saw the Defendant that morning?

6           A.    Okay.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Objection.   He can point out
8   where the location that Katherine Snow said she saw
9   the Defendant, not where she did.

10                  BY MR. EVANS:    I believe that's what I asked.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Well, it's a little
12   different, Judge.   That's my objection.

13                  BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Phrase the question-- I
14   think that would be the proper way.   You may have 15   done that, but ask it that way.

16   BY MR. EVANS:

17           Q.    Would you point out where Katherine Snow showed you
18   that she saw the Defendant that morning.

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Judge, just one other thing.

20                  BY MR. EVANS:    Just a minute.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   I'm assuming that the officer
22   actually was shown this himself.   I noticed one of 23   the reports does not have his name on it, and I
24   just want to make sure he is not testifying from 25   somebody else's.

26                  BY THE COURT:   Okay, he has testified that 27   witnesses showed him different spots already.   So I
28   assume that's what he is doing.   If that is 29   incorrect--

1 BY MR. EVANS:

2 Q. If you would, point out again for me where James
3 Kennedy showed you that he saw the Defendant.

4 A. (Witness points.)

5 Q. All right. Hold it where you have got it just a
6 second. It's hard to see on this with the light. Is this
7 about right?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 (NOTE: Mr. Evans puts a red dot on Exhibit S-70.)

10 Q. All right. Now if you would-- let me get out of 11 the way. Show us where Katherine Snow showed you that she 12 saw the Defendant.

13 A. In the parking lot of the Angelica factory.

14 Q. All right, hold what you have got.

15 (Mr. Evans puts another dot where witness is 16 pointing.)

17 Q. Next if you would, show us where Mr. McChristian
18 showed you that he saw the Defendant that morning?

19 A. Right here on Academy Street.

20 (Mr. Evans puts another red dot where witness 21 is pointing.)

22 Q. Next, if you would, show us where Mary Jeanette
23 Fleming showed you that she saw the Defendant that morning?

24 A. On Campbell Street.

25 Q. Right about this area?

26 A. No, that is Carrollton. Campbell. Right there.

27 Q. Okay, hold your marker. Let me find it.

28 (Mr. Evans marks and lets marker slip to make 29 a long mark.)

1 Q. Whoops. I knew I would do that sooner or later.
2 Next, if you would, show me where Charles Collins showed you
3 that he saw the Defendant that morning?

4 A. (Witness points.)

5 Q. Okay, hold your marker.

6 (Mr. Evans puts another dot where witness is
7 pointing.)

8 Q. And next show me where Clemmie Fleming showed you
9 that she saw the Defendant that morning?

10 A. (Witness points.)

11 Q. If I can get it going the right direction.

12 (Mr. Evans puts another dot where witness is 13 pointing.)

14 Q. All right, I want to go back. All of the locations
15 that those witnesses for the record showed you that they saw
16 the Defendant that morning are marked with red dots; is that
17 correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now if you would, go back and I want you to get you
20 to show us where the Defendant told you he was that morning,
21 and I will mark these in blue.

22 A. (Witness points.)

23 Q. All right, hold what you have got.

24 (Mr. Evans marks in blue on Dennis Street.)

25 Q. All right, and the other location?

26 A. (Witness points.)

27 (Mr. Evans marks in blue on Highway 51.)

28 Q. It's kind of hard to follow this thing backwards.
29 Okay. What, if anything, did the Defendant tell you in the

1 interviews that you had with him about ever being on the east
2 side of Highway 51 on the day of the murders, that morning?

3 A. Okay. He said that he hadn't been on the east
4 side.

5 Q. Okay. If you would, take your seat again, please.

6 (Mr. Horan confers with Mr. Evans briefly.)

7 Q. Yeah, that's right; one more thing. If you would,
8 show me his residence again so that I can mark that.

9 A. On McNutt (Witness points.)

10 (Mr. Evans marks in blue on McNutt Drive.)

11 Q. Okay, Mr. Matthews, if you would have a seat
12 again.

13 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I pass this 15 exhibit to the jury while we continue?

16 BY THE COURT: It has been admitted. You can.

17 (Exhibit S-70 was passed to the jury.)

18 BY MR. EVANS:

19 Q. Mr. Matthews, when you went to the Defendant's
20 house, did you personally have an occasion to determine what
21 shoe sizes the children that lived in that house wore?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. Can we approach
23 the bench?

24 BY THE COURT: Yes.

25 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
26 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

27 BY THE COURT: I did not hear the question.

28 BY MR. EVANS: The question was when you went
29 to the Defendant's house, did you have an occasion

1 to personally determine what shoe size the children
2 that lived in that house wore.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Unless he measured them, I
4 object. If he is talking about or if he wants to 5 say I looked at them and based on my observations,
6 this is how big I think they were, I don't have any
7 problem with that. But if he is going to say
8 somebody told him, I object and then--

9 BY THE COURT: Well, if it is hearsay, it's 10 not admissible.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's insufficient foundation
12 at this point.

13 BY MR. EVANS: He can impeach them. I asked
14 him if he personally knew what size they wore--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --well, suggests-- I'm sorry.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, and that is like the 17 question that we had yesterday. If it's his 18 personal knowledge, he can testify to it.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, but I think one
20 exception to that is when I challenge it for lack 21 of foundation, the reason being if he gets the 22 statement out, the hearsay statement out, the 23 damage is done. You can't cure it. So the only
24 thing I'm saying is all he has got to do is ask him
25 did you measure it or see it, or is your knowledge
26 based upon what somebody told you. And if it's 27 based upon what somebody told him, he can't get it
28 in.

29 BY THE COURT: There is some problem with the

1 witnesses not knowing what personal knowledge is
2 although I think this one probably does. Why don't
3 you frame it in that way as to how he would know
4 that because if it's hearsay, I'm not going to let
5 it in. So I would rephrase the question.

6 END BENCH CONFERENCE

7 BY MR. EVANS:

8 Q. Mr. Matthews, while you were at the Defendant's
9 house, was the Defendant there with you?

10 A. I don't remember whether he was there or not.

11 Q. Did you have an occasion to personally observe and 12 see what shoe sizes the children that lived in that house
13 wore?

14 A. The only one that I know that we checked was the 9
15 year old son. I believe his name was Lemarcus.

16 Q. All right, and what shoe size did Lemarcus wear?

17 A. He had on a 7 and a half the day we were there.

18 Q. Exhibit 62 that you had identified earlier, does it
19 also show on there -- what, if anything, does it show on 20 there in relationship to the thirty dollars that the 21 Defendant told you he had been given by Mrs. Tardy as a
22 loan?

23 A. Up here in the right corner it has the word "paid
24 $30.00 cash" and it has got the date, 6-29.

25 Q. And how many hours does that time card show that he 26 had worked?

27 A. 17 and 11/12ths.

28 Q. I will also hand you Exhibit 63 and ask you who 29 that check was made payable to?

1 A. Curtis Flowers.

2 Q. For how many hours?

3 A. 17 and 11/12ths.

4 Q. And where did you find this check?

5 A. It was lying on Mrs. Tardy's desk.

6 Q. Okay. I will next hand you Exhibit 65 and ask you
7 when the first time you saw that exhibit was?

8 A. On the 16th of July of 1996.

9 Q. And according to that sheet, how much money should 10 have been in the store that morning?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I think I have to 12 object to that. I think Ms. Ballard, who was 13 qualified as an expert on that subject, has 14 testified, but I don't know that the officer is an 15 expert on that subject.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the sheet is 17 already in evidence.

18 BY THE COURT: The sheet is in evidence. He 19 can testify as to what it says.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I see it for a moment?
21 Maybe I am mistaken.

22 BY THE COURT: He can't testify as an expert.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't know that it actually
24 says how much money was in the store.

25 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba looks at Exhibit
26 S-65.)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I just show the Judge
28 what I'm talking about?

29 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any problem,
2 Judge, with him saying what the sheet says. But
3 the problem I have it doesn't say that the money is
4 in the store. Nothing in there--

5 BY THE COURT: He can testify as to what is on
6 that sheet; that's what I'm saying.

7 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, my objection is 9 to what is on the sheet. I have none, I just-- it
10 doesn't say on here that, it doesn't say here
11 anything where there is money in the store.

12 BY THE COURT: I understand, and I note your 13 objection, and that is sustained as to that. He is 14 entitled to testify as to what that sheet says.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. I have no problem
16 with that.

17 (Exhibit S-65 handed back to the witness.)

18 BY MR. EVANS: Waiting on you to sit down.

19 BY MR. EVANS:

20 Q. May I see the exhibit, Mr. Matthews? Under petty
21 cash where it says "Cash on hand," what does this form say?

22 A. $300.00.

23 Q. And is there also a minus amount shown on there?

24 A. Yes, sir. It's under "List of cash," it has got 25 minus $100.00.

26 Q. Did you have an occasion to search that money
27 drawer and the rest of the store that day?

28 A. Yes, sir. We did.

29 Q. Was any, were any bills of any denomination found

1 in that store in either cash drawer, safe, on the counter,
2 any money that appeared to belong to the store?

3 A. We didn't find any bills.

4 Q. And I believe you did find a little change in the 5 cash drawer; is that correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. The rest of the money was not there that is shown
8 on that form?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 (Exhibit S-65 was passed to the jury.)

11 BY MR. EVANS: Ready?

12 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q. When you went with Doyle Simpson to his mother's 15 house, why did you go there?

16 A. A day or two prior to me going, Montgomery Deputy
17 Bill Thornburg had gone there, and we had talked to Doyle
18 about his, the weapon that he had that was missing from his 19 car on the 16th-- that he reported on the 16th. And during 20 our conversation with him, we had talked to him about had he 21 done any target shooting or any firing of that weapon
22 anywhere else where we might be able to retrieve either some 23 hulls or some projectiles from that gun.

24 Q. All right, and explain to the ladies and gentlemen
25 of the jury why you wanted to know exactly what kind of 26 bullet was fired out of that gun that he reported missing?

27 A. Okay. On the day of the 16th, the hulls that were
28 found in the furniture store at Tardy Furniture were .380
29 hulls. Shortly after I arrived in Winona that day, the

1 Winona Police Department got some information that Doyle
2 Simpson reported his gun missing from his car at the Angelica
3 factory. When we got out there and talked with Mr. Simpson,
4 he indicated that that gun was a .380 caliber gun. And we
5 just thought that because of the murders that happened that 6 day and his gun missing, that they might be connected to the 7 crime that we had. And we wanted to make comparisons from 8 his gun with the hulls and the projectiles that we had at the 9 scene.

10 Q. And that was the purpose of recovering the bullets
11 that Doyle had test fired into the post?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And did you see to it that the State Crime Lab
14 compared those bullets that had been test fired out of 15 Doyle's known gun with the bullets that were recovered from 16 the murder scene?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 BY THE COURT: Are you going to be a while?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay, the jury has indicated
21 they want to take a break, and I'm going to do that 22 right now.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. I want the see the two
25 of you up here just a second.

26 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF 27 THE JURY AS THEY WERE LEAVING THE COURTROOM AS
28 FOLLOWS:)

29 BY THE COURT: I don't care whether this is on

1 the record or not.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I want mine on the record.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, let me talk first because 4 I'm going to be short. He is entitled to represent
5 his client now, and he is entitled to do that. He
6 has got to make whatever objections he thinks is 7 necessary, and I don't want any more comments about 8 his objections. I will make the rulings on that.
9 Well, you are making some-- well, you are making
10 some asides when he objects, and I don't want that
11 in this trial.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, and I understand
13 and I appreciate that. The only thing that I know
14 of that I did, I am tired of him constantly
15 standing up looking over my shoulder when I'm
16 talking. My only comment that I made was I wanted
17 him to sit down before I continued.

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, but there has been a
19 couple of other things, and I'm not trying to make 20 a major issue out of it. I am just trying to 21 explain to everybody that it's a question and 22 answer method, and it's also objections method that 23 I get to rule and then we get to move forward, and 24 that's the way I want it to go.

25 BY MR. EVANS: I appreciate that, and if I
26 did, I apologize to the Court.

27 BY THE COURT: Well, I'm not looking for any 28 apology from anybody. I just want to keep it on 29 line, okay. Now you want this on the record?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, this is on the record.
2 I'm just going to explain that I did have
3 objections, and I have raised them earlier about
4 police officers testifying to hearsay about Doyle
5 Simpson's reports of guns, you know, that remember
6 he reported his gun stolen earlier in the trial?

7 BY THE COURT: Oh, yeah. Yeah.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So I just wanted to point out
9 for the record that my objection continues through 10 the officer's testimony.

11 BY THE COURT: I understood it that way.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just didn't want to keep 13 jumping up. Okay, but the other thing is I also 14 object as prosecutorial misconduct of Mr. Evans
15 consistent kind of tell the jury, you know, that my 16 objections are annoying. I don't really relish
17 objecting in a lot of cases, but I do believe that 18 this is a case where I have to protect my record.
19 I do believe there has been a lot of leading. I
20 think there has been a lot of hearsay, and I am
21 really just trying to keep up with it, and that's 22 basically what it is.

23 BY THE COURT: Well, that is the point of what 24 I have said up here, and that's-- I hope I have 25 addressed that.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think so.

27 (FOLLOWING THE MORNING RECESS ON MARCH 27,
28 1999, PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE
29 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND THE JURY ALL

1 PRESENT AND WITH JACK MATTHEWS STILL ON THE WITNESS
2 STAND:)

3 BY THE COURT: You may proceed.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q. Mr. Matthews, I will hand you Exhibit 69 and ask
7 you if you would take this exhibit and see if you can
8 identify what it is?

9 A. Do you want me to open it?

10 Q. At this point see if you can identify it from the 11 package?

12 A. This is a Sunburst Bank bag that we found in Tardy
13 Furniture, along with the deposit book.

14 Q. And did you place those in a bag and seal them?

15 A. Yes, sir. I did.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I offer this
17 exhibit into evidence at this time.

18 BY THE COURT: Have you seen it?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I probably have at some 20 point, Judge. I don't know if I can tell
21 definitely by looking at it.

22 BY THE COURT: Do you want to look at it
23 again?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't want to take a lot of 25 time. Can I just tear it?

26 BY MR. EVANS: Yeah. May the record reflect
27 that we are opening the exhibit at this time.

28 BY THE COURT: The record will reflect. Let 29 the record reflect you are trying to.

1 (Laughter.)

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I don't want to just 3 tear it.

4 BY THE COURT: Here you go.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, you don't have a knife
6 on you, do you?

7 BY THE COURT: Yeah, concealed weapon.

8 (Mr. Lumumba opens the sack and looks at the 9 bag.)

10 BY MR. EVANS: You can take them out if you
11 would like to.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, let me take them out.
13 Feels like something. (Opens bag.) Is this part of 14 your exhibit?

15 BY MR. EVANS: That's the deposit book.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have no objection to that
17 exhibit.

18 BY THE COURT: Do you want that marked as a
19 cumulative exhibit, or do you want those things
20 inside marked separately?

21 BY MR. EVANS: It will be fine just to mark as 22 a cumulative exhibit, Your Honor.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay.

24 (BROWN BAG CONTAINING GRAY MONEY BAG WITH 25 RECEIPT BOOK PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS EXHIBIT S-69 FOR 26 IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

27 BY MR. EVANS:

28 Q. All right, Mr. Matthews, let me hand you Exhibit 69
29 back, and I will ask you if you would remove the contents

1 from the package?

2 A. (Witness complies.)

3 Q. All right, what is that exhibit?

4 A. This is a Sunburst Bank bag that we found in Tardy
5 Furniture Company.

6 Q. All right, and what is the other exhibit that is
7 there with it or the other part of that exhibit?

8 A. It's a Union Planters with deposit slips.

9 Q. May I see it for a moment, please.

10 A. (Exhibit handed to Counsel.)

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have the 12 witness step down, please?

13 BY THE COURT: Yes.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. Mr. Matthews, the $1238.86 that is shown on the 16 check up sheet that has been described; do you see this 17 amount?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Is there a deposit ticket in this book that shows
20 that deposit?

21 A. Yes, it is.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I pass this to
23 the jury?

24 BY THE COURT: It has been admitted. You can
25 do so.

26 (Exhibit S-69 and S-65 were passed to the 27 jury.)

28 BY MR. EVANS:

29 Q. Mr. Matthews, other than that deposit book, was

1       there any money in the money bag?

2           A.    No, sir.  It was not.

3           Q.    Now since the ladies and gentlemen of the jury are 4       not familiar with downtown Winona, would you describe the 5       area around Tardy Furniture as far as-- what I'm asking is 6       the type of buildings that are there, how close other
7       occupied buildings are or things like that?

8           A.    Okay.  Tardy Furniture Company is located in 9       downtown Winona.  It's on Front Street.  It's about a two 10      block street that faces the railroad that runs north and 11      south through the Town of Winona.  Front Street is a rather 12      large street with traffic going both ways, and inside the 13      traffic there are some islands out there where you can park
14      your cars from both north and south lanes.  Across the street
15      is an old depot that has been converted into another
16      building.  Tardy Furniture Company is located on the south
17      end of Front Street.  It's on the west side facing east.
18      There is a cleaners that is located just across the street
19      from them to the south of them that probably is within 20      probably 40 or 50 yards of the front door of Tardy
21      Furniture.  There is also an old converted service station
22      that used to stand right there at the corner, and it, in 23      1996, and I don't know whether it's still there today, but 24      there was in that building had been converted and there was a
25      home health agency over there that was doing home health
26      business at the time.

27          Q.    All right.

28          A.    Located to the north of Tardy was a vacant building
29      and then, or a vacant building next to them.  Then there was

1 a little alley that runs between the buildings, and next to
2 that was a Coast to Coast hardware store.

3 Q. So there is actually no building on the south side
4 or the north side of the store that was occupied?

5 A. No, sir. There is no building on the south side of
6 the street.

7 Q. And on the east side, there is nothing until you go
8 all the way across to the railroad track; is that correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And then there is an alley behind the building; is
11 that right?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. During your investigation at the scene on the 16th,
14 did you have an occasion to talk with Frank Ballard?

15 A. Yes, I did.

16 Q. Did you have an occasion with Frank Ballard to 17 check certain things in the store?

18 A. Yes, we did.

19 Q. Did you have an occasion to personally check the 20 cash register printout to see if there had been any 21 transactions that day?

22 A. Yes, we did.

23 Q. Had there been any transactions?

24 A. No, sir. There had not been.

25 Q. (Clears throat.) Excuse me. Did you have an
26 occasion or what, if anything, did you do at Curtis Flowers'
27 house in relationship to looking for any money?

28 A. We searched the room that he and his girlfriend
29 reside in.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have just that same
2 continuing objection to that.

3 BY THE COURT: All right. Objection noted.

4 BY MR. EVANS:

5 Q. You may continue.

6 A. And she was present while we did that. In the 7 headboard of that bed there was some money located by 8 Investigator H. W. Miller.

9 Q. How much money was that?

10 A. It was $255.00.

11 Q. Also during the course of your investigation, at 12 some point because of his gun being suspected as being used
13 as the murder weapon, was Doyle Simpson a suspect?

14 A. We talked to him also on the 16th of July and to 15 his relationship as to where he was at the time.

16 Q. All right, were you able to eliminate him as a
17 suspect?

18 A. Yes, we were.

19 Q. And at some point was also Emmitt Simpson
20 interviewed?

21 A. Yes. He was.

22 Q. Were you also able to eliminate him as a suspect?

23 A. Yes, sir. We did.

24 Q. Now I believe you also talked with the Defendant on 25 July the 23rd. Is that correct?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. On that date what, if anything, did he tell you
28 about being at Angelica factory on the morning of July the 29 16th, the date of these murders?

1           A.    He said that he had not been there.

2           Q.    At any time that morning?

3           A.    At any time.

4           Q.    At all of the times that you talked with the
5 Defendant, what was his appearance as far as wearing or not
6 wearing glasses?

7           A.    He didn't have on any glasses when I interviewed
8 him.

9           Q.    At any of the times that you saw him?

10          A.    No, sir.

11          Q.    Now we have covered the fact on the gunshot residue
12 that you had no physical contact with the Defendant and that 13 you washed your hands. In your presence did anyone else have 14 any physical contact with the Defendant on that morning?

15          A.    Not that I know of.

16          Q.    Of the different statements that the Defendant gave 17 you, as far as inconsistencies, in one statement I believe he 18 told you he got up at 6:30; is that correct?

19          A.    That's correct.

20          Q.    In the next statement he told you he didn't get
21 up--

22                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading question.

23                   BY THE COURT: It is. Sustained.

24                   BY MR. EVANS: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26          Q.    In the next statement what time did he tell you he 27 got up?

28          A.    It was around 9 o'clock.

29          Q.    I believe if the statement showed that he said 9:30

1 or 10:00, would that be right?

2 A. Yes, sir. I believe so.

3 Q. But in either statement or any of the statements
4 that the Defendant gave you, what, if anything, did he ever
5 tell you about ever being on the east side of Highway 51 on 6 the morning of the 16th?

7 A. He said he had never, he was not over there at any
8 time.

9 BY MR. EVANS: The Court's indulgence for just 10 a moment.

11 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

12 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness, Your Honor.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Good morning.

14 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. Good morning, Investigator Matthews. Good
17 morning.

18 A. Good morning.

19 Q. Good morning. Investigator Matthews, let me ask
20 you just a few questions. I want to go back to that map in a
21 minute, but before we do that, you have indicated that at one
22 point you had-- you mentioned Doyle Simpson's name. Is 23 that-- you did meet and talk to Doyle Simpson; is that
24 correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Okay, and you actually talked to him on the 16th at 27 the police station; is that correct?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. You also talked to Mr. Flowers at the police

1 station on that same day; isn't that correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. You don't know, of course, whether or not they saw
4 each other down there, but they certainly could have; is that
5 correct?

6 A. It's possible.

7 Q. Okay. But in any event, you have indicated that
8 Doyle Simpson-- Counsel asked you if he was eliminated as a
9 suspect. Your answer to that was correct; right?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. That's in your mind, he was eliminated; is that
12 correct?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. You never did a paraffin test on him, what they 15 used to call a paraffin test. You never took any kind of 16 samples from him to send them in to the lab to see if he had 17 shot a gun that day?

18 A. No, sir. We did not.

19 Q. Or whether he had come in contact with a gun;
20 right? You didn't do a test to see--

21 A. --No, sir.

22 Q. --or whether he had any kind of particle no matter
23 how small on him. You didn't do that; correct?

24 A. (No audible response.)

25 Q. And you didn't do, you didn't search his house; is
26 that correct?

27 A. I didn't that day. We did later.

28 Q. Okay. And so you didn't go into his house. You
29 didn't take any -- would it be safe to say that when you went

1 to his house, they didn't have any money there? They didn't
2 have any money--

3 A. --What are you talking about?

4 Q. Doyle Simpson's house. They have money at Doyle
5 Simpson's house?

6 A. I don't recall any money being at Doyle Simpson's
7 house.

8 Q. Okay, so you are not saying there weren't any. You
9 are just saying you don't recall any?

10 A. That's right.

11 Q. In fact, how many people do you think-- it would be 12 safe to say, without being facetious or anything, no doubt
13 numbers of people had in the Winona area and around Winona
14 and houses far and wide have money in their house; right?

15 A. Yes, sir. I am sure.

16 Q. Okay, but in any event, you didn't, you also didn't
17 go to Emmitt Simpson's? Did you ever search Emmitt Simpson's
18 house?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. Okay, so you didn't search his house, and you also 21 didn't take any kind of samples from him; is that correct?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Now let me ask you this. And Doyle Simpson --
24 there was some question about Doyle Simpson reported a gun
25 stolen. Doyle Simpson didn't come into the police station as 26 far as you know and report a gun stolen, did he?

27 A. No, sir. He had his supervisor call from--

28 Q. --well--

29 A. --Angelica down to the police station--

1 Q. --Now excuse me. Were you there when he asked the 2 supervisor to call?

3 A. No, but I interviewed the supervisor later on that
4 day.

5 Q. Well, I'm not asking-- see, now what the supervisor
6 says, so what you are telling us is what the supervisor at 7 some point you say told you?

8 A. Relayed to me; yes, sir.

9 Q. I see. So that is what we would call hearsay;
10 right?

11 A. Well, they told it to me.

12 Q. Well, in other words, you don't know whether that 13 is true or not, do you?

14 A. I know what they told me.

15 Q. Well, I am asking you do you know whether it's
16 true?

17 A. All I know is what they told me.

18 Q. Okay, and if the supervisor did come into knowledge
19 of Doyle Simpson's, anything about Doyle Simpson's gun or 20 what he said happened to his gun, you don't know how the 21 supervisor got that knowledge of your own personal knowledge,
22 do you?

23 A. All I know is what had she related to me.

24 Q. I see. Now in any event, because you know that
25 Doyle Simpson doesn't always tell the truth, don't you?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. Because he lied to you?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. He lied to you about the gun?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. The same gun that we are talking about?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. He lied to you about where the gun came from?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay, and we don't know whether Doyle Simpson did
7 what. But you do know that much; right? That he lied to you
8 about the gun?

9 A. About where it came from, yes, sir.

10 Q. Yes, okay. Now let me ask you this. I notice and 11 I want to kind of cover this stuff real quick here. I
12 noticed that when you - and you correct me if I am wrong -
13 when you showed the ladies and gentlemen of the jury how you
14 took the sample off the back of the hand, I think that what 15 you did is you carefully showed us how you went around what 16 we call the web of the finger. And then you said you went on 17 across the back of the hand; is that correct?

18 A. With the one that is on the right and left back.

19 Q. I understand.

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. So you went across the back of the hand?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay, so and, of course, you are not the expert.
24 So you can't tell us whether, if anything was found on that 25 sample, whether it was found, where it was found at? All
26 you know it was on the back of the hand; is that right?

27 A. That's correct.

28 Q. You don't know where on the back of the hand?

29 A. That's correct.

1           Q.    And you don't know, for instance, if-- and certain
2 parts of the back of the hand might touch certain things in
3 certain people. In other words, certain parts of the back of 4 the hand are more likely to touch certain parts of furniture
5 than others. Isn't that true?

6           A.    I wouldn't have any idea about that.

7           Q.    That is a bad question. Just throw it out.

8           A.    Okay.

9           Q.    But in any event, what I'm saying is that you don't
10 know where it came from, and of course, you don't know
11 exactly where Mr. Curtis may have put his hand that day or 12 any other day; is that correct?

13          A.    That's correct.

14          Q.    Okay, so you have no way of knowing that. But you
15 do know you took the whole back of the hand, and you don't 16 know where, if anything came from his hand, where it came 17 from. Is that correct? Because you certainly--

18          A.    --I know it came from the back-- from that vial.
19 That's all I do know.

20          Q.    Yeah, but of course, you couldn't see anything?

21          A.    That's correct.

22          Q.    So you don't really know of your personal
23 knowledge; is that correct?

24          A.    No, sir.

25          Q.    Okay. But now another thing I was wondering; did
26 you pick Mr. Flowers up that day, or did someone else go get
27 him?

28          A.    What day?

29          Q.    The day of the 16th.

1 A. No, sir. I didn't pick him up.

2 Q. A couple of other officers brought him in to you?

3 A. That's what I understand.

4 Q. Okay, and one of them's name is Kenneth? Is that
5 correct?

6 A. (No immediate response.)

7 Q. Ken something or another or if you know?

8 A. I don't know.

9 Q. These are Winona police officers; right?

10 A. I believe one of them was a state trooper, and one
11 of them was a Winona police officer.

12 Q. In his statement that you read, Mr. Flowers
13 mentions a gentleman by the name of Kenneth came to pick him
14 up. Do you recall that?

15 A. I would have to look back in the statement.

16 Q. Okay, in any event, so you don't know -- now
17 generally speaking as a courtesy, for instance, you met Mr.
18 Freelon at one point prior to coming here today; isn't that
19 correct?

20 A. A couple of times.

21 Q. Okay, whenever you met him, you would shake hands;
22 right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And that is generally a courtesy that people afford
25 themselves; men in any event in tradition and custom; right?

26 A. (Witness nods his head.)

27 Q. Okay, and so you don't know whether or not the 28 hands were shaken between the officers that came to get him
29 and Mr. Curtis Flowers; is that correct?

1           A.    I was not there.

2           Q.    Okay.  So now the other thing, the advice of rights
3 form.  I notice you said that that was signed, or you don't
4 have it here.  But there is an advice of rights form which I
5 think may already be in evidence for a different purpose
6 which it should be up here.  This is 16th of July, and this 7 is on another date.  But Mr., Mr. Flowers signed that; is
8 that correct?

9                       (Hands document to witness.)

10          A.    That's correct.

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  And for the record, Judge, I
12 think this is marked at this point as a State's
13 Exhibit 67.

14          Q.    Okay.  And it looks like you signed it too; is that
15 correct?

16          A.    That's correct.

17          Q.    It looks like the people who signed it used the 18 same pen to sign it; is that correct?  Wouldn't you say that 19 by just looking at the pen there?

20          A.    I don't know.  It doesn't appear that Mr. Johnson
21 used the same pen.

22          Q.    Okay, but you and Mr. Curtis seemed to use the same
23 pen; is that correct?

24          A.    Well, that is possible.

25          Q.    It is possible.  Anyway, from looking at here.  So
26 in any event you know you signed it right about the same time
27 that he signed it; is that correct?

28          A.    Yes, sir.

29          Q.    Okay.  And it is also true that you have-- now that

1 was, that was signed and then you talked to him for a while;
2 is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Okay, then later on in the day is when you gave
5 him, when he agreed to let you take the swab from his hand;
6 is that correct?

7 A. Right. About 30 minutes later, I think.

8 Q. 30 minutes later. And let me see if I understand
9 it correctly. You didn't have any problems as far as you
10 know getting him to come down there, did you?

11 A. Not that I know of.

12 Q. And because you didn't-- I know you weren't with 13 me, but no one reported any problems to you?

14 A. When he came down there, he, I mean we asked him,
15 you know, if he had a problem, you know, coming down there
16 and talking with us, and he indicated that he didn't.

17 Q. He was perfectly cooperative?

18 A. He was cooperative.

19 Q. And he did whatever you asked him to do?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Even though he didn't even have a lawyer present;
22 right?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. You told him he could go get a lawyer, and he said,
25 well. He just said, well, let's go; right?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. But he didn't go get a lawyer?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. He just was totally cooperative. He told you

1 whatever you asked him; right?

2 A. He answered our questions; yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay, he answered your questions. And for 4 instance, you asked him questions. I notice that here you
5 asked questions about the experience at the Tardy Furniture
6 Store, and he answered those questions. Is that correct?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. And that is probably the reason you wanted to talk
9 to him because you wondered about the experience at Tardy
10 Furniture Store. Is that correct?

11 A. Well, not on that form. That form was taken two 12 days later.

13 Q. Oh, I see. Okay, but you did ask at some point
14 about the experience at Tardy Furniture Store; is that
15 correct?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, and he explained to you what happened; right?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. He essentially said the same thing about what 20 happened on the 16th that he said on the 18th; is that
21 correct?

22 A. About what?

23 Q. About the batteries dropping; right?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And about Ms. Tardy saying that he would have to 26 pay for them if she couldn't get it taken care of some other
27 way; right?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Said he had no problem with it; right?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Said he was not upset; right?

3 A. Said he wasn't.

4 Q. Said he understood; right?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And in any event, what we are talking about anyway
7 in terms of his check being eaten up is some $82.00; is that
8 correct?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And I notice that the check was still there. In 11 other words, Ms. Tardy had actually written out-- well,
12 somebody had written out a check on 7-5-96; is that correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Okay--

15 A. --It appears to.

16 Q. Huh?

17 A. It appears that someone did.

18 Q. And 7-5-96 if I understand, actually that is after 19 7-3-96. That would be true, wouldn't it?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. And 7-3-96 is when the batteries were dropped;
22 right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. So somebody wrote out a check two days later
25 anyway; right?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. And Mr. Flowers told you there was no problem
28 between him and Ms. Tardy; right?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. He said that if she had to take the money, it was
2 okay. That's what he said; right?

3 A. That's what he said in his statement; yes, sir.

4 Q. Well, I mean and when you say that's what he said
5 in his statement, I mean all you have -- other people have
6 told you things about, for instance, where they were that day
7 and who they saw that day. You weren't there, were you?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. So all you are doing is just writing down what they 10 say; right?

11 A. That's right.

12 Q. And unlike when Mr. Flowers gave you the statement, 13 when you talked to a lot of the people that you talked to,
14 there had already been a reward offered in this case. Isn't
15 that true?

16 A. I don't-- when the time we talked to him, I don't 17 think there had been a reward offered.

18 Q. Yeah, well, let's take an example. Clemmie Fleming
19 at the time you talked to her, you didn't talk to her until 20 sometime in 1997. Isn't that true?

21 A. I believe that's right.

22 Q. And a reward had been offered; right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Published in the paper; right?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. And the same thing is true of Jeanette Fleming.
27 You didn't talk to her, or you talked to Jeanette Fleming,
28 Mary Jeanette Fleming in let's say February of 1997; right?

29 A. I don't remember the exact date, but I have talked

1 to her some time after that. I know it was in '97.

2 Q. Right. And actually at that time there had been a
3 wide published article that the Defendant had been arrested.
4 Mr. Flowers had been arrested; isn't that true?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. And so, and in that same paper they had an article
7 there talking about reward still good for more information;
8 right?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And that's when you-- it was only after that that 11 you talked to Mary Jeanette Fleming; right?

12 A. I talked to her sometime in '97. I don't 13 remember--

14 Q. --well, in any--

15 A. --I remember it was after, it was after he had been 16 arrested.

17 Q. But in any event now it would be safe to say that
18 she didn't come to you on the 16th and tell you anything
19 about seeing Curtis Flowers; right, walking toward Tardy's?

20 A. No, sir. She did not.

21 Q. And actually she never said that he was-- well,
22 strike that. She didn't come to you on any time in July and 23 say that?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. She didn't tell you that at any other time in 1996?

26 A. No, sir.

27 Q. She didn't tell you that in the first month before
28 he was arrested of 1997?

29 A. I don't remember exactly when she told us in '97.

1 I don't remember the exact date.

2 Q. Well, we will get back to that in a little while.
3 Okay, but in any event the same would be true with what I
4 just said as far as Clemmie Fleming is concerned. Isn't that
5 true?

6 A. I don't remember the exact date that she came
7 forward.

8 Q. I see. But let me see. So at the time that you
9 talked to Mr. Flowers, apparently he was a suspect because of 10 the, what you understood to be him being terminated at the 11 job and which you understood to be the battery incident; is
12 that correct?

13 A. Well, we had information that, you know, that he
14 had worked down there, had had that problem and had recently
15 been let go, and we wanted to talk to him about it.

16 Q. I understand. And actually on your form here where 17 you took the gunpowder residue, you actually refer to him as 18 a suspect, don't you?

19 A. Yeah. It asks for a brief description of the 20 suspect's activities from the time of the shooting until the 21 time that the things were taken, and I said the suspect, what 22 he told me, was at his residence prior to questioning and his 23 other activities were unknown.

24 Q. Do you do the same routine every morning when you
25 get up, or do sometimes you do different things?

26 A. Sometimes I do different things.

27 Q. And if I was to come to you at 2 o'clock the day of 28 any given morning, you may not, you remember, you would try
29 to remember the best you could the things you had done that

1 morning if I asked you. Isn't that correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. But you are not keeping time unless you are on the 4 job or something like that and there is a reason for you to 5 keep time. If it's a day off, for instance, you are not
6 keeping time of everything what you do; right?

7 A. Well, what time frame are you referring to?

8 Q. Well, I mean for instance if you are at home and 9 you are relaxing, you go out to the store. You go over to 10 somebody's house. You don't look at the clock every time you
11 leave, do you? You do?

12 A. Well, I keep pretty close attention to it.

13 Q. Okay, you do that; right?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. You understand there is people who don't do that;
16 right?

17 A. Could be.

18 Q. Okay. Well, and so if a person doesn't have any 19 particular reason to keep the time like, for instance, that 20 it's required for their job to write it down, they could very 21 well be unaware of what time it is; right?

22 A. Possibly.

23 Q. Mr. Flowers on the 16th, at that point in time he 24 was not working; right?

25 A. That's correct.

26 Q. He was baby sitting; right?

27 A. That's what he told us.

28 Q. He wasn't punching a clock as far as you know, was 29 he?

1 A. Not that I know of.

2 Q. Okay, and so between the statement he gave to you,
3 and by the way the first statement that you took on the 4 7-16-96, you really didn't take a taped statement, did you?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. So you really don't have anything down here as 7 exactly what was said, do you?

8 A. Just those notes.

9 Q. These are just notes?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Your recollection of what was said; right?

12 A. Right. Correct.

13 Q. You know, sometimes people who reside with other
14 people, husband and wife, fiancé, boyfriend and girlfriend,
15 whatever -- one gets up and goes to work; right? That 16 happens; right?

17 A. I am sure.

18 Q. The other one wakes up, might get up out of the 19 bed, might not; right?

20 A. (Witness shrugs.)

21 Q. That happens; right?

22 A. I am sure it does.

23 Q. Okay, and then they might go right back to bed;
24 right?

25 A. Possible.

26 Q. Okay, you don't think they necessarily punch a
27 clock on it, do you?

28 A. I don't, wouldn't have any idea.

29 Q. Okay, but in any event, you didn't write down the

1 exact conversation here, so you don't have the exact language
2 of what Mr. Flowers said to you on the 16th, do you?

3 A. I know what he said on the 16th.

4 Q. Well, that is not my question. You don't have for 5 us the exact language of what he said?

6 A. No, I don't have a taped statement or a word for 7 word statement as to what he said.

8 Q. But Mr. Flowers told you on both the 16th and the 9 18th that he went to two places on that day. Is that
10 correct?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay. He didn't say that he had never walked down
13 Academy before; right?

14 A. I don't remember if we asked, whether we asked him
15 that question or not.

16 Q. But he never told you that he never was on the east
17 side of - what do you call it? - 51. He didn't ever tell
18 you, "Well, I have never been on the east side of 51 in my 19 life." He didn't tell you that; right?

20 A. Oh, no.

21 Q. Okay. In fact, didn't he tell you that he often
22 walks towards Tardy's because he walks from his house
23 frequently when he was working there and actually walked
24 across there and went down a number of streets and wound up
25 at Tardy's. Did he tell you that?

26 A. Yes, sir. I believe he did.

27 Q. Okay, and so he has never told you that he has 28 never walked past the gentleman's house, BoJack's house.
29 What is his name? Edward Kennedy. He never said, "I have

1 never walked past there"; right?

2 A. I don't think we asked him that question.

3 Q. Okay, but he never told you that in any event, did
4 he?

5 A. Not that I-- he told me that he wasn't, that
6 morning that he wasn't on that side of 51 Highway.

7 Q. And that's the only thing he told you; right?

8 A. And that question was asked more than once.

9 Q. Okay. And he said several times that he wasn't on 10 the east side; is that correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. On that particular day?

13 A. On that day.

14 Q. Okay. And of course, okay. Where were you when 15 you got the call on this case?

16 A. I was at my desk in Greenwood.

17 Q. And how long had you been at work?

18 A. Since approximately 8:00 that morning.

19 Q. You remember that because that is when you are 20 always there, or you remember that because you remember you
21 were there that particular day?

22 A. Well, I remember where I was that day.

23 Q. Okay, every hour of that day?

24 A. Yeah. That date kind of stands out in my mind as 25 to where I was. You know, I mean I might not be able to tell
26 you the exact minute, but I know about where I was that day.

27 Q. Every hour that day? Even before you came to work?

28 A. I know where I was before I got the call, where I
29 was; yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. And you are a
2 police officer; right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. Let me ask you this. I would like to have
5 the exhibit -- well, before we do that, let me, can I get
6 this board over here, please.

7 (Mr. Lumumba brings over easel containing pad
8 with large white paper.)

9 Q. I will put this out here. I hope everybody can see
10 it. Off to the side so we can also see the-- can everybody
11 see? (Jurors nod their heads.) Can you see this?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay. Now at some point in time you interviewed a 14 gentleman by the name of James "BoJack" Kennedy; is that
15 correct?

16 A. I didn't interview him; no, sir.

17 Q. But you indicated that Mr. BoJack pointed out to 18 you where he saw Mr. Curtis Flowers at some point; right?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. By the way, do you understand that the Anguilla
21 factory actually runs, the parking side of it runs all the 22 way down to Church Street? Do you understand? Church-- it's 23 not Anguilla Drive. There is a place called Anguilla Drive.
24 Am I correct?

25 A. I believe it is called Angelica.

26 Q. Angelica, I'm sorry. Angelica Drive, you
27 understand that; correct?

28 A. Yeah, and it runs off of 51. It is just a short
29 street there.

1 Q. Yeah, but it also runs all the way down to where
2 the factory faces, where the parking lot is. It goes all the
3 way down to Church Street; right?

4 A. I would have to look at a map to know for sure.

5 Q. Okay. But anyway, Church Street is about a block
6 south or, of 51; right?

7 A. I don't have a map.

8 Q. We will look at the map in a minute. But anyway,
9 Mr. BoJack, when he was talking to you and he talked to the 10 other gentleman who was interviewing him, he indicated that 11 the person he saw that day had on long white pants. (Mr.
12 Lumumba writes on large pad on easel.) And secondly, that 13 they had a black sweater on; is that right?

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. This 15 witness has said that he did not interview him on 16 these facts.

17 BY THE COURT: I believe he did. That's what 18 he testified to.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Well, let me ask you this. Were you present when 21 he was pointing out the spots where he was supposed to have 22 saw somebody at?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. You weren't present?

25 A. No, sir. I was not.

26 Q. You are telling us what somebody-- you put on that 27 map what somebody else said?

28 A. Information that I received, was at the location
29 that he was showing me of where he was seen.

1 Q. Okay. Well, then you also, I am sure, you also
2 received information and information was made available to
3 you, I am sure, as to what his description of the person was
4 on that day. Isn't that correct?

5 A. I don't remember what the description was.

6 Q. Okay, well, you have had an opportunity to see the 7 taped statement from Mr. BoJack, haven't you?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Have you had an opportunity to see the notes from 10 Mr. BoJack?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. You haven't seen either one of those?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. You are not aware of the fact that he said that the 15 person he saw had a black sweater on and white pants, long
16 white pants?

17 A. I have not seen that statement.

18 Q. Oh, okay. Well, all right. You don't dispute that 19 though, do you?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again I hate to 21 have to object, but this has nothing to do with
22 this particular witness.

23 BY THE COURT: It really doesn't. Let's move
24 on.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Now the witness by the name of Katherine Snow, I
27 will just put "K. Snow." You were present when she was being 28 interviewed; right?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay. And she really never gave you a clothing
2 description except to say that the person didn't have a cap
3 on; is that right?

4 A. I don't remember that she said that.

5 Q. I'm going to see if this document refreshes your 6 recollection as to an interview that you had with her on 7 7-25-96.

8 A. These are not my, this is not my handwriting. I
9 don't know that I was--

10 Q. What is your name?

11 A. Jack Matthews.

12 Q. Okay. And so were you present?

13 A. No, sir. Those are not my initials.

14 Q. Okay. So you don't know what she said about the 15 man having just no cap on. You are not familiar with that?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. Okay. But you are not familiar with what time she 18 said she saw the man?

19 A. Yes, sir. It was approximately 30 minutes after 20 she went to work that morning.

21 Q. You remember her saying between 7:00 and 7:30?

22 A. Somewhere along in that time; yes, sir.

23 Q. (Mr. Lumumba writes on easel pad.) And if she said
24 the man didn't have a cap, you wouldn't dispute that, would
25 you?

26 A. I don't remember anything about it.

27 Q. Were you present at any time when she took, when 28 she gave a taped statement?

29 A. No, sir.

1 Q. Okay. (Turns page on easel.) Then the other
2 person that you have talked about here is, I think that you
3 demonstrated on the map something about a person by the name
4 of Clemmie... (Counsel writes on board) Fleming. Were you
5 present when Clemmie Fleming was interviewed?

6 A. No, I was not.

7 Q. You were not? And were you present when Jeanette
8 Fleming was interviewed?

9 A. Yes. Jeanette Fleming.

10 Q. You were present?

11 A. I was present.

12 Q. Okay. I will put J. Fleming. (Counsel writes on 13 board.) And at the time she was interviewed she said the man
14 she saw had on black jeans, dressy looking black jeans;
15 right?

16 A. I would have to look at the statement. I don't 17 remember exactly what she.

18 Q. She said the man had black pants on, sort of dressy
19 like; is that right? (Counsel writes on board.)

20 A. Sir? I didn't understand your question.

21 Q. The man had black pants on?

22 A. That's what she said.

23 Q. Okay, she didn't say anywhere in there that he had 24 long white pants on; right?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. Okay. She indicated that the man had a white shirt
27 on?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Said he was dressy?

1 A. Sort of dressy like.

2 Q. And what time did she say she saw the man? She
3 said this occurred some time around about 9 o'clock; is that
4 right?

5 A. (Long pause.) I'm looking for a time, but I don't--

6 Q. Well, let me help you here if I can. Let me see.
7 She indicated that-- okay. She indicated it was when she was 8 downtown; is that correct? And did she say something about 9 she had dropped off her car? Do you remember her saying that
10 at Weed Brothers?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay. So whatever time she was supposed to have 13 dropped her car off at Weed Brothers, that's when this was 14 supposed to have happened. Is that correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. By the way, her statement didn't come, you don't 17 remember interviewing her anytime before February the 13th of
18 1997; is that correct?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. Okay. So her interview was on... (Counsel writes
21 on board.) Her interview was actually on February 13th, 22 '97. This incident actually happened in July of '96; is
23 that correct?

24 A. That's correct. July the 16th.

25 Q. July 16th, okay. So she was talking to you about 26 something which she thinks happened-- it would have been like
27 at least six or seven or eight months ago; is that correct?

28 A. Yeah, looks like about six or seven.

29 Q. But she did say black pants, white shirt, sort of

1 dressy. You do remember that?

2 A. It's in the statement; yes, sir.

3 Q. And you don't remember her saying he had any long
4 white pants on?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Okay. Did you ever talk to a person by the name of 7 Hollman, Patricia Ann Hollman?

8 A. I don't remember talking to her.

9 Q. You don't remember Patricia. Did you ever get a
10 report where Patricia Ann Hollman claims that the person that 11 she saw had on a T-shirt? She is claiming that the person,
12 that on that day Mr. Flowers had a white T-shirt on and black
13 silk or--

14 A. --I don't remember ever talking to Patricia Ann
15 Hollman.

16 Q. Okay, you never talked to her at all?

17 A. I'm not going to say that I didn't. I don't 18 remember it.

19 Q. Have you ever seen reports--

20 A. Not that I'm aware of.

21 Q. --of where, what her testimony was?

22 A. No, sir, not that I'm aware of.

23 Q. Or what her statement was?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Okay. Well, you would -- could we have a copy of 26 exhibit, the exhibit, transparent exhibit?

27 (Reporter handed Exhibit S-70 to Mr. Lumumba.)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to try to put this 29 into perspective here, Judge. I'm not used to this

1 machine, so we will do the best we can.

2 (Turns on overhead projector and places
3 Exhibit S-70 on it.)

4 All right, here we go. (Pause) Well,
5 Judge--

6 BY THE COURT: --I think you have got it
7 upside down.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I'm not having a lot
9 of success here. Okay. Here we go. Here we go.
10 Looks like our spot is still there. No, they are.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. Okay, you see the red marks that you put on the 13 chart here; is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you see the mark up there that you put at the 16 Defendant's house. That is up at the top. There is a blue
17 mark at what we call-- we have a pointer here, I believe. Up
18 here at McNutt Street; is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Now you would agree with me, don't you, if a person
21 came into this house around about between 7:00 and 7:30 A M
22 and had a person wearing a black windbreaker kind of pants
23 and a white T-shirt, came into this house about that time and 24 stayed in there 20 minutes or so, came in somewhere between 25 7:00, 7:30 and stayed in there 20 minutes; then that person
26 could not have been at Anguilla-- Angelica -- I am sorry;
27 thank you -- could not have been at Angelica which is 28 somewhere down here over to the left. I'm sorry. Angelica.

29 BY THE DEFENDANT: To your left.

1           Q.    Right here.   Actually it is called something else
2   on your map here; right?  But in any event, this is Angelica
3   Road right here; is that correct, or Angelica Drive?

4           A.    Yes, coming off 51.

5           Q.    Okay, but you notice how Angelica Drive comes into 6   Church Street here?  Did you notice that?  This is Church
7   Street; right?

8           A.    I can't, I can't see from here.

9           Q.    Okay, you can approach.  You can approach.  Feel 10   free.

11          A.    (Witness steps down closer to projector.)

12          Q.    Just stand off.  Just take a look and when you
13   talk, stand off to the side.  You know that this is Church
14   Street; right, at the bottom here?

15          A.    That's what it appears to be; yes, sir.

16          Q.    Okay, and you know that this Angelica Drive goes
17   all the way down here to Church Street?

18          A.    Yes.

19          Q.    And you know that the factory that you are talking 20   about is right at the end of this street.  You know that?

21          A.    I don't know exactly, you know, where it's located
22   on there.  I know it's on that drive right in there.

23          Q.    So you don't know exactly where it's located.  You
24   don't know it's located way up here, do you?

25          A.    No, I know it's located on that road right there.

26          Q.    So--

27          A.    --I'm not aware of any, exactly where, you know.

28          Q.    Okay.

29          A.    The exact location on that film.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Or that map.

3 Q. I understand that. But what I'm saying to you, you
4 don't know then. If you don't know that, you don't know that
5 it's located way up here where you put that red mark. It
6 could very well be located down here at Church Street?

7 A. It's a possibility.

8 Q. In any event, if it is located down here at Church
9 Street, then it would be actually east of Academy Street; is 10 that correct, southeast?

11 A. (Witness shrugs.)

12 Q. That is where it would be if it's located--

13 A. --if it's down there, yes.

14 Q. And you just don't know?

15 A. I know it's on that drive right there, and it's 16 just a little short street right off of Highway 51. You can 17 see the factory from 51.

18 Q. I understand, but then the factory has a parking
19 lot?

20 A. A large parking lot.

21 Q. And it's on Church Street or right off of Church
22 Street. You know that?

23 A. It comes right off of-- the road that leads into it
24 runs right into -- this road here runs right into the parking
25 lot.

26 Q. Okay. It runs right into the parking lot right at 27 Church Street. You know that?

28 A. Well, I don't know whether it's at Church Street or 29 not.

1           Q.    Okay, but anyway, you would agree with me that it
2           would be difficult for a person to be in this lot at between
3           7:00 and 7:30 and also be up here between 7:00 and 7:30
4           spending twenty minutes in the home. Between that time?

5           A.    I don't understand your question.

6           Q.    Okay. If you have got a person that is up here
7           between 7:00 and 7:30 and they spend twenty minutes in this 8           house, then it would be difficult for them to be there and at 9           the same time be down here on the drive at the Angelica
10          plant; right? At the same time?

11          A.    Well, if they went in the house at 7 o'clock and 12          came out at 7:20, is that what you are saying?

13          Q.    Yeah.

14          A.    And then they went down there?

15          Q.    Yeah.

16          A.    They could be there in relatively, somewhere in the 17          neighborhood of 7:30 or maybe just a little bit later.

18          Q.    It would take at least 14 or 15 minutes for them to 19          walk down there, wouldn't it?

20          A.    I would think at least.

21          Q.    Okay. And in any event, if they had black pants
22          when they left this house, they would have black pants when 23          they passed this spot that you have listed for -- you listed
24          a spot here which is supposed to be where Mr. BoJack was;
25          right? Mr. Kennedy?

26          A.    Kennedy.

27          Q.    Yeah, but actually where Mr. Kennedy lives is right
28          at the corner of Angelica Drive and 51; isn't that true?

29          A.    Well, that street is just, like I say, it's just a

1 little old short street there. It is just a few houses there
2 on that street.

3 Q. Does he live right at the corner?

4 A. I don't know exactly where he lives.

5 Q. So you don't know that he lives all the way down
6 here which appears to be some ways off of 51?

7 A. I know he lives on that street.

8 Q. Okay. You don't know that he lives right up here
9 on the corner?

10 A. I don't know exactly where he lives.

11 Q. Okay, but in any event, wherever he lives, it would
12 be safe to say that the person left there wearing black
13 pants. Unless they changed somewhere out here in the street,
14 they would still have black pants by the time they got down
15 here shortly after 7:30. Isn't that correct?

16 A. Unless they stopped and changed.

17 Q. Okay. Well, if they stopped and changed and then
18 kept going, then it would be still considerably-- that means
19 that they would even be later by the time they got to 20 Angelica Drive; right? Is that true?

21 A. Well, yes. A few seconds, yeah.

22 Q. Okay, and in any event, you would agree also, would
23 you not, that -- now I think you left us a mark here. Now I
24 think that this was an accidental marking which was supposed
25 to be a dot, but if I remember correctly, this mark was 26 supposed to represent a mark on Campbell Street. Is that
27 correct?

28 A. I believe it should have been on Carrollton there.

29 Q. On Carrollton Street, okay?

1 A. The mark should have been on Carrollton.

2 Q. And this was supposed to represent the location of
3 Jeanette Fleming; is that correct?

4 A. Yeah, but it is on that other street, Carrollton.

5 Q. Okay, it should have been over here on Carrollton?

6 A. Carrollton.

7 Q. So it's in the wrong spot?

8 A. Right. I just got messed up. I was looking down.

9 Q. Okay, it should have been over here?

10 A. It should have been right there.

11 Q. Should have been over here?

12 A. Or down a little bit.

13 Q. Down a little bit, okay. But in any event, it
14 would be safe to say that wherever the mark is supposed to 15 be, that the woman who said that she saw somebody over here
16 on Carrollton Street said that they had black pants on. Is
17 that correct?

18 A. I didn't talk with her. I don't know what--

19 Q. Oh.

20 A. --what description she gave.

21 Q. Okay, well, let's assume that she said dressy black
22 pants and a dressy white shirt, button up, okay? Can you get
23 that for a moment? Assume that's in the report.

24 A. Who are we talking about?

25 Q. Jeanette Fleming.

26 A. Now that is not the location that Jeanette Fleming.

27 Q. Okay, well, where did Jeanette Fleming supposed to 28 be?

29 A. It's up there on-- excuse me. I made a mistake. I

1 made a mistake. This is where Jeanette Fleming. (Witness
2 points to red mark.) You are right. This is Jeanette. I
3 thought you said Cassie first-- I mean Clemmie.

4 A. Okay, well, Jeanette Fleming was supposed to have
5 of-- well, let's assume that Jeanette Fleming testified and
6 she gave a report saying the person was dressy, had black--
7 and in fact, you just looked at Jeanette Fleming's report,
8 and she said that the person was supposed to be dressy, had a
9 white shirt and black pants.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Excuse me, Mr. Lumumba. Your 11 Honor, my only objection is at this point I'm going
12 to object to going into these reports unless I'm 13 going to be allowed to go into the reports. I just 14 want to point that out. I intend to go into them,
15 and if I'm not going to be allowed to, I do object
16 at this point to him being allowed to go into them.

17 BY THE COURT: Well, they are hearsay.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, Judge, let me ask
19 as far as Jeanette Fleming is concerned--

20 BY THE COURT: --And they are also cumulative
21 in the sense that she has already testified.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let me pass from
23 that.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. I think that you told us that you were present when
26 Jeanette Fleming told you guys that the person had black
27 pants, a white shirt, and was sort of dressy. Were you
28 present when she said that?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay, so you were there when she said that sometime
2 in February of 1997?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Okay. And she is the one that suggested the person
5 was over here on this street which is Campbell Street. Is
6 that correct?

7 A. That's correct, and that is the right location. I
8 thought we were talking about the other lady.

9 Q. Okay. So we are talking about a person that 10 started out up here wearing black, wearing a white T-shirt
11 and black silky looking warm up pants, gets down, and then we 12 have another person down here who passes with long white
13 pants and a black sweater. Then we have another person who 14 gets over here and has a dressy black jeans and a white
15 button up shirt. Do you know that that is what your 16 investigation disclosed?

17 A. That is, the only person I talked to in that 18 scenario that you just gave is Jeanette Fleming, and I know
19 what she says. As far as what the other two individuals
20 stated, I don't know, and I don't have any knowledge of
21 that.

22 Q. Okay. I see. Now let me ask you this. Did you
23 talk to Mr. Simpson, Doyle Simpson?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Did he report to you that the person reported to 26 him to be in the parking lot was supposed to have had white
27 shorts on and some kind of T-shirt? Did he report that to
28 you?

29 A. I don't remember exactly what he reported.

1 Q. Did he report to you that the person was supposed
2 to have a white cap on?

3 A. I don't remember whether he did or didn't.

4 Q. Oh, excuse me; not, no, wasn't supposed to have
5 white shorts on. This person was supposed to have blue
6 shorts on. He never reported that? He never said that?

7 A. He may have. I don't remember it.

8 Q. Okay, you can adjourn.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. It is 12 o'clock, and 10 they are expecting the jury for lunch, so we are 11 going to break at this point for lunch. We will 12 resume at 1 o'clock.

13 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON MARCH 27, 1999,
14 TRIAL RESUMED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT, ALL
15 COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

16 BY THE COURT: I need the jury and Mr.
17 Matthews.

18 JURY ENTERS COURTROOM.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed, Judge?

20 BY THE COURT: As soon as we get you a
21 witness.

22 (MR. JACK MATTHEWS ENTERED THE COURTROOM AND 23 RESUMED THE WITNESS STAND.)

24 BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

25 CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Mr. Matthews, as I understand it, so you were 27 present when Jeanette Fleming was being interviewed; is that
28 true?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay, and you did look at that interview, I
2 believe, and it did indicate that she described a person as
3 having black pants and a white shirt; is that correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Okay, and sort of dressy; is that true?

6 A. That's what she said. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay, now the only other thing is you were present
8 when Katherine Snow was initially talked to on the 16th of --
9 and Jeanette Fleming, by the way, let me just-- give me
10 that. Jeanette Fleming, as you remember, the interview was 11 some time in 1997. Is that true?

12 A. Yes, sir. I believe February.

13 Q. February, 1997?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay. Now Katherine Snow, I think you have 16 indicated was talked to on, or maybe you haven't indicated,
17 but she was talked to on the 16th. Is that true, the 16th of 18 July?

19 A. That could be true. I'm not positive about that.

20 Q. Okay. You didn't, you didn't participate in the 21 interview of BoJack or Mr. Kennedy?

22 A. No, I did not.

23 Q. And you didn't participate in the interview of 24 Clemmie Fleming as far as you know?

25 A. No, sir. I did not.

26 Q. But in any event, as far as Katherine Snow is 27 concerned, you were present on the 16th when she was 28 interviewed; is that correct?

29 A. Yes, sir. I was there.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Which exhibit number is that?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is just a report.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, so we would have a
4 clear record, I would just ask that any document he
5 be handed be marked for identification so there
6 would be a record of what it is.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let's do that.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Do you recognize that?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay.

12 (NOTES FROM KATHERINE SNOW INTERVIEW OF 13 7/16/96 WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-16 FOR
14 IDENTIFICATION.)

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. D-16 for identification purposes. If you need it
17 to refresh your recollection, use it. If you don't, you 18 don't have to.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. But in any event, would it be safe to say that on 21 the 16th of July, Katherine Snow never told you that she saw
22 a person by the name of Curtis Flowers in the Angelica lot?
23 She didn't say that, did she?

24 A. She didn't know the person that she saw in the lot.

25 Q. Okay. And so she gave you-- all she could do is 26 give some kind of description; is that correct?

27 A. That's correct.

28 Q. And that description didn't include any clothing
29 description. Is that also correct?

1           A.    The description she gave was dark skin, 25 to 30,
2   short hair, approximately 5'10", stocky build.  Could
3   possibly identify the subject.

4           Q.    Did she give any clothing description?

5           A.    That was all the description that she gave.

6           Q.    Okay.  Now on, do you remember, recall seeing her
7   again on the 19th of August of '96?

8           A.    No.  I'm not-- I may have but I don't recall.

9           Q.    Do you recall ever showing her any photo spread on 10   the 19th of August of '96?

11          A.    I know that she was shown one at some time.  I
12   don't know if that was the date she was shown.

13          Q.    Were you present?

14          A.    I want to-- yes, I want to think that I was.

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I would ask this document be 16   made, marked for identification purposes.

17                   (STATEMENT OF KATHERINE SNOW WAS MARKED AS 18   DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-17 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

19                   BY MR. EVANS:  May I see what document you
20   have got, Mr Lumumba?

21                   (Mr. Evans looks at Exhibit D-17 for
22   identification.)

23                   BY MR. EVANS:  Thank you.

24                   (Exhibit handed to the witness.)

25   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26           Q.    Would you have been present at the time that she,
27   and if you can use that to refresh your recollection, at the 28   time that she was shown a picture lineup?

29           A.    Yes, sir.  I was there.

1           Q.    Okay. And you, of course-- did she tell you at 2           that time that she had had a conversation with Mr. Doyle
3           Simpson at any time after the 16th of July?

4           A.    Yes. She worked at the Angelica plant, and she
5           knew Doyle.

6           Q.    Okay. Now my question is you don't know what, if 7           any, conversations her and Doyle had had between 7-16 and 8           8-19 of '96, do you?

9           A.    I'm not aware of any.

10          Q.    Okay. But in any event, at that particular point
11          in time when you showed her the picture display, she didn't 12          say that she knew Curtis Flowers or that that person was 13          Curtis Flowers at that time. Did she tell you that?

14          A.    I don't believe she knew his name at that time.
15          She recognized the picture, but I don't know that she knew
16          his name.

17          Q.    Yeah, well, that's my question. Did she indicate
18          to you at any time prior to 8-19-96 -- first of all, I want 19          to know did she indicate to you at any time prior to that 20          that the person she saw was Curtis Flowers? Did she ever say
21          that?

22          A.    She indicated to us on the 16th--

23          Q.    --Excuse me; excuse me. Can you tell me, can you
24          answer my question, and then once you do that, then I don't 25          have, I don't have any problem with you explaining. My 26          question is at any time prior to 8-19-96 did she ever say
27          that the person that she saw was Curtis Flowers?

28          A.    She didn't say that, but she also said that in our 29          initial interview that she didn't know who the person was,

1 but that she thought she could identify him.

2 Q. Okay, true. All right. Okay, but in any event,
3 she didn't say it was Curtis Flowers; right?

4 A. She didn't know who that person was.

5 Q. She didn't say she had ever seen him before; isn't
6 that true?

7 A. No, she did not say that now.

8 Q. She did not say that she had ever seen--

9 A. --never seen him before.

10 Q. Okay. Now the other thing is and then at any, on 11 the 19th of August, had she come to you and say, "Well, that 12 was Curtis Flowers" at that time?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. But she did work at the same plant where 15 Doyle worked; is that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. By the way, did she indicate to you when asked
18 initially that the, at that time that the height of the 19 person that she saw was 5 foot 6?

20 A. Well, here on the initial interview--

21 Q. --Can you answer my question, please, because we 22 are going to get to all of it.

23 A. It says--

24 Q. --The question I'm asking you, did she admit, did
25 she say on the taped interview that the person that she saw
26 was a dark skinned guy, talked about no hair or shaved real
27 low, and he was 5 foot 6 or somewhere in there?

28 A. Okay, are you talking about the interview on the 29 16th--

1 Q. --No.

2 A. --or the 19th of August?

3 Q. The one on the 19th. The one that you are holding
4 in your hand there.

5 A. Well, I am holding both of them.

6 Q. Okay, well, the one that I just handed you, the one
7 on the 19th. This is the one that I just handed you right
8 there.

9 A. Okay. All right. Now what was your question?

10 Q. Let's go down, do you see where it first says
11 "Johnson" up there, where the questions and answers began?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay, let's go 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 paragraphs 14 down. Do you see that?

15 A. Is this Johnson or Snow?

16 Q. Snow. Starts with Snow. Do you see where it
17 starts with Snow?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Okay, said he was dark skinned guy, no hair or 20 shaved real low, about 5 foot 6 or somewhere in there. Is 21 that what she told you?

22 A. That's what she said on the 19th; yes, sir.

23 Q. And then Johnson says, "I think you have already 24 given us a height of 5 foot 10." And then at that point she 25 says, "yes, sir." Is that correct?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay, so anyway at least in that interview she was 28 saying that the person was about 5 foot 6; is that correct?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1           Q.    Okay. Now the only, just a few other questions. I
2 understand that, just to make sure I had this straight. You
3 talked to-- at some point you said you went by and you
4 checked on the people in the house as far as the children who
5 lived in the house. Were you aware of the fact that Ms.
6 Moore, Connie Moore had a child by the name of Marcus, not
7 Lemarcus but Marcus also?

8           A.    Yes, I knew that she had another child.

9           Q.    Okay, and that child, did you ever see that child?

10          A.    No, sir. She indicated to us that he didn't live
11 there in the house.

12          Q.    Okay. And she indicated to you that he had lived
13 there and he still visited; is that correct?

14          A.    (No immediate response.)

15          Q.    If you know?

16          A.    I don't know.

17          Q.    Okay. Now let me ask you this. Would it be safe
18 to say that that child was an older child?

19          A.    I understand that he was older than the other two 20 children.

21          Q.    But in any event, the young man that you saw was a
22 little fellow-- well, when I say a little fellow, he was 23 about what? 7, 8, 9?

24          A.    He was about 9, I think.

25          Q.    About 9. And his foot at that time according to 26 your checking, according to what you told the ladies and 27 gentlemen of the jury, was 7 and a half. Is that correct?

28          A.    That's correct.

29          Q.    Okay. Now are you aware of the fact that or do you

1 know whether or not Mr. Johnson was supposed to have checked
2 his foot later on, about a year or maybe several months
3 later?

4 A. I'm not aware of that. No, sir.

5 Q. About when was this that you say you checked the 6 man's foot or the young boy's foot?

7 A. It was just a few days after the 16th. I don't
8 remember exactly what day. It was the day we went by there
9 and retrieved some articles from the house.

10 Q. Okay, you also retrieved, yes, you retrieved from 11 some clothing from the house; is that correct?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And ultimately that clothing was forwarded on to 14 the laboratory to be examined for any kind of evidence; is
15 that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And you are aware of the fact that the reason that 18 you forwarded that is you wanted to see if there was any 19 trace evidence that they can work with; is that correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Like any blood or sweat or saliva or anything that 22 might come from the victims on the clothes; right?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. And that's why you sent it there?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Okay. Now you actually took not only one pair of 27 shoes of Mr. Flowers, you actually took two pair of shoes of 28 Mr. Flowers; isn't that correct?

29 A. That's correct.

1           Q.    Okay, and neither one of shoes of Mr. Flowers that 2   you took matched-- well, neither one of those matched the 3   impressions; is that correct?

4           A.    That's correct.

5           Q.    Did you make that determination, or did the expert
6   make that determination?

7           A.    Well, it was obvious that you could make it by
8   looking at the bottom of the shoe.

9           Q.    You never searched Emmitt's house because I think--
10   you have shared that with me; right?  You never--

11          A.    --We eliminated Emmitt Simpson on the 16th.

12          Q.    Okay, and you eliminated, you said you eliminated
13   Doyle Simpson; is that correct?

14          A.    That's correct.

15          Q.    And it would be safe to say that you had 16   information suggesting that at certain points in the day
17   Doyle Simpson had left the building; isn't that correct?

18          A.    Yes, sir.  He left--

19          Q.    I mean did you-- I'm not asking you when he left.
20   I am asking you did you have information that he left?

21          A.    Yes, sir.  I had information that he left.

22          Q.    And of course, of your own personal knowledge, you
23   don't know how long he left; right?

24          A.    I know, you know, what was told.

25          Q.    What you were told?

26          A.    Yes.

27          Q.    And did you see any evidence that there was any 28   need for him to punch out when he left or anything like
29   that?  Did you see any evidence of any kind of time sheets

1 which required him to punch out when he left just to go to
2 lunch or for breakfast or something like that?

3 A. Yeah, I'm not, I'm not familiar with those.

4 Q. Okay, and same thing with Mr. Simpson. You
5 actually, were you present when Mr. Simpson was encountered
6 by the police for the first time?

7 A. Which Mr. Simpson?

8 Q. Emmitt Simpson.

9 A. Emmitt. No, sir. I was not present at that time.

10 Q. You were not?

11 A. No.

12 (Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

13 Q. Now let me just ask you a few things about were you
14 present at the time that Mr. Porky Collins appeared in a
15 lineup? Do you know? Mr. Porky Collins was shown a picture 16 display.

17 A. I was not present.

18 Q. You were not present. Okay.

19 (Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

20 Q. Do you know who put together the pictures for Ms.
21 Snow's lineup?

22 A. I want to think myself and Officer Miller, but I
23 may be -- I believe I was -- I haven't seen that lineup
24 lately. You know, I don't know. I might could look at it
25 and tell you whether or not.

26 Q. I am showing you Exhibit S-92 and ask you if you
27 can tell me who put those pictures together?

28 A. I did.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't have any other

1                   questions of the officer at this time.

2                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Are you through with the 3 board?

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am.

5                   BY THE COURT: Okay, let's move it back over
6 toward the wall.

7                   BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

8                   BY THE COURT: Yes.

9                   REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

10                  Q. Mr. Matthews, were you present when Ms. Snow was 11 shown the photo lineup?

12                  A. Yes, I was.

13                  Q. And this is the photo lineup that she was shown; is
14 that correct?

15                  A. Yes, sir.

16                  Q. Did she have any hesitance in picking Doyle
17 Simpson-- I mean Curtis Flowers out of that photo lineup?

18                  A. No, sir. She did not.

19                  Q. And did she, in fact, put her name or initials--

20                               BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Leading questions, Judge.

21                               BY THE COURT: Don't ask him leading
22 questions.

23                  BY MR. EVANS:

24                  Q. Look at the lineup and see whether or not she put 25 her name or initials on any photographs on that lineup?

26                  A. On the picture of Curtis Flowers she wrote her name 27 on the back of it.

28                  Q. Did you or anyone else attempt to persuade her
29 which photograph -- what, if anything, did you or anyone else

1 do to persuade her which photograph to pick out of that
2 lineup?

3 A. We laid it out and let her look at it, and she
4 picked out the person that she saw there in the parking lot
5 at Angelica.

6 Q. Now you have been questioned about the notes from 7 the interview that you took of the Defendant on the 16th.
8 Did you lie in any of those notes?

9 A. Sir?

10 Q. Did you lie in any of these notes?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. Is this what the Defendant told you on the 16th?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. What are the large, the widest discrepancies
15 related to on the two different interviews?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object. I think that is a
17 jury question. That is not subject to his 18 opinion. May we approach?

19 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

20 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
21 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: First of all, if something is 23 in discrepancy-- now he can lay, he laid out the 24 facts of what the Defendant stated. He is not 25 entitled to invade on the province of the jury and 26 make a determination of what the discrepancies
27 are. If there are discrepancies, they have already 28 been given both statements, so they can figure it
29 out.

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1           BY THE COURT: But he is entitled to testify as
2           to what is different between one and the other. I
3           mean he obviously can testify to that.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, also I don't
5           think it is an area that I went into on cross, so I
6           would like to get another opportunity to go over
7           it.

8           BY MR. FREELON: He didn't.

9           BY THE COURT: It's discrepancies between 10          who?

11          BY MR. EVANS: May I? The discrepancies
12          between the two statements that Curtis Flowers
13          gave.

14          BY THE COURT: Right.

15          BY MR. EVANS: He clearly went into both of 16          them and asked him questions about both statements.

17          BY THE COURT: I think he did. I'm going to 18          allow it.

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now I asked questions, but I
20          didn't ask anything about any discrepancies.

21          BY THE COURT: No, but I don't think you are
22          limited like that. I don't think he has to respond
23          exactly to what you say. It's the area.

24                               END BENCH CONFERENCE

25          BY MR. EVANS:

26                Q.    You may answer that question, Mr. Matthews. What 27                were the greatest discrepancies between the statement on the 28                16th and the statement on the 18th?

29                A.    It was the time that he had left the house that day

1 and where he was, at his sister's house and at Kelly's Stop
2 and Go.

3 Q. Now you have been asked by Mr. Lumumba if somebody
4 could be mistaken. At the time that he was down there on the 5 16th, did he know why he was being talked to?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. So he knew this was in relationship to what had
8 happened at Tardy's Furniture?

9 A. That's what we instructed him when he came into the 10 room, that we wanted to talk to him because he had been
11 previously employed at Tardy's, and we wanted to find out
12 about that, about his work and why he had been released.

13 Q. Now the normal operating procedure of an 14 investigator, is it necessary to attempt to find out
15 information?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. And in that attempt to find out information, is it
18 necessary to either include or exclude people as suspects?

19 A. That is correct.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, the questions are 21 still leading.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that can't be 23 directed--

24 BY THE COURT: That is overruled. Go ahead.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26 Q. You may answer that.

27 A. Frequently you talk to individuals, and you can
28 eliminate them shortly after you, after you talk with them
29 and find out their whereabouts--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, Judge, excuse me;
2 excuse me. I'm objecting. It is not within the
3 police requirements or province to eliminate
4 anybody. It is up to the jury to decide who is
5 included or eliminated. To the extent that they
6 are eliminating or-- that is totally irrelevant.
7 It is totally irrelevant, and it is invading the 8 province of the jury.

9 BY THE COURT: Of course, you asked that
10 question for sure, and then he only is testifying
11 he has eliminated him as a suspect in relation to 12 their investigation. That's all he has said. He
13 can testify to that. Overruled.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. Now Mr. Matthews, at this point we cannot go into 16 hearsay. I'm not asking that. But in relationship to your 17 investigation as far as Doyle Simpson, who did you talk to?

18 A. Who did I talk to to eliminate?

19 Q. Yes, sir.

20 A. I talked with his supervisor. I talked with people
21 that he worked with there in the plant. I talked to Mr.
22 Simpson himself as to where he was that morning, and we were
23 able to eliminate him that way.

24 Q. All right. And on Emmitt Simpson, who did you talk
25 to to eliminate him as a suspect?

26 A. I talked to his supervisor over at IBP, and I
27 talked with him, knew his whereabouts, knew who he was with.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

29 BY THE WITNESS:

1           A.     Knew what he was doing.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Objection.

3                   BY MR. EVANS:   Wait until opposing counsel's--

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   --How can he know--

5                   BY MR. EVANS:   --objection--

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   --where he was or what he was 7           doing?  I object.  It has got to be based on
8           hearsay.

9                   BY THE COURT:   Well, but that is not what he 10          is saying if I understand how he is testifying.  He 11          is understanding the steps he took in the 12          investigation to either include him--

13                   BY MR. EVANS:   --yes, sir--

14                   BY THE COURT:   --or eliminate him from their 15          investigation.  He is not testifying that he knew
16          where he was.  He is testifying why he would have 17          eliminated him from the investigation.

18                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   I understand that, Judge, but
19          what he is saying, I knew where he-- I knew this; I
20          knew that.  That's what he is saying.  That is his 21          words that is coming out of his mouth.

22                   BY THE COURT:   Okay, well, he might want to 23          rephrase his answer.

24       BY THE WITNESS:

25           A.     I was able to determine where he was during the 26          time in question.

27           Q.     You have been asked about the size of the DA's
28          office that is located in the Winona Police Department.  Can 29          you give us an idea of how big this whole police department

1 is?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. There has been no
3 questions on the size of the police department.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he clearly went
5 into how he came in the police department and the 6 size of the DA's office. Now I am only attempting 7 to explain that.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is in a different kind
9 of hearing that had nothing to do with the jury.
10 That was never gone into as far as his
11 cross-examination was concerned.

12 BY THE COURT: I sustain that objection.
13 Let's move on.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. All right, Mr. Matthews, without going into the 16 size, how do you get to the DA's office in the police
17 department?

18 A. Well, you walk through the front door of the 19 police department, and there is a pretty wide hall with 20 offices on each side, and the DA's office is located about 21 midway to a little over midway down that hallway. And they 22 have got an office there past the rest room facilities on the 23 other side.

24 Q. Do you have to go through any of the actual police
25 department to get to the DA's office?

26 A. Well, you just have to walk down the hall.

27 Q. Now you were asked specifically if it appeared that
28 the same pen was used where you signed your name and Curtis
29 Flowers signed his name on the waiver form. Is that correct?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2           Q.    How long had it been before this morning since you
3 had fired a weapon?

4           A.    Probably, maybe back during deer season.

5           Q.    Okay.

6           A.    Sometime maybe in January.

7           Q.    You were also specifically asked about talking with 8 Dennis Woods. Who is Dennis Woods?

9           A.    He is--

10                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Objection. I didn't ask
11 anything about Dennis Woods.

12                   BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir; he did. That was one
13 of the officers that brought him to the police
14 department.

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Judge, I think he is in the 16 wrong hearing.

17                   BY THE COURT:  I think so too. Overruled-- I
18 mean sustained. Excuse me.

19                   BY MR. EVANS:  One second, Your Honor.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I asked him if he knew who 21 Kenneth was. That's what I asked him.

22                   BY THE COURT:  That's right.

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  He said he didn't know.

24                   BY THE COURT:  We are on Dennis right now, and 25 I sustain the objection as to Dennis.

26 BY MR. EVANS:

27           Q.    Do you know who carried the Defendant to the police
28 department?

29           A.    Yes. Dennis Woods and a Winona police officer.

1 Q. Okay, would that police officer be a Townsend?

2 A. I believe that's his name; yes, sir.

3 Q. During your investigation did you have an occasion
4 to make a determination of whether or not they did anything
5 to contaminate the Defendant?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. Objection. If he
7 wants to bring the officers in here, that is fine,
8 but we don't need any hearsay. Objection.

9 BY THE COURT: What-- state your question
10 again.

11 BY MR. EVANS: During the course of his 12 investigation, did he make any effort to determine 13 whether or not the officers that brought him to the 14 police department did anything to contaminate the
15 Defendant.

16 BY THE COURT: If it's not his own personal
17 knowledge, it would have to be hearsay. I sustain
18 that objection.

19 BY MR. EVANS:

20 Q. There have been questions asked, I believe some of 21 you, about rewards. There was a reward issued; is that
22 correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Did you or anyone else in your presence try to get 25 anyone to change their statements of when they saw and where
26 they saw the Defendant by telling them you would give them
27 money to say anything other than the truth?

28 A. Absolutely not.

29 Q. Did you or anyone else offer anyone money to get

1 | them to tell you what they knew?

2	A. Absolutely not.
---	--------------------

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would ask that that be
4 stricken as to what anybody else did.

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q. In your presence?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: In your presence. I have no
8 problem with that question.

9 BY THE WITNESS:

10	A. No.
----	--------

11 Q. You have also been asked about picking up some 12 clothes from the Defendant's house. Is that correct?

13                   A.     That's correct.

14 Q. When was that done?

15 | A. I believe the date was somewhere around the 20th.

16 Q. Did you have any way when y'all picked those up of 17 knowing for sure what clothes he had on at the time of these
18 murders?

19 A. No, sir. We did not.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection, Judge.

21 BY MR. EVANS: What basis?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't have any--
23 well, it is okay. I don't have any problem.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26 Q. When you searched the house of the Defendant, were 27 the Fila tennis shoes that would belong or have been
28 purchased in that box found in his house?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I don't have any

1                   problem with him testifying of what the condition
2                   of the box was or what was in the box if he found
3                   the box. That is not how I understood it happened,
4                   but if that is the case, I have no problem with
5                   that. But for the prosecution to be making
6                   statements about what belonged in that box or what 7                   come in that box, he doesn't know that.

8 BY THE COURT: That objection is overruled.

9 BY MR. EVANS:

10	Q. You may answer the question.
----	---------------------------------

11 A. Would you repeat it?

12 Q. When y'all searched the house of the Defendant,
13 were any ten and a half Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes found in 14 the house?

15	A. No, sir.
----	-------------

16 Q. And you know from your investigation that that is 17 the type of shoes that was originally purchased in that box,
18 do you not?

19 | A. That's correct.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is to that 21 question too.

22 BY THE COURT: I sustain that objection.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Ask that it be stricken.

24 BY THE COURT: Strike it from the record. The 25 jury will disregard it.

26 BY MR. EVANS: May I have the Court's
27 indulgence for just a moment?

28 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

29 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we have a

1 minute to look at the exhibit list?

2 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

3 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
4 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

5 BY THE COURT: We are going to do a side bar?

6 BY MR. HORAN: This is a side bar. We are in
7 New England now. I want to bring to the Court's
8 attention that at least on five occasions Counsel
9 for the Defendant asked Mr. Matthews what officers
10 reported to him regarding his investigations. The 11 reason I bring that up is because Mr. Matthews can 12 testify that the officers that picked the Defendant
13 up at his residence reported to him that they did
14 not contaminate him in any way. He said that at 15 least four or five times. He got into other 16 reports from other officers, were able to go into 17 other reports that they made.

18 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to allow that.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, hold on. I'm going to 20 say this right quick. I'm going to reserve the 21 right to recall him, and I'm going to ask that he 22 produce, if we haven't already got it, - and if we 23 have got it, I have never seen it - all the reports
24 which have to do with him making checks on Doyle
25 and Emmitt Simpson in relationship to where they 26 were or whether they were involved and all that 27 stuff, to people he talked to and what he was told,
28 if there are reports like that. If there are not,
29 then I just--

1 BY MR. HORAN: --I can make him available to
2 interview him, Your Honor. That's all I can do.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, we'll do that. Let's
5 move on right now.

6 END BENCH CONFERENCE

7 BY MR. EVANS:

8 Q. Mr. Matthews, you were specifically asked about 9 Exhibit D-17, the statement of Katherine Snow; is that
10 correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. On the second page on the next to the last line
13 when she was shown the photo lineup, what, if anything, did
14 she say and it's recorded in that?

15 A. She said-- this was Mr. Johnson talking. It says,
16 "This is the person that was leaned up against the car on 17 July the 16th between 7:00 and 7:30 A M?" And Ms. Snow's
18 answer was, "Yes, sir."

19 Q. And she was referring to this lineup and the 20 picture of Curtis Flowers; is that correct?

21 A. Yes, sir. She was.

22 Q. Were you present when the photo lineup was shown to
23 Mr. Collins?

24 A. No, sir. I was not.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that's all we have
26 of this witness.

27 BY THE COURT: Mr. Matthews, you can return to 28 the witness room. Who do you have next?

29 BY MR. MATTHEWS: I'm not excused?

1 BY THE COURT: Uh-uh.

2 WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point the
4 State of Mississippi rests on its case in chief.

5 STATE OF MISSISSIPPI RESTS.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen,
7 I'm going to give y'all a break right now. There
8 is a matter I have to tend to outside y'all's
9 presence.

10 JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

11 BY THE COURT: You got a motion?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

13 (Defendant's Counsel confer and then Mr.
14 Freelon leaves the courtroom.)

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. We would at this 16 time make a Motion for a Directed Verdict on the 17 sole count which is in front of the Court at this 18 time. At this time we incorporate by reference all 19 the other motions that we have previously made to 20 dismiss, those dealing with the double jeopardy
21 nature of the case as our view, those other things
22 which the Court is well aware of dealing with the 23 whole question of the admission of other evidence
24 which we feel is not properly admitted in the case
25 because it has to do with other deaths which 26 occurred on the 16th.

27 But in addition to that, we would specifically
28 address the elements of this case. This is a case
29 which claims that the Defendant, Mr. Curtis

1           Flowers, is involved in the death of the killing of
2           Mr. Stewart, BoBo Stewart on the 16th of July of 3           1996. We don't have any direct evidence of this at 4           all. So although there is a generous standard
5           which the prosecution enjoys at this point in
6           saying that the case has to be viewed in the light
7           most favorable to the prosecution, at the same time
8           there is also some problems which he encounters
9           because of the nature of the proof, the proof being
10          entirely circumstantial.

11                 (Mr. Freelon reenters courtroom.)

12           There is absolutely no direct evidence that
13           Mr. Flowers was involved in any crime which means
14           that he also, they have to show that a reasonable
15           jury can meet the standards necessary to find that 16           there is no reasonable doubt as to the guilt of Mr.
17           Flowers, and which means that the hurdle that they 18           have to cross from the circumstantial point of 19           evidence is this. They have to show that there is 20           no two theories consistent, there is not a theory
21           consistent with innocence. There is not a
22           hypothesis given the facts involved here which 23           reasonably can be construed by a reasonable jury to 24           be consistent with innocence giving the testimony
25           and the facts shown by the prosecution. I think
26           they are a far stretch from that.

27           We got absolutely no direct evidence that Mr.
28           Flowers actually fired the gun at any point in 29           history which killed the people in question. We

1           have absolutely no direct evidence that Mr. Flowers
2           was in the place at all, and we don't even have
3           any-- we have, we don't have any circumstantial
4           evidence that meets the dignity of being able to
5           provide proof beyond a reasonable doubt. We are a
6           long way from it.

7           The Court has heard the evidence, and I think
8           probably listened quite carefully, but that a
9           person out of six hundred some thousand Fila shoes
10          and who knows how many copycat shoes which have 11          been sold, and even in the-- I noticed as I was 12          walking in the courtroom here. I must have seen at 13          least three or four people with Fila shoes on 14          today. You know, it's a popular brand of shoe.
15          There is no way that you can say that because 16          somebody was wearing a Fila, and the expert says he 17          can't even say for sure it was a Fila, that that 18          person can substantially be placed in the 19          building.

20          And even if they were in the building, then
21          you have another inference you have got to make.
22          You have got to infer that they were in the 23          building and did the shooting. Not just they were 24          in the building, but they did the shooting that 25          killed the people, that shot the gun that is in 26          question. None of the witnesses have seen the 27          Defendant involved in any criminal activity or 28          involved in any activity which directly relates to 29          the death of these people.

1 Katherine Snow doesn't see the Defendant with
2 the gun, doesn't see the Defendant in the car,
3 doesn't see anything which places the Defendant as
4 a person who has done anything wrong. Nobody sees
5 the Defendant with Fila gym shoes on except for 6 the next door neighbor who says she sees him with 7 Fila gym shoes on although she sees him coming in 8 at a time that he should be over there in the 9 Angelica parking lot stealing a gun if the other
10 witnesses are correct, or in the lot leaning on the 11 car because they didn't say he stole any kind of 12 gun.

13 Doyle Simpson can't even say that the gun was 14 in his car on that day. He knows he put it in the 15 car the night before at 9:15, and he knows that 16 after going in the car two or three times, that 17 then he discovered that the trunk - what do you
18 call it? - the glove compartment popped out open,
19 he said, and then at that point he noticed that 20 there was no gun there. Doyle Simpson goes into 21 the car a couple of times that day and doesn't
22 know, doesn't see any gun missing, or doesn't see
23 anything wrong with the glove compartment. And at 24 the same time in that situation the couple of times
25 that he went in are after the time that Snow is 26 supposed to have seen somebody leaning against the 27 car.

28 So I tell you, for a capital murder case where 29 somebody might be put to death, I think that that,

1           this would do the American jurisprudence system a
2           great disservice to even allow this case to go to
3           the jury on those charges. So I would ask the
4           Court using the standard which is necessary in view
5           of the fact that it is a directed verdict time as 6           well as the standard that is in effect because it's 7           a circumstantial evidence case to, in fact, direct
8           a verdict of not guilty on the charges as they are 9           presently in this indictment.

10           You have to make so many jumps and conclusions
11           that it's absolutely, you know, and then to think 12           without any evidence of it, that we are going to 13           assume a motive that Mr. Flowers wanted to kill
14           somebody because they withheld $82.00 in a check
15           without any proof that that was actually the case,
16           I think that it's a disservice, like I said, to the 17           system. So I would ask that it be dismissed.

18           Hold on one second.

19           (Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

20           BY MR. LUMUMBA: And the robbery charge in 21           specific, also I don't think that we have 22           determined that any money was actually taken.
23           Actually I guess it can be argued that there is 24           some evidence to the contrary, whether a robbery
25           occurred. No one really knows what-- Ms. Rigby had 26           just come from the bank, put money the bank.
27           Nobody really knows what money was actually in the 28           cash register.

29           But in addition to that, I think that it

1           should be pointed out that the situation as far as
2           the valuables which were still on people, no
3           apparent attempt to take valuables. There was 4           still some money in the drawer albeit change, and
5           there was money in a purse. I think the testimony
6           shows there was money in a purse there, and I think
7           it still had $10.00 or I don't remember how much it
8           was, that wasn't taken. So I think that the purse
9           was right in the middle of the floor, and each of 10          the people who were still on the scene according to 11          the pathologist actually still had valuables on 12          them. So I think there is even inferences to the 13          contrary as relates to any kind of robbery which 14          means that you have to dismiss the capital murder
15          charge.

16                   (Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

17           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We also don't have any 18           evidence of-- the person who the crime scene
19           examiner came to the scene some three hours, I
20           believe, after the incident occurred. And at the 21           time that she came, we don't know who had or had
22           not been in the drawer and what had been taken out
23           even after the incident may have occurred.

24           So I would say to the Court that there is not 25           a substantial evidence or sufficient evidence on 26           the robbery or on the murder count and ask that one
27           or both of them be dismissed. I ask that one and 28           both of them be dismissed.

29           BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor, the

1 Court has heard the evidence. I'm not going to go
2 back through it. We have clearly proven every
3 element. It may be by circumstantial evidence, but 4 we have clearly proven every element that we must
5 prove, and there is no grounds for the case to be 6 dismissed at this point.

7 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba has correctly
8 stated what the standard is, and that is at this 9 point in time I must consider it in the light, the 10 evidence in the light most favorable to the State.
11 And therefore the Motion is overruled.

12 Let me see y'all just a second.

13 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH WITH THE JURY OUT AS
14 FOLLOWS:)

15 BY THE COURT: Y'all want to take about 15 or 16 20 minutes for y'all to get ready?

17 BY MR. FREELON: Give us about thirty.

18 BY THE COURT: Thirty? Okay.

19 BY MR. FREELON: We are not going to be long.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, we have witnesses that
21 ain't here today that we plan to call on Monday.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, I know you have got one.
23 What about--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, you know, we have
25 really got a few others, Judge, because we had no
26 idea that--

27 BY THE COURT: --Okay.

28 BY MR. FREELON: We may call some others.

29 BY THE COURT: Well, you have got some you can

1 put on today though?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have got--

3 BY MR. FREELON: --We have got some. We have 4 got some here.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, let's get those out
6 of the way.

7 BY MR. FREELON: We have got some we can put
8 on today.

9 BY THE COURT: Thirty minutes?

10 BY MR. FREELON: Thirty minutes, Your Honor.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Are you going to bring them
12 back in or just take a--

13 BY THE COURT: --I'm just going to take the 14 break. I will leave them out and take the break,
15 and they can go smoke or whatever.

16 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

17 (FOLLOWING A LENGTHY AFTERNOON RECESS ON MARCH 18 27, 1999, THE TRIAL PROCEEDED IN OPEN COURT WITH 19 THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

20 BY THE COURT: You can bring the jury in. Who 21 will be your first witness, Mr. Lumumba?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Latarsha Blissett.

23 JURY ENTERS COURTROOM.

24 BY THE COURT: Latarsha Blizzard?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Blissett.

26 (Witness enters courtroom.)

27 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn, ma'am?

28 BY THE WITNESS: No.

29 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right

1 hand.

2 LATARSHA BLISSETT,

3 a black female called as a witness by the Defendant, having
4 first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

5 BY THE COURT: Have a seat right there,
6 please. State your name for the record.

7 BY THE WITNESS: Latarsha Blissett.

8 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Would you spell it,
9 please.

10 BY THE WITNESS: L A T A R S H A. B L I S -
11 S E T T.

12 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Ms. Blissett, could you tell me, please, where is 14 it that you live?

15 A. In Winona.

16 Q. And how long have you lived in Winona?

17 A. 21 years.

18 Q. Do you have a family in Winona?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What does that consist of?

21 A. My mom, sister and brother.

22 Q. Now Ms. Blissett, do you know a person by the name
23 of-- well, secondly, do you work?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. What kind of work do you do?

26 A. I work in a factory.

27 Q. Okay.

28 A. Braizen.

29 Q. Okay. Do you know a person by the name of Curtis

1 Flowers?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And do you see him in the courtroom here?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Point to him, please.

6 A. (Witness points.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For the record Ms. Blissett
8 has identified Mr. Flowers.

9 Q. And how do you know Mr. Flowers?

10 A. That's my boy friend's cousin.

11 Q. And do you also know somebody by the name of 12 Clemmie Fleming?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And how do you know Ms. Fleming?

15 A. That's my cousin.

16 Q. Ms. Fleming is your cousin?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Now Ms. Blissett, I really don't have a lot to ask
19 you, but I just want to ask you this question, and I want you
20 to talk to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury. Explain to 21 them if you have ever had an opportunity to talk to Flemmie
22 [sic] about situations concerning this case?

23 A. Yes, I talked to her.

24 Q. And what did she say? You can go ahead and
25 explain.

26 A. She told me--

27 BY MR. HORAN: --Objection. Your Honor, I
28 would like for him to further qualify this 29 particular statement as to time and place.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Okay. Was this-- where were you at when what you
3 are about to tell us about what Flemmie said, where were you
4 at?

5 A. When we talked the first time, I was at my house.

6 Q. Okay, where was she at?

7 A. She was at my house too.

8 Q. Okay, and when was this that this conversation took
9 place?

10 A. Well, I can't give you the exact date, but I know
11 it was after the first hearing.

12 Q. Okay. Was it still kind of close to the first
13 hearing?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay, could you tell the ladies and gentlemen of 16 the jury what conversation took place and what was said?

17 A. She come up to my house, and she told me that if
18 she seen Curtis Flowers running downtown from Tardy's store,
19 that they will pay off her furniture note. They will give 20 her the money to pay off her furniture note. And she told me
21 that she said that, and she didn't receive no money.

22 Q. Now did you have a conversation with her any time
23 after that?

24 A. Yes. Friday.

25 Q. Okay, and then what was at that time?

26 A. She told me that she was going to tell the truth,
27 that she didn't see Curtis, and her furniture still wasn't
28 paid off.

29 Q. So she indicated to you at that time she was going

1 to tell the truth?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what did she tell you at that time the truth
4 was?

5 A. That she did not see Curtis.

6 Q. Okay. Ms., Ms. Blissett, were you ever interviewed
7 in connection with this case before?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And who, and do you know-- tell us about
10 that, when that occurred and how it occurred.

11 A. I was at school one day, and the superintendent
12 come to the school and to the room where I was at, and he 13 said he needed some help across the street in his office, and 14 I hold my head down so he wouldn't call he. And he still 15 called me. He said, "Well, I want her to help me," just like
16 that. So we went across the street, and we get over there,
17 they go, uh, Johnny Jones, Johnny somebody's car and a lady--

18 Q. --Could it have been Johnny Johnson?

19 A. Yeah. I know his face. And a lady and they told
20 me that I was going to go with them and stuff. And we left
21 Winona and went to Greenwood to this other little place, and 22 the whole time we was riding I didn't know where they were 23 carrying me. I didn't know where we were going, and I didn't
24 know what for. I was just riding.

25 Q. At any point in time was anything said to you about
26 any money?

27 A. No, not while we was in the car.

28 Q. Okay, how about where you got? Where did you go
29 to?

1           A.    Went to Greenwood to, I think it was the highway
2 patrolman place. I don't know, but it was some kind of
3 place.

4           Q.    At that time did anything, once you arrived there,
5 did anything get said to you about any money?

6           A.    Yes.

7           Q.    Tell me what it was.

8           A.    They, he asked me do I know what thirty thousand
9 dollars can buy? I told him, "Yes, I know." He said,
10 "Well, we know you are trying to get a trailer house, you
11 and your boyfriend." I said, "Yeah." "Well, you know thirty 12 thousand dollars can buy a trailer, and you still would have 13 some money left over." And I was like, "Yeah. I know what 14 thirty thousand dollars can do," but he was making sure that 15 I knew. He didn't really--

16          Q.    --Who actually said that?

17          A.    The guy that was, the guy that was driving the car,
18 the guy that picked me up.

19          Q.    Do you know his first name?

20          A.    Um, Johnny Johnson or that guy.

21          Q.    You know him when you see him?

22          A.    Yes.

23                       (Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

24          Q.    Finally, Ms. Blissett, I just have one other
25 question. Did they say anything about Curtis Flowers or did
26 anybody--

27                       BY MR. HORAN: --Objection, Your Honor. He
28 needs to not lead the witness.

29                       BY THE COURT: Sustained.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Was anything mentioned about anybody here in this
3 courtroom?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Who--

6 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, first of all, he
7 hasn't laid the proper predicate for any of this.
8 It is hearsay first of all. Any particular witness
9 that said this, he has not put that particular
10 witness on the stand and given them the opportunity
11 to--

12 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I agree with that. I
14 reserve the right to recall Ms. Blissett after we 15 put that witness on the stand. I have no further
16 questions on the topics which we discussed.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

18 Q. Ms. Blissett, what is the relationship of you and
19 the Defendant?

20 A. None.

21 Q. What did you say it was while ago? He is your boy
22 friend's cousin? Is that what it is?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Have you asked Clemmie Fleming to lie for him?

25 A. No.

26 Q. You have never asked her to lie to try to help him
27 get out of jail?

28 A. No.

29 Q. And do I understand what you are saying is these

1 officers that you didn't know, don't even know who they are,
2 came up here and took you to Greenwood to be questioned; is
3 that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You didn't know them?

6 A. (No response.)

7 Q. You didn't know them?

8 A. I didn't know their names, not at the time. They 9 introduced themselves, and we talked and stuff.

10 Q. Okay, they didn't know you?

11 A. Yeah. He knew me.

12 Q. How did he know you?

13 A. He knowed my dad.

14 Q. Who knew your dad?

15 A. The Johnny Johnson guy.

16 Q. And you are not trying to tell this jury that you
17 knew anything about what happened on the day the murders
18 happened?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Is that right? And you're saying that Clemmie
21 told you that she was going to tell the jury the truth?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. But it's your version that Clemmie told you that
24 that wasn't the truth; is that right?

25 A. I don't understand your question.

26 Q. You are saying that Clemmie didn't see him; is that
27 right?

28 A. That's what Clemmie told me.

29 Q. It's the first time you have ever mentioned this to

1 any of us, isn't it?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Oh, is it not? Do you remember the time you are
4 talking about earlier?

5 A. I don't understand what you are saying.

6 Q. Are you sure you don't?

7 A. Repeat your question.

8 Q. You have never told us what you are trying to say
9 today, have you?

10 A. Oh, yes.

11 Q. When?

12 A. When I was questioned, I told the people that 13 questioned me.

14 Q. Who?

15 A. When I talked to the lawyers and stuff, I told them
16 what Clemmie told me.

17 Q. The lawyers and stuff, the lawyers I'm talking
18 about, you have never told me this?

19 A. No.

20 Q. You have never told Mr. Horan this?

21 A. No, I ain't never seen him.

22 Q. And Curtis Flowers is your boy friend's cousin?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you want to help him, don't you?

25 A. I just want to tell truth.

26 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

27 Q. Now to make sure that I understand what you are 28 saying; you are saying that after the last hearing, she told
29 you this; is this correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And the last hearing she said she saw Curtis
3 running from the store, didn't she?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And it's your version that she says because she
6 didn't get her furniture paid off, she was going to change
7 that?

8 A. She was going to tell the truth.

9 Q. Are you familiar that she told the jury here in 10 this case that she saw Curtis running from Tardy Furniture?

11 A. I don't know what she told the jury. I wasn't in
12 here.

13 Q. All right. And if she did, that's the exact same
14 thing she said before, isn't it?

15 A. She just told me that she was going to tell the 16 jury that she seen Curtis running downtown from the store
17 because they were going to pay off her furniture note.

18 Q. When did she tell you that according to you?

19 A. After the first hearing. It was probably like a
20 week or so, wasn't even long.

21 Q. We are talking about how many months ago?

22 A. It has been a lot of months. About -- it was in 23 October when the hearing was. It was like after the 24 hearing. '97.

25 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

26 Q. You are not very close with Clemmie Fleming, are
27 you?

28 A. We, um, talk off and on on the phone and stuff like
29 that. She come to my house. I fix her hair.

1 Q. You and several other family members have given her
2 a real rough time lately, haven't you?

3 A. No. She was up to my house Friday.

4 Q. Y'all have been harassing her and trying to get her
5 to change her story--

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge--

7 A. --No, sir.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --the only thing I ask is 9 that she be allowed to finish her answer.

10 BY THE WITNESS:

11 A. Uh-uh.

12 BY MR. EVANS: I thought she was through.

13 BY THE COURT: I thought she was too.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. Y'all have been harassing her and trying your best
16 to get her to change her story, haven't you?

17 A. Uh-uh.

18 Q. But she has never changed it, has she? She has 19 testified to the same thing that she has told before?

20 A. She calls me talking about it all the time.

21 Q. According to you. Is that right?

22 A. It's on tape of me and her talking on the phone.

23 Q. Well, how about producing a copy of it to us?

24 A. I don't have a tape.

25 BY MR. EVANS: No further questions.

26 BY THE WITNESS:

27 A. Not with me.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me, just a couple of
29 questions.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

Q. I want to ask you the questions and let you give the answers. I don't want to give them. Let me ask you this. What is Clemmie to you? Let me see if I understand that.

A. My cousin.

Q. Who did you know first, Curtis or Clemmie?

A. Clemmie.

Q. How long has Clemmie been your cousin?

A. For 21 years. We grewed up together, stayed together and stuff.

Q. Have y'all, what kind of relationship have y'all had throughout the years?

A. We been all right talking and go places together and do everything.

Q. And are you telling, are you saying anything about-- is what you are saying about what Clemmie told you true?

A. Yes.

Q. Has anybody at all asked you to be untruthful about this case?

A. No.

Q. Okay. If someone was to tell you to lie for Curtis Flowers, would you do it?

A. No.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions of this witness.

WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would ask to call Mary Fleming.

BY THE COURT: Can I see y'all up here while she is coming.

(CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

BY THE COURT: I just want to reiterate this because of what she almost did in that testimony.

BY MR. HORAN: She did, Your Honor.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, she said hearing.

BY THE COURT: Well, I know she didn't, she said hearing.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hearing.

BY THE COURT: Shhhh.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry.

BY THE COURT: I don't want them to do that, so if y'all-- have y'all talked to your witnesses?

BY MR. LUMUMBA: I talked to her.

BY THE COURT: All right.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's why she said hearing.

BY THE COURT: All right, I'm just concerned, and I want to make sure y'all watch what you ask; okay?

BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

BY THE COURT: One other thing. Your investigator is going to need to sit behind you. I need the lawyers up front, okay.

1                   (Defense Counsel confer among themselves about
2                   telling the next witness to say "hearing.")

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He can tell her that.

4                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

5                   (Mr. Freelon left the courtroom.)

6                   BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn, Ms.
7                   Fleming?

8                   BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

9                   BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
10                  hand.

11                  MARY ELLA FLEMING,
12                  a black female called to testify as a witness by the 13                  Defendant, having first been duly sworn, testified as
14                  follows, to-wit:

15                  BY THE COURT: Have a seat right there,
16                  please. State your name for the record.

17                  BY THE WITNESS: Mary Ella Fleming.

18                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19                  Q. Could you do that for me one more time, a little
20                  louder?

21                  A. Mary Ella Fleming.

22                  Q. And Ms. Fleming, where is it that you live?

23                  A. At 202 Academy Street.

24                  Q. And what city do you live in?

25                  A. In Winona.

26                  Q. Ms. Fleming, do you, are you employed?

27                  A. Yes, sir.

28                  Q. Could you tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
29                  what it is you do?

1           A.    I'm a CNA.  I do home health.  I work at Tyler
2           Holmes Hospital.

3           Q.    Okay, and how long have you been doing that?

4           A.    I worked at Tyler Holmes Hospital for almost three
5           years, and I just started in November at MedShares.

6           Q.    Do you have a family?

7           A.    Yes, sir.

8           Q.    What does that consist of?

9           A.    (No response.)

10          Q.    Do you have children?

11          A.    Yes, sir.  I have two.

12          Q.    Okay, what is their ages?

13          A.    11 and 9.

14          Q.    Okay, do you have brothers and sisters?

15          A.    Yes, sir.

16          Q.    And how many brothers and sisters do you have?

17          A.    I have three brothers and five sisters.

18          Q.    And is your family basically from Winona?

19          A.    Yes, sir.

20          Q.    Okay, and what I would like to ask you now is if 21          you know a person by the name of Clemmie Fleming?

22          A.    Yes, sir.

23          Q.    And what is she to you?

24          A.    My sister.

25          Q.    Okay.  Ms. Fleming, can you share with me, please,
26          if you ever had any contact-- first of all, where did you say
27          you live?  I'm sorry.

28          A.    At 202 Academy Street.

29          Q.    Okay.  Do you recall the day that the incident

1 happened on, with relationship to Tardy Furniture?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. And it is the day that some people died in
4 Tardy Furniture?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Can you share with me if you saw your sister on
7 that day?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury where she 10 was when you saw her?

11 A. She came to my house.

12 Q. And when she came to your house, tell us what
13 happened from there. Tell them.

14 A. My brother called me that morning concerning a
15 bill, and when Clemmie came over that morning, I told her
16 about it. And she told me she had talked to Ms. Tardy, and 17 Ms. Tardy had told her she could pay ten or fifteen dollars
18 on her bill. And I told her -- she was going to go down
19 there, and I said, "Well, let's not go right now because I'm 20 going to go with you when I put on some clothes." And she 21 said okay. But I never, we never did go down there. By 22 that time a friend came and told us that Ms. Tardy was 23 killed. And me, my sister Neechie and Clemmie and BT went
24 down there.

25 Q. You went down where?

26 A. Down to Tardy Furniture.

27 Q. Did Clemmie at any point say anything to you--

28 BY MR. HORAN: --Objection.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I get the question out,

1                   please?

2                   BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4           Q.    Did Clemmie at any point ever say anything to you
5           about seeing Curtis Flowers?

6           A.    No.

7           Q.    Did she say that she knew anything about seeing Mr.
8           Flowers running--

9                   BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, he is leading
10           this particular witness.

11           BY THE COURT: You can't lead her.

12           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13           Q.    Did you ever hear any discussion from her with 14           relationship to anything related to the store or anything
15           about it?

16           A.    No, sir.

17           Q.    And she was, where was she at at the time?

18           A.    At my house.

19           Q.    And where did you go from there?

20           A.    Went down to Tardy Furniture.

21           Q.    About what time, if you can recall, did your sister
22           come to your house? What time did she arrive at your house
23           about if you can tell me?

24           A.    Maybe 9 or 10 o'clock.

25           Q.    Were you keeping time or timing or anything?

26           A.    No, sir.

27                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
28           for this witness.

29

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

2 Q. Ms. Fleming, my name is Kevin Horan. If I ask you
3 something that you don't understand, please ask me to repeat
4 it, and I will if I can. And also, if you would, if I ask
5 you a yes or no answer, please answer in that fashion and
6 then explain your answer; okay?

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. Would you please do that for me?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Now Ms. Fleming, were you aware of the fact that,
11 or are you aware of the fact that Clemmie has previously
12 testified in a hearing regarding the identification of the 13 Defendant Curtis Flowers in reference to the Tardy Furniture
14 killings? Are you aware of that right now?

15 A. Have I heard about it?

16 Q. Are you aware of the fact that prior to this date
17 that she has testified in a previous hearing regarding the 18 identification of Curtis Flowers in reference to the Tardy
19 Furniture killings? Are you aware of that fact?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. And you are aware of the fact that on or about 22 September the 12th of 199-- I believe it was '97, that she 23 was summonsed by lawful, subpoenaed by lawful subpoena to 24 that particular hearing? Are you aware of that fact? You
25 are her sister?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. You are aware of that?

28 A. Uh-hum.

29 Q. And I think that subpoena required her to stay in a

1 certain location for a period of a week, did it not? I mean
2 she was under subpoena for an extended period of time?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would object.

4 BY THE COURT: Come up here.

5 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
6 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

7 BY THE COURT: I am not going to allow that
8 line of questioning about that. You don't have to 9 do that to ask her, to cross-examine her, and I'm 10 not going to allow you to get on that dangerous
11 level with her.

12 BY MR. HORAN: She was under subpoena. This 13 is her sister. She had knowledge prior to the time
14 that the woman testified?

15 BY THE COURT: You are not going to question
16 her about any previous hearing or anything related
17 to it. I am not going to allow that.

18 BY MR. HORAN: That she was, she knew that she 19 testified about--

20 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

21 BY THE COURT: --Ladies and gentlemen, there
22 is a matter I have got to hear outside y'all's
23 presence.

24 JURY LEAVES COURTROOM.

25 BY THE COURT: Make your point.

26 BY MR. HORAN: What is the objection? I
27 didn't hear an objection.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I have got an 29 objection to it. I'm not going to allow you to

1                   elicit testimony of that first trial--

2                   BY MR. HORAN: --I'm not trying to elicit
3                   testimony--

4                   BY THE COURT: --in this trial. Well, you
5                   just asked her about it--

6                   BY MR. HORAN: I didn't ask her about any 7                   testimony. I asked her if the witness was 8                   subpoenaed. She has knowledge that this witness
9                   was--

10                  BY THE COURT: --You asked her about did she 11                  identify somebody at the previous hearing. That's 12                  what you asked her.

13                  BY MR. HORAN: Okay, I did that.

14                  BY THE COURT: And it ain't but one time she 15                  has done that.

16                  BY MR. HORAN: That's right, Your Honor.

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

18                  BY MR. HORAN: But my point is I want to know
19                  whether or not she had knowledge that she went up
20                  there for that purpose, and that she was going up
21                  there for that particular, and for that purpose.
22                  She came in September the 7th, 1998, is the first
23                  time she told anybody about this statement from her 24                  sister; two years or a year and a half after that 25                  particular statement was made to an investigator.
26                  She should be impeached on that, Your Honor.

27                  BY THE COURT: Okay. You are not going to be 28                  able to impeach her with questions that would 29                  elicit stuff that would show to this jury that

1           there has ever been a trial in this case. I'm not
2           going to allow you to do it, Mr. Horan. You can
3           make your point with the jury and argue to the jury
4           about the fact that she waited this late. But as 5           far as going back to elicit that testimony, I'm not
6           going to allow it.

7           BY MR. HORAN: Can I get into the fact that
8           she knew -- never mind. I will just go another
9           way.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay. I am ready for the jury
11          back.

12          BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, let me ask-- can I?

13          BY MR. FREELON: Hold on a second.

14          BY MR. HORAN: Can I-- just one thing. Close
15          the door. It is going to be improper for me to ask
16          her if she has ever testified under oath about this 17          particular fact before?

18          BY THE COURT: Ask this lady?

19          BY MR. HORAN: Yeah.

20          BY THE COURT: You can ask her that.

21          BY MR. HORAN: All right.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, how is that relevant?
23          Let me say I don't really care about that question
24          other than it almost assumes that maybe somebody
25          knows that there was another trial, and you just 26          want to-- let me finish.

27          BY MR. HORAN: I'm not saying anything.

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Maybe somebody knows about 29          another trial, and what he is trying to imply is

1           that she didn't come forth at that trial. I don't
2           understand how that question would have relevance
3           other than that, and I don't even think it is
4           relevant then. You see my-- that's my concern.

5           BY THE COURT: Yeah, I see your point, but I
6           think he can ask it because it shows-- there is 7           some evidence that she has not come forth until she 8           did, and you can ask her about coming forth the 9           first time you ever heard of it is September 7th.

10          BY MR. HORAN: I understand that. Porky
11          Collins was asked and was specifically asked by Mr.
12          Lumumba: We had a previous hearing involving the 13          identification of Curtis Flowers, and he was asked
14          specifically that. That is exactly--

15          BY THE COURT: --What did the Court say? What 16          did the Court say when he was asked that too? What
17          did the Court tell y'all?

18          BY MR. HORAN: You said--

19          BY THE COURT: I said I didn't want that 20          before this jury. Now why in the world you want to 21          put something prejudicial like that before this
22          jury is beyond me.

23          BY MR. HORAN: That is not prejudicial. We 24          have been talking about the hearings and the 25          identifications in prior testimony in hearings
26          without going into the fact that there was a trial
27          involved.

28          BY THE COURT: Porky had a hearing other than 29          the trial. I-- you are just on dangerous ground,

1 Mr. Horan, in my opinion.

2 BY MR. HORAN: I will get away from it. I
3 don't see how there has been any way, in any shape,
4 form or fashion prejudicial to this Defendant to 5 ask her whether or not her sister was subpoenaed to 6 testify on the identification of this Defendant.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

8 BY MR. HORAN: --regarding the identification
9 of this Defendant under oath, this girl, her sister
10 being under oath at that time.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Let me say this,
12 Judge. My, I would have a concern other than the 13 ones that the Court has already raised, I think
14 that to ask her if her sister was subpoenaed is 15 really hearsay unless she knows, unless she saw her
16 being subpoenaed.

17 BY THE COURT: If she says she knows, she can
18 answer it.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If she knows any way other
20 than hearsay.

21 BY THE WITNESS: It was hearsay.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: See, I don't think she has 23 any personal knowledge.

24 BY THE COURT: There are ways to elicit this
25 testimony without reference to the other hearing.

26 BY MR. HORAN: And I will do it.

27 BY THE COURT: There are ways to do that.

28 BY MR. HORAN: I will do it.

29 BY THE COURT: Are we through? Are we ready

1 to start over?

2 BY MR. HORAN: We are through.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay.

4 JURY ENTERS COURTROOM.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Ms. Fleming-- may I proceed,
6 Your Honor?

7 (The Court nods his head.)

8 CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

9 Q. Ms. Fleming, now the first time that you gave any
10 taped statement regarding what you have testified here today
11 was to either Counsel for the Defendant, Mr. Lumumba or one 12 of his associates was I believe on about September the 7th of
13 1998. Is that correct?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay. And you would admit, would you not, that 16 either through what knowledge you gained that your sister
17 Clemmie Fleming had talked with John Johnson with the DA's
18 office -- you knew that, did you not?

19 A. No, I didn't.

20 Q. You did not know that until September the 7th of--

21 A. --I didn't know Clemmie had even talked to anybody.

22 Q. Regarding this particular Tardy Furniture Store
23 killing?

24 A. I work two different jobs. I don't keep up with 25 Clemmie.

26 Q. You mean from July the 16th, 1996, until September
27 the 7th, 1998, you had no knowledge that Clemmie Fleming made
28 any statement to any law enforcement officer--

29 A. --no--

1 Q. --implicating the Defendant?

2 A. No, I didn't. No.

3 Q. But you would admit to me, would you not, that
4 September the 7th, 1998, is the first time that you talked to 5 anybody, whether it be any investigator with the Mississippi
6 Highway Patrol--

7 A. Do what now?

8 Q. I'm not through yet. You didn't talk to any 9 investigator with the Mississippi Highway Patrol or John
10 Johnson or anything, anybody like that, any law enforcement
11 agent--

12 A. Did I talk to them?

13 Q. Right.

14 A. No, I didn't.

15 Q. Well, tell me this then. If you didn't know that 16 Clemmie had made these particular statements, how did you
17 come to be interviewed by anybody?

18 A. I didn't know Clemmie had even talked to anybody
19 until that--

20 Q. --That is not my question.

21 A. Well, what did you say?

22 Q. How did anyone know that you had any knowledge if 23 you didn't know that Clemmie made these particular
24 statements?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, may I object to that?
26 I think that calls for her to read some other
27 people's minds.

28 BY THE COURT: No, it calls for her to know
29 why she did it. That's what he asked her.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, if she knows.

2 BY THE COURT: Well, she should know why she
3 did it.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh. Okay, I didn't
5 understand that to be the question.

6 BY MR. HORAN:

7 Q. Why did you provide a taped statement to Mr.
8 Lumumba's office?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have a problem with
10 that.

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. Nobody knew-- I mean, strike that. If you didn't
13 know that Clemmie had anything to do with this case?

14 A. I didn't know it at the time. When Clemmie went up
15 there to that hearing, I didn't know anything.

16 Q. That's my point. So there is really no reason for 17 anyone to have gone and interviewed you, was it? No one knew
18 that you had any knowledge about what Clemmie had said to 19 anybody; right? That's what your testimony is here today. I
20 mean I'm not trying to badger you, Ms. Fleming, but that is 21 your testimony here today?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. She hasn't 23 testified that no one had any knowledge that she 24 knew anything. She hasn't said that.

25 BY MR. HORAN: That is what she is
26 testifying--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, no. What she said is 28 nobody-- she had talked to nobody about Clemmie.
29 That's what she said. That doesn't--

1 BY MR. HORAN: --My question revolves around
2 whether or not she had any knowledge that Clemmie
3 had made any statements to anybody, Your Honor.
4 Therefore, why would she have been a potential
5 witness? That's the point I am making.

6 BY MR. HORAN:

7 Q. Now you talked to Clemmie prior to her testifying
8 in this trial; right? Downstairs on Monday?

9 A. Yes. Yes, I-- on where?

10 Q. On Monday or Tuesday of this week.

11 A. It was Thursday.

12 Q. It was Thursday. Prior to her testimony, you did
13 have a conversation with her, didn't you?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And you told her to come up here and to save Curtis
16 Flowers?

17 A. No, I didn't.

18 Q. Go up there and save him?

19 A. No, I didn't. I told her--

20 Q. --You deny making that statement?

21 A. I told her to tell the truth.

22 Q. Okay, you are saying that you did not make that
23 statement?

24 A. No, I didn't.

25 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have a couple of
27 questions.

28 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Now Ms. Fleming, who was the first person from my

1 office to contact you? Do you know who? If you know?

2 A. The guy right, the guy sitting right there.

3 Q. This gentleman here?

4 A. Uh-hum.

5 Q. Mr., for the record I think the witness has 6 identified Attorney Freelon. Do you have any idea how 7 Attorney Freelon came up with any information that he had?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Or why he wanted to talk to you?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. Can you read his mind?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Did you understand that he was supposed to be a
14 lawyer?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. When he contacted you?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Did you understand that the lawyer's job is to 19 investigate?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Did you come, did you come volunteer any 22 information to anybody?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Or did somebody come to you?

25 A. They came to me.

26 Q. And when they came to you and asked you questions,
27 did you answer those questions?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. And did you answer them truthfully?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Was there any reward out for talking to us?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Was anybody going to pay your furniture?

5 A. No, sir. I pay my own bills.

6 Q. How many jobs you got?

7 A. Two.

8 (Mr. Lumumba confers with his investigator.)

9 Q. And the final thing I have is what is Clemmie to
10 you?

11 A. My sister.

12 Q. Do you know Mr. Flowers?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Is he anything to you?

15 A. Nothing.

16 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I didn't go into
17 her knowledge of Mr. Flowers.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

19 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

21 BY THE COURT: Ms. Fleming, you are free to
22 go.

23 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you.

24 WITNESS EXCUSED.

25 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this time, Judge, we are 27 going to call Mr. Roy Harris.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. Can I approach? There
29 is a special problem with Mr. Harris.

1 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
2 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm just going to make you
4 aware of this so you can, you know, interpret
5 objections or anything else based upon anything
6 like that. Harris has a serious hearing problem.
7 Okay. He can hear sometimes better than others
8 from what he has told me, and he hears some people
9 better than others. I think he will probably be
10 able to hear them quite well. I mean but, so I'm 11 going to ask that everybody here cooperate by 12 talking loud trying to make him hear you so he 13 won't be answering a question which he didn't, you
14 know--

15 BY THE COURT: --Okay, well, why don't you,
16 the first thing you do when you get him on the 17 stand is explain to him that if he doesn't hear a
18 question, to say that so that everybody can--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

20 BY MR. HORAN: That is fine.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I told him about the hearing.

22 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

23 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

24 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn, sir?

25 BY THE WITNESS: (No response.)

26 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn? Have you
27 raised your right hand?

28 BY THE WITNESS: (No response.)

29 BY THE COURT: Okay, let's do it again to make

1                   sure.

2                                   ROY HARRIS,

3       a black male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,
4       having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

5                   BY THE COURT: For the jury's information, Mr.
6                   Harris is a little hard of hearing. That's the 7                   reason I am talking louder.

8       DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9                   Q.    Good afternoon, Mr. Harris. Good afternoon.

10                  A.    Right.

11                  Q.    Okay, Mr. Harris, if you don't hear me, make sure
12       you tell me; okay?

13                  A.    (Witness nods his head.)

14                  Q.    Did you hear what I said?

15                  A.    Uh-uh. You have got to come a little closer.

16                  Q.    All right.

17                       BY THE COURT: I tell you what might be 18       better. Do you mind questioning him from the side?

19                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

20       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21                  Q.    Mr. Harris, can you turn this way. Okay, if you
22       don't hear me, make sure you tell me; okay?

23                  A.    (Witness nods his head.)

24                  Q.    Can you hear me now?

25                  A.    (Witness nods his head.)

26                       BY THE COURT: Get him to answer out loud.

27       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28                  Q.    You have got to talk loud too so they can hear you.
29       You have got to talk loud so the jury can hear you; okay?

1           A.    All right, sir.

2           Q.    Okay.  Okay, now Mr. Harris, where do you live?

3           A.    I stay at Kilmichael now, but I was staying at 902A
4 Silver, Silver, Bayou street or something in Winona.

5           Q.    Do you know Clemmie Fleming?

6           A.    Yes, sir.  I do.

7           Q.    I want to take you back to July of 1996.

8           A.    (Witness nods his head.)

9           Q.    Did you give Clemmie Fleming-- do you remember when
10 something happened at Tardy?  Do you remember the day
11 something happened at Tardy Furniture?

12          A.    Uh-huh.

13          Q.    Okay.  Can you tell me if you gave Clemmie a ride
14 that day?

15          A.    The second time I went out.

16          Q.    Okay, did you go out twice?

17          A.    Right.

18          Q.    Tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury about
19 both trips.  Tell them what happened.

20          A.    The first time I went out?

21          Q.    Both times.  Go ahead and tell them.

22          A.    The first time I left home I was going over to 23 Booger man's house to do some work on his garden tiller, and
24 he told me to be there about 9 o'clock.  And I left home.  I
25 went downtown.  I crossed the railroad track, went down Front
26 Street to the first corner, to the left-- I mean the right.
27 I took it, went down to the post office, 3 way stop sign.  I
28 took a left there.  I went on down through there by the side
29 of that church going on into 407.  This next road that is

1 coming, not the one behind the church, not the parking lot
2 behind the church and not the one that is coming from the 3 furniture store; it's the next street up the hill there to 4 the left. A fellow come out running, and he crossed the road
5 in the front of my car, and I like to have hit him. So he
6 got up on the street, and he kept running on up the street.
7 I put on brakes, and I started to run and pick him up, but my
8 mind told me no, said I didn't know him. I went on over the 9 hill to 407, went into 51, went by JJ Knox School and went 10 over to Booger man's house, but he wasn't there. I made the 11 block and come on back out, hit 51, going up through there by 12 Jeff's store going back toward Junior Food Mart. This same
13 fellow come down Silver Street running.

14 Q. Okay. Was Clemmie Fleming with you when you saw
15 this fellow?

16 A. No, sir. She wasn't with me then.

17 Q. Listen to me. What did that fellow look like?

18 A. He was about 5'6". He was light skinned. He wore
19 a bebop cap and a white T-shirt.

20 Q. Do you now know who Mr. Flowers is?

21 A. Did I know him?

22 Q. Did you know Mr. Curtis Flowers at the time?

23 A. No, sir. I didn't know him then, but I know him, I
24 know-- after they showed his picture, but my first time ever
25 seeing him.

26 Q. Who showed you a picture?

27 A. The District Attorney, Mr. John Johnson.

28 Q. Was the man in the picture they showed you the same
29 man you saw running?

1           A.    No, sir.  It wasn't.

2           Q.    Did you tell him that?

3           A.    Yes, sir.

4           Q.    And by the way, how many pictures did he show you
5 when he showed you this picture?

6           A.    One.  The only one.

7           Q.    Now you have already said that Clemmie was not with 8 you.  What happened after you made this first trip?  What 9 happened next?

10          A.    I went back home.  I was standing in my kitchen
11 window thinking about the fellow that I seen running, and I
12 said he must have been lost or something, or he didn't know
13 where he was going.  And so about 50, 55 minutes, Clemmie
14 come over to my house and asked me to take her to the 15 furniture store to pay her furniture note.  I went the same
16 direction I went when I first left the house.  Before we got 17 to go over the hill down by the furniture store, she said,
18 "That's all right.  Take me over to my mother's."  As I got 19 to the 3 way stop in front of the church and the post office,
20 I said, "Clemmie."  I said, "Let me show you where I like to 21 have done hit a fellow at this morning when he run across the 22 road in the front of my car."  And after I showed her that, I
23 took her to her mother's house, and I went back home.

24          Q.    Did you see any man running while Clemmie was with
25 you?

26          A.    No, sir.  Not period.

27          Q.    Did she see any man running?

28          A.    No, sir.

29          Q.    Did you ever go in front of Tardy Furniture Store

1 that day?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Did you ever stop in front of Tardy Furniture
4 Store?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. Did the, Mr. Johnson talk to you about this case?
7 Did he talk to you?

8 A. Well, yes, sir. He did. The first-- I went up
9 there at first and.

10 Q. When you say, when you say you went up there, up 11 where?

12 A. I went to the station.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Police station.

15 Q. This is after this incident?

16 A. After they caught--

17 Q. After the Tardy thing?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. Okay, go ahead.

20 A. And I was giving him a statement about what I seen,
21 but he told me that he couldn't understand me, and I couldn't
22 understand him. So we got in the patrol car, and I carried 23 him around and showed him and the police where I seen the 24 fellow and everything like that. And he come back and he 25 said, well, say, "We will be in touch." And so after the 26 Defendant was caught, well, then he come back and got me to 27 come up there, and I went back to the station.

28 Q. This is after the Defendant was arrested?

29 A. But he asked me, said Clemmie Fleming, was she with

1 me at 10 o'clock. I told him yes, she was because I taken
2 her to the furniture store. And he said, "I want you to tell
3 me just exactly," say, "Clemmie Fleming done already told
4 me." Said, "I want you to tell me." And I say, well, I say,
5 "Clemmie Fleming wasn't with me when I first seen this guy
6 running." He said, "I don't want"-- he said the peoples,
7 the killing wasn't at 9, 5 to 9:00. He said it was at 10
8 o'clock. I said, "Well, I don't know nothing about that,"
9 but I say, "The main thing I just know what I seen." But he
10 wanted me to say what Clemmie had done said, but I know
11 Clemmie were wrong. And he kept on, kept on, and kept on and 12 the girl with me, she tried to get me to go ahead. I said,
13 well, I say, he hasn't-- she wasn't with me. And I didn't
14 want to tell that, you know. So I finally went on and agreed
15 with him just to get out of the police station where I could 16 go on back to the house.

17 Q. Now so you went ahead and agreed with him at that
18 time; is that correct?

19 A. That's right.

20 Q. Was it true that Clemmie was with you though? Was 21 it ever true that Clemmie was with you when you saw a man
22 running?

23 A. No, sir. She wasn't with me when I seen a man
24 running.

25 Q. Mr. Harris, were you subpoenaed here? Did you come
26 here today at first as a witness for the State? Did they 27 have you with their witnesses?

28 A. (Witness nods his head.)

29 Q. Did you come here as a witness for the State? Did

1 they have you with their witnesses?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. I'm sorry?

4 A. That's right.

5 Q. Did they decide not to call you?

6 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I object to that.

7 BY THE COURT: Sustained. You can't ask him
8 that.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. Now let me ask you this. Was there a hearing where 11 you said what Clemmie wanted you to say? A hearing?

12 A. Was there what now?

13 Q. A hearing. Do you remember a first hearing?

14 A. That's right.

15 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I'm going to object
16 to this kind of stuff.

17 BY THE COURT: Right. Sustained.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, no problem.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Okay, I'm going to -- can you see that man right
21 there? I'm going to ask you to stand up.

22 (The Defendant, Curtis Flowers, stands up.)

23 Q. Is this the man that you saw running on that day?

24 A. No, sir. It wasn't.

25 Q. Do you personally know this man?

26 A. I know him now.

27 Q. Okay. Did you know him, have you known him at any 28 time-- for how long have you -- do you personally know him?
29 Is he a friend of yours?

1           A.    My first time of seeing him was at the first
2   hearing.

3           Q.    Have you seen him--

4                   BY MR. HORAN:   Your Honor, I wish he would.   I
5   tried not to object, but he is leading this 6   witness.   I don't mind him speaking loudly so he
7   can hear him, but I don't want him to give him
8   leading questions.

9                   BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Try not to lead him.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Okay.

11   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12           Q.    When is the next time after the first hearing, when 13   is the next time that you saw that man?

14           A.    Now.

15           Q.    I didn't hear you.   Could you say that?

16           A.    Right now.

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   I don't have any more
18   questions.

19   CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

20           Q.    Mr. Harris, I want to ask you a few questions if I
21   may; okay?

22                   BY THE COURT:   Mr. Horan, I believe--

23                   BY MR. HORAN:   --I'm going to get over there.

24                   BY THE COURT:   And you are going to have to 25   kind of talk to him.

26                   BY MR. HORAN:   I am.

27                   BY THE COURT:   So he can see your lips.

28                   BY MR. HORAN:   I am.

29   BY MR. HORAN:

1           Q.    Mr. Harris, do you remember giving Mr. Johnson a
2 statement regarding the Tardy Furniture murders? Do you
3 remember that? Do you remember giving Mr. Johnson a taped
4 statement? Do you remember giving Mr. Johnson a taped
5 statement? John Johnson, the fellow you talked about. Do
6 you remember giving him a statement?

7           A.    A statement, uh.

8           Q.    A statement; right.

9           A.    About, that, uh.

10          Q.    What you saw that morning. Do you remember giving
11 him a taped statement?

12          A.    I remember giving him a statement about what I seen
13 when I was by myself.

14          Q.    Do you remember him asking you to direct your 15 attention back to July the 16th of 1996? Do you remember
16 Mr. Johnson asking you to do that?

17          A.    Yes, sir.

18          Q.    All right. And you remember him asking you whether 19 or not you went down on Front Street? Do you remember him
20 asking you that question?

21          A.    (No audible response.)

22                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I just get a page
23 reference?

24                   BY MR. HORAN: First page.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

26                   BY THE COURT: He needs to answer out loud.

27 BY MR. HORAN:

28          Q.    Answer out loud.

29          A.    I remember him asking me that question, but I told

1 him that I went the same direction.

2 Q. Okay, do--

3 A. --I went--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let him explain.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Well, I want him to answer yes
6 or no first, and then he can explain.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. HORAN:

9 Q. Do you remember Mr. Johnson asking you whether or 10 not you went down on First Street that morning?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You mean Front Street.

12 BY MR. HORAN:

13 Q. I mean Front Street. Do you remember that?

14 A. What now?

15 Q. Do you remember Mr. Johnson asking you whether or 16 not-- and this is the question. Did you go downtown Front
17 Street? Do you remember him asking you that?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. And you said, "Yes, sir. I went downtown Front
20 Street." Do you remember, and that was your response. Do
21 you remember telling him that?

22 A. (Witness nods his head.)

23 BY THE COURT: Answer out.

24 BY MR. HORAN:

25 Q. Answer out.

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay. "What were you going downtown Front Street
28 for?" "Clemmie was going to pay her furniture note." Do you
29 remember telling Mr. Johnson that on a tape?

1           A.    I remember telling Mr. Johnson that.

2           Q.    And he said, "Clemmie Fleming was" question mark--
3 well, that was a question. Do you remember that? And you
4 said, "That's right." "And you were giving her a ride?" Do
5 you remember that? Do you remember telling Mr. Johnson those
6 things?

7           A.    Remember what now?

8           Q.    That you were giving her a ride, Clemmie a ride.
9 Do you remember telling Mr. Johnson that?

10          A.    A--

11          Q.    A ride in your automobile. You gave Clemmie a ride
12 that day?

13          A.    Talking about a ride?

14          Q.    Right. Okay.

15          A.    I was taking her to the furniture store.

16          Q.    Right, right. You gave her a ride down there, and 17 you said, "That's right." And he asked you about the 18 direction that you went. Do you remember that?

19          A.    Right.

20          Q.    And you said that you went downtown in front of 21 Tardy Furniture. Do you remember telling Mr. Johnson that?

22          A.    No, sir.

23          Q.    You don't remember telling him that?

24          A.    No, sir.

25          Q.    You deny making that statement?

26          A.    I deny making that statement. I told Mr. Johnson I
27 went the same direction I went when I first left home.

28          Q.    Now do you remember Mr. Johnson asking you this 29 question. Page 3. "Well, over there on Church Street was

1 anybody mentioned, anybody called, something about somebody
2 called, anybody called somebody's name?" Do you remember Mr.
3 Johnson asking you that question?

4 A. Yes, sir. I remember him asking me that question.

5 Q. Do you remember that your response was, "She said
6 something about 'There goes Curtis Flowers.' I didn't pay
7 her no attention." Do you remember telling Mr. John Johnson
8 that when he interviewed you? Do you remember telling him
9 that?

10 A. Yes, sir. That's what Clemmie Fleming said.

11 Q. That's what Clemmie Fleming said?

12 A. The words she said.

13 Q. No, sir. Do you remember-- just answer my 14 question. Do you remember telling him that, "She said
15 something about 'There goes Curtis Flowers.' I didn't pay
16 her no attention." Do you remember--

17 A. --that's what--

18 Q. --telling Mr. Johnson that?

19 A. That's what he was, wanted me to go by what she
20 said.

21 Q. Okay. Later on in the statement do you remember
22 Mr. Johnson asking you this question. "Did you hear her say
23 Curtis Flowers' name that morning, July the 16th, as you were 24 giving her a ride down Church Street?" Do you remember that
25 particular question?

26 A. Yes, sir. That was a question.

27 Q. Do you remember that your response was, "That is 28 right"? And when they said, "I'm talking about when they 29 showed me the picture on TV and they got asking people who

1 was Curtis Flowers. Who was Curtis Flowers, and they were
2 telling about it. I said to myself; I told them, Seems like
3 I heard that name before. And they said, It's Archie
4 Flowers' son." Do you remember telling Mr. Flowers-- I mean
5 Mr. Johnson that? Do you remember that?

6 A. I remember telling Mr. Johnson that I might have 7 heard Clemmie Fleming saying something like that. But how is 8 Clemmie Fleming going to say anything like that when she
9 wasn't with me, and I ain't seen nothing.

10 Q. Okay, Mr. Harris, but that is not my question. My 11 question is that when Mr. Johnson interviewed you back in 12 19-- early 1997, I believe, regarding this incident, that's 13 what you told him, wasn't it, Mr. Harris?

14 A. Yes, sir. That's what I told him, but the first 15 statement I give Mr. Johnson was the right statement. That's 16 the statement Clemmie Fleming give Mr. Johnson.

17 Q. Yes, sir, but--

18 A. --Mr. Johnson wanted me to go behind her, but I
19 wouldn't do it. And I kept telling him that she wasn't with 20 me when I seen the fellow running.

21 Q. Okay. Now Mr. Harris, Mr. Lumumba asked you about 22 another time that you talked about this. And you were under 23 oath at that time, weren't you, when you made another
24 statement regarding whether or not Mr.-- whether or not 25 Clemmie Fleming had identified Curtis Flowers. You were 26 under oath with reference to that particular statement, were 27 you not? You took an oath. Do you remember that?

28 A. (No immediate response.)

29 Q. The second time you told anybody or made any

1 statement or testified about whether or not you saw Curtis--
2 I mean whether or not Clemmie Fleming saw Curtis Flowers, you
3 were under oath, weren't you?

4 A. (No response.)

5 Q. Have you ever been sworn and then testified about
6 this matter?

7 A. On the last hearing?

8 Q. Yes, sir. You were under oath, were you not?

9 A. Come again.

10 Q. Did you raise your right hand and swear to tell the 11 truth?

12 A. I did.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Come again.

15 Q. Okay. I am trying. I have got a sore throat, and 16 this is really tough on me. And the question, page 766, now
17 I asked you; do you remember me asking you some questions?
18 Do you remember that?

19 A. (No audible response.)

20 Q. "Did Ms. Fleming identify the man running as Curtis
21 Flowers to you?" "That's what she, that's what I remember
22 her saying." Do you admit or deny that you made that 23 statement while under oath?

24 A. I said I remember, I think I remember her saying
25 something like that. I didn't say she said it.

26 Q. You remember her saying--

27 A. --I think. I think I remember her saying something
28 like that.

29 Q. Okay. That's what, "That's what I remember her

1 saying."

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And then page 767, "And this is the day of the 4 murders" -- that's what I asked you -- "that morning on
5 Church Street, two blocks from behind Tardy's, she identified
6 Curtis Flowers to you, didn't she?" Your response was--
7 what did you say? "That's right." Do you remember making
8 that statement?

9 A. No, sir. I don't. Sho' don't.

10 Q. But you were under oath when you gave that 11 testimony. You were under oath; you swore to God to tell the 12 truth when you made these statements at the prior hearing,
13 did you not? You were under oath?

14 A. When I was telling Mr. Johnson that?

15 Q. No, sir. When you testified about this matter
16 before, you were under oath?

17 A. (No response.)

18 Q. You swore. You swore to tell the truth?

19 A. Not as I know, sir.

20 Q. Okay. Okay. And I asked you another question
21 about the route that you took. Do you remember me asking you
22 a question about the direction that you took that particular
23 day? Do you remember me asking you that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You may not. Do you?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. All right. And I asked you with reference to what
28 you told Mr. Johnson--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. Are we still on

1 page--

2 BY MR. HORAN: --I'm sorry. 767, that's
3 right.

4 BY MR. HORAN:

5 Q. I asked you, I said, "Do you remember telling Mr.
6 Johnson that 'I went downtown Front Street.' Do you remember
7 telling Mr. Johnson that?" Your response was, "That's 8 right." Now at this hearing-- I want you to listen to my
9 question. Okay, I will let you explain. Do you remember
10 making that statement?

11 A. I remember telling Mr. Johnson I went downtown
12 Front Street in the-- but I said I didn't know what y'all
13 call Front Street. But I say what I call Front Street is 14 coming down Front Street, but I didn't go over the hill down
15 by the furniture store. I took a right on the corner by the 16 bank.

17 Q. Okay, but at your prior testimony you testified
18 that you had told Mr. Johnson that you went down Front
19 Street; right?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge. That is not--

21 BY THE WITNESS:

22 A. --I call Front Street--

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I object. I don't--

24 BY MR. HORAN: --Okay, I will move on. I will
25 move on.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that is not a
27 contradiction.

28 BY MR. HORAN:

29 Q. My point is that you didn't testify to anything

1 different than you went down Front Street when you were with
2 Clemmie Fleming, did you? When you were with Clemmie, you
3 went down Front Street, didn't you?

4 A. Right. That's the direction I went when I left
5 home.

6 Q. Okay. All right. And then, page 768, I asked you,
7 "And then you went down and hit Church Street? You went
8 down and hit Church Street?" "Right, when--" and I asked you
9 this question. "And that's when you saw the individual that
10 she identified as Curtis Flowers?" And you said, "And took a
11 left, and took a left there." That was your response. Do
12 you remember making that statement while under oath, Mr.
13 Harris?

14 A. No, sir. Sho' don't.

15 Q. Okay. Let me get back up here. Mr. Harris?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. You have never testified under oath before that 18 Clemmie Fleming tried to get you to testify to anything, have 19 you? You have never testified under oath to that particular
20 fact, have you?

21 A. That Clemmie Fleming tried to do what?

22 Q. Tried to get you to back up her story. You have 23 never testified under oath to that before, have you, Mr.
24 Harris?

25 A. That Clemmie Fleming, I tried to get her to back up
26 her story or she tried to--

27 Q. --that Clemmie tried to get you to back up her
28 story? You have never testified to that under oath before,
29 have you?

1           A.   (Witness shakes his head.)

2           Q.   Okay. And you have never testified under oath
3 before that Mr. Johnson tried to get you to do anything that
4 you didn't want to do. You have never testified under oath
5 to that before, have you?

6           A.   That Mr. Johnson tried to get me to say that I
7 didn't want to do.

8           Q.   Yes. You have never testified to that under oath
9 before, have you?

10          A.   No, sir. Sure haven't.

11          Q.   In all the questions that you responded to while 12 you were under oath last time, you never mentioned that, did
13 you, Mr. Harris?

14          A.   In the last hearing?

15          Q.   Yes, sir. You never mentioned that Mr. Johnson did
16 anything wrong to you at the last hearing, did you, Mr.
17 Harris?

18          A.   I know that too.

19          Q.   Nor Clemmie Fleming. Nor Clemmie Fleming. You
20 never testified that Clemmie Fleming did anything wrong to 21 you or tried to get you to do anything wrong. You have never 22 testified to that under oath, have you, Mr. Harris?

23          A.   I don't understand. I don't understand what you
24 are talking about.

25          Q.   What I'm asking you is you have never testified
26 under oath that Clemmie Fleming tried to get you to do
27 anything wrong. You never testified under oath to that 28 before, what you are testifying to here today, have you, Mr.
29 Harris?

1           A.    That Clemmie Fleming never tried to get me to do
2 nothing wrong?

3           Q.    Right. You have never testified to that under 4 oath, that she tried to get you to do anything wrong. Have
5 you ever testified to what you are testifying to here today
6 with reference to Clemmie Fleming making up what she
7 testified to? Have you done that before under oath?

8           A.    What I'm testifying today--

9           Q.    --I understand what you are testifying to today.

10                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Let him finish. Let him
11 finish, Judge.

12 BY THE WITNESS:

13           A.    --that she haven't seen nobody running. I was the 14 onliest one seen the man running.

15           Q.    That's exactly -- okay, go ahead.

16           A.    And that's it.

17           Q.    Okay.

18           A.    That's all I know.

19           Q.    My question is that you have never testified to 20 that before today under oath, have you?

21           A.    Not as I can recall.

22           Q.    Okay. Now the same man that was running down there
23 behind Tardy Furniture was the same man that you saw up on 24 51, isn't it? The same man that you said you saw running
25 behind Tardy Furniture is the same man that was running up on 26 highway or close to Highway 51?

27           A.    The same man I seen running across in front of my 28 car on the upper street was the same fellow that was coming
29 down Silver Street.

1           Q.    So you saw him-- you were in your vehicle that
2 morning, and you saw the same man on two separate occasions;
3 right?

4           A.    Right.

5           Q.    Okay. And do you remember telling, telling Mr.
6 Johnson the first time you talked to him you stated like we
7 were going to, down to the furniture place, but she told me
8 to turn right. Do you remember telling Mr. Johnson that?

9           A.    (Witness shakes his head.) No, sir.

10          Q.    Okay. Mr. Harris, on two prior occasions prior to 11 today you have given-- okay, I'm sorry. I thought I was loud
12 enough. On two prior occasions prior to what you testified
13 here today, on two occasions you have once made a statement
14 and secondly testified under oath that the man that was 15 running behind Tardy Furniture, Clemmie Fleming identified as 16 Curtis Flowers, haven't you? You have done that twice,
17 haven't you, Mr. Harris?

18          A.    I testified that the man-- I didn't say running
19 behind the furniture store. He was running across from the 20 street up there.

21          Q.    Well, on Church?

22          A.    On Church Street, right across--

23          Q.    --which is behind the furniture store. That is 24 behind the furniture store?

25          A.    That's behind the furniture store.

26          Q.    I want you to be real careful, Mr. Harris. I want
27 you to make sure you understand what I'm telling you. You
28 have testified under oath previously that Clemmie Fleming
29 identified that person as Curtis Flowers, haven't you? You

1 testified to that at a prior hearing?

2 A. Yes, sir. I did. But the reason I testified
3 against that partly because I know she was wrong, and that
4 was what Mr. Johnson wanted me to say. She told that there.
5 Mr. Johnson didn't want the statement that I give him at 6 first about the man was running. And then after they caught
7 the Defendant, Clemmie went up there and talked to Mr.
8 Johnson, and she made, messed everything up, and Mr. Johnson
9 wanting me to agree with Clemmie.

10 Q. But my question is--

11 A. --which I kept telling Mr. Johnson that Clemmie
12 Fleming was not with me when I seen the man running.

13 Q. But you did not testify to that under oath at the 14 prior hearing, did you? You testified that she was with you,
15 didn't you?

16 A. No, sir. She wasn't with me.

17 Q. But you testified to that, didn't you?

18 A. I just told you a reason I did testify against him.

19 Q. Okay.

20 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

21 Q. You showed Mr. Johnson the route that you took that 22 particular day, didn't you? You got in the automobile with 23 Mr. Johnson, didn't you?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. And y'all, y'all went the route. You showed him
26 the route?

27 A. I showed him the route.

28 Q. You would agree with me, Mr. Harris, wouldn't you,
29 that your recollection of what Clemmie told you on that day

1 being July the 16th, 1996, would be better a year ago or two
2 years ago than it would be today, wouldn't it? I will
3 withdraw. I will withdraw.

4 BY MR. HORAN: Nothing further.

5 BY THE COURT: Redirect.

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Mr. Harris?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. You have indicated that you saw -- how many times
10 did you see that man running?

11 A. Twice.

12 Q. You said that you talked to Clemmie Fleming;
13 right? You told Clemmie Fleming what you saw?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. How many times did you tell her you saw that man
16 running?

17 A. Twice.

18 Q. Okay. Did you tell her where you saw the man
19 running at?

20 A. Yes, sir. I carried her and showed her.

21 Q. Now let me ask you this. Have you ever told Mr.
22 Johnson that you pulled up and passed Tardy Furniture or 23 stopped in front of Tardy Furniture on that day? Have you
24 ever told Mr. Johnson that?

25 A. No, sir. I never told him that.

26 Q. But you did tell him that you were on Front Street;
27 right?

28 A. I did tell him I was on Front Street.

29 Q. Does, is Front Street only in front of Tardy

1 Furniture?

2 A. What?

3 Q. Where is Front Street at? Where is Front Street?

4 A. It's down by the, used to be the Amtrak, down by 5 the old depot.

6 Q. Is Tardy Furniture right there?

7 A. No, sir. It's over the hill, down the hill from 8 the depot.

9 Q. Did you, were you ever in a car with Clemmie
10 Fleming when you saw somebody running on that day?

11 A. No, sir. I wasn't in the car with Clemmie Fleming
12 when I seen nobody running that day.

13 Q. Have you ever -- are you being offered anything for 14 your testimony here today?

15 BY MR. HORAN: I didn't go into that.

16 BY THE WITNESS:

17 A. No, sir.

18 BY THE COURT: No, he didn't.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't have any
20 further questions of this witness.

21 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: You are free to go. You can go
24 home.

25 WITNESS EXCUSED.

26 BY THE COURT: Unlike the rest of us. Who do
27 you have next?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Defense would call Robert
29 Campbell.

1                   BY THE COURT: Robert Campbell.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am still talking loud.

3                   BY THE COURT: Me too.

4                   (Witness enters courtroom.)

5                   BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn?

6                   BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

7                   BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
8 hand.

9                                 ROBERT CAMPBELL,

10 a black male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,
11 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

12                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Campbell, have a seat right
13 there, please. State your name for the record.

14                   BY THE WITNESS: My name is Robert Campbell.

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16                   Q. Mr. Campbell, could you tell the ladies and 17 gentlemen of this jury, please, where you live?

18                   A. I live in St. Rose, Louisiana.

19                   Q. And Mr. Campbell do you work? Are you employed?

20                   A. I work.

21                   Q. Okay?

22                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, can we approach?

23                   BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

24                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
25 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

26                   BY MR. HORAN: He has already attempted to 27 impeach regarding the weapon. I assume that's what 28 you are doing?

29                   BY THE COURT: What?

1 BY MR. HORAN: He is putting this witness on
2 to attempt to impeach Doyle Simpson, and Mr.
3 Simpson admits he made a misrepresentation about
4 the gun. This is cumulative. This has no
5 additional value. I'm going to object to it.

6 BY THE COURT: It is cumulative. He has
7 admitted it. It's in evidence. He hasn't denied
8 making it.

9 BY MR. HORAN: He hasn't denied making the
10 statement.

11 BY THE COURT: I mean denied, he has not 12 denied the fact that you are trying to prove. He 13 is admitting it, so it is before the jury now.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, okay. I have a couple
15 of other questions.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Well, I have not been-- any 18 other statements have not been discovered other 19 than that.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All he is just going to do is 21 testify. I think what his testimony is just like
22 the Defendant testified.

23 BY MR. HORAN: The Defendant?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Defendant at the last 25 trial, plus you have his statement that this, that 26 he had a big family thing, you know, on the 4th of 27 July.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Oh, okay.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This gentleman was here, and

1 he is basically just going to testify that a bunch
2 of them there, he hung out with the Defendant for
3 the week or two after that and that they, you know,
4 basically testify to circumstances as to what
5 occurred on that week. I mean it's not-- and also
6 he is going to testify to the fact that he has a
7 weapon. Other people in the family have weapons
8 and shoot weapons all the time.

9 BY MR. EVANS: None of that has been furnished
10 on discovery.

11 BY THE COURT: Do y'all want to go through the 12 Box procedure?

13 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I can make a
14 suggestion. I don't mind doing it. Of course, the 15 State is under a little bit different burden than 16 the Defendant when it comes to Box; I understand
17 that. But if we have an opportunity to interview
18 him, and I'm not going to ask the Court to disallow
19 his testimony, but I would like to have an 20 opportunity for one of my investigators to 21 interview him regarding those statements.

22 BY THE COURT: I think they are entitled under
23 Box to talk to him.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Are you going to put him--

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Wait, Wait. Well, let me
26 just say this. I don't have another witness here.
27 We unfortunately let all our witnesses go until
28 Monday, but the other thing--

29 BY THE COURT: --Let me ask you this just as a

1 point of reference. How many do you think you have 2 Monday?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I can't--

4 BY THE COURT: -- I'm not going to tie you
5 down to it.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: How many more witnesses?

7 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: About seven.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. About the same length as 10 what we having have been doing?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

12 BY THE COURT: That is okay. It doesn't
13 matter.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, seven. It will be
15 done. I don't think they are going to be long. I
16 don't think they are going to be long.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, how long is this 18 one? This witness won't be long.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

20 BY THE COURT: Why don't we take about--

21 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, I tell you what 22 we could do. I don't mind-- of course, this may be 23 improper. Do his direct examination but we could 24 interview him after--

25 BY THE COURT: --No, we are not-- if we are 26 going to do it, we are going to do it the way Box
27 says do it.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Here is the only--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --If the only thing you are

1           going to ask him is about the size of the family,
2           whether he was up here for the Fourth of July--

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: He was really here up until
4           really right before this thing happened. He left
5           maybe a day-- he was there until the weekend before
6           this thing happened.

7           BY MR. HORAN: Is he going to testify they
8           were firing weapons and stuff?

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, he is going, yeah.
10          They were firing-- not the client, not the 11          Defendant, but he was firing weapons, and other
12          people--

13          BY MR. EVANS: --This is the first time this 14          has ever come up.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I mean I wasn't the 16          lawyer in the last trial, but I mean I just, this
17          guy lives out of town. I just really had a chance
18          to talk to him--

19          BY MR. HORAN: --Put him on in the morning,
20          Judge.

21          BY MR. EVANS: --yeah, we are going--

22          BY THE COURT: --Monday.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can't put him on in the
24          morning.

25          BY MR. HORAN: I mean Monday.

26          BY THE COURT: Yeah, y'all can put on whoever
27          you want to in the morning. I just won't be here
28          with you.

29          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I don't have a problem

1 with that. He lives in Metairie. I guess he is
2 closer to here than we are.

3 BY THE COURT: Yeah, well, he is. That's
4 true. Okay, let me put the jury to bed, and that's 5 the last witness you have got.

6 BY MR. HORAN: Have you got a tape on him?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

8 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

9 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, Mr.
10 Campbell will be the last witness that the Defense
11 has here today because there are some reasons why
12 some folks could not be here until Monday and some 13 reason that they didn't know that they were going 14 to be in a position to have to put on some of their 15 evidence today. So we are going to-- we are 16 certainly going to go into Monday, and Mr. Campbell
17 needs to talk to the lawyers here later today
18 before he can finish testifying. So I'm going to,
19 we are going to quit now at 4:30, and I'm going to 20 let you go for the weekend.

21 I give you the same instructions that I have 22 given you before, and I understand from the 23 bailiffs they have made arrangements for y'all to 24 be able to do within the confines of what we are 25 doing as much as you want to do tomorrow and 26 tonight and all like that. And they will take care
27 of you. If they need to get hold of me, if you
28 have got any special needs or anything like that,
29 they will talk to me, and I will see that you get

1           taken care of. But I'm going to let you go now for
2           the weekend, and we will start promptly at 9
3           o'clock on Monday. And I hope y'all have a
4           reasonably good weekend. Hope the weather is 5           nice.

6                       JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

7           BY THE COURT: Is there any reason that Mr.
8           Campbell can't be interviewed this afternoon?

9           BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay, let's do that. Mr.
11          Campbell, do you understand that? They want you to 12          stick around until they can talk to you.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I explain to him what is 14          supposed to be happening?

15          BY THE COURT: Sure or I will; it doesn't
16          matter.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, you go ahead.

18          BY THE COURT: Okay. Under this procedure,
19          there are some things that they knew about in the 20          context of what you were going to say, and some of 21          them they did not. They are entitled to know those 22          things that they did not before you testify. And 23          they have to make some choices, but I think they 24          just want to know what you are going to say, and 25          that's all they want to talk to you about.

26          Okay. Court is adjourned until 9 o'clock--

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Let me ask you this 28          question because this is always an issue whenever 29          we do this. Is there a problem with us being

1 present while he is being interviewed without
2 saying anything?

3 BY MR. HORAN: That is up to the witness.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is up to the witness. I
5 guess I should ask the witness. Do you have a
6 problem with somebody--

7 BY THE WITNESS: --No, I don't have a problem.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

9 BY THE COURT: I have got a problem--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --The question is not whether 11 he has a problem with it. We are asking to 12 interview this witness and unless--

13 BY THE COURT: --I think under Box, it says
14 you have got a right to interview him, and the 15 intention of Box is that that be done under 16 whatever circumstances you have got to have; just 17 like I would do the same thing for you. I wouldn't 18 let them sit in on yours.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So what is your problem?

20 BY MR. EVANS: We want to talk to him by 21 hisself.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, okay.

23 BY MR. EVANS: We don't want anybody to try to 24 influence him.

25 BY THE COURT: See y'all Monday.

26 (Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Evans confer further off 27 the record.)

28 COURT RECESSED FOR THE DAY AT 4:35 P.M. ON MARCH
29 27, 1999.

1 TRIAL CONTINUED ON MONDAY, MARCH 29, 1999, AT
2 9:00 A.M. WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT
3 PRESENT IN OPEN COURT:

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Good morning, Judge. Can I
5 check on my witnesses?

6 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The witness went to the rest
8 room.

9 BY THE COURT: Is he going to come on in
10 here?

11 (Off the record briefly.)

12 BY THE COURT: Who are we waiting on?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He is not here, I don't
14 believe. I would call Mr. Campbell, but he is not 15 here right now. But there is, Mr. McSparrin is 16 here. He is the person that went to the rest
17 room. Let me make sure he is not waiting out--

18 BY THE COURT: All right.

19 (Mr. Robert Campbell, the last witness on 20 Saturday, enters the courtroom.)

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He will go first.

22 BY THE COURT: You can have a seat up here.

23 ROBERT CAMPBELL,
24 a black male called as a witness by the Defendant who began
25 his testimony on March 27, 1999, and having been previously
26 sworn, testified further as follows, to-wit:

27 BY THE COURT: Mr. Campbell, identify yourself
28 to this lady again.

29 BY THE WITNESS: My name is Robert Campbell.

1                   BY THE COURT: And you were the one that was
2                   in the process of testifying on Saturday when we
3                   quit; is that right?

4                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5                   JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

6                   BY THE COURT: Good morning.

7                   BY THE JURY: Good morning.

8                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, you may proceed.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you. Good morning,
10                  ladies and gentlemen of the jury.

11                  BY THE JURY: Good morning.

12                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13                  Q. Good morning, Mr. Campbell.

14                  A. Good morning.

15                  Q. Could you say again for the ladies and gentlemen of 16                  the jury what your name is, please?

17                  A. My name is Robert Campbell.

18                  Q. And Mr. Campbell, where is it that you reside?

19                  A. St. Rose, Louisiana.

20                  Q. And how long have you lived in that area?

21                  A. For 22 years.

22                  Q. Do you have-- are you employed?

23                  A. Yes.

24                  Q. What is it that you do?

25                  A. Well, we build big industrial machines and conveyor
26                  belts.

27                  Q. Okay. I would like to take your attention to 28                  Winona. Do you know anybody in Winona?

29                  A. Yes, my mother live there.

1 Q. Okay, and do you have other family in Winona?

2 A. Yes. A lot of nieces and nephews and sisters and
3 brothers.

4 Q. Do you know a person by the name of Curtis Flowers?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. How long have you known Mr. Flowers?

7 A. All his life.

8 Q. Okay. Are you related to him in some sort of way?

9 A. My nephew.

10 Q. Okay, he is your nephew. Okay. Did you see Mr.
11 Flowers at all during the weeks prior to July the 16th, 199--
12 well, let me just put it this way. The 4th of July of 1996,
13 did you have an occasion to see Mr. Flowers at all?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And where was it you saw him at?

16 A. Downtown Winona.

17 Q. Okay. And did you see him after the 4th of July
18 anywhere? Did you have any kind of-- did you see any other
19 family on that day also?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Where did you see them at?

22 A. We was downtown buying fish.

23 Q. Okay, and what were you buying the fish for?

24 A. For the Fourth of July. We all get together on the 25 Fourth.

26 Q. Did you have a get together on the Fourth?

27 A. Yes, sir. We did.

28 Q. Okay. Now did you, after the 4th, did you go
29 back-- how long did you stay in Winona?

1           A.    I was there for two weeks.  I was on vacation.

2           Q.    And did you see Mr. Flowers during that period of
3 time?

4           A.    Yeah, he was with all that, the whole time I was
5 there.

6           Q.    Okay.  Now I would like to call your attention to 7 the-- what date did you leave?  I guess that's the question
8 I really have.  What date did you really leave Winona?

9           A.    Well, I left that weekend before the incident.

10          Q.    Okay, when you say the incident, are you talking
11 about the incident at Tardy's store?

12          A.    Yes, sir.

13          Q.    Okay, and say now you left the weekend before the 14 Tardy incident.  Now let me ask you this.  Did you do
15 anything with any of your nephews or your relatives on that 16 weekend?

17          A.    Yeah, every time I come to town we mostly go to 18 shoot.

19          Q.    Okay, and where do you shoot at?

20          A.    Up by my sister's house.  She live out of the city
21 limits.  We normally walk in the woods and shoot.

22          Q.    Okay.  And does anyone in your family have any 23 weapons?

24          A.    All, all my nephews and them because they like to 25 hunt with me.

26          Q.    Okay, what kind of weapons do they have are you
27 talking about?

28          A.    .22, .410, 12 gauge and .30/30.

29          Q.    Okay, and do you guys hunt with those guns?

1           A.    Yes, sir.

2           Q.    And are those guns always clean and kept clean?

3           A.    No, they are not.

4           Q.    Okay. Now let me ask you this. Did you on the
5 weekend that you did the shooting, who was with you when you
6 actually did the shooting?

7           A.    My little nephew Chris, he was with me. When we
8 came, we came out of the woods, Curtis caught up with us. He 9 came but he came late. He didn't get to shoot because we had 10 got a shell stuck in the .22.

11          Q.    And did Curtis have any contact with anything?

12          A.    Yeah, he tried to get the shell out of the .22. We 13 had to dig the .22 cartridges out with a screwdriver.

14          Q.    Okay. Name some of the relatives in your family
15 that have the shotguns and other weapons.

16          A.    Well, Will have a .22. Chris have a .22. Archie
17 got a 20 gauge.

18          Q.    Archie who?

19          A.    Archie Flowers.

20          Q.    And who is that? Is he related to Mr. Flowers in 21 any way?

22          A.    Yeah, that's his daddy.

23          Q.    Does Mr. Flowers ever visit his dad to your 24 knowledge?

25          A.    Every day.

26          Q.    Okay. Now let me ask you this question if you
27 know. Are you fairly familiar with Winona?

28          A.    Yes, sir.

29          Q.    Okay. And you are familiar with where Tardy's

1 store is?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with Coast to Coast?

4 A. Yeah, it's in the next building.

5 Q. It's in the next building?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. Okay. Is there some kind of Coast to Coast
8 facility behind Tardy?

9 A. Yeah, where they work on lawnmowers, all kind of 10 little small equipment there -- washing machines and stuff
11 like that, yeah.

12 Q. Okay.

13 (Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

14 Q. Now did you ever receive a call -- do you know a
15 person by the name of Doyle Simpson?

16 A. Yeah, he is my half brother.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think we covered
18 this issue yesterday. May we approach?

19 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum. You may.

20 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
21 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

22 BY MR. EVANS: We object to him going into any
23 calls from Doyle Simpson because he did not impeach
24 Doyle on it. Doyle admitted that he called him and 25 asked him to lie about the gun. This is not
26 relevant.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it's relevant to
28 corroborate that what Doyle admitted to was true,
29 that he did call him and ask him. This is the man

1           that Doyle called.

2           BY THE COURT: It's a consistent statement
3           though. It's not relevant unless it's 4           inconsistent.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, I'm not going to 6           elicit the statement. I'm just going to elicit the 7           fact that he got a call.

8           BY MR. EVANS: Which again is not relevant.

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to ask him-- well,
10          excuse me. I'm going to ask him if Doyle is his
11          brother, and did he get a call from Doyle.

12          BY THE COURT: I will let you ask that 13          question, but you can't go into the statement of 14          what he made.

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

16                                END BENCH CONFERENCE

17   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18           Q.   Mr. Campbell, my question is going to be just 19          simple. Are you related to Doyle Simpson in any kind of way?

20           A.   Yes, he is my half brother.

21           Q.   And did you receive a call from him?

22           A.   Yes, I did.

23           Q.   Okay, I have been ruled not to go into what he 24          said, so I'm not asking you what he said. But after you got 25          the call from him, did you do anything that he may have asked 26          you to do?

27                                BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor.

28   BY THE WITNESS:

29           A.   No, I didn't.

1                   BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute. Wait a
2 minute.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: I object. May we approach
4 again?

5                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: We had just covered this area,
7 Your Honor, and Opposing Counsel will not follow
8 the Court's instructions.

9                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
10 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think I am following the 12 Court's instructions. I'm not trying to get the 13 statement out. I'm trying to see what he did. Let 14 me the tell you why I think it is relevant to my 15 case. The reason I think it's relevant to my case,
16 their statement is going to be is that he is biased
17 toward Curtis because he is his relative, okay. I
18 am trying to bring out the fact that this is the 19 man who talked to Doyle and then refused to do what 20 Doyle asked him to do, okay. I'm not going to 21 bring out what he asked him to do. Doyle has 22 already admitted what he asked him. That shows
23 that he is not going to just lie for a relative.

24                   BY THE COURT: Okay, you can ask-- I think
25 you have already -- let's see. I don't know how to 26 say it. You have already asked him did he ask you
27 to do something. You can ask him, did you do it.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that's all I wanted to 29 do.

1                   BY THE COURT: That's it.

2                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

3       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4           Q.    Yes, my question to you at this time, Mr. Campbell,
5       is did you do what Mr. Doyle Simpson asked you to do?

6           A.    No, I didn't.

7           Q.    Okay, and you are his half brother?

8           A.    Half brother, yeah.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you. I have no further
10       questions of this witness.

11       CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

12           Q.    Mr. Campbell, the Defendant sitting at the table
13       over here is your nephew; is that right?

14           A.    Yes.

15           Q.    How is he your nephew?

16           A.    He is my sister's son.

17           Q.    All right. And I believe Saturday evening you
18       talked to Robert Jennings, one of my investigators; is that
19       correct?

20           A.    Yeah.

21           Q.    And I believe you told him that the gun that y'all
22       were shooting when you were in up in Winona was a .22 caliber
23       rifle; is that correct?

24           A.    Yeah.

25           Q.    Are you familiar with the bullets for a .22 caliber
26       rifle?

27           A.    Yes, sir.

28           Q.    They are not center fire bullets like a pistol or a 29       rifle, are they?

1 A. No.

2 Q. The hammer hits on the edge of the bullet, doesn't
3 it?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. It don't have a firing pin in them?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you remember talking to Curtis about the 8 batteries that he dumped off the truck?

9 A. Yeah, we was downtown buying the fish when he
10 pulled up. He seen me. He stopped the truck, and when he 11 pulled back off, the batteries slid out in the street.

12 Q. Do you remember him telling you that he wasn't
13 responsible for the batteries?

14 A. Yeah, he told me he didn't put them on the truck.
15 Whoever put them on the truck was responsible for them.

16 Q. Curtis wanted to go back to New Orleans with you
17 when you left, didn't he?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. He wanted you to try to find him a job down there?

20 A. Yeah, uh-huh.

21 BY MR. EVANS: No further questions.

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. Did Curtis in any way ever express any 24 dissatisfaction with Ms. Tardy or anybody at the Tardy
25 Furniture Store?

26 A. No, uh-uh. He always, he wouldn't just, you know.
27 He just didn't like the job, I guess, because he asked me how 28 much I make an hour, so I told him. He said, I want to come
29 down and get a job with you since he wanted to make more

1 money so, you know, so that was it.

2 Q. Okay. So did he ever say anything was wrong with
3 Ms. Tardy or anything like that?

4 A. No, he didn't say nothing was wrong. All he told
5 me that she had called him to come back to work.

6 Q. Okay, and this is at some time after that date?

7 A. After, yeah, after that date that he dropped the 8 batteries, yeah.

9 Q. He said she had called him to come back to work?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. Okay.

12 BY THE COURT: Any further questions of him?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
14 of this witness.

15 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, he is.

17 BY THE COURT: Mr. Campbell, you are free to 18 leave.

19 WITNESS EXCUSED.

20 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have Mr. McSparrin. He is 22 right out there in the hall.

23 BY THE BAILIFF: McSparrin?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: McSparrin, yes. I think his 25 first name is Michael.

26 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

27 BY THE COURT: Raise your right, please, sir.

28 MICHAEL McSPARRIN,

29 a white male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,

1 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

2 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there, please,
3 sir. State your name the record.

4 BY THE WITNESS: My name is Mike McSparrin.
5 That is M C capital S P A R R I N.

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Mr. McSparrin, could you tell the ladies and 8 gentlemen of the jury how you are employed, please?

9 A. I work for the Criminal Information Center with the 10 Department of Public Safety.

11 Q. And what is it that you do there?

12 A. I am a fingerprint expert for the State of 13 Mississippi.

14 Q. Have you and how long have you been a fingerprint
15 expert?

16 A. Prior to working for the Criminal Information
17 Center, I worked with the Mississippi State Crime Laboratory
18 in Jackson since 1984.

19 Q. And Mr. McSparrin, during the period of time that 20 you worked there, did you ever participate in the examination
21 of fingerprints for the purposes of identification?

22 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, the State will
23 stipulate he is an expert in that field.

24 BY THE COURT: Do you accept that stipulation?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I accept that stipulation.

26 I'm going to ask just a couple of more questions,
27 but that will be it. I will accept that.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court accepts him,
29 also accepts him as an expert in the field of

1 fingerprint analysis? Mr. McSparrin?

2 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5 Q. About how many times have you examined fingerprints
6 for comparison purposes?

7 A. Thousands of times.

8 Q. And Mr. McSparrin, can you tell me, please, have 9 you ever been qualified to testify in court before, and have 10 you testified in court before?

11 A. Yes, I have.

12 Q. And about how many different occasions?

13 A. Approximately twenty, twenty-five times.

14 Q. Okay, Mr. McSparrin, I would just like to call your 15 attention to the case involving the Tardy Furniture Store.
16 Were you ever asked to examine any fingerprints in 17 relationship to that particular case?

18 A. Yes, I was.

19 Q. And tell me about that, if you were.

20 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I had agreed
21 previously for Mr. McSparrin's report to come in.
22 Counsel for the Defendant would not allow that.
23 Unless he has got the exhibits and has them marked,
24 things like that, I don't think he can testify
25 about things that he didn't have in his possession
26 or things that have not been admitted.

27 BY THE COURT: He can testify about what he
28 did and what he found.

29 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir. But I need to know

1           if he has got those particular exhibits that he
2           compared with him today.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: If he doesn't have them, they
4           have them, Judge, so I mean, you know, I think he
5           can testify--

6           BY THE COURT: I'm going to allow him to go
7           ahead. Go ahead.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9           Q. Yes. Did you examine any prints in relationship to 10          this particular case dealing with the Tardy Furniture Store?

11          A. Yes, I did.

12          Q. Tell us about that, please.

13          A. I examined some latent lifts that were taken from 14          the crime scene that were submitted to the Crime Laboratory,
15          and I did some processing on some casings and a live round
16          that also came from the crime scene, and I also processed a
17          bank bag, a bank receipt book that came from the crime scene, 18          and I processed a shoe box that was submitted later for 19          examination to the State Crime Laboratory.

20          Q. Mr. McSparrin, who-- were you given any prints to 21          compare-- first of all, did you find any prints on any of 22          these items, or were any prints submitted to you which 23          actually came from the crime scene, actually prints?

24          A. From lifts from the crime scene there were latents
25          of value that came from the crime scene. There were latents
26          of value from the shoe box. All the other items that I just 27          discussed, the casings and the live rounds did not have 28          quality latent prints that you could use for a comparison.

29          Q. Now the ones from the crime scene, could you share

1 with the ladies and gentlemen of the jury if you recorded in
2 your report precisely where from the crime scene those prints
3 came from?

4 A. Can I refer to my notes, Your Honor?

5 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Yes, sir.

8 A. The latents from the crime scenes-- now I did not 9 personally work the crime scene. These latents were 10 submitted to me for examination, and the information that was 11 listed on those latent lifts is the only thing I have to go
12 by from what area, what location these latent lifts came
13 from. And just to get you up to speed on what a latent lift
14 is, that is just a fingerprint that is processed at the crime
15 scene that you use a piece of lifting clear tape to lift that 16 latent print off that surface and put it on a card to where 17 it can be used for examination later on. And the latents
18 that I looked at that were from the lifts from the crime
19 scenes that I labeled were L-1 through L-6. And according 20 to my report, they were taken from the Tardy Furniture
21 Company by the individual who worked that particular crime
22 scene.

23 Q. Do you remember who that was?

24 A. No, sir. I don't know exactly who worked that
25 crime scene.

26 Q. Do you know a crime scene investigator by the name
27 of Schoene?

28 A. Melissa Schoene?

29 Q. Yes.

1           A.    Yes, I do.  Yes, I do.

2           Q.    And do you know, did she work at the Crime Lab at 3 that particular time?

4           A.    At that particular time, she did work at the Crime
5 Lab.

6           Q.    And you just don't recall whether it was her or
7 someone else?

8           A.    Well, the case is three years old, and I no longer
9 work at the Crime Lab, and I don't, didn't remember exactly
10 if she was the crime scene analyst that worked that crime
11 scene.

12          Q.    Well, let us return to the lifts that you had and 13 that was reported in your records that they came from the 14 crime scene; is that correct?

15          A.    Yes, sir.

16          Q.    And where at in the crime scene?  You probably 17 said; I probably missed that.

18          A.    It's from, on my report it's listed as L-1 and L-2, 19 which are two latent lifts, were from the counter top area of 20 the Tardy Furniture Company.  L-3 and L-4 were latent lifts
21 from the counter top area of the Tardy Furniture Company.
22 And L-5 and L-6 were from the interior of a passenger side
23 window from a vehicle.

24          Q.    From a vehicle?

25          A.    Yes.

26          Q.    Okay.  Now did either one of those -- who did you
27 compare those prints?  Who did you compare those prints to?

28          A.    The comparisons were performed to two sets of known
29 inked fingerprints submitted on a Curtis Flowers and a Doyle

1 Simpson.

2 Q. Did-- were you able to match any of those prints?

3 A. The latents of value from this case did not match
4 any of the individuals that were submitted for comparison.

5 Q. And that would mean that the latents of value that
6 you got did not match Curtis Flowers; is that correct?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. And the latents of value that you got did not match
9 Doyle Simpson; is that correct?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. Now did you ever compare any latents of value of 12 Emmitt Simpson at all, to the best of your knowledge?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Or anyone else other than the two people you named?

15 A. Just the two that I just named.

16 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. Now let us go to 17 the shoe box. I think you said at some point you had a shoe
18 box?

19 A. Yes. There was a shoe box submitted to be 20 processed for latent prints.

21 Q. Okay, and did you process it?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. Were you able to find any prints on the shoe box?

24 A. Yes. There were latents of value on the shoe box.

25 Q. Did you make any comparisons of those latents of 26 value?

27 A. Yes. The same two individuals that I compared the 28 earlier latents that I just discussed, I also compared the 29 latents from the shoe box to those two individuals, Curtis

1 Flowers and Doyle Simpson.

2 Q. And were you able to come up with any-- did any of 3 those prints match?

4 A. None of those latents of value from the shoe box
5 matched either one of those individuals.

6 Q. Okay, and this is my final question. When you say
7 that none of the latents of value matched, what does that
8 mean in relationship to those prints and the individuals you
9 are speaking of?

10 A. Well, a comparison was conducted between the 11 latents of value from the shoe box and the latents that were 12 submitted from the crime scene, and a comparison was made to 13 see if the same individual who left those latents at the 14 crime scene and on the shoe box are indeed the same
15 individuals that their inked impressions were submitted for 16 comparison.

17 Q. Okay, and your determination was what?

18 A. They were not identified. The latents of value
19 from the crime scene and from the shoe box were not 20 identified to the two individuals that were submitted to me
21 for comparison.

22 Q. And no one else was submitted to you?

23 A. Yes. No one else was submitted.

24 Q. As to the shoe box, did you ever receive any prints
25 of a young man by the named of Marcus? Not Lemarcus, but did
26 you ever receive any prints of a Marcus Moore or a Marcus who 27 is reported to you to be the son of Connie Moore?

28 A. No.

29 Q. So would it be safe to say that at least as to the

1 prints that you found, that Mr. Curtis Flowers is excluded--

2 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, he can't say it's
3 safe to say. It's his witness. I object.

4 BY THE COURT: That's right. That is leading.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. As to including or excluding Mr. Flowers as it
8 relates to the prints that you examined, what would you have
9 to say as it related to those prints?

10 A. What I would say as a fingerprint expert as to the 11 comparison that I conducted, that the latents from that crime
12 scene that were submitted to me and the latents that I
13 processed off the shoe box did not match any of the 14 individuals that were submitted to me for comparison. And to 15 my knowledge, they still remain unidentified.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

18 Q. Good morning.

19 A. Morning.

20 Q. Mr. McSparrin, I don't believe we have ever met. I
21 am Doug Evans, the District Attorney for the Fifth District.
22 How long were you in fingerprint work at the Crime Lab?

23 A. For the first--

24 Q. --As far as actually testing and testifying?

25 A. Prior to leaving the Crime Lab to go to work for 26 the Criminal Information Center, I was a latent examiner, a
27 certified latent examiner with the Crime Lab for three
28 years.

29 Q. All right. You have enough experience to be pretty

1 familiar with fingerprints; is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now since you did not go to the crime scene, I want
4 to describe a little bit of the crime scene to you. As a
5 matter of fact, I would like to show you a couple of
6 photographs. (Pause.) First, I will hand you Exhibits 24
7 and 31 which purport to be the counter area and the area
8 where Robert Golden and Carmen Rigby were found laying. I
9 will ask you to look at those.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I see those right quick, 11 please, just so I will have an idea what he is 12 looking at.

13 (Photographs handed to Mr. Lumumba.)

14 BY MR. EVANS: If you want to, you can look at 15 the two other ones I'm going to show him.

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. Okay, in Exhibits 24 and 31, have you had a chance
18 to look at those?

19 A. Prior to this morning, right now? No, I have not.

20 Q. I mean this morning. Have you had a chance to look
21 at them now?

22 A. This is the first time I have seen these 23 photographs. I have had a chance, I have had a chance to 24 look at State's Exhibit 31 and 24.

25 Q. All right, the furniture in there with the cloth on 26 it, as an expert in fingerprints, would you expect to find
27 any fingerprints on those chairs and couches in there?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I am just trying to 29 find -- I object to the question as ambiguous. He

1           referred to the cloth, and then he referred to the 2           furniture. I assume the furniture has more than 3           cloth on it. So I just want to be clear on what
4           the question is. Is he asking him if he expected
5           to find any on the cloth or on the furniture
6           altogether?

7                   BY THE COURT: I understood him to ask about
8           the cloth.

9                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. That's exactly what
10          I asked.

11                   BY THE COURT: Okay, it's overruled.

12          BY MR. EVANS:

13           Q. Did you understand my question?

14           A. Yes, sir. I understood.

15           Q. Would you expect to find any fingerprints of value
16          on that cloth?

17           A. Cloth is not a good surface for the deposit of 18          latent impressions because it's rough; it's not a smooth
19          surface, and it's very difficult to process and to develop 20          latent fingerprint images on a cloth surface.

21           Q. Is it true to actually get a comparison on prints,
22          you have to look at a continuous area and look at the ridges
23          and valleys in there to determine how many of those match?

24           A. (No immediate response.)

25           Q. And end, end points?

26           A. To make a comparison involving fingerprints, all
27          humans are unique individuals as far as the fingerprint
28          images that they have on their hands, the under side of their 29          hands and on the under side of their feet. What experts do

1 in the field of science of fingerprints is this specialized
2 skin has starts and stops, dots. It has multiple ridges that
3 will funnel down to a single ridge. These are known as 4 fingerprint identification characteristics, and what we do as 5 examiners, as experts in the field of fingerprint science, is 6 we take, we look at where these ridges stop and start and 7 where these identification characteristics are located, and 8 we compare them to a set of known inked fingerprint images
9 which are produced in a controlled environment and contains 10 all of these identification characteristics in them, and we 11 try to see if these identification characteristics from these 12 latents, from evidence, will match these inked fingerprint
13 images that are submitted to us for comparison that are taken
14 in a controlled environment. If these identification
15 characteristics in these latents from these crime scenes and 16 from evidence have the same identification characteristics
17 and the same relative position, then an identification is 18 effected.

19 Q. All right, and like on the counter, I understand
20 from what you're saying out of the prints that were 21 submitted, there were only four prints that were even clear
22 enough for you to look at; is that correct? L-1, L-2, L-3
23 and L-4?

24 A. L-5 and L-6, as far as--

25 Q. --L-5 and L-6, I believe was from the car?

26 A. From the vehicle.

27 Q. All right, I'm asking about the store at this
28 time.

29 A. Okay, just inside the store itself, inside the

1 crime scene.

2 Q. Just four prints?

3 A. Yes. There were just four.

4 Q. And those four prints were found on the counter; is
5 that right?

6 A. I was not at the crime scene but--

7 Q. --If you would, look at your notes.

8 A. Okay, the lifts that were submitted to me, yes, it
9 is stated they were found on the counter, yes.

10 Q. Thank you. You didn't lift them?

11 A. No, I did not lift them.

12 Q. But relying on what Melissa Schoene said, they were 13 found from the counter?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And the counter in a furniture store, you would 16 expect customers all the time to lean on and touch, wouldn't
17 you?

18 A. Yes. That's-- you would expect any place that is 19 open to the public, retail you would expect a lot of people
20 to come in and put their hands on items at the store.

21 Q. Look at the two photographs I showed you again. I
22 believe they are 24 and 31. To shoot and kill those two
23 people that are laying right there, is there any reason
24 somebody would have had to touch that counter?

25 A. I can't answer that question. I don't know. That
26 is a question that I can't answer.

27 Q. Well, you can answer if there is any reason they 28 would have to.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I think he has given

1                   an answer.

2                   BY THE COURT: I believe he has.

3           BY MR. EVANS:

4           Q. I will next hand you Exhibits 15 and 13 and ask you
5           to look at those. (State's Exhibits S-15 and S-13 handed to
6           witness.)

7           A. (Witness complies).

8           Q. Are you ready?

9           A. Yeah.

10          Q. You received no lifts of value that were found in 11          the cash drawer, did you?

12          A. That is correct.

13          Q. And you received no prints of value that were found
14          on the safe, did you?

15          A. That is correct.

16          Q. So the two places that money could have possibly 17          been, you have no way of knowing because there were no
18          prints; is that right?

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now Judge, I'm going to have 20                   to object to that. I don't know that he knows what 21                   the places are in that store where money could have 22                   been. I don't have any question asking him about 23                   what he found on the safe, what he found in the 24                   cash register. But to assume that those are the 25                   only places that money could have been, that's the 26                   question that I object to.

27                   BY THE COURT: Okay, well he is on 28                   cross-examination. You can come back on redirect
29                   and ask him.

1 BY MR. EVANS:

2 Q. Do you remember my question?

3 A. Ask your question again, please.

4 Q. The safe and the money drawer. Now for the purpose
5 of you being an expert, I'm going to go ahead and tell you
6 that there has been testimony that at night the cash drawer
7 would be picked up, put in the safe. In the morning the safe
8 would be unlocked. That cash drawer would be set in the 9 money drawer. You found or you had no prints that were 10 recovered from either one of those objects, did you, the safe
11 or the money drawer?

12 A. That is correct. I did not.

13 Q. And the shoe box, for the purpose of you testifying
14 as an expert, it has been testified that this shoe box was 15 recovered from the house in the bedroom that this Defendant
16 and Connie Moore lived in. Would there be anything unusual
17 in a shoe box in somebody's house not having any prints on
18 it?

19 A. The outside of the shoe box is a good surface for 20 latents. It's a very good surface, but it's not unusual.
21 You don't always leave latent impressions when you handle
22 items. It's--

23 Q. --There's-- oh, I'm sorry.

24 A. I was just going to explain to the jury that it's 25 not automatic that when people handle items, that they 26 automatically leave fingerprint images. That is not
27 necessarily always the case.

28 Q. All right, and there is really no positive theory
29 in fingerprints as to how long prints will actually be

1 recoverable off of an item, are there?

2 A. As far as being able to age?

3 Q. Right.

4 A. No, there is no scientific way to age fingerprints
5 that are found on evidence items.

6 Q. And assuming again from the testimony that it has
7 been testified that Connie Moore picked this box up, carried
8 it to the front of the house, handed it to officers, and then
9 other officers carried it to the Crime Lab, that it would be 10 very easy for their prints to have been on that object. Is
11 that correct?

12 A. If they weren't wearing gloves, it could have been 13 very easy for them to leave fingerprints on those boxes, yes,
14 on that shoe box.

15 Q. But basically what you are testifying to here today
16 is of the things that were submitted to you, the four prints
17 from the counter top and the prints in the car, the only 18 thing that you can say is that those particular prints were 19 not the Defendant's. Is that right?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. You are not trying to tell the jury that the 22 Defendant wasn't in the store or the Defendant wasn't in the 23 car; just that your part, what you actually looked at at the 24 lab was not his prints?

25 A. That is correct.

26 Q. Do you still have the photograph of the money
27 drawer up there?

28 A. State's Exhibit 13. Yes, I do.

29 Q. Would you expect prints to be recovered from a

1 drawer like that?

2 A. Since all I have is a photograph, (Pause) - there
3 are so many factors that come into play as far as leaving
4 latent images, latent fingerprint images on evidence items.
5 It's tough to say looking at the photograph. The drawer
6 itself looks pretty worn. That could be a problem. Plus
7 probably the biggest problem in this particular, with this
8 particular photograph with the image that I am looking at of 9 a cash drawer is what happens with money in general. If
10 items are handled, if you have an area or you have an item
11 where it's handled frequently, you run into problems where 12 there is so much fingerprint residue on that item that it is 13 tough to develop a quality latent fingerprint that you can
14 use for comparison purposes.

15 Q. Can I follow up on that just a little. I think I
16 understand what you are saying. And I want to make sure that 17 I am right. Just say, for instance, if you were trying to 18 lift prints off of the front of this photograph. If I passed
19 this photograph to the jury and they each handled it and 20 their prints were on top of each others prints, when you
21 dust, all you are going to have is a big smear; is that
22 right?

23 A. That is called an overlay, and you would have a
24 problem with being able to develop and lift that fingerprint
25 image off of that photograph, if that were the case.

26 Q. And for the four actual prints that you had enough
27 to look at, what that means is those were things that were 28 touched in a place that hadn't been over laid by other
29 people?

1           A.     That's correct.

2           Q.     Okay. So if Melissa Schoene was not able to lift
3 any prints from the drawer, it could be because it had been
4 wiped off, or it could be because just so many people had
5 handled it, that prints couldn't be clearly lifted. Is that
6 correct?

7           A.     That's correct. It could be that it had been
8 cleaned. It could be that someone was, happened to be
9 wearing gloves. It could be a lot of circumstances that come
10 into play.

11          Q.     Okay.

12                         (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

13          Q.     All right, the car-- you don't have the prints with 14 you, do you?

15          A.     No, I do not.

16          Q.     Do you remember, can you tell us from your notes
17 what part of the car those two prints were recovered from?

18          A.     The only thing that I can give you information wise
19 is from my report, and it's, the latents from the car,
20 interior passenger side window, and that's all I have to go
21 by.

22          Q.     Okay, and they were from the window?

23          A.     I believe they were. Yes.

24          Q.     There were no prints of value that were recovered
25 from the glove box, were they?

26          A.     Not submitted to me, no.

27          Q.     And again, in a window, prints will last on a
28 window for quite a while unless that window is cleaned;
29 right?

1           A.    If it's interior wise unless it's cleaned -- the
2           situation you run into with glass because it's a smooth
3           surface is it's a good surface to develop latent fingerprints
4           from, but it is also a very easy surface to wipe latent
5           fingerprints away from.

6           Q.    Okay. My question is this. Glass is a substance
7           that prints normally stay on fairly well; is that right?

8           A.    That is correct.

9           Q.    So prints on this glass, unless that glass had been 10          cleaned, could have been there for a long time; is that
11          correct?

12          A.    That is correct.

13          Q.    And again, based upon your experience, do you know 14          of any reason that someone would have to touch the window to 15          open a glove box?

16          A.    On the passenger side or the driver's side window?

17          Q.    Either one.

18          A.    Not to, I mean I am just logically thinking that to 19          open a glove box, no, you wouldn't have to touch the window 20          necessarily.

21          Q.    And there were no prints on the glove box?

22          A.    That were submitted to me with this case, no, there
23          were no latents.

24          Q.    And Melissa Schoene is a qualified crime scene
25          expert; is that correct?

26          A.    That's correct.

27          Q.    And is she good at lifting prints?

28          A.    Yes, she is.

29                   BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further.

1     REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2             Q.     Okay. Mr. McSparrin, who submitted the, who asked
3     the lab to analyze the prints? Was that the Defense team, or 4     was it the police department and the State or do you know?

5             BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor to start with, that
6             is not something we went into, and it is something
7             that is really ridiculous. I think everybody knows
8             who submitted them.

9             BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't know that being
10            ridiculous is an objection first of all, Judge.
11            But the second part on that is I think it is 12            relevant. I believe the State has the burden of 13            proof, and it almost sounds like someone is trying 14            to put it on the Defense here. So I'm just trying 15            to find out who submitted the prints in the first
16            place.

17            BY THE COURT: Ask the question. But let's,
18            now on redirect, of course, you are limited to what 19            he brought out on cross-examination. But I will 20            allow that question.

21     BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22            Q.     Okay. Do you know?

23            A.     I know this. I can tell you this. The criminal,
24     the CIB with the Department of Public Safety which is their 25     investigator division, Winona PD and the county which is--

26            Q.     Hinds-- no, no.

27            A.     I know all three of them submitted evidence.

28            Q.     Okay, but would that have been Montgomery County?

29            A.     Yes, Montgomery County.

1 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. You spoke about
2 Melissa being trained in the field and being a good person at 3 her job; is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And her name is-- and I'm sorry I just use her by 6 the first name, Melissa. But Schoene is her last name; is
7 that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Are the people who do this job, are they--
10 is part of their job to try to ascertain where to get prints
11 from which may be of use in identifying the culprit in the 12 case?

13 A. Individuals that work crime scenes, yes, are 14 trained to be able to process for latent fingerprint
15 impressions at a crime scene, yes.

16 Q. And they would -- and a point of interest of 17 trying to get any prints would be at a place that may have 18 been--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, object to him
20 leading his own witness.

21 BY THE COURT: You are leading.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. What kind of places would they be looking for 24 prints in? Would they be looking for prints at places where 25 they are not likely to find prints or places where they are 26 likely to find them?

27 A. Not being a crime scene analyst myself but having 28 worked with them, they are going to look for point of entry.
29 They are going to look for other areas to where, that

1 involves the crime scene, that they are going to look to try
2 to see if they can't process fingerprints.

3 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. Let me just give 4 you a couple of scenarios. If it was reported that this was 5 a cash drawer right here, and if someone suspected that some 6 funds may have been taken from the cash drawer, and if this 7 cash drawer is right on top, do you see what appears to be on 8 top of the cash drawer?

9 A. In State's Exhibit 13--

10 Q. Yes.

11 A. --it appears to be -- I'm taking a guess just 12 looking at this photograph. It's an educated guess. It
13 appears to be fingerprint powder is what it appears to be to 14 me.

15 Q. Does that appear to be a counter up there?

16 A. A laminate counter, yes, it does.

17 Q. Okay. Is a counter a good surface to get prints
18 from?

19 A. It's an excellent surface. Yes, it is.

20 Q. Now we-- I am posing a hypothetical. If people
21 before they close up at night clean off their counter or wipe
22 their counter, would that eliminate all the prints from the 23 customers that had been there that day--

24 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, there is nothing
25 in evidence. As a matter of fact, just the 26 opposite on that. He cannot propose a proposal to 27 him that is not in evidence.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think I can propose a
29 proposal which is reasonably logical and it is

1                   certainly-- a lot of hypotheticals that Counsel
2                   proposed nobody testified to.

3                   BY THE COURT: I think there was sufficient
4                   amount of information on cross-examination to allow
5                   you to ask that question.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8                   Q. If a counter is wiped clean once at the close of 9                   business, would that eliminate prints assuming that it was a
10                  thorough wiping?

11                  A. Yes, it would.

12                  Q. And this may be-- would that have any effect on any 13                  prints which may arise from a touching subsequent to the time
14                  the counter was wiped?

15                  A. Well, what it would do and as I testified to 16                  earlier, you can't scientifically determine the age of a
17                  latent fingerprint image that is left on a surface.
18                  Scientifically, you can't. But if a counter at a jewelry
19                  store, let's say, had been cleaned up with Windex the night
20                  before and the people who work at this particular store come 21                  in the next morning and there is fingerprints all over it and 22                  there is items missing, you can pretty much say that somebody
23                  was in there after this counter was cleaned. I can say that 24                  much. But you can't scientifically age latent fingerprint
25                  images.

26                  Q. Okay, and my final question is have you made any 27                  identification of any prints submitted to you from anywhere
28                  with Curtis Flowers?

29                  A. No, I have not.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

2 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, he is as far as I am
4 concerned. I don't know about Counsel.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: You are free to go.

7 BY THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 WITNESS EXCUSED.

9 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would like to call Ms.
11 Montgomery if she is here.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, can we approach for 13 just a minute on something?

14 BY THE COURT: Yes.

15 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
16 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

17 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, we offered the 18 report and Ms. Montgomery does not have the exhibit
19 she is going to be testifying about, and they are 20 not going to be introducing it into evidence.

21 BY THE COURT: Who is Ms. Montgomery?

22 BY MR. HORAN: DNA analyst.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She is the DNA analyst who 24 analyzed the--

25 BY MR. HORAN: --that these items I am able to 26 cross-examine her about these particular amounts.
27 She does not have these exhibits.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let me say this, Judge.

29 BY MR. HORAN: It's not proper for him to call

1 her and let her talk about the exhibits that are
2 not in evidence. That is not proper.

3 BY THE COURT: She is not talking about-- as
4 far as I know, she is not talking about exhibits.
5 She is talking about her opinion that she made from 6 the DNA. Why can't she do that? She doesn't have 7 to have a record to do that. It probably hurts the 8 credibility of it, but she can give her opinion
9 without having the evidence. You haven't got to 10 put the fingerprint stuff on. You don't have to 11 put that into evidence.

12 BY MR. HORAN: I understand that. I
13 understand that.

14 BY THE COURT: She can say what she did and 15 what her opinion was after she did it.

16 BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

17 BY THE COURT: I mean--

18 BY MR. HORAN: --That's fine.

19 BY THE COURT: She could have been-- if you
20 wanted them here, you could have filed a subpoena
21 duces tecum, and she would have had to bring them.

22 BY MR. HORAN: It's not my proof.

23 BY THE COURT: Well, that is exactly right.
24 It's not your proof--

25 BY MR. HORAN: --case in chief.

26 BY THE COURT: That's right. But you are 27 objecting to something that you have got no
28 standing to object to. She can testify--

29 BY MR. HORAN: --it's not that--

1                   BY THE COURT: --what her opinion was--

2                   (Both Mr. Horan and the Court were talking at
3 the same time.)

4                   BY MR. HORAN: --I just thought we follow the
5 rule--

6                   BY THE COURT: --you can cross-examine her.
7 If you want to cross-examine her, you should have
8 subpoenaed her.

9                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, just for the record
10 and I know the Court has already ruled. But if we 11 were trying to introduce it, we would not be 12 allowed to introduce it without having the exhibits
13 here. The same--

14                   BY THE COURT: --Well, I don't know about
15 that.

16                   BY MR. EVANS: --same thing--

17                   BY MR. HORAN: --You mean we can have an 18 expert testify about cocaine without the cocaine
19 being introduced? I don't think so.

20                   BY THE COURT: Without the cocaine, no, Kevin, 21 but without the--

22                   BY MR. HORAN: --of course--

23                   BY THE COURT: --but the writing of the 24 analysis. She wasn't going to have the blood. You
25 don't bring the blood here. That is a difference.

26                   BY MR. HORAN: The clothing?

27                   BY THE COURT: Well, yeah, I would probably 28 let you get it in without bringing the clothing.

29                   BY MR. HORAN: I will remember that.

1                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  She is here, Judge.

3                   BY THE COURT:  Ms. Montgomery.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Yeah, we call Ms.
5                   Montgomery.

6                   (Witness enters courtroom.)

7                   BY THE COURT:  Raise your right hand, please,
8                   ma'am.

9                                   ANNE H. MONTGOMERY,
10                   a white female called to testify as a witness by Defendant,
11                   having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

12                   BY THE COURT:  Have a seat.

13                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14                   Q.    Ready?  Can you give me your name for the record
15                   again, please.

16                   A.    Anne H. Montgomery.

17                   Q.    And Ms. Montgomery, could you tell the ladies and 18                   gentlemen of the jury what it is that you do?

19                   A.    My title is Forensic Lab Director, and I am
20                   employed at a private firm called Reliagene Technologies,
21                   which is DNA testing laboratory located in the New Orleans
22                   metropolitan area.

23                   Q.    Now I'm going to ask you just a couple of questions
24                   about your qualifications because I believe The State has 25                   stipulated--

26                                   BY MR. HORAN:  --I stipulate, Your Honor, that 27                   she is an expert in the field of forensic, I guess
28                   it would be forensic DNA analysis?  Is that 29                   correct, Ms. Montgomery?

1 BY THE WITNESS: Usually I qualify as
2 molecular biology and DNA analysis.

3 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, tender-- I would accept--

4 BY THE COURT: --Okay, I will accept her as an
5 expert in that field, and I will not try to repeat
6 it. (Laughter.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Q. How long-- let me, just for the benefit of the 9 ladies and gentlemen of the jury, how long have you worked in
10 that field?

11 A. For the past nine years. I received a Bachelor of 12 Science degree in 1977 from the University of Florida in 13 microbiology. My senior year there was spent doing a DNA
14 project at the Medical Center. In 1984, I received my Master
15 of Science degree from Louisiana State University Medical 16 Center in New Orleans, and there my master's thesis involved
17 DNA mapping of the human herpes simplex virus. But for the 18 past ten years I have been working at Reliagene and 19 performing DNA profiling primarily for forensic applications
20 but also for medical or paternity applications as well.

21 Q. And where is that located?

22 A. In New Orleans, Louisiana.

23 Q. Okay, now in your experience are you called upon to 24 do work for any particular side of a case? Let's speak to 25 criminal cases first of all.

26 A. Okay. The bulk of the case work that I am
27 responsible for and sign off on reports are forensic and 28 criminal in nature. As a private firm, we are hired either
29 by law enforcement agencies or defense counsel or private

1 individuals.

2 Q. Okay, have you done work for law enforcement
3 agencies?

4 A. Yes. Numerous cases.

5 Q. Did you do any analysis in this case?

6 A. Yes. Reliagene did.

7 Q. And could you tell me, please, who asked Reliagene,
8 if anybody, to do the analysis? Was it the State or was it
9 the Defense?

10 A. We were contacted by the Mississippi Crime Lab and 11 asked to perform DNA profiling at the request of the 12 Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol.

13 Q. And do you have a name with that?

14 A. Yes. A Master Sergeant Jack Matthews requested
15 that the Mississippi Crime Lab send us some samples for 16 analysis.

17 Q. Now I'm going to ask you first of all, what was it
18 that you analyzed, if you can share that with the ladies and
19 gentlemen of the jury?

20 A. Sure. We received a number of items of evidence.
21 There were two cuttings that were described as cuttings from 22 navy shorts; two cuttings that were described as cuttings
23 from shirt; and five cuttings that were described as cuttings
24 from white dress shorts or white casual shorts. In addition
25 to those samples, subsequent to those we received four known
26 reference samples.

27 Q. And the four known reference samples, what were 28 they?

29 A. They were described as known blood from Robert

1 Golden, known blood from Bertha Tardy, known blood from
2 Carmen Rigby, known blood from Derrick Stewart.

3 Q. I am showing you an exhibit which is already in 4 evidence and it is marked D-2. It is marked D-2 as an
5 exhibit. Would you like to see it?

6 BY MR. EVANS: No, we have already agreed
7 earlier that we have no problem with this being
8 introduced into evidence, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, yeah--

10 BY THE COURT: --Do you want to admit it?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think it is already
12 admitted.

13 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. He didn't want us to 14 admit it the other day, but we will agree again
15 that we have no problem.

16 BY THE COURT: Did you look at that?

17 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, I did.

18 BY THE COURT: Did you recognize it?

19 BY THE WITNESS: Actually I have, I think what 20 is the original of this item marked Defendant's
21 Exhibit D-2.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For the record, Judge, that 23 is in evidence. That D-2 is in evidence already.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Can you share with me, please, what does D-2, what 26 does it represent?

27 BY THE COURT: Let me see it.

28 (Pause while the Court looks at Exhibit D-2.)

29 BY THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Well, first of all, maybe I should ask do you have
3 anything in your possession which corresponds to D-2?

4 A. Yes. I believe I have the original document that 5 was sent along with the samples to be analyzed at our
6 laboratory. It's addressed to me signed by Debbie Haller
7 dated September 3rd, 1996, describing the unknown samples
8 that we have been requested to analyze, and then basically it
9 says to contact them if we isolate enough DNA on those 10 samples to obtain some known reference samples to compare the 11 knowns against the unknowns.

12 Q. So I guess the reason I asked you that question is 13 who-- can you tell me who sent you the samples-- you talked 14 about some cuttings from some shorts that you analyzed. Who 15 sent you the samples that you received? That's basically
16 what I'm trying to--

17 A. --Okay, those samples were sent to our laboratory
18 via Airborne, which is a courier, an overnight courier we use
19 to transport evidence. And it was sent by Debbie, Deborah 20 Haller, who is a forensic scientist at the Mississippi Crime
21 Lab in Jackson.

22 Q. Okay. Now did you compare those samples with 23 anything in particular?

24 A. Well, we initially received the unknown cuttings,
25 and we were asked to examine those, and if we were able to 26 obtain a DNA profile, they would then submit the references
27 to us, which they did. So when we issued the report dated 28 December 23rd, 1996, we itemized the unknown cuttings that we 29 received and the known reference cuttings and issued out our

1 findings.

2 Q. Now if you can, first of all, tell the ladies and
3 gentlemen what your findings were, and then I'm going to back
4 track and tell you to tell them how you got there, if you can
5 do that; okay?

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. Tell the ladies and gentlemen what were your
8 findings?

9 A. Basically, we were able to profile some of the 10 cuttings that were submitted to us, the unknown samples.
11 Some of them didn't have enough sample present, so we either
12 got no result or inconclusive. Some of them gave us a
13 profile consistent with a single donor, and then I think two
14 of them gave us a profile consistent with at least two donors
15 in the profile. When we compared those against the known
16 reference samples from the four individuals we received, we 17 were not able to see any consistency between the unknowns and 18 the references. So what that means is that we had to exclude 19 those four known reference samples as a donor for any of 20 those unknown stains that we analyzed.

21 Q. Now when you say you excluded the four known, what 22 you call them known what?

23 A. The known reference samples.

24 Q. Known reference. Who were the known reference
25 samples?

26 A. Again, Mr. Robert Golden, Bertha Tardy, Carmen
27 Rigby, Derrick Stewart were the four known reference samples
28 we received. And none of those four individuals could have 29 been a contributor to any of the stains that we examined.

1           Q.    Okay, and would that mean that-- now when you say
2 they are a contributor, how could they have contributed? How
3 do you contribute to a stain?

4           A.    Well, basically just a quick synopsis on DNA. DNA
5 stands for deoxyribonucleic acid. It's a molecule that we
6 obtain at the moment of conception. When the egg and the 7 sperm unite, we get 23 chromosomes from our biological 8 mother, 23 from our biological father to get 23 pairs of 9 chromosomes. A chromosome is mother nature's way of 10 packaging the DNA inside a cell. So since every cell in the 11 human body contains this DNA virtually, if you took blood
12 from my arm, saliva from my mouth, hair from my head, or 13 tissue from my skin and did a DNA profile on that, it would 14 show the same profile irrespective of what sample source it
15 was as long as it came from the same individual.

16                So when we are profiling clothing, you can get a
17 DNA profile on a stain from clothing. It could be sweat; it
18 could be blood; it could be saliva. It could be just about 19 anything. And so typically the samples we receive are 20 unknown stains, and we are asked to compare them against 21 known samples, and if the known sample could have been a
22 contributor to the stain.

23           Q.    Okay, very good. And your determination again was 24 that neither one of these four people were contributors to 25 any stains on the clothing that you, or the cuttings that you
26 analyzed; is that correct?

27           A.    Correct. They are a hundred percent absolutely
28 excluded as being the donor of the stains that we analyzed.

29           Q.    Now typically, the clothing that you're analyzed,

1 analyzing, that would come from the suspect. Is that
2 correct?

3 A. It depends. Sometimes we can obtain cuttings from 4 suspect clothing; sometimes cuttings from victims' clothing.
5 Sometimes it can be pieces of carpet, furniture, sofa, just 6 any type of substrate which is the item where a stain has 7 been deposited.

8 Q. We have had a previous witness, I think, that
9 addressed the issue of where they came from. But can you
10 tell me, please, is it anything in your notes that indicates
11 whether these are supposed to have come from a suspect's
12 clothing?

13 A. In the letter from Deborah Haller it says, "These
14 cuttings are from the suspect's clothes which were collected
15 sometime after the murder." When we issued our report, we 16 typically in the first page describe the victims that we have 17 been told about or the suspects. In the report I have the 18 victims, Robert Golden, Bertha Tardy, Carmen Rigby, Derrick
19 Stewart. Under suspect, I have unknown.

20 Q. Okay. Ms. Montgomery, realizing that we are lay
21 people and we don't know a lot about science, can you
22 basically in a nutshell tell the ladies and gentlemen how you
23 arrived at your conclusion, and then again at the end of 24 that, just tell us again what your conclusions were; okay?

25 A. Okay. I have some charts that might be helpful.

26 Q. Very good.

27 A. I don't know if you are interested in looking at
28 them.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I'm going to ask that

1           these be marked after I show them to the District
2           Attorney.

3           BY MR. EVANS: No objection.

4           BY THE COURT: Are you going to put them in
5           evidence?

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

7           BY THE COURT: Any objection to them being
8           admitted?

9           BY MR. EVANS: None at all.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay, let them be marked as
11          exhibits if that's what you are asking.

12                 (DNA TEST RESULTS CHART AND CHART OF TEST
13          RESULTS FROM CLOTHES COMPARED WITH VICTIMS' DNA
14          WERE MARKED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AS DEFENDANT'S
15          EXHIBITS D-18 AND D-19.)

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17                 Q. We have now introduced into evidence Exhibits D-18
18          and D-19. Could you please refer to the numbers whenever you 19          need to in order for the record will record what you are
20          talking about.

21                 A. Is it-- do I have the permission of the Court to 22          step down and explain this to the jury?

23                 BY THE COURT: Yes, you do.

24                 Q. If you need me to hold anything, I will do it.

25                         (Witness steps down in front of jury box.)

26                 A. Okay. You probably aren't going to be able to see 27          this very clearly, but if I explain the layout of these 28          charts, at a later time you may have a chance to look at 29          these, and you will understand the orientation. The shape,

1 the top most column describes the item that we analyzed, and
2 these are descriptions that are sent to us from the 3 submitting agency. We don't alter the description of the 4 item. Above the description is the Reliagene or GenTest
5 sample number from our laboratory that assigns a unique
6 number for each of these cuttings.

7 So there are two charts. One chart describes the
8 unknown cuttings. The second chart, which is D-19 -- D-18
9 was the first chart. The second chart, D-19, describes three 10 more of the unknown cuttings and then shows the four 11 reference samples that we analyzed. The left most column of 12 each of these charts, which basically looks like alphabet
13 soup with letters and numbers, describe the individual
14 genetic tests that we ran for these samples. We use, the 15 scientists use nomenclature like LDLR, which stands for low
16 density lipoprotein receptor. You just need to know that 17 these are individual genetic tests that we typically run on 18 samples at the laboratory.

19 Now underneath each column it gives the results for 20 the samples that we tested, some of which show NR which is 21 described in the chart as no result. Some are described as 22 INC, which is inconclusive. And some of them show letters
23 and numbers like B or AB or 1.1,4. These are the actual test
24 results that we obtained when we analyzed these samples. So
25 straightforward you look at the reference profiles, and you
26 can determine based on the composite profile that these 27 individuals have different profiles.

28 And for example, DQA1 test results show Robert 29 Golden being a 3. He is a 3 homozygous meaning he got 3 from

1 each of his biological parents. Ms. Bertha Tardy is a 1.3,2,
2 and they differ from each other. If anything differs at any
3 point, it's a different donor. Specifically, you see in all
4 four of these reference samples, I see differences in the 5 profile, so I know these are clearly distinguishable from 6 each other.

7 I next look at the unknown samples and compare the 8 profile of the knowns against the unknowns. And if you look
9 at the bottom test, the DQA1 test, it is probably the most
10 straightforward. None of the unknowns show the profile that 11 I'm looking for which would have to be the identical results
12 for the whole column. Now although cutting from white dress
13 shorts shows a 3 in addition to other numbers, it's a
14 mixture. And the reason I can say it doesn't belong to 15 Robert Golden is because up above here in the LDLR test, the 16 stain on the white shorts shows a B homozygous. Mr. Golden
17 is an AB. Because of the absence of the "A," I know he could 18 not have contributed that stain.

19 So basically what you do is compare the composite 20 profile against the known references to see if any 21 individual could have been the donor or a mixture of anybody
22 could have been the donor. And after doing this evaluation,
23 I conclude that absolutely none of these four individuals
24 could have been the donor for any of the cuttings that we 25 analyzed.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will pass these to the jury
27 if that's okay.

28 (Exhibits D-18 and D-19 were passed to the 29 jury.)

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Now in my, probably my final question and I am sure
3 the State will have a number of questions for you, but my
4 final question is going to be like in the stains, okay,
5 essentially do you know what the stain actually was? In 6 other words, I mean we already know from your testimony that 7 they didn't belong to any of these people that we have just
8 finished talking about; right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Okay, but do you know what the stain actually was?
11 Was it blood? Was it saliva or can you tell us?

12 A. We did not, the laboratory that I work at did not 13 perform any analysis to determine the type of stain it was.
14 We can simply tell you the stain is human specific. It is 15 not animal blood or animal saliva. It is human specific, and 16 it's a stain, and beyond that I really can't conclusively
17 tell you what the source of the stain is, whether it's 18 saliva, blood, sweat, semen. I don't have an opinion as to
19 that.

20 Q. Do all of those different things produce DNA?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Saliva?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Sweat?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. Semen?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. And blood?

29 A. Correct. Yes.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

2 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would like to
3 proceed after the exhibit has been passed if it's
4 all right with the Court.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay.

6 (Long pause while waiting for the jury to look
7 at the exhibits.)

8 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

9 Q. Ms. Montgomery, if you would-- you have your 10 report, do you not?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. Would you take it out, please. The jury is just 13 about through looking at the exhibits, and I am going to 14 start talking to you momentarily. I will give it back to 15 you, I promise.

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. My copy is not too good. Do you have another copy
18 of it by any chance?

19 A. I don't have an extra copy, but this can be copied
20 if somebody wants to copy it.

21 Q. I have got the conclusion, but the first.

22 (Document was handed to Mr. Horan, who looked 23 at it and then gave it back to the witness.)

24 Q. I will hand it back to you. Thank you.

25 (Mr. Horan gets exhibits back from the jury.)

26 Q. Ms. Montgomery, tell me, you just testified that 27 you could not identify any of these particular stains as 28 blood; right?

29 A. That's correct. I did not perform any testing to

1       that effect.

2           Q.     It could have been saliva?

3           A.     Yeah. Well, like I said, I didn't do any of those 4     testing. I think the Crime Lab did some analysis prior to my
5     receipt, but I did not perform that analysis.

6           Q.     Now from the shorts, the navy shorts?

7           A.     Yes.

8           Q.     Did you find any stain on that?

9           A.     No. Those gave us no result.

10          Q.     And from the shirt?

11          A.     Those we reported out as inconclusive, and that is 12     most likely due to a minimal sample. You need a certain 13     amount of sample to get an analysis. If it's too minute, we 14     won't be able to get a result.

15          Q.     And from the white dress shorts, the cuttings from 16     the white dress shorts, did you obtain anything?

17          A.     Yes. We received, we obtained several profiles
18     from those shorts. One consistent with a single donor and 19     one consistent with a mixture.

20          Q.     Okay, and that would be, which number was the 21     single donor?

22          A.     For the shorts?

23          Q.     Right.

24          A.     96-100655 is consistent with a single donor as is 25     96-100658.

26          Q.     Okay. Those are single donors; right?

27          A.     In my opinion, yes.

28          Q.     And which were the multiple donors?

29          A.     The 96-100656 and 96-100657.

1 Q. Were you submitted the blood of the Defendant,
2 Curtis Giovanni Flowers?

3 A. No. We did not receive that sample.

4 Q. So you cannot say that the blood, or whatever it
5 was if it was blood, was on the shorts that were submitted to 6 you? You could not exclude him?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Or members of his family?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. All right. And you made notations that samples
11 were recovered some times after the murder? Is that what 12 the report to you was, the report from the Mississippi Crime
13 Lab?

14 A. I don't know when the crime was committed.

15 Q. No, I'm asking about your report. What does it
16 say?

17 A. The date we received the samples were September
18 4th, 1996.

19 Q. No, that is not my question.

20 A. I'm sorry.

21 Q. He asked you about your report and which was
22 submitted to you by the Crime Lab, and this being Exhibit D-2
23 from Debbie Haller says, "These cuttings are from the 24 suspect's clothes which were selected some time"--

25 A. --Oh, I'm sorry.

26 Q. --"after the murders"; right?

27 A. Correct. That's what the letter says.

28 Q. Are there any long pants submitted to you for any 29 analysis purposes? Either dark blue or black or anything

1 like that?

2 A. We didn't receive any bulk evidence at all, and we
3 simply received the cuttings that I have described, the 4 shorts--

5 Q. --Any cuttings from those, that particular item?

6 A. Long pants, no.

7 Q. And you can't say. Your information was not that--
8 strike that. You didn't have information or the letter to 9 you from Debbie Haller didn't provide information that these
10 cuttings came off the body of Curtis Giovanni Flowers on that 11 particular date, the date of the murders, does it?

12 A. No, it does not.

13 Q. Now you don't know of your own personal knowledge--
14 they submitted these to you for the sole purpose of DNA
15 analysis; right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And you did that?

18 A. Correct.

19 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

20 BY THE COURT: Redirect?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just this.

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. When you use the term "they" submitted to you, once
24 again who is the "they"?

25 A. "They", I am referring to the Mississippi Crime Lab
26 sent us the samples at the request of the Mississippi Highway
27 Safety Patrol.

28 Q. That was Mr. Jack, uh?

29 A. Matthews.

1           Q.    Matthews, okay.  And if there was a statement as to
2   they received the evidence some time after the incident; if
3   there was testimony in evidence, and I believe there has
4   been, if I were to give you a hypothetical that they received
5   the evidence that they sent you somewhere around July the 6   20th when Mr. Matthews went and picked it up at Mr. Flowers'
7   house and the incident happened on July the 16th, that would
8   be consistent with the statement "some time after," wouldn't
9   it?

10          A.    Yes.  I think that would be.

11          Q.    Okay.

12                   BY THE COURT:  Is that all from her?

13   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14          Q.    And you would have analyzed anything they sent you;
15   right?

16          A.    Correct.

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I have no further questions.

18                   BY THE COURT:  Is she finally excused?

19                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Yes, she is as far as we are 20   concerned.

21                   BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir.

22                   BY THE COURT:  Ms. Montgomery, you are free to
23   go.

24                   BY THE WITNESS:  Thank you.

25                   BY THE COURT:  Y'all want to take a break?

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Yeah.

27                   (FOLLOWING THE MORNING RECESS ON MARCH 29, 28   1999, PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT OUT OF 29   THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY WITH THE COURT, ALL

1 COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

2 BY THE COURT: Y'all had a matter you wanted
3 to raise?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. Actually, we expect
5 today to call a gentleman by the name of Odell
6 Hallmon, or actually I think his name is actually
7 Hollman, but I think they have got him listed in 8 the jail as Hallmon, but his name is Hollman. In 9 any event, he is presently incarcerated, and he
10 has, he has been convicted of aggravated assault.
11 To best of our knowledge, that is the only
12 conviction he has, and I think that we are entitled
13 to some kind of notice if the State has any other
14 convictions on him. That's the only felony
15 conviction, or he has never been convicted of a
16 misdemeanor to my knowledge that has anything to do
17 with impugned credibility.

18 Our position is that that aggravated assault
19 conviction is not relevant on the balancing test of 20 more probative than prejudicial. It is really not
21 relevant to his credibility. It has nothing to do
22 with any kind of credibility. You know, it
23 doesn't, it's not like perjury, or I would even
24 concede, even though I'm not even sure the law
25 does, but maybe even something like stealing or 26 cheating or embezzlement, all those things might 27 indicate in some way that a person has credibility
28 problems. But I don't think that this does, and 29 for that reason even though I think he got

1           sentenced to three years on a-- I don't know if it
2           was aggravated assault or attempted aggravated
3           assault. I'm not sure which one it was.

4           BY MR. HORAN: Aggravated assault.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't believe that
6           that would impugn his credibility, and for that
7           reason I would ask the Court to exclude that Motion
8           in Limine.

9           BY THE COURT: Okay, this is pursuant to Rule
10          609; is that right?

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

12          BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court is going to 13          rely on Young v. State which was rendered by the 14          Supreme Court on the 21st day of January, 1999, in 15          cause number 97-CP-00162 SCT. They addressed this 16          particular-- they directly addressed this issue and 17          held that 609 does not apply to witnesses. It only 18          applies to defendants or to parties. So therefore,
19          it is not a 609 question, and his convictions are,
20          you can go into his convictions. It also provided
21          that I did not have to make a Peterson balancing
22          test. So the Motion in Limine is overruled.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. One other issue then,
24          Judge. If they are going to be allowed to go into 25          it, I want to be able to raise the limitations of 26          what they can go into. Now I understand according 27          to what Counsel has already described to me, they
28          want to ask if he was ever in the same institution
29          with the Defendant. And I don't have a problem

1 with them asking if they were ever in the same
2 place at the same time, in the same facility. Just
3 to give the Court the background, they were
4 incarcerated in Parchman prison at the same time.
5 Of course, we know that that is something the jury
6 should not be able to know about the Defendant.
7 But they never were in the same section or unit; is
8 that right?

9 (The Defendant nods his head.)

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: They were never at a place
11 where they could have that kind of contact. So I
12 think that for that reason, it would be more
13 prejudicial than probative. And secondly, if at 14 any point-- well, that is my first motion. That 15 should not be allowed because it would be more
16 prejudicial than probative. If you have ever been 17 to Parchman, they have a bunch of buildings, so 18 even in--

19 BY THE COURT: --Well, I am confident Mr.
20 Hollman at Parchman was not in the same place where 21 Mr. Flowers was.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's my understanding, not 23 in the same unit. Not in the same unit. You have 24 to be in the same unit to have any contact because 25 Mr.-- remember he is in, Mr., Mr. Flowers is on 26 death row, so he doesn't have contact with anybody
27 other than other people that may be in the same
28 unit on death row because they don't get yard
29 privileges and stuff like that.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, y'all have me at a
2                   disadvantage because y'all have got some idea where 3                   this is going and I don't. Y'all have talked to 4                   the man. What is your response to that?

5                   BY MR. HORAN: I don't think it is going to be 6                   necessary to get into that, Your Honor, but I would 7                   like a few minutes to talk to Mr. Hollman before we
8                   go forward. He just got here, I believe. Just 5
9                   seconds.

10                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'm going to let 11                  you do that, but let me ask you; I have got this
12                  question. (Pause) Well, okay, go ahead.

13                  BY MR. HORAN: What is the question?

14                  BY THE COURT: I don't know. I don't know
15                  what y'all have told me yet.

16                  (Mr. Horan left the courtroom, and after he 17                  returned, proceedings continued with the JURY STILL 18                  OUT as follows:)

19                  BY MR. HORAN: Ready.

20                  BY THE COURT: Let me see if I can phrase this 21                  issue the way y'all are telling me. You do not
22                  want-- your Motion in Limine is to have no, for him
23                  to make no reference as to the both of them being 24                  in Parchman. What is your response to that?

25                  BY MR. HORAN: I don't really think I'm going
26                  to get into that, Your Honor.

27                  BY THE COURT: Okay, I think-- let me say
28                  this. My opinion is it ought to be limited to 29                  saying correctional facility or facility or

1 something like that. You are not at Parchman
2 awaiting trial. You are at Parchman after trial,
3 so I think you need to eliminate the Parchman
4 aspect of it, or I will just limit it to facility
5 or something like that.

6 BY MR. HORAN: I don't think I'm going to get
7 into it. I don't think it is going to be
8 necessary.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. Is that who you want
10 next?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that was what I was 12 trying to get excluded. As long as he is not going
13 to get into it, we are in good shape.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay.

15 BY MR. HORAN: I do want to represent to the 16 Court that there is probably going to be an exhibit
17 with reference to a letter. I did tell him not to 18 mention trial because there is something in there
19 in the letter about the...

20 (Mr. Horan approaches bench to show the letter
21 to the Court.)

22 BY MR. HORAN: Let me point it out to you real
23 quick so you won't have to read all that mess.
24 Right here.

25 (Pause while Court reads).

26 BY MR. HORAN: I told him not to mention prior
27 trial.

28 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba.

29 (Mr. Lumumba approaches the bench.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Are y'all going to try to
2 introduce this?

3                   BY MR. HORAN: I'm not going to try to 4 introduce it. I'm going to question him about the 5 contents of it though. He admitted to me that that
6 was a letter that he wrote to Mr. Lumumba's
7 office.

8                   BY THE COURT: What about if we can't redact
9 that?

10                  BY MR. HORAN: I'm not going to introduce it.

11                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: I don't anticipate. If I do,
13 we will redact it.

14                  BY THE COURT: It says, "I never thought
15 Curtis would be found guilty."

16                  (Pause while Mr. Lumumba reads the letter.)

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: We probably need to talk to 18 him to tell him not to mention--

19                  BY MR. HORAN: --I told him about Parchman.

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Parchman or trial.

21                  BY MR. HORAN: I already mentioned Parchman.

22                  BY THE COURT: Let me let him do it too, and 23 then I have got y'all both obligated; all right?

24                  BY MR. HORAN: All right.

25                  BY THE COURT: You want to go ahead and do
26 that while I'm looking at this?

27                  BY MR. HORAN: Sanction both of us.

28                  BY THE COURT: Yeah.

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: My next witness, by the way,

1 is Jack, and the one after that is no-- Johnson.
2 This it's going to be--

3 BY MR. HORAN: --All right.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, that's why I asked you.

5 BY MR. EVANS: He is not calling him next?

6 (Mr. Lumumba left the courtroom. Upon his 7 return, there was the following:)

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, are we ready?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. The next witness will 10 be John Johnson.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, let's bring the 12 jury in.

13 (JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM AT 11:03 A.M.)

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Defense calls at this 15 time John Johnson.

16 BY THE COURT: All right, they have gone to 17 get him.

18 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

19 BY THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, you were sworn,
20 weren't you?

21 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

22 JOHN JOHNSON,
23 a white male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,
24 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

25 BY THE COURT: Have a seat right there, and
26 state your name for the record.

27 BY THE WITNESS: John Johnson.

28 BY THE COURT: You may proceed, Mr. Lumumba.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you, Judge. May we

1 approach just one second?

2 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
3 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am calling Mr. Johnson as
5 an adverse witness and ask--

6 BY THE COURT: Oh, I understand that.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

8 BY MR. HORAN: I think the rule is changed.
9 It says you can't automatically identify them as 10 adverse witnesses.

11 BY THE COURT: No, you can't automatically do
12 it, but he is y'all's investigator, and I'm not 13 completely dumb.

14 END BENCH CONFERENCE

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

16 Q. Good morning, Mr. Johnson. Good morning.

17 A. Good morning, sir.

18 Q. Mr. Johnson, if I understand correctly, you had an 19 opportunity -- you actually work for the District Attorney's
20 Office; is that correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And you have had an opportunity to interview a
23 number of different witnesses in connection with this case.
24 Is that also correct?

25 A. True.

26 Q. And you have done a couple of photo lineups too,
27 haven't you, or at least one photo lineup?

28 A. I was a witness to two photo lineups.

29 Q. Okay. But you were present at the time these

1 lineups took place?

2 A. Three photo lineups.

3 Q. Okay, and you took notes on the photo lineups; is
4 that correct?

5 A. I did.

6 Q. Okay. Now you took notes on all the photo lineups
7 that you witnessed; is that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, but before we get to that, I believe it would
10 be safe to say that at some point you talked to an individual
11 by the name of Ms. Hollman; is that correct?

12 A. I did.

13 Q. Okay, and Ms. Hollman was an individual who lived
14 in near vicinity of, lived in the near vicinity of Connie
15 Moore and where you understood that her boyfriend, Curtis
16 Flowers, stayed. Is that correct?

17 A. True.

18 Q. Okay, and Ms. Hollman, I think gave you a statement
19 and you took a statement from Ms. Hollman; is that correct?

20 A. I did.

21 Q. Would that have been taken on or about the 7th day
22 of August, 1996?

23 A. Close to that date, I think, if I could refer to 24 the--

25 Q. Okay, would it refresh your recollection if you
26 were able to see your notes?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Okay.

29 (STATEMENT OF PATRICIA HALLMON AND NOTES FROM

1 INTERVIEW OF 8/7/96 WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
2 EXHIBITS D-20 AND D-21 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4 Q. I am showing you just for identification purposes
5 what is marked as D-21 and D-20 and ask you if either one of 6 those two items would refresh your recollection as to about
7 the date that you talked to Patricia Hollman?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what date would that have been?

10 A. August the 7th.

11 Q. Okay, and her name was Patricia or Pat Hollman; is
12 that correct?

13 A. Patricia Ann Hallmon.

14 Q. Okay, is that Hallmon with an H-A-L?

15 A. H A L L M O N is the way I spelled it.

16 Q. Okay, that's the way you spelled it. And that 17 was-- you talked to her 8-7-96. And it would be correct to 18 say that Ms. Hallmon told you that the person that she knew
19 as Curtis Flowers was wearing -- I want to reflect, if you
20 can recall, the apparel that she indicated that-- well, let 21 me strike that first. First of all, she said that she saw
22 Mr. Flowers around about 7:30. Is that correct?

23 A. Approximately, yes.

24 Q. Yeah, 7:30. Now and of course, you weren't present
25 when she testified, but in any event, you know that that's 26 what she told you; right?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. Okay. Now would it also be correct to say that she 29 indicated to you that the person she saw who she was

1 suggesting to you was Mr. Flowers, that he had on a black
2 silky kind of pants. She indicated they were windbreaker
3 type?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Okay, black.

6 (Mr. Lumumba writes on big note pad on easel.)

7 Q. She saw him come go into his house and come out of 8 his house; right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. I think she said he stayed in the house about 20
11 minutes; right?

12 A. I think that's correct.

13 Q. Okay, so in any event, he was supposed to be 14 wearing these black silky-- and T-shirt. He had a T-shirt
15 on; right?

16 A. Uh.

17 Q. White T-shirt?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Didn't say anything about a black sweater; right?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Didn't say anything about any kind of jacket;
22 right?

23 A. I don't think so.

24 Q. Okay, white T-shirt. (Mr. Lumumba writes on 25 easel.) Okay, and you talked to, on a different date, on a 26 different time, you talked to a gentleman by the name of 27 BoJack; is that correct?

28 A. I did.

29 Q. That is just the nickname. His real name is

1 Kennedy; is that correct?

2 A. James Edward Kennedy.

3 Q. James Edward Kennedy. Okay, now-- before we get
4 into that, let me just make this kind of clear. Okay, so Ms.
5 Hollman was tes-- she was talking to you, and Ms. Hollman
6 indicated what time as you have already indicated. Did Ms.
7 Hollman, did she -- okay. She didn't indicate any particular
8 reason that she would have been looking at the Defendant's
9 feet, did she? She didn't say she was looking at the feet
10 for any particular reason, did she?

11 A. She indicated that she noticed he was wearing Fila
12 Grant Hill tennis shoes.

13 Q. She didn't indicate why she would be looking at his 14 feet, did she?

15 A. Why?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. They live just real close to one another. I don't,
18 I don't-- I'm sorry. No, I--

19 Q. --I understand. But you have been, for instance, 20 you have been down here; we have been in court together for 21 the last week; right?

22 A. I have been in the witness room. I assume--

23 Q. --Well, we have passed each other in the hall
24 several times?

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. What kind of shoes I have on the first day?

27 A. I believe you had on some low quarter black shoes.

28 Q. Oh, really? What kind of--

29 A. That's what I think you had on. I wouldn't swear

1 to that.

2 Q. What kind of shoes did I have on the second day?

3 A. I don't know if I even saw you the second day.

4 Q. Well, what kind of shoes did I have on the third
5 day? You have seen me in the hall several times; right?

6 A. I have gotten glimpses of you, but I can't say what 7 you had on.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I really wasn't trying to watch you if you want to 10 know the truth.

11 Q. I understand. I understand. There is no reason to 12 watch me, and it wasn't anything unusual about seeing me;
13 right?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. And certainly there was nothing unusual
16 about my feet; right?

17 A. Nothing to draw my attention.

18 Q. I guess the point I want to make is that you see 19 people all the time; is that right?

20 A. Sure.

21 Q. Okay, you see people you know all the time; right?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. You don't generally focus on their feet just 24 because you see people, do you? You?

25 A. Not unless there is something unusual.

26 Q. Okay. Okay, now let me ask you this. As far as 27 the other gentleman that you indicated you saw; you saw Mr.
28 BoJack and his name was Kennedy. Can you recall without 29 looking exactly what date you talked to him?

1           A.    No, sir.  I can't call the date without looking at 2   the statement.

3           Q.    This gentleman here, I believe Mr. BoJack indicated
4   that he saw -- well, first of all, that interview didn't take
5   police until 9-17 of what year?

6           A.    '96.

7           Q.    Okay, that was 9-17 of '96.  By the way, in this 8   particular case you are aware of the fact that there had been
9   a reward offered for information leading to somebody's arrest
10   and conviction; is that correct?

11          A.    Yes.

12          Q.    Okay.  And you were aware of the fact that that had 13   been widely publicized; is that correct?

14          A.    I don't know how much publicity, but I know it had 15   some.

16          Q.    Well, it was in the newspaper; right?  The Winona
17   Times?

18          A.    Probably.  I wouldn't swear to it.

19          Q.    You know on posters; there were posters around the 20   city?

21          A.    Yes.

22          Q.    Okay, even probably on radio and TV; is that
23   correct?

24          A.    I don't know.

25          Q.    But you do remember talking to people about that;
26   right?  That reward?

27          A.    Yes.  I have talked to people about the reward.

28          Q.    For instance, you remember Latarsha Blissett?  Do
29   you remember a conversation you had with her?

1           A.    Yes, I remember a conversation with her.

2           Q.    Do you remember telling Latarsha Blissett what she
3 could do with thirty thousand dollars?

4           A.    No, I don't.

5           Q.    You talked to her shortly after the incident
6 occurred, didn't you?

7           A.    I don't remember the exact date. I think somewhere
8 around about a month or so after. I don't know exactly.

9           Q.    It could have been less than a month?

10          A.    It could have been.

11          Q.    Okay, in any event you remember telling her that 12 you knew that Curtis Flowers did it. You remember telling
13 her that; right?

14          A.    No. I don't remember that statement.

15          Q.    You remember mentioning Curtis Flowers' name, don't
16 you?

17          A.    Probably mentioned Curtis Flowers' name, yes.

18          Q.    You mentioned Curtis Flowers' name a lot of times
19 when you talked to a lot of people; is that right?

20          A.    Sure.

21          Q.    In fact, it would be safe to say that you had
22 information indicating that Curtis Flowers had been employed
23 in the store; is that correct?

24          A.    Yes.

25          Q.    And that he had dropped some batteries; is that
26 correct?

27          A.    Yes.

28          Q.    Okay, but in any event you don't remember telling
29 Tasha Blissett that you know Curtis Flowers did it, and you

1 are trying to get some information from her about shoes or
2 something else about the incident and how good it would be to
3 have thirty thousand dollars or something of that nature?

4 A. I don't remember making any statement like that to 5 Latarsha Blissett, no.

6 Q. You don't remember; right?

7 A. No, I don't.

8 Q. Because you are not saying you didn't do it; you
9 are saying you don't remember doing it?

10 A. I can't swear that I didn't, but I don't believe I
11 did.

12 Q. Okay. But in any event, let me move on from 13 there. The second thing is that you-- would it be safe to 14 say that you talked to BoJack on the 17th of-- I think you
15 already told us 9-17-96, and Mr. BoJack told you that he had 16 seen Curtis Flowers at some point in time. And the time he 17 indicated that he had seen Curtis Flowers, I believe he gave 18 you a time of somewhere between about 7:15, didn't he?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. About 7:15 A M; right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And at the time he saw him, he had long white pants
23 on. Didn't he tell you that?

24 A. He said a black sweater and white pants.

25 Q. Okay.

26 A. Or he indicated a gray jersey T-shirt or short
27 sleeve shirt.

28 Q. Well, actually what happened-- let's go through
29 this a little bit. What he said when you asked the question,

1 he said a black sweater, and then first of all, he clearly
2 said white pants; right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay, and he has testified here today or during the
5 course of this trial. In any event, he said he had a black
6 sweater on; is that right?

7 A. Repeat your question, please.

8 Q. He said in answer to your question of what he had
9 on, he said a black sweater. Didn't he say black sweater?
10 Isn't that what it says there?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay, and then I think you asked him another
13 question. You said didn't you tell me-- let me see. Your 14 question then implied that he had something else on. Your 15 question was--

16 A. Right there.

17 Q. It says, "What about his clothing? What kind of 18 clothing? Did you notice that?" And you said, "I believe he 19 had on a black sweater and white pants." That's what you
20 said; right-- I mean that's what he said; right?

21 A. That's what he said.

22 Q. Okay, and then you said that he had told you prior 23 to the taping that he had a gray jersey type T-shirt or short
24 sleeve shirt. That's what you said; right?

25 A. I said, "Just prior to the taping of this, you
26 indicated you thought it might have been a gray jersey type
27 T-shirt or short sleeve shirt."

28 Q. I see. Now that--

29 A. --and I asked was it -- excuse me.

1 Q. No, go right ahead.

2 A. I asked, "Was it gray or black?"

3 Q. And then he said, "Well, it may have been gray and 4 black;" right?

5 A. He said, "You know, a gray jersey then a little 6 black ink or whatever." I don't know what he meant by that.

7 Q. I see. But before you said that to him, he just 8 straight out told you a black shirt and white long-- well,
9 white pants; I'm sorry; right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that was without any prompting from you; is
12 that correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. Then you talked to 15 a person, at some point you talked to a person by the name of 16 Katherine Snow; is that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Do you have your notes from Ms. Snow?

19 A. I may have.

20 Q. And they may be here in evidence. (Pause while Mr.
21 Lumumba gets exhibits.)

22 Q. It would be safe to say that actually, and I am
23 showing you D-11-- I mean D-16; I'm sorry. And D-17, and if 24 you need, I am just giving it to you for purposes of 25 refreshing your recollection. If you need them to refresh
26 your recollection, I'm going to ask you to do so, but anyway
27 it would be safe to say that you talked to Ms. Snow on the-- 28 you talked to her several times; is that correct?

29 A. Yes.

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1 Q. Okay, and the first time you talked to her would
2 have been on the, actually 7-16-96; is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And when you talked to her on 7-16-96, did she tell
5 you that she had seen Curtis Flowers anywhere?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Okay. You talked to her again as your notes
8 reflect; is that correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you talked to her on 7-25-96; is that correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. That is not the day or the day after, but that is 13 actually a week after. At least a week; right?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay, on 7-25-96, which is at least seven or eight
16 or nine days after that night; is that correct, after the 17 night of the 16th?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did she tell you at that time that the person that 20 she saw was supposed to be Curtis Flowers?

21 A. Not by name, no.

22 Q. Well, she never mentioned the name Curtis Flowers?

23 A. (Witness shakes his head.)

24 (Mr. Lumumba writes on pad on easel.)

25 Q. Now you have been an officer for quite a while; is
26 that correct?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. I mean you actually right now you work for the DA's
29 Office, but you have plenty of experience investigating for

1 the DA; is that correct?

2 A. I have some, yes.

3 Q. How many years?

4 A. It will be eight years in January, I think.

5 Q. And you have had plenty of experience as an officer
6 before becoming part of the DA; is that correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Law enforcement experience, you say you have how 9 many years?

10 A. About twenty-five.

11 Q. And it would be safe to say as a law enforcement
12 officer, one of the things you learn right off is that it is 13 important to take notes; right?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. It's important to take notes and to write down what
16 the people tell you. You don't make anything up. You write
17 down what they say; right?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And it is important to get it as accurate as 20 possible what they tell you because you never know when you
21 are going to need this information; right?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. So you wouldn't write down something that they 24 didn't tell you because that might mislead you later on as to 25 what they said; right?

26 A. Correct.

27 Q. And you wouldn't write down-- and if they give you
28 some detail, you write that down particularly if it has to do
29 with an identification of an individual; is that correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Because if you are trying to find out who somebody
3 is, it's important to put down exactly what the person says;
4 isn't that true?

5 A. It's important to try to keep up with information,
6 yes.

7 Q. Okay. Now I believe that Ms. Snow-- so if she
8 would have told you that the person's name was Curtis
9 Flowers, then you would have wrote that down; right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And she didn't tell you even though this was
12 7-25-96; isn't that correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And in fact, so if she had any great revelations in 15 the middle of the night on the 16th about the person being 16 Curtis Flowers, she never told you that, did she?

17 A. She didn't give me his name that day, no.

18 Q. Did she give you the name Curtis Flowers?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay. And in fact-- can I see your notes for a
21 moment?

22 A. Sure.

23 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba looks at notes.)

24 Q. She never indicated to you that the person that she 25 saw was someone that she had seen before, did she?

26 A. Yes, she did.

27 Q. Is that down there?

28 A. No.

29 Q. Now let me see if I got this straight. You have

1       been doing law enforcement work for how long?

2           A.     About 25 years.

3           Q.     And you know that it is important to record exactly
4       what the witness tells you?

5           A.     It is important to record, yes.

6           Q.     Do you have in your notes anywhere where it says
7       that the person that she saw was somebody she had seen
8       before?

9           A.     It may be in her statement. But I would have to 10      review it to see.

11          Q.     Just take your time.

12          A.     Okay. (Pause while witness looks at statement.) I
13      don't see anything to that effect.

14          Q.     So nothing in the statement-- and you asked her in 15      the statement who the person was, didn't you?

16          A.     I did. Well, I don't know that I did or not.
17      (Pause while witness looks at statement again.)

18          Q.     You asked her to describe the person; right?

19          A.     Yes.

20          Q.     And she first said he was 5 foot 6. Isn't that 21      what she said?

22          A.     That's correct.

23          Q.     And then later on you asked her some other
24      questions saying didn't you tell me he was about 5 foot 10,
25      and then she said, oh, yeah, about 5 foot 10. Is that
26      right?

27          A.     Repeat your question, please.

28          Q.     In the statement-- not in the statement; I'm not 29      talking about the statement. I'm just trying to ask you if

1 you can recall. Didn't you, in fact, ask her during this
2 discussion if the person was, how tall the person is, and to
3 that question-- well, you just asked her to describe the
4 person; right?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And she said 5 foot 6; is that correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And then you said, "Well, didn't you tell me prior 9 to this discussion that the person was 5 foot 10?" Is that
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And then after that, she agreed to what you said,
13 but she had initially said 5 foot 6. Is that correct?

14 A. At this particular point, yes.

15 Q. I see. Okay, now in any event, well, you had never 16 told her before to say 5 foot 6, had you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And you didn't tell her on this occasion to say 5
19 foot 6?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Okay. But now in that statement that you have 22 carefully reviewed, have you found any place where she 23 indicates that she knew the person who was in that lot that
24 day?

25 A. No.

26 Q. Have you found any place where she said the person
27 was Curtis Flowers?

28 A. No.

29 Q. Did you, in fact, see her again after that?

1           A.    I have seen Katherine Snow before in the hospital
2 and other places.  Now--

3           Q.    Well, what I'm asking you-- let's go-- you have a
4 report of any -- you also saw her -- well, before I get to 5 that.  She indicated that the person had no cap on; isn't
6 that correct?

7           A.    (Pause while witness looks at notes.  No response.)

8           Q.    7-25-96.  She indicated no cap; is that correct?

9           A.    (Pause while witness looks at exhibit.)  Correct.

10          Q.    And so she didn't tell you this person had a white
11 cap on.  In fact, she told you he had no cap on; is that
12 correct?

13          A.    Correct.

14          Q.    She didn't tell you that the person had blue shorts
15 on.  In fact, she didn't mention any kind of shorts that the 16 person had on.  Isn't that correct?

17          A.    That's true.

18          Q.    She didn't even give you a description of any 19 clothing; isn't that correct?

20          A.    That's true.

21          Q.    And that is on either one of these things, all the 22 days we are talking about.  That never occurred, did it?

23          A.    True.

24          Q.    And it is also true to say that this particular
25 witness never indicated to you that this person had on white
26 long pants or any kind of black sweater.  Isn't that
27 correct?

28          A.    True.

29          Q.    Now let me say this to you, or let me ask you

1 this. By this, okay --- now the other thing that happened is
2 that you then saw Ms. Snow at a lineup; is that correct, or a
3 picture lineup? You actually didn't have a live lineup, but
4 you saw Ms. Snow at some point in time and had a picture
5 lineup. Is that correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And that picture lineup occurred-- when did that
8 occur? Tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury if you
9 could tell them, please.

10 A. On August 19th.

11 Q. Okay, now this is an incident that actually 12 occurred, this incident actually occurred back in July the 13 16th of 1996. Is that correct?

14 A. True.

15 Q. And you didn't show her a lineup until August of 16 1996, actually over a month later; isn't that correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this. You have had some 19 experience in preparation for lineups before, have you not?

20 A. Some.

21 Q. Okay, and you have been an officer for a long
22 time. That is one of the investigative tools you use;
23 right?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And you understand that that is an investigative 26 tool which has to be carefully used. You understand that;
27 right?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. Okay, and there are some kinds of things you do in

1 order to make sure that the lineup is fair. It's not biased
2 or prejudicial; is that true?

3 A. True.

4 Q. And one of those things is that when you do a
5 lineup, you try to make sure you understand that people are 6 normal people; their memories fade. Isn't that true? After,
7 over a period of time?

8 A. It can.

9 Q. Yeah, well, the longer the time, the more chance is 10 that the memory will fade; right?

11 A. With some people, yes.

12 Q. And the longer the time, the more chance that other
13 things will come in and perhaps confuse the witness; right?

14 A. (No immediate response.)

15 Q. The more opportunity for confusion; right?

16 A. For some people, yes.

17 Q. The more opportunity for them to get mixed up or 18 forget what they saw or to think they saw something they 19 didn't saw. The longer you wait, the longer that is a
20 possibility. You have learned that in your law enforcement
21 classes; right?

22 A. That is possible, yes.

23 Q. And in fact, don't they tell you in law enforcement
24 class you should give the lineup, if you have one, give it
25 right away; right?

26 A. Not necessarily.

27 Q. Or give it as soon as you possibly can; right?

28 A. As soon as it's available, yes.

29 Q. Well, which is as soon as you possibly can; right?

1 A. Basically, yes.

2 Q. Okay. Now and there are other things that they
3 say. They use principles like make sure when you use
4 pictures, don't use pictures which are suggestive; right?

5 A. You avoid that, yes.

6 Q. Okay, what I mean by that is that you try to make
7 sure that when you are showing a person a lineup, that the 8 pictures, that no picture stands out for any particular
9 reason; isn't that right?

10 A. You try to avoid that, yes.

11 Q. And in fact, I notice that you did two lineups; one
12 with Ms. Snow, one with Mr. Porky Collins. And actually both 13 of them were done over a month after the incident; isn't that
14 true?

15 A. True.

16 Q. Now but in any event, and you didn't use the same
17 pictures with Mr. Collins you used with Mr. Snow?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Excuse me; Mr. Collins that you used with Ms. Snow;
20 isn't that true?

21 A. I think that's correct.

22 Q. Okay, but in any event, you don't supposed to use,
23 you know, when you talk about lineups, you have got to make
24 sure that all the people that is in the lineups have similar 25 characteristics. That is one of the principles that you try 26 to use; right?

27 A. (No response.)

28 Q. Pardon?

29 A. Would you repeat that question, please.

1           Q.    When you do a lineup, you try to make sure that the
2 people in the lineup, the picture lineup have similar
3 characteristics.  Isn't that true?

4           A.    I think you try to, basically try to avoid
5 outstanding characteristics that will stand out on some, yes.

6           Q.    Yes, I understand.  Or you try to avoid a picture
7 that stands out different from the rest of the pictures;
8 right?

9           A.    You try to do that, yes.

10          Q.    Okay, and that is what we mean by trying to get 11 people in there with similar characteristics; isn't that
12 true?

13          A.    Repeat the question again, please.

14          Q.    That's what we mean by trying to get people with 15 similar characteristics.  When we talk about characteristics,
16 we talk about things like skin complexion could be a
17 characteristic; right?

18          A.    It could be, yes.

19          Q.    Okay, and hair style could be a characteristic;
20 right?

21          A.    Hair style is a characteristic.  Now I don't know
22 if I am following your questioning.

23          Q.    Well, you try to get people with similar hair
24 styles.  That is one of the things you want to do?

25          A.    I don't know that you necessarily try to get
26 similar hair styles.  I mean people comb their hair
27 different.  You try to get photographs that don't stand out
28 with specific characteristics over other people.

29          Q.    For instance, you wouldn't want to put, just to use

1 the classic example, you wouldn't put an individual in a
2 photograph where the individual, where he is supposed to be
3 looking for a dark skinned person, and the other individuals
4 in the lineup except for the suspect all are light skinned.
5 You wouldn't do that; right?

6 A. You would try to avoid that.

7 Q. Try avoid that. So you don't want to put light
8 skinned people in the lineup with dark people. You try to 9 avoid that; right?

10 A. You try to avoid that.

11 Q. Okay, and in fact, you try to avoid anything that 12 sticks out, like one person, putting a person in the lineup
13 where his head looks two or three times the size of 14 everybody else in the lineup. You wouldn't want to do that,
15 would you?

16 A. I don't think you would want that, no.

17 Q. Okay, but just by the way, looking at this lineup
18 that you showed Porky Collins, jumping ahead one moment,
19 S-91, and this is the lineup that was given on some time even 20 after Katherine Snow's lineup. Isn't that correct? You gave 21 his after you gave Katherine Snow's; is that correct?

22 A. I'm sorry. Would you repeat your question.

23 Q. Porky Collins lineup came after Katherine Snow's
24 lineup. Isn't that true?

25 A. Porky's lineup was on 8-24-96.

26 Q. And Katherine Snow was on 8-19-96; correct?

27 A. Correct.

28 Q. So this lineup here is the one you showed him; is
29 that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And it would be safe to say that in both lineups
3 the Defendant was number 4; isn't that correct?

4 A. I would have to look at the other lineup to say
5 that.

6 Q. In both lineups the Defendant was number 4; right?

7 A. (Pause) I don't know that this one has a number.

8 Q. If it goes this way, 1, 2, 3, 4; is that correct?

9 A. If it goes this way, yes.

10 Q. Okay, is there another way that it possibly could
11 go?

12 A. It could go from here and around or any way you
13 want to, I guess.

14 Q. You don't know what number this is?

15 A. No, if that's-- well--

16 Q. --It's actually in the same position as the one
17 that is in the Porky Collins lineup; isn't that correct?

18 A. That's true.

19 Q. Okay, but in any event, in the Porky Collins lineup
20 I notice that it would be safe to say that as the Defendant
21 is concerned, his head is bigger than the person in number
22 1. Isn't that true, at least the way it's depicted in the 23 photograph?

24 A. I can't say with the distance that this photograph
25 was taken from this individual or this one.

26 Q. From the way that it's depicted in the photograph,
27 it appears in the photograph that you showed them -- I'm not 28 asking you what is true in real life. I am asking you in the 29 photograph that you showed the person looking at this

1 photograph, it appears that picture number 4 has a much
2 bigger head than number 1. Isn't that true?

3 A. I can see some difference in the size of the space
4 that this head takes up on this lineup over this one.

5 Q. And that would be the same thing is true of number
6 2, number 3, number 5, and number 6. Isn't that true?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. It would also be safe to say that as far as number
9 5 is concerned, his hair style is completely different; isn't
10 that correct, than number 4?

11 A. His hair style is different, yes, that you can see.

12 Q. Would it also be safe to say that number 1 has much
13 more and number 3-- excuse me, strike that. Number 3's hair
14 style is quite different than number 4?

15 A. He has a little more hair than number 4.

16 Q. Would it also be safe to say that the hair style is 17 different, or maybe you don't know, but I am just asking you?

18 A. I'm not familiar with the style; I'm sorry.

19 Q. Since we are talking about the amount of hair, it
20 would be safe to say that number 1 has a lot more hair than 21 number 4 also; right?

22 A. He has more hair than--

23 Q. --Now there is a lot of people in the world that
24 have hair similar to number 4. In other words, what I'm 25 saying is that a lot of people wear their hair close, closely
26 shaven; isn't that correct?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. In fact, that is really a style amongst young black
29 men; isn't that true?

1 A. I would assume so.

2 Q. I mean you see a lot of young man black men from
3 time to time walking the street and in and out of the store
4 and up and down Winona, don't you?

5 A. Sure.

6 Q. And a lot of them wear their hair short style?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. But number 3 doesn't, and number 5 doesn't, and 9 number 1 doesn't in this lineup that you put Curtis Flowers
10 in. Isn't that true?

11 A. I would say that number 1's hair is short. Number
12 6--

13 Q. --Is it as short as Mr. Flowers?

14 A. No, I don't think it is quite as short as Mr.
15 Flowers--

16 Q. Before you answer--

17 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may the witness
18 be allowed to finish answering?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge--

20 BY MR. EVANS: --May the witness be allowed to 21 finish his answer, Your Honor?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Yes, he may,
23 Judge. All I am asking is that he answer my 24 question first, and then he can explain anything he 25 wants. My question is--

26 BY MR. EVANS: --Which he has done and I would 27 ask that he be allowed to finish answering--

28 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to let him finish.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, Judge, I asked the

1 question specific to 1, 5 and 3. Then I don't have
2 any problem if he says anything about anything
3 else.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, he was answering
5 that, and you cut him off. So let him answer.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. As to 1, 5 and 3, is it not true that they have
8 more hair clearly on their picture than Mr. Flowers does?

9 A. The angle, position of it would reflect that, yes.

10 Q. Okay, now you want to talk about number 2 and 11 number 6. What do you want to say about them?

12 A. I would--

13 Q. --Were you trying to say that they also have short
14 hair?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Was that the question. They have short hair.
17 Sure, they do. But number 6 and number 2, their head is 18 clearly smaller than number 4 in this picture display. Isn't
19 that true?

20 A. The head on this picture takes up more space, a
21 little more space here than 2 or 6.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to pass this to the
23 jury, please.

24 (State's Exhibit S-91 was passed to the jury.)

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Now I'm going to ask you this question one more
27 time as the jury is looking at this picture, and you can give 28 me whatever answer you want. Is it not true that the head on 29 number 4 sticks out as being much bigger than the head on any

1 one of those other individuals in that photo display? Now
2 I'm not asking you what may be the truth in real life because
3 we don't know. We don't know how well the pictures were 4 taken, do we?

5 A. I don't know that. No, I don't.

6 Q. You don't. And the person looking at the 7 photographs, they don't know that either, do they?

8 A. True.

9 Q. And they have no reason to be speculating about 10 that. All they are doing is looking at what they see;
11 right?

12 A. True.

13 Q. And you have already told me that the procedures
14 that you are supposed to use is to make sure that nobody
15 sticks out for any reason; right?

16 A. That's your ideal.

17 Q. You can't always do it. That's what you are going
18 to tell me; right?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Sometimes you don't have the photographs available
21 to do the kind of job you want to do; is that right?

22 A. That's true.

23 Q. But that is still the objective; isn't that right?

24 A. That is the objective.

25 Q. And they have that objective for a reason because 26 they don't want somebody to just come in and pick out a
27 photograph because they have the biggest head, because that's 28 what focuses in; that's what makes them concentrate on the 29 photograph. They want somebody to pick out the photograph

1 with all the heads the same, and they want them to pick it
2 out because it's the individual, if that is possible; right?
3 That's why you have that rule?

4 A. An effort is made in that direction, yes.

5 Q. Now and you knew when you were showing this
6 photograph to Mr. Porky Collins that he had told you that all
7 he had gotten was a split second glance at anybody that he
8 was trying to identify; isn't that correct?

9 A. Mr. Collins, the way I remember his statement to 10 me, was that he drove down Front Street, looked to the left
11 and saw two men talking. After he turned at the south end of 12 Front Street and went back north, we got a glimpse of him
13 going in the store.

14 Q. Split -- no, going in the store?

15 A. Going toward the store; I'm sorry.

16 Q. Actually, if you looked at what he said carefully,
17 what he said is that the man turned north; right?

18 A. I understood him to say that he turned toward the
19 store.

20 Q. Did you look close enough to see that his statement
21 says the man turns north. You don't remember that? I am
22 just asking you if you remember?

23 A. I am testifying as to what I remember him saying.

24 Q. But whatever he said, you wrote that down; right?

25 A. I tried to write. I made short notes of what he 26 said on the 16th.

27 Q. Well, in fact, you recorded a statement from him on 28 the 24th of August also; isn't that correct? You recorded a
29 statement?

1           A.     Probably that date. I don't remember exactly.

2                     (Mr. Lumumba gets Exhibit D-8 and hands to
3 witness.)

4           Q.     I am asking you to look at statement of Porky
5 Collins and see if that refreshes your memory as to which 6 direction Mr. Collins said the man walked in as he was 7 walking away from Mr. Collins? In fact, which direction both
8 of them walked?

9           A.     It says the one in the front of the car turned to 10 the north headed across the street. The other one closed the 11 door and headed that way.

12          Q.     The one that was, the first one it indicates turned 13 and headed north. Isn't that what it says?

14          A.     Yes.

15          Q.     And the other one?

16          A.     --but it also says he headed across the street, and 17 if you are familiar with the street, I don't know that that 18 is going to be north.

19          Q.     Well, let me ask you this.

20          A.     The street runs north and south.

21          Q.     The street runs north and south, right, and if you
22 are going across the street, you can walk northwest; isn't
23 that true?

24          A.     That is possible; yes, sir.

25          Q.     You can walk northwest; right? Well, he said
26 north. That's what he said; right?

27          A.     But you can't walk across the street if you walk
28 due north.

29          Q.     Well, you don't know any reason why Porky Collins

1 would have testified in the evidentiary hearing that he
2 walked away from Tardy's, do no?

3 A. No.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not what he
5 testified to, and I object to a misleading
6 statement.

7 BY THE COURT: I don't think it is either.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach, Judge?

9 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Give me the transcript.

11 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
12 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

13 BY THE COURT: It may be in there, but it
14 wasn't in what he testified to earlier.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I impeached him with 16 this, Judge. I impeached Collins with this.

17 BY THE COURT: I'm talking about what he
18 testified in this trial.

19 BY MR. EVANS: What he testified to on direct
20 and on-- (Both Counsel talking at the same time.)

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --on direct-- excuse me,
22 excuse me. On direct examination Porky Collins
23 said that he walked toward the store. I impeached
24 him with a statement that specifically says, "But 25 actually walking away from Tardy's; right."
26 Answer, "That's correct."

27 BY MR. HORAN: The doesn't mean he wasn't
28 walking across the street.

29 BY MR. EVANS: He clearly testified that he

1                   turned north and walked across the street.

2                   BY MR. HORAN: You can't ask this witness
3 about that anyway.

4                   BY THE COURT: That's right. It's not-- you
5 can't ask that. That is--

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --That is a different
7 objection. The objection that I asked you to 8 correct yourself by saying he didn't testify to 9 that because he definitely testified in this trial
10 that he made this statement at the--

11                  BY THE COURT: --well, he may have done that.
12 I didn't say he did that--

13                  BY MR. EVANS: That is not what he said he did
14 in this trial.

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, excuse me. Judge, what 16 I am saying is my question to him was, "You don't 17 know any reason why at the evidentiary hearing he 18 testified that he walked away from Tardy's; right?"
19 and your indication and "That's correct." And you
20 have told this jury that he didn't say that. He 21 did say that, and he was impeached with that in 22 this trial. I mean--

23                  BY MR. HORAN: --impeached with that in the 24 trial.

25                  BY MR. EVANS: He asked him to testify to 26 about the hearing--

27                  BY THE COURT: --That's right. I think that's 28 what I said.

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, my objection stands.

END BENCH CONFERENCE

BY MR. LUMUMBA:

Q. If Mr. Collins were asked if he was "actually walking away from Tardy's; right?" and he said, "That's correct," you don't know why he would have said that, do you?

A. I have no idea why he would have said that.

Q. Now let me ask you this. Can I see that for a moment, please?

A. Sure.

(Statement handed to Mr. Lumumba.)

Q. Coast to Coast would have been across the street from where he told you he was; right?

A. That would have been northwest.

Q. Okay. So if he walked, if he headed north and walked across the street, that would have been consistent with heading toward Coast to Coast or maybe even farther up the street; right?

A. If he walked north and then he turned west, it would be consistent with that or either headed northwest.

Q. If he crossed the street and walked north, that would be consistent with heading toward Coast to Coast. Isn't that true?

A. Repeat your question, please. I'm sorry; you are losing me.

Q. If he walked across the street and went in a northerly direction, that would be consistent with going toward Coast to Coast. Isn't that true?

A. Yes.

1           Q.    Can you show me anywhere in this statement taken on
2 May 10, 1997, where he said he headed toward Tardy's?

3           A.    (Pause) He said, "I never seen his face,"..."I
4 seen was more or less from the back of him, every time I seen
5 him. The other one pushed the door to and they headed to the 6 other side of the street."

7           Q.    Excuse me. Where do you see that? And is Coast to 8 Coast on the other side of the street?

9           A.    It would be on the other side of the street than 10 north.

11          Q.    Yeah, but he never testified, did he, or he never 12 told you that these people were parked right in front of 13 Tardy's, did he? In fact, he told you that they were parked
14 north of Tardy's at least by what I call the alley, the 15 little small street there. He told you that, didn't he?

16          A.    My memory was a little below that.

17          Q.    Even a little below that wouldn't have been in 18 front of Tardy's. That would have been in front of a vacant
19 building. Isn't that true?

20          A.    It depends on how much, where you are talking about
21 there.

22          Q.    What I was asking you, and this will be my question
23 on this issue. You find me one, any place in there where it
24 says he headed toward Tardy's or where it says he headed
25 south, or where it says that he was parked directly in front
26 of Tardy's. Find me that anywhere. (Pause) And if you see 27 any language about them heading north, let us know because we 28 would be interested in that too.

29          A.    It says the one on the north, "The one on the front

1 of the car made a turn to the north." (Pause).

2 Q. So what I assume that you have not found the spot
3 in that statement anywhere where it says he headed toward 4 Tardy's?

5 A. I don't see it worded in that fashion, no.

6 Q. What you do see is where it says on two different
7 spots, one you just shared with us and one I shared with you
8 earlier where it says the person headed to the north. Isn't
9 that correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And crossed the street. It says both, headed to 12 the north and crossed the street?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now if I told you two things, that a), that I was 15 going across the street which actually would be heading
16 toward the west and that the person headed north; then you
17 could very well assume, wouldn't you, that the person was 18 headed northwest across the street to the north; right?

19 A. You could assume that.

20 Q. Unless you just wanted to say that they were going
21 south toward Tardy's even though the person said nothing
22 about south. Said nothing about south, said nothing about
23 Tardy's; isn't that correct?

24 A. That's true.

25 Q. And as long as we are talking about him, his 26 statement was taken on March the 10th, 1997; isn't that
27 correct?

28 A. I think that's correct.

29 Q. This is almost, that is working on almost a year

1 after the incident; isn't that correct?

2 A. Can I review that?

3 (Exhibit handed back to the witness.)

4 Q. Well--

5 A. --that's correct.

6 Q. Okay, the reward had been out for quite some time;
7 is that right?

8 A. The reward had been out at that time.

9 Q. Now Winona is a fairly small town, isn't it, Mr.
10 Johnson?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And word gets around Winona pretty quickly about 13 different things, doesn't it?

14 A. Sometimes.

15 Q. And if you are talking to people and everybody you
16 are talking to, you are asking them about Curtis Flowers,
17 that word probably gets around pretty quickly too, doesn't
18 it? That that's who you are asking about?

19 A. I didn't go out just asking about Curtis Flowers.

20 Q. But just about everybody you talked to you asked
21 them something about Curtis Flowers, didn't you?

22 A. The people--

23 Q. --what kind of shoes he wore or if they saw him
24 that day. You asked about Curtis Flowers, didn't you?

25 A. A lot of the witnesses I talked to we discussed
26 Curtis Flowers. But I let, I didn't lead them into the 27 conversation to name Curtis Flowers in anything.

28 Q. I see. I know you wouldn't just tell them to name
29 Curtis Flowers like you didn't tell Ms. Blissett that you

1 knew that Curtis Flowers did it. At least you don't remember
2 telling her that?

3 A. I sure don't.

4 Q. We had a magic marker here at one point in time.
5 It seems to be missing, probably because I have got it in
6 my pocket. See how people accuse people of stuff? Okay.
7 But in any event, this is Mr. Collins. Now you initially
8 talked to him on the-- the first time you talked to Mr.
9 Collins actually would have been back on 7-16-96. Is that
10 correct?

11 A. That's true.

12 Q. But you didn't take a statement from him at that 13 time, a taped statement; right?

14 A. No.

15 Q. The taped statement was, was not actually taken
16 until, I think we just looked at it, March of 1997; is that
17 correct?

18 A. March '97.

19 Q. March '97, and that would have been March what?

20 A. 10th.

21 Q. And it would be safe to say that when he talked to 22 you on the 16th of '96, he actually told you that the, that
23 he saw two black men, and he said they had a medium
24 complexion; is that right?

25 A. I believe that's correct, but I would want to refer 26 to my notes to say that.

27 Q. Do you have them there?

28 A. No.

29 Q. Okay. I'm not trying to introduce this. You just

1 need this to refresh your recollection; right?

2 A. True.

3 Q. Okay, I'm just showing you what purports to be your
4 notes. Do those appear to be your notes?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. And does it indicate that the two black men had 7 medium complexion?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. In he would have said dark complexion, you wouldn't 10 have wrote down medium complexion, would you?

11 A. That's true.

12 Q. And in fact, if he would have said he looked like
13 his complexion was like Mr. Hargrove -- Hargrove, you know,
14 is police chief; right?

15 A. He is.

16 Q. And he may even be darker than Mr. Flowers; isn't
17 that true?

18 A. Probably.

19 Q. And so both him and Mr. Flowers are fairly dark
20 skinned black men, aren't they?

21 A. Hargrove is darker than.

22 Q. Well, both of them would be considered of dark
23 skin; is that correct? I mean if you look at the whole range
24 of things. You see my complexion; right?

25 A. Yeah.

26 Q. It is certainly much darker than me; right?

27 A. Yes.

28 Q. And you see Mr. Freelon's complexion. It is 29 certainly much darker than him; right?

1           A.    He is darker than Mr. Freelon.

2           Q.    Right, and then you see Ms. Flowers out there.  You
3 know Ms. Flowers?

4           A.    Right.

5           Q.    She has got kind of a medium complexion.  There are 6 several people out there got medium complexions, much
7 lighter, much-- yet darker than me, still--

8                   BY MR. EVANS:  --There is absolutely no
9 relevance to this.  I object to him just continuing
10 to go drag things out.  He can ask him about what 11 the statement said, and that's it.

12                   BY THE COURT:  That's right.  You are limited
13 to that.  I think you have made your point on that
14 anyway.

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay, thank you.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17           Q.    In any event, he said it was-- he didn't say, you
18 don't have anything down there about the person looking like
19 Mr. Hargrove, do you?

20           A.    No.

21           Q.    And you would not -- now I just want your honest
22 opinion.  You would not consider Hargrove as a medium skin
23 complexion black man, now would you?

24           A.    I wouldn't.

25                   (Mr. Lumumba writes on pad on easel.)

26           Q.    So on 7-16-96 you said he saw two medium skin black 27 men, and turned toward the north and walked across the 28 street; is that correct?

29           A.    In my notes on that day I put down that, last seen

1 walking toward Tardy's.

2 Q. But you don't have any statement directly from him
3 recorded where it says anything about toward Tardy's, do you?

4 A. I didn't record any statement that day.

5 Q. Now it would be 7-- 3-10-97 is where it says the 6 man turned towards the north and walked across the street; is
7 that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And actually, he told you and consistent with his
10 testimony that actually-- oh, you don't remember him saying
11 that the person was parked either in front of Coast to Coast
12 or in front of the alley? You don't remember that; right?

13 A. No. I didn't remember him being parked in front of 14 Coast to Coast.

15 Q. But if he came in here and told that jury that, you
16 wouldn't call him a liar, would you?

17 A. No, I wouldn't.

18 Q. Now let me ask you this. If you are north of 19 something and you go north, then that puts you further
20 north. Isn't that true?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Now this person, Mr. Collins indicated the 23 two people he saw had a car or were standing at a car; right?

24 A. Yes. Standing near a car.

25 Q. A brown car?

26 A. I believe that's right.

27 (Mr. Lumumba writes on pad on easel.)

28 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, are we at a point
29 where we can take a break?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Can I ask one more
2 question?

3 BY THE COURT: Sure.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5 Q. By the way, did you notice that Mr. Collins told
6 you that he went home and changed his shoes?

7 A. I don't remember that specifically.

8 Q. Well, let me ask you this.

9 (Looks at Collins' statements and points out
10 portion of it for the witness.)

11 Q. That when he went home after being in the Tardy
12 area, that he actually changed his shoes. Did you see
13 that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now did you ever ask him to bring the shoes that he
16 took off after leaving the Tardy area back to see if possibly 17 he may have went in the store and left some prints?

18 A. No, I did not.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I can break at this point.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, we 21 are going to take your lunch break because they are 22 expecting y'all. We will start back with about 23 1:15.

24 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON MARCH 29, 1999,
25 TRIAL RESUMED IN OPEN COURT AT 1:19 PM WITH THE
26 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, AND THE JURY ALL
27 PRESENT AND WITH MR. JOHN JOHNSON STILL ON THE 28 WITNESS STAND:)

29 BY THE COURT: All right.

1 CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. Okay, Mr. Johnson, good afternoon.

3 A. Good afternoon.

4 Q. Mr. Johnson, would it be safe to say that when you
5 interviewed Mr. Collins on the 24th is when you actually
6 showed him the pictures that are displayed here in S-91, the 7 ones in which I have asked you if number 4 has a head much
8 bigger than everybody else?

9 A. That's true.

10 Q. Now let me ask you this. You also showed him
11 another photographic display on that same day; is that true?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And this is it here. This is D-19. This is 14 marked for identification purposes; is that correct? Well,
15 you don't know. But I will state for the record-- I'm sorry;
16 it's not D-19. It's D-10. I must have been looking at 17 something else, D-10. I am asking you did you show him that 18 on the 24th also?

19 BY THE COURT: Is it marked for identification
20 or--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's actually for
22 identification, Judge. It appears to be.

23 BY THE WITNESS:

24 A. It was shown to him.

25 Q. And actually this was shown prior to the time that
26 the other lineup was shown to him; is that correct?

27 A. Yes. I think that's correct.

28 Q. Okay, and in this lineup, you have Mr. Doyle
29 Simpson in that lineup; is that correct?

1           A.     That's true.

2           Q.     And it would be safe to say that in that
3 particular lineup he actually, he indicated he didn't make a
4 positive identification of anybody in that lineup. Is that
5 correct?

6           A.     True.

7           Q.     But he also indicated in that lineup that 1 and 3
8 resembled the person, but the hairline was further back. Is
9 that correct?

10          A.     That's the way I remember it, yes.

11          Q.     Pardon?

12          A.     If I can refer to my notes, I think that's correct.

13          Q.     Okay.

14                     (Notes handed to witness.)

15          Q.     Said 1 and 3 resemble him, but the hairline was 16 further back; is that correct?

17          A.     Correct.

18          Q.     And that is on this lineup that Mr. Simpson was in;
19 is that correct?

20          A.     Correct.

21          Q.     Now Mr. Simpson is not 1 or 3, is he?

22          A.     No.

23          Q.     But then he pointed to number 6 which is Mr.
24 Simpson; is that correct?

25          A.     He did.

26          Q.     And even though, and he did, in fact, say as to Mr.
27 Simpson, did he not, he pointed to Simpson and said the hair
28 was like this, saying that Mr. Simpson's hair was like that.
29 Is that correct?

1 A. He said his hair, "hairline like this."

2 Q. "May have appeared"--

3 A. --"appeared to be a little darker."

4 Q. "But it looks like him;" is that correct?

5 A. "But it looks like him."

6 Q. Face is the same shape and all that kind of stuff?

7 A. "Round like this."

8 Q. Okay. And you put down "unable to be positive."

9 Is that correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. Now actually, when-- you didn't ask him if 12 he knew Doyle Simpson, did you?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay, and then in the other lineup, the one you
15 showed him right after that, that's the one where he pointed 16 to the person who is Mr. Flowers, who I asked you if the head
17 looked a little bigger; is that right?

18 A. That's true.

19 Q. And he said, pointed to Curtis Flowers. "I think 20 that's him." That's what he said; right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. He said, "He is about my height." Is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. He indicated he is 5'10"; right?

25 A. Correct.

26 Q. Said, "The complexion is also right." That's what 27 he said at that time?

28 A. Correct.

29 Q. "I believe this is him. It looks like him." Is

1 that right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Then you asked him a question, did he know Curtis
4 Flowers; is that correct?

5 A. I did.

6 Q. And this is after you had been investigating and
7 asking people about Curtis Flowers for some time; is that
8 correct? Not necessarily him, but you have been asking
9 people about Curtis Flowers; is that right?

10 A. I didn't go out in the community just asking the 11 people about Curtis Flowers.

12 Q. Okay, but did you ask some people you talked to 13 about Curtis Flowers?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. In any event, at any point he says, "This is 16 the man that I saw out there that day." Is that correct?

17 A. I asked him the question. He said, "No, but I know 18 the person I just identified is the person I saw in front of 19 Tardy's July the 16th, '96."

20 Q. Okay. And that was on the same day that he had 21 pointed to two people in the, two people in the Simpson
22 lineup and said it resembled the man; right?

23 A. Some similarity, yes.

24 Q. And he had pointed to Simpson and said that he
25 looked like the man; right?

26 A. Yes, said, "I believe that's him. It looks like 27 him"-- no. On that one he said--

28 Q. "But it looks like him"?

29 A. "Hairline like this. May have appeared a little

1 darker, but it looks like him. The face was also the same
2 shape, round like this. Unable to be positive."

3 Q. Okay, and so on that same day then you show him Mr.
4 Flowers, and so after he has already pointed to three other
5 people and said certain things about them that you have
6 already shared with the jury what he said; right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. That's the day, then you showed him Mr. Flowers,
9 and he starts off by saying, "I think that's him;" right?
10 Or that's the first thing he said; right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay, but anyway, and that was the man you pointed 13 to like you said, with a slightly bigger-- well, with 14 whatever the picture shows about his head. Is that correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And this was also, and you understood at the time
17 that you were showing him these pictures that he had only 18 reported ever seeing this person, only reported seeing the 19 face of one individual out there that day. Isn't that true?

20 A. That he only got a good facial view of one of the 21 suspects, yes.

22 Q. Well, in fact, he said that he didn't get a facial
23 view of the other one period. Didn't he say that?

24 A. I'm not sure what his statement said.

25 Q. Well, his statements should stand for themselves,
26 but the second thing is that he said that he got a split
27 second glance. Isn't that what he said?

28 A. I don't think he used that term when he talked to
29 me.

1                   BY THE COURT: You need to speak up, Mr.
2                   Johnson, so they can hear you.

3                   BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5                   Q. Just so we won't waste a lot of time, I will direct
6                   your attention to that exhibit that you are looking at. Here
7                   is the same thing here. The Exhibit is D-8. It says-- well,
8                   you read those two lines there if you can.

9                   A. "He made a gesture with his hand there. If it had 10                  not been for that, I probably never would have noticed...."

11                  Q. Noticed what?

12                  A. "It."

13                  Q. "It." He didn't say him. He said, "noticed it."
14                  Right?

15                  A. "I just for one split second, I got a glimpse, I 16                  looked at him."

17                  Q. Okay. Right, you want to put that into it too. It 18                  says, "I just for one split second, I got a glimpse, I looked 19                  at him." Is that right?

20                  A. It looked like it was highlighted. I thought you
21                  wanted me to read it.

22                  Q. Okay. Well, that's what he said; right?

23                  A. Yeah.

24                  Q. He said it was a split second, a glimpse, and he
25                  got a look; right? That's what I call a split second 26                  glimpse. Would you agree with that?

27                  A. Pretty close, yes.

28                  Q. All right. And you didn't show him pictures until 29                  well over a month later?

1           A.     True.

2           Q.     Now let me ask you this. You had an opportunity to 3 try to check-- now you checked some time after the event on 4 the children who were the children of Ms. Connie Moore; is 5 that correct? One of them was Lemarcus. He is younger, and 6 Marcus who is older; is that correct?

7           A.     Yes. I asked about those children.

8           Q.     Okay, you asked about those children, and you found
9 out that at the time you checked, Lemarcus was actually 10 wearing-- the younger child was actually wearing a size 8 and 11 a half shoe; is that right?

12          A.     7 and a half to 8 and a half.

13          Q.     Well, let me see. Page 717 of your transcript.
14 Let's see what it says from the hearing. Page 717 at this 15 hearing. Your name is John Johnson; is that correct?

16          A.     Correct.

17          Q.     And this would have been you testifying somewhere
18 in a hearing in 1980-- excuse me, 1997. Is that correct?
19 Around about October or so?

20          A.     I think that's correct.

21          Q.     Okay, and what he, what you said at that time,
22 "What was his shoe size?" And you were talking about having 23 checked-- you checked, the time that you checked was after 24 the time of the incident, but you don't know; you were unable 25 to ascertain exactly when, but you know it wasn't immediately
26 after the incident. Isn't that true?

27          A.     Repeat that question, please.

28          Q.     When you checked, it was not immediately after the 29 incident, was it?

1           A.    No.  Well, it was within a few days.

2           Q.    Well, what you said it was approximately-- you were
3 talking about Lemarcus Moore shoe size.  "Yes, sir.  I did."
4 "What was his shoe size?"  "Approximately 8 and a half."  Is
5 that correct?

6           A.    Correct.

7           Q.    Okay, and then you checked on Marcus Moore, and his 8 shoe size at that time was about 12; is that correct?

9           A.    It was a 12, yes.

10          Q.    Okay, and you don't-- well, you didn't actually
11 mark it.  You didn't measure it.  You did, you were able to 12 see his feet; is that correct?

13          A.    I looked at his feet.

14          Q.    You didn't measure-- did you measure them?

15          A.    I looked at his shoe size.

16          Q.    Well, that is not what you said at the last
17 hearing.  At the last hearing when pressed, you just said
18 that somebody told you that was his size.  Isn't that what
19 you said?

20          A.    His daddy did tell me, but he was also in my 21 presence, and I physically looked at his shoes.

22          Q.    Well, that is different than saying you measured
23 them.  You didn't measure them, did you?

24          A.    I didn't say I measured them, I don't believe.

25          Q.    Okay, well, in any event at the time that you
26 looked at his feet, this was after the incident, so this had 27 to be at least after July of 1996.  Is that correct?

28          A.    Uh.

29          Q.    It had to be after July the 16th of 1996; is that

1 correct?

2 A. Shortly after that, yes.

3 Q. He was a young man; is that correct?

4 A. Yes. He was still a young man.

5 Q. If Mr. Jack, Jack Matthews indicated that Lemarcus'
6 feet was 7 and a half when he checked them, and you are 7 telling us they were 8 and a half when you checked them, that
8 means they must have grown some; right?

9 A. All I'm going by is what I was told and what I was 10 shown, and that's all I know about.

11 Q. Well, young people's feet grow pretty fast
12 sometimes; right?

13 A. I don't know how fast their feet grow.

14 Q. Do you have children?

15 A. I have got a son, yeah.

16 Q. Don't their feet grow pretty fast? How old is he?

17 A. He is 17.

18 Q. Well, you have been through some big feet times. I
19 mean at certain points they start to pick up, don't they?

20 A. He is 17. I think he wears a size 10.

21 Q. All right, I see. But in any event, so you don't 22 know what this child's foot was, this Marcus' foot was of 23 your own personal knowledge because you didn't see them back
24 in January of 1996, did you?

25 A. If I can refer to my notes where I talked to his 26 father and the son together.

27 Q. What I'm asking you, did you see, did you talk to 28 them in January of '96, prior to the incident?

29 A. No. I did not talk to him prior.

1           Q.    So you don't know what his foot size was in January
2 of '96, do you?

3           A.    No, I don't.

4           Q.    Marcus Moore is, in fact, Connie Moore's child. Is
5 that correct?

6           A.    True.

7           Q.    And if we have to look it up, we will, but I just
8 want to get this straight now. Isn't it true that you
9 actually didn't measure this person's foot or actually even 10 look at the shoes. You just, I mean you looked at the shoes,
11 but you didn't check on their sizes. You saw the shoes, and 12 you had his father tell you what size they were; isn't that
13 right?

14          A.    He was wearing a size 12 tennis shoe when he came 15 to the police department in Winona where I asked him to bring
16 his son for me to talk to him--

17          Q.    --But while--

18          A.    --and his father and the son also confirmed the shoe
19 size.

20          Q.    Okay, well, let me ask you this. We are looking at 21 page 722, and you show me in here anywhere where you say you
22 actually looked at this kid's shoe or you actually looked at 23 the shoe that he had on. 722.

24                BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object on 25 relevance. I don't think there is any question at 26 the time he checked the shoes what size they were.

27                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I think it's a question.

28                BY MR. EVANS: This is not relevant.

29                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, is that a relevancy

1 objection or a closing argument? I think that--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --My objection is relevancy if
3 you didn't hear it. It was on relevancy.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, then I don't
5 think it is necessary to start arguing that there
6 is no question about the shoe size.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, you are making some
8 arguments in the questions that you are asking him
9 about his children and shoe sizes that has got no
10 relevance whatsoever. Let's move on from this
11 point.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Okay. Page 723, it says, "I just asked him what 14 size"--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, did you not just 16 sustain my objection?

17 BY THE COURT: I believe I did.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I am prohibited from 19 asking that question, Your Honor? I thought that 20 you were sustaining an objection on the previous 21 question. If that's what I'm prohibited from, just 22 let me know.

23 BY THE COURT: What was the question?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My question is if, in fact,
25 that he-- I just asked him what size shoe he wore.
26 That was what the transcript says, and I'm trying
27 to see if I can ask him that question.

28 BY THE COURT: Well, he has already answered
29 that question though, hasn't he?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

2 BY THE COURT: He has already answered that
3 question.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, my other question would
5 be then, the question I was trying to ask:
6 Anywhere in here do you see where you indicate when 7 asked the question that you actually measured his 8 foot or looked at the shoe?

9 BY THE COURT: I will let him answer that
10 question.

11 BY THE WITNESS:

12 A. I don't think in that testimony I was asked to 13 specify in that regard, no.

14 Q. Do you indicate that here anywhere?

15 BY THE COURT: I believe he has answered that 16 question too. That is a complete answer he gave.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. Okay, let me ask you this, Mr. Johnson.

19 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

20 Q. As to one of the men that Mr. Collins indicated he 21 saw, did he not tell you, "I never seen his face. All I seen
22 was more or less from the back of him, every time I seen
23 him"?

24 A. That's what he said in this statement.

25 Q. Now you did have an opportunity on about 8-15-96 to 26 talk to a gentleman by the name of Edward Lee McChristian; is
27 that correct?

28 A. I did.

29 Q. Okay, and Mr. McChristian was the person who lived

1 on Academy Street; is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And he told you on the day that he saw the person
4 who he knew as Mr. Flowers, he indicated he saw that person
5 walking up and down that street a whole lot of times, didn't
6 he?

7 A. I think he indicated that it was not unusual to see
8 him walking on that street.

9 Q. Right. But in any event, he indicated that the 10 person he saw, Mr. Flowers, that day had on baggy pants.
11 Isn't that correct?

12 (Hands document to the witness.)

13 A. He said that, yes.

14 (Mr. Lumumba writes on pad on easel.)

15 Q. And he indicated to you that he saw a person about,
16 between 7:30 and 8 o'clock; is that correct, in the morning?

17 A. I want to refer to my notes. I think that was-- it
18 might have been a little earlier than that, but I would have 19 to look at my notes to verify.

20 (Mr. Lumumba hands document to witness.)

21 Q. Did you do a taped statement from him?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay, let me see and we will find out.

24 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba is looking for the 25 statement.)

26 Q. So you don't recall offhand when Mr. McChristian
27 said that he actually saw this individual, what time of day.
28 Is that correct?

29 A. I'm not sure if it was 7:30 to 8:00 A M. It could

1 have been a few minutes earlier than that.

2 Q. Okay. Do you recall him saying that his friend
3 goes to work every day at 8 o'clock? Do you recall him
4 saying that?

5 A. He told me that his girlfriend had to be at work at
6 8 o'clock.

7 Q. Oh, okay; excuse me.

8 A. Leave--

9 Q. --I'm not talking about Mr. Kennedy. I'm talking
10 about Mr. McChristian. Do you remember the difference
11 between those two individuals?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. Okay, and would it be safe to say that Mr.
14 McChristian said between 7:30 and 8 o'clock?

15 A. I think that is close to the time, but I wouldn't 16 swear to it.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
18 from Mr. Johnson at this juncture, Judge.

19 BY THE COURT: All right, sir. Mr. Evans.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

22 Q. All right, Mr. Johnson, before we get started, how 23 long have you worked for me?

24 A. Will be eight years in January, I believe.

25 Q. Would you explain to the ladies and gentlemen of 26 the jury what your background was when you came to work with 27 me?

28 A. I had been with the Police Department in Winona for 29 about 18 years there and in Grenada. I had been Chief of

1 Police for the City of Winona for six years, Assistant Chief
2 four years. That is basically my background in law
3 enforcement.

4 Q. All right. And on the day of these murders, did
5 you have an occasion to go to the crime scene?

6 A. I did.

7 Q. And did you assist what you could at the crime
8 scene?

9 A. I did.

10 Q. From the crime scene, were you present when the 11 Defendant was interviewed?

12 A. Not at the crime scene but--

13 Q. No, after the crime scene.

14 A. After the crime scene that day, yes.

15 Q. Wait just a second. At the time the Defendant was 16 interviewed did you or anyone else shake his hand?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Why?

19 A. Well, we had discussed and knew we could possibly 20 run a GSR kit on him and knew that procedure would prevent
21 that.

22 Q. And a GSR kit is a gunshot residue kit?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Now you have been asked about interviewing numerous
25 witnesses. When you interviewed, and I will try to take them
26 not necessarily in the order you interviewed them, but in the 27 order of the events as far as this trial. When you
28 interviewed Mr. Kennedy, how positive was he that the person
29 he saw walk by his house in the direction of Angelica on the

1 morning of the murders was the Defendant?

2 A. He was very positive.

3 Q. Was this somebody he had not known before, or was 4 this somebody he was already familiar with?

5 A. He had known him for some time.

6 Q. Did you or anyone else make any attempt to try to 7 influence him on who to identify?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Katherine Snow, how positive was she when she 10 picked the Defendant's photograph out of this lineup right
11 here?

12 A. She was very positive. She was sitting across the 13 room when the photograph was shown. She said, "That's him,"
14 and leaned forward and pointed to the Defendant.

15 Q. Now I noticed that her name is on the back of 16 Curtis Flowers' picture. Who put her name on the back of 17 that picture?

18 A. She did.

19 Q. Now is there anything at all suggestive about this 20 lineup?

21 A. Not that I'm aware of.

22 (Mr. Evans holds the exhibit in front of the 23 jury.)

24 Q. Did y'all do anything in setting this lineup at all
25 to try to influence her on who to pick out of that lineup?

26 A. No.

27 (Exhibit S-92 was passed to the jury.)

28 Q. The lineup that was shown to Charles Collins, who 29 furnished these pictures?

1           A.     Wayne Miller with the Mississippi Highway Patrol.

2           Q.     Now basically every picture in there is a little
3 bit different sized, isn't it?

4           A.     Yes.

5           Q.     Did you or anybody else tell her pick out the 6 picture with the largest head?

7           A.     No.

8           Q.     Did any of you tell her to pick out the picture
9 with the smallest head?

10          A.     No.

11          Q.     Did y'all do anything to try to influence her on 12 what picture to pick out of this lineup?

13          A.     No.

14          Q.     Or him; I'm sorry.

15          A.     No.

16          Q.     And he had actually been shown twelve pictures
17 before he positively identified the person that he saw, had 18 he not?

19          A.     I think that's correct.   Yes.

20                     (Exhibit S-91 was passed to the jury.)

21          Q.     Mr. McChristian, how positive was he that on the 22 day of the murders he saw this Defendant walk by his house?

23          A.     He was positive.

24          Q.     Was that somebody that he did or didn't already
25 know before this happened?

26          A.     He had known him prior to this.

27          Q.     Mary Jeanette Fleming, how positive was she that 28 the person that she met walking in the general direction of 29 Tardy Furniture that morning was Curtis Flowers?

1           A.    She was positive.

2           Q.    Did you or anyone else try to influence her to make
3 that identification?

4           A.    No.

5           Q.    Clemmie Fleming, how positive was she that this man
6 was running from the direction of right behind Tardy
7 Furniture?

8           A.    Very positive.

9           Q.    Did you or anyone else try to influence her to make
10 that identification?

11          A.    Absolutely not.

12          Q.    Now you have been asked about reward.  Somebody did
13 put a reward out; is that correct?

14          A.    There was a reward.

15          Q.    As a matter of fact, it was approximately three 16 months before that reward went up to thirty thousand dollars,
17 wasn't it?

18          A.    That's correct.

19          Q.    At the time that one of these questions that you
20 have been asked about offering a thirty thousand dollar
21 reward to somebody, the reward wasn't even up that high, was
22 it?

23          A.    That's true.

24          Q.    You were asked by opposing counsel if you were told
25 what the shoe sizes that Connie's children wore; is that
26 right?

27          A.    That's true.

28          Q.    Were you also told whether they had ever owned any 29 Fila shoes?

1           A.     Yes.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Now objection.   Objection.
3                   Hearsay.

4                   BY MR. EVANS:   Your Honor, he went into what
5                   he was told by the children and by their father.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   No.   First of all, I never
7                   asked him a question about anything the children
8                   said.   He indicated that his father had told him
9                   what size their shoes were.

10                  BY THE COURT:   I believe he was talking about
11                  size.   He didn't talk about the rest of it.

12                  BY MR. EVANS:   Well, there was a conversation
13                  about their shoes, Your Honor.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   May we approach, Judge?

15                  BY THE COURT:   Uh-hum.

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   He can bring the children
17                  here if he would like.

18                  (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
19                  THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

20                  BY MR. EVANS:   So can he.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   First of all, I was cross-
22                  examining his statement that he checked, and then
23                  when he said he checked, then I showed that 24                  actually he didn't check.   He just talked to the 25                  father, and the father made a statement about the 26                  shoe size.   There was no-- we didn't touch anything
27                  about anything the children said.   I have never 28                  asked him what the children said, so what the 29                  children said is directly and totally hearsay

1 unless he wants to bring them here.

2 BY THE COURT: He didn't ask about what the
3 children said. He didn't ask that question.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Okay, Your Honor, I remember it
5 differently but--

6 BY THE COURT: --He did get into conversation
7 about the father, but he didn't -- the only
8 question--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It was just about size.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he was--

11 BY THE COURT: --Let me think just a second.
12 What about the child talking about the shoe being a
13 12?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, no. The child didn't
15 say the shoe was 12.

16 BY THE COURT: I think he did.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no, Judge, in the 18 transcript -- let's read the transcript. The 19 father says that the shoe was 12.

20 BY THE COURT: I'm not talking about what was 21 in any transcript. It's what he was asked today.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I never asked him if the 23 child told him the shoe was 12, and they know
24 that. I asked him if the father told him the shoe
25 was 12, and he said yes. The father told him the 26 shoe was 12, and the child ain't told him nothing.

27 BY MR. EVANS: He has impeached him on saying
28 you didn't actually look at the shoe. You were 29 going by what the child--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I didn't--

2 BY MR. EVANS: --told and the father told-- may
3 I finish? You asked him, you went by what the 4 children and the father told you about the shoes,
5 didn't you?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, to be absolutely
7 certain, Judge, I want you to be able to check the 8 integrity of what he said. Can we look back and 9 look at the transcript? Look at the transcript.
10 She doesn't have to look back that far to find
11 that. Let's see what the child, let's see if the 12 child's name is ever mentioned. He knows I never 13 mentioned the child--

14 (Both Counsel talking at the same time.)

15 BY MR. HORAN: --impeachment was to prove that 16 he didn't actually check the shoes, that he was 17 basing his opinion on the representations from the 18 father and the child. He has got to--

19 BY THE COURT: --I'm going to--

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Can we check, please? I'm 21 asking that we check the transcript.

22 BY THE COURT: Even if it's true, I think what
23 Mr. Horan said is correct. I'm going to allow it.
24 I think you opened it up.

25 END BENCH CONFERENCE

26 BY MR. EVANS:

27 Q. Mr. Johnson, when you talked with the children and 28 their father, were you able to determine from them whether 29 they had ever owned any Fila shoes or not?

1           A.    The father said that Marcus had never owned any
2   Fila tennis shoes or Lemarcus, and he brought him to the 3   police department. We actually looked at his shoe size and 4   both of which, the child and the father denied that he had
5   ever owned any Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, the child testified in
7   court the last time--

8           BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may we approach
9   the bench?

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I haven't got a problem with
11   that.

12          BY MR. EVANS: May we approach the bench?

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: He knows the child testified.

14          BY MR. EVANS: I also know what else the child
15   said if we want to get into testimony--

16          BY THE COURT: --I want y'all to come up here.

17          (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
18   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

19          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I strongly object
20   to him trying to throw out testimony in front of 21   this jury that is not before this jury.

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: What I--

23          BY MR. EVANS: --I would ask that he be 24   directed not to.

25          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will find you the 26   transcript. The child walked in the court, and he
27   tried to impeach him and couldn't, and he testified
28   that he had-- now how are you going to let him do
29   that, Judge, when I didn't ask that question. He

1           had no report to verify it. The last time he was
2           asked about how he checked the shoes he didn't
3           mention the child. I didn't mention the child, and
4           now he is going to throw out what the child says
5           and preclude me from going into that? The child
6           said when he came--

7           BY MR. HORAN: --well--

8           (Both Counsel talked at the same time.)

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me, excuse me,
10          excuse me. You want the child to say that he
11          didn't hold--

12          BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may we talk a
13          little bit lower?

14          BY THE COURT: Wait, Wait. Hold on.

15                    END BENCH CONFERENCE.

16          BY THE COURT: The jury needs to go out.

17                    JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

18          (NOTE: After the jury left the courtroom, the 19          Court asked the Court Reporter to read back the 20          testimony of Mr. John Johnson concerning questions
21          asked about the shoe size of the children of Connie
22          Moore which began with what is now page 2437, line
23          2 of this transcript and continuing for several 24          pages concerning the shoes. Following the 25          readback, there was the following further
26          discussion at the bench with the jury out:)

27          BY THE COURT: There is nothing in that 28          testimony where anything was elicited verbally from 29          the children, from the child.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Can I say one other
2 thing, Judge? There is also nothing in there when
3 we talked about the type of the shoe. The whole
4 discussion was on the size of the shoe. I think it
5 is inappropriate hearsay for them to add something
6 which is not part of the discussion. There is no
7 discussion in there about the size-- the type of 8 the shoe. The only discussion was about the size
9 of the shoe. That's the only discussion we had.
10 And so I don't think, I think it is also 11 inappropriate for them to solicit information about 12 what anybody said about the type, particularly 13 where we have been given no discovery where he ever
14 said that. We have no discovery where this man has 15 ever supposedly said that the child never had a
16 Fila shoe.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Now that is not true.

18 BY THE COURT: Well, of course, the question
19 is whether you opened it up. That's the issue.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, well, I think I opened
21 up the discussion on size. I didn't open up-- and 22 the way that I got in it, he says he checked at the 23 last trial. He says he checked. Then he comes out
24 and says the father told him.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. My ruling is that you
26 cannot ask anything in relation to any conversation
27 with the children because he has not opened that up
28 at all. You can go into what he discussed with him
29 in relation to size of those but not as to what

1 type shoe they were.

2 BY MR. HORAN: He has opened with the father
3 with reference to--

4 BY THE COURT: --He has opened that up, but he
5 didn't open up all the hearsay about doing that.
6 So I'm going-- he can go into them about what he
7 did about size.

8 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

9 BY THE COURT: (To the bailiff) Hold up. Wait
10 a minute, Jerry.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: In view of the Court's 12 ruling, can I ask that all the testimony, that the 13 Court instruct the jury that all the testimony with 14 regard to type of shoe or what anything the child
15 allegedly said be stricken?

16 BY THE COURT: Yes. I will instruct them to 17 that effect. Okay.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Can I approach the bench just a
19 second?

20 (AS THE JURY WAS STARTING TO COME BACK IN THE 21 COURTROOM, THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING CONFERENCE AT 22 THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE JURY AS
23 FOLLOWS:)

24 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't want to do
25 anything the Court does not approve of. At this
26 point I intend to ask him if he did, in fact, talk
27 with the children and their father about what kind
28 of shoes they wore, and I'm going to stop it at 29 that, but that can't be hearsay.

1                   BY THE COURT: No, that is not hearsay unless
2                   you say what they said.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: I just wanted to make sure
4                   there was no problem with the Court.

5                   BY THE COURT: That is fine.

6                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

7                                   JURY IS PRESENT.

8                   BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, a short
9                   while ago Mr. Johnson was asked by the District
10                  Attorney about some conversations with either the 11                  Moore children or their father concerning the type
12                  of shoe, rather than the size, the type of shoe. I 13                  have ruled that that was, that that is hearsay and 14                  that is inadmissible, and I instruct you that you 15                  are not to consider those hearsay statements in 16                  this case. Will each of you agree not to do that?

17                  BY THE JURORS: (Jurors either nod their heads
18                  or say "Yes, sir.")

19                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

20                  BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

21                  BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

22                  CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

23                  Q. All right, Mr. Johnson, you can't go into what--

24                               BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute; I'm sorry.
25                  Let the record reflect that the jury answered the 26                  Court's question affirmatively.

27                  BY MR. EVANS:

28                  Q. Mr. Johnson, you can't go into what you were told,
29                  but did you, in fact, talk with the children's father and the

1 children about what type of tennis shoes they owned?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Without going into what you were told, did you, in
4 fact, ask of them if they had ever had any Fila Grant Hill
5 tennis shoes?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would object to that too
7 because in view of the hearsay statements and in 8 view of the transcript of the last trial, I think
9 that's inappropriate.

10 BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all up here just a
11 second.

12 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
13 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

14 BY THE COURT: If I hadn't had to make that 15 other ruling, I think you could ask that question,
16 but in light of the fact that I did make it, I
17 think by asking it, you almost imply the answer on 18 the thing. So I think we need to move on from what 19 they were. Do you see what I mean?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Whatever the Court rules.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, you are back dooring me.

22 BY MR. EVANS: I'm trying.

23 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I know.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, my objection as to the 25 whole line of inquiry--

26 BY MR. HORAN: --Judge, you didn't say he 27 couldn't go into the father's representation. He 28 has opened the door on that. It's just the sons'
29 representations.

1                   BY THE COURT: What?

2                   BY MR. HORAN: He opened the door about the
3 father talking. That was clearly on the record.

4                   BY THE COURT: Yes, I have ruled he couldn't
5 do that though.

6                   BY MR. HORAN: Couldn't do it on the father?

7                   BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

8                   BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

9                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

10                   (Mr. Evans brings easel with pad that Mr.
11 Lumumba had been writing on over in front of the 12 jury and witness stand.)

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14               Q. Mr. Johnson, as to Mr. Kennedy that is marked up
15 here as BoJack, how positive was he in his identification of 16 the Defendant?

17               A. He was very positive.

18                               (Mr. Evans writes on pad with pink marker, 19 "positive I.D.")

20               Q. Did he know or did he not know the Defendant before
21 that date?

22               A. He did know Curtis Flowers.

23                               (Mr. Evans writes "knew" and circles it.)

24               Q. As to Mr. McChristian, did he know him before that 25 date?

26               A. Yes, he did.

27               Q. And did he ID him?

28               A. Yes.

29               Q. Did Patricia Hollman ID him?

1 A. Yes.

2 (Mr. Evans writes "I.D." on pad.)

3 Q. And did she know him before that date?

4 A. Yes.

5 (Mr. Evans writes "knew.")

6 Q. Did Katherine Snow positively ID him?

7 A. Yes.

8 (Mr. Evans writes "I.D.")

9 Q. Did Clemmie Fleming positively ID him?

10 A. Yes.

11 (Mr. Evans writes "I.D.")

12 Q. And where did she see him? What did she see him
13 doing?

14 A. He indicated to me that the first place she saw him
15 was 72 steps of my steps and 92, I think of hers from the 16 back, would be the southwest corner of Tardy's running in a
17 westwardly direction.

18 (Mr. Evans writes "Running" on pad.)

19 Q. Was he running toward or away from Tardy Furniture?

20 A. He was running away.

21 (Mr. Evans writes "away from Tardy.")

22 Q. Mary Jeanette Fleming, did she identify the
23 Defendant?

24 A. Yes, she did.

25 (Mr. Evans writes "I.D.")

26 Q. Did she already know him before that day?

27 A. Yes, she did.

28 (Mr. Evans writes "knew.")

29 Q. Charles Collins, did he identify the Defendant?

1           A.    Yes.

2                       (Writes "I.D.")

3           Q.    And where did he see him?

4           A.    In front of Tardy Furniture Store on Front Street.

5           Q.    Mr. Johnson, all of these people that you have just
6 described identifying the Defendant, what side of Highway 51
7 did they see him on on the morning of the murders?

8           A.    Patricia Hollman saw him on the west side--

9                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I object to what they saw.  I
10 think he can say what they told him.

11                      BY THE COURT:  Well, of necessity he is going 12 to have to base his answer on that.

13                      BY MR. EVANS:  May the witness finish
14 answering, Your Honor?

15                      BY THE COURT:  Uh-huh.

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17           Q.    You may continue.

18           A.    I believe all the other witnesses saw him east of 19 Highway 51-- correction, yes.  East of Highway 51.

20           Q.    Okay.  Mr. Johnson, are you very familiar with 21 Winona?

22           A.    Yes, I am.

23           Q.    I will hand you Exhibit 70.

24                      BY MR. EVANS:  First, Your Honor, may I have 25 this marked for identification?

26                      BY THE COURT:  The big one?

27                      BY MR. EVANS:  Yes, sir.

28                      BY THE COURT:  Yes.

29                               (LARGE MAP OF STREETS OF WINONA ON WHITE BOARD

1                   WAS MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-109 FOR
2                   IDENTIFICATION.)

3       BY MR. EVANS:

4           Q.     Mr. Johnson, Exhibit 70 purports to be a map of 5       Winona showing the areas in question. I will ask you to look
6       at Exhibit 109 and see if all the locations you have just
7       described are on this larger map?

8           A.     Yes. This depicts the area, yes.

9           Q.     I would like for you to take this red pen, and as I
10      go through them, I would like for you to mark the location
11      and write out beside it which location it is. Starting with,
12      can you point out on that diagram the approximate area that 13      the Defendant lived?

14          A.     He lived on McNutt. It would be right in here off
15      of Cemetery Lane on the right hand side, right in here. Go
16      ahead and mark it on the--

17          Q.     --If you would, put an "X" there and out from it
18      draw a line and put "Curtis Flowers." Well just, have you
19      already done it?

20          A.     I am working on it.

21          Q.     That's fine. Next if you would, show us where 22      Patricia Hollman lived?

23          A.     She lived right next door to Curtis Flowers.

24          Q.     All right, if you would, mark that, draw a line and 25      put her name.

26          A.     (Witness complies.)

27          Q.     Do you know the approximate area that the 28      Defendant's sister that he said he went to see that morning
29      lived?

1           A.    Over on Dennis Street.  I don't know exactly which
2 house.

3           Q.    All right, mark the approximate area as best you
4 can.  Just write "Defendant's sister."

5           A.    (Witness complies.)

6           Q.    Next I would like for you to mark the location, the 7 approximate location where Jeff's Store is located?

8           A.    It's right in here.  You want me to just--

9           Q.    --Yeah, if you would, go ahead and put an "X" there
10 and just draw a line and write "Jeff's Store."

11          A.    (Witness complies.)

12          Q.    Next show us where Mr. Kennedy lives.

13               (Witness points.)

14          A.    Draw a line?

15          Q.    Draw a line and write his name.

16          A.    (Witness complies.)

17          Q.    Next draw in approximately where the factory of 18 Angelica is located.

19          A.    With an "X"?

20          Q.    Right.  That will be fine.  And write the name of 21 the factory out by that.

22          A.    (Witness complies.)

23          Q.    Next show where Mr. McChristian stated that he saw
24 the Defendant.

25          A.    It would be approximately right here.  (Witness
26 marks on exhibit.)

27          Q.    Next draw in where Ms. Mary Jeanette Fleming saw
28 the Defendant.

29          A.    Let's see.  (Witness marks.)

1           Q.    Next draw in where Mr. Charles Collins saw the
2 Defendant.

3           A.    (Witness marks.)

4           Q.    All right, now I want you to take this blue marker
5 and draw in approximately where Tardy Furniture is located.

6           A.    (Witness marks.)

7           Q.    All right. Next show us where-- no, go back to the 8 red. Next I want you to show us where Clemmie Fleming told
9 you she saw the Defendant running.

10          A.    (Witness marks.) Where she first saw him?

11          Q.    Right. Where she first saw him.

12          A.    (Witness marks and writes.)

13          Q.    Next I want you to take this green marker and so
14 there won't be any question, I want you to draw through where 15 Highway 51 is with that green marker.

16          A.    (Witness marks.)

17                   BY MR. EVANS: All right, Your Honor, may I
18 have the witness step down?

19                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Has that been admitted into
21 evidence?

22                   BY THE COURT: No, it hasn't, I don't believe.
23 It sure hasn't.

24                   BY MR. EVANS: I offer this exhibit into
25 evidence at this point, Your Honor.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would object until I have a
27 chance to cross-examine or to voir dire, one of the 28 two. I don't want it to be frozen at this point
29 where I can't also add some comments to it, Judge.

1 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know what his objection
2 is. He can draw on any exhibit later after it's
3 entered--

4 BY THE COURT: --That's right. You can add to 5 it once it's admitted.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, if that's the case, I
7 have no objection.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. It is admitted.

9 (LARGE MAP OF WINONA ON WHITE BOARD PREVIOUSLY
10 MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-109 FOR IDENTIFICATION
11 WAS NOW ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE.)

12 BY MR. EVANS:

13 Q. Mr. Johnson, I will hand you this marker, and I'm 14 going to try to stand where the jury can see. And I'm going
15 to hold the exhibit for you. If you would, try to step back
16 to where everybody can see. I think you are blocking. Step
17 back some. You are blocking some of the jurors. If you
18 would, point out on this larger diagram where the Defendant
19 lived?

21 Q. Now is that the east or the west side of 51?

22 A. That is west of Highway 51 here.

23 Q. Okay. In his statement, I believe he said he went 24 to his sister's house; is that correct?

25 A. That's true.

26 Q. Where is that located?

27 A. Over here on Dennis Street.

28 Q. Is that east or west of 51?

29 A. That is west of Highway 51.

1 Q. And the only other place he said in his statement
2 he went that morning was Jeff's Store; is that correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Point that out to us.

5 A. Right here.

6 Q. Is that on the east or west side of Highway 51?

7 A. West.

8 Q. Next point out where Edward Kennedy also known as 9 BoJack saw the Defendant that morning.

10 A. Right here--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Continuing objection.

12 BY THE WITNESS: --at Donnager Drive--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry. Continuing
14 objection to that phraseology of the questions,
15 Judge.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay. Overruled.

17 BY THE WITNESS:

18 A. That is actually Angelica Drive now, but it is 19 marked Donnager Drive.

20 Q. All right, is that on the east or west side of 51?

21 A. That is on the east side of Highway 51.

22 Q. Okay. Next point out where the factory of Angelica
23 is actually located.

24 A. Right here.

25 Q. Okay. And they have a large parking area that goes
26 with that; is that correct?

27 A. That's true.

28 Q. Do you know basically where Doyle's car was parked
29 that morning?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. If you would, just take this ink pen and place an
3 "X" where the car was.

4 A. (Witness complies.)

5 Q. All right, next, and again-- Angelica, is that on 6 the east or west side of 51?

7 A. East.

8 Q. I believe you are blocking.

9 A. It's east of Highway 51.

10 Q. Mr. McChristian. Would you point out where he told
11 you that he saw the Defendant that morning?

12 A. Here on Academy at 602 Academy.

13 Q. All right, and where Mary Jeanette Fleming saw him?

14 A. On Campbell Street. I didn't mark it well. Right
15 here.

16 Q. Okay. Where Charles Collins saw him?

17 A. Right here.

18 Q. And where Clemmie Fleming saw him?

19 A. Right here.

20 Q. And are all of those locations on the east or west
21 side of Highway 51?

22 A. They are all east of Highway 51.

23 Q. All right, if you would take your seat again for a
24 second.

25 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

26 Q. You were specifically asked about some of the 27 statements that they gave. I will hand you your notes on 28 Katherine Snow, and I will ask you to tell exactly what 29 description was the first description she gave the person she

1 saw leaning against Doyle Simpson's car?

2 A. A dark skinned male, 25 to 30 years of age, short
3 hair, approximately 5 foot 10, stocky build; could possibly 4 I.D.

5 Q. All right. Were you present when the Defendant was 6 interviewed several times?

7 A. I was present when he was interviewed the first
8 time.

9 Q. Okay. What time in the first time did he tell you
10 that he got up?

11 A. He said about 6:30 A M that morning.

12 Q. What time did he tell you in that first statement
13 he went to his sister's?

14 A. I think that was 9:30 A M.

15 Q. And what time did he tell you he went to Jeff's
16 Store?

17 A. I really need to refer to my notes to verify.

18 Q. You can.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, may we approach?

20 (Brief pause.) Never mind.

21 BY THE WITNESS:

22 A. Can I answer the question?

23 Q. Yes, if you had a chance to look at them.

24 A. 10:30 AM is when he went to Jeff's Store.

25 Q. Okay.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I just see what notes the 27 officer is looking at, please?

28 BY MR. EVANS: Same notes you have been
29 furnished.

1 (Notes were shown to Mr. Lumumba.)

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q. You were also asked about taking so long to show
4 Mr. Collins the lineup. Was there some reason that it took
5 longer to show him the lineup than it did Ms. Snow?

6 A. Almost immediately-- I don't know the exact days,
7 but almost immediately after this, Fuzzy Jones, his 8 brother-in-law, had a major heart problem and was 9 hospitalized for a long time. And it made it very difficult
10 to set up the appointment. We did try to communicate with 11 him to set that up.

12 Q. All right, and you were also asked about Mr.
13 Collins' shoe size. Were you able to observe his shoes?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What did you notice about them?

16 A. He was wearing low quarters the day that I saw him,
17 and they were a lot smaller than a ten and a half in 18 appearance.

19 BY MR. EVANS: May I have the Court's
20 indulgence for just a moment.

21 (Pause while State's Counsel confer.)

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23 Q. Mr. Johnson, you remember a person by the name of 24 Roy Harris?

25 A. Yes, I remember Roy.

26 Q. Did you have an occasion to talk to Roy Harris?

27 A. Yes, I did.

28 Q. What did he tell you?

29 A. He told me that he had given Clemmie Fleming a ride

1 downtown, and that she was supposed to pay her furniture
2 bill. And at that point she told him to turn right and not
3 to stop for some reason and went down near the intersection
4 of Carrollton Avenue and Church Street, that she mentioned
5 something about Curtis Flowers.

6 Q. All right. Did you make any special attempt to 7 find out exactly what path he took that morning?

8 A. I did.

9 Q. Explain to the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
10 what you did.

11 A. I asked a police officer to carry us, and I asked
12 Roy to get in the car with me and drive the route that he 13 traveled.

14 Q. And what route did he go?

15 A. From near the police station on, I think that is 16 Quitman, Liberty Street to Front Street, south on Front
17 Street just past Tardy Furniture, turned right on Carrollton
18 Avenue going west; from there to Church south until Powell
19 Street; from there to 51 Highway and then right on 51
20 Highway.

21 Q. Did the trail that Roy Harris took you on and 22 showed you, was it the same trail that Clemmie Fleming had 23 told you that they took?

24 A. Exactly.

25 Q. And what did he say was going on at the point that
26 Clemmie Fleming said something about seeing Curtis Flowers?

27 A. He indicated that he, that when he turned south on 28 Church Street, that he got a glimpse of somebody in the rear
29 view mirror running across this vacant lot on to Campbell

1 Street, towards Campbell Street. A black male with rounded
2 features wearing a white T-shirt.

3 Q. And what did Clemmie Fleming say at the point he 4 saw that person?

5 A. Something about Curtis Flowers.

6 Q. What did Roy Harris tell you as far as whether he 7 could or could not identify the person that he saw in the 8 rear view mirror?

9 A. He indicated that he could not.

10 Q. Did you have an occasion to attempt to interview
11 some people as far as trying to follow up the Defendant's
12 statement as to where he said he was that morning? As far as 13 his sister, his girlfriend, folks like that?

14 A. I attempted to, but I was unable to get up with
15 them.

16 Q. Did any of them come in to talk to you?

17 A. His brother Archie Flowers talked to me.

18 Q. How about his girlfriend or his sister?

19 A. I talked to some people that had reference to 20 girlfriend but specifically-- oh.

21 Q. Talking about Connie Moore?

22 A. She indicated that she was at work at Richardson
23 Brothers.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

25 BY THE COURT: Sustained. That wasn't
26 responsive. Sustained as to that.

27 BY MR. EVANS:

28 Q. Mr. Johnson, there has been testimony about this
29 being the shoe box that was recovered from the Defendant's

1 bedroom. Are you familiar with this shoe box?

2 A. Yes, I am.

3 Q. What was the condition of that shoe box - what
4 would it be, roughly a year and a half ago when it was 5 recovered from his bedroom?

6 A. It was in better condition than this. As far as,
7 you know, smoother, straighter, more rigid and all. I can
8 see, looks like fingerprint powder, etc. on it; I'm not sure,
9 some kind of dust and soiled. It was cleaner than that.

10 Q. Mr. Johnson, what, if any, reason would you have to 11 try to get all these people to lie on this Defendant?

12 A. I have no such reason.

13 Q. Did all of these people that you have gone through
14 and shown on this diagram, did each of them positively
15 identify for you the Defendant Curtis Flowers?

16 A. Yes, they did.

17 Q. Did you in any way try to influence any of them as 18 to who to identify?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

21 Q. When you talked with Clemmie Fleming, the girl that 22 told you she saw the Defendant running from Tardy Furniture,
23 what was her demeanor?

24 A. She was real nervous and upset.

25 Q. Did she tell you why?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

27 BY MR. EVANS: I haven't asked what she said
28 yet. I just asked if she told him why.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay, he can answer that

1 question but no further.

2 BY THE WITNESS:

3 A. Yes.

4 BY MR. EVANS: That's all we have, Your Honor.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a few others questions.

6 RECROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7 Q. Sometimes people look real nervous and upset when
8 they are lying; right, officer?

9 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we were not allowed
10 to go into that. I would be glad for him to answer
11 his question.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I haven't asked what she
13 said.

14 Q. I am asking do sometimes people look nervous and 15 upset when they are lying? Isn't that true?

16 A. That is possible. I don't know.

17 Q. Okay, so you don't, you didn't know her prior to 18 the time you first talked to her. Isn't that correct?

19 A. I knew Clemmie Fleming to see her. Is that what 20 you are saying?

21 Q. You did know her before that date of this 22 incident?

23 A. Yeah, I think I knew Clemmie Fleming to see her.

24 Q. To see her, but you knew nothing else about her;
25 right?

26 A. No, I didn't really know her.

27 Q. You didn't know if she was a liar or a person that 28 generally told the truth. You didn't know that, did you?

29 A. I had no knowledge of that.

1           Q.    Okay, and Officer, I don't think anyone has ever
2   said that you forced anybody to say that they saw Curtis.  I
3   haven't said that to you, that you forced anybody.  I haven't
4   said that to you, have I?

5           A.    No.

6           Q.    No, okay.  But I have asked you questions about
7   what people said and how they said it.  I have asked you
8   questions about exactly what they told you; right?

9           A.    Would you repeat that question, please?

10          Q.    I have asked you questions about exactly what the 11   people told you; isn't that true?  About descriptions and 12   things of that nature; I have asked you those questions?

13          A.    Generally yes, I will answer that question.

14          Q.    Well, I am missing my marker here.  Oh, here we
15   go.  Before I accuse somebody else.  Let me see.  And as I
16   look for Clemmie Fleming's name on here, that is important.
17   In other words, the reason you take notes on descriptions of 18   what people say because it's important to see if their 19   identifications are actually accurate first of all; right?

20          A.    That can be a reason to do that, yes.

21          Q.    Right.  And you do that because you want to check
22   what they say now versus what they said then.  You want to 23   make notes so you can always see how consistent they are;
24   right?

25          A.    That is possible.

26          Q.    And you're also possible and good police work to 27   see how what one person says compared to what another person
28   says; right?  You want to check it; right?

29          A.    You record all the information, yes.

1 Q. Okay, well, in one-- well, for instance, Clemmie
2 Fleming, who was riding with Roy Harris; is that correct?
3 She said she was riding with Roy Harris; right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. By the way, you went by and showed Roy
6 Harris a photograph and asked him if that was the man he saw
7 running. Didn't you do that?

8 A. I did not.

9 Q. Did you show him any photograph?

10 A. I did not.

11 Q. Okay, you never showed him a photograph, okay. By 12 the way, did you have anywhere in your notes where it says
13 here that Roy Harris said that he could not identify the 14 man? Do you have that anywhere?

15 A. I do not. Not on this note.

16 Q. Do you have a note anywhere where Roy Harris in the 17 world? Did you write down a note anywhere in the world that 18 said that?

19 A. The only information may be in his statement.

20 Q. Where he says he could not identify the man. Is 21 that in his statement?

22 A. I don't know if it is or not.

23 Q. We will get back to that. Well, let me ask you
24 this. Clemmie Fleming, she indicated that she saw somebody
25 running around about 10 o'clock, didn't she?

26 A. Approximately 10 o'clock.

27 Q. About 10 o'clock. And when you compare-- and she 28 said she saw somebody running. She never said that she saw 29 anybody in Tardy Furniture, did she?

1 A. She did not.

2 Q. Never said she saw somebody right at Tardy
3 Furniture, did she?

4 A. 93 of her steps from Tardy's.

5 Q. 93 of hers, 72 of yours. That is not right at 6 Tardy's. That is out in the middle of the street some place,
7 isn't it?

8 A. That is 72 of my steps from the back of Tardy's.

9 Q. Well, that is not right at Tardy's. Would you
10 agree with me that is not right up against--

11 A. In my opinion it is pretty close to Tardy's.

12 Q. Well, I know that is your opinion now, but listen
13 to my question.

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. Is that up against Tardy's?

16 A. It's not touching Tardy's building.

17 Q. Okay. It's not coming out of the door?

18 A. It is 72 steps.

19 Q. Is it coming out of the door?

20 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think--

21 BY THE COURT: --he has answered the
22 question--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --this witness has clearly
24 answered--

25 BY THE COURT: Let's move on.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but Judge, I don't know
27 if there is any reason why he can't answer my 28 questions rather than--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --I believe he has.

1                   BY THE COURT: Because he did twice.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3           Q.    In any event, let's move on. 10 A M, right? And
4   actually Mr. Porky Collins said he saw two black males out in
5   front of Tardy's right about the same time; right? 10 A M,
6   didn't he say that? 9:55 to 10 o'clock; isn't that what he
7   told you?

8           A.    I would have to review that.

9           Q.    Have you got his statement there? Take a good look
10   at it.

11                   (Pause while the witness reads. Mr. Lumumba
12   gets out easel with pad on it.)

13           Q.    Do you have your handwritten notes you took of Mr.
14   Collins on the 16th?

15           A.    Okay. In front of Tardy's about 9:15 to 9:20 A M.

16           Q.    Oh. He said he saw somebody about 9:15 to 9:20.
17   Is that when he saw these two men?

18           A.    That's what, that's the note I took on the 16th.

19           Q.    I see. So on the 16th he told you between 9:15 and 20   9:20, and according to your estimation or terms, the 21   investigation you conducted, the people didn't even die
22   until, until 10 o'clock. Am I right?

23           A.    I don't know exactly what time they died. I know
24   that--

25           Q.    --Well, let me strike that question and ask you
26   this one. The other gentleman, Mr. Sam Jones, indicated that 27   he came in there around about 9:30 or so, and they were 28   deceased. Is that correct?

29           A.    I'm not sure that that is correct. I would have to

1 look at Mr. Jones' statement.

2 Q. Okay, well, I think the jury has heard Mr. Jones'
3 testimony. Well, let me ask you this. Now Porky Collins
4 having said that he saw somebody about 9:15 or 9:20, two--
5 what did he say they looked like? Two medium complexion
6 men?

7 A. Two black males, medium complexion.

8 Q. Now the woman that you said that-- and the woman,
9 Ms. Snow, she said she saw somebody in Angelica's parking
10 lot. She didn't say they were medium complexion, did she?
11 She said it was a dark complected man. Isn't that what she
12 said?

13 A. Dark skin, 25 to 30 years of age, short hair--

14 Q. --Okay, listen to my question. She said a dark
15 skinned man that she saw; right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. He said he saw two medium skinned men; right?

18 A. That was his description, yes.

19 Q. Okay, that was his as opposed to her. But then
20 again people described clothing to you too; right?

21 A. Sure.

22 Q. And when they described clothing to you, Ms.
23 Fleming, Ms. Jeanette Fleming said the person that she saw,
24 and she said she saw him around 9 o'clock; isn't that
25 correct?

26 A. I didn't take the statement from her, but I think
27 close to that time.

28 Q. And she indicated that they had black pants and a
29 white shirt on. Is that correct?

1 A. I didn't take that statement, but I assume.

2 Q. You wouldn't deny that; right?

3 A. I wouldn't deny it.

4 Q. Well, if you saw that she said they had white pants
5 and-- and a white shirt and dark pants and then you know --
6 you did take the statement from BoJack; right?

7 A. I did.

8 Q. And BoJack, you took his statement some, on 9 9-17-96, some two months after the time; is that correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay, and let me see if I understand you
12 correctly. First of all, we know, of course, and you know,
13 of course, you were not out there at that time; right?

14 A. No, I was not out there.

15 Q. So there is no way that you can tell us that BoJack
16 saw anything actually of your own knowledge. All you can
17 tell us is what BoJack said; right?

18 A. I can tell you what BoJack Kennedy told me that he 19 saw.

20 Q. Well, see that's the answer to my question, yes.
21 Right? Is that right?

22 A. I hope so.

23 Q. Okay, did you, did he tell -- the only thing you
24 can tell us is what BoJack said about what he saw; is that
25 right?

26 A. As far as what Mr. Kennedy said, that's all I can 27 tell you.

28 Q. And you have to tell us then that he said he saw
29 long white pants and a black sweater. Is that correct?

1           A.    If that's what he said, yes.

2           Q.    And that's, and you don't know of your own personal
3 knowledge whether he saw that on the 16th or whether he saw
4 Mr. Flowers on some other day, do you, personally?

5           A.    He told me directly on the 16th.

6           Q.    No. Do you understand my question?

7           A.    No, sir.

8           Q.    You don't know of your personal knowledge because 9 you didn't make any observations as to what day he saw him,
10 if he saw him at all. Isn't that true?

11          A.    I didn't see him on the 16th at that time--

12          Q.    --Okay, so basically whenever you said this is what 13 Mr. BoJack saw or this is what Clemmie saw, what you were 14 really saying is what they told you; right?

15          A.    Exactly.

16          Q.    And the same person that told you that he saw him
17 on the 16th told you that he had long white pants on and a
18 black sweater; isn't that correct?

19          A.    Mr. Kennedy, yes.

20          Q.    And that same person told you about him on the same
21 day, he was talking about the same day that Patricia Hollman
22 was talking about who said she saw him between, around about 23 7:30, and he had a black windbreaker pants on which is 24 actually the opposite of a pair of white pants. Is that
25 correct?

26          A.    True.

27          Q.    And she said that he had a white T-shirt on at the 28 same time that this man said he had a black sweater on; is
29 that right?

1 A. Not at the same time, no.

2 Q. Okay, well, he said he saw him around about 7:15 to
3 7:30. Is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. She saw him about 7:30 or before, somewhere between 6 7:00 and 7:30; right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. She saw him come into the house, stay in the house
9 about 20 minutes, and then leave in that same time period;
10 right?

11 A. That's what she said, yes.

12 Q. And he had the same clothes on when she saw him
13 come in and the same clothes when she saw him go out; is that
14 right?

15 A. I think that's correct, yeah.

16 Q. And even if you say it's not the same time, there
17 is certainly no more than 10 minutes difference anywhere in 18 there; is that correct? On this man that had long white
19 pants on when one person saw him and black windbreaker pants
20 on when another person saw him; isn't that correct?

21 A. Possibly, yes.

22 Q. It would also be correct, would it not be, that 23 that is the same person that Jeanette Fleming claims she saw 24 on that same day. Now Jeanette Fleming didn't even come to 25 you, didn't even talk to you until 2-13-97; isn't that
26 correct?

27 A. I'm not sure of the date. I didn't take that
28 statement.

29 Q. Well, you know it was well after a reward had been

1 offered and published in the paper many times; isn't that
2 correct?

3 A. Possibly, but I can't swear to that.

4 Q. She says the same man that BoJack said he saw with 5 long white pants on had black pants, dressy pants; right?

6 A. I don't remember that. If it's in the statement,
7 that's what he said.

8 Q. If it's in the statement that he also said-- that
9 she also said that he had a white shirt and he was dressy,
10 sort of dressy; right?

11 A. Yeah, if that's what was in the statement.

12 Q. And you remember her telling you the sort of 13 dressy, maybe it was a white button up shirt. It wasn't a 14 T-shirt. She said it was a white dress shirt. Isn't that 15 what she told you?

16 A. I think I explained. I didn't get the statement
17 from Mary Jeanette Fleming.

18 Q. Okay, but if she said that he had a white dress
19 shirt and if she told us that when she was on the stand and a
20 dressy black pants--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, this witness
22 doesn't know what different witnesses testified to,
23 and that is improper.

24 BY THE COURT: That is an improper question.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Okay, white dressy pants. I mean, excuse me; black
27 dressy pants and white shirt. You would agree with me that 28 is certainly different than long white pants; right?

29 A. There is some difference in that, yeah.

1 Q. And it is a definite, certainly different than a
2 white shirt and a black sweater. There is a lot of 3 difference in that too; right?

4 A. There is a difference in it.

5 Q. And it would be safe to say that both of those are 6 different than a black windbreaker pants made of silky
7 looking substance; right?

8 A. That's true too.

9 Q. It would also be safe to say that both of those are 10 different than a white T-shirt. Wouldn't that be true?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. 5'6" is certainly different than 5'10"; is that
13 correct?

14 A. Yes, it is.

15 Q. And the statement that you taped that Mrs. Snow
16 gave you, her statement, her words out of her mouth was that 17 the man was 5'6"; isn't that correct?

18 A. I think-- I'm not looking at it. In an interview
19 prior to the taping of the statement, she said he was 5 foot
20 10--

21 Q. Oh, I see, but then when you turned the tape on,
22 she just changed--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may the witness
24 finish his answer before he interrupts?

25 BY THE COURT: That's right. You both can't
26 talk at the same time.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Go right ahead.

29 A. And when I asked her in the interview prior to this

1 did she make a different measurement there, then was it not
2 5'10," that's what she corrected it to, 5'10".

3 Q. I see. So she had said 5'10," but then when you
4 turned the tape on, she said 5'6"?

5 A. When she started her statement, yes.

6 Q. And you had to correct her?

7 A. I didn't have to correct her. I pointed out to her
8 and she corrected herself.

9 Q. I see. I see. All right, now but anyway, she is 10 supposed to be looking at a person between 7:00 and 7:30 in 11 Angelica parking lot; right?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And 7:00 and 7:30, that is the same time, between 14 those same hours is the time that Ms. Hollman said she saw 15 the man come into the house and then leave out 20 minutes
16 later; right?

17 A. Same approximate time, yes.

18 Q. And Angelica is at least 12 to 15 minutes walk away
19 from the home of Mr. Flowers. Isn't that correct?

20 A. Less than 12.

21 Q. Well, the last time that you testified in a hearing
22 you said 12 to 14, didn't you? Now it's less than 12;
23 right? What did you say the last time?

24 A. It's a little over 12 minutes, I think, if you walk
25 from their house at a brisk pace back down Cemetery Lane,
26 east on Powell to 51, south on 51 to Angelica, and then
27 straight to where the car was of the front door. If you cut
28 through by Wal-Mart, it's a lot shorter.

29 Q. I see. I see. And the last time you told us from

1 yes, I can't swear that I carried each one of them, but I
2 have made direct communication with them to verify the exact
3 locations.

4 Q. Well, let's visit the locations again. And can you
5 approach the jurors, please.

6 A. Sure.

7 (Witness steps down in front of Exhibit S-109.)

8 Q. This is Mr., this is the home on McNutt Street.

9 A. That is Tardy Furniture Store.

10 Q. I'm sorry. This is Tardy Furniture Store; is that
11 correct?

12 A. Uh-hum.

13 Q. And then there is a place on McNutt Street which is 14 over here on the other side of 51; is that correct?

15 A. That is correct.

16 Q. And that would be-- you have to step back so the 17 jurors can see. That would be the home of Curtis Flowers; is 18 that correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And that's when he was wearing, according to the 21 witness, black silky pants and a white T-shirt; right? At 22 this point?

23 A. Well, that was what Patricia Hollman said, yes.

24 Q. Okay. Well, she is the witness that you talked to;
25 right?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. Okay, why don't you put that down there. Silky
28 black pants. You can abbreviate if you like?

29 A. Can I hold it up where I can write on it?

1 Q. Yes, sir. Silky black pants.

2 A. (Witness writes on Exhibit S-91.)

3 Q. White T-shirt.

4 A. (Witness writes.)

5 Q. And put between 7:00 and 7:30 AM.

6 A. (Witness complies.)

7 Q. And we won't write that down there, but we remember
8 that he stayed in the house at least 20 minutes; right,
9 according to her statement?

10 A. At one point she said he went in the house for some 11 time, yes.

12 Q. And she said 20 minutes. Do you want to check
13 that?

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, are we talking
15 about her testimony, what she said to the officer,
16 the investigator or what? I am completely lost
17 now.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --I would ask that he direct
20 his attention to specifically whatever he is asking 21 him about.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. She told you in her taped statement that he stayed
24 in there for about 20 minutes. Isn't that correct?

25 A. That is, yes, at one point.

26 Q. Now let me ask you this. Oh, she changed it later
27 on?

28 A. No, I have no knowledge of her changing anything.

29 Q. Okay. Well, now we have her describing at one

1 point. Now the other person that you said described somebody
2 was Mr. Edward Kennedy. He is down here on what is called--
3 what is that Donnager?

4 A. It's Angelica Drive. It used to be Donnager
5 Drive.

6 Q. Okay. By the way, the plant is all the way down
7 here at the end, right on Church Street; right? The corner
8 of Church and Angelica Drive; is that correct?

9 A. It is down next to Church Street there. That is 10 south Church, or Old Highway 51.

11 Q. Okay, so if somebody put it up here at this line
12 right even with Academy directly, what we would call this 13 directly south of Academy, that would be incorrect. The 14 plant is actually down here?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Alongside Church; is that correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. Now the plant is Edward Kennedy. He said
19 that he saw someone also between about 7:15 and 7:30, didn't
20 he?

21 A. I think that's correct.

22 Q. Okay, why don't you put that time there.

23 A. (Witness writes on Exhibit S-91.)

24 Q. And he indicated the person had long white pants
25 and a black sweater; right? Correct?

26 A. If that's correct. (Witness writes.) And a long
27 white sweater?

28 Q. Long white pants and black sweater. You took the 29 statement; right? You took it?

1           A.    Yeah.

2                   BY MR. EVANS:  Your Honor, I believe he is
3           asking him what he wants him to write.

4   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5           Q.    Well, I want you to write what you took from him.
6   If that is different than that, then you can change it.

7           A.    I would like to refer to my statement on it.

8           Q.    Very good.  Would you like to refer to your 9   statement?  Feel at home.  I notice you didn't have to refer
10   to your statement when the prosecution was asking you to 11   write stuff down.  Is there a reason for that?

12          A.    I knew where the locations were.

13          Q.    Okay.  You just don't know the description?

14          A.    (Pause while witness looks through papers.)

15          Q.    Do you have, you have it there?

16          A.    I may have it.

17          Q.    Go right ahead.

18          A.    (More pause while witness looks through papers.)

19          Q.    Do you have Mr. Kennedy's taped statement?

20          A.    Possibly.

21          Q.    Can you get that for me, please.

22          A.    Sure.  (Pause.)  Gray short sleeve, jersey type
23   shirt.  Write all that on here?

24          Q.    If you like; go right ahead.  So what you are 25   saying is--

26          A.    --you are asking me to--

27          Q.    --excuse me; excuse me.  What we are going to do
28   here is ask you this.  Did Mr. Kennedy give you a taped
29   statement?  I would like to know what came, the words that we

1 have recorded out of his mouth saying that the man had a
2 black sweater on and a long, and white pants. Did he tape a
3 statement saying that?

4 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have not objected
5 to him going into the clothing that these people
6 gave. I did not go into any taped statements. I
7 don't think it is proper, and I think it is just
8 irrelevant at this point.

9 BY THE COURT: You asked him on all these 10 people if he was positive of their--

11 BY MR. EVANS: --Yes, sir--

12 BY THE COURT: --positive of their I.D.

13 BY MR. EVANS: And I'm not objecting to his 14 identification. I am just objecting to the 15 relevance of going back and pulling the statements
16 out. He can ask him. I have no problem with him
17 asking about his identification.

18 BY THE COURT: Well, I think it is opened up.

19 BY THE WITNESS:

20 A. I believe he had on a black sweater and white
21 pants.

22 Q. Is that what he says there?

23 A. Then he said, then he indicated that, said, I
24 thought it might have been a gray, "might have been a gray
25 jersey T type shirt or short sleeve shirt." He said, "It was 26 gray?" "That is right." "Was it gray or black?" "You know,
27 a gray jersey with a little black ink."

28 Q. Okay, so--

29 A. "What kind of pants did he have on?" "White

1 pants."

2 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. When you, that is
3 interesting. Now here is a man who starts off by telling you
4 a person had a black sweater on; right? Is that correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And then upon further questioning, he moves to the 7 point of saying that a man had on a gray shirt with a little
8 black ink; right?

9 A. I think he is trying to be more descriptive.

10 Q. Well, doesn't that kind of bother you a little bit
11 that he moved all the way from a black sweater to a gray
12 shirt with a little black ink? Didn't that disturb you a
13 little bit, make him sound like he was a little bit uncertain
14 of what he was talking about? Didn't it bother you?

15 A. I think he was trying to be accurate with what he 16 was telling me.

17 Q. Well, do you think when he told you a black
18 sweater, he wasn't trying to be accurate?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Well, we will keep in mind that he said after he 21 said a black sweater with white pants, that he went on to 22 describe that this black sweater was actually a gray short
23 sleeve shirt with a little, tiny or little with some black
24 writing on it. We will remember that; okay?

25 A. Black ink.

26 Q. Black ink.

27 A. I don't know whether he was trying to say it had 28 some black color mixed in it or what.

29 Q. I see, but that still doesn't make it a white

1 T-shirt, does it?

2 A. No.

3 Q. And that is what Patricia Hollman said it was;
4 right?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. That still doesn't make it a dressy white shirt,
7 does it?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. Mary Fleming, she 10 indicated on the day she saw the man, and Mary Fleming's
11 statement is not taken until sometime after January. Isn't
12 that correct?

13 A. I'm not, like I said, I didn't take her statement
14 but--

15 Q. Do you have a copy of her statement?

16 A. No, I don't think I do. I may have. No, I don't 17 have a copy of her statement.

18 Q. Okay. We will just stand on the record for 19 whatever she said for that, but in any event, whenever she 20 talked to you, Mary Fleming whenever she talked to the 21 police, you would not disagree that she indicated that the 22 man had a long white shirt or had a white dress shirt or just 23 to be more specific, a white shirt and black dressy pants.
24 You are not going to deny that, are you?

25 A. No.

26 Q. Okay, why don't you write that down.

27 A. White dressy shirt?

28 Q. And dressy pants, black dressy pants?

29 A. (Witness writes on Exhibit S-109.)

1           Q.    Now you would agree that those black dressy pants,
2   there is a conflict between that and white pants; right?

3           A.    Sure.

4           Q.    There is a conflict between a white shirt and a
5   black sweater; right?

6           A.    Sure.

7           Q.    There is a conflict between black dressy pants and 8   black silky looking windbreaker pants?

9           A.    Sure.

10          Q.    Okay.  There is a conflict between a white T-shirt
11   and a white dress shirt?

12          A.    Yeah.

13          Q.    It could be that two people saw the same man on two 14   different days.  That happens sometimes; right?

15          A.    I'm not going to say that, what it could be there.
16   These people were very specific they saw him on the day of 17   the murders there in Winona.

18          Q.    And they were very specific about what he had on 19   when they saw him; right?

20          A.    To their knowledge, yes.

21          Q.    Well, their knowledge, that's all we are dealing 22   with.  When they made their identification, it was based on 23   their knowledge; right?

24          A.    Correct.

25          Q.    They were thinking out of the same heads that gave 26   you the description of the clothes; right?

27          A.    Correct.

28          Q.    You had no more reason because you weren't present
29   to feel that the clothing description was any more accurate

1 than the physical description. Isn't that right?

2 A. I had no reason to question what they told me about
3 the clothing.

4 Q. Did Curtis Flowers in his statement, that statement
5 we talked about, the one where he told you he didn't have a
6 problem with Ms. Tardy; he said that in the statement;
7 right?

8 A. He said that.

9 Q. He said he wasn't upset; right?

10 A. He indicated that he was not upset about that.

11 Q. Okay, in that same statement that he gave you, did
12 he ever tell you that I have never walked down Academy
13 Street? Did he ever tell you that?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Did he ever tell you that I have never walked down
16 Church Street or Campbell Street?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Did he ever tell you that I have never walked past
19 or down, down past Anguilla [sic] Drive past BoJack's house?
20 Did he ever tell you that?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did he ever tell you I never walked past
23 McChristian's house?

24 A. No.

25 Q. He said on that day I didn't. That's what he said;
26 right?

27 A. He said on that day he didn't go east of Highway 51
28 at any time.

29 Q. And he told you that the day of the incident;

1 right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you have got people here making statements that
4 didn't talk to you until a week later, and in some instances
5 you have got people making statements about people who were
6 supposed to have known Curtis Flowers that didn't talk to you
7 until almost 7 and 8 months later was the first time that
8 they talked to you as it relates to Clemmie Fleming. Isn't
9 that correct?

10 A. That's true about Clemmie Fleming, yes.

11 Q. And it is also true about Mary Fleming. She 12 didn't talk to you until many, many months later. Is that
13 right?

14 A. It was some time later before she came forward.

15 Q. And I think I asked you before; most people's 16 memories tend to fade over time, but you don't know about 17 these people; right?

18 A. Some people can lose memory after time, yes.

19 Q. Clemmie Fleming's statement was made in April of
20 1997; isn't that correct?

21 A. I think that's correct.

22 Q. Tell me when -- maybe this will refresh your 23 memory.

24 (Mr. Lumumba hands document to the witness.)

25 A. April 11th, '97.

26 Q. She is the niece of Jeanette Fleming; is that
27 correct?

28 A. I don't know their relationship, but they are 29 distantly related. I don't know exactly what.

1 Q. Did you know that she was a cousin of Latarsha
2 Blissett?

3 A. No. I didn't know that.

4 Q. Okay, could you approach one more time, please?

5 A. Sure.

6 (Witness steps down in front of board.)

7 Q. Now she told you she saw him out there around about 8 10 o'clock; is that correct?

9 A. Who are you talking about?

10 Q. Clemmie Fleming.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Do you see Clemmie Fleming? You have got Clemmie
13 Fleming right here.

14 A. (Witness points.)

15 Q. And this is Tardy's here; right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. This is where she first saw the man?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay, now you are saying-- that is an interesting
20 observation, by the way. You are saying that she saw the man
21 72 feet away from Tardy's. Well, if you were to point to 72
22 feet in this courtroom, how far would that be?

23 A. I didn't say 72.

24 Q. Well, 72 steps.

25 A. 74, I think.

26 Q. 74. Where would that be? Show-- how many of your 27 steps?

28 A. It's almost, it would be real close to 74 yards.

29 Q. 74 yards? That is almost a football field; is that

1 right?

2 A. A football field is a hundred foot plus the end
3 zone-- a hundred yards plus the end zone.

4 Q. I'm sorry; let's just talk about the playing
5 field. 74 yards is only 25 yards short of a football field;
6 right?

7 A. 74 would be 26.

8 Q. Well, 26 yards from a football field; is that
9 right?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. She never saw the man she saw any closer than 75
12 yards to Tardy's; is that right?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And you have characterized that as running from 15 Tardy's? How do you know where the man was during those 75
16 yards? How do you know he was ever at Tardy's?

17 A. I never said he was at Tardy's. I said he was 18 right at Tardy's where she saw him running from.

19 Q. 75 yards is right at Tardy's?

20 A. I consider it real close, yes. I told you it
21 wasn't right up against it, but it's close.

22 Q. You can't even point the 75 yards to a point in 23 this courtroom, can you?

24 A. No. You can't either.

25 Q. Well, true. I admit that. I mean in other words,
26 it is so far away that you would be out of this courtroom
27 pointing to it; isn't that right?

28 A. I don't know exactly how far it is across the hall
29 and where those other rooms. I can't swear to that.

1 Q. But it is out of the courtroom, the point you are
2 talking about?

3 A. It is out of this room right here, yes.

4 Q. And she never saw the person she saw at any time
5 prior to the time she saw him at that spot; right? At the 6 that 75 yards away from Tardy's, 76, 75, 74?

7 A. Would you explain what you mean by she never saw
8 him anywhere--

9 Q. --She never saw him that day, the person that she 10 saw 74 yards away, until she saw him at that spot. Is that
11 true?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Did that person have a car?

14 A. No.

15 Q. So why don't you put right next to-- and this is 16 about 10:00 A M; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Why don't you put next to her name, "no car."

19 A. No car. (Witness writes.)

20 Q. That person have anybody with him?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Put "no companion."

23 A. (Witness writes.)

24 Q. And what time do you estimate that Porky Collins
25 told you that he saw the person? Well, actually we just read
26 a report where he claims he saw him at 9:15 to 9:20; right?

27 A. That's what I made a note of, yes.

28 Q. Uh-hum. Interesting.

29 BY THE COURT: Have a seat there, Mr.

1 Johnson. Let me see y'all up here just a second.

2 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
3 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

4 BY THE COURT: I want you to fully explore
5 whatever you need to explore, but you are asking
6 these questions over and over again. You have
7 covered this ground a bunch. The rules don't allow
8 that.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I agree. The 10 prosecution keeps coming back putting it on the 11 board, doing different things and repeating the 12 same stuff.

13 BY THE COURT: I know but even saying
14 redirect, you have already covered this ground at 15 least once or twice. Let's move on.

16 END BENCH CONFERENCE

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. Okay, can we put down here on the map, Porky
19 Collins, the time he gave you of 9:15 or 9:20. Do you want
20 to come down here?

21 A. (Witness steps down and writes on Exhibit S-109.)

22 Q. Then he also indicated that he approached this spot
23 and saw these men after he went to Wal-Mart; right? That's 24 what he told you; right?

25 A. I think that's correct.

26 Q. And he said he gave you a receipt from Wal-Mart;
27 right?

28 A. He didn't give me a receipt. He gave Mr. Miller a
29 receipt.

1 Q. Okay, but the receipt-- do you remember the receipt
2 saying 9:43? Do you remember that?

3 A. No. I don't remember.

4 Q. Okay, well, why don't you put down here, "saw men
5 after Wal-Mart."

6 A. (Witness writes.)

7 Q. Saw a brown car; right?

8 A. (Witness writes.)

9 Q. Did you talk to-- and then right here Mr.
10 McChristian on Academy Street, I think he said he saw the 11 person with baggy pants; is that right?

12 A. (No response.)

13 Q. And if he said that, if you check your notes and he 14 said that, I would like for you to write that on there.

15 A. (Pause while witness looks at notes.) He said he 16 doesn't really remember what kind of clothing he had on.

17 Q. All right, what was that about baggy pants? It
18 doesn't have baggy pants down there?

19 A. (No response.)

20 Q. No, that was his statement later on. Do you have 21 your notes?

22 A. (Pause while witness gets his notes.) "Baggy
23 pants. Don't remember what was said."

24 Q. Don't remember what was said, but he had baggy
25 pants on; right?

26 A. Uh-hum.

27 Q. Okay, we are going to hurry up and finish this 28 off. Will you come down here and write "baggy pants" down
29 here under McChristian.

1 A. (Witness writes.)

2 Q. Okay, and let me see. Then under Mr. Collins we
3 have already written saw him at Wal-Mart. Clemmie Fleming,
4 she is supposed to have saw at 10:00 A M. Why don't you put
5 "10:00 A M."

6 A. (Witness writes.)

7 Q. Okay, let me just make sure right before you leave
8 to see if we have got it right for the jury now. Here is a
9 man according to the witnesses you talked to that was seen
10 around about, somewhere between 7:00 and 7:30 going into his 11 house, staying in there 20 minutes, and he was seen with 12 silky black pants and a white T-shirt. Is that correct?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Is that your understanding? And then he leaves
15 here, and then at some point he winds up crossing or passing
16 Edward Kennedy's house, and at that time, by the time he 17 leaves this house with silky black pants and crosses Edward
18 Kennedy's house also between 7:00 and 7:30, he has got long
19 white pants and a black sweater. Is that right?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. And then by the time he walks down here into, and 22 he walks into Angelica's parking lot. Now Ms. Snow couldn't
23 tell you what he had on; is that correct?

24 A. I think that's correct--

25 Q. --Except he didn't have a cap; right?

26 A. Yeah.

27 Q. But you also--

28 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object. How 29 many times are we going to go over this same

1                   thing?

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I'm going to go past, I
3                   am finishing up right now, Judge.

4                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6           Q.    Okay. But you did talk to Doyle Simpson; is that
7           correct?

8           A.    I did.

9           Q.    And Doyle Simpson told you how she described the 10          man to him; is that right?

11          A.    That would be in the statement, yeah.

12          Q.    Yeah, he said that he had short pants on and a
13          white cap; right?

14          A.    I think that's correct.

15          Q.    Okay, so the man gets down here to the parking lot,
16          the man who left his home with silky black pants, passed this 17          man's house in the white pants, gets down in the parking lot, 18          he has got short pants and a white cap; is that right?

19          A.    Yeah.

20          Q.    And then this man with the short pants and the 21          white cap walks up. He comes back here down Academy Street,
22          and then by that time he has baggy pants on. Is that right?

23          A.    By his description, yes.

24          Q.    And then by the time he goes down here, he turns
25          and he passes Mary Fleming, and he has a white dress shirt,
26          button up shirt, and a black dressy pants; is that right?

27          A.    That's right.

28          Q.    Okay, and then he, this is the same man that comes
29          down here around about 10 o'clock as far as Clemmie Fleming

1 is concerned, and this is a man who is 72 yards or 72
2 whatever from Tardy's, and he has no car and no companion at 3 10:00 A M; right?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Although this gentleman here, Porky Collins, who of 6 course says he sees him about 9:15 or 9:20, also says he sees
7 him after Wal-Mart which has a receipt of 9:43; right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. And then this man here says he had another man with 10 him, walking in the direction--

11 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object. He 12 never said he had another man with him. He said he 13 saw him arguing with a man--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. --okay, correction. He said he was arguing with 16 another man; right? But she don't see no other man, but he 17 sees him arguing with another man right around the same time;
18 right? Is that right?

19 A. Same time as what?

20 Q. As Clemmie has to be seeing him because she is 21 seeing him around 10:00. This man has been to Wal-Mart at 22 9:43. So it has got to be after 9:40 that he sees him;
23 right?

24 A. Close approximate time, yes.

25 Q. Okay, and he has no man and no car; right - when 26 Clemmie sees him?

27 A. Correct.

28 Q. And when Porky sees him, he has got a man in a
29 brown car; right?

1           A.     Correct.

2           Q.     So here is the man who starts out in black silky
3 pants, ends up without a car and without a car; right? With 4 a car and without a car; right?

5           A.     I'm sorry. You lost me.

6                   BY THE COURT: He has already answered that
7 question.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9           Q.     Okay, excuse me. I don't want you to be lost.
10 Were you kind of lost when you were at all those statements
11 that--

12                   BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object. That 13 is improper.

14                   BY THE COURT: That is argumentative.
15 Sustained.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17           Q.     Do you have any report anywhere, any notes anywhere
18 where you indicate that you checked the shoes or looked at 19 the shoes of Mr. Collins and felt they couldn't match the 20 print?

21           A.     No.

22           Q.     Do you have any notes anywhere...

23                   (Pause while Defense Counsel confer briefly.
24 Confers with Mr. Freelon.)

25           Q.     Do you have any notes anywhere where you or any of 26 your fellow officers or companion law enforcement authorities
27 checked to see if and talked to people and got people's names
28 that you talked to with respect to the whereabouts of Doyle
29 Simpson on that day? Have you got any notes anywhere that

1 shows that you checked to see where he was that day?

2 A. We do.

3 Q. And could you show those to me, please.

4 A. Yes. (Witness opens his briefcase.)

5 Q. And while you are looking for that, also show me
6 any that you have that shows that you checked on Emmitt
7 Simpson.

8 BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all up here.

9 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
10 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

11 BY MR. EVANS: This is improper redirect.

12 BY THE COURT: Where is this proper on 13 redirect? He didn't go into that.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think he did ask that.

15 BY THE COURT: No, he didn't either. I'm not 16 going to allow that.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Very good.

18 END BENCH CONFERENCE

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Okay, excuse me. The Judge has ruled that, not to 21 do that. Is there a four way stop on Front Street at Summit?

22 A. No. It's not.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is not proper
24 redirect.

25 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. No, no. You asked questions, you were asked
28 questions about Roy Harris; is that correct?

29 A. I don't remember asking any questions about--

1 Q. --Did he ask you questions about Roy Harris and the
2 statement that Roy Harris gave? This gentleman over here.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, all I asked him was
4 the direction that Roy Harris carried him.

5 BY THE COURT: And he can go into that, but as 6 to extraneous questions, he can't so if you want to 7 ask him, ask him--

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, that's my question--

9 BY THE COURT: --I mean ask him directly.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. Is there a four way stop-- hold on.

12 A. No.

13 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

14 Q. There is four way stop at Summit and Front Street;
15 isn't that correct?

16 A. No, there is not.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is the same
18 thing I think you have just ruled on. If he wants 19 to ask him which direction they went, I have no
20 problem.

21 BY THE COURT: I sustain the objection in the 22 form that it is asked.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. You have 25 indicated to you that Roy Harris said he went in front of 26 Tardy's store; is that correct?

27 A. Roy Harris indicated to me that he went in front of
28 Tardy Furniture Store--

29 Q. --I am showing you Roy Harris' statement. You show

1 me where in here Roy Harris ever says he went in front of
2 Tardy Furniture Store.

3 A. Oh, me.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Which statement are we
5 referring to?

6 BY THE WITNESS: May the 7th.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you have a second
8 statement of Roy Harris?

9 BY MR. EVANS: I am asking you which one you
10 are referring to. You are handing it to a witness,
11 whether it's an oral statement or a written
12 statement--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. --Any statement you have gotten from Roy Harris that 15 says he went in front of Tardy's Furniture Store, I want you
16 to show me that.

17 BY MR. EVANS: And again, Your Honor, to speed
18 things up, what we asked him about was where Roy
19 Harris carried him.

20 BY THE WITNESS:

21 A. "That is Church Street that comes through by the 22 Post Office. But didn't you go down Front Street like in 23 front of Tardy Furniture Store?" "Yes, sir. I went downtown
24 Front Street."

25 Q. "Yes, sir. I went downtown Front Street." Isn't
26 that what it says?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. Does he say anywhere that he went in front of Tardy
29 Furniture Store?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he just read the
2 question and the answer. This is--

3 BY THE COURT: That is sustained, and it is
4 also not proper redirect. His questions on 5 cross-examination were where he took him, not what
6 he made in any statement.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, actually that is 8 not true. What he asked on cross-examination is 9 where he took him, and then he asked if he showed
10 him. That's what his questions were. He asked
11 both questions.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Well, he asked him did he take 13 him on Front Street, or did he ever say to him on 14 Front Street, and did this statement say it. And 15 he just read the statement.

16 BY THE COURT: Asked and answered. Move on.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. Roy Harris was 19 the gentleman, first of all, that is hard of hearing; is that
20 correct?

21 A. He wears a hearing aid sometimes.

22 Q. Are you going to answer my question? Is Roy Harris
23 the person who is hard of hearing?

24 A. At times, yes.

25 Q. In his statement that you-- did you not look at 26 this statement when the prosecution asked you questions on 27 cross-examination? You looked at this statement; right? I
28 am asking you?

29 A. I have looked at the statement before, yes.

1           Q.   Roy Harris told you he turned left at the church;
2 right?

3                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again what I asked
4 him to do was tell me where Roy Harris carried them
5 and showed him he went.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He also asked him to tell him
7 what Roy Harris said.

8                   BY THE COURT: Well, that is not what I
9 recall, and I sustain the objection.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, just to make the record
11 clear, Judge, the statement clearly indicates--

12                  BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, this is improper,
13 and I object.

14                  BY THE COURT: I sustain the objection. You
15 have been over this. I mean this is all in the 16 record by Mr. Harris, and I think he has even 17 testified to it somewhere.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19           Q.   Do you know, since you were asked questions about 20 Mr. Harris-- well, let me ask you this. Was Ms. Bingham
21 present at the time that Mr. Harris talked to you?

22                  BY MR. EVANS: Object, Your Honor. That is 23 not something we went into.

24                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: He asked him about his 25 conversation with Mr. Harris. He asked him
26 specifically what Mr. Harris told him before he
27 talked about where Mr. Harris allegedly took him.

28           Q.   So what I want to know is was Ms. Bingham present
29 at the time of that conversation? Do you know who Melinda

1 Bingham--

2 BY THE COURT: --You can answer that
3 question.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

5 Q. Do you know Melinda Bingham is?

6 A. I sure do.

7 Q. Was she present?

8 A. Yes, she was.

9 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

10 Q. Did any of these witnesses that he talked to you
11 about at any time indicate that they saw Mr. Flowers inside
12 of Tardy Furniture Store?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Did any of these witnesses at any time indicate
15 that they saw Mr. Flowers with any kind of weapon?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did any of these witnesses at any time indicate
18 that they saw Mr. Flowers on any day doing anything illegal,
19 the witnesses that you have just mentioned?

20 A. The witnesses that we have just mentioned. (Pause).

21 Q. Ms. Clemmie Fleming?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Ms. Mary Fleming, Jeanette Fleming?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Mr. Porky Collins?

26 A. No.

27 Q. Ms. Patricia Ann Hollman?

28 A. No.

29 Q. Mr. BoJack?

1	A.	No.
---	----	-----

3	A.	No.
---	----	-----

6 BY THE COURT: You may return to the witness
7 room. Ladies and gentlemen, we are going to take a
8 short break.

10 (FOLLOWING THE FIRST AFTERNOON RECESS ON MARCH 11 29, 1999, THE TRIAL RESUMED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE 12 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

14 JURY ENTERS COURTROOM.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would call at this time
17 Ms. Stacey Wright.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. She is out here.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She is out here with our
22 witnesses down the hall.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, Stacey Wright. They
25 are outside that locked courtroom.

27 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn. Ms.
28 Wright?

1                   BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

2                   STACEY WRIGHT,

3 a black female called to testify as a witness by the
4 Defendant, having first been duly sworn, testified as
5 follows, to-wit:

6                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there, please.
7 State your name for the record.

8                   BY THE WITNESS: My name is Stacey Wright.

9                   BY THE COURT: If you will, please talk up,
10 ma'am, so everybody can hear you.

11                   BY THE WITNESS: Stacey Wright.

12                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, can we approach
13 just for a minute?

14                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
15 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

16                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, Mr. Lumumba can 17 correct me if I'm wrong, but I anticipate that he
18 is going to ask Ms. Wright some statements
19 regarding what Clemmie Fleming may have told her.
20 Is that correct?

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's correct.

22                   BY MR. HORAN: What is in the interview is 23 statements have not been-- these statements that 24 were made by Clemmie Fleming, Ms. Fleming has not 25 been approached about.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yes.

27                   BY MR. HORAN: Not this in here.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, yeah. I asked Ms.
29 Fleming about when did she elicit--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, so if he had a problem
2 with that, he should have raised--

3 BY MR. HORAN: --I don't have a problem with
4 that. The problem I have with it is when Clemmie
5 was on the stand, the only question he asked
6 Clemmie was did you tell Stacey Wright that you
7 didn't see Curtis. On all this other stuff he 8 never approached her about.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, that is part of the 10 statement. That's what I--

11 BY THE COURT: --Look, we ain't having none of 12 this ya, ya, he said, she said. Let's get it
13 before the jury and go. I can't remember what all 14 is said.

15 END BENCH CONFERENCE

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Yes, ma'am. Can you tell the ladies and gentlemen
18 of the jury, please, what your name is.

19 A. My name is Stacey Wright.

20 Q. And can you kind of keep your voice up a little 21 bit, Ms. Wright. Now I know how rough that is sometimes, but 22 if you lean forward just a little bit, I think that mike will 23 pick--

24 A. --My name is Stacey Wright.

25 Q. Okay, and Ms. Wright, could you tell us, please,
26 where is it that you live?

27 A. Winona, Mississippi.

28 Q. And how long have you lived in Winona?

29 A. All my life.

1 Q. Do you have a family up there - a mother, father,
2 brother, sisters, and stuff?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. What does that consist of?

5 A. Pardon me?

6 Q. What does that consist of? Who is in your family?
7 I don't want the names.

8 A. Two brothers, my mother and my father.

9 Q. Okay. And do you know a person by the name of 10 Clemmie Fleming?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. And how is it that you know Ms. Fleming?

13 A. She is an associate and a relative.

14 Q. She is a relative?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And an associate?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay, and how is she, how is she a relative to
19 you?

20 A. About third or fourth cousins.

21 Q. All right, I know Winona is a fairly small town; is
22 that correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Now let me ask you this. Have you ever had any 25 conversations with Ms. Fleming with respect to this case and
26 Curtis Flowers?

27 A. Yes, I have.

28 Q. You just tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
29 what that conversation was about and what was said.

1           A.    She called me sometime last year before the first
2   hearing and told me that someone had came to her house - I
3   don't know if it was the police or the sheriff - to offer her
4   some money. She testified that she had seen Curtis down at
5   Tardy's. She had said that they was going to either pay off
6   her furniture note that she had had down there at Tardy's or 7   they was going to give her some money. Evidently they didn't
8   never do it because she called me back later, was crying,
9   very hostile, and saying that she hate she did it because she 10   didn't never see Curtis down there. She know he couldn't do
11   anything like that. Those are her exact words.

12           Q.    Okay, now let me ask you this, Ms. Wright. Did you
13   recently also have a conversation with her about the same
14   thing?

15           A.    Yes. This was Friday on the 12th.

16           Q.    Tell me what was said.

17           A.    We went to get our hair fixed at a friend's house,
18   Tasha Blissett. And I was--

19                   BY MR. HORAN:  --Your Honor, I object to that 20   part of it. First of all, it is not in the 21   statement that has been provided in discovery.

22                   BY THE COURT:  Overruled.

23   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24           Q.    Go ahead.

25           A.    We was getting our hair fixed, and I was under the 26   dryer, and she was telling my friend Tasha that she was just 27   going to tell the truth, that she did not see Curtis.

28           Q.    And that was just Friday?

29           A.    We had--

1 Q. --Friday?

2 A. --We had been hanging out before then. She was,
3 always talked about it, but I didn't say too much about it.

4 Q. Okay, now that is Friday. What was that?

5 A. The 12th.

6 Q. 12th, okay. Now have you, have you been offered
7 anything at all to come in here and say this?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. And have you been offered a reward or 10 anything like that?

11 A. No, I haven't.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
13 of Ms. Wright.

14 BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

15 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

17 Q. Ms. Wright, is it your testimony that Ms. Fleming
18 told you these things prior to the first time that she 19 testified under oath?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: At a hearing.

21 BY MR. HORAN:

22 Q. At a hearing.

23 A. This was before the hearing when she told me that 24 they had called her.

25 Q. Okay.

26 A. Then after the hearing, she wanted to change her
27 testimony--

28 Q. --Let's just do them one at a time if you don't 29 mind.

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. It's your testimony that before Clemmie Fleming
3 testified previously, that you-- she made these statements to
4 you?

5 A. Some of the statements.

6 Q. And you didn't tell anybody?

7 A. No, I didn't, nobody but my mother, my family.

8 Q. But you were aware of the fact that Clemmie was to 9 testify under oath; right?

10 A. Not at the time when she first called me, when she
11 first told me about the situation--

12 Q. --I'm not asking you that. She told you these 13 things; right? According to you?

14 A. Uh-hum.

15 Q. Then at some time after that is when she testified
16 contrary to what you're telling these people here; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Is that right?

19 A. Uh-hum.

20 Q. But you didn't say anything to anybody about that?

21 A. Not to nobody out in the public.

22 Q. Okay. Are you aware of the fact, and you said that
23 Clemmie told you that-- and let me see if I got your words
24 right, that they were going to pay her bills?

25 A. Yes, a bill that she had at Tardy's Furniture
26 Store.

27 Q. All right. Are you aware of the fact that--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let us approach, please.

29 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF

1 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

2 BY MR. FREELON: Your Honor, I don't know, but
3 I think they have a bill here. Now we are in the 4 same position that they were in when we had to 5 provide discovery as far as to impeach a witness.
6 We don't have that information. I don't know. But 7 I believe what he have at the podium right now is 8 information as far as a bill is concerned.

9 BY THE COURT: This lady couldn't know
10 anything about that bill and therefore couldn't
11 testify.

12 BY MR. HORAN: I just asked her if she has
13 knowledge.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Clemmie has already testified
15 that the bill hasn't been paid.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, this woman can't know.
17 (Document handed to Defense Counsel.)

18 END BENCH CONFERENCE

19 BY MR. HORAN:

20 Q. Ms. Wright, are you aware of the fact that Tardy
21 Furniture was in the process of collecting on Ms. Fleming's
22 bill even after the last time that she testified?

23 A. No.

24 Q. You are not aware of that fact?

25 A. No.

26 Q. Okay, so you cannot dispute that?

27 A. (No response.)

28 Q. Can you?

29 A. I just said no, I didn't know.

1 Q. You have no knowledge that what Tardy Furniture has
2 done with her account within the last eight months?

3 A. No, I am just telling you what she told me.

4 (Mr. Horan hands another document to Defense
5 Counsel.)

6 Q. What she told you. But you are telling this jury
7 that you had knowledge that she was to testify at a hearing
8 regarding this particular matter, and you had information,
9 according to you, that she was going to lie, but you didn't
10 say anything to anybody? That's what you are telling this
11 jury?

12 A. Could you repeat that, please.

13 Q. Yes, ma'am. You are telling this jury that prior 14 to the hearing, she told you something contrary to what you
15 knew she was going to testify to, but you sat mute. You
16 didn't say a word to anybody?

17 A. I just told you my family knew. I told them about
18 it.

19 Q. Okay.

20 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions. Hold it.

21 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

22 BY MR. HORAN:

23 Q. Ms. Wright, you know Mary Fleming?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay, now the Mary Fleming I am making reference to 26 is Clemmie's sister; right?

27 A. I guess so.

28 Q. Okay, and you and Mary, y'all have been harassing
29 and getting on Clemmie pretty regular about changing her

1 testimony, haven't you?

2 A. Oh, no. No. I got harassed by Clemmie this
3 morning when I got to court.

4 Q. That is not my question.

5 A. Well, I am just telling you. No.

6 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions. That's 7 all I have.

8 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Yes, Ms. Wright, my only question is this: Did
10 someone from the Defense office, from the Defense attorneys'
11 office come to you and talk to you about this?

12 A. (Witness shakes her head.)

13 Q. Did you give a statement?

14 A. I gave my own statement.

15 Q. Okay, you gave a statement; is that correct?

16 A. Uh-hum.

17 Q. And so when you were asked about it, you did give a
18 statement. Is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And you didn't try to cover anything up, did you?

21 A. No, sir.

22 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

23 Q. Do you have any relationship whatever to Curtis
24 Flowers?

25 A. No, sir.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

27 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, she is.

29 BY THE COURT: Ma'am, you are free to leave.

1 WITNESS EXCUSED.

2 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The Defense would call Ms.
4 Blissett, recall Ms. Blissett, Latarsha Blissett.

5 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
6 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

7 BY MR. HORAN: Hasn't he already called her
8 once? They have already called her once.

9 BY THE COURT: I let him reserve the right to 10 recall her the way the statements came in.

11 BY MR. HORAN: That's right. I remember.

12 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

13 LATARSHA BLISSETT,
14 a black female having been previously called to testify as a
15 witness by the Defendant, and having been previously sworn,
16 testified further as follows, to-wit:

17 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record,
18 please.

19 BY THE WITNESS: Latarsha Blissett.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay.

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Ms. Blissett, I just have one question for you.
23 You have testified already; isn't that correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay, and you were about to tell us before. Did
26 you have a discussion with Mr. Johnson as it related to 27 Curtis Flowers? Did he say something to you?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. Just tell me what he said to you, please.

1           A.    He asked me do I know what thirty thousand dollars
2 can buy.

3           Q.    Right.

4           A.    And I told him yes. And he asked me was Earl with 5 Curtis Flowers when he went in the store, and I told him no.
6 Earl was at work, and I don't know who went in the store.

7           Q.    Did he ever say anything about Curtis in his mind,
8 what Curtis had done or had not done? Did he say anything
9 about--

10                   BY MR. HORAN:  --Objection.

11           Q.    I'm sorry. Did he say anything about Curtis as 12 to-- did he say anything else about Curtis?

13           A.    No.

14           Q.    All right.

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I have no, I have no further
16 questions.

17           CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

18           Q.    Ms. Blissett, you specifically remember the amount 19 of money, thirty thousand dollars? You remember that?

20           A.    Yes.

21           Q.    Okay. You are positive about that?

22           A.    Yes.

23           Q.    He talked to you on August the 29th, 1996, didn't
24 he?

25           A.    I don't know what the exact date it was.

26           Q.    You wouldn't disagree with me though, would you,
27 Ms. Blissett, that that is the day that Mr. Johnson had made
28 some notes when he talked to you?

29           A.    He recorded us talking too.

1 Q. Okay. Well, if he wrote down the 29th, you
2 wouldn't disagree on his notes that that was the day, would
3 you?

4 A. (No immediate response.)

5 Q. I mean I'm not trying to be argumentative with you,
6 Ms. Blissett, but if Mr. Johnson's, if he made a record of 7 it, and you didn't write anything down, but if he made a
8 record of the 29th, you wouldn't disagree that that is the 9 date, August the 29th, that he talked to you?

10 A. I'm not sure what date it was but--

11 Q. But you wouldn't disagree with me on that, would
12 you?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. Let's move on. You were in school. You had just 15 started school, I believe. You were in school August 29th.
16 You testified earlier that they got you out of school?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. Are you aware of the fact that it was 19 some time after that before the amount ever got to thirty
20 thousand dollars? Are you aware of that, Ms. Blissett?

21 A. I just only knew about thirty thousand dollars.

22 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, no further questions.

23 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. Ms. Blissett, you don't know of your own personal
25 knowledge what Mr. Johnson knew about the reward, where it
26 was, or where it was going, do you?

27 A. Didn't know where it was going?

28 Q. Did you have any idea what Mr. Johnson knew about 29 the reward at that time?

1           A.    (No immediate response.)

2           Q.    You don't know what he knew about the reward, do
3   you?

4           A.    I don't know if he knew about it.

5           Q.    Okay. Well, you know what he told you; is that
6   right?

7           A.    Yes.

8           Q.    Okay, let me-- final question. I thought I heard
9   you say something about how was this-- there was some kind of 10   recording at the time?

11          A.    Yes. He recorded us talking.

12          Q.    Have you ever seen a copy of the tape?

13          A.    No. He just mashed the button on the thing.

14                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't have any other
15   questions of Ms. Blissett.

16                BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

17                BY MR. LUMUMBA: She is excused as far as we
18   are concerned, Judge. Yes, sir.

19                BY THE COURT: You are free to go, Ms.
20   Blissett.

21                        WITNESS EXCUSED.

22                BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

23                BY MR. LUMUMBA: We at this time would call
24   Mr. Ken Pickens.

25                (Counsel confer among themselves out of the 26   hearing of the Court Reporter. Witness enters the
27   courtroom.)

28                BY THE COURT: Mr. Pickens, have you been 29   sworn?

1 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

2 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
3 hand.

4 KEN PICKENS,
5 a white male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,
6 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

7 BY THE COURT: State your name for the
8 record.

9 BY THE WITNESS: Ken Pickens.

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. Mr. Pickens, could you tell the ladies and 12 gentlemen of the jury your name, please.

13 A. Ken Pickens.

14 Q. And Mr. Pickens, where is it that you're from?

15 A. Winona.

16 Q. And do you work in Winona also?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. What kind of work do you do?

19 A. Body repair.

20 Q. Okay. Now we have had an opportunity to talk once
21 or twice before; is that correct?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Okay, and I want to direct your attention, Mr.
24 Pickens, are you married?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Have a family?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. And what does that consist of?

29 A. One girl.

1 Q. Okay. And how long have you been working up there
2 in Winona?

3 A. Six years at the body shop--

4 Q. --Okay, you work-- I'm sorry?

5 A. Six years at the body shop.

6 Q. You work at a place called Weeds Body?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Now what I would like to ask you, Mr. Pickens, is 9 two inquiries basically. Did you have an opportunity to see
10 a young lady who you now know to be Jeanette Fleming? Did
11 you see her on or about the 16th of July, '96?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay, and do you know what you were seeing her
14 about?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. What was that?

17 A. She had brought her car to our shop the morning,
18 that morning to have a windshield replaced.

19 Q. Now before you can get a windshield, do you order a
20 windshield when somebody wants a windshield replaced?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And when the windshield is ordered-- I don't want
23 this to sound-- at what point can it be ordered? Before or 24 after you know that you need one?

25 A. Any time.

26 Q. Okay.

27 A. If they are willing to bring their car in and leave
28 it an extra day, we can have one shipped the next day.

29 Q. I understand. But now I'm going to show you what

1 is marked as-- well, they marked it as a State Exhibit for
2 identification purposes. I think this is 105 for 3 identification purposes. Do you see that?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay, and what is that? Tell us, the ladies and
6 gentlemen.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The State has no objection to 8 this exhibit.

9 BY MR. EVANS: None at all.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we are going to go
11 ahead and mark it in evidence.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor--

13 BY THE COURT: --You want to do that first
14 before he testifies to it?

15 BY MR. HORAN: To clean the record up, I don't 16 mind if he attaches the other two pages to the 17 exhibit that has been previously marked for 18 identification purposes, so it'll just be one
19 exhibit.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, one exhibit. That's 21 all it is.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay, has he got it?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, if you would hand it to 25 the Court Reporter and let's mark it. That is an 26 exhibit of how many pages now?

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Three pages.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Three pages.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think he can explain what

1                   they are.

2                   (WEED BROTHERS INVOICE DATED 7/16/96
3                   PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-105 FOR 4                   IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE AT THE 5                   REQUEST OF THE DEFENDANT.)

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7           Q.    Mr. Pickens, what is that that is in your hand?

8           A.    That's a receipt from Port City Glass for a
9           windshield.

10          Q.    Okay, was that the receipt for the windshield that 11          was placed on her car?

12          A.    I wouldn't know, unless you look at the, the number
13          up.

14          Q.    Okay, what time was that receipt ordered or receipt
15          for that windshield?

16          A.    8:02 A M, the 16th of the 7th month of '96.

17          Q.    Okay, I see. So did you order any other-- were you
18          asked to look for receipts from any glass ordered that 19          morning or anywhere about that morning? Were you asked for 20          that?

21          A.    No.

22          Q.    Okay. So do you have any other receipts from any 23          other orders that morning?

24          A.    No, it would have been on this receipt.

25          Q.    And when I talked to--

26          A.    --They will put more than one on one receipt.

27          Q.    Okay, so you, so what you are telling me is--

28                   BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, he needs to.

29                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

1                   BY THE COURT: Don't lead him.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3           Q.    Do you know if this receipt relates to Ms.
4   Fleming? Do you have any idea?

5           A.    No.

6           Q.    Okay.

7           A.    No proof.

8           Q.    You don't really don't know; is that right?

9           A.    Right.

10          Q.    Okay, now let me ask you this. Do you know that-- 11   this has here Weeds Brothers Body Shop. What is this? The 12   second page of it?

13          A.    That's an estimate.

14          Q.    And how much is that estimate for?

15          A.    $374.50.

16          Q.    Okay, does that have a date on it?

17          A.    No, sir.

18          Q.    So you don't know what date that occurred?

19          A.    No, sir.

20          Q.    That could have occurred any day?

21          A.    Right.

22          Q.    Didn't have to occur on the 16th?

23          A.    Didn't have to, but I don't normally write
24   estimates, and that's the only day that I wrote an estimate.

25          Q.    Well, did you order, did anybody order any glass
26   that day?

27          A.    I don't know if it was ordered the 16th or at the 28   end of the 15th.

29          Q.    Okay, do you know whether that glass there that is

1 ordered would fit the kind of car that Ms. Fleming had?

2 A. No.

3 Q. You don't know that?

4 A. I don't know by looking at this number.

5 Q. Okay, how would you have to find out?

6 A. Look it up in a body repair book.

7 Q. And did we ask you to do that?

8 A. Have you asked me when?

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And did you do it?

12 A. No. I did not have access to the book this
13 morning.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. Short notice.

16 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this here. When we 17 spoke, I asked you if you could recall on Ms. Fleming coming
18 to your facility. Is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And you indicated to me that you thought that you
21 could recall at some point in time; right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And let me ask you this. Where did she park when 24 she came?

25 A. She parked at the north end of our parking lot.

26 Q. Okay, I'm going to see if we can-- I don't know if 27 this is possible to show on this map. Okay, let me ask you
28 this, and I'm going to ask you to step in front of the jury,
29 if you can recognize something for me. You said she parked

1 at the north end of the parking lot. Is that correct?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Do you see the area here which would be
4 approximately where your shop would be on this map?

5 A. (Pause) It's not very clear.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. But it should be-- it's on Carrollton Street,
8 Carrollton Avenue.

9 Q. It's on Carrollton Avenue?

10 A. Right. Directly behind Tardy Furniture.

11 Q. If this blue square was supposed to be Tardy
12 Furniture-- actually Tardy's doesn't take up the whole block
13 in real, does it?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay, but let's assume that it is Tardy Furniture
16 in this blue square.

17 A. All right.

18 Q. Then would your facility be right back here?

19 A. No, it would be -- if this was the back of Tardy
20 Furniture, our shop is directly behind it.

21 Q. This is supposed to be the back of Tardy
22 Furniture.

23 A. This right here? This line?

24 Q. This blue line, the back of this blue line is 25 supposed to be the back of Tardy Furniture.

26 A. Okay.

27 Q. Then where would your shop be?

28 A. It should be located right there.

29 Q. Let's share this with the ladies and gentlemen of

1 the jury. Okay.

2 A. Do you want me to step down?

3 Q. Yeah, please.

4 Q. Okay, now this blue black-- we are assuming that
5 this blue box is Tardy Furniture; okay? And we are assuming
6 that this is the rear of Tardy Furniture. Do you see that?
7 For the purposes of the ladies-- for the record, for purposes
8 of the record, I'm going to show the ladies and gentlemen of 9 the jury. I'm pointing to a box which I think has already
10 been placed on here, Judge. And then when I say, when I am
11 pointing to the rear, I am pointing toward the top of that 12 box. Is that correct, Mr. Pickens?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. And that is supposed to be the rear of Tardy
15 Furniture. You recognize Carrollton Street; is that correct?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. Okay, and there is a-- and you know between your
18 business and Tardy Furniture, there is a street that runs
19 between you; is that correct?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. What is that called?

22 A. I believe it's Vine Street.

23 Q. Vine Street, okay. And your business is where, for 24 the ladies and gentlemen of the jury's benefit?

25 A. Should be right there (Witness pointing.)

26 Q. Well, let's assume that this is a street,
27 Carrollton. Say this is the south side of the street and 28 this is the north side of the street. I know these one lines
29 sometimes don't make it, but your building is actually on the

1 north side of the street, isn't it?

2 A. Right, on the north side of Carrollton Avenue.

3 Q. Okay, so would your business be right around in
4 here?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. I don't think there is any real disagreement about
7 that.

8 BY MR. HORAN: No.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. You are right behind Tardy's; is that right?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. Okay, now let me ask you this too. Just for the 13 purposes of the ladies and gentlemen of the jury, it's really
14 somewhere right around where this "X" is. Isn't that true?

15 A. Right.

16 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I'm just--

18 BY MR. HORAN: --I know he is trying to 19 establish the locations, but he is leading and I
20 don't--

21 BY THE COURT: Well, it is leading, but he has 22 to to develop that testimony. I will let him do
23 that.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. I have got my finger right around the "X." Right?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay, now don't move yet. I want to, just a couple
28 of other questions.

29 (Mr. Lumumba gets Exhibit S-109 and brings it

1 in front of the jury.)

2 Q. Okay, now we-- okay, and what you were saying-- by
3 the way, you didn't see anybody -- do you see that gentleman
4 over there?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Do you see him? You didn't see him come running
7 through there that day, did you?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay, and you work there; right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. In and out all the time?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. You didn't see him come running through there?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this question. Okay,
16 now let me ask you this here.

17 BY THE COURT: How about letting him sit back
18 on the witness stand.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Okay, go ahead and sit down.

21 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

22 Q. Now if I'm not mistaken, where in relationship to 23 Vine Street was, where in relationship to Vine Street, and 24 that is the street that runs between Tardy and your business;
25 right?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. Where in relationship to Vine Street was Ms.
28 Fleming parked, her car parked?

29 A. It was on the west side, west side of Vine Street.

1 Q. Okay, the west side of Vine. That would have been
2 the side of Vine Street the furthest away from Tardy's?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. Okay. And if you, if I-- describe Vine Street. Is 5 that a real big street, or is it kind of like an alley or 6 what?

7 A. It's like an alley.

8 Q. Okay. When I came up and talked to you, did we 9 stand right there in that spot?

10 A. We stood at the spot where she had parked her car.

11 Q. Okay. And as we stood there right there at the 12 spot, did I ask you to tell me which direction she went when 13 she left?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And this was almost, months ago when I asked you
16 this; right?

17 A. About a year ago.

18 Q. Okay. And what did you tell me?

19 A. I told you that I thought she went north.

20 Q. Now if she went north, would that be toward 21 Carrollton or away from Carrollton?

22 A. Away.

23 Q. Pardon?

24 A. Away.

25 Q. Now did I tell you which way to tell--

26 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Did I say anything to you about--

29 BY MR. HORAN: --He has got to testify about

1                   what he saw and things like that, not what Mr.
2                   Lumumba told him. This is his witness.

3                   BY THE COURT: That is true. Let him do the
4                   testifying.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7                   Q. Was anything said to you prior to me asking you
8                   that question about which direction she went in? Did I say 9                   anything to you about which direction she went in?

10                  A. No.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge. I seem to 12                  be missing something. (Long pause.)

13                  Q. Well, Mr. Pickens, now did you tell me at the time 14                  that you thought she went north, or did you just say she went 15                  north?

16                  A. I believe I told you I thought she did because I
17                  couldn't remember.

18                  Q. You can't remember now; right?

19                  A. I couldn't remember at all because I didn't watch
20                  to see which way she left.

21                  Q. No, but what I'm saying at the time that you saw 22                  her turn, which direction did she turn in? That's my
23                  question.

24                  A. I'm not, I'm not sure. I'm not positive that she
25                  went north.

26                  Q. You told me at that time; right?

27                  A. I told you, I believe I told you that I thought she 28                  went north.

29                  Q. But if I was to play the tape for you, would that

1 refresh your recollection? I was taping the conversation;
2 right?

3 A. You could play it, but it probably wouldn't change
4 my mind.

5 Q. Okay, well, I'm not saying it would change your
6 mind. Would that refresh your recollection as to what you
7 said?

8 A. Yes, it would.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, can we have a brief
10 set up time on the tape? Can we approach, please?

11 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
12 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

13 BY MR. HORAN: I don't mind him reading it,
14 but why would we play the whole tape?

15 BY THE COURT: I would rather not play the 16 whole tape either. Just the part that you want to 17 know, that you want to talk about.

18 BY MR. HORAN: There is something in here--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --Why don't we use the 20 transcript like we did with all the other stuff?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I can't find my 22 transcript. Any of you guys have--

23 BY MR. HORAN: --Well, you talked to him three 24 or four times according to him.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I talked to him twice.

26 BY MR. HORAN: Let me get the other one.

27 BY THE COURT: He has really answered the
28 question.

29 BY MR. EVANS: Yeah, he has covered it.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, he didn't tell
2 me he thought she went north. He told me she went
3 north, and I mean since then he is now-- and I'm 4 not trying to jump him, but I just--

5 BY THE COURT: --I know that but I mean.

6 (Mr. Horan returns with another statement.)

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I use that for a minute?
8 It's right here.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Right there. And I don't mind
10 you--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, that's all I want.

12 BY MR. HORAN: Those four right there; that's 13 all.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. What are you worried
15 about?

16 BY MR. HORAN: I just don't want to go through 17 this stuff for nothing.

18 BY THE COURT: Right. Let's limit it to 19 that. That's all we were going to play the tape
20 for anyhow.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

22 END OF BENCH CONFERENCE

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. We ascertained a transcript of the tape. I wonder
25 if you could share this with me.

26 A. (Pause while the witness reads.)

27 Q. Okay, do you see here where we have Mr. Lumumba?
28 That is-- you understood that to be my name; right?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. "Do you know whether it was a lady or a man that
2 brought the vehicle in?" You said at that time it was a
3 lady. Is that correct?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. "At the time the lady brought the vehicle in, did
6 she leave driving or walking or how?"

7 A. "Walking."

8 Q. Walking. "In which direction did she go?"

9 A. "North."

10 Q. Now there you don't say you thought she went north,
11 do you?

12 A. No, not when it was recorded.

13 Q. I understand. In fact, you don't express any more
14 uncertainty about the direction that she went in than the 15 fact that she was walking, do you, on the tape?

16 A. On the tape, no.

17 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this.

18 (Mr. Lumumba hands transcript back to Mr.
19 Horan.)

20 Q. If she went north, would she have been heading
21 toward or away from Carrollton?

22 A. Away.

23 Q. Huh?

24 A. Away.

25 Q. If she went north, would she be heading toward or 26 away from Coast to Coast?

27 A. Toward.

28 Q. Now just one last question. We talked I think it
29 was last week at the very last date that you were up here

1 last week; is that correct?

2 A. Right. Friday.

3 Q. I showed you that same exhibit, or I showed you
4 what is now marked as an exhibit. This order form or this, I
5 guess that's a receipt?

6 A. Receipt.

7 Q. Okay. Did you not tell me at that time that that
8 was the receipt for her glass associated with her car?

9 A. Repeat the question.

10 Q. Did you not tell me that that was the receipt for 11 her glass associated with her car?

12 A. I am sure it is, but I'm not, I cannot prove it.

13 Q. Oh, okay; I'm sorry. I'm sorry. So you were just 14 basically, you were telling me something you couldn't prove 15 but you felt certain?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. I see.

18 A. Because I signed the ticket.

19 Q. Okay. What time does it have on there?

20 A. 8:02 A M.

21 Q. And so if she never contacted-- and I'm just trying 22 to find out about -- you can't order that for her car until 23 you know that her car needs it?

24 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Can you order that for her car before you know or 27 from any source that she needs a window?

28 A. No, she wouldn't have had me to order if she didn't 29 need it.

1 Q. So she has to let you know about that first?

2 A. Right. Either me or someone else.

3 Q. And in this case that would have had to have been
4 before 8:02 A M on that day. Is that correct?

5 A. Or the following day-- the day before.

6 Q. Okay. The day-- it would either have had to be on 7 the day before or 8:02 that day?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Okay. So I am just trying to check the policy.
10 Okay. If somebody says that they came in and called 11 immediately and came down in 5 minutes to your spot after 12 reporting they needed a window. Right?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Or needed a window. Then that would mean that you
15 could not order the window until after they called; correct?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. And in that case it would have been sometime before
18 8:02 that they would have had to call; is that correct?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. Assuming that that is even from that day; is that
21 correct?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. But you don't even know that for sure. You don't 24 even know that that receipt is from that day?

25 A. No, it-- it has got the 16th on it.

26 Q. But I am asking you do you know, do you know that 27 is really associated with her car? I thought you just told 28 me you don't know.

29 A. No.

1 Q. I'm sorry. I got confused. We really don't even
2 know that, do we?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. Would it also be safe to say that--

5 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, he is asking this
6 witness would it be safe to say--

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, I'm going to rephrase
8 that.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10 Q. What is the second page of this exhibit?

11 A. That is an estimate.

12 Q. And that estimate, does it have a date and time on
13 it?

14 A. No, it does not.

15 Q. So is there anything about the estimate that would 16 say it was that day?

17 A. No, besides being my handwriting.

18 Q. Well--

19 A. And I normally don't write estimates unless the 20 boss is not there, and that is the only day that he was not
21 there.

22 Q. That is the only day the whole year he wasn't
23 there?

24 A. I don't know about the whole year, but that is 25 probably the only estimate I wrote that year.

26 Q. That is the only estimate you wrote that year?

27 A. Because I don't write estimates normally.

28 Q. Did you put down the date that you wrote that only
29 estimate?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay. And did you put down who it was for?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. But that is not my handwriting. That name is not
6 my handwriting. Somebody scratched my handwriting out and 7 put another name down.

8 Q. What is that name?

9 A. I don't have any idea.

10 Q. That is not Jeanette Fleming, is it?

11 A. No, it's not. It's not my handwriting.

12 Q. Now we do on the third part of this have a receipt
13 for something, don't we?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. What is that receipt? Who is that receipt for?

16 A. That's where she paid $325.00 on her account.

17 Q. And what day was that on?

18 A. The 19th of the same month.

19 Q. The 19th of July?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. So is there anything in this exhibit that you, that 22 other than the first page that has the 16th on it at all?

23 A. That's-- no.

24 Q. And then the first page, you are telling me that 25 you cannot say without checking the book that that even 26 relates to that car; is that right?

27 A. Right.

28 Q. And so the one thing that does have a date on it
29 says what date?

1           A.    The 19th. But the owner wrote that receipt. I
2    didn't.

3           Q.    Okay.

4                       (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

5                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I have no further
6                       questions right now, Judge.

7    CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

8           Q.    Mr. Pickens--

9                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I do have one question.
10                      I'm sorry. He can stay right there. I don't want
11                      to interrupt.

12                     BY MR. HORAN: No, I will go back here.

13                     BY MR. LUMUMBA: One question.

14    FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15           Q.    Do you have any way of knowing what Jeanette saw or 16    didn't see on this particular day?

17           A.    No, sir.

18    CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

19           Q.    Let's clear this up, Ken, if we can, Mr. Pickens.
20    This is the estimate that you wrote on the 16th of that 21    month, the day that the murders occurred. Right?

22           A.    Yes.

23           Q.    You know that, don't you?

24           A.    Right.

25           Q.    And you don't know why that was scratched out. You
26    don't know whether that McArthur Buford would have been 27    responsible for busting out Jeanette Fleming's windshield or 28    not, would you?

29           A.    No, I don't have any idea--

1 Q. --Okay, but you wrote all this estimate, and you
2 don't know anything about all that, do you?

3 A. No. That is-- my handwriting was scratched out.

4 Q. All right, you wrote that on the 16th?

5 A. Right. That is my handwriting.

6 Q. And you wrote that on the 16th. That's when you
7 wrote that estimate; right?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. And she didn't pay for it the same day she brought 10 it in, did she?

11 A. Doesn't appear to be.

12 Q. Okay, she paid for--

13 A. --because I know the car stayed--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Whoa, whoa. Judge, he said
15 it does not appear to be. If he doesn't know, I
16 would ask that that question and answer--

17 BY MR. HORAN: --When is the receipt?

18 BY THE COURT: For the record, you have got 19 the written record in there.

20 BY THE WITNESS:

21 A. It's for the 19th.

22 Q. Okay.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: But nothing says that she
24 brought it in on the 16th, does it? The only thing
25 it says is she paid for it the 19th.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, that's what's he asked
27 him. That was what you objected to, when he paid.

28 BY MR. HORAN:

29 Q. I want to get to this north direction. You said

1 something that was interesting during direct examination.

2 You said that, you said north on the tape, Mr. Pickens, and I
3 talked to you just briefly the other day, did I not?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And I didn't suggest that you not testify to the 6 truth, did I, Mr. Pickens?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. And I didn't-- I asked you very few questions;
9 right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. And I asked you about this direction thing, and you
12 told me, said that, you know, I got the keys; I turned and 13 went in?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. You really weren't paying attention which 16 direction?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And I said, well, what about this north? You know,
19 you said north on the statement. I made something to that 20 effect reference; right?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. And you said he kept on and on and on and on and on 23 and on and on about she had to go north, and she had to go
24 north. That's what you told me, wasn't it? That is kind of 25 what Mr. Lumumba was doing outside that day, wasn't he?

26 A. Uh, I don't remem--

27 Q. --I mean I asked you and you said--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. Could he answer
29 the question, please?

1 BY MR. HORAN: Sure, he can.

2 BY THE COURT: Yeah, let him answer the
3 question.

4 BY THE WITNESS:

5 A. Repeat the question.

6 Q. You told me that Mr. Lumumba had asked you a number
7 of times which direction she went in; right?

8 A. Before the recording.

9 Q. Right, and you told him at that time you really
10 weren't sure?

11 A. I really wasn't sure, but I thought she went north.

12 Q. Right. And you told him that on numerous occasions
13 prior to the time he cut the tape on; right?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. And you are not sure today?

16 A. I did--

17 Q. --You are not telling this jury you know she went 18 north. You really weren't paying attention--

19 A. --I didn't watch her.

20 Q. --where Ms. Fleming was going?

21 A. No. I was very--

22 Q. --That wasn't your business.

23 A. I was very busy that morning. I didn't have time
24 to watch her.

25 Q. All right. But you know for sure that in that 26 morning, on that morning, the day these murders occurred, she 27 dropped that car off?

28 A. Right.

29 Q. Right behind Tardy Furniture Store?

1 A. Right.

2 BY MR. HORAN: Okay. No further questions.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I see that?

4 BY MR. EVANS: Can you see what?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The statement.

6 BY MR. HORAN: Which one?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is it.

8 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Mr. Pickens, let me ask you this. Did at any 10 time-- had you ever seen me before in your life?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Before that day?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. And at any point in time did I tell you what 15 to say on the tape and what not to say on the tape?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. And according to this - and we can listen to 18 the tape if we need to - what direction did you say she went
19 in?

20 A. I said she went north.

21 Q. Do you express any doubt on the tape?

22 A. I don't, I don't remember. I don't remember what I
23 said.

24 Q. Okay--

25 A. --because we had went over it three or four or five
26 times.

27 Q. So we need to read it? We need to hear it then?

28 A. Well, I told you a little while ago what the paper
29 had. If that's what the tape says, that's what the tape

1 says.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would ask an
3 opportunity to play the tape.

4 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, he has not denied
5 making the statement--

6 BY THE COURT: --He has given a complete
7 answer to this.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that is my request.

9 BY THE COURT: I understand. I didn't mean it
10 that way. What I'm saying is he has given a
11 complete answer to it. I think he has explained it
12 and everything else.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. When is the first time you were asked about where,
16 when she had come back? When is the first time you were 17 asked that question? I think the date that we were talking
18 is--

19 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I mean in the 20 interest of brevity, I didn't go into when the 21 first time he was asked about anything. I went
22 into what he told Mr. Lumumba.

23 BY THE COURT: What was the question?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The question is he went into 25 a series of questions about what day this was;
26 right? And I am asking questions about what day
27 this was. He says you know for certain this was 28 the day that--

29 BY THE COURT: Go ahead.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I see the statement
2 again, please?

3 BY MR. HORAN: Which one? Your statements?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Have you got another
5 statement?

6 BY MR. HORAN: No. The receipts is all. You
7 got those in discovery.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Okay, do you recall what date we talked?

10 A. No.

11 Q. What date does that say?

12 A. September the 4th, 1998.

13 Q. You wouldn't dispute that day, would you?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Before that day, had you talked to anybody about 16 this case if you recall?

17 A. I had--

18 Q. --Talked to anybody from the police or the 19 prosecution or anybody else?

20 A. I had been questioned. I don't know if it was the 21 day of the murder or a day or two after from-- I know the 22 Sheriff come by and talked to everyone that worked there and 23 someone else, but I don't remember who.

24 Q. Do you remember giving any kind of taped statement
25 or written statement to the Sheriff?

26 A. No.

27 Q. Okay.

28 (Defense Counsel confer.)

29 Q. Oh, okay, excuse me. You are saying that, yeah, I

1 think that-- just one other question. Actually, do you
2 recall that once we talked on tape, that you talked to your
3 boss and get some information from him? I'm not asking you
4 what the information was, but I'm saying did you talk to him
5 to get some information from him?

6 A. I had talked to him to try to remember whether I
7 ordered the-- we were trying to find out who ordered the 8 glass, whether I did or he did the day before.

9 Q. Okay, I understand. But in any event, that really
10 didn't refresh your mind that much; right?

11 A. No.

12 Q. But just so you can get on what you felt after you
13 talked to the boss, I taped you again to say whatever else
14 you had to say; isn't that correct, after you talked to the 15 boss?

16 A. I believe you did.

17 Q. Okay. Now looking at that second tape--

18 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, I didn't go into 19 any of this.

20 BY THE COURT: That is improper redirect.

21 BY MR. HORAN: I hate to keep objecting in 22 front of the jury about things, but we are trying
23 to move this matter along.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I approach? May I
25 approach, Judge?

26 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

27 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
28 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh-uh. He said he told him.

ELECTRONIC DISK _____

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1           He stated on cross that he was uncertain about the
2           date, and he is still uncertain and he was
3           uncertain then. Here is another on the second
4           tape, right to know what you are looking up. In 5           other words, he says on the second tape-- look.

6           BY THE COURT: I see where you are talking
7           about.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: What I am concerned about is 9           right here, Judge. That's the only thing I want to 10          get in, and I think it is clearly something--

11          BY THE COURT: --Let me read it.

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13          (Pause while the Court reads.)

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's all I want to cover.

15          BY MR. HORAN: Judge, as I understand--

16          BY THE COURT: --It's one question and one
17          answer.

18          BY MR. HORAN: (Mr. Horan reads the question
19          and answer but not loud enough to be audible to the 20          Court Reporter.)

21          BY THE COURT: You can ask that.

22          BY MR. HORAN: I don't care.

23                               END BENCH CONFERENCE

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25               Q. Referring to the transcript of the second tape in 26               order to avoid actually playing the tape, does it, in fact,
27               not say, "Okay, and you do also know," - now this is Mr.
28               Lumumba; that's what it says here; right?

29               A. Right.

1           Q.    "And okay, you do also know that she walked in the 2           direction that you indicated when you talked to you before?"
3           Is that correct? And your answer to that was, "Yes." Is
4           that correct?

5           A.    Right.

6           Q.    And here it says, "And you also know that she
7           walked in that direction?" Right?

8           A.    Right. That's what it says.

9           Q.    And it says, "Yes."

10          A.    Right.

11                   BY THE COURT: Anything further of this
12                   witness?

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have nothing further of 14                   this witness, Judge.

15                   BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

16                   BY MR. HORAN: He is finally excused as far as
17                   the State.

18                   BY THE COURT: You are free to go, Mr.
19                   Pickens.

20                                   WITNESS EXCUSED.

21                   BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

22                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this time we would call
23                   Ms. Moore. Ms. Moore, her name is, I think it's 24                   Mary Sue Moore. Can we approach while she is 25                   coming about scheduling?

26                                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
27                   THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I anticipate the next two 29                   witnesses, two or three witnesses are probably

1 going to be short. I anticipate that so I mean--

2 BY THE COURT: --Yeah, I'm going to take them.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

4 BY THE COURT: We will stay and take them. I
5 anticipate going a while.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, you do? Good.

7 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

8 (Witness enters courtroom.)

9 BY THE COURT: Come up here, ma'am. Have you
10 been sworn?

11 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
13 hand.

14 MARY SUE MOORE,

15 a black female called to testify as a witness by the
16 Defendant, having first been duly sworn, testified as
17 follows, to-wit:

18 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there, please.
19 State your name for the record.

20 BY THE WITNESS: Mary Sue Moore.

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Okay, Ms. Moore, can you please state your whole
23 name again, please.

24 A. Mary Sue Moore.

25 Q. And could you tell the ladies and gentlemen of the 26 jury where is it you reside?

27 A. 168 Poorhouse Road in Winona, Mississippi.

28 Q. And how long have you lived in Winona, Mississippi?

29 A. All my life.

1 Q. Now do you know a person by the name of Connie
2 Moore?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And who is Connie Moore if you can tell me?

5 A. That's my sister.

6 Q. And where does she live back in 1996 in July of 7 that year?

8 A. She stayed in the project.

9 Q. Okay. Now does Connie have any children?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what children does she have?

12 A. She have Marcus, Lemarcus, Brittany and Marissa.

13 Q. She has-- now I am particularly, could you repeat,
14 please, first the first two children you said.

15 A. She have Lemarcus, Marcus, Brittany and Marissa.

16 Q. Is the oldest child named Marcus?

17 A. Yes, it is.

18 Q. And the second oldest child named Lemarcus?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. Okay. Now what I would like to do is to ask you,
21 and I am focusing on basically the second oldest-- the first
22 oldest child. Okay. Did he ever at any point in time live
23 with Connie?

24 A. Yes, he did.

25 Q. And are you familiar with whether or not he ever
26 had any Fila Grant Hill Fila shoes while he was living with 27 Connie?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. And share that with me, please.

1           A.    Well, he had been talking about them when they
2 first come out, and he told his mother that he wanted some,
3 and she had bought him some.

4           Q.    Now do you know whether or not -- about how old was 5 this child back then?

6           A.    He was about 11.

7           Q.    Okay. And is there anything about his feet-- about 8 what size were they?

9           A.    It was between ten and a half and eleven.

10          Q.    And how do you know that?

11          A.    Because he used to stay with me for a while off and 12 on and on the weekends.

13          Q.    Now at any point in time have you ever seen Curtis
14 himself wearing Grant Hill Fila shoes that you actually saw?

15          A.    No, I didn't.

16                   (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

17          Q.    Do you have any children yourself?

18          A.    Yes, I do.

19          Q.    And do you have any child Marcus' age?

20          A.    Yes.

21          Q.    And what is his name?

22          A.    Antonio Moore.

23          Q.    Is there any relationship between him and Marcus?

24          A.    Yes. They are first cousins.

25          Q.    Okay, do they spend any time together?

26          A.    Yes, they do.

27                   (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

28          Q.    As to your own son, what age was he?

29          A.    He was 11.

1 Q. Okay. And how about his shoe size? Did he grow a
2 lot, or tell us about his shoe size.

3 A. Well, he wear about a eleven and a half now.

4 Q. And how old is he now?

5 A. 15.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

7 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

8 Q. Ms. Moore.

9 A. Uh-huh.

10 Q. Do you remember on 9-6-96 talking to John Johnson
11 and Robert Jennings at the Winona Police Department?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. Do you remember telling both of them on the 14 statement that you gave that day that Curtis Flowers wore
15 Fila tennis shoes?

16 A. No, I don't.

17 Q. I show you the notes and see if you can remember
18 them?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I don't have any
20 problems with him showing her the notes, but I have 21 problems with him calling that a statement. That 22 is not a statement. That is something that 23 somebody wrote down--

24 BY THE WITNESS:

25 A. --No.

26 BY THE COURT: Wait just a minute. You need
27 to identify-- I realize they are notes, but you
28 need to identify whose notes they are.

29 BY MR. EVANS:

1 Q. These being notes of John Johnson and Robert
2 Jennings taken 9-6-96 when you were interviewed at the Winona
3 Police Department.

4 A. No.

5 Q. Do you deny that you told John Johnson and Robert
6 Jennings that Curtis Flowers wore Fila tennis shoes?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. And further, you said you wasn't sure whether you
9 had seen him wearing them since the murders or not?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Do you deny that?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. Lemarcus told you about Curtis' whereabouts--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection. Objection--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --on that morning too, didn't
16 he?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

18 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

19 BY THE WITNESS:

20 A. No, not on that--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection.

22 BY THE COURT: --Wait, wait. Wait a minute,
23 ma'am, until I tell you you can answer.

24 Sustained.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26 Q. To make sure that I am clear on that, you are 27 specifically denying that you said that you told those two
28 investigators that Curtis wore Fila tennis shoes, but you
29 don't remember whether you have seen him wearing them since

1 the murders or not?

2 A. No, I did not.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further of this
4 witness, Your Honor.

5 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. Showing you the same document that Counsel showed 7 you, prior to him showing you this, have you ever seen this
8 before in your life?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Is this your writing?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Is this any tape recording of your voice?

13 A. No.

14 Q. In fact, on these little notes it looks like
15 somebody wrote down Grant Hill and then crossed it out;
16 right?

17 A. Right.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we offer the 19 exhibit into evidence.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object.

21 BY THE COURT: Identify through this witness?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is clearly hearsay.

24 BY THE COURT: Oh, that is overruled-- I mean
25 I'm not going to allow that.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
27 questions of Ms. Moore.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. Is she finally excused?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: As far as I am concerned, she

1 is, Judge.

2 BY THE COURT: You are free to go.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: One second.

4 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have nothing else.

6 BY THE COURT: You are free to go.

7 WITNESS EXCUSED.

8 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, the next witness that I
10 am calling is Latoya Harding.

11 BY THE COURT: Latoya--

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hold it, hold it, please.

13 Okay, I would call Mr. Glover.

14 BY THE COURT: Mr. Glover.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Billy Glover.

16 (Witness enters courtroom.)

17 BY THE COURT: Come up here, Mr. Glover.

18 Would you raise your right hand. You have not been 19 sworn, have you?

20 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

21 BILLY GLOVER,

22 a black male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,
23 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

24 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there, please
25 sir. And state your name for the record.

26 BY THE WITNESS: Billy Glover.

27 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Mr. Glover, could you share with us, please, where 29 you live?

1 A. Carrollton, Mississippi. House 506.

2 Q. Okay, and how long have you lived in Mississippi?

3 A. All my life.

4 Q. How old are you now?

5 A. 38.

6 Q. Okay, Mr. Glover, are you presently employed?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. What is it that you do?

9 A. Construction work, concrete finishing for J.D.
10 Ferguson.

11 Q. Now what I would like to ask you is do you know a
12 person by the name of Curtis Flowers?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Can you-- is he here in the courtroom?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Can you identify him, please, by pointing to him?

17 A. Right here.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For the record the witness
19 has identified Mr. Flowers.

20 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. I would like to take you back to about the 16th of 23 July of 1996 and ask you if you can recall seeing Mr. Flowers
24 on that day?

25 A. (No immediate response.)

26 Q. The date-- well, let me ask you this. Do you
27 recall the date that the Tardy incident occurred?

28 A. Yes.

29 Q. Okay, and do you recall seeing Mr. Flowers on that

1 day?

2 A. Yes, I seen him that morning.

3 Q. And what time that morning did you see him?

4 A. Uh, a little--9:00, between 9:00 and 9:30, 9:15,
5 something like that.

6 Q. Okay. Now if you can recall. Now if at any time
7 you can't recall, just let me know. It's okay.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. But is that your best recollection?

10 A. Yeah, that's my best.

11 Q. Okay. Now why-- where did you see him?

12 A. He came over to his sister's house.

13 Q. And where does his sister live? On what street?
14 Do you know?

15 A. Cemetery Road, I think.

16 Q. Do you know what-- did she live in her house with
17 anybody else?

18 A. Her and her husband.

19 Q. Okay. Was anybody else there that day?

20 A. Yeah, her cousin, Latoya.

21 Q. Latoya. Okay, now her sister is, what is her
22 sister's name?

23 A. Priscilla.

24 Q. Had you been over to her house before?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Have you been over to her house since?

27 A. Yes, sir.

28 Q. Do you know her house when you see it?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Do you actually know the name of the street?

2 A. No, sir. Not actually, but I think it's Cemetery
3 Road.

4 Q. Have you ever heard of Dennis Street--

5 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, he can't lead his
6 witness.

7 BY THE COURT: You can't lead him.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the street names up in
10 there?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. How far is her house from where Curtis lives?

13 A. Oh, a block over.

14 Q. Okay, are there other relatives of the Flowers
15 family that live in that area?

16 A. (No immediate response.)

17 Q. If you know?

18 A. Yeah, her cousin, he live across the street from 19 her.

20 Q. Who is that?

21 A. Mario.

22 Q. And do you know where the parents live or lived at 23 that time? I know they don't stay there any more.

24 A. I know where they lived, but I don't know the name
25 of the street.

26 Q. Okay, and you don't actually live in Winona?

27 A. No.

28 Q. Where do you actually live?

29 A. Carrollton.

1 Q. Carrollton, okay. Now let me ask you this. How is
2 it that you-- what was happening the day that you saw Mr.
3 Flowers?

4 A. Well, I went by-- we supposed to have been working,
5 but it started raining and I went by to see James, but he had
6 went to work so--

7 Q. What is James' last name?

8 A. James Ward.

9 Q. Who is he related to?

10 A. That is Curtis' brother-in-law, Priscilla's
11 husband.

12 Q. Priscilla's husband, okay.

13 A. So he wasn't there and wasn't nobody there but 14 Priscilla and Latoya. But Priscilla, she had to leave to go
15 to the courthouse, and that left me and Latoya there.

16 Q. At any point in time did you -- well, about how 17 long did you see Curtis, and how long was he at that 18 location?

19 A. 15 or 20 minutes; 10 or 15 minutes, something like
20 that.

21 Q. Where is that by the way? Is that on the east--
22 do you know where 51 is? Are you familiar with 51?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. Okay. Is that on the same side of the road of 51
25 that Curtis' house is on or the opposite side of 51?

26 A. The same side.

27 Q. Are you familiar with downtown Winona?

28 A. Yeah.

29 Q. Where-- using 51, is that on the same side of the

1 road of 51 that Tardy's is on, or is that on the opposite
2 side of where Tardy's is?

3 A. It's on the opposite side of it.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I don't have any other
5 questions of this particular witness.

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

7 Q. Mr. Glover, Priscilla left that morning. I think
8 she had to be in court around, at 9:00; right?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. She left. Would it be safe to say she left about 11 8:40, something like that? I'm not trying to tie you down.
12 You didn't have any reason to look at your watch every 5
13 minutes seeing people were coming in and people were leaving,
14 did you, Mr. Glover?

15 A. No.

16 Q. You didn't have any reason to constantly look at 17 your watch; right, that particular day?

18 A. Yeah, you are right.

19 Q. Okay, I'm not going to try to tie you down to any 20 exact times, but she left approximately at 8:40 that morning;
21 right?

22 A. Uh.

23 Q. That's what your testimony-- is that close?

24 A. She left about 5 minutes till.

25 Q. To be there at 9:00?

26 A. Yeah. It's maybe about a two minute drive.

27 Q. Okay. And you say that Curtis came over some 15 or 28 20 minutes after that?

29 A. About 5 or 10 minutes after.

1 Q. He wasn't sleep walking, was he?

2 A. No.

3 Q. He was wide awake?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. And Curtis was wearing white tennis shoes that day,
6 wasn't he?

7 A. Really I done forgot what color the shoes was. I
8 know they was tennis shoes--

9 Q. --Let me direct your attention to--

10 A. They might have been white. They could, yeah,
11 white--

12 Q. --Do you recall making a statement previously, and 13 you were asked the question, "Was he wearing dress shoes or 14 tennis shoes?" Do you remember ever being asked that 15 particular question?

16 A. Yeah.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we get a reference on the 18 date?

19 BY MR. HORAN: Yeah, 8-20.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 8-20?

21 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, thank you.

23 BY MR. HORAN:

24 Q. And you said, "They were tennis shoes. They were 25 probably white. I remember they were white." Do you
26 remember making that statement, Mr. Glover?

27 A. I could have.

28 Q. Do you remember making that statement? I will
29 show you this right here.

1           A.    That's your name right there, Billy James Glover;
2   right.  You were asked a question, "Was it dress shoes or
3   tennis shoes?"  "No, they were tennis shoes.  You know, they
4   probably were white.  I remember they were white.  I didn't
5   pay that much attention to his shoes, you know, but I
6   remember they were white."  You said, "I remember they were
7   white."

8           A.    I said they was probably white.

9           Q.    No, no, no.  After that, what did you say?  Read
10   that.

11          A.    I don't remember that.

12          Q.    You don't remember saying that?

13          A.    Well, I could, I could have said that.

14          Q.    "I remember they were white."

15          A.    Well, yeah.

16          Q.    Okay.  Now--

17                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --Judge, can we ask him to 18   read that whole thing?

19                BY MR. HORAN:  I will read the whole thing.

20                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  I think that is a little
21   cheating on the answer there.

22                BY MR. HORAN:  I will read the whole thing.

23   BY MR. HORAN; .

24          Q.    "No, they were tennis shoes.  You know, they were 25   probably white.  I remember they were white.  But I didn't
26   just, I didn't really pay that much attention to his shoes,
27   you know."  That's what you said; right?

28          A.    Yeah.

29          Q.    Okay.  Now Mr. Flowers at that particular time he

1 wasn't working, was he, to your knowledge?

2 A. (No immediate response.)

3 Q. On that particular date he--

4 A. --no, he wasn't working, not that particular day.

5 Q. Or the day before that? He didn't have a job the 6 day before that?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If he knows.

8 BY THE WITNESS:

9 A. I think he was helping somebody part time or
10 something.

11 Q. Okay, but he came over to that house on a regular 12 basis; right? You were there pretty regular when he would 13 come over there?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. Do you remember the question was asked of 16 you, page 817. You know-- the question was, "Do you know why
17 Curtis Flowers came over there that morning?" You said,
18 "Well, he came over there every, you know, every morning
19 since he wasn't working, you know."

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. Right? I mean he was coming over there every 22 morning during a short period of time; right?

23 A. That was-- well, that's what his brother-in-law was 24 saying, you know.

25 Q. But he was coming over there every day?

26 A. Yeah, I guess he was, yeah.

27 Q. But you can't really say what time Mr. Flowers got 28 there that particular morning, can you, Mr. Glover, to be 29 certain what time Mr. Flowers got there? You are not

1 absolutely positive what time he got there, are you, Mr.
2 Glover? You are giving this jury an approximation--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, at some point the 4 questioning has to stop.

5 BY THE WITNESS: Well, he couldn't--

6 BY THE COURT: --Right. Ask him one question
7 at the time.

8 BY MR. HORAN:

9 Q. Okay. You are not positive are you, Mr. Glover?

10 A. In between 9:00 and 9:30 because they have, they 11 got clocks on the wall, and I remember looking at the clock
12 after the sister left.

13 Q. Well, you stated earlier in your previous sworn 14 testimony that you thought it was between 9:00 and 9:30, and 15 then you said it was 15 after 9:00, and then you said it may 16 have been 10 after 9:00.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

18 BY MR. HORAN:

19 Q. --Do you remember making that particular statement?

20 A. Yeah.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge.

22 Q. You are not sure when he got there, are you?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Judge, object.

24 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, can I not cross
25 him?

26 BY THE COURT: He can make an objection, and I
27 have got to hear the objection before I can rule.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Objection.

29 Improper impeachment. If he is saying it's between

1 9:00 and 9:30, 10 minutes after 9:00 and 15 minutes
2 after 9:00 are both in between 9:00 and 9:30. I
3 don't see how that impeaches--

4 BY THE COURT: --Well, he is entitled to 5 cross-examine him. Go ahead.

6 BY MR. HORAN: I am just trying to establish
7 he doesn't really know what time he got there.

8 BY MR. HORAN:

9 Q. You are not positive as to the minute he got there?

10 A. No, I can't just within the exact minute and second
11 that he came in.

12 Q. But you know it was before 9:30. You know that?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. But he wasn't asleep when he, he didn't go over--
15 he wasn't sleep walking?

16 A. No, he wasn't sleep walking.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Okay. Nothing further.

18 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 Q. Do you own any white gym shoes?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. You wasn't in Tardy's that day, were you?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Okay. How many people you think in Winona own
24 white gym shoes?

25 BY MR. HORAN: I didn't get into all that.

26 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any further
28 questions of Mr. Glover.

29 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. I would certainly
2 say so.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Glover, you are 4 free to go.

5 WITNESS EXCUSED.

6 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would call at this time
8 Mr. Odell Glover-- I mean Odell Hollman; I'm sorry.
9 Mr. Odell Hollman.

10 BY THE COURT: I believe it's Jr., isn't it?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is he a Jr.? Oh, he may be,
12 Judge. I'm not sure.

13 BY MR. EVANS: I think so, Your Honor.

14 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

15 BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand, Mr.
16 Hollman.

17 ODELL HOLLMAN, JR.,

18 a black male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,
19 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

20 BY THE COURT: Have a seat right there, please
21 sir. And state your name for the record.

22 BY THE WITNESS: State my name?

23 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE WITNESS: My name is Odell Hollman.

25 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Okay, and Mr. Hollman, could you tell the ladies
27 and gentlemen of the jury how old you are?

28 A. 23.

29 Q. And where do you normally reside?

1 A. The state penitentiary.

2 Q. Where do you normally reside before that?

3 A. In Carroll County.

4 Q. Carroll County?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And who do you live with?

7 A. My mother.

8 Q. Tell me a little bit about that. What, your 9 family, what does your family consist of? You have your 10 mother?

11 A. Yeah, I have a mother and three sisters and a
12 father.

13 Q. And your three sisters, do you know a person by the 14 name of Patricia Hollman?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay, now Mr. Hollman, I would like to call your 17 attention back to 1996 and ask you this question. At any
18 point in time did you have a discussion with Patricia Hollman
19 with relationship to this case, and this is the case
20 involving Tardy Furniture Store?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury what the 23 discussion was about?

24 A. Uh, well, first of all, I had lost my job and 25 everything, and I was needing -- I had lost my job. Then my 26 probation officer was trying to send me back to Parchman
27 because I didn't have the money to pay my fine. And so me
28 and my sister-- well, I went over to my sister's house around
29 the first week in August of 1996. And me and her was talking

1 about getting some money, this and that. And so I had said,
2 I said, I said it's a reward out for the person who, for the
3 man who killed them Tardy Furniture people. So she said--
4 you know, I just said there was a reward out.

5 So we kept on talking and stuff. So I said, I
6 said, I said, "Would you, why don't you try to get that money
7 there?" And she said, "How am I going to do it?" I said,
8 "Well, you know, they got Curtis charged with, they trying
9 to charge Curtis with that, with the murder. So tell them
10 that you know who did it and get the money." So she said,
11 "All right, I will think about it." All right, I didn't say
12 nothing else. So I started getting on her more and more
13 because I was, my probation officer kept telling me, I'm 14 going to send you back to the penitentiary if you don't come
15 up with this money right here.

16 And then my car, everything was going down on me
17 all at once. And then she was telling me she got bills to 18 pay. Then man, I'm talking about there was so much stuff
19 going on then. So next thing you know, me and her steady
20 talking and stuff. So she said she going to do it. She was 21 going to do it. So I didn't say nothing else.

22 So about a few weeks, few days later passed by.
23 She tell me, she told me-- I had went back over there. I
24 normally go over there sometimes two times a week or 25 something where my nephews at and nieces, talk with them and 26 mess with them. So I had went back over there and asked her 27 did she do it. She said yeah. So I said, "Well, where the 28 money at?" She said, "They didn't give it to me." I said, I 29 said, I said, "What you talking about, they didn't give it to

1     you?" She said, "They have got to find him guilty before
2     they give me the money."

3             So I'm like Man, man, man. So I ain't going to 4     worry about it. So I just-- things kept going on and going
5     on. So I used to come by there every other day, every other
6     day. She was telling me, she was telling me that, I asked
7     her. I used to go by there and ask her did she uh-- I said,
8     "Well, you holler back at them. Holler back at them.
9     Holler back at the DA, see what they say," this and that.
10    She said, "Yeah, but they ain't did nothing though."

11            Q. Did there come a time when you were -- you were out
12    of jail at this time you are talking about?

13            A. Yes, sir.

14            Q. Did there come a time when you went to jail?

15            A. Yes, sir. I went to jail.

16            Q. And what was it for?

17            A. Violating probation.

18            Q. Now you have been convicted before; is that
19    correct?

20            A. Yes, sir.

21            Q. And what was that conviction for?

22            A. Aggravated assault.

23            Q. And was the probation a violation of aggravated
24    assault?

25            A. Yes, sir.

26            Q. Okay. And now did you communicate with her at all
27    once you were incarcerated?

28            A. Yes, sir.

29            Q. And what, and when did you go to jail?

1           A.    I went to jail January the 24th, 1997. And that's
2 when it really started jumping off then. So my probation
3 officer kept telling me-- they done locked me up now, but now
4 the only reason, the only way I can get out if I pay my
5 fine. So I'm steady, I'm steady telling her to go up there
6 and try to come up with the money, get the money somewhere,
7 come up with it some kind of way because we done pulled scams
8 before, you know. And it wasn't nothing, she tells me ain't
9 nothing she can do.

10                So I said, well-- after my probation officer
11 revoked my parole, I said, well, you might as well just stop
12 lying then. It ain't no need of telling no more lies then.
13 And she tells me it ain't nothing I can-- she tells me, she 14 said, "Well, I can't, I can't turn, I can't turn back my 15 words now." I am like, what you talking about? She said,
16 "They might try to do something to me if I was to tell them,
17 you know, I was lying and this and that, trying to get the 18 money."

19           Q.    Let me ask you this here. Were you ever made aware 20 of the fact that there was a hearing that she was involved
21 in?

22           A.    Yes, sir.

23           Q.    Okay. Now what did you do, if anything, after you
24 heard that she was involved in this hearing?

25           A.    Well, first I got with my mama.

26           Q.    And did you just talk to your mother?

27           A.    Yes, sir.

28           Q.    Okay, now I don't want this hearsay is what she 29 said, but what did you do after that?

1           A.    Well, after that, I got in touch with-- one day I
2 was on the yard and got in touch with Curtis, and I asked him
3 for your address because I feel like I done brought this on 4 myself. I feel like, my conscience kept eating me up for 5 it. I feel like I was the one. You know, my conscience was 6 bothering me. You know what I'm saying? So I asked him for 7 your address so I can write you a letter.

8           Q.    Did you do so?

9           A.    Yes, sir.

10          Q.    Prior to that time, had I ever seen you or talked 11 to you?

12          A.    No, sir.

13          Q.    Okay. Now what was your-- are you a friend of 14 Curtis? Do you have a friendship with Curtis or anything?

15          A.    No, sir.

16          Q.    Now let me ask you this. As it relates to, were 17 you ever in the county jail after your probation was 18 violated?

19          A.    Yes, sir.

20          Q.    And while you were-- and this was, and while you
21 were in the county jail, this was before or after this first
22 hearing?

23          A.    It was before.

24          Q.    Okay, and during that time what were you doing in 25 order to get out of jail, if anything? What were you trying
26 to do?

27          A.    I was trying to come up with some money.

28          Q.    And who were you talking to?

29          A.    I was talking to my sister. That was about the

1       only person was helping me then.

2           Q.    Okay, now let me ask you this.  You said that you
3       visited your sister sometimes?

4           A.    All the time.

5           Q.    Okay, did she have any children?

6           A.    Yes, sir.

7           Q.    And what is their names?

8           A.    Tavaris, Kevin and Dominique.

9           Q.    And who is the oldest?

10          A.    Tavaris.

11          Q.    Back in 1996, had he ever been-- do you know
12       whether or not his mother had ever purchased any Grant Hill
13       Fila shoes for him?

14          A.    No, sir.  She ain't never bought them children no
15       name brand shoes, you know.  She, they usually constantly
16       get on up, get on me and my mama about buying them some 17       shoes.  So I know that.  I know, no, she ain't never bought
18       them none.

19          Q.    Now do you know if, do you know of your own
20       personal knowledge or did you know of your own personal 21       knowledge what she had actually told the District Attorney or 22       anybody else?

23          A.    No, sir.  I can't say.

24          Q.    Were you just asleep in the back, by the way?

25          A.    Yes, sir.

26          Q.    By the way, on your present conviction, when-- now
27       is that the only conviction that you have had?

28          A.    Yeah, that's the only felony I got.

29          Q.    Okay, now let me ask you this.  Are you supposed,

1 when are you supposed to be released from jail?

2 A. If I don't receive another RVR in the next four
3 months, I will be released on probation. But now I flat time
4 it in January of 2000.

5 Q. Okay, now so let me see if I can translate that.
6 The latest you would be released would be January of 2000?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. When is the earliest?

9 A. July the 18th.

10 Q. Of what year?

11 A. This year, '99.

12 Q. Okay, has anybody from your the Defense given you
13 anything?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Has anybody offered you a reward?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. And are you related to Curtis Flowers in any kind
18 of way?

19 A. No, sir.

20 Q. Who is your sister?

21 A. Patricia Hollman. Patricia Ann Hollman, my sister.

22 Q. And who contacted me about this case?

23 A. I did. I contacted.

24 (Pause.)

25 BY MR. HORAN: Are you through, Mr. Lumumba?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hold on one second.

27 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No further questions of this
29 witness, Judge.

1     CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

2             Q.     How are you doing, Odell?   Good to see you again.

3             A.     Yeah.

4             Q.     I'm the man that sent you away the first time;
5     isn't that right?

6             A.     No, you didn't send me away.

7                     BY MR. LUMUMBA:   I object.

8                     BY THE COURT:   That is not relevant.   Let's
9     move on.

10    BY THE WITNESS:

11            A.     You didn't send me away.

12            Q.     I prosecuted your case though.

13            A.     No, you did not.   I plea bargain.

14            Q.     Let me ask you something here.   This board seems to 15    be the exhibit of the day for some reason.   Judge Loper was 16    the Judge that revoked you.   You remember him?

17            A.     Yes, sir.

18            Q.     And your sister doesn't have anything on Judge
19    Loper, does she?   She doesn't have any secrets on Judge
20    Loper, does she, that you are aware of?

21            A.     Uh.   What you talking about?

22            Q.     Well, she doesn't have anything that Judge Loper
23    did?

24            A.     No, I don't know.   What you talking about?

25            Q.     I mean she doesn't have any-- I want to know that,
26    okay.

27            A.     No, I don't know what you talking about.

28            Q.     Okay, I am fixing to show you.   Now I'm going to 29    show you what I'm talking about.   You were revoked on 6-26 of

1 '96; right?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Do you want to see the order of revocation, a
4 certified copy of it?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Would you like to see that?

7 A. No, you wrong.

8 Q. Well, I will show you the order.

9 A. It was '97.

10 Q. '97, that's right. '97. I'm sorry. That's right, 11 '97.

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. That's when you got revoked?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And Patricia testified at the prior hearing, Mr.
16 Lumumba asked you about.

17 (Mr. Horan writes on pad on large easel.)

18 On the 14th of September, 1997. You don't disagree with 19 that, do you?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Wait a minute, Judge.

21 BY THE WITNESS:

22 A. What you saying? I don't understand what you are
23 saying.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach just one
25 second?

26 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

27 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
28 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For whatever it is worth,

1                   wasn't it October of '97? I think it was October.

2                   BY MR. EVANS: September.

3                   BY MR. HORAN: The second trial. The first
4 trial was in September.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He only had one trial.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: It was September.

7                   BY THE COURT: I think it was October.

8                   BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

9                   BY THE COURT: That is not-- what he said
10 exactly.

11                   BY MR. FREELON: What's on the transcript?

12                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: The transcript. I will get 13 the transcript.

14                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, whatever it was. I am
15 confident it was, the 13th of October.

16                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

17 BY MR. HORAN:

18                   Q. Whatever; it was either the ninth or tenth month of 19 that year; right?

20                   A. (No response.)

21                   Q. You said, you told Mr. Lumumba you knew when she 22 testified, you know, she testified. You were, you found that 23 fact out. It was either in September or October; right?
24 Right?

25                   A. I don't know when she testified.

26                   Q. Well, you wrote him a letter, did you not?

27                   A. I didn't tell him nothing about I knew when she 28 testified. I knew she was testifying.

29                   Q. But you don't disagree with me that it was at that

1 point in time?

2 A. I don't disagree.

3 Q. And you had been revoked. Nothing Patricia-- you
4 just told me you didn't know that Patricia had anything on
5 Judge Loper. Your revocation order had already been entered;
6 right?

7 A. No, sir. Let me speak.

8 Q. Well, wait just a minute.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no--

10 BY MR. HORAN: No, he is going to answer yes
11 or no. Then he can--

12 BY THE COURT: He can answer yes or no and 13 then explain.

14 BY MR. HORAN:

15 Q. Yes, sir.

16 A. Let me speak, please, sir.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. When I found out--

19 BY THE COURT: You must answer yes or no.
20 Then you can explain it all you want to.

21 BY THE WITNESS:

22 A. Ask the question. Ask the question.

23 Q. All right. When Patricia testified, Judge Loper
24 had already revoked you?

25 A. Right.

26 Q. For not paying the fine?

27 A. Right.

28 Q. For not going to the restitution center?

29 A. Right.

1           Q.    You refused to go down there and work and pay off
2 your fine?

3           A.    Right.

4           Q.    And he revoked you?

5           A.    That's right. That's right. I agree with that.

6           Q.    And she testified some three or four months after
7 that?

8           A.    Okay. Now you want me to say what I got to say?

9           Q.    You can explain your answer to that particular
10 question, Mr. Hollman.

11          A.    Well, I had told her-- that's why I had told her
12 don't even worry about it. That's why I had told her just 13 let it go; stop lying. But now she didn't.

14          Q.    Well, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa. That is not
15 what you told Mr. Lumumba in the letter, was it, Mr. Hollman?

16          A.    It ain't nothing in that letter like that.

17          Q.    Read this right here. "I had my sister lie on the 18 stand. I had a fine to pay off."

19          A.    Right.

20          Q.    Well, you didn't have the fine to pay off at that 21 point in time, did you, Mr. Hollman?

22          A.    See you--

23          Q.    Because you refused. You refused to work, and 24 Judge Loper entered in the order, did he not? You stood in 25 front of him, and he said, Mr. Hollman, you are not going to 26 work. You refuse to do this. You haven't paid the fine
27 off. I'm revoking your probation, and I'm sending you to 28 Parchman. That's what he told you, didn't he?

29          A.    I had-- yeah, he told--

1 Q. Yes or no?

2 A. Okay, then when he told me that, I had already had
3 told her to stop lying now. See, you fail to realize. You
4 just taking a little bit, a little bit. You are taking a
5 little bit out of there and trying to use it, but now you
6 need, you ain't taking all of it out of there. You are just 7 taking what you want to take out of it.

8 Q. I am just asking you--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, excuse me. The
10 witness--

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. Are you through? Are you through?

13 A. Yeah.

14 BY THE COURT: I thought he was through too.

15 BY MR. HORAN:

16 Q. Now Mr. Hollman, you just testified and I think you
17 said something about the $30,000, and you and Patricia had 18 this plan together to put the finger on this Defendant;
19 right?

20 A. I ain't said nothing about no money. I ain't said
21 what, how much money it was.

22 Q. Well, you did say in that letter, didn't you?

23 A. The only thing I said was some money.

24 Q. You did say in the letter, did you not?

25 A. Yeah.

26 Q. Said, "I told her to tell the police"--

27 A. That was in January.

28 Q. "I told her to tell the police"--

29 A. --Yeah, in January.

1 Q. --"that she knew who committed those murders."

2 A. Right.

3 Q. "So she could get that $30,000."

4 A. That was in January then I told her to do that.

5 Q. "and get me out"?

6 A. Right. Exactly.

7 Q. Well, I mean her testimony is and her statement is,
8 you wouldn't disagree with me, that she saw Curtis that
9 morning, and he was wearing Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes.
10 That is not, that is not really-- that is not a very good
11 plan is it, Mr. Hollman?

12 A. She said what?

13 Q. That he was wearing Grant Hill tennis shoes, and 14 she saw him that morning. That is all she has testified to 15 basically with some other things. I mean y'all didn't have a
16 very good plan, did you?

17 A. No, I didn't plan nothing.

18 Q. Okay. You testified earlier that you were part of 19 this so-called plan.

20 A. I ain't said me--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For the record, Judge, I
22 think--

23 BY THE WITNESS:

24 A. --between me and her?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. Objection. For 26 the record, just so we won't state facts not in 27 evidence, he specifically said he did not know what 28 she told the police. That's specifically what he 29 said. That is his testimony. He is

1 mischaracterizing the witness' testimony.

2 BY MR. HORAN: I'm not mischaracterizing
3 anything.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now is Counsel-- excuse me.
5 Is Counsel going to mutter or mumble under his bare
6 breath, or is he going to argue about the objection
7 or what? My objection is he can't stand up there
8 and misstate the witness' testimony. The testimony
9 was--

10 BY MR. HORAN: --I am characterizing it as a
11 plan with him and his sister to do something, and I
12 think that is clear before the jury.

13 BY THE COURT: He is on cross--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No problem with that, but 15 to say that he knew what she said is contrary to 16 what he said.

17 BY MR. HORAN:

18 Q. You knew what you told her, according to you, what 19 you wanted her to say?

20 A. She didn't-- I don't know whether she said what I
21 told her to say or not.

22 Q. But you were, according to your own testimony here
23 today, assuming, assuming it's true.

24 A. Oh, it's true.

25 Q. You were trying to get her to perjure herself?

26 A. Oh, we was doing it together. It was a team. It
27 was team work.

28 Q. Okay. It was team work?

29 A. Yeah.

1           Q.    Can you explain to me how this team work was going
2 to go down after you got revoked here in '97, and she
3 testified four months later, and you didn't contact Mr.
4 Lumumba until--

5           A.    --I contact her.

6           Q.    When did you contact Mr. Lumumba?

7           A.    I said her. I wrote her. I wrote her letters and
8 stuff. I been talking to her on the telephone, writing her
9 letters, trying to talk to her and stuff. Man, this is my 10 sister, man. I ain't got no reason to lie on my sister,
11 man. We started out together at this right here. But now
12 she done got herself-- I guess you -- well, I ain't going to 13 say that.

14          Q.    Well, she gave a statement on August the 7th of 15 1996. You don't disagree with that? You know John Johnson,
16 don't you?

17          A.    No.

18          Q.    You don't know Mr. Johnson?

19          A.    I don't know John Johnson.

20          Q.    You wouldn't disagree with me that she talked to 21 Mr. Johnson on the 7th of August, 1996, would you?

22          A.    No, sir. I wouldn't disagree.

23          Q.    And you don't have any idea what she told him;
24 right?

25          A.    No, sir.

26          Q.    And there wasn't, you don't know whether or not
27 there was a thirty thousand dollar reward then, do you?

28          A.    No, sir. I don't know that. That was back in 29 January, around that way. It was back in -- it was January

1 when the thirty thousand dollars came out. That was just too
2 much money. I was trying to get my hands over to it.

3 Q. Yeah, but you admit, do you not, that you stated in
4 the letter that, "I had my sister to lie on the stand"?

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. Right?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. "So I could get my fine paid off"?

9 A. Yeah, we thought, I thought-- okay, go ahead.
10 Finish what you got to say.

11 Q. You admit that's what you told Mr. Lumumba in the 12 letter?

13 A. Yes, sir. I admit to that. I admit to lying,
14 trying to tell her, trying to get her to lie so we can get 15 the money. That was, it all was a plot for me and her to get 16 that money.

17 Q. It was a plot after Judge Loper had already revoked
18 you?

19 A. We been-- this money was from '96 all the way up
20 to, to right when I, before I got revoked -- when they
21 revoked me and I seen I couldn't get the money, that's when I
22 told her to stop lying and tell the truth. That's when it
23 started. That's when I started telling her, let it go. But 24 now we would have got the money, and I would have still been
25 out there. She still, she wouldn't have been on no stand.
26 She wouldn't be lying right now.

27 Q. But she never told you that anyone promised her
28 anything, did she? You didn't testify to that on direct, and 29 you are not testifying to that now, are you?

1           A.    She didn't ever tell me that.  It spoke for
2   itself--

3           Q.    --Had anyone promised her--

4           A.    --I thought, you know, it spoke for itself - thirty 5   thousand dollar reward.

6           Q.    She didn't tell you anyone offered her anything to
7   testify?

8           A.    How you figure it speak for itself?  Thirty
9   thousand dollars reward.

10          Q.    She volunteered this information on August the 7th,
11   1996, before any reward was even posted.

12                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Well, I object to that.

13                Well, posted, that is the word he used.

14                BY MR. HORAN:  Right.

15                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  But I object to that because
16   I don't think that is accurate.  I think the reward
17   came up-- if I remember, the reward came up --
18   there is a paper there that has got reward the day
19   of the man's funeral.

20                BY THE COURT:  Well, the jury has heard the 21   evidence, and they can evaluate it.  That is their 22   job.

23                BY MR. HORAN:  I will rephrase the question.

24                He is right about that.

25                BY MR. HORAN:

26                Q.    But the thirty thousand dollars, that certainly
27   wasn't there the 7th of August of 1996, was it?

28                A.    I didn't say it was.

29                Q.    Okay.  Now when were you incarcerated as a result

1 of your revocation? What I mean is they picked you up
2 before they revoked you; right?

3 A. They picked me up.

4 Q. And when was that day?

5 A. January the 24th, 1997.

6 Q. Okay, so you stayed in jail for a period of almost 7 six months prior to your revocation?

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. Is that right?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And at no point in time during that period of time
12 did you-- you weren't out on bond. Make any-- you didn't 13 make the bond to get out before your revocation hearing, and 14 you didn't pay off any of these fines?

15 A. (No response.)

16 Q. In fact, Judge Loper offered you the opportunity,
17 did he not, to go to the restitution center in Jackson?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. To work it off?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. He said, Odell, let's just go and work this stuff
22 off.

23 A. Yeah, he said that.

24 Q. But you said what?

25 A. I wasn't going to work.

26 Q. That's right.

27 BY MR. HORAN: Nothing further.

28 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Just a couple of questions, Mr. Hollman. All I

1 really want to know is that did anybody convict you, or did
2 you plead guilty to the crime?

3 A. I pled guilty.

4 Q. Okay, so secondly, did Mr. Flowers, myself or
5 anybody else approach you for your testimony?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Who sent the letter?

8 A. I did. I got a conscience, man. That hurt me
9 every day, man.

10 Q. Now by the way, when you got the information from 11 Mr. Flowers about my address, you have testified to that; is
12 that right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Was he somewhere where you could talk to him close,
15 or did you have to--

16 A. --I had to scream. I had to holler to him.

17 Q. Has Mr. Flowers ever been on any yard--

18 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, I didn't go into 19 that, first of all.

20 BY THE COURT: He didn't. Sustained.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Okay. Have you actually ever discussed this case
23 with Mr. Flowers at all?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Patricia Hollman is what to you?

26 A. Is my sister.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

28 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This witness is as far as we

1 are concerned, Judge.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. Take him back.

4 WITNESS EXCUSED.

5 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I need maybe a brief recess
7 to talk to Mr. Freelon about that.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a few
9 minutes. I know we are going a little long, but if 10 it is all right, I'm going to go a little longer.

11 (FOLLOWING THE SECOND AFTERNOON RECESS, THE
12 TRIAL RESUMED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT, ALL
13 COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, we are ready.

15 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM AT 5:56 P.M.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay, who will you have next?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we would call Tina
18 Allen.

19 BY THE COURT: Tina Allen. Mr. Bridges, I
20 guess maybe you ought to go get her.

21 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

22 BY THE COURT: Come up here, Ms. Allen. Have 23 you been sworn previously?

24 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
26 hand.

27 TINA ALLEN,

28 a black female called to testify as a witness by the 29 Defendant, having first been duly sworn, testified as

1 follows, to-wit:

2 BY THE COURT: Have a seat over here. Would
3 you state your name for the record, please.

4 BY THE WITNESS: Alva Bertina Allen.

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6 Q. Ms. Allen, could you share with me, please, where
7 is it that you live?

8 A. I am living at 2184 Kerbington Drive in Memphis,
9 Tennessee.

10 Q. And prior to living at that address, where were you
11 living?

12 A. At 702 Dennis Street.

13 Q. And where is that located?

14 A. Winona, Mississippi.

15 Q. Can you I ask you this here. Are you employed at 16 this time?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Share with the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
19 what it is that you do.

20 A. I'm a nurse at Southaven Dialysis Unit in 21 Southaven, Mississippi.

22 Q. And how long have you been involved doing that?

23 A. I have been working with the company for, it will 24 be two years in May which I transferred from Greenwood to 25 Southaven in October.

26 Q. What were you, what was your work in Greenwood?
27 The same thing?

28 A. Same thing.

29 Q. Okay. And Ms. Allen, do you have a family in

1 Winona at all?

2 A. My parents.

3 Q. Your parents?

4 A. And my sister and brothers.

5 Q. Okay, and how long have you been living in Memphis
6 now?

7 A. Six months. Since October.

8 Q. Are you involved in more study or just work?

9 A. Just work.

10 Q. Now Ms. Allen, I would like to know if you know a
11 person by the name of Curtis Flowers?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And do you see him here in the courtroom?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Can you point to him, please.

16 A. The gentleman in the black suit.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, for the record Ms.

18 Allen is pointing to Mr. Curtis Flowers.

19 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21 Q. Now Ms. Allen, I want to call your attention back
22 to the day that the incident happened at Tardy Furniture
23 Store. Do you recall that day?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay. And can you tell me, please, if you saw Mr.
26 Flowers at all on that day; Mr. Curtis Flowers I'm speaking
27 of?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. And tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury where

1     you saw him, and if you can kind of explain to them, do the
2     best you can.

3             A.     Okay. It was around 10 o'clock that morning. I
4     was on my way from picking my son up from tutoring session
5     which lasts from 9:00 to 10:00, and I was, left to go home,
6     and he was coming across the JJ Knox campus maybe from-- I
7     got as close as from here to that back door to him. He was 8     coming across the campus that morning.

9             Q.     Okay, now the JJ Knox campus, what is that? Tell
10    the ladies and gentlemen of the jury.

11            A.     It's the campus where the JJ Knox School used to 12    be, but it burned a long, long time ago, and the slab is 13    still there. And he was coming across-- really he was mostly 14    down there by the basketball court as we call it, which is 15    the foundation. The slab for the foundation is still there,
16    but he was just a little further past the basketball court on 17    that little driveway like.

18            Q.     Are you familiar with a place called Jeff's Store,
19    Jeff's Store?

20            A.     Yes, sir.

21            Q.     Where is that located at?

22            A.     It's on 51 Highway.

23            Q.     Okay. Now is the place where you saw Mr. Flowers, 24    by the way, is that on the same side of 51 that his home is 25    on, or is it on the opposite side?

26            A.     It's on the same side.

27            Q.     If you were to, if you were at Mr. Flowers' -- do
28    you know where he stays or where he stayed at that time?

29            A.     He was living in the project at that time.

1 Q. He was living in the project?

2 A. Well, I assume he was living in the project. I
3 can't say exactly where he was living, but I think, if I'm 4 not mistaken, he was living in the project with his 5 girlfriend.

6 Q. Okay. Now do you know where the projects is?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay, if I was in the projects and I was on my way
9 to Jeff's Store, what route could I take?

10 A. (No immediate response.)

11 Q. Would I go, would that area that you described be 12 anywhere near involved in the route?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. So in other words, is the place that you saw Mr.
15 Flowers, is that-- where is that in relationship to his home
16 and to Jeff's Store?

17 A. Let's see. You want like going to the store?

18 Q. Yes.

19 A. Okay. He would have to come across Powell Street,
20 and most of the people-- that is just a short cut that go
21 across Powell Street and go across the campus, and from there
22 to maybe Harper Street and on to maybe-- I'm not for sure of 23 that street, but maybe Freedman Street-- not Freedman Street,
24 but I'm not for sure the name of that street.

25 Q. But does it lead to Jeff's Store?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Okay. I'm going to hold this up to you and tell
28 you that this has been identified as, by a prior as, this 29 exhibit - and this is Exhibit 109 for the record, Judge - as

1 Mr. Flowers' home, okay, up here in this area?

2 A. It's in the projects.

3 Q. Right. Project.

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. This has been identified as Jeff's Store down here
6 where this "X" is. Can you show me, please, where you would
7 proceed if you were going -- where does the lot, this JJ Knox
8 school yard is at?

9 A. Is this Cemetery Lane right here?

10 Q. Yes.

11 A. Okay. You would have to come on to Cemetery Lane,
12 and this is Powell Street.

13 Q. Uh-hum, okay.

14 A. This is Powell. Well, if you come all the way down
15 to Powell Street, you would be on 51. But Mr. Flowers seemed 16 to be coming at an angle across Powell Street and on over to 17 Silver Street and down to 51.

18 Q. Okay, can we repeat that, please, in front of the 19 ladies and gentlemen of the jury. All right, could you--

20 BY THE COURT: You can step down, ma'am.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can she step down, please?

22 (Witness steps in front of jury box with Mr.
23 Lumumba holding Exhibit S-109.)

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Okay, first of all, show me where, assuming as 26 identified that this is the Flowers, this is where Mr.
27 Flowers was staying.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Some of the jurors can't see.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

1                   Okay.

2       BY THE WITNESS:

3           A.     This is--

4           Q.     --We are going to do it twice. We will do it so
5 everybody can see it.

6           A.     Okay, this will be the project, and he would have
7 to come at an angle. This is Cemetery Lane. He would
8 probably walk straight down Cemetery Lane.

9                   BY MR. EVANS: I object to probably where he
10 walked. She can only testify to what she saw.

11                  BY THE COURT: Well, I think he-- correct me
12 if I am wrong, but I believe he originally asked
13 her what route could he take.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's right.

15                  BY MR. EVANS: I object to what route he could 16 have taken. The only thing this witness can 17 testify to is what she knows of her own knowledge.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, then do this.
19 Well, Judge, your ruling?

20                  BY THE COURT: Okay. I sustain the 21 objection.

22       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23           Q.     Show me where--

24           A.     --That's the only street unless he goes behind the 25 house. This is the only street in the neighborhood.

26           Q.     Show me where the - what do they call it? - JJ Knox
27 School? Where is that? Where would that be?

28           A.     It will be located on Powell Street.

29           Q.     Okay, it's off Powell Street?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay. And show me where Jeff's Store is on this
3 map again?

4 A. Well, right next to Silver Street.

5 Q. Right next to Silver Street. And show me again
6 where the projects are?

7 A. Right here on McNutt Drive.

8 Q. One more time, where lot is at? Right off of what
9 street?

10 A. Powell Street.

11 Q. Okay. Now can everybody see? All right. Thank
12 you.

13 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

14 Q. Okay, I think you indicated that this is when you
15 were-- what were you doing when you saw him? I'm sorry.

16 A. I was driving down Powell Street.

17 Q. Okay, and what was your purpose? Where were you
18 going, and what were you doing?

19 A. I was going to pick up my son from his tutoring
20 class.

21 Q. Okay, and what time, what time did you indicate
22 that you saw Mr. Flowers?

23 A. It was 10 o'clock.

24 Q. How do you remember it was that day?

25 A. Well, that particular morning, like I say, I had 26 gotten up that morning and carried him to class, and I was on 27 my way to pick him up, and I was on the phone talking to one
28 of my girlfriends, and I told her that I had to go because it
29 was 10:00. So when I got to the kitchen, it was 10 o'clock.

1 So when I got to go out the back door, my telephone started
2 ringing. And I go back to answer my telephone, and it was
3 the teacher telling me she was done with Carlton. So I gets
4 in my car, and me and my daughter, and we was kind of driving
5 kind of fast because she was finished with him, and I wanted
6 to hurry up and get there. And so when I, on Cemetery Lane
7 turning up Powell Street, I could see Curtis right there on
8 that, just a little bit down from the basketball court, and I
9 just looked at him real good, and I am like I wonder why is 10 this guy walking this time of morning. But, you know, I just 11 kept right on driving.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
13 of this witness.

14 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. All right, Ms. Allen, I want to make sure that I
16 understand what you are saying. You were in your house. You
17 looked at the phone-- I mean you looked at the clock, and the 18 phone rang at about 10 o'clock. Is that correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And the clock had 10 o'clock on it?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. How long were you on the phone?

23 A. I went back to answer the phone, and it was the 24 tutor. My teacher, well, my son's teacher tells me that my 25 son is ready. I said, "Okay. I'm on my way."

26 Q. Okay.

27 A. So then when I get back into--

28 Q. --All right, let's take it one step at a time.

29 A. Okay.

1 Q. Approximately how long were you on the phone?

2 A. 30 seconds, because that was the conversation,
3 "Your son is ready." "Well, I'm on my way."

4 Q. All right.

5 A. That was the conversation.

6 Q. And where were you living?

7 A. At 702 Dennis Street.

8 Q. Okay, so you talked on the phone. Then you walked
9 out to your car; is that correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. You got in your car?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. You left your house?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Which direction did you travel?

16 A. I backs out my driveway, and I am on Dennis
17 Street. I'm on Cemetery Lane. There is a stop sign at the 18 end of Cemetery Lane and Powell Street.

19 Q. Okay, so however long it would take you to talk on 20 the phone, go get your car and drive over there, that's when 21 you say you saw Curtis Flowers?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Do you know Curtis Flowers?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Curtis Flowers is who you saw, isn't it?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. And if there has been testimony that Curtis was 28 seen crossing the road or somewhere around 10 o'clock heading
29 up around Jeff's store, that would be pretty consistent with

1 what you saw, wouldn't it?

2 A. I don't, well--

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Crossing what road? I don't
4 understand. I object.

5 BY MR. EVANS: I believe the witness
6 understands whether opposing Counsel does or not.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Crossing the road, it's
8 unclear. What road are we talking about?

9 BY THE COURT: Well, that's right--

10 BY MR. EVANS:

11 Q. --Crossing Highway 51 going towards Jeff's Store;
12 that would be consistent with the time that you saw him over
13 in that area, wouldn't it?

14 A. Not crossing 51.

15 Q. I didn't say you saw him at 51. I said him
16 crossing 51 at Jeff's Store would be consis-- around 10
17 o'clock would be consistent with you seeing him a few minutes
18 after 10:00, wouldn't it?

19 A. Well, he had to be walking fast to get to where I
20 saw him.

21 Q. All right, and if he was walking fast, that would 22 be approximately how long it would take him to get there too,
23 wouldn't it?

24 A. (Pause) Well, yes, sir. He could have gotten
25 there.

26 BY MR. EVANS: No further questions.

27 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Did you ever see Mr. Flowers on the opposite side
29 of 51?

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. You ever see him anywhere near 51?

3 A. That's the only place I saw him on Powell Street.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. That was the only place I saw him.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Hold on one second.

7 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No further questions.

9 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

11 BY THE COURT: You are free to go.

12 WITNESS EXCUSED.

13 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we would call at this 15 time Charita Flowers.

16 BY THE COURT: Charita Flowers.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, actually her name is,
18 her last name is-- well, it used to be Flowers. I
19 can't think of what it is right now.

20 (Mr. Evans and Mr. Lumumba confer out of the 21 hearing of the Court Reporter. Witness enters
22 courtroom.)

23 BY THE COURT: If you will come around up
24 here, ma'am. Have you been sworn?

25 BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

26 CHARITA FLOWERS,

27 a black female called to testify as a witness by the
28 Defendant, having first been duly sworn, testified as
29 follows, to-wit:

1                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here. State
2 your name for the record.

3                   BY THE WITNESS: Charita Flowers.

4                   BY THE COURT REPORTER: Would you spell your 5 first name, please.

6                   BY THE WITNESS: C H A R I T A.

7                   BY THE COURT: Come here. If y'all would come
8 here. I may can help you.

9                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
10 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

11                   BY THE COURT: Are you trying to decide
12 whether you have got the name or not?

13                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

14                   BY THE COURT: Is that the same lady?

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that's her.

16                   BY MR. EVANS: Oh, Baskin, okay.

17                   (The Court shows Counsel a document.)

18                   BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

19                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

20                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21                   Q. Okay, ma'am, could you state your name for the 22 record, please.

23                   A. Charita Flowers.

24                   Q. Okay, do you have Baskin? You ever heard that name
25 before?

26                   A. Yes.

27                   Q. Is that your name also?

28                   A. No, I was married before.

29                   Q. Okay, what was your name then?

1           A.    Charita Flowers Baskin.

2           Q.    Okay, Ms. Baskin, are you related to someone in the 3 courtroom here?

4           A.    Yes, sir.

5           Q.    Who are you related to?

6           A.    The Defendant, Curtis Flowers.

7           Q.    And do you have other members in your family like
8 brothers and sisters?

9           A.    Yes.

10          Q.    And what does that consist of?

11          A.    One brother and three sisters.

12          Q.    Okay, in addition to Curtis, do you have another
13 brother?

14          A.    Yes.

15          Q.    What is his name?

16          A.    Archie Flowers.

17          Q.    Okay. Now and where do you presently live?

18          A.    At 715 Dennis in Winona.

19          Q.    And how long have you lived in Winona?

20          A.    22 years.

21          Q.    22 years.

22          A.    All my life.

23          Q.    Is that how old you are?

24          A.    Yes, sir.

25                   (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with the 26 Defendant.)

27          Q.    Okay, Charita, I would like to call your attention
28 to back in 1996, and ask you do you recall somewhere after
29 the 4th of July ever receiving a call from anybody at Tardy's

1 store? I'm not asking you what they said, but I want to
2 know if you ever received a call?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And where were you at when you received the call?

5 A. At my mother's house.

6 Q. Who receives phone calls at your mother's house?

7 A. Everyone who lived there. Whoever answer the 8 phone; yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay, does Curtis receive any calls at your 10 mother's?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Now do you know about when this occurred when you
13 got this call, and how many times it occurred?

14 A. Twice. Around the 4th.

15 Q. And did the person identify themselves?

16 A. Yes, sir. The first phone call I received they
17 did.

18 Q. Who did they say they were?

19 A. Mrs. Tardy.

20 Q. Okay, and did you get another phone call?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Did that person identify themselves?

23 A. No, they didn't.

24 Q. Okay. Now as to the first phone call, after you
25 got that phone call, did you have a conversation? Did you
26 say anything to Curtis?

27 A. Yes, I did.

28 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, okay. Just as long
29 as he doesn't go into the substance of the

1 conversation.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. You said something to Curtis?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. And what did you say to Curtis?

6 A. I told him that Mrs. Tardy called and wanted him, I
7 mean wanted to know why he didn't, wasn't coming to work, and 8 he said no, he wasn't going.

9 Q. I see.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

11 BY MR. HORAN: No questions.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no questions.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. Is she finally excused?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

15 BY THE COURT: You are free to go, ma'am.

16 WITNESS EXCUSED.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would also call as a
18 witness now-- do you want my next witness?

19 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that would be Archie
21 Flowers.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Archie Flowers, Sr.

24 BY THE COURT: Archie Flowers, Sr.

25 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

26 BY THE COURT: Come up here, Mr. Flowers, if 27 you will. Have you been sworn?

28 BY THE WITNESS: No.

29 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right

1 hand.

2 ARCHIE FLOWERS, SR.,

3 a black male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant,
4 having first been duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

5 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here, please
6 sir. State your name for the record.

7 BY THE WITNESS: Archie Lee Flowers.

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. Okay, and are you a Junior or a Senior?

10 A. Senior.

11 Q. Okay, you have a son by the name of Archie also?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Mr. Flowers, could you share with us, please, do
14 you have a family?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. What does that consist of? Wife, children? How 17 many? Are you married?

18 A. Six kids. Right, wife.

19 Q. And you have a wife?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. And is she in the courtroom today?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay, would you identify her for the record,
24 please.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not proper.

26 BY THE COURT: That is not relevant. Let's
27 move on.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Okay. Now how many, how many boys and girls or

1 whatever you have?

2 A. I have two boys, two boys and four girls.

3 Q. Do you work, Mr. Flowers?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And what is it that you do?

6 A. I'm a clerk at the store, cashier.

7 Q. And what is the name of the store you work at?

8 A. Kelly's Stop and Go.

9 Q. You ever heard of a store called Jeff's?

10 A. That's right. That's the name. You know, that's 11 the man that owns the store.

12 Q. And do you know a person by the name of Troy or 13 something like that?

14 A. Troy, he used to run the store.

15 Q. Okay, now what I would like to ask you now, Mr.
16 Flowers, is do you recall the day that the incident occurred
17 at Tardy's Furniture Store?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. And do you know whether or not you saw your son on
20 that day?

21 A. Right. He came to the store.

22 Q. And do you know if you told him anything while he 23 was there?

24 A. Right. I was telling him about the killing.

25 Q. That occurred where?

26 A. Out at the store.

27 Q. Okay. Now do you know for certain exactly what 28 time he came to your store?

29 A. I sure, I never looked up at the clock.

1 Q. Okay. And did he stay at the store, or did he
2 leave the store?

3 A. He stayed at the store a while.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
5 of Mr. Flowers.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor.

7 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

8 Q. Mr. Flowers, if I understand what you are saying is 9 you don't know what time Curtis came by the store?

10 A. I do not.

11 Q. But you know that when he stopped by the store, it
12 was after the murders had already taken place?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. And it was far enough after the murders that you
15 had already heard about it; is that right?

16 A. I had just-- some guy was on the outside talking
17 about it.

18 Q. Okay.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Give me one second, Your
20 Honor.

21 (Mr. Evans finds an exhibit.)

22 Q. And that's the closest you can pin down the time
23 that he came down to the store?

24 A. Like I say, I don't know what time it was.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Okay, nothing further.

26 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

27 Q. When you saw Mr. Flowers, do you have any idea how 28 long it had been since the incident at Tardy's had taken
29 place? Do you know how long it had been?

1           A.    Oh, maybe about ten minutes or something.

2           Q.    Okay. Now is that ten minutes since it had taken
3 place or ten minutes since you heard about it?

4           A.    Ten minutes since I heard about it. Some guys on 5 the outside were talking about it.

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any further
7 questions.

8                   BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, he is.

10                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you are free to go.

11                               WITNESS EXCUSED.

12                  BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I approach for a moment,
14 Judge?

15                  BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

16                               (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
17 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't believe we have 19 anybody else. I need to go out and check and make 20 sure. Harvey was supposed to be going out and 21 check.

22                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you want me to just go out
24 there and see?

25                  BY THE COURT: If you don't mind. Here he 26 comes.

27                               END BENCH CONFERENCE.

28                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: At this time the Defense
29 would rest, Judge.

DEFENDANT RESTS.

BY THE COURT: Okay.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a motion.

BY THE COURT: I understand. Ladies and gentlemen, we have reached another point. The Defense has rested. It is my understanding from talking to the attorneys there may be a few rebuttal witnesses in the morning. But we ought to be able to get this case to the point where y'all can make your decision on it some time tomorrow. We have to-- they have to meet with me and consult with me about getting the instructions together. I think the best procedure and the most efficient procedure is for me to do that with them first thing in the morning and have those ready to go after, so that we can go on into argument after the completion of testimony.

To that end, we will start in the morning at 10 o'clock. Now we will start up here a good deal before that and be working on that so we will have that out of the way, and I think that will help us save some time, but I won't need y'all until 10 o'clock in the morning. Okay, I will see y'all in the morning.

JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM. TIME IS 6:27 PM.

BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Lumumba, do you want to renew your motion?

BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. We renew the motion, and I will just incorporate by reference

1 the argument I made at the time that we moved for a
2 directed verdict of not guilty. We at this time
3 ask for a directed verdict of not guilty too.

4 BY THE COURT: All right, sir. That Motion is
5 overruled. Now look. Let's-- I want to do, like I
6 told them, I want to do the instructions in the 7 morning so we will have that done. I propose that 8 we be here at 8:00. Okay? All right, 8 o'clock in 9 the morning. See you then.

10 BY MR. HORAN: How about 7:30?

11 BY THE COURT: No, not 7:30. 8 o'clock.

12 Court is adjourned--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, could we--

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, well, the jury is 15 not in here. For the record, I would like the 16 Court to voir dire the Defendant on his decision.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. You have got no problem
18 with that, I assume?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, no, no.

20 BY THE COURT: Come around, Mr. Flowers. I
21 think we can do this at the bench if that suits
22 you.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It doesn't matter, however
24 you want to do it, Judge.

25 BY THE COURT: Just stand right here, Mr.
26 Flowers. Mr. Flowers, you have now rested your 27 case. I want you to understand that you have,
28 you have the right to testify but that you also 29 have the right not to, and if you decide not to

1           testify, that I will instruct the jury that they
2           can't hold that fact against you. Do you
3           understand that?

4           BY THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

5           BY THE COURT: Have you discussed that with 6           him, Mr. Lumumba?

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

8           BY THE COURT: He understand what his 9           constitutional rights are in relation to
10          testifying?

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, I believe he does.

12          BY THE COURT: Okay. All right. All right, 13          we are adjourned until in the morning at--

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, let me say this.
15          Let me see. There was something. 8 o'clock in the 16          morning; right?

17          BY THE COURT: Uh-huh. I have been here at 8
18          o'clock every morning.

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. I have no problem
20          with 8 o'clock in the morning. I am just trying to 21          remember what I was trying to tell you. I was just 22          talking.

23          BY THE COURT: Oh, okay.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: It was important, Judge, but 25          I can't think of what it is. But anyway, in any 26          event I just want to say that, I just want to, you
27          know, remind the Court that our resting was, of 28          course, because we could not do the deposition that
29          I requested.

1                   BY THE COURT: All right, sir. You made your 2 record on that.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

4                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

5                   (NOTE: Any discussion concerning a deposition

1 (COURT CONVENED IN THE COURTROOM ON MARCH 30, 2 1999, FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF JURY INSTRUCTIONS WITH THE 3 COURT, ALL COUNSEL PRESENT WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MR. HORAN,
4 AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT BUT WITH THE JURY ABSENT:)

5 COURT'S INSTRUCTIONS: BY THE COURT: These are my four
6 instructions. Do you want to see them?

7 (Court's Instructions handed to Mr. Lumumba.)

8 BY THE COURT: Well, I tell you the truth.
9 Here is what-- let me just give you these while I'm at it.
10 Those I know I'm going to give.

11 (Long pause while the Court and Counsel were 12 reading each other's instructions.)

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, these are fine. C-2,
14 I still have. Mr. Freelon wants to talk to you about one
15 line in C-1 and see if we can get it added.

16 (Mr. Lumumba hands some instructions to Mr.
17 Evans.)

18 BY MR. FREELON: Judge, there is one line in 19 here. I hand you what we have used in a couple of other
20 trials as the Judge's instruction. I apologize for not 21 making a copy of the third line starting right here. We will 22 ask that the Court-- can you hold it around for one second?

23 BY THE COURT: I'm sorry.

24 BY MR. FREELON: That's all right. Right here
25 where it starts, "Your decision about what happened must be 26 based entirely upon the evidence which is the testimony and 27 the exhibits produced before the Court during this trial and 28 must not be based upon any questions, any guesswork or 29 speculation." But the last part, unless I overlooked it,

1 being "Furthermore, your decision must not be influenced by
2 sympathy or by the bias or prejudice based upon race,
3 religion, color or any other such manner." Now I could have
4 been looking at it--

5 BY THE COURT: No, no, I see. You are talking
6 about this part about race?

7 BY MR. FREELON: Correct, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay.

9 BY MR. FREELON: We ask that the Court--

10 BY THE COURT: Let me see.

11 (Pause while the Court reads.) Show him what 12 you are talking about and then come back. I don't have any 13 problem with that.

14 BY MR. FREELON: You want me to?

15 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I'm going to look where I 16 put it in.

17 (Mr. Freelon shows the instruction to Mr.
18 Evans.)

19 BY MR. EVANS: Basically, Your Honor, we
20 object for one reason. In your instruction that you normally
21 give, you tell them what their decision has to be based on.
22 If we start singling out what it can't be based on, there is 23 a whole lot of things it can't be based on.

24 BY THE COURT: I have already got in my
25 instruction, "You should not be influenced by bias, sympathy
26 or prejudice."

27 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

28 BY THE COURT: I don't see where it hurts to 29 add "race or color" there.

1 BY MR. EVANS: It just brings attention to it.

2 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't have any problem
3 with that. I'm going to grant that. Let me see what you
4 have told me.

5 (Mr. Freelon approaches the bench with the
6 instruction.)

7 BY THE COURT: You need to stick around so I
8 can show you where I'm going to put it. Let me read to you
9 where I'm going to put it. In the second page of my 10 instruction I have got, "You should not be influenced by 11 bias, sympathy or prejudice," and then I'm going to add to 12 that sentence "based on race, religion, color, or any such 13 manner." Okay.

14 BY MR. FREELON: That is correct.

15 BY THE COURT: All right, Linda, can you do
16 that for me?

17 (Off the record while the Court Reporter typed
18 the change to Instruction C-1.)

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, whenever you want us
20 to do it, I do have a motion which is outside, outside the 21 realm of just the instructions, a short motion. Do you want
22 me to raise it now?

23 BY THE COURT: Well, I have gotten into the 24 instructions. Why don't we get that-- it doesn't look like 25 y'all have got a lot. Let me get that done, and then I will 26 hear it.

27 Have you got any objection to any of those, Mr.
28 Evans?

29 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

1 BY MR. FREELON: We have got one more
2 instruction, Your Honor. I thought I printed it out this
3 morning.

4 BY THE COURT: That's okay. I'm still on
5 mine. Is there any objection to C-1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. No, sir.

7 BY MR. EVANS: None from the State.

8 BY THE COURT: None from the State. Okay, C-1
9 of course, is Instruction Number 1. C-2 is Instruction
10 Number 2. C-3 is Instruction Number 3. C-4 is Instruction
11 Number 4. C-5 is Instruction Number 5. And C-6 is 12 Instruction Number 6. Okay, let's see.

13 INSTRUCTION NO. S-1: BY THE COURT: Did y'all give me
14 back S-1?

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

16 BY THE COURT: S-1 that you were redoing.

17 BY MR. EVANS: S-1?

18 BY THE COURT: That's the one you were 19 redoing.

20 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, okay.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You mean C-1 or S-1?

22 BY MR. EVANS: S-1.

23 BY THE COURT: S-1.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Here is the corrected S-1.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, you corrected S-1?

26 (Instruction S-1 handed to the Court; Pause
27 while he reads.)

28 BY THE COURT: Any objection to S-1?

29 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. That will be Instruction
3 number 7.

4 INSTRUCTION NO. S-2: BY THE COURT: What about S-2?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We object to the "acting in 6 concert" part of it. There is no proof of anybody acting in 7 concert that we can see.

8 BY THE COURT: What do you say to that, Mr.
9 Evans?

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, they are the ones
11 that attempted to bring out that there was someone acting in 12 concert with him when they argued several times to the jury
13 that he was with someone else in the car at the front of the 14 store. So the jury could conclude that he did it by himself,
15 or the jury could conclude that he met someone there at the 16 store and acted in concert with them.

17 BY THE COURT: In light of the testimony from 18 Porky Collins, for whatever it's worth, there is some 19 evidence there that the jury could consider. I'm going to 20 leave it. I'm going to give it as Instruction Number 8.

21 INSTRUCTION NO. S-3: BY THE COURT: And how about
22 S-3?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have any objection
24 to S-3. Hold on one second--

25 BY THE COURT: --And that is Number 9.

26 BY MR. FREELON: Hold on, Judge.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Mr. Freelon is going to 28 address that, Judge. He is looking for it now.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay.

1 (Long pause).

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we do object to this
3 instruction. We know that, for instance, on the last appeal
4 in the other case that there was an objection raised to this
5 instruction. We can't find right now what was stated there,
6 but what occurs to us is that it's a needless amplification
7 of an issue which I don't think is that issue. From what I
8 understand, it says that "A thing is in the presence of a
9 person, in respect to robbery, which is so within his reach,
10 inspection, observation, or control that he could, if not 11 overcome with violence or prevented by fear, retain his 12 possession of it."

13 I think the instruction alone, the murder
14 instruction is clear enough when it says that robbery is an 15 element. I don't think there is any confusion or any real
16 argument that requires this to be added. So that's why I
17 would object to S-3.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, briefly, this 19 instruction we have used in every robbery case that I have 20 ever tried. It's a proper instruction, and it informs the 21 jury that someone does not have to have an item taken off of 22 them. It can be taken away from their presence, and it can
23 be taken either by force or violence. It is just a correct
24 instruction.

25 BY THE COURT: I think it properly states the 26 law, and I have given it before myself. So I'm going to give
27 it.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which number will that be?

29 BY THE COURT: It is number 9. S-3 will be

1 number 9.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are-- are you about to
3 look at the Defense instructions?

4 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 INSTRUCTION D-8: BY MR. LUMUMBA: We are withdrawing --
6 I want to tell you what we are withdrawing. We are 7 withdrawing number 8. D-8. Let me make sure I am right.
8 Yeah, D-8.

9 INSTRUCTION NO. D-1: BY THE COURT: Okay, what does the 10 State say to D-1?

11 BY MR. EVANS: As far as that type
12 instruction, the State does not object, but this is not the 13 proper instruction. It leaves out several specific elements
14 and adds some to it. I think the elements that the Court has 15 to instruct is the adequate opportunity to observe the 16 offender; did the witness observe the offender with an 17 adequate degree of attention; did the witness provide an 18 accurate description of the offender after the crime; how 19 certain the witness was of the identification; and how much
20 time passed between the crime and the identification. I
21 think that is the proper instruction that gives those five
22 elements.

23 BY THE COURT: And that is in what case? I
24 forget.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Just one second, Your Honor.

26 (Pause while State's Counsel looks it up.)

27 BY MR. EVANS: Davis v. State is one of the 28 cases that this instruction was approved in. It has been 29 approved in numerous cases.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay, there is a case that sets
2 those factors out.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4                   BY MR. FREELON: The factors are in there.

5                   BY THE COURT: Huh?

6                   BY MR. FREELON: The factors are in there.

7                   BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me just say this,
9 Judge.

10                  BY THE COURT: I will give the identification
11 instruction consistent with what the case law is. I will do
12 that.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. So let's see what -- 14 he can name the--

15                  BY MR. EVANS: I will do better than that. I 16 will give you an instruction that you can offer if you would 17 like to.

18                  BY THE COURT: Do you want to look at his and 19 see if--

20                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will look at it. And I
21 thought, we think we have the factors. I do see in the one,
22 two, third paragraph where we talk about the length of time
23 that elapsed between the incident and the second to the last 24 time. I can tell you right now I will change that line to 25 say the length of time that elapsed between the incident in 26 question and the opportunity the witness had to observe the
27 defendant.

28                  BY MR. FREELON: Let me see.

29                  BY MR. EVANS: Unless it is given as it has

1       been approved before, I would object to the instruction being
2       given.

3                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you have one here?

4                       BY MR. EVANS: Yeah. That is it right there.

5                       (Pause while Defense Counsel looks at the
6       instruction.)

7                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we don't have a problem
8       with this other than we feel that the last sentence in our 9       instruction should be added. And Judge, may we-- we don't
10      have any problem with the factors. He has a short
11      instruction which lists the factors, and you can look at it
12      here.

13                      BY THE COURT: Okay. The last line that y'all
14      have is not a correct statement of the law though in this
15      case.

16                      BY MR. LUMUMBA: "If after examine all of the 17      testimony and evidence in the case, you have a reasonable
18      doubt as to the identity of the Defendant as the perpetrator
19      of the offense charged, you must find the Defendant not 20      guilty." Isn't that true?

21                      BY THE COURT: It's more than a reasonable
22      doubt. It's a circumstantial case. It's more than a
23      reasonable doubt.

24                      BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, right. Okay, well, I'm 25      sorry. Well, I would like to restate that. I agree with 26      you. If from the examination of testimony and the evidence
27      in this case--

28                      BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is still not 29      going to be proper. This instruction is framed, I believe,

1 as where they can argue it on each individual witness that
2 testified. This isn't a case where there is only one
3 witness. I think viewing the instructions as a whole, if 4 they don't find the elements, they have got to find him not
5 guilty. But I think it would be improper on that instruction
6 to tell them that if they found that a witness wasn't correct
7 in their identification, that they could find him not guilty
8 because--

9 BY THE COURT: --Well, it says after you
10 examine all the testimony and evidence. It doesn't say, it
11 doesn't single out one witness.

12 BY MR. EVANS: I need to look at that one.

13 BY THE COURT: It says after you examine, or 14 it should read this way. "If after you examine all of the 15 testimony and evidence in this case, you have a reasonable
16 doubt as to the" - and more than a reasonable doubt, "as to 17 the identity of the Defendant as the perpetrator of the 18 offense charged, you must find the Defendant not guilty."

19 BY MR. EVANS: Okay.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I guess the way--

21 BY THE COURT: --I will just add that sentence
22 and put the circumstantial in that paragraph; okay?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. I want to change it
24 to the circumstantial paragraph.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which I think may be-- see if 27 this will sound right. "If after examination of all the 28 testimony and evidence"--

29 BY THE COURT: I think it ought to read "If

1 after you examine."

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, "If after you examine
3 all the testimony and evidence in the case, you find a"--

4 BY THE COURT: "You have" is okay. "You have 5 a reasonable doubt."

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Pardon?

7 BY THE COURT: Let me see.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have a-- wait a minute.

9 BY THE COURT: Let's see how it is going to 10 be. (Pause).

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I got it; I think I got it.
12 "You have a reasonable doubt as to whether the State has 13 excluded every hypothesis consistent with"--

14 BY THE COURT: No, that won't work. It has 15 got to be "reasonable doubt and to the exclusion" is the 16 wording. I don't know how we are going to make that work.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Reasonable doubt...

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this instruction is 19 redundant here. There are several places in the instruction
20 you are telling them that if they do not find him guilty
21 beyond a reasonable doubt to the exclusion of every 22 reasonable hypothesis consistent with innocence, they have 23 got to find him not guilty. It is redundant and it really
24 does not fit on this instruction.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. I don't think I can, I
26 don't think we can word that where it's going to make much
27 sense by adding that. I think I have given that, I have told
28 them that all through these instructions, and I'm sure before
29 I get through, going to tell them some more. So I'm going to

1 refuse-- what number is that?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: D-1.

3 BY THE COURT: I'm going to refuse D-1 on that
4 basis.

5 INSTRUCTION NO. C-7: BY THE COURT: Now I am going to 6 substitute in place of D-1 an instruction that says the same,
7 essentially the same thing. It's an identification
8 instruction. I'm going to label it C-7; is that right?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we see it one more time,
10 Judge?

11 BY THE COURT: Sure.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This will be C-7?

13 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

14 (Pause while Defense Counsel read.)

15 BY MR. FREELON: Judge, the problem that we 16 have with not putting something at the end of it, it tells 17 them to appraise the identification testimony, but it doesn't
18 tell them after they get through appraising it, how to use it
19 when they appraise it. And that's the problem we have with 20 not putting anything at the end of it. It is almost like we 21 are saying we want you to appraise it, but once you get 22 through appraising it, what do you do? What do you do with 23 it? How do you take it under consideration? It just stops.

24 BY MR. EVANS: And in that element instruction
25 it instructs them what to do with it.

26 BY THE COURT: It does. These instructions
27 must be read as a whole, and I'm going to tell them that in 28 C-1. And there are numerous instructions that don't have,
29 don't complete with all that language that way. What you

1 want? You want to make a copy?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. That will be-- let me
4 mark on it first, and then you will have a copy of what it
5 is. C-7 will be Instruction Number 10.

6 INSTRUCTION NO. D-2: BY THE COURT: Any objection to
7 D-2?

8 BY MR. EVANS: Is that not in the Court's
9 instructions?

10 BY THE COURT: It's not, and it needs to be.

11 BY MR. EVANS: No objection to it. Your 12 Honor, and this may not make any difference, but I do want to 13 bring it to the Court's attention. The Defense instructions
14 do not have what Judicial District of Harrison County this 15 is. I don't know that it is absolutely necessary, but I just 16 want to point that out.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have what?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Which Judicial District of 19 Harrison County it's in.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, we can amend it orally
21 by saying that we are in-- what is this? The First District?

22 BY THE COURT: Yeah, it's the First District.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't think it makes any 24 difference.

25 BY THE COURT: I'm going to hold if that is 26 error, it is harmless. They may hold something else, but I
27 can't believe it.

28 BY MR. FREELON: D-2 is 11?

29 BY THE COURT: Yeah, uh-hum.

1           INSTRUCTION NO. D-3:   BY THE COURT:   Who about D-3?

2                       BY MR. EVANS:   We object to D-3.   That is 3   trying to tell the jury how to weigh the testimony of 4   witnesses which is improper anyway to tell the jury how to
5   do.

6                       BY THE COURT:   C-1 covers what they have to do
7   in evaluating that.   D-3 is refused.

8           INSTRUCTION NO. D-4:   BY MR. EVANS:   I object to D-4.
9   This is an attempt to define the burden on the jury--

10                      BY THE COURT:   It's a two theory instruction.

11                      BY MR. EVANS:   Yes, sir.   It's a two theory
12   instruction, but the Court has instructed in several cases
13   that it's improper to try to define what "reasonable doubt"
14   is.   It's also improper, I think, to define what "reasonable
15   doubt to the exclusion of every reasonable hypothesis
16   consistent with innocence" is.

17                      BY THE COURT:   It may be, but the Court has 18   numerous times approved two theory instructions.

19                      BY MR. EVANS:   And in King v. State, 421 So.2d
20   1009, the Court said, "A separate two theory instruction does 21   not have to be given if a circumstantial evidence instruction
22   is given."

23                      BY THE COURT:   Let me see that case.

24                      BY MR. EVANS:   This is the footnote from it,
25   right at the bottom.

26                      (Hands book to the Court.)

27                      BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Judge, I think this is a
28   circumstantial evidence instruction.

29                      BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Somebody go find me King

1 v. State. I will reserve my ruling on this.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, let me just say our
3 position is that this is a circumstantial evidence
4 instruction. No other one has been given. I think that's
5 what this is.

6 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. This is the two
7 theory instruction. A circumstantial instruction is when
8 they are advised burden of proof is beyond a reasonable
9 doubt.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, I'm going to look at it
11 before I rule.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So you are reserving opinion
13 on D-4?

14 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I want to look at a
15 little law before I do that.

16 BY MR. FREELON: Judge, can you also look at 17 Parker v. State, 606 So.2d 1132?

18 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. Give it to me
19 again. Give me the cite.

20 BY MR. FREELON: 606 So.2d 1132.

21 BY THE COURT: Southern 2nd?

22 BY MR. FREELON: Southern, right. Parker v.
23 State.

24 BY THE COURT: All right, and give me the last
25 number.

26 BY MR. FREELON: 1132.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay, give me the cite off of 28 King.

29 BY MR. EVANS: King is 421 So.2d 1009.

1 BY MR. FREELON: As a matter of fact, Your
2 Honor, if you want the case, I have the case here.

3 BY THE COURT: You have got Parker?

4 BY MR. FREELON: Yes.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, I will get it in a
6 minute.

7 INSTRUCTION NO. D-5: BY THE COURT: What do you say to 8 D-5?

9 BY MR. EVANS: I don't think D-5 is 10 necessary. I think the elements instruction of S-1 tell the 11 jury what they have to find, and per se by that instruction
12 they have got to find that he was there before they can find
13 him guilty, so it is repetitive.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would amend this
15 instruction to say in the second line that, "present
16 competent evidence that proves beyond a reasonable doubt and 17 to every, and to the exclusion of every reasonable
18 hypothesis." However that, that language you are talking
19 about; I can't remember.

20 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Then after that, I think it's 22 an appropriate instruction. I think it is real-- there is a
23 real question in this case as to whether the Defendant was 24 present, and I think there is nothing wrong with the Judge
25 instructing them.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Also, besides the fact that 27 they have already been instructed on the law, I don't think 28 it's proper or correct to put in there the language and to 29 have, "If you have any reason to believe that the evidence

1 presented by the Defendant to the effect that he did not
2 commit the crime charged is true or that it's probably true."
3 We are getting into the fact that we are telling them
4 different burdens. They have been given the proper burden of 5 proof--

6 BY THE COURT: --That's what concerns me about
7 that instruction. Y'all will have to show me some authority
8 that that is the law before I will grant that.

9 INSTRUCTION NO. D-6: BY THE COURT: Okay. D-6, I have 10 given or given something similar.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So you will give D-6?

12 BY THE COURT: Well, I think I already have.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You have?

14 BY MR. EVANS: I think that's in the Court's
15 instructions.

16 BY THE COURT: I gave it as Instruction Number
17 2. So it's refused as repetitive.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: D-6 is refused. Okay.

19 BY THE COURT: I mean it's not-- it has been 20 given. This one is.

21 INSTRUCTION NO. D-5: BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Judge, Mr.
22 Freelon does have authority for D-5.

23 BY MR. FREELON: D-5, the cite, Your Honor,
24 would be 451 So.2d 208.

25 BY THE COURT: 2 what?

26 BY MR. FREELON: 208.

27 BY THE COURT: What is the style of that case?

28 BY MR. FREELON: Young v. State of
29 Mississippi.

1           INSTRUCTION NO. D-7:   BY THE COURT: D-7?

2                       BY MR. LUMUMBA:   D-7.

3                       BY MR. EVANS:   D-7, we object to.   The Courts
4   have said on many occasions the only time that this
5   instruction should be given is on accomplices.

6                       BY THE COURT:   Is what?

7                       BY MR. EVANS:   When it's given on
8   accomplices.   It is improper to give this instruction
9   singling out the testimony of law enforcement officers or any 10   other groups other than accomplices.

11                      BY MR. LUMUMBA:   I know of no cases where it
12   says that.

13                      BY THE COURT:   Well, it singles out one set of 14   testimony over another, and I think that's improper.   So it's 15   refused.

16                      BY MR. LUMUMBA:   So that is refused, Judge?

17                      BY THE COURT:   Yes, sir.

18           INSTRUCTION NO. D-8:   BY MR. EVANS:   You withdrew 8?

19                      BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Yeah.   I withdrew 8.

20                      BY MR. EVANS:   Is that all of them?

21           INSTRUCTION NO. D-9:   BY THE COURT:   No, I have got a 22   D-9.   Part of it I know-- I haven't even read it all yet, but 23   part of it has got to be changed because it doesn't have the 24   circumstantial stuff in there.

25                      BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Yeah.

26                      BY THE COURT:   Don't we have this?   Isn't that 27   in S-1?

28                      BY MR. EVANS:   S-1 is in that.

29                      BY MR. FREELON:   S-1.

1 BY THE COURT: I think it is covered in S-1.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will withdraw.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay.

4 (Instruction No. D-9 was withdrawn.)

5 INSTRUCTION NO. D-4: BY THE COURT: Mr. Freelon, let 6 me see your case. Parker-- well, either one. If you have 7 got both of them, I will take both of them. Parker and 8 Young.

9 BY MR. FREELON: Young is a little bit light.
10 That one and the State, we want to make a copy.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay.

12 (Off the record while the Court reads.)

13 BY THE COURT: Do you want to see Parker?

14 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

15 (Case handed to State's Counsel.)

16 BY THE COURT: You don't have to read it all.
17 He has got it highlighted, underlined.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Okay.

19 (Pause for Counsel to read.)

20 BY THE COURT: I need that back.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, okay. I'm sorry.

22 (Case handed back to the Court.)

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, having read that, what do
24 you say?

25 BY MR. EVANS: We don't object.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. It has that language in 27 there. There is a reasonable doubt without the other stuff
28 in the circumstantial stuff, but this instruction that they 29 cited in Parker does not have it either, and they cited that

1 with approval. So I'm going to give it the way you drew it.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is instruction number?

3 BY THE COURT: It will be, it's y'all's D-4.

4 It will be Instruction Number 12.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: D-4 or D-5?

6 BY THE COURT: It has got D-4 on my copy.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

8 BY MR. FREELON: Number what was D-4?

9 BY THE COURT: D-4 is number 12. I tell you
10 one thing I don't have. I don't have a form of the verdict.
11 Did y'all draw one?

12 BY MR. EVANS: We haven't, but we will.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We can; either way. We have 14 got a computer too.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, what they do is they have
16 got a form of the verdict that will set forth the verdict.
17 Plus they have a sheet that goes with it where they can just 18 check it rather than having to write it out.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will look at it.

20 (Pause while Court reads.)

21 INSTRUCTION NO. D-5: BY THE COURT: In this Young case,
22 it cites that instruction, but it doesn't cite any ruling
23 that I can see.

24 BY MR. FREELON: I think that Young was the 25 very reason the case was reversed because that instruction
26 wasn't given if I'm not mistaken.

27 BY THE COURT: I'm not finding that in here.
28 Of course, I can't read this very well. Can you show me
29 where that part is, where they said that?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Is that in the concurrence, or
2 is that in the opinion?

3 BY MR. FREELON: I think the-- I know this
4 writing is bad. Let me...

5 (NOTE: Print on copy was real light. Pause).

6 BY MR. FREELON: It's right here, Your Honor.
7 "In the case sub judice," or whatever it is, "the jury was 8 left uninstructed on the defendant's alibi defense, and this 9 matter requires reversal."

10 BY THE COURT: I have given an alibi
11 instruction. That is Court's Instruction C-5 or 6 one. I
12 think I have. I thought I had. If not, I'm going to give
13 it.

14 BY MR. EVANS: It's in there.

15 BY THE COURT: It is C-6.

16 BY MR. FREELON: Let me see what C-6 says.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: C-6 is identification.

18 BY THE COURT: Huh?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You say C-6. Isn't C-6
20 identification?

21 BY THE COURT: No, C-6 is alibi. C-7, I think
22 maybe is identification. No. Wait a minute; wait a minute.
23 Go ahead on that. I have got something else.

24 BY MR. FREELON: What instruction was C-6?

25 BY THE COURT: Okay, C-6 which is Instruction
26 Number 6, reads this. "'Alibi' means elsewhere or in another 27 place. Alibi is a legal and proper defense in the law. The 28 Defendant is not required to establish the truth of his alibi
29 to your satisfaction, but if the evidence or lack of evidence

1 in this case raises in the minds of the jury a reasonable
2 doubt as to whether the Defendant was present and committed
3 the crime, then you must give him the benefit of the doubt
4 and acquit him."

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. You didn't give out
6 copies of those, did you? You just let us see those; right?

7 BY THE COURT: Right.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I just thought we had 9 lost them.

10 BY THE COURT: The only question I would have 11 about that now reading it back is to whether it raises in the 12 mind a reasonable doubt and to the exclusion of--

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I would say--

14 BY THE COURT: --the circumstantial part of it
15 in 6.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think it should be in
17 there.

18 BY MR. EVANS: I think the Courts have said
19 reading all the instructions as a whole, and I know most of 20 the cases I have seen where circumstantial instructions are 21 given, it's not put in every instruction.

22 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I think I'm going to
23 leave it like it is because I think they have been instructed 24 adequately. And in light of the fact that I have given the 25 alibi instruction, I'm going to refuse D-5.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: D-5.

27 BY THE COURT: Now if y'all will do me a form
28 of the verdict, we will have the instructions done.

29 BY MR. EVANS: All right.

1 BY THE COURT: Then I will come back and--

2 BY MR. FREELON: --Judge, do you have an
3 instruction on the witness not testifying?

4 BY THE COURT: I have got one.

5 BY MR. FREELON: I mean the Defendant.

6 BY THE COURT: I think it's Instruction Number
7 4. Let me look and see. Yeah, Instruction Number 4.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's the one you showed me
9 already?

10 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I see it one more time?
12 (Instruction No. 4 handed to Mr. Lumumba.)

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You are going to give us
14 copies of all these?

15 BY THE COURT: Yeah. I mean I just, we just 16 ran them off this morning.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. No, no, I was just 18 wondering.

19 BY THE COURT: We are going to have to get
20 them filed, and when I get them filed, I will get copies
21 made. Okay, let me get the form of the verdict, and we will 22 be ready.

23 (Off the record while the form of the verdict
24 was prepared and the other instructions were filed by the 25 Clerk and copies made by the Court Reporter and given to both 26 Counsel. The State also submitted another instruction while 27 the Reporter was out of the room which will be taken up later
28 as shown.)

29 BY THE COURT: Gentlemen, the Clerk pointed

1 out when we filed these that D-2 has the wrong cause number
2 on it. I'm going to change that.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

4 BY THE COURT: Is the 98-00960 the right
5 number? Okay, and then D-4 has no number on it, so I'm going
6 to put one on there.

7 BY THE COURT: While he is typing that
8 instruction, do you want to argue your motion?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. We would raise
10 an objection-- well, not raise an objection. We 11 would move to, first of all, to reopen our case and 12 to ask the Court to arrest Melissa or Melinda
13 Bingham and to bring her here. We did properly
14 serve her. We did everything we could, and we told
15 her to be here on two or three different
16 occasions. We were told that she had a medical 17 problem, but if the Court doesn't feel that that is 18 sufficient not to depose her, if there is no law to 19 depose her, I guess we are left without any other
20 alternative.

21 So we think her testimony is important just 22 for the purposes of the Court. I'm going to ask to
23 have marked and tendered to the Court a copy of a
24 tape recorded conversation with Melissa Bingham.

25 (INTERVIEW WITH MELINDA K. BINGHAM WAS MARKED 26 AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-A TO THE MOTION TO 27 REOPEN.)

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. It's marked for the 29 purposes of this motion. Are you through?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I just-- I thought she
2 was marking. This is now marked as D-A. I am
3 submitting it to the Court. My argument would be,
4 Judge, is that Ms. Melissa Bingham, if called,
5 would clearly testify consistently with Roy Harris
6 to the episode involving Clemmie Fleming. She was
7 not actually in the car with Ms. Fleming and Mr.
8 Harris at the time they went, but she does know
9 that Mr. Harris made two trips away from the home,
10 expressing intentions of going up town. She does 11 know that Mr. Harris told her, which is a prior
12 consistent statement from Mr. Harris, that Clemmie
13 was not with him when he saw a person darting
14 across the street, and Mr. Harris told her, in 15 fact, that Clemmie was saying that she was with him
16 but was not.

17 We also believe that if called, she would say
18 that she did not -- Clemmie, I think, in her
19 testimony indicated that Melissa Bingham is the one
20 that told her about what had happened at Tardy.
21 She will point out that that is absolutely untrue.
22 She never told Clemmie what happened which tends to
23 support Mary Fleming's testimony that Clemmie
24 already knew what happened because she went up to 25 the scene after the incident with Mary, and she 26 never did come back home or never came back home at 27 any relevant time anyway to this incident.

28 And Melissa, or Melinda, I'm sorry would also 29 testify that -- I think she would be able to

1           testify to the scene which occurred when Mr.
2           Johnson was taping the testimony of Roy. She would
3           be able to testify that Roy did, in fact, explain
4           to him initially that he did not see or that
5           Clemmie was not with him and did, in fact, tell him
6           she was present at the time that Mr. Johnson showed 7           Roy Harris one photograph of Mr. Curtis Flowers,
8           asked him if that was the man he saw, and Mr.
9           Harris said no, that was not the person who was out
10          there very definitively.

11                 So she would be able to support all those 12          things. She was the person who was a girlfriend,
13          lives with at the time with Mr. Harris and I
14          believe still does. So we would move to have her
15          brought to court under whatever circumstances the 16          Court can bring her, have her placed under arrest.
17          We have an address on her so that she can then
18          testify. And we move to reopen our case for that 19          purpose. So that's the end of my presentation.

20                 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the Defense has 21          rested. They had plenty of opportunity if they 22          wanted to try to do something to force this witness
23          down here earlier. They chose not to. We are a
24          few minutes away from now the jury being brought
25          back in and doing the rebuttal. There is no sense
26          in delaying matters.

27                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, we had every 28          expectation the witness would be here. We didn't 29          know until yesterday that she wouldn't be here. If

1 the Court will recall, we approached the bench and
2 asked and thought we had a tenable solution. We
3 really don't have a reason to disbelieve this woman
4 that she is medically infirm and that she probably 5 has been ordered by her doctor not to be here. But 6 on the other hand, we have a responsibility to 7 represent Mr. Flowers. So we are demanding that 8 she be here. So that is the presentation on that 9 motion.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court finds that 11 when the case was called for trial, the Defense
12 announced ready as did the State and presented its 13 case. Then sometime yesterday afternoon - I can't 14 recall exactly - somewhere about the middle of the 15 afternoon, the Defense brought this matter to the 16 attention of the Court and asked the Court to allow 17 a deposition of Ms. Bingham in Winona or some other
18 place last night. The Court knows of no authority
19 whatsoever for that type of deposition in a
20 criminal case, and therefore, the Court refused to 21 order that. After that, the Defendant proceeded
22 with this case and rested at approximately 6:30,
23 between 6:30 and 7:00 last night. The Court set
24 rebuttal for this morning. The Court, having 25 examined the proposed testimony and the proffered
26 testimony of Melinda Bingham, finds that the same
27 would be cumulative with other testimony, and 28 therefore the Motion is overruled.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have one motion on

1           that same issue in the alternative. If the Court
2           is denying that Motion, I would ask that the Court
3           allow us to reopen the case and to allow Melinda
4           Bingham's testimony in under the hearsay exception
5           which allows the Court to allow a statement in in 6           the interest of justice. I cite, that is in the 7           hearsay-- get me the rule book. In the exceptions
8           to the hearsay rule, it says that the Court can 9           allow a statement in when it's in the interest of 10          justice. In this case I think her position makes 11          it in the interest of justice.

12                 I would also point out that it is not just 13          cumulative because they did attempt to impeach Mr.
14          Harris, and this is a statement which talks about a
15          time prior-- Mr. Harris making a statement to her
16          prior to the time that the document was created
17          which was used to impeach Mr. Harris. So it's a
18          prior consistent statement which is admissible
19          under the rules. Mr. Harris' statement is a 20          consistent statement which is admissible under the 21          rules, and it would buttress his testimony. And it
22          would buttress it in all the other ways and really
23          support it. And I think it is critical because 24          this is really the test of testimony and all the 25          other ways in which we have already cited.

26                 But the other thing I would point out to the 27          Court is that as far as Melinda Bingham is 28          concerned, is that-- well, that is basically our 29          representation is that it is, it is a hearsay

1           exception, that it can be admitted under the rules
2           if there is no, if it's in interest of justice.
3           And I think in this instance it is in the interest
4           of justice, and it should be admitted. It is on
5           tape. It could be played to the jury, or we can
6           just admit the transcript if Counsel says that he
7           believes that it's an accurate transcript.

8           And the other thing I was trying to think of,
9           the Court may remember in the O.J. Simpson trial
10          there was a videotape taken of a man who was dying,
11          and the defense was not present at the time of the 12          videotape. This was a gentleman who had done
13          something with blood work, and he was testifying
14          for the prosecution that some of the blood had been 15          used up in a way, in the process of his 16          examination, and so the defense was trying to 17          create the inference that the blood had been used
18          to plant in different places as opposed to the 19          blood just, you know, and so, and so because there
20          had been more blood in the tube and then it wound
21          up being half full or something. The prosecution
22          was allowed to use this videotape deposition
23          statement of this person without any 24          cross-examination, without the defense even being
25          present and present that in court in the interest
26          of justice and exception to the hearsay rule.

27          That same rule which exists in California in 28          the interest of justice exists here in 29          Mississippi. It's the same rules, say it's cited

1 and stated the same way. So that's why I believe
2 that we should be allowed to bring this in, Judge.

3 BY THE COURT: Any response?

4 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, the Court finds to allow
6 that would be in essence to allow the deposition
7 that I have already ruled that you couldn't do, and 8 it would also be a one sided deposition in that the 9 State would have absolutely no ability to 10 cross-examine. That Motion is overruled.

11 FORM OF VERDICT INSTRUCTION: BY THE COURT: I'm going
12 to give the form of the verdict instruction as Instruction
13 Number 13. This needs to be filed. I'm sorry; that is 14 incorrect. It will not be 13.

15 INSTRUCTION NO. 13: BY THE COURT: Have you seen this 16 one about-- this says, "This phase of the trial deals only
17 with the question of the guilt or innocence of the defendant,
18 Curtis Giovanni Flowers. In the event that you find the 19 defendant guilty of Capital Murder, you will then and only 20 consider the appropriate sentence to be imposed." Any 21 objection to that?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no objection.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to give that,
24 and that will be number 13, and the form of the verdict will 25 be number 14.

26 (FOLLOWING A RECESS, PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED AT 27 9:55 A.M. IN OPEN COURT WITH THE JURY STILL OUT BUT WITH THE
28 COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, at this time I would

1 make a Motion for a Proffer or Offer of Proof by
2 the District Attorney as to whatever he intends to
3 offer in rebuttal, essentially the witnesses and
4 the nature of the presentation so I could see or we
5 could see whether or not it's actually proper
6 rebuttal. So that's what I am asking the Court at 7 this time.

8 BY THE COURT: That Motion is overruled. How 9 much time do y'all want to argue when we get to
10 that point?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would say about an hour and 12 a half.

13 BY MR. EVANS: I would say an hour is 14 definitely plenty to talk about everything we went 15 over as far as we concerned.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay, I will give y'all an hour
17 and 15 minutes. The jury is ready. Are y'all
18 ready?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay, tell them to bring the 21 jury in.

22 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM AT 9:57 A.M. ON 23 MARCH 30, 1999.

24 BY THE COURT: Morning. Who will you have 25 first, Mr. Evans?

26 BY MR. EVANS: Robert Jennings.

27 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

28 BY THE COURT: Mr. Jennings, have you been 29 sworn?

1 you and Investigator John Johnson interviewed Mary Sue Moore?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. I will ask you specifically if she told you that
4 she had seen Curtis swearing Fila tennis shoes before the 5 murders but that she had not seen him wearing them since the 6 murders?

7 A. Yes, she did.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just briefly. Good morning,
10 ladies and gentlemen.

11 BY THE JURY: Morning.

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. Good morning, Mr. Jennings. I just have a couple
14 of questions. Mr. Jennings, she never told you that she ever
15 saw Mr. Flowers wearing any Grant Hill Filas, did she?

16 A. She, when we were first talking to her, we were 17 referring to Grant Hills. She did say later just Grant
18 Hill-- or Fila tennis shoes. She did not--

19 Q. --So she never, she never indicated she saw him
20 wearing any Grant Hill Filas, did she?

21 A. No, sir. She was just saying Fila shoes.

22 Q. You know that Fila makes a whole lot of different
23 shoes?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Okay, they make some black shoes; right?

26 A. Right.

27 Q. They make different color shoes?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. They make house shoes?

1           A.    I'm not sure about house shoes.  I know they make
2 all different types of tennis shoes.

3           Q.    Okay, but they may make house shoes; you just don't 4 know about that?

5           A.    I'm not aware of that.

6           Q.    Okay, well, let me also say this is that I notice
7 that you look at your little note there where you have that
8 written down, or did you write that note?

9           A.    No, sir.  John Johnson actually was writing the 10 notes.  I was just present during the interview.

11          Q.    Okay.  And it also doesn't have any time period.
12 In other words, according to this note, you just have before
13 the killings.  It doesn't say when before the killings, does
14 it?

15          A.    Correct.

16          Q.    It certainly doesn't say the day that it happened?

17          A.    No, sir.  It just--

18          Q.    --It doesn't even say the month that it happened?
19 I'm talking about what you have here in court.

20          A.    This does not but I--

21          Q.    --It doesn't say the year--

22                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor, may the witness
23 finish his answer?

24                   BY THE COURT:  Yeah, y'all don't talk at the 25 same time.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.

27 BY THE WITNESS:

28          A.    During the interview it was explained what we were 29 interviewing her for, and as far as, you know, everyone in

1       that community knew.

2           Q.    Yeah, I understand that, but it still doesn't put a
3       time limit on it, does it?

4           A.    No, sir.

5           Q.    Okay. So in other words, at least according to
6       this note, she never said that it wasn't in the year of 1991
7       or '92 or something like that that she actually saw him
8       wearing Fila tennis shoes and never said Grant Hill. Is that 9       a correct statement?

10          A.    No, we were talking to her about during the time of 11       the incident at Tardy Furniture Company.

12          Q.    It doesn't say here a date; is that correct? You
13       may have been talking to her about one thing. What I'm 14       concerned about is what she answered to.

15          A.    During the interview, we were talking to her, and 16       these were her responses to that interview, not what we were 17       asking her.

18          Q.    Well, her response was that she saw it before the 19       times of the death. That's the response; right?

20          A.    That's right.

21          Q.    Which does not say immediately before the time. I
22       am asking you a specific question as to exactly what you
23       recorded here.

24          A.    We were specific with her in the way we were
25       questioning her as to the time prior to the murders at Tardy
26       Furniture Company.

27          Q.    Okay, prior--

28          A.    --We were not seeking back eight, nine or ten
29       years.

1 Q. Prior to the murders would have been a month
2 before? That would have been prior; right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Prior to the murders would have been six months or
5 a year before?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And you didn't tape it?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. So we don't know exactly what you said at least as 10 preserved on tape; is that correct?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. And you didn't write it out word for word?

13 A. It is not word for word. This is simply her
14 responses, not our questions.

15 Q. And you don't have your questions recorded
16 anywhere?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. Okay, and this was done quite a while ago. It
19 looks like it was done back in--

20 A. --September the 6th of 1996.

21 Q. And you conducted many different interviews?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And the reason you write stuff down so you will 24 remember it; right?

25 A. That's correct.

26 Q. Okay. So all it says here, if I'm not mistaken, is 27 that she saw Curtis with Filas, not Grant Hills before the 28 times of the deaths, not since; right?

29 A. That's correct.

1           Q.    Okay.  It doesn't say when before or anything like
2   that?

3           A.    It does not say when.  Like I explained, we were
4   talking about during the times of the crime.

5           Q.    Well, I understand.  But you understand that 6   sometimes you might be asking questions with one thing in 7   mind, and somebody might answer with something else in mind.
8   You--

9           A.    I understand.

10          Q.    Okay, you understand, for instance, it even happens
11   up here.  An attorney asks somebody a question, and they are 12   thinking about something totally different; right?

13          A.    That's correct.

14          Q.    Sometimes the attorney does not express himself
15   well enough so the person will know exactly what he is trying 16   to say; right?

17          A.    That's true, but if you are interviewing a person
18   and you explain to them or tell them that you are talking
19   about this particular incident, then that's what we are 20   talking about, that particular incident, not last year, year
21   before last or--

22          Q.    Well, yes, but you are talking about the incident.
23   That does not mean necessarily to that person that what the 24   person had a year ago is not important to you.  You never 25   said that, you never said, "I'm not interested in what 26   happened ten years ago."  You didn't say that, did you?

27          A.    We explained that we were investigating the Tardy
28   murder case.

29          Q.    Did you ever--

1           A.    --And that happened just a couple of months prior
2           to when we were interviewing her.

3           Q.    Did you ever say that "I'm not concerned about what
4           happened the year before, whether you saw him wearing Filas a
5           year before"? Did you ever say that?

6           A.    We just simply asked her if she knew of whether or
7           not--

8           Q.    --Mr. Jennings. Excuse me, Mr. Jennings.

9                        BY THE COURT: You have got to answer yes or 10           no. Then you can explain.

11           BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12           Q.    Answer my question. Did you ever say to her, "I'm 13           not interested in what happened a year before"?

14           A.    We did not ask it in that manner. I explained
15           already what we did ask her.

16                        BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

17           REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

18           Q.    Mr. Jennings, did you make it clear to her, you and 19           Mr. Johnson, that the time frame that you were asking if 20           Curtis Flowers wore Fila tennis shoes was around the time of 21           the murders?

22           A.    Yes, sir. We did--

23                        BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. Objection,
24           Judge. Objection. Made it clear to her; I think
25           that what is important, and I object because of the 26           ambiguous question. What I would like-- I have no
27           objection to the question as to exactly what he 28           said, but making it clear to her. What does that 29           mean? Making it clear to her in his mind but not

1 necessarily in her mind.

2 BY MR. EVANS: I think it is pretty self-
3 explanatory.

4 BY THE COURT: Overruled. Ask the question.

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q. Did you and Mr. Johnson make it clear to Mary Sue
7 Moore that you were asking if Curtis Flowers wore Fila shoes
8 around the time of the murders?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is also a leading
10 question, so I object on that basis.

11 BY THE WITNESS:

12 A. Yes, we did.

13 Q. All right, if Mary Sue Moore said that she never 14 told y'all that Curtis Flowers had ever worn Fila shoes and 15 that she specifically never told y'all that she didn't see 16 him wearing them any more after the murders, would that be 17 true or false?

18 A. That would be false.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further of this
20 witness, Your Honor.

21 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: Mr. Jennings, you are free to
24 go.

25 WITNESS EXCUSED.

26 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

27 BY MR. HORAN: Frank Ballard.

28 BY THE COURT: Frank Ballard.

29 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF

1 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

2 BY MR. FREELON: I wanted to make sure that
3 they are not going off into -- I think Mr. Ballard
4 may have had information about someone being mad at 5 Curtis, I think Ms. Tardy being mad at Curtis. And 6 we didn't go off into it. I just wanted to make
7 sure they were not--

8 BY MR. HORAN: --I intend to put proof on to 9 rebut the testimony of Charita Baskin--

10 BY MR. FREELON: --okay--

11 BY MR. HORAN: --that testified regarding them
12 calling Frank back-- I mean calling the Defendant
13 back to work, the circumstances surrounding that.
14 He was summonsed to the store by Ms.--I'm not going
15 to go into the hearsay. He was called down there.

16 BY THE COURT: What?

17 BY MR. HORAN: He was called to the store, and 18 I anticipate laying a predicate first that at that 19 point in time Frank Ballard's responsibilities at 20 the store were to make sure that the customer
21 relationships were fine and employee relationships
22 were fine, primarily because Mr. Tom Tardy was sick
23 at that time. I anticipate putting him on to say
24 he was summonsed to the store by Carmen Rigby with 25 reference to Mr. Flowers without getting into the 26 hearsay of it. Describe her demeanor on that 27 particular day and that he left that day, and he 28 did not return back to work, Mr. Flowers did not on 29 that particular day.

1                   BY THE COURT: I think he can testify to
2                   that. No hearsay though.

3                   BY MR. FREELON: That's not-- okay.

4                   BY MR. HORAN: It's just to rebut

5                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

6                   BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn?

7                   BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

8                   BY THE COURT: Okay, have a seat there.

9                                   FRANK BALLARD,

10                   a white male called to testify as a witness by the State on 11                   REBUTTAL, having first been duly sworn, testified as follows,
12                   to-wit:

13                                   BY THE COURT: State your name for the record
14                   first, Mr. Ballard.

15                                   BY THE WITNESS: Frank Ballard.

16                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

17                   Q.    What relationship do you have to Roxanne Ballard?

18                   A.    Roxanne Ballard is my wife.

19                   Q.    I want to direct your attention to July the 16th of 20                   1996. On that date did you have any responsibilities down at
21                   Tardy Furniture?

22                   A.    Yes, sir. At the time there were-- we had a
23                   shortage of help, and it was a family business, so I would go
24                   down and I help-- deliveries, well, just whenever I had time
25                   off and afternoons and weekends.

26                   Q.    Did you have any, did you take over any of the 27                   responsibilities that Mr. Tardy had over the course of years
28                   at that point in time?

29                   A.    Well, Mr. Tardy was I believe at the time about 77,

1 78 years old. He was getting a little older, and at occasion
2 Ms. Bertha, my mother-in-law, would call me to come down and
3 help out and talk to new employees, or if there was any way I
4 could in assisting them.

5 Q. Okay, and what about customer relationships? Did
6 you assist in that manner also?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Collections and things like that?

9 A. Yes, sir, collections and running down, trying to 10 find, making, you know, research basically, make sure the 11 people are where they are, say they are and if anything I can 12 assist in that respect.

13 Q. Basically accounts services. You serviced the 14 accounts to a certain extent?

15 A. To a certain extent, yes, sir.

16 Q. All right, since the murders at the store, have 17 your duties and responsibilities increased at Tardy
18 Furniture?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Would you tell the Court and the jury what you do
21 down there from that time to now?

22 A. Well, basically, I am, with my wife being the 23 owner, I'm the general manager. I go in; I procure orders,
24 interview prospective employees, dismiss them if necessary.
25 Let's see. I do the day to day paperwork, contracts,
26 research the individuals through the credit bureaus. I
27 assist on deliveries, purchase the furniture, work on special
28 orders, enter the information on computer system that we 29 bought later on, just wash the windows, polish the furniture,

1 change flats.

2 Q. Do it all basically?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Would you describe the store there at Tardy
5 Furniture? How big is it?

6 A. Our showroom that we work with is approximately
7 18,000 square feet. And we have another 18,000 square feet
8 of storage above it. The building was basically at one time
9 two buildings, and I guess you would call it half a city
10 block. The size of the two showrooms, once-- well, basically
11 is 9,000 and 9,000. The back of them, you have got office
12 space that is in the back, and then in the back of one you
13 have a shop area, a receiving area, and a warehouse basically 14 that we stack our mattresses up in. The building in the 15 front, you have got plate glass window. The walls are 16 probably about three, three foot--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge--

18 A. --wide.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry. I don't see where 20 this is proper rebuttal.

21 BY THE COURT: I don't either. This is no
22 relevant. Move on.

23 BY MR. HORAN:

24 Q. Okay. You can move on.

25 A. Okay.

26 Q. I want to hand you, just look at these copies of 27 these documents if you would, and tell me whether or not you
28 can identify what those documents are?

29 A. Yes, sir. I can.

1           Q.    Okay, would you just tell the Court and the jury
2 what those documents are?

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  They are not in evidence yet,
4 Judge.

5                   BY MR. HORAN:  I'm not asking him to testify
6 about them.  I'm just asking what they are.

7                   BY THE COURT:  Well, then why don't you mark
8 them for identification?

9                   BY MR. HORAN:  I'm not going to introduce all
10 of them, Your Honor.

11                   (CLEMMIE FLEMING'S RECORDS FROM TARDY'S WERE 12 MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-110 FOR
13 IDENTIFICATION.)

14                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Can I see the two that is 15 marked?

16                   BY MR. HORAN:  It's just one.

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  May we approach?

18                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
19 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  This document considers, has 21 a considerable amount of entries before the time
22 that he acknowledges being the general manager
23 there.  I don't see that he is in a position up
24 until that time to testify to a business record.

25                   BY THE COURT:  Let me see it.

26                   BY MR. HORAN:  It's a regularly kept business
27 record.  It doesn't matter whether or not he was 28 present at that time as to whether or not he can 29 identify that particular document as being kept in

1                   that store and whether it is regularly kept.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: He has got to be able to say
3                   that he was the custodian of the records or 4                   something of that nature.

5                   BY THE COURT: What is this going to rebut?

6                   BY MR. HORAN: It's going to rebut that
7                   Clemmie Fleming was given some consideration to 8                   lie, that they collected on her account.

9                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, but she has testified
10                  that it was not paid off and she still owed it.

11                  BY MR. HORAN: But she said also, Your Honor,
12                  they said, but the other witnesses testified that 13                  that was a consideration that she was getting. I
14                  want to verify that with this document. Her saying
15                  something--

16                  BY THE COURT: --You have got to rebut what 17                  she said. The others can't. No. She said that 18                  she still owed it. That's what her testimony was.

19                  BY MR. HORAN: She said that she still owed
20                  the account, but they testified that she was 21                  getting special consideration on it. The deal is 22                  they have filed to collect from her through legal 23                  action since her testimony at the prior, at the 24                  last hearing. It is certainly relevant, Your 25                  Honor. It going to be real short. I'm not 26                  dragging this out. They are dragging it out.

27                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Not hardly. I'm going
28                  to allow him to testify to that to show that point.

29                  (Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Horan talked at the same

1 time. Both were inaudible.)

2 BY MR. FREELON: That's the reason, Your
3 Honor, she has testified the reason that she did
4 not, that she was upset because they didn't pay
5 it. I mean someone has testified she was upset
6 because they didn't pay it. That is not something
7 new, that is different.

8 BY MR. HORAN: The fact that she didn't?

9 BY MR. FREELON: The other witness testified
10 that she told them that she was upset because they
11 never paid it off, that Tardy Furniture never paid
12 it. Tardy Furniture never allowed the bill to be 13 paid off. That's all they testified to.

14 BY THE COURT: I'm going to allow it for what 15 it is worth.

16 END BENCH CONFERENCE

17 BY MR. HORAN:

18 Q. Can you identify that particular document?

19 A. Yes, sir. I can.

20 Q. Mr. Ballard, what is that document?

21 A. This is the front page of a contract that we have 22 with Clemmie Fleming.

23 Q. And is that basically her account history there?

24 A. Yes, sir. It is.

25 Q. Does that document show whether or not Ms. Fleming
26 since before the murders--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, he still hasn't 28 authenticated that this gentleman is in a position
29 to authenticate that document.

1                   BY THE COURT: Sustained.

2           BY MR. HORAN:

3           Q.    Are you the general manager of the store at Tardy
4           Furniture?

5           A.    Yes, sir. I am.

6           Q.    Are you familiar with that particular document?

7           A.    Yes, sir. I am.

8           Q.    Is that a document that y'all keep in y'all's
9           business on a regular basis with respect to accounts?

10          A.    Yes, sir. It is.

11          Q.    The entries on that particular document, can you
12          identify those entries?

13          A.    Yes, sir. I can.

14                   BY MR. HORAN: At this time I have qualified
15          him I think, Your Honor.

16          Q.    Okay, Mr. Ballard, as far as that particular
17          document, does it have entries on Ms. Fleming's account
18          before July the 16th all the way up until, up until what 19          time? When is the last time there has been some account
20          history on that?

21          A.    The last account entry on this page was 2-9 of '98.

22          Q.    That was after September or October of '97?

23          A.    Yes, sir.

24          Q.    Has her account been treated any differently than 25          any other account in that store?

26          A.    No, sir.

27          Q.    I want to direct your attention now, Mr. Ballard,
28          to I believe the date of somewhere around July the 3rd, I
29          believe of 1996. Did you have an occasion to be summonsed to

1 the store on that particular date?

2 A. Yes, sir; I was.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. What day are we
4 talking about?

5 BY THE COURT: July the 3rd.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object.

7 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

8 BY MR. HORAN:

9 Q. And who summonsed you to the store? I don't want
10 you to go into what this individual told you.

11 A. Carmen Rigby.

12 Q. And for what purpose?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. What the purpose
14 has to be hearsay.

15 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

16 BY MR. HORAN:

17 Q. Okay. Was that in relationship to your 18 responsibilities then that you testified about with regard to 19 employees?

20 A. Yes, sir; it was.

21 Q. And did you actually go to the store?

22 A. Yes, sir. I did.

23 Q. Did you meet anybody when you walked into the
24 store?

25 A. Yes, sir. I did. I met one Curtis Flowers.

26 Q. And did you go into the store at that time?

27 A. Yes, sir. We-- I was coming in the store. He was 28 exiting the store.

29 Q. And did you, did you, in fact, have a conversation

1 with Ms. Rigby?

2 A. Yes, sir. I did.

3 Q. Don't go into the contents of that.

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. Would you describe her demeanor at that time?

6 A. Basically apprehensive and nervous.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection continues.

8 BY MR. HORAN: I'm not going into the 9 substance of the conversation.

10 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

11 BY MR. HORAN:

12 Q. What was her demeanor at that time?

13 A. Apprehensive, nervous.

14 Q. She appear to be upset?

15 A. Yes, sir. She was unsettled.

16 Q. Okay, did Curtis Flowers work at the store to your 17 knowledge any more after that day?

18 A. Yes, sir. He did.

19 Q. How many days?

20 A. I believe about three more or two and a half days.
21 Two and a half days.

22 Q. Two and a half days after you came in there?

23 A. Yes, sir. A Monday, a Tuesday, and probably a half
24 a day Wednesday.

25 Q. Are you familiar with the incident regarding the 26 batteries, Mr. Ballard?

27 A. Yes, sir; I am.

28 Q. How did--

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. Objection.

1 This is total hearsay. This man has no--

2 BY MR. HORAN: --I am fixing to establish how
3 he knew about the batteries, Your Honor.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, let's see where
5 you go.

6 BY MR. HORAN:

7 Q. Mr. Ballard--

8 BY MR. HORAN: Do you want to approach?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah. I would just like a
10 show of proof.

11 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
12 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

13 BY MR. HORAN: He is going to testify that 14 that was his golf cart that they were working on,
15 his golf cart. I am just going to establish the 16 value of the batteries. That is basically it.

17 BY THE COURT: That is not rebuttal.
18 Sustained.

19 BY MR. HORAN: Okay, that is fine.

20 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

21 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

22 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. I just have a couple of questions, Mr. Ballard.
24 Good morning.

25 A. Good morning.

26 Q. How are you doing?

27 A. Fine.

28 Q. Good. Mr. Ballard, as far as your-- so as of 29 2-9-98, Ms. Clemmie, I'm sorry, Fleming still owed money on

1 her furniture. Is that correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And her furniture has never been seized; is that
4 true?

5 A. Seized?

6 Q. I mean repossessed I guess is the right word.

7 A. Not by Tardy Furniture; that's correct.

8 Q. So you never repossessed her furniture at all, did
9 you? Tardy Furniture never did?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. Okay, so to the extent that you know, she still has 12 the furniture. Isn't that true? As far as you know?

13 A. As far as I know.

14 Q. And she-- can I see the document you have, please?

15 A. (Witness hands Exhibit S-110 for identification to 16 Mr. Lumumba.)

17 Q. Thank you.

18 A. (Document handed back to witness.)

19 Q. And I think you said the last action as far as 20 payment on that account was on 2-9-98? Is that--

21 A. No, sir. That is not what I said.

22 Q. Okay. What is the relevance of that date? 2-9-98?

23 A. Each time we have any correspondence with a client
24 or customer pertaining to their contract, it is recorded on 25 their contract.

26 Q. I see. Well, I guess-- hold on one second.

27 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
29 of this witness.

1 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

2 BY MR. HORAN: He is.

3 BY THE COURT: Mr. Ballard, you are free to
4 go.

5 WITNESS EXCUSED.

6 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

7 BY MR. EVANS: Patricia Hollman.

8 PATRICIA HOLLMAN,

9 a black female recalled to testify, this time as a witness by 10 the State in REBUTTAL, having been previously sworn,
11 testified again as follows, to-wit:

12 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

13 BY THE COURT: All right.

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. Good morning, Ms. Hollman.

16 A. Good morning.

17 Q. You are the same Patricia Hollman that has 18 testified in this hearing before; is that correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Ms. Hollman, you have a brother by the name of 21 Odell Hollman, Jr.?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. I'm going to try to make this short and to the 24 point. Have you ever agreed with your brother to make up any 25 lie to try to get money out of the reward from the Tardy
26 Furniture murders?

27 A. No, I have not.

28 Q. Is everything you told this jury about what you
29 know about this Defendant the truth?

1 A. Yes, it is.

2 Q. Do you know of any reason that your brother would
3 come into court and make up a story like that?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well--

5 A. --Yes, I do.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Wait until the Court rules.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think that calls for her to 9 read his mind. I mean let's-- can we approach,
10 please, for an offer of proof? It sounds like
11 speculation and hearsay.

12 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
13 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I mean we are showing an
15 offer of proof. She said that she knows there is a 16 reason. How can she know why her brother would 17 make something?

18 BY THE COURT: Well, he might have told her.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he wasn't-- no
20 predicate was laid. He didn't ask the brother if 21 he told her anything.

22 BY MR. EVANS: I asked a simple question, do
23 you know.

24 BY THE COURT: Yeah, the predicate has been
25 laid for sure.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, what I'm saying again
27 is let's not get hearsay out and then find out it
28 is hearsay and have the damage done. What I'm 29 asking is that if she knows and--

1                   BY THE COURT: --Well, ask her if she knows of 2 her own personal knowledge.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am asking that a foundation
4 be laid. How does she know? Did she see it, or is
5 it something she heard? If it's something she
6 heard-- excuse me. If it's something she heard,
7 even if it's from her brother, it's not admissible
8 if he hasn't laid a predicate. He hasn't laid a
9 predicate on that at all.

10                  BY MR. EVANS: If it is something that she has 11 heard from her brother, that would be a reason for 12 her to know. It is not offered as hearsay. It is 13 offered for the basic reason that I asked if she 14 had an opinion why he would come in here and lie.

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, her opinion is not
16 relevant.

17                  BY THE COURT: Her opinion unless he, unless
18 she-- I mean I'm not going to let her make a lay
19 opinion as to why he lied.

20                  BY MR. EVANS: It is based on her knowledge, 21 her conversations with him and her knowledge of 22 him, what they had problems over.

23                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Then how do we know what the 24 foundation is?

25                  BY MR. EVANS: No, you don't get her--

26                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Her conversations with him
27 and her conversations with him, anything he said is 28 not admissible unless he lays the proper
29 predicate. Now he knew--

1                   BY THE COURT: --I'm going to sustain the
2                   objection.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: I assume, Your Honor, that if
4                   he asks her questions and opens the door, that I
5                   will be allowed to go into it?

6                   BY THE COURT: Sure. That changes the field
7                   of play.

8                   BY MR. EVANS: No further questions.

9                   CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10                  Q. Good morning, Ms. Hollman.

11                  A. Morning.

12                  Q. Now Ms. Hollman, you told Counsel that you had not 13                  misrepresented the truth because of any kind of 14                  conversation. Is that true? And I mean because of any kind 15                  of relationship with your brother or any other reason; you 16                  have not misrepresented the truth as far as this case is 17                  concerned. Is that true?

18                  A. That's true.

19                  Q. Okay. In fact, Ms. Hollman, didn't you
20                  misrepresent the truth as the relationship to the age of your 21                  children in order to try to convince, in order to try to be--

22                  BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may we approach?
23                  I didn't go into anything about her testimony about 24                  the age of her children. I went into her testimony
25                  about what she knew about this Defendant, and that 26                  is as far as I went.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: We went into the question of 28                  lying, Judge, and that's what I am getting into,
29                  and it was lying in relationship to shoes. I will

1           get right to-- it is clearly relevant to the issues
2           at hand.

3                   BY THE COURT: Okay, I will allow you. Go
4           ahead.

5   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

6           Q.   I think that you indicated at a previous hearing
7           that you had purchased shoes for your two boys; is that
8           correct?

9           A.   That's correct.

10          Q.   And you indicated at that hearing that your boys
11          were at an older age than they actually were in order to 12          justify that representation, didn't you? Didn't you say at 13          that previous hearing that your boys were older than they 14          really were?

15          A.   No, I did not.

16          Q.   Okay, you have a son by the name of Trevaris; is
17          that correct?

18          A.   That's correct.

19          Q.   And he is your oldest son; isn't that correct?

20          A.   That's correct.

21          Q.   And he will only be twelve years old this year;
22          right?

23          A.   Yes, he will.

24          Q.   Yet, back in 1997, in order to-- about in 1997 you
25          told, you testified at a hearing under oath on October the 26          13th, 1997, that he was eleven years old at that time, didn't
27          you?

28          A.   That doesn't matter. I at the time--

29          Q.   --Excuse me. Let me see. "Okay, Ms. Hollman, tell

1 me how you are familiar with the fact that Mr. Flowers had
2 Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes that morning." A. "Because I
3 have two boys, ages 11 and 9, and I bought them a pair. They
4 wear Filas. They wear Grant Hill tennis shoes."

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Okay, and you said one of them was eleven, and one
7 of them was nine; right? Isn't that what you said back then
8 two years ago?

9 A. What has that got to do with it?

10 Q. I'm asking you a question.

11 A. Yes, I did but that doesn't-- at the time.

12 Q. You knew the ages of your children back then,
13 didn't you?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Okay, so the young man is eleven now, but you
16 testified two years ago that he was eleven at that time, and 17 you had bought the child of that age a pair of Grant Hill
18 tennis shoes?

19 A. They said that-- it don't matter what age they at;
20 they wear Filas.

21 Q. I see.

22 A. And Nikes, and my little girl is six now. She have 23 on some now.

24 Q. I see. But that was your testimony at the time,
25 that he was eleven years old; is that correct? Is that
26 right?

27 A. Yes, that's right.

28 Q. Okay. But the truth of the matter is he will only
29 be twelve this year; is that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Well, was that a lie that he was eleven years old
3 two years ago?

4 A. No, it just was a misunderstanding. It wasn't a
5 lie.

6 Q. You had a misunderstanding about how old your child
7 is? You thought he was two years older than he really was?

8 A. No, I didn't.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

10 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

11 Q. Ms. Hollman, in that prior transcript that he is 12 talking about, you said then that Curtis Flowers wore Fila
13 Grant Hill tennis shoes?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And you said the way that you knew it is because 16 your children had some and you knew what they looked like--

17 A. --that's right--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me, Judge. The 19 questions are leading. I don't have--

20 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further.

22 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

23 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: Ms. Hollman, you are free to
25 go.

26 WITNESS EXCUSED.

27 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

28 BY MR. EVANS: Clemmie Fleming.

29 BY THE COURT: Clemmie Fleming.

CLEMMIE FLEMING,

a black female called to testify as a witness by the State in REBUTTAL, having been previously sworn and previously testified, testified again as follows, to-wit:

BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

Q. Good morning, Ms. Fleming.

A. Good morning.

Q. You are the same Clemmie Fleming that has testified in this trial previously; is that correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Ms. Fleming, is what you told this jury earlier the truth?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever at any time--

BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge.

BY MR. EVANS: One moment.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is to proper rebuttal. If there is something specific that came from our case that he is going to ask her to rebut,
I have no problems. But just to ask her things that she has already testified to-- can we approach? And I'm not going to do this again. I'm just going to do it for all witnesses.

(CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

BY MR. LUMUMBA: Here is my problem. This is improper rebuttal, did you tell the truth the first time. I don't think that is proper. She has

1 already said what she said the first time. If he
2 is going to ask a specific question, to ask her
3 about what somebody else said she said, that is 4 proper rebuttal. But you can't just keep bringing
5 witnesses up to rehash and confirm what they said.

6 BY THE COURT: I think that is right. Just to 7 call them back up there just to say that she is 8 telling the truth again is not proper rebuttal. If 9 you have got some specifics--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --I do, Your Honor.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, you can go into them, but 12 just don't ask those questions again.

13 BY MR. EVANS: And also, the purpose of that 14 question is because he attempted to attack her on 15 this line. I think it is definitely proper
16 rebuttal just to get her to say that she was not
17 lying--

18 BY THE COURT: --I don't.

19 BY MR. EVANS: But that's as far as I am going 20 on that line.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay.

22 END BENCH CONFERENCE

23 BY MR. EVANS:

24 Q. Ms. Fleming, as I was starting to say, let me start
25 back over. Did you ever on any occasion try to get Roy
26 Harris to lie and say that you were with him when you were 27 not with him?

28 A. No, sir.

29 Q. If Roy Harris said that you were not with him when

1 he saw the person running that you identified as Curtis
2 Flowers, would that be true or not true?

3 A. Not true.

4 Q. Which direction-- if Roy Harris said that-- well,
5 which point. If Roy Harris ever in any statement said that
6 you did not go in front of Tardy Furniture and turn right and
7 go down Church Street, would that be untrue?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 BY MR. EVANS: One moment, Your Honor.

10 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

11 Q. Did you ever tell anyone that you made this story
12 up in an attempt to get reward money?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Are you doing that?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. Have you ever asked for any reward money?

17 A. No, sir.

18 BY MR. EVANS: That's all we have, Your Honor.

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Good morning, Ms. Fleming.

21 A. Good morning.

22 Q. Ms. Fleming, would it be safe to say that Mary
23 Fleming is your sister?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Would it be safe to say that Latarsha Blissett is 26 your--

27 A. Cousin.

28 Q. Is your cousin?

29 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And your friend?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Now and it would be safe to say that Stacey
4 Wright is related to you too; is that correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. On one occasion you actually told Ms. Blissett, did
7 you not, that you never saw Mr. Curtis Flowers anywhere--

8 A. No.

9 Q. --near the Tardy Store, but you saw him way away
10 from that store. Did you say that?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. You never said that you saw him way away from the 13 Tardy store?

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. So your voice would not be on tape saying that?

16 A. No, sir.

17 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba gets out a tape.)

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we approach?

19 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

20 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, if he can 21 authenticate the tape, he can play it, but if he 22 can't authenticate it with Ms. Blissett, he can't 23 play it.

24 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
25 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

26 BY MR. EVANS: At this point I have two
27 specific things I want to raise. This is improper
28 at this time, and I would ask for sanctions on 29 anything that has not been furnished to us at this

1 point.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I sent them everything I had
3 or either told them in a letter that he could come
4 get it. This--and they were free to listen to what
5 they got. Now this is not a tape which I have a
6 transcript of. I told them that we had tapes, and
7 I told them they could get them, which is the same
8 thing he told us. Now the day that you told us to 9 exchange tapes we gave them everything we had.

10 BY MR. EVANS: You didn't give us this.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This was created after that.
12 We didn't have this at that time. But the thing is 13 and they have created tapes after that. They have 14 got a tape of - who was it? - Hawkins, and they
15 sent it to us saying that we-- well, they sent us a
16 transcript, but we don't have a transcript of 17 this. We never had a transcript of this, and I am
18 not certain that they haven't gotten this tape.
19 They should have gotten this tape.

20 BY THE COURT: The trouble is it has not been
21 authenticated with Ms. Blissett when she testified.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, no; it's not Ms.
23 Blissett. Clemmie Fleming is going to 24 authenticate. Her voice is on it.

25 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to allow it. As 26 far as I know, it wasn't furnished. I don't have 27 any evidence--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --It was furnished. And my 29 representation is it was furnished in discovery.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She didn't testify to that,
2 Judge. Objection.

3 BY THE COURT: Sustained as to leading.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She specifically said that
5 she was a girlfriend.

6 BY MR. EVANS:

7 Q. Who, if anyone, asked you to lie in relationship to
8 this case?

9 A. Mary Fleming.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Wait just a minute.

12 BY THE COURT: I didn't hear the answer.

13 BY MR. EVANS: She said Mary Fleming.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is no predicate laid
15 for that.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. We asked Mary
17 Fleming about that, Your Honor. Plus--

18 BY THE COURT: This is redirect. Sustained.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

20 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would ask that the last
22 answer be stricken since I had no ability to 23 cross-examine.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, that last answer will be 25 stricken. The jury is instructed to disregard it.
26 You are free to go, Ms. Fleming.

27 WITNESS EXCUSED.

28 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point the 29 State of Mississippi finally rests.

STATE RESTS ON REBUTTAL.

BY THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, you have now heard all the testimony in this case. We do have the instructions ready for me to give you, and then the argument will proceed. The argument will be fairly lengthy in this case and will probably take us on over into the lunch break. So I'm give to give y'all about 15 minutes right now, and at that time I'm going to let you go ahead and order your lunch. We will bring it in, and it will be waiting on you when you go to do your deliberations, and you can also do whatever else you want to do on your break within the confines of what I let you do. Okay.

JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I do want to put in the record. I am going to, we are going to find the spot on the tape that we are talking about because I definitely want to be on the record, and I also will find the letter which transfers this on discovery. They got this Blissett material on discovery. They got this tape, and there is no reason why it should not have been allowed. So that's my-- I wanted to make a record of that. We will find the exact spot so you don't have to rummage through the whole tape, but we will find it.

BY MR. EVANS: If we are going to get into any of it, I would like a copy of the tape so we can

1 listen to it even though it is too late to use it
2 in trial.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, you have already had a
4 copy of this tape. If you want another copy, I
5 don't have a problem with that although I can't 6 just reproduce it right here. I don't have 7 anything to reproduce it with.

8 BY MR. EVANS: I would like to listen to it
9 before we leave here.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any problem.

11 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to get into
12 that.

13 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, THE COURT, THE 14 ATTORNEYS AND THE DEFENDANT RETURNED TO THE 15 COURTROOM WITH THE JURY OUT FOR THE FOLLOWING:)

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we have got a tape
17 here. One second.

18 (THE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS LEFT THE COURTROOM.
19 UPON MR. LUMUMBA RETURNING INTO THE COURTROOM AT 20 11:02 A.M. PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED:)

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, are we ready to proceed?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, we are ready to proceed.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay, bring the jury in.

24 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

25 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, at the 26 beginning of this case, I told you at the end of 27 the case that I would give you the instructions on 28 the law, and these are the instructions that I have 29 for you. You will be allowed to take these to the

1 jury room with you during your deliberations for
2 your consideration.

3 "You have heard all of the testimony and
4 received the evidence and will hear the arguments
5 of counsel shortly. I will now instruct you as to 6 the rules of law which you will apply to this
7 evidence in reaching your verdict.

8 When you took your place in the jury box, you
9 took an oath that you would follow and apply these 10 rules to the evidence in reaching your verdict in 11 this case. It is, therefore, your duty as jurors
12 to follow the law which I shall now state to you.

13 You are not to be concerned with the wisdom of 14 any rule of law. Regardless of any opinion you may 15 have as to what the law ought to be, it would be a
16 violation of your sworn duty to base your verdict
17 upon any other view of law than that given in these
18 instructions.

19 You are not to single out one instruction
20 alone as stating the law, but you must consider
21 these instructions as a whole.

22 It is your exclusive province to determine the 23 facts in this case and to consider and weigh the 24 evidence for that purpose. The authority thus 25 vested in you is not an arbitrary power, but must
26 be exercised with sincere judgment, sound
27 discretion, and in accordance with the rules of 28 law.

29 Both parties have a right to expect that you

1           will conscientiously consider and weigh the
2           evidence and apply the law of the case.

3           It is your duty to determine the facts and to
4           determine them from the evidence produced in open
5           court. You are to apply the law to the facts and 6           in this way decide the case. You should not be 7           influenced by bias, sympathy or prejudice based on 8           race, religion, color or any such manner. Your 9           verdict should be based on the evidence and not 10          upon speculation, guesswork, or conjecture.

11          You are required and expected to use your good
12          common sense and sound honest judgment in 13          considering and weighing the testimony of each
14          witness who has testified in this case.

15          The evidence which you are to consider
16          consists of the testimony and statements of the 17          witnesses and exhibits offered and received. You
18          are also permitted to draw such reasonable
19          inferences from the evidence as seem justified in 20          light of your own experience.

21          Arguments, statements and remarks of counsel
22          are intended to help you understand the evidence
23          and apply the law, but are not evidence. If any 24          argument, statement or remark has no basis in the 25          evidence, then you should disregard that argument,
26          statement or remark.

27          The production of evidence in court is 28          governed by rules of law. From time to time during 29          the trial it has been my duty as judge to rule on

1           the admissibility of evidence. You must not
2           concern yourselves with the reasons for my rulings
3           since they are controlled and governed by the rules
4           of law. You should not infer from my rulings on
5           these motions or objections to the evidence that I
6           have any opinion on the merits favoring one side or 7           the other. You should not speculate as to possible
8           answers to questions which I did not require to be 9           answered. Further, you should not draw any 10          inferences from the content of these questions.

11           You are to disregard all evidence which I
12          excluded from consideration during the course of 13          the trial.

14           If in stating the law to you, I repeat any 15          rule, direction or idea; or if I state the same in 16          varying ways, no emphasis is intended, and you must 17          not draw any inference therefrom. The order in 18          which these instructions are given has no
19          significance as to their relative importance.

20           The law presumes every person charged with the 21          commission of a crime to be innocent. This 22          presumption places upon the State the burden of 23          proving the defendant guilty of every material
24          element of the crime with which the defendant is 25          charged. Before you can return a verdict of 26          guilty, the State must prove to your satisfaction
27          beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is 28          guilty. The presumption of innocence attends the 29          defendant throughout the trial and prevails at its

1           close unless overcome by evidence which satisfies
2           the jury of the defendant's guilt beyond a
3           reasonable doubt and to the exclusion of every
4           other reasonable hypothesis consistent with
5           innocence. The defendant is not required to prove
6           his or her innocence.

7           The verdict of the jury must represent the 8           considered judgment of each juror. In order to 9           return a verdict, it will be necessary that each
10          juror agree. In other words, all twelve jurors
11          must agree before returning a verdict in this 12          case. It is your sworn duty as jurors to consult 13          with one another and to deliberate in view of 14          reaching an agreement, if you can do so without
15          violence to your individual judgment. Each of you
16          must decide the case for yourself, but do so only
17          after an impartial consideration of the evidence
18          with your fellow jurors. In the course of your 19          deliberations, do not hesitate to re-examine your
20          own views and change your opinion, if convinced it
21          is erroneous, but do not surrender your honest
22          convictions as to the weight or effect of evidence
23          solely because of the opinion of your fellow jurors
24          or for the purpose of returning a verdict.

25          The burden of proof in this case is on the 26          State to prove the defendant's guilt beyond a
27          reasonable doubt and to the exclusion of every
28          other reasonable hypothesis consistent with
29          innocence. The Defendant is not required to prove

1 anything in this case or to testify in his own
2 behalf. You must not hold the fact that the
3 defendant did not testify in this case against him
4 or as any evidence of guilt.

5 Evidence of a prior criminal activity on the 6 part of one criminally accused is inadmissible
7 where the prior offense has not resulted in a
8 conviction, except, however, that the State has a
9 legitimate interest in telling the rational and 10 coherent story of what happened and where 11 substantially necessary to present to the jury the 12 complete story of the crime, evidence, or testimony
13 may be given even though it may reveal or suggest
14 other crimes.

15 In this case, evidence has been offered by the 16 State that the defendant may have committed crimes,
17 other than the capital murder of Derrick Stewart.
18 The defendant is on trial for the offense of the 19 capital murder of Derrick Stewart and that offense
20 only. You cannot convict the defendant in this
21 case unless the State has proven beyond a
22 reasonable doubt and to the exclusion of every
23 reasonable hypothesis consistent with innocence
24 each and every element of capital murder as set out
25 in Instruction Number, Instruction Number 7.

26 'Alibi' means elsewhere or in another place.
27 Alibi is a legal and proper defense in law. The 28 Defendant is not required to establish the truth of 29 his alibi to your satisfaction, but if the" lack

1 "but if the evidence or lack of evidence in this
2 case raises in the minds of the jury a reasonable
3 doubt as to whether the Defendant was present and 4 committed the crime, then you must give him the 5 benefit of the doubt and acquit him.

6 If you believe from all the evidence in this
7 case, beyond a reasonable doubt and to the 8 exclusion of every other reasonable hypothesis
9 consistent with innocence, that the defendant,
10 Curtis Giovanni Flowers, by his own act or by 11 acting in concert with another or others, did on or 12 about July the 16th, 1996, in Montgomery County,
13 Mississippi, willfully, unlawfully, feloniously,
14 either with or without deliberate design, then and 15 there kill and murder Derrick Stewart, a human 16 being, without authority of law, when engaged in 17 the commission of the crime of armed robbery, then,
18 if you so believe from all the evidence in this
19 case beyond a reasonable doubt and to the exclusion
20 of every other reasonable hypothesis consistent
21 with innocence, that the defendant is guilty of 22 capital murder, then it is your sworn duty to say
23 so by your verdict.

24 If the State has failed to prove any one or 25 more of these elements beyond a reasonable doubt
26 and to the exclusion of every other reasonable
27 hypothesis consistent with innocence, beyond a
28 reasonable doubt and to the exclusion of every
29 other reasonable hypothesis consistent with

1           innocence, then you shall find the defendant not
2           guilty of capital murder.

3           If you believe from all the evidence in this
4           case beyond a reasonable doubt and to the exclusion
5           of every other reasonable hypothesis consistent
6           with innocence that the defendant, Curtis Giovanni
7           Flowers, by his own act or by acting in concert
8           with another or others in Montgomery County,
9           Mississippi, on or about July the 16th, 1996,
10          willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously, with the 11          felonious intent to permanently deprive the owner
12          thereof, did take, steal, and carry away or attempt
13          to take, steal and carry away the personal property
14          of Bertha Tardy, from the presence and against the 15          will of Bertha Tardy, by violence to her person
16          with a deadly weapon, then the same would 17          constitute armed robbery.

18          A thing is in the presence of a person, in 19          respect to robbery, which is so within his reach,
20          inspection, observation, or control that he could,
21          if not overcome with violence or prevented by fear,
22          retain his possession of it.

23          The Court instructs the jury that
24          identification testimony is an expression of belief
25          or impression by the witness. You must judge its 26          value and reliability from the totality of the 27          circumstances surrounding the crime and the 28          subsequent identification. In appraising the 29          identification testimony of a witness, you should

1           consider the following: Did the witness have an
2           adequate opportunity to observe the offender? Did
3           the witness observe the offender with an adequate
4           degree of attention? Did the witness provide an
5           accurate description of the offender after the 6           crime? How certain is the witness of the 7           identification? How much time" is passed, "how 8           much time passed between the crime and the
9           identification?

10           Upon retiring to the jury room, you will 11           select one from among your number to act as 12           foreperson. The foreperson will preside over your 13           deliberations and will be your spokesman before the 14           court in the event there is any matter about which 15           you wish to communicate with the court. If it
16           becomes necessary during your deliberations to 17           communicate with the court, you may send a note by 18           the bailiff, signed by your foreperson, or one or
19           more members of the jury. No member of the jury
20           should ever attempt to communicate with the court
21           by any means other than a signed writing, and the 22           court will never communicate with any member of 23           the jury on a subject touching the merits of this
24           case otherwise than in writing or orally in open
25           court.

26           The Court instructs the jury that if there may 27           be a fact or circumstance in this cause susceptible
28           of two interpretations, one favorable and the other
29           unfavorable to Curtis Flowers, when the jury has

1           considered such fact or circumstance with all other
2           evidence, there is a reasonable doubt as to the 3           correct interpretation, then you, the jury, must
4           resolve such doubt in favor of Curtis Flowers, and
5           place upon such fact or circumstance the 6           interpretation most favorable to Curtis Flowers.

7           This phase of the trial deals only with the 8           question of the guilt or innocence of the 9           Defendant, Curtis Giovanni Flowers. In the event
10          that you find the Defendant guilty of Capital
11          Murder, you will then and only then consider the 12          appropriate sentence to be imposed.

13          Your verdict must be plainly marked on the 14          separate form provided by the Court. It need not 15          be signed by you, and may be in either of the 16          following forms:

17          If you find the Defendant, Curtis Giovanni
18          Flowers, guilty of Capital Murder, then the form of 19          your verdict shall be: 'We, the jury, find the
20          defendant guilty of Capital Murder.'

21          If you find the Defendant, Curtis Giovanni
22          Flowers, not guilty, the form of your verdict shall 23          be: 'We, the jury, find the Defendant not 24          guilty.'"

25          When you have reached a verdict, there is a
26          form that is attached to these instructions that 27          has both those verdicts on it, and all you have to 28          do is check the one that applies to what your 29          decision is. Let the argument proceed.

1 BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed, Your Honor?

2 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

3 FINAL ARGUMENT BY MR. HORAN:

4 I have got a little over 30 minutes, and I hope I
5 make it. I don't know if I will or not. I want to talk to 6 you first of all about some of the things you heard last here
7 today because I think that is important. They teach us when
8 we go to these seminars on how to prosecute cases. They tell
9 us to talk about things that the jury hears last and talk
10 about the things they hear first.

11 And I want y'all to bear in mind that when I stand
12 up here through the course of seven days with Mr. Evans and 13 Counsel for the Defendant, we stand up here and we say
14 something is evidence. That is not evidence. When they say
15 something is on a tape, that is not necessarily what it is.
16 Things like that are trial tactics, and I run into them all
17 the time--

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, I object to that.

19 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, this is closing
20 argument.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That doesn't make any
22 difference. He is trying to imply something is not 23 on that tape which is on that tape.

24 BY MR. HORAN: I am saying it is not
25 evidence--

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --according to the ruling--

27 BY MR. HORAN: --What he says is not evidence--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --That's what he can say. The 29 Court has ruled that it was not admissible, and

1                   that's all he can say about it. He can't--

2                   BY THE COURT: --That is true, Mr. Horan.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --say something which is 4                   absolutely not true.

5 BY MR. HORAN:

6                   What he says is not evidence. What I say during
7 the course of this trial is not evidence. What I say a
8 witness says is not evidence. And regardless of how many 9 times that I say that witness says that, said that, that is 10 not evidence. I want y'all to remember that.

11                  Now in July the 16th, 1996, something happened in 12 Winona, Mississippi, that is going to change that town
13 forever. I think y'all can see that. Y'all have seen that.
14 You have seen sisters get pitted against sisters, and you
15 have seen brothers come in here and testify - I'm talking
16 about Odell Hollman, if you want to give him any 17 consideration whatsoever - brothers testify against sisters.
18 And all this stuff about a reward and all that kind of stuff,
19 I think y'all can see why a number of these witnesses would 20 be reluctant to come forward in the first place. You saw
21 what happened to them as a result of their cooperation. You
22 saw that some people came down on them because eventually 23 they did come forward.

24                  Now no one has testified, nobody has testified that 25 any of these people came to any law enforcement officers out
26 of the blue knocking on the door saying I need to tell you
27 something about what happened on the 16th. There is no proof
28 of that. John Johnson, Wayne Miller and Jack Matthews during 29 the course of their job interviewed a number of people. They

1 came across certain witnesses that had information about this
2 Defendant. All this information contradicted what he told
3 them initially.

4 Now on that day Sam Jones told you that he got a
5 call. He did not say he arrived at 9:30. He said he got a
6 call from Ms. Tardy at 9:30, and he is estimating exactly--
7 and he is an elderly gentleman. No one at that particular
8 time needed to be checking their watch or anything like that.

9 He testified--

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, I realize that is 11 argument, but I do object. Mr. Jones said he got a 12 call at 9 o'clock, and he arrived at 9:30. That 13 was his testimony--

14 BY MR. HORAN: --He did not.

15 BY THE COURT: The jury has heard the 16 evidence. This is argument.

17 BY MR. HORAN:

18 He said he received a call around 9:30. I recall;
19 I wrote it down. It took him 15 to 20 minutes to get there,
20 and he is guessing, ladies and gentlemen. I think we would 21 all agree with that. He arrived at the store, and he goes in 22 and he sees the carnage of every employee at that time
23 besides Mr. Tom Tardy at Tardy Furniture. He sees Derrick
24 "BoBo" Stewart, this young man right here (NOTE: Counsel 25 holds up photograph of victim from autopsy.) laying in his 26 own blood, gasping for life. He goes up to, up the street,
27 just up the street a short distance to Coast to Coast. He 28 comes back, and we know that at 10:21 Johnny Hargrove
29 arrived. He received a call, and he said it took him a

1 minute or two to get there. We know that. And he went
2 inside. He observed the bloody footprints that has been
3 testified about.

4 Now I want to talk about the footprints for just a
5 minute. There aren't 600,000 people in Winona. There are
6 5500. And didn't 600,000 people have access to Doyle
7 Simpson's gun. So whoever had access to that gun and had the 8 same type tennis shoe that was in that store committed this 9 murder.

10 Let's get back to the scene for a second. Johnny 11 Hargrove, 10:21 he arrives. He goes inside. He calls for 12 back up. Mr. Jones testified that he went right up the 13 street and came back. And I submit to you, ladies and 14 gentlemen, that he probably stayed in that store no more than 15 two or three minutes. I mean a normal human being would not 16 go in there and linger around once he saw that. So he 17 probably, I think it's reasonable to conclude that around
18 ten, around ten, between 10:18 to 20 he left the store going
19 up. (Counsel writes on pad on easel.)

20 Okay, and we know at 9:43 Porky Collins was at 21 Wal-Mart, and he testified that it took him approximately 15
22 or 20 minutes to get to the location of Tardy Furniture after
23 he ran to the house. So approximately around 10 o'clock
24 these murders occurred, approximately, around that time.
25 (Counsel writes on pad again.) He saw these individuals
26 headed toward the store and going inside, this one individual
27 headed, went north, for what that is worth, went north and 28 went across the street, an individual that he identified as 29 Curtis Flowers. Now no one has put on any proof that Porky

1 Collins got offered anything. In fact, he went back to the 2 scene that day and gave them a description of an individual
3 that he saw walking across the street at approximately 10
4 o'clock.

5 So we know just according to what Sam Jones has
6 told us and according to what Johnny Hargrove told us that 7 sometimes in close proximity to 10:18-- from 9:43 to 10:18 or 8 from 5 minutes until 10:00 until 10:18 these murders
9 occurred.

10 Now Clemmie Fleming. I want to talk to you about 11 Clemmie. Clemmie says around 10 o'clock. She is the young
12 lady who was under a barrage of attacks because of her
13 testimony. Approximately 10 o'clock Clemmie Fleming sees the 14 Defendant 92 steps of hers, which I don't think is 75 yards.
15 Mr. Johnson testified to that, but it was probably less than 16 that of her steps. She said 92 of her steps - If that's 75
17 yards, she has got a heck of a step - behind Tardy Furniture
18 Store running away. That's what she testified to. And I
19 submit to you; she gave this statement some time after this 20 crime, but I think you understand why. All these people come
21 in here and attack her after, after she has given sworn
22 testimony before, after September or October of 1997. I
23 think that is important to you, ladies and gentlemen, to 24 understand why this case is so important.

25 Now she sees him 92 steps away, and she is with Roy
26 Harris. Roy Harris is an elderly man, but we did all this 27 screaming and facilitated some of this I have got in my 28 throat now. We did all this screaming at him, and I'm going
29 to point something out to you about that in just a little

1 bit. Did all this screaming, but he testified in the prior
2 hearing. I asked him a question, and he admitted under oath
3 he said this. "Who did she identify on Church Street?"

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which page are you on?

5 BY MR. HORAN: 765.

6 "Who did Clemmie Fleming identify?" "She said it
7 was something, Curtis something; I don't know." "Curtis
8 Flowers?" I don't know. Curtis something.

9 Now you have got this identification instruction,
10 and part of that identification instruction says how much
11 after the crime in question did the individual identify this 12 person. She identified this individual running away from the 13 store at approximately 10 o'clock when she told Roy Harris
14 that. Mr. Harris admitted under oath, admitted today that he 15 had testified to that-- I meant admitted the other day that 16 he had testified to that under oath before, and he also
17 admitted that he testified that they went down Front Street.
18 I understand Mr. Harris has changed his story, but I think
19 y'all understand what that is all about.

20 I asked Mr. Harris, "Did Ms. Fleming identify the 21 man running as Curtis Flowers to you?" "That's what she,
22 that's what I remember her saying." "And this is the day of 23 the murders, that morning on Church Street, two blocks from 24 behind" Tardy Furniture, "behind Tardy's, she identified
25 Curtis Flowers to you, didn't she?" "That's right." Now he 26 testified that Mr. John Johnson-- I didn't quite understand
27 that part-- the investigator from my office made him say that
28 and that this 15 year old girl came to him, an elderly
29 gentleman, and made him testify to back her story up. That

1 is a bunch of junk, and me sitting up there screaming at him
2 - Mr. Lumumba didn't have to scream at him near as loud as I
3 did - was a bunch of junk too because when I came over and
4 sat in my chair and objected, never raised, never got up.
5 Mr. Lumumba was getting into something on redirect that I
6 hadn't gotten into. I sat in that chair, and I said,
7 "Objection, Your Honor. I didn't go into that on 8 redirect." He sat there and didn't, he looked at me, didn't
9 say a word. He heard everything I said then. He stopped
10 mid-sentence and looked at me.

11 Now Patricia Hollman. She testified that that 12 morning-- this is the woman that is going to get the 30
13 thousand dollar reward, and all she testified to: I saw him
14 that morning, she said approximately -- she saw him that 15 morning wearing Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes. And I remember
16 her testimony. Mr. Lumumba brings it out about ten or twelve
17 times something contrary to what I remember her saying, and I
18 want y'all to remember. I want y'all to remember what y'all
19 remember, not what I remember. And I'm going to do
20 everything I can not to misrepresent to you what the facts
21 are. But I remember her saying that he arrived back at the 22 residence between 7:00, between 7:00 and 7:30 and then stayed 23 there approximately 20 minutes. (Counsel writes on pad on 24 easel.) And then left. That's what I remember her saying.
25 That is Patricia Hollman. At that time she saw him when he
26 left initially, Grant Hill Fila, Fila Grant Hill tennis
27 shoes. No one has come in here and impeached her on that 28 whatsoever. Nobody.

29 Next is BoJack. BoJack told Mr. Johnson and he

1 testified it was on the day of the murders, albeit he said it
2 may have been the 17th, but he said it was on the day of the 3 murders at approximately 7:15. The Defendant Curtis Flowers,
4 the man sitting over there, a guy that he knew, and when you
5 get to this identification instruction, remember we are not
6 talking about someone like me on July the 16th. I had never 7 seen Curtis Flowers prior to July the 16th. Okay. But these
8 people knew him. They lived in the same community. Now
9 Porky Collins, to his knowledge he testified and quite
10 truthfully that he, that to his knowledge, he hadn't seen
11 Curtis Flowers prior to that day.

12 But anyway, let's get back to this. 7:15, BoJack,
13 who lives at the intersection of Highway 51 and Angelica, saw
14 him walking toward Angelica. There is Angelica right there.
15 Katherine Snow, who had absolutely no reason-- she is from 16 Durant, Mississippi, some space down the road, said she knew
17 Curtis Flowers, but she had no motive to fabricate anything
18 on him; another witness that no one has come in here and said
19 has been given any money, has been promised anything, was 20 never asked by Counsel for the Defendant, What did you
21 receive? Weren't you promised this, promised that? Nothing.
22 He just wants to leave some innuendo out there that there is 23 some reward that was out there that no law enforcement agency 24 was involved in in any way, that they are doing this for the 25 money.

26 But anyway, Katherine Snow said she arrived at 27 work, and she said between 7:00 and 7:30 A M. She goes out
28 and she, positive identification, positively identified
29 Curtis Flowers as the individual standing against Doyle

1 Simpson's automobile. That brings Mr. Doyle Simpson in the
2 picture. The Judge has instructed you on reasonable
3 hypotheses. So right now we have got Curtis Flowers, and we
4 have got Doyle Simpson. (Counsel writes on large pad on 5 easel.) Now standing next to Doyle Simpson's automobile, the 6 automobile that contained these projectiles-- strike that.
7 It didn't contain these projectiles. It contained the gun
8 that fired this projectile into the head of Carmen Rigby
9 between 9:55, 10 o'clock and whatever time Sam Jones walked
10 in there, you know, 10:10 or whatever. This projectile was 11 retrieved from the head of Carmen Rigby, the bookkeeper at 12 the store. This projectile was recovered from the mattress
13 that was next to that post in that photograph in the store.
14 These two were recovered, like y'all have heard testimony
15 about, from the post at Doyle Simpson's house, a guy they are 16 trying to put the finger on who takes the law enforcement
17 officers out to his house and says, "That's where I practice
18 shot my gun into that post." These two projectiles match
19 this one, this one, and another one, another projectile - I
20 believe this is it - 81, that was laying on the floor.

21 So we know, not 600,000 people that have Grant Hill
22 Fila tennis shoes, one of 600,000, no. We know that somebody
23 who knew about Doyle Simpson's gun that had Grant Hill Fila
24 tennis shoes committed this murder. Not somebody in 25 Wisconsin or Florida or anything like that. We know that
26 Doyle Simpson's gun killed Bertha Tardy, Robert Golden, BoBo
27 Stewart and Carmen Rigby in that store.

28 Think about that store. Highway 51 is right here.
29 Downtown, downtown Winona now. Y'all have to be reasonable

1 and the Judge tells you; I want y'all to use your common
2 sense. Downtown Winona. Somebody at random is going to rob
3 and kill somebody in a store, a furniture store in downtown
4 Winona? No. Maybe a convenience store out on the
5 interstate. Maybe a convenience store on 51, but not in a
6 location where a possibility of identification is greater
7 because of the greater population area. It's not happening.
8 It's not reasonable. Somebody was going to that store for a
9 particular purpose that did these murders. And I don't think
10 that is unreasonable to conclude that, ladies and gentlemen.

11 Now Eric McChristrian-- Edward McChristian. He is 12 just an old fellow sitting on a porch. He hasn't got an ax
13 to grind with anybody. Between 7:30 and 8 o'clock he sees
14 the Defendant, and keep in mind the Defendant says on that 15 day-- I'm not, we are not talking about time removed. We are 16 talking about that day that man said, I was not on that side
17 of the highway. He told them no. I'm not on that side of 18 the highway. And here is Edward McChristian; he says, Hey, 19 between 7:30 and 8 o'clock he is coming by my house up the 20 street.

21 Now keep in mind, and these investigators are
22 talking to large numbers of people. The guy from Weed
23 Brothers who said yeah, the Sheriff came by. They 24 interviewed everybody in our store. So they are talking to a
25 lot of people. He says he comes by between that period of 26 time, and no one has put anything on sworn that Edward 27 McChristian asked for one red cent for his testimony or his 28 cooperation or any other witness, any credible. That is 29 Clemmie Fleming. We will get back to that.

EXHIBIT _____

ELECTRONIC DISK _____

Case #1999-DP-01369-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : C. E. Morgan III

.....
Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Charlotte B. Williams, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 97-372

1           Now Mary Jeanette-- now likewise, Mr. McChristian
2       said he knew the Defendant. Mary Jeanette Fleming. She
3       testifies that she went to Weed Brothers, and a guy from Weed
4       Brothers said yeah, that was the 16th. How do you know?
5       That's the only day I wrote estimates, so we have got the
6       day. We have the day that she came down there and dropped
7       her car off was the 16th, the day of the murders. She says,
8       I called somewhere around 10 till, maybe 8:50, 9 o'clock. I
9       met the Defendant, Curtis Giovanni Flowers, right there
10      walking toward town. (Counsel points on Exhibit S-109.) I
11      saw him. I saw the Defendant walking toward town right
12      there, and this is a place he said on that day he wasn't on 13      that side of town. Another witness that no one has come in 14      here and testified to that she had told anybody that she was 15      offered one red cent for her cooperation.

16           Now let's get to Porky Collins. Porky said he came
17      around and something drew his attention to these two guys
18      arguing, and he made a loop, and he said, That's the guy
19      right there. That's the guy I saw. And he identified him
20      back in August of '96. August the 24th of 1996, he 21      identified the Defendant as being the individual that he saw 22      in front of Tardy Furniture at a point in time prior to the 23      time Sam Jones got there. It is certainly very, very 24      credible testimony from Mr. Collins regarding that particular 25      fact. And that is very, very important because how do we
26      know that who Porky Collins-- even if he only got a glimpse 27      of him, only if he did get a slight glimpse, and how do we 28      know he saw the Defendant, Curtis Flowers? Because Clemmie
29      Fleming testified that's the guy she saw running from the

1 store, and Roy Harris admitted under oath that Clemmie made
2 the statement after they had turned in front of Front Street
3 and gone down Carrollton. He said yeah. He admitted, he
4 admitted on this stand that he had testified to that before.
5 So what that does, it verifies Porky Collins' identification
6 of that Defendant.

7 Now the tennis shoes. (Counsel gets Exhibits S-93
8 through S-96.) These photographs were taken from the crime
9 scene; three photographs-- I mean three steps taken walking
10 from the back of the store to the front of the store. You
11 can look at the diagram. It will be in evidence. One here,
12 one here and one here. These photographs, according to Joe
13 Andrews, were consistent with Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes,
14 came out of that box.

15 All this stuff about the condition of the box, no
16 one has testified that this was the condition of the box at 17 the time that it was recovered. We did have testimony that 18 it was in better shape than this. No one has testified that 19 it was in that bad a shape. Joe Andrews did an examination
20 of it. It has been almost two years since it was recovered.
21 Joe Andrews testified that a Fila Grant Hill ten and a half
22 tennis shoe could not be excluded and that this shoe was 23 consistent, and that to his knowledge, there are no copycats,
24 there were no copycats at that time that would make this 25 impression, and he is an expert. He would know that, and he
26 said at the time I had information that there were copycat
27 Nikes out there with regard to Nikes. I had that kind of 28 information. There wasn't any information that there was 29 any Fila Grant Hill copycat tennis shoes at that time.

1 Counsel for the Defendant wanted to point out, well, you
2 know, it could have been that -- well, it could be that that
3 light, I can cut that light on by some other way than 4 electricity, but no one knows that. There is no facts that
5 back that up.

6 The Defendant was brought in, and he was questioned
7 and he lied. The first time they interviewed him, he lied.
8 How do we know he lied? It's the second time he came in he 9 changed his story. When he found out they were hot on his 10 trail, he couldn't say he got up at approximately 7:30. He 11 was out. He couldn't do that. He knew he messed up so he 12 testified-- strike that. He said, he told them, he told them
13 that he got up at 9:30. Two days later he changed his 14 story. 9:30, he says, but initially he says he got up at 15 7:30.

16 I want to point something out to you while I have 17 got it on my mind. This check, if I can find it - where is 18 the check?

19 (Exhibit S-63 handed to Mr. Horan.)

20 The check, he is lying about something else about 21 these batteries. He said that Ms. Tardy told him that the 22 batteries are going to eat your check up. He is lying about 23 that. I don't think he is lying when he -- he told them that
24 he called her four times about his check. I think, he didn't 25 lie about that. But Ms. Tardy didn't tell him that that 26 check was going to be, damage to the batteries and the $30.00
27 loan, his check would be eaten up by that. She wouldn't have 28 written the check. That is a lie because he got the check
29 for the full amount of his compensation.

1           I think, and I think it's reasonable to conclude
2       that she told him, just like anybody else that runs a
3       business and some of you may disagree with me, but most 4       people who run businesses, you get paid; if there is any 5       deductions, in order to keep the books right, she has got the 6       time card. She wouldn't be keeping the time card if she
7       wasn't going to pay it. You get the time card and you write
8       the check. If there is any deductions, get the check, keep 9       your books right; then you make the deductions when you
10      settle up with that person. She wouldn't be running much of 11      a business if she could just arbitrarily just say, well, I
12      will just mark that off. That is not what happened.

13           According to his statement, he called her three or 14      four times regarding this check. Frank Ballard testified he 15      got summonsed to the store. He went in and Ms. Rigby was 16      upset, and who did he meet coming out? The Defendant. There 17      had been some problems at the store, it's reasonable to 18      conclude, with the Defendant. He wasn't showing up for 19      work. He wanted his check. He called three or four times.
20      After the 5th, he didn't show up. The check was made on the 21      5th. Here it is the 16th. Here is the check and the time
22      card.

23           I think that is important because we have looked at 24      this case for two years, and y'all have looked at it once,
25      but here is the 5th. The 5th of July when she wrote the 26      check and here is the time card, and here is a lady that 27      loaned the guy $30.00 the first day he came to work. But 28      anyway, the check is for the full amount of the hours that he 29      worked. They haven't cleared up anything about any batteries

1 at that point in time. He was just trying to convince the
2 law enforcement officers that he had no reason to have any
3 more exact contact with Ms. Tardy. That's what he was trying
4 to do. On the 5th she wrote this check. It was laying by 5 her telephone, laying back there in her office, and it was
6 still there. And on that particular day he went down there
7 to settle up, and he did settle up with Ms. Tardy.

8 Jack Matthews had this Defendant submit to a
9 gunshot residue kit. Let's talk about that. Gunshot
10 residue, there are three possibilities. (Counsel writes on 11 large pad on easel while talking.) Those three possibilities
12 are as follows: Either you fired a weapon; either you were 13 in close proximity - I apologize for my handwriting - to a
14 weapon being fired; or you came in contact with GSR, gunshot
15 residue. No one has testified, nobody, nobody has testified
16 of any contact proof other than one question Mr. Lumumba
17 asked Jack Matthews: Didn't he hold a pencil that you had 18 been holding? Mr. Matthews said yeah. When was the last
19 time you fired a weapon? Back in hunting season.

20 So two of the three possibilities regarding gunshot
21 residue that Defendant was at Tardy Furniture Store when 22 those four people were killed, and there is no proof, not by 23 any cross-examination or by any case in chief for the 24 Defendant, any proof other than speculation-- well, there
25 wasn't any proof. You are going to hear some speculation.
26 There is no proof that the Defendant came in contact with 27 gunshot residue in the time frame that the experts testified
28 to that you would have to come in contact with it in order
29 for it to come up on a kit.

1           Mr. Campbell said on the 4th of July they did fire
2     some weapons out there, but Connie Moore's residence where
3     the Defendant says he was that morning, there is no proof
4     there was any guns in the house, any ammunition in the house,
5     anything like that. What does that tell you? On the web of 6     his hand a very small projectile-- I mean very small
7     particle, and it was very small. It was four hours after the 8     alleged time of the crime or the time of the crime, 10
9     o'clock that morning. About 2 o'clock this was done, gunshot
10    residue. And we were lucky enough, fortunate enough to have 11    some gunshot residue on his hand.

12           Now let me go back. We have another name that was 13    thrown in, Emmitt Simpson. When you talk about murder cases
14    like this, you talk about motive, and we know that money was 15    taken, and we know that at a point in time when Curtis
16    Flowers was borrowing $30.00 from Ms. Bertha Tardy, $255.00
17    was found in his house. They didn't take that money. At the 18    time they had no reason to take that money. They didn't take 19    prints or anything like that. Two days after the crime, he 20    was not under arrest. They had no lawful authority to take
21    that money, none whatsoever. He was not under arrest.
22    $255.00 found in the headboard of the bed in his house.

23           On the 29th, sometime after that, he is not 24    working. By his own statement he quit work, just failed to 25    show up. She called. He just didn't show up. He called one
26    day and said he wasn't coming. The next day he didn't call
27    and tell her anything. So here is a guy that is not working 28    at all, no gainful employment. His girlfriend is working.
29    There is no explanation from her or anyone else before you,

1 no family member came in to say that was a gift to Connie or
2 anything like that, why that $255.00 was found in his house,
3 approximately $255.00, found in his residence in the 4 headboard of his bedroom, the same bedroom that the Fila
5 Grant Hill tennis shoe box was found that contained 10 and a
6 half Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes.

7 Now we have Emmitt. July the 16th Emmitt about had 8 a fit because his brother thought he had stolen his gun, and 9 apparently at that point in time he heard what happened at 10 Tardy's. By counsel's own admission, some of his own
11 questions that word spreads fast in a small town like
12 Winona. Even in Gulfport, if y'all heard about four dead
13 people here in the stores down here, you would hear about it
14 pretty fast.

15 But anyway, Emmitt is having a fit because he has
16 had some contact with Doyle, and Doyle had, you know, Doyle's
17 gun -- Doyle had reported his gun missing. Here is a guy
18 they want to put the finger on that first of all, reports his 19 gun was stolen, and then at some point in time - I think
20 around the first of August, maybe before that - takes them
21 out to his house and they dig. There is not stuff laying
22 around. They dig out of a post, dig out of a post two
23 projectiles. If he committed these four murders with no
24 motive whatsoever, there is no motive whatsoever to do that.

25 Here is a guy that at 10:30, he clocks out to go
26 pick up the meals, and we know that between approximately-- 27 now we don't know exactly. Between 9:55 approximately and 28 probably 10:15, something like that, these crimes were 29 committed, but he is at work until 10:30. Counsel for the

1 Defendant wants to go into the fact well, you know, you
2 verified his alibi, but you can't tell this jury-- well, they
3 go to his place of work and talk to his employer. I mean
4 what else are they supposed to do? They talk to the people
5 he works with to see where he was at that point in time. So
6 Doyle--

7 BY THE COURT: You have got about a minute
8 left in half--

9 BY MR. HORAN: --on my half?

10 BY THE COURT: On half your time.

11 BY MR. HORAN: On half of the first half? I'm 12 going to go on if that's all right.

13 BY THE COURT: It's all right with me.

14 BY MR. HORAN: I want all the first half. I
15 am feeling pretty good.

16 BY MR. EVANS: That's on all of your half.

17 BY MR. HORAN: Okay.

18 BY MR. HORAN: On all my half? A minute?

19 BY THE COURT: Right.

20 BY MR. HORAN: Goodness.

21 CONTINUED ARGUMENT BY MR. HORAN:

22 Anyway, Doyle Simpson is eliminated. Now why
23 Emmitt Smith came into the picture, I don't know. But 24 anyway, they talked to Emmitt's employer at IBF, and he is 25 eliminated from consideration at all.

26 Now Curtis Flowers on the 16th and 18th, he could 27 not be eliminated because he lied to them about certain 28 things, changed his statement. They point the finger at 29 Curtis Flowers. And like they said, they point the finger at

1 Curtis Flowers; that's right. That's what we have done. We
2 have presented a case where people that knew him -- and real
3 quickly, this stuff about the clothes. I can't remember what
4 any one of y'all had on last Monday. I can't do it. I know
5 I saw every one of you. I saw every one of you Tuesday, and
6 if I saw one of y'all now in Grenada and it was something
7 that happened on that day, I would remember seeing you. I
8 know what I did, even though I was in Grenada, I know what I
9 did when those four people; I know everything I did that day
10 when those four people were killed. It's not important what 11 I did, but I do remember. And back, if someone had come to 12 me, if I had been in Winona and someone asked me, who did you
13 see, I could tell them. I can't tell you under my oath as an 14 attorney that I could, and as an officer of this Court, that 15 I could tell you what they had on. I could try to.

16 Now if Mr. John Johnson, our investigator, is going 17 to put this thing together and offer money, would he be 18 taking taped statements from people who were giving variance
19 in descriptions? I would hope he would do a better job than 20 that. He was asking them did they see Curtis Flowers, and 21 they said yeah. What did he have on? You know, and some of 22 them like even BoJack, he wasn't real sure. He was trying to 23 remember. He is trying to remember what he had on. But did
24 you see him that day? Yeah, I have known Curtis.

25 These are people that did not know [sic] Curtis
26 Flowers, ladies and gentlemen. These are people that lived
27 in the community with him their whole life. And they 28 remember where they were on the day of the murders and who 29 they saw. Some of them didn't come forward and it's evident

1     why. Y'all saw why. Y'all saw evidence of it here in this
2     trial, why they were reluctant. It was not because -- they
3     didn't come forward. Mr. Johnson was banging on doors. Jack
4     Matthews was banging on doors. They had to go find them.

5             They weren't coming up to the DA's office saying,
6     it's a thirty thousand dollars reward, which is important to
7     their case. They thought it was. All these witnesses say
8     that all these people said something about this $30,000
9     reward. Well, you know, the time frame didn't match up. It
10    was three months before the $30,000 reward, approximately 11    three months--

12            BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. Nobody testified
13    to that.

14            BY MR. HORAN: It's in the paper. They have 15    got the exhibits. They can look at the exhibits.

16            BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, that paper was 17    published long after the reward was $30,000. It
18    doesn't say when--

19            BY THE COURT: Well, that is evidence for the 20    jury to determine. Go ahead.

21    BY MR. HORAN:

22            Well, they say it was two months. A lot of these
23    witnesses--

24            BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Why don't we say two weeks
25    to be a little more accurate.

26            BY THE COURT: He is entitled to argue, Mr.
27    Lumumba.

28    BY MR. HORAN:

29            But nonetheless, these people-- let's say it was

1 two weeks. Let's say it was a $30,000 reward after two
2 weeks, which it wasn't. Would Clemmie Fleming wait until
3 April of the next year to come forward? And she didn't even
4 come forward. John Johnson had to find her. Why would she
5 wait four or five months? She would have been up there three
6 weeks later. Three weeks after this murder we would have had
7 our case, the case would have been locked up. If these 8 people had come forward for this reward money a month after 9 this incident, it would have been sewn up. That didn't 10 happen.

11 Jeanette Fleming happened to meet him. Mr. Johnson
12 went and talked to her, went and talked to her. There is 13 absolutely no proof that these people went out of their way
14 to come to the Highway Patrol, the Sheriff's Office or the 15 DA's Office to give this information. That tells you their 16 motivation is not money. They came forward, ladies and 17 gentlemen, and told what they saw. And if they are mistaken
18 about the clothes he had on, they were honest about it, and 19 they were honest about it here. They didn't change their 20 story. They knew they saw him.

21 Katherine Snow had seen him previously. I don't 22 know how long prior to her identification that he sang in 23 some gospel group. It may have been ten years; I don't know,
24 but she had seen him. She knew him, and she talked to Doyle
25 about that. But when you talk about this identification, I
26 want you to consider all the factors, and they are going to 27 want you to consider this thirty thousand dollar reward.
28 That's all you have heard about.

29 There has been no proof that Clemmie Fleming's

1 account is forgiven. It hasn't been washed out. If she is
2 going to come in here and lie because the Tardys didn't do
3 something for her, she would have changed her story. She has 4 told the same story every time she has been asked about this,
5 and I promise you one thing. I promise you this. If she
6 would have given a statement under oath to John Johnson
7 contrary to that, Mr. Lumumba would have been pounding her
8 with it, and it didn't happen.

9 Mr. Roy Harris changed his story. He went from 10 saying that Curtis Flowers, who he didn't know, and then he 11 said, told Mr. Johnson, I got a glimpse of him in the rear
12 view mirror. I wasn't paying attention. He changed his 13 story. He had the man stand up. That was not the man. He 14 couldn't do that with John Johnson. He told Mr. Johnson he 15 couldn't identify him. He has never been able to identify 16 him before, before Saturday. It's the first time he has ever
17 done that. He said he got a glimpse of him in the rear view
18 mirror. He gave Mr. Johnson dark skin around his face. Then 19 he testified he was light skinned. He said I told him he was 20 light skinned - fabrication. And this about the hearing aid,
21 it's a bunch of junk. He couldn't hear. My foot. He heard
22 exactly what Clemmie said, and all this screaming and yelling
23 was just a game.

24 This is more than a game to me, ladies and 25 gentlemen. BoBo Stewart is laying dead drawing his last 26 breath, a 16 year old fellow that was working because he 27 wouldn't work. He had a job because Curtis Flowers wouldn't 28 come to work. And so did Robert Golden. They had a job
29 because Curtis Flowers would not come to work and wouldn't

1 call in. All he did by his own admission in his statement
2 was get up, at lunch time get a six pack of beer, didn't want
3 to work, wasn't going to work. He thought he could talk to
4 Mr. Campbell about maybe going to New Orleans and getting a
5 job, maybe.

6 BY MR. EVANS: I think our first half is up.

7 BY THE COURT: Way up.

8 BY MR. HORAN: That's all I have, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Let us approach the bench.

10 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
11 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do need a break long enough
13 to go to the rest room.

14 BY MR. EVANS: I do too.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, the jury probably 16 does too.

17 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

18 BY THE COURT: We are going to take about a
19 five minute comfort break, and then the Defense
20 will start their argument.

21 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, COURT RECONVENED AT
22 12:12 P.M. ON 3/30/99 WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL,
23 THE DEFENDANT, AND THE JURY ALL PRESENT:)

24 BY THE COURT: You may proceed.

25 FINAL ARGUMENT BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Good afternoon, barely, ladies and gentlemen. I
27 rise at this time to speak to you actually for the last time
28 in this trial. Because of the way the system is set up, the 29 prosecution has the burden of proof, so they get to go first,

1 and they get to go last, and it's okay with us. What we do
2 is we make a presentation in the middle which shares with you
3 our perspective on the evidence. There are so many things I
4 want to say now, and I don't have quite enough time to say
5 them. And I feel everything I want to say. Every word comes
6 not only from the book, from the law, but from the heart.

7           Where are we at? What is it that we do? We are 8 in a courtroom. A tragedy has occurred, and so we come here
9 together from different places in this community. We sit
10 down and the Judge reads us certain rules which we call the 11 law. And it asks us to try to unravel this tragedy and try 12 to make a decision. As two sides approach you, one side has 13 the burden of proof, and the other is saying not guilty, no
14 way.

15           So what do we do? Because see, we find ourselves
16 in time present and we look to time past. We find ourselves
17 trying to resolve a case which we were not there to observe,
18 and in fact, that if we were there, then we wouldn't be 19 here. So how do you look into time past and make a decision
20 in time present?

21           And it's very important, very important, and I
22 don't want to talk a lot of legalese. I don't want to spend
23 a lot of time on this because I want to get dead into the 24 facts, but please bear with me for a moment because this is 25 what it's all about. Because you understand, we have to ask
26 ourselves in this case what do we do when we have a case that 27 the State really just doesn't have enough evidence to solve?
28 What do we do when we have a mystery which they have never
29 unraveled which they could never really solve?

1           What do we do when they bring us one shoe box, one
2           print which could come from 660,000 people, and I don't care
3           what you say. There is no walls up in Winona. This is not
4           the walls of China. People come into Winona. Winona is off
5           55. Memphis is at the top of 55. Jackson is at the bottom;
6           New Orleans if you go further, Little Rock, and there are all 7           kinds of places in this world, so you don't have to be in 8           Winona. You don't have to live in Winona. You don't have to 9           know people in Winona in order to kill people in Winona.

10           So the question becomes what do we do when we have 11           an expert who tells us not that this is the print that 12           matches the shoe that came from this box, but this is a print
13           that matches-- this is not a print which matches the shoe.
14           He cannot tell you; he told you he cannot even say that the 15           print matched the shoe that was in the box. He cannot even 16           say that the print matched a shoe which is like the shoe in 17           the box. It is only a partial print. He doesn't have all of 18           the print. When you are matching a print, you need other
19           things. You need like wear and tear that you can measure.
20           He can't even say that. He can only say it's consistent.
21           And how many shoes is it consistent with? At least 660,000
22           shoes and then maybe some copycats. Do we have to prove 23           there is no copycats? What happened to the burden of 24           proof? I thought they accepted it. Do we have to prove 25           that there is other people who have shoes like this who leave
26           prints like this? What happened to the burden of proof? I
27           thought they accepted it.

28           Do we have to prove that Doyle Simpson or Emmitt
29           Simpson did it? We are not proving that anybody did it. We

1 don't know. We were not there. This man was not there. We
2 don't know who did the crime. Doyle Simpson won't even talk
3 to us. We are not the police. We don't have the burden of 4 proof. We can't handle the burden of proof. The law says we
5 are not required to prove anything. Please don't violate the 6 law. We don't know. Doyle won't talk to us.

7           There is two things that we ask you to remember,
8 please, very diligently. The Judge has read you the 9 instruction on reasonable doubt.

10           (Mr. Lumumba writes on pad on easel.)

11 The law says that they have to disprove or they have to prove 12 the case beyond a reasonable doubt, and in this case there is 13 one other thing. They have to eliminate every theory.

14           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. That is 15 not the correct statement of the law.

16           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Consistent. Can I finish it,
17 please?

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19           Consistent with innocence. (Note: Counsel is 20 writing on the pad while talking.)

21           BY MR. EVANS: And I repeat my objection.
22 It's every reasonable theory. It has to be 23 reasonable, or they do not even have to consider
24 it.

25           BY THE COURT: Well, I have instructed the 26 jury, and they will have those jury instructions
27 before them when they make their deliberations.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29           Please read these together. Reasonable doubt and

1 every theory consistent with innocence and, of course, since
2 we are talking about reasonable doubt, we are talking about
3 reasonable theories, but what do you mean? Are you going to 4 tell me it's not reasonable that somebody can come from
5 another place and commit a crime? Are you going to tell me
6 it's not reasonable that people commit crimes in downtown
7 Winona? Now people don't commit crimes in downtown areas?
8 That does not happen? People don't get robbed in banks
9 downtown? In stores downtown? Maybe if you come from 10 Memphis or from Chicago or from somewhere else or even from 11 Jackson, then maybe downtown Winona doesn't even look that 12 big to you. That is not reasonable that somebody else of the 13 660,000 people who may have come close to a pair of these 14 shoes could have committed this crime?

15 Doyle Simpson. Oh, he showed us those bullets. He 16 couldn't have done it. I don't know whether he did it or 17 not. All I'm saying is if you got somebody to say where he 18 was, then bring that somebody here. At least take a test of 19 his hands. And if he lied about where he got the gun from,
20 how do you know he is not lying about where the gun went 21 to? How do we know a gun was actually stolen from his 22 car? Katherine Snow didn't see anybody steal a gun from his 23 car. Maybe when we heard that a .380 committed a crime, if 24 he wasn't there, which he may have been, I don't know; I'm 25 not required to prove that. The man won't talk to me, but 26 maybe he sold a gun to somebody and heard about the crime and 27 then became nervous. He wouldn't tell you who gave him the 28 gun. How do you know he is going to tell you who he gave the 29 gun to?

1           Now it's okay to get a little neat theory, to walk
2 in and be the prosecution, but this is our theory. We don't
3 have nothing else, so this is our theory. A man who has been
4 reasonable all his life, no evidence that he is crazy, no
5 evidence that he ever was without a job for a substantial
6 period of time -- two weeks is not a substantial period of 7 time. There is probably not a person in this room who hasn't
8 been without a job for two weeks.

9           And you are just going to tear the man down.
10 Eighty-two dollars - you shoot four people for $82.00? Where 11 is the evidence of this kind of insanity from this man? He 12 sings in a choir, and that doesn't make him a choir boy, but 13 where is the evidence of this kind of insanity? We do not 14 have to prove that he didn't do it. They have got to prove 15 that he did. We don't have the capacity to find out who of 16 the 660,000 made that print. And we don't even know, we 17 don't even know that one of the people who made that print is 18 actually the person that committed the crime. We don't know
19 that either. There is no evidence that the same person that 20 left the print committed the crime.

21           Sometimes we get caught up in tunnel vision because 22 it's what we are doing, what we think is right. Sergeant or 23 Mr. Johnson, Mr. Matthews, this is all they can see. But I
24 remember at least two people went into that place. Chief
25 Hargrove and Sam Jones, when they first went into the place
26 with all these dead people, they didn't even see the print.
27 Now they checked everybody's shoe. I don't know that they
28 checked everybody's shoe because I don't know how Sam Jones
29 goes in there the first time, sees four dead bodies, sees no

1 prints, and then comes out and goes back in, and the prints
2 are there.

3 And Sam Jones said he came there at 9:30. That's
4 what he said. I think the Court would allow you to read
5 transcript back if you need to. He said he was called at 9
6 o'clock, showed up at 9:30. Now he could have been wrong.
7 That is no magic number. We don't know when Sam showed up
8 for sure, the moment. But at least just say what the man
9 said in his testimony.

10 Doyle, Doyle Simpson's gun. We have got one-- and 11 let me talk about the toughest part of the case first, and 12 then I'm going to get down to some other aspects. They got 13 one particle, one particle off a man's hand. And look, it
14 wasn't necessarily from the web. And if you follow the two 15 witnesses, it appears that the gentleman who took the thing,
16 they didn't know what he was doing exactly because if you
17 remember, the experts say they are supposed to take it from 18 right around here on the back at the web. That's what he
19 said.

20 Mr. Matthews said that he took it on the back and 21 then wiped across the back of his hand. I didn't see the 22 expert go across the back of his hand. Now I don't know how 23 you are supposed to take it, so I don't know if Matthews took 24 it right or not, but I do know that if you took all of that,
25 if you tested all of this and came up with an infinitesimal
26 particle, you don't know whether it came from here, here or 27 here, or anywhere else on the back of the hand. And that is 28 exactly what Mr. Matthews showed us because I got him back up
29 to show you again.

1           You don't know that that particle came from Doyle
2 Simpson's gun. Why would anybody be remembering everything
3 they did with a gun or near a gun or near a dirty gun or near 4 a rag that was dirty from a gun at his father's house where 5 there is always a gun, with his relatives who have guns, who
6 shot guns that weekend in a town where people hunt who leave
7 dirty guns in different places, where guns get things dirty,
8 or where particles are left in closets where guns are which 9 leave particles? He is the only one tested. If you test ten
10 people, how many of them in Winona will come up with 11 particles of guns that they have come in contact with by 12 shaking somebody's hand, by holding something they have held,
13 by touching something they have touched, by touching a gun
14 that hasn't been cleaned, by cleaning a gun?

15           We don't have the capacity to examine everybody in 16 Winona and figure that out, and we don't even ask them to 17 examine everybody, but we say at least do three people. At 18 least do Emmitt Simpson, who was accused of taking his 19 brother's gun. Doyle thought he took it. Why all of a
20 sudden we know now he didn't take it? The first time you see
21 him he is running. Now look. I'm not trying to prosecute
22 Emmitt. That is not my responsibility.

23           But how are you going to focus in on this man
24 because he left a job or was told that there wasn't work for 25 him? I thought that the best explanation of the employment
26 relationship was the one they read in his statement. Sounds
27 very logical, didn't sound like a crazy man. Yes, I dropped
28 the batteries. At some point I felt that it was my 29 responsibility, didn't have a problem with it. Later on you

1 find out really didn't want to work there anyway. So what?
2 That is a motive to kill?

3 See, something is-- you often in our minds we read
4 something very sinister into the fact that a person is even 5 here. It is called the power of the accusation. The 6 prosecution accuses; then all of a sudden we see something
7 sinister. And then the police come to you and tell you, I
8 have excluded every possible suspect. It even seems more
9 sinister.

10 But look beyond the hypothetical. Look beyond the 11 accusation. What do we have? The impression which could 12 have been left by any number of a hundred of thousands of 13 shooters. And of course, I know that don't 660,000 people
14 come through Winona. But see, we don't know which ones of 15 them do and which one of them do not. And what we do know is 16 that this shoe box was found in a house of a man, and the 17 shoe box does not represent the only shoes that could have 18 made that print. If, and all-- don't we want the shoes?
19 Because if you had the shoes, you would probably know.

20 But if you listen to the testimony of the 21 relatives, there was a young man who lived there off and on 22 named Marcus who wore those kind of shoes. The shoes was in 23 his mother's bedroom where Flowers also stayed. There was no
24 prints of Flowers on the box. They don't even know that he 25 ever touched the shoes or the box. We don't have to prove to 26 you that because his prints wasn't on the box meant he didn't 27 touch it. They need some prints. They need to identify 28 those prints so they can tell you who did touch it. That is 29 their responsibility. That is why they send the box to the

1 lab. And then when they don't put the people on and we put
2 them on, and they say they found prints, and they didn't
3 match Curtis, they say oh, that don't mean nothing. Now what
4 would they say if it did match Curtis? Would it still mean
5 nothing?

6 Prints on the counter. You want to talk about
7 everywhere where prints won't take. Talk about where prints
8 will take. The expert says that the counter is excellent for 9 prints. A person taking money out of a drawer may touch the 10 counter and leave prints. I don't know if he or she did or 11 not. Assuming that some money was even taken out of the 12 drawer; I don't know that. But if your theory is that 13 somebody took money out of that drawer, then there is a good
14 reason why you take prints from the counter, and I'm sure
15 that's why the lady did it. She sent them in, and they 16 didn't match, and now we want to talk about, well, that don't 17 mean nothing. Well, at least in your theory it means
18 something. Because remember the experts say is that one
19 reason you don't always get prints even on a good surface is 20 because sometimes people wear gloves.

21 But you know that is not their theory because you
22 can't shoot Doyle Simpson's gun and get particles on your
23 hand and have gloves on. So you can't have it both ways
24 now. You can't have it both ways. Either the hand could
25 leave a print or the hand couldn't leave a print. He can't 26 wear gloves to protect his hand and at the same time shoot a
27 gun to get the particle. We don't know where the particle
28 comes from.

29 I mean, you know, I know we do all this; defense

1 attorneys do all this fancy stuff trying to make a point, but
2 look; that's the point. We don't know where it comes from.
3 We don't know that the man ever put on whatever was in this
4 box in his life.

5 Patricia Hollman. Look; forget about the witnesses
6 that came in and said she was lying. Why did somebody at 7 7:30 in the morning know what kind of shoes somebody else was
8 wearing? Nobody has been killed at Tardy's. Nobody knows
9 that there is going to be a print left. Why did somebody
10 really remember that that particular morning somebody had a
11 pair, not just of Fila shoes, Fila Grant Hill shoes. Really
12 now. And then talk about it like the whole thing is not
13 important. Yet one of your most important pieces of evidence
14 is some alleged sighting of some clothing which you don't 15 even have? So you want to bring somebody else in here to 16 say that he had them? And then you say clothing isn't
17 important. Of course, you have got to say that clothing
18 isn't important. Because if clothing is important, then this 19 case shouldn't even be here. No, that is right. I agree;
20 people don't always remember the clothing.

21 And over seven or eight months later people don't 22 remember what day they saw you either. In fact, sometimes 23 two or three days later or even later on that day people get
24 confused about when they saw somebody. You can use your own
25 common experience and the common experience of others. How 26 many people in this world see somebody and really pay that 27 much attention to a man walking down the street with baggy
28 pants and are going to say well, that was on the day of the 29 murder? A month later? How does he know that?

1                   And your boy up here - what is his name? - BoJack
2           is an excellent example. "BoJack, what date was it?"
3           "17th." "17th of what?" "What you want me to say, man?"
4           "BoJack, I just want you to tell me what month it was."
5           "What you want me to say?" "BoJack, what year was it?"
6           "What you want me to say, man?" "BoJack, didn't you say the 7           person had long white pants on?" "What you want me to say,
8           man?" "And a black sweater?" "What you want me to say?"

9                   Look, the Judge will say, as he has said already or 10          as he put in his instructions, the instructions continue to 11          speak to you when you are in the jury room, and I believe he 12          sends them to the jury room with you so you can read them.
13          He said don't let sympathy get in the way. Hey, we don't 14          want no sympathy. We think justice will do. Don't let bias,
15          any kind of bias get in the way even if the kind of bias
16          which we all have as human beings. We are biased toward 17          people who have died. We don't like that. It makes us mad.
18          And when they flash pictures of dead bodies in front of us
19          time and time again and blood and bodies and blood and 20          bodies, then we get involved, and when people get on the 21          stand who have lost loved ones and they cry, that emotionally
22          moves us. But I didn't make Ms. Ballard cry, and even if you 23          think I did, hold it against me, not Flowers. The person who 24          actually committed that crime made Ms. Ballard cry. And the 25          question is do they have sufficient proof to say who that 26          person is, not do they just come up with a theory because 27          they don't have anything else. That is the question.

28                   A man leaves out of his house between 7:00 and 29          7:30. I'm not going to hold her to the minute or to the

1 second. Stays in the house for 20 minutes, came in the house
2 and went out of the house the same way with a white T-shirt,
3 black silk pants or silky pants. You know what she is 4 talking about, windbreaker kind of stuff; warm ups we used to 5 call them in the old days; jogging pants they call them
6 sometimes now. Leaves-- this is their theory. Now if you
7 don't want to follow the clothes, then how can you follow the 8 date of the identification? How can you be so sure that they 9 are certain about dates because dates are forgotten as easy
10 as clothes.

11 Nothing was important about that day at 7:30 in the 12 morning. Nothing was important about that day until much
13 later, and nobody could possibly have been talking about 14 connecting Mr. Flowers to that case on that day, so there
15 would have been no reason for anybody who saw him on that 16 day unless they had some kind of special relationship with 17 him to remember. And look, I don't care. I even say that 18 about the alibi witnesses or the witnesses who came in here
19 and say I saw him over at his sister's house and stuff. I
20 don't have to prove anything. We put them on because we want
21 to show you that just like they have got people who think
22 they know when they saw him, we have got people who think
23 they know when they saw him. I don't know if they remember
24 or not. And if we were in a position where we were trying to 25 prove something beyond a reasonable doubt, we don't have to 26 prove anything. We could never make it with those 27 witnesses. And they can't make it with the ones they have 28 got.

29 And all this intrigue, I mean who am I? Who am I

1 counsel? Who is Mr. Flowers? Who is his family? Are we
2 some kind of demons so that they can put people on the stand
3 and when they get caught in lies -- why did that woman lie
4 about the age of her children at the previous hearing under 5 oath? Sometimes the slips are very little, but then they
6 come through. Nobody forgets things; a mother doesn't forget
7 the age of a child that young. You get to be an old guy like 8 20, 25 or 30, maybe the mama will forget how old you are, but 9 not down in the 8, 9, and 10. They don't forget that. She 10 don't miss by two years.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. Two 12 months is a little different than two years, and 13 that is completely--

14 BY THE COURT: --The jury has heard the 15 evidence. They can evaluate it.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Let me go on. In 1987, October of 1987, she said
18 the young man was 11 years old. It comes to pass now when I
19 asked her standing there with a document in my hand, when I
20 asked her today, she says that same young man who she said
21 was 11 years old two years ago is now only 11 years old and 22 will be 12 this year. That is two years. And we don't like 23 to bring a brother in here to testify about his sister and 24 certainly not a joker who tells you that he was, he was 25 conniving himself. But if somebody writes us a letter, says
26 that me and my sister were talking about a reward, then what 27 kind of lawyers are we if we don't put him on the stand to 28 tell what he has got to say? And how are you going to 29 disbelieve him? Beyond a reasonable doubt disbelieve him?

1 I mean how do you know what the relationship there is?

2 I mean Patricia Hollman don't wear no halo because
3 she is here in court testifying for the State, lying about
4 the age of her child two years ago, saw some shoes way in the
5 morning - I don't even remember the time of year - remembers
6 that she saw some shoes. And the reason she remembers is
7 because she bought some Filas for her two boys, didn't say
8 nothing about the girl, for the two boys, and yet we ain't
9 seen none.

10 Excuse my emotion, but I'm just trying to make a
11 point because I think this is a very important system, a very
12 important case. And it's cases like this which will show
13 whether the system works or not. When we are talking about 14 stealing bubble gum, that is not difficult to deal with. But 15 we are talking about tragedies, and it really comes to a
16 question of whether we hold them to their burden of proof.
17 How are you going to deal with this?

18 A man leaves here, according to their theory, with 19 jogging pants, windbreaker pants, T-shirt, pants black, shirt
20 white. He is supposed to be going down here past BoJack's
21 house who says, "What you want me to say, man?" He goes past
22 here, and all of a sudden he has got white pants on, black
23 sweater, and the longer that the interviewer talks to him the 24 sweater begins to change into a gray shirt with short sleeves
25 with some writing on the front. But the pants never change,
26 so they are still white.

27 He gets all the way down here to this lot,
28 according to the prosecution's theory, and according to this
29 man that they want to believe, Doyle Simpson. He tells them

1     that the woman told him-- her--him, although the woman
2     wouldn't tell us this, but the woman told him that the man
3     had blue shorts on. Now you noticed that they sent some blue
4     shorts to the lab, right, and you know that Doyle Simpson is
5     his uncle. So Doyle Simpson knows he has got blue shorts,
6     but she didn't tell us that she said he had blue shorts on.
7     Now Doyle Simpson said she told him he had blue shorts on,
8     but if he had blue shorts on, what happened to the white
9     pants? What happened to the black pants? Has a cap on even 10    though she says the man she saw didn't have no cap.

11           And not only does this man change clothes, he 12    changes heights because when they first talked to her, 5'6", 13    or at least that's what is on the tape. And remember what
14    Roy said, and I don't know that these people are the same
15    people, but what Roy said, the man he saw running was 5'6"
16    about. So here is a man that not only changes clothes, but
17    changes heights. He is like Superman. He jumps into a phone
18    booth and changes clothes. And so here is a man that then is 19    supposed to leave here, come past Academy Street, and while
20    he had blue shorts on in the parking lot, when he passes
21    Academy Street, he has baggy pants on which are not
22    consistent with either one of the descriptions.

23           And then he goes down here, and he comes down what 24    we call, comes up Campbell Street which is somewhere up in 25    here. Campbell Street is somewhere up in here. You can find
26    it on the map. Here it is right here. Right here, right
27    here. He comes up Campbell Street where according to 28    Jeanette Fleming, who Mr. Pickens had no problem telling me
29    on tape twice, not that he thought she turned north, because

1     see there is a problem here with Jeanette. Let me just pause
2     here. See, because if Pickens is here and Jeanette turns
3     north, then that means she is going this way down Vine
4     Street. She is going away from the direction that she is
5     supposed to have met Mr. Flowers.

6             Now you know in actual, we are asking questions we 7     are not even thinking about. We are trying to ascertain the 8     time that the window was changed and all that kind of stuff,
9     which now is a mystery again, because he looked at the thing
10    that we thought was saying 8 o'clock on the 16th and told you
11    he can't even say that it was 8 o'clock on the 16th. And 12    that is not to criticize him. It was a long time ago, but he 13    told us clearly and unequivocally she went north.

14            Now don't believe Roy if he comes in here and says
15    that what they put in his other statement was something that 16    came from constant urging, from the police, the people with 17    the power to put you in jail. Don't believe that. But if a
18    guy comes in here and tells that Mr. Lumumba just kept 19    talking about what direction it is, what direction it is,
20    what direction it is, and Mr. Lumumba, who he has never seen
21    before, who can't do a single thing to him except talk to 22    him, then believe that somehow Mr. Lumumba influenced him
23    into saying north on the tape twice clearly on his own
24    accord.

25            Because see, we are demons. We are the defense.
26    We are the other side of the tragedy, and we are not on the 27    other side of the tragedy because we want to be. We are on 28    the other side of the tragedy because they can't find nobody
29    else. And they believe, they believe, but they believe

1 partially because they don't have anything else. And their
2 belief is not supposed to be your belief. You are the jury.
3 You look at all this objectively. I say strongly this man is
4 innocent. You don't accept that. They say strongly he
5 committed the offense. You don't accept that. You are 6 somewhere in between, and you put us both aside, like us or
7 not.

8           And so you ask yourself how at this point when he
9 gets to, on allegedly on Campbell Street when Jeanette
10 Fleming, who was supposed to have turned north, somehow meets
11 him going the other direction? How? How does his clothes
12 change again? Now he has got black dress pants or dressy
13 looking jeans, white button down shirt, a windbreaker jacket
14 that is gray with purple on it. Remember he didn't have a
15 windbreaker jacket before. Now he had windbreaker pants
16 which were black, not purple and not gray. These are the 17 people that if they are even trying to tell the truth, and 18 I'm not-- I don't know them. I don't know. You don't 19 either. And they don't become saints because they testify
20 for the State. Even if they are trying to tell the truth,
21 they obviously are confused. And I can understand that if 22 you don't make a statement until almost a year after the 23 incident, like Clemmie Fleming doesn't make a statement until 24 4-11-97. The other Fleming, Jeanette Fleming doesn't make a
25 statement until February of '97. The incident occurred in 26 '96 in July.

27           How much can you remember back then, and you want
28 to talk about an exciting event on the day. You think of 29 exciting events that happened in your lives. When I think of

1     that, I think of John Kennedy being assassinated, but
2     whatever you want to think of. I know where I was when I
3     heard that he was assassinated, but there is no way I could
4     tell you what I was doing before that, after that, or even
5     probably 20 minutes before that. You don't remember
6     everything that happens in the day just because you remember
7     what you were doing at the actual event itself.

8             And nobody that has testified has seen the actual 9     event. Nobody saw the people shot. Nobody saw anybody in 10    the building. Nobody saw anybody coming out of the 11    building. Clemmie Fleming never testified that she saw the 12    man coming out of the building. They got her testifying that 13    he was some 75 yards away running, and what do they say?
14    From in the direction of the building. What does that 15    mean? If you are 75 yards away, you can be coming from 16    almost any direction except from the direction which you are 17    running to.

18            Just like Mr. Collins; all of a sudden he is 19    heading toward Tardy's, and at least three or four times in 20    previous testimony and other statements he says that the men
21    walked north. Yes, they crossed the street. North across 22    the street is Coast to Coast. They may have been going to 23    buy something at Coast to Coast. And it wasn't Curtis
24    Flowers. If it was, then they are all mixed up because why
25    would he be leaving a car, going across the street with 26    another man, and then have to be later down the street
27    running to get away from the crime scene?

28            Now maybe there is some answers to that. But 29    remember, the prosecution can't, the prosecution has got to

1     answer questions with evidence. We can raise questions.
2     There is nothing wrong with that. In fact, that is how you
3     figure whether there is a reasonable hypothesis or a
4     reasonable set of facts which is consistent with innocence.
5     We raise questions. They are supposed to answer questions
6     with evidence, not with other questions or with speculation.

7             We haven't proved how he got the particle. We
8     don't have to prove how he got the particle. We don't know
9     how he got it. He don't know how he got it. We have got to 10    prove that he wasn't lying about his case. Look, first of 11    all, if he committed the crime, he knew the first time they 12    took a statement from him what time the crime occurred. That 13    is something you do remember. And so if he was going to lie,
14    he would have lied in the first time. He would have said
15    that he was anywhere at the time that the incident was 16    occurring. He wouldn't have to change times two days later.
17    He changed times because he didn't remember and don't 18    remember. And most of us, if we are not in an official
19    setting like this, we are just laying around at home or doing
20    something like watching the kids; we don't remember exactly
21    what time we went to the store or went over to our sister's 22    house. Why should we? If anything else came out of his 23    mouth, that would probably be the lie.

24            Mr. Collins says that it was 9:15 to 9:20 that he 25    saw the people going into the store on his statement. Yet we 26    know that he went and got a receipt that said 9:43 that he
27    was at Wal-Mart, and after he went to Wal-Mart, he went way
28    down in the opposite direction. Wal-Mart is up here
29    somewhere. He went way down in the opposite direction from

1 Tardy's. I think it is actually this direction, way down
2 south to get to a place which is not even on the map called
3 Don Mitchell's. He dropped off some spark plugs, came all
4 the way back here, went by his house, and he is real confused
5 about that.

6 And actually, we want to show you how people's 7 memory have problems, but he-- it's not a question of 8 questioning his integrity and stuff. It's just a question of 9 questioning people who think they can't make a mistake.
10 Because see, what he told us, a lot of times there were 11 inconsistencies from what he said in previous occasions.
12 That doesn't mean he is a liar. I don't know whether he is a
13 liar or not. I'm not speaking for him or against him. But 14 I'm saying that there is unreliability there.

15 And certainly there is unreliability with a split
16 second glimpse. A month later you are going to see a lineup
17 and from a split second glimpse, you are going to positively
18 identify somebody? And the man was trying to tell them;
19 first of all, he identified three different people in the 20 previous lineup. He didn't identify them positively, but he 21 said two resembled, but they had hairlines which were 22 different. Doyle Simpson, he pointed to, and he said that 23 his hairline was the same and his face looked the same and 24 everything else, but the complexion may have been a little
25 off. And then he says to Curtis Flowers, "looks like him," 26 "could be him," and all that stuff. And then only at the 27 end when they say, Do you know Curtis Flowers, and it is a
28 small community. At this point everybody knows who is the 29 suspect. And the name comes up; he has just pointed to a

1 man, "Yeah, I know that's the man I saw in front."

2 It is not dishonest. The experts will tell you
3 that is how eye witness identification is. People are under
4 stress when they try to make eye witness identification, so
5 any little thing can set them off. But most times people do
6 not pick people because that's who it was. They pick people
7 because they know the other people in the lineup was not the 8 person. It's just like a multiple choice test. So what you
9 can do; you can look at the pictures yourself, and I don't
10 need to be dragging it out now. That man's head is sticking
11 out like a watermelon. Now why didn't they use the same
12 lineup they showed to Snow? Now Snow's lineup was an 13 excellent lineup. It was great. You really can't tell any 14 characteristic difference between the people. She picked out
15 Curtis because she knew Curtis. But the other lineup is 16 terrible. And Snow picked out Curtis because she knew
17 Curtis, and she does because she has seen him before.

18 But she never told them. Remember this. Because 19 see, sometimes people transpose things in their mind. They 20 are trying to deal with who they saw. They really don't 21 remember who they saw because they really didn't look that
22 careful. Then all of a sudden, Curtis Flowers is a suspect.
23 Curtis Flowers. Curtis Flowers. And then all of a sudden
24 the thing that happened at the same thing comes together with 25 what happened on that day and boom, it's Curtis Flowers. How 26 do I say that? I am not just saying that out of 27 speculation. Because if that is not true, then why didn't 28 she say it was Curtis Flowers the first day she saw him? Her
29 statement was that she knew she recognized him, but couldn't

1 remember who he was. She didn't tell the police officers she
2 recognized the man. Nowhere is that in the notes, and there
3 is no way that you are a competent police officer and you
4 don't write that down. Because anything that has anything to 5 do with finding out who the person is, who the suspect is,
6 the identification of the person, you cannot afford not to 7 write it down. Then she didn't tell them on 7-25 when they
8 talked to her again. She claimed that she realized who it
9 was on the evening of the incident. She didn't tell them
10 even at the lineup who it was which didn't happen until 8-19
11 as far as she was concerned.

12 No, we can't say anything for sure. But is that
13 proof beyond a reasonable doubt? Is that the kind of witness
14 that you would want your loved one to get convicted based 15 upon their testimony? Which one of these people in their 16 different clothing? There are suspect circumstances, their 17 late talk. Which one of them would you want to be relied 18 upon in a case that involved your loved one?

19 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, that is not
20 proper. He can't put the jury in that position.

21 BY THE COURT: That is true. You can't do
22 that.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Excuse me. We don't want sympathy. We just want
25 justice. So we have all the conflicting identifications, and 26 Clemmie Fleming's-- look. You forget about what people said
27 about her. You forget that, that three people related to her
28 and one person not related to her said she is a flat out
29 liar. Forget about that for a moment because you can't

1 forget about it in the jury room because that is not the
2 law. You have got to consider everybody's testimony, and
3 there is no reason for you to believe that those people are
4 lying.

5 But even if you want to, if you even want to think
6 she is a saint because she is a prosecution witness, her
7 story didn't sound right when she first told it. You don't 8 pay a man to take you all the way down to the store to pay on 9 furniture which they are about to seize; they are about to 10 take your stuff, and you are going to pull right up at the 11 door in front of the building and because you don't feel like
12 it, she didn't go in. Didn't give you no specifics, and lo
13 and behold, I'm not going to say what women go through when 14 they are pregnant because I don't know. But she didn't give 15 you no specifics of what it was that she wasn't feeling
16 right. But what is it that can stop you from walking through 17 a door two or three feet away to pay a bill that you have got 18 to be paid or sending a man that you paid to take you there
19 inside to get the people to come out and get the money if you
20 don't trust him to pay the money? That story didn't sound
21 right when you first heard it.

22 And why is her family-- the question is her family
23 is turning on her. Does her family think she is a liar? Do
24 they know something you don't know? A woman comes in here
25 and says, "Look, I don't have time to keep up with Clemmie.
26 I have got two jobs." She is not a bum. She is not a liar.
27 She is not out to harass people. I have got two jobs. Mary
28 Fleming, her sister, says that when Clemmie came there, she 29 came over to her house, and she took Clemmie to the scene,

1 and Clemmie didn't profess any knowledge of anybody running
2 out there. She never indicated she had been up there that
3 day.

4 And Roy; Roy is just, how are you going to say
5 that? How are you going to sit, how are you going to say
6 that the man can hear or didn't have any problem hearing?
7 And even Johnson says he has problems hearing at times. How
8 do you know? And why would the man come in here and say
9 that he lied because she was influencing him, and she lied
10 and tell you what?

11 What is it that is driving all these people in 12 here? I mean are we the boogie man? Are we demons? What 13 do we do? We don't have anything. If we do, prove it.
14 Don't speculate about it and then try to act like it's proof
15 beyond a reasonable doubt. Don't just make witnesses
16 disappear with the slight of the hand or nod of the head, or 17 you know how they are. You see what kind of pressure she is 18 under. What kind of pressure is she under? Other than 19 witnesses coming in here and telling the truth about her
20 lying?

21 And if it's anything other than that, then they
22 ought to prove it. I don't, I wonder what is the implication
23 here? What is the insinuation here? And who are we talking
24 about? You have got Clemmie Fleming's family who are not
25 related to Roy Harris in any kind of way. You have got Odell
26 Hollman, who as far as we know, don't know any of them. You
27 have got Ken Pickens, who said the woman went north and who 28 clearly is not related to any of them and as far as we know,
29 don't even know any of them. And there is some insinuation

1     that this is this demon in the background that is driving
2     them to do something.

3             Yes, we raised the question of reward, not because 4     we think that every witness that gets on the stand is money
5     hungry and greedy and just trying to grab the reward, but I
6     am saying this. When you have failing memories, when you
7     have people who don't come up until late and even sometimes 8     when you have people like Patricia who lie about the age of 9     their children, yes, reward can be of some influence on some 10    people. And we would be derelict not to bring it out. We 11    would be derelict not to ask the witnesses who knew about it
12    if they knew about it.

13            Of course, they haven't got it. The reward is 14    given upon conviction. So that don't mean they are not 15    hoping to get it. And who, which one of them was going to 16    tell you? How are we going to find out? How are we going 17    to do any more than what we have done by bringing people in 18    here who are close to them, who talked to them, and who tell
19    you that they told a lie?

20            All we ask is to examine the real state of the 21    case, and perhaps if we make the decision which the case
22    evidence justifies that there are reasonable hypotheses which 23    are consistent with innocence and that this is not a
24    situation where they have proven their case beyond a
25    reasonable doubt, then perhaps if we make that decision,
26    somebody will go back to work and find the person who is 27    really responsible for this crime or the people who is really
28    responsible for this crime.

29            I mean even with the gun; remember that Doyle

1 Simpson said that he kept, the gun was in his mother's
2 house. And he went and got it and put it in his car. So how
3 does Curtis know it's in the car? And then the prosecution
4 asked him one of these wide open questions, does he know you
5 carry a gun. What does that mean? People usually carry a
6 gun on them often. There's no statement that he knows he
7 carries a gun in the glove compartment. That was never
8 testified to. So how does Curtis know that there is a gun in 9 the car, in the glove compartment or in the car anywhere
10 else? And I don't want speculation. I want you to show me
11 in the evidence where he knows.

12 First of all, we don't know that the person who did
13 the shooting was the person with the shoes on. We don't know
14 this. Nobody saw the person do the shooting. But even if he
15 was or she was, you don't have to be Curtis Flowers to wear
16 Grant Hill Filas and shoot a .380 or to know Doyle Simpson
17 and to buy a gun from him, borrow a gun from him, and then
18 get involved in some mischief and some tragedy which you
19 should not be involved in.

20 And then this evidence about the $255; oh, please.
21 I mean do I have to hide my money in my house? I mean I
22 can't keep no money in my house? Somebody is going to come
23 in there and think it's stolen loot from a crime? There's 24 no evidence that the money even was brought into the house by 25 Curtis. And by the way, Curtis said in his statement that he 26 was getting unemployment checks which meant that he must have 27 been working somewhere else before he went to Tardy's because 28 you know you don't get no unemployment check for working four 29 days at Tardy's. He was working.

1           So it's a tragedy that Stewart died. But that is
2 cheap. That is cheap. You don't know nothing about that
3 man's life to be talking about him like that. Ms. Tardy
4 hired who she wanted to hire after apparently trying to get
5 him to come back. He didn't want to come back for whatever
6 reason. He doesn't want to come back; he apparently doesn't
7 go down there to get the check. She has got an $82.00 check
8 for him. I don't know whether she said it was available or 9 she is planning on mailing it or what. Two weeks later you
10 would think she wasn't planning on mailing it. Maybe she was 11 just holding it even though she had written it out. The 12 check is written on the 5th. So it looks like that even 13 after the batteries were dropped on the 3rd, she did intend 14 to give him a check. That's what it looks like.

15           So that's what makes me even wonder even more why
16 would he be so mad and so disturbed that he is going to come
17 down there and shoot some people? Going back to a job which 18 it appears from all indications he didn't really want to go
19 back to anyway? For some batteries which he either did pay
20 for and still had money left over or didn't pay for, and she 21 was going to give him the $82.00? I don't know. I mean I
22 don't know the answers to those questions, and neither do
23 you. And nobody knows them but Ms. Tardy.

24           I mean, you know, this motive thing; what is-- I
25 mean and Mr. Ballard comes in and says that he was the man
26 that came when they had employment questions. He gets 27 called. He sees Curtis walking out the door, and he goes in 28 and Ms. Rigby is upset. So what does that mean? Does that 29 mean, are you supposed to say oh, Curtis made her upset? I

1 mean come on now. I mean why bring wild speculation into
2 this case like that? Do that, is that what you need to prove
3 your case? Is that the best you can do? Ms. Rigby could
4 be upset for any number of reasons that have nothing to do--
5 he didn't see Curtis do anything to Ms. Rigby or say anything
6 to Ms. Rigby. She could be upset because somebody called the 7 store and said something wrong. I don't know, and I don't
8 have to find-- but you can't just throw that kind of cheap
9 stuff in. And why did he work there for three more days if 10 he did something terrible to Ms. Rigby?

11 We raise this question about Mr. Collins and the 12 route he took because it did seem like Mr. Collins was 13 getting confused quite a few times, and we just wanted to 14 know why he didn't take the most direct route to what would 15 be Carrollton Street and what would be right here where the 16 cleaners is at on Front Street. The most direct route would 17 have not even taken him to 51 and not taken him down Summit
18 Street which meant that he would not have seen two men. You
19 can deal with that for what it's worth because I mean quite 20 frankly, I don't think there is any way in the world anybody
21 can rely on Mr. Collins' identification with a split second
22 glance. And he was honest enough to say that that was really 23 what it was. But it is just raising questions, and if the 24 men are going toward, the men he sees are going toward Coast
25 to Coast, what difference does it make anyway? And you
26 can't be north of Tardy's and go north and still wind up
27 going to Tardy's.

28 And remember when we talked about it at first; we 29 look at what people said yesterday and compare it to what

1 they said today. That doesn't mean that you cannot listen to
2 what people say today and say, well, I think that what they
3 said yesterday was incorrect and what they are saying today
4 is correct. All I'm saying is that you have got to at least 5 look at it. You have got to evaluate it, and I'm trying to 6 say that you have got to realize that this is real important,
7 and it's beyond a reasonable doubt, and I don't know how you
8 can believe a man beyond a reasonable doubt who says one
9 thing today and another thing yesterday.

10 I'm not asking you to believe Roy Harris beyond a
11 reasonable doubt although I believe him to the bottom of my 12 heart, and I think that he looked right at you. He told you
13 what happened, and he was very clear. But you don't have to 14 believe Roy Harris beyond a reasonable doubt because Roy
15 Harris is called by the Defense, and the Defense is not 16 trying to prove anything. What you have to do with Roy
17 Harris' statement is you have got to look at Clemmie Fleming
18 and see if you can believe her beyond a reasonable doubt.

19 And how do you know when a person is telling the 20 truth when they say one thing one time and another thing
21 another? As I indicated, the Judge will give you the
22 instructions.

23 Look at a couple of other small things. There is a
24 lot of confusion even between Ms. Snow and Doyle Simpson.
25 Doyle Simpson says his windows was up. Remember, that is his 26 excuse for having to go outside where he is supposed to have 27 discovered that the gun was stolen. That is his excuse for 28 going outside to let the windows down, but remember, Ms. Snow
29 said the windows were already down, and that is more than a

1 small matter. You know why? Because the person that is
2 getting in the car, if you assume it's not Doyle, somebody
3 who has no right to be in the car, they can't let Doyle's
4 windows down because Doyle corrected me. He has got power
5 windows, so you can't roll Doyle Simpson's windows down. You
6 have got to have a key to turn the car on and let Doyle
7 Simpson's window down. That's how I understand power
8 windows.

9           So if Snow says the windows were down, Doyle says
10 they were up. Who is right? Who do you believe? And why
11 would Doyle say that? Is he just trying to get a reason why
12 he went outside, and he went outside right around the time
13 that they say the killings occurred. He didn't have to check
14 out except when he leaves for good and when he comes in in 15 the morning. Apparently they don't keep records of that, and 16 I'm not saying Doyle did it. I don't know whether he did it
17 or not. I can't prove that, but I am saying these are 18 questions. And they checked-- who did they check to say what 19 he did when he went outside with the car? Who could tell
20 them what he did and where he really went when? Who could 21 tell them that?

22           All these people say they never saw Mr. Flowers do
23 anything unusual. Here is a man that if you want to listen,
24 if you want to believe the prosecution's case, he is walking
25 down a street, on Campbell Street, done changed clothes five
26 times. Walking down the street, he is approaching an area.
27 He is going there to do a heinous crime, going in there to 28 murder people because he is mad at them because they held on 29 to an $82 check. And then he walks past Ms. Jeanette Fleming

1 and says, "How are you doing, good looking?"

2 I mean that don't seem to me to be the kind of mind
3 set a man that was going to kill some people would have.
4 That don't seem to me to be the kind of mind set that a man
5 that was within two blocks of robbing some people would
6 have. It seems to me that she got her mornings mixed up.
7 Now I'm not saying that she didn't take her car down there
8 that morning, although it's not clear that she did since the 9 sheets are messed up, and if you look at the sheet that Mr.
10 Ken Pickens filled out, you can see somebody crossed out her
11 name for whatever reason. But if you look at that sheet, you
12 will see it has no date on it. The only date on that whole
13 exhibit is the date where the window shield, windshield was 14 ordered.

15 And that windshield was ordered at 8 o'clock - that 16 is another problem - not at 9 o'clock. She said that she 17 called the day that she took it down there. She called at 5
18 minutes before she went. She called at 9:15. She went down
19 there about 10 minutes to 9. That's what her testimony was.
20 That sheet says that whenever that windshield was ordered it
21 was at 8 o'clock, 8:02 which means that in order for it to be 22 ordered at 8:02, the customer would have had to call in and 23 requested it before 8:02, either the day before or earlier
24 that day. And if she is just mistaken about the time and she 25 is right about the day, that means that she would have been 26 down there before 8 o'clock which puts her in problems with 27 the guy who sees him on Academy Street between 8:00 and 7:30,
28 and which also runs into other problems, where was he at 29 between 8:00 and 10:00 when the killing was supposed to have

1 occurred because it is only two blocks away? It throws the
2 whole time sequence off. And if she is right about the time,
3 then she may very well be wrong about the day because we
4 don't have any receipt to back her up.

5 But it's not even important to us whether she is
6 wrong or right about going down to Tardy's on that day.
7 Actually I would think she would remember that. And the 8 reason I would think she would remember when, if she is 9 telling the truth, which may or may not be true, but I would
10 think that if I turned my car in into a place right behind,
11 right behind a place that I heard an hour later had been 12 robbed and people had gotten killed, I would remember I just 13 turned my car in. But remember, she doesn't know that Curtis
14 Flowers at that time is supposed to be anywhere involved.
15 She doesn't make a statement until 2-97. She hasn't any 16 reason to be remembering whether she saw Curtis Flowers that 17 day. Because you remember you turned your car in that day,
18 that doesn't mean that you are accurate about remembering
19 that you saw Curtis Flowers. The two things don't 20 necessarily go together.

21 I go to a lot of important basketball games that
22 I think are important, baseball games. I can't tell you
23 everybody I saw going to that game and coming back from that
24 game. I have been in a lot of important trials. I can't 25 tell you the people I saw coming in and out of the 26 courtroom. I have had situations where I have stood before
27 juries and just traumatic situations. I can't tell you who I
28 saw on those days. I have witnessed things before, tragic
29 things. I can't tell you who I saw before and after. Now

1     you use your own common sense.

2                 So we also would say as to Mr. Collins is that he
3     seems to be very, his memory is very good when it came to Ms.
4     Rigby, what she had on, what she did, where she went. But 5     his memory seems to be very bad when it comes to remembering
6     what exactly he did and even to some extent the men turning
7     north and all that kind of stuff. I don't know what that
8     means. I don't know what that means, but you know, I don't 9     know if that means that he really didn't see as much as they 10    thought he saw or what. But see, so although he says he has 11    memory problems sometimes when he takes medication or when he 12    doesn't take it, that was a question. It was a little
13    interesting that he remembered things about Ms. Rigby so
14    clearly, and I assume those things that he remembered are 15    correct. I mean there is no way for us to really know, but I
16    assume they are correct. But he didn't remember other stuff
17    as well, and you saw it because of the way his testimony
18    varied from statement to transcript to here.

19                Excuse me one second. Judge, how much time?

20                   BY THE COURT: You have got 10 minutes.

21                   (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr.
22    Freelon.)

23    BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24                Okay, one of the instructions that you have been 25    read is Instruction number 10. This is an instruction which 26    tells you how to evaluate identification testimony. You
27    know, it talks about it. It says, "Did the witness have an 28    adequate opportunity to observe the" alleged "offender?" Now
29    in this case we really aren't even talking about an

1 offender. We are talking about circumstantial evidence where
2 they believe the person that these witnesses saw had
3 something to do with the crime. None of these witnesses saw
4 a crime.

5 But as far as if the witness had adequate
6 opportunity to observe, then a split second glance is not an
7 adequate opportunity. I don't care what the people are 8 doing. Plus you are looking at several different things at 9 the same time. You are looking at hand gestures; you are 10 looking at a car; you are trying to check out what you think
11 is an argument. You pull all the way back around and you see
12 nothing. You just see walking toward a building doing
13 innocent activity, walking toward Coast to Coast area. But 14 that is not an adequate opportunity to observe. He saw the 15 back of the man's head more than he saw anything else.

16 The other thing is even with Katherine Snow, there
17 was nothing that the person was doing unusual. She just saw
18 him; she just glanced at him, just kept on going, and there
19 was nothing else done, saw somebody leaning against the car
20 that is 5 foot 6 at one time, 5 foot 10 at another time.
21 According to Simpson, gave him one clothing description;
22 according to her, she never gave that clothing description,
23 and it wasn't until much, much, much later that she concluded
24 that this was Curtis, Curtis Flowers. Yet she already knew
25 Curtis Flowers. So if the man was Curtis Flowers, she would 26 have concluded it a lot earlier, and if she did conclude it
27 earlier like she said, then there would have been no reason
28 why she wouldn't have told somebody.

29 "Did the witnesses observe the offender with an

1     adequate degree of attention?" Why would Katherine Snow be
2     paying a whole lot of attention to the person? She didn't--
3     that is probably one of the reasons she really doesn't know
4     what kind of clothes the person had on. In fact, none of 5     these people were paying a great deal of attention to the 6     date and the time. As far as the people who know Mr.
7     Simpson-- Mr. Flowers, people who know Mr. Flowers, we have 8     never questioned whether they knew Mr. Flowers or whether
9     they can identify Mr. Flowers. But nobody who acknowledged
10    knowing Mr. Flowers came up with any immediate statements
11    about Mr. Flowers.

12             And I may be a little bit out of time. In other
13    words, the quickest person that said anything about him that 14    knew him was Ms. Hollman, and that was over a week or two 15    weeks later. The thing happened on the 16th. They interview
16    her on August the 7th, and he is supposed to have some Filas
17    on. On the day of the incident there is only two people that 18    they are talking to that is supposed to have seen the person
19    that they think might be involved, and none of them say it's 20    Mr. Flowers. The other people, they are eight or nine months
21    later. Mr. BoJack, two or three months-- well, in September
22    and this happened in July. Christian, I think he was 23    interviewed sometime about August the 15th. So all of these 24    people are much later at a time that they can forget.

25             And we are not saying that they didn't know who Mr.
26    Flowers is, and we are not saying that they have never seen
27    Mr. Flowers walk down there. We are just saying that they 28    all have got different clothes on. It is obvious that he 29    walked down there on different days.

1           "Did the witness provide an accurate description
2 of the offender after the crime?" Mr. Collins' description
3 was two medium skinned black men. That is not a good
4 description of Mr. Flowers. Mr. Flowers is not a medium
5 skinned black man. Mr. Flowers is a dark skinned black man.
6 That is not to say that there are not black people who are
7 darker, but very few people would look at Mr. Flowers and
8 call him a medium skinned black man. And he did not, and I
9 don't know if he was talking about he was Mr. Hargrove's
10 complexion. Mr. Hargrove is even a wee bit darker than Mr.
11 Flowers. There is no way he is medium skinned.

12           "How certain is the witness of the 13 identification?" I think it is him. I believe it is him. I
14 will always believe it's him. I mean not, I'm positive
15 that's the man.

16           "How much time passed between the crime and the"
17 -- and this is the most important thing for both 18 identifications here. "How much time passed between the 19 crime and the identification?" Eye witness identification is 20 not always what it is cracked up to be, and the reason of 21 that is the reasons that is listed here and because of what 22 happens when time passes and what happens with the memory.
23 We have to focus on three different things about the witness
24 identification specifically. A), the observation or the 25 perception at the time that the incident occurred. In other
26 words, what did you see? What was affecting what you see?
27 Is there any real reason why you should even remember what
28 you saw? Because if it's just an ordinary every day event,
29 there is no real reason for it to be stuck in your memory.

1           Number two, how much time passes? If time passes,
2           you can confuse it with other days. You can confuse it with 3           other people. It's easy to get confused. We all make
4           mistaken identifications every day.

5           And finally the question is what happens, if
6           anything, to influence your identification? If the name
7           Curtis Flowers is floating around in the air as a suspect in 8           this case, that might consciously or subconsciously influence 9           who you point out, and if you are confronted with a big head
10          man and everybody else in the pictures are different kinds,
11          that will influence your identification.

12          And then there is one other thing I have to 13          mention. I don't know Mr. Johnson, and you don't either. He 14          works in law enforcement, and that is good because we need
15          people to work in law enforcement. Mr. Roy Harris said that 16          Mr. Johnson showed him one picture. Remember this; there are 17          no lawyers or anything else around to really say what happens
18          at the scene of these identifications. And it just seems a
19          bit strange to me that a person could come up a month later
20          and identify somebody from a split second glance and then
21          identify two or three others.

22          But in any event, even though those other
23          identifications weren't quote, unquote tarnished, "How much 24          time passed between the crime" or the incident "and the 25          identification?" In this case they weren't looking at 26          crimes. Now the crime happens. That is an exciting event
27          and maybe especially people who are trained, law enforcement 28          people and other people, they will begin to focus in on 29          certain things that they can remember. But there was no

1 reason for anybody to focus in on anybody in these incidents
2 because nothing was happening. A person leaning on a car
3 allegedly; a person walking toward Coast to Coast? And
4 because they seem to be arguing and gesturing, that's no
5 reason to remember who we saw.

6 And we wanted to remind you to keep it in mind;
7 look at this map if you need to and look at these different
8 identifications, different descriptions, but remember and you
9 can put reasonable in here. We don't have a problem with 10 that. You have to eliminate every reasonable theory or 11 hypothesis consistent with innocence because this is what you
12 call a circumstantial case. There is no direct evidence.
13 Nobody saw anybody do anything. So for that reason, we have 14 to eliminate any possible interpretation of those 15 circumstances which are consistent with innocence.

16 And when you think about that, and that is every 17 situation you get into. When you are trying to think about 18 the so-called residue, are there circumstances consistent
19 with innocence? Shaking the police officers' hands who 20 went to pick him up, being in the police place in the first
21 place where they have residue probably, living in a family
22 that uses guns and shoots guns and even being with people
23 that are shooting guns that weekend. And I know they are 24 going to come back and say that the man says sometimes .22
25 rifles or .22 guns don't leave residue. That is true, but 26 sometimes they do. And if at any time that comes up, the 27 doubt must be resolved in favor of Mr. Flowers, and we ask
28 that you that.

29 We are finally going to ask as we started at the

1 beginning that we make a conscientious effort not to let any
2 kind of bias affect us, and we have to say this in all
3 criminal cases because a criminal defendant automatically
4 attaches bias to him because he is charged with a crime. And
5 certainly we don't want any other kind of bias. We don't 6 want that and we ask you, we just want justice. And if we
7 get justice, then I'm sure that you will have no problem
8 meeting our request to bring back a not guilty verdict of
9 Curtis Flowers.

10 Now let me say this, and then I'm going to sit
11 down. I am a student of history. And contrary to what many 12 people think, actually the whole reasonable doubt thing,
13 presumption of innocence, at least the concept, not
14 necessarily the words, actually start back a long time ago.

15 There was this king once. The king's name was 16 Piankis, and I say this because maybe this will help you.
17 This is a little analogy that may help guide you in what your 18 task is here today. Piankis they say in books was confronted
19 with a powerful kingdom, confronted with the circumstance
20 where he was the judge. One of his subjects had been slain,
21 stabbed to death. Another one was accused of it. It appears
22 that the person who was stabbed was in the tent, and it
23 appeared at least the only person in the tent with him was 24 the person who was accused. Piankis looked at the case. To 25 make a long story short, he looked at it and then came back
26 with a judgment that says the man should go his way, which 27 meant that he was not guilty in our terminologies. People
28 were at first amazed. Later on it turned out that what 29 happened is that they were able to discover that someone had

1       snuck into the rear of the tent and stabbed the man and
2       escaped, and that was the only reason that this gentleman who
3       was in there was in there with the man. And so they were 4       able to say-- and so all the subjects then, Piankis, you are 5       just great. You are just so wise. He didn't know that this
6       other person had been in the tent at the time. You are so
7       wise. You are so great. You are so brilliant. You must
8       read minds. You must be divine. God must have made you
9       divine.

10                You must read minds, and Piankis said no. There is 11       but one guy, and secondly, I don't read minds. He says
12       nobody reads minds, and if I have wisdom, it is wisdom that 13       shows me that nobody reads minds.

14                So when I look at a person who I do not know, I
15       understand that I don't read his mind. If I look at Clemmie
16       Fleming and several people come in here and say she is lying,
17       and I look at her story and her story sounds unlikely to 18       start off with, I don't read minds. I don't read the minds
19       of the people that say that she is lying, and I don't read
20       her mind. And I am wise enough to know that I don't read
21       minds.

22                So what I do is read facts and circumstances, and 23       if the circumstances and the facts are unclear; if everybody
24       gives them a different dress of clothing on the same routes
25       to the same alleged crime; if the print doesn't necessarily 26       even match the shoes that come out of that box because we 27       don't know what comes out of that box; and there is some 28       question about whether the box was ever even touched by him
29       to start off with; if 660,000 people could leave a print and

1 these are open cities to Winona; if residue can accumulate
2 from any number of ways; and if the DNA people say that what
3 is on his clothes is not the victim's blood or sweat or
4 anything else; if the fingerprints experts say no, I can't
5 find his prints; then I know I don't read minds.

6 And regardless of what I might think, what I might
7 want to think, the question is Piankis said, I follow the 8 rules. I thought like everybody else did. I thought the man
9 was guilty, but I followed the rules. The rules say if it's 10 not proven, convincing and with certainty -- that was their 11 rule. Our rule is a little different, and we will come to 12 that. Not to prove with certainty, then we don't read
13 minds. We say you go your way.

14 Our rule is that it has to be proven beyond a 15 reasonable doubt, and don't let anybody make reason cheap to 16 you. Don't make reason any different than reason would be 17 anywhere else in your life. If you wouldn't buy a house from 18 Clemmie Fleming with the story that she tells, then don't 19 come in here and buy her story here.

20 BY THE COURT: That is time, Mr. Lumumba.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would ask you to return a
22 not guilty verdict for Mr. Curtis Flowers. Thank you.

23 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans, you have 30 minutes
24 left.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

26 FINAL ARGUMENT BY MR. EVANS:

27 Ladies and gentlemen, y'all will be glad to know
28 that I'm going to be brief. Y'all are just about through.
29 What Mr. Lumumba has just done is what I call the shotgun

1 approach. He just tries to shoot out there and shoot down
2 every piece of evidence we have got, but it doesn't work.
3 I'm going to briefly go back through some of the stuff, and
4 I'm going to point out the highlights of this case.

5 To start with, I want to say that I think this was
6 a great piece of law enforcement work. The officers followed
7 up on the case. They checked into all the evidence. They
8 started at the scene. They found evidence at the scene. One
9 thing that I think is very important is this shoe track. You
10 have heard the expert testify that he took a copy of this.
11 He held it up to the shoe, and it matched. Why is that 12 important?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, objection. He said it
14 was consistent with. He didn't say it was a
15 match.

16 BY MR. EVANS: He said it matched this shoe.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He said he couldn't say
18 whether it--

19 BY THE COURT: --The jury has heard the 20 evidence. It's up to them to evaluate.

21 BY MR. EVANS:

22 Why is that important? It's important because we 23 put Curtis Flowers at the scene. Where is that shoe? Where 24 did he come in and say, Here is my shoes. Here is my shoes.
25 Check them and see if it's the shoe. We don't have that 26 shoe. Why don't we have the shoe? Because he knew it had 27 blood on it, and he got rid of it just like he did some of 28 his clothes. He got rid of it. He got rid of it when he 29 went back to his house. But we know that a shoe consistent

1 with that one was in that store. We know that that person
2 was the one that killed him because he stepped in the blood.
3 That was the first mistake that he made.

4 The second mistake that he made was not washing his
5 hands good enough because he got gunshot residue on the back
6 of his hand where he fired the gun. You heard the officers
7 testify. They took, they knew they were going to take that
8 gunshot residue test kit. They made sure that they did not 9 contaminate his hands because they wanted to make sure it was 10 a good test, and they got that.

11 Now they want to come up with this shotgun approach
12 and say well, he shot .22's. Y'all heard the expert. The 13 expert said this kind of primer is not in a .22. That was a 14 mistake that--

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, objection. He did
16 not say that.

17 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. He did.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He said some .22's.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. He did.

20 BY THE COURT: That is within the evidence.

21 You can argue it.

22 BY MR. EVANS:

23 All of that is important, but then what else have 24 we got? We have got numerous witnesses, not witnesses that 25 just voluntarily came in, but witnesses that these officers
26 went door to door talking to. The only one that came in that 27 particular day was Mr. Collins. He said, I saw them. I got 28 a good look at one of them. They looked like they were 29 arguing. That's why I looked at it. That's why it got my

1 attention. That's why I can identify him. He identified him
2 in the photo lineup, testified he identified him at a
3 previous hearing, and he identified him here. He said, It
4 looks like him. I think it's him. That's him. That is him
5 that was in front of the store.

6 Yet he says in one of his many lies in his
7 statements that he was never anywhere on that side of Highway
8 51. He doesn't want to admit that he was over there in front
9 of that store, and what have we got to back up Mr. Collins?
10 Just to make sure, 100 percent that he is right about who he 11 saw. Clemmie Fleming that has known him all of her life sees
12 him running away from the store, running away from the store
13 when he says I wasn't anywhere on that side of the highway.
14 Another lie.

15 We have got, and I'm not going to sit here and go
16 through it. We have gone through this thing with y'all so
17 many times it's pitiful. We were able to plot out through 18 witnesses that he left his house. He went down by Angelica.
19 He got the gun. How do we know he got the gun? Doyle said
20 he knew the gun was in the car.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection. Doyle did not
22 say--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --Katherine-- may I finish,
24 Your Honor?

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --his gun was in the car.
26 That is a blatant misstatement of facts. Doyle
27 never made that statement.

28 BY THE COURT: Yes, you may. Go ahead.
29 Objection overruled.

1 BY MR. EVANS:

2 Katherine Snow saw him leaning up against the car
3 that the gun was stolen out of just a matter of a short
4 period of time before he killed the people. And how do we
5 know that that is the murder weapon? That is some more very
6 good police work. These officers didn't just say well, it
7 could have been the gun. They asked Doyle, have you shot
8 this gun? Where have you shot it? He carried them. They 9 dug the bullets out of the post. They carried them to an
10 expert. The expert looked at the bullets and said yes.
11 These bullets came out of the same gun that killed these 12 people. They matched them positively, not possibly,
13 positively. We know that that gun that was stolen out of the 14 car that morning that Curtis Flowers was leaning against is 15 the murder weapon. And how do we know that he is on that 16 side of the highway? Because they testify he is. Mr.
17 Kennedy sees him. He was seen walking to Angelica. He was 18 seen leaning against the car. He was seen walking in the 19 direction away from Angelica when Mr. McChristian saw him,
20 and apparently what he did, he went back home. That's when
21 Patricia saw him come back.

22 And then we have got the trail where he goes back
23 to the store where he goes down there to kill the people. We 24 have got Mary Jeanette Fleming that saw him there. She saw 25 him and spoke to him. That I think is very important. Most 26 of these eye witnesses that saw him at these locations, they 27 know him. They don't have to say well, I saw somebody that 28 looked like him or I may have seen him. They said I know
29 him. We saw him.

1           All of these things together are what you look at.
2   Our jury system is made up out of the principle that we put
3   twelve people in the box that can use their good common
4   sense. They look at the evidence, and they determine what
5   happened. You don't leave your common sense at home because 6   you are on the jury. You use it. You determine, as the 7   Judge told you and as we told you during opening statements
8   and voir dire, you listen to the evidence. You determine who 9   is believable and who is not. You have heard testimony how 10   the defense witnesses tried to get our witnesses to lie, to 11   come into court and change their story and say that he was 12   not the person. You have seen that happen in this courtroom
13   before your very eyes.

14           Curtis Flowers was mad. You notice in your 15   statement when Jack Matthews read it at least four or five 16   different times in there. He talked about how he had been 17   terminated, how he had been let go. You heard one of his 18   witnesses, Mr. Campbell, testified that he was not
19   responsible for the batteries. That's what he was saying.
20   He was mad because this money--

21           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge, objection--

22           BY MR. EVANS: --was going to be held out--

23           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Mr. Campbell specifically
24   said he wasn't--

25           BY MR. EVANS: --He was mad because--

26           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me--

27           BY MR. EVANS: --because he--

28           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me--

29           BY MR. EVANS: --was going to not pay the

1 money.

2 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. Y'all can't
3 talk at the same time.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Mr. Campbell
5 specifically said he was not upset. I mean I don't
6 think you can just mischaracterize the evidence.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I am quoting
8 exactly what I wrote down.

9 BY THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor. Is this 11 going to come off of my time, all these 12 objections?

13 BY THE COURT: No, sir.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 Mr. Campbell said that Curtis told him that he was 16 not responsible for the batteries. Again, this is part of 17 the whole theory. This is part of what was going on. He was 18 mad. He was going to go down there. He was going to take
19 that gun, and he was going to get some money by any means
20 that he saw fit. And why did he kill everybody in the 21 store? That is very simple. He wasn't going to leave any
22 witnesses. He was going to kill everybody that was in there
23 and he did. He shot every one of them in the head. This is 24 a very brutal case. This is a case where BoBo Stewart was 25 shot in the head. That is the case that y'all are hearing.
26 There was no reason to kill that boy. That boy hadn't done
27 anything to him, but the case of greed because he wanted to 28 go down there and get something that didn't belong to him.
29 He went down there. He used a gun. He robbed the store, and

1 he took the money.

2 Now the Defense even wanted to argue well, you
3 can't even prove he took the money. Clearly you can. That
4 is how you prove an armed robbery. You prove what was in the 5 store, and you prove it's missing after he left after killing
6 them. That is very simple. That is common sense. You use
7 your common sense.

8 They want to say that we can't prove that he had
9 Fila tennis shoes. Not only did Patricia Hollman testify
10 that she knew him; she lived next door. She was the 11 godmother of one of Connie's children. She said, I know what 12 kind of tennis shoes he wore. He wore Fila Grant Hills.
13 Both of my kids wanted them. We talked about them. He wore
14 Fila Grant Hills. And what was very important on that, one
15 of their witnesses, Mary Sue Moore, she told two 16 investigators that Curtis wore Fila tennis shoes, and she 17 hadn't seen him wearing them since the murders. Well, I
18 wonder why. It's because he threw them away.

19 He got rid of that part of the evidence, but he 20 couldn't get rid of the witnesses. They tried to force them
21 to lie. They put pressure on them. That wouldn't work.
22 These witnesses told the truth. These witnesses weren't up
23 here for money. These witnesses were up here because a
24 brutal murder occurred in Winona, Mississippi, and they were 25 telling what they knew. They didn't necessarily want to be 26 here. They would have probably rather stayed in Winona, but 27 they told what they knew. They told the truth so that y'all
28 could make the decision, so that y'all would not let a
29 murderer go. They told what they knew about what happened.

1                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, objection. And I will
2                   argue it later. I think that is prosecutorial
3                   misconduct.

4                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Objection overruled.

5                   BY MR. EVANS:

6                   Even Tina Allen, another one of their witnesses
7                   that they wanted to put on as an alibi witness, where did she
8                   put him? She put him up here close to the store after 10
9                   o'clock which is also consistent with exactly what happened.
10                  He went, he was seen running up by the store by Clemmie
11                  Fleming and by Roy Harris.

12                  Now Roy came in here and tried to change his 13                  story. But the officer testified where he took them, where 14                  he showed them. The officer testified what he told 15                  originally. The officer testified, and he even admitted then 16                  in the prior hearing that is exactly what he said under 17                  oath. That is one witness that they did manage to get to 18                  come in here and lie to you after all this time.

19                  Even the other witnesses that they put on -- they 20                  put on the sister. There's nothing inconsistent with him
21                  being at the sister's house at the time that she said. The 22                  only things that are in there is that he had to try to change
23                  his stories and lie to try to make up some excuse. Not only 24                  did he lie about not being on that side of the highway, he 25                  lied about shooting the gun. He lied about having Fila 26                  tennis shoes. He lied about basically everything that he 27                  said in his statement. He lied about the times.

28                  Now the same day something like this happened they 29                  want to say well, you can be mistaken or you wouldn't know.

1 Would you not know the difference between getting up at 6:30
2 or 7 o'clock and 9:30? Would you not know the difference in 3 going to your sister's house at 9:30 or 12 o'clock? What he
4 did, he told his first version, and then he got messed up
5 because folks he wanted to use as an alibi witness didn't
6 cooperate, so he tried to change it around. Another lie.

7 Ladies and gentlemen, I'm not going to waste
8 y'all's time by going back through the rest of this because 9 y'all heard the evidence. Y'all know that he is guilty. The 10 evidence is clearly there, and I ask that you go back and you
11 return a verdict of, "We, the jury, find the Defendant
12 guilty," because he is guilty.

13 Thank you, Your Honor.

14 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, that 15 concludes the evidence, the arguments and the 16 instructions. It is now time for you to retire and 17 deliberate on your verdict. And I think they have 18 got some food for you back there too. You will be 19 delivered the instructions of the Court and all of 20 the exhibits that have been admitted into this case
21 shortly. Everybody may go back there except Ms.
22 Kreeger and Ms. Anderson, if you would wait right
23 now. All right.

24 JURY RETIRES TO CONSIDER VERDICT AT 1:48 P.M.

25 BY THE COURT: Let the record reflect that the 26 Court has discharged the two alternates, Ms.
27 Kreeger and Ms. Anderson.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, can I place a couple
29 of things on the record, just short?

1                   BY THE COURT: You can in just a minute. I
2 will be right back.

3                   (The Court's Instructions and the Exhibits
4 that had been admitted into evidence were taken to 5 the jury room by the bailiff. Upon the Court
6 returning into the courtroom, there was the 7 following with the JURY OUT:)

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, just briefly, for the 9 record we do make a Motion for a Mistrial based 10 upon what we think is prosecutorial misconduct.
11 The prosecutor told the jury that they would have 12 to bring a guilty verdict back or words to that
13 effect. They can't let this murderer go free. I
14 think that is the kind of inflammatory language
15 which the courts discourage and which preclude in 16 terms of prosecutorial misconduct. He also on 17 several occasions, Judge, blatantly misstated the 18 evidence. I understand sometimes we might not
19 remember things, but I can't believe that-- there
20 is one thing with arguing that an interpretation of 21 what Campbell said is that Mr. Flowers was mad.
22 There is another thing to say that Mr. Campbell
23 said he was mad when Mr. Campbell clearly said he 24 wasn't, and there were several other instances.
25 And every time I objected and plus some times when 26 I didn't object, that was true, and for those 27 reasons we make a Motion for a Mistrial.

28                   BY THE COURT: That Motion is overruled. Let 29 me see the exhibits now.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Are we in recess at this time,
2 Your Honor?

3 BY THE COURT: Yeah. I am going to send the 4 projector with the slides.

5 BY MR. EVANS: There are some other things on
6 that cart that need to come off.

7 BY THE COURT: There are no slides in that
8 projector that have not been admitted, are there?

9 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

10 (Slide projector on cart was rolled to the 11 jury room by the bailiff.)

12 BY THE COURT: The Court Reporter is going to 13 make a record of the items that were not submitted,
14 that were marked for identification and have not
15 been submitted to the jury.

16 BY MR. EVANS: You don't need us for that, do
17 you?

18 BY THE COURT: No. All right, let the record
19 reflect that the following exhibits were marked for 20 identification but were not introduced into 21 evidence and have not been submitted to the jury:
22 S-4A, S-5, S-5A, S-28, S-28A, S-32, S-32A, S-33,
23 S-33A, S-34, S-34A, S-44A through S-60, S-66, S-68,
24 S-98, S-104, S-106, S-108, and S-110. Then D-1,
25 D-3, D-4, D-8, D-10, D-13, D-14, D-16, D-17, D-20, 26 D-21. That's all I show.

27 (COURT WAS IN RECESS AWAITING VERDICT OF THE 28 JURY. UPON THE JURY'S KNOCK, COURT WAS CALLED TO 29 ORDER AT 3:33 P.M., AND WITH THE COURT, MR. EVANS,

1 MR. BLECK, MR. LUMUMBA, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT,
2 THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING:)

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, the jury has announced or
4 sent me a message that they have reached a verdict
5 in this case. I'm going to bring them in and let 6 them deliver this verdict right now. I will not
7 tolerate any displays of emotion one way or another
8 concerning this verdict at all. Once you are out
9 of the courthouse, you can do what you like, but
10 inside the courtroom and inside this courthouse you
11 must not create any disturbance at all. Anybody
12 that does that, the officers can take charge of 13 them and hold them until I can deal with them.
14 Okay.

15 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM AT 3:35 P.M.

16 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, have you
17 reached a verdict?

18 BY JURY FOREPERSON, MS. LADNER: We have, Your
19 Honor.

20 BY THE COURT: Is it the verdict of all twelve
21 of you?

22 BY JUROR MS. LADNER: Yes, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. Hand the verdict to the 24 bailiff.

25 (Verdict is handed to the Court and then to 26 the Clerk.)

27 BY THE COURT: The Defendant will rise. Read
28 the verdict.

29 BY THE CLERK: We, the jury, find the

1 Defendant guilty of capital murder.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Do you want the jury
3 polled?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: All right. Sir, is this your
6 verdict?

7 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Is it yours, ma'am?

9 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: Yours, sir?

11 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

13 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

14 BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

15 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

16 BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

17 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

18 BY THE COURT: Yours, sir?

19 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

21 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

22 BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

23 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

25 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Yours, sir?

27 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

28 BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

29 BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

1           BY THE COURT: All right. Ladies and
2 gentlemen, I will ask, I will have some further
3 instructions for you in just a few minutes. I'm 4 going to ask you to return to the jury room at this
5 time.

6           JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

7           BY THE COURT: Where are we on the sentencing
8 phase?

9           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I know we have got
10 a couple of witnesses that are on the way from 11 Winona. I'm not sure exactly what time they left,
12 but I can check if you can give me just a few
13 minutes.

14          BY THE COURT: Will y'all be ready to
15 proceed?

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have to check.

17          BY THE COURT: Okay. Y'all check on that. If 18 you will, try to give me an idea in about 10
19 minutes. Okay.

20          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

21          BY THE COURT: Court will be in recess.

22          (FOLLOWING A RECESS, COURT WAS RECONVENED WITH 23 THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL PRESENT WITH THE EXCEPTION
24 OF MR. FREELON, AND WITH THE JURY OUT FOR THE 25 FOLLOWING:)

26          BY THE COURT: Let me ask you, are we going to 27 be ready to proceed?

28          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, Judge. We have a witness
29 that I understand is in Winona, so we need him, so

1 we won't really be ready to proceed until tomorrow
2 morning.

3 BY THE COURT: Can you proceed with the 4 State's evidence at this time and let y'all put 5 yours on?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We prefer not to. We prefer
7 time to prepare, and so we would prefer not to 8 proceed before tomorrow morning. That is our 9 position. And I need to talk-- can I talk to one
10 witness right here?

11 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

12 DEFENDANT ENTERS COURTROOM.

13 (Pause for Counsel to confer.)

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The other thing is, Judge, I
15 don't know that we agree with the instruction that 16 has been proposed. I have to look at it more
17 carefully.

18 BY MR. HORAN: That is not an instruction I
19 propose. All I wanted Mr. Lumumba to do is to 20 submit what mitigating circumstances he thought
21 that he would want to put under Section, I believe,
22 "B" of that particular instruction. I'm not
23 proposing that instruction as an instruction.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Well, and I will
25 certainly come up with whatever our mitigating
26 circumstances are. But that is our position on it,
27 Judge, that we don't want to proceed before
28 tomorrow morning.

29 BY THE COURT: My understanding is y'all have

1           some witnesses that aren't here too; is that
2           correct?

3           BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, but we are willing to 4           proceed without them if the Court would like to 5           continue.

6           BY THE COURT: Well, it's 4 o'clock in the 7           afternoon, and we have to go over instructions.
8           They are entitled to some mitigating factors, and I
9           want them to have ample time to go over that. And 10          so what I'm going to do is we will start the 11          sentencing phase at 9 o'clock in the morning. And 12          I would like the attorneys to be here again at 8:00
13          so we can have the sentencing instructions done at 14          the time the jury gets here. Okay?

15          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

16          BY THE COURT: Okay.

17          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I do want to make a
18          note for the record is that the juror we challenged
19          for cause because she said in her questionnaire
20          that she could tolerate interracial marriages, but 21          she didn't condone them and the juror we tried with 22          very difficulty to get excluded for cause is the 23          one who wound up being the jury foreman. That is 24          Ms. Tanner [sic], and I think she is in seat number 25          two.

26          BY THE COURT: Okay. Bring the jury in and 27          let me make that announcement.

28                   (JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM AT 4:00 P.M.)

29          BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, as we

1           stated at the first of the trial, there are two
2           phases to this trial. There is the guilt phase
3           which we have now, we are past that point, and we
4           are to the sentencing phase which will require some
5           other testimony. There are some witnesses who are
6           en route who have not made it here. We are going
7           to be unable to finish that today, but we are going
8           to start early in the morning at 9 o'clock, and I
9           feel like we will make very good progress tomorrow
10          on getting through, but I don't believe we can do
11          it in any kind of reasonable time today. So I'm 12          going to discharge you for the day, and we will 13          start back promptly at 9 o'clock and get on with 14          finishing up this trial tomorrow. Okay.

15                   JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

16                   BY THE COURT: Court is adjourned until in the 17          morning at 8 o'clock.

Consideration of Sentencing Instructions

1 (COURT WAS CONVENED AT 8:07 A.M. ON MARCH 31,
2 1999, FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF JURY INSTRUCTIONS ON THE
3 SENTENCING PHASE. PRESENT WERE THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND
4 THE DEFENDANT. THE JURY WAS OUT.)

5 SENTENCING INSTRUCTION NO. 1: BY THE COURT: Okay, my 6 understanding is that they have the statutory sentencing
7 instruction--

8 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

9 BY THE COURT: --ready from their standpoint
10 except for the mitigating factors, so I guess that's what we 11 need to talk about now.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Are you talking about the 13 instruction I got from them yesterday? Is that what we are 14 talking about?

15 BY THE COURT: It's the long one.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Right, the long instruction.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, we object to it, but if
18 the Court is going to use it, we do want whether Mr.
19 Flowers-- and we don't want "Defendant." We want the term
20 "Mr. Flowers" in there. Whether Mr. Flowers has no
21 significant history of prior criminal activity - that would 22 be the first one. I have a couple of others.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response to 24 that, I think there is some specific case law that says if 25 they want to go into that, then we would be entitled to show
26 that he has been convicted already of another capital
27 murder. We will show you the case law on it in just a
28 second.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My argument would be that

1 that case law relates to a conviction that occurred for an
2 event that had to take place prior to. It would clearly be,
3 it would clearly be a violation of the 14th Amendment to 4 allow a defendant, to allow a conviction which occurs for an
5 event that occurred at the same time as this to be used
6 against this Defendant in this particular case whereas every 7 other defendant in the world, regardless of whether he is 8 convicted 29 times afterwards, as long as his conviction is 9 not available at the day of trial, then they would not be 10 able to use it.

11 So in other words, it is clearly a violation
12 because he is in the exact same footing, as far as this case
13 is concerned, as a person who has never been convicted, any 14 other person who has never been convicted prior to the time
15 of the event that they are being tried for now, irrespective
16 of whether they are convicted of something else at another
17 time. So I am just saying that I don't think it's any law
18 that they are going to be able to show you that they can use
19 a conviction which occurred for something that is supposed to 20 have happened simultaneous to this crime.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Of course, I think this Court
22 is familiar with Bell v. State that happened in Grenada
23 County. In that particular case the prior conviction that we 24 used was a conviction of a killing that happened after the 25 time of the murder we were trying. The Supreme Court said
26 that is proper under the law. In that particular case--

27 BY THE COURT: --Well, let me ask you, do you
28 have a case where it happened, where let's say like this case
29 and like Simon, where he has been tried more than once for

1 basically the same crime--

2 BY MR. EVANS: I'm not sure.

3 BY THE COURT: --and the other one has been
4 used?

5 BY MR. EVANS: If you will give me just a
6 minute, I will see if there is one for the same--

7 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, did you look at 8 Simon?

9 BY THE COURT: I must have read Simon fifty
10 times, but I have not read it in the last week.

11 BY MR. HORAN: I can't remember if his Jones
12 County conviction was -- I don't think that was raised on 13 appeal, and I'm sure it would have been if his Jones County
14 conviction was used in DeSoto County. I meant to look it up
15 last night.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, let me resolve this
17 problem real quick.

18 BY MR. EVANS: My objection is we did not 19 anticipate using it. We don't want to use it. I would 20 rather stay away from it. But I think if they are going to 21 open it by saying he has no prior significant history, then I
22 think we have got to use it because that would be misleading
23 to the jury because he definitely does.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, he has no prior
25 significant criminal history prior to this case, and that's 26 what concerns me about it. And I acknowledge you may be
27 right. That may be the correct statement of the law, but I
28 think it is, because it happens in the same case or the same
29 set of facts, the whole thing, that I think its prejudicial

1 effect far outweighs the right of the State to put it on, and
2 the fact-- if it was another crime at another time, even like
3 Bell afterward, I would let it in. But I'm going to disallow
4 it. Now having passed that threshold--

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will also use-- the only
6 other one we want to use, which is not a statutory
7 circumstance, is that the Defendant's, the Defendant's
8 involvement in religion and spirituality to the benefit of 9 himself and others.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, do you want to, do you
11 mind writing that out how you want it?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13 (Off the record while Mr. Lumumba writes.)

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, finally, Judge, here it
15 is.

16 (Mr. Lumumba hands document to the Court.)

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't know if you can read
18 it.

19 BY THE COURT: You were right.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You can't read it?

21 BY THE COURT: Yeah. What I--

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you want me to type it
23 up?

24 BY THE COURT: Yeah, you need to type it up
25 how you need it to go in the instruction so we can put it in
26 there.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have the computer
28 here.

29 BY THE COURT: Or you can just write it out.

1 They have got a computer over there. They can add it to the
2 instruction if y'all just write it exactly the way you want
3 it.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, we will let Mr. Freelon
5 write. And the final one is already written in here. It
6 says, "Any other matter, any other aspect of Mr. Flowers" -
7 change that to Mr. Flowers' - "character or record and any 8 other circumstance of the offense brought to you during the 9 trial of this cause which you, the jury, deemed to be
10 mitigating on behalf of Mr. Flowers."

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. You are obviously
12 entitled to that, and I will grant the one on religion. So I
13 will grant those three.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am-- the last one which I
15 just read to you, I am redacting that to exclude, I'm going
16 to just put, "Any other matter, any other aspect of Mr.
17 Flowers' character or record brought to you during the trial
18 of this cause which you, the jury, deemed to be mitigating."
19 I'm going to exclude "any other aspect of the offense." I'm 20 not going to use that. I am just going to deal with the 21 character or record. Okay, so that is how we are going to 22 proceed now with this statutory instruction. Who is going to 23 put that together?

24 BY MR. EVANS: We are.

25 BY THE COURT: They have it in their
26 computer. I have got it in mine, but they have got the facts
27 in theirs.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

29 BY THE COURT: And I have no problem with in

1 lieu of "Defendant" that we refer to him by his given name.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do--

3 BY THE COURT: --I don't think that makes any 4 difference at all legally, and it's sure not going to make
5 any difference to the jury one way or another. They are 6 going to know who it is.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, right.

8 SENTENCING INSTRUCTION NO. C-4: BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you
9 have our proposed sentencing instruction? Is that the only
10 other one proposed?

11 BY THE COURT: No. I'm going to give-- let me
12 read it to you. I will give you a copy of it in a minute.
13 "The Court instructs the jury that it must be emphasized
14 that the procedure that you must follow is not a mere
15 counting process of a certain number of aggravating
16 circumstances versus the number of mitigating circumstances.
17 Rather, you must apply your reasoned judgment as to whether 18 this situation calls for life imprisonment." I think it will 19 be "life imprisonment without parole or whether it requires
20 the imposition of death, in light of the totality of the 21 circumstances present."

22 INSTRUCTION NO. C-5: BY THE COURT: Then I'm going to 23 give this one. "The Court instructs that you, as individual
24 jurors, must consider mitigating circumstances. Therefore,
25 even if all other eleven jurors find that a certain
26 mitigating circumstance does not exist, if you believe it
27 does exist, you must find that mitigating circumstance, and 28 weigh it in your further deliberations." Okay?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. We have no problem with

1 that.

2 (Instruction No. C-4 was given as Sentencing
3 Instruction 4, and Instruction No. C-5 was given as
4 Sentencing Instruction 5.)

5 INSTRUCTION NO. DS-1: BY THE COURT: Do you have a
6 problem with this?

7 BY MR. EVANS: What is that?

8 BY THE COURT: DS-1.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, what is it?

11 BY MR. HORAN: I don't think you need to tell
12 them again what they are to do, consider the sentencing
13 instruction in number one. It's not necessary.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My belief on that is
15 Sentencing Instruction Number 1 may not be altogether clear.
16 They may decide that if they jump all those hurdles and get 17 to the point where they can consider the death penalty, then
18 it is a must that they give it. So I think that this clearly
19 is a correct statement of the law.

20 BY THE COURT: All right, but didn't I just 21 say that in that last instruction where I told them to 22 consider the mitigating factors, and if eleven of them
23 decided they were and one decided they wasn't?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh-uh. You said that as to 25 mitigating factors, and I appreciate that because this 26 doesn't say as to mitigating factors, but I guess this really 27 focuses more on the very end of the process. Let's say that 28 the mitigating factors do not outweigh the aggravating; then
29 even then they are not required to give the death penalty,

1 and that's what this focuses on, unless it's in their
2 individual determination that it's warranted.

3 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute. Say that again.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Unless it's in their
5 individual determination that it's warranted. Even after 6 they determine that the mitigating circumstances do not
7 outweigh the aggravating circumstances, then they can 8 consider the death penalty, and according to your 9 instruction, they are supposed to. Okay, and I already 10 pointed to Sentencing Instruction Number 1 and said they had 11 to follow that. But then at that point they are still not 12 required to give the death penalty. You know, even after 13 they have decided that mitigating don't outweigh the 14 aggravating, they are not required unless they in their 15 individual judgment feel that the death penalty is 16 warranted. Just because they think that the mitigating don't 17 outweigh the aggravating, that does not require them to give 18 the death penalty, and that's what this instruction
19 emphasizes.

20 BY MR. HORAN: And I agree with that, and that 21 is covered in the one--

22 BY THE COURT: --Your objection is that it is
23 repetitious?

24 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. In light of the nature
26 of this case, I'm going to give it even if it is
27 repetitious.

28 (Instruction No. DS-1 was given as Sentencing
29 Instruction No. 6.)

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Judge, I don't have
2 any other thing on the instructions. I do have 3 something on something else if you are ready for
4 it.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Several things. We want to,
7 of course, raise a Motion for Judgment
8 Notwithstanding the Verdict.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. I don't know that this
10 is the proper time to do that though. I think you
11 have to wait until after the case is over.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, that is fine.

13 BY THE COURT: You are certainly entitled to 14 do that, but I think it has to be after we are 15 through.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, let's just say
17 this; without argument, I'm going to raise it now.
18 Then I will raise it after--

19 BY THE COURT: --I note that you have 20 preserved it for the record.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Secondly, we are going
22 to make a Motion to Preclude the consideration of 23 the death penalty in this case, and we make that 24 motion based upon several things. First of all, we 25 want to make the Motion based upon the cases of 26 Inman v. Florida. Inman v. Florida, I am sure the 27 Judge is probably familiar with. It's located at 28 458 U.S. 782. And the second case that will come
29 into play will be Tyson v. Arizona, which the Court

1 is probably also familiar with. It's located at
2 481 U.S. 137. And this second case I cited is a
3 1987 case. Inman is a 1982 case, and there is a
4 progeny of these cases.

5 Essentially, what Inman v. Florida says and
6 Tyson says that-- well, basically Inman says that a
7 case where a person was a getaway car driver in a
8 case, and someone else went in and robbed and 9 killed somebody. That was not enough showing in 10 and of itself that that person actually committed 11 the murder or that he knew that the murder would be 12 committed or that he anticipated. In Inman I think
13 they said that he anticipated that any killing
14 would take place.

15 In Tyson they loosened the standard a little 16 bit where they said that any time when you are 17 acting with reckless disregard for life, then in 18 fact, you can also be given the death penalty as 19 long as you are participating in the enterprise
20 which is designed to rob or whatever.

21 In Mississippi, actually you have got a
22 stronger standard than Tyson because Tyson is that 23 you have-- in Mississippi in the standard that is 24 used in instructing the jury, you either have to 25 kill, intend to kill, attempt to kill, or you have 26 to anticipate that lethal, contemplate that lethal
27 force will be used. So it's stronger than Tyson, I
28 think, that contemplating that lethal force will be
29 used is really stronger than just acting

1           recklessly. So the Mississippi standard is
2           actually stronger than the federal standard.

3           But in any event, and that is the standard
4           under Mississippi law and Mississippi
5           constitutional law. We would say this, that in 6           this case the State has failed miserably to prove
7           that Mr. Flowers actually killed anybody or 8           anticipated. Their witness, their best witness,
9           their scene witness, one is that he was running
10          away. The second one is that he and another man
11          were approaching a-- well, really they were going
12          north, but then they say he was going toward 13          Tardy. Let's presume that the jury accepted that 14          burden. That does not show any proof beyond a
15          reasonable doubt, far from it, that Mr. Flowers
16          shot a gun; he killed anybody; he attempted to kill
17          anybody; that he knew anybody would be killed; or 18          he contemplated that lethal force would be used.
19          So all of those things, the other person could well
20          have done that, and it's at least a 50/50 chance
21          that the other person could have well done those
22          things.

23          So I would indicate to the Court that based 24          upon these case law and the circumstances in this 25          case, I don't think it can be used. And in fact,
26          you know, I am not certainly an expert on all the 27          death penalty cases in this state or other ones,
28          but I think that if a death penalty case applied in 29          this case, it would probably be about as far

1 reaching from actually, when we talk about these
2 circumstantial proofs, as any case ever. I don't
3 think you can find a case which is more
4 circumstantial than this and when less has been
5 proved in this that would actually allow the death
6 penalty to be given.

7 So what I would say is that this case is 8 outside the boundaries, and for that reason that
9 the death penalty can't be given under the statute,
10 the Mississippi statute which articulates the 11 things that must be proven as well as it can't be 12 given under Tyson v. Arizona and Inman v. Florida.
13 So that would be my next motion.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly in response, Your 15 Honor, I think the Court has heard the evidence.
16 The evidence is there. The sentencing instruction
17 has the Inman factors that the jury must determine,
18 and in this case not only has one jury decided 19 there is sufficient evidence to convict him, but 20 now two juries, 14 jurors have decided there was 21 sufficient evidence and convicted this Defendant.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, 24.

23 BY MR. EVANS: 24. I can't even count.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My only response to that is 25 that out of those 24 jurors, the first 12, of 26 course, didn't hear the same case because they had 27 two witnesses who didn't even testify in this
28 case. I would also point out that out of the 24
29 jurors that have decided, 23 of them have been

1 white trying a defendant, a black defendant accused
2 of killing three white people. I think that the--

3 BY MR. HORAN: --and one black person, Your
4 Honor.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Accused of killing three
6 white people. Now the statistics, I think, and 7 that is the relevant consideration. Of course, he 8 also was charged with killing one black person, but 9 I think that even if you squeeze a black person in 10 in the death scenario, if you check the statistics
11 of blacks tried by juries, predominantly white
12 juries or juries with no more than one black
13 accused of killing anybody white, that you will
14 find out that there has been probably, if anybody,
15 I don't think anybody has ever been acquitted in 16 that circumstance. If there are anybody that has 17 been acquitted, it has been very few. The 18 acquittals in that situation are very rare. And 19 this case is probably--

20 BY MR. HORAN: --I'll have to--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. When I get
22 finished, please.

23 BY MR. HORAN: I just wanted to bring--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me. When I finish,
25 please--

26 BY MR. HORAN: --to Mr. Lumumba's attention,
27 Sharon Jane Miller, I tried in front of an all
28 white jury, and she got acquitted. You can look it
29 up.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. So I think that
2 is a situation where that is the case. It is very
3 rare that an all white jury acquits a black
4 defendant of killing anybody white.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, the jury has determined
6 the facts in this case, and they have determined
7 from the facts that he was guilty of capital murder
8 which includes, in order to do that, under these 9 facts and these instructions that they had, they 10 had to find that he was involved with an armed 11 robbery at that place when he did it. And that 12 determination puts this at issue before the jury as 13 to what the type sentence should be. So that 14 Motion is overruled.

15 INSTRUCTION NO. SS-1: BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well the 16 final question is, Judge, to preclude the use of the armed 17 robbery. Well, I am making a Motion to Bar both of the 18 aggravating circumstances which the District Attorney is 19 attempting to use in this case.

20 BY MR. EVANS: We have three.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am not familiar with the 22 third one. I see the two in here.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Look at that instruction we
24 gave you. It has got three in it.

25 BY THE COURT: I haven't seen it either.
26 Could I have something just for reference?

27 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

28 (Instruction handed to the Court.)

29 BY MR. EVANS: Under Section "B," Your Honor.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Have you still got that
2 instruction? I think I gave them our copy. When you get
3 finished looking at it, Judge, I will look at it too. I gave 4 them our copy.

5 BY MR. HORAN: That's correct. That's it.

6 BY MR. EVANS: We are going to print some more
7 out. That is the only copy we have got right now.

8 (Pause while the Court reads.)

9 BY THE COURT: Okay.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I see it?

11 BY THE COURT: Sure. I thought you had.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I didn't notice three
13 aggravating circumstances. I noticed two. Let me see.

14 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba looks at
15 instruction.)

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The copy that we had didn't
17 have all three of these in it, I don't believe, but it
18 doesn't matter. My objection is to all three.

19 The argument is as follows. As to the capital
20 murder "was committed for pecuniary gain during the course of 21 an armed robbery," I'm not sure that is even a statutory 22 circumstance. They can't use circumstances which are not
23 listed in the statute. That is textbook law.

24 BY THE COURT: That is true, but you are
25 talking about number 1?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, number 1. Let me look.

27 BY THE COURT: I am confident that is in
28 there.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I know that there is one

1 about robbery, and I know there is one about pecuniary gain,
2 but I don't think there is a circumstance in the statute
3 which is worded like that. No, it is not.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, the Court has held though
5 that you have to use those in the same context. You can't
6 use them separately. It used to be that the prosecution
7 would do armed robbery as one and the pecuniary gain as
8 another. The Court said you can't do that. You must have it
9 in one, so they have approved it, but they have approved it
10 as one aggravator rather than two.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, my argument will 12 go to the armed robbery then. I think that their proofs were 13 that Mr. Flowers was supposed to have some kind of beef with 14 the Tardys, and that's what led him there to kill the people
15 involved. I would also point out that, as it relates to that 16 particular aggravating circumstance, the expert, the 17 pathologist testified that the deceased still had jewelry on 18 them which would suggest that there was no attempt to take
19 it.

20 There is no evidence that anything-- there is 21 really no direct evidence that anything was taken from the 22 facility. There is some evidence that the facility was 23 supposed to, in the normal course of business, keep money,
24 but there is no evidence that they actually had anything. It
25 would also be safe to say that by the time the only witness
26 who testified there being no money in the drawer, and that 27 was Ms. Schoene, I think her name was, Melissa Schoene. Ms.
28 Schoene said that the drawer had already-- she didn't find
29 the drawer in the condition that it was in. She didn't get

1 there until 12 o'clock or so, 1 o'clock. We don't know what
2 happened or who dealt with the drawer, who took money out or
3 who put money in. So there is too big of a gap in there, and 4 there is no real proof that any robbery occurred. So that is
5 my objection to that aggravating circumstance.

6 Now if you want me to make an argument on the other
7 two, I can do that right now, or do you want me to stop
8 there?

9 BY THE COURT: Well, I can rule on that. One,
10 I think that is a proper statement of the law, and once the 11 jury made the finding that they did, it is properly, they are 12 entitled to have an instruction saying that the jury can 13 consider that. You are entitled to argument, to argue that 14 they didn't, that that didn't make it. But they are entitled
15 to the instruction and for the jury to consider it.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The other aggravating
17 circumstance that-- I'm going to argue the one that "created
18 a great risk of death to many persons." The jury cannot 19 properly be allowed to consider whether the Defendant
20 knowingly created a great risk to many persons in this case.
21 These circumstances are designed for those capital cases
22 where the defendant tosses a bomb in a crowd or fires a
23 machine gun indiscriminately toward a group of people. The 24 circumstances are not intended to cover the facts in this 25 particular case.

26 In Georgia the statutory circumstance is rather
27 broad, and it is actually broader than the one in this case.
28 But the statutory aggravating circumstances has basically two 29 components, both of which must be satisfied. First, the

1 evidence by law must show by this act the murderer knowingly
2 created a great risk of death to more than one person in a
3 public place. Second, the evidence must show that the great
4 risk resulted from the use of a weapon or device that is
5 normally hazardous to the rights, to the lives of more than 6 one person.

7 A pistol is not and does not necessarily create a
8 risk of death to more than one person. Great risk does not 9 mean mere possibility, but likelihood and probability.
10 Firing a gun into a crowd can create a great risk of death to 11 more than one person. However, shooting a person one by one 12 does not create a great risk of death and is not what that 13 particular aggravating circumstance was meant to cover.

14 I would also point out that there are cases where 15 two teenagers were killed and they were ruled that that did
16 not create a great risk of death. It was killed in ways
17 similar to this case. Lewis v. State at 398 So.2d 432. That 18 was a Florida case. Shooting one of the, shooting one with 19 two others at risk is not sufficient. Even shooting one
20 person with two other people at risk was not sufficient. And 21 also, I would cite Bassett v. State, 449 So.2d 803. You also 22 have a situation where shooting two people in a public place
23 was not sufficient in Jacobs v. State, 393 So.2d 1060.

24 Ferguson v. State, although six killed and two 25 wounded, finding circumstances incorrectly predicated on 26 dangers to others who might have been on the scene. Ferguson 27 v. State, 417 So.2d 639, and the case law goes on and on 28 that would simply say that that is not sufficient just 29 because a number of people died that a great risk -- a great

1 risk of death has to be created by a single act, a single act
2 of shooting or something of that nature. And that is not
3 necessarily, and a pistol is not necessarily the kind of 4 instrument that would even be considered as creating a great
5 risk of death unless shot into a crowd or something like
6 that. So I would object to that aggravating circumstance.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, let's let him respond to 8 that, and then we will go into the third one.

9 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I believe that the 10 case of Jackson v. State is pretty clear on it. It says that 11 when you have multiple murders, the Court is not limited in 12 giving this instruction only in circumstances when the danger
13 created was to unintentional victims. That's what we have 14 here. You don't, it's not limited to that, and it is not 15 limited to reckless activities on the part of the defendant.
16 The fact that he, that we have multiple murders or other
17 persons were killed in this attack certainly is covered by 18 Jackson v. State. The cite on that is 684, 1213.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't believe Jackson v.
20 State says anything that helps the prosecution in this case.
21 I would certainly be willing to allow, ask the Court to read
22 the case, and I would like to read it again too. But Jackson
23 v. State is not a case which in any way allows this statute
24 to be used or this portion of the statute to be used in this 25 case. Clearly, it's meant to be used in a case where 26 somebody gets in a position and just randomly shoots at a 27 crowd. That is what it is supposed to be. It's not meant to 28 be used in a situation where you have a person who 29 intentionally shoots four different people, and that's the

1 evidence in this case. We don't even know that one person
2 did it, but assuming that one person did it, you don't have
3 that evidence in this case.

4 BY THE COURT: I will look at Jackson.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. The other thing is 6 that the, to avoid the lawful arrest circumstance may not be
7 submitted to the jury. Most of the laws just about on cases
8 which are just like this one, the State also seeks to prove 9 that the capital offense was committed for the purpose of 10 avoiding or preventing the detention or the lawful arrest by 11 defendant. There is just no evidence in this case that that 12 was committed. While this may be a proper aggravating factor
13 when there is competent evidence that the killing was 14 committed for this purpose, it must be supported by evidence
15 to that effect.

16 Here the only evidence relied upon to support the 17 fact was the killing itself, and that is exactly the case
18 here. They don't have anybody that says that. They don't 19 have anybody that in any way that says that that was the 20 situation. There is nothing else, and that case is cited as 21 State v. Reese, 353 So.2d 352, and I believe that that is 22 also a case where the person in that case was supposed to 23 know at least some of the people who were there. Plus that 24 is always, that is always an assumption that you can make.
25 If a person kills more than one person or kills anybody in a
26 robbery, you can always assume, you can always assume that 27 they were killing the person because they were trying to not
28 be detected later on. They didn't want any witnesses
29 around.

1           But what that is is duplicitous with the robbery
2 and felony murder aggravating circumstance in the first
3 place. So that, and if they didn't kill the person involved
4 in the robbery, then they wouldn't be subject to capital
5 murder, and the aggravating circumstances of robbery, and now
6 I guess they have joined with it pecuniary gain, is an
7 aggravating circumstance. And now to add to it to avoid
8 risk of flight is duplicitous when there is no separate 9 evidence to show that that was a specific cause other than 10 the fact that a robbery occurred itself. And so that is,
11 there is no evidence whatsoever to show that. And all the 12 law would support that, and I can cite a number of cases on
13 that.

14           BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, in this particular
15 case this aggravator certainly comes into play when you have
16 a robbery at Tardy Furniture Store and then other employees
17 apparently come in during the course of the robbery, and I
18 think the jury could infer that. They startle the Defendant,
19 and he basically covered his tracks by committing the murder
20 of BoBo Stewart. And I think it's reasonable to conclude
21 from the evidence that has been presented before this jury
22 and that will be represented through a motion by the State
23 that that was the scenario that took place there. And 24 therefore, this particular circumstance would be a viable one
25 for the jury to consider.

26           BY MR. LUMUMBA: As the Supreme Court has 27 recently held, "The aggravating circumstance that the capital
28 offense was committed for the purpose of avoiding lawful
29 arrest should not be used unless clearly supported by the

1 evidence." Here again, another case where I'm pretty sure
2 that the person was supposed to know some of the people who
3 were involved in being robbed. Ladner v. State, and that at 4 the time was a slip opinion in Mississippi. I don't have the 5 cite, but I am sure we could get it. It's in Southern
6 Second, of course. And it occurred, that decision occurred
7 July 17, 1991. That is not a case where-- they should not be 8 able to use that.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, anything else on this
10 instruction?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have nothing else on the 12 instruction or on my Motion to Bar various aggravating
13 circumstances.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, is there anything else to 15 do before we finish these instructions? I'm going to go read
16 this case.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. I don't believe so.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay. Let me go back here. I
19 want to read Jackson, and I want to read Evans. I will be 20 right back.

21 (THE COURT WAS IN RECESS WHILE THE COURT LEFT
22 THE COURTROOM TO GO READ THE CASES PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED.
23 UPON HIS RETURN, WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT STILL 24 PRESENT BUT WITH THE JURY STILL OUT, THERE WAS THE
25 FOLLOWING:)

26 BY THE COURT: Let me rule on this. I want to 27 make my ruling on this so we can get on about typing it. The 28 Court finds one, that under Jackson v. State, they are 29 entitled to the aggravator of "The Defendant knowingly

1 created a great risk of death to many persons" because there
2 are multiple victims in this case. The Court finds though
3 that they are not entitled to the one where it is committed
4 for the purpose of avoiding or preventing a lawful arrest.
5 I'm not going to grant that in this case, and I note having 6 looked back, that is consistent with what my feelings were in 7 the first case, so I'm not going to allow it. I will allow
8 those two aggravators. If y'all will go ahead and get that 9 instruction typed, then we are going to start right at 9
10 o'clock. Okay?

11 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: Are y'all doing those other two
13 short ones for me, or do you want Linda to do them?

14 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

15 BY THE COURT: I will tell you what; I will
16 get Linda to do them for me.

17 (FOLLOWING A RECESS FOR THE PREPARATION OF
18 JURY INSTRUCTIONS, COURT RECONVENED IN OPEN COURT
19 WITH ALL COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT. PRIOR 20 TO THE JURY COMING IN, THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING
21 CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH:)

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is up with the rule?
23 Does the rule apply to this portion of the 24 proceeding?

25 BY MR. EVANS: I thought the rules always
26 applied to everything.

27 BY THE COURT: I have held both ways. Well, I
28 have not held both ways. I have held in the past
29 that it applies to this proceeding. What is your--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My point is, is that some of
2 my witnesses would like to be in here during the
3 whole proceeding, and whatever the other people--
4 there is nothing that my witnesses are going to
5 impeach, I don't think, that the other side says.
6 I don't see how they would be impeaching what the 7 other side says.

8 BY THE COURT: That is not the context that I
9 thought you were raising it in. The context I
10 thought you were raising it in is whether or not if 11 they were in here during the guilt phase--

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Oh.

13 BY THE COURT: --can they testify during the 14 sentencing phase. I hold as far as them being in 15 here during the sentencing phase, I'm going to 16 invoke the rule as to that. They can't all sit in 17 here and hear what the others say as to that.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well--

19 BY THE COURT: Do you have any witnesses that 20 were in here in the guilt phase that--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Yeah, his mother, his 22 father. His father actually wasn't in here during 23 any testimony because he was the last witness if 24 I'm not mistaken.

25 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum, he was.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: His mother and his aunt and 27 his girlfriend. I think she may have heard the 28 father testify or something like that. I'm not 29 even sure because she was going to be a witness.

1           She may not have been here.

2           BY MR. HORAN:    She was in the last part of 3           that, two--

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA:  --She was in the last part of 5           it, and then my person who is assisting me in this
6           case as an investigator, those people.

7           BY THE COURT:    To which I am sure you object?

8           BY MR. EVANS:    Yes, sir.   And Your Honor, for 9           the record, it has been my-- now this is counter, I
10          understand, but it has been my position in previous 11          cases that in this phase it did not matter if 12          witnesses sat in on the first phase.   The only
13          reason I object is that I have not been allowed
14          through this trial to let my family members, family
15          members of the victim sit in the courtroom because 16          the Court has ruled that they could not testify in 17          this phase if they did.   That is the only reason
18          that I object.

19          BY THE COURT:    Okay, let me, I have held in 20          the past that they must be excluded under the 21          rule.   I have thought about that.   I anticipated
22          this was going to come up, so I had thought about
23          that a good bit this week.   And I think I'm going--
24          well, not I think.   I'm going to change my position
25          on how I'm going to do it from both today and in 26          the future.   I'm going to rule that the rule does
27          not apply to, that they can stay in for the guilt
28          phase.   The only thing is the restriction is that 29          they cannot testify-- they can testify as to

1 mitigating factors and stuff like that. They can't
2 testify as to what stuff went on that they heard.
3 I mean we are not going to retry the case and do
4 that. Okay? Okay.

5 Let me say this too for the record. I think
6 that ruling is in line with what the Court has 7 said; excluding witnesses is the last option that
8 I'm supposed to consider. It does provide in this 9 case full board cross-examination, whatever that 10 means. But anyhow, y'all understand my ruling.

11 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay, we may have to go over
13 some of the instructions again just to clean them
14 up right at the end, but let's go ahead and get 15 started on the proof.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Give me one second.

17 BY THE COURT: Sure.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What now?

19 BY THE COURT: I said we will get started on 20 the evidence.

21 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

22 BY THE COURT: You may bring the jury in. No,
23 wait; first let me make sure about the witnesses.
24 Everybody got their witnesses situated?

25 BY MR. HORAN: We do, Your Honor.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Now did everybody
27 understand my rule, my ruling on this phase. The 28 witnesses that are going to testify are under the 29 rule for this hearing.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. You can bring the jury
3 in.

4 JURY ENTERS COURTROOM ON 3/31/99.

5 BY THE COURT: Good morning.

6 BY THE JURY: Good morning.

7 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, before I proceed, I
9 would move at this point for the reintroduction of 10 all testimony and exhibits that we introduced in 11 this trial in our case in chief and in rebuttal.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay, that motion is sustained.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have an objection to it.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, would you like to state
15 it? Other than just--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --For all the reasons
17 previously stated; in addition to the fact that I
18 don't believe it's appropriate. I think if he 19 wants it in, he should put it in.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. The motion is sustained.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor. My
22 first witness will be Kathy Perminter.

23 BY THE COURT: Kathy Perminter.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Don't we do any opening?

26 BY THE COURT: Well, you can, yeah. We will 27 do that. I will allow it. Tell her to wait just a
28 minute.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I want one.

1 BY MR. EVANS: You want an opening in this
2 phase?

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I want an opening.

4 BY THE COURT: I will allow y'all 15 minutes
5 apiece.

6 BY MR. EVANS: All right, sir.

7 OPENING STATEMENT ON SENTENCING BY MR. EVANS:

8 Ladies and gentlemen, y'all have heard the evidence
9 in this case. This part of the case is to determine one
10 factor, what penalty is appropriate in this particular case.
11 We anticipate showing you that in this particular case the 12 death penalty is going to be the appropriate sentence that 13 should be returned. Y'all will be able to look at a lot of 14 factors in this phase, and as you heard me just introduce to 15 the Judge, in this phase of the trial the State is allowed to 16 move to reintroduce all of the testimony and all of the 17 exhibits that you have seen and heard. That I just did, and 18 the Court sustained it. What that means is that you can 19 consider everything that you have seen and heard in the first
20 phase of the trial in making your decision on the penalty
21 phase without us having to sit here and go back over it and 22 over it and over it. So it would be at this phase the same
23 as if we were representing all that evidence to you. Every 24 bit of it can be considered.

25 We are going to show you in this case, in this 26 phase of the case that because of the type of crime that was 27 committed, what penalty is appropriate. We are going to show
28 you in this case as you have already heard, that this is a
29 case where the Defendant went to Tardy Furniture Store. The

1 Defendant went there with a gun. He went there with the sole
2 purpose of taking money that did not belong to him. He went
3 there with the gun for the sole purpose of killing anybody
4 that was in the store. We know that because that's what he
5 did. He know that not only did he kill to forcibly take the 6 money, but he killed to make sure that there weren't any 7 witnesses left in the store. We know that because all four 8 people in the store were left dead. All four people in the 9 store were shot in the head. All of the physical evidence
10 that y'all have seen has shown that. The photographs that 11 y'all have seen--

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Excuse me, Judge. I
13 believe that would be the aggravator that you
14 refused to allow them to present evidence on, isn't
15 it? You allowed two aggravators, and one of them,
16 I think, he is speaking to now. Can we approach?

17 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
18 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have the instruction
20 in front of me. That's the reason I don't know--

21 BY THE COURT: --I allowed two. One is the 22 armed robbery for pecuniary gain, and the other one
23 is greak risk to multiple people.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, what he is 25 arguing now is that he is avoiding--

26 BY THE COURT: --I'm not going to allow either
27 one of y'all to argue. Just tell them what you
28 expect to prove. And I'm going to let you argue it
29 later, but this ought to be real short because it's

1 not argument at all for either side. Okay?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 END BENCH CONFERENCE

4 CONTINUED OPENING STATEMENT BY MR. EVANS:

5 You have seen the evidence. You know what is 6 before the Court. In this phase we are going to put on very
7 few witnesses. We are going to put on the mother of BoBo
8 Stewart. She is going to tell you what kind of impact his 9 death has caused her. We are going to put on the father of 10 BoBo Stewart. He is going to tell you what impact his death
11 has caused him. And we have got a couple of other witnesses
12 we are going to put on to explain to you what type of person
13 he was. We are going to show you that he was a high school
14 student, a teenager, that he was working a summer job. This 15 was his second day on that job. He wasn't even a full time
16 employee. He was there trying to make some money during the 17 summer.

18 These things we are going to show you, and we are 19 going to show you in this case what your verdict should be 20 and why it should be that.

21 Thank you, Your Honor.

22 OPENING STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDANT, MR. CURTIS FLOWERS:

23 Good morning. I am Curtis Flowers. I am the man
24 that you just convicted. This is my sentencing hearing and 25 uh, for a crime that I did not commit. I ask that you spare
26 my life, and if you decide to execute me, then five, not four 27 but five people will be executed. Five innocent people will 28 be executed for a crime that happened at the Tardy incident.

29 My attorney, Mr. Lumumba, will tell you about the

1 evidence that will be presented in this case.

2 OPENING STATEMENT BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. I'm going to 4 briefly just tell you what we will expect to come out of this
5 hearing which we have been referring to from the last
6 hearing. First of all, all the evidence that we spoke to 7 before, certainly we will argue later on that that is 8 evidence that you should consider when you talk about any 9 kind of death penalty.

10 I want to emphasize a couple of things: A)
11 individual, individual responsibility. Individual
12 responsibility. Individual responsibility. You, there can 13 be no death penalty unless you give it, each and every 14 individual one of you. It can't be anybody do it, only you.
15 Anybody who says that they don't think the death penalty
16 should be imposed, then there can be no death penalty, any 17 one of the twelve jurors.

18 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, I'm going to let 19 you make that argument, but you have to make it at 20 the appropriate time.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And at the appropriate time--

22 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute. Opening
23 statement is only for the purpose of telling what 24 you expect to prove.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 And at the appropriate time you will hear that. I
27 will present that, and I am sure that you will bear that 28 out. No law and no rule requires you to put anybody to 29 death.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again this is not
2 proper for opening statement.

3 BY THE COURT: It's not. You are going to
4 have to stick to what you intend to prove. I'm
5 going to let you have plenty of time to argue
6 that.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 And let me say this too, is that we will show in
9 this stage and we will argue later on, that this is a case
10 where no one has ever seen this man commit any crime. No
11 print of any kind connected to him. Not one single--

12 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I hate to keep 13 objecting, but this is not closing argument.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm not doing closing
15 argument. I'm telling what we are going to prove.

16 BY MR. EVANS: This is improper for what proof
17 is in this phase of the trial.

18 BY THE COURT: Right. That element of the 19 proof is over. You have got to go with what you
20 are going to put on from the witness stand at this
21 time.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 We will, just as the State just got finished 24 arguing, we will present or represent and we have 25 reincorporated in our proofs the same proofs which we gave 26 before which show the things that I just said. In addition 27 to that, we are going to put on persons who will testify as 28 to character of Mr. Flowers. We will have people who will 29 testify to his involvement in a church singing group.

1           We will have persons who will testify to the facts
2       which I think is very important to this case, that this case
3       has not really been about evidence, that it has been about
4       something a little more sinister. We will be able to show
5       you that from the beginning, the prosecution in this case
6       excluded every single black from the jury that it could--

7           BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, this is not
8       proper--

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --and the only reason--

10          BY MR. EVANS: --and Opposing Counsel knows
11       it--

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --that it didn't exclude Mr.
13       Cole is because--

14          BY MR. EVANS: --and I object and ask that he
15       be sanctioned--

16          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --the Judge would not let--

17       (NOTE: Counsel were talking at the same time
18       throughout that sequence and several that are to 19       follow.)

20          BY THE COURT: --Mr. Lumumba. That objection
21       is sustained. You will refrain from that
22       argument.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: The only reason that is--

24          BY MR. EVANS: --That is ridiculous--

25          BY THE COURT: --Mr. Lumumba, you will refrain
26       from that argument.

27          BY MR. LUMUMBA: If we are allowed to show
28       what needs to be shown in this case--

29          BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, may we approach

1 the bench?

2 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

3 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
4 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

5 BY MR. EVANS: I ask that opposing counsel be 6 sanctioned.

7 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to allow you to
8 go into this. I'm not going to allow you to go
9 into it. You know it's improper, and I'm not going
10 to allow you to do it.

11 BY MR. EVANS: If he attempts again, I would
12 ask that he be sanctioned, Your Honor.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, the sanction is going to 14 be is we are through with opening statements, and 15 let's get on with the proof.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So you are saying I can't 18 talk any more?

19 BY THE COURT: Not in openings statements you
20 can't.

21 END BENCH CONFERENCE

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I ask you to--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --I call Kathy Perminter, Your
24 Honor--

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --use your--

26 BY THE COURT: --Have a seat, Mr. Lumumba--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --individual consideration. And if the 28 truth can't be told--

29 BY THE COURT: --Mr. Lumumba, have a seat.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --then I shouldn't be here.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I proceed?

3 BY THE BAILIFF: Kathy what, Your Honor?

4 BY THE COURT: Kathy Perminter.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now you notice nobody said--

6 BY THE COURT: --Mr. Lumumba, you must sit
7 down.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Am I going to be executed
9 too, Judge?

10 BY THE COURT: You must sit down, Mr.
11 Lumumba.

12 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

13 BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn, ma'am?

14 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

15 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach, please?

17 BY THE COURT: No, sir. We are going to 18 continue with the proof.

19 BY MR. EVANS: May--

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --May we approach on another
21 matter?--

22 BY MR. EVANS: --I proceed, Your Honor?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have another matter.

24 BY THE COURT: All right.

25 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
26 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do have some things to say
28 which have to do with what these witnesses are 29 going to say. I would ask for 5 minutes to say

1           those things.

2           BY THE COURT: No, sir. You have forfeited
3 that by interjecting, and then you would not follow
4 the orders of the Court.

5           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me; excuse me. I
6 haven't forfeited anything. I sat down like the 7 Court told me to.

8           BY THE COURT: No, sir. You did not. You
9 took three times for you to do that. And you will 10 not follow--

11          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I need to make a record
12 right now. I want to make a record, and I ask for 13 the jury to be excused for me to make a record of 14 what I would say in opening statement at this
15 point.

16          BY THE COURT: Okay.

17                       END BENCH CONFERENCE.

18          BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I need
19 for y'all to go out for just a moment.

20                       JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: First of all, let me indicate
22 to the Court that as far as the Court's ruling is 23 concerned, and then I'm going to tell you what my 24 final statements would be in opening statement.
25 The District Attorney got up and talked about the 26 case, started talking about argument, not just 27 about facts in the case that he intended to prove.
28 In fact, he talked about facts which were offered
29 in the former case, and the Court precluded me from

1           doing it.

2           Secondly, what my presentation would be at 3           this time is that the witnesses who are about to
4           testify are testifying to things which my client
5           had nothing to do with as we think the evidence
6           shows and will show. And so I feel that it's 7           important at this time to sensitize these jurors to 8           the fact that although we empathize with the 9           families of-- and the client empathizes with the 10          families, and there will be proof of that in my 11          case, that the client empathizes with the families
12          who have suffered these problems, that these 13          particular hardships which they must endure are not 14          ones which were caused by him, and so therefore 15          shouldn't be accredited to him.

16          Finally, I want to emphasize that this is a
17          new process, that whatever they have found that 18          there has to be refund here, and it has to be 19          refund in the context, in the context, in the 20          context of the sentencing hearing, not in the 21          context of something else. And that's what I
22          believe that I should do.

23          Furthermore, if I'm not going to be allowed to 24          do that, then for the record, I'm leaving because,
25          and my client is not going to be represented in 26          this hearing, and the Court can deal with that as 27          it may. I'm not going to stay here in something
28          which is a charade, a kangaroo masquerade and take 29          this kind of a situation and be party of it. I'm

1 not party of injustices. I am trying to do what is
2 right, and I think what is right is what I need to
3 be able to tell the jury. If I can't make that 4 five minute presentation, then I will come back at 5 a certain time when I think I can be useful.

6 BY THE COURT: Of course, if you leave, you
7 just take it upon yourself for the consequences of 8 whatever happens after that. Let me ask you this,
9 Mr. Lumumba. Let's say I give you that five
10 minutes to say that. What assurances will you give 11 the Court that you will not make improper
12 argument?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: As far as I am concerned, I
14 haven't made any improper argument, but if the 15 Court is asking me for assurances that I won't go
16 into the matter which the Court told me not to go
17 into it, then I won't do it.

18 BY THE COURT: All right. Well, of course,
19 you made argument and that is improper. And at
20 this--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --and he made argument too.

22 BY THE COURT: And I told him not to make any 23 more and he didn't. When I told you not to make
24 any more, you continued time and time and time
25 again. Now I will give you the opportunity to tell
26 this jury what you expect to prove. But I'm not
27 going to allow you to go into those things you did 28 before. And if you do it again, then I'm going to 29 disallow it, and if you decide to leave, you will

1 just have to leave.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I know you don't care
3 for me. I know that.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, I mean I have got no
5 position on it one way or another. You are the one
6 said you are going to leave.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is good. That is good.

8 BY THE COURT: All right, let's have the jury
9 back. Ma'am, Ms. Permitter, I'm going to ask you
10 to step down one more time. You have got five
11 minutes, Mr. Lumumba.

12 BY MR. EVANS: I would like for them to be 13 told to disregard the comments that Opposing 14 Counsel made.

15 JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

16 BY THE COURT: Let me go over one thing for 17 you that I think you already know. As I told you
18 at the first part of this trial, opening statements
19 are not evidence, and you can't consider them as 20 evidence. They are just what the lawyer says they 21 are going to prove. I have ruled, as y'all saw
22 while ago, that some of the things that Mr. Lumumba
23 told y'all were improper opening statements. And 24 I'm not going to allow him to go in that, but I am
25 going to allow him to tell you now what he expects 26 to prove at this stage of the proceeding.

27 FURTHER OPENING STATEMENT BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Good morning again, ladies and gentlemen. We 29 expect that during the course of the proof in this case at

1     this time, which is a very critical life and death situation
2     in itself, that what you will find is that Mr. Flowers is not 3     responsible for the very, very tragic consequences which the 4     family has indeed suffered. We do not believe that anything
5     will come up in this part of the case which will suggest that 6     what occurred to the family, which he empathizes with, which
7     we all do, is something which he has caused. And so as you
8     listen to those things, and we feel that they have every bit
9     of right to speak, we will be able to point out that nobody
10    in the family has any information to suggest personally of 11    their own knowledge that Mr. Flowers caused any of these 12    things to occur.

13             I would also point out that as you go through this 14    phase, you will be instructed at the end that this is a new 15    phase. This is a new phase where each individual must 16    evaluate whether there has been proof beyond a reasonable
17    doubt of several things. And one of the things that they 18    will have to evaluate is whether there has been proof of 19    reasonable doubt that he actually killed someone, attempted
20    to kill someone, intended to kill someone, or contemplated
21    that lethal force would be used.

22             Now the finding which has occurred to this point is 23    not one which is the finding that must occur in order for you
24    to make a decision in this case as far as sentencing is 25    concerned. It's a new finding. It's a new question of 26    reasonable doubt because reasonable doubt in your mind, each
27    one of you individually, must be resolved in the sentencing
28    phase as to whether you find beyond a reasonable doubt in the 29    sentencing phase that the evidence that has been presented to

1     you, that same evidence which had no proof of witnesses
2     seeing him do anything, that same evidence which we will once
3     again during this phase, we will show you this board, that 4     same evidence which has a different description in every 5     corner and in every place, that same evidence which has been
6     disputed by many different witnesses, and we reincorporate
7     our evidence from the other phase too. You will be asked to 8     determine in this phase whether you know beyond a reasonable
9     doubt that Patricia Hollman was telling you the truth and 10    that her brother is lying and that you believe that so
11    greatly that you would be willing to go for the death
12    sentence for this gentleman, Mr. Flowers. Are you so sure of 13    that? And that is something that will have to be considered
14    in this phase.

15           We will also, you will also be asked to consider in 16    this phase something which I want to bring to your attention
17    but what is not a major part of our presentation, but which 18    will come up. You will be asked to consider whether there is 19    any aggravating circumstance that has been proved to start
20    off with. And one of those aggravating circumstances they 21    are going to bring to your attention is supposed to be the 22    robbery itself even though our presentation has been and 23    consistently remains that Mr. Flowers was not at that store;
24    he didn't kill anybody, and there is no reasonable doubt 25    proof that he did. In this phase we are not going to talk
26    about the last phase unless it is something that has been
27    done.

28           But secondly, we would say that there is really no
29    proof beyond a reasonable doubt that anything was ever taken

1 from the store, we don't think, and we are just looking at 2 that because we weren't there and we don't know. But if you
3 look at the situation and it will come to your attention that
4 the pathologist, for instance, said the valuables were left
5 on the persons. It will also come to your attention that 6 nobody really knows exactly what was in the drawer, and when
7 Schoene came to the scene, she really doesn't know of her own
8 personal knowledge who had been in and out of the drawer
9 before she got there. That may be a big consideration for 10 you, and it may not. It doesn't really matter to us, but it
11 is something that we just point out to you for the record.

12 And I think the other thing is that the Court has 13 allowed the prosecution and will allow the prosecution to 14 raise as an aggravating circumstance for your consideration;
15 you have to find that these aggravating circumstances are 16 proved beyond a reasonable doubt. If any one of you finds
17 that it's not proven beyond a reasonable doubt, then you
18 can't go any further. You can't even consider it. And I
19 think that that thing is-- in just a minute I'm going to face
20 the Court and ask him for direction.

21 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
22 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That has to do with the 24 flight question. What is this? This second one
25 had to do with--

26 BY THE COURT: --great risk. I took out the 27 flight.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

29 END BENCH CONFERENCE

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 It has to do with great risk of death to many
3 persons, and of course, that is your consideration for how
4 you find that. You also will be asked whether the mitigating
5 factors outweigh the aggravating factors. If they do, if
6 they do, then of course, you have to vote, you can't even go
7 any further in considering the death penalty. Only if it
8 gets past those two hurdles, then at any point would you be 9 able to even consider the death penalty. And you will be
10 given an instruction at the end of the proceeding telling you
11 that it is an individual responsibility. You will also be 12 given an instruction in these proceedings telling you that
13 only if you decide personally that it's warranted should you
14 vote that way, and if you decide personally that it's 15 warranted, then if you decide personally that it's not 16 warranted, then there can be no death penalty. So that's why
17 each one of you have an individual responsibility.

18 And I anxiously await to talk to you at the end of 19 these proceedings, and I will certainly do so. And we once
20 again, as we enter into this, ask each individual who is here
21 to put aside any biases that they may have. We know that in 22 some cases individuals have told us that they have, who are 23 sitting on this panel have told us that they have problems
24 with interracial marriages and stuff like that. We ask them
25 to set that aside.

26 This is an incident which has affected a number of 27 people. Deaths have occurred as you will see in the evidence
28 of three white people and one black person. Of course, as we
29 look at the audience, we don't see Mr. Golden's family here.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is improper,
2 and Mr. Golden's family has been here, and that is
3 definitely improper for this comment.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, it is off in the argument
5 again, and that is not, this is not the time for
6 that.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

8 Well, the evidence will show, I think, that his
9 family was not here and I think--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I don't know how 11 many times I'm going to have to object. It is 12 improper, and it is also not true.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, it is true. Whether it
14 is proper--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --No, sir. It is not--

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I will follow, I will
17 follow the Court's instruction.

18 Thank you very much, and we will be proceeding in 19 this case on that basis that I suggested to address you
20 individually.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Perminter.

22 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

23 KATHY PERMINTER,
24 a white female called to testify by the State of Mississippi
25 on the Sentencing Phase, having first been duly sworn,
26 testified as follows, to-wit:

27 BY THE COURT: State your name for the
28 record.

29 BY THE WITNESS: Kathy Perminter.

1     DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

2           Q.    Ms. Perminter, where do you live?

3           A.    In Starkville.

4           Q.    Ms. Perminter, do you know why we are here?

5           A.    Yes, sir.

6           Q.    I want to just make this short and to the point.

7     What was your relationship with Derrick "BoBo" Stewart?

8           A.    I'm his mother.

9           Q.    Okay. And how old was Derrick at the time he was 10   killed?

11          A.    He was 16.

12          Q.    What was his position as far as in school at the 13   time he was killed?

14          A.    He was an outstanding athlete in school. He was 15   just, he was just an all-- he was wonderful. He was a
16   wonderful person. Everybody loved him in school.

17          Q.    And I believe he was in sports; is that right?

18          A.    Yes, sir.

19          Q.    What sports was he in?

20          A.    Baseball was his main.

21          Q.    Ms. Perminter, how has his death affected your
22   family?

23          A.    Well, it's like a nightmare. Everybody tells you
24   time will help. It does. But it never goes away. I get up
25   every day; it's like I'm in a dream world, you know, that 26   this has happened. We have Christmas. There is always that 27   one person missing, and birthdays, Easter, any occasions that 28   we have. It is hard on my whole family. It has been a very 29   bad tragic to me.

1 Q. Yes, ma'am.

2 A. I'm not, I lay down at night. I still have this
3 thing; what did my son go through? And it kills me. (NOTE:
4 Witness is crying.) I will never know. I know he never
5 harmed anyone. He didn't deserve it. He didn't deserve
6 anything he got.

7 Q. Is there anything else you would like to tell the 8 jury about how it has affected you?

9 A. Like I said, it has affected my life in the worst
10 way to ever think anything could happen to me like this. It
11 doesn't seem real at all, but I have to tell myself that it
12 is real. BoBo, as far as the type person he was, he was a
13 wonderful person. He loved his job. He had just started.
14 The last time I spoke with him, it was on a Sunday night.
15 They were going to play a baseball tournament starting that 16 Monday. He talked about his job. He said, "Mama," this was 17 the last words I heard he said. He said, "I got a good job
18 now." He said, "It is air conditioned. I have to sweep the 19 floor and dust," but he said, "I don't mind it." And he 20 just, you know, he loved his job that he had, that he had 21 just gotten.

22 When BoBo started kindergarten, he from day one, he
23 told me to go on. Of course, naturally as a mother, I
24 cried. He didn't cry. Then when he went to first grade, he 25 came home after being in the first grade two years, and he 26 said, he said, "Mama, if all we are going to do in school is 27 just do my ABC's and count to ten," he said, "I would just 28 rather go to work and make money because I can do that." But 29 I explained to him every day would be a different day.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, excuse me. May we
2 approach for a moment, please?

3 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
4 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object. This witness is
6 not talking about any impact on her. I mean, you
7 know, it has been ruled to be improper for somebody
8 to just get up in front of the jury crying and 9 reminisce over the death of their loved one, and 10 too you have an instruction which tells them don't 11 use sympathy, and this is all this is. I not only 12 object; I am asking for a mistrial, a mistrial of 13 the sentencing phase and ask, you know, that this
14 be stricken. I am asking for a mistrial.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, that motion is overruled, 16 but direct her testimony more back to where his 17 age.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is really nothing that 19 she said for the last several minutes which have 20 anything to do with him, nothing whatsoever.

21 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have no further
23 questions of this witness.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Lumumba.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no questions.

26 BY MR. EVANS: We would ask--

27 BY THE COURT: --Is she finally excused?

28 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. We would ask that
29 she be allowed to stay in the courtroom.

1                   BY THE COURT: All right. Ms. Perminter, you
2 may do so.

3 WITNESS EXCUSED.

4                   BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

5                   BY MR. HORAN: George Harris.

6                   (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
7 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would ask for a similar
9 instruction as to every witness including the ones
10 they are calling out. They are just calling people
11 up here to bawl and cry and prejudice this jury.
12 We could just throw the first part of the 13 instruction number one right out the window which 14 says no sympathy. I mean how-- so if they have 15 specific things to say about impact, how it has 16 affected their family, they don't have a job, or 17 they don't have his income, that kind of thing, but 18 this other stuff, Judge, is totally inappropriate.

19                   BY THE COURT: I don't know what Mr. Harris is 20 going to testify to.

21                   BY MR. HORAN: He is the baseball coach,
22 Judge.

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am just asking that he not
24 do what the last witness did. I think that is a
25 reasonable thing for me to request at this time.

26                   BY THE COURT: I'm going to confine to his age
27 area. In other words, I don't want to go back to 28 birth.

29                   BY MR. HORAN: I understand.

1                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE.

2                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Harris, have you been
3                   sworn?

4                   BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

5                   BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

6                   GEORGE HARRIS, JR.,

7                   a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of
8                   Mississippi in the Sentencing Phase, having first been duly
9                   sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

10                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there, please.

11                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

12                   Q. Please state your name, if you would again?

13                   A. George Harris, Jr.

14                   Q. Mr. Harris, where do you live?

15                   A. In Winona, Mississippi.

16                   Q. And what do you do in Winona?

17                   A. I'm an animal health technician with veterinary
18                   Services, and I also work in my wife's jewelry store.

19                   Q. Did you know a young man during his lifetime by the 20                   name of Derrick "BoBo" Stewart?

21                   A. Yes, sir. I did real well.

22                   Q. How did you come to know Mr. Stewart?

23                   A. (NOTE: Witness is crying.)

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I ask that Mr. Harris
25                   please--

26                   BY THE WITNESS:

27                   A. --He, he was about my son's age.

28                   BY THE COURT: Wait just a minute.

29                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I ask that the witness,

1           this witness and all witnesses be given water and
2           an opportunity to get their composure. I
3           understand how traumatic the experience is, and I
4           understand that. But I also understand that your 5           instruction says that no juror can take into
6           consideration sympathy, and I would like to please
7           try to factor that out.

8           BY THE COURT: Mr. Harris, do you need some
9           water?

10          BY THE WITNESS: I am fine.

11          BY MR. HORAN: I think he is making every 12          effort, Your Honor, to compose himself.

13          BY MR. HORAN:

14           Q.    You were fixing to explain how you came to know
15           BoBo.

16           A.    I coached BoBo about every other summer in the 17           summer baseball. My son was a year younger than BoBo, so I
18           coached him every other summer, mostly every other summer,
19           and he lived sort of around the corner from where I live
20           now.

21           Q.    Did you get to know BoBo as a result of the 22           coaching and the fact that he is a pretty close neighbor?

23           A.    I did. BoBo was a fine young man.

24           Q.    During the course of coaching him, did you coach
25           him even up close to the time of his death? Did you help
26           coach him?

27           A.    I did. The night before-- I think this is right.
28           We had a ball game on Monday night, and BoBo was killed the 29           next day on Tuesday. And that was the last game that BoBo

1 ever played in was that Monday night, and we were getting the
2 team ready to get ready for this state tournament. And BoBo
3 told the coaches, he says-- we were trying to, you know, get 4 them ready to play and fired up, and he said, "If y'all will 5 just get out of the way, I can do more with these boys than 6 y'all can." That is the kind of leader and young man that he
7 was.

8 BY MR. HORAN: That's all I have, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a couple of short
10 questions.

11 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12 Q. Good morning, Mr. Harris.

13 A. Good morning.

14 Q. Good morning. You were playing in the summer ball
15 with BoBo, in the summer ball?

16 A. That is the type of ball that I coached when I
17 coached BoBo.

18 Q. Okay, that is kind of like AAU? Is that the same
19 thing? Amateur Athletic Union or something similar to that?

20 A. Well, in Winona we play Dizzy Dean baseball. There
21 are several kinds you can play, but we chose to play Dizzy
22 Dean ball.

23 Q. Okay, and I know AAU is headquartered in Mettarie,
24 Louisiana. Where is Dizzy Dean headquartered at?

25 A. I think that Dizzy Dean headquarters is, I think
26 it's in Saint Louis.

27 Q. Okay, and you know, for instance, like and you do
28 get very close to your boys because I know I coach little 29 fellows in basketball. So you get very close to these boys;

1 is that correct?

2 A. Too close probably.

3 Q. You probably do. But now actually, and Mr. Harris,
4 and you are so close that it really hurts to lose one. Is
5 that correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Any kind of way, but certainly this way?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Now Mr. Harris, were you present at all at Tardy's
10 Furniture on the 16th day of July, 1996?

11 A. Was--

12 Q. Were you there when this incident occurred?

13 A. No, sir. I came by there later that day.

14 Q. Okay. So you wouldn't know of your own personal
15 knowledge from seeing anything, from seeing anything, you
16 wouldn't have any idea what happened or who did what. Is
17 that correct?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. Okay. Thank you.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

21 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He is.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: Mr. Harris, you can stay in the 25 courtroom or you are free to go.

26 WITNESS EXCUSED.

27 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

28 BY MR. EVANS: Randy Stewart.

29 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Stewart, you have been
2                   previously sworn, haven't you?

3                   BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

4                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there.

5                   RANDY STEWART,
6                   a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of 7                   Mississippi on the Sentencing Phase, having first been duly
8                   sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

9                   BY THE COURT: State your name for the
10                  record.

11                  BY THE WITNESS: Roy V. "Randy" Stewart.

12                  BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

13                  BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

14                  DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

15                  Q. Mr. Stewart, where do you live?

16                  A. Winona, Mississippi. 108 North Central.

17                  Q. Mr. Stewart, again to try to kind of cut short and 18                  to the point, what was your relationship with Derrick "BoBo"
19                  Stewart?

20                  A. He was my baby son.

21                  (NOTE: Witness is starting to cry.)

22                  Q. Okay, and how old was he at the time that he was 23                  killed?

24                  A. Had just turned 16.

25                  Q. Now I understand he had just started working at 26                  Tardy Furniture; is that correct?

27                  A. Yes, sir. He had worked part of a day Thursday and 28                  then Friday, and then he went that Tuesday.

29                  Q. Why had he started to work?

1           A.    He wanted extra money.  He was, needed a class
2   ring, his junior senior banquet, pictures.  He just wanted to
3   help me.

4 Q. He wanted to help you?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And I'm not trying to embarrass you, but what is 7 your family's position as far as money?

8 A. I would say in the lower middle class.

9 Q. Would it be a true statement that BoBo needed to 10 work to help the family?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. We have already gone through that he was in school
13 and in sports. I'm just going to simply ask you this. What 14 impact has his death had on your family?

15           A.    I don't know about Cindy and Tom, but I will never 16   be the same person.  He just, I don't know; he was just so
17   good of a kid.  He was no trouble.  All I ever fussed at him
18   about was grades in school, and I know he could have done
19   better.

20 Q. How does this affect you today?

21           A.    Oh, sleepless nights.  Misery.  Just, I can't put 22   it into words.  You just have to experience it.

23 Q. Is there anything else as far as how this has 24 affected you that you would like to tell the jury?

25 A. No, sir.

26 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness, Your
27 Honor.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just one brief question.

29 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1 Q. Good morning, Mr. Stewart.

2 A. Morning.

3 Q. Were you present when this tragedy occurred? Were
4 you actually at Tardy?

5 A. No, sir. I was at Superior Asphalt Plant at work.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

7 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

8 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, Your Honor. We would ask
9 that he be released and allowed to stay in the 10 courtroom.

11 WITNESS EXCUSED.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May we approach?

13 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
14 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, just for the record,
16 in case I haven't done it already; I think I have 17 done it, but in case I haven't done it, I'm 18 objecting to the victims' impact statements
19 period. Some case law certainly on the national 20 level has ruled that they are more prejudicial than 21 probative, and I think they are. So I'm asking,
22 I'm objecting to any kind of victim's impact
23 statement and ask that any that has been given be 24 stricken from the record. That's my objection.

25 BY THE COURT: Well, of course, our Supreme
26 Court allows it, so it's overruled.

27 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

28 BY MR. HORAN: The State calls Percy Legg.

29 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Have you been sworn, sir?

2                   BY THE WITNESS: No.

3                   BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
4                   hand.

5                               PERCY LEGG,

6                   a white male called to testify as a witness by the State of
7                   Mississippi in the Sentencing Phase, having first been duly
8                   sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

9                               BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here, please.
10                   State your name for the record.

11                              BY THE WITNESS: My name is Percy Legg.

12                              BY MR. HORAN: Excuse me, Your Honor. May I
13                   proceed?

14                              BY THE COURT: Uh-huh.

15                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

16                   Q. Mr. Legg, you live in Winona, I assume?

17                   A. Yes, I do.

18                   Q. And what do you do in Winona?

19                   A. I am a physical education teacher at the elementary
20                   school and also a coach.

21                   Q. At the Winona--

22                   A. Right. In Winona Public Schools.

23                   Q. Did you come to know a student by the name of 24                   Derrick "BoBo" Stewart there at the Winona Public Schools?

25                   A. Yes, I did.

26                   Q. How did you come to know BoBo?

27                   A. BoBo started playing summer league ball at the age
28                   of probably 6 to 7. That's when I first met him. Then every 29                   other year I would coach an all star team, and BoBo would be

1 on it. The age group that I had would catch up to him. And
2 the last night that I saw BoBo was of the summer all star
3 team. And I was the head coach, and I told BoBo-- he didn't
4 pitch that night, and I told BoBo that night, I said, "You
5 are going to pitch tomorrow." And he reached up and he
6 hugged me, and he thanked me. And that's the last time I saw
7 him.

8 Q. What effect, I mean what kind of ball player was 9 BoBo? Was he a good kid basically?

10 A. Very good. Very good.

11 Q. Did he, would you give the Court and the jury the 12 benefit of your knowledge of his character?

13 A. It was extremely, extremely good character.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Judge, I don't 15 think that that is appropriate. I'm going to 16 object to that. I don't think so.

17 BY THE COURT: Let me see y'all up here.

18 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
19 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

20 BY MR. HORAN: What is the basis of this
21 objection?

22 BY THE COURT: Well, what is the basis of this
23 testimony?

24 BY MR. HORAN: To show this victim's
25 character.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I don't think--

27 BY THE COURT: --But victim impact is 28 admissible. Why is this?

29 BY MR. HORAN: What type of person one is is

1           certainly admissible. That goes to what impact it
2           had on the community, the effect that he had on the
3           community from what kind of person he was. I'm 4           getting to what kind of effect did he have on the 5           other players on the team. All he is going to 6           testify to is he was basically a leader of the 7           team. That is it. I will lead him on that.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Wait. No, I'm just saying
9           that, you know, I don't think it makes a
10          difference. You know, a person dies; it doesn't 11          make any difference what kind of character he had.
12          You know, so I think it's essentially an irrelevant
13          inquiry.

14          BY MR. HORAN: I will withdraw. It's not that 15          big an issue, that particular question.

16          BY THE COURT: Okay.

17                        END BENCH CONFERENCE.

18          BY MR. HORAN: I will withdraw the question,
19          Your Honor.

20          BY MR. HORAN:

21           Q.    Was BoBo a leader on the baseball team?

22           A.    Yes, he was, very much so.

23           Q.    What impact-- and I assume he had a number of 24          friends on that team?

25           A.    Right.

26           Q.    And you talked with them on a regular basis?

27           A.    Right.

28           Q.    What impact on them has BoBo's death had?

29           A.    Well, the day, the day of the, that we found out,

1       there was 14 kids, and they were completely destroyed, plus
2       the three coaches because he was a friend, but he was also as
3       close as a brother to a lot of them.   And--

4               BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Just for the record, Judge,
5       and I don't want to interrupt, but I think that is
6       hearsay.   I mean I don't have any problem--

7               BY MR. HORAN:   That is his observations.

8               BY MR. LUMUMBA:   What my concern is I don't
9       have any problem testifying to the impact on Mr.
10      Legg, but I think it is objectionable.

11              BY THE COURT:   Well, it's in the nature of a 12      lay opinion which I think he is in a position to 13      give.

14              BY MR. HORAN:   Go ahead, Mr. Legg.

15      BY THE WITNESS:

16              A.   And that day that it happened it was 14-- the 17      coaches and myself had fourteen children we had to deal with 18      that was as-- didn't know how to explain to them because like 19      I say, they had seen him the night before and they didn't get
20      to see him again and didn't get to tell him, you know, goodbye
21      or anything like that.   But he was a leader as to the point
22      of, that he would take charge.   He would actually say, "I
23      will talk to the team."   "I will, you know, take care of 24      this" or "We will stay for batting practice."   And you know,
25      that is just something that it is hard to come by.   You know,
26      true, a true leader is something that is not very easily
27      taken hold of, and he was willing to relish that role as a
28      true leader.   And he was a true leader and a very, very fine
29      person on top of that, you know, very respectable.   He was

1 respectable to adults and to his other ball players, to his
2 peers. And it just, it was an impact on the whole team.

3 BY MR. HORAN: I have nothing further.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no questions of Mr.
5 Legg.

6 BY THE COURT: All right, sir. Is he finally
7 excused?

8 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

9 BY THE COURT: You may leave or you may stay.

10 WITNESS EXCUSED.

11 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

12 BY MR. EVANS: One second, Your Honor.

13 (State's Counsel confer briefly.)

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point the 15 State rests.

16 STATE RESTS ON SENTENCING PHASE.

17 BY THE COURT: Who will you have first?

18 BY MR. FREELON: Can we approach the bench
19 first, Your Honor?

20 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

21 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
22 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

23 BY MR. FREELON: I had raised before the trial
24 started an issue that, about Curtis and a gun. He 25 had allegedly shot someone once before and ask the 26 Court is that going to be proper on the guilt [sic]
27 phase?

28 BY MR. EVANS: I'm not going to bring that up
29 unless they open the door again. I do not

1 anticipate asking it.

2 BY THE COURT: But I don't-- define "opening
3 the door."

4 BY MR. FREELON: Yeah, that's--

5 BY MR. EVANS: --If they go into the type
6 questioning they did before that puts his character
7 in issue, and the witness has testified that he is 8 not violent, has never been violent, things of that
9 such, then they will open the door.

10 BY THE COURT: I think if you have witnesses
11 that say that he has no violent past, then I think,
12 I think you do open it up.

13 BY MR. EVANS: I do not anticipate going into 14 it unless they open it up.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What is it?

16 BY MR. HORAN: Talking about y'all's
17 previously filed motion in limine with reference to 18 his prior bad act.

19 BY MR. FREELON: Prior bad act--

20 BY MR. HORAN: --violent bad act.

21 BY THE COURT: They have not gone into it on 22 direct, so the only way they can get into it is if 23 y'all open the door.

24 BY MR. FREELON: So if we ask about his, what 25 type of person he is, and they say he is a good
26 person--

27 BY THE COURT: Well, if you put his character
28 at issue, and part of that is that he has not had 29 any violent acts in his past, sure, you would.

1 BY MR. FREELON: I have got to use the rest
2 room. Could we take at least five minutes?

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. I do too.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just one second. Mr. Bradley
5 is, and the purpose of his testimony would be to 6 demonstrate that we do feel that this case has been 7 racially manipulated, and his testimony would
8 relate to the facts that I was attempting to 9 proffer in the opening statement which were facts
10 we intend to put on the stand, which includes the 11 fact that all the black jurors were excluded by the 12 prosecutor, even this one who is on there before
13 the Court put him back on. And so that's what I
14 wanted to add, and that's my intentions, to put 15 that on.

16 BY THE COURT: I'm not going to let you put 17 that on as proof. That is a matter of fact as to 18 what happened at the jury selection process which 19 the jury has already seen. I'm not going to allow 20 testimony for his opinion as to what went on in 21 that. That is not relevant.

22 BY MR. EVANS: And we move in limine to 23 eliminate him as a witness because none of that is 24 relevant; none of it is proper. This jury is not 25 even supposed to know he has already been 26 convicted, and now Mr. Lumumba has already told
27 them about another jury. It is improper--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I told who about another
29 jury?

1           BY MR. EVANS: It is improper to go into with
2 this jury how this jury was picked.

3           BY THE COURT: It is totally improper.

4           BY MR. EVANS: And I object and ask that he
5 not be allowed to testify.

6           BY THE COURT: I'm not going to allow him to 7 testify to that.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Can I ask him at 9 what point--

10          BY THE COURT: --I will let you proffer that 11 testimony if you want to, but I'm not going to 12 allow him to testify before the jury.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that is fine, Judge.
14 But let me, and so there is no sense for him to 15 stay out then if he can't testify anyway. I'm just 16 making a record of that, but we would put him on.
17 But if you are not going to allow him to testify,
18 there is no sense for him to be out of the
19 courtroom.

20          BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know-- let me put
21 that in context. I don't know what he knows--

22          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --what he knows--

23          BY THE COURT: --personally as far as 24 mitigating factors and stuff like that go. But as 25 far as him testifying as to how this jury was 26 selected and his opinions about racial bias and 27 stuff like that, that is totally irrelevant. I'm 28 not going to allow him to testify to that, but if 29 you want to proffer that in the record, I will let

1           you do that at the appropriate time.

2           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. But the point that I'm
3           making is that he would not be testifying to his
4           opinions. He would just be testifying to facts. I
5           will argue the case when I argue, but the fact
6           would be that the District Attorney excluded all
7           the blacks from the venire, and when they excluded
8           all the blacks from the venire, then they excluded
9           Mr. Cole, who then was only put back on the jury
10          because the Court put him back on. That would be--

11          BY THE COURT: --Well, of course--

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --because he was prejudiced--

13          BY THE COURT: --unfortunately, that is not all
14          the facts. The facts are that y'all had twelve
15          strikes, and you used eight of them, and you could 16          have gotten to another black if you had used some 17          more so--

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: --No, that is not true. That 19          is not true.

20          BY THE COURT: You could have too. I have 21          already looked. That is why it's not going to be
22          before the jury because that is a question of law
23          for somebody else to decide.

24          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh-hum.

25          BY MR. HORAN: I think, first of all, his 26          question is if Mr. Bradley can stay in the 27          courtroom which is okay with us--

28          BY MR. EVANS: Which he can, yeah.

29          BY MR. HORAN: --if he doesn't put him on the

1 stand.

2 BY MR. EVANS: As long as he is not going to
3 testify.

4 BY THE COURT: Not if he comes in, he can't;
5 he can't testify at all.

6 BY MR. HORAN: To the proffer. We don't mind
7 him doing that on the proffer.

8 BY THE COURT: Huh?

9 BY MR. HORAN: The proffer; I think he wants
10 to make a proffer on that.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to let him do
12 that. Did you care about him being in court?

13 BY MR. HORAN: Huh? I got you now.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I didn't hear you.

15 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't see where it
16 makes any difference on the proffer whether he is 17 in here or not.

18 BY MR. HORAN: That's right.

19 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

20 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we are
21 going to take just a short break here.

22 (FOLLOWING A MORNING RECESS ON MARCH 31, 1999,
23 THE SENTENCING PHASE CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH
24 THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT
25 BUT WITH THE JURY OUT FOR THE FOLLOWING:)

26 BY THE COURT: All right, sir.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir. My motion in 28 limine is to exclude any reference to the 29 accidental shooting which occurred with

1 relationship to Curtis Flowers and a young man. I
2 think it was some years prior to turning Curtis'
3 adulthood if I remember correctly. I only raise
4 this and I notice that, I think the prosecution
5 raised it at the last hearing, at the last trial in 6 the sentencing phase.

7 Now I know there was a discussion on the bench
8 on it. I was not total party to the discussion,
9 but I wanted for the record for the Court's ruling
10 to be clear so we will know what guidelines we are 11 proceeding on, and we will be able to proceed
12 thusly.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. My ruling was one, they 14 have not, they have not introduced it in their case
15 in chief. The only way that they will be able to 16 get into it is if, in fact, the Defendant puts his
17 character in evidence to the effect that he has a
18 nonviolent background. If he puts that, if he puts 19 that in evidence, then they are entitled to respond
20 to that because I think, because you would open the 21 door on that if that happens to be the case.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The only character that the 23 Defendant will put into evidence is the character
24 for truth and veracity.

25 BY THE COURT: That then he would not be able 26 to go into it if that's it. Okay, are we ready to
27 proceed?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

29 BY MR. HORAN: Yes, sir.

1                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

2                   BY MR. FREELON: We call Lola Flowers.

3                   JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

4                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Flowers, you have been
5 sworn, have you not?

6                   BY THE WITNESS: No, sir.

7                   BY THE COURT: Okay, would you raise your
8 right hand.

9                               LOLA FLOWERS,

10 a black female called to testify as a witness by the
11 Defendant in the Sentencing Phase, having first been duly
12 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

13                   BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there, please.
14 And state your name for the record.

15                   BY THE WITNESS: Lola Flowers.

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FREELON:

17               Q. Ms. Flowers, how are you doing this morning?

18               A. I don't know.

19               Q. Okay. Let me ask you what relationship, first of 20 all, are you to Curtis Flowers?

21               A. His mother.

22               Q. Okay. And at the present time, Ms. Flowers, where 23 are you living?

24               A. At 715 Dennis Street, Winona, Mississippi.

25               Q. And how long have you lived in Winona, Mississippi?

26               A. All my life.

27               Q. Did Curtis as a child grow up with you?

28               A. Yes, he did.

29               Q. So you are responsible for basically raising

1 Curtis?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. As far as Curtis' reputation for telling the truth,
4 what type of person as far as his honesty is concerned would
5 you tell, would you think Curtis would be?

6 A. He is honest. I have always told them, don't make
7 no difference what they do, tell me the truth. I will whip
8 them for lying, but you know, if they told me the truth if
9 they did it, we talked about it, you know. He is basically a
10 truthful person.

11 Q. And as far as Curtis, has Curtis said anything to 12 you to make you disbelieve that he has been honest with you
13 up until today?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. Let me ask; has this had an impact upon you,
16 Curtis getting arrested? Has it had an impact upon you
17 personally?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. The 19 rules are specifically clear from Wilcher v. State
20 and many other cases that this is not proper.

21 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

22 BY MR. FREELON: Let's approach.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, let's approach so we
24 get an understanding with the Court.

25 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
26 THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: What we propose to do, let 28 me-- I asked to come up here. Our proposal is to 29 put on the evidence which would show what impact it

1           would be on them if the Defendant was executed. I
2           think that is totally proper.

3           BY THE COURT: No, the Supreme Court has 4           specifically disallowed that. It's not relevant is 5           what they held.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: So they can put on people to 7           talk about--

8           BY THE COURT: --Sure. It's what the law is.
9           I didn't write it, but that is what it is.

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't think that's 11          what it is, so I object. But secondly--

12          BY THE COURT: --Well, it is.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Secondly, secondly, the whole
14          question of the testimony with relationship to the 15          impact on-- excuse me, whether she thinks Curtis
16          would be a productive person if allowed to remain
17          in society or allowed to live without being 18          executed.

19          BY THE COURT: I think she can testify to
20          that.

21          BY MR. EVANS: My objection is simply as the 22          Court has said, the Defendant is not entitled to 23          call family members to testify as to the impact his 24          death would have on their lives.

25          BY THE COURT: Right, but as far as her
26          testifying that he can make a contribution to 27          society or something like that, I don't have any
28          problem.

29          BY MR. FREELON: Is the law the impact that it

1                   would have on her life or has had on her life or 2                   both?

3 BY THE COURT: Both. Well, no; I'm sorry.
4 It's not. You can say what it has had.

5 BY MR. FREELON: That's the question I asked,
6 Your Honor.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, that's not the way I
8 understood it, but you can ask that.

9 BY MR. FREELON: My question is personally,
10 what is the impact it has had on your life.

11 BY THE COURT: Yeah, but you asked, didn't you
12 ask in the context of him being arrested and all?

13 BY MR. EVANS: Yeah.

14 BY THE COURT: You can't ask it that way. You
15 can ask for his, the fact that he lived with her,
16 her son, what impact that has had on her and their 17 relationship, those kind of things. But you can't,
18 you can't ask what the impact of this incident or 19 what the consequences of this incident might be,
20 what impact that will have on them.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So he can ask what kind of 22 relationship she had with her son?

23 BY THE COURT: Sure.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, proceed from
25 that.

26 | END BENCH CONFERENCE

27 BY MR. FREELON:

28 Q. Ms. Flowers, let me ask you this. What kind of 29 relationship did you have with Curtis and did Curtis have

1 with -- tell me something about your family, first of all.
2 He has any sisters and brothers?

3 A. Yes. He has four sisters and one brother.

4 Q. Is it close knit type of family?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What about the father? Is the father living?

7 A. He is living.

8 Q. Okay, what type of relationship did he actually
9 have with you as well as the rest of the family?

10 A. A good relationship. You know it was like, we all
11 -- it wasn't like mother and children. It was just like
12 sisters and brothers. We all just had a good relationship,
13 you know. It was just good. Curtis was, he was the fun of 14 the family, always joking and telling jokes. It was just, it
15 was a wonderful family.

16 Q. Would Curtis actually be a productive member of 17 society to the people around him?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. If he is allowed to live?

20 A. Yes. I believe so. Because like Curtis always 21 help the elderly people, you know, carrying them grocery
22 shopping, mowing their yards, doing different things for 23 them. And we had another little man lived next door, old.
24 He would go and shave him, give his baths and stuff.

25 BY MR. FREELON: No further questions.

26 BY MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

27 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

28 BY MR. FREELON: Yes.

29 BY THE COURT: Ms. Flowers, you may stay in

1                   the courtroom if you would like.

2                                   WITNESS EXCUSED.

3                   BY THE COURT: Who would you have next?

4                   BY MR. FREELON: Archie Flowers, please.

5                                   ARCHIE LEE FLOWERS,

6                   a black male called to testify as a witness by the Defendant
7                   on the Sentencing Phase, having first been duly sworn,
8                   testified as follows, to-wit:

9                   BY THE COURT: State your name.

10                   BY THE WITNESS: Archie Lee Flowers.

11                   DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FREELON:

12                   Q. How are you doing this morning, Mr. Flowers?

13                   A. Pretty good.

14                   Q. Can you tell me what your relationship, if you
15                   will, Mr. Flowers, to Curtis Flowers?

16                   A. I'm his father.

17                   Q. And did you participate in raising Curtis as a
18                   child?

19                   A. Right.

20                   Q. What was, say during elementary, during high
21                   school, what was-- you say you participated. What were some 22                   of the things you would do to assist Curtis in raising Curtis
23                   as a child?

24                   A. I would try to help him in his class, you know.
25                   When he asks me a question, if I knew, I would tell him.

26                   Q. You say help him in his class, did he actually 27                   attend school or did he--

28                   A. Yeah, he went to school.

29                   Q. And he finished high school there in Winona?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. What was the name of the high school that he
3 attended?

4 A. Winona High. I guess you call it Winona High.

5 Q. After he completed high school, what did Curtis do
6 after that point in time?

7 A. He started work.

8 Q. And when you say start work, did he continue to 9 work? Did he continuously hold employment with-- as far as 10 his employment is concerned, what type of person would you
11 say he is when it come to working?

12 A. He was a good person.

13 Q. Was Curtis active within the community?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. In what ways was he active within the community?

16 A. Well, we sang in a gospel group, and he is always,
17 was trying to find new songs to sing, you know. And if he
18 thought that I was doing wrong in the group, he would tell 19 me, say, "Pop," say "This song is wrong. We need to try to 20 rearrange it to something else," you know.

21 Q. In the gospel group, how long was Curtis actually
22 singing in this gospel group?

23 A. It has been quite a while. He was in his teens
24 when he started.

25 Q. And when is the last time you have known-- when is 26 the last time you can remember that Curtis actually
27 participated in a singing engagement?

28 A. Oh, he came from Texas one weekend to sing.

29 Q. This was in--

1 A. --when he was living in Texas.

2 Q. This was in 1996 or 1997?

3 A. What year probably was-- before they, you know,
4 arrested him.

5 Q. Okay. So he sang--

6 A. --It was the same year.

7 Q. Sometime late 1996 or probably early 1997 is
8 correct?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. So at that point in time he was still 11 participating--

12 A. Right.

13 Q. --in you all's singing engagement. What do you all
14 do at these singing engagements?

15 A. Like we go and churches get us to do a program for 16 them. We go do the program, you know, in different
17 churches. Sometimes they have, you know, building fund and 18 stuff like that. We go and do them a free program and stuff
19 like that.

20 Q. Was Curtis actually getting paid to sing?

21 A. No. No, no. Nobody gets paid. None of us get
22 paid. We just use that money for transit, you know, for gas
23 fare to go different places.

24 Q. So he would actually go with you all to gospel
25 meet-- this was gospel singing? Am I correct?

26 A. Right, gospel.

27 Q. And you all, this is not something that is your job
28 and you will be getting paid for. This is something--

29 A. --No.

1 Q. This is something he volunteered doing?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. Okay. What type of relationship did you as a
4 father have with Curtis, do you have with Curtis, and do you
5 still have with Curtis, and have had with him from the past?

6 A. We always have had a good relationship.

7 Q. When you say good relationship, father-son
8 relationship?

9 A. That's right.

10 Q. What are some of the things that you and Curtis
11 would do together as father and son or brother and brother,
12 which one?

13 A. We used to go fishing together, stuff like that,
14 you know.

15 Q. And as far as Curtis with his-- did he have any 16 other brothers and sisters?

17 A. Yeah. He have four sisters.

18 Q. And what type of relationship did he have with 19 those brothers and sisters?

20 A. Real good. When he gets around there, you know, he 21 always, to me he tried to sing all the time, you know, every 22 -- he gets in his room, you know, he just sing, sing,
23 continue. He always try to teach the grand kids and stuff
24 like that.

25 Q. How is he with the children?

26 A. He is real good with the kids.

27 Q. In your opinion as far as reputation for telling
28 the truth, what is your opinion about Curtis growing up
29 throughout his life as far as his reputation for being a

1 truthful person?

2 A. He is truthful.

3 Q. And why would you say that? Why would you come to 4 that conclusion?

5 A. Because I just know him. He is just, he always--
6 he don't have, he didn't have no reason to tell us a lie no
7 way, you know. We always give him what he want, and he just,
8 he is just a good person.

9 Q. And do you still believe in Curtis here today?

10 A. I believe him.

11 Q. Would Curtis, do you think Curtis would be a 12 productive member to the people around him in society if he 13 was allowed to live?

14 A. I do.

15 BY MR. FREELON: No further questions.

16 BY MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

17 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Flowers, is he
18 finally excused?

19 BY MR. FREELON: Yes, he is.

20 BY THE COURT: You may stay in the courtroom.

21 WITNESS EXCUSED.

22 BY THE COURT: Who do you have next?

23 BY MR. FREELON: Jimmy Lewis Forrest.

24 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

25 BY THE COURT: Mr. Forrest, have you been
26 sworn?

27 BY THE WITNESS: No.

28 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right

7                   BY THE WITNESS: My name is Jimmy Lewis
8                   Forrest.

9     DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FREELON:

10           Q. Mr. Forrest, how are you doing this morning?

11           A. Fine. How you?

12           Q. Good. First of all, let me mention, Mr. Forrest,
13     are you from here?

14           A. No.

15           Q. Where are you from?

16           A. Winona, Mississippi.

17           Q. And is this your first day in Gulfport,
18     Mississippi?

19           A. Yes. Since the court, yeah.

20           Q. And you understand the reason you have been called 21     here to testify?

22           A. Yes.

23           Q. Okay, and you, did you actually, did you volunteer
24     to come down here to testify on behalf of Mr. Flowers?

25           A. I was called.

26           Q. Okay. And you are here as a friend of the family?

27           A. Yes, as a friend and also a relative.

28           Q. Okay. Good. And what relationship are you to
29     Curtis Flowers?

1           A.    Second cousin.

2           Q.    How long have you actually known Curtis?

3           A.    All of his life.

4           Q.    What is your, let me go back a little bit.  What is
5 your occupation?  What are you doing in Winona, Mississippi?

6           A.    I work for the Department of Transportation.

7           Q.    And is that your only source of employment, or do
8 you have any other occupation that you may do?

9           A.    Right.  I'm a minister, and then I sing with a 10 gospel group also.

11          Q.    What is the name of this gospel group that you sing 12 with?

13          A.    True Believers out of Jackson, Mississippi.

14          Q.    And in your time in singing with this gospel group,
15 have you ever had an occasion to see Curtis out while you
16 were out there singing?

17          A.    Yes.  Several times, several.

18          Q.    And what would he be doing when you see him?

19          A.    He was singing.

20          Q.    So and most of the time-- approximately how many 21 times do you think you have seen Curtis before just out
22 singing?

23          A.    Well, he started when he was young, real young, and 24 I met him off, on several occasions, different programs.

25          Q.    And as far as Curtis' reputation for being a
26 truthful person, what would you say as far as his reputation
27 for being a truthful person?

28          A.    I have found him to be truthful in anything that I
29 ever known him to, in all of his doings, in all of his

1 singing.

2 Q. What kind of relationship do you have with Curtis
3 as well as Curtis and his family?

4 A. Well, me and his father were raised up together.

5 Q. And you would see Curtis on a continuous or--

6 A. --on a continuous basis, right.

7 Q. Let me ask you this question. Would, do you think
8 Curtis could be a productive person in this society to the 9 people around him if he was allowed to live?

10 A. Yes, I would.

11 BY MR. FREELON: No further questions.

12 BY MR. EVANS: No questions.

13 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

14 BY MR. FREELON: Yes.

15 BY THE COURT: You are free to stay in the

1 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

2 BY THE COURT: Would you have a seat up here,
3 please, sir. Would you state your name for the
4 record.

5 BY THE WITNESS: Nelson Forrest.

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. FREELON:

7 Q. Mr. Forrest, can you-- first of all, where are you
8 living at at the present time?

9 A. Winona, Mississippi.

10 Q. Okay, do you actually know Curtis Flowers?

11 A. Yes, sir. I do.

12 Q. And how did you become, or how do you know Curtis
13 Flowers?

14 A. Through his family, friend of the family.

15 Q. Approximately how long-- you say through his family
16 and friends of the family. So do you have a relationship
17 with the family as well?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What kind of relationship do you have with the 20 family?

21 A. I am his father's second cousin.

22 Q. What kind of relationship as far as personal
23 relationship do you have with Curtis?

24 A. I would say big brother, little brother
25 relationship with Curtis.

26 Q. And over the years, have you come in contact with 27 Curtis on a regular basis?

28 A. Probably three times a week roughly.

29 Q. In those three times a week, and I assume that's

1 quite a bit of times, as far as Curtis' reputation for being
2 a truthful person, would you say he has a reputation for
3 being truthful?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Let me ask you to go back a little bit. What is
6 your employment, first of all? What type of employment do
7 you have?

8 A. I work for the Mississippi Military Department at 9 Camp McCain.

10 Q. Do you have any other employment?

11 A. I'm a pastor at United Methodist Church, and I am a
12 member of Mississippi National Guard.

13 Q. Now as this pastor of United Methodist Church, do
14 you on occasion have an opportunity to, have you seen Curtis
15 come to your church?

16 A. Well, I have been in church with him on singing
17 programs a lot.

18 Q. Now when you say on singing programs, what would 19 Curtis be doing when you would be there for those singing
20 programs?

21 A. Oh, he would sing in a gospel group, and I also 22 sing in a gospel group. He would be singing in the group
23 with his father.

24 Q. And was this on a regular basis as far as you could 25 tell?

26 A. Yes. Yes.

27 Q. Okay, I just have one other question for you. Do
28 you think that Curtis would be a productive member or a 29 productive person to others, people in society if he was

1 allowed to live?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 BY MR. FREELON: No further questions.

4 BY THE COURT: Any questions?

5 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: Is he finally excused?

7 BY MR. FREELON: Yes, he is.

8 BY THE COURT: You may stay in the courtroom.

9 WITNESS EXCUSED.

10 BY MR. FREELON: We have Connie Moore.

11 (Witness enters the courtroom.)

12 BY THE COURT: Ms. Moore, have you been sworn 13 in?

14 BY THE WITNESS: No.

15 BY THE COURT: Would you raise your right
16 hand?

17 CONNIE MOORE,

18 a black female called to testify as a witness by the
19 Defendant in the Sentencing Phase, having first been duly
20 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

21 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up here. State your 22 name for the record, please.

23 BY THE WITNESS: Connie Moore.

24 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. Good morning, Ms. Moore.

26 A. Good morning. Could you say for the ladies and 27 gentlemen of the jury, please, your name one more time,
28 please.

29 A. Connie Moore.

- 1 Q. Ms. Moore, where do you live? Where do you live
- 2 now?
- 3 A. 745 South Church Street.
- 4 Q. And what city is that in?
- 5 A. Winona.
- 6 Q. How long have you lived in Winona?
- 7 A. About 20 years.
- 8 Q. About 20 years?
- 9 A. Yes, sir.
- 10 Q. Okay, do you have family there?
- 11 A. Yes, sir.
- 12 Q. What does that consist of?
- 13 A. Sir?
- 14 Q. Who is in your family?
- 15 A. My kids, my parents.
- 16 Q. Okay, and how many children do you have?
- 17 A. Four.
- 18 Q. Tell us the names of your children?
- 19 A. Marcus, Lemarcus, Brittany, and Marissa.
- 20 Q. Connie, or Ms. Moore, could you tell me, please, if
- 21 you are employed at this time?
- 22 A. Yes, sir.
- 23 Q. What is it that you do?
- 24 A. Sand. I work at Krueger.
- 25 Q. Okay, what do you do? I'm sorry.
- 26 A. Sanding.
- 27 Q. Sanding?
- 28 A. Yes, sir.
- 29 Q. Okay. And how long have you been working there?

1 A. A year.

2 Q. Now Ms. Moore, by the way, do you know a person by
3 the name of Curtis Flowers?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And how do you know Curtis?

6 A. He's my boyfriend.

7 Q. Do you know what kind of-- did he work at all while
8 you were together?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And what is it that he did?

11 A. Well, he worked at Richardson Brothers. And he 12 worked at Morris Brothers. And let's me see what else.
13 Tardy Furniture. He worked at different places.

14 Q. Okay. Was he employed most of the time?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Now Ms. Moore, I would like to first of all ask a
17 few questions, and then I'm going to ask you some questions
18 about Curtis directly.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. Do you recall police officers coming to your house
21 and getting a shoe box from your house?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And who gave them the shoe box?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. Okay, I'm going to show you what is marked as an
26 exhibit for trial in this matter as number 61. And I don't 27 know if you can identify this one way or the other as the 28 exact shoe box, but I'm going to ask you whether it was a
29 shoe box similar to that?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. I'm sorry?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And can you tell the ladies and gentlemen of the 5 jury, could you look over there and tell them, please, how
6 did that shoe box-- first of all, how did they get it? Did
7 they come take it out of your house, or did you give it to 8 them or what?

9 A. I gave it to them.

10 Q. And could you tell them, please, who that shoe box,
11 how it got to be in your house?

12 A. Well, I bought it, my son some shoes. That's why
13 it was there.

14 Q. What was your son's name?

15 A. Marcus.

16 Q. Okay, when did you do this?

17 A. In November of '95.

18 Q. Now let me ask you this. Where were the shoes,
19 what were you using the box for at the time that they came in 20 and took it?

21 A. I had Christmas bows in it.

22 Q. What?

23 A. Christmas bows.

24 Q. Christmas bows?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 Q. Can you kind of keep your voice up a little bit.
27 Make sure they can hear you, okay. And so it was Christmas
28 bows in it the day that the officers came for it; is that
29 correct?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Where were the shoes that were in it, if you know?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. And where was the-- did Marcus wear the shoes?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Was he living with you at the time that they came
7 to get the box?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. So this would have been about what month that they
10 came to get the box?

11 A. I think it was August.

12 Q. About August?

13 A. If I'm not mistaken.

14 Q. Okay, that would have been August of '96; is that
15 correct?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, so did you-- now Marcus feet, how did, how 18 were they? I mean in terms, how old was he about that time?

19 A. 11 years old.

20 Q. How was his feet?

21 A. He wore a 10 1/2.

22 Q. Did they grow slowly?

23 A. Well, he, now he is wearing a 12 1/2.

24 Q. And actually, now he wears about a 13, doesn't he?

25 A. A 12 1/2.

26 Q. 12 1/2, okay. Is he kind of a-- is he kind of a
27 big fellow for his age?

28 A. Yes, sir.

29 Q. Okay, kind of tall?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay, what do they call him? What is his nickname?

3 A. Big Red.

4 Q. Okay. To your knowledge did Curtis ever wear those
5 shoes?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Now were those shoes in your residence as of August
8 of 1996?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. The other thing I would like to ask you, please,
11 Ms. Moore, is this. In terms of living with Curtis, what 12 kind of relationship did you guys have?

13 A. We had a great relationship.

14 Q. Why do you say that?

15 A. Well, we always did things together, great
16 understanding with each other and everything.

17 Q. And how many, how long were you actually, how long
18 have you actually been together with Curtis?

19 A. Six years.

20 Q. And in that six years do you have an opinion as to 21 what Curtis' reputation is for being honest and truthful?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And what kind of reputation is that?

24 A. He is an honest man.

25 Q. And could you keep your voice up a little bit if 26 you can, please?

27 A. Okay.

28 Q. And the final question I would have for you, Ms.
29 Moore; if Curtis, if you think that Curtis would be a

1 productive member of whatever society he is in or the people
2 around him wherever he is if he continues to live?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And why do you say that?

5 A. Because he enjoy kids and they would enjoy being
6 around him, and he enjoy singing and writing.

7 Q. Does he make people feel good who are around him?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Does he help people who are around him?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And has that always been him as long as you have 12 known him?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me for a second,
15 Judge, please.

16 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with his 17 client and with Mr. Freelon.)

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor.

20 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q. Ms. Moore.

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. You wouldn't come in here and lie for Curtis, would
24 you?

25 A. No, sir.

26 Q. Are you familiar with the fact that both Patricia
27 Hollman and Mary Sue Moore have testified they had seen--

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection--

29 BY MR. EVANS:

1 Q. --Curtis wearing Fila tennis shoes--

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection. Can he, does he
3 keep talking? I have been told not to do that.
4 Objection.

5 BY THE COURT: Well, no. Okay, what is your
6 objection?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: My objection is that her
8 familiarity with another witness' testimony, as I
9 was previously told, is irrelevant to this
10 proceeding. Can we approach?

11 BY THE COURT: It is pitting one against the 12 other. Sustained.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And secondly, I would like to 14 object and ask that it be stricken what he asked
15 and particularly the misstatement that Mary Sue
16 Moore said that Curtis was wearing any kind of 17 shoes like that. She specifically denied that.

18 BY THE COURT: Well, I didn't hear him ever
19 say that because you objected in the middle of his 20 question. I don't think he got that out, so the 21 objection is sustained. Move ahead, Mr. Evans.

22 BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any questions of 23 this witness, Your Honor.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, is she finally excused?

25 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: I'm sorry. Have you got any 27 other questions?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Uh--

29 BY MR. EVANS: Since I didn't ask any, I

1               wouldn't--

2               BY THE COURT: --Well, that's right. You
3               didn't, did you? You didn't get one out. Okay,
4               is she finally excused?

5               BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

6               BY THE COURT: All right. You are free to
7               stay in the courtroom or leave, Ms. Moore.

8               WITNESS EXCUSED.

9               BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

10              BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, we don't have any 11              further witnesses at this time.

12              DEFENDANT RESTS ON SENTENCING PHASE.

13              BY THE COURT: Okay. The State, I assume the 14              State has got no other witnesses?

15              BY MR. EVANS: The State wishes to put no one
16              else on.

17              BOTH SIDES FINALLY REST.

18              BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I have
19              got to finish up the instructions to give you, so
20              I'm going to give you a break at this time. I have 21              about got that done, so we will be back shortly,
22              and then we will allow the argument to proceed.
23              And then as yesterday, we will turn it over to you
24              to decide.

25              JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

26              BY THE COURT: After we discussed the 27              instructions earlier, there are two or three more
28              that I have added. They are the ones that you
29              generally give like doing the foreman and stuff

1           like that, the administrative instructions that I
2           think need to be in there.

3           BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4           BY THE COURT: If y'all will get all those
5           instructions together, I will be back in a minute,
6           we will make sure we have got them.

7           (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, COURT RECONVENED
8           OUT OF THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY BUT WITH ALL
9           COUNSEL AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT FOR THE FURTHER
10          CONSIDERATION OF INSTRUCTIONS AS FOLLOWS:)

11          BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, I have got a
12          couple more you haven't seen here.

13          (Instructions C-2 and C-3 were handed to 14          Defense Counsel.)

15          FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF INSTRUCTION SS-1: BY MR.
16          HORAN: You want "the Defendant" changed in every
17          instruction?

18          BY THE COURT: You don't have to do it. If 19          you want me to, I will.

20          BY MR. HORAN: No, I will do it. I just want
21          to make sure even in the mitigating thing and the counting
22          process and all those instructions?

23          BY THE COURT: You don't have to put his whole
24          name, but I think after the first-- you can put his whole
25          name at the first and after that, it can be "Mr. Flowers" if 26          you want to.

27          BY MR. HORAN: Can I put down "The Defendant,
28          Mr. Curtis Flowers" first, and after that make no reference
29          to the Defendant at all and put and go to Flowers?

1                   BY THE COURT: And do what?

2                   BY MR. HORAN: After the first one, "You have 3 found the Defendant, Curtis Giovanni Flowers, guilty of the 4 crime"--

5                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

6                   BY MR. HORAN: Then after that, we won't make
7 any more reference to the Defendant.

8                   BY THE COURT: Right.

9                   BY MR. HORAN: Got it.

10                  BY THE COURT: Mr. Horan, these are the 11 additional ones I had. All I'm waiting on is that one.

12                  Motion of Defendant concerning prior instructions: BY 13 MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, Judge. We would want to request that the 14 identification and the circumstantial evidence instruction be 15 reread for the jury in this phase too, the same one that you
16 read from the trial phase.

17                  BY THE COURT: On what basis?

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: On the basis they have got to 19 make the same kind of determination. They have got to go
20 back and they have to make a determination on whether he did
21 kill, intended to kill, attempted to kill or contemplated
22 that lethal force would be used. They have got to make a
23 determination on whether, not only whether there was a
24 robbery occurred but whether he was involved with the 25 robbery. All of those kinds, that's, those things have to be 26 made in this phase, and so they have got to be guided by the 27 same principle. So I would ask that all of those 28 instructions be read. In fact, I guess I am really going to 29 ask that all the instructions be reread. But I am

1 particularly focused on those.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response to
3 start with, we are through with that phase. The jury has 4 already found him guilty. None of that is relevant. On this
5 phase the burden of proof is different. In this phase the 6 burden of proof is beyond a reasonable doubt. There is no
7 circumstantial question in the phase, and these are the only
8 instructions that are proper in this phase.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think beyond a reasonable
10 doubt in any place where you are dealing with, when you are 11 dealing with circumstantial evidence only, the burden of 12 proof is the same. I don't know the case he is talking about 13 that says that it is different.

14 BY MR. EVANS: There has never been a case
15 that said it is any different than beyond a reasonable doubt
16 in this phase.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. I hold that the 18 circumstantial is not part of the burden of proof in this
19 case. The circumstantial burden is not.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: How about the rest of the 21 instructions I am requesting, like identification and the 22 rest of the instructions? If you don't want to read--

23 BY THE COURT: --No, sir. The jury has 24 already made those decisions, decided those facts. This is 25 only the question of what sentence to impose.

26 INSTRUCTION NO. C-2: BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think the Court
27 had asked if we could approve another instruction the Court
28 came up with. That instruction was instructing them to 29 include all the proofs from the former trial in this

1 hearing. I think that I would object to that for the same
2 reason I objected to the prosecution being able to bring in
3 the proofs to start off with, and an additional reason I
4 would object, the Court has allowed the proofs to come in and
5 just denied me the instructions that go with the proof. So
6 for that reason, those are my two reasons I object.

7 BY THE COURT: That objection is overruled.

8 (Instruction No. C-2 was given as Sentencing
9 Instruction No. 2, and Instruction No. C-3 was given as 10 Sentencing Instruction No. 3.)

11 (Pause until revised instruction SS-1 is retyped.)

12 INSTRUCTION NO. SS-1: BY THE COURT: Okay. Let me see 13 if this number 2 under mitigating factors is the way you told
14 it to me. "Any other matter, any other aspect of Mr.
15 Flowers' character or record brought to you during the trial
16 of this cause which you, the jury, deemed to be mitigating on 17 behalf of Mr. Flowers."

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: (Mr. Lumumba nods his head.)

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. (Pause while Court reads
20 further.) I don't think this is correct.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Which one?

22 BY THE COURT: The first one. Let me read it
23 again. (Pause) Yeah, I think it does. I read it wrong.
24 Have you looked at this since they have put Mr. Flowers' name
25 in there?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

27 BY THE COURT: All right. As far as I know,
28 that's the only change, and I think it's in there every place
29 there was "the Defendant."

1 (Instruction No. SS-1 handed to Mr. Lumumba.)

2 BY THE COURT: Let me ask you this while you
3 are doing that and while I'm getting these things filed and
4 all like that; how much time do y'all want to argue?

5 BY MR. EVANS: I would think maybe 45 minutes.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I need about an hour.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay. We will do an hour. So
8 that will put us about where we were talking about. You want
9 to go ahead and let them order?

10 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba reads the instruction
11 and then hands it to the Court.)

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me, Judge. Can I see 13 it one more time?

14 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

15 (Pause.)

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do have an objection to 17 this instruction. I'm sorry; I missed it before. On the 18 last page of that instruction right above where it has the 19 line that the foreperson signs or could sign for the first 20 time there, it says that, "We, the jury, find" essentially
21 that the aggravating circumstances are not, you know, do
22 exist and that they are not outweighed by the mitigating
23 circumstances. And further it says without really any other
24 kind of sentence or anything, it goes on to say, and we feel
25 that the death penalty should be imposed. The impression
26 left by the way that that is put together, the way that the 27 form reads is that if they find that the aggravating
28 circumstances are not outweighed by the mitigating
29 circumstances, then they should impose the death penalty.

1 That is not the law. The law is that even if they make that
2 determination, that they are not outweighed by the mitigating
3 circumstances. They can still go to either one of the 4 following two verdicts which is life or life without parole.
5 So I don't want in any way the jury believing that reaching a
6 finding that they can impose the death penalty is the same as 7 reaching a finding that they must impose the death penalty.

8 So what I would suggest is that what we do is break
9 that paragraph up. Allow it to rest-- in that paragraph 10 where it says, we find that the mitigating outweigh the 11 aggravating, and then allow the foreperson to sign it, and 12 then go down below that and say, We further find that we
13 impose the death penalty or We further find that we impose
14 life or We further find that we will impose life without
15 parole. I think that that is important because the way it
16 reads right now it appears that merely by finding that the 17 aggravating are not outweighed by the mitigating, they 18 should, in fact, impose the death penalty. I think that is 19 an inappropriate way the form is put together; not 20 necessarily specifically what it says, but the way the form
21 has been put together.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this instruction
23 has been approved in many capital cases, and the Courts have 24 basically suggested that this form be used. That's why we 25 try to use this exact form in every case.

26 BY THE COURT: This is the one that the 27 Supreme Court tells me to use. So therefore I'm going to 28 give it, and it's in that form.

29 Instruction SS-1 is given as Instruction Number

1 1. Sentence Instruction Number 2 is given. Sentence
2 Instruction-- and I will give it as C-2. Sentence
3 Instruction Number 3, which is C-3, is given. Sentence
4 Instruction Number 4, which is C-4, is given. Sentence
5 Instruction Number 5, which is C-5, is given. Sentencing
6 Instruction Number 6, which is DS-1, is given. And the final
7 thing is a form for them to enter their verdict on. If you
8 will get those filed for me.

9 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS TO GET THE
10 INSTRUCTIONS FILED, PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN
11 COURT WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE 12 DEFENDANT PRESENT:)

13 BY THE COURT: I am about to bring the jury
14 in. The jury has requested that the lawyers
15 address them from the podium, so I'm going to 16 expect y'all to address them from the podium.
17 Also, I will not allow either side to address
18 individual jurors at all. You can address the 19 panel as a whole and make your argument, but there 20 will be no singling out any juror in your
21 argument.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Just a minute, Judge. I have 23 an objection for that, and I want to know the 24 reason for that.

25 BY THE COURT: Well, because you singled out
26 one when you tried to do your opening statement,
27 and that is impermissible, and I'm not going to 28 allow you to do that. The law is clear; there are 29 numerous cases about you are not allowed to single

1 out jurors and to intimidate them in any way.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, did I intimidate them?

3 BY THE COURT: I don't know whether you did.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is that a request from the
5 jury?

6 BY THE COURT: No, it's not.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, then secondly,
8 where does the request come from that we do not 9 approach the podium? That is something that was 10 brought--

11 BY THE COURT: --They sent me a message
12 through the bailiffs.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, who sent you a
14 message?

15 BY THE COURT: The jury.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which one?

17 BY THE COURT: I don't know.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think we should poll
19 and see, you know, if that is a message that is 20 coming from the jury as a whole or whether that is 21 coming from a particular juror.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, I'm not going to poll
23 them. I am just telling you that is what the 24 instructions of the Court are. You must address
25 them from the podium.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Why?

27 BY THE COURT: Because that is the ruling of
28 the Court.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, why is that the ruling

1 of the Court? Because it is coming from the jury?
2 I am just trying to be clear.

3 BY THE COURT: That's the way I want it done,
4 Mr. Lumumba.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I think it's because
6 this request has been made-- the Court previously
7 requested, indicated there was a request being made
8 from the jury. If that is the case, then I would 9 also, I would ask that the jurors be voir dired at 10 this point in time. It appears that something is 11 bothering the jurors, and if they have already
12 reached a conclusion as to how they should sentence
13 or they have reached some kind of, they have some 14 kind of problems with some of the personnel who are 15 in the case, myself included or anybody else, then 16 that needs to be brought out right now because if 17 they have developed some kind of biases or 18 prejudices for whatever reason, then I don't think 19 that they would be qualified to continue with the 20 deliberation of this case.

21 So and secondly, I will bring into the record
22 now that at some point before the first trial was 23 over, before the actual trial was over, the trial
24 in this matter right here that has been occurring
25 in the last week or so, the Court sent a message to 26 me that some juror was saying we were sending a
27 signal to the jury or to the witness; I can't 28 remember who it was, because I made this 29 expression, (NOTE: Mr. Lumumba does a hand

1 gesture.) which is an expression I do all the
2 time. And then at some other point they were
3 saying that Mr., my investigator, Mr. Irvin
4 Bradley, was making some kind of signal by doing
5 this. To me, these are exaggerated kinds of 6 impressions which maybe some jurors have which is 7 also indicative that they shouldn't have been 8 sitting on the first case, and they shouldn't be 9 sitting in this case. I think that-- at this 10 sentencing hearing. As far as Mr. Bradley is 11 concerned, it never occurred. As far as I am
12 concerned, I do this all the time. (NOTE: Makes 13 hand gesture.) I don't know if I did it in front of 14 the jury or not, but I do this all the time on a
15 continuous basis.

16 So I think that we need to screen the jury and 17 to see if these biases, you know, exist. Once
18 again, I point out that the very juror who said
19 that she had problems with mixed marriages and she 20 expressed some other kind of problem under the 21 question which says, Do you have any prejudices?
22 We requested an individual voir dire on that juror,
23 and the Court denied that request. And it now
24 turns out that that juror winds up being the fore-
25 person.

26 And to make the record clear in case we didn't
27 make it clear at the bench, and I did make it clear
28 actually when we were passing that juror, that I
29 would have excluded that juror. I would have

1 excluded many of the other jurors except for the 2 fact that in doing so, we would have run out of
3 challenges long-- and the Court is absolutely
4 incorrect. We never would have had enough
5 challenges to make it to the black jurors that
6 still remained if the prosecution hadn't stricken
7 completely. But we would have created-- and in 8 addition to that, we would have wound up picking up
9 the juror who we complained about. We would have 10 run out of challenges before we could have gotten 11 rid of the juror that we complained about who had 12 went outside of this courtroom, talked in the hall,
13 who said that he would give the death penalty, had 14 kind of an eye for an eye, tooth for tooth view on 15 the death penalty, and several other jurors who had 16 that same kind of view.

17 And given any other necessity of clarifying
18 the record on that issue, we will do so. So our 19 stopping had only to do with the fact that we 20 didn't want to wind up with jurors who had 21 professly said things which were adverse to the 22 case and then being trapped into getting them where 23 we had run out of challenges. We counted our 24 challenges very carefully, and that was absolutely,
25 absolutely the case. So that, and then everybody
26 else we excluded, we excluded people that had 27 convicted people two or three times and things of 28 that nature. And just to also show that our 29 exclusions weren't just based upon race, we asked

1                   that a woman be challenged for cause--

2                   BY THE COURT: --I understand all that, and
3                   you can make that argument on Motion for New
4                   Trial. All I'm telling you is you cannot
5                   individually address jurors. You must address the 6                   panel. That is clear law. I mean that has been
7                   the law so long--

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, no, but I have raised
9                   this question now, and I think that we need to voir
10                  dire the jurors to see if they have problems with 11                  the people in the case. So if they have already 12                  made up their minds, if they have got a problem
13                  which makes them unable to be fair, we need to find 14                  out. And it appears that they do because of the 15                  instances that the Court has reported to me that 16                  they complained, and I would like to know for the 17                  record who was that that complained about the,
18                  basically the motions or whatever you call it, the 19                  gestures, and who is that who complained about Mr.
20                  Bradley, who has said nothing to them, just been 21                  sitting in back of me. And I would like to know
22                  who those jurors are, so we would like to voir dire
23                  them.

24                  BY THE COURT: We are not going to do that.
25                  We are going to proceed with the argument. You can 26                  bring the jury in.

27                  JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM.

28                  BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I am
29                  about to give you the instructions for this phase

1 of the trial. As in the first phase, you will be
2 entitled to take these instructions back to the 3 jury room with you in considering your verdict.
4 The first instruction that I'm going to read to you
5 is a long instruction. It will tell you how,
6 whatever verdict that you come up with, it will
7 tell you how to fill out the form that reflects
8 that verdict. You are going to need to read it
9 carefully because it must be followed as it is 10 stated out. It is important that you do what this 11 instruction says whatever you do in this case.

12 "You have found Curtis Giovanni Flowers
13 guilty of the crime of capital murder. You must 14 now decide whether Curtis Giovanni Flowers will be 15 sentenced to death or life imprisonment without 16 parole. In reaching your decision, you may 17 objectively consider the detailed circumstances of 18 the offense for which Curtis Giovanni Flowers was 19 convicted, and the character and record of Curtis
20 Giovanni Flowers himself. You should consider and 21 weigh any aggravating and mitigating circumstances,
22 as set forth in this instruction, but you are
23 cautioned not to be swayed by mere sentiment,
24 conjecture, sympathy, passion, prejudice, public
25 opinion, or public feeling.

26 To return the death penalty in this case, you
27 must first unanimously find from the evidence
28 beyond a reasonable doubt that one or more of the 29 following facts existed: That Curtis Giovanni

1           Flowers actually killed Derrick Stewart; That
2           Curtis Giovanni Flowers attempted to kill Derrick
3           Stewart; That Curtis Giovanni Flowers intended the
4           killing of Derrick Stewart take place or; That
5           Curtis Giovanni Flowers contemplated that lethal
6           force" should be employed-- "would be employed.

7           Next to return the death penalty, you must 8           find the mitigating circumstances which tend to 9           warrant the less severe penalty of life
10          imprisonment without parole do not outweigh the 11          aggravating circumstances which tend to warrant the 12          death penalty.

13          Consider only the following elements of 14          aggravation in determining whether the death
15          penalty should be imposed: The capital offense was 16          committed for pecuniary gain during the course of 17          an armed robbery; Curtis Giovanni Flowers knowingly
18          created a great risk of death to many persons.

19          You must unanimously find, beyond a reasonable
20          doubt, that one or more of the preceding 21          aggravating circumstances exist in this case to 22          return the death penalty. If none of these 23          aggravating circumstances are found to exist, the 24          death penalty may not be imposed, and you shall 25          mark the following verdict on the attached form.

26          'We, the jury, find that Curtis Giovanni
27          Flowers should be sentenced to life imprisonment
28          without parole.'

29          If one or more of the above aggravating

1           circumstances is found to exist beyond a reasonable
2           doubt, then each of you must consider whether there
3           are mitigating circumstances which outweigh the
4           aggravating circumstances. Consider the following
5           elements of mitigation in determining whether the 6           death penalty should not be imposed:

7           Whether Mr. Flowers has no significant history
8           of prior criminal activity; any other matter, any 9           other aspect of Mr. Flowers' character or record
10          brought to you during the trial of this cause which 11          you, the jury, deemed to be mitigating on behalf of 12          Mr. Flowers; Mr. Flowers' involvement in religion
13          and spirituality to the benefit of himself and 14          others.

15          If you individually find from the evidence
16          that one or more of the preceding elements of 17          mitigation exist, then you must consider whether it
18          outweighs or overcomes aggravating circumstances
19          you previously found. In the event that you find
20          that the mitigating circumstance, circumstances do
21          not outweigh or overcome the aggravating
22          circumstances, you may impose the death sentence.
23          Should you find the mitigating circumstances
24          outweigh or overcome the aggravating circumstances,
25          you shall not impose the death sentence.

26          The verdict you return must be written on the 27          attached form and signed by the foreman. Your 28          verdict should be written in one of the following
29          forms: 'We, the jury, unanimously find from the

1 evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the
2 following facts existed at the time of the 3 commission of the capital murder charged.'" And 4 there are blanks provided. You are to "list or
5 itemize all facts found, if any, from the list
6 under Section A of this instruction which you
7 unanimously agree exist in this case beyond a
8 reasonable doubt.

9 Next we, the jury, unanimously find that the
10 aggravating circumstances of:" - and you are here
11 to "list or itemize all of the aggravating
12 circumstances presented in Section B of this 13 instruction which you unanimously agree exist in 14 this case beyond a reasonable doubt."

15 After you have listed those, it is to "exist
16 beyond a reasonable doubt and is sufficient to 17 impose the death penalty and that there are 18 insufficient mitigating circumstances to outweigh
19 the aggravating circumstances, and we further find 20 unanimously that Curtis Giovanni Flowers should 21 suffer death."

22 There is a line for the foreman of the grand
23 jury-- of the jury to sign.

24 Then you can find, "We, the jury, find that
25 Curtis Giovanni Flowers should be sentenced to life
26 imprisonment without parole." There is a line for 27 the foreman to sign there.

28 "We, the jury, are unable to agree
29 unanimously on punishment." And there is a line

1           for the foreman to sign there.

2           "The Court instructs the jury that at this
3 phase of the trial conducted for the purpose of 4 determining the sentence to be imposed upon the 5 Defendant, the State and the Defendant may elect to 6 stand on the testimony and evidence introduced
7 during the first or guilt phase of the trial, or 8 the parties may elect to introduce additional 9 testimony and evidence as to matters relating to 10 any of the aggravating or mitigating circumstance.
11 In reaching your verdict, you may consider the 12 testimony and evidence presented during the first 13 phase of the trial together with the testimony and 14 evidence, if any, relating to any of the 15 aggravating or mitigating circumstances presented
16 for your consideration during the second or 17 sentencing phase of the trial.

18           The Court instructs the jury that for this 19 phase of the trial, you shall select from among 20 yourselves a foreman. In the event that you
21 unanimously find that the defendant shall suffer
22 the penalty of death, the foreman shall cause the 23 verdict to be written in the form and manner
24 prescribed by law, and the foreman shall thereafter
25 affix his or her signature to the verdict.

26           The Court instructs the jury that it must be
27 emphasized that the procedure that you must follow
28 is not a mere counting process of a certain number
29 of aggravating circumstances versus the number of

1 mitigating circumstances. Rather, you must apply
2 your reasoned judgment as to whether this situation
3 calls for life imprisonment without parole or 4 whether it requires the imposition of death, in
5 light of the totality of the circumstances
6 present.

7 The Court instructs you that you, as
8 individual jurors, must consider mitigating
9 circumstances. Therefore, even if all other eleven
10 jurors find that a certain mitigating circumstance
11 does not exist, if you believe it does exist, you
12 must find that mitigating circumstance, and weigh 13 it in your further deliberations.

14 The Court instructs you that the sentence of 15 death may only be considered as described in 16 sentencing instruction number 1. However, at no
17 time is any juror required to vote for the death
18 penalty unless it is that juror's individual
19 determination that the death penalty is warranted
20 in this case."

21 The last thing is the form that conforms to 22 Instruction Number 1. You can fill out your 23 verdict on that particular form.

24 Let the argument proceed.

25 FINAL ARGUMENT BY MR. HORAN:

26 Ladies and gentlemen, I want to go back over S-1
27 because as the Court noted, it is a long instruction. And 28 this will be the first time that you get to see it, and I
29 want to, if I can, explain it to you as best I can about how

1 the process of determining what your verdict will be is to
2 come about. The first part of this instruction is what I
3 call the catapulting factors. What that does is these four
4 factors right here, these four findings of fact, before you
5 can consider the death penalty, you have to find one of 6 these.

7 One of these four you have to find: That Curtis
8 Flowers actually killed Derrick "BoBo" Stewart or Derrick
9 Stewart; that Curtis Flowers attempted to kill Derrick
10 Stewart; that Curtis Giovanni Flowers intended the killing of 11 Derrick Stewart take place; or that Curtis Giovanni Flowers
12 contemplated that lethal force would be employed. I submit
13 to you, ladies and gentlemen, the case has been proven to you
14 beyond a reasonable doubt, three of those four factors. The 15 only one that we did not prove is that he attempted to kill
16 Derrick "BoBo" Stewart, and the reason we didn't prove that,
17 we proved number one, that he did, in fact, kill Derrick
18 "BoBo" Stewart. What does that do?

19 It catapults you into the second determination as 20 to whether or not there are any aggravating circumstances.
21 There are two of those that we have listed for your 22 consideration. "The capital offense was committed for 23 pecuniary gain during the course of an armed robbery." The 24 proof is overwhelming that this Defendant gained as a result
25 of this capital offense and that "Curtis Giovanni Flowers
26 knowingly created a great risk of death to many persons."
27 Now I will get into that later.

28 Then you have to consider in this section what they 29 have submitted as mitigating circumstances: Whether the

1 Defendant, "Mr. Flowers had no significant history of prior
2 criminal activity." Any other matter of his life, his
3 character or record brought to you during this trial which
4 the jury deemed to be a mitigating factor on behalf of him.
5 And the third one, whether or not "Mr. Flowers' involvement
6 in religion and spirituality to the benefit of himself and
7 others."

8           You take those mitigating factors; you take the 9 mitigating factors; you weigh those against any aggravating
10 factors that you have found beyond a reasonable doubt, and if
11 those mitigating factors do not outweigh the aggravating
12 factors, then it is within your province at that point in 13 time to sign the form of the verdict and make these findings
14 and write those findings down on this form; you impose the 15 death penalty. And I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen,
16 that that is the case you have before you.

17           With this Defendant, three of those four factors,
18 we have proven beyond a reasonable doubt and that he should
19 suffer death for killing Derrick "BoBo" Stewart, a young man,
20 16 years of age who was proud. And you think about things
21 sometimes and you hear people say things, and you don't
22 really appreciate the simple things in life. But a young man
23 that was proud to have a job in the air condition, under the 24 air conditioner, just as proud as he could be, a young man
25 that touched so many lives in 16 short years, a young man
26 that anybody would be proud to say, That's my son. I am
27 proud of you, Derrick. That's what his daddy said, and 28 that's what his mother said. I guarantee you they wish today
29 that they could tell him that. And I bet you they didn't

1 tell him as many times as they wanted to.

2 But I want to go over some other things. I want to
3 take you back to that store, and I want to kind of tell you
4 my version and it's my version for what happened, and I think
5 this is borne out by the proof. The Defendant went down to 6 that store for the purpose of seeing Bertha Tardy. Derrick
7 Stewart had been there two days, and Robert Golden had been
8 there, that was his first day. He had no idea those two 9 individuals would be there. But when he got to the store, he 10 confronted Bertha Tardy. Something bad happened. He pulled 11 his gun like he had planned at some point in time, and he 12 shot her. And I submit to you that when he shot Bertha, two 13 other employees-- it's 18,000 square feet in this store.
14 They came, they came near.

15 And about that time Carmen Rigby was coming back
16 from her errands, and we know, we know that Derrick "BoBo"
17 Stewart saw Carmen Rigby laying at his feet dead before he 18 died. How do we know that? Because Melissa Schoene
19 testified that his blood had pooled up against hers. And the 20 last two things he saw on his short and eventful life and 21 impressionable life, the last thing he saw was that man
22 putting that gun close to his head and basically made him
23 brain dead. He shot. Before he saw that, he saw Carmen
24 Rigby laying there already dead. No young man deserves to 25 die. Nobody deserves to die like that. In your sleep maybe;
26 you can understand a bad car wreck. But BoBo Stewart, he 27 didn't deserve that.

28 Here was a guy and he probably, and I can't argue
29 this as being a fact, saw Mr. Golden come to his death, or

1 Mr. Golden or saw him come to his death. Either way, it
2 doesn't matter. Mr. Golden is the guy that called Sam Jones
3 for a job looking to be gainfully employed. But see, that
4 didn't mean anything to Curtis Giovanni Flowers on that day
5 because he didn't care how proud Randy and Kathy were of
6 BoBo. It didn't make any difference to him. He didn't care
7 that Derrick cared more about other people than he did
8 himself. He didn't care about that. He cared about getting 9 some money, and he cared about confronting Bertha Tardy and 10 he did that. And because BoBo Stewart wanted a little extra
11 spending money, he lost his life. He is not going to get to 12 tell his children how proud he is of them, and Randy Stewart
13 is not going to get to tell BoBo and say, "BoBo, you done
14 well. You have been a good boy" ever. He is not going to be 15 able to do that. He is not going to be able to see the 16 fruits of his labor. Randy and Kathy, they are not rich
17 people, but that's what they have is their ability to raise
18 children. That's what we all have, and that man sitting over
19 there took that away from them.

20 And I can't see for the life of me, after you
21 consider this instruction, how you can come to any other
22 conclusion than to tell Mr. Flowers, Mr. Flowers, we follow
23 the law. We were sworn to follow the law. We took an oath.
24 Each one of you took an oath. People from this community
25 were selected to be fair and impartial, and that's what you
26 did.

27 And I want to talk to you about something right
28 now. Nobody from the DA's Office is going to call anybody or 29 do anything to find out anything about your verdict. If you

1     come back and you mark on here, we are unable to agree on
2     this form right here, if you write "We are unable to agree,"
3     and the foreman signs it, that is within your province. If 4     you find that, We sentence him to life imprisonment, you are
5     not going to hear a peep out of this office, not one word.
6     We are not going to invade the province of your home. We are 7     not going to call you. We are not going to come to your 8     office, not going to come to work. It's not going to 9     happen. Regardless of your verdict, you won't be bothered by 10    anybody from the State of Mississippi because that is your 11    verdict. That is within the privacy of your own mind and the 12    province of this jury as a whole.

13             But I tell you; I think the facts are here, and if 14    you look at that instruction, if you look at the four 15    factors, three or four that we have proven, then the 16    aggravating circumstances, and if you look at the aggravating
17    circumstances and then the mitigating circumstances, if those 18    mitigating circumstances do not outweigh the aggravating
19    circumstances, then it's well within your province to write
20    on that form all that you have found and find that this
21    Defendant should suffer death.

22             Curtis Flowers, they came in here, they came in 23    here and put on all this proof about him singing in a choir.
24    That is fine. Do these things that they told you, do they
25    outweigh what he did? Because see, ladies and gentlemen,
26    you have got to be responsible for your acts, and that is 27    what Randy and Kathy were doing when they trained Derrick
28    "BoBo" Stewart to want to have a job. That's what he, what 29    they were doing. We want you to understand, son, that when

1     you get out in that world, it's going to be tough. We are
2     training you, and I'm not standing up here saying BoBo
3     Stewart wasn't like any other 16 year old because he probably
4     was. He wasn't an angel, but he did the best he could do,
5     and they did the best they could do for BoBo. And at 16
6     there is not many of them out there like BoBo. And I don't
7     think any 16 year old should come to a death like that. I
8     don't care how bad he is. And I have seen some bad ones, but 9     I tell you, when you get in a situation like this, when BoBo
10    is laying on that floor with his ball cap in a pool of blood
11    and he is gurgling for his last breath, it just makes you
12    wonder what is going on. How can a family try so hard to 13    make a young man do so right and he gets punished? He 14    received the ultimate punishment is what BoBo did, for no
15    reason.

16                 Robert Golden, just like BoBo, trying to better
17    himself--

18                         BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Judge.

19                         BY MR. HORAN: I'm going through them all,
20    Judge.

21                         BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

22                         BY MR. HORAN: I am going through all the 23    victims. I'm not just-- just the facts.

24                         BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach?

25                                 (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
26    THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

27                         BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have a double jeopardy
28    objection. And first of all, he is supposed to be
29    arguing BoBo Stewart, and for him to argue other

1 people, including other people who he has already
2 been sentenced for, I think is clearly double
3 jeopardy. So I am objecting to any argument on 4 that issue.

5 BY MR. HORAN: That aggravating factor allows
6 this argument.

7 BY THE COURT: Yeah, once the aggravating
8 factor of the great harm to others is, allows him
9 to argue, but you should limit that argument.

10 BY MR. HORAN: I will, as to who was at the 11 scene, and I think the proof bears that out as far
12 as he was trying to better himself. What is wrong
13 with that?

14 BY THE COURT: That is not what he objected
15 to. I don't think.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I do object to him
17 talking about Golden's first day. I don't have a
18 problem about him-- well, I object to all of it,
19 but according to your ruling, I would guess that 20 you would allow him to say that Golden got killed,
21 but he can't go into Golden's life and talk about--

22 BY THE COURT: --no, no, no--

23 BY MR. HORAN: --I'm not going to do all that.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He just started talking about 25 his first day and all that stuff. That is 26 irrelevant.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay.

28 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

29 BY MR. HORAN: May I proceed?

1                   BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

2                   CONTINUING ARGUMENT BY MR. HORAN:

3                   Mr. Golden, much like BoBo, was trying to better
4                   himself, and he paid the price. Carmen Rigby, who was just a
5                   loyal employee at the store, she paid the price. And Bertha
6                   Tardy, who tried to help this man, who loaned him thirty 7                   bucks the first day he came to work, and all indications are 8                   she didn't even try to make him pay for these batteries
9                   because this check is there in evidence if y'all want to see
10                  it. All these people died for no reason, no reason
11                  whatsoever.

12                 And yes, we had problems coming in here today and 13                 last week proving exactly what was taken out of the store.
14                 It's not easy to do that when you are working a crime scene,
15                 and the bookkeeper is laying on the floor dead. It's hard to 16                 do. And the owner is laying on the floor dead, and the two 17                 other employees in that store are dead. It's kind of hard to 18                 do, but we did it. They kept sufficient records so we could 19                 do that.

20                 BoBo is who you are considering. This case is on 21                 BoBo. And I don't think that the Stewarts really want a lot
22                 of sympathy from you. I really do not think that. They want
23                 some justice. They want you to take that instruction and do
24                 your job. They want you to look at the four factors, and 25                 they want you to look at the aggravating circumstances, and 26                 they may not ever be able to tell BoBo, "Son, we are proud of 27                 you" ever again until they see him again, but they can say we 28                 are proud of the American justice system. And that's what 29                 they are looking for from you people, for you to do your

1 job. If you go back there and deliberate and do your job,
2 they will be proud of the system. And they will always be
3 proud of BoBo and who he was, and they will be proud of the 4 job that they did raising that young man until he was 16
5 years of age. Thank you.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I proceed?

7 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 FINAL ARGUMENT BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Good afternoon-- well, actually it is still good
10 morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury. I stayed up most 11 of the night last night, and let me say this in the 12 beginning. I think it does mean a question of whether the 13 system works, and I have been looking at you guys throughout
14 the trial. And you have been looking at me, and it's okay,
15 and I understand. I understand. And I think that we should 16 all understand it's about Mr. Flowers. First of all, it's 17 not about me, but I also understand that certain people
18 probably have made up their mind already even though they are 19 not supposed to have, but it's okay. It's natural. I
20 understand that certain people made up their mind really
21 before we got started, not everybody, but some people did.
22 And I sat around and I understand that people's, certain
23 people's background makes them lean in a certain way even 24 before we get started, and I understand that. Their beliefs,
25 what they believe in, it really does. Sometimes your 26 leadership is bad because that's what they believe in,
27 something already.

28 But I say this, is that I have thought about a lot
29 of things that we could say here today, and, of course, it

1 never entered my mind to say anything negative about Stewart,
2 about the other persons who died, and that has never
3 concatenate, that has never occurred to anybody including Mr.
4 Flowers because Mr. Flowers did not commit these murders at
5 all.

6 I have thought about well, maybe we should talk a
7 little more about the evidence and what they didn't prove
8 because this is important to this phase too because see, you
9 have to find everything really beyond a reasonable doubt
10 again even though you don't get the exact evidence. And I am
11 thinking; I am saying here is a man that could be voted to 12 death penalty for having a gun that no one ever saw him with,
13 no one, not even Doyle Simpson; for shooting a gun that no
14 one ever saw him shoot; for wearing shoes that nobody
15 credible ever saw him wear; and shoes which we can't even say
16 for certain made a print which somebody made; for having a
17 box in his house with ten and a half shoes when the expert
18 told us that the shoes didn't have to be ten and a half that
19 made the print. They could have been anywhere from 10 to 11
20 and that over 660,000 shoes did it.

21 And I thought about well, maybe I should ask or 22 raise the question of the prospect of giving a man the death
23 penalty on the word of Doyle Simpson who lied once before,
24 and I should bring out that, you know, it's, it's kind of 25 like old school as they say in the community I come from.
26 Like old gee, old school, that if you commit a crime or you
27 give a gun up to somebody or sell a gun to somebody whose 28 name you want to lie about like you lied about before, and a
29 crime occurs; then the first thing you do is report that your

1 gun has been stolen.

2 So I thought about raising the perspective of
3 putting a man to death, and we are talking about the system
4 working; putting a man to death who is identified by many
5 people or identified actually by a person who saw him or saw
6 somebody, not him, clearly not him, for a split second glance
7 going in the opposite direction of Tardy's store at 10
8 o'clock, right around the same time that someone else was 9 supposed to be seeing Mr. Flowers running from the store,
10 right about the same time. And I have thought about putting
11 a man to death where a number of people have gotten him
12 looking different in almost every place that he was supposed
13 to have been on a journey that no one can ever say that he 14 ever made with any degree of positivity.

15 And I thought about, you know, all the people who 16 they say have been put to death and then found out later they 17 were innocent, and I say how sure do we need to be in the 18 American system to put somebody to death, and does it
19 change? Does it change depending upon who we are talking
20 about, who they are? We do still have problems. Of course,
21 we do. I mean and that is true in any society. It's not
22 just true here in America. We have problems. I mean you can
23 look at the audience and see we have got problems - black
24 people over here, white people over here.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is improper
26 argument--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --been that way--

28 BY MR. EVANS: --and I object.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Been that way; I'm talking

1           about the death penalty, Judge.

2           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I am stating an
3           objection if he doesn't mind.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we approach the bench
5           with it?

6           BY THE COURT: Uh-huh.

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: So he can't give a speech.

8           (CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH OUT OF THE HEARING OF
9           THE JURY AS FOLLOWS:)

10          BY MR. EVANS: It is improper to even refer to 11          people in the audience. He knows it is. It is 12          improper to refer to race. This Court has 13          specifically told this jury that they cannot 14          consider race, and he is attempting to put race
15          before this jury, and it is improper and I object.

16          BY THE COURT: It's pursuant to your
17          instructions.

18          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hold, hold, hold, hold,
19          hold. I can't talk about race, and race is in the 20          instruction? I'm going to talk about why they 21          shouldn't consider race. That's what I'm about to 22          argue about.

23          BY THE COURT: Okay. I have got no problem
24          with that.

25          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

26          BY THE COURT: But don't, you should not refer
27          to the folks in the audience. You commented-- I
28          don't find that-- well, go ahead.

29                                   END BENCH CONFERENCE

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Well, and we do have still in many instances a
3 divided society, so what the question becomes, what do we do
4 to bring it together, or what do we do to keep it apart. And
5 one thing we can't do, we can't have different standards.
6 And one thing we can't do, we can't be hypocrites. We can't
7 exclude all the blacks from the jury and then come in here
8 and talk about you are worried about somebody talking about 9 race.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again--

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --You can't do that--

12 BY MR. EVANS: --I object. This is
13 misleading. It is untrue and I object--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --It is absolutely true--

15 BY MR. EVANS: --The Court has already been 16 through this--

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --that the only one person--

18 BY THE COURT: --Mr. Lumumba, you--

19 BY MR. EVANS: --several times.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --who is on the jury and 21 that's because you said he had to be there.

22 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, you can't make
23 that argument. That is sustained.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Very good. I will move on.
25 I will move on.

26 BY MR. EVANS: I would ask that the jury be
27 told to disregard that because it is not something
28 that is true.

29 BY THE COURT: It is not--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --It is-- no, no--

2 BY THE COURT: --it's not part of the evidence
3 so you can't--

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's not a part of the
5 evidence, and I will stop it for that reason. But
6 the statement is not true--

7 BY THE COURT: --but I have ruled. Let's move
8 on--

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I think the Judge is not
10 going to make that statement. I know you are not
11 going to make that statement.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Sometimes we do things to achieve a certain result,
14 but let me go-- we should not be hypocrites. We should not
15 say we don't want to talk about something, and the reason I'm 16 talking about it is because it's in the instructions that it
17 shouldn't be considered, either consciously or sub-
18 consciously. What we should be able to do here is to look at 19 this chair right here and see a young white man sitting in 20 it, an Oriental, an Indian or anyone else, somebody that 21 looks as close to us as we possibly can and say that that
22 same person we would sentence to death on the basis of a
23 woman who came in here and lied about the age of her own
24 children in order to justify buying them shoes that she never
25 bought. We should be able to look at this chair and see a
26 different kind of person, any kind of person, somebody we 27 know or somebody we don't know and be able to justify,
28 sentence them to death for a crime that no one ever saw them
29 commit on the basis of something that could have got on

1     their hands in many different ways including from a handshake
2     for the people who brought them to the station. And we
3     don't even know for sure it's on their hand because the 4     officer that took it apparently didn't even know what he was
5     doing.

6             And yes, we look away because some of us have made
7     up our mind; I understand this. But for those who would like
8     to listen, those who have said actually before, for those who 9     have felt in their heart that it is wrong to sentence a human
10    being to death, and that is not in all that the law says, I
11    understand, but those who have said that in their heart, let 12    us see if this is a human being. Let this trial tell the 13    story; is this gentleman here a human being? Does God look
14    at him the way he looks like everybody else?

15            And it's not pleasant for me to address and talk to 16    people about things they don't want to hear, but I wanted to 17    say a lot of kind things. I can't say kind things because 18    it's just not in me. I'm the kind of person that says what 19    is on his mind. Maybe Curtis got the wrong lawyer. Maybe he 20    should have got somebody to come up here and shuffle and 21    pretend and act like things don't exist that do exist, and 22    then go out in the hall with the other lawyers and hang
23    around in the hall talking about Wow, don't you know how it
24    is if you get a black person charged with killing white
25    people and white people on the jury? Lawyers talk about it
26    all the time. Maybe that is who I should have been, but I'm 27    not like that.

28            And so I'm not fretting the fact that we have the 29    kind of jury that we have because, you know, for whatever

1 reasons, it's here. But I'm asking you to dig deep into your
2 consciousness. I'm asking you to think clearly about it. I
3 am asking you to answer the question: How sure can you be on
4 the basis of this record? Because like one client of mine
5 once said, who is now deceased; his name was Toopot; he said,
6 "I don't like people killing people." He said, "Me against 7 the world." That is how Curtis Flowers feels right now. Me
8 against the world.

9           Who is down with me trying to be a human being,
10 trying to demand the same level and standard of proof as any
11 other human being? Who is down with me when they bring in a
12 box with no shoes in it? The man went to the chair. He was 13 sentenced to death. He was executed on the basis of a box
14 that had no shoes in it. These guys are like wizards,
15 magicians. Wooo, they will go into infamy or whatever.
16 Greatest prosecution trick ever - a death sentence based upon
17 shoes that they didn't have and that Ms. Moore says her child
18 has, no longer lives with her, and she bought over 6 to 7 or 19 8 months before, and his feet grows fast.

20           A man executed for a crime that no one ever saw him
21 commit and they didn't have any physical evidence positively
22 proving that he did commit. And even if you believe a bunch
23 of people walking a path and giving a million different
24 descriptions, the only thing they can say is he was going in 25 that direction and that at some point he left that 26 direction. Can't say he shot nobody because even if you are 27 in the atmosphere, if you go some place where they have shot
28 a gun, you can pick up residue. Convicted of having and 29 sentenced to death for having a gun that nobody can even

1     prove that he knew was there because Doyle Simpson said-- and
2     we ask people and, you know, I am straight with you. I am
3     straight with you. It bothers me a little bit.

4             Somebody gets up here and misquotes the evidence
5     and says that he knew it was in the car and misquoted the 6     evidence on several other occasions like saying that Sam
7     Jones said it was 9 o'clock, that it was 9:30 when he called
8     and then he came. The evidence clearly said that he said
9     that he called around, he called before 9:30. He arrived at 10    9:30 because we went into it several times. And all I say is 11    that if you are not certain, then just ask the Judge if you
12    can read it back. And before we can get to lunch, finish
13    with lunch, boom. There is a verdict. Ain't nobody read
14    nothing.

15            Yeah, dislike me. It's okay. Look away from me.
16    Stare at me. It's okay. The question becomes-- laugh at 17    me. It's okay. You know, when I think about death
18    sentences, and we all come from different places, and this is 19    a different society, and we have got different perspectives
20    on it. And that is permissible. We are in a society where 21    people sometimes get the death penalty and sometimes don't.
22    A rich football player charged with killing people doesn't
23    get the death penalty. You have got a lot of money. A woman
24    kills her two kids in South Carolina, says somebody else did
25    it. We later on find out she did it herself. She doesn't 26    get the death penalty. You couldn't really say it's equally
27    applied.

28            Sometimes kids shoot up other kids in school, not
29    even charged with the death penalty because the law doesn't

1 even allow them to be charged with the death penalty. But in
2 some cases the law allows it. So in trying to provide
3 justice, we just need to be careful. We need to make sure
4 that we make decisions which are not absolutely inconsistent.
5 And what the law asks you is to be very careful, to be
6 careful about looking at the evidence; be very careful about 7 how you apply the evidence, and be very careful about how the 8 decision is applied. And use your own background because we 9 have different backgrounds. Some of us come from one place,
10 and some of us come from somewhere else, and that is okay
11 because that's the kind society is, and nothing wrong with
12 that.

13           When I think about death penalty, I think about 14 people hanging from trees. I think about long history of 15 things being said about people being strung up all up and 16 down the Mississippi Delta. That is just because from where 17 I come from, or what my family taught me, that's what I think 18 about. I think about lynchings. I think about big crowds of 19 people showing up and being advertised in the paper and 20 people showing up and celebrating both before and after. So
21 you can understand why I argue with force. You may not have 22 those experiences, and thank God that you don't. But that is 23 why God put us both in this same world so we can interrelate
24 with our experiences, and we can stand on our experiences.

25           And it doesn't have to be me against the world.
26 Because although it may seem that way, it really isn't that 27 way because a lot of people, a lot of people, a whole lot of 28 people have got the same experiences that Mr. Flowers has and 29 that I have. So even though a decision is only made in this

1 courtroom, what it means is that we must make decisions which
2 can help us in society as a whole. Don't talk about
3 problems. Don't talk about what we may feel about sometimes
4 standards not being applied equally.

5 But when people get on the stand, when black
6 witnesses take the stand and they say, well, the prosecution
7 witness lied. Do you see those people? You know how they
8 are. And when Curtis Flowers makes a statement that he, like
9 any number of people who sit around and drink a beer at a
10 time, drinks a beer, he didn't want no job. He didn't want
11 no job. He didn't want to work. Two weeks out of his life
12 he didn't have any job. He didn't want to work. Based upon
13 my experiences, that is trying to say something about Curtis
14 and about all of us. Excuse me if I am wrong.

15 Curtis stood up here before you and said all he
16 could say. If he was guilty of this crime, he would say
17 that, and we would ask for something else at this point in 18 the sentencing hearing. We would say something else. We 19 would want to stress more the fact that he was involved
20 religiously and stress more the fact that he lived with 21 people, and these people respect him. But Curtis is the same
22 person who they gave 50 different, and 50 is an exaggeration,
23 who they gave many different description of his clothing. He 24 is the same person who Patricia Hollman has coming in and out
25 of his house at the same time that someone else has him in 26 the parking lot at Angelica. Someone else has him walking
27 past going toward Angelica. He is the same person that is in 28 several places at the same time with several different coats
29 of clothes. And he is the one that says he is not guilty.

1           So even though you disagree and obviously you made
2   a different decision, and we do that; that is okay.
3   Hopefully, if that is not the right decision, at some point
4   it will be remedied. But one decision is pretty final. It
5   can't be righted. You can't correct that. And that's the 6   sentence of death.

7           And of course, we grieve for all the people, all
8   the people who have stood up there. I understand what the 9   coach talks about. I understand what the parents talk
10   about. I have a son that was shot in the head. We grieve
11   for all of them. But does-- I mean listen, listen. Does the 12   fact that we grieve and the fact that they suffer make it
13   okay to vote for death on this record? That is the 14   question. No one has ever said they didn't grieve. That is 15   not even disputed. I coach teams. I know what the coach
16   feels. The coach probably don't like me right now because of 17   the position I'm taking, but we have got a lot in common.

18           So for those who have not made up their mind and 19   for those who have made up their mind but can reconsider
20   because they shouldn't have made up their mind by now, all we 21   ask them to do is to think about it. Ask themselves can they 22   really believe to the death any of those witnesses that the 23   prosecution put on the stand? I'm not talking about the 24   ones in the sentencing phase. I believe all them. But can
25   they really believe Patricia Hollman to the death, who lied
26   about her children's age. To the death, can they believe
27   Clemmie Fleming? To the death, can they believe Mr.
28   Collins, that he is accurate about what he is talking about
29   -- to the death, when he was corrected in his own testimony

1       several times between one hearing and the next?

2               And if this is imposing upon you, excuse me. Hold
3       it against me. But don't hold it against Curtis because see,
4       I'm not about to get executed. Nobody is about to decide on
5       my life. In fact, nobody can do anything to me, nothing.
6       But it's not about me. It's not about them. It's not about
7       the way that they use this sly way to make these inferences
8       that these people are out there putting impressions on them.
9       What it is about is life and death.

10              In the instruction which the Judge has given and 11       which you will take to the jury room, please keep these 12       things in mind. When you go through here and you say whether 13       you find beyond a reasonable doubt whether Curtis Flowers has 14       killed, and they claim they have killed-- and you know, I see
15       Counsel up here going through these geriatrics or histrionics
16       and this thing about, this is how I think it happened. He is 17       about to put somebody to death on a version of the facts that 18       nobody saw, that he doesn't have the faintest idea that ever
19       occurred. He put the gun to his head. First of all, the 20       expert testified that it was not close range or contact
21       fire. So he doesn't know how far or how close anybody was.
22       But then he has got certain people coming and going out, and 23       he is going to draw the line and make it graphic. Look, it
24       is gory. I understand it's gory, and it's terrible. But how 25       is he going to sit up here and argue a set of facts which 26       comes totally from his imagination? Speculation, he almost 27       admitted it and asked you to put somebody to death based on 28       it. You don't even know how many people were in the store
29       involved with this incident. You don't know whether

1 everybody who may have been in the store was actually
2 involved with the incident. A lot of times people are with
3 people who do things, and they leave the scene and don't say
4 anything either. You don't know any of this.

5 If a gun was shot, and it certainly was, you don't 6 know who shot it. Individual responsibility to make these 7 determinations, individual. Beyond a reasonable doubt, and 8 when you look to this, you should think of all the evidence
9 in this case. If you get beyond that for the sentencing
10 hearing, and keep in mind that this is the sentencing
11 hearing. And the only reason that you are asked to make that 12 determination again because what is reasonable to you may 13 certainly become more serious in a sentencing hearing than it
14 is in a, just trial for guilt and innocence.

15 Remember as they have said, nobody can define
16 reasonable doubt for you, but when they are saying reasonable
17 doubt in a sentencing hearing, I would submit that they want
18 you to be pretty, they want you to be certain, as certain as 19 a human being could possibly be about anything. There is 20 nothing more final than death.

21 Secondly, these things about aggravation are
22 basically things about what they claim happened. This thing
23 about the pecuniary gain, about money from the store, you
24 know, fine. If you think somebody took money from the store,
25 fine. I mean, you know, we don't have a position on that.
26 Certainly we weren't there and we can't say.

27 Secondly, Curtis Giovanni Flowers-- and by the way,
28 $400.00, as I understand it, was taken from the store. I had 29 a little bit of problem following the bookkeeping thing, but

1 if I understand, there was a hundred dollars in there that
2 shouldn't have been or something like that, and then there
3 was three hundred that they keep in there for petty cash
4 according to the records. So four hundred dollars was gone
5 from the store, at least three hundred, I think. $255.00 is 6 in Connie's bedroom. I don't even know why they bring that.
7 If I have $255.00 in my house and somebody has lost $300.00,
8 does that mean that I stole it? Even if you have some other
9 reason of thinking I may have been involved, does that mean I
10 stole it because I have got $255.00 in my house, and you
11 can't even say it's mine, that I brought it there.

12 Secondly, this thing about Curtis Flowers knowingly
13 created a risk of death to many persons. Curtis Flowers is 14 the same man who was in several different places at the same
15 time wearing several different types of clothing, according 16 to their witnesses. Even if you get beyond that aggravating
17 circumstances, the next step is to talk about whether the 18 mitigating outweigh the aggravating, and we have shown you
19 through witnesses that Curtis Flowers is a respected person
20 in this community, respected by his family. And you knew
21 already that one of the things he did is he is involved
22 religiously.

23 But now see here is the important point. Even if 24 you find that the mitigating factors do not outweigh the 25 aggravating factors and you find beyond a reasonable doubt 26 that the aggravating factors exist, and any one of you who 27 decides that that is not the case, then that is it. You
28 can't go no further. But if you find that that does exist,
29 that the mitigating does not outweigh the aggravating, then

1     you consider whether you want to impose the death penalty.
2     Just because-- and I don't want this to be-- I think the
3     instructions when read together, and that's what the Court
4     says; they read them together. It may be just a little bit
5     misleading if you are not careful, but what it says here,
6     that you can, you may impose the death penalty if you find
7     that, and then at the end it says that if you are going to 8     impose the death penalty, you can go on and say, because they 9     have got a semicolon here separating this, I think -- okay,
10    no, where it says a comma, and say you can find that they do
11    outweigh. And then you can go on and say, and we decide we 12    want to impose the death penalty if everybody agrees.

13             But because you find that the mitigating do not 14    outweigh the aggravating or the aggravating outweigh the 15    mitigating, that does not mean that you have to impose a 16    death penalty. Counsel put it in a different way. It's in 17    your province to impose the death penalty. Well, that is 18    true, but let's break it right down to common language. You
19    may do so. You are not required to do so. It's only then 20    that you could even think about doing it, but then it's up to 21    you whether this case and these facts would be the kind that 22    you would be comfortable with sentencing any human being to 23    death, any human being.

24             And so then that's why it has these other lines
25    where you can say, We, the jury, unable to agree unanimously
26    on a punishment, or you can say, We, the jury, feel that
27    Curtis Flowers should be sentenced to life imprisonment
28    without parole. And the instruction which makes that very,
29    very clear is the instruction which is Instruction Number 6.

1     It says, "The Court instructs you that the sentence of death
2     may only be considered as described in sentencing instruction
3     number 1," which refers you back to number 1 in that whole
4     formula. And then it says, "However, at no time is any
5     juror" - speaking to each one of you individually - "required
6     to vote for the death penalty unless it is that juror's
7     individual determination that the death penalty is warranted
8     in this case." In other words, that juror has to decide that 9     the death penalty should be given. If that juror doesn't
10    decide that, then that last line, or then if all the jurors
11    don't decide that, then that line which says that the life
12    without parole should be given should be signed. If any one
13    juror or more decide that it should be life and not death and 14    decide not to give the death penalty, then what should be 15    signed is the line where it says, We cannot agree.

16           We even have the District Attorney or prosecutor
17    telling us how Derrick was shot, and how he knows how Derrick 18    was shot when he wasn't there, I don't know. Just don't be 19    manipulated; don't be manipulated. There is no chance that 20    we can manipulate you. You know you. And if we were trying 21    to manipulate you, if we were manipulating you, I wouldn't be
22    talking to you the way that I talked to you when I started,
23    no more than any of those witnesses who testified that those 24    people were lying were manipulated. Someone has to have a
25    lot of gall to think that you don't have, that a person
26    doesn't have the substance or the person to stand on their
27    own two feet. But don't let anybody manipulating you,
28    feigning, making you feel, faking and making you feel that
29    somebody else is trying to do it from the other direction.

1 We go through this all the time in basketball and various
2 other sports when you fake one way and then you go the other
3 way because you're trying to fool somebody.

4 Excuse me, please.

5 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And just as reminded by 7 Counsel, it's their burden to prove everything that is in 8 there, and all we say is don't let them off the hook because 9 different ones of us feel different things. We feel very 10 strongly that every witness we have put on that stand was 11 telling the truth. We submit that they are telling you
12 exactly what happened because, and not only the ones in 13 sentencing, but the ones in the trial in chief because they 14 have nothing to gain. Nobody is going to give them any 15 reward. Nobody is going to do anything for them. Some of 16 them barely know Curtis Flowers. But they are saying it
17 because it's the truth. But regardless of what you know, 18 don't believe something which there is no proof to support.

19 May we approach, please?

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: How much time do I have?

21 BY THE COURT: You have got about, let's see,
22 between 15 and 20 minutes.

23 BY MR. FREELON: That will be enough.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

25 BY THE COURT: To give you an exact, until
26 about 12:53.

27 END BENCH CONFERENCE.

28 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1           Finally, once again, I encourage you to not to be
2   deceived by anybody. People can get up here and talk about
3   letting somebody go. At this phase in the case Mr. Flowers,
4   the only thing that can happen to him is he either has to be
5   sentenced without parole or the alternative. Nobody is going
6   anywhere. And we can make a number of different arguments
7   about whether people should be put to death. I remember the 8   jurors, some of them talked about an eye for an eye and a
9   tooth for a tooth. I remember some of them saying that they 10   could not give the death penalty, and that was their 11   conscious decision because only God had that right. I
12   remember some of them saying they were in between somewhere.
13   They didn't remember-- not that they didn't remember, but 14   they don't know where they land on the issue. They had 15   various different strong opinions. All jurors have strong
16   opinions and all people have strong opinions.

17           But I think it is important to understand that 18   hopefully all opinions can be affected by fact, and the fact
19   is if there was ever a case where the death penalty shouldn't 20   be given, in order just to protect against mistake and the 21   lack of integrity in a case where a number of people have 22   gotten on the stand and saying other people were lying, and 23   nobody is clairvoyant. That means nobody reads minds. And 24   if somebody tells you that somebody else is lying, there is 25   no way that you can know with certainty to the death that
26   they are not telling you the truth, no matter how much you
27   like them or dislike them or dislike what occurred.

28           We would be less than candid to say that we think
29   that Mr. Flowers should have been convicted. But we are

1 beyond that now. He is beyond that now. There is nothing he
2 can do about that. He will do whatever this Court and this
3 jury does to him, whatever you individually do to him. But
4 we are never going to stop working on this case, and one
5 day-- it may even be after he, hopefully it is while he is 6 still alive, the truth will be known. Regardless of where he
7 is, the truth will be known.

8 So all we say is let us accept that individual
9 responsibility and make sure that Mr. Flowers is not put to 10 death for a crime which he did not commit or for in your 11 perspective, if that is your perspective, if that is your 12 actual individual honest own opinion - and remember you are 13 entitled to that - for a crime which there is not truth in 14 this part of the sentencing hearing beyond a reasonable doubt
15 that he committed. Thank you.

16 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

17 BY THE COURT: Yes.

18 FINAL ARGUMENT BY MR. EVANS:

19 Ladies and gentlemen, the first thing I want to 20 point out to you, that you have had race and different things
21 like that mentioned to you on closing argument. I want to 22 tell you first that that never has any bearing in a criminal
23 justice system. It has none; it should have none. I have 24 seen just as many cases where white defendants were tried and 25 got the death penalty as I have black. That is not before
26 this court--

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --And that is totally
28 contrary to fact. Now I mean--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --No, sir. It is not. In my

1 district I have seen just as many--

2 BY THE COURT: --He is saying what he had
3 seen. He can argue that.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he has got very limited
5 experience according to the Supreme Court--

6 BY THE COURT: --Okay, well, that may be. But 7 he is entitled to say that--

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --in McCluskey which says
9 about fifteen--

10 BY MR. EVANS: --May I proceed, Your Honor?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I don't (word
12 unintelligible) on that either, but what I'm 13 saying, don't lie to the jury. Goodness gracious.
14 Don't lie to the jury.

15 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know that-- Okay.

16 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed?

17 BY THE COURT: You may proceed.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Goodness gracious.

19 BY MR. EVANS:

20 Out of the district that I come from, I have seen
21 just as many cases. The juries have returned the death
22 penalty against whites. Juries have returned the death
23 penalty against blacks. That is not before y'all. One thing
24 is before y'all, whether this Defendant sitting right here
25 deserves the death penalty. And that has only one
26 justification. Y'all look at the evidence. You look at the 27 type crime he committed. You already know that he committed
28 the crime. You have already found him guilty. The only
29 issue now, is this the type crime that justifies the death

1 penalty?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I object to that because that
3 is not the only consideration. The consideration
4 is whether they find him guilty under the, killed
5 beyond a reasonable doubt and that thing in this
6 hearing. Now that is a misstatement of the law.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, I have instructed
8 them on the law, and they are going to have that 9 before them. Make sure when you talk to them about 10 the law, Mr. Evans, that you follow the
11 instructions--

12 BY MR. EVANS: --Yes, sir. I'm going to go
13 through the instruction.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 At this phase the penalty is the only thing that
16 you have to consider. The Court, as I told y'all in voir
17 dire when you were sitting out here, the Court has the long
18 instruction. I think it is four pages. You must go through 19 that instruction. You will find when you go through that 20 instruction that the law in this type of case authorizes the 21 death penalty as a possible punishment. Each of you that is 22 sitting here on the jury assured us in voir dire that if the 23 law for authorized it and the facts justified it, you could
24 consider the death penalty as one of the possible penalties.
25 In this particular case we are arguing to you that the reason
26 the death penalty is appropriate is because of the type crime
27 that has been committed.

28 Now is the instructions? As the Court has told
29 you, there is a form in here that you will need to fill out.

1 On that form you have to go back to Instruction Number 1, and
2 it clearly tells you what you do. It starts out, "We, the
3 jury, unanimously find from the evidence beyond a reasonable
4 doubt, that the following facts existed at the time of the 5 commission of the capital murder," and it tells you right
6 here in brackets where you go to get what you are looking 7 at. It's in paragraph "A" right here on the front page of 8 the first instruction.

9 And as we told you on voir dire several days ago,
10 that is the first step that you have to do. You take it step
11 by step. You go through it. In that first step there are 12 four factors as Mr. Horan told you, "That Curtis Giovanni
13 Flowers actually killed Derrick Stewart, That Curtis Giovanni
14 Flowers attempted to kill Derrick Stewart, that Curtis
15 Giovanni Flowers intended the killing of Derrick Stewart take 16 place or That Curtis Giovanni Flowers contemplated that 17 lethal force would be employed." If you find just one of 18 those, then you write it down right here and you go on.

19 We believe that you will find at least three of 20 them because we find that all of them are present except for 21 the one that he attempted, and the only reason that is not
22 appropriate is that he did, in fact, kill him. So there
23 wasn't an attempt; he did kill him. The reason these four 24 are there instead of just the three is because this is what
25 the law says y'all are to consider. So we find that y'all
26 should at least put those three in here. The foreman,
27 whoever you elect as your foreman, will write those three in 28 under paragraph one.

29 Then you go on to the next step. It says, "Next

1 we, the jury, unanimously find that the aggravating
2 circumstances of:" and it tells you here to go to Section
3 "B." That's the second page of Instruction 1. It has got
4 "B" at the top of it. There are two aggravating factors you
5 are to consider. The first one is that the capital offense
6 was committed for pecuniary gain during the course of an
7 armed robbery. We submit that that has clearly been proven
8 to you. Two, that Curtis Giovanni Flowers knowingly created
9 a great risk of death to many people. We submit that that 10 has been proven because he did, in fact, kill four people.
11 So those two, if you find them, and they will be filled in 12 under this second section.

13 Then you go to the next part which is stating that
14 you find that those aggravating circumstances are present
15 beyond a reasonable doubt and that there are sufficient
16 mitigating circumstances to outweigh them. Then it is our 17 position that this jury, because of the crime that was 18 committed, because of how he killed these people, should be 19 sentenced to death, and that would be the first line right
20 here that the foreman would sign. And we submit that after 21 that is signed, you should return this verdict back in the 22 courtroom to the Judge.

23 There are two other verdicts on here. One is that 24 the Defendant should get life without parole. The other is 25 that y'all cannot agree.

26 This is not a case where there is any justification
27 for the murders. We are talking about a case, and I'm not 28 going to go back through it all because you have heard it,
29 but I am going to sum up a few points that I think are

1 important. They are important to me. We are talking about a
2 16 year old boy, BoBo Stewart. Like many boys his age, he
3 was going to school. He was trying to work through the 4 summer and make some money. He was trying to buy a class
5 ring. He was also trying to help his family by working and
6 making some money. He goes to work his second day at work.
7 He is there minding his own business, doing his job, happily
8 going about his everyday activities, and this Defendant out
9 of greed, out of wanting something that wasn't his, goes in 10 and snuffs out his life for no reason. You saw the 11 pictures. You saw where he was laying in that pool of 12 blood. You have heard the testimony of Dr. Hayne, how he 13 shot him in the head, how that bullet went through his 14 brain. You have heard how he lived for a few days. You have 15 heard how this has affected his family. You have heard how 16 it has affected the community.

17 This is a case that I'm not asking you to give the 18 death penalty for some unknown reason. I'm asking you to 19 return the death penalty because it is the appropriate
20 penalty in this case. I'm asking you to return the death
21 penalty because this Defendant deserves the death penalty for 22 what he has done. What kind of person could go into a
23 furniture store, rob it and commit the kind of brutal act
24 that has been described to y'all, that y'all have seen?
25 Y'all have seen pictures. Those pictures do not do justice
26 to what that crime scene looked like. You can only imagine
27 in your mind what went through the mind of Sam Jones when he 28 walked in that store and saw the brutal acts that this
29 Defendant had committed. This is exactly the kind of crime

1     that our Legislature thought of when they made it a crime to
2     kill people during the commission of a robbery.

3             And we are not talking about two people that know
4     each other and get mad and somebody gets killed. We are
5     talking about somebody that will take another life for no
6     reason, none at all. BoBo Stewart hadn't done anything to 7     this Defendant. The only reason he killed him is so there
8     wouldn't be any witnesses. He took his life at a time that 9     he had his whole life before him, at a time that he hadn't
10    done anything to hurt anybody.

11            I ask that you go back in the jury room. You go
12    down step by step through this instruction. You fill out the 13    form with the factors that the Court has asked you to look 14    at. And you return this verdict of, "We, the jury, find the 15    Defendant should suffer death" because it is an appropriate
16    penalty.

17            Thank you, Your Honor.

18            BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, it is now
19    time for y'all to retire and consider your 20    verdict. These instructions will be delivered to 21    you as well as the exhibits. Let me make sure all
22    those instructions are there.

23            JURY RETIRES TO CONSIDER SENTENCING VERDICT AT 24    12:51 P.M.

25            BY THE COURT: The Court will be in recess.

26            (COURT WAS CALLED BACK TO ORDER AT 2:10 P.M.
27    WITH THE COURT, ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT
28    PRESENT AND WITH THE COURT HAVING BEEN HANDED A
29    NOTE FROM THE JURY:)

1                   BY THE COURT: While they are scanning
2 everybody, they gave me this note.

3                   (Note from the jury was handed to Mr.
4 Lumumba.)

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you. (Pause) Okay.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: May I see it?

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, I'm sorry. You didn't
8 see it yet? I thought you had.

9                   BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

10                  (Note handed to Mr. Evans. Pause.)

11                  BY THE COURT: I intend to give them a written 12 instruction that says you should refer to the 13 instructions previously given by the Court. Any 14 objection to that?

15                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, what I would tell them
16 is life without parole is life without parole.

17                  BY THE COURT: I can't tell them. I can't, I
18 have got no--

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: --no authority?

20                  BY THE COURT: I have got no authority to tell
21 them.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, then--

23                  BY MR. FREELON: Bring them back out here to 24 explain?

25                  BY THE COURT: No, I can't do that. The only
26 way I can communicate with them is through a note.

27                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, what I would do is 28 refer to instruction number-- what is the 29 instruction that deals with that?

1 BY MR. EVANS: I don't think we can refer to
2 any certain instruction.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I'm talking about for the 4 second question. The second question says what to 5 do if they disagree; right?

6 BY THE COURT: Yeah. I don't think I can pick
7 out an instruction because I think, I mean I don't
8 think I could for them or for y'all, but I can
9 refer them back to all of the instructions.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

11 BY THE COURT: There is only six of them.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well--

13 BY THE COURT: And only one that deals with
14 that.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, I would refer
16 them to the instruction that deals with that. That 17 was what I-- but that is up to you. I mean that's 18 what our motion is.

19 BY MR. FREELON: Was that not something that 20 was explained when we opened, I mean when we voir
21 dired the jury about what life without parole
22 means?

23 BY THE COURT: Well, the instruction explains
24 it. I mean--

25 BY MR. FREELON: --that's true.

26 BY THE COURT: --if I could tell them
27 anything, I can't tell them anything but life
28 without parole, and I can't do that.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I was referring to the

1 instruction--

2 BY THE COURT: --the bottom part where if they
3 disagree. And there is a form for them-- all they
4 have got, if they disagree, all they have got to do
5 is say they disagree.

6 BY MR. EVANS: I think all the Court can do is 7 tell them that they have already been instructed
8 and they should follow the instructions of the 9 Court.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I think you can say
11 it's Instruction Number 1 that they should refer
12 to. That's what the question is. I think you can 13 say that.

14 BY MR. EVANS: I don't see how. I think--

15 BY THE COURT: --Well, let me ask you; in 16 regard to what it is and that instruction covers
17 all the options, do you have any objection to me
18 referring to it? If neither side objects, I don't 19 think it would -- it just refers them back to the 20 one--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --I don't have any objection to
22 it.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well--

25 BY THE COURT: --I can say, "You should refer 26 to Instruction"--, no, wait a minute. "You should 27 refer to Instruction Number, Sentence Instruction
28 Number 1."

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's what I was saying.

1 BY MR. EVANS: As long as the Defense waives
2 any objection, we have no--

3 BY THE COURT: --Well, they are asking for it.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. I understand that,
5 but I have run into this with the Supreme Court
6 before. Just because they ask for it doesn't mean
7 they are waiving any objections.

8 BY THE COURT: Well, I'm not going to grant it
9 unless they do waive objection to it.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me see Instruction
11 Number 1, or do they have it?

12 BY THE COURT: They have got it.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: They have got it.

14 BY THE COURT: There is no mystery in there.
15 I mean it gives them the three options.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, yeah, Instruction
17 number 1.

18 (Off the record briefly while the Court is 19 writing a note to the jury. State's Counsel spoke 20 out of the hearing of the Court Reporter.)

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I did.

22 BY THE COURT: Huh?

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Didn't I say I waived?

24 BY THE COURT: I took it that you did.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I did.

26 BY THE COURT: The Court rules that you did.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. All right.

28 BY THE COURT: All right. Here is what this
29 says. "You should refer to Sentencing Instruction

1                   number 1." Is there any objection by either side?

2                   BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

3                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: No objection.

4                   BY THE COURT: (To the Bailiff) You may
5 deliver that to the jury. Linda, you may file this 6 in the cause.

7                   (Note from the jury was filed in the court
8 file. Court was in recess.)

9                   (COURT WAS CALLED BACK TO ORDER AT 3:58 P.M.
10 AFTER THE JURY HAD KNOCKED AND REPORTED TO THE 11 BAILIFF THAT THEY HAD A VERDICT. WITH THE COURT,
12 ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT IN OPEN
13 COURT, THERE WAS THE FOLLOWING:)

14                  BY THE COURT: Y'all ready? Bring the jury
15 in. As before, the same instructions I had before;
16 I don't want any disturbances in the courtroom
17 regardless of what the verdict is.

18                  JURY ENTERS THE COURTROOM AT 4:00 P.M.

19                  BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, have you
20 reached a verdict?

21                  BY FOREPERSON, MS. LADNER: We have, Your
22 Honor.

23                  BY THE COURT: Would you hand the verdict to 24 the bailiff.

25                  (Verdict handed to the Court and then to the 26 Clerk.)

27                  BY THE COURT: Is this the verdict of all
28 twelve of you?

29                  BY SEVERAL JURORS: Yes, it is.

1                   BY THE COURT: All right, the Defendant will
2                   rise. Read the verdict. And read it from the--
3                   let me show you where to read it. You should read
4                   it from here all the way through there.

5                   BY THE CLERK: "We, the jury, unanimously find
6                   from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, that 7                   the following facts existed at the time of the 8                   commission of the capital murder charged: List or
9                   itemize all facts found, if any, from the list
10                  under Section A of this instruction which you
11                  unanimously agree exist in this case beyond a
12                  reasonable doubt. That Curtis Giovanni Flowers
13                  actually killed Derrick Stewart. That Curtis
14                  Giovanni Flowers intended the killing of Derrick
15                  Stewart take place. That Curtis Giovanni Flowers
16                  contemplated that lethal force would be employed.

17                  Next we, the jury, unanimously find that the
18                  aggravating circumstance of: List or itemize all 19                  of the aggravating circumstances presented in 20                  Section B of this instruction which you unanimously
21                  agree exist in this case beyond a reasonable
22                  doubt. The capital offense was committed for 23                  pecuniary gain during the course of an armed
24                  robbery. Curtis Giovanni Flowers knowingly created
25                  a great risk of death to many persons. Exist
26                  beyond a reasonable doubt and is" significant [sic]
27                  "to impose the death penalty and that there are"
28                  insignificant [sic] migrating [sic], immigrating
29                  [sic] "circumstances to outweigh the aggravating

1                   circumstances, and we further find unanimously that
2                   the defendant should suffer death."

3                   BY THE COURT: All right, and it's signed by 4                   the foreman of the jury?

5                   BY THE CLERK: Signed by the, signed by the 6                   foreman of the jury, Betty Ladner.

7                   BY THE COURT: All right, let me have the
8                   verdict back, please. Do you want the jury
9                   polled?

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

11                  BY THE COURT: All right. Sir, is this your
12                  verdict?

13                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

14                  BY THE COURT: Is it yours, ma'am?

15                  BY A JUROR: Yes.

16                  BY THE COURT: Is it yours, sir?

17                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

18                  BY THE COURT: Is it yours, ma'am?

19                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

20                  BY THE COURT: Is it yours, ma'am?

21                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

22                  BY THE COURT: Is it yours, ma'am?

23                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

24                  BY THE COURT: Yours, sir?

25                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

26                  BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

27                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

28                  BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

29                  BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

1                   BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

2                   BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

3                   BY THE COURT: Yours, sir?

4                   BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

5                   BY THE COURT: Yours, ma'am?

6                   BY A JUROR: Yes, sir.

7                   BY THE COURT: I find that the verdict is
8 unanimous. Pursuant to that verdict, Mr. Flowers,
9 I sentence you to-- the jury has sentenced you to 10 death by lethal injection. I set the execution
11 date at May the 15th, 1999. As you know, there is 12 an automatic appeal of this case, so that date
13 will, as soon as the appeal is filed, will go by 14 the wayside.

15                  All right. Ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to 16 let you return to the jury room for just a minute,
17 and I will be with you shortly. Court is 18 adjourned.

19                  PROCEEDINGS ON MARCH 31, 1999 WERE CONCLUDED.

1                   ON MAY 27, 1999, AT 11:00 A.M. COURT CONVENED IN
2                   KOSCIUSKO, MISSISSIPPI, FOR POST TRIAL MOTIONS IN CAUSE NUMBER
3                   B2401-98-00960 IN THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE CIRCUIT
4                   COURT OF HARRISON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.   PRESENT REPRESENTING
5                   THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI WERE HONORABLE DOUG EVANS, DISTRICT
6                   ATTORNEY, AND HONORABLE KEVIN HORAN, ASSISTANT DISTRICT
7                   ATTORNEY.   PRESENT REPRESENTING THE DEFENDANT WERE HONORABLE
8                   CHOKWE LUMUMBA AND HONORABLE HARVEY FREELON, AND HONORABLE JOHN
9                   GILMORE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, DURANT, MISSISSIPPI, WAS PRESENT.
10                  THE DEFENDANT WAS ALSO PRESENT.

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Are we prepared to proceed?

12                  BY THE COURT:   I am ready when y'all are.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Okay.   We need to call the case
14                  or something like that?

15                  BY THE COURT:   I will call it, yeah.   This is in 16                  the Circuit Court of First Judicial District of Harrison
17                  County, cause number B2401-98-00960, State of Mississippi
18                  versus Curtis Giovanni Flowers.   It is before the Court on 19                  a motion for a JNOV or in the alternative Motion for New 20                  Trial.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Okay.   One of the things, we 22                  had an opportunity to talk to colleague counsel and, Mr.
23                  Gilmore, and he was indicating that perhaps we can dispose 24                  of anything that has to do with him before we get on with 25                  the other motions.   What I would, and I'm going to try to 26                  proceed in that way so he doesn't have to be present for 27                  everything else.   One of the things I was going to ask the 28                  Court is if the Court didn't have a problem with it, and 29                  we consulted with my client on that.   He is here for any

1 kind of inquiry that the Court wants to put to him. We
2 would ask that we be appointed to represent him - his
3 family doesn't have any money; he is absolutely indigent;
4 there is no question about that; I think he has been in
5 jail long enough to be indigent - on the remaining two
6 cases as far as the trial cases.

7 We would also be requesting, and if necessary, we
8 will put this in a motion. At the same time we are going 9 to make a motion to withdraw from the case that we just 10 handled, other than these motions that we want to do right
11 now, and the reason for that is that we are fully prepared
12 to try the two remaining cases. My office, you know, I
13 mean in my opinion an appeal in a capital murder case is a
14 matter of specialty, and I don't believe that very many 15 attorneys are equipped to handle those and at the same
16 time be trying to try other capital murder cases. It is 17 something that attorneys do, but quite frankly, those of 18 us who are in the Bar and who discuss it at seminars and 19 elsewhere feel that it is a thing that should be 20 discouraged, and I certainly don't want to be party to it
21 myself. I believe that he deserves a lawyer that can give 22 this case a fresh look, a lot of time, exhaustive amount
23 of time actually, and I just don't believe that we are set
24 up to do that. And I don't think that any lawyer who is 25 at the same time preparing for this as a capital murder
26 case and perhaps some other ones would be in a position to 27 give his case that kind of a look.

28 BY THE COURT: Well, in light of the fact of 29 what y'all's representation to me at the, back when we

1           were in Tupelo was that you represented him for this trial
2           only and that you did not represent him on an appeal. In 3           light of that and in light of what the Supreme Court ruled
4           on the first case where Mr. Gilmore had a contract, a
5           written contract to that same extent, and they held that I
6           must appoint somebody on appeal, I will appoint somebody
7           to handle the appeal on this case. And I will grant you
8           the right to withdraw on this case in line with what the 9           Supreme Court has told me I have got to do.

10                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. And in the second part
11           of that motion I'm asking is that, and I think Mr. Gilmore
12           is willing to go along with that; I mean you can ask him,
13           but I would ask that we be appointed as the attorneys on 14           the two remaining trials.

15                   BY THE COURT: Okay, I will let you make a 16           written motion to that effect, and I will take that under 17           advisement. Okay.

18                   BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Your Honor, also--

19                   BY THE COURT: --But, no. I need to ask your 20           client a question. I think I have asked him before, and 21           maybe I did not understand it.

22                   Mr. Flowers, I don't remember back in Tupelo. Did
23           you tell me that it was your desire that Mr. Gilmore,
24           neither of the Mr. Gilmores, no longer represent you in 25           any case, in any of these cases?

26                   BY THE DEFENDANT, MR. FLOWERS: You talking
27           about the other cases that was awaiting trial?

28                   BY THE COURT: Okay, that's what I'm asking you.
29           Do you want them as your attorneys any more? Mr.

1 Gilmore?

2 BY THE DEFENDANT, MR. FLOWERS: No, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. In that case, Mr. Gilmore,
4 in line with that, then I'm going to sustain your Motion
5 to Withdraw on those two cases at this time.

6 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 BY THE COURT: On the appointment of counsel, I
8 will take that under advisement. He will have 9 representation, but I need for y'all to file a written
10 motion on it. Okay?

11 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Do I need to renew my 12 motion since it is already in writing?

13 BY THE COURT: It is already in writing, and I
14 take note of the fact that I think I would not allow you
15 to withdraw at that time because he would not have had 16 representation on these next two, on these two cases. I
17 now determine that if those are to go forward, he will
18 have to have appointed counsel, so--

19 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: Would you like me to 20 submit a written order?

21 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. You can submit an 22 order to that effect.

23 BY MR. JOHN GILMORE: May I be excused, Your
24 Honor?

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. You may.

26 (Mr. Gilmore leaves the courtroom.)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, and we will give you an 28 order-- I mean we will give you a motion on the issue of 29 assigning us to this case. I think there is case law that

1           would hold that where you have an attorney that is
2           familiar with the client's case and has actually
3           represented him in a similar or the same proceeding
4           before, that there is a preference in the law that that
5           attorney be appointed to stay with the client as opposed
6           to somebody fresh that knows nothing about the case. So
7           that would be the basis that we seek to be appointed to 8           these two remaining cases. As far as--

9                   BY THE COURT: --The only thing, let me say this 10           about that because you know what comes up always on 11           appeal. Whether it's you or Mr. Gilmore or anybody else,
12           there is generally a -- and I don't know who is going to 13           get appointed to do this appeal, but if they do like every 14           other one I ever messed with, they are going to cite
15           ineffective assistance of counsel. And if they do that,
16           that is going to put me in a terrible position about 17           appointing y'all for the trial. Y'all submit me the 18           motion, send me the case law, and I will be glad to look
19           at it.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. And we will give you an 21           affidavit from our client which will waive any conflicts
22           or any objections.

23                   BY MR. EVANS: I don't think that can be waived.

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, you can't--

25                   BY THE COURT: --He could waive ineffective
26           assistance, I guess, couldn't he?

27                   BY MR. EVANS: Yeah, if he wants to waive that,
28           we will accept that part.

29                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't know that he is

1           going to waive ineffective assistance in this case that we
2           just tried. But I think that he can-- well, we will give
3           you an affidavit which will state his position.

4                   BY THE COURT: Okay, that is fine.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We will give you an affidavit
6           that will state his position as considered. But in any 7           event, the--

8                   BY THE COURT: Oh, I need one other thing too.
9           One other thing does need to be done in that. He needs--
10          there probably is already something in the file, but I
11          think probably because of what I have just done on the 12          appeal, there needs to be a new pauper's oath and that 13          kind of stuff.

14                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: New what?

15                   BY THE COURT: New pauper's oath and whatever
16          you have got to do.

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Oh, okay.

18                   BY THE COURT: In forma pauper's appeal asking
19          the Court to authorize that the costs of the transcripts
20          and stuff be paid.

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that will work. That 22          will work. Okay, let me raise this here. Well, the other
23          thing that we want to do, Judge, in order to perfect our 24          record, we would like to have incorporated into the record
25          and into this file as a Court's exhibit associated with 26          the voir dire and the jury selection of this case all of 27          the questionnaires of jurors who were potential jurors as 28          well as jurors who were actually chosen on to the panel.
29          We would want that because we feel that that would-- there

1           were things in those questionnaires which we raised in our
2           challenges for cause.

3                   BY THE COURT: I think that is part of the
4           record.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: So all those are part of the
6           record?

7                   BY THE COURT: Yeah.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

9                   BY THE COURT: You should probably put that in 10          there when you designate the record to the clerk. You
11          should designate those as being part of the record.

12                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: But the clerk will have all of 13          those?

14                   BY THE COURT: I am assuming that she does.

15                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, sir. Maybe we 16          should call and make sure.

17                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I can represent to 18          the Court that I talked with Ms. Locke in Harrison
19          County. And she specifically told me that all the 20          questionnaires, even some of the questionnaires that were 21          not in the record, the Supreme Court had already called 22          her about putting in the record, so she was in the process
23          of doing that three weeks ago when I was down there.

24                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, and let me say this. I'm 25          getting ahead of myself. You are not going to be the 26          lawyer that designates the record, so you should 27          communicate that to whoever that lawyer is so that they 28          will know that. That is how it gets down there, not 29          through my order unless it was supplementing the record,

1           and I think that is a part of the record. So that just
2           needs to be in the designation when it is sent to the 3           Supreme Court.

4                       BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, I will make sure
5           we communicate that. I am sure he will talk to us, and we 6           will find-- as soon as we know who is appointed, we will 7           talk to him.

8           The other thing is the question of the motion that we 9           have. We made a Motion for a Judgment NOV. We want to 10          reincorporate by reference all the prior motions that we 11          have made in this case which would have disposed of the 12          case conclusively like the Motion for a Speedy Trial and 13          Motion for Double Jeopardy and various other pretrial
14          motions. We are not going to reargue those, but I am just 15          saying that that is reincorporated into our Motion for the 16          Judgment NOV. We also would reference the many arguments
17          we have made at the directed verdict stage as it related 18          to the reasons why this case should have been dismissed at 19          that point.

20          And we would focus at this time on two important
21          things. Number one is in totality in this case, you
22          actually have only two things that they could argue
23          looking at the case in the light most favorable to the 24          prosecution. One is the tiniest amount of the gunshot
25          residue that is ever available to anybody in order to make 26          a determination that it is gunshot residue. And secondly,
27          physically speaking, you have a print, a foot impression.
28          It is more properly called an impression as opposed to a
29          print. A, the residue is not associated with any gun in

1 particular. There is no proof that the gun in question
2 was the gun which actually caused the deaths in this
3 case. There are all kinds of ways that residue occurs on 4 people's hands, and in fact, the only person who they did
5 a test on for residue was our client.

6 In fact, I was watching "In the Heat of the Night"
7 just-- this is just coincidentally, and this was since the
8 time of this trial. And the exact argument that I made
9 during closing argument -- the Sheriff in that case was,
10 or the chief of police, I can't even remember what his 11 name is. It's a famous actor. I can't even think of his 12 name. He said exactly the same thing. They were talking
13 about doing a residue test on somebody. He said well, if 14 we do a residue test on everybody in town, probably 90
15 percent of them would come up with residue on their hands.
16 And that is probably true here too. I don't know if it is 17 quite still as high as 90 percent. I don't know if people
18 shoot guns that often any more, but it is pretty high. So
19 I think that-- and not only shooting guns, touching guns,
20 touching things that have been contaminated by guns. That 21 to me is not a conclusive type of evidence.

22 And then finally what you have is a print which could 23 have matched any more than over 600,000 shoes. We have 24 already had the argument. But even we don't know that the 25 person who left the print is the person who did the 26 shooting or who left the impression is the person who did
27 the shooting. All of these are piling inferences upon 28 inferences upon inferences. We think, and we objected to 29 the evidence that was entered in the attempt to establish

1           a motive, and we think that it was objectionable. But
2           number two, it is also inconclusive itself. It absolutely
3           doesn't even get close to establishing a serious motive in
4           this case.

5           And finally, the circumstantial evidence in 6           relationship to the sojourn of the Defendant allegedly on 7           this day in question is contaminated by inconsistent
8           testimony, contaminated by testimony which didn't even 9           arise until after the time in many instances that a reward
10          was offered or many months later for whatever the reason
11          for the delay was, and by the weakest of identifications
12          as far as Porky Collins is concerned. I don't think I
13          have ever seen a case that had a weaker identification
14          than the Porky Collins identification; not only in terms
15          of what comes out of his mouth, but the circumstances
16          surrounding the identification.

17          And then you have probably the strongest evidence in 18          the case is Katherine Snow's testimony which is supposed
19          to have our client standing next to a vehicle where a gun
20          may have been. She didn't see a gun. She doesn't know a
21          gun was there. The fellow who claims the gun was in there 22          at some point is the same fellow who lied about where the 23          gun came from, and he can't even say it was there because 24          he had come out two or three times prior to him parking
25          the car there and didn't see it there. I mean he didn't 26          look for it, but he didn't know whether it was there or 27          not. Nothing is done to exclude the possibility that 28          somebody else may have been in the car, may have taken the 29          gun from the car, or that somebody else, that the gun

1           never was there and that he was just lying on a couple of 2           occasions, not only the time that he has admitted to
3           lying, but other occasions. So all of that is there.

4           But not quibbling about interpretations of the 5           evidence but looking at the quantum of evidence and
6           actually the quality of evidence, it is our absolute view
7           that this case in no way justifies the verdict of the 8           jury, and it doesn't justify it on a capital murder case.
9           It doesn't justify it, you know, based upon the evidence
10          that the front of this-- it certainly doesn't justify it
11          on a robbery. The allegations of a robbery are absolutely 12          speculative. There is no chain of evidence or any kind of 13          demonstration from 10:00 in the morning when there is a
14          theory that the lady went to, went to the bank--

15                 BY MR. FREELON: No, Sam Jones.

16                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, from the time that Sam
17          Jones arrived at 10 o'clock until the time of 1 o'clock in 18          the afternoon or 2 o'clock when the evidence technicians,
19          there is no testimony at all what was happening with the 20          drawers or whether anybody went in or went out of them.
21          We also got, don't have any-- we have some things actually 22          that contradicts the question of robbery. There is an 23          allegation there first of all, the motive which is 24          supposed to be described for the Defendant would suggest
25          that it had nothing to do with a robbery. But secondly,
26          the situation with the jewelry that was left on people;
27          money was left in people's purses. Some money was left in 28          the cash register, although it was change, but it may have 29          only been change there to start off with, so we don't

1           really know. So we don't have enough evidence to say that
2           there was a robbery. We don't know that the money wasn't 3           taken out of the cash register after the incident was 4           completely over, after the people were already dead. In
5           fact, I notice in the newspaper articles a lot of them
6           were saying that the motive was not robbery and that the 7           authorities were saying the motive was not robbery
8           initially in the case.

9           So those are all things which I believe cut against
10          the whole robbery question. So without a robbery, you
11          don't have a capital murder. And even in this case given 12          the tenuous connection of the Defendant to the case where 13          you have to be reminded of Tyson and Edmund where they say
14          that a person, even if he is involved in the crime, has to 15          have a certain amount of participation, and if you focus
16          in upon the Mississippi statute, you would have to focus
17          right to the point where they say that you have to prove 18          that he either killed, intended to kill, anticipated the 19          use of lethal force, and one of those three things, as far
20          as this case is concerned, would have to be proven. That 21          was not proved. Even if someone could say that the chain
22          of people who all saw different clothing on the same day
23          of this man supposed to be going in that direction that 24          they talk about months later, if that was considered to be 25          conclusive, nobody puts him in the store. Nobody sees him
26          leaving the store.

27          The closest he is seen to the store, according to one
28          of the witnesses who was contradicted by at least three 29          other witnesses, her own family members as to what was

1           supposed to happen, was that he was 75 yards away at the
2           time she saw him. And that, and when Porky Collins'
3           testimony to look at, he sees him walking in a different
4           direction from the store. He is not going to the store.
5           He is going toward Coast to Coast. He sees somebody going
6           that way, a man that he got a brief glance at. So nobody
7           puts him in the store even in the best of the testimony.

8           So I think that you are not able to make these kinds
9           of conclusive assumptions and inferences on inferences,
10          you know, to put somebody to death. I think Edmund and 11          Tyson would tell you that. So I don't think there is 12          sufficient proof to show that anybody, this particular 13          person anticipated the use of any lethal force as far as 14          that he killed or attempted to kill.

15          So I think that in itself is fatal and puts to death
16          the legal attempt to put him to death. So I think that A,
17          we would challenge the conviction based on the evidence,
18          that it was insufficient. We specifically challenge the 19          robbery, and we specifically challenge that there was 20          sufficient showing in order to justify a death penalty.
21          So those are the things that we would put before the Court
22          at this time. Okay, those are the things we put before
23          the Court in this Motion for a NOV as well as a Motion for 24          New Trial. Those are our positions.

25                 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans.

26                 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the State is not
27          going to go back through all the evidence of the case.
28          The Court heard the case. The State would merely state
29          that we clearly proved that this Defendant was guilty.

1       The jury found that he was guilty. The jury found the
2       Edmund factors to be present, and the jury found the
3       aggravating factor to be present. The jury further found
4       that any mitigators did not outweigh the aggravating
5       factor, and they properly did so. The Court heard all the 6       evidence that we had in this case, and there was 7       substantial evidence to prove his guilt.

8               BY THE COURT: The Court now has, of course,
9       heard the evidence like everybody else. That evidence
10      presents a question of fact for the jury to decide, and 11      they resolved it, and I don't think that their verdict was 12      against the overwhelming weight of the evidence as the law
13      defines that. And so I find no merit to that ground.

14             In the other, there are six other grounds that the 15      Defendant has raised in his Motion for JNOV and in 16      alternative, Motion for New Trial. The Court has had this
17      motion for-- well, it was filed April 8th, so I got it
18      sometime thereafter. I have considered each of those
19      points raised. All of those points were raised at trial
20      by the Defendant. They were considered at trial by this 21      Court. And the Court having looked at this Motion and 22      reconsidered what he did at that time, finds that those,
23      the Court's actions at that time were not error and were
24      the correct rulings. And therefore, the Motion for JNOV
25      and in the alternative, Motion for New Trial is 26      overruled.

27             Mr. Evans and Mr. Horan, you can furnish me an order
28      to that effect.

29             BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

1                   BY THE COURT: And if y'all will furnish me
2 orders for the other things. Anything else?

3                   (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Where is the next trial
5 scheduled to take place right now?

6                   BY THE COURT: It's not yet-- well, I guess it
7 is still in Tupelo.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I mean what jurisdiction is it
9 in?

10                  BY THE COURT: It's in, the other two are still 11 in Tupelo.

12                  BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, I would like a
13 setting. As the Court well knows that after the last
14 trial, the time would be running against the State.

15                  BY THE COURT: Well, it's not going to be
16 running now because he has filed-- he has fired his lawyer
17 on those two cases. He has filed a motion to have new 18 counsel appointed to that, and that would toll that until 19 such time as he has a lawyer who could agree to a setting.

20                  BY MR. HORAN: Can I submit an order to that 21 effect?

22                  BY THE COURT: Sure. That's what the situation
23 is.

24                  BY MR. HORAN: That's all we have.

25                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: There was a selection given to 26 us in the mail of a case. Whose case was that? I saw the 27 file number, but I didn't associate--

28                  BY THE COURT: I'm sorry. What?

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I saw the file number, but I

1           didn't associate that with a deceased. There was a
2           selection, I think, in the mail.

3                   BY THE COURT: As to what?

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Which person, which case they
5           are going to try next.

6                   BY MR. EVANS: We haven't elected which one--

7                   BY MR. HORAN: --I did a notice, I think.

8                   BY THE COURT: I didn't pay, to be honest with 9           you, didn't pay any attention to that, so I don't know.

10                   BY MR. EVANS: As soon as he gets an attorney, 11           we will make an election which one we decide to go with 12           next.

13                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

14                   BY THE COURT: Okay, and I will-- I tell you
15           what; I will do that as soon as y'all get the orders to me
16           to--

17                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Okay, we are furnishing you
18           an order to withdraw as attorneys--

19                   BY THE COURT: --counsel in that case.

20                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. And then we will
21           furnish you with a motion to be appointed to this case.

22                   BY THE COURT: For the other two cases.

23                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, that's right.

24                   BY THE COURT: That's right. So--

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. That will work. Okay.

26                   BY THE COURT: Court is adjourned.
